junto, n [1 jūnto, 2 džāntōu] Variant of pro Body of confederates, intriguers, political faction, cabal

Jupiter, n [1 jūpiter, 2 džāpita] Lat Juppiter, fr Jū piter*, oogn a vocative djēu piter*, fr djēus*, 'deity', see deity, & piter*, 'father'. See father & father Cp Jove 1 (Roman mythol) Supreme deity, king of the gods and ruler of heaven, Jupiter Pluvius, name under which Jnptor was worshipped as god of rain, 2 archaic expletive By Jupiter 2 Largest planet of solar system jural, adj [1 jūral, 2 džāral] fr Lat jūr, stem of jūs, 'law, right'. See jus & -al 1 Pertaining to law, legal 2 Pertaining to moral obligation, right, duty

Jurassic, adj [1 jūrasik, 2 džūrasik] fr Fr Jurassique, fr Jura (Mts), on anal of havoc &c (of rocks &c) Of the geological character of the Jura Mountains, Jurassic period, one of the three divisions of the Mesozoic era, including the has and the oolites jurat, n [1 jūrat, 2 džūrat] fr Mod Lat jūrāt (us), fr Lat jūrāt (um), P P type of jūrāre, 'to swear', oogn w jūr (em), 'right, law, justice' (see jus), lit 'person under oath'. A Municipal officer in the Cinque Ports, 2 hie magistrate in Channel Islands judicial, adj [1 jūridikl, 2 džūridikl] fr Lat jūdicāle (us), 'judicial', fr jūr (em), 'right, law' (see jus), & -dīc (us), oogn w dīcere, 'to say'. See diction & -al Connected with, pertaining to, the administration of the law, judicial, legal jurisconsult, n [1 jūriskonsult, 2 džūriskonsult] fr Lat jūrisconsult (us), 'lawyer', fr jūris, gonit of jūs, 'law' (see jus), & consultus, P P of consulere, 'to consider, consult'. See consult One who can give authoritative opinions on legal points, jurist jurisdiction, n [1 jūredikshun, 2 džūredikshun] fr Lat jūrisdīctiō (em), 'judicial authority', fr jūris, gonit of jūs, 'law'. See jus & diction 1 Administration of justice 2 A Legal authority, right of exercising authority, 2 extent of authority of person, court of justice &c 3 District over which a person, court &c exercises authority jurisdictional, adj [1 jūredikshunl, 2 džūredikshunl] Pro & -al Connected with jurisdiction jurisprudence, n [1 jūrisprūdēns, 2 džūrisprūdēns] fr Lat jūrisprudentia, 'science of law', fr jūris, gonit of jūs, 'law'.

See jus & prudence Science and philosophy of law and of legal principles jurisprudent, adj & n [1 jūrisprūdēt, 2 džūrisprūdēt] fr Lat jūrisprudent (em), 'one skilled in the law', fr jūris, gonit of jus, & prudēt 1 adj Skilled in the law 2 n Jurist, student of law jurisprudential, adj [1 jūrisprūdēnsal, 2 džūrisprūdēnsal] Pro & -al Of, pertaining to, jurisprudence jurist, n [1 jūrist, 2 džūrist] fr Mod Lat jurista, 'jurist', fr jūr (is), gonit of jūs, 'law'. See jus & -ist One learned in the law, student of, writer on, law juristic(al), adj [1 jūristik (l), 2 džūristik (l)] Pro & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, jurists juristically, adv Pro & -ly In a juristic manner, legally juror, n [1 jūrōr, 2 džūrōr, džūrāre] fr O Fr juror, fr Lat jūrātor (em), 'one who swears', fr jūrāt (um), P P type of jūrāre, 'to swear', fr jūr, stem of jūs, 'law, right'. See jus & -or 1 Member of jury, jurymen 2 One who binds himself by an oath, op non juror jury, n [1 jūr, 2 džūr, džūrāre] fr O Fr jurē, 'oath, legal inquiry', fr Mod Lat jūrta, fom P P of Lat jūrāre, 'to swear'. See jurat 1 A Body of citizens summoned, and sworn to decide impartially on the facts of a case tried before a judge, and to give a verdict thereon, 2 similar body who decide on the cause of death at an inquest in a coroner's court 2 (fig) The whole body of the public who form and express an opinion on public matters the jury of public opinion jury-box, n Enclosed space where jury sit in a court of justice jurymen, n [1 jūrīman, 2 džūrīman] Member of jury, juror jury-mast, n Origin uncertain, possibly for ajury, fr O Fr ajurie, 'aid', fr Lat adjutare, 'to help'. See adjutant, it is not a shortened form of 'jury-mast'. Temporary mast erected in place of one broken &c jus, n [1 jus, 2 džūs] Lat jūs, 'law, right, equity'. O Lat jouis, fr jouros*, oogn w Sort yōt, 'safety', other cognates are doubtful. Law, right, equity, jus civile, civil law, jus divinum, divine right of kings, jus gentium, law of nations just (I), adj [1 just, 2 džāst] Fr juste, fr Lat jūst (us), 'just, upright, fair, equitable', fr Lat jūs, 'law, right' (see jus), perh oogn w O Slav istā, 'true' 1 (of person, conduct, action) Fair, right, equitable, upright 2 (of emotion, opinion &c) well-grounded, felt with good reason, having a sound basis just indignation &c 3 A Accorded, obtained, rightly, and according to justice, well-deserved, due, fairly earned just reward, deserts &c, 2 due, proper, fitting, to the right amount the payment is just just (II), adv, fr pro 1 Exactly, precisely just what I said, that is just right, just so 2 Hardly, barely, scarcely I just caught the train, only just enough. 3 A At that precise moment just then, he has just come, just at that moment, 2 a short time before, not long ago, Phr just now, (1) at this moment, (2) not long ago, (3) presently 4 (colloq) Quite, absolutely just perfect

just (III) See joust

justaco, n [1 jūstā, 2 džāstā] fr Lat justitia, 'justice', just (I) & -ice 1 Principle of rectitude and integrity of conduct in the dealings of men with each other, just conduct, fairness, equity, one of the cardinal virtues to treat a man with justice 2 Quality of being right, just, equitable, conformity with what is just, rightness, righteousness he complained with justice of his treatment 3 A The law, administration of the law as it affects rights and wrongs of persons, 2 punishment for crime inflicted by the law to bring a murderer to justice, Phr, specif, to administer justice, to punish an offender 4 Person appointed by authority to hold courts, try cases and administer justice, a (1) a judge of the Supreme Court, referred to as Mr Justice Jones &c; (2) a Lord of Appeal, referred to as Lord Justice X, 2 one holding a commission of the peace, a magistrate, also called Justice of the Peace See also eyre justiceship, n [1 jūstīshīp, 2 džāstīshīp] Pro & -ship Office, rank, term of office of justice justiciable, adj & n [1 jūstīshyabl, 2 džāstīshyabl] fr O Fr, fr justice (er), 'to bring to trial', fr Mod Lat justitiāre, fr justitia, 'justice'. See justice & -able 1 adj, Subject to jurisdiction justiciable offences &c 2 n Person subject to another's jurisdiction justiciar, n [1 jūstīshar, 2 džāstīshar] fr Mod Lat justitiār (us), 'officer of justice'. See next word Highest judicial officer in time of Normans and Early Plantagenets justiciary, n & adj [1 jūstīshyār, 2 džāstīshyār] fr Mod Lat justitiār (us), 'officer of justice', fr justitia, 'justice' & -ary 1 n A Officer, administrator, of justice, 2 justiciar 2 adj Of, pertaining to, administration of justice, judicial justifiability, n [1 jūstīfīabiliti, 2 džāstīfīabiliti] See next word & -ity State or quality of being justifiable justifiable, adj [1 jūstīfiabl, 2 džāstīfīabl] justify & -able That can be justified justifiably, adv Pro & -ly In a justifiable manner justification, n [1 jūstīfikāshun, 2 džāstīfikāshun] See justify & -ication 1 A Act of justifying, state of being justified, 2 specif (print) spaoing out of type 2 Something that justifies, plea, argument in favour of person or action, vindication justificative, justificatory, adj [1 jūstīfikātīv, 2 džāstīfikātīv, džāstīfikētor] See pro & -ive, -ory Having the power of justifying justifier, n [1 jūstīfier, 2 džāstīfiar] One who justifies, specif (print) man, or machine, that spaces out type justify, vb trans [1 jūstifi, 2 džāstīfiar] fr Fr justifier, fr L Lat justificare, 'to justify' just (I) & -ify 1 To prove, assert, to be just, vindicate, show to be in accordance with reason and fitness to justify one's action Phr to be justified in doing something, not in accordance with what is right and proper 2 To show a rational or moral sanction for, to exonerate, excuse I cannot justify his strange conduct to you 3 To set, arrange, in proper order, straighten &c specif (print) to justify a line of type, space it out properly jut, n & vb intrans [1 jut, 2 džūt] Variant of jet (III) 1 n Projection, piece, point, jutting out 2 vb To project, protrude, stick out, often jut out jute (I), n [1 jūt, 2 džūt] fr Bengali jhōta, fr Sort juta, oogn w jūta, 'braid of hair, tress'. Fibre of Indian plant, Cochorus, used for coarse canvas, rope &c

Jute (II), n OE Jole, Yte, Lat Jutia Ancient inhabitant of Jutland Member of one of the Germanic tribes invading Britain in 5th century

juvencence, n [1 jūvōnēns, 2 džūvōnēns] fr Lat juvencens (em), Pro Part of juvencere, 'to grow up to youth', fr stem jūen (is), 'young'. See juvenile & -once 1 State of being young, youth 2 State or process of growing up to youth, or of becoming young juvencenscent, adj [1 jūvōnēnscent, 2 džūvōnēnscent] See pro 1 Growing into a youth 2 Becoming young juvenile, adj & n [1 jūvōnēl, 2 džūvōnēl] fr Lat juvenilis (us), 'youthful', fr juven (is), 'young', & -ile See young & youth. 1 adj Young, youthful, of, pertaining to, suited to, characteristic of, youth. 2 n Young person, youth.

juvenilely, adv Preo & -ly In a juvenile manner juvenility, n [1 jūvəniliti, -liti, 2 džəvəniliti, -siliti] juvenile & -ity State or quality of being juvenile juxtapose, vb trans [1 jukstapóz, 2 džakstapóz], fr Lat. juxtā, 'next, close by', fr jugata*, adv fr superl of adj jugat*, 'closely connected', cogn w jug (um), 'yoke'. See jugate, for the second element see pose (in material and non material senses) To place side by side juxtaposition, n [1 jukstapozishun, 2 džakstapəzishun] Preo & -ition Throat of placing side by side, state of being juxtaposed.

K

K, [1 kə, 2 ke] The eleventh letter of the English alphabet, for use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary ka, n. [1 kah, 2 kə] (ancient Egyptian religion) The soul, represented on monuments by a bird

Kaaba, Caaba, n. [1 káħba, 2 káħba], also [1 káh-abab, 2 káħab] Arab ka'ba, 'building', fr ka'b, 'onbe', Shrine at Mecca, containing sacred 'black stone' to which Moslems make pilgrimage kaama, n. [1 káħma, 2 káħma] Native name of S African antelope, hartebeest kabala, kabbala, n See cabala

Kabyie, n [1 kabíí, 2 kabíí] Fr, fr Arab qabail, pl. of qabailah, 'tribe', a Member of Berber tribes in NE Algeria and Tunis, b dialect of Berber language spoken by Kabyies kaddish, n. [1 káħdish, 2 káħdish] Aramaic, 'holý' The doxology in Jewish ritual kadi, n. See cadí

Kaffir (I.), n [1 káfer, 2 káfa] Arab kafir, 'infidel', 1 a Member of a S African division of the Bantu race, esp one inhabiting the Transkei territory between Natal and Cape Colony, b name given generally by whites to all coloured people in S Africa 2 (pl) Kaffirs (Stock Exchange slang) S African mining shares

Kaffir (II.), adj, fr prec Of or pertaining to Kaffirs or their country, Kaffir-corn, kind of millet, Kaffir-date, kind of plum, (Stock Exchange) Kaffir-market, that dealing in S African mining shares kaftan, n See caftan

kagu, n. [1 káŋgót, 2 káŋgú] Native name of Crested bird found in New Caledonia kaid, n. [1 káid, 2 káid] N Afr variant of Arab kadi, 'cadí', q v Chief of a tribe or group of tribes in Morocco, Algeria, and Tunis kail, n See kale

kalmakam, n [1 kálmakam, 2 kálmakám] Turk. kálmakam, 'deputy' Title of military rank in Turkish and Egyptian armies, equivalent to lieutenant-colonel karnite, n [1 kárit, 2 karnit] Germ karnit, formed fr Gk karnos 'new', the base occurs in second syll of Lat (re)cent(-em), 'new, recent' See recent Compound of sulphates of magnesium and potassium, used as manure Karnozic, adj [1 kánozík, 2 karnozízik], fr Gk karnos, 'new', see prec, & Gk zōē, 'life', see zoo-, & -ic (geol.) Denoting a period or era which followed the Mesozoic to the present age, including the Tertiary and Quaternary eras

Kaiser, n [1 káizer, 2 káiza] Germ form of Caesar, q v Emperor of the old Holy Roman, the Austrian, and the German empires Until recently the word in English always referred to the German Emperor, the Kaiser kaka, n [1 káħkah, 2 káħka] Imitative Maori name New Zealand parrot kakapo, n [1 káħlahpó, 2 káħlápou] Maori Owl parrot of New Zealand.

kakemono, n [1 káħmónō, 2 káħmounō] Japanese A hanging picture, usually painted on silk and provided with a roller at lower end on which it can be rolled up kale, n. [1 kál, 2 keil] Scots variant of cole also found in sea kale 1 Species of cabbage with only leaves, cole, colewort 2. Broth made of cabbage or other vegetables kaleidophone, n. [1 kalídefon, 2 kalídefon] Mod. invention See next word & suffix -phone Instrument for making sound waves visible by reflection from a sound plate or bar kaleidoscope, n [1 kalídoskóp, 2 kalídoskoup] Mod word formed fr Gk kalí (Nos, 'beautiful' (see first element in calligraphy), eidos, 'shape, form' (see eidograph & ep idea), & suff -scope 1 Tube containing pieces of coloured glass and reflectors, showing, through an eyepiece, on being turned, constantly varying patterns 2 (fig) Any frequently changing scene the kaleidoscope of life, sun and cloud made the landscape a kaleidoscope of colour and pattern kaleidoscopic (al), adj +1 kalídoskópik (l), 2 kalídoskópik (l) Preo & -ic (& -al)

Resembling the patterns and colours of a kaleidoscope, constantly changing kalendar, n See calendar

kaleids, n See calends

kaleyard, kailyard, n [1 kályard, 2 léihád] Cabbage or kitchen garden, kailyard school, referring to writers of stories or sketches of lowland Scottish peasant life told in dialect

Kali, n [1 káħle, 2 káħl] Scrt, 'black' (Hindu mythol) Consort of Siva, as goddess of death kali, n [1 káħl, 2 káħl] Arab gali See alkali The glasswort or saltwort from which soda ash is obtained by burning kaligenous, adj [1 kalíjenus, 2 káħdzénas] Preo & suff -genous Producing or supplying alkalis kaliun, n [1 káħun, 2 káħlun] Formed fr kali (chem) The element potassium, whence its symbol K kalmia, n [1 káħmia, 2 káħmia] Formed fr name of Swed botanist, Kalm (bot) Genus of evergreen flowering N American shrubs

Kalmuck, Kalmuk, n [1 káħmuk, 2 káħmek] Tatar name 1 Member of various wandering Mongol tribes in Russia and N W China 2 Coarse woolly kind of cloth kalong, n [1 kálong, 2 kálong] Malay name (zool) Large fruit eating bat or flying fox

Kama, n [1 káħma, 2 káħma] Scrt, 'love', cogn w Lat cárus, 'dear', q v under charity (Hindu mythol) a The god of love, b sexual desire, sensual passion kame, n [1 kám, 2 kám] Scots & Nlun Engl variant of cumb (geol) High, narrow ridge of glacial gravel deposit, eskar kamptulicon, n [1 kamtúhlon, 2 kamtúhlikon] Trade name concocted fr Gk kamptos (q v under campus), 'bent, bending', oúlos, 'thick, fleshy' (q v under lanato), & suff -icon Early form of linoleum, now obs together with the material

kamsin, n See khamsein

Kanaka, n [1 kanaka, kanaka, 2 kanaka, kanaka] Hawaiian, 'man' General name for a native of South Sea Islands, esp one formerly shipped for forced or indentured labour to Australia

Kanarese, n [1 káħaréz, 2 káħaréz] a Member of a Dravidian race living in the districts of Kanara, in Bombay and Madras, India, b language spoken by the Kanarese kangaroo, n. [1 káŋgaró, 2 káŋgarú] Prob ancient Australian aboriginal name 1 A pouched (marsupial) ruminant mammal, genus Macropus & o, only found in or near Australia, with short, weak fore limbs, but long, powerful hind limbs, giving great leaping capacity, and a thick tail which acts as support when the animal stands erect 2 Speciouses a kangaroos, (Stock Exchange slang) Australian mining shares, b Kangaroo closure, a rule of procedure in House of Commons, which gives chairman of committee power of selecting for debate amendments on a bill and closing or jumping over others 3 (in compounds, esp bot and zool) Indicating some relation to or with the kangaroo Kangaroo acacia (thorn), shrubby, thorny plant used for hedges, kangaroo apple, plant and its edible fruit, found in Australia and New Zealand, kangaroo-beetle, bright-coloured beetle with long hind legs, kangaroo-dog, dog used for hunting kangaroos, kangaroo-grass, native Australian fodder grass, Kangaroo rat, a Australian marsupial, resembling a rat, b N American jumping rodent with cheek pouches kantar, cantar, n [1 kontar, 2 kántar], fr Arab qantar See quintal Egyptian weight, equivalent roughly to hundredweight

Kantian, adj [1 kántian, 2 kantian] Belonging to the philosophic system of Immanuel Kant Kantianism, n [1 kantionizm, 2 kantianizm] Preo & -ism The system of Kant's philosophy kaolin, n [1 káolin, 2 léialin] Through Fr kaoline, fr Chinese lao ling, 'high mountain', name of mountain wh was chief source of the material for the Chinese a China clay, forming the paste in manufacture of porcelain, used also for sizing paper, loading cheap textiles & o, b (chem) hydrous silicate of aluminum, formed by decomposition of felspar kapellmeister, n [1 kapelmíster, 2 kapélmíster] Germ, 'chapel master', kapelle, 'chapel', meister, 'master' a Director, conductor, composer, of music in the private chapel or at the court of a German ruling prince, b conductor of a choir or orchestra, esp contemptuously, as meaning an academic conductor or composer of music which will please his patron Phr Kapellmeister music, academic, old fashioned, or stereotyped music kapok, n [1 káħpok, 2 káħpok] Malay kapok, 'cotton tree' Soft cotton like fibre obtained from the seeds of the cotton tree, it is non absorbent and lighter than cork, and is used in life belts & c

Karaim, n [1 kárazim, 2 kárazim] See next word & -ism Doctrine or system of the Karaites

Karate, n [1 kárait, 2 kárait] fr Heb gara, 'to read' Member of Jewish heretical sect holding to literal meaning of the Scriptures, without Talmudic or other interpretation

Karlsbad plum, n [1 kárlzbád plum, 2 kárlzbád plám] Large preserved plum or prune Karlsbad salts, n Aparent salts obtained from the mineral springs of Karlsbad, town in Czechoslovakia (Bohemia) karma, n [1 káma, 2 káma] Scrt, 'deed, act', cp Scrt kármá, 'makes', cogn w Lith kurá, 'to build', & perh ultimately w Lat corpus (q v) An act considered in its causal relation to a person's fate or destiny, (in Buddhist philos) the sum of a man's acts, words, and deeds which decides his fate in each stage of existence, sometimes used as synonym of fate, destiny karoo, karroo, n [1 káro, 2 káru], fr Hottentot karusa, 'hard, dry', Waterless table land in S Africa, specif, the 'Great Karoo', the largest of such table lands in Cape Colony kaross, n [1 káros, 2 káros] S Afr word, etymol unknown Cloak of skin, with wool or fur left on, worn by S African natives karrī, n [1 kārī, 2 kārī] Native name An Australian tree, a species of eucalyptus, or blue gum, with hard timber kartell, n See cartel

karyo-, pref in comb, fr Gk káruon, 'nut, kernel', cogn w Lat carina, 'keel' See carreen Used to form biological terms relating to the nucleus of a cell karyoplasm, n [1 kárioplasm, 2 kárioplazem], fr prec & -plasm (biol) Nuclear protoplasm, as differentiated from cytoplasm, cell-plasm kata-, kat-, kath- See cata- katabolism, n [1 katabolizm, 2 katabelizam], fr Gk katabolē, lit 'throwing down', fr cata-, 'down', & -bol-, stem of ballen, 'to throw' See ballisto & -ism (biol and physiol) Process of obange in organic bodies by which more complex elements are broken down into simpler ones, destructive metabolism

Katherine-wheel, n See Catherine-wheel katydid, n [1 kátidid, 2 kettidid] Imitative of sound made by the insect Large green American grasshopper of several varieties kaurī, n [1 kaurī, 2 kaurī] Maori name New Zealand conifer valued for its hard timber and resin kauri-gum kava, n [1 káhva, 2 káva] Native Polynesian name Intoxicating drink of the South Sea Islands, made from pounded root of a shrubby pepper plant kavass, n [1 kává, 2 kavás] Turk qawúss, 'how-maker', Arab qaws, 'bow' Turkish military policeman, esp one serving as armed guard for foreign travellers kayak, n [1 kiak, 2 ká:iek] Eskimo Decked canoe used by Eskimo men, made of sealskin stretched on wooden frame, cp umiak kea, n [1 káa, 2 kété] Native Maori name New Zealand mountain parrot, destructive to sheep keck, vb intrans [1 kek, 2 kek] Imitative Toretch, heave, make sound as if vomiting keddah, n [1 kédá, 2 kedá] Malay, fr Arab qada, 'hole' Trap for wild elephants kedge (I), vb trans & intrans [1 kej, 2 kedz] Etymol doubtful, perh variant of cadge, 'to catch' a trans To move a ship by warping against an anchor dropped for that purpose, b intrans, (of the ship) to move by kedging kedge (II), n, fr prec Small anchor, properly kedge-anchor, dropped for warping a ship kedgerie, n [1 kéjéré, 2 kédzár] Hind luchri Anglo Indian breakfast dish of boiled rice, fish, and eggs keek, vb intrans [1 kák, 2 kik] Scots & Nthn Engl, cp LG kälen, Dn kyken, 'to peep' To peep, spy keeker, n [1 kéker, 2 kíke] Prec & -er (colloq) a Inquisitive person, inspector, b (pl) eyes, op peeper keeking, n [1 kéking, 2 kíkay] Act of spying or peeping keeking glass, looking-glass keel (I), n [1 kél, 2 kíel] Scand, fr ON kjólr, op Swed köl, Dan kjøl, Dn & Germ keel The OE cogn cēol wd prodnoe 'obeel' in Mod Engl The word is proh fr Aryan geul-*, 'a bulging, swelling, hollow thing', op Lat vola, fr gwola-*, 'hollow of the hand', op further, Gk gaúle, 'goblet', gaúlos, 'beehive', & ON kēla, 'a swelling' 1 a Lowest, basal timber or set of plates of a ship on which framework is built, b a ship, specul, flat-bottomed craft used on Tyne (This is probably direct, by late borrowing, from Dutch) Phrs to lay down a keel, start building a boat or ship, on an even keel, without movement to one side or the other, (fig) evenly, calmly 2 (bot and zool) Ridge-like projection, resembling the keel of a boat, in the structure of leaf or bird, op carinate keel (II), vb trans & intrans See prec To turn a ship over on one side for cleaning or repairing the bottom, keel over, to capsize keel (III), vb trans OE cēlan, fr earlier kēlan*, fr OE cōl See cool (obs) To keep cool or off the boil to keel the pot, keep it from boiling over keelage, n [1 kēlj, 2 kēljdz], fr keel (I) & -age Toll on ship entering port keeled, adj [1 kēld, 2 kēld] keel (I) & -ed Provided with, having, a keel keelhaul, vb trans [1 kēlhawl, 2 kēlhāl] keel (I) & haul, prob borrowed fr Du keelhaillen To drag a man from one side of a ship to the other under the keel, as a punishment, (fig) to rebuke or reprimand severely keelless, adj [1 kēlles, 2 kēlles] keel (I) & -less Without a keel keelson, kelson, n [1 kēlsun, kēlsun, 2 kēlsan, kēlsan], fr keel (I), the origin of second element is unknown in spite of various guesses Set of timbers or plates running parallel to and above the keel of a ship, fastening it by bolts to upper framework or flooring keen (I), n & vb trans & intrans [1 kēn, 2 kin] fr caone, 'wail, dirge' 1 n Hideous, dismal wailing or howling practised in Ireland among the humbler classes in token of grief, at funerals, and on hearing news of a death or other calamity 2 vb To set up a keen (for) they keened the corpse tonight, the women were keening keen (II), adj OE cēn(e), 'hold, wise', ME kēne & 'sharp; bold', fr Gmc kēn-ga*, op OHG chuon, prob an extension of Aryan gēn-* & 'to know', q v under gnosis, can (I), & ken (I) The concrete meaning in Mod Engl is derivative 1 a (of points and edges) Sharp, capable of cutting or piercing a keen arrow, spear, sword knife & c, a knife with a keen edge, b (fig, of other things) producing effects and sensations resembling cutting or piercing, painfully acute, penetrating a keen east wind, a keen frost, a keen hunger 2 (of physical, bodily senses) Acute, very sensitive keen sight, hearing & c 3 a (of the mental faculties) Penetrating, incisive, acute a keen intelligence, wit, understanding, sense of humour & c, b (of mental activities) vigorously, energetically, pursued a keen mental struggle, keen intellectual exertion, c (of emotions) strongly felt, intense keen sorrow, anguish, delight, pleasure, disappointment & c 4 (of other non-material things) a Rapid, sharp, penetrating a keen glance, b strongly, vigorously, contested; proceeding from simulated, powerful feelings a keen contest fight, competition, bargain & c, c designed to probe and try, shrewd, searching a keen cross-examination 5 (of persons and their character and disposition) a Eager, zealous, animated, spurred, filled with healthy spirit of emulation, desirous to do or be a keen man of business, athlete, 'he takes no interest in anything, I wish he were keener, b wishful, desirous (followed by inf) keen to go abroad, keen to see one's friends Phr keen on, (i) anxious, desirous, eager for, ambitious of keen on promotion, on passing an examination, (ii) fond of, delighting in I'm not very keen on strawberries, keen on hunting, cricket & c, (iii) zealous in prosecution of keen on one's work keener, n [1 kéor, 2 kina], fr keen (I) & -er Person who keeps at Irish funerals & c, often a paid mourner keep (I), vb trans & intrans [1 kēp, 2 kíp] OE cēpan, ME kēpe(n), etymol unknown (gen senses) To retain, preserve A trans 1 a (of physical action) To retain in one's hold or grasp keep that stick in your hand, Phr to keep hold of, b (of mental action) to retain in the mind, remember to keep in mind 2 a To retain in one's possession, care, guardianship you may keep the book for a month, b to retain as a permanent possession, constitute oneself, or become, the owner of since you have found a watch you may as well keep it, to keep something that doesn't belong to one; what I have won fairly I intend to keep, c to preserve, take care of, not to discard or throw away to keep old letters, one's old clothes & c Phr to keep one's temper, not to get angry 3 A To hold, maintain, continue to hold, in a certain position or relation to keep one's hands in one's pockets, to keep one's eyes fixed on a person's face, to keep a revolver in one's pocket, to keep things separate, to keep persons apart, Phrs to keep oneself to oneself, live apart from, refuse to associate with, one's neighbours, to keep one's eye on, look after thoroughly and carefully, to keep one's hand, eye, in, to preserve some art, form of dexterity & c, by practice, b to preserve in a certain condition to keep meat fresh by refrigeration, to keep a house in a state of repair, to keep a razor sharp, Phrs to keep one's head cool, remain calm, not to get flustered, to keep something going, in working order as an effective concern, to keep (a person) going, (i) preserve his life, (ii) assist him financially, to keep a stiff face, not to allow one's expression to alter, not to smile, also to keep one's, my, countenance, preserve one's gravity 4 A To maintain at one's own cost, to support to keep a wife and family, b speak, to maintain, retain, under one's direction, at one's orders or disposal to keep a butler, houseful of servants, to keep a hunter, dog, motor car & c 5 To manage, direct, run to keep a shop, public-house, keep a school, to keep house, keep great state 6 A To preserve, adhere to, be faithful to to keep faith with, keep one's word, promise, b to obey, observe, to keep the law, the rules 7 To honour by special observances, celebrate to keep Christmas, one's birthday, keep holy the Sabbath day 8 A To guard, inviolate, defend to keep the road, a town & c against the enemy, b to withhold, refuse to give up or communicate, to conceal (things from or to persons) to keep knives away from children, you are keeping something from me, Phr to keep things, news & c to oneself, retain for one's own use, not to divulge, c to prevent access of persons or things; prevent person from doing something to keep a child away from the fire, to keep a person from knowing too much, from hurting himself & c B intrans 1 To be and remain in a certain condition, a (physical) how are you keeping?, to keep well, remain in good health, the weather keeps fine, the kettle's keeping hot on the hob, to keep cool, (i) not get hot, (ii) not get flustered, keep quiet, remain silent or still, b (of mental states) to keep cheerful, happy Phr to keep to one self, remain solitary, not to mix in society 2 Specif, to remain in a sound condition, to be free from taint, putrescence, sourness & c mutton doesn't keep this weather, eggs will keep for months in water-glass Phr that news will keep, can be told later 3 To remain in a certain place, to stay to keep at home, keep indoors & c C Followed by preposition or adverb Keep at, trans & intrans 1 trans, to compel to remain at, stick to, work keep people at their job, we were kept at it the whole day, keep at it, stick to, persist in, what one is doing, 2 intrans, a to pester constantly with entreaties, complaints & c they kept at me with their appeals for subscriptions, for payment of income tax & c, b to stick to, pursue diligently to keep (hard) at work Keep down, trans & intrans 1 trans, a to suppress by physical means keep down revolt, b to suppress, master, overcome (feelings & c) keep down one's anger, 2 intrans, to refrain from rising or jumping up, remain sitting or lying down Keep in, trans a to restrain to keep in one's feelings, b to compel to stay in a house & c the doctor kept me in for a week, Phr to be kept in (of schoolboy), to suffer detention as a punishment Keep on, trans & intrans 1 trans, a to retain something on one's person to keep on one's overcoat, to keep one's hat on, keep all one's clothes on, b retain a person in particular office & c keep on one's cool, keep him on at his old job, to continue to follow some particular occupation I'm sick of my work, but I still keep on, Phrs keep on (followed by Pres Part), repeat an action, do a thing continuously, or at repeated short intervals. keep on blowing one's nose, keep on cold ny Keep on at, intrans., (colloq.) to upbraid continuously, to nag. Keep out, trans. & intrans. 1 trans. (L) to exclude, shut out keep out undesirable aliens, foreign foodstuffs, &c., (n.) (fig) to restrain from to keep children out of mischief, 2 intrans. (fig) to remain outside, not be mixed up in, or concerned with keep out of quarrels, intrigues &c Keep up, trans & intrans 1 trans. a to maintain keep up a large establishment, b to continue a line of action keep up an attack, c to preserve, keep up appearances, keep up one's spirits, Phr to keep one's end up, hold one's own, 2 intrans. to show fortitude, maintain dignified and calm bearing in the face of fatigue, anxiety, adversity &c in spite of the cold they kept up wonderfully keep (II), n., fr prec 1 Central, most strongly fortified part of a castle, donjon 2 That which supports or maintains a person or animal, a food, sustenance, cost of living to earn one's keep, do enough work to be worth employment, pigs now are hardly worth their keep, do not pay the cost of keeping them, b specif. fodder &c stored for cattle or horses &c the late grass will make some useful keep for the winter 3 (colloq.) In Phr for keeps, permanently keeper, n. [1 képer, 2 kipe], fr keep (I) & -er One who keeps, guards &c. (in various senses) 1 (in gen sense) Guardian, protector, one in charge of, or responsible for, another 'Am I my brother's keeper?', specif. a attendant in charge of lunatic, b one who protects preserves against poachers, a game-keeper (usually with defining term prefixed, see 3 below), c (at Etou Collogo) title of captain of various games, as keeper of the field, of the fires, of the raquets &c 2 Title of holder of various offices, now mainly historical or obsolete - Lord Keeper, is of the Great Seal, now the Lord Chancellor, Keeper of Privy Purse, petty bag &c., Keeper of Crown Jewels, official at Tower of London, Keeper of Printed Books &c (at British Museum &c) Phr Keeper of the King's Conscience, the Lord Chancellor, formerly the Lord Keeper, as responsible for the King's acts of State 3 (n compounds) a Of one who guards, watches, attends to special duty &c as game, lighthouse, park-keeper &c, time-keeper, official who records the time at races, in boxing &c, b of one who manages, runs shop, business &c shopkeeper, innkeeper &c., c (games) one who protects, guards &c (as at association football) goal keeper, (at cricket) wicket-keeper & Ring worn on finger above another, esp a wedding ring, to prevent slipping off (also attrib) keeper ring keepership, n. [1 képersap, 2 kipešp] Prec. & -ship Office, function, of a keeper keeping, n. [1 képing; 2 kipeŋ], vbl. n fr keep (I) & -ing 1 Act of retaining, holding, preserving &c. Phr finding is keeping, indicating the illegal idea that if one finds or picks up an object, dropped, lost, or mislaid, one has the right to retain it in one's possession. 2 Guardianship, care, protection, custody to have valuables in safe keeping, we are all safe in God's keeping 3 Ir keep -ing, a congruity, consistency, agreement, harmony - his acts are not in keeping with his promises b suitability, commensurability your expenses should be in keeping with your income keepsake n. [1 képeik, 2 kipeoik] fr keep (I) & sake, a late word in Engl Object kept or retained for the sake or memory of or association with another, memento kef u See keef

keg n. [1 leg, 2 leg] Scand. cp keel L 791 Swed. & Norw Lagge Small barrel or cask kelp n. [1 kelp, 2 kelp] M.E. culp etymol unknown. Large kind of brown seaweed, the burnt ashes of seaweed from which iodine is extracted.

kelp'se kelpy, n. [1 kelp, 2 kelp]. Etymol.

doubtful Skeat suggests connexion w Gael culpach, 'heifer, colt' a (in Scots folklore) Water sprite, in form of a horse, which drowns or foretells death by drowning, b (gen.) a grotesque sprite Kelson, n See Keelson Kelt (I), n. See Celt (I) kelt (II), n. [1 kelt, 2 kelt] Scots, etymol unknown Salmon or sea trout in bad condition after spawning, one which has not yet reached the sea kemp, n. [1 kemp, 2 kemp] Scand. cp O.N. kampr, 'beard' Coarse hair or wool, esp pl kempa, coarse fibres picked out as not fit for felting or dyeing

ken (I), vb. trans [1 len, 2 ken] O.E. cennan, 'declare, make known', fr lannjan*, a form still surviving in Goth in sense, 'to make known', O.S. lennian, O.H.G. -chernan &c, 'to know', O.N. Lenna, 'inform, get to know' From same base as can (I), fr Aryan base ǵen-*, ǵn-, ǵnā-* &c, 'to know', whence also Lat nōscere, 'to know', for ǵnōscere*, ǵnārus, 'knowing, acquainted with', ignōrāre, 'not to know' (see ignore), Gk. gnōōs, 'known', gnōōsis, 'knowledge, wisdom' See gnosis, cp also Sert jānāmi, 'I know', O Slav znati, 'to know' ken (II) is fr same base (obs or provino) To recognize, know, be acquainted with.

ken (II), n. See prec A Range of bodily vision - 'like some watcher of the skies, When a new planet swims into his ken' (Keats), b range of knowledge or intelligence, esp in Phr beyond, outside, one's ken ken (III), n Prob abbr of kennel (I) (slang) Thief's den or hiding place kennel (I), u [1 kēni, 2 kēni] M.E. kenil, prob fr A.-Fr. form of O Fr chenil, fr O Fr chen, Mod. Fr chien, 'dog', Lat canis See canine 1 a Hut or shelter for a dog, lair or refuge of an animal, Phr to go to kennel, to go into hiding, take refuge, b the kennels, headquarters of a Hunt, set of kennels where the hounds are kept 2 Poor, mean hovel or dwelling kennel (II), vb trans & intrans See prec 1 trans. To put or keep (dog) in kennel, bring hounds back to kennels. 2 intrans To remain, live, in a kennel.

kennel (III), u M.E. canel, cannel, doublet of channel, & cp canal. Gutter, open drain or sewer kenosis n. [1 kēnoōsis, 2 kīnoōsis] Gk. kenōsis, lit 'emptying', fr lenōs, 'empty', etymol obscure. See cenotaph & -osis (theol) Action of the Saviour in humbling Himself by becoming Man and accepting human limitations

Kentish, adj [1 kēntish, 2 kēnti] Of, or belonging to, the county of Kent, England Kentish fire, continued round of applause or dissent at a public meeting Kentish man, native of the county other than one born or living east of the river Medway who is a 'Man of Kent' Kentish rag, kind of hard building stone kentledge, n. [1 kēntle, 2 kēntlɪdz] Etymol unknown Permanent ballast of pig iron in a ship cephalic, adj See cephalic

kepi, u [1 kēpi, 2 kēpi] Fr lépi, fr S Germ kēppi, dimin of kappe, 'cap', q v Typical form of peaked cap worn by French soldiers with a flat top sloping forward kept, vb [1 kept 2 kept] M.E. lepte, lept, Pret. & P.P. of keep (I)

Keramic, adj See ceramic

kerat(o)-, cerat(o)-, pref Cartilaginous, horny, used to form compounds. See next word keratin, u [1 kēratin, 2 kēratin], fr Gk kerat, stem of kēras, 'a horn', cogn. w Sert. kras, 'head', & w different formative element, Lat. cornu, 'horn' See corn (ou foot), & further under cerebral, corvine, & horn. (chem) Basic substance of horns, nails, feathers, and hair in animals keratitis n. [1 kēratitis, 2 kēratitis]. See kerat(o)- & -itis (pathol) Inflammation of the cornea of the eye.

keratose, u & adj [1 kēratōs, 2 kēratōs]. See kerat(o)- & -ose. (chem) a n Horny substance in sponges; b adj, horny kerb, n. [1 kērh, 2 kāh] Variant spelling of curb (I) The stone edging, kerbstone, of a pavement in a street. Par kerbstone broker, outside broker who is not a member of the Stock Exchange kerchief, n. [1 kērchif, 2 kātʃif] M.E. kercheif, covercheif, fr O Fr covercheif, O Fr covrir, Mod. Fr couvrir, see cover, & chef, 'chief, head', see chief a Square piece of cloth, lace or other material worn as a covering for the head by women, b wrap, scarf, for the neck.

kerf, n. [1 kērf, 2 kāf] O.E. cyrf, 'a cutting', fr kurf*, fr base kurf*, reduced grade of O.E. ceorfan, 'to cut' See carve The wedge shaped notch made by an axe or saw in that side of tree stem in the direction in which it is to be felled kermes, n. [1 kērmēz, 2 kāmiz] Arab qirmiz, See crimson 1 a Dried bodies of a genus of insects, yielding a crimson dye, b crimson dye obtained from these insects 2 Bright-red mineral, a compound of antimony kermess, -mis, u [1 kērmes, mis, 2 kāmēs, mis] Du. fr kerkmes, 'church mass' A fair held on the feast day of the patron saint of a church in Holland, Flanders &c kern, kerne, n. [1 kērn, 2 kān] Irish ceatharn, 'troop of soldiers', also 'a soldier' Cp cateran a Light-armed soldier of ancient Irish military levies, b wild Irish peasant kernal, n. [1 kērn, 2 kān(ə)] O.E. cernel, the SE dual type of a word wh in WS appears as cyrnel, 'kernal, seed, hard swelling', fr earlier kurnil*, fr kurn*, same base as O.E. corn, 'grain' &c, fr kurna* See corn (I) & -el 1 The germinating part or seed of a fruit, esp one contained in a fruit-stone 2 (fig) The essential, vital, central part, aspect, element of a problem, subject, controversy &c, gust 3 a (obs or provino) Hard swelling in glands of neck, b the centre, nucleus, of an abscess or other inflammatory swelling kerosene, n. [1 kērosēn, 2 kērosin] Mod word, formed fr Gk kēros, 'wax' See cere Illuminating oil, originally distilled from waxy product of bituminous coal or shale, now obtained from petroleum.

Kerry, n. [1 kēri, 2 kēri], fr Co Kerry in Ireland. 1 Small breed of black cattle, good for milking, also Kerry cow 2 Breed of large Irish ternier, also Kerry blue or blue Kerry

Kersey, n. [1 kērz, 2 kāzi], fr Kersey, in Suffolk, Engl, formerly seat of cloth-making Coarse, ribbed, woollen cloth kerseymere, n. [1 kēzēmēr, 2 kīzēmē] Popular form of cashmere, earlier casmere, doubtless influenced by prec word Fine, twilled, smooth faced cloth, cashmere, kerseymere, tight fitting breeches or trousers made of this cloth kestrel, n. [1 kēstrel, 2 kēstrel] Earlier castrel for casrel, casarel, fr O Fr guercerelle, Mod Fr crecerelle, dimin of carcelle*, cp Mod Fr sarcelle, 'teal', name perh imitative of bird's note Small, migratory falcon or hawk, the wind hover ketch, n. [1 kēch, 2 kēʃ] Earlier cache, catch, fr catch, 'to take, chase'. Small sailing vessel with fore and aft rigged mast and small mizzen mast, Letch bomb or bomb Letch similar vessel, used to carry mortars for throwing bombs in early navy.

ketchup, u [1 kēchup, 2 kēʃap] Also earlier catchup, catsup, fr Malay lêchup, 'sauce', prob fr Chinese le-tsap, 'pickled fish sauce' Sauce made from mushrooms, tomatoes &c, usually with name of chief ingredient prefixed, as mushroom ketchup &c ketone, n. [1 kēton, 2 kīton] (chem) Name of group of organic compounds of kimono, n [1 kumónō, 2. kímónou] Japanese a loose robe, with short, very wide sleeves, the typical national garment of both sexes in Japan, b dressing-gown of this type, as adopted by Western peoples kin, n [1 kún, 2 kún] OE cynn, 'kind, species, race, family', ME cunr(e), kinne(e) &c, fr Gmc kynja*, W Gmc kunnj*, op O.H.G kunni, O.N kynn, Goth kunni, fr Aryan base g'en*, 'to produce' &c, whence Lat genus, 'birth, origin, descent'. See genus, see also kind (I) & kinth 1 a family, stock, group of persons connected by blood, or by descent from a common ancestor, b (collectively) relatives, kindred, relationship, connexion by blood or marriage, Phrs kin to, (i) related by blood &c, (ii) alike, akin (q.v.), of good kin, of good birth, near of kin, closely related or similar to, next of kin, nearest relative(s) by blood, more kin than kind, though related to, or of kin with, yet not kindly or friendly 2 Identity of essential character and constituents as belonging to same order in nature a diamond is of the same kin as coal kin-, pref fr Gk kinein, 'to move, set in motion, set going' &c, fr base kt-, as in Gk kinēn, 'to go', cogn w Lat citēre, 'to move, shake, put in motion', citus, 'rapid, swift', op also citāre, 'to put in motion, stimulate, to call, summon' (see cite), further cognates are Goth hailan, 'command', OE hālan See light & best Prefix used in a large number of words from Greek, some borrowed from Greek itself, as kinetics, others being modern scientific concoctions from Greek elements, as kinæsthesia. The force of the prefix is 'moving, movement'

-kin, dimin suff Prob fr Dn -lyn, -len, op Gor -chen, as in modchen, 'girl, little maid'. Many words w this termination are direct borrowings fr Dn, as firkin, kilderkin, mannikin, lambkin seems an exception The suff appears also in dimin & familiar modifications of names, e.g. Simkin, fr Simon or Samuel, Jenkin, fr John kinæsthesia, kinæsthesis, n [1 kinosthēsis, 2 kinēstēsis], fr kin- & Gk isthēsis, 'perception' See æsthetic (psychol) Perception of muscular movement or effort, sum or total of such perceptions as affecting will to perform them kinæsthetic, kinæsthotic, adj [1 kinēsthetik, 2 kinēstētik] kun- & æsthotic Pertaining to kinæsthesia or perception of muscular movement kinæsthetic image, memory, sensation &c kinchin, n [1 kinohin, 2 kintjūn] Possibly fr Germ kindchen, 'little child', fr kind, 'child' & dimin -chen, op -kin (old thieves' slang) Child, esp in Phr kinchin lay, stealing from a child in the streets kincoob, n [1 kingkob, 2 kinkob] Pons kinlhab East Indian brocade, embroidered with gold or silver thread kind (I), n [1 kind, 2 kind] OE (ge)kynd, 'kind, species, nature, quality, offspring', fr Gmc kinda-, fr Aryan type g'nti-, exactly cogn w Lat gens, stem of gens, 'family, nation, race, breed' (see gentile) From Aryan base g'en*, 'to produce' (see generate & genus), fr this base is also derived Lat natura for g'natura* (see nature), other Engl cognates are kin & kinth 1 a (archaic) Natural group of animals or plants, closely related by descent, and considered as derived from a common origin, breed, species, genus 'tree yielding fruit after his kind', to be fond of one's kind, i.e. of other human beings, b (in popular usage) sort, class, variety the wrong kind of umbrella, the b st kind of coat for the country, a queer kind of person, apples of several kinds, (also colloq) what kind of man is he?, for of what kind is this man, he is the kind of man who, for he is a man of the kind who, (familiar) these kind of people &c Various Phrs (I won't stand this kind of thing, disapprovingly or contemptuously, of conduct, circumstances &c, this is the kind of thing I want, something like but not exactly what I want, a kind of gentleman, gentleman of a kind = a bad kind, nothing of the kind, form of emphatic denial, to pay back, answer, in kind, (fig) to behave to, reply to, a person according to the treatment &c he has accorded, kind of, (with advbl force) I kind of thought this would happen, half expected it 2 Essential character, nature, a esp in Phr to differ in degree but not in kind, b specif (ecoles) one of the elements, bread or wine, in the Eucharist to receive in both kinds 3 Natural products, fruits of labour, now only in Phr to pay in kind, i.e. in goods instead of in money kind (II), adj OE (ge)kynde, 'innate, natural, suitable', lit 'according to nature' See pre 1 a (of persons) Possessing, exhibiting, natural feelings, hence, benevolent, affectionate, tender, gentle, considerate, obliging, indulgent a kind mother, friend, heart &c, b (of actions, conduct, utterances &c) expressing kindness of feeling kind deeds, words, looks, in various polite Phrs you are very kind, it is so kind of you to call, in letters &c as form of courteous address, often of no real significance with kind regards, your kind attention will oblige, ironically be kind enough to hold your tongue 2 Easy to handle, tractable this stone is kind for dressing, horse kind in harness kindergarten, n [1 kindergāten, 2 kindergāt(e)n] Mod. Germ, lit 'garden of children', kinden, 'children', pl of kind, cogn w kind (I), & garten, 'garden', q.v. School for very young children conducted on a system invented by Froebel, the fundamental idea of which is to educate mind and body in such a way as to arouse interest instead of fatigue or boredom, the instruction consists of a series of highly organized games accompanied by songs and actions, of the making of simple objects out of modelling clay &c kind-hearted, adj [1 kind harted, 2 kind hārtid] Having a kind heart, humane, charitable, sympathetic kind-heartedly, adv Preo. & -ly. In a kind-hearted manner kind-heartedness, n See pre & -ness Quality of being kind-hearted kindle, vb trans & intrans [1 kindl, 2 kindl] Sound, prob fr O.N kynda, 'to light a fire', & -le A trans 1 A to set fire to, light, start (a fire), cause to ignite to kindle a fire, b (fig) to light up, make to glow the setting sun kindled the sky 2 (fig) To inflame, rouse, provoke passion, enthusiasm &c to kindle an audience, the interest of an audience, by one's words B intrans 1 A To take, catch, fire, to burn, light up, glow, grow warm the fire is kindling at last, also kindle up, b (fig) his face kindled, grew warm, blushed, eyes kindled, grew bright, flushed, day kindles in the east 2 (fig) To be roused, excited, to grow warm, flame up to kindle of an insult kindler, n [1 kindler, 2 kindle] Preo & -er One who, that which, kindles, specif, a fire-lighter, kindling-wood kindless, adj [1 kindles, 2 kindlis], fr kind (II) & -less (obs or poet) Not kind or gentle, unkind, cruel, without pity or mercy kindliness, n [1 kindliness, 2 kindlinr] Kindly & -ness a Quality, state, of being kind, kindness, benevolence, b a kind act or deed kindling, n [1 kindling; 2 kindly] kindle & -ing 1 Act of setting fire to or of taking fire at 2 Material such as small pieces of wood &c used for lighting a fire kindling-wood, n Kindling kindly (I), adj [1 kindl, 2 kindli] OE (ge)kyndlic, 'natural' See kind (I) & -ly 1 (archaic) Pertaining to, resulting from, the processes of nature; natural the kindly processes of nature; natural the kindly fruits of the earth 2 Kind, benevolent, considerate a kindly heart, expressing benevolence a kindly smile, act &c kindly (II), adv OE (ge)kyndlice, 'naturally' See kind (II) & -ly 1 a In a kind manner to speak kindly, b (in polite formulae) would you kindly tell me the time?, kindly forward all letters, also ironically kindly behave properly 2 Naturally, easily to take kindly to one's new duties kindness, n [1 kindnes, 2 kind(d)nis] kind (II) & -ness 1 (quality of mind) Goodness, benevolence, gentleness, amability kindness of heart Phr to have a kindness for (a person), to be fond of, have an affection for him 2 A kind act, deed of benevolence, an obliging action to do a personal kindness, it would be a great kindness to call upon the bereaved family kindred (I), n [1 kindred, 2 kindrd] ME kinrede(n), formed fr OE cynn, 'family' &c (see kin), & suff -iden, indicating condition &c. (op ready) 1 a Blood relationship, also b (loosely) relationship, connexion by marriage 2 Group of persons related through descent from common ancestor, family, clan 3 (coll, with pl vb) Whole group of one's blood relations and family connexions, family to which one belongs kindred (II), adj, fr pre. 1 Belonging to same family, related in blood kindred races, tribes &c More usually 2 a (in spiritual sense) congenial, having similar character, possessing affinity in disposition &c kindred souls, natures, spirits, b related by origin from common source, bearing more or less close resemblance, showing similarity of structure, character &c kindred languages, institutions &c kindredship, n [1 kindredship, 2 kindrd-ship] kindred (I) & -ship State of being related, affinity, relationship kins, n [1 kin, 2 kain] ME kin, irreg pl, fr OE cyf, ME ki &c, mutated pl of cif, cow (I), op Scots kye, & weak pl and er, as in ozen (province or poet) Cows, cattle kinema, n See cinema

kinematic, adj [1 kinematik, 2 kinematik] fr Gk kinēmat (os), 'motion', & -ia See account of this base under kin-

Of or belonging to the science of kinematics kinematics, n, fr pre [1 kinematiks, 2 kinematiks] (phys) Branch of science dealing with phenomena of motion, in relation to velocity, distance travelled, and time occupied kinematograph, n Formerly so written, and pronounced by some [1 kinēmatograf, 2 kinēmatograf] For usual form, and sense see cinematograph kinesis, n [1 kin, kinēsis, 2 kin, kinēsis] Gk kinēsis, 'motion, movement' See account of base under kin- Physical movement kinetic, adj [1 kin-, kinētik, 2 kin-, kinētik] Gk kinētikos, 'putting in motion, exciting', fr base kt- in Gk kinēin, 'to move' See under kin- a (phys) Of or belonging to, caused by, or due to, motion kinetic energy, theory of gases &c, b (fig) having moving force, powerful, dynamic, as metaphorical borrowing from scientific usage 'a man of kinetic energy, force' &c kinetics, n [1 kin, kinētika, 2 kin-, kinētika] (phys and mechan) Science dealing with principles and forces underlying the motion of bodies kineto-, pref Form of Gk kinēti-, 'movable', used in compounds, fr base kt-, 'to move' See kin- kinetoscope, n [1 kinētoskōp, 2 kinētoskōp] See pre & -scope Instrument which produced the visual effect of objects in continuous motion, by passing rapidly before the eye a series of pictures each recording a particular position momentarily assumed by the moving object before passing to the next primitive form of cinematograph king (I), n [1 king, 2 kīŋ] OE cyning, 'king', fr base kum*, 'family, race, tribe' &c, see kan, & patronymic -ing 1. A man who is the supreme, usually herditary, governor and head of a nation, state, tribe &c the king of England, His Majesty the King, King George V, king of beasts, the lion, king of misrule, ruler of revels, who often wore mock crown and sceptre, King of Kings, (1) Almighty God, (u) title assumed by some Oriental monarchs, king of terrors, death 2 a Person who by force of character, or by his social position and wealth, exerts great influence and power in a particular sphere or area, a territorial magnate a king of men, king of the country side, b person who dominates and controls, or who is enormously successful in, some branch of industry an oil king, soap king &c 3 a (cards) One bearing conventional figure of a king ranking below the ace and above the queen, b (chess) principal piece, usually having a small crown on the top, which has to be guarded against mate or checkmate, king's pawn, bishop &c, piece on right hand of king on chess board, c (draughts) piece which on reaching opponent's base is 'crowned' by piece of same colour which has been previously taken by opponent, and may then move backwards or forwards 4 (her) One of the three principal officers or Kings of Arms (in full Garter King of Arms) in the College of Heralds of England immediately below the Earl Marshal, the corresponding official in Scotland and Ireland, Lyon King-of-Arms, and Ulster King of-Arms respectively king (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec To rule, play the king, behave as a king, chiefly in such Phrs as to king it over one's associates &c king-, pref In composition this prefix indicates predominance in size or function King-at, more correctly of, -Arms See king (I), 4 king-bird, n a American bird, the tyrant flycatcher, b variety of bird of paradise king-bolt, n Large, important bolt in a building or vehicle King Charles's spaniel, n [1 king charlizez spanjel, 2 kɪpʃɪzɪz spanjel] A small breed of spaniel, usually black and tan in colour, kept as pet, so named from Charles II, who made them fashionable king-crab, n One of a group, Lamurus, of marine animals having a shell somewhat resembling that of a crab, and a long spiked tail, placed by zoologists between spiders and crustaceans king-craft, n Art of ruling, statecraft, as shown by a king king-cup, n a Country name for the marsh marigold, b (loosely) a large buttercup kingdom, n [1 kɪŋdəm, 2 kɪŋdəm] OE cynedōm, 'royal power, empire', cynynedōm being rare See king (I) & -dom 1 a Realm, territory ruled by a king or queen the United Kingdom, Kingdom of Sweden &c, b dominion, power, authority of a king Louis XI by statecraft established the kingdom in France 2 (in religious, spiritual, things) Dominion, rule, of God and Christ, the Messiah in this world or the hereafter Thy Kingdom come the kingdom of heaven is within you Phrs kingdom come, heaven, future life, gone to kingdom come, dead 3 (nat hist, popular or archaic) One of the three primary divisions, or realms, of nature the animal, vegetable and mineral kingdoms king-fish, n A Popular local name of various marine food fishes of N America, Australia &c kingfisher n [1 kɪŋfɪʃər 2 kɪpʃɪʃə] Bird of family Alcedinidae, with long beak and brilliant colouring, especially blue, green, red, black and white, frequenting streams and rivers and feeding on fish, specif (in Engl usage) Alcedo aspidota or common kingfisher kingless, adj [1 kɪŋləs, 2 kɪpʃɪʃə] king (I) & -less Without a king or ruler, in a state of anarchy kinglessness n Prec & -ness Condition of being kingless kinglet n [1 kɪŋlɪt, 2 kɪpʃɪʃə] fr king &

-let 1 Petty king, king of an insignificant dominion 2 (zool) The golden crested wren kinglike, adj & adv [1 kɪŋlɪk, 2 kɪpʃɪʃə] king (I) & -like a adj Like a king in bearing, appearance, character, kingly, regal, majestic, august, b adv, (rare and poet) in a kingly manner kingliness, n [1 kɪŋlɪnəs, 2 kɪpʃɪʃɪnəs] kingly & -ness State or condition of being kingly, a appearance, bearing, demeanour, character, b in external circumstances and splendour King Log, n, fr Aesop's Fable of the Frogs who asked Jupiter for a king Person in position of nominal authority, who remains passive and inactive, and exerts no influence kingly, adj & adv [1 kɪŋli, 2 kɪpʃɪʃɪli] king (I) & -ly a adj Kinglike, becoming, suitable to, a king, regal, pertaining to a king, royal, majestic, splendid 'his state is kingly' Thousands at his bidding speed (Milton, 'On his Blindness'), he pledged his kingly word, b adv (archaic) in a kingly manner king-maker, n One who is the chief agent in establishing a king on his throne by deposing another, specif used of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick (1428-71) King-of-Arms See king (I), 4 king-post, n Main upright beam or post supporting the angle or ridge of a roof, and resting on a horizontal tie or girder King's Bench, n One of the divisions of the High Court of Justice of England, generally called King's Bench Division, which consists of the Lord Chief Justice and 17 judges The name derives from the fact that the king formerly sat in this court on a raised bench King's Counsel, n (abbr to KC (kes af)) Senior member of the English Bar appointed to this honorary office by the Crown on nomination of the Lord Chancellor, he wears a silk gown in court, and is thence called a silk, he always sits within the bar of the court and takes precedence of all junior barristers, who sit outside the bar, he cannot appear alone in a case, but must always have a junior barrister with him king's evidence, n A criminal who volunteers to give evidence against his accomplices in the crime with which he is charged Phr to turn king's evidence, to give such evidence king's evil n Old name for scrofula, so called because the disease was believed to be cured by the touch of the king of England's, or of Scotland's hand kingship, n [1 kɪŋʃɪp 2 kɪpʃɪʃɪp] king (I) & -ship State, condition, office, of a king king-wood, n Brazilian wood, used for furniture, having fine grain and purple colouring knit, n [1 knɪt, 2 knɪt] Formed fr Gk base kn-, 'motion' (phys) Unit of force, that amount of force which, acting for a second, will impart to a pound weight a velocity of one foot per second knit (I), n [1 knɪt, 2 knɪt] Scand, cp same word in Swed & Norw, meaning 'a twist in a rope' Perh related to knick, a An irregular, unexpected twist, hitch bend, or oval in a rope, length of wire &c, b (fig) twist in mind or character, eccentricity, perversity knit (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To make a knit in, b intrans, to develop, form into, a knit knikayou, n [1 kɪŋkajə, 2 kɪpʃɪʃajə] Imitative native Am name, through Fr quincayou Small racoon like animal, of S and Central America, living in trees and nocturnal in habit, sometimes called 'hokey-bear' or poto knit n & vb trans & intrans [1 knɪt, 2 knɪt] Formed fr knick & -le on anal of wrinkle 1 n A small knit, curl, or wave, in hair &c 2 vb n trans To make knits in, b intrans, to form into knits knitlike n [1 knɪtli, 2 knɪtli] N Am Ind Mixture of dried leaves and bark, smoked instead of tobacco kno, n [1 kɪnə, 2 kɪnə, 2 kɪnə, 2 kɪnə] Native name Astragunt gum, obtained from various tropical trees, used in tanning and medicine knoplasm, n [1 kɪn, 2 kɪnəpləzəm, 2 kɪn, 2 kɪnəpləzəm] Form fr Gk kn-, & plasma (biol) Active element of protoplasm which produces movement knosfolk, n [1 kɪnzfɒk, 2 kɪnzfɒk] knis & folk (coll) Relatives, kindred, family kniship, n [1 kɪnʃɪp, 2 kɪpʃɪʃɪp] kin & -ship a State of being kin to, of the same blood as, another, relationship, affinity, b (fig) close resemblance, similarity in character kinsman, n [1 kɪnzmen, 2 kɪnzmen] Male relative, one belonging to, or closely allied to, one's family kinswoman, n [1 kɪnzwooman, 2 kɪnzwooman] Female relation, esp a blood relation, (more loosely) a female allied by marriage to one's family knosk, knosque, n [1 kɪnɒk, 2 kɪnɒk] fr Turk kashk, Pers kashk 1 Lightly built open Turkish summer house, a summer villa in Turkey Yıldız Knosk, formerly the name of the Sultan's palace, also formerly the seat of Turkish government and diplomacy 2 In France and England, an open building supported on pillars and built in a supposed Turkish or Oriental style, such a building used as an open air band stand, a refreshment booth, or one for the sale of newspapers &c kip, n [1 kɪp, 2 kɪp] Etymol unknown a Hide of a calf or other young beast, b leather made from such a hide kipper (I), n [1 kɪpər, 2 kɪpə] OE cypera, 'kind of salmon', etymol doubtful 1 Salmon during or after spawning 2 Smoked and salted herring 3 (slang) Person, usually with appropriate adjective prefixed saucy young kipper, merry old kipper kipper (II), vb trans, fr prec To cure (fish) by smoking and salting kirimon, n [1 kɪrɪmɒn, 2 kɪrɪmɒn] Jap Imperial Japanese emblem, representing the leaves and buds of the Paulownia tree kirik, n [1 kɪrk, 2 kɪk] fr ON kirka, 'church', same word as OE cyrc See church (Nhm Engl and Scots) a Church, place of worship in Scotland, popularly used in England to go to kirik &c, b members, congregation, of a kirik The (Auld) Kirik, the Church of Scotland This is now regarded in Scotland as an English term kirsch, n [1 kɪrʃ, 2 kɪʃ] fr Mod Germ Kirsche, 'cherry', O HG kīra, fr a Romance form ceresia, whence also cherry, fr O Fr cherise Short for kirschwasser, 'cherry water', a perfectly clear potent spirit distilled from cherries together with the stones and kernels kirschwasser, n [1 kɪrʃvəʃər, 2 kɪʃvəʃə] Proc & wasser, 'water' Kirsch kirle, n [1 kɪrl, 2 kɪl] OE cyriel gown, tunic, cp Icel kyrtill, Swed kyrtel, 'skirt', prob dunn formed fr Lat curtus, 'short' (see curt), & -il (see -le) a Woman's skirt or petticoat, b (archaic) man's or woman's short outer garment, tunic kismet, n [1 kɪzmet, 2 kɪzmet] Turk, fr Arab qismet, 'rate', fr qisamah, 'divide, apportion' Destiny, fate, esp as exclamation expressing resignation to the will of Allah kiss (I), n [1 kɪs, 2 kɪs] The OE n is coos, ME coos &c, the present n is formed on anal of vb The Gmc type is kussa*, whence W Gmc koss*, as in OE coos & OS koē, O HG kuo & the same form in OS must owe their u to anal of vb wh preserves this vowel through influence of the ya suff The word prob represents Aryan gʷ(e)l-* to base gʷet* &c, 'to speak, address, greet', whence also OE cweþan, 'to speak', gʷ v under quoth(a) & second element of bequeath, cp also O Ir bēi, 'moeth', lit 'the speaker', fr Aryan gʷet*-to The orig sense of kiss wd thus be 'greeting' 1 a Pressure of the lips, often accompanied by slight drawing-in of the air which produces a faint smacking sound, b thus pressure applied to face or hand of another as a form of greeting, or as a caress, expressing love, affection, or respect Phrs Judas' kiss, treacherous, hypocritical kiss or greeting of pretended affection, kiss of peace, that exchanged between the clergy during the celebration of the Mass in the Greek Church as symbol of reconciliation 2 a (fig, poet) Light touch or pressure, as of breeze on flowers, hair &c, or of waves on sand &c, b slight contact between moving balls in billiards 3 (children's expression) Froth or bubbles on tea or milk kiss (II), vb trans OE cyssan, ME cusse(n), kisse(n) &c, fr W Gmc kusjan* See prec 1 To give a kiss to, to caress, or touch with the lips Phrs to kiss the book, i.e. Bible, or New Testament, as formal act when taking an oath in law court, swearing an affidavit &c, kiss the dust, ground, as formal act of submission, to suffer or submit to humiliation, to be slain or killed, kiss hands, to perform the ceremonial act of kissing the sovereign's hand on appointment to office, kiss the rod, submit to discipline humbly or without complaint 2 (of the wind, waves &c) To touch lightly, gently, caressingly 3 (billiards, of moving balls) To touch lightly in passing kiss cannon, one made with such slight impact that the two other balls are not moved from their relative positions by that of the player kiss-in-the-ring, n An old country game in which a ring is formed round a player, who is chased and kissed by one of the opposite sex on whom he or she drops a handkerchief kist (I), n [1 kist, 2 kist] ON kista, 'chest' See chest (I) (Nthn Engl and Scots) Chest kist (II), n (archaeol) See cist kit (I), n [1 kit, 2 kit] Prob fr M Du kutte, 'tub', op Norw kutte, 'bin', ultimate etymol unknown 1 Small wooden tub, for butter, water, fish &c 2 Receptacle, bag or box, in which a soldier or sailor packs the clothes, equipment &c which he does not carry on his person, a similar receptacle for workman's tools, valise, a kit-bag, q v 3 a (mil) Equipment, other than arms, of a soldier or sailor kit inspection, examination of the clothes &c of a soldier by an officer, b equipment generally, esp that required for carrying on a particular trade or occupation, c outfit, equipment for sport, travelling, or other special purpose hunting, shooting, golfing kit kit (II), n Etymol unknown Small fiddle used formerly by a teacher of dancing kit (III), n Abbr of kitten (I) kit-bag, n fr kit (I) & bag a Long canvas bag in which a soldier carries his kit, b large leather travelling hand-bag with wide opening or month kit-cat, adj & n a adj Of or belonging to the Kit Cat Club, founded by Whigs in 1703 and held at a tavern in London, kept by Christopher (Kit) Catling or Cat esp Kit cat portrait, a small, less than half-length, portrait of the members of the club, of head, bust, and hands, of any portrait of this size, b n, portrait of this size kitchen, n [1 kichen, 2 kit[en]] OE cykene, ME kuchen(e), kichen(e) &c, loan-word of the Continental period fr L Lat coquina, op fr same source OHG kuchina, Mod Germ küche, M Dn lokene, fr Lat base coq, as in coquere, 'to cook' See cook (I) Place or apartment in a house in which cooking takes place kitchener, n [1 kitchener, 2 kit[en]] Prec & -er 1 A cooking range or stove 2 Official in charge of the cooking of a monastery kitchen-garden, n Piece of ground enclosed by a wall or fence in which vegetables are grown for the house, or for market kitchen-maid, n Domestic servant who does a great part of the cook's work.

kitchen-midden, n Intechu sensead fr Dan kykken-mødding a Household rubbish heap, b specif (archaeol) prehistoric rubbish-heap of a type found in parts of Denmark near the coast, containing bones of men and animals, shells, tools, household implements, pottery &c, the refuse of a primitive settlement kite, n [1 kit, 2 kast] OE cyfra, ME lite, etymol doubtful 1 a Bird of prey, genus Milvus, belonging to the hawk family, distinguished from other members of the order by forked tail and long wings, b (fig) one who preys on others, shark 2 a Contrivance, carried by wind into the air, consisting usually of a triangular framework of wood or cane, covered with paper or thin textile material, balanced by a tail, and connected with the ground by a string or cord, similar contrivance, of box shape, 'box-kite', with open sides, used for meteorological observation, b bill, promissory note, or other negotiable instrument of fictitious or worthless security, accommodation bill Phr fly a kite, (i) see how the wind blows, set rumour current as a test of public opinion, op Fr ballon d'essai, (ii) to attempt to raise money on worthless security kite-balloon, n (mil) Fixed or captive observation balloon, with kite attachments to check wind-pressure kith, n [1 kith, 2 kup] OE cyppo, 'relationship, lineage', fr kunþjō*, fr anet variant of ancestral form of kind (I), q v for cognates, Aryan gnt-jō*, 'family, race' &c Some derive kith fr kunþja*, 'known', connecting it w OE cyðan, 'to make known' &c The OE cyðan has also the sense of 'acquaintance' It is possible that there were two words, one derived fr kun-, 'to know', the other fr kun-, 'to produce', & that the senses were blended just as the forms were identical It is probable that Aryan gnt-jō*, meaning 'know', & gnt-jō*, 'produce', were ultimately one & the same See know & can (I) Now only in Phr kith and kin, family and relations, those of one's own blood and lineage kittling, n [1 kittling, 2 kittling] Prob Scand, op ON keltingr, 'kitten, young of other animals', dimin of keltr, 'cat', this is earlier in Engl than kitten A small kitten kitten (I), n [1 kita, 2 kita] ME kyton, litoun, fr O Fr chioton, 'kitten', op obs Mod Fr chaton, dimin of chat, 'cat' The older Engl word was kittling A young cat kitten (II), vb intrans, fr prec To bear, bring forth, kittens kittenish, adj [1 kitemish, 2 kitemish] fr kitten (I) & -ish Like a kitten, playful, frisky, often applied to a young girl or, disparagingly, to an older woman who pretends to be much younger than she is kittiwake, n [1 kittiwāk, 2 kittiwēik] Imitative, fr its cry A sea-gull, common to both sides of N Atlantic, (zoöl) a gull belonging to the genus Rissa kittle (I), vb intrans [1 kiti, 2 kiti] kit (III) & -le (obs or dial) To bring forth kittens, to kitten kittle (II), adj ME kytelle, 'to tickle', etymol doubtful Ticklish, difficult, troublesome, now only in Scots Phr little cattle, (i) difficult cattle to drive, (ii) (fig, of persons) uncertain in temper and behaviour kitty, n [1 kiti, 2 kiti] Dimin kit (I) & -y 1 Child's or pet name for a kitten 2 Pool of stakes in various card games, as poker &c kawi, n [1 kāwē, 2 kāwē] Maori, imitative, fr its cry Tailless New Zealand bird with rudimentary wings, the apteryx kleisto-, pref See first element in kleistogamic klept, n [1 kleft, 2 kleft] Mod Gk kleptēs, Gk kleptēs, 'robber, thief', op Gk kleptēs, 'to steal', kleptēs, 'thief', kleptēs, 'thief', cogn w Lat clepere, 'to steal', Goth hlyfan, 'to steal', & hlyftus, 'thief' See lift (I) a Member of various bands of Greeks who, after the conquest of Greece by Turkey, maintained a kind of independence in the mountains, b a Greek brigand kleptomaniac, n [1 kleptomānia, 2 kleptou-mēnia] Invented word fr Gk. kleptē*, kleptēs, 'thief' See prec & mania Uncontrollable propensity to steal due to pathological causes and not arising from criminal instincts, often affecting those who have not the motive of poverty kleptomaniac, n [1 kleptomāniak, 2 kleptou-mēniak] Prec & -ac Person addicted to kleptomania klino-, pref See clino- klipspringer, n [1 klipspringer, 2 klip-spring] S Afr Dn, fr klip, 'rock, cliff', & springer, 'leaper, springer' Small S and E African mountain antelope, resembling European chamois klouf, n [1 klouf, 2 klouf] S Afr Du Connected w cleave, cleft Deep gorge, gully, ravine knack, n [1 nak, 2 nek] Imitative, op knock & knap (II), Norw & Swed have knala, 'to crack' 1 (orig) Snap, click of the fingers against each other, hence, a jester's, juggler's trick 2 Specif, skill, dexterity, esp as acquired by habit or practice, a (in bodily actions) splitting wood with a beetle and wedge seems easy enough when you have the knack of it, b (of intellectual exercises) a happy knack of ingenious rhyming 3 (rare) Trifle, toy, worthless object, knock-knack, q v knacker, n [1 naker, 2 nake] Etymol doubtful, possibly fr prec 1 One who buys and slaughters worn-out horses fit only for the knacker's yard 2 Buyer and breaker up of old ships or houses knackery, n [1 nakeri, 2 nakeri] Prec & -y A knacker's yard, slaughter-house for old horses knag, n [1 nag, 2 nag] ME knagge, op Swed & Norw knagg Knot in wood, projection left after lopping branch from a tree, peg knaggy, adj [1 nagi, 2 nagi] fr prec & -y Full of knags or knots knap (I), n [1 nap, 2 nap] OE cnæp, 'top, mountain top', op ON knappr, 'knob' Cp knop Top, crest, of a hill, still surviving in English Place Names, as Knapp hill, in Surrey knap (II), vb trans Imitative, op Du knappen, 'to crack' 1 (obs) To break with a sharp blow, esp flints or stones, earlier, to snap, op Ps xlvii 9 (Prayer Book from 16th cent version) 'He knappeth the spear in sunder', where A V has cutheth 2 (obs) To bite 'knapped ginger' (Shakespeare's 'Merchant of Venice') knapper, n [1 naper, 2 nape] fr prec & -er One who fashions flints for flint-locks &c flint knapper knapsack, n [1 nāpsak, 2 nāpsak] fr Do knapsak, 'bag for food', fr knappen, 'to bite, eat', & sack, (I) Canvas or leather sack, for food, spare clothing &c, carried by soldiers or travellers, slung by straps over one shoulder or strapped across the shoulder-blades knapped, n [1 nāpēd, 2 nāpēd] Earlier knapped, fr knop, 'knob', & wesca Common weed resembling thistle, with round, purple flowers knar, n [1 nar, 2 nā] ME knarre, op Du knar, op gnarled Rough, hard knot or protuberance in wood knave, n [1 nāv, 2 neiv] The ordinary OE form is cnapa, 'boy, servant', but cnafa also occurs, whence ME knave & the present word, op OHG knabo, Mod Germ knabe, 'lad, boy', wh is parallel w OE cnafa & OHG knappe (fr LG source !), perh derived fr Aryan base gnt-*, 'produce, beget', q v under kind (I) 1 (archaic and obsolete) Boy, lad, esp a serving lad, ser vant 2 A rogue, a dishonest, swindling rascal 3 (cards) Lowest of so called court cards, bearing conventional representation of a court page and ranking below the queen and above the ten, op Fr salet, Germ knecht, for same card knavery, n [1 náver, 2 névər] Preo & -ry Behaviour of a knave, roguery, dishonesty, underhand dealing knavish, adj [1 návish, 2 névish] knave & -ish Characteristic of a knave, tricky, dishonest, mischievous, untrustworthy knavishly, adv Preo & -ly In a knavish manner knavishness, n See preo & -ness A Quality of being knavish; b the behaviour of a knave, trickery, dishonesty knead, vb trans [1 néd, 2 nid] OE cneadan, ME kneðen, orig a strong vb, Gmc cognates are OHG cneatan, Mod Gm kneten, Dn kneeden, O.N. kneða, fr Aryan base gnē* & o, whence also O Slav. gnesti, 'squeeze, press' 1 a To work thoroughly by squeezing and pressing with the hands, used especially of working dough in bread making, also b to use hands and knuckles upon other material in similar manner, as upon the body in massage 2 (fig), of action upon character To mould, shape, by discipline and training kneadable, adj [1 nédahl, 2 nidahl] Preo & -able Capable of being worked by kneading

kneading-trough, n [1 néding trawf, 2 nidig tráf, tráf] Baker's trough in which dough is kneaded knee (I), n [1 nē, 2 nī] OE cneo, ME knē, OS & OHG kneo, ON knē, Goth kniu, the Aryan base is ǵneuo* & o many possible gradational variants, some of which appear in most of the derived families, op Sert janu, Gk gónu for ǵónuo*, also gónu, 'corner, angle' (see -gon), Lat genu (see genua, genuflect), genuculum, 'little knee, or joint, the joint on plant stem' (see genuculat(e)) 1 a Joint and parts surrounding it between upper and lower parts of the human leg, b joint in some other animals, similar in appearance or position to that of man, esp that in a horse's foreleg, in reality the carpal, or wrist joint, in birds, the tarsal or ankle Phrs to bend the knee to, (i) supplicate, pray to, (ii) to show great respect and submission to, on the knees, kneeling as in act of submission or supplication, to go on one's knees, (i) kneel down, (ii) to pray, go on one's knees to, to beg urgently, implore, to bring a person to his knees, force him to submit, to give a knee to, to aid, support, originally of second to a boxer between rounds, up to one's knees, knee deep, gone at the knees (colloq), broken down, decrepit, of a broken kneed horse 2 Object resembling a bent knee, as branch of tree, obtuse angled timber or metal beam in ship or other building knee (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To strike, knock, with the knee, b to stretch, distort, cause hagginess in (trousers) at the knee 2 intrans (obs and rare) To kneel, go, on one's knees I'll knee to no man knee-breeches, n. pl Breeches reaching to, and fitting close about, the knee, as in court dress knee-cap, n. a Flat bone covering of the knee joint, patella, b padded or other covering to protect the knee knee-deep, adj Up to the knees, (also fig, rare) deeply involved, immersed in knee-high, adj Reaching to the knees knee-hole, n Space for the knees, esp one in a writing table or bureau knee-joint, n a Joint of the knee in man and other animals, b (mach) movable, right-angled joint between two pieces of metal & c kneel, vb intrans [1 nēl, 2 nīl] OE cneolian, ME knelen See kneal To rest upon one's knees, to support the body from the knees, which are bent so that they rest upon the ground, also kneel down Kneel to,

to go on one's knees before, in supplication, or as token of respect, to pray to kneeler, n [1 nēler, 2 nīl] Preo & -er 1 Hassock, stool for kneeling on 2 (building) A stone so shaped to fit an angle between a coping and a gable or arch knee-pan, n Knee cap, patella knell (I), n [1 nēl, 2 nēl] OE cnell, the SE type, WS cnyll, 'sound of a bell', of imitative origin Similar words occur in other Gmc languages, OHG knellen, 'to resound', Dn knal, 'a clap, report' & o Sound made in tolling a church bell, specif, thus sound as signal of a death, funeral, or other mournful event Phrs to sound a knell, to toll so as to announce a death & o, (fig) to sound the knell of, to be an omen of the passing away of existing order, conditions & o knell (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans (of bell) To make the sound of a knell, to give forth a dismal note 2 trans a To announce by, or as though by, a knell, to summon by a knell, b (fig) to proclaim, bode to knell the downfall of an empire knelt, vb [1 nēlt, 2 nēlt] Pret & PP of kneal knew, vb [1 nū, 2 nū] OE cneow, ME kneas, Pret of know

Knickerbocker, n [1 nīkerbōker, 2 nīlāhīke], fr Diedrich Knickerbocker, fictitious Dn author of Washington Irving's Knickerbocker History of New York, 1809 a An original Dutch settler in or descendant in New York (New Amsterdam), b as adj, Knickerbocker family, one claiming descent from such settler knickerbockers, n. pl Prob fr illustrations of Dutchmen in wide, loose knee breeches in later (1859) editions of Washington Irving's work Loose, baggy breeches reaching to the knees and fastened below them, similar breeches reaching above the knee and not fastened, shorts, similar breeches worn by women as undergarments knickers, n. pl [1 nīkerz, 2 nīlāz] Abbr of preo (shoppy or vulgar) knick-knack, n [1 nīk nak, 2 nīk næk] Reduplication of knack, 3, & far more commonly used Toy, trifle, small tasteful article of jewellery, dress & o, small in ingenious contrivance, article of virtue as ornament & c knife (I), n [1 nīf, 2 naif] OE cniyf, ME knif, cogn w Dn knijf, ON knif, Swed knif, etymol unknown Fr cniyf is borrowed fr a Gmc source a Cutting implement with a long fixed one-edged blade and short handle, or one with a short blade made on a hinge, to fold into handle, b also of various objects or parts of machines designed to cut, e.g. the knives of a mowing-machine Various idiomatic uses the surgeon's knife, surgical treatment by cutting, the assassin's knife, attack, murder, (of wind & o) to cut like a knife, war to the knife, relentless opposition, to get one's knife into, (fig) to make an onslaught upon, submit to searching criticism, before one could say knife, without a moment's delay knife (II), vb trans, fr preo a To use a knife upon, specif, to attack, wound, cut, stab with a knife, b to assassinate by stabbing knife-board, n 1 Wooden board treated with emery-powder upon which domestic table knives are cleaned 2 (colloq) Two benches placed back to back, longitudinally, on the roof of the old fashioned horse drawn omnibus knife-edge, n a Edge of a knife, b sharp edged metal fulcrum of a balance, devised to lessen friction knife-rest, n Silver or glass support for blade of carving knife or prongs of fork, used on sideboard & c to protect the cloth knights (I), n. [1 nī, 2 nait] OE cniht, 'boy, servant, retainer', ME knicht & o in Mod. sense, corresponding to Lat equus, Fr chevalier OHG kneht 'lad, servant' The other Gmc languages if they have the word have apparently borrowed it fr OHG Only

Engl uses it in connexion w chivalry As regards the etymol it has been suggested w some plausibility that the word is derived fr Gmc base ken-, kun & o, 'family, tribe' & c, see kun & words there referred to, & the adj suffix -ht, thus meaning orig, 'of the tribe', perh later 'admitted as full member of the tribe, full grown' This, however, is purely speculative 1 a (in feudal times) A man, usually of noble birth, who, having acquitted himself valiantly in war, was raised, by the King or his representatives, to the status above that of esquire by receiving the accolade, that is, having a sword laid upon his shoulder and being invested with spurs, together with other ceremonies, and the taking of certain vows by the recipient of the honour, who generally further received a grant of land, b (in modern times) a man who receives the non-hereditary title of honour, known as a knighthood, being admitted to it by the sovereign who gives him the accolade, a knight prefixes the title Sir to his Christian and surname, Sir John Jones & c, and is thus addressed and referred to, or simply, more familiarly, as Sir John, Phrs knight of the pen, a journalist, of the road, highwayman, knight of the rueful countenance, Don Quixote, c member of one of the Orders of Knighthood, the Garter, the Thistle, St Michael and St George & o, also member of any of several organizations which confer the designation of knight on their members without however conferring the right to a title, d (Gk and Rom. hist) word used for a member of class of citizen, Gk hippeus, Lat equus, in Athens and Rome respectively, in each case the original class formed the cavalry of the city and army and provided their own horses 2 (fig) One who performs loyal and chivalrous service to a person or a cause, specif (post) a devoted attendant upon a lady 3 (chess) A piece or man surmounted by a horse's head knight (II), vb trans, fr preo To make a knight of, confer honour of knighthood upon knighthood, n [1 nīty, 2 naitīd] knight (I) & -age The body of knights collectively, b book of reference giving a list of these knight-bachelor, n Knight of lowest class of British knights, who is not a member of an Order of Knighthood knight-banneret, n Knight who is such as being member of special class in an Order of Knighthood knight-errant, n a Knight wandering in search of adventure, b (fig) (i) a Don Quixote, an enthusiastic supporter of lost or neglected causes, ideas & o, (ii) one who travels and speaks in support of a special cause knight-errantry, n Preo & -ry Condition, character, act, of a knight errant, quixotic action or behaviour knighthood, n [1 nīt-hood, 2 naitīd] knight (I) & -hood a Character, dignity, rank, of a knight, b body of knights collectively his name would do honour to the knighthood knighthly, adj & adv [1 nīth, 2 naitī] knight (I) & -ly a adj (i) Connected with or pertaining to, befitting, suitable to a knight, (ii) specif, exhibiting a lofty courtesy, chivalrous, magnanimous, b adv, (archaic) in a knightly manner, like a knight knight's fee, n (feudal law) Amount of land held by a knight, the tenure of which implied specific amount of service knight's service, knight-service, n 1 The military service performed by a knight or holder of a knight's fee, as a condition of holding his land 2 Service such as a knight ought to render, good and useful service knit, vb trans & intrans [1 nīt, 2 nīt] OE cnyttan, 'to tie, knot', ME knitten, fr knuttan*, op O.N. knúfa, 'to tie' There appear to be no cognates in other Gmc or Aryan languages The base is the same as that of knot (I) A trans 1 a To interweave and fasten together, by series of loops and knots, cotton or silk threads, or woollen yarn, into a fabric or article of such fabric, by hand or knitting-machine to knit wool into stockings, b [to make, weave, fashion, by this process to knit stockings out of wool 2 To join, fasten together, unite, a (of physical process) mortar knits bricks together, a surgeon knits broken bones together again, b (of spiritual process) to unite, link, together by ties of affection, interest &c, knit together in bonds of affection &c 3 A To draw together, contract, esp in Phr to knit the brows, to frown, b (only in PP) to make compact, to brace together firmly a well-knit frame, of human body, (also fig) a closely knit argument &c B intrans 1 To perform the act of knitting to knit from morning to night 2 To unite, come together, join up (often) knit together, the ends of a broken bone often knit (together) naturally C Followed by preposition Knit in, a trans, to incorporate in knitting to knit in the blue with the green wool, b intrans, to be capable of being knitted in Knit up, a trans, to pick up and fasten dropped or broken stitches in knitting, b intrans, to become united, linked or joined up knitter, n [1 nítər, 2 nítə], fr knit & -er a One who knits, b a knitting-machine knitting, n [1 nítɪŋ; 2 nítɪŋ] knit & -ing a Act of one who knits, b knitted fabric or article knitting-machine, n Machine used for manufacture of stockings and other articles otherwise made by hand knitting-needle, n An eyeless needle of bone, metal, or wood used for knitting by hand, similar object in a knitting-machine knob, n [1 nɒb, 2 nɒb] ME, op LG knobbe, 'knob', & Engl. variants knap (I), knop a Rounded protuberance, as on branch of tree, knob, etok &c, b ball-shaped protuberance, serving as handle of a door, a 'door-knob', or of a drawer, or as top of bed-post &c, a round lump (of coal, sugar &c) Phr (slang) with knobs on, signifying something additional, esp to already existing pain, discomfort &c knobby, adj [1 nɒbi, 2 nɒbi] Prec & -y. Furnished with, full of, knobs, rough knobkerrie, n [1 nɒbkəri, 2 nɒbkəri] S Afr Du knokkie, fr Du knob(de), 'knob', & Hottentot kerrrie, kerrrie, 'stuck, club' Kafir club, used as a weapon for striking and throwing, with heavy knobbed head, a knobstick knobstick, n [1 nɒbstɪk, 2 nɒbstɪk] a Knobbed stick, knobkerrie, b (slang) workman who refuses to join a trade union or a strike, blackleg knock (I), vb trans & intrans [1 nɒk, 2 nɒk] OE cnocian, ME knocken, op ON knoka, 'to knock', possibly imitative of sound (gon sense) To hit, strike, usually followed by prepositions, adverbs &c See C below A trans 1 a To strike, rap, a door, head, ball &c I knocked (at) the door several times, knock one's head (against), knock (cricket) ball hard, Phrs knock to pieces, destroy, demolish, as an argument, knock home, drive (a nail &c) firmly in, also (fig) of argument, b (colloq) to surprise, impress 'Knocked'em in the Old Kent Road', his cool impudence knocked me completely, o (Am slang) to depreciate, criticize adversely, run down, opposed to boost to knock one's own team is unforgivable B intrans 1 a To perform act of knocking, hitting, striking, specif, to strike with the knocker at or on a door &c as signal or call for entrance do not knock unless an answer is required, 'Knock, knock, knock!' (the Porter in 'Macbeth'), b to rattle, make a bumping noise, as parts of machinery not working smoothly engine (of car) is knocking badly C Followed by preposition or adverb To knock about, a trans, to hit repeatedly, or in several places you've no business to knock your wife about like this, he was badly knocked about, b intrans, to wander, travel, in careless, irresponsible fashion knock about the world; (absol) knock about, lead a dissipated life Knock against, a trans, to strike, hit, against knock one's foot against a stone, Phr to knock one's head against a brick wall, to struggle uselessly against insuperable difficulty, b to meet (a person) unexpectedly I knocked against X yesterday in the street Knock at, to beat, rap, tap to knock at a door, window &c, as call or signal, Phr to knock at an open door, to exert useless effort to attain an object already accessible Knock down, a to beat, strike, to the ground, cause to fall by striking if you are insolent I'll knock you down, knocked down by a motor-car, b destroy, demolish house-breakers are knocking the house down, (fig) to upset, refute to knock an argument down like a house of cards, Phr you might have knocked me down with a feather, implying, I was so overcome and incapacitated by the shock of amazement &c, c to beat down, force to reduce in price knock dealer, tender for contract &c down 10%, d specif (of auctioneer) to rap with hammer as sign of acceptance of final bid, to accept bid for object at an auction the picture was knocked down to X Knock in, into, a trans, to drive, beat, hammer in, as a nail &c, Phrs (fig) knock into the head, to instil, impress, lesson, rule &c, so that it shall not be forgotten, knock into a cocked-hat, to defeat, demolish, disconcert (person, argument, plan &c), b intrans, to enter a college &c by knocking after the gates are closed Knock on, to strike, beat upon, Phr to knock on the head, to destroy, demolish, do for, scotch, a proposal, plan, scheme &c Knock off, a to strike, brush away knock a wasp off one's hand, b to reduce, take off from price, rate of speed &c knock two shillings off the bill, accident knocked ten knots an hour off the vessel's speed, Phr to knock off work, cease one's occupation, stop work, c to finish, complete, quickly, hastily, or roughly to knock off a leading article in half an hour, knock off runs, (at cricket) make a number of runs to win a match Knock out, a to strike, hammer, an object out of its position, e.g. nail out of a board, Phr knock the bottom out of, demolish, refute entirely an argument &c, b (boxing) to deal opponent blow rendering him incapable of continuing the fight when 'time' is called, (fig) to overwhelm, stun, Phr knock out of time (fig, from boxing phrase), render another incapable of action, c (auctioneering) to sell privately by dealers among themselves after a sale where they have agreed not to bid against each other, depreciate price at sale by a knock-out, q, v, d to make a rough, preliminary plan, sketch knock out an idea of, for a play &c Knock together, to hit, strike, one thing against another, to put, fit, together, hastily or roughly, op to knock off or up, Phr knock their heads together, make two quarrelling people agree by strong measures Knock up, a to hit, strike, upwards knock up his arm, hand &c, b to knock up runs, make runs, score, at cricket; o to rouse by knocking, at door, window &c knock me up at 7 o'clock, d to tire, wear out, fatigue the long climb knocked me up, also intrans, to be worn out, to break down he knocked up after influenza, e to put together roughly and hastily knock up some sort of a shelter knock (II), n, fr prec a Stroke, blow, hit, rap a knock on the head, (also fig) knocks and blows of this work-a-day world, Phr (colloq) to get the knock, to be dismissed from employment, (of actor &c) get a bad reception, b specif, action of rapping on a door, with knocker or with knuckles &c, sound made by this the postman's knock, a double knock, did you hear a knock? Phr run away knock, one given as a hoax, the person who knocks not waiting till the door is opened. knock-about, adj & n 1 adj a Consisting of knocks, blows, as in a comic turn on the stage knock-about performance, b made for knocking about, for rough wear a knock about suit &c 2 n A rough, noisy, boisterous farce enlivened by horseplay knock-down, adj A Of blow which falls recipient to the ground, b (fig) knock-down blow, a moral shock that stuns, overwhelms, or stupefies, knock down price, lowest price at which anything can be sold or bought knocker, n [1 nɒkər; 2 nɒkə], fr knock (I) & -er 1 Person who, thing which, knocks, specif, device in form of a metal hammer attached by hinge to a door, which is struck upon a metal plate or knob to call for admission 2 (Am slang) One who criticizes, runs down anything, opposed to booster knocker-up, n Person hired to rouse workmen for early work by knocking at window or door knock-knee, n Condition of having the knees turned inwards so that they knock against each other in walking knock-kneed, adj [1 nɒk nēd, 2 nɒk nɪd] a Having knock-knees, shambling in gait, b (fig) feeble, lacking moral courage and fibre knock-out, n & adj 1 (boxing) Final decisive blow, as on point (of jaw) or solar plexus, which prevents recipient from continuing the fight, (also fig and as adj) knock out blow 2 (auction) Agreement among ring of dealers not to bid against particular dealer, and after the auction to hold private sale, dividing difference between fictitious and real price among themselves, sale conducted on such system knoll (I), n [1 nɒl, nɒl, 2 nɒl, nɒl] OE cnoll, 'hillock, mound', op Du knol, Germ knolle, 'lump, mound' Top of a small hill, a hillock, mound knoll (II), vb trans & intrans [1 nɒl, 2 nɒl] Variant of knell To knell, to ring, toll, a bell, to sound as a bell tolling for a death, as signal &c knoll (III), n, fr prec Sound of a tolling bell knop, n [1 nɒp, 2 nɒp] ME knop(pe), op Du knop, Germ knopf, 'knob, button', prob variant of knob Knob, protuberance, esp of ornament in shape of the rounded bud of a flower, on stem of a cup or on a crocket or pinnacle in architecture knot (I), n [1 nɒt, 2 nɒt] OE cnotta, ME knotte, op ON knut, Du knut, fr unmutated form of Gmc base whence knut is derived 1 Fastening of rope, cord, string &c, one free end being passed through loop and drawn tight, of various kinds, as ship-knot, one that slides up and down and can be unfastened by a pull, fool's, granny's, knot, one unsecurely tied so that it comes unfastened at once 2 Bow, tie, of ribbon, twist of gold braid &c, worn as ornament shoulder knot, sword-knot 3 (fig) n That which joins or unites, a bond of union, tie the nuptial, marriage, knot, to tie the knot, to marry, b complicated problem, difficulty, entanglement Phrs to cut the knot, evade problem, get out of difficulty by means which provide no real solution, op Gordian, to tie oneself (up) in (to) knots, to get entangled in difficulties or complications 4 a Hard lump on tree where a branch sprang, b rounded cross grained mark on sawn timber left by this, c representation in wood or stone of a knot or series of knots, as in a moulding, often called knotted 5 Small group, cluster, of persons in close proximity to each other to gather, stand about, in knots 6 (naut) a Unit of measurement of speed of a ship (from the spaced knots in a long line), always signifying number of nautical miles travelled in an hour recess of 35 knots, one capable of attaining speed at rate of 35 nautical miles in an hour, b (loosely) a nautical mile knot (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To tie, make, form, a knot in rope, string &c, b to fasten, tie up or together by means of a knot, to work thread &c into loose fringe, 'knitting' 2 intrans a To perform act of knotting or tying knot

b to become knotted, entangled, tied together in knots knot (III), n Etymol oknown Small wading sea bird, one of the many varieties of the sandpiper knot-grass, n Popular name of various common weeds with jointed stems knotted, adj [1 nótéd, 2 nótíd], fr PP o' knot (II) Full of knots, twisted, entangled knottling, n [1 nótóg, 2 nótíg] knot (II) & -ing Loose fringe made of thread & knotted together knotty, adj [1 nótí, 2 nótí], fr knot (I) & -y a (chiefly of wood) Full of knots, knotted, b (fig) full of difficulty, complicated a knotty problem knout (I), n [1 nout, 2 nout, 2 nout, nút] Through Fr nout [out] fr Russ knut, prob fr Scand knut, 'knot, knotted whip' Russian whip or scourge, with short handle and a lash of several leather thongs knotted, or bound with wire Phr the knout, severe physical or other punishment, as typical of Russian severity knout (II), vb trans, fr prec To whip, lash, with a knout know (I), vb trans & intrans [1 nō, 2 nou] (OE cniēan, ME cniēan(n) OHG (bi) irān, cogn w Lat (g)nō scere, Gk (g) gnō skō, 'know', Serb janāmi, 'I know', O Slav znāti, 'I know', all fr Aryan base

g^{ne}, g^{no}, 'to know, have mental potency' & fr other grades of wh are derived also can, 'am able', kon (I) & (II), the second syll of uncouth It is possible, though the relation is uncertain, that this base is ultimately identical w that meaning 'to produce, beget' & o, discussed under kan, kand (I), gonus, generato & c, nature, natal, kith is usually connected w know, but may equally well be related to kind A traces 1 a To have in the mind as an element of knowledge, possess as essential information, be cognizant of to know the facts of the case, to know the way, to know one's faults, I now (that) the man was dead to know (that) it is going to rain, that one has made a fool of oneself, b to understand thoroughly, have intellectual command of as a result of study or practice to know a language, to know the law, banking & c Phrs to know one's own business, not to interfere with affairs of others, to know how many beans make five, a thing or two, the ropes, what's what & o, all meaning that one has sharp wit, understanding, common sense & o, to know better than, to be wise enough to avoid doing, also know better than that 2 To recognize, identify, a person or thing as being familiar to one, or as belonging to a particular category, to be able to distinguish, discriminate, persons and things from others by attributes perceived by the senses to know a friend from a foe, to know a man by sight, to know a good horse when one sees him, should never have known you again, not to know one true from another, to know apart, from distinguish one thing from another Phrs to know B from a bull's foot, black from white, chalk from cheese, on which side one's bread is buttered, all implying capacity of understanding, or discriminating by mother wit and common sense 3 To be personally acquainted with (persons), to enjoy greater or less familiarity with them

I know the man by sight, but I don't know him personally, should like to know Mr Jones, you two ought to know one another, I don't know your father 4 To have experience of, to experience, get to understand by experience a man who has known poverty and sorrow, to know life, he knows his Oxford thoroughly 5 (Bib and legal, of a man)

To have sexual intercourse with B intrans To be in the condition of knowing, to have knowledge, to be aware, understand what I say is not mere conjecture, I know, my father has just died, yes, I know C Followed by preposition or adverb Know about, have knowledge, information, concerning knows about the trouble long ago, know all about him, know the character, antecedents & c of a person Know of, to be aware of existence of (thing), be acquainted with, a fact, event & o know of a shop where you can get things cheaper, knew of the engagement before it was announced know (II), n, fr prec (colloq) Knowledge, only in Phr in the know, having special information knowability, n [1 nōabīlītī, 2 nōuabīlītī] Next word & -ity Knowableness knowable, adj [1 nōabl, 2 nōuabl] know & -able 1 Capable of being known, within the scope of human knowledge 2 (of persons) Easy to know or get on with know able sort of people knowableness, n [1 nōabīnēs, 2 nōuabīnēs] Prec & -ness Quality of being knowable knowing, adj [1 nōīng, 2 nōūīng], fr Pres Part of know (I) Cunning, smart, shrewd, artful, skilful, intelligent a knowing fellow, knowing hand at the game, a knowing dog, knowing fool knowingly, adv Proc & -ly 1 With full knowledge and intention, intentionally he would not knowingly injure me Legal Phr knowingly kill, deliberately murder 2 In a knowing, smart manner he managed the trick very knowingly knowledge, n [1 nōll, 2 nōūll] ME knaweleche, knowledge, fr know (I) & ledge, the origin of wh is uncertain Act, process, of knowing, result of knowing, that which is known 1 Comprehension, understanding, perception knowledge of good and evil, of the truth & c 2 Learning, mastery of a subject, body of facts known or ascertained by study, science & o knowledge is spreading, knowledge of chemistry, music, French & o, man's knowledge of nature 3 Familiarity with, experience of, acquaintanceship with, information concerning, person, place, fact, event & o knowledge of life, my knowledge of X is slight, a good knowledge of London, knowledge of the victory soon spread Phrs to the best of (one's) knowledge and belief, as far as one knows, not to my knowledge, not so far as I know & (law) a Cognizance, acceptance of fact in court of law as proved by evidence court has no knowledge of that, will take no notice of, as not proved, b sexual intercourse, esp in Phr carnal knowledge of knuckle (I), n [1 nūkl, 2 nūll] ME knokyl & o, derived either fr Scand or LG op Dan & Du knokel, the snuff is dimin

(see -le), op also Mod Germ Knöchel, dimin of Knochen, 'a bone' Perh cogn w knock a Joint of a finger, esp where it joins the hand, protruding in a rounded knob at the back of the hand, also one of the other joints at back of fingers, (usually pl) the knuckles, the series of four such joints at back of hand, Phr (fig) (to give, get) a rap on, over, the knuckles, a snub, rebuff, reproof, b joint of meat, as veal, pork & o, taken from between the upper and lower part of a leg knuckle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a To use the knuckles or clenched hand on or against a person or object, as in fighting or in playing marbles, b to clench the hand so as to show the knuckles Phrs knuckle to, down to (work & o), settle down determinedly to, knuckle under, to submit, to yield knuckle-bone, n Bone of the joints, knuckles, in the fingers, joint, knuckle, of veal, pork

& o, specif, small bone from leg of a sheep, cleaned and bleached, knuckle bones, boys' game played with these knuckle-duster, n Device used in fighting with the fists by law blackguards, consisting of a strap held in the palm, furnished with spikes or weighted knobs, which protrude between the fingers of the clenched fist knur, n [1 nēr, 2 nāl] ME knorre, origin doubtful (rarely used) a Rough projection or knob on trunk or branch of tree, b wooden hall, used in old game of knur and spell, struck as it is thrown up from the 'spell' or trap knur, n [1 nēr, 2 nāl] Prob variant of prec Knur, rough protuberance, ridge in wood or metal koa, n [1 kōa, 2 kōua] Native name Hawaiian acacia, much used for furniture-making and building koala, koalah, n [1 kōshla, kōōla, 2 kōi dle, kōlō] Native name Small arboreal pouched mammal of Australia allied to the wombat, called also 'the native bear' or 'sloth' kobold, n [1 kōbold, 2 kōbōld] Mod Germ, etymol unknown (Germ folklore) Mischievous dwarfish spirit, supposed to dwell in mines, a gnome, brownie kodak (L), n & vb [1 kōdak, 2 kōudmek] Word invented and used as trade mark by the Eastman Kodak Co, USA 1 n Small hand camera used with sensitized films, so called from name of firm which first introduced this type, b photograph taken with such a camera 2 vb To take photographs with a kodak koh-i-noor, n [1 kōi nōr, 2 kōu nō] Pers, 'mountain of light' a famous diamond, now one of British Crown jewels, b (fig) something extremely valuable or priceless kohl n [1 kōl, 2 kōul] Arab See alcohol Powder of antimony, used by Eastern, esp Moslem, women to darken the eyelids kohlrahi, n [1 kōlrahī, 2 kōulrahī] Apparently ad through Mod Germ, fr Ital caroli, 'rape' Cp colo, 'kale' & rapo (III)

Kind of cabbage with fleshy, turnip-shaped stem kola, cola, n [1 kōla, 2 kōlōla] W Afr name for the tree Bitter, stimulating extract of the kola nut, nut of a W African tree, cultivated in S America kolinsky, n [1 kolīnska, 2 kolīnskā] Ross, adj fr Kola, district in N W Russia Fur of various kinds of mink, often confused with or styled 'sable' kooldoo, n See kudu koolah, n See koala kopecik, n See copeck kopje, n [1 kōpi, 2 kōpi] S Afr Dn, dimin of Do kop, 'head, bill' Small hill or hillock in S Africa Koran, n [1 korāhn, Lōran, 2 korān, Lōrān], fr Arab quran, 'the book' The sacred book of the Mohammedans, containing the teachings revealed to and written down by Mohammed koranic, adj [1 korāhnik, ānik, 2 korādnik, ānik] Prec & -ic Of or belonging to, derived from, the Koran kosher, adj [1 kōsher, 2 kōufə] Heb kāsher, 'proper, fit, right' Ceremonially fit, pure or clean, specif a of meat used as food, killed in the form laid down by Jewish law, b of shop where such meat or other ceremonially pure things are sold kotow See kowtow koumiss, kumiss, n [1 kōōmis, 2 kōūmis] Through Fr koumis, fr Russ kumys, Tatar kumz Fermented mare's or camel's milk, used as a drink, similar stuff made of cow's milk kourbash, kurbash, n [1 kōūrbash, 2 kōūbesh] Turk gurbach, 'whip' Whip, scourge of leather thongs, formerly used in Turkey and Egypt in punishment, or as an encouragement to work & o Phr under the kourbash, by forced labour Loushous, kuskus, couscous, n [1 kōūskōōs, 2 kōūskōs] Through Fr, fr Arab kuskus, fr kuskaan, 'pound, bruise' Baked mutton or other meat, mixed with semolina, a favourite dish in N Africa kowtow, kotow, n & vb intrans [1 kōntōn, 2 kōntōu] Chinese, lit. 'to knock the head'

1 n Humble salutation, made by touching ground with the forehead in sign of submission and respect 2 vb To make a kowtow, b (fig) to show great humility and submission to a person, to defer to in a very obsequious, servile, fashion.

kraal, n & vb trans [1 krah], krawl, 2 krāl, krāl] S Afr Du, 'village, pen', fr Port curral, 'pen for cattle' See corral a n Native (S Africa) fenced village, or collection of huts, fenced enclosure for cattle &c, b vb, to enclose (cattle &c) within a kraal krait, n [1 krait, 2 krait] Hind larant Venomous Indian snake kraken, n [1 krähken, 2 krähken] Norw krake, n Legendary sea-monster of northern seas, probably a giant octopus krantz, kranz, n [1 kranz, 2 kranz] S Afr Du, fr Du kranz, 'garland, wreath, coronet' This word appears during the historical period in several Gmo languages, e.g. M H G & Late O N Its origin is a subject of speculation Steep cliff encircling a ravine or gorge, often found in S African Place-Names, e.g. Vaalikrantz krater, n [1 krätei, 2 krätei] Gk kráter, 'a bowl' See crater (archaeol) Largo, double handled bowl or vessel used for mixing wine with water Kremlin, n [1 krémilin, 2 krémilin] Fr, fr Russ kreml, 'citadel' Fortress, citadel, specif. the Kremlin, Imperial palace, and the cathedral of Moscow krentzer, n [1 króntzer, 2 króntzer] Germ, fr kreuz, 'cross', fr bearing figure of a cross See cross (I) Copper coin formerly current in Germany and Austria and equivalent to a farthing kriegspiel, n [1 krögspēl, 2 krögspēl] Mod Germ, fr krieg, 'war', & spiel, 'game' Kluge can suggest no etymol for other word The former is confined to H Germ, & appears late, being almost unknown in O H G, the latter occurs in O H G meaning 'play, merriment', together w the vb spēlen, a cogn of wh spelen is used in Du, otherwise the word does not exist in Gmo languages War game, played for strategical or tactical instruction, on map with blocks, flags, counters &c, representing military or naval units kris, kreese, n [1 kräs, 2 kris] Malay name A Malay dagger with a wavy blade Krishnaism, n [1 krishnaizm, 2 krishnaizm], fr Krishna & -ism Worship, cult, of the Hindu God Krishna, the cowherd god, in veneration of Vishnu as god of fertility and happiness.

krona, n [1 krónar, 2 króna] Scand & H Germ form of Lat corōna, 'crown' See corona a Scandinavian monetary unit and coin, = 1s 1½d, b German 10 mark gold coin, c pre-war Austrian silver coin krooboy, krooman, kruuman, n, pl -men, [1 króboi, króoman, 2 króboi, króoman], fr Kru, native W Afr name One of a seafaring race of W African (Liberian) coast, employed as sailors, boatmen &c, by European vessels in tropical waters krummhorn, krumhorn, n [1. krómhörn, 2 krómhörn] Mod Germ, fr krumm, 'curved', & horn Musical curved wind-instrument krypto-, pref See crypto- krypton, n [1 kripton, 2 kripton] Invented fr Gk krýptos, 'hidden' See crypto- An inert gas, forming an element of the atmosphere kudos, n [1. kúdos, 2 kúdos] Gk kúdos, 'glory, fame', op also Gk kúdaínō, 'glorify', cogn w O Slav čudo, 'miracle'. (colloq) Credit in popular estimation, honour and glory gained by some achievement kudu, n [1 kródu, 2 kródu] Hottentot Large S African antelope, Strepsaceros kudu, greyish brown in colour, with white markings and spiral horns Ku-Klux-Klan, n [1 kú klúks klán, 2 kú klúks klán] Invented name Secret society of Southern States of USA, formed after Civil War, similar society recently revived working against Roman Catholics, Jews, and other supposed alien elements in American civilization kukri, n [1 kóokri, 2 kukri] Hindi word Knife, sword, with short, wavy blade, used by Gurkha soldiers kultur, n Anglicized to [1 kooltúr, 2 kultúr] Mod Germ See culture System, rule, order, mode of life, in all aspects, moral, religious, intellectual, political, or practical, adopted by a nation or race as best suited to its development and success, civilization kultur-kampf, n [1 kooltúr kampf, 2 kultúr kampf] Mod Germ kultur & kampf, 'battle, fight'. See camp & champion (hist) Name given to the struggle on question of State control of religious education, civil marriage, appointment of priests &c, between the Papacy and Germany, under Bismarck (1873-87) kumiss, n See koumiss kummel, n Anglicized to [1 kímí, 2 kímí] Mod Germ, 'cumin, caraway seed' See cumin Liqueur flavoured with tincture or essence of caraway (cumin) seeds kummerbund, n See cummerbund Kuomintang, n [1 kóomintang, 2 kóomintang], Chinese Luo, 'kingdom, nation', min, 'people', tang, 'party' The Chinese Nationalist revolutionary party kurbash, n See kourbash kursaal, n Anglicized to [1 krórsahl, 2 krórsahl] Mod Germ, fr Lux, 'see cure, & saal, 'hall' See salo n Building containing public reception, music, dancing rooms at a health resort, casino kvass, n [1 kvas, 2 kvas] Russ kvass Beer made from rye ky, kye See kine kyanize, vb trans [1 kíaniz, 2 kávaniz], fr name of inventor, J H Kyan To preserve (wood) from dry rot by special treatment with solution of corrosive sublimate kyle, n [1 kíl, 2 kál] Gael caol Narrow channel, strait, between sea and lake, as Kyles of Bute, in Scotland kylín, n [1 kílín, 2 káilín] Chinese, 'hybrid', fr chí, 'man', ín, 'woman' (Chinese and Japanese art) Grotesque figure, in bronze, pottery or porcelain, of hybrid animal or monster kylce, n [1 kílí, 2 kailou] Etymol un known A breed of small long horned Highland cattle kymograph See cymograph kyrie, n [1 kírí, 2 kírí], popularly [1 kír, 2 káirí] Gk voc of kírios, 'authority, power, lord', op Sort kíras, 'strong, brave', Gaulish kaucros, fr caur, 'hero', W caur, 'giant', all fr base *k^u- &c, whence Gk kúris, 'to swell, become pregnant', q v under cave (I) The orig sense is 'the big, strong, important person' Abbreviation of Kyrie eleison, speal, musical setting for the vesicle kyrie eleison, n [1 kírí oláison, 2 kírí oláison] Gk kírie eleison, 'Lord, have mercy upon us' Versicle as response in liturgy of the Church occurring esp in the Mass.

L

L, l [1 el, 2 al] The twelfth letter of the English alphabet, as a Roman numeral L=50, in origin a corruption of Greek λ , for use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary la (I), intj [1 lah, law, 2 lá, lā] See lo (obs or archaic) Exclamation of surprise la (II), n [1 lah, 2 lá] (mus) Syllable used for the sixth tone of the scale in tonic sol fa system laager, n & vb intrans [1 lāgher, 2 lāgh] S Afr Du lager, 'camp' See leaguer 1 n Temporary camp, composed of enclosure of waggons, chiefly S African Dutoli 2 vb To form a laager, settle down temporarily in a laager labarum, n [1 lābarum, 2 lābarum] Lat, also in Gk labaron, etymol dubious Originally a cavalry standard of the late Roman Empire, under Constantine the Great it bore the first two letters of the name of Christ, XP, as a sacred monogram, and it became the standard of the Christianized Empire labefaction, n [1 labifákshun, 2 labifákshon] Lat labefact-(um), PP type of labefacere, 'to shake, cause to totter', & -ion See labour & -faction a Process of shaking, running, b state of being shaken, ruined, downfall label (I), n [1 lābəl, 2 lābəl] M E, fr O Fr earlier lambel, Mod Fr lambeau, 'a strip', origin unknown 1 Slip of card, paper &c, used as a means of identification, a such a slip attached to parcels, boxes &c, with name and address of owner or of person for whom they are intended, b a paper slip, bearing name of station, pasted on to passengers' luggage by railway officials, c a slip bearing name and description of a museum specimen 2 (fig) A brief descriptive phrase applied to persons, schools of thought &c Specif 3 a (archit) projecting stone moulding or dripstone over doors and windows, b (her) fillet with pendants introduced into a family coat of arms as mark of cadency of eldest son label (II), vb trans, fr prec a To attach a label to, b to indicate identity and category of, by means of a label labellum, n [1 lābélum, 2 lābélum] Lat, 'little lip', dimin of labium, 'lip', q v under next word (bot) One of the three parts which form the corolla in orchidaceous plants labial, adj & n [1 lābīal, 2 lābīal], fr Lat labia, -um, 'lip', & -al, cogn w lip, all further connections uncertain 1 adj Confronted with, formed by, the lips, specif needled with, formed by, the lips, association of speech sounds, formed by, associated with, activity of the lips, e.g. [m, b, p] 2 n A labial, or lip sound labialism, n [1 lābīalizm, 2 lābīalizm] Prec & -ism a (of sounds) Condition of being formed by the lips, b tendency to labialize labialize, vb trans [1 lābīaliz, 2 lābīaliz] labial & -ize To modify character of, to pronounce with lip action, to make into a labial sound labiate, adj & n [1 lābīat, 2 lābīat], fr Lat labium, 'lip' See labial & -ate 1 adj Like a lip in shape or function, a (bot) with calyx or corolla divided into two parts, one projecting over the other, like lips of a mouth, b (anat) with thick, fleshy margins 2 n Plant of the order Labiales, which includes the mints, thymes &c labile, adj [1 lābíl, 2 lābīl] Lat labilis, 'unsteady, wavering', fr labi, 'to slip, slide' &c See labefaction & labour (chem) Unstable, liable to chemical change labio-, pref Form of Lat labium, 'lip' (see labial), used in compounds (phon) Implies the use of the lips or one of them, in combination with some other speech organ labio-dental, adj & n [1 lābīo dēntal, 2 lābīo dēntal] Prec & dental 1 adj Formed between the lower lip and the teeth, also called lip teeth, e.g. [f, v] 2 n A sound formed in this way labium, n, pl labia [1 lābīum, -ia, 2 lābīa, -ia] Lat, 'lip' See labial a (anat) External fold of female pudendum, b inner lip of a single valved shell, c the lip of a labiate plant laboratory, n [1 lāburatúr, 2 lāburatúr], 2 lāb(ə)rat(ə)r, lāb(ə)rat(ə)rī Med. Lab labbdrilium, 'workshop' &c, fr labbdril, P P type of labbdrare, 'to work' (see labour), & -rium (see -ory) A place, building, where experiments and investigations in the natural sciences are carried out, b room set apart and equipped with books and documents for research in history, philology &c, Phr laboratory of the mind, critical thought laborious, adj [1 labōrius, 2 lēbōrius] Lat labōrius, 'toilsome, wearisome, industrious' labour (I) & -ous 1 (of work, action &c) a Involving great effort, toilsome, strenuous, wearisome, tedious, b performed with pains and accuracy, exact 2 (of persons) Inclined to work hard, industrious, bordering, painstaking, conscientiously diligent, accurate laboriously, adv Preco & -ly In a laborious manner laboriousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being laborious, a toilsomeness, tediousness, b diligence, industriousness

labour (I), n [1 lābor, 2 lēibē] O Fr labor, ME labour, fr Lat labōr (em), 'hardship, fatigue, toil', connected w Lat labāre, 'to totter, be ready to fall, hesitate, waver', & labi, 'to slip, slide, glide', the primitive meaning of Lat n is 'slipping, tottering, under a burden' See also labefaction & lapse 1 n Work, toil, exertion, esp when severe, of body or mind, Phr labour of love, work undertaken from inclination rather than for reward, hard labour, work imposed upon criminals as a punishment, b (in pl) the ordinary affairs of life, eg his labours are over, his life is finished 2 a The body of those who engage in manual work the claims of labour, as contrasted with those of the community who perform other kinds of work or none at all, Ministry of Labour, Government department responsible for administration of various laws &c regarding arbitration, unemployment &c, b general term for the body of employed, as opposed to employers, esp regarded as representative of Capital Labour and Capital, c (usually with caps) the Labour Party, q v, also electorate voting for that party how will Labour fare at the next election? 3 Pains of childbirth to be in labour, of woman while in act of parturition labour (II), vb intrans & trans Fr labourer, Lat labōrāre, 'to labour, take pains, to work out, cultivate' See preco A intrans 1 To perform mental or bodily work, esp of a hard, painful kind, to work strenuously to labour in the fields, cf a dictionary 2 a To exert oneself, work hard, make strenuous efforts, in order to do or to get something, to strive I am labouring to get finished, to understand what is said, to labour for breath, have difficulty in breathing, to labour for peace, to labour after wealth, b to move on slowly, and with difficulty to labour along a bad road, to labour through a heavy sea, 'The line too labours, and the words move slow' (Pope), 'Eas on Crit', Phr to labour under a delusion, to be misinformed, be in error 3 (of women) To travail, be in pangs of childbirth B trans 1 (archaic) To cultivate to labour the land 2 To elaborate unduly, work out in unnecessary detail, develop minutely to labour on argument, a point laboured, adj [1 lābūd, 2 lēibēd], fr P P of preco 1 (of style) Producing the effect of, resulting from, strenuous effort, reverse of easy, over elaborate, heavy, cumbersome, a laboured joke, compliment &c, far fetched, made with effort, not natural and spontaneous 2 Performed painfully and with difficulty, hard, painful, slow laboured breathing, movements &c labourer, n [1 lābūrēr, 2 lēibērēr] labour (II) & -er One who labours, a worker, specif, one who toils with his hands, manual worker, esp of those employed on the land Labour Exchange, n A bureau, established by Government in towns and districts for finding employment for unemployed workmen labouring, adj [1 lābūrīg, 2 lēibārīg], fr

Preco Part. of labour (II) Habitually engaged in labour, esp in manual work a labouring man, one who works with his hands, the labouring classes, those who engage in manual labour for their living

Labour Party, n Organized political party, to some extent composed of, and primarily intended to represent the claims of, the labouring classes labour-saving, adj Applied to methods and appliances designed to reduce the amount and severity of manual labour involved in agriculture, industry, household economy &c

Labrador dog, n [1 lābrādor dōg, 2 lēbrādō dōg], fr Labrador, peninsula on the NE of British N America A special breed of Newfoundland dog

Labradorite, n [1 lābrādrōrit, 2 lēbrādrōdrāt] See preco & -ite A variety of feldspar, showing when polished a blue or bluish green and grey iridescence

Labrador tea, n A heathy shrub of N and Arctic America, a species of Ledum, the young leaves of which are dried and used as a substitute for tea labret, n [1 lābrēt, 2 lēibrēt], fr Lat labrum, 'lip', fr same base as labium (see labial), & -et Ornament, such as a piece of wood, bone, or shell, inserted in a hole pierced through the lip laburnum, n [1 lābūrnūm, 2 lēibārnūm] Lat, etymol obscure Tree of genus Cytisus, with pendulous clusters of yellow flowers labyrinth, n [1 lābirinth, 2 lēbirinth], fr Gk labirynthos, 'maze, large building with intricate passages' Etymol unknown, apparently a foreign loan-word A Any group or system of complicated, winding, intricate paths or passages, a maze, b (fig) applied to spiritual and intellectual difficulties and complexities labyrinthine, adj [1 lābirinthīn, 2 lēbirinthīn], fr preco & -ine Connected with, resembling, in form of, a labyrinth, complicated, intricate, mazy lao (I) or lakh, n [1 lāl, 2 lāk] Hind lākḥ, 'one hundred thousand (rupees)', about 27500 lao (II), n Hind lālḥ, fr Scrt rājā A red creamy substance used as a dye, and in manufacture of varnish &c lace (I), n [1 lās, 2 lēis] O Fr laz, las, 'noose', Lat laqueus, 'noose, snare', perhaps related to lacio, 'draw gently', whence alicio, 'entice', fundamental meaning seems to be a noose for snaring 1 A string or cord which binds or holds together, esp garments such as boots, garters, stays &c 2 A fine net-like fabric, often elaborately wrought with designs made of linen or silk thread Brussels lace, Alençon lace &c, gold lace, ornamental trimming of gold wire, plaited or worked into designs, and used on diplomatic, naval, and military uniforms 3 Dash of brandy, gun &c taken with another liquid lace (II) vb trans & intrans, fr preco A trans 1 To fasten together with laces, as boots &c 2 To adorn with lace a laced coat Phr to lace a person's jacket, ie give him a thrashing 3 To mingle spirits with (another liquid, esp coffee) B intrans To be fastened with a lace, or with laces to lace up the back lace boots, n Boots fastening with laces laced, adj [1 lāst, 2 lēist], fr P P of lace (II) 1 a Fastened, kept together, with a lace or laces, b trimmed, ornamented, with lace a laced hat, coat &c 2 Fortified by having a dash of spirits mixed with it laced coffee lace paper, n Paper with open work design at the edge resembling lace lace-pillow, n Cushion used in making lace lacerable, adj [1 lāsērābl, 2 lēserābl], fr base of next word & -able Capable of being, liable to be, torn lacerate, vb trans [1 lāsērāt, 2 lēserēt] Lat lacerāt (um), P P type of lacerāre, 'to tear', fr lacer, 'torn', prob fr ulac*, n, perhaps related to Lat vulnus, 'wound', & vellere, 'to tear, tear off', cp also lāne, 'wool' See lanate & wool a To tear, mangle, esp flesh or soft tissue, b (fig) to wound the feelings, distress, harass, afflict grievously laceration, n [1 lāsērāshūn, 2 lēserāshūn] lacerate & -ion a Act of lacerating, b state of being lacerated, a torn, jagged wound, injury to the feelings lascertian, lascertine, adj [1 lāscrāshian, -fin, 2 lēāshian, -tain] fr Lat lascerta, 'lizard', wh is supposed to be fr same base as Lat lacerius, 'forearm', lit 'that which bends, twists' &c, cp further Gk lōxos, 'bent, crooked', O N legger, whence leg, is fr same base, for suff see -ian, -ine Belonging to lizards, lizard-like laches, n [1 lāchez, 2 lēāsh] O Fr lacheuse, fr Lat lascus for laxus, 'sloak', cp Lat laxare, 'to make wide, slacken, relax' &c, connected w languere, 'to be sloak' See languid & op lax Formerly, negligence, now, (legal) such unreasonable delay in asserting an equitable right that the court will refuse relief

Lachryma Christi, n [1 lākrimo kristi, -i, 2 lēkrimo kristi, -is] Lat, 'Tear of Christ' A strong, sweet Italian wine lachrymal, adj & n [1 lākrimol, 2 lēkrimol] Lat lacrima, 'tear from the eye', & adj suff -alis, O Lat doctrina, cogn Gk dakru, oogn w Goth laggr, O E lēar, 'tear' See tear (III) 1 adj Pertaining to tears, lachrymal gland, (med) tear secreting gland, 2 n Small vase, found in ancient sepulchres, in which tears of the mourners were collected.

lachrymation, n [1 lākrimāshūn, 2 lēkrimāshūn] Lat lacrimatio (em), fr lacri mūt-(um), P P type of lacrimare, 'to weep' See preco & -ion Weeping, flow of tears lachrymatory, adj & n [1 lākrimatōri, 2 lēkrimatōri] Lat lacrimāt see preco, & -ory a adj Pertaining to, causing, flow of tears lachrymatory gas, gas shell &c, b n, a lachrymal vase lachrymose, adj [1 lākrimōs, 2 lēkrimōs] Lat lacrimosus, 'tearful', lacrimo, 'tear', see lachrymal, & -ous Tearful, addicted to weeping, mournful lachrymously, adv Preco & -ly Tearfully, as though weeping lacinated, adj [1 lāsināt(ed), 2 lēsināt(ed)] Lat lacina, 'lappet, flap, of a garment', connected w locer, 'torn', see lacerate, & -ate (& -ed) a Fringed, b specul (bot) having petals out into deep lobes lack (I), n [1 lak, 2 lēk], fr LG, cp M Du lak, 'deficiency' Want, deficiency, shortage, absence, need a lack of wit, intelligence, no lack of food lack (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preco 1 trans To be deficient in, short of to lack money, intelligence &c 2 intrans To show deficiency, be wanting, only in Preco Part nothing is lacking for your comfort &c lackadaisical, adj [1 lākādāzīk, 2 lēkādāzīk] Next word & -ic & -al, suggestive of one who in a casual wd merely utter an exclamation of dismay or surprise instead of acting Affectedly languid, full of airs and graces, vague, absent minded, dreamy lackaday, interj [1 lākādāzī, 2 lēkādāzī] Popular relashioning of obs (a)lackaday lackaday, interj [1 lākādāzī, 2 lēkādāzī] Cp alack, (obs) Expression of sorrow, surprise and dismay or impatience lackey, lackey, n & vb trans [1 lākī, 2 lēkī] Fr laquais, fr Span lacayo Origin unknown 1 n a Menial servant, footman in livery, b (fig) a servile, insignificant fellow who takes his ideas from others 2 vb To play, act, the lackey to, to attend on, escort lack-lustre, adj lack (II) & lustro Dull, dim, lacking fire and brilliance lack-lustre eyes lagonic(al), adj [1 lākōnik(I), 2 lēkōnik(I)] Fr lagonique, Lat Laconicus, fr Gk Lakōnikos, 'belonging to, characteristic of, Laconian, or Lacedaemonians, or Spartans' a (of style, expression) Brief, concise, abrupt expressing meaning in few words, b (of persons) given to laconic utterance laconically, adv Preo & -ly In a laconic manner, briefly, in few words laconicism, n [1 lakonizism, 2 lakonizem] Preo laconic & -ism. Laconic mode of utterance or expression laconism, n [1 lakonizm, 2 lakonizem] Gk Lakônismós, Lakôn, 'a Spartan', & -ism a Brief mode of expression, b a laconic utterance lacquer, lacker, n & vb trans [1 laker, 2 lake] Fr lacre, 'kind of sealing-wax'. See lac (II). 1 n Hard, bright, smooth, variously coloured varnish composed of shellac 2 vb To coat, cover, with lacquer lacquering, n [1 lakering, 2 lakerij] Preo & -ing a Act of applying lacquer, b style, mode, in which this has been done, c lacquer itself lacrosse, n [1 lakhros, 2 lakhro] Fr croix, 'cross', curved stick, club &c used in certain games', fr Med. Lat crux, fr Lat crux, stem of crux, 'cross'. See cross (I). A game, played originally in Canada, in which the ball is caught in, and thrown by, a long-handled racquet, called a croix lactarme, n [1 lakteren, 2 lakterin] For etymol see under lactaeal Material made from casein of milk, used by calico-printers lactate, vb intrans [1 laktat, 2 laktet] fr Lat lactā-(um), PP type of lactāre, 'to suckle young'. See lactaeal. To secrete milk, to suckle young lactation, n [1 laktashun; 2 laktasjan] Preo & -ion a Process of secreting milk, b act of suckling lactaeal, adj [1 lakteal, 2 laktal] Mod formation fr Lat lac, genit lactis, 'milk', & -al The base lact-, earlier glact-*, is cogn. w Gk galakt-, 'milk'. See galacteo a Resembling milk, milky; b pertaining to milk lactaeal fluid, lactaeal gland, one secreting milk lactescence, n [1 laktésens, 2 laktésans] fr Lat lactescens-(em), Pres Part of lactescere, 'turn to milk'. See preo & -ce Process of becoming milky lactic, adj [1 laktik, 2 laktik] fr stem lact as in lactaeal, & -ic (ohem) b Belonging to milk, lactic acid, derived from sour milk lactiferous, adj [1 laktiferus, 2 laktifaras] Lat lactif-, see lactaeal, & -ferous Milk-yielding lactose, n [1 laktós, 2 laktous] See lactaeal & -ose (ohem) Sugar of milk lacuna, n, pl lacunae or -as [1 lakóna, 2 lakýóna] Lat, 'pit, hole, pool, pond, chasm', conn w lacus, 'basin, tank, lake', see lake Cp also lagoon A gap or hiatus, vacancy, omission, esp in a book, manuscript, list &c, a gap in one's knowledge lacustrine, adj [1 lakuetrin, 2 lakastran] fr Lat lacus, 'lake', late formation on anal of palustris, -astrius, 'marshy' (fr palus, 'swamp, marsh'), & -ino b Belonging to lakes, lacustrine duellings, lake dwellings lace, adj [1 lasi, 2 leisi] lace (I) & -y Made of, resembling, having structure of, lace lad, n [1 lad, 2 lad] M E ladd, 'serving-man, youth'. Origin doubtful a Young boy, youth, young man the lads of the village &c, used speak of older men employed in racing stables stable lad, b (colloq, slang) (1) a man of character and vigour, (2) also (in detrimental sense) of a man of somewhat loose and wild habits he's a bit of a lad ladanum, n [1 ladanum, 2 ladanam] Lat, fr Gk lādanon, also lādanon, mastic obtained fr a shrub, lādan, prob fr Pers lādan A dark, fragrant, bitter resin, obtained from various species of Cistus or rook rose, formerly used in medicine, the name was transferred to ladanum, q v ladder (I), n [1 lāder, 2 lāde] O E hlædder, M E ladder, O H G hlēttara, Gmo form hladd* (d) pr, prob fr Aryan base k₁le-, k₂le-, 'to slope, incline', thus base,

w. different formative elements, is seen in Gk klēō, 'I slope, lean', & klēmaz, 'ladder, staircase' (see climax), also in O E hlēttan, 'to cause to lean' (see lean (II)) Less probable is the suggestion that O E hlædder is for hlawud dr*, cogn w Gk kleithron, 'a bolt, a bar', fr kleiwdh-, the base being klei- &c, op Gk kleō, 'I shut', & kleis, 'instrument for shutting, a bolt, a key'. The latter is cogn w Lat clavis, 'a key' (see under clavicle) If this etymol. be accepted, ladder meant orig 'a set of bars or spars' 1 a An instrument of wood, iron, or rope for climbing, consisting of two parallel pieces connected by cross-pieces (rungs) at regular intervals which serve as foothold, b something resembling a ladder in appearance, esp an accidental vertical break in the mesh of silk or other fine material, particularly of a stocking, due to one or more slipped threads 2 (fig) Ladder of fame, success &c, means by which success, fame &c are attained Phr to get one's foot on the ladder, to make a beginning, to kick away the ladder by which one rose, despise persons or means by whose help one began ladder (II), vb intrans, fr preo (only of stockings &c) To become affected by a ladder or vertical break in the mesh ladzie, n [1 ladi, 2 ladz] Dimin of lad. A little boy, affectionate mode of address, a for a small boy, b (slang) old chap, old man &c lade, vb trans [1 lād, 2 leid] O E hladan, 'to put upon as a burden, load, to pile up, to draw water', also in OS & O H G, Goth (qf) hlapan Cp O E hlēð, 'booty'. Apparently unconnected w load in origin, though partly identical in meaning 1 a To put freight into a vessel, to place a load in a waggon to lade a ship, cart &c, b to put into a ship, on to waggon &c, as a freight or load to lade hay &c 2 In P P laden, a freighted, loaded, b (fig) burdened, oppressed, now only as adjective See laden 3 To draw, dip, out with a ladle &c to lade water out of a hole &c laden, adj [1 lādn, 2 lēdn] fr old P P. of preo O E hladen 1 Piled, loaded, up, filled with cargo, loaded with burden heavily laden ship, well-laden mules, cart completely laden with hay 2 Morally burdened, oppressed, weighed down mind laden with sin, sorrow, guilt ladida, n & adj [1 lādidāh, 2 lādidā] No history, prob coined in the music halls, occurred in refrain of song once popular (obs and vulg slang) a Used in eighties of 19th cent for an affected, swaggering, overdressed person, a vulgar swell, b adj, equivalent to foppish ladies' chain, n [1 lādz obān, 2 lēdz tjein] Figure in a country dance or other square dance, as the lancers lading, n [1 lāding, 2 lēding] lade & -ing Cargo, freight, of a vessel, b of lading, see bill (III) ladle, n & vb trans [1 lād, 2 lēd] O E hlædel, M E lādel See lade & -le 1 n Spoon with a long handle for serving liquids, esp gravy, punch &c 2 vb a To draw, scoop, out with, or as with, a ladle, ladle out, to take (liquid) out of a vessel with a ladle, also b (fig, colloq) to distribute, award, esp indiscriminately to ladle out honours, praise ladleful, n [1 lādful, 2 lēdful] Preo & -ful The contents of a ladle, as much as a ladle will hold lady (I), n [1 lādi, 2 lēdi] O E hlæfdige, 'mistress of a house, female of rank', often used in L O E as a kind of title, applied to females of royal blood, equiv to 'princess', M E lāfā, lāwed, lāwed, lāds &c. The first syll M E lāfā, 'loaf, bread', see also loaf is fr O E hlaf, 'loaf, bread'. See also loaf (I) & lord The origin of -dige is doubtful A favourite suggestion is that it means 'kneader', fr a vb digan*, 'knead', not found in O E, but occurring as deigan in Goth See the cognates of this under dough 1. a Female of birth, breeding, good manners, and refinement, also Our Lady, the B V M., b a woman who, apart from her birth, has good manners and a kind, generous, and honourable character: not (quite) a lady means either (1) not well born and bred, or (2) not generous and straightforward, shabby, mean in behaviour; c often used now, esp by themselves and their friends, in referring to females who have neither birth, breeding, education, nor manners, the term woman being felt by them as derogatory, as implying, perhaps, a person of light conduct, d (euphemistic ally) lady of easy virtue, of pleasure, a courtesan 2 a Title of respect accorded by custom to the wives of all peers below rank of duke, to wives of lords by courtesy, baronets, and knights, and to daughters of peers above the rank of viscount, b used specifically in reference to women who bear the title, esp in combination lords and ladies 3 a Woman who was the special object of a knight's devotion in the age of chivalry, b in imitation of this, object of a man's attachment, lady love, Phr (vulg) my, his, young lady, fiante, (archaic or provino) my, your, good lady, wife lady (II), adj (attrib) 1 Woman, female, a in lady doctor, lady president, lady secretary, b (as euphemism) lady dog for bitch 2 In lady cook, lady help, implying superior status, education, and refinement lady-bird, n = Our Lady's bird Lady in this and several of the following is a survival of an old (M E) uninflected possessive of feminine nouns Small flying beetle, red or reddish brown, with dark spots on back

Lady Chapel, n = Our Lady's Chapel Chapel dedicated to B V M., attached to large churches and cathedrals, generally built eastward of the high altar, and often projecting from main building

Lady Day, n = Our Lady's Day, Feast of Annunciation, March 25th, one of the quarter days lady-fern, n Lat filix femina Common tall, slender variety of fern lady-help, n Female of rather superior position and education who undertakes domestic duties for wages ladyhood, n [1 lādhood, 2 lēdhud] See -hood Status, condition, of a lady lady-in-waiting, n One in attendance on royalty lady-killer, n A conceited, foppish coxcomb, who endeavours to excite admiration in the opposite sex, esp by the supposed attractions of his person and dress ladykin, n [1 lādkin, 2 lēdkin] lady & -kin A little lady, also term of endearment ladylike, adj [1 lādlik, 2 lēdlik] lady & -like a (of female persons) Having appearance and manners of a lady refined, elegant, b applied also, derivatively, to men having an effeminate, feeble, over-sensitive character, and a fastidious, finical, and affected bearing lady-love, n Woman admired and courted by a man, sweetheart lady mayoress, n Wife of a lord mayor, or one permanently acting as hostess &c for a lord mayor during his term of office, a woman elected as Lord Mayor styles herself eo, and not Lady Mayoress lady's bedstraw, n See bedstraw ladyship, n [1 lādiship, 2 lēdiship] See ladyship Rank, quality, of a lady, used in addressing, or referring to, one having title of lady your, her, ladyship, obsolete or archaic among equals except on formal occasions lady's laces, n [1 lādz lās, 2 lēdz lās] Kind of ribbon grass lady's maid, n Female servant whose business is to assist her mistress in her toilet lady's man, n One who is fond of society of ladies and who makes efforts to attract and please them by being particularly polite and obliging lady's-slipper, n a A wild orchid, genus Cypripedium, b the cultivated calceolaria.

lady's smock, n The cuckoo flower

laevo-, form used in compounds in scientific terminology, w force of 'on, towards, the left side', as laevo rotatory, 'turning, rotating, to the left' &c (contrast dextro-), fr Lat laevus, 'left' (a poetic word, the commoner word being sinister), cogn w Gk laîos, 'left', fr laueos, cp Russ levo, 'left'

laevulose, n [1 lævulös, 2 livjulous], fr Fr lérulose. See prec word, w dimin suff in -ul-, & -ose (ohem) Fruit-eugar present in honey, most sweet fruits &c, it is laevo rotatory, that is, turns the plane of polarized light to the left (cp dextrose), and is sweeter than cane sugar lag (I), n & vb trans [1 lag, 2 læg] Swed lagg 1 n Stave of a cask, narrow board used for covering boiler 2 vb To cover with lags lag (II), n & vb trans Origin unknown 1 n A convict old lag, one accustomed to jail, one often in prison 2 vb a To arrest, b to put in jail lag (III), vh intrans Origin uncertain To loiter, linger, behind others, to walk or move along slowly, often lag behind lag (IV), n. See prec 1 (archaic and province) The last 2 Retardation the lag of the tide Specif 3 A technical term in mechanics and electricity, indicating retardation by the influence of various forces, as when the value of an alternating current reaches its maximum after the electromotive force is at its maximum, op phase lagan, n [1 lagan, 2 lágan] A Fr, of Gmc origin, fr base lag* See lay (III) & lie (III) Ship's wreckage or cargo when sunk to and lying on the bed of the sea, cp and contrast flotsam and jetsam lager (beer), n [1 lágör, 2 ldgə] Germ lager, 'storehouse, warehouse', cogn w OE leger See laug & op laager Light German beer, similar beer made in other countries, so called because it is stored for some months before being drunk laggard, n [1 legard, 2 légad] lag (III) & -ard One who is slow to action, one without energy and courage lagoon, n [1 lágōn, 2 lágdn] Fr lagune, fr Ital laguna, 'fen, bog', another Ital form is lagone, 'fen, pool, lake', fr Lat lacuna, 'hole, pool' &c See lacuna & lake (I) Shallow lake or channel near river or sea, esp one communicating with the latter as at Venice laic, adj & n [1 laik, 2 lei ik] Fr laïque, Lat laicus See lay (II) (obsolesc) 1 adj Belonging to the laity 2 n A layman laicize, vb trans [1 laísiz, 2 lei saiz] Pre & -ize To secularize, to render laic, to open to laymen laid, vh [1 laid, 2 leid] PP of lay (III), used as adj (of paper) Having parallel lines in watermark lain, vh [1 län, 2 lein] OE (ge)lægen, ME lain PP of lie (III)

lair, n & vb intrans [1 lär, 2 lee] OE leger, 'hed, couch, resting place' &c, ME leir &c, OHG leger, Mod Germ lager, Goth luggs, fr same base as OE hegan, 'to be down' See lie (III) & op lager 1 n Resting-place, bed, den, esp of wild animals, retreat, home, habitual resort (of human beings) 2 vb To rest, stop, in a lair laird, n [1 lärđ, 2 leäđ] Nthn Engl & Scots form of lord, w specialized meaning Scottish landowner, originally one holding direct from the king lairdship, n [1 lärđship, 2 leäđ(š)p] Pre & -ship a Status or condition of a laird, b extent of landed property held by a laird lais n [1 lās, 2 lēs is] Name of a celebrated courtesan of ancient Greece, noted for her beauty and avarice A courtesan possessing beauty and some cultivation of mind laissez-faire, n [1 lās fār, 2 lēsēs fēs] Fr, 'let be, leave alone, let them do what they like' Policy of non interference, freedom from, or the minimum of, state interference in economic or industrial affairs, esp by tariffs, restrictions on individual competition &c laity, n [1 lāit, 2 lēt itī] luy (II) & -ity a Whole body of persons not in Holy Orders, as distinct from the clergy, b persons outside a particular profession or occupation, and not possessing some special knowledge lake (I), n [1 lāk, 2 leik] ME lac, lāle, fr O Fr, fr Lat. lacus, 'basin, tank, pool', cogn w Gael loch, Ir lough, 'lake', also O E lagu, 'sea', ON logr, 'sea, moisture' Walde suggests connexion w the large group of words fr base lal-* &c, meaning 'bend, twist' (see lacertian), & assumes the orig meaning of lacus &c to be 'hollow, dip in the ground, marshy, wet hollow &c' Sheet of water of considerable size, usually entirely surrounded by land lake (II), n, fr Fr laque See lac (II) Red dish, purplish pigment made from cochineal mixed with a metallic substance lake-dweller, n Inhabitant of a lake dwelling lake-dwelling, n Proboscite habitation built upon piles some way from the shore of a lake, found esp in Switzerland and Ireland

Lake poets, n Group, school, of English poets of whom the chief were Wordsworth and Coleridge, who lived near each other in the English lake district in the early 18th cent, Southey, who lived in this region, though not one of the school, is sometimes included lakh, n See lac (I)

laky, adj [1 lāk, 2 lēt ik] 1 lako (L) & -y Abounding in lakes, resembling, pertaining to, coming from, a lake 2 lake (II) & -y Having the colour of the pigment lake, pale crimson, of the blood in certain pathological conditions lam, vh trans [1 lam, 2 lēm], fr ON lama, 'to beat' See lama (schoolboy slang) To beat, flog, thrash lama, n [1 lāhma, 2 lāmə], fr Tibetan blama, 'priest', the b is not sounded Buddhist priest in Tibet Grand Lama the chief priest, called also Dalai Lama lamaism, n [1 lāhəsm, 2 lāməsm] Pre & -ism The form of the Buddhist religion practised among the lamas

Lamarckian, adj & n [1 lāmārkian, 2 lēmārkian], fr name of Fr naturalist Lamarck (1744-1829) 1 adj Pertaining to, based on, the teachings of Lamarck and his doctrine of organic evolution, Lamarck held that species were gradually modified by the inherited results of environment upon the individual 2 n A follower of Lamarck

Lamarckism, n [1 lāmārkizm, 2 lēmārkizm] Pre & -ism Evolutional doctrines of Lamarck lamasery, n [1 lāhməsəri, 2 lāməsəri] Fr lameserie See lama Monastery of lamas lamb (I), n [1 lam, 2 lēm] OE lāmb, ME lāmb, lōmb Occurs in most Gmc tongues, cp ON lamb, Dn lam, Germ lamm, but cannot be traced outside these w any certainty 1 a The young of the sheep, Phr Lamb of God, the Saviour, (proverb) 'You may as well be hung for a sheep as (for) a lamb', as well act (sun) boldly and thoroughly while you are about it, b flesh of lamb as food 2 Applied as term of affection to young children lamb (II), vh intrans, fr prec To bring forth lambs lambda, n [1 lāmdə, 2 lēmde] Name of letter λ in Gk alphabet, borrowed fr Semit, op Heb lamed lambdacism, n [1 lāmdəsm, 2 lēmde sm] Gk lambdakismos Substitution of sound of λ for original ρ, as when Chinese pronounce [vɛɪ] for very &c lambdoid(al), adj [1 lāmdoid, lāmdoidəl, 2 lāmdoid, lāmdoidəl] lambda & -oid (& -al) a Shaped like the Greek letter lambda (A), b specif (anat) lambdoid aluture, that between the bones of the skull lambency, n [1 lāmbənsi, 2 lāmbənsi] Next word & -cy Fact, quality, of being lambent lambent, adj [1 lāmbənt, 2 lāmbənt], fr Lat lambent (em), Pres Part type of lambere, 'to lick' (of flame) Cogn w OE lapan, 'drink, lap' See under lap (III) a (of flame, light) Lightly moving about, playing on the surface, twinkling, flickering, b (fig, of wit and humour) gently and playfully brilliant lambling, vbl n [1 lāmbing, 2 lāmbɪŋ] lamb (II) & -ing a Act of bringing forth lambs b assistance rendered to ewes at lambing season, lambling coat, garment worn by shepherd when assisting ewes, lambling hut, small wooden hut used for shelter during lambing season lambkin, n [1 lāmbkin, 2 lāmbkɪn] lamb (I) & dimin -kin a Very young lamb, b affectionate mode of address or reference to a young child lamblike, adj [1 lāmbk, 2 lāmbkɪk] Like the supposed character of a lamb, gentle, meek, unresisting lambrequin, n [1 lāmbərkɪn, 2 lāmbəkɪn] Fr, fr Du lamperkin, 'small veil', etymol doubtful 1 (obs) Small scarf or veil used to protect a helmet from heat or wet 2 Drapery surrounding top of door or window drapery round top of bed-poste, or hanging from mantelpiece &c 3 (hor) Flowing drapery or scroll work displayed on either side of the helmet, mantling lambskin, n [1 lāmbskɪn, 2 lāmbəskɪn] a Dressed hide of a lamb with wool preserved, b leather made from this skin lamb's-wool, n [1 lāmbz wul, 2 lāmbz wul] a Wool of lamb, b cloth &c made from this, c hot ale, spiced and mixed with pulp of roasted apples lame (I), adj [1 lām, 2 ləm] OE lam(a), ME lāme. The base lam* occurs in most Gmc languages in sense of 'lame, paralysed', & ON bas vb lama, 'to beat' (cp lamm), cogn w Russ lomai, 'to break', orig sense is 'broken, bruised', perh connected w lump (II) 1 Disabled, having imperfect use of limbs esp of feet and legs Phr lame duck a lame person, disabled vessel &c, b default on Stock Exchange 2 (of a speech, argument, excuse) Halting, unconvincing, lame metre, had verse lame (II), vb trans, from prec To make lame lamella, n, pl lamellae [1 lāmēla, -lē, 2 lāmēla, -lɪ] Lat lamella, 'small thin plate', dimin, connected w lamina, 'thin plate of metal, wood' &c Etymol donhtful Thin plate, layer, scale, usually applied to a thin plate of bone, or other tissue in animals lamellar, lamellate, adj [1 lāmēlar, lāmēlāt, 2 lāmēla, lāmēlēt] Pre & -ar, -ate (zool) Composed of, arranged in, thin plates, scales or layers lamellibranchiate, adj [1 lāmēlbrāŋkiāt, 2 lāmēlbrəŋkiāt] See lamella & branchiate (zool) Belonging to a class, lamellibranchia, of molluscs which have lamellate gills, as clams, mussels, oysters &c lamelliform, adj [1 lāmēlɪfɔrm, 2 lāmēlɪfɔrm] See prec & -form Having form or structure of a lamella, eosle like lame, adv lame (I) & -ly In a lame or halting manner lame, n See prec & -ness Condition of being lame lament (I), vh intrans & trans [1 lāmēt, 2 lāmēt] Lat lamentāre, late formation fr lamentum, 'wailing, moaning, weeping', the base of first syll is prob lā*, found in Lat lārare, 'to hark', cp also Gk lasken, 'to crash creak creak', O Slav lajati to hark, scold', & perh. Goth lajan, 'to revile' 1 intrans a To utter cries, sobs, &c, expressive of grief, to complain aloud, b to feel grief, to mourn, bewail a calamity, lament for, to bewail, mourn for 2 trans To bewail, mourn for, feel grief at, feel and express deep regret at, to deplore to lament a person's death, to lament a person's folly Phr (ironical) the late lamented, the deceased, specul, late husband lament (II.), n See prec Older than vb. in Engl a Passionate outward expression of sorrow or grief, b a dirge, elegy, composed, and sung or played on the occasion of some specific death, or calamity the lament of David over Saul and Jonathan, a coronach or lament for the bagpipes lamentable, adj [1 lamentabl, 2 lamentabl] lament (I) & -able 1 Worthy, of a nature, to be lamented, grievous, causing sorrow, disastrous 2 (poet.) Expressive of sorrow, mournful a lamentable voice, shriek 3 (contemptuous) Wretched, mean, paltry, of very inferior quality a lamentable performance, meal &c lamentableness, n Prec & -ness State or quality of being lamentable lamentably, adv See prec & -ly a In a lamentable manner, b (as intens.) lamentably ugly lamentation, n [1 lamentashun, 2 lamentation] lament (I) & -ation 1 An outward, audible expression of grief, b inward grieving, sorrow 2 Lamentations, book of Old Testament, attributed to the Prophet Jeremiah lamenting, adj [1 lamenting, 2 lamenting] fr Pres Part of lament (I) Feeling, expressing, grief, grieving, complaining lamentingly, adv Prec & -ly. In a manner expressive of grief, regret, or complaint lamia, n [1 lāma, 2 lēmīa] Lat, fr Gk lāmīa, 'a vampire, bogey', op also Gk lōmde, 'maw, crop', cogn Lat lemurē, 'phantoms' (class mythol.) Alluring and devouring monster with head and breast of a woman and the body and tail of a serpent, vampire, witch lamina, n, pl laminae [1 lāmīna, -nē, 2 lēmīna, -nī], Lat, 'thin piece of metal, wood &c, a plate, veneer' Op lamella Etymol doubtful Thin layer, plate, flake, scale, of metal, or of bone, or other animal or vegetable tissue, specif, one of the plates of sensitive vascular tissue on the hoof of a horse laminal, laminar, adj [1 lamīnal, -ar, 2 lēmīnal, -nē] Prec & -al, -ar Arranged in layers, having form of, resemblance to, laminae laminatē, vb trans & intrans [1 lāmīnat, 2 lēmīnat] lamina & -ate 1 trans a To cause to form, or split, into laminae, b to form (metal) into thin plates, c to cover with thin plates 2 intrans To split, divide up, into thin layers laminated, adj [1 lāmīnatēd, 2 lēmīnatēd] Prec & -ed Formed of, arranged in, thin layers lamination, n [1 lāmīnāshun, 2 lēmīnāshun] laminatē & -ion 1 Process of laminatē, state of being laminatē. 2 (elect.) Thin sheet or strip of soft iron used in building up cores or armatures of dynamos and electric motors lamiferous, adj [1 lāmīniferus, 2 lēmīniferus] lamina & -ferous Having laminae

laminitis, n [1 lāmīnītis, 2 lēmīnītis] lamina & -itis Inflammation of the laminae in a horse's hoof

Lammas, n [1 lāmas, 2 lēmas] OE hlāfmasse, hlāmmasse, ME lāmmasse See loaf (I) & mass (III) Old name for feast celebrated on 1st of August, so called because a loaf was offered to represent first fruits Lammas lands, n pl (legal hist.) Fields or meadows thrown open to the commons from Lammasday to the spring, sown and held in severalty during the rest of the year.

Lammas tide, n Season of Lammas lammergeier, n [1 lāmērgēr, 2 lāmērgā] Germ lāmērgēyēr, fr lāmērgēr, 'lamb' (see lamb), & gēyēr, 'vulture', O H G gēr, wh is fr same base as Lat hīrē, 'to be open, to gape' See hiatus & chaos Largest European bird of prey, now only found in Pyrenees, also called bearded vulture lamp, n [1 lāmp, 2 lāmp] Fr lampe, fr Gk lampas, 'torch, light, lamp', connected with lampō, 'I shine', orig meaning 'that which shines, a torch'. The primitive sense is still preserved in Let lāpa, 'pine torch'.

1 a A vessel burning a wick in oil, used for illumination, b any kind of light-giving contrivance, og gas lamp, electric lamp, c (fig.) source of spiritual light or knowledge, Phr to smell of the lamp, reference to highly wrought style which suggests that the night has been spent on it, to hand on the lamp, to further knowledge or other cause, phrase derived from the ancient Greek torch-race, lampadephoria, qv 2 Vessel with wick burning spirit, esp for heating food spirit lamp lampadephoria, n [1 lāmpadēforia, 2 lāmpadēforia] Gk lampadēphoria, fr lampadē (as), lampas, see lamp, & -phore Race in ancient Greece in which a lighted torch was handed on from runner to runner, as in relay racing lampas (I), n [1 lāmpaz, 2 lāmpaz] Fr lampas Origin unknown (veter.) Disease in horses accompanied by swelling of gums and roof of mouth lampas (II), n Fr, origin unknown Material of milk and wool lamp-black, n A soot formed from burning of carbonaceous matter, or deposited by smoke of a lamp, b pigment made from this lamp-burner, n Part of oil lamp which holds the wick, and from which light proceeds lamp-chimney, n Glass funnel or tube placed round flame of oil or gas lamp lampfern, n [1 lāmpfern, 2 lāmpfern] fr O Fr lampiron, see lamprey A young lamprey lampion, n [1 lāmpjun, 2 lāmpjun] Ital lampione See lamp Coloured glass vessel containing oil and floating wick, hung up for purposes of illumination, esp in the open air lampless, adj [1 lāmples, 2 lāmples] Having no lamp lamplight, n [1 lāmpelit, 2 lāmpelit] Light from an oil-lamp, by lamplight, by artificial light lamp-lighter, n Man who lights the lamps in public streets Phr to run like a lamp-lighter, run very fast lampoon, n & vb trans [1 lāmpoon, 2 lāmpoon] Fr lampoon, 'drinking song', perh fr lampō, 'let us drink', fr vulg lampēr, 'to guzzle', wh is prob a variant of lap (III) 1 n Satirical attack, generally of a scurrilous but humorous character, in prose or verse 2 vb To write a lampoon against, to attack by lampoons lampooner, n [1 lāmpoonēr, 2 lāmpoonēr] Prec & -er Writer of lampoons lampoonist, n [1 lāmpoonist, 2 lāmpoonist] lampoon & -ist Lampooner lamp-post, n Iron support for street lamps lamprey, n [1 lāmpri, 2 lāmpri] Fr lampre, Ital lampreda, earlier lampēdra, fr Lat lampetra, fr lampēra, 'lok', & petra, 'rock', the latter borrowed fr Gk petra See petro- A marine and freshwater fish somewhat resembling an eel, with sucker lips by which it attaches itself to rocks lamp-shade, n Globe of glass or porcelain, screen of silk, paper &c, placed round flame of lamp to shade direct light from the eyes lanate, adj [1 lānat, 2 lānat] Lat lānātus, 'woolly', fr lāna, 'wool, soft hair, down' &c, for wlāna*, cp also Gk lēnos, 'wool', cogn W Sor črān for wlān*, Lith vilna, O Slav vlāna, Goth wulla, fr wlān*, O E will (see wool), all cogn W Lat velus, 'wool shorn off, fleece', velere, 'to pluck, pluck off, twitch' &c, & further, w different vowel grade, Gk oilos for wlōlos*, or wlōnos*, 'woolly, fleecy', the orig sense seems to be 'that which is plucked, or shorn off' Woolly, covered with wool or fine hair.

Lancastrian, adj & n [1 lāngkāstrian, 2 lāngkāstrian] Lancaster & -ian 1 adj a Belonging to, coming from, Lancaster or Lancashire, b sprung from, connected with, adhering to, the royal house of Lancaster, descended from John of Gaunt. 2 n a Inhabitant, native, of Lancaster or Lancashire, b member adherent, of Lancastrian royal house, or of party supporting this in the Wars of the Roses, opposed to Yorkist lance (I), n [1 lāns, 2 lāns] ME lance, lance, fr O Fr lance, fr Lat lancea, 'light spear', prob a Celt word, connected with base seen in M Ir do-léim, 'I fling, let fly', if this is fr plēn-*, then we may also connect O N flengja, 'to hurl' (see fling), Gk lōghlē, 'spear-head', according to Walde, as for earlier lālhlē*, fr Celt lagina, 'sword', but influenced in form & meaning by lōghlē, 'the long thing', cogn W Lat longus, 'long' See also launch 1 Weapon of offence and defence consisting of a pointed iron head fixed to a long shaft, used for thrusting and parrying, a modern cavalry lance has a handle or shaft 9 or 10 feet in length 2 Man armed with a lance, lancer (esp in pl) lance (II), vb trans O Fr lancier, lancer, 'pierce with a lance' See prec 1 To pierce, attack, with a lance 2 To cut, open, with a lancet to lance an abscess &c lance-corporal, n The old obs name was lance-peade, a Fr term borrowed fr Ital lancia speziata, lit 'broken or half lance', used of intermediate class of lancer (mil) Acting corporal, with or without additional pay lancelet, n [1 lānslet, 2 lānslet] lance (I) & dimin -let Small marine animal, the lowest form of vertebrate, Amphioxus, a few inches long, which burrows into sand in shallow water lanceolate, adj [1 lānsēolēt, 2 lānsēolēt] Lat lanceolātus, 'lance shaped', fr lanceola, 'little lance' See lance (I) & -ate (zool. and bot.) Lance shaped, tapering to a point lancer, n [1 lānsēr, 2 lānsēr] O Fr lanceor, Mod Fr lancier, 'man armed with lance' lance & -er 1 Soldier armed with lance, specif, member of a cavalry regiment thus armed, and known as Lancers, also Lancer Regiment 2 Lancers, a square dance, kind of quadrille, or figure dance, b music for this.

lance-sergeant, n See lance-corporal for origin of term (mil) Corporal acting as sergeant lancet, n [1 lānsēt, 2 lānsēt] Fr lancette, dimin of lance (I) 1 Small surgical cutting instrument, of various form, often two edged, used for opening veins, abscesses &c 2 Lancet-window, or arch lancet arch, n Narrow, pointed arch lanceted, adj [1 lānsētēd, 2 lānsētēd] lancet & -ed Having lancet windows or arches lancet fish, n Large deep sea fish with lancet-shaped teeth lancet window, n Narrow, pointed window lancewood, n [1 lānswood, 2 lānswood] Tough, elastic wood from American or W Indian tree, used for making lance shafts, bows, fishing rods &c lanceiform, adj [1 lānsīform, 2 lānsīform] lance (I) & -iform Narrow and pointed, like head of a lance in shape lanceinate, vb trans [1 lānsīnat, 2 lānsīnat] Lat lanceināt (-um), PP type of lanceināre, 'to tear to pieces, mangle', connected with Lat lacer, 'torn, rent' See lacerate To tear, to pierce, stab lanceinating, adj [1 lānsīnātēg, 2 lānsīnātēg] fr Pres Part of prec Stabbing, shooting lanceinating pains lanceination, n [1 lānsīnāshun, 2 lānsīnāshun] lanceinate & -ion Fact or process of lanceinating, a stabbing, shooting, of pain.

land (I), n [1 lānd, 2 lānd] O M E, as all Gmc languages, cogn W llan, 'trout, region' &c 1 Solid surface of the earth, as region &c 1 Solid surface of the earth, as distinct from, and contrasted with, water or sea to spy, come to, reach, land Phr (to see) how the land lies, state of affairs, dry land, the shore, earth, contrasted with water 2 Specific area, or region of the earth, country, nation, state to visit far off lands; one's native land. Phrs. Land of Promise, Promised Land, Canaan, land o' the leal, heaven, land o' cakes, of the thistle, Scotland, land of dreams, beautiful, imaginary country which is never seen, land of the living, this present life, land of Nod, sleep. 3 a Ground, soil, considered from point of view of its character, quality, the crops which it bears &c. rich, poor, boggy, clayey, land, good corn land, cultivated, arable, land, b this contrasted with urban area, country, rural district, Phrs. to go on, work on, the land, become, be, a farm labourer, back to the land, return to country life. 4 Area, tract, considered as property, estate, including everything annexed to it by nature, timber, water &c. to own land, how far does your land go?, to live on one's own land, (also in pl) houses and lands, estates land (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pres. A. trans 1 a To put (persons and things) on shore to land troops in France, b (fig) to bring, put, a person in unfavourable or undesired situation, conditions or circumstances this lands me in great difficulties, Phr. to be nicely landed, to land a man with coat that doesn't fit &c. 2 a To bring (a fish) to shore, b (fig, colloq) to secure a person's support, his consent to act in desired way, c to obtain what one desires as result of effort to land a prize. 3 a To set down from train or other vehicle or from a ship, aeroplanes &c. to be landed at a roadside station, in the desert, on a lonely island &c., b to place, deposit, cause to reach particular spot to land a ball in the middle of the field, c (colloq) to place, deal, strike I landed him one, a blow, on the nose. B intrans 1 To come to land from the sea, air &c., disembark to land of Dover, Croydon aerodrome &c. 2 a To reach, arrive at, come to, a particular place, or in a specified condition or manner I landed at midnight at King's Cross, b to come down after a fall or jump to land on the opposite bank, to land on one's feet, oil doubled up &c. land agency, n Office and business of a land agent land agent, n Person employed to manage landed estates landau, n [1 landaw, 2 landó], fr place in Germany Four-wheeled horse carriage, with top made in two portions to fold back.

landaulet, n [1 landawlet, 2 landálet] Prec & -let a Small type of landau, b now a type of motor car with movable back part of covering land breeze, n. One blowing from the land towards the sea, esp after sundown, owing to the more rapid cooling of ground surface land crab, n One of several sorts inhabiting warm coasts, which live mostly on land, but breed in the sea landed, adj [1 landed, 2 landid] land (I) & -ed 1 Consisting of land, or real estate landed property 2 Possessing land landed interest, the landed classes lander, n [1 lánder, 2 landa] land (II) & -er 1 One who lands, disembarks 2 Person who receives, and superintends unloading of, ore at mouth of mine shaft landfall, n [1 landfawl, 2 landfál] Sighting and calculation of distance and position of land from a ship at sea land-grabber, n n One who possesses himself of land illegally, b specif (Ireland) person taking up land from which a tenant has been evicted landgrave, n [1 landgräv, 2 landgræf] Germ Landgraf, fr land (see land) & graf, 'count earl', etymol of wh is doubtful. Cp reeve (II) Title of head of one of the smaller semi-independent states of the former German Empire landgravine, n [1 landgrävin, 2 Landgräfin] Germ Landgräfin Wife of a land grave landholder, n [1 lánd hólder, 2 landhóldə] Landed proprietor landing, n [1 lánding, 2 lándig] land (II), & -ing 1 a Act of coming, or bringing, to land, b act of arriving or alighting, c place, spot, at which one arrives, or on which one alights 2 Flat part between two sets of stairs, floor, passage, at top of a staircase on to which the rooms open landing-net, n Bag-shaped net with long handle used for getting fish ashore when they have been caught with rod and line, and brought close to water's edge landing-stage, n a Small stone pier or jetty, built out from the land into the water alongside of which boats can float while landing passengers, b large wooden structure, or platform, at which passengers land from larger vessels, built over the water, connected at one side with a pier or with the land, often floating, and made to rise and fall with the tide landlady, n [1 landlādi, 2 landlōdi] 1 (rare) Proprietress of an ostelry who lets the land to tenants 2 A Proprietress of a house which is let to tenants, b specif, proprietress, mistress, of an inn or hotel, c woman who keeps and lets out lodgings

Land League, n Association or league of tenant farmers formed in Ireland by M Davitt in 1879 to obtain reduction of rents

Land Leaguer, n Prec & -er Member of Land League

landless, adj [1 lándles, 2 landlis] land (I) & -less 1 Not owning land, destitute of land 2 (of area in a large body of water) Not having land near it land-locked, adj [1 land lókt, 2 land lókt] (of bay, harbour &c) Enclosed, or nearly enclosed, by land landloper, -lonper, n [1 landlōper, -lōnper, 2 landlōps, -lōups] Second element prob Du fr loopen, 'to run', cogn w loap See interloper A vagabond landlord, n [1 lándlord, 2 landlōd] 1 Proprietor of land, landowner 2 Owner of a house which is let to a tenant or tenants 3 Owner, keeper, of an inn or public house landlordism, n [1 landlōrdizm, 2 landlōrdizm] Prec & -ism 1 A Habits of thought and conduct of landlords as a class, b condition of being a landlord 2 System of private ownership of land whereby rent for its use is paid to an individual landlordly, adj [1 lándlordli, 2 landlōdli] See prec & -ly Belonging to, characteristic of, the position of landlord landlordly rights and duties land-lubber, n land (I) & lubber Sailor's word for one unaccustomed to the sea, who is clumsy and unhandy at everything connected with ships land-lubberly, adj Prec & -ly Pertaining to, characteristic of, a land lubber landmark, n [1 lándmark, 2 landmāk] OE landmearc, 'boundary' 1 Boundary, line of division, object or objects indicating this, esp between two estates or separate holdings to mark one's neighbour's landmarks 2 a Some object, whether a natural feature or a structure of any kind, serving to indicate a particular locality, esp one visible from a distance which acts as a guide whereby direction or position may be ascertained, b (fig) some outstanding event or episode which marks an epoch in time, a period in history, a stage in human life, turning point in a career &c land measure, n System of square measure used in measuring land landowner, n [1 lándōner, 2 landōwnə] Owner of landed property, landed proprietor, landlord landowning, n & adj [1 landōning, 2 landōnig] 1 n Ownership of land, fact, system, of owning land 2 adj a Having landed property landowning classes, b pertaining to the ownership of land, or to land owners landowning worries landrail, n [1 lándrail, 2 landrēil] land (I) & rail (I) Bird which utters a continuous series of harsh, loud staccato notes, corn crane landscape, n [1 lánd(d)skəp, 2 lánd(d)skəp], now, by some, pronounced [1 lánd(d)skāp, 2 lánd(d)skəip] Cp OE landscipe, 'region', & landscap, 'land', the present word, however, is not derived fr either of these, but is a 17th cent borrowing fr Du landschap, 'landscape, province', but was applied primarily to painting, the 17th & 18th cent spelling was landskip(s), a form retained by many good speakers, in pronunciation, this form of the snff appears to be a compromise between Engl -ship, w k fr attempted imitation of Du sch, the modern spelling must be due to association w shape The pronunciation of the second element as [skəip], quite recent, is based on the spelling, & has no tradition 1 Pictorial representation of inland scenery, a pictorial reproduction of a specific piece of country, b the branch of pictorial art which deals with scenery 2 Actual tract of inland country and all its features, considered as scenery, and from the visual impression which it creates, prospect landscape gardener, n One whose profession it is to design and lay out gardens, parks &c, esp as to utilize to the utmost the natural features, such as large trees, slopes, hollows, distant views, vistas &c, and so to relate them to the general scheme that a pleasing unity is secured, that woodland, lawns, paths, isolated trees, shrubberies &c are all placed in the most telling relations, with a view to the general effect desired landscape painter, n Artist who devotes himself to painting natural (inland) scenery landscapist, n [1 lándskāpist, 2 lánd(d)skəpist] Landscape painter landslide, n [1 lándslaid, 2 lándslaid] 1 Fall of considerable portion of land from the side of a mountain or edge of a cliff 2 (fig) Sudden trend of public opinion in a new direction, esp sudden great change in strength of parties in a parliamentary election landsturm, n [1 lándstōorm, 2 landstivəm] Germ land, 'country', & sturm, 'storm', here used in sense of 'rushing together, struggling' See storm The German compound goes back to 1813 Last line of defence in pre War Germany, consisting of all men under sixty who were not engaged already in the army or navy, thus levy could only be made in the gravest national emergency land-tag, n Germ Engl pronunciation usually [1 lánd tāk, 2 lánd 'tæg] The second element is Germ equiv of day, the secondary meanings are 'fixed day, day for transaction of some specified business, business, assembly of those taking part in this', hence 'council' &c Cp diet (I) in same sense Legislative assembly in a German state landward, adj & adv [1 lándward, 2 lánd-wəd] See -ward. Situated near the land, towards the land landwehr, n [1 lándvār, 2 Landvæ] Mod Germ, fr OHG landwēr, 'army for protection of the country', cp OHG werian, Goth varjan, OE werian, 'to protect' &c, cp also OE wēr, 'dam' &c, q v under weir Troops corresponding to militia, called out for national defence in time of war lane, n [1 lān, 2 lein] OE lāne, ME lane, cp De laan, 'alley', provine Engl loan &c is fr the O I type lōne, ME (W Midl) lāne Etymol unknown A narrow road or track, generally between fields, often lower than these, and usually having hedges, walls, or banks on either side, sometimes used of alley or narrow road between buildings in towns, in which case the term has survived from earlier times, and becomes gradually transformed in meaning Phrs it is a long lane that has no turning, things are sure to change sometime for the better, red lane, throat langrage, -idge, n [1 lānggrɪ, 2 lānggrɪdʒ] Origin unknown Kind of canister formerly used to a sea battle lang syne, adv. & n [1 lāng sīn, 2 lāng sīn] Scots. See long & since 1. adv Long since, in the old days 2 n. Long ago, anelout times language, n [1 lānggwī, 2 lāngwidz] M.E. fr O Fr langage, fr Lat lingua, 'tongue, speech' See lingual & -age 1 a The expression of thoughts and emotions by means of articulate sounds formed by the vocal organs, rational vocal utterance, human speech in general articulate language appears to be confined to man, b the set of articulate vocal sounds whereby the lower animals express their wants and feelings 2 a Particular, characteristic form, or mode of speech current among a specific large group of human beings, the speech of a nation, race, tribe &c the languages of Europe, b any of those whom expressed in graphic symbols written language 3 a (1) Given mode of using and arranging the elements of speech, particular selection of these, in uttered or graphic expression, style, diction, individual style of writer or orator the language of poetry, Browning speaks of Wordsworth's 'great language', Phrs fine language, over-elaborate, flowery style, bad language, profanity, obscenity, abuse &c, strong language, forcible expression of vehement feeling, (u) (vulg) abuse, obscenity, profanity I won't have any language here, complained that her master used language to her, swore at her, b special set of terms and expressions in use among, peculiar to, members of a particular profession &c the language of the law, of science &c 4 Any set of symbols or gestures used to express meaning the language of flowers, sign language langued, adj [1. lāngd, 2 lāngd] Fr languie, 'tongue'. See prec & -ed (hor) Applied to beasts in heraldry to imply that they are represented with a tongue of different tincture from the rest langued gules, &c langued d'oe, n [1 lānggdōk, 2 lānggdōk] Fr languie, 'speech', & oe, 'yes', fr Lat hoc, 'this thing' Romance languages of S France, so called from their word for 'yes' langued d'oil, n [1 lānggdōil, 2 lānggdōil] O Fr oil, Mod Fr oil, 'yes', fr Lat hoc illud, 'that's it'. Romance languages of France other than those of S France languid, adj. [1. lānggwīd, 2 lānggwīd], fr Lat languidus, 'faint, weak, dull, sluggish', fr languere, 'to be faint, weary, to droop, wither' &c, oogn w Lat laxus, 'sloak', Gk lagarós, 'sloak, hollow', Sort. langua, 'lame' See lax Weak, slack, flagging, listless, in body or mind languid attempt, half-hearted languish, vb intrans [1 lānggwīsh, 2 lānggwīsh] M.E. languischen, fr. Fr languiss, Pre Part stem of languir, fr Lat languere See prec 1 To become languid, a to droop, fail in health and vigour, pine flowers languish in drought, young children languish in slums, b to grow faint, wano, diminish my interest in the subject has greatly languished 2 To pass through a period of external discomfort and mental uneasiness; to droop gradually from misery and restless longing to languish for years in a dungeon 3 To adopt a look of melancholy, wistful, sentimental tenderness and unfulfilled longing languishing, adj [1 lānggwīshing, 2 lānggwīshing] fr Pros Part of prec. 1 Drooping, growing faint, diminishing 2 Melancholy, sentimental, amorous a languishing look languishingly, adv Pre & -ly In a languishing manner languor, n [1 lānggōr, 2 lānggōr] M.E. langour, Lat langor, 'feebleness, weariness, lassitude', fr same base as languid 1 State of bodily or mental weariness, lassitude, inertia 2 Sentimental dreaminess 'The lilies and languors of virtue' (Swinnburne) 3 Stagnation, lack of life and movement languorous, adj [1 lānggōrus, 2 lānggōrus] Pre & -ous Feeling, affected by, languor; causing languor languorously, adv Pre & -ly In a languorous manner langur, n [1. lānggōr, 2 lānggōr] Hind A long-tailed monkey of India and Asia, esp the sacred monkey, hanuman, the scientific name of which is Entellus laniferous, adj. [1 laniferus, 2 laniferus] Lat lanifer, 'wool bearing'. See lanate & -ferous Wool-bearing, fleecy lanigerous, adj [1 lanigerus, 2 lanigerus], fr Lat See lanate & -gerous Laniferous lank, adj [1 lāngk, 2 lāngk] O.E. hlanc, 'lank, lean', M.E. lank, origin doubtful, but Skeat suggests connexion w Germ lenken, 'to turn', & thinks the orig meaning was 'bending', hence 'weak' This wd connect the word w O.E. hlence, 'lank' See further under link (I) 1 (of bodily shape and condition) Slender, long and thin, lean 2 (of hair) Straight, not curled lankness, n [1 lāngknes, 2 lāngknes] lanity & -ness Quality of being lanky lankness, n [1 lāngknes, 2 lāngknes] lank & -ness Quality of being lank lanky, adj [1 lāngka, 2 lāngka] lank & -y Tall and slim of figure, esp long and lean as though overgrown lanier(et), n [1 lāner(et), 2 lāner(et)] O. Fr lanier, 'cowardly', & -ot, Mod Fr laneret, 'kind of falcon', & lanier, 'the female bird', perh fr Lat lanarius, 'connected with wool; worker in wool', fr lana, 'wool' (see lanate), the steps in meaning are not very clear A kind of long tailed falcon of SE Europe, N Africa &c, formerly much used for hawking, the female being a lanier and the male laneret lanolin(e), n [1 lānolān, 2 lānolān], fr Lat lana, 'wool' (see lanate), & ol-, fr Lat oleum, 'oil' (see oil), & -ine Natural grease in sheep's wool, purified form of this used as a soothing ointment lansquenet, n. [1. lānskanet, 2 lānskanet] Fr, fr Germ landsknecht, 'foot soldier'. See land & knight 1 German mercenary in 16th and 17th cents 2 German card game lantern, n [1 lāntēr, 2 lāntēr], fr Fr lanterne, fr Lat lanterna, fr Gk lampas (see lamp), influenced by Lat lucerna, 'oil lamp', fr luc, stem of lux, 'light' See lucunt 1 Lamp, in various forms, which has the flame enclosed and protected by glass or horn, and is provided with a handle, used for carrying in the open air, dark lantern, one with a sliding shutter for hiding the light 2 Chamber of a lighthouse in which the lights are. 3 Open structure at the top of a tower made to give light and air to the upper chamber, or centre of church lantern-jawed, adj [1 lāntērjāwd, 2 lāntērjāwd] Having long thin jaws and hollow emaciated cheeks lantern-jaws, n. pl Thin oedaverous jaws and face lanthanum, n [1 lānthānum, 2 lānthānum] Coined fr stem of Gk lanthanein, 'to be hid' (q v under latent), so called from lateness of its discovery Rare element, one of the metallic earths, allied to aluminium lanthorn, n. [1 lāntēr, 2 lāntēr] Old spelling of lantern, due to association with horn, of which the sides were often made lanuginous, adj [1 lānūjīnus, 2 lānūjīnus] Lat lanuginosus, fr lanugo, 'down', op lana, 'wool' See lanate & next word

Downy, covered with soft, fine hair lanugo, n [1 lānūgō, 2 lānūgō] Lat, 'down, on cheeks, or on plants', see prec (auat) Soft downy hair which covers the fetus in the womb, and often the infant for some time after birth lanyard, n [1 lānyārd, 2 lānyārd] Fr lanier, 'rope, line', Lat lanarius, '(made) of wool' See lanate The addition of a final -d after -r &c is frequent in Engl fr 16th cent onwards Fr visard fr visor, & the vulg schollard fr scholar &c The final syll of each a form as lanyard wd easily be associated w yard (of a ship). a Short thick rope, esp as used on board ship, b cord used by sailors to fasten their knives round their necks

Laodicean, adj & n [1 lāodīstan, 2 lāodīstan], fr Laodicea, op Rev in 15, 16 a adj Lukewarm, lacking strong feeling for or against anything, b n, person who is lukewarm and indifferent lap (I), n [1 lap, 2 lēp] O.E. lappa, 'tag, skirt', oogn w lobe 1 Flap of cloth, of a garment 2 a That part, of a person who is sitting, from waist to knees, this part in women and portion of the skirt covering it to sit on, in, a person's lap Phrs in the lap of Fortune, fortunate, lap of luxury, luxurious circumstances, b (poet) surface, bosom 'brooks, On whose fresh lap' &c (Milton, 'Lyc', 138), 'earth's freshest, softest lap' ('P L' ix 1041) 3. Stings in a game, one circuit of course in a race which consists of several circuits lap (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 n To wrap, unfold, embosom lapped in velvet, a house lapped in woods, b (fig) to surround, unfold (with) lapped in luxury 2 Lap over, to cause to overlap, place something so that it projects beyond something else B intrans To lap over, turn, fold, over or back, (of things lying one on the other) to come, be, even with lap (III), vb trans & intrans O.E. lapan, 'to drink, lap', O.H.G. laffan, cp O.H.G. leffin, Mod Germ löffel, 'a spoon', oogn w O Slav lobǫzi, 'kiss', Lat lambere, 'to lick' See lambent 1 trans a To drink by scooping (liquid) into the mouth with the tongue, esp as animals do, lap up, consume by lapping, b (of human beings, vulg) lap up, lap down, (u) to drink, consume, greedily or excessively, (u) to swallow, accept, listen eagerly to (flattery, compliments, tales &c) 2 intrans a To carry out the action of lapping, to drink by lapping; b to make a sound resembling that of an animal drinking the brook laps upon the stones laparotomy, n [1 līparōtōmī, 2 līparōtōmī], fr Gk lapara, 'the soft part of the body between the ribs and hips, the flanks, loins', fr lapara, 'soft, flaccid, hollow', & -tomy Cp Gk alapaizein, 'to empty', oogn w Sort alpa, 'small' A surgical operation involving an incision into the abdominal wall lap-dog, n Small pet dog of any breed, as nursed on a woman's lap, (contemptuously) any pampered, badly behaved, small dog lapel, n [1 lāpēl, 2 lāpēl] Dimin of lap (I) Part of a coat forming a continuation of the collar, turned back on the chest lapelled, adj [1 lāpēld, 2 lāpēld] Pre & -ed Having lapels, in form of a lapel lapidary, adj & n. [1 lāpīdārī, 2 lāpīdārī] Lat lapidarius, 'worker in stone', fr lapid, stem of lapis, 'stone' See under lapis lazuli & -ary. 1 adj a Connected with, pertaining to, stones, b connected with the cutting, polishing, or engraving of precious stones or gems 'lapidary work, laths &c, o pertaining to, suitable for, inscriptions engraved on monuments a neat lapidary style 2 n a One skilled in the cutting and polishing of precious stones or the engraving of gems; b an expert, connoisseur, of precious stones, c treatise on gems lapidate, vb trans [1 lāpīdāt, 2 lāpīdāt] Lat lapidat (um), P.P type of lapidare, 'pelt with stones'. See prec To pelt with stones, to stone lapidation, n [1 lāpīdāshun, 2 lāpīdēs[ən]] Pre & -ion Act of stoning lapilli, n pl [1 lāpīli, 2 lāpīli] Lat pl of lapillus, dimin of lapis, 'stone' See next word Small stones, fragments of lava &c erupted by a volcano lapis lazuli, n [1 lāpis lāzūli, 2 lāpis lāzūli] Lat lapis, 'stone', oogn w Gk lazulus Lat lapis, 'stone', oogn w Gk lepos, 'bare rock, crag, op also lepein, 'to lepos', 'bare rock, crag, op also lepein, 'to strip off, to peel', & Mod Lat lāzuli, genit. of lāzulum, wh is formed fr Arab lazward, the name of the stone, also 'azur'. See asure Semi precious stone of a bright-blue colour

Laplander, Lapp, n. [1 lăp(lander), 2 lăp(lander)] Inhabitant of Lapland.

lappet, n. [1 lapet, 2 lăpɪt] lap (I) & dimin -et Loose fold or flap of a garment, flap of flesh.

Lappish, adj. & n. [1 lăpɪʃ, 2 lăpɪʃ] Preo & -ish. 1 adj. Belonging to Lapland, or the Lapps. 2 n. Language of the Lapps lapse (I), n. [1 laps, 2 lăps] Lat lapsus, a slipping, a fall, a flowing, fr same base as labāre, 'to totter' &c. See labour. 1 A slip, fall, a an error, failure lapse of the pen, of memory, b departure, falling away from strictness of conduct a lapse from virtue, moral lapse, a lapse into crime. 2 A gliding, passing away, passage a the lapse of a stream, b the rapid lapse of time. 3 That which has passed away, a period of time a long lapse of time. 4 (law) a Termination of right through disuse, b failure of legacy to take effect, through death of legatee lapse (II), vb intrans. fr Lat lapsāre, 'slide', or direct fr preo 1 (not used in physical sense) To fall away from, fail to maintain, a standard of conduct, a followed by into, to slide, pass, into a worse state, go back morally to lapse into idleness, crime, vice, barbarism, b (absol) to commit an offence, be guilty of, fall back into, misconduct &c. 1 He has lapsed again. 2 (law, of privileges, offices &c) a (followed by to) To pass away from one person to another, owing to negligence, non fulfilment of stipulated conditions &c the estate of a person dying without heirs or successors lapses to the Crown, b to be extinguished, cease to be enjoyed tenure of the office has lapsed, at the expiry of the term of appointment lapsus calami, n. [1 lăpsus kălami, 2 lăpsus kălami] Lat, 'a slip of the pen' lapsus linguae, n. [1 lăpsus lɪŋgwə, 2 lăpsus lɪŋgwɪ] Lat, 'a slip of the tongue' lapping, n. [1 lăpɪŋg, 2 lăpɪŋg] O E hlæpeince, the first element is leap, & the second perch. fr the same base as wrink, v.h. orig implied merely 'rapid movement, wavering', the name is apparently descriptive of the bird's flight, another O E name for the bird was leapewince, the first element of wh can have nothing to do w 'leap' Crested plover or peewit, Vanellus, a bird common in England, noted for its irregular flight and shrill wailing cry, which the name 'peewit' not imperfectly imitates lar, n., pl lares [1 lar, lăre, 2 lă, lăre] Lat, 'household deities, home' Walde gives several speculative etymologies, none of wh is perfectly satisfactory Chiefly pl. and in Phr lares and penates, home and familiar, treasured belongings larboard, n. & adj. [1 lărhord, 2 lăbəd] ME laddeborde, second element board, origin of first element unknown, assimilated to starboard (naut obs, superseded by port) a n. Left-hand side of a ship when one is looking towards the bows, b adj, pertaining to, towards, this side larcener, larcenist, n. [1 lărsener, -ist, 2 lărsənə, -ist] O Fr larrecin & -er, & -ist See larceny One guilty of larceny larcenous, adj. [1 lărsənəs, 2 lărsənəs] larcen as in preo & -ous Of the nature of larceny, guilty of larceny, thievish larceny, n. [1 lărsənɪ, 2 lărsənɪ] O Fr larrecin, 'theft', fr Lat latrocinium, 'service of mercenaries', then 'freehooting, highway robbery', fr latro, 'a mercenary soldier', then 'a highway robber', prob fr Gk latros, 'hired servant'. This word is connected w Gk latron, 'reward, pay' The base la*, le* is found in other Gk words & in Goth lātan, O E lātan, 'leave behind, bequeath' Unlawful removal of another's possessions with intent to deprive him of them, and to convert them to one's own use, theft, petty larceny, formerly, theft of goods below the value of twelve pence.

larch, n. [1 larch, 2 lăɪʃ] Germ lärche, fr Lat larici-stem of larix for darix*, v l ford-as in lacrima for dacryma (see lachrymal), fr old base derewo*- &c, 'tree, wood', whence Sert dāru, Gk dōru, 'wood, spear', also drūs, 'tree, oak' (see dryad), Goth triu, O E trēo, whence tree a Deciduous, coniferous tree, genus Larix, b timber of this tree lard, n. & vb trans. [1 lard, 2 lăd] Fr lard, fr Lat lardum, lardum, 'fat of bacon, bacon', cogn w Gk lārī nōs, 'fat' 1 n Refined, rendered, fat of the pig, esp the internal fat of the abdomen 2 vb a To insert small portions of bacon or bacon fat into meat before cooking, to increase its richness and flavour, b (fig) to overlay, enrich, embellish (style) with he larded his conversation with Latin words, with quotations, oaths &c lardaceous, adj. [1 lărdəsəs, 2 lărdəsəs] Prec & -aceous Consisting of, resembling, lard, fatty, esp of animal tissue in state of degeneration larder, n. [1 lărdər, 2 lădər] O Fr lardier, 'tub in which bacon was pickled and kept', in Engl. applied formerly to room in which bacon and meat generally was kept, see lard Place in dwelling house, or near it, where meat of all kinds for the household is kept larderer, n. [1 lărdərər, 2 lădərər] Preo & -er (archaic) Servant in charge of a larder lardon, lardoon, n. [1 lărdən, lărdən, 2 lădan, lădɪn] lard & -oon Strip of bacon used for larding lardy, adj. [1 lărdɪ, 2 lădɪ] lard & -y Resembling, having consistency of, lard lares See lar

large (I), adj. [1 larj, 2 lădʒ] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat largus, 'abundant, copious, plentiful, profuse, liberal' Etymol very doubtful, various suggestions, e.g. con-nexions w lar, 'household divinity', considered a personification of wealth &c, & w lardum, 'fat of bacon', fr idea of copiousness, richness &c, are rejected by Walde 1 (of material things) a Occupying much space, of considerable size, great, big, bulky a large dog, tree, rock, building, b enclosing, containing, much space, spacious, roomy a large room, house &c, c considerable in number, numerous, or in amount, extent, broad, copious a large income, a large property, field &c, a large congregation, population, a large supply, a large meal. 2 A big contrasted with other things of the same kind, great of its kind large eyes, ears, a large mouth, a large needle, table, to write in large letters, b too big for its purpose this coat is a trifle large for me Phr on the large side, rather too large 3 (in spiritual sense) a Liberal, broad, generous, magnanimous, reverse of petty or mean a large heart, toleration, kindness, b far-reaching, embracing a wide range, unrestricted, not confined within narrow limits large ideas, insight, conceptions large (II), adv, fr preo. 1 In a large way, in large form to write large. 2 Boastfully, pompously to talk large large (III), n, fr large (I) Liberty, freedom, only in Phr (a) at large, free, not in prison, (u) to talk at large, diffusely large-handed, adj. Free, liberal, inclined to generous giving large-handedness, n Generosity, liberality large-hearted, adj Generous, liberal, loving, kindly disposed to, one's fellow-men large-heartedness, n Kindness of nature and disposition, sympathetic attitude of mind.

largely, adv [1 larjl, 2 lădʒɪ] large (I) & -ly In a large manner, a to a great extent largely engaged in writing, b abundantly, generously to give largely, c on a big scale, extensively to spend, build, largely large-minded, adj Tolerant, broad in sympathies and ideas large-mindedness, n Free & -ness Breadth of mental outlook and sympathies largeness, n. [1 lărnəs, 2 lădnəs] large (I) & -ness 1 a Bulk, magnitude, b great size 2 Breadth of view, generosity, magnanimity of mind and character, absence of narrowness in ideas 3 Moral greatness in human beings, or in their achievements largess(es), n. [1 lărnəs, 2 lădnəs] ME, fr O Fr, 'liberality' See large & -ess Something, esp money, freely and generously given, liberality, charity larghetto, adj. & adv [1 lărgétō, 2 lărgétou] Ital Dimin of largo, 'slow' (musical direction) Rather slow, not so slow as largo largish, adj. [1 lărgɪʃ, 2 lădʒɪʃ] large & -ish Rather large largo, adv. & n. [1 lărgō, 2 lăgou] Ital, fr Lat See large 1 adv (musical direction) Very slow 2 n. Musical composition with a slow, stately movement lariat, n. & vb trans. [1 lăriət, 2 lăriət], fr Span la reata, 'the rope' 1 n Long rope with running noose which is flung over the heads of animals such as bulls, horses &c, a lasso 2 vb To catch with a lariat lark (I), n. [1 lark, 2 lăk] O E lærce, ME larke, op O HG lärakha, Mod Germ lerche, ON lærvi: Origin unknown. 1 Any bird of various species of genus Alauda, or of the large family Alaudidae, esp the skylark, A. arvensis, a bird with clear, sweet note, which flies upwards to a great height and sings as it mounts 2 A jest, sport, frolic, a merry, waggish bout, a piece of fun Phr to have a lark, to carry out a merry prank, he only did, said, it for a lark, in jest, as a joke lark (II), vb intrans, fr preo To jest, play, amuse oneself, to lark about, to play some what noisily and roughly larkspur, n. [1 lărkspər, 2 lărkspə] The delphinium, esp the annual species, so called from shape of its leaves larky, adj. [1 lărkɪ, 2 lărkɪ] lark & -y Inclined for a jest, given to larking, frolicsome larrikin, n. [1 lărkɪn, 2 lărkɪn] Origin doubtful Said to be from an Irish pronunciation of larling (Australian slang) A noisy, blackguardly street rough, a rowdy, a hoodigan larrup, vb trans [1 lărup, 2 lărup] Op Dn larpen, 'to thrash' (slang) To administer a thrashing to, to beat soundly larva, n, pl larvae [1 lărva, -s, 2 lărva, -i] Lat larva, 'spectre, mask', prob connected w lar 1 A kind of uncanny, supernatural monster, an elemental 2 (entom) Caterpillar, or worm like stage of butterfly, moth, fly &c, also (zool) animal, e.g tadpole, not yet arrived at final stage of change larval, adj. [1 lărvi, 2 lărvi] Preo & -al Pertaining to a larva in the larval stage.

laryngeal, adj. [1 lărɪŋjəl, 2 lărɪndʒiəl], fr larynx & -al Pertaining to the larynx laryngitis, n. [1 lărɪŋɪtɪs, 2 lărɪndʒaɪtɪs] larynx & -itis Inflammation of the larynx laryngoscope, n. [1 lărɪŋgəsköp, 2 lărɪŋgəskoup] See larynx & -scope Instrument with mirrors for examining the larynx in a living person laryngoscopist, n. [1 lărɪŋgəskopɪst, 2 lărɪŋgəskopɪst] Prec & -ist One skilled in the use of the laryngoscope laryngoscopy, n. [1 lărɪŋgəskopi, 2 lărɪŋgəskopi] Art of using the laryngoscope larynx, n. [1 lărɪŋks, 2 lărɪŋks], fr Gk larux, larugg (os), 'throat, upper part of windpipe', prob cogn w Lat lurcare, 'devour', lureo, 'devourer', cp also ON slark, 'a noisy riot', orig pern 'a drinking bout' The back of the throat, upper part of windpipe, containing the vocal chords

Lascar, n. [1 lăskar, 2 lăskə] Hind, fr Pers laskhar, 'army, camp' Foreign sailor, esp a native of East Indies, employed on European ships lascivious, adj. [1 lăsiʃiəs, 2 lăsiʃiəs] L Lat lascivus, Lat lascivus, 'wanton' Cogn. w Sert lāsh, 'he desires', lāsh, 'playa, delights', Gk. h lasmos, fr las* femas, 'desire', Goth lustus, q v under lust & lustful, wanton, b expressing wantonness a lascivious glance &c, c provoking, moating to, wantonness lasciviously, adv Free & -ly In a lascivious manner lasciviousness, n -See prec & -ness Lewd, lustful feeling and desire, wantonness, voluptuousness lash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lash, 2 lashed] Etymol dubious, sense 1 perh fr lash (II) A trans 1 A To strike violently, as with a whip, to flog, thrash to lash a man across the face, b (fig) to strike violently upon the waves lashed the shore, hail lashed the window pane, c (fig) to excite violently, provoke powerfully to lash a person to fury by one's remarks, to lash oneself into a rage, to become more and more angry with indignation which increases as one broods on wrongs, insults, or the like 2 To move rapidly backwards and forwards as though in anger (of animals) to lash the tail 3 To vituperate, attack violently, heap invective on, to satirize, scold fiercely to lash a person with one's tongue, pen 4 To bind, fasten securely, with a thong, rope &c to lash one's piece to another, to lash two pieces together B intrans 1 To make rapid violent movement, gen lashed out (at), (of horse) to kick out, suddenly and fiercely, also (fig) to burst into a sudden, violent attack in words 2 (of rain &c) To fall violently to come lashing down lash (II), n ME lasche, 'lash of a whip, blow', op Germ lasche, 'thong' &c, wh is fr Ital lascia, 'a string, lace' &c The Engl word is fr O Fr laz, 'cord, snare', Mod Fr lacs, fr Low Lat lacum, Lat laqueus, 'noose, snare' See lace 1 Flexible thong, forming part of a whip, that part with which the stroke is given Phr under the lash, suffering corporal punishment, also (fig) incurring severe, biting censure 2 A Blow, stroke, given with a whip or scourge to receive so many lashes, b stroke of satire, outting reproach 3 An eyelash lasher, n [1 lasher, 2 lashed] lash (I) & -er Opening in a wear through which the water rushes lashing, n [1 lashing, 2 lashed] See lash (I) & -ing 1 Action of one who lashes, a thrashing 2 Arrangement of cords &c with which anything is fastened, the cords which fasten things together 3 In pl, lashings (possibly separate word, origin obscure), also in Phr lashings, or lashings, and leaving's, a great deal, plentiful supply, esp of food and drink lashkar, n [1 lashkar, 2 lashed] Hind 'army' A body of armed tribesmen on the NW Frontier of India laspring, n [1 laspring, 2 lasprung] Perh fr OE leaz, 'salmon', & pink, Engl dial, 'young salmon' Young salmon lass, n [1 las, lase, 2 lase, lase] ME lasse Origin doubtful (obscure Scots and Nthn) a Young girl, b female child, c familiar and affectionate mode of address to women, who are the equals, inferiors, or juniors of speaker (prov or vulg) lassie, n [1 lassie, 2 lassie] Dimin of prec a Young or small girl, b affectionate mode of address to such lassitude, n [1 lassitude, 2 lassitud] Lat lassitudo, fr lassus, 'faint, exhausted', fr lod* is, the base (reduced grade of le*, see lemont) is cogn w Goth lots, 'slothful', OE lat, 'sluggish', see late &c Bodily or mental weakness, weariness, exhaustion lasso, n & vb trans [1 lasso, 2 lassou] Span lazo See lance a Long strip of untanned hide with noose at one end, used by Spaniards in S America for throwing over necks of cattle and horses which they wish to catch, b vb, to catch (animal) with a lasso last (I), adj [1 last, 2 last] OE laest, superl of laet, q v under late, ME laest, laeste 1 Coming at the end of a series, after all others in place, furthest from the first, hindmost the last chair in the row, the last carriage on a train, the last page of a book 2 a Coming, occurring, after all others in time, furthest from the beginning, latest the last day of the year, to see something for the last time, Phr at last, in the end, finally I hope to succeed at last, after a long time, b done, performed, as the final one of a series of actions the last words he uttered, his last act was to provide for his children, c solo remaining, surviving &c last breath, last hope, one's last shilling, crust &c 3 a Immediately before the present, or before some specified time last night, week, year, last vacation, last summer, as we saw in the last chapter, ie the one before this, b most recent his last letter came a week ago, the last news I heard was that he was married, also elliptically I hope you received my last (letter), the last I heard &c, c newest, most up to date the last thing in hats 4 Most remote from what is postulated, desired, expected, most unlikely, most unsuitable the last man I want to see, the last person I expected to see, the last thing I should do, he is the last man to consult in such matters 5 A final, conclusive, leaving nothing more to be said, done, learnt &c the last word in science, b supreme, utmost of the last importance last (II), adv, fr prec 1 In the last place, finally, after all others in place or turn to come last, to equal last, also in combinations last mentioned 2 At a time immediately before the present, the last time or occasion when did you last go abroad?, I last met him in Oxford, when did you see her last?

last (III), n, fr last (I) 1 That which is last in a series, or succession the last of the Stewarts, b in time I thought every moment would be my last, c the last one of certain acts to breathe, look, one's last 2 a The end, to hold on to the last, b final manifestation, appearance, mention &c to see the last of, I shall never hear the last of that last (IV), n OE laest, 'sole of foot, track, footstep', laest, 'boot', OHG laust, 'track', Goth laista, 'track', fr Gmc law*, op Goth laigan, 'to teach', OE læran, earlier lar* jan, fr OE lar, 'teaching, doctrine', q v under lore (I), cogn w Lat lira, 'furrow', for lisa*, op Lat de līrura, 'to draw the furrow away, deviate from straight line', (fig) 'to be crazy' See delirium Mould, model of foot, upon which a shoemaker makes his boots and shoes Phr to stick to one's last, attend to one's business and duties last (V), vb intrans OE laestan, trans, 'to follow; to help, to carry out, perform', intrans 'to continue, last, suffice', ME laesten, laesten, 'to perform', but chiefly intrans 'to last, continue, endure' The orig meaning is 'to track out, follow a track', hence, 'to pursue, carry out' &c, whence, 'to continue' &c The OE vb is fr laest* jan, fr laest, 'track' &c See prec 1 a To continue in existence, to hold out, endure as long as life lasts, he can't last till morning, the frost has lasted a month, b to keep on, continue how long will the performance last?, the sermon lasted an hour 2 a To remain unimpaired, to suffer no exhaustion or diminution his strength lasted to the end of the journey, b if my health lasts I will finish my work, b to wear well, woollen cloth lasts much longer than shoddy 3 To suffice, be adequate a pound of tobacco only lasts me a fortnight, you must make your money last till you get home, also last out our supply of coal will hardly last out the winter last (VI), n, fr prec Capacity for lasting, staying power, power of resistance last (VII), n OE hlæst, 'burden', fr hlæst*, fr base of hladan, 'to load', q v under lade Measure of weight or quantity, the amount of which varies according to the commodity, last of meal=ten barrels, last of corn=ten quarters, or eighty bushels lasting, adj [1 lasting, 2 lasting] fr Free Part of last (V) Permanent, durable, as during a lasting comfort, sorrow &c lastingly, adv Free & -ly In a lasting manner lastingness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being lasting, durability, permanence lastly, adv [1 lastly, 2 lastly] last (I) & -ly In the last place, finally latakia, n [1 latakia, 2 latakia] Turk, fr place of origin, the ancient Laodicea A kind of strong Syrian tobacco used in smoking mixtures latch (I), n & vb trans & intrans [1 latch, 2 latched] Etymol doubtful, ME has lache, 'catch, fastening', fr laechen, 'to seize, catch hold of', OE laecan, prob to be referred to same base as in Lat laqueus, 'snare' See lace, cp latchet 1 n a Fastening for doors and windows, b special lock affixed to principal door of a house in addition to main lock, which can be opened by small key from the outside the door is on the latch, fastened only by latch, and capable of being opened by small key from without 2 vb a trans To fasten (door or window) with a latch, b intrans, to be capable of being fastened with a latch latchet, n [1 latchet, 2 latched] ME lachel, fr O Fr lachel, 'thong', dial variant of lacet, dimin of lace (obs and Bib) Leatheren thong for fastening a shoe latch-key, n Small, light key for opening a house door from without, latch key voter, derivative name for a person who obtained a vote as a householder on rather slender grounds late (I), adj [1 late, 2 late] OE laet, 'be hindhand, sluggish, slow', ME laie, cogn w OHG laz, 'lazy, slow' Cp also Lat lassus, fr lad* tos, 'languid, sluggish' (see lassitude) See further lat, 'to hinder' 1 (predic) a After the time expected, after the suitable, or agreed, fixed hour, behindhand the post is late today, late for one's own wedding, late for breakfast, also preceded by too without adding much to the force too late for the train, b after natural period or season, backward the crops are late this year, Phrs (rather, very) late in the day, too late, to keep late hours, go to bed and get up late 2 (attrib) Occurring in an advanced stage, towards the end, typical of latter part of a period of time, of a season, or of an historical epoch the late afternoon, late summer, late eighteenth century poetry, late Middle English, that of 14th cent, late Gothic architecture Phr late dinner, taken at night, comparatively used in same sense but with loss of definiteness the later Middle Ages, the later Plantagenets, in the later spring 3 (of a system, regime, form of activity, condition) Former, earlier than present, having recently come to an end the late Government, my late illness Phr of late years 4 (of persons) a No longer living, dead before date of speaking, or that to which reference is made my late father, the late king, b no longer holding specified office or status the late headmaster of X has gone to live in London 5 (superl) a Expressing novelty, what is most recent the latest news, information Phr the latest thing, a novelty, up to date invention &c, b referring to time at (the) latest, we must be there by 10 at (the) latest, not later than 10 late (II), adv, fr prec 1 a After the time or period fixed, expected, or regarded as suitable or natural to come late, is develop, blossom, ripen, late, Phr better late than never, b too late to arrive late for the train 2 a At an advanced hour, towards the end of a given period of time to get up, go to bed, late, Phr to dine late, dine in the evening, not at mid day, b to, up, down, to, an advanced hour to stay, sit, late 3 Recently, lately, in Phr of late I've been rather ill of late lateen, adj & n [1 lateen, 2 lateen] fr Fr voile latine, lit 'Latin sail' a adj Lateen sail, triangular sail as used on small boats in Mediterranean, b n, vessel rigged with such a sail laudatory, adj [1. lāwdat(ə)rī, 2 lōdēt(ə)rī] Lat laudāt, as in laudation &c., & -ory Expressing praise and approbation, eulogistic, tending to commend

Laudian, adj [1 lāwdian; 2 lōdian], fr name of Archbishop Laud (1573-1646) Pertaining to, connected with, the Archbishop, or with his character and principles laugh (I), vb intrans & trans [1 lahī, 2 lāf] OE leahhan &c. ME lahen, laughen &c., OS hlahan, OHG hlahan, Mod Germ lachen, Goth hlahan, prob imitative in origin, & connected w Gk hazern, for hag(g)* -, 'to make a sharp, shrill sound, to rattle, screech, screech, to bark', also to Gk klaggē, 'a sharp, shrill sound', Lat clangere, 'to resound', clangor, 'noise' (see clangour), further, op Lath klegeti, 'to laugh' A intrans 1 A To utter, often involuntarily, an inarticulate, usually voiced, sound, or series of such sounds, with the vocal organs, expressive of merriment, amusement, happiness, or contempt &c., the sounds are frequently accompanied by a characteristic expression of the facial features, as in smiling, Phrs he laughs best who laughs last, to laugh in a person's face, to deride, defy him openly, to laugh in one's sleeve, to be secretly amused, to enjoy secret triumph, to laugh on the wrong, or, on the other, side of one's mouth, to experience sudden disappointment and annoyance, esp at failure of arrogant pretensions, b to be merry, or to joke, c to fool amusement, gratification, triumph &c. I should laugh if he turned out to be wrong after all 2 To typify, convey an impression of, thoughtless happiness, placid peace, prosperity &c., said of waves (partly in reference to the sound of movement), of a landscape, and of nature generally 3 Laugh at a to be amused, be made to laugh, by to laugh at a joke, b to deride, treat as an object of ridicule, or contempt, make fun of to laugh at a person's appearance, c to disregard, be unmoved by, be heedless of to laugh at threats, danger, fate, misfortune &c. 4 Laugh over, to consider, discuss, with laughter to laugh over a letter &c. B trans 1 Chiefly in certain phrases with preposition or adverb Laugh down, to silence, render inaudible, by laughing to laugh down a speech Laugh away, to dismiss, dispel, with laughter to laugh away a person's fears Laugh off, to pass off, escape from, an embarrassing remark, situation &c. with laughter, or a joke 2 To utter with a laugh to laugh a reply laugh (II), n, fr prec 1 The action of laughing to have a good, a hearty, laugh at the joke Phr to have the laugh of, get the better of, score off 2 Sound made in laughing, burst of laughter someone gave a loud laugh, individual quality, character, of a laugh a musical, harsh, ugly, laugh Phr to rowse a laugh, cause amusement laughing (I), vbl n [1 lāhŋŋ, 2 lāfŋ], fr laugh (I) & -ing Laughter too much laughing and talking laughing (II), adj, fr Pres Part of laugh (I) 1 a Expressing merriment, amusement, happiness &c. by laughter, or by facial expression a laughing countenance, b (fig) conveying impression of peace, joy, prosperity &c. by external appearance the laughing face of nature, laughing wavelets &c. 2 Giving cause for, rise to, laughter or amusement, in Phr no laughing matter, a very serious matter, not one for laughter laughing gas, n Nitrous oxide used as an anesthetic by dentists laughing hyena, n Spotted hyena laughing jackass, n Kind of kangfisher found in Australia, which utters a harsh cackling note laughing-stock, n Person or thing that excites general ridicule laughter, n [1 lāhter, 2 lāft] OE leahhtor, ME lahter &c. See laugh (I) Sound of laughing, burst of merriment.

Phr Homeric laughter, loud, uproarious, inextinguishable laughter launch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lawŋch, lahŋch, 2 lōntf, lāntf] ME lanchen, launchen, variant of lancē &c., 'to drop, leap, shoot' See lance A trans 1 a To hurl, fling, cast, cause to fly from hand &c. through the air to launch a spear, projectile &c., b to strike, aim to launch a blow, c (fig) to utter with force to launch an invective 2 To cause to become active, to initiate, start, begin, some form of physical movement or activity a speeif (mil) to launch an attack, b (fig) to launch a campaign of abuse 3 To cause a vessel to pass from the land into the water, to thrust it out a (of any ship or boat, on any occasion) to launch one's ship from a landing-stage, b to cause a newly built ship to pass into the water for the first time it is hoped that the new liner will be launched this year 4 To start some form of activity for first time, cause to begin operations, set going to launch an enterprise, a new undertaking &c. B intrans Followed by preposition or adverb Launch into, plunge, embark on, throw oneself into with enthusiasm, vigour, recklessness &c. to launch into an argument, launch into dissipation, extravagance, also launch out into Launch out, (i) to put out to sea, esp on an adventurous voyage to launch out into the deep, on a voyage of discovery &c., (ii) (fig) to start, embark upon, some new enterprise he is launching out into a series of agricultural experiments, (iii) (absol) to spend money freely and extravagantly launch (II), n, fr prec, in sense 2 possibly a different word, fr Span lanchar, 'pinnacle', fr Malay lanchar, 'swift, speedy' 1 A Movement of vessel in being thrust, or of sliding, into the water, b act of launching a vessel 2 A large boat carried by warship, used for transporting men, stores &c. to and from ship, driven by steam, oil, or petrol, b boat of any size driven by various means, used for short journeys of business or pleasure pleasure launch, motor launch &c.

launder, vb trans & intrans [1 lāhnder, lāwnder, 2 lānda, lōnda], fr obs ME n lavender, O Fr lavandier, fr Lat lavandus, 'to be washed', fr lavare, 'to wash' See lavo (obs except in P P) To wash linen, carry on trade of a laundress beautifully laundered linen launderess, n [1 lāhndres, lāwndres, 2 lāndris, lōndris], fr prec & -ess Woman who washes clothes laundry, n [1 lābndr, lāwndr, 2 lāndri, lōndri] ME lavenderie, O Fr lavanderie launder & -y 1 A place, establishment, where clothes are washed, b process of washing clothes 2 (colloq) Clothes sent to, or returned from, a laundry laureate, adj & n [1 lōrat, lāwreat, 2 lōret, lōret] Lat laureus, 'laurel', see next word & -ate 1 adj Crowned with a laurel wreath 2 n (usually cap) In full, Poet Laureate, a poet appointed by the Crown, officially attached to the royal household, and nominally expected to write Court odes, and poems on great national occasions laurel, n [1 lōrel, 2 lōrl] ME lorer, laurer, lorē, O Fr laurier, lorier, Lat laureus, 'of laurel', fr laurus, 'bay-tree, laurel, laurel crown, a triumph', etymol doubtful, Gk lauros is fr the Lat 1 One of several kinds of evergreen shrub, allied to the bay 2 (fig) Recognition for services rendered, reward, chiefly in Phr to win, gain, laurels, to gain approbation, recognition, prestige, rest on one's laurels, be content with what one has already done or gained laurelled, adj [1 lōrelld, 2 lōrlld] Prec & -ed A Crowned with laurel, b honoured, decorated, for merit and services rendered laurel water, n Liquor containing preservative, distilled from leaves of the laurel laurestinus, n [1 lōrus, lāwrustinus, 2 lōres, lōrestines], fr Lat laurus (see laurel) & tinus, 'a plant of the laurel tribe', perh named fr its purging qualities, in wh case the name may be cogn w O Slav lra, 'mad, mire', O E þinan, 'to become moist', & w first syll of Gk hlae, 'a purging' Spring flowering shrub of guelder rose tribe, Viburnum tinus, with pinkish white blossoms lava, n [1 lāhva, 2 lāva] Ital, connected w lavare, 'to wash' See lave Matter which flows in a fluid, molten state from a volcano and hardens as it cools lavabo, n [1 lāvābō, 2 lāvēt(b)w] Lat, 'I will wash', opening word of Ps cxxvi 6 1 Ritual of washing celebrant's hands at the offertory, accompanied by repetition of the above mentioned verse 2 Fixed basin in lava tories for washing hands (from Fr lavabo, with transferred sense of 'basin') lavation, n [1 lāvāshun, 2 lāvēt(sh)un] Lat lavāshō (em), 'a washing, bathing', fr lavāt(-um), P P type of lavare, 'to wash' See lave & -ion Process or act of washing, water for washing lavatory, n [1 lavat(ə)rī, 2 lavēt(ə)rī] Lat lavatōrium, fr lavāt(-um), P P type of lavare, 'to wash' See lave & -ory a Place or room for washing, room in house, hotel &c., esp for washing hands, often associated with a privy, b euphemism for a privy lave, vb trans & intrans [1 lāv, 2 lāv] OE lafian, 'wash, pour', this word is cogn w (or borrowed fr) Lat lavare, 'wash, bathe' &c., whence Fr laver, 'wash' The vb lavē(n), 'pour out, wash', is fairly common in ME So far as the form goes the Mod Engl word might come fr either the OE or the Fr The sense of the two was nearly the same, though that of 'pour' belongs rather to the OE, prob the two words have been blended in ME, & subsequently The Gk cogn is louein, 'wash, bathe', fr louein*, op also O N laug, 'warm bath', OE lēag, 'lye, ashes and water for washing', & lēapor, 'lather' See also lather (chiefly poet) 1. trans a To wash, bathe 'With nectar pure his cozy locks he laves' (Milton, 'Lyc' 175), b (of a stream) to flow past or against, lap against 2 intrans (rare) To bathe lavement, n [1 lāvment, 2 lāvment] Fr See prec & -ment a A washing, b a dyster, an enema lavendar, n & adj [1 lāvendar, 2 lāvinda] ME, fr O Fr lavendre, L Lat lavandula Origin uncertain 1 n a Plant with very pungent, agreeably scented, pale purple flowers, growing on long, stiff, rather dry stalks, which have narrow greyish-green leaves growing from them at intervals, the strong characteristic perfume pervades the leaves and stalks as well as the flowers, b pale purple colour approximating to that of lavender flowers 2 adj a Of, pertaining to, the lavender plant or its flowers, b of colour of lavender lavender-water, n Scented liquid used as an article of toilet, distilled from lavender plant laver (I), n [1 lāver, 2 lāva], fr O Fr lavoir, fr Lat lavatōrium See lavatory Basin or other vessel for washing laver (II), n Lat laver, 'a water plant', connected w lavare, 'to wash', see lave Kind of edible seaweed laveroak, n [1 lāverok, 2 lāverok] Archaic, provine variant of lark lavish (I), adj [1 lāvish, 2 lāvī] Perh fr O Fr lavasse, lavache, 'deluge of rain', connected w lave 1 (of persons) Profuse, generous, free lavish in, of one's, expenditure, hospitality, kindness, lavish of one's time, trouble, help, praise &c., lavish in one's ideas, habits, extravagant, (also absol) he's rather too lavish, given to extravagance 2 (of something provided, given, offered &c.) a Abundant, generous, ample a lavish supply, lavish hospitality &c., b too profuse, superabundant, extravagant lavish expenditure lavish (II), vb trans, fr prec a To bestow freely, generously to lavish money on the poor, to lavish care upon one's children, to lavish one's affection on unworthy objects, to expend with prodigality, to squander, to lavish one's money in self-indulgence, upon one's pleasures lavishly, adv lavishly (I) & -ly In a lavish manner, generously, copiously, extravagantly lavishness, n See prec & -ness A quality of being lavish, b abundance, profusion, extravagance law, n [1 law, 2 lə] O E lagu, M E lawe The O E word is fr a primitive Scand form wh later in ON itself became lög, the cogn lag is found in OS, the base is that of the vbs lay (III) & lie (III), the fundamental meaning being 'something set, placed, fixed, laid down' & Cp a similar development of meaning in Germ. gesetz, 'law' 1 Rule of action and conduct imposed by superior authority, enjoining what is right and prohibiting what is wrong the laws of God, law of Moses Phrs laws of the Medes and Persians, system, practices &c which never varies, necessarily knows no law, is superior to, is compelled to override, ordinary rules 2 a Body of customary or enacted rules and practices, the observance of which is sanctioned and enforced by the supreme governing body in a State, and which are recognized by the community as binding the laws of England, the law of the land, the law of contract &c, b a specific act or enactment of the legislature, c law considered as a branch of knowledge, jurisprudence, legal science, Phr to lay down the law, to assert one's opinions dictatorially, to hector, d the legal profession to follow the law, go in for law, e the operation of law as a means of preserving rights and redressing wrongs, litigation to go to law Phrs to have the law of a person, to prevent him from, or punish him for, inflicting an injury, by appealing to the law, to take the law into one's own hands, to decide on and pursue a line of action, in defence of one's rights, inflict punishment &c, without legal authority 3 Body of rules, usages or principles, procedure, action, behaviour, recognized and observed by custom and usage as correct, a (in morals) laws of honour, b (in art of all kinds) the laws of perspective, painting, harmony, metre &c, c (in sport, games &c) the laws of the chase, the laws of golf &c, d laws of thought, principles of logical reasoning 4 (in science) a (i) A sequence of natural processes or events in nature, a series of causes and effects observed to occur uniformly when the same conditions are present a law of nature, the law of gravity, of the conservation of energy &c, phonetic law, (n) a generalized statement or formulation of such a sequence of events and of the conditions under which they occur Dalton's Law, Grimm's Law &c, b (i) e sequence of what are believed to be causes and effects observable in the relations of one set of human activities to another set, or to external conditions the law of supply and demand, economic laws, (u) formulation of these causes and effects 5 Propensity, inherent, instinctive tendency of sentient beings to behave in a particular way under given conditions the law of self-preservation 6 a Allowance of time, or distance granted to a competitor in a contest, or to an animal about to be hunted, start, b indulgence, grace to give a person five minutes' law before beginning dinner law-abiding, adj Adhering to, observing, the law, well behaved, peaceable law agent n (Scotland) Solicitor acting for a party in a lawsuit or trial law-calf n Natural coloured leather with rough surface in which law books, ledgers &c are bound law court, n One in which legal causes are tried law-French, n Form of Norman French in which proceedings in law courts were conducted from the Conquest to 1363 lawful, adj [1 'lawful, 2 ləfəl] law & lax (I), adj [1 laks, 2 ləks] Lat. laxus,

-ful a In accordance with the law, allowed by law, legitimate lawful authority, a lawful act, b recognized, authorized, appointed, by law a lawful occasion, lawful possessor Phrs lawful age, that at which full legal rights are enjoyed, majority, lawful money, legal tender lawfully, adv Prec & -ly In a lawful manner, rightly, legally lawfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being lawful lawgiver, n [1 lə'gɪvər, 2 lə'gɪvə] One who makes and promulgates laws, legislator lawgiving, adj & n [1 lə'gɪvɪŋ, 2 lə'gɪvɪŋ] 1 adj Legislative 2 n Legislation law-Latin, n That used in legal documents, Late, Low, Latin lawless, adj [1 lə'les, 2 lə'lis] law & -less a Not subject to, not observing, the law, b not in accordance with, not conforming to, the law, c not controlled or regulated by the law, unruly lawlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a lawless manner lawlessness, n See prec & -ness A quality of being lawless, b lawless action, conduct, unruliness law-lord, n Member of House of Lords who acts there in judicial capacity, and is qualified to sit as member of the highest court of appeal, as being one of the Lords of Appeal in Ordinary or as having held high judicial office law merchant, n (hist) Body of customs and regulations dealing with commerce and trade, as distinguished from the Common Law lawn (I), n [1 lawn, 2 lɔ:n] Formerly laune lynen, 'linen from Laon', fr name of French town a Fine, thin linen fabric, b a symbol of episcopal office, from the wide sleeves of this material worn by English bishops 'Chicane in furs, and casuistry in lawn' (Pope, 'Dunciad') lawn (II), n M E, fr O Fr launde, Mod Fr lande, great stretch of uncultivated, barren land, heath', fr Celt, cp W llan, 'clear, open space', cogn w land 1 (post) Open space in wood or forest, glade 2 A stretch of grass kept closely out and rolled, in gardens, b specif, such a stretch of grass used for some game, often qualified croquet, tennis, lawn &c lawn-mower, n Machine furnished with blades fixed on a revolving cylinder, cutting against a fixed, flat blade, used for cutting lawns lawn-tennis, n Form of tennis played upon an open court, on grass, gravel &c, or in covered court on a wooden floor, between either one or two players on each side, with racquets and felt-covered, hollow, india rubber balls lawny (I), adj [1 lawnɪ, 2 lɔ:nɪ], fr lawn (I) & -y Made of, resembling, lawn lawny (II), adj lawn (II) & -y 1 A bounding in lawns 2 Of the nature of a lawn law officer, n Legal functionary and adviser of the Government, applied to Attorney-General and Solicitor General law-sheep, n Thick leather of sheepskin used in binding law books lawsuit, n [1 lɔ:sɪt, 2 lɔ:sɪt] law & suit (I) Action at law, case heard in a court of law law term, n a Word or expression of technical meaning used in legal parlance, b period of year in which the courts are sitting lawyer, n [1 lawyer, 2 lɔ:yer] law & -yer 1 Member of the legal profession, esp a solicitor I must consult my lawyer, family lawyer, solicitor doing legal business for private persons, legal adviser on family business 2 Student of legal science, one skilled, learned, in this, a jurist a good advocate but a poor lawyer lawyer-like, adj After the manner of, like, becoming, a lawyer lawyerly, adj [1 lɔ:yerli, 2 lɔ:li] Lawyer-like law & lax (I), adj [1 laks, 2 ləks] Lat. laxus, 'loose, wide', cogn w languid & slack (I). 1 Reverse of tense or firm, slack, (chiefly, fig, of morals, conduct, principles &c), not rigid, remiss, licentious, dishonourable 2 (of bowels) Relaxed, open, free in action lax (II), n, fr prec Looseness of intestines lax (III), n Scand, cp O E laxx, 'salmon' laxative, adj & n [1 laksatɪv, 2 laksatɪv], fr Lat laxāt (um), PP type of laxāre, 'to open, relax', see lax (I), & -ive (see -ive)

1 adj a Tending to open or relax, b specif, tending to cause looseness of the bowels 2 n. A laxative medicine laxity, n [1 laksɪti, 2 laksɪti] lax (I) & -ity 1 Want of exactness (in expression or style)

2 a Lack of moral principle, of strictness, or firmness of character, b dissoluteness (of morals, or conduct) laxness, n [1 laksnes, 2 laksnɪs] lax & -ness Slackness lay (I), n [1 lā, 2 leɪ] M E, fr O Fr lai, perh fr Celt source, cp O Ir loid, laud, 'poem' Proh unrelated to O E lēap, 'song, poem', q v under laud a Short song, poem of a lyrical character, brief narrative poem, a ballad, b hird's song lay (II), adj M E, fr Fr lai, fr Lat laicus, fr Gk laikos, 'of, belonging to, the people', fr laos, 'people', perh fr laivos, & possibly orig connected w O E lāwede, 'lay, layman', q v under lewd 1 Belonging to the laity as distinct from the clergy, not clerical 2 Not of, or connected with, some particular profession, non professional lay (III), vb trans & intrans M E leyen &c, new formation by the side of orig leggen, fr O E type leg (eþ), M E leg(e)þ &c, 3rd pers ang of leggan, 'to lay, put in position' The O E mfn is fr earlier lēgjan*, the base being identical w lēg, wh is the normal Pret of the strong vb hegan See lie (I) General meanings to place, put, set, dispose, impose, to place in a recumbent position A trans 1 To place, set, put down, deposit, in a certain place or position, to cause to lie, to apply to lay something on a shelf, on the ground, lay one's hand upon a person's shoulder, to lay one's head on a pillow, the axe is laid to the root of the tree, to lay the flattering unction to one's soul, claim the merit of Phrs to lay stress upon, to emphasize, to lay field to field, to keep adding to one's possessions, acquire continually more land, to lay one's finger on, to detect and indicate, don't dare to lay a finger on me, don't touch me ever so lightly, to lay eyes on, catch sight of, to lay hands on, (i) to ordain as priest or deacon, consecrate as bishop, (u) to get possession of, get hold of, grasp, seize he sticks to everything he can lay his hands on, I can't lay my hands on it, can't find, get hold of, to lay hold of, seize, grasp, to lay one's bones, he buried, to die, to lay to heart, take, consider, seriously, to lay heads together, discuss, arrive at a common plan, to lay oneself out for, make arrangements to do, to lay something at a person's door, hold him responsible for, charge him with it 2 To cause to fall and lie prostrate by use of force, to strike down, in such Phr as to lay a man in the dust with a single blow, &c, Phr to lay by the heels a to put in the stocks, in prison, b (fig) to put out of action, deprive of liberty of movement

3 To cause to abate, subside, to calm down, appease, to suppress to lay the dust Phr to lay a ghost, exorcise, cause it to disappear

4 (of birds) To produce and deposit to lay eggs 5 a To put in order, prepare (table) for a meal by placing cloth, silver, glass &c upon it to lay a (the) table for dinner, also b to lay the cloth, spread it upon the table, to lay the plates &c, put them in suitable places upon the table, for a meal 6 To stake, wager, bet to lay heavy odds that &c, specif, to lay the odds, (also absol) of book-maker, who accepts bets from 'backers'.

7 a To ascribe to, charge with responsibility for to lay an accusation against, to lay a service to lay up a ship for repairs, b to put out of action, incapacitate through illness laid up with gout lay (IV), n, fr prec 1 (slang) Course, plan, of action, field of operations, job, business to start a new lay 2 Way in which something lies in relation to other things, mode of arrangement, disposition the lay (also lie) of the land lay (V), vb OE læȝ, ME lei, lay, Pret of lie lay days, n pl For delay days Days allowed for loading or unloading a vessel within which no charge is made for demurrage layer (I), n lay (III) & -ar 1 (usually [1 lār, 2 lēə]) One thickness of a substance lying upon another, stratum 2 [1 lār, 2 lēə] 1 One who lays odds, b female bird which lays eggs Rhode Islands are excellent layers 3 [1 lār, 2 lēə] Shoot of plant or branch of growing shrub bent down and partly covered with earth to encourage rooting, without being detached from parent stem layer (II), vb trans [1 lār, 2 lēə], fr prec To treat (plants) by layering layerage, n [1 lārj, 2 lēərɪdʒ] layer (I) & -age Propagation by layering layering, n [1 lārɪŋ, 2 lēərɪŋ] Process of causing branch of growing shrub &c, to strike by bending down and covering with earth at one point, layerage layette, n [1 lājet, 2 lēj(j)et] Fr, dumny fr late, 'box, coffer', fr Germ lade, 'drawer', & -ette Set of clothes, blankets &c for a newly born baby lay figure, n Formerly layman, fr Du ledeman, lede means 'joint, limb', & is cogn w OE līp, Goth līpus, Germ glied, fr ga-hied The hase li*-is found again in limb (I) A model of human figure with joints to all the limbs, used by painters, in absence of human model, to hang drapery upon, b person who has no individuality and plays no active part in affairs with which he and his name are connected laying, n [1 lāɪŋ, 2 lēi-lɪŋ] lay (III) & -ing 1 Action of person who lays, in various senses 2 A clutch of eggs laylook, n & adj [1 lālo:k, 2 lēlɒk] An old and now provincial variant of liac, q v layman, n [1 lāman, 2 lēman] lay (II) & -man 1 One not in holy orders, contrasted with priest, clergyman &c 2 A One who is not a member of a particular profession, b one who is not an expert in some special branch of knowledge layout, n [1 lāut, 2 lēdɪt] a Act of laying out or planning (a garden &c), b plan, mode in which something, esp a garden, estate &c, is designed, laid out, arranged lay shaft, n Secondary shaft of a machine, one driven and working independently of main parts of machine lazar, n [1 lāzar, 2 ləzə] Fr lazare, fr Lazarus A diseased, filthy beggar, one in lowest stage of poverty and misery, also b (archaic) a leper lazaret, n [1 ləzəret, 2 ləzəret] Fr, fr Ital See next word Lazaretto lazaretto, n, [1 ləzərot, 2 ləzəretov] Ital, fr name Lazarus 1 Public institution for the poor suffering from leprosy or contagious diseases, a pest-house 2 (nant) Space between decks in stern of a vessel, often used as storehouse laze, vb intrans [1 lāz, 2 lēz] Formed fr lazy 1 To spend time in a lazy, idle manner, to loaf about, waste one's time in idleness 2 To take it easy after strenuous effort lazily, adv [1 lāzli, 2 lēzli:] lazy & -ly In a lazy, slothful manner laziness, n [1 lāznes, 2 lēzɪnəs] See next word & -ness State of being lazy, sloth, disinclination to work lazy, adj [1 lāz, 2 lēzi] Not found before 16th cent Origin uncertain Disinclined for activity, idle, slothful lazy-bones, n (colloq.) A lazy person lazy-tongs, n Device for grasping small objects which are just out of reach of the arm, consisting of a series of strips of jointed metal in form of trellis work, with loops like those of scissors for finger and thumb at one end, and flattened pieces of metal at right angles to the general structure at the other, when the finger and thumb are brought together the metal strips straighten at the joints so that the grasping ends are thrust out to a distance of two or three feet from the hand -le Formative suff. fr ME el, -il, of various origins See also -el & -al 1 From OE -ol, -ul, -el, a in ns expressing an agent, or instrument, formed fr vb stems beald, OE byrdel, 'messenger', girdel, OE gyrdel, stiele, OE stigel, 'place for climbing over a fence', fr stigan, 'to climb' & ledle, OE hlædel, bridle, OE bridel, fr brigid*, fr base bregd-, 'to draw, pull' & b in ns where the suff had orig a dimin force thimble, OE þymel, fr þūma, 'thumb', hurdle, OE hyrdel, fr hurdil*, op Goth haurds, 'a door', OHG ah, hurt, iscle, OE -gygel, 'small piece of ice', op ON gjukil & jokil, 'piece of ice' 2 In adjs fr vbs the suff expresses tendency towards action or process expressed by the vb brittle, fr OE brētan, 'to break', fickle, OE fiēol, 'treacherous', fr (b) fician, 'to betray' 3 In vbs the suff often represents the OE -ian, formerly freq, though this force is often considerably weakened. wrestle, OE wræstlian, many of the vbs in -le in Mod Engl are new formations, such as sprinkle, nestle, snuggle, frazzle, quizzle & (1) O Fr -elle, Lat ellum candle, O Fr castel, Lat castellum, (n) O Fr -el, Lat tile cattle, ME fr O Fr cattiel, Lat capit(alis), (m) O Fr -aille & Lat -āla, battle, (fr) O Fr -eille & Lat -icula, bottle & 5 Lat dimin -ulus & angle, Lat angulus 6 Fr -ille cocille (snail) lea (I), n [1 lā, 2 lū] OE lēah, 'field', ME lā, lāh & OHG lāh, cogn w Lat lūcus, 'grove', fr leukos*, & Lith laukas, 'open field', fr base in Lat lūx, 'light' See luculent, lucus A lea was originally a clearance, in a forest, or land cleared of forest, contrasted with field (poet.) Stretch of open grassy country Common in place names, spell -ley, -leigh, -ly & lea (II), n Prob new formation fr leaze, taken as pl, fr O Fr her, 'to bind' See ligature Length of yarn, varying in different districts leach (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lēch, 2 līf] OE leccan, 'to water, lave', connected w OE lacu, 'stream' & See lake (I) 1 trans A To moisten, cause (liquid) to percolate through some material, b to saturate, steep, (bark, ashes &c), with a percolating fluid 2 intrans To melt, dissolve leach (II), n, fr prec Poriferated vessel used in leaching lead (I), n [1 led, 2 led] OE lead, ME lēde, M LG lād, 'weight, plummet' 1 A heavy, pliable white metal, which soon tarnishes and becomes dull grey in colour Phr as heavy as lead, very heavy 2 Lump of lead, plummet, used in sounding, to heave the lead, take soundings 3 (obs) Vessel, kettie, cauldron made of some alloy of lead 4 Leads, (coll) roofs, passages between roofing, flat tops of building &c, covered with lead 5 Strip of metal placed between lines of type 6 A Black-lead, used for polishing grates &c, b the marking material in a pencil, graphite, small length of this material for insertion into a metal pencil-case, o red lead, red oxide of lead, minium lead (II), adj, fr prec Made of lead lead (III), vb trans, fr lead (I) To cover, fill, stop, with lead lead (IV), vb trans & intrans [1 lād, 2 lād] OE lēdan, 'to lead, guide, convey' & OE lēden, the OE vb is fr lādjan*, op OE lād, 'path, track, way, course', q v. under load (I), op also OHG lāten, OB.

lédan, w a different grade, hnt closely related, are OE līpan, 'to travel, sail', OS lithan, Goth (ga)leipān, 'to go', (of)leipān, 'to go away', connexion w Lat litus, 'shore', wh was formerly suggested, is now no longer believed in. A trans 1 a To conduct, guide, direct course of by physical contact to lead a person by the hand, to lead a horse by his bridle, b specif, to lead a horse, to walk, or ride beside him, holding a rein or lead attached to him, as contrasted with riding on his back Phrs the blind leading the blind, (fig) one ignorant, ill informed person instructing another, to lead astray, mislead, set bad example to, to lead the way, to go first, show the path direction &c, to lead by the nose, to dominate and persuade to do anything one wishes, to lead (a woman) to the altar, marry her 2 a To induce to follow a line of action by persuasion or example he may be led but won't be coerced, b to persuade to think in a particular way, induce to come to a certain logical conclusion, to incline, predispose I am led from all I hear to agree with you, I am led to believe, I have information which causes me to believe, what you say leads me to refuse, Phr to lead one to expect, raise expectations in, c to be the motive or an action, to prompt fear led him to tell lies, curiosity led me to look again 3 a To have direction, act as chief of, conduct guide to lead a polar expedition, b to direct, govern, unify, the activities of a company of performers, indicate the part of each in relation to all to lead an orchestra a ballet &c, c (mil) to command, act as chief officer, direct operations of to lead an army Phr to lead the House, act as official spokesman 4 a (of road, track &c) To give access to, serve one as a passage to, bring one to that path will lead you straight to the house, b to convey, act as conductor, conduit to gutters lead the water away from the roof 5 a To pursue, pass, spend, to lead a happy life, b to oaso to spend to lead a person a dog's life 6 To go first, precede, go in front the choir leads the procession, the bishop comes last 7 (cards) To begin a round by playing to lead trumps 8 (Soots law) To tender, testify, state on oath to lead evidence B in trans 1 To act as guide, director, commander, specif, to act as principal counsel in law case to lead for the prosecution, defence &c 2 n a To be ahead, be first, outstrip others, in a race or contest the big chestnut was leading by several lengths, the Conservative candidate appeared to lead from the first, b (fig) to be superior to others, to excel as a preacher he certainly leads 3 (of road &c) To extend, go, pass, run, form mode of approach to where does this road lead? Phrs all roads lead to Rome, there are many ways of attaining the same end, to lead nowhere, to have no result C Followed by preposition or adverb Lead out, trans & intrans, 1 trans, to conduct (body) from her place, to begin a dance &c, 2 intrans, lead out of (of rooms &c), to communicate with directly my room leads out of the hall Lead off intrans, to start, begin, make a beginning he led off by making an apology Lead to, intrans, 1 to go, extend to, reach what place does this road lead to?, 2 to result in, produce, have as a result, as on effect poverty often leads to crime, to lead to a poor result Lead up to, intrans to approach gradually, prepare the way for, by preliminary remarks in conversation to lead up to a favourite story to a subject of discussion lead (V) n, fr prec 1 A action of leading, direction command, power of initiation to take the lead in planning a campaign &c, b directions, instructions, suggestion, how to act I wish you would give me a lead in this business, c specif, hunting, encouragement given to a roor or horse by leaping a lineo in front of him a lead over a hedge 2 Position (in contest &c) in advance of others, priority, amount by which one leads to gain the lead in a race, a lead of several yards 3 (cards) a Right of playing first in a round or game, b card, suit, which a player leads 4 (theatr) a Principal part or role in a play, b person who plays this 5 Strap, cord, for leading a horse or dog 6 Watercourse leading to a mill 7 (elect) a An electrical conductor, b a term indicating acceleration, converse of lag leaden, adj [1 léd(e)n, 2 led(e)n] load (I) & -en 1 a Made of lead, b having colour of lead, of a dull gray 2 (fig) a Heavy, sluggish, dull laden slumber, b inert, unresponsive a leaden heart, mind leadenness n [1 lédnass, 2 lednnis] Prec & -ness Quality of being laden (chiefly fig) leader, n [1 lédor, 2 lida] load (IV) & -er 1 Person who leads (in various senses), specif a leader of the House, official member of Government who acts as conductor of business, and who initiates discussion in Parliament, b principal, senior, counsel on either side who conducts case in a law court, senior counsel on circuit 2 One of the two horses of a team of four who are farthest from driver, foremost horse in a tandem 3 a The highest and most recent growth of the main stem of a tree, b strongest, and longest shoot from a branch 4 One of the principal and longer articles in a newspaper, leading article 5 A snow, tendon leaderette, n [1 lédorét, 2 lidalet] Prec 4 & -ette Short editorial paragraph in a newspaper, printed in same type as leading articles lead-in, n lead (IV) & in (wireless) Wire or other conductor connecting an aerial to a receiver leading (I), n [1 léding, 2 ledip] lead (I) & -ing Leadwork, e.g strips of lead holding small panes in casement windows leading (II), n [1 léding, 2 lidaip] lead (IV) & -ing Direction, guidance, leadership Phr men of light and leading, of recognized authority and influence leading (III), ndj Prec Part of lead (IV) Directing, controlling, giving guidance fore most, pre eminent a leading writer, the leading topics of the hour, a leading light in popular theology Phr leading lady, man, actress, actor, playing a principal part leading article, n Editorial article in a newspaper, either political, expressing the paper's policy, or editorial leading case, n Legal case the decision in which serves as a precedent for subsequent cases involving same points of law leading question, n (law) Question so framed as to suggest the answer that the questioner wishes to receive leading-rein, n Strap or cord attached by one end to horse's bit, the other end being held in the hand of a rider on another horse leading-strings, n pl Straps or tapes for supporting and guiding young children just learning to walk Phr (fig) in leading strings, in undue dependence, under excessive control by another, in a state of childish dependence lead-off n lead (IV) & off Start, beginning lead pencil, n See lead (I) Pencil composed of graphite enclosed in wooden casing lead poisoning, n Pathological condition due to the absorption of lead into the human organism, plumbism leadly, adj [1 léd, 2 ledi] lead (I) & -y Containing, resembling, lead leaf (I), n [1 lēf, 2 hif] OE lēaf, ME lēfe, OS lof, OHG lob, 'leaf, foliage', Goth laufs, cp Lat lūbas, 'rind of a tree', O Slav luba, 'best, inner rind of a tree' With these we may prob equate Lat liber, fr luber*, 'inner rind of a tree, this material used for writing upon, collection of writings consisting of several leaves, a book' (see library) Cp also Gk lōpós, 'shell, husk, bark peel', & lepein, 'to strip off rind, to peel' The vowels of the last two words are difficult to equate w the ou, u series seen in the other words The final consonant of the base is also doubtful There may have been two closely related bases, leup*, lup* &c, & leubh*, lubbh* &c 1 (hot) a One of the lateral growths from plant stem which occur at definite intervals along extent of this, b (popularly) one of the flat, expanded, green, most abundant organs of a plant, as distinguished from the flowers, which serve to absorb nourishment from the air (strictly, these are called foliage leaves), c (col) leaves as a whole, foliage Phrs in leaf, having the leaves expanded, the fall of the leaf, autumn, to come into leaf, to have leaf buds open 2 The leaves of a plant considered collectively as an article of commerce, as of tea, tobacco 3 Any of various thin, flat objects suggestive of a leaf in shape, a sheet of paper, esp a page of a book to turn over the leaves, cut the leaves &c, Phrs to take a leaf out of somebody's book, to copy him, follow his example to turn over a new leaf, make a fresh start behave better for the future b hinged flap of a table, portion of top of a table which can be inserted or removed, c exceedingly thin sheets of metal, thinner than foil, e.g gold leaf leaf (II), vb intrans, fr prec (of trees &c) To come into leaf leafage, n [1 lēij, 2 lidaif] leaf (I) & -age Leaves collectively, foliage leaf-bud, n Bud which develops into a leaf and not a flower leafiness, n [1 lēifnes, 2 lifinis] leafy & -ness Condition of having (abundance of) leaves leaf insect, n An orthopterous insect of the E Indies &c, which resembles a leaf leafless, adj [1 lēifles, 2 lifis] leaf (I) & -less Devoid, bare, of leaves leaflessness, n Prec & -ness Condition of being bare of leaves leaflet, n [1 lēflet, 2 lifit] leaf (I) & -let 1 A little leaf, a division of a compound leaf 2 A folded unstitched printed sheet, containing a notice, advertisement &c leaf-mould, n Mould consisting of fallen leaves piled up and allowed to rot down, used for manuring garden soil leafy, adj [1 lēfi, 2 lifi] leaf (I) & -y 1 A Bearing leaves freely, b covered with, having an abundance of, leaves 2 Consisting of, produced by, leaves leafy shade league (I), n [1 lēg, 2 lig] O Ir leigue, whence Fr lieue, Low Lat leuga leuca, prob Gaulish An old measure of distance varying in different times and countries, an English league was three miles league (II), n Fr ligue, 'confederacy' &c, fr Lat ligare 'to bind' See ligament a Compact, alliance, made between individuals or nations for mutual protection and support, for promotion of peace, common interests &c, b body of individuals who are parties to such a compact, group of clubs, as football or cricket, for playing each other for a championship league (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To form into a league, cause to become allied &c 2 intrans To become a league, to unite with others in forming a league to league together against a common enemy leaguer (I), n [1 lēgur, 2 ligs] Prec & -er Member of a league (of individuals) leaguer (II), n, fr Du leger, 'camp', cp Germ lager, cogn w larr Cp beleaguer (archaic) A camp, esp a siege camp leak (I), vb intrans [1 lēk, 2 lih], fr O N leka, 'to drip, leak', cogn w OE leccan, to moisten, water See leach (I) 1 a (of a boat or ship) To allow water to flow slowly in through a fissure, flaw, chink the boat is leaking, b (of other things) to allow liquid, steam, gas, to drip or flow, pass slowly, out through a crack or flaw the cistern, kettle, boiler &c is leaking, the word always implies an undesired and unintentional passage of liquid in or out 2 a (of liquid, steam, gas) leak in, leak out, to pass, drip, ooze, into, or out of, a receptacle, vessel &c, through a chink, flaw, orack &c; b (fig, of news, a secret, information &c) leak out, to become known improperly through carelessness or treachery leak (I), n A new formation fr prec vb 1 a The hole, crack, flaw, or crevice caused by accident, wear &c, through which liquid passes from vessel containing it a leak in a boiler, b hole, crack &c in a ship through which water passes into interior of vessel a leak in a ship Phr to start, spring, a leak, to begin leaking 2 The water, steam &c or other liquid, or gas, which passes through a chink or flaw in a receptacle, or ship, the amount which passes 3 a (lect) Escape of electric charge from an incompletely insulated conductor, eg in a condenser, b (wireless) also grid-leak, high resistance providing a path for leakage of positive current from grid electrode of valve leakage, n [1 lēki, 2 lēkidʒ] leak (I) & -age a Process of leaking, leak, b the amount of liquid, steam, gas &c which passes through a leak, c (fig) unauthorized, undesired transpiring of information, secrets &c leakiness, n [1 lēkines, 2 lēkineɪ] leaky & -ness Condition of having a leak, of being leaky leaky, adj [1 lēki, 2 lēki] leak (II) & -y Having a leak, inclined to leak leal, adj [1 lēl, 2 lēl] Variant of loyal, O Fr leal, fr Lat legālis (obs or liter)

Loyal, true, faithful, land of the leal, heaven lean (I), adj & n [1 lēn, 2 lēn] O E hlēne, M E lēne, 'lean, thin', prob orig 'bending, inclined to droop', hence 'slender, thin, lean' See lean (II). 1 adj a Thin, reverse of fat (of persons and animals), b containing no fat (of meat), c (fig) unproductive, impoverished lean years 2 n a The muscular part of meat, as contrasted with the fat, b (fig) what is unproductive or unprofitable lean (II), vb intrans & trans O E hlēnan, fr hlānjan*, 'to cause to incline' (trans), M E lēnen, O H G hlēnen, op Goth hlāns, 'hill or slope', O N hlēn, 'cliff' From another grade of same base comes O E hlēonsan, fr hlānjan*, 'to slope', O S hlōndōn The base is hlēn-, hlōn-, hlīn-*, whence Lat acclīnāre, 'to lean against', inclīnāre, 'to bend, cause to bend' (see incline), declīnāre, 'turn aside from' &c (see decline) See further under climate, climax, clinic, &c, w different formative elements, clement, ladder, lid A intrans 1 To be out of, deviate from, the perpendicular, to incline the wall, tower, lean somewhat, to lean to the right 2 a (i) To press downwards upon, prop oneself upon, support one's weight on to lean on a person's arm, upon one's elbow, on a gate, (u) (fig) to rely, depend upon (person) for moral support, b to stand in a sloping position, pressing against, to rest against to lean against a wall, a tree &c, c lean forward, to sit or stand with upper part of body inclined forward, d lean out (of the window), to thrust upper portion of the body forward so that it projects beyond the sash, while standing or sitting inside 3 To be inclined to in opinions, desires &c, to prefer I rather lean to your view, to lean towards staying where one is B trans To cause to lean, incline, or rest against to lean one's stick against a wall, to lean one's back against a tree lean (III), n, fr prec A slope, deviation from perpendicular a wall with a slight lean leaning, n [1 lēning, 2 lēniŋ] lean (II) & -ing Act of one who, that which, leans (in various senses), (chiefly in non-material sense) inclination of the mind, desires, opinions &c, predilection, tendency, penchant a leaning to ritualism, a distinct leaning towards the law as a profession, (also pl) literary leanings lean-to, adj & n [1 lēn tō, 2 lēn tē] (building) a adj. Having only one slope, the upper part of which meets a perpendicular wall a lean to roof, shed, b n, building constructed in this way leap (I), vb intrans & trans [1 lēp, 2 lēp] O E hlēapan, M E lēpan, O S hlōpan, O H G hlāpan, loufen, Germ laufen, 'to run', O N hlāupa, prob cogn w Lith klūpti, 'to stumble', orig 'to scamble along on the knees', op klūpti, 'to bend the knees, kneel' 1, intrans To propel oneself from the ground by muscular effort of the legs, to spring, jump, jump is now the usual word Phrs look before you leap, consider well before taking action; leap off, (fig) show great eagerness to get something, to accept or avail oneself of, offer, opportunity &c 2 trans a To pass over, across, by leaping to leap a fence, a brook, when said of a horse, often pronounced [1 lōp, 2 lēp]; b to cause, compel, to leap to [leap] a horse leap (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of leaping, a spring, jump, bound, height or distance covered in leaping Phrs a leap in the dark, action the result of which cannot be foreseen, by leaps and bounds, with very rapid rate of advance 2 (fig) A sudden, considerable movement upwards or forwards his income went up with a leap leaper, n [1 lēper, 2 lēpə] One who leaps, (of a horse) a good leaper, often [1 lēper, 2 lēpə] leap-frog, n Game in which players stand in a line, several yards apart, with heads bent down and hands resting on knees or thighs, the last in the line vaulting in succession over each of those in front, and taking his stand at the head of the line leap year, n One in which February has 29 days, making 366 days in the year learn, vb trans & intrans [1 lɔ:n, 2 lɔ:n] O E lornan, M E lernan, O H G lernēn, fr same base as O E lār, 'learning, knowledge, doctrine', & līran, 'to teach' See lore A trans 1 A To acquire as knowledge, to get to know, become familiar with by study or by being taught to learn Latin, one's lesson, Phrs learn by heart, commit to memory, (fig) to learn one's lesson, profit by experience, b to acquire skill in practice of any art, exercise, game to learn to skate, to ride, to learn cricket 2 To receive instruction in, to be taught I am learning French from an excellent teacher 3 To try to acquire, become possessed of, be able to display (some moral quality) you must learn patience B intrans 1 To acquire knowledge, become instructed, to gain skill, experience &c he learns very slowly, he is very ignorant, but he will learn in time 2 To acquire and practise a moral habit or attitude of mind learn to be more careful, tolerant, polite learned, adj [1 lɛrnəd, 2 lɛrnɪd] prec & -ed Properly PP of prec in obs, but still vulg or provincial use in sense of 'to teach' 1 a Possessing much knowledge, well-informed, erudite a learned man, b possessing some special knowledge, deeply read in some branch of knowledge a learned theologian 2 a Pertaining to scholarship and study learned activities, b resulting from, exhibiting, learning a learned boor

learnedly, adv prec & -ly In a learned manner learning, n [1 lɛrnɪŋ, 2 lɛrnɪŋ] O E lornung, 'study, reading', M E lernung 1 Knowledge, information, acquired by study, erudition, used esp in sense of considerable or special knowledge, and more particularly in reference to literary, historical, philological knowledge as distinct from scientific 2 Act, process, of acquiring knowledge by study leave (I), vb trans [1 lēv, 2 lēv] O Fr laisser, 'to leave, transmit', fr Lat laxare, 'to make wide, to slacken, relax, to set free, relieve', fr laxus, 'wide, loose, slack' See lax (I) To grant possession of lands or tenements for a term of years under a contract leave (II), n, O. Fr law See prec. 1. Contract whereby possession of land or buildings &c is granted by owner for specified term of years, usually subject to payment of rent. Phr. on lease 2 a The rights enjoyed under such a contract I have a long lease of this house, b (fig) time during which life or health are enjoyed a new lease of life, expectation of living owing to recovered health leasehold, adj & n [1 lēz hōld, 2 lēzhōld] lease & hold a adj Held on a lease, b n, land &c held on a lease for a term of years leaseholder, n [1 lēz hōlder, 2 lēzhōlder] Person who holds a lease, lessee leash, n & vb trans. [1 lēʃ, 2 lēʃ] M E lēz &c, fr O Fr lesse, Mod Fr laisse, Lat laxus, 'loose' &c See lax (I) 1 n a Chain or strap with which coursing dogs are held, Phr to strain at the leash, to be eager to get freedom in order to do what one desires, impatiently awaiting moment when permission is granted to go somewhere or do something, b set of three coursing dogs held in leash, set of three hares 2 vb To attach leash to, put on, control by, a leash leasing, n [1 lēzɪŋ, 2 lēzɪŋ] O E lisanng, 'falsehood, deception', fr leas, 'devoid of, false, feigned, untruthful', op O S & O H G lās, 'free, bare of, empty', Goth laus, 'empty, vain', cogn w O E lōsan, 'to lose', q v under lose See also -less (obs, Bib) Laes, falsehoods, deceit least (I), adj & adv [1 lēst, 2 lēst] O E lēasest, lēst, 'smallest', superl of lēass, 'less' See less 1 adj Smallest in size, degree, extent, amount, importance there is not the least wind today, the least sum, breadth &c, 'the least of the apostles' 2 adv To the smallest extent, less than any others those who work hardest are sometimes paid least, least of all do I want to hurt you least (II), n, fr prec The least, smallest amount, lowest degree &c Phrs not in the least, not at all, to say the least of it, not to exaggerate, not to overstate, of (the) least a at lowest estimate it will cost of least five pounds, b at any rate: you might at least be polite leastways, adv [1 lēstweɪz, 2 lēstweɪz] least & -ways (slit, vulg) Leastwise, at least, or rather leastwise, adv [1 lēstweɪz, 2 lēstweɪz] least & -wise (rare) At least leat, n [1 lēt, 2 lēt] O E lēat, 'junction of roads', connected w lētar, 'let', here in sense of allowing a passage fr one road to another See let (I) Open trench for conducting water from mill leather, n & vb trans [1 lēðə, 2 lēðə] O E, M E leðer, O H G ledar, O N lēðr Further connexions outside Gmc un known 1 n a Skin of animals preserved and toughened by tanning, Phr nothing like leather, one's own things are the best, one's own interests the most important, b any of various things made of leather, eg strap holding stirrup iron, cricket ball or football, tip of billiard cue &c, pl, leathers, riding breeches, c (slang) one's skin 2 vb (colleg) To beat, thrash soundly leatherette, n [1 lēðəret, 2 lēðəret] prec & -ette Cheap material made to look like leather, and used as a substitute for it leathering, n [1 lēðəriŋ, 2 lēðəriŋ] leather, vb, & -ing (slang) A beating leather-jacket, n Tough skinned larva of the crane fly or daddy-long legs, which eats roots of vegetables leathern, adj [1 lēðərn, 2 lēðərn] leather & -en Made of leather leatheroid, n [1 lēðəroɪd, 2 lēðəroɪd] leather & -oid Tough material made in thin sheets, of paper, scraps of leather &c leathery, adj [1 lēðəri, 2 lēðəri] leather & -y. Resembling leather in dryness and toughness leave (L), n [1 lēv, 2 lēv] O E lēaf, 'permission, licence', M E līve, op Du corlof, 'permission' From the O.E. n. is formed

geliſan, 'to allow', op the cognates O H G slouben, 'to allow, permit', Goth uslawjan, 'allow' &c. The orig meaning is 'favour, favourable disposition', hence 'sanction'. A different shado of meaning is seen in O E geliſa, 'believe', whence geliſon, 'to believe', Goth galaubjan, q v under belioſ, believe, wh are fr the same Gmc base laub*. Another grade of this is leub*, as in O E leof, 'dear', q v under liot. See also ubiduous i. Permission: leate to do what one likes, to go where one pleases. Phrs leave out, permission to go out, or away from given phce, leave off, permission to absent one self from, to take respite from, one's duties, neither with your leave nor by your leave, whether you like it or not, I take leave to say, politely ironical formule, implying intention to say something with or without approval of hearers. 2 a Permission to be away from duty, to hie, go on, leave, o month's leave (used esp in Armv, Navy, Civil Service), in variously called 'leaf' by private soldiers and by sailors, (usual expression) leave of absence, b time spent away from regiment, ship &c to spend one's leave in London. 3 Farewell, greeting on departure, departure to take one's leave, to go away, to take leave of, bid farewell to. Phr Frerh leave, departure with out obtaining permission, or without leave (II), vb trans & intrans. O E læfan, trans, 'not to take away, to leave, to bequeath', intrans, 'to remain', fr læſjan*, 'whot is left, remnant', cp Goth (bi)laidjan, 'to survive, be left over', M E leien, cogn w O E belifon, 'to remain', OS bileban, O H G (bi)litan, Mod Gern bleiben, Goth bileiban. Closely connected w these words, & fr same base, are O E libban leofian, 'to live, be alive' (see live (I)), & lif, 'life' (see life). The development of meaning is 'to remain remain in existence, subsist, live'. The fundamental sense 'remain, allow to remain', wh is the starting point of all words fr this base in Gmc, seems to be largely peculiar to this family, except for Gk leipain, 'leave, leave remaining, leave behind' &c, & loipos, 'what is left over, the rest'. The orig meaning wh has to be inferred fr the various cognates in the languages outside Gmc appears at first sight very remote fr that developed in the latter. Etymologists identify the Gmc base w Sert hplak, 'sticky, adhesive', & lepak, 'something smeared on, dirt', cp Gk lypos, 'grease, fat', & oleiphe 'anything for smearing, grease, lard, unguent', Lith lypi, 'to stick, remain'. Although it is possible to see a connexion in sense between 'smear, stick, remain' &c it is prob that the last was helped by a very early association between this base & that in Lat lingere 'to leave behind' &c, q v under relinquish. See also loan A. 1 a To allow, or cause, to remain to let lie, depart without taking leave the book on the table, leave things where you can find them again, b to omit, forget, to take, or bring with one. I've left my umbrella in the train, also to leave behind, c to allow to remain unaltered undisturbed to leave things as they are, as one found them, Phrs to leave (person, animal) alone, not to molest, interfere with, or disturb, to leave (thing, business) alone, not to meddle with, not to touch, spoil &c leave my car alone, I should leave that question alone if I were you, to leave well alone, not to try to improve what is already good to leave severe: alone, be scrupulous as not to molest, interfere, or meddle with to leave a person to himself, to his own devices, not to direct or control his action, leave go to loosen one's hold (of) 2 (of persons &c) To cause, or allow, to remain behind one, to let stay when one goes away not to cause to accompany to leave one's horse at the door, leave one's family in India. 3 a To go away from quit cease to reside in to leave one's house the country &c, also b intrans, when used absol, to go away, depart as have been here a month and it is time we left, speak c to quit for good (of boys at school) leaving at the end of next term. 4 To forsake, abandon, desert, cease to live with he has gone to Australia leaving his wife and family Phrs to be (nicely) left, deceived, taken in, duped, to leave in the lurch, stranded, placed in awkward predicament. 5 a To die having a family to leave a wife and five children, b to die having heirs to leave no heir to one's property. 6 a To die possessing, own at one's death to leave a large fortune, b to bequeath by will at death to leave a legacy to an old friend, c to provide for by will to leave one's widow comfortably, badly, off. 7 To commit, entrust, to, rely on to do I leave you to settle up, or I leave it to you to settle up. I leave it to me, in my hands. Phr I'll leave that to you, in answer to question, what is the fare, price, your proper payment &c = give me what you please, as much as you like &c. 8 To deposit, hand over, before departing the postman left three letters and a parcel, to leave one's bag in the -loal room Phr to leave cards on, pay formal call on. 9 To allow to remain over, yield as a remainder, surplus, after process of subtraction, deduction, expenditure, or the like. 2 from 6 leaves 3, I hope you've left me something to eat, the payment of his debts left him nothing to live upon. Phr to leave something, much, to be desired, but unsatisfactory, inadequate. 10 To put into, and cause to remain in, a specified condition malaria had left him a wreck, the insult left him speechless. Phr to leave one cold, not to excite, to cause no interest in. 11 To pass, go beyond (an object), keeping in a specified direction relative to it you leave the village on your right and go up the hill. 12 (archaic) To cease, discontinue, bring to an end it is time to leave talking and begin doing. B Followed by adverb Leave off, 1 trans, a to discontinue, cease to do leave off biting your nails, bad habits, going to church &c, b to cease to wear, cast to leave off one's winter clothes, 2 intrans, to cease, come to an end of any action, stop I left off at the end of Chapter III, to begin where one's father left off, start life in same social or financial position as that secured by one's father at end of his career. Leave out, trans, 1 a to omit, out on to leave out half one's words, you must leave out this epithet, b to avoid consideration of, fail to consider, omit to reckon with you have left out the probability that he will refuse to discuss the matter at all. 2 To neglect, pass over, overlook leave out in the cold. leaved, -leaved, adj [1 lörd, 2 lörd] leaf & -ed Having leaves, having specified number or kind of leaves four-leaved shamrock. leaven (I), n [1 lörn, 2 lörn] Fr leaven, fr Lat levamen, 'alleviation, mitigation', but in orig physical sense, 'something which lightens, raises', fr levare, 'mitigate, lighten, relieve, to raise', fr levis, 'light', q v under levant (I). Cp also second syll of relieve. 1 Yeast, substance due to fermentation which added to dough causes bread to rise. 2 (fig) A spiritual influence which permeates the mind and reacts forcibly on thought and conduct (in a good and bad sense). leaven (II), vb trans, fr preo a To cause fermentation in by addition of leaven, to mix leaven with, b (fig) to permeate with, to induce change in for good or bad. leavening, n [1 levening, 2 levening] a (in physical and spiritual sense) Process of permeating and acting by fermentation, b leaven. leaving, n [1 lörng, 2 lörng] leave (II) & -ing (chiefly in pl) Leavings, things left, remnants, esp things cast off, or aside, as superfluous or worthless I don't care for other men's leavings. lecher, n. [1 lecher, 2 letja] O Fr lecheur, 'glutton, libertine', lit 'licker', fr lecher, 'to lick', of Gmc origin. See lick & lickerish. One mordantly given to illicit sexual indulgence. lecherous, adj [1 leche-us, 2 letja-us] Preo & -ous Lustful, lascivous lecherously, adv See preo & -ly In a lecherous manner. lechery, n [1 lecheri, 2 letja] lecher & -y Lust, lubricity, inordinate lustfulness. lecinthin, n [1 lestin, 2 lestin] fr Gk lekithos, 'yolk of an egg', etymol unknown, & -in (physiol) A waxy substance containing nitrogen and phosphorus found in tissues of the brain and nerves of animals, also in yolk of egg and in plants, used in medicine in treatment of nervous ailments. lectern, n [1 lektern, 2 lektern, lektern] M E, fr O Fr lestrun, fr L Lat lectrum, 'reading desk', fr base leg*, 'read'. See lecturo. Reading desk in church, esp that from which the lessons are read. lectionary, n [1 lekshunari, 2 lekshunari] Lat lection, stem of lectio, 'reading', & -arium See next word & -ary Sequence of lessons appointed by authority to be read in churches each day at divine service, list of such lessons and of days upon which they are to be read. lecture (I), n [1 lekchur, 2 lektsja] Fr, fr Lat typo lect, fr base leg, 'read', & -ura (see -uro), Lat legere means 'to gather, collect, to pick out, choose, to survey, observe, to read, to read aloud, recite'; cp Gk lekhein, 'to pick out, choose, to relate, speak, utter, declare', also Gk lekis, 'speech, diction', & w difficult & grado, logos, 'word expressing thought, thought, reason', see eloct, elegant, logoman, & possibly logical. Discourse, whether read or extempore, upon a set subject, delivered with a view to instruction, to a class or other audience. Phr to read one a lecture, admonish or reprove him. lecture (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo a intrans To deliver lectures, or a lecture to lecture twice a week, to lecture to a class, to lecture on a particular subject, b trans, to deliver a lecture to, esp to admonish, reprove his wife lectured him severely on his late hours. lecturer, n [1 lekchurer, 2 lektsjara] Preo & -or One who delivers lectures, esp a professional teacher at a university or college. lectureship, n [1 lekchurship, 2 lektsjaship] lecturo & -ship Office or post of lecturer, generally one held at a university or college. lecythus, n [1 lekstibus, lekstibus, 2 lekstibus, lekstibus] fr Gk lekthos, 'oil flask', etymol doubtful (Gk onuk) A tall slender type of vaso with narrow neck and single handle. led, [1 led, 2 led] O E lædde, M E læde, Pret & PP of lead (IV). ledge, n [1 lej, 2 ledz] M E legge meant apparently 'support, bar', prob orig 'something laid', fr Pr O E lag* go, op type lag, Pret of O E legan (see lay & lee (I)), the word meant perb 'bracket or support', then 'something supported by a bracket, a shelf'. A Narrow shelf projecting from surface of wall, b projection from face of cliff, rock &c. ledger (I), n [1 lêjer, 2 lêdja] Prob formed fr O E leggan, M E leggen, 'to lay'. See preo 1 An account book, esp one used in a business institution. 2 (archit) A large flat stone, b large horizontal timber in scaffolding. ledger (II), as adj, formed fr base lag*, 'to lay'. See lay (III), & lie (III). Not moving, stationary, placed in position, and remaining there. Only used in following few compounds. ledger-bait, n Bait for fish, anchored, and allowed to float over given spot. ledger-blade, n Large, flat, fixed blade in machine for cutting chaff, shearing cloth &c, against which the revolving blade works. ledger-hook, n One attached to ledger line. ledger-line, n A Fishing line used with ledger-bait, b (mus) an additional line above or below the staff. ledger-tackle, n Lure, hook &c used in ledger bait fishing. lee (I), n, & adj [1 lê, 2 h] O E hleo(w), 'covering, shelter, protection', also adj geliſio, 'sheltered, warm', O H G lêa, lauer, Mod Germ lau, 'warm', ON hlær, 'warm, mild', cogn w Lat calere, 'to be warm, to glow'. See cauldron & calm.

1 n A shelter, protection under the lee of a house, b sheltered place, one protected from the wind, on the lee, lee side.
2 adj (naut) Said of the side, or part of ship farthest removed from that from which the wind is blowing the lee side, rudder &c.

lee (II), n Fr lis, origin doubtful, perh of Celt (Gaulish) origin. Chiefly lees, pl, that which settles at bottom of wine cask, sediment, dregs wine on the lees, to drink a cup to the lees, (fig) to undergo the last extremities of suffering.

lee-board, n lee (I) & board. Wooden frame fastened over lee side of flat bottomed ship to prevent her losing leeway when close-hauled.

leech (I), n [1 lēoh, 2 lit] OE lēce, 'physician, leech (the animal)', OHG lahhi, Goth lēkess, 'physician, healer', orig 'magician, exorcist', op OE lēcanian, 'to heal', OHG lāhhinōn, 'to exorcise, heal', Goth lēkianōn, 'to heal'.
1 (archaic) Physician.
2 A blood sucking worm living in ponds, used in medicine for blood-letting. Phr to stick like a leech, b (fig) blood sucker, vampire.

leech (II), n, fr Du lyl, 'holt rope'. Free edge of a sail.

leechcraft, n [1 lēohkrahft, 2 litkrahft] OE lēacraft. See leech (I) & craft (archaic). Medical skill and practice.

leechdom, n [1 lēohdum, 2 litdum] OE lēcedōm, 'remedy, medicine'. leech (I) & -dom (obs). Remedy, medical routine.

leek, n [1 lūk, 2 lik] OE lēc, 'vegetable', leok, garh, OS lūk, OHG laoh, ON laukr, cognations outside Gmc. doubtful. Cp garlic. A vegetable, somewhat resembling an onion in structure and flavour, but with cylindrical stem instead of a globular bulb, notional emblem of Wales. Phr to eat the leek, suffer humiliation.

leer (I), n [1 lēr, 2 la] OE hlēor, 'ohook', OS hlīor, origin uncertain. The original sense is 'faco, expression of faco', then a particular kind of expression, op similar usage of faco. A sly, furtive, smirking, grinning and expressing esp other lubricity or malignity, or sometimes mere inanity, as in an idiot.

leer (II), vb intrans, fr prec. To assume a leer, to leer at, to leer with face turned to.

leer (III), n Etymol unknown. Plume in which glass is oiled and annealed in process of manufacture.

leering, adj [1 lēring, 2 lēring], fr Pres Part of leer (I). A wearing, constantly assuming, a leer. a leering ruffian, b addicted to assuming leers.

leeringly, adv Prec & -ly. As though wearing a leer.

leery, adj [1 lēri, 2 lēri]. Given to leers, having a leer on the face, esp (slang) cunning, knowing. a leery old bird.

lees, n pl [1 lēz, 2 lēz]. See lee (II).

leet, n [1 lēt, 2 lit]. In L Lat lēta, origin uncertain, possibly connected w OE lēt, 'estate', wh survives in lathe, an old administrative district of Kent. See lathe (II). (legal hist) An old annual manorial court of record, in full, court leet, with jurisdiction over minor criminal offences.

leeward, adj, adv, & n [1 lēward, 2 lērd]. lee (I) & -ward.
1 adj. On side away from that from which wind is coming, b adv, towards the lee.
2 n. Side away from the wind.

leewardly, adj. Tending to fall off to lee.

leeward, n [1 lēwā, 2 lēwā]. lee (I) & way.
1 Deviation from her true course, as indicated by line of her keel, which a vessel makes in drifting to leeward.
2 (fig) Loss of time, diminution, retarding, of progress to have a great deal of leeway to make up (in one's studies, in execution of a piece of work &c.).

left (I), adj, adv, & n [1 left, 2 left]. Rare in OE in wh the usual word is winstre, left is apparently a SE type, of wh the WS wd bo left, ME left, left, left, orig meaning 'weak, infirm', op OE lēf, 'infirm, diseased', gilefēd, 'weak, old', fr lēf*? If Waldo is right in connecting OE lēf distantly w Lat lēvus, 'deoth' (see lethal), Gk leimōs, 'postileneo', limōs, 'hunger', Lath lēus, 'thin', the vowel in the OE words wd require a different explanation fr thot suggested above.

1 adj. Connected with, pertaining to, that part of the body which is situated to the west when one faces north, the opposite of right, a primarily apphed to the hand, and the whole of the body, its parts and organs on this side. left hand, shoulder, arm, leg &c., b (by extension) apphed to direction or position generally, relative to speaker or spectator. left bank of a river, that on one's left hand as one looks downstream, to look, turn, neither to the left hand nor to the right, look, go, straight ahead.
2 adv. Towards the left, in direction of one's left hand to turn left.
3 n. A That position or direction which is on, or nearest to, one's left side, left hand. turn to the left, keep to the left, will you sit on my left, b (politics, usually cap) group of members, party, belonging to legislative body, who sit on the left hand of the speaker, or president, as ho faces the house, hence, the extreme radicals who by custom occupy this position. The term originates from the horse shoe arrangement of the seats in most continental chambers.

left (II), vb ME laste, leftic, Pret & PP of leave.

left-hand, adj.
1 Situated nearer to the left hand than to the right. left hand side of the street.
2 Performed, done, with the left hand. a left hand blow, stroke &c.

left-handed, adj left (I) & handed.
1 (of persons) Addicted to using, able to, preferring to, use the left hand in those more complex acts such as writing, drawing, shaving, cutting with knife &c., for which most persons use the right hand.
2 Dubious, ambiguous, insincere, esp a left handed compliment.
3 (of a marriage) Morganatic, pertaining to one in which a person of royal blood marries one of inferior rank.

left-handedly, adv Prec & -ly. In a left-handed manner, with the left hand.

left-handedness, n See prec & -ness. State, condition, of being left handed.

left-hander, n [1 left hander, 2 left hander].
left-hand & -or. A person using the left hand and not the right, b blow, stroke, with the left hand.

leg (I), n [1 leg, 2 leg], fr ON legg, fr Gmc lag* ja. This word is cogn w Lat laccus, 'the arm from shoulder to elbow', & w different grade, w Lat laccus, 'loose', lit 'the jumper'. See locust & lobster.
 We may further connect Gk lax, 'with the heel, or foot', laxizein, 'to kick with the foot', op also Lath laxity, 'to leap, spring, hop'.
1 n. One of the limbs of any animal which serve for support in standing, and for progression, that part of snail limb between the hip and the ankle. This not to have a leg to stand on, no justification or excuse, no argument in one's favour, to pull a person's leg, to chaff, fool him, to stretch one's legs, to walk, esp after a prolonged sitting, (to be) on one's legs, (i) to be kept standing about, (ii) to stand up ready to make a speech of public meeting, (also facetious) on one's hindlegs, to shake a (loose) leg, to doze, to stand on one's own legs, to be independent, to set a man on his legs (again), afford him financial or other assistance, to restore him to health, to walk a man off his legs, make him walk too far, tire him out, run off one's legs, exhausted by excessive number of duties and occupations, on one's, its, last legs, approaching death, nearly worn out or done for, as fast as one's legs would carry one, at full speed, to make a leg, (archaic) to bow, bend the knee in salutation, to give a person a leg up, help him to climb, (fig) do him a good turn, afford assist once, b imitation limb worn as a support cork, wooden, leg, c part of the leg of an animal prepared as food. leg of mutton, pork, leg of-mutton sail, triangular sail, leg of mutton sleeve, one brood at shoulder and tapering towards the wrist.

2 a. A part of certain articles which serves as a support, upon which they stand. leg of a chair, stool, table, b one side of a pair of compasses, c either side of a triangle other than its base.
3 Part of a garment covering the leg. leg of a stocking, of trousers.
4 (onekot) a That part of the field on batsman's left, or to rear of this, as shot, square, long leg, of fieldsmen in these positions, b (attrib) on, towards, the legs of batsman, as leg by, hyo off the batsman's leg, leg stump &c. Phr leg before wicket, abbreviated lbw, stopping by batsman's legs of ball which otherwise would have bowled him.
5 Distance covered by ship in one tack.
6 (slang) Swindler, shorper, short for blackleg, q v.

leg (II), vb intrans, fr prec. (colloq) Leg it, to go on one's legs, to walk, to run away.

legacy, n [1 lēgasi, 2 lēgasi]. O Fr legacie, in sense of 'office of legate'. See legate (II) & -cy. The Lat legatum meant 'bequest, legacy', fr PP of legare, in sense of 'to appoint by will, to bequeath', the Mod Fr word is legs. Bequest, gift of personal property by will, also (fig) a legacy of hatred, ill will &c.

legacy-hunter, n. One who loathes another in hopes of getting a legacy.

legal, adj [1 lēgal], 2 lēgal]. Lat lēgālis, 'belonging to the law', fr lēs, base of lēx, 'law', the etymol is doubtful, but con nexion w Lat legere, 'to select', is possible, op lecturo.
1 Belonging, pertaining, relating, to the law. legal profession, legal adviser.
2 In accordance with not forbidden by, the law, lawful, permissible. it is perfectly legal to fish on Sunday.
3 Enjoined, defined, by statute and therefore binding, compulsory. legal payment, fare &c.
4 According to a definition made by the law. a legal offence, an act which the law has recognized as unlawful and defined as an offence.

legalism, n [1 lēgalizm, 2 lēgalizm]. Prec & -ism. Magnification of letter of the law, excessive fondness for legal forms, red tape.

legalist, n [1 lēgalist, 2 lēgalist]. See prec & -ist. One who attaches undue importance to the strict letter of the law, or to legal forms.

legality, n [1 lēgaliti, 2 lēgaliti]. fr lēgalité. See legal & -ity. Lawfulness, state of being according to, sanctioned by, the law.

legalization, n [1 lēgalizashun, 2 lēgalizashun]. See next word & -ation. Act or process of legalizing.

legalize, vb trans [1 lēgaliz, 2 lēgaliz]. legal & -ize. To render legal, to make lawful.

legate (I), n [1 lēgat, 2 lēgat]. Lat lēgātus, 'ambassador, envoy', fr PP of legare, 'to send as ambassador', fr the base seen in legal. Ecclesiastical envoy, appointed to represent the Pope outside Rome.

legate (II), vb trans [1 lēgat, 2 lēgat]. Lat lēgat, PP of legare, 'to bequeath by will'. See prec. To bequeath by will give and legate.

legatee, n [1 lēgate, 2 lēgate]. Prec & -ee. One to whom a legacy is bequeathed.

legation, n [1 lēgashun, 2 lēgashun]. Lat lēgation (en), 'ambassy'. See legate (I) & -ion.
1 A Diplomatic body, inferior in rank to embassy, sent to foreign country, b the chief of such a body and his staff, in cluding secretaries, attachés &c collectively.
2 A Official residence of chief diplomatic agent, b office where the business of a legation is carried on.

legato, adv [1 legatō, 2 legatōu] Ital, P P, tied together, fr Lat ligatū 'tied', fr ligare, 'to bind'. See ligament. (mus direction, of a series of notes) (Tn be played) smoothly, without intervals or breaks legator, n [1 legatōr, 2 legatōis] legate (II) & -or Person who bequeathes legend, n [1 lejend, 2 lejend], more rarely and affectedly [1 lejend, 2 lejend] Fr legende, fr Lat legenda, 'things to be read', fr legere. See lecture 1 Originally, a an account of a saint's life which was read aloud as a duty, b extended to include stories of other kinds, generally of a marvellous character 2 A traditional, popular tale, b a tale of doubtful authenticity and veracity 3 An inscription, esp on medal or coin legendary, adj & n [1 lejendari, 2 lejendari] Prec & -ary 1 adj a Surviving only in legends, b fabulous, mythical 2 n Collection of legends legendry, n [1 lejendri, 2 lejendri] legend & -ry Traditional, mythical, stories collected legerdemain, n [1 lejerdemān, 2 lejerdemān] Fr leger de main, 'light of hand' Conjuring tricks, applied also to specious argument, or clever unscrupulous action legged, adj [1 legd, 2 legd] leg & -ed. (chiefly in compounds) Having legs of a specified kind bow legged, thick legged &c legginess, n [1 légines, 2 légines] leggy & -ness A state of being leggy, of having disproportionately long legs b state (in plants) of having long bare stems legging, n [1 legging, 2 legging, in] leg & -ing (gen pl) Covering of leather or canvas to protect leg below the knee, fastened with buttons or straps leggy, adj [1 legi, 2 legi] leg & -y a Having disproportionately long legs, as of young animal, boy, girl &c, b applied also to shrubs and climbing plants, having long bare stems near the base, with leaves and blossoms on the top leghorn, n [1 legörn, 2 legörn] leg born, 2 legörn, legörn Plated straw used in making hats, from Leghorn (Livorno), in Italy, also otterb, leghorn hat 2 A hat made from this straw 3 Breed of domestic fowl white leghorn &c legibility, n [1 lejibiliti, 2 lejibiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being legible legible, adj [1 lejibl, 2 lejibl] Fr legible, 'readable', fr Lat legibilis, see leg under lecture & -ible Capable of being read, clear easy to read, readable legibility, n See prec & -ity In a legible manner legion n [1 lejün, 2 lejün] Lat legiō (em), fr base leg, 'to pick out, collect, gather', see lecture, & -ion 1 Unit in ancient Roman army of from 3000 to 6000 men, together with complement of cavalry, hence, (large) body of troops in general 2 (only pred) A host, multitude, large number my foes, anxieties, are legion 3 A British Legion, a federation of the various societies of soldiers who had served in the Great War, formed for their assistance and protection, b Foreign Legion, corps of the French army recruited by voluntary enlistment from foreigners for service in the Colonies, esp in N Africa 4 Legion of Honour, a French Order of chivalry and merit having various grades of distinction, founded by Napoleon I, bestowed for civil or military services legionary, adj & n [1 lejünari, 2 lejünari] Lat legionarius 1 adj Belonging to, consisting of a legion or of legions 2 n Member of a legion legislate, v intrans [1 lejislät, 2 lejislät] Lat legislatō fr legislator Tn make, enact, laws legislation, n [1 lejisläshun, 2 lejisläshun] 1. Lat legislatiō (em), fr Lat legis, genit of lex, 'law' (see legal), & latiō (em), bringing (forward), proposing' See tolerate

1 Act of making laws 2 The laws that are enacted legislative, adj [1 lejislätiv, 2 lejislätiv, 2 lejislätiv, 2 lejislätiv] See prec & -ive 1 Having the duty and power to make laws legislative assembly 2 Pertaining to the enactment of laws legislator, n [1 lejislätör, 2 lejislätör] Lat legis lator, 'proposer of a law' (see legislation), lat for 'flat', 'to hear' (see tolerate) Member of body which makes laws, a lawgiver legislature, n [1 lejisläshur, 2 lejislätiv] See legislate & -ure Body of persons in a state whose function is to make and alter laws, legislative body legist, n [1 lejist, 2 lejist] fr leg. (see legal) & -ist Student of, one skilled in, the science of law legitimacy, n [1 lejitimasi, 2 lejitimasi] See next word & -cy State, status, fact, of being legitimate, a (of children) fact of being born, (of birth) fact of occurring, in lawful wedlock, b (of a sovereign or ruler) fact of being lawful heir to his throne by right of descent legitimate (I), adj [1 lejitimät, 2 lejitimät] Formed fr Lat legitimus, 'lawful', fr leg, 'low' (see legal), & -ate 1 Lawful, permitted, a in accordance with law a legitimate claim, purpose, b in accordance with recognized principles, reasonable, justifiable a legitimate argument Legitimate drama, body of plays of recognized and accepted merit 2 Specif a (of children) born in lawful wedlock, b (of birth, descent) derived from lawful marriage 3 (of kings) Lawfully descended from royal line, representing the direct senior line, and holding throne by such lawful hereditary right, with this conception is often associated the theory of Divine Right legitimate (II), v trans [1 lejitimät, 2 lejitimät] Etymol as prec a To render legitimate and lawful, b specif, to confer legitimacy of birth, by a legal act, upon one born out of lawful wedlock, to recognize as legitimate, give status of a legitimate offspring to legitimately, adv [1 lejitimäti, 2 lejitimäti] legitimate (I) & -ly In a legitimate manner (in old senses) legitimation, n [1 lejitimäshun, 2 lejitimäshun] legitimate & -ion Act of legitimating legitimize, v trans [1 lejitimäiz, 2 lejitimäiz] legitimate (I) & -ize Tn legitimate legitism, n [1 lejitimizm, 2 lejitimizm] Lat legitim(us) 'lawful' (see legitimate (I)), & -ism Principles and aims of legitimists legitimist, n [1 lejitimist, 2 lejitimist] Lat legitim(us), see prec, & -ist One who supports the principle of monarchy based upon strict hereditary descent, specif, supporter of claims of Bourbon line to the throne of France legitimize, v trans [1 lejitimiz, 2 lejitimiz] Legitim, as in prec, & -ize Tn legitimate legume, legumen, n [1 légüm, 2 légüm, 2 legüm, 2 legüm] Fr legume, 'vegetable', Lat legūmen, 'pulse, or other leguminous plant, a pea', fr legere, 'to gather'. See lecture 1 A seed of a leguminous plant, pea, bean &c, b the plant itself 2 A seed pod of leguminous plant legumin, n [1 legüm, 2 legüm] Prec & -in Proteid substance forming a constituent of the pea and other leguminous plants leguminous, adj [1 legümünus, 2 legümünus] Lat legūmin, stem of legūmen (see legume), & -nus Connected with of the nature of, the pea, bean, and other kindred plants

Leibnizian, adj & n [1 lejbnizian, 2 lejbnizian] fr name of Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz (1646-1716) a adj Pertaining to, based on, the philosophical doctrines of Leibniz, b n, adherent of those doctrines

Leicester, n [1 léstor, 2 léste], fr name of county of Leicestershire A breed of sheep leister, n & v trans [1 léstor, 2 léste] O N hostr, fr hōsta, 'strike' a n Salmon-spear, b vb, to spear with a leister leisure, n [1 lejshur, 2 leze], or, obsolesc or provinc [1 lejshur, 2 leze] M E lesere, &c, O Fr leisir, orig en mfn, fr Lat licere, 'to be lawful, to be allowed'. See licence A freedom from occupation, esp from compulsory duties or business, b time which is free and unoccupied Phrs to be at leisure, to be free, unoccupied, (to do something) at one's leisure, at a convenient moment, implying no immediate urgency, (attrib) leisure hour, time of leisure, regularly recurring period of leisure, leisure time, spare time, between hours of business leisurely, adj [1 lejshuri, 2 lejshuri] Prec & -ed Possessing leisure, being master of one's own time, specif, having no regular business, no obligatory duties to perform leisureliness, n [1 lejshurines, 2 lejshurines] Next word & -ness a Absence of hurry or haste, deliberateness of movement or action; b excessive slowness in action, dilatoriness leisurely, adj [1 lejshuri, 2 lejshuri] leisure & -ly - a Unhurried, deliberate, not characterized by urgency leisurely movements, b not exhibiting signs of haste, not hurrying; leisurely in one's movements leitmotiv, n [1 leitmōtīf, 2 leitmōtīf] Mod Germ leit, 'leading', cogn w lead (IV) & Fr motif See motive a Recurring phrase, or short passage, in a musical composition, always associated with the same sentiment, situation, or personage, b (fig) dominant aim, sentiment, ideal, consistently exhibited throughout a course of action leman, n [1 leman, 2 leman] M E, first found as compound in Layamon's 'Brut', earlier text, c 1200, leofman, leuemon, later text, c 1250, lemman, mon, 'mistress', fr O E lēof, 'dear' (see leaf), & man Lover, sweetheart, usually in bad sense, paramour lemma, n, pl lemmata [1 lema, 2 lema, 2 lema, 2 lema] Gk lēmma, 'something received, premise taken for granted', cp (ε) lēmma, perf pass of lambanein, 'to seize, take' See dilemma a Proposition taken for granted, or immediately demonstrated, used in an argument, b subject of a literary article or argument, c headline or head word in a dictionary lemming, n [1 leming, 2 leming] Norw, fr Lapp luemel (zool) Small, rat like, migratory animal found in arctic regions lemon, n [1 lemun, 2 lemun] Fr limon, Span limón, fr Arab līmūn Cp also lime, the fruit 1 n A Moderate sized, very acid, pale yellow fruit, chiefly used for flavouring, or for making cooling drinks, salts of lemon, see salt, b tree, Citrus Lemonum, which bears this fruit 2 adj Having the colour of the rind of lemons lemonade, n [1 lemunād, 2 lemunād], fr Fr limonade See lemon & -ade Sweet drink made from lemon juice, sugar, and water, or soda water lemon-drop, n Small hard lozenge made of sugar strongly flavoured with lemon lemon-sole, n Fr limande A flat fish resembling a sole in appearance, but inferior in taste and texture lemon-squash, n Beverage made of juice of lemon and soda water, usually sweetened lemur, n [1 lejmur, 2 lejmur], fr Lat lemures, 'spirits of the dead' cogn w Gk lamna, 'specter' See lamma Small arboreal animal found in Madagascar, somewhat resembling a monkey, having thick, soft fur, a bushy, furry tail, and a pointed muzzle like that of a fox, the name is due to the nocturnal habits of the animal lend, v trans [1 lend, 2 lend] O E lēnan, 'to lend, grant', M E lēnen, fr lānjan, cp lan, q v under loan 1 To grant a person temporary use of anything (with to before indirect object if direct object) not expressed) 'whose giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord', but lend me a sovereign. Phrs lend me your ears, listen, to lend a hand (in, at), be of use in, help. to lend a helping hand, act as a benefactor to, lend countenance to, tolerate, acquiesce in, support (a person or a line of conduct) 2 To let out money at interest 3 To impart, contribute, add to this fact lends probability to the story, 'Tis distance lends enchantment to the view' (Campbell) 'Pleasures of Hope' 4 (reflex) a (of persons) To lend oneself to, (usually in bad sense) stoop to lend oneself to dishonest means, b (of things) be useful for, serve for a fork does not lend itself to the purposes of a cook's crew lender, n [1 lender, 2 lende] Prec & -er One who lends, (in compound) money-lender, one who lets out money at exorbitant interest lending-library, n [1 lending library, 2 lending library] Institution which lets out books temporarily, at a price length, n [1 length, 2 lenp] OE length, ME length, fr langþa*, fr OE lang, 'long' (see long (I)), & formative suff -th 1 A dimension of space, the measurement of anything from one end to another the length of a line, rod, house, field, road, b extent of distance, length of a journey 2 A Total duration (of time) length of a visit, stay, holiday, b duration of interence, and of the acoustic effect the length of a syllable, of a vowel, the length of a musical note 3 Range, scope, compass, extent length of a book, paragraph, sermon &c Phrs at length, (i) finally, at last, he came at length, (u) in detail, thoroughly, fully to explain something at length, (u) for a long time to speak at length, at full length, stretched straight out, (to speak &c) at some length, rather long, to go the length of, to go so far, take such extreme measures as (followed by Pres Part), to go all lengths, be prepared to do anything, stoop at nothing to attain one's object, at arm's length, as far away as possible, (fig) keep a man at arm's length, behave with marked coldness as discouraging intimacy, to have, get, know, the length of a person's foot, form an estimate of his character, length of days, long life, to win by a length, of a boat, horse &c, in a race, fi by its own length, as measure of distance lengthen, vb trans & intrans [1 lengthen, 2 lenþen] Prec & -en 1 trans To prolong, extend, make longer, lengthen out, prolong unduly 2 intrans a To grow longer the days are lengthening, the shadows lengthen, (i) evening is coming on, (u) one is growing older, life is nearing its close, b to extend, pass, into summer lengthens into autumn lengthily, adv [1 lengthily, 2 lenþily] length & -ly In a lengthy manner lengthiness, n [1 lengthiness, 2 lenþiness] length & -ness Quality of being lengthy, excessive length, (specif of speech) prolixity lengthwise, adv [1 lengthwise, 2 lenþwise] length & -wise In the direction of the length lengthy, adj [1 lengthy, 2 lenþy] length & -y Having excessive length, a (of duration in time) lasting too long, spun out, hence, b (of speech) prolix, c (of persons) given to lengthiness in speaking, verbose lence, -cy, n [1 lence(s), 2 lenness(s)] Next word & -ce, -cy Quality of being lenient, indulgence, mercy, clemency lenient, adj [1 lenient, 2 leniant] fr Lat lenient (em), Pres Part type of lenire, 'to soften, alleviate, to allay, pacify', fr lenis, 'smooth, soft, gentle', prob cogn w O Slav lenŭ, 'altruistic, inactive', fr base le*, for the reduced grade of wh see lassitude 1 (archaic) Tending to assuage, or allay 'With lenient arts extend a mother's breast' (Pope) 2 Clement, mild, merciful, a (of persons) not exacting or imposing full retribution; b (of punishment) light in proportion to the offence lenify, vb trans [1 lenifi, lenifi, 2 lenifia, lenifia] Lat leni, as in prec, & -fy To assuage, alleviate lenitive, adj & n [1 lenitiv, 2 lenitiv] See next word, & -ive a adj Tending to mitigate or assuage, emollient, b n, a medicine which soothes and eases pain or irritation lenity, n [1 leniti, 2 leniti, 2 leniti] Lat leniti (em), 'softness, mildness', fr leni, assuagement, & -ity Quality or condition of being lenient, mercy, clemency leno, n [1 leno, 2 leno] Fr lenon, 'soft fabric, lawn' See linen Soft, light cotton fabric lens, n [1 lens, 2 lenz] Lat lens, -is, 'lentic', Mod sense fr the shape See lentic A piece of glass or crystal cut or ground so as to effect in various ways the rays of light, and modify vision Crystalline lens, (anat) transparent body in interior of the eye having shape and function of a lens

Lent (I), n [1 lent, 2 lent] OE lenten, lenten, 'spring, Lent', ME lenten, lente, O H G lengian The first element is a mutated form of OE lang, 'long', as in length, the ending -ten may represent an old word for 'day', seen in Goth an leina, 'daily', cogn w O Slav din, 'day', & Sort dina, 'day' The name wd in this case refer to the lengthening of days in spring That period of ecclesiastical year (forty days) extending from Ash Wednesday until Easter Day, kept as a time of fasting and abstinence to commemorate the Temptation, Trial, and Crucifixion of the Saviour Lent lily, the daffodil, Lent term, term at school or university following the Christmas vacation, ending about Easter lent (II), vb Pret & P P of lend -lent, suff [1 lent, 2 lent] fr Lat lento ending in -lento, e.g. excellent, virulent, the equiv Engl suff is -ful

Lenten, adj [1 lenten, 2 lentan] OE lenten, but present word fr lent (I) & adj suff -en Belonging to, connected with, Lent Lenten fast, fare, services &c lenticular, adj [1 lenticular, 2 lentikula] See next word & -ar 1 Shaped like a lens or a lentic 2 Connected with the crystalline lens of the eye lentic, n [1 lentic, -ti, 2 lentic, -ti] Fr lentic, fr Lat lenticula, dimin of lens (stem lentis), 'pulse' &c, & dimin suff -cul (see -cule) The stem perh meant orig 'pliable', & may be identical w that in next word Seed of a leguminous plant, specif, the seed of one of several varieties of bean, dried and used as a vegetable lentic, n [1 lentic, 2 lentisk] fr Lat lentiscus, fr lentus, 'flexible' See next word The masto tree, masto lenticity, n [1 lenticity, 2 lentikity] Lat lentitudo, 'slowness, sluggishness', fr lentus, 'flexible, twining, slow, immovable', cogn w O H G lind, 'soft, mild' &c, O E līpe See lithe (rare) Slowness, sluggishness lentoid, adj [1 lentoid, 2 lentoid] See lens & -oid Lens-shaped Leonid, n [1 leōnid, 2 leōnid] Fr, fr Lat leōnides, fr leo, leōn (-is), 'lion', & -id Shoot- ing star apparently radiating from the constellation Leo leomine (I), adj [1 leōnin, 2 leōnin] Lat leōninus, fr leōn, stem of leo, 'lion' Like a lion a leomine type of face &c Phrs leomine partnership, (law, fr Lat leomina societas) a partnership in which one gets all the profits and the other has to bear the losses or most of them, cp 'a lion's share' leomine (II), adj, fr name Leo a Connected with one of the popes called Leo Leomine city, that part of Rome in which the Vatican is, as walled by Leo IV, b connected with any person of this name, Leomine verse, elegiac hexameters and pentameters, with the last word of the line rhyming with that just before the caesura, invented in 12th cent by a Benedictine of the name leopard, n [1 lépard, 2 lépard] ME leopard, leopard, leopard &c, O Fr leopard, fr Lat leopardus See lion & pard (I) 1 Large spotted animal, Felis pardus, of cat tribe, found in Africa and Asia, American leopard, the jaguar, snowleopard, the ounce. 2 (her) A lion depicted sideways but with face turned full towards one leopardess, n [1 léparden, 2 léparden, as] Prec & -ess Female of the leopard leopard moth, n A moth, genus Zeuzera, the burrowing larvae of which destroy timber leper, n [1 leper, 2 lépa] ME, fr O Fr lepre, 'leprosy', Lat lepra, lepra, fr Gk lepra, 'leprosy', fr leprōs, 'scaly', cp lepis, 'scaly', op lepein, 'to peel, strip', cogn w O Slav lupiti, 'to peel', further Lat liber, 'inner bark of a tree' See library & cp leaf 1 (obs, Bib) Leprosy 'He will surely strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper' (2 Kings v 11) 2 (with transference of sense) One afflicted with leprosy lepid-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk lepid-, stem of lepis, 'scale', see prec

Lepidoptera, n pl [1 lepidoptera, 2 lepidoptera] Prec & Gk pterón, 'feather', see pteron & feather Insects with four soaly wings, moths and butterflies lepidopterous, adj [1 lepidopterous, 2 lepidopterous] Prec & -ous Pertaining to the Lepidoptera leporine, adj [1 leporin, 2 leporin] Lat leporinus, fr lepor, stem of lepus, 'hare', & -ine Etymol very doubtful Belonging to the hare family leprechaun, n [1 leprehaun, 2 lepraheun] Ir leachraán, lepraheun, lit 'having a small body' A sprite in the form of a small wizened old man leprosy, n [1 leprosi, 2 leprosi] leprous & -y Infectious chronic disease caused by a micro organism, occurring chiefly in Asia, Africa, parts of Northern Europe &c, affecting the skin, tissues, nerves, (fig) moral leprosy, contagious demoralization and corruption leprous, adj [1 leprus, 2 lepros] leper & -ous Afflicted with leprosy lepto-, pref, fr Gk leptōs, 'cleaned, fine, delicate, slender, thin, small', cp Lat lepidus, 'fine, elegant, pleasant, agreeable', prob fr same base as Gk lepein, 'to peel, take the husk off' See under leper leptodactyl, n [1 leptodaktīl, 2 leptodaktīl] See prec & dactyl (zool) Bird or animal having thin, slender toes

Lesbian, adj [1 lēzbian, 2 lēzbian] Gk lēsbios, 'pertaining to Lesbos', w substitution of Lat suff -an a Connected with the island of Lesbos (now Mytilene), b specif, pertaining to a type of sexual perversion among women lese-majesty, n [1 lēz majestē, 2 lēz majestē] Fr lèse-majesté, Lat laesa majestas, 'violated majesty' See next word & majesty High treason, an offence against the dignity of the sovereign power of a state, specif, offence against the person or dignity of the king or other ruler as representing the sovereign power lesion, n [1 lēzhun, 2 lēzhun] Lat laesio (em), 'injury, attack', fr laes (um), P P type of laedere, 'to injure, damage, to offend, aggress, to insult' Etymol doubtful, but agree, to w Gk lithos 'stone' (see litho-) porh cogn w Gk lithos 'stone' (see litho-) The orig meaning in this case wd be 'cut, bruised &c with a stone' Cp similar connotation of meaning between Lat scdere, 'to cut', & scrum, 'large rough stone, rock' Damage, injury, a, specif (med) harmful alteration in the tissue or in the function of an organ, also b moral injury less, adv, n, & prep [1 les, 2 les] OE lās, adv, 'less', lāssa, adj, 'smaller', used as compar of līgel, 'little' Etymol un known 1 adv Smaller in size, fewer in number, not so much, not so long, of minor importance the height of English mountains is less than that of the Alps, less people go to church than to theatres, drink less wine, he spends less time at work than a' play, I want less noise, please! Phrs may your shadow never grow less, may you continue to flourish, your shadow hasn't grown any less, you have not grown thinner, no less a person than, no other than, so important a person as 2 odv To a smaller extent, to an inferior degree the heat grows less intense, less less fat (that he was) Phr to expect no(thing) less, at least that, at least as much 3 n A smaller amount he won't take less, I had less to eat than I needed, less of your nonsense, less of a fool than he looked 4 prep Omission made of, with the deduction of five pounds less half a crown

-less, suff [1 les, 2 lɪs], forming adjs OE lūs, identical w lēas, 'devoid of, sham, false, vain', OS, OHG lūs, 'free from', ON laus, fr same bases as that of OE lōsan, 'lose' See loss & loss 1 (often n) Lacking, devoid of, free from, not possessing fatherless, sunless, sunless 2 (after v) Not performing, or undergoing, incapable of performing, not suffering, the action or process expressed by the verb tireless, fadeless, ceaseless, relentless lessee, n [1 les, 2 les] See lease (I) & -ee Person to whom the lease of a house or land is granted, tenant under a lease lessen, vb intrans & trans [1 lɛs, 2 lɛsn], fr less, adv, & lɪl suff en 1 intrans To grow less, diminish, shrink, contract light lessens as evening comes on 2 trans a To make less, take away from, reduce in size or extent this circumstance lessens the danger, b to belittle, depreciate, minimize, disparage he is inclined to lessen the difficulties, I don't wish to lessen the services he has rendered lesser, adj [1 lɛsə, 2 lɛsə] Compar of less Often used instead of less the lesser of two evils, esp orchois and poet 'the lesser light to rule the night' (Gen. 1:16) lesson, n [1 lɛsn, 2 lɛsn] ME lesoun, O Fr leçon, fr Lat lectiō (em), 'a reading', fr base leg, q v under lecture 1 a Any thing learnt or taught, piece of instruction given or received to give, take, a lesson in riding, music, Latin &c, Phr to read a person a lesson, to admonish, reprove, him b (pl) course of instruction to have music lessons, lessons in fencing &c 2 Definite piece of information, set of facts &c, appointed to be mastered at a given time the boy doesn't know, hasn't learnt, his lessons properly today 3 (pl) Whole course of instruction, and systematic education generally, as imparted to the young not very bright at his lessons, fond of his lessons 4 Something learnt by observation or experience which should preserve one from repetition of error he has had a severe lesson, let this be a lesson to you 5 Portion of Scripture appointed to be publicly read in churches on particular days the lesson for the day, here endeth the first lesson lessor, n [1 lɛsə, 2 lɛsə] See lease (I) & -or The person who grants a lease lest, conj [1 lest, 2 lest] OE lǣst lǣst pe, 'lest', lit 'by that the less that', p after s normally changes to t For fear that, so that not, in case 'take heed lest ye fall', I hid it lest he should see it let (I), vb trans & n [1 let, 2 let] Fret letted, PP let, OE letian, fr letian*, OS letian, OHG lesan, 'to hinder', Goth latjan, 'to make late, to tarry' See late 1 vb (archaic) To hinder, prevent, thwart 'I purposed to come unto you, but was let hither' (Rom 1:13), chiefly, to let and hinder 2 n a A hindrance, stoppage, Phr without let or hindrance, b (in lawn tennis &c) an accidental obstruction of the ball in serving, as by the top of the net, not counted as a fault, a repetition of the service being allowed.

let (II), vb trans, & auxil OE lātian, 'to leave behind, bequeath depart from, leave, to permit, to cause to happen, to lease (land)', ME lāten, 'to leave, relinquish', OS latan, OHG lāzan, Goth. lātjan, 'to permit, suffer, allow', cogn. w Gk. lātēn, 'to be idle, tired', also w Lāt. lātus

(fr lad* to), 'tired, exhausted' (see lassitude), fr same base as Goth. lāt, 'idle' & O Fr late A trans 1 To leave to let be, let alone, a to refrain from molesting or disturbing let me be, let me alone, b not to touch, not to interfere with let my things alone, c not to interfere, or intermeddle, with, not to take part in I should let this business alone if I were you, Phrs let me alone for taking care of myself, rely on me to, let alone, not to mention, to say nothing of I can't afford to hunt, let alone to play polo 2 To allow, cease, to flow, (in archaic phr) to let (him &c) bleed, to bleed, he was let blood, was bled 3 A To give temporary use of (house, land) in return for rent, to lease, hire out I shall let my house for the winter, I let all my land for grazing, to let lodgings, b to let out, (not confined to houses and land) to let on hire to let out horses and carriages &c by the day B auxil (followed by another vb in infinitive, but not preceded by to) 1 a To allow by act of volition, to allow, permit will you let me smoke?, do let me have one more shot, I won't let you waste your time like this, Phrs to let a person hear, know, (the news, what has happened &c), to inform him, to let a person hear from one, to write to, communicate with him, b (with second vb understood but not expressed) he wanted to go but his wife wouldn't let him 2 To allow through indifference or carelessness, incapacity &c, to take no steps to prevent to let a prisoner escape, to let a dish fall, to let the fire (go) out 3 (in imperat) Expressing desire, command, exhortation let us (let's) go at once, let us (let's) have a good time while we are here, let me hear you sing, let him try his best, (ironical) let him do his worst C Idiomatic uses before certain verbs Let be, leave alone, Phr let bygones be bygones, forgive and forget Let drive at, to strike violently, aim a powerful blow at Let drop, fall (a word, remark &c), to blurt out, utter inadvertently Let fly, to discharge, hurl forth, violently Let go, to release one's hold, let oneself go, to abandon oneself to one's emotions or passions, relax self control Let pass, to overlook, disregard, forgive Let (things) slide, to show indifference D Followed by preposition or adverb Let down, to lower let down the window, Phrs to let a man down, deceive, betray, place him in awkward position, to let a business, school &c down, lower its prestige, injure its reputation let a man down easily, show him consideration and leniency Let in, allow to pass, flow in to let in light and air, to let a person in, a give him admission, b to deceive, betray, put in a fix I was badly let in over that business Let loose, release, remove restraint from Let off, a to fire off to let off a gun, b to excuse, pardon, show clemency to, mete out lenient punishment to to let a man off what he owes, let him off lightly, with light sentence &c Let on, to admit, reveal, make admission &c he knew the facts all the time but he never let on Let out, a allow to flow, run, away to let the water out of the bath, b to release to let a man out (of prison), on bail, c to make (a garment) wider, looser, longer the trousers must be let out round the waist, d to divulge, esp by inadvertence in the course of conversation he let out that he had lost all his money, let out at, aim a violent blow at, attack violently in words let (III), n, fr preo (colloq) A letting, lease, or renting of a house, room &c -let, dimin suff [1 let, 2 lit], fr Fr dimin -el & -et Chaplet, lamlet, streamlet &c lethal, adj [1 lɛθl, 2 lɛpl] Fr lethale, fr Lat lethalis, 'deadly, fatal', op lētum, 'death', the base lēt* *fi occurs in Sert li yātē, 'vanishes, disappears', Gk límde, 'hunger', Lath. lelus, 'thin, worn out', lēsā, 'slim, thin', for connexion between the ideas of hunger & death op famulus & starve Spelling perhaps influenced by fancied connexion w lethe The base may ultimately be the same as that in OE lēf, 'worn out', see left (I). Op also oligo-

Fetal, deadly, mortal lethal weapon, one causing death, lethal chamber, place where dogs and cats are painlessly put to death lethargic(al), adj [1 lɛθərgɪk(l), 2 lɛpddɪk(l)] lethargy & -ic A Resembling, connected with, lethargy, b in a state of lethargy, drowsy, c inclined to lethargy, dull, heavy, slow of movement, inactive in body or mind, apathetic lethargy, n [1 lɛθərgɪ, 2 lɛpddɪ] Fr lethargie, Lat, fr Gk lithargia, 'forgetfulness', fr lithargos, 'idle, forgetful', fr lithē, 'forgetfulness' (see Lethe), & argos, 'idle, not working, lying fallow', for auergos*, fr a, neg pref, & base uerg*, 'work' &c See ergon, arg, & work a State of abnormal drowsiness, inertness, torpidity, inactivity of body, b state of mental torpor, indifference, apathy Lethe, n [1 lɛthē, 2 lɛpi] Gk lithē, 'forgetfulness, oblivion', name in Gk mythol of a river in Hades the water of which the souls of the dead were obliged to taste, with the effect of complete forgetfulness of the past This word & Gk lithē, 'escape notice, be unseen' &c, lithargos, 'forgetfulness' & other related words are cogn w lathros, 'stealthy, secret, furtive', connected w lathnēin, 'to escape not eo', op Lat latēre, 'to be hidden', q v under latent Oblivion, forgetfulness let-off, n let (II) & off Act of letting off, or excusing, on escape from punishment which is deserved lett, n [1 let, 2 let] Inhabitant of former Russian duchy of Kurland, now the republic of Latvia, one of a Baltic people related to the Lithuanians in race and language letter (I), n [1 lɛtə, 2 lɛtə] Lat littera, 'letter of the alphabet, handwriting', in pl litterae, 'epistolary document', the etymol is not perfectly certain, the alternative form littera is apparently not the older The word is therefore not directly connected w Lat littera, 'ameor', esp 'ameoring of wax on writing tablet', wh is related to linere, 'to daub, smear, spread over' &c Walde, following others, considers littera as a loan word fr Gk diplhēra, 'leather, dressed hide' (see diplhēra), w i for d, due to association w linere, & legere, 'to read' If this be correct it wd seem that the word must have been applied in Lat, first of all, to the skin used for writing, & then transferred to the symbols written upon it Op litteral 1 a Graphical symbol engraved or written, expressing a sound of speech letter of the alphabet, Phr the letter of the law, exact, precise, rigidly accurate meaning, often contrasted with spirit 'the letter killeth, but the spirit quickeneth life' (2 Cor 3:6), b a printed type 2 Written document conveying message, greeting &c to another person, epistle, missive, various specific meanings in Phrs letter of credit, document in which a banker intimates to his agents that a given person, named in the document, is entitled to draw upon him up to an amount stated, letters of business, authorization, command, from the sovereign to the ecclesiastical authorities to take a certain action, letters of marque, authorization to a private person to fit out and arm a vessel to seize foreign ships and merchandise, letters of administration, legal document authorizing executors of a deceased person to administer his estate, letters of orders, certificate of ordination granted by a bishop, letters patent, legal document issued by supreme authority granting the right to an individual to do certain things, or enjoy certain privileges 3 (in pl) Elements of the art of reading to teach a child his letters 4 (in pl) Literary culture, literature, learning art and letters, a man of letters, a writer, scholar, the profession of letters, that of an author, or scholar letter (II), vb trans, fr preo To mark with letters, impress letters on letter book, n Book in which copies of letters are preserved.

liberalistic, adj [1 liberalistik, 2 lib(a)ralistik]. Preo & -ic Inclined to, tinged with, approximating to, liberalism liberality, n [1 liberabti, 2 liberaliti] Lat liberalitas (em), 'manner of thought and behaviour befitting a freeman, nobleness, affability, generosity, a gift' See liberal & -ity 1 Quality of being liberal, a generosity, open-handedness, b breadth of understanding and sympathy, enlightenment of mind, catholicity 2 Something given, a gratuity liberalization, n [1 liberalizashun, 2 liberalizeshun] Next word & -ation A act of liberalizing, b condition of being liberalized liberalize, vb trans & intrans [1 liberaliz, 2 liberalayz] liberal (I) & -ize 1 trans a To make liberal in sympathies and outlook, to broaden, render more refined and catholic, b to make liberal in political sense 2 intrans To become liberal (in all senses) liberate, vb trans [1 liberat, 2 liberet] fr liberāt(-um), PP type of Lat liberāre, 'to release from slavery, make free', fr liber, 'free' & See liberal. 1 (in material and non-material sense) To set free, release from restraint, duty & to liberate from prison, from a task, from anxiety, from cares of office 2 a (ohem, of gases &) To set free, allow to escape, b (of physical forces) allow to operate liberation, n [1 liberashun, 2 libereshun] Lat liberatio(-em), 'a setting free, deliverance' See preo & -ion Act of freeing, of setting free, state of being set free liberationism, n [1 liberashunizm, 2 libereshunizm] Preo & -ism Doctrine that the Church should not be established, advocacy of Church disestablishment liberationist, n [1 liberashunist, 2 libereshunist] liberation & -ist One who advocates separation of Church and State by disestablishing the former liberator, n [1 liberator, 2 libereste] Lat liberator, 'one who sets free, deliverer' liberate & -or One who sets free, esp (polit) one who releases his country from foreign domination or political oppression libertarian, adj & n [1 libertarian, 2 libertarian] fr liberty & -arian 1 adj Believing in, advocating, the doctrine of the freedom of the will, contrasted with necessitarian 2 n Believer in the doctrine of the freedom of the will libertarianism, n [1 libertarianizm, 2 libertarianizm] Preo & -ism Principles, beliefs, doctrine, of the libertarians liberticidal, adj [1 libértisid, 2 libértisidil] See next word & -al Tending to destroy liberty liberticide, n [1 libértisid, 2 libértisidil] liberty & -cide 1 Destruction of liberty 2 A destroyer of liberty libertinage, n [1 libertanā, 2 libértineidz] See next word & -age Conduct of a libertine libertine, n [1 libértin, 2 libértain] Lat libertinus 'a freedman', fr libertus, 'manumitted slave, one freed from slavery', & -ino See liberty & liberal 1 a (usually in bad sense, of a person of loose, unrestrained habits and conduct) A licentious man, a rake, a debauchee, b (in playful sense) without disparagement a chartered libertine (man or woman), one whose eccentricities and mild irregularities are tolerated by public opinion 2 (rare) A free-thinker, sceptic, agnostic liberty, n [1 libérti, 2 libérti] fr liberté, fr Lat libertās em, 'civil freedom, condition of freedmen', fr liber, 'free, not a slave' See liberal 1 A freedom from restraint, condition of being a free man, contrasted with slavery, b condition of being untrammelled in action, free from compulsory occupation, Phr at liberty, (of persons) unoccupied, not busy, (of things) not bespoken, not in use 2 (pl) Certain privileges, rights, franchises conferred by prescription or grant the liberties of the city of London 3 Place or area, manor within which certain rights, privileges, and jurisdiction are exercised & Excessive freedom of, lack of restraint in, conduct which oversteps reasonable limits and becomes an affront, offensive, insulting act or remark Phrs to take liberties with, treat in too free a manner, to act offensively towards, to take liberties with a text, alter it, to take the liberty of doing so and so, to presume to do

5 Free choice, freedom from compulsion, discretion, permission, esp in Phr you are at liberty to make any use of this which you please & liberty of choice

libidinous, adj [1 libidinus, 2 libidinas] Lat libidinōsus, 'full of desire, lustful', fr libidm, stem of libido, 'pleasure; desire, eager longing, sensual passion', & -ous, earlier libido, cogn w Lat libet, libet, 'it pleases, is agreeable', cp same base in Sert libhyati, 'he desires, longs eagerly for', & libhas, 'desire', O Slav lyuby, 'love', lyubā, 'dear', lyubiti, 'to love', OE lyfu (see love (I)), Goth lyufs, OE lōf, 'dear' (see lief) a (of persons) Habitually or constitutionally lustful, sensual, b (of books &) tending to, provoking, lust libidiously, adv Preo & -ly In a libidinous manner libidinousness, n See preo & -ness

Quality of being libidinous, lustfulness libra, n [1 libra, 2 laibrā] Lat, 'Roman pound, pair of scales, the constellation Libra' Earlier form lipra*, whence Gk libra, later, Doric, libra Etymol unknown, prob borrowed fr some ant Mediterranean language 1 A pound weight, only as abbreviated to lb, b pound sterling, £ 2 Seventh sign of the zodiac, called also the Scales librarian, n [1 librarian, 2 laibrashun] Lat librarius, 'transcriber of book, copyist, secretary', fr Lat liber, 'book', see library, & -ian The keeper of a library.

librarianship, n [1 librarianship, 2 laibrashun] Preo & -ship Office of a librarian library, n [1 librari, 2 laibrari] fr librarius, now 'bookshop', fr Lat librarium, 'place to keep books in, bookcase, or chest', fr Lat liber, 'book', earlier liber, orig 'the inner bark of a tree', then fr use made of this for writing on, 'a collection of leaves of writing', & so 'a book, treatise', cogn words in other Aryan languages fr bases libh*, lyp*, lep*, signify some part of a tree, or objects made fr these Lat dēlibio means 'strip off bark of a tree, peel', O Slav lubiti, 'made of bark'; Russ lub, 'bark', O Pruss lubbo & lath luba, 'hoard', lūbas in same language is 'a wooden roof or ceiling of a room' With a different final cons, but prob orig connected, there is Gk lepis, 'scale, shell', lepis, 'shell, husk, bark, peel' (see lepid-) A further group of cognates is Goth laufs, 'leaf' & q v under leaf, cp also leper 1 a A collection of books, b the room or place where this is lodged 2 Collection of books temporarily let out to subscribers circulating library 3 Series of books of the same kind, or on related subjects, issued by the same publisher a library of fiction & c librate (I), n [1 librat, 2 laibrat] L Lat librata See libra & -ate (hist) Amount of land worth a pound in the year librate (II), vb intrans, fr librāt(-um), PP type of librare, 'to weigh, to hold in equilibrium, as a balance' See libra & -ate a To vibrate to and fro as a balance before coming to rest, hence, b to remain poised libration, n [1 librashun, 2 laibrashun] Preo & -ion A Oscillation, posing, as of a balance, b apparent similar oscillation in a heavenly body libration of the moon librettist, n [1 librést, 2 libréstist] See next word & -ist Writer, author, of a libretto or librettos libretto, n [1 libréto, 2 libréto], pl librettos or libretti [1 libréto, 2 libréti] Ital, dimin of libro, 'a little book'; Lat liber See library Words of an opera.

lice, n [1 lis, 2 kus]. Pl. of leuse.

licence, license (I), n [1 lisens; 2 laisens] Fr licence, fr Lat licentia, 'freedom, leave to do as one pleases', fr licet (em), Pres Part type of impers vb licet & c, 'it is permitted, lawful, one is at liberty' & c, the etymol of the base is quite uncertain

1 a Permission, legal authorization, to do some specified thing, esp to perform some act which without such formal, authoritative permission would be illegal licence to fish, shoot, to sell tobacco, esp to sell alcoholic liquor, licence to preach, granted by diocesan bishop to unbeneficed clergy in his own diocese, or to those belonging to other dioceses, b official document granting authorization to have, or to do something dog-, fishing-licence 2 Excess of freedom, abuse of liberty, un disciplined, irregular conduct, unlawfulness. 'Licence they mean when they cry Liberty' (Milton), the invading troops displayed the most unbridled licence 3 Tolerated irregularity, accepted departure from strict rule in form, structure, deviation from meticulous accuracy, which an artist practices in the hope of securing some advantage for his work poetic licence license (II), vb trans, fr preo To grant permission, authorize, to do something which requires a licence to render the act legal to license a man to practise as a doctor, to keep a beer-shop, to license the letting of lodgings licensed, adj [1 lisens, 2 laisens], fr PP of preo 1 Possessed of a licence, legally authorized by a licence, to do a specific thing licensed to sell beer and spirits, licensed victualler, publican 2 Privileged, enjoying special freedom in some specific capacity a licensed buffoon licensee, n [1 lisens, 2 laisens] License (II) & -ee Person holding a licence, esp to sell alcoholic liquor licenser, -or, n [1 lisenser, 2 laisens] License & -er One who grants licences licentiate, n [1 lisenshiat, 2 laisenshiat] Mod Lat licentiatus, PP of licentiare, 'to allow, license' See licence (I) One in possession of a licence, specif, person holding a licence from a learned, scientific, or professional body, entitling him to practise his profession Licentiate in Dental Surgery, of the Society of Apothecaries & c licentious, adj [1 lisenchus, 2 laisens] Lat licentiosus, 'wanton' & c, fr stem licenti- (see licence (I)) & -ous 1 (rare and archaic) Irregular, exhibiting licence, not according to best or traditional usage a licentious rhyme, construction & c 2 (of persons and conduct) Unrestrained, dissolute, immoral, debauched licentiously, adv Preo & -ly In a licentious manner licentiousness, n See preo & -ness Loose conduct, debauchery, profligacy lichen, n [1 likon, 2 laikin] Lat, fr Gk leikhen, 'a mossy plant, eruption of the skin', said to be connected w leikhein, 'to lick', though connexion in sense is not clear See lick (I) 1 Species of mosslike or scaly cryptogamous plant which grows chiefly on tree-trunks, rock, stones, and buildings, it is a fungus and alga combined 2 (med) A kind of pustular disease of the skin lichenous, adj [1 lisenus, 2 laikinus] Preo & -ous Resembling or pertaining to lichen, infested by lichen lichgate, lychgate, n [1 lichgāt, 2 litgēt] OE lic, 'living body, corpse', & gāt, q v under gate (I), lic corresponds to OS lik, 'body, flesh, corpse', OHG lih, 'external form, body, corpse', Mod Germ leiche, 'corpse' The orig sense is 'form' See like (I & II.) Porch or roofed gateway leading into a churchyard, under which the coffin was placed at a funeral to await arrival of the clergyman licit, adj [1 list, 2 list] Fr licite, fr Lat licitus, 'permitted, lawful', fr PP of licere, 'to be permitted'. See licence (rare) Permissible, lawful.

lickitly, adv Preo & -ly Lawfully

Lick (I), vb trans [1 lik, 2 lik] OE liccan, cp OS liccōn, OHG lickōn, Du likken, Gmc *lik is fr earlier *ligna-, cp Goth (bi) laigōn, 'to lick', cogn w these are Gk likhneuein, 'to lick', liknos, 'dainty, greedy', also leikheim, 'to lick', cp Lat ligurire, 'to lick', & ligula, 'little tongue', lit 'hoker', also lingula, lingere, 'to hok np' Lat lingua, 'tongue', is not historically connected (see lingual), though it is pretty certain that the Romans must have associated lingua & lingere Fr lecher is borrowed fr a Gmo language 1 A To pass the tongue over a dog licks one's hand, Phrs to lick one's lips, (fig) to show eagerness, greed, in anticipation of pleasure, or satisfaction, or in remembering past pleasures, to lick into shape, to bring unpromising material (person or thing) into some degree of smartness, efficiency &c, to bring a piece of work to something like its final form, to lick the dust, (1) to be sent sprawling on the ground, to be slain, (2) behave abjectly to lick a person's boots, shoes, show him abject submission, toady him, b lick up, to consume by licking or lapping 2 To play, flicker, round, touch lightly, as waves of the sea or darting flames 3 (colloq) a To thrash, beat, soundly a cowardly, sneaking boy deserves to be well licked, b to triumph over, be superior to, excel, m a fight or other contest or competition Phrs that licks everything, licks creation, surpasses everything, that licks me, is beyond my comprehension, to go as hard as one can lick, run at one's top speed.

lick (II), n, fr preo 1 A Act of licking, Phr a lick and a promise, inadequate, perfunctory, attempt at washing or cleaning, b small portion of something, as much as can be licked up with one motion of the tongue a lick of butter 2 (colloq) a Severe blow, b rapid pace to go at a tremendous lick, (af) full lick lickerish, liquorish, adj [1 likrish, 2 likorish] ME likorous, 'dainty, lecherous', fr A-Fr variant of O Fr licherous, lecherous, of Gmc origin In the sense 'dainty', the first element was apparently influenced by Engl lick, there has also been a substitution of the Engl suff for older -ous Dryden has liquorish (archaic) 1 a Lecherous, lustful, b eager or greedy to devour 2 Fastidious, dainty, nice

lickerishness, n ME likorousnes, 'lecherousness' See preo & -ness Quality of being lickerish licking, vhl n [1 liking, 2 likyng] Lick (I) & -ing 1 Act of touching or lapping with the tongue, a lick 2 (colloq) a A heating, thrashing, b infliction of a defeat in any fight or contest.

lickpenny, n [1 likpen, 2 likpcn] (obs) A needy, greedy person Cp Lydgate's London Lickpenny (c 1420) lickspittle, n [1 likspitl, 2 likspitl] A servile, toadying, abject rascal licorice, n See liquorice licktor, n [1 liktor, 2 liktō] Lat, fr hase lig as in ligare, 'bind', q v under ligament, & -tor An officer who attended a Roman magistrate, so called from their occupation of binding prisoners, they bore bundles of rods or fascēs, in which an axe was bound up, as emblems of their powers and office lid, n [1 lid, 2 lid] OE līd, 'cover for a vessel or enp, a lid', OHG lit, cogn w OE līdan, 'to cover with a lid', ep further Goth leisra, 'tent, hut' The starting point is the Aryan base *leis- 'to slope, lean' &c, whence come a large number of words See climical, lean (II) 1 A cover for the open top of a hollow vessel the lid of a teale, saucepan, teapot, movable flap sometimes on hinges for covering top and closing a box lid of a chest &c Phr (colloq) to put the lid on (a plan, action &c) to come as eliminating obstacle, to put a stop to it bring it to an end, destroy 2 One of the fleshy, movable coverings of the eyes, eyelid.

lidded, adj [1 lided, 2 liddid] Preo & -ed. Provided with a lid or with lids, covered with, protected by, a lid or lids lidless, adj [1 lidles, 2 lidles] Lid & -less Lacking a lid or lids lie (I), vb intrans [1 li, 2 lai] OE lēogan, ME lizen, lien, OS, OHG liogan, ON lǫga, Goth lujan, 'to lie', cp also OHG louginzen, Mod Germ leugnen, 'to deny, disavow', cp OE liegan, 'to deny', OE lyge, 'a lie', fr lugi* (cp lie (II)), is fr the weak grade of this base, outside Gmo the base appears in O Slav lǫgati, 'to tell lies' To utter an untruth, specif, to utter wilful and deliberate falsehood, with intention to deceive, or for an unrighteous purpose Phr to lie in one's throat, utter gross falsehoods lie (II), n OE lyge See preo A deliberate untruth, statement made to hide the truth for some sinister purpose to tell a lie, utter an untruth, give the lie to, accuse one to his face of telling a lie and disprove his statement White lie, a statement not in strict accordance with truth, uttered from inconsiderate motives, or without any sinister intent lie (III), vb intrans OE hegan, ME liggen, & lien The latter, a new formation on the pattern of the OE 3rd smg Pres liege, is the ancestor of the mod form, OS liggan, OHG liggan, cogn w Lat lectus, 'ouch, bed', Gk lekhos, 'bed', & lekhos, 'lair', O Slav ležiati, 'to lie' See also lay (III) A 1 To lie, or put oneself, in a recumbent position, recline to lie still, 'Lying robed in snowy white She floated down to Camelot' (Tennyson), often with down I lay down in peace and took my rest Phrs lie down, keep quiet and hidden, lie low, a be dead (poet), b keep quiet, so as not to attract attention, lie at one's door, the blame lies at your door, you are responsible, lie close, pressed together 2 In general sense of to remain, he placed, be the book lies on the table, let it lie, let it stay where it is, it lies with you to decide 3 A To be situated, occupy fixed position Ireland lies to the west of England, b to stretch, lie spread out, to open out the valley lies at our feet, (fig) the world lies all before you, life lies in front of you 4 To be buried that great temple where lie the bones of so many kings and heroes 5 (archaic) To stay for a while, lodge, pass the night, sleep we lay at Bristol that night 6 (legal) To be admissible, capable of being sustained the appeal does not lie B Followed by advrb or preposition Lie down, Phrs lie down under (an insult &c), to submit without protest or resistance, to take (slight &c) lying down, without protest or resistance, to go and lie down, rest on a bed, without entering it Lie in, to be in childhood Lie under, to be liable to, suffer, incur to lie under suspicion Lie up, to take to one's bed on account of ill health, keep one's room Lie with, (archaic and Bib) to have sexual intercourse with lie (IV), n, fr preo Direction, position the lie of the land, (also fig) position, state, of affairs

lieb, adv & adj [1 lif, 2 lif] OE lēof, 'dear, beloved', ME lēf, OS liof, OHG liob, Mod Germ lieb, 'dear', Goth lufa, fr same base as OE lufu (see love), Lat libet, libet, 'it pleases', libido, libido, 'pleasure, lust' (see libidinous) 1 adv (rare and obsolete) Gladly, willingly, chiefly in such Phr as I would as lief go there as any where else, also in compar, rather, sooner I would liefer die than live dishonoured 2 adj (rare and archaic) As thou art lief and dear (Tennyson, 'Morte d'Arthur') liege, adj & n [1 li, 2 lid] ME lige, lige, fr O Fr liege, fr Low Lat leudes, O Fr leudes, 'fief holders, great vassals', fr OHG liut, 'people', Mod Germ liute, cp OS liud, O L liud These are cogn w O Slav lyudi, 'people', & w Gk leutheros, 'free', & prob also w Lat liber, 'free' (see liberal) The form of O Fr is due to association w

Lat ligare, 'to bind', q v under ligament. (fend) 1 adj a (of an overlord) Entitled to receive homage liege lord, sovereign, b (of vassals) bound to render homage, service, allegiance liege man, subject, o pertaining to the homage of a vassal rendered to his lord liege service 2 n a Fendal superior entitled to homage and allegiance, b fendal vassal bound to do homage and render service to his overlord His Majesty's lieges lien (I), vh [1 lin, 2 laın] Ohs PP of lie (III), fr ME lien, lizēn, formed direct fr the new ME infin type The OE PP legen, ME leyn(e), is the ancestor of the type lain now used lien (II), n [1 lēn, lēn, 2 līn, lēn] Fr, fr Lat ligamen, 'hand, tie' See ligament (legal) Right to hold and control property of another until a debt is paid or legal claim discharged lessee, n [1 lēsé, 2 līf] Preo & -ee Owner of property upon which another holds a lien lienor, n [1 lēnor, 2 līnē] See preo & -or One who holds a lien on another's property lierne, n [1 liern, 2 laiın] Etymol unknown (archaic) Short rih in Gothic vaulting which connects bosses and intersections of larger ribs lien, n [1 li, lō, 2 liū, liū] Fr, fr Lat locus, 'place' See locus Place, only in Phr in lieu of, instead of lieutenancy, n [1 leftenansi, 2 leftenansi] See next word & -cy Office, status, rank of a lieutenant, b tenure of this office lieutenant, n [1 leftenant, 2 leftenant] Fr See lieu & tenant 1 Deputy, substitute 2 A Rank of a junior officer in navy, b rank of an officer in the army immediately below that of captain, used as mode of address for naval officer holding this rank (Lieutenant Jones, R N), but not for a military officer

Lieutenant-colonel, n A Military officer immediately above the rank of major, commanding a battalion, b used as title and mode of address on letters &c

Lieutenant-colonelcy, n Status, rank, of a lieutenant colonel

Lieutenant-commander, n A Naval officer immediately above the rank of lieutenant and below that of commander, b used as title and mode of address

Lieutenant-general, n Military officer immediately above rank of major-general and below that of general

Lieutenant-governor, n Official ruling a district or province in a British dominion or colony under a governor general

Lieutenant-governorship, n Office of a lieutenant-governor life, n [1 lif, 2 laif] O & ME lif; the other old Gmc languages have the word in the sense of 'body', as well as 'life', OHG līp, 'body, life', Mod Germ leib, 'body', Du lijf, 'body', ON lif, 'life, body' These words are derived fr a base *leip-, *lip-, 'to last, endure, remain', as in Gk leipomai, 'to leave, remain' &c See further under leave (II), & cp live (I) 1 Principle which pervades organic matter and which enables animals and plants to transform food into energy, to grow, to adapt themselves to their environment, and to propagate their kind the origin of life 2 Animated nature, living organisms generally life retreated before the advancing ice-age Phrs drawn, irritated, to the life, so as exactly to reproduce the living person or thing, as large as life, life size, (facetious) evident, unmistakable &c there he was as large as life 3 A Period, state, of existence in the world as a living being, time spent by an individual man, lower animal or plant, between birth and death life is sweet, to spend one's life in doing good, to lose one's life, to save a person's life Phrs to take a person's life, to kill him, take one's own life, to commit suicide, a matter of life and death, circumstance on which it depends whether one will live or die, (fig) a matter of highest importance, to choke the life out of, kill by choking, for dear life, for very life, in order to preserve one's life, implying that even this is difficult, for the life of me I can't tell you &c, even though I were to be killed for it, to come to life (again), assume, resume, the functions and ways of a living being, begin to live, (to take, get) a new lease of life, (1) fresh health and strength, such as seem to promise an extended duration of life, (u) of inanimate, or of non-material things, capacity for extended existence, the struggle for life, effort necessary to provide for human needs, competition for success, b conscious existence after bodily death the life of the world to come, eternal life 4 Mode of existence, way of living, a in regard to circumstances, conditions, surroundings a comfortable life, a happy life, low life, b in relation to one's actions and conduct to lead a good, savilly life, his life will hardly bear investigation 5 a Human life thought of in relation to society, the relations of human beings to each other, and social experience generally, one's career in the world to see, learn, something of life, to enter upon life, a successful, active, life, b specif, social activity, bustling, stirring, existence there is not much life in a small country village 6 Account of a person's life and career, a biography Boswell's 'Life of Johnson', the Lives of the Poets 7 a Vital energy, vigour, exuberance, vivacity, liveliness, animation full of life, he infused new life into what seemed a dying cause, to put life into a portrait, put more life into your movements, b source, cause, of energy or liveliness, inspiration he was the life of the whole party, c source of physical health and strength plenty of sleep is the life of young children 8 (archaic) Person or thing that is very dear or precious, form of endearment my dear life &c 9 Period during which an institution, organization, or an inanimate object will last and continue to exist in a state of activity or usefulness the life of a state, a government; the life of a steamship, of a popular novel 10 (insurance) Person whose life is insured

Life-belt, n Belt made of, or lined with, some buoyant material which keeps the human body afloat

Life-blood, n 1 (poet) The blood in the veins of a living creature, blood which has flowed from a living creature 2 (fig) Source of strength and vigour research is the life blood of science and learning

Life-boat, n 1 Specially constructed, highly buoyant boat, used for saving life from a shipwrecked vessel 2 Small boat carried by larger vessel to be used in case this has to be abandoned

Life-buoy, n A life belt

Life-giving, adj [1 lit giving, 2 lat giving] a Imparting, having power to impart, life, b refreshing, invigorating

Life-guard, n a Military body-guard, b specif, Life Guards, two cavalry regiments whose function is to guard the person of the sovereign

Life-insurance, or -assurance, n System of contract by which a certain sum becomes payable to a person at a stated age, or to his heirs at his death, on condition of the payment of an annual premium down to the time when the specified age is reached, or the death of the insured occurs

Life-interest, n Interest in an estate enjoyed by a person during his life, but not transmissible by will

Lifeless, adj [1 lifes, 2 latiss] life & -less 1 Having no life a having lost life, dead, b having never possessed life, inanimate 2 Not lively, not animated, dull

Lifelessly, adv Preo & -ly In a lifeless manner

Lifelessness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being lifeless (m all senses)

Life-like, adj Life & -like A Resembling life, resembling a living being, b (of a portrait) resembling closely the person whom it represents Life-line, n 1 Line fired by means of a rocket from the shore to or over a ship in distress, by which a stout rope is passed on board 2 Rope fastened to a buoy, or a ship, to make it easier to reach it

Life-long, adj [1 liflong, 2 latiflong] life & -long Lasting, continuing, continued, for a lifetime a life-long friend, friendship

Life-office, n Insurance business, office of this, which deals with life insurance Life-peerage, n One granted to an individual for his lifetime and not hereditary

Life-preserver, n Weapon in the form of a short, heavy bludgeon, or of a heavily weighted cane &c

Lifer, n [1 lifer, 2 latif] (colloq) Person who has received a sentence of imprisonment for life

Life-saving, adj Designed for, used for, having property of, saving or protecting human life

Life-sized, adj (of portraits, statues &c) Having natural size and proportions of the living objects they represent

Life-table, n Table used by actuaries &c showing expectation of duration of life at different ages

Life-tenant, n (law) One who has a life-interest in an estate

Lifetime, n [1 liftime, 2 latiftime] Period during which the life of an individual continues

Life-work, n Work, task, occupying one's whole life, one to which a lifetime is devoted

Lift (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lift, 2 latif]

M E lyften, liften, 'to raise', fr ON lyfta, lyfta, 'to raise', cogn w ON lopt, loft, 'sky, upper room' (see loft), op O E lyft, 'air, cloud', O HG lyft, Goth lyftus further etymol doubtful A trans 1 To raise from lower to a higher level, set higher up, elevate, hoist to lift a child over a ditch, steam cranes easily lift several tons at a time, also lift up, Phrs lift one's hand against, strike, threaten to strike, lift up one's eyes, look up, lift (up) one's, etc, head, (1) to show oneself, become apparent, (u) to show signs of regaining strength, (u) to feel pride or self respect, (iv) (of mountains, big buildings &c) to tower up, rise, lift up one's voice, speak, cry out, lift (up) one's voice against, protest 2 a To pick up, grasp, and raise by a muscular effort the box is too heavy for you to lift b (slang) to steal 3 To cause (a ball) to rise by an upward stroke 4 To take up, get (root crops) out of the ground to lift potatoes 5 a To raise to a higher moral or intellectual level to lift a conversation out of the commonplace, b to raise to a higher social position, or to superior surroundings to lift a person from obscurity and poverty B intrans (of clouds, mist, rain, darkness) To rise, disperse, be dissipated, pass away

Lift (II), n, fr preo 1 Act of lifting, a heave to give a stone a lift, the lift of an axe Phr to give a person a lift, to take him into a vehicle, and carry him in the direction in which he wishes to travel for a part or the whole of his journey 2 a Upward trend, movement, tendency the lift of a branch, b lofty carriage of the body a characteristic lift of the head 3 a A rise in one's position or fortunes, source of advantage, aid to progress his knowledge of languages gave him a great lift in his career, b profitable help, a good turn, a helping hand he gave me many a lift when I was a young man 4 Means by which something is lifted, specif a an apparatus for carrying passengers or goods to different floors of a building; an elevator, hoist, b rope running from the masthead of a ship to the yard below, for supporting or squaring this, c a layer of leather in the heel of a boot or shoe

Ligament, n [1 ligament, 2 ligament] Lat ligamentum, 'band, bandage', fr. base of

ligare, 'to bind, tie, fasten', etymol & con- nexions outside Lat of the base lig, 'to bind', are very dubious Cp lien (II), factor, ligature a A tie, band &c connecting one thing with another, b specif (anat) tough, flexible band of fibrous tissue connecting the extremities of two bones, or holding an organ in place

Ligamental, adj [1 ligamentl, 2 ligament(a)] Preo & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, forming part of, a ligament

Ligamentary, adj [1 ligamentari, 2 ligamentari] See preo & -ary Ligamental

Ligamentous, adj [1 ligamentus, 2 ligamentus] See preo & -ous Ligamental ligate, vb trans [1 ligat, 2 latigat], fr Lat. ligat(-um), PP of ligare, 'to bind together, bandage' See ligament (surg) To bandage, to tie with a ligature ligature, n & vb trans [1 ligatur, 2 latigatur] Lat ligatura, fr ligat, as in preo, & -urs 1 n a Something that binds, or connects, a bond &c, b (mus) curved line connecting several notes, slur, c (surg) a tie of silk, catgut &c used for tying the ends of a cut blood-vessel to stop haemorrhage &c, d (typog) character containing two letters united 2 vb To tie with a ligature light (I), n [1 lit, 2 latit] O E leoht, 'light', OS, OHG heht, Goth luhap, cogn w Lat lucere, 'to shine' (see luculent, lucid), litr, 'light' (see Lucifer, lucus, see further lunation, lunar, luminous), cogn also w Gk leulos, 'bright, shining, white' (see leuco-), cp also O Slav lukt, 'light', & see lea (I) 1 (nat so) Form of energy consisting of vibrations in the ether which act upon the optic nerve and make vision possible the theory of light, light year, astronomical unit for measuring the distance of stars, being the distance travelled by light in a year 2 a Sensation imparted to the sight organs by any natural or artificial luminosity, brightness, gleam, radiance the light of the sun, stars, of a candle, a lamp, a fire, a good light, one which enables one to see well, a bad light, inadequate for seeing, Phrs to stand in one's own light, (fig) injure oneself, retard one's progress, by one's own conduct, folly, lack of judgement &c, get out of the light, (colloq) don't hinder; get out of the way (lit and fig), the light of one's countenance, favour, light of one's eyes, beloved person or thing, to bring to light, reveal, b light afforded by the sun, daylight let's leave before the light fails, the light won't last much longer, c specific localized manifestation of light a wonderful light lay upon the landscape 3 a A bright, shining body 'the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night' (Gen 1:16), b source of light, illuminating agency bring in the lights, lights on the altar, the Admiralty provide lights all round the coast as a guide to seamen, Phr ancient lights, absence of obstruction of daylight by buildings, right to preserve light, falling on windows, unobstructed by other buildings 4 Means of producing, communicating, or flooding light or fire, a match, spill &c to put a light to the fire, to the lamp, give me a light for my pipe 5 Aperture through which light passes, division of a window 6 a Spiritual and moral illumination or enlightenment the children of light, the light of the Gospel, a man of light and leading, 'sweetness and light' (M Arnold (fr Swift)), b intellectual enlightenment, elucidation, interpretation, explanation, clarity of meaning to throw, shed, light on a subject, to get light on a difficulty, Phrs in the light of past events, of what you say &c, with the knowledge gained from, the light of nature, intuition, unaided intelligence, c key word in acrostic 7 Way in which anything impresses one, aspect, complexion I can't see the affair in that light, to put things in a favourable, unfavourable, light, make them appear favourable &c to throw a new light upon, cause to appear different. 8 (paint-

p¹) The brighter parts of a picture, contrasted with shade, shadow, high light's, the brightest parts of a picture, Phr (fig) light and shade, strong contrasts, differing degrees of intensity in emotion, varieties in conduct &c 9 Look, expression, on human face, suggestive of brightness, animation, liveliness of spirits, happiness, or other strong emotion the light died out of her face, the light of battle shone in his eye.

light (II), vb trans & intrans OE līhtan, 'to shine, give light' See preo A trans 1 a To cause to give light by applying a light to to light the lamp, gas, also light up, b to cause to burn, start burning, to kindle to light a fire 2 To illuminate to light up a room, make it light, give it a cheerful appearance, (fig) to render (a face &c) cheerful, cause to appear animated &c a charming smile lighted up his features B intrans 1 (of a lamp, fire &c) To begin burning, also light up Phr (colloq) to light up, (of a person) to begin smoking 2 (of face and expression) To become cheerful, to express animation, intelligence &c, to sparkle his face lights up when he becomes interested light (III), adj OE lēht See light (I) 1 Not dark, pervaded with light, rather bright a light room, a light day, a light evening, one in which daylight lasts 2 (of colour) Pale, not intense, whitish, often used before name of colour to denote a pale shade of this light blue, brown &c light (IV) adj OE lēht, OHG līht, līht, Goth lehts, 'not heavy, light', fr earlier līhta*, cp Lth leugōs Lat levis, 'light in weight', either fr an orig variant lēghw-*, without nasalization, or, as has been suggested, formed analog of brevis, gravis, O Slav līgākū, 'light', Gk elakhus, 'small', for (e)lēghkhus, & elaphros, 'light, active', for (e)lēghwros, are derived fr the nasal type Cp also light & lung 1 a Not heavy, not having much weight, Phrs (to rate) a light hand, delicacy of touch, skill, dexterity, (fig) skill in handling a situation, tact as light as a feather, as air, very light b lacking proper, normal, weight, not weighing enough, below legal weight a light coin, to give light weight, to cheat by supplying goods below legal standard of weight, c not encumbered with heavy arms and accoutrements light infantry, cavalry &c 2 a (of soil) Easily pulverized, loose, friable, not dense b (of pastry, bread &c) well risen, not sticky, c (of food generally) easy of digestion 3 a (in physical sense) Active, agile, easy, graceful not ponderous or clumsy light movements sleep, bound &c b (in non material sense) delicate, exhibiting sensibility and grace a light touch of humour, light persiflage, & a Not severe, (i) devoid of rigour mild, clement a light sentence, punishment, (u) not onerous or exacting light duties, work &c, b (in physical sense) slight in degree, not violent or intense a light frost, a light attack of measles 5 Lacking moral or intellectual weight, a superficial trivial, unimportant a light novel, light remarks, Phrs one's lightest word, wish, most trivial utterance, whim, to make light of, represent as unimportant, b irresponsible, flighty immoral a person of light character, light conduct a light woman, one of bad character 6 a Superficially gay careless light laughter a light jest b happy cheerful, buoyant, free from care light spirits a light heart light (V) adv, fr preo A lightly to sit, ride, walk, Phr to travel light, without heavy baggage b easily, without incurring severe punishment to get off light light (VI), vb intrans for alight (I) OE līhtan, to alight', orig sense, 'to make lighter, reborn from burden' connected w preo 1 (archaic, gen followed by off, down from) To dismount, get off, down from to light off a horse, he lighted down from the chair, (2 kings r 21) also (rarely) to light at one's door &c, arrive, and alight at 2 To land, settle alight upon fall upon to light on one's feet, the bird lighted upon the bough, my eye lighted on a friendly face among the crowd 3 To come upon, discover as by chance, happen to find to light on a passage in a book light-armed, adj Bearing only light weapons lighten (I), vb trans & intrans [1 līht, 2 līhtn] ME līhten See light (I) & -en 1 trans To make light, illuminate 'Lighten our darkness, we beseech Thee, O Lord' 2 intrans a To grow light, become brighter the day lightens in the east, b to flash out, as lightning lighten (II), vb trans & intrans See light (IV) & -en 1 trans a To make less heavy to relieve of a burden, b to make more cheerful, enliven 2 intrans a To become lighter, less heavy, b to become more cheerful, less gloomy, lighter (I), n [1 līhter, 2 līhts] light (II) & -er a One who lights, kindles, b device, object, for producing light, or for kindling lighter (II), n & vb trans & intrans Dn lichter, fr lichten, 'to lighten, unload', cogn w light (IV) 1 n Flat bottomed boat used for unloading vessels anchored at a distance from the wharf 2 vb To use a lighter for unloading and conveying goods from a vessel lighterage, n [1 līhter, 2 līhteridʒ] Preo & -age Sum charged for unloading ship with a lighter light-fingered adj 1 Light of touch, delicate, skilful, in using the hands 2 Skilful at using the hands to steal, inclined to pilfer, dishonest light-foot(ed), adj Light of foot, nimble, active 'The light foot equyre' (Spenser) light-handed, adj a Having a light, delicate, dexterous touch, b having nothing heavy in the hands light-headed, adj a Delirious, disordered in mind giddy, b thoughtless, forgetful light-headedly, adv a As though delirious, b thoughtlessly light-headedness, n a State of giddiness, delirium, b thoughtlessness light-hearted, adj Free from care and anxiety, gay, debonair, cheerful.

light-heartedly, adv Without misgiving, gaily, merrily light-heartedness, n Condition of being free from care, gaiety, high spirits light-heeled, adj [1 līt hēld, 2 līt hēld] Brisk in movement, agile, nimble light-horseman, n Trooper in a regiment of light cavalry lighthouse, n [1 līt hous, 2 līhtəns] Lofty structure built at the edge of a cliff by the sea, or on a rock in the sea, provided with a powerful light which serves as a guide to vessels at sea, warning them of dangerous rocks &c, a beacon, pharos lightish adj [1 lītsh, 2 lītsh] a light (III) b light (IV) & -ish a Rather light, or pale, in colour b rather light in weight lightly, adv [1 lītli, 2 lītli] light (IV) & -ly In a light manner, a not heavily, so as not to press upon, b nimbly, with agility, c without ponderousness or pedantry, d not severely or violently e carelessly, flippantly, not seriously, f without difficulty, easily, Phr lightly come, lightly go, what is obtained easily is lost easily, g cheerfully, without complaining, h slightly lightly cooled lightness n [1 lītnes, 2 līttns] light (IV) & -ness Quality of being light, in various senses a absence of weight b numbness, power of rapid, active movement, c delicacy, skilfulness of touch (lit and fig), d lack of seriousness, flippancy, e absence of density, or stiffness of consistency, f digestibility, g mildness absence of severity, intensity &c lightning, n [1 lītning, 2 līttnɪŋ], fr lighten (I) & -ing Electric discharge from the atmosphere in the form of a vivid flash of light Phrs like lightning, like greased lightning, very fast, with great rapidity, with lightning speed lightning-conductor, or -rod, n Metal rod projecting above roof of building and connected with the earth, to prevent building from being struck by lightning light-o'-love, n [1 līt o luv, 2 līt o lāv] Wanton woman, a paramour lights, n pl [1 līt, 2 lītts], fr light (IV) a The lungs of a slaughtered animal, b (archaic and vulg) lungs of a human being lightsup, n [1 līt shup, 2 lītʃup] Vessel anchored near a shoal, or other dangerous ground, bearing lights at the masthead at night as a guide and warning to seamen lightsome (I), adj [1 lītsum, 2 lītsem] light (III) & -some Pervaded with light, bright, not gloomy lightsome (II), adj light (IV) & -some 1 Nimble, agile, graceful, airy 2 Gay, cheerful light hearted light-weight, adj a Below normal weight, (of boxer) not weighing more than 9 st 9 lb, b (fig) intellectually unimportant, lacking weight and authority lightwood, n [1 lītwood, 2 lītʃwud] Wood a boiling in resin, and therefore inflammable and suitable for torches &c lign-aloes, n [1 līn əlōz, 2 līn əlouz], fr Lat lignum, 'wood', see lignum vitae Aloes, aloes wood, as a drug ligneous, adj [1 līgneus, 2 līgnēs] Lat, ligneus, 'woody', fr lignum, 'wood' (see preo), & -ous (hot) Woody, of the nature of, resembling, wood ligni-, pref Form of Lat lignum, 'wood' (see lignum vitae), used in compounds lignification, n [1 līgnifikəʃən, 2 līgnifikəʃən] See preo & -fication. Process of becoming woody, or like wood lignify, vb trans & intrans [1 līgnifi, 2 līgnifi] See ligni- & -fy a trans To make into wood, b intrans, to become wood lignite, n [1 līgnīt, 2 līgnīt] ligni- & -ite Imperfectly formed coal, still showing woody structure, brown coal lignum vitae, n [1 līgnum vītə, 2 līgnam vītə] Lat, 'wood of life', lignum is prob fr base of legere, 'to pick out, select, collect', the orig meaning being 'collected, gathered, wood' See legend, see also vital S American tree, of genus Guaiacum, hard wood of this lingula, lingule, n [1 līgul(a), 2 līgul(a)] Lat lingula & lingula, 'a spoon, a little tongue, a strap' See lick No doubt there was also association w ligare, 'to bind' &c See ligation (hot) So called strap-shaped petal at the base of composite flower lingulate(d), adj [1 līgulāt(ed), 2 līgulēt(id)] Preo & -ate a Like a strap or handage, b having lingules likable, adj [1 līkəbl, 2 līkəbl] like (III) & -able Of a kind to provoke liking, worthy to be liked, of a kind that is liked, attractive, pleasant, genial like (I), adj & adv [1 līk, 2 līk] OE ge lice, similar, equal', ge lice, adv, 'in the same, in a similar way', OHG galih 'similar' &c, cp Mod Germ gleich, 'equal' &c The word is the same as OE lic, 'body, form' (see lichgate) & means ultimately, 'having the same form, or appearance, as' See also alike, each, such, which 1 adj a Resembling, having the same, or similar, qualities, character, appearance &c the two brothers are very like each other, a voice like a trumpet, eyes like stars, 'Lake angels' taste, few and far between, Phrs like master like man, as the one is, so the other will be, as like as two peas, exactly similar, what is he, is, like?, what kind of man, what sort of thing, is he it?, (it cost) something like £50, about, pretty nearly, like nothing on earth, queer, very strange, remarkable, b resembling, reproducing closely an original or model I didn't think his portrait was very like, c having, manifesting, the qualities which were to be expected it is just like you to help a friend, it was like him to fail us at the last minute, Phrs like your impudence, what might be expected from your known impudent character, I am surprised that a man like you should behave in this way, of your character, abilities &c., something like, (colloq) what one might hope for, expect, desire ah, that's something like!, something like a dinner!, a very good one, d of same degree or amount, equal 'We are men of like passions with you' (Acts xiv 15), I spent £50 on travelling, and a like sum on books, (gold) like as we lie, having played same number of strokes, e probable, likely, (archaic) 'tis like we shall see him no more 2 adv a In the same, or a similar, way as, in a way resembling I wish I could play like you; don't speak to me like that, 'Like as a father pitieth his children' (Ps om 13), you speak like a fool, in various adverbial Phrs to run like mad, like fun, to work like blazes, to cry like anything, it's raining like the devil, all meaning with great speed, violence; vigorously, in a violent, extreme, manner &c., the force of like itself seems largely adverbial, so also in such Phrs as off like a shot, with great rapidity, I'll do it like a bird, very willingly, with alacrity &c., b in the following, like has almost the force of a proposition like the stars in number, like a mountain in bulk &c., c (proviso or illit) as it were, so to say he was all of a tremble like, very particular like, like enough, very likely, probably like (II), n, fr, preo That which resembles, is of the same nature as, is equal or equivalent to, something else we shall not look upon his like again, like attracts like, did you ever hear the like (of that)?, specif, anything so remarkable, so preposterous, like cures like Phrs and the like, after an enumeration, and other things of the same kind, and so forth, not for the likes of me, (colloq) such a humble, unimportant person like (III), vb trans OE (ge) lician, impers 'to be pleasing to', hit me gelicap, 'it pleases me', fr base lic, 'body, form' &c See like (I), orig sense 'to be like, equal', thence 'to be harmonious, suitable, agreeable' &c 1 To be fond of, to feel attracted to, have a preference, or taste for, be pleased by, less forcible than love to like dancing, dogs, fruit &c., she likes him but does not love him, I like to see young people enjoying themselves, how do you like your tea?, I don't like it too sweet Phrs (ironical) I like that, implying that something startling and provocative has been said, I like your impudence, implying that this is so preposterous as to be amusing, I should like to see you do it, implying I don't believe you can 2 (in negative sentence, followed by infinitive) To be reluctant, unwilling to do, only in such Phrs as I don't like to disturb him, I didn't like to interrupt you 3 (obs or liter) Survival of old impersonal construction it likes me well, I am pleased by it, it liked her not, she did not like it 4 To suit the health of, only in such Phr as I like port, but it doesn't like me like (IV), n, fr, preo Thing that one likes, only in Phr likes and dislikes, predilections and prejudices, fads and fancies &c -like, adj & adv suff Same as like (I) 1 adj Godlike, cowlike, like a god, cow &c 2 adv In a way resembling that of she, womanlike, was afraid of mice likelihood, n [1 liklihood, 2 loiklihud] likely & -hood a Probability, b (rare) promise of excellence a young man of great likelihood likelihood, n [1 likliness, 2 loiklinis] likely & -ness (rare) Probability, likelihood likely, adj & adv [1 likli, 2 loikli] like (I) & -ly 1 adj a Probable, credible, such as might well be, or happen, reasonably to be expected he tells a likely story, gives a likely account, should he come, which is quite likely, I am likely to be in London next week, b such as will probably suit, or be satisfactory, promising I couldn't find a likely horse, he seemed a likely young fellow 2 adv Probably (often preceded by very) I shall very likely see you again, he'll forget all about it as likely as not like-minded, adj Having the same ideas, opinions, aims, ideals, in agreement like-mindedness, n Quality, condition, of being like minded liken, vb trans [1 liken, 2 loiken] like (I) & -en 1. (archaic) To compare with, point out resemblance to I know not to what I can liken it 2 To make like (rare) cannot you liken the portrait a little more to the sitter?

likeness, n [1 liknes, 2 loiknis] OE gelicnes, 'quality of being like, resemblance, image' See like (I) & -ness 1 Resemblance I see no likeness whatever between him and his brother 2 A portrait of a person to have one's likeness taken, a good likeness, a portrait that resembles the original 3 (archaic) Form, guise, similitude 'Satan in likeness of an angel bright' (Milton, 'P L') likewise, adv & conj [1 likwis, 2 loikwis] See like (I) & -wise 1 adv In like manner, in the same way, similarly 'go thou and do likewise' 2 conj Moreover, in addition, also 'Lakewise after supper He took the cup' likin, n [1 likin, 2 loikin] Chinese Chinese tax levied on articles in transit liking, vbl, n & adj [1 liking, 2 loikinj] like (II) & -ing 1 n Feeling of affection, favourable disposition (for persons), predilection, taste (for things) to have a great liking for the clergy, a liking for cigars 2 adj (obs) In a certain condition 'Pat and well liking' (Psalms) likac, n & adj [1 likak, 2 loisak] Escher Fr likac (Mod Fr lilas), fr Span lilac, fr Arab lilak, fr Pers lilay, variant of nilay, 'indigo plant', fr nil, 'blue' 1 n (bot) Well-known flowering tree with pale or dark purple, or white blossoms in pendulous clusters, genus Syringa, name applied both to the tree and the flower 2 n A pale purple or mauve colour, b adj having this colour liaceous, adj [1 likhasus, 2 loisijas] See lily & -aceous (bot) Belonging to the lily family

Lilliputian, adj & n [1 likiputshan, 2 loiputjan] 1 adj a Belonging to Lilliput, fabulous country whose men were 6 in high, and everything else proportionally small, described by Swift in 'Gulliver's Travels', hence b diminutive 2 n An inhabitant of Lilliput lit, vb intrans & trans & n [1 lit, 2 hit] ME litte, etymol uncertain, perch connected w lull 1 vb To sing sweetly and simply, but with spirit and go 2 n a A song thus sung, b the beat, cadence, or rhythm of a song, tune, or rhyme, specif, a well marked beat or rhythm, swing

lily, n [1 lik, 2 hit] OE & ME like, 'lily flower', fr Lat lilium, wh is borrowed fr Gk lirion, it has been suggested (1) that the name is connected w Gk leirids, 'delicate, pale', wh is cogn w Lat lethum, 'death' (see lethal), w Lath leilas, 'thin, worn out', & perch OE leif, 'weak' (see left (I)), or (2) that the name is borrowed fr a primitive Mediterranean language One of a large class of flowers grown from bulbs, typically trumpet shaped and white, but occurring also in various colours, shapes, and sizes Phrs four as a lily, pure as a lily The lilies of France, heraldically fleurs de lis, the emblem of the old Bourbon dynasty

lily-iron, n Harpoon with peculiarly shaped detachable head, used in killing sword fish lily of the valley, n Low growing plant, Convallaria, having broad leaves, and bearing nodding sprays of small, strongly scented, bell-shaped flowers

lily-white, adj White like a lily, very white, pure white, applied to hands and brow in old popular ballads limaceous, adj [1 limasus, 2 loimasas] Lat limax, stem of limax, 'slug, snail' See limax & -eous Limacina limacine, adj [1 limasin, 2 loimasin] See next word & -ine Pertaining to snails or slugs limax, n [1 lima's, 2 loimaks] Lat, 'snail, slug', stem limax, cogn w Gk leimaz, 'slug', op Lat limus, 'slime, mud' (see lime (I)), prob cogn w slime (zool) Genus containing slugs or shell less snails limb (I), n [1 lim, 2 lm] O & ME lim, ON limr, 'limb, branch of a tree', prob cogn w Lath limi, 'trunk, stature', fr same base, w different formative element, as OE lip, 'joint, limb', Goth lipus, 'limb, member', Cp lay figuro 1 a An extremity of the body, a member, leg, arm, wing of a bird, b bough of a tree, Plur limbs of the law, member of legal profession 2 (colloq and obsolete) A naughty child, formerly limb of Satan a regular (young) limb (op lively member) limb (II), also limbus, n [1 lim, limbus; 2 lm, limbas] Lat limbus, 'horn, border', cogn w Sort lambaz, 'hangs down', OE limpan, 'to happen, befall', OHG limfan, 'to be adapted to' Cp limp (I) Edge or border, a of the surface of a heavenly body, b upper, spreading portion of the corolla, or of the calyx of a flower, c margin of leaf in mosses when different from stem in colour and structure, d marked edge of a quadrant limbate, adj [1 limbat, 2 limbat] Prec & -ate (bot) Bordered, edged, e g of a moss which has an outgrowth of a different colour limbec, n [1 limbek, 2 limbek] Poet variant of alembic

-limbed, adj limb (I) & -ed Having limbs of kind specified clean limbed, strong limbed limber (I), n & vb trans [1 limber, 2 limbe] Cp Fr limonière, 'litter, or cart with shafts', fr limon, 'shaft' &c Origin unknown (mil) 1 n Part of a gun carriage, consisting of front wheels, axle, and pole, generally fitted with obst for ammunition, with a lid upon which the driver sits 2 vb To fasten to a limber, often limber up limber (II), adj Origin doubtful Plant, easily bent, supple, pliable limberness, n Prec & -ness Flexibility, suppleness limbers, n pl [1 limberz, 2 limbez] Ety mol doubtful Holes cut through floor boards of a ship close to the keel orelson, to allow of water draining into the ship's well limbless, adj [1 limles, 2 limlis] limb (I) & -less Lacking limbs limbo, limbus, n [1 limbō, -us, 2 limbeu, -es] Lat limbus, 'border, hem, edge' See limb (II)

1 Intermediate condition, or region, between heaven and hell, to which, according to scholastic theology, the souls of unbaptized infants pass at death, Limbus Patrum, intermediate place where souls of the prophets and patriarchs awaited coming of the Messiah 2 (fig) A place of neglected and forgotten things lime (I), n [1 lim, 2 lam] OE, OHG, ON lim, 'anything which causes adhesion, mortar, bird-lime', cogn w Lat limus, 'shmo, mud', fr base leim*, loim*, 'mud', ep OE lōm See loam & also slimo 1 Substance, calcium oxide, got by burning limestone, used in making mortar, and for manure &c shoked lime, watered lime 2 Sticky substance for catching birds, usually bird lime lime (II), vb trans, fr prec a To mix, dress (lead), treat (hides &c) with lime, b to smear with bird lime lime (III), n Fr, fr Spn lima See lozon. Ronad, very acid fruit, allied to lemon lime (IV), n Earlier lime See linden Linden tree, one with smooth roundish leaves, and sweet smelling flowers lime juice, n A cordial made from the juice of the lime fruit much sweetened lime-kiln n Kiln for burning lime limelight n [1 limlit, 2 limist] Very bright light produced by the incandescence of a rod or cylinder of lime in a 'flame of oxygen and hydrogen, used for lighting the stage in theatres, Phrs in the limelight, a on that part of stage so lighted, b (fig) occupying important or prominent position, fond of the limelight, fond of publicity limen, n [1 limen, 2 limen] Lat limen, limin is 'threshold, the intel or all of a door', perh orig 'cross bar', & cogn w Lat limus, 'oblique, squinting', limes, 'halk, boundary', see limit, oblique (psychol) The threshold of consciousness, the lowest stage at which sensation becomes noticeable, used to translate the German technical term schwelle, cp subliminal lime-pit, n A limestone quarry, b pit where lime is eled, c pit where ludes are steeped and limed

Limerick, n [1 limerik, 2 limerik] A nonsense verse of five lines rhyming a, a, b, b, a, or in last line simply repeating last words of the first line Invented by Edward Lear (1812-88) in his Book of Nonsense, and so called (not by Lear) on account of refrain, 'Won't you come up, come up, won't you come up to Limerick', which is said to have been sung or recited after each verse, but which is now never heard lime-tree, n Same as lime (IV) lime-twig, n One smeared with bird lime lime-wash, vb trans & n a vb To white wash (walls &c) with lime dissolved in water, b n, solution used for this purpose limewater, n [1 limawater, 2 limawāte] Medicinal preparation of water impregnated with lime, calcium, used as an antacid limit (I), n [1 limit, 2 limit] Lat limit, etym of limes, 'cross path, halk, between fields, boundary', fr bece of limus, 'slant, sidelong', cp obliquus, & l*, 'go' See itinerary Boundary, border, extreme edge or point, confine (in material and non material sense, of space, time, thought, feeling) Phrs (fig) within limits, in moderation, without limit, without restriction, (slang) that's the limit, the utmost of what can be tolerated, or rather beyond limit (II), vb trans, fr preo To set a boundary to, to curb, raise an obstacle, hinder further progress (obscure fig) his activities were limited only by his opportunities, to limit one's desires, to limit the amount of work a man may do in a day limitarian, n [1 limitarian, 2 limitarian] Preo & -arian. One who limits, restricts, specif, supporter of the view that salvation is limited to that part of mankind which is predestined for it limitary, adj [1 limitari, 2 limitari] Limit (II) & -ary A Confined within limits, limited, b serving as a boundary, restrictive limitation, n [1 limitashun, 2 limitāshun] Lat limitation (em) limit & -ation. 1 A Act of limiting, b circumstance which limits, c state of being limited, in space, time, also in action 2 (fig, of understanding, intelligence, capacity, powers &c) To have one's limitations, be rather stupid, to know one's limitations, have a just estimate of one's rather moderate ability 3 (law) A Specific legal restriction of power, or right, a peerage granted with limitation to heirs male, b legally fixed period after the expiry of which legal action cannot be brought, a claim cannot be made, a law is no longer operative, and so on statute of limitations, one fixing such period limitative, adj [1 limitativ, 2 limitativ] See preo & -ive Serving to limit or restrict limited, adj [1 limited, 2 limited] fr P P of limit (II) 1 Having limits, circumscribed, narrow, restricted (of material and non material things) our space, accommodation, is very limited, to have a limited intelligence, limited ideas, sympathies 2 (polit) Having constitutional restrictions and limitations on power of action a limited monarch, monarchy 3 (commerce) Limited (liability) company, one in which the liability of share holders is limited to the amount actually invested, limited liability, such as is subject to specific limitations limitless, adj [1 limitles, 2 limitles] Limit

& -less Without limits, boundless, vast the limitless ocean, limitless ambition, credulity &c

limitrophe, adj [1 limitrof, 2 limitrof] Hybrid formation fr Lat limit (see limit (I)) & Gk trophē, 'nourishment, food, maintenance' See trophio & atrophy Original, or literal meaning, is, set apart for nourishing and sustaining troops on a frontier, hence, of territory, pertaining to a borderland or frontier, on or adjacent to the frontier between two countries or districts limn, vb trans [1 lim, 2 lim] ME limnen, fr lumen, fr Fr enluminer See illuminate (archaic) A To decorate, illuminate (manuscripts), b to paint, depict, portray limner, n [1 limner, 2 limner] fr preo & -er (archaic) A One who illuminates manuscripts &c, b one who portrays, draws, paints limnetic, adj [1 limnetik, 2 limnetik] Gk limnē, 'living in marshes', & -ic, fr limnē, 'marsh, lake', cp Gk limnē, 'damp, marshy place', prob fr leim*, slim* See slime & cp limax Belonging to, inhabiting, fresh water limnology, n [1 limnōlōj, 2 limnōlōj] See preo & -logy Scientific study of fresh waters, especially of lakes and ponds, from every point of view, chemical and biological limonite, n [1 limunit, 2 limonit] Gk limnē, 'moist place, meadow' See limnetic & -ite Brown haematite, iron ore of a dark, or yellowish brown colour, it is the colouring matter of brown rocks and clays limosis, n [1 limōsis, 2 limōsis] fr Gk limōs, 'bunger', q v under lethal, & -osis (med) Ravenous, excessive, morbid appetite for food limousine, n [1 limoozēn, 2 limuzin] Fr, adj fem, fr Limousin, name of province in Central France Motor-car with permanent top which projects over the driver's seat, and closed back, and sides with windows like a brougham limp (I), adj [1 limp, 2 limp] ON limpa, 'limpness, weakness', prob cogn w limb (II) 1 Relaxed, wanting in stiffness, flabby, flaccid 2 (fig) a (of bodily conditions) Lacking strength and stamina, also b of character limp (II), vb intrans & n Cp OE lemp healt, 'lame halt', prob connected w lama 1 vb a To walk stiffly and lamely, to halt, drag a leg, b (fig, of verse) to halt, have a rough, uneven movement, to seem imperfectly 2 n Lameness, impediment in walking to walk with a limp, he has a decided limp limpet, n [1 limpet, 2 limpet] OE lempet, fr Low Lat lampreda See lamprey A marine gastropod mollusc with a single, flatish, conical shell, which clings tightly to rocks Phr to stick like a limpet, of a tenacious or importunate person limpid, adj [1 limpid, 2 limpid] Lat limpidus, 'clear', perh connected w lymph, q v Clear, transparent, a of water and liquids generally, esp limpid waters, brooks &c, also b (fig) of literary and oratorical style limpidity, n [1 limpiditi, 2 limpiditi] Preo & -ity Quality, state, of being limpid, clearness limpidly, adv [1 limpidh, 2 limpidh] See preo & -ly In a limpid manner, clearly limpidness, n [1 limpidnes, 2 limpidnes] Limpid & -ness Limpidity limping, adj [1 limping, 2 limping] fr Preo Part of limp (II) Going with, characterized by, a limp limply, adv [1 limph, 2 limph] limp (I) & -ly In a limp manner, flabbily, slackly limpness, n [1 limpnes, 2 limpnes] limp (I) & -ness Quality, condition, of being limp, flabbiness, slackness limulus, n [1 limulus, 2 limulus] Lat limulus, 'sea-lark' See limulus (zool) Genus of large marine arachnids, the king crabs limy, adj [1 lim, 2 limy] lime (I) & -y a Of the nature of lime, b covered with lime, c impregnated with lime, linage, n [1 lin, 2 linidž] line (I) & -age a Number of printed lines on a page, b payment for this linchpin, n [1 linshpin, 2 linshpin] For lins, cp OE lynis, 'axle tree', OS lunsa, late M H G lunser, Mod Germ lunse, 'linchpin', prob fr base seen in OE linnan, 'to deast, cease from', op also linnan, 'to pull out, set free', fr, sama base comes OE līpe, 'soft, mild', fr limp*-, OH G lind, see further lithe Linchpin thus meant 'releasing pin', a device enabling the wheel to be taken off Metal pin or peg passing through the outer end of an axle tree outside the wheel, and preventing this from coming off

Lincoln green, n [1 lingkun grēn, 2 lingkun grēn] Bright green cloth manufactured at Lincoln, formerly worn by, and associated with, hunters in Sherwood Forest lingtus, n [1 lingtus, lingtus, 2 lytas, lyktas] Lat lingtus, 'a licking', fr ling (um), P P type of lingere, 'to lick' See lick Sympy medicine, usually taken from a spoon, for soothing throat and bronchial tubes linden (tree), n [1 linden (trē), 2 linden (trē)] OE lind, 'lime tree', OH G linda, & adj suff -en, prob cogn w Gk cladē for clādē*, 'fir tree' For transference of old tree-names from one species to another, cp beach The lime tree line (I), n [1 lin, 2 lin] OE līn, 'flax', q v under linum See also next word (obs) Flax plant, flax fibre, flax thread, line (II), n [1 lin, 2 lin] Fr ligne, fr Lat linea, a linen thread, string, cord, mathematical line, boundary line, fr Lat linum, 'flax, linen' Cp linen & linum 1 a String, cord, clothes line, specif b long, fine, very strong cord used in fishing with rod and line, Phr to throw a good line, be an expert fisherman, c cord used for measuring and levelling &c 2 Very thin, thread like mark or indentation, esp a one straight or curved, of appreciable length, drawn on paper, a slate &c, or out on any hard substance, b thread-like furrow resembling a line on the skin of face &c, one of the marks in form of fine lines traversing palms of the hands and soles of feet 3 A Mark made on the ground to indicate some position, boundary, starting-point &c, Phrs to toe the line, to submit to discipline, obey orders, to find it hard to draw the line, to distinguish between, to draw the line at, object to, refuse to tolerate, or to do, one must draw the line somewhere, there is a limit to toleration, endurance &c, to know when, where, to draw the line, keep one's actions within bounds of discretion or decency, hence, b a border, boundary, dividing limit between two territories, c division, demarcation, between two conditions, degrees of excellence &c, Phrs to go over the line, pass permitted limits (lit and fig), below the line, not reaching a specified standard, just on the line, on the border between two conditions, between two classes, standards &c 4 Contour, outline he has good lines in his face, the severe lines of Norman architecture 5 A row, continuous series of objects at approximately the same level, or presenting a more or less uniform surface, a a straight row of words, letters, figures, written or printed, occupying a definite space in length and breadth on a page the stroke of d extends above the line, the tail of g below it, Phrs to read between the lines, find more in a written statement &c than is actually expressed, also (fig) to infer more than is actually said in an uttered statement, a few lines, a short note, marriage lines, certificate of marriage, b a straight row of persons standing side by side, or one in front of another to stand in (a) line, Phrs come into line (with), agree with, accept views of, cooperate, act in accord with, specif, line of troops, line of battle, ship of the line, battleship, a area occupied and defended by an army in a campaign, esp that portion facing the enemy, and the troops actually ready to fight the front lines, to go into the line, behind the line, the enemy's lines &c., & any series of objects extending for some distance and so placed in relation to each other as to form a unity to the eye a line of trees, houses, hills &c. 6 (mil) The line, regiments of the line, all those of the regular army except the Guards and the Artillery 7 Metrical unit, consisting of a definite number of feet, usually written or printed in a separate line, a metrical verse lines, piece of poetry Phr lines, punishment, imposition, inflicted on school-boys, consisting formerly of so many hundred lines of Greek or Latin verse to be written out 8 A organized group of trains or steamers under a single management the Great Western line, the Cunard line &c., b (railways) the rails, track, upon which trains run to fall from the platform on to the line 9 (geom) The line, the equator to cross the line 10 (math) That which has length, but not breadth or thickness 11 Imaginary straight line determined by the relative position of objects the house is on a direct line to the church 12 A Course, mode, of action, way of behaving, manner of dealing with a given situation to take a strong line, act energetically, a mistaken line, a poor line to take, unsatisfactory mode of action or attitude of mind, you are going on wrong lines, pursuing erroneous method, b trend, direction, tendency of events things are going on thoroughly sound lines, o (in pl) conditions of life, circumstances, fortune my lines have fallen in pleasant places, hard lines, bad luck 13 A Succession of generations in a family, course of descent the direct line, descent from eldest son to eldest son, a long line of kings, the last of his line, of his family, b all the individuals, at a given moment, descended from a common ancestor he perished with all his line, c stock, lineage to come of an illustrious line 14 A Trade, profession, business his line is stockbroking, medicine, grocery &c., in the drapery line, b ordinary, favourite pursuits, tastes, and predilection, object of interest, subject on which one has special knowledge cards are not much in my line, geology is his particular line 15 (commerce) Series of goods of particular kind and quality offered for sale by a tradesman a cheap line in hats 16 (unit of measurement) The twelfth of an inch line (III), vb trans and intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To mark, rule, with lines to line a paper, book, also to line through, to cross out by drawing a line through it, b to furrow, mark with lines (usually in PP) face lined with pain 2 a To place, form in line to line troops along a road &c., also line up, b to place troops, objects &c along to line a wall with troops, to line a street with trees, c (of troops, objects &c) to be placed along troops lined the streets, the side of the lake was lined by trees B intrans Also line up, to take position, draw up in line line (IV), vb trans, fr line (I) Lat to put linen in or on a thing 1 To put a covering or second layer of material, generally different from that of which the article is made, on the inside of any hollow receptacle, or on the reverse or inner side of anything made of cloth to line a box, drawer, to line a coat with silk &c Phr (colloq) to line one's pockets, to make money 2 (from Fr ligner) To impregnate, esp of a bitch lineage, n [1 linei, 2 lineidz] ME linage, O Fr lignage See line (II) & -age Descent in straight line, ancestry generally, pedigree Generally confined to a distinguished ancestry a man of ancient, lofty, illustrious lineage lineal, adj [1 lineal, 2 lineal] Fr, fr Lat linealis, 'pertaining to a line' See line (II) & -al In direct line of descent lineal descendant lineally, adv Prec & -ly By direct ancestry or descent lineament, n [1 line(ə)ment, 2 line(ə)ment] Lat lineamentum, 'stroke made with a pen, feature, cast of countenance', fr linea See line (II) (pl, except after each, every) a Features of the face, b external lines, contours, of the body, c distinguishing peculiarities of character &c linear, adj [1 linear, 2 linei] Lat linearis, fr linea See line (II) & -ar Pertaining to, consisting of, resembling, a line or lines, drawn in lines lineate, adj [1 lineit, 2 lineit] Lat lineatum, PP of lineare, 'to make into a straight line', fr linea, 'line' See line (II) & -ate Traversed, marked, by lines lineation, n [1 lineishun, 2 linei:ʃən] Prec & -ion A act of marking with lines, b system, series, of lines lined (I), adj [1 lind, 2 laind], fr PP of line (IV) Provided with a lining lined (II), adj line (II) & -ed Traversed by, marked with, lines line-engraving, n A One, usually upon a copper plate, in which the effects of light and shade, and contour, are obtained by lines of varying thickness and nearness to each other, b print made from a plate so engraved linen, n & adj [1 linen, 2 linin] OE līnen, 'made of flax or of linen', fr lin, 'flax, linen cloth' See line (I & II) & Linum & suff -en 1 n A Cloth made of flax, b (coll) personal clothing and household articles made from this, specif, underclothes, and tablecloths, napkins, sheets &c Phr to wash one's dirty linen in public, discuss one's private or domestic affairs, esp those of an unpleasant character, publicly or before strangers 2 adj Made of linen linen-draper, n Retail dealer in linen and cotton goods and in women's apparel of various kinds linen pattern, n Design carved or moulded, used esp in panelling, consisting of vertical grooves separated by rounded flutings supposed to resemble plaits or folds in linen liner, n [1 liner, 2 laine] line (II) & -or Ship belonging to a steamship line linesman, n [1 linzmen, 2 lainzmen] A Soldier in a regiment of the line, b man employed to examine and test safety of the rails on a railway line, c assistant umpire at football or lawn tennis who determines whether a ball crosses the line or not ling (I), n [1 ling, 2 lɪŋ] ME lenge, perh fr Du leng, cp ON langa, apparently connected w long (I) Species of coarse sea-fish, allied to the cod, with long body, usually split and dried and used for food under the name of 'stock fish' ling (II), n ON lyng, 'heather' Kind of heather, with small pink or white bells, Calluna vulgaris

-ling (I) Gmc suff forming ns, fr -il-, dimin suff, see -el, & -ing Expresses diminutive sense, pighling, gosling &c, or disparagement, as in princeling, underling

-ling (II) Gmc suff used in OE & ME for forming advs, as -linge, -lignes, also -lunge Cp groveling, flailing, now replaced by -long, as in headlong linga (m), n [1 linga(m), 2 lɪŋgə, -gəm] Scrt linga A phallic emblem, in worship of Siva, in India linger, vb intrans [1 linger, 2 lɪŋgə] Cp OE lengan, 'to prolong, delay', fr lang, see long & -er, perh on anal of loiter 1 To put off departure unduly, remain after proper time for going, show reluctance to depart to linger after others have left, linger about, to hang idly about (a place), linger on, continue to stay, continue to live or exist, linger out one's days, life (trans), continue to live after health, strength, and capacity for usefulness and enjoyment have gone 2 To delay, loiter, dawdle, be too slow, over to linger over one's work lingerie, n [1 lɪnzheri; 2 lɪziŋ] Fr (trades-man's word) Formerly, collection of linen articles, now women's underclothes of linen, silk &c lingering, adj [1 lingering, 2 lɪŋg(ə)rɪŋ] linger & -ing 1 Long, upon out, protracted lingering illness, one which kills slowly 2 (of an action) Protracted through reluctance to bring it to an end a lingering look, touch, regretfully, slowly and reluctantly withdrawn lingeringly, adv Prec & -ly In a lingering manner into which regret enters the travellers gazed lingeringly at the fast fading coast of their native land lingo, n [1 lɪŋgə, 2 lɪŋgə] Provenç lingo, lengo, 'language', fr Lat lingua, 'tongue, language' See lingual A rude, barbarous, outlandish jargon, used, in contempt, of foreign languages generally lingua franca, n [1 lɪŋgwə frɒŋkə, 2 lɪŋgwə frɒŋkə] Ital, 'language of the Franks' See next word & Frank A mixed language with Spanish, Italian, French, Greek elements, used as a means of intercourse among the mixed European and Oriental peoples of the Levant, b any mixed jargon which has a wide currency lingual, adj & n [1 lɪŋgwəl, 2 lɪŋgwəl] Lat lingua, 'tongue', & -al, Lat lingua is fr earlier dingua* & is cogn w OE tunge, Goth tuggō &c See tongue 1 adj Pertaining to the tongue, (of speech sounds) made with the tongue 2 n (popular or obs phon) Any of the sounds [d, l, n], from the notion that these were more characteristic of the tongue than other sounds linguiform, adj [1 lɪŋgwɪfɔrm, 2 lɪŋgwɪfɔrm] Lat lingua, 'tongue' See prec & -form Tongue shaped linguist, n [1 lɪŋgwɪst, 2 lɪŋgwɪst] Lat lingua, see lingual, & -ist One possessing knowledge of languages, generally of one specially skilled in use of foreign tongues he's quite a linguist, a good linguist, a poor, bad, linguist, one who has a poor command of foreign languages linguistic, adj [1 lɪŋgwɪstɪk, 2 lɪŋgwɪstɪk] Prec & -ic Concerned with study of languages or with problems relating to human language in general linguistic method, studies, problems linguistics, n pl, fr prec Philology, esp that side which has to do with phonetics and changes of sound lingulate, adj [1 lɪŋgwɪlɪt, 2 lɪŋgwɪlɪt] fr Lat lingula, dimin of lingua, 'tongue' See lingual & -ate Shaped like a tongue linguo-, pref [1 lɪŋgwɔ-, 2 lɪŋgwɔ:] Form of Lat lingua, 'tongue', used in compounds, (chiefly in old fashioned phonetics) linguo dental, consonant made by (point of) tongue against the teeth, often applied indiscriminately to all kinds of [t, d, n] sounds, e g to English varieties which are not formed against the teeth at all liniment, n [1 liniment, 2 liniment] Lat linimentum, fr linire, 'to smear', & -ment. Linire is fr base (s)le-, (s)l-, 'slippery', wh appears also in linax & slime Medicated, oily liquid for rubbing on a painful or inflamed part of the body, an embrocation lining, n [1 lɪnɪŋ, 2 lɪnɪŋ] fr line (III) & -ing A Substance or material used to cover the inner surface of anything, b (fig) something which resembles a lining, e g a cloud of a different colour apparently behind another and projecting beyond it, presenting a contrast in colour Phr every cloud has a silver lining, misfortune, unhappiness, is often followed by happier times link (I), n [1 lɪŋk, 2 lɪŋk] ME linke, prob Scand, cp Swed länk, 'ring', ON hlaetr, cogn w OE hlence, cp also Germ gelenk, 'joint', MHG lenken, 'to bend' 1 A Any one in a series of metal rings or loops from which a chain is made, b any one of the small metal rings or loops forming a coat of chain mail armour, c one of a pair of buttons or disks of metal, pearl &c joined by a small chain, for fastening the cuffs of a shut & sleeve, cuff link(s), & any single section of anything forming a chain, as of sausages & 2 Specif a (mach) a short connecting rod for transmitting motive power (op linkage), and also sliding bar in reversing gear (op link motion), b (surv) end of the hundred parts of a measuring chain, as a unit of length, (1) in English usage, 7 92 in, being $\frac{1}{100}$ of Gunter's chain of 22 yds, (u) American usage, 1 ft in chain of 100 ft 3 (by trans) Any person, individual, or thing forming a bond of union between other persons & or groups, or forming a connecting section in a series Johnson was a link between the age of Pope and that of Couper, a link of Empire Phr missing link, that which is lacking to complete a series, esp (but now obsolete) specimen or remains of man in early stage of evolution from the ape 4 (fig) An important point or stage in an argument or investigation which joins two inferences connecting links Phr a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, one discrepancy destroys the whole argument link (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To join together, connect, unite, as with a link or series of links, (often in fig sense) to be linked together by interest in a common cause, these events were all subtly linked together 2 intrans Usually link up, to join together with, be knitted together, to link up with, to join with another or others in common action & join link (III), n Origin unknown, possibly, according to O E D, derived fr link (I), as being sold in lengths of tow and pitch A torch, link boy, (obs) one who carried a link and guided people through badly lighted streets at night link (IV), n O E hinc, 'ridge, slope, hill', prob fr same base as O E hincan, 'to cause to lean' (see lean (II)), & hincian, 'to recline' See also chincial (usually pl) Grassy, undulating land, a grassy slope, esp grassy sandhills near the sea, specif, coarse laid out for golf, without reference to character of situation, often a link as singular linkage, n [1 linkij, 2 linkidz] link (I) & -age Arrangement, esp (mach) system of connecting rods for transmitting motion link-motion, n Reversing gear of steam engines, specif, the sliding bar or rod connecting two eccentric rods link, n [1 lin, 2 lin] O E hlyn, 'torrent', fr also W hlyn, 'pool, pond', prob borrowed fr this (province and in Pl Ns) a Water fell, b pool of water Linnaean, adj [1 linéan, 2 linéan], fr Linnaeus, Latinized form of Linne, name of Swedish botanist (1707-78), who established system of botanical classification and nomenclature Of pertaining to, Linne or Linnaeus Linnaean system, Linnaean Society, chief botanical society in England.

linnet n [1 linet, 2 linet] O Fr linette, fr lin, Lat linum, 'flax' See Linum The bird is so called because it feeds on the seeds of this plant Small brown singing bird, with crimson neck and breast and whitish belly, genus Linota linoleum, n [1 linóleum, 2 linóleum], fr Lat linum, 'flax' (see Linum), & oleum, 'oil' (see oleo- & oil) A kind of washable covering or carpet for floors, made of a hard, shiny composition of linseed oil, with canvas backing linotype, n [1 linotip, 2 linotaisp], =line o' type See lino (II) & type A Machine used for setting up type matrices and casting bars of type in complete lines therefrom, b bar or slug thus produced linsang n [1 linsang, 2 linsang] Jav Long tailed cat-like animal found in S Asia and the L Indies linseed, n [1 linséd, 2 linsid] O E linséd See line (I) & seed. Seeds of flax.

linseed cake n Solid mass of oily husks of linseed which remains after crushing to extract the oil used as cattle food linseed-meal, n. Meal ground from linseed linseed-oil, n Oil pressed out of linseed linseed-poultrice, n Something poultice made of boiled linseed enclosed in a muslin bag linsey-woolsey, n [1 linsí woolzi, 2 linsí wulzi], fr O E lin, 'linen, flax' (see line (I)), & soy, of doubtful origin See say (III) & wool, w ending on anal of first element Coarse fabric made of wool and cotton linstock, n [1 linstok, 2 linstok], fr Du. linstok, cp Scots lunt, 'a slow match', Dan lunte, & stock (I) (obs) Staff with iron point to hold a lighted match, used for applying fire to touchhole of a cannon lint, n [1 lint, 2 lint] Late M E lunt, & lynnelle, fr Lat lintum, 'linen cloth', fr linteus, 'of linen' See lino & Linum Soft linen with one side scraped to a woolly surface, used for dressing wounds lintel, n [1 lint, 2 lint], & O Fr, fr Low Lat lintellus, fr lintellus, dimin fr Lat limit, 'boundary' See limit (archit) Piece of stone or timber over doorway or window, supporting superstructure linum, n [1 linum, 2 linam] Lat, 'flax', cogn w O E, Goth & Rn, O Fr lin, 'flax', Gk lino, O Slav lina, Lath lina, 'flax' (bot) The genus of plants which includes the flax, Linum catharticum, from the fibres of which linen is made, specif, a species cultivated in gardens for its blue or red flowers liny, adj [1 lini, 2 lini] line (II) & -y Marked with, crossed by, lines lion, n [1 lion, 2 lion] Fr, Lat león, Gk león, cp leanna for 'le ana, 'honesty', prob of Somali origin, cp Hob lóbi, 'hon', Egypt laua, 'honest', the word has passed into Gmc, cp O H G lewa, Germ löwe, & Slav, cp Russ lev 1 (zool) Large, powerful, tawny coloured animal of the cat tribe, Felis leo, with mane and tufted tail, found in Africa and S Asia, known as the King of beasts from its courage size, and imposing appearance Phrs like a lion, fiercely, powerfully, bravely, brave as a lion, very brave, fearless, the lion's share, biggest share of anything, put one's head into the lion's mouth, run great risk, a lion in the path, a difficulty or danger which has to be overcome, March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb 2 (fig, pl) The lions, objects of interest and celebrity in a place, (of a person) one who has fame or notoriety, or who arouses public interest for the moment, and passes for a celebrity to make a lion of one 3 (astron) The constellation Leo, also fifth sign of the zodiac, b (her) representation of a lion in armorial bearings, cp leopard the lions of England, (fig) the (old), the British lion, England, Great Britain lionel, n [1 lionel, 2 lionel], fr O Fr, 'young lion', w dimin ending, Mod Fr lionceau See prec a Young lion, lion whelp, b (her) if two or more lions appear on a shield they are regarded as whelps, and called lioncels lioness, n [1 lioness, 2 lioness] lion & -ess Female lion.

lion-hearted, adj Bold, brave, dauntless lion-hunter, n Person who pursues, and tries to make the acquaintance of, celebrities lionism, n [1 lionizm, 2 lionizem] lion & -ism 1 a Practice of lionizing, b state of being lionized 2 Lion like appearance of face in late stages of leprosy lionization, n [1 lionizáshun, 2 lionizáizshun] See next word & -ation. Act of lionizing lionize, vb trans & intrans [1 lioniz, 2 lioniz] lion & -ize 1 trans To make a lion of, to regard, treat, as a celebrity 2 intrans To visit the sights, or lions, of a place, to go sight seeing lion-like, adj Brave as a lion, magnanimous lion-tamer, n Man who tames lions to perform and puts them through their tricks lip (I), n [1 lip, 2 lip] O E lippo, M E lippe, cogn w Lat labium, 'lip' (see labial), all further connexions uncertain, 1 a One of the fleshy, highly mobile flaps of muscular tissue which cover the teeth and serve to open the mouth and close it from outer air upper, lower, lip, b the lips considered primarily as organs of speech Phrs to refuse to open one's lips, refuse to speak, or to tell what one knows, to hang on a person's lips, pay great attention, attach great importance to what he says, my lips are sealed, I refuse to, I must not, tell what I know, a curl of the lip, a sneer, not a word passed his lips, he said nothing, not a drop, no food, has passed my lips all day, I have drunk, have eaten, nothing, to put (a glass &c) to one's lips, to taste, to smack, hck, one's lips, (fig) to express a gloating satisfaction, in anticipation, or at recollection, of pleasure, steeped to the lips in, (fig) saturated in, thoroughly habituated to (vice, crime, treachery) & 2 (vulg slang) Chatter, impudence, impertinence, insolent abuse none of your lip! 3 a Edge, rim, of a hollow vessel, esp a projecting portion of this the lip of a jug &c, b edge of a cavity the lip of a crater, c edge(s) of a wound lip (II), vb trans, fr prec a To touch, caress, with the lips, to kiss, b (rare) to utter with the lips, speak, repeat lip-, pref Used in certain phonetic terms, implying formed, articulated, with the lips lip-bac (consonant), one in which the lips are sufficiently close together to produce slight consonant friction, while the back of the tongue is raised, as [w, w], lip-front (cons), one formed with the lips, while the front of the tongue is raised, as [β, φ], sound of u in Fr bus, pus, lip-open (cons), one formed with the lips alone, which are brought near together but not closed, as in Span or Mod Gk, b [b], lip-teeth (cons), one made with lower lip against upper teeth, as [v, f], lip-rounding a act of bringing lips near together in speech in such a way as to modify the sounds formed by the tongue, b rounded position of lips, e g in [ū, ū, ū] &c lip-deep, adj Superficial, expressed but not felt.

lip-homage, n Insincere expression of respect, flattery lip-language, n Speech which is intelligible through the movements of the lips, and not by speech sounds lipless, adj [1 liples, 2 liples] lip (I) & -less Having no lip or lips lipo-, pref, fr Gk base lipo, 'to be lacking', cogn w leave (II), expressing lack, deficiency lipography, omission of a letter or word in writing lipped, adj [1 lpt, 2 lpt] a Having a projection in rim for pouring a lipped jug, b lipped, having lips of specified kind thick-lipped &c lipper, n [1 liper, 2 liper] Perh connected w lap (III) (of waves &c) (naut) a Slight ruffling of surface of the sea, b light spray lip-reading, n Art of interpreting the movements of another's lips when he speaks, and following the words he utters, without hearing the sounds, a method taught to the deaf lip-salve, n Greasy substance used for healing sore, cracked, lips lip-service, n Insincere expressions of affection, respect, devotion, admiration &c, insincere promises lip-stick, n Cosmetic used by women for heightening the colour of the lips liquate, vb trans [1 likwät, 2 likwät] Lat baso liqu- as in liquid, & -ate To separate two combined substances of differing fusibility from each other by melting liquation, n [1 likwáshun, 2 likwéishun] Prec & -ion. Process of separating by liquating liquefaction, n [1 likwéfáshun, 2 likwí-fáshun], fr Lat liquefact (um), PP type of liquefacere (see liquefy), & -ion. a Process of liquefying, b state of being, or becoming, liquefied

Liquefiable, adj. [1 likwɛfiabl, 2 likwɛfɪəbl] liquefy & -able Capable of being liquefied liquefier, n [1 likwɛfiər, 2 likwɛfiəz] liquefy & -er Apparatus for liquefying gases liquefy, vb trans & intrans [1 likwɛfi, 2 likwɛfiə] Lat liquefacere, 'to make liquid, to dissolve' See liquid & -fy 1. trans. To turn solids into a liquid condition 2 intrans To become liquid liquefiescent, adj. [1 likwɛsɛnt, 2 likwɛsɛnt] fr Lat liquefescere (cm), Pres Part of liquefere, 'to become liquid, to melt'. See liquid In process of becoming liquid, tending to liquefy liqueur, n [1 likɔr, 2 likɔr] Fr, fr Lat liquor (em), 'a fluid, liquid' See liquid (I) Strong, sweet, syrupy, pungent, alcoholic liquid, generally drunk in sips from small glasses liqueur brandy, whiskey, one of special quality for drinking as a liquor, liqueur-glass, very small glass from which liquors are sipped liquid (I), adj. [1 likwid, 2 likwid] Lat liquidus, 'fluid, flowing', op Lat liquare, 'to melt, dissolve, liquefy', liquēre, 'to be fluid', also liq, stem liq-, 'lye', the etymol is uncertain, & the only cognates outside Lat appear to be Celt, op OW gūip, 'moist', fr base uol-* & 1 a fluid, flowing, in a condition between a solid and a gas, Phr liquid eyes, sky, bright and moist; b capable of being poured or of flowing, having a thin watery consistency liquid mud, cement & c, a (fig, of principles, conceptions, opinions) not fixed, unstable, liable to change 2 a (fig, of sounds, verse & c) flowing smoothly and easily, b (phon) conventionally applied indiscriminately to the sounds [l, r] which have little in common and are better otherwise described (see divided, trill) 3 (finance) Liquid securities, assets & c, readily convertible into cash liquid (II), n, fr. prec 1 A liquid substance, a fluid, contrasted with a solid. 2 (phon) Name given in antiquated but still current terminology to the different varieties of the sounds [l, r], which are better called respectively divided consonants, and trills liquid air, gas, ns Air, gas, reduced to a liquid state under high pressure and low temperature, used in refrigerating & c liquidambar, n [1 likwidambər, 2 likwidambəz] Mod Lat, fr liquid & Mod Lat ambar, see amber An American tree with fine grained wood, yielding an aromatic gum liquidate, vb trans & intrans [1 likwidat, 2 likwidat] liquid & -ate 1 trans a To pay, settle, a debt, b to wind up affairs of a commercial concern and apportion assets and debts 2 intrans (of commercial concern) To have its business wound up, undergo liquidation, become bankrupt liquidation, n [1 likwidatʃən, 2 likwidatʃən] Prec & -ion a Process of winding up financial affairs, b state in which this has been done go into liquidation, become bankrupt liquidator, n [1 likwidatɔr, 2 likwidatɔz] liquidate & -or Person legally appointed to wind up the affairs of a bankrupt business or one in course of liquidation liquid gas, n See liquid air liquor, n & vb intrans [1 likər, 2 likə] Lat See liqueur & liquid 1 n a Liquid substance, esp of alcoholic drink, Phrs liquor traffic, trade in, sale of, strong drink, in liquor, drunk, under the influence of liquor, partly drunk, b [1 likwɔr, 2 likwɔz] a pharmaceutical term for a solution in water of some substance 2 vb Generally liquor up, to take liquor, consume strong drink

Liquorice, licorice, n [1 likərs, 2 likərs] A-Fr licoria, L Lat liquiritia, fr Gk glykurrhiza, fr glykys, 'sweet' (see glyco-, gluco-), & rhiza, 'root' (see rhizo-) The form of the Lat word is prob influenced by Lat. liquere, 'to be fluid' & c See liquid Black, pungent, very sweet substance extracted from the dried root of plant of same name; used in medicine, brewing & c, and also as a sweetmeat.

Liquorish, adj [1 likorish, 2 likərɪʃ] Ad fr. lickerish, as if fr. liquor & -ish Fond of, inebriated for, liquor.

Liquorishness, n. Prec & -ness Fondness for liquor

Lira, n. [1 lɛrə, 2 lɛrə, lɛrə] Ital, fr Lat libra Italian silver coin, and monetary unit, equivalent to French franc, = 100 centesimi, nominal value about tenpence in English money

Liripipe, n. [1 liripip, 2 liripap] fr Lato or Med Lat liripipum (hist) A long pendent tail to a hood

Lisle thread, n [1 lɪθred, 2 lɪlprəd] Old spelling for Lille in Franco Strong, fine thread made at Lille, fabric made from this

Lisp (I), vb intrans & trans [1 lɪsp, 2 lɪsp] OE whisper, whispian, 'to stammer, lisp', ME (whisper, (whypen Prob imitative 1 intrans a To speak imperfectly, esp to substitute [h, θ], for s, z, b (poet, of a child) to begin to speak 'I lisped in numbers, for the numbers came' (Pope, 'To Arbuthnot', 127) 2. trans To utter with a lisp

Lisp (II), n OE whyp See prec a The defect referred to in prec to speech with a lisp; b imperfect utterance

Lisp, vbl n [1 lɪspɪŋ, 2 lɪspɪŋ] lisp (I) & -ing Speech uttered with a lisp, imperfect, hesitating, halting speech childish lispings

Lissom, adj [1 lɪsəm, 2 lɪsəm] For lithesome Supple, flexible, active List (I), n [1 lɪst; 2 lɪst] OE lisc, 'hem, border', O HG & ON lita, 'edge, border, hem' Origin uncertain (formerly Border, salvage of a piece of cloth, hence the material of which such selvage is made, detached, and used for making cheap common articles of apparel list shippers

List (II), n Same word as prec (in pl) a Panades placed as boundary of piece of ground, b ground so enclosed, specif, ground where tournaments were held Phr to enter the lists, (1) to ride on to the ground ready for the tournament, and challenge an adversary, (u) to take part in a contest or competition of any kind.

List (III), n & vb trans Same word as list (I) 1 n An enumeration, roll, catalogue, inventory, of names, words, books, or other objects Phr to make a list of, enumerate (names & c) in form of a list 2 vb n To inscribe in, place upon, enter in a list, make a list or catalogue of, b intrans (popular) to enlist as a soldier

List (IV), n & vb intrans Perhaps fr next word in sense of inclination towards a n An inclination, leaning, slope (of a vessel, building, tree & c) towards one side, b vb, to lean, incline away from the horizontal

List (V) vb intrans E Midland form of vb lust, OE lystan, ME lusten (Stn & W Midl), listen (E Midl & Nthn), 'desire'. (obs) To have pleasure in, to desire let him do what he lists, 'The wind bloweth where it listeth' (John vi 8)

List (VI), vb intrans & trans OE hlýstan See listen (poet) To listen hark 'List, Lady, benedict' (Milton, 'Comus', 737)

Listen, vb intrans, rarely trans [1 lɪsən; 2 lɪsn] OE hlýstan, op also hlýst, 'senses of hearing, attention', a large number of words in the Gmc & other languages spring fr this old base hl-*, 'to hear', e.g. OE hlēowor, 'sound, melody', Goth hlūp, 'attention, silence', Goth hluma, 'hearing', op O HG hlumunt, Mod Germ leumund, 'fame' See further under loud Outside Gmc, Lat clūere, 'to hear oneself called, to be spoken of, reputed', (inclutus, 'famous', Gk klutōs, 'famous, glorious', kluein, 'to hear, listen', klēos, 'rumour, report, fame', Sort klēnōs, 'he hears', klēnōs, 'ear', klēnōs-ism, 'good report', fr klēumōs* (op O HG hlumunt, 'fame'); O Slav sluchō, 'hearing'; slýdōs, 'to hear'

& c. 1. (followed by to) To direct the sense of hearing upon, to hearken 'to listen to a sermon, to conversation, to music' 2 a To pay attention to, have regard to you didn't listen to what was said, b to receive and accept advice, yield to persuasion he is fooling you, don't listen to him Phr listen in, a to intercept message & c by tapping telephone wire, b preferably listen, listen to sounds, speeches, music, transmitted by wire less telephony

Listener, n [1 lɪsnər, 2 lɪsnə] Prec & -er One who listens

Listening, adj [1 lɪsnɪŋ, 2 lɪsnɪŋ] Directing sense of hearing upon, attentive, preoccupied 'There was a listening fear in her regard' (Keats, 'Hyperion', 1)

Listless, adj [1 lɪsləs, 2 lɪslɪs] fr ME list, 'desire, wish' See list (V) & -less Lacking interest and animation, languid, indifferent, spiritless

Listlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a listless manner

Listlessness, n See prec & -ness State of being listless, indifference, spiritlessness Lit, vb [1 lɪt, 2 lɪt] Pret & PP of light (II).

Litany, n [1 lɪtəni, 2 lɪtəni] ME, fr O Fr letanie, Lat litania, fr Gk litaneia, 'entreaty, supplication', fr lithē, 'prayer'. Etymol doubtful Form of earnest prayer and supplication, recited by priest, with same recurring response repeated by the congregation 'We beseech Thee to hear us, Good Lord' & c.

Litany desk, n Desk at which priest kneels with his back to congregation when reciting the litany

Litchi, n [1 lɪtʃi, 2 lɪtʃi] Chinese Chinese tree bearing aromatic, edible fruit

-lithē, suff, fr Fr lithē, fr Gk lithos, 'stone', see litho-, used to designate certain objects composed of stone, also stones, rocks, and minerals

Literacy, n [1 lɪtərəsi, 2 lɪtərəsi] literate & -oy Condition of being literate, usually employed in contrast with illiteracy

Literæ humaniorēs, n [1 lɪtəri hūmənɔriəs, 2 lɪtəri hūmənɔriəs] Lat, 'humane, or polite letters', also abbr to Lit Hum [lit hām] Name of Classical Honour School, or examination for the B A degree in this, at Oxford

Literal, adj [1 lɪtərəl, 2 lɪtərəl] Fr, fr Lat litterālis, fr littera, 'letter of the alphabet, handwriting; epistle', & -al The older etymologists derived littera fr the base lit, fr Lat linere, 'to smear, daub', PP litum Thus, however, is rejected by Walde, who regards the word as borrowed fr Gk diplhēra, 'leather, dressed hide', w L fr d through association w Lat linere, 'to smear' & c, & legere, 'to read', diplhēra is connected w dēphēra, 'to soften by working by hand, to render supple, to tan (hides)' (see diplhēra) Boussac connects the Gk words w ON lifa, 'to trample' According to the above etymol, therefore, littera meant first 'a mark made on parchment', & became associated popularly w the idea of 'daubing', & then of 'reading', the mark Op letter 1 Having to do, connected, with, based on, pertaining to, a letter of the alphabet a purely literal error in printing, also as u, a literal, literal marking (of examination papers), expressed by letters instead of numerically 2 According to the letter, n based on what is actually written or expressed, adhering to the actual words, not fanciful, metaphorical & c a literal interpretation of a document, b giving an exact rendering, word for word, reverse of free a literal translation 3 Inclined to take words in their narrowest and blindest sense, thus apt to miss the real spirit and meaning, hence, unimaginative, matter-of-fact a literal, rather barren mind 4 a Adhering to actual fact, perfectly accurate, not heightened, unvarnished a literal account of what happened, the literal truth, b capable of being described in a specified way without exaggeration or departure from truth the gale has made a literal desert of my garden.

literalism, n [1 literalizm, 2 litaralizm] literal & -izm System, habit of mind, practice, of slavishly following the letter, tendency to accept literal interpretation exaggerated realism.

literalist, n [1 literalist, 2 litaralist] literal & -ist One who adheres to literalism in theory and practice.

literalistic, adj [1 litaralistik, 2 litaralistik] Preceded by -ic Based on, inspired by, literalism literality, n [1 litarali, 2 litarali] literal & -ity Quality of being literal, a literal interpretation.

literalize, vb trans [1 litaraliz, 2 litaraliz] literal & -ize To render literal, to interpret literally literally, adv [1 litarah, 2 litarali] literal & -ly 1 In accordance with the strict letter, not freely, not metaphorically. to translate literally, to interpret a remark, an order, literally 2 Used to qualify, or tone down slightly, an epithet or statement which is rather forcible or somewhat exaggerated literally starving, very hungry, literally the ugliest woman I know, literally drenched to the skin.

literalness, n [1 litarahnes, 2 litarahnes] literal & -ness Quality of being literal, a (of statements, interpretation) use of words in their plain and natural meaning, strict adherence to this, absence of metaphor, straightforwardness, b quality of mind, practice, which understands and expresses things literally, lack of imagination, matter-of-factness literary, adj [1 litarari, 2 litarari] Lat litararius, 'connected with, pertaining to, reading and writing' See literal & -ary 1 Pertaining to letters and learning literary labours, studies literary works, writings 2 Devoted to, skilled in, learning and literature a literary man, quite a literary person, fond of books versed in literature, a producer of literature 3 Literary dialect, language, that form of a given language which is used as the common vehicle for literary expression, that in which the literature of a people is written, that used in a given country for writing generally 4 Literary property, right of an author, his heirs and assigns, to enjoy profit arising from his literary works literate, adj & n [1 litarit, 2 litarit] See litaratus 1 adj Educated, uneducated, specif, able to read and write, contrasted with illiterate. 2 n An educated person, one who can read and write litarah, n pl [1 litarahi, 2 litarahai] See litaratus Men of letters, the learned world litaratim, adv [1 litaratim, 2 litaratim] Lat, 'literally' See literal, litaratus, the suff is an old acc used adverbially Letter by letter, literally litarature, n [1 lit(e)rachur, 2 lit(e)ratija] Lat litaratura, 'writing; grammar, erudition, scholarship' See literal & -ure 1 A Writing in prose or verse, without regard to their standard of merit, esp of an imaginative, descriptive, or critical, character, drama, fiction, essays, and treatises of a general character (as distinct from special and technical works) and all kinds of poetry every age produces both good and bad literature

2 the study, practice of literature to take to, devote oneself to literature, as a hobby, or profession 3 Writings of acknowledged excellence and beauty of form possessing permanent value much of the current literature of the present day is clever and corrupt without being literature, journalistic writing often reaches the dignity of literature 4 Phr literature, works of transitory value 5 (archaic) Learning erudition literary taste and knowledge he is an erudite man, but he has very little literature 6 Special treatises

or monographs on scientific or technical subjects philological, mathematical, literature.

litaratus, n [1 litaratus, 2 litaratus] Lat, 'literally educated', fr littera 'letter, learning' See literal & -ate A learned person, scholar, man of letters, usually in pl, litarati -lith, suff, fr Gk lithos, 'a stone' See litho- Used with same force as -lith monolith, single stone, or block of stone litharge, n [1 lithargy, 2 lipadzi] ME litharge, 'white lead', fr Fr, fr Lat lithar gyrrus, fr Gk lithargyros, 'vitrified lead, collected in the process of separating lead from silver', fr lithos, 'stone' (see litho-), & argyros, 'silver' See argent & argal Hard, yellowish-red crystalline substance obtained by melting lead, used in manufacture of some kinds of glass lithe, adj [1 lith, 2 lad] OE lipe, 'soft, mild, gentle, pleasant', fr linþ-*, cp OS lith, OHG lith, cogn. w Lat lentus, 'pliant, flexible, slow' See lenticule, & cp linchpin. Easily bent, supple, flexible, limber, sinuous 'lithe proboscis', applied to the trunk of the elephant by Milton, 'P L', lithe movements &c lithely, adv Preceded by -ly In a lithe manner litheness, n See preceded by -ness Quality of being lithe lithesome, adj [1 lithsum, 2 lithsum] litha & -some Litha, lithsum lithia, n [1 lithia, 2 lipia] Formed fr Gk lithion, 'of stone', neut sing on anal of soda &c See litho- (chem) Crystalline substance obtained from lithium.

lithin water, n Mineral water containing lithium salts lithic, adj [1 lithik, 2 lipik] Gk. See litho- & -ic a Of stone, b of lithium lithium, n [1 lithium, 2 lipium] Latinized, fr Gk lithos, 'stone' See litho- White metallic element of alkali group litho-, pref Form used in compounds, of Gk lithos, 'stone', origin uncertain, but see lithon. In many medical words it refers to calculus or stone in the bladder or kidneys lithograph, n & vb intrans & trans [1 lithograph, 2 lipograf] litho- & graph 1 n Writing or designs of any kind made upon a flat, specially treated surface of stone, whence the design is printed off 2 vb a intrans To print, or make designs by lithographic process, b trans, to reproduce (writing, pictures &c) by such a process lithographer, n [1 lithografer, 2 lipograf] Preceded by -er One who makes lithographs lithographic, adj [1 lithografik, 2 lipografik] lithograph & -ic a Of, pertaining to, lithographs or lithography lithographic stone, a finely ground limestone, b of the nature of a lithograph, reproduced by lithography lithography, n [1 lithografi, 2 lipografi] lithograph & -y Art or process of making designs on prepared stone, and taking impressions or prints from this lithologic(al), adj [1 lithologik(l), 2 lipdzik(l)] See next word & -ic & -al Pertaining to lithology, pertaining to rocks lithology, n [1 lithologi, 2 lipodizi] litho- & -logy Scientific study of formation, structure, and character of rocks litholysis, n [1 litholysis, 2 lipalisis] litho- & -lysis (med) Solution, destruction of calculi in the bladder &c by drugs or injections lithotriptic, adj & n [1 lithotriptik, 2 lipotriptik] Gk lithon, gen pl of lithos, 'stone' (see litho-), & base of thriptes, 'to crush' (q v under drop), & -ic, second element confused w tripsis, 'rubbed, pounded', fr tribein, 'to rub, grind' (q v under trite) (med) a adj Tending to destroy, used for destroying calculi in the bladder, b n, drug or remedy, used for this purpose lithopayite, n [1 lithopait, 2 lipopait] Gk. See litho- & -payte, fr phaios, 'that which grows, a plant' (zool) Pisot like organism with a hard stony skeleton, e g a coral lithosphere, n [1 lithosfer, 2 lipasfer] See litho- & sphere (geol) The solid part of the earth, as distinct from the atmosphere and hydrosphere lithotomist, n [1 lithotomist, 2 lipotomist] See next word & -ist Surgeon who practises lithotomy lithotomy, n [1 lithotomi, 2 lipotomi] Gk. See litho-, 'stone', & tomia, 'a cutting' (see -tomy) Operation of cutting into the bladder and removing calculi lithotripsy, n [1 lithotritia, 2 lipotritia] Hybrid fr Gk litho-, 'stone', & lat trit (um), PP type of terere, 'to bruise, crush' See trit & trituration (surg) Operation of crushing a stone in the bladder to very small pieces capable of being voided naturally, without cutting into the bladder

Lithuanian, adj & n [1 lithuanian, 2 lipuanian] a adj Belonging to Lithuania, its people or language, b n, language of Lithuania, native of that country litigant, n & adj [1 litigant, 2 litigant] Fr, fr Lat litigant (em). Pres Part of litigare, 'to dispute' See next word 1 n A party in a lawsuit 2 adj Engaged in a lawsuit litigate, vb intrans & trans [1 litigat, 2 litigat] Lat litigat (um), PP of litigare, fr lit, stem of lis, 'dispute, strife', wh stands for slit*-, fr same base comes Goth slips, 'hurtful, bad', OE slipe, 'painful, cruel', OS slidit, 'cruel, wicked', op also Gk (a)lithin, 'to sin against, transgress'. Another series of related words without s, & nearer in form to the Lat lit, are OHG leid, 'suffering, sorrow', OE lāp, 'hostile, hateful' &c See loathe 1 intrans To go to law, carry on legal proceedings 2 trans a To make the subject of a lawsuit, b (fig) to dispute, canvass litigation, n [1 litigashun, 2 litigashun] Lat litigatio (em) See preceded by -ion a Act or process of litigating, b a lawsuit, a legal dispute litigatory, adj [1 litigatōr, 2 litigatōr] litigate & -ory Pertaining to, of the nature of, litigation litigious, adj [1 litijus, 2 litidzēs] Lat litigiosus, 'full of disputes, fond of disputes, quarrelsome, contentious', fr litig (sum), 'dispute' See litigate & -ous a Fond of going, inclined to go, to law, quarrelsome, disputations, b capable of being disputed at law litigiously, adv Preceded by -ly In a litigious manner litigiousness, n See preceded by -ness Quality of being litigious litmus, n [1 litmus, 2 litmas] A Fr lytmonius, said to be fr Early Du lakmoes, fr lak, 'lacquer', moes, 'fruit pulp' (chem) Substance obtained from lichens which becomes red when acted on by acids, and blue by action of alkalis litmus paper, n Paper steeped in litmus used for testing presence of acids or alkalis litotes, n [1 litotēs, 2 litotiz] Gk litotēs, 'plainness, simplicity', mhet, 'diminution', fr litos, 'plain, simple', connected w leitos, 'smooth, polished', for slaios*, op also Gk leimaz, 'meadow', prob connected w OHG slimen, 'to polish' (see slime), & op lime (I) & loam Figure of rhetoric which consists in softening or diminishing the form of expression by understatement, or by putting a negative for its opposite, meiosis, as Turner is rather a good painter, not bad, very good, I shan't be sorry, shall be very glad litre, n [1 litr, 2 lit] Fr, fr L Lat, fr Gk litra, 'pound', fr Lat lipra*, later libra Metro unit of capacity, equivalent to 0.14 pints litter (I), n [1 litter, 2 lit] Fr littere, Low Lat lectaria, fr lectus 'bed', cogn w lair, lay (III), lie (III) 1 a A vehicle consisting of a kind of bed or couch, furnished with poles for carrying, or shafts, b contrivance for carrying wounded and sick, n stretcher

2 a Straw, hay, bracken &c used as bedding for animals; b similar material used to protect plants from the cold 3 All the young of a sow, bitch &c brought forth at one birth, (so called from the nature of the bedding) 4 a Miscellaneous odds and ends scattered about, e.g. loose papers, books out of place, small personal belongings &c, discarded rubbish of all sorts, b state of untidiness and confusion caused by such things

Litter (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To supply (animals) with (often litter down), cover (plants) with, litter 2 To make untidy with a litter of miscellaneous, scattered articles to litter a table, room, also litter up 3 (archaic and rare) To give birth to as part of a litter B intrans To bring forth a litter of young, a of certain animals, b (vulg) to give birth to a child

Litterateur, n [1 literatér, 2 literatí]. Fr A literary person, writer, man of letters

Littery, adj [1 liter, 2 literí] Litter (I) & -y A Of the nature of litter or bedding, b covered with litter, strewn with odds and ends, untidy

Little (I), adj [1 litl, 2 litl] OE lytel, 'small', ME litel, litel, OHG luzal, MHG lützel The etymol of the base of this word is very doubtful, Goth leihila, 'small', must be an entirely different word in spite of its similarity of form & meaning, it is impossible to connect the OE & OHG forms w another having i in the first syllable The Goth form may be connected w least, less 1 Small in size, of inconsiderable bulk, dimensions, height &c, idiomatic antithesis of big a little piece, bit, book, house, hill, various special uses little finger, toe, the smallest, situated on the outside of each hand or foot, little ones, children, young of animals, little rabbits &c, young ones, not fully grown, little family, of young children, a little man, short, not tall, a little war, with comparatively few fighting on each side, his, your, their little game, (expressing amused contempt) intrigue, design to get the better of one &c, little ways, undesirable habits, laughable eccentricities &c, (disparagement) my poor little efforts, little woman, affectionate, slightly patronizing mode of address, (my) little man, familiar mode of address to a child, quite a (or the) little gentleman, contemptuous or patronizing reference to a polite but rather insignificant little man, my, your, little people, children, the little Browns, the Browns' children, a little place, small landed estate, a little thing, unimportant circumstance, (of persons) a nice little thing &c, young, smallish woman (often slightly contemptuous), little things, trifling objects, trivial, unimportant actions &c 2 (of duration of time) Brief, not lasting long, transitory life's little day, 'They fall, and leave their little lives in air' (Pope), a little while, time 3 (of distance, extension in space) Not far, going only a short way come a little way with me, only a little distance from here Phr to go but a (very) little way to, not to suffice, be inadequate to 4 (in moral sense) Petty, mean, narrow little things amuse little minds 5 Small in degree, amount, quantity, measure, a a little drop, a little glass of whiskey, little or no comfort, b in many phrases in which little is felt as, and functions apparently as, an adjective, the noun construction, a little of, with ellipsis of of may underlie the form of construction, or, more probably, little may be a true adjective and the ellipsis may be of the words amount of do take a little trouble, pains, with your work, give me just a little bacon, please, o no little, very much, a great amount of I took no little pains over it, d very little, often means not enough, none at all he had very (or precious) little knowledge of the subject, I must say you show very little interest, he takes very little trouble about his work, a little may be merely a polite formula, and may mean merely some, without any idea of limiting the amount let me give you a little mutton, may I have a little claret, please?

Little (II), adv 1 To a slight extent, not much, only slightly, a (qualifying vbs) to eat, smoke, little, I see him very little, little understood, a little known poet, b (qualifying adj) little more than half an hour 2 Not at all, chiefly with know, imagine, dream, think, guess, and the like he little thought it was his last visit here, little did I dream that I should never see him again

Little (III), n, fr little (I) A small amount, not much I can only eat a little, I'll give you a little, I can't afford much, every little helps, I must keep what little I get Phrs not a little, a great deal I lost not a little over cards alone, little by little, gradually, for a little, a short time, little or nothing, hardly anything, in little, on a small scale

Little-case, n a A prison cell in which the prisoner could neither stand upright nor lie at full length, b discomfort, wretchedness

Little-endian, n [1 litl éndian 2 litl éndien] School or party in Lalpint (Swift's 'Gulliver's Travels') who maintained that eggs should be cracked at the little end, as opposed to the Big-endians, who maintained the contrary view, used derisively of those who dispute about trivialities

Little-Englander, n [1 litl ingglander, 2 litl ingglande] One who holds that Great Britain should reduce her commitments and responsibilities, and limit her political aims and Empire, and concentrate more upon purely home affairs, antithesis of Imperialist

Little-go, n (colloq) The first examination for a pass B A degree at Cambridge University, corresponding to 'amalls' or responses at Oxford

Little Masters, n pl School of designers and engravers on wood and copper of 16th and 17th cents, so called because their designs were on a small scale

Littleness, n [1 litlness, 2 litlnes] Little (I) & -ness Quality of being little, a small size the littleness of English mountains compared with the Alps, b pettiness, paltriness, insignificance, meanness the littlenesses of human nature

Littoral, adj & n [1 littoral, 2 littoral] Fr, fr Lat littoralis, 'pertaining to the seashore', fr litor, stem of litus, 'seashore', etymol doubtful, but perh fr base lei-*, 'to flow', whence also Lat libère, 'pour out' &c See libation 1 adj a Pertaining to the seashore, b pertaining to the strip of land along the sea-coast 2 n a Space between high and low water mark on seashore, b margin of sea near coast, c coastal region liturgy(al), adj [1 litýrj(ə)l, 2 litádžik(l)] liturgy & -ic (& -al) Connected with, of the nature of, a liturgy liturgically, adv Prec & -ly According to, from the point of view of a, or the, liturgy liturgies, n [1 litýrjiks, 2 litádžiks] See liturgy(al) Science of public worship, study of the history, doctrine &c of liturgies liturgiological, adj [1 litýrjólójik, 2 litádžiolójik] liturgyology & -ic & -al Pertaining to liturgyology liturgyologist, n [1 litýrjólójist, 2 litádžiolédzist] Next word & -ist Student of, one skilled in, liturgyology liturgyology, n [1 litýrjólój, 2 litádžiolédž] liturgy & -logy Systematic study of, treatise on, liturgies liturgist, n [1 litýrist, 2 litádžist] liturgy & -ist One who advocates the use of a prescribed liturgy in public worship, one who practises, and desires to enforce, strict adherence to a prescribed liturgy liturgy, n [1 litýri, 2 litádž] Fr liturgie, L Lat liturgia, fr Gk leitourgia, 'a public service', a burdensome public office, divine service', fr leitos, 'of the people', & a form of the Gk base érgon, 'work, business, employment', the first element is fr Gk laós, 'people', for the second see ergon Established and prescribed formularies used in churches at public worship, esp the office of the Mass livable, adj [1 livabl, 2 livabl] live (I) & -able 1 (of life) Worth living, endurable 2 (of houses, places, rooms) Fit, pleasant, to live in 3 (of persons) Easy to live with, pleasant, companionable live (I), vb intrans & trans [1 liv, 2 liv] OE lyfan, lybban, ME lyven &c, op ON lyfa, 'to remain behind, to live', OHG (be)liban, Germ leben &c See life A intrans 1 To be possessed of life, to exist to carry on, exercise, the functions of a living organism, generally replaced by to be alive, except in certain constructions, and in poetry Phr live and let live, exercise the same toleration towards others that one desires for oneself 2 a To continue in life, remain alive to live to be old, so badly hurt that he can't live, to live through the night (of a person seriously ill), to live to see one's grandchildren, to live happily ever after, conventionally of the hero and heroine of fairy story, also facetiously of one who has come through an agitated period to happier conditions, we shall live to see it, it will never happen, b (of inanimate things) to remain uninjured, escape destruction no ship could live in such a storm 3 To regulate, order, one's life, lead one's life in a specified manner to live virtuously, happily, free from care &c, Phrs to live carefully, a economically, b abstemiously, to live in the past, to dwell upon, be preoccupied with the past, and take but little interest in the present, live hard, a lead a dissolute life, b to endure hardships, to live rough, without luxury, in hardship, to live in a small way, meanly, in poverty, to live from hand to mouth, precariously, live like a fighting cock, luxuriously, to live well, a lead a pious life, b to live in great luxury, to live beyond one's means, more extravagantly than one can afford

4 (followed by on) a To subsist, feed on, have as one's diet to live on bread and water, to live chiefly on milk, Phr live on the fat of the land, to have the most expensive and delicate food obtainable, b to preserve life, supply one's needs generally, support oneself, to live on one's salary, on a small income, to have very little to live on, to live on others, or such and such a person, to be supported at another's expense, to live on, by, one's wife, by dishonest means 5 (followed by in, at, or an adv phr) to inhabit, make one's dwelling, to reside to live in England, at the seaside, to live abroad, also absol in interrog sentences where do you live? Phrs live in, to lodge under same roof as, in same house as, one's business, live out, to lodge away from this, and esp of shop assistants &c 6 To enjoy life, lead a life of varied emotions and experiences I don't want to spend all my days in a small village, I want to live 7 (of imaginative and intellectual creations) To be filled with vigour and vitality, to be vivid, to impress one as possessing life to make a historical character live, 'The groves of Eden vanished now so long, live in description, and look green in song' (Pope) B trans 1 To spend, pass, in such Phr as to live one's life 2 To live, believe, in accordance with, to regulate one's life in such a manner as to experience, or make oneself to live romance, he doesn't merely preach religion, but lives it as well C Followed by prepositions, with special sense Live down, trans, to dispel, do away with reproach, or memory, of, rehabilitate oneself after to live down a former offence, bad reputation, scandal &c Live out, trans, to live as long as, last out he won't ever live out another month Live through, trans, to experience and survive to live through a political crisis Live up to, intrans, to fulfil expectation, reach a specified standard to live up to one's reputation, to be worthy of to show an equal degree of merit he wrote was so distinguished that he felt he could never live up to her live (II), adj [1 liv, 2 laiv], fr alive, 'in life', q r (only used attrib, with same general meanings as living) 1 Living life a live fish; contrasted with a dead one 2 (of embers, coal &c) Still glowing or burning, alight. Phr live wire, electrified wire, (fig) a forcible, lively person

-lived, adj, properly [1 livd, 2 laivd], now almost universally [1 livd, 2 livd] life & -ed Possessing life of specified duration, esp long lived, inclined to live long a long lived family &c, short-lived, tending, briefly, to live for a short time only, passing away in a short time, transient his triumph was short lived livelihood, n [1 livhhood, 2 livhlihood] OE lif-geld, 'course of life, lifetime', ME live-lode, often 'b'ography, account of a person's life' See life & lead (IV), lode, modern form as though fr live & -hood. Means of subsistence, of supporting life Phrs to make a decent livelihood, to pick up a scanty livelihood, to earn cr i-meet livelihood liveliness, n [1 livlness, 2 livlvinis] live & -ness Quality or condition of being lively, a spiritedness, sprightliness, animation, vivacity, of mind and character, b briskness, activity, vigour, of movement, c (of events) tendency to move, change, absence of stagnation live-long adj [1 livlong livlong, 2 livly, livlyng] First element confused w live (II) or life but orig ME live, fr OE lof, 'dear', cp Mod Germ den helen la-gen tag &c See list & -long a Only in lively day, right, lasting throughout the whole of, b lasting enduring, cp Milton's 'Thou hast built thyself a live-long monument', on Shakespeare lively, adj [1 livh, 2 livli], fr OE liffic, 'living, life-giving', in most mod senses prob new formation fr live & -ly 1 a (of persons) Full of vitality, spirited, vivacious, merry, active, vigorous, b (of the mind) active, alert responding freely to stimuli, acute, penetrating a lively imagination intellect &c 2 Expressing, suggesting, inspiring, liveliness and sprightliness, gay, cheerful a lively tune, dance, tone of voice 3 (of inanimate things) a Moving rapidly a lively ball, b fresh, stimulating, brisk a lively breeze, c causing, promoting, rapidity of movement a lively pitch (t cricket), a billiard table, cushion, may be lively or slow 4 a (of sensuous impressions) Brilliant, vivid, intense a lively colour b (of emotions &c) strongly felt, powerful, intense a lively sense of gratitude, a lively faith live, vb trans & intrans [1 livn; 2 laivn] live (II) & -en. Usually live up a trans To enliven, render more lively, brighten, cheer up to live things up to make more alert and active, b intrans., to become more lively, be cheered &c live (I), n [1 liver, 2 livs] live (I) & -er a One who lives, (obsolesc) except in archaic Phr evil liver, free liver, b (rare) an inhabitant, dweller a live in cities liver (II), n OE lifer, O H G lebara, O N lifr, either fr ong lyel-* (f) & cogn w Scrt yakri Lat jeur, & Gk hepar, gent heparos (see hepatic), all for lyel-* (f), or fr base lip* & cogn w Gk lipos, 'fat' 1 (anat) Large, dark reddish brown organ in the abdomen, which secretes bile and plays an important part in digestion 2 The flesh of this organ, as of calves, pigs, chicken &c, cooked as food liver-coloured adj Dark reddish brown esp liver-cold-red spard livered, adj [1 livend, 2 livand] live (II) & -ed. Wearing livery liverish adj [1 liversh 2 livrsh] live (II) & -ish. (colloq) Suffering from a derangement of the liver, bilious liverwort, n [1 livervort, 2 livvort] Flowerless plant of Hepaticae tribe, somewhat resembling a moss livery (I), adj [1 livn, 2 livn] live (II)

& -y 1 Resembling liver in appearance &c 2 Suffering from deranged liver, liverish

livery (II), n ME liver, 'allowance of food', fr O Fr livre, 'allowance, something allowed free, an allowance, gift of clothes from a master to his servants', fr Lat liberāt, P P type of liberāre, 'release' See liberate 1 Allowance or provision of food or clothing provided for retainers 2 Allowance of food for horses livery and bait, at livery, of a horse, stabled, groomed, and fed at a fixed charge 3 A distinctive uniform worn (1) by member of city company, and esp (u) by a private person's man servant livery servant, one wearing livery, Phr (fig) the livery of woe, mourning garments, b (poet) the characteristic colour, foliage, plumage appearance of trees and birds at certain seasons the livery of spring, the sombre liveries of the rocks &c 4 (law) Delivery of possession of lands of a ward released by Court of Chancery Phr to sue for (one's) livery livery company, n One of the London city companies, formerly trade guilds liveryman, n [1 liverman, 2 liverman] 1 Member of a city company entitled to wear the distinctive dress of his guild and to vote for the Lord Mayor and sheriffs 2 Keeper of a livery stable livery stable, n Stable where horses of private owners are fed and cared for at a fixed payment, and where horses and vehicles are kept for hire live-stock, n live (II) & stock (I) Domestic animals kept on farm &c livid, adj [1 livid, 2 livid] Lat lividus, 'bluish, livid', for alividus, cogn w O Slav slavo, 'plum', cp OE slāh, 'sloe', O H G slēha, Mod Germ schlehe Cp sloe Of a bluish colour, of the colour of lead, of a bruise Phr livid with anger, with cold lividity, n [1 lividity, 2 lividity] Prec & -ity Lividness lividness, n [1 lividnes, 2 lividnis] livid & -ness State, condition, of being livid living (I), adj [1 living, 2 livig], fr Pres Part of live (I) 1 Alive, not dead 'Some maintain that to this day, She is a living child' (Wordsworth), a living language, one still spoken Phrs living death, state of hopeless misery or bodily suffering, with living memory, that of those still living, living wage, one upon which he who earns it can just live 2 A Full of vitality and interest his discourse was living and impressive, b like-like, closely resembling a person the child is the living image of his father, exactly like him 3 Living rock, in its natural place 4 as n The living, those who are still alive living (II), vbl n [1 living, 2 livig] live (I) & -ing 1 Livelihood, maintenance to work for, earn, one's living, make an honest living 2 Mode of existence in the world the art of living, plain, high, living, standards of living 3 An ecclesiastical benefice or incumbency a poor, good rich living living-room, n Sitting room, contrasted with a bedroom livre, n [1 lēvr, 2 livr] Fr, fr Lat libra, 'pound' See libra. Ancient French monetary unit, about equivalent to a franc, coin of this value liviate, vb trans [1 liviāt, 2 liviāt] Lat livius, 'made into live', & -ate, fr liv, 'ashes, live', see live related to liquid. To separate a soluble from an insoluble substance by steeping and soaking in water liviation, n [1 liviāshun, 2 liviāshun] Prec. & -ion Process of separating soluble from insoluble substance by washing in water lizard, n [1 lizrd, 2 lizrd] O Fr lesard, fr Lat lacertus See lacertian Kind of reptile, with four legs a longish tail, and scaly hide, order Lacertilia Llama, n [1 lahma, 2 lāma] Span, fr Peruvian S American ruminant animal allied to the camel, but having no hump, it has a thick woolly coat, stands about 3 ft.

high and is domesticated and used as a beast of burden lanero, n [1 lyahnáro, 2 lyānərov] Span. See next word Inhabitant of the lanos of S America lano, n [1 lāhnō, lyahnō, 2 lānou, lyānou]. Span, 'plain, even', fr Lat planus See plain (I) One of the extensive plains or steppes in S America

Lloyd's, n [1 loizd, 2 loizd] Association of marine underwriters, so called from Lloyd's Coffee House (opened 1688), where business was originally transacted Phr A1 at Lloyd's, (lit of ship, and fig of anything) among the best of its kind lo, interj [1 lō, 2 lou] OE la, possibly connected w look. Obs, except in Phr lo and behold, see 1 loach, n [1 lōch, 2 lout] ME, fr Fr loche, origin unknown Small freshwater edible fish allied to the carp load (I), n [1 lōd, 2 loud] OE lād, 'way, course, journey, act of carrying goods', ME lode, for etymol see load (IV), the modern meanings have been influenced by the quite unrelated lade 1 A Something which is carried, a burden, esp a heavy weight to bear a load on one's shoulders, back, b (fig) something which weighs upon, oppresses, the mind spirits &c a load of care, grief, anxiety, a load off one's mind, relief from anxiety &c 2 A vague measure, that which can be put into and contained by a cart, waggon, ship a (cart) load of hay, coal &c 3 (mechan) Work imposed on an engine, motor, dynamo &c esp in Phr working load load (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To place a load or burden upon, in, any conveyance to load a cart, ship &c 2 a To bestow, esp upon a person, in great abundance, so as to overwhelm and weigh him down, esp to load with favours, honours &c also to load with reproaches, insults &c, b to overburden, overcharge with food to load the stomach 3 To place the charge in a firearm to load a gun, firearm, cannon 4 a To add weight to as a loaded cane, one with lead introduced at one end, to load dice, (1) weight them so that aces come uppermost, (u) (fig) to load the dice, prepare a case in one's favour, prejudice a case, so as to obtain an unfair advantage, b to add drugs to drink, to doctor this wine has been loaded B intrans 1 (of a gun) To receive its charge, permit of being loaded 2 Load up, a to place a load on vehicle designed for it, perform act of loading a cart &c, in preparation for departure, b (colloq) to eat and drink copiously, make a good meal while the opportunity offers loaded, adj [1 lōded, 2 loudid], fr P P of prec Excessively burdened, weighted, clogged, in various special senses a loaded stomach, overcharged with food, b loaded dice, fraudulently weighted so that they fall with the aces uppermost, c a loaded stick, one with the handle filled with lead, used as a bludgeon, a loaded whip, one having lead pellets fixed to the lash, d loaded wine, (1) adulterated, fortified with spirit, so as to make it appear rich and generous, (u) drugged, doped.

loader, n [1 lōder, 2 lōvde] load (II) & -er 1 Mechanical device, a for charging a firearm, also in combination indicating method of loading, as breech loader &c, b for loading a cart &c 2 Person who loads a gun, esp one employed in shooting game load-line, n Line on sides of a ship marking the depth at which she floats when fully loaded loadstar, n See lodestar loadstone, n [1 lōdstōn, 2 loudstoun], fr OE lad (see load (I)), with retention of something like the old meaning Magnetite oxide of iron, magnet loaf (I), n [1 lōf, 2 louf] OE hlāf, 'bread, loaf', O H G hlep, leip, Mod. Germ laib, O N hleifr, Goth. hlaifs, O Slav chleba, Russ chleb &c., 'bread', are borrowed fr. another Gmc. The word in the gco sense of 'baked dough' has now been displaced by the cogn of bread in all Gmc languages. 1 A mass or cake of bread of definite size and weight, in the form in which it is baked. a quartern loaf Phra the loaf, esp in reference to price of bread, the loaf has risen, or fallen, in price. loaves and fishes material benefit, contrasted with spiritual gain, half a loaf is better than no bread, take what you can get, or what is offered, rather than risk losing everything. 2 Large conical mass of sugar shaped in a mould, (attrib) loaf sugar. loaf (II), vb intrans & n. Origin uncertain, possibly fr Du or Germ dial, cp Germ laufen, 'to run'. See leap. 1 vb a To loiter about idly without any definite occupation, to fritter away one's time in trivial pursuits, b to work very slowly and without energy also loaf about, to loaf away one's time, to loaf through life. 2 n Action of loafing. loafer, n [1 lôfer, 2 lôufe] Prec & -er One who loafs, idler, longer, one who refuses to work and lives by begging, and sponging on others, vagrant, tramp. loafing, vb [1 lôfing, 2 lôufing] Prec & -ing Action of a loafer, idling. loam, n [1 lôm, 2 lôm] OE lām, 'clay', cogn w luma (I). Soil composed of clay with a mixture of lighter, more friable earth. loamy, adj [1 lômi, 2 lôumi] Prec & -y Consisting of, resembling, loam. loan, n & vb trans. [1 lôn, 2 loun] OE lān, 'loan', whence ME lōne, is very rare, the usual form being lēn, 'lending, loan, thing lent', op also lēnan, 'to lend' (see lend). The base lē-, lai-, is found in OE lōn, 'to lend', fr lihan*, cogn w OHG lihan, Mod Germ leihen, 'to lend', Goth leihtan. The orig sense was 'to leave, abandon', then 'abandon to another's use'. The base is further seen in Gk leipein, 'to leave', cp Lat liquē, 'I have left, abandoned' &c, perf of linguere (see leave). 1 n Something lent to another for his temporary use the loan of a book, not a gift, only a temporary loan, specif, sum of money lent to another, with or without interest being payable Phrs on loan, as a loan, Government Loan, sum of money borrowed by a State from another State, or from individuals in return for an agreed rate of interest. 2 vb To make a loan of, allow use of as a loan, an American usage, lend is generally felt to be preferable. loanable, adj [1 lônabl, 2 lôunabl] Prec & -able Capable of being lent. loan-collection, n Collection of pictures &c lent temporarily for purposes of exhibition. loan-word, n Modelled on Mod Germ lehnwort. Word borrowed by the speakers of one language from another, and incorporated into their own. loath, loth, adj [1 lôth, 2 loup] OE lāp, 'hostile, hateful, unpleasant', op OHG leit, Mod Germ leid, cogn w Lat lis for li-*, 'dispute' &c (see litigate). A common OE construction is mā is lāp, 'it is hateful, unpleasant, to me—I am reluctant'. Unwilling, reluctant to be loath to go, loath to part with a person &c. loathe, vb trans [1 lôdh, 2 lôud] OE lāpan, (umpers) 'to be distasteful, hateful to'. See prec. a To hate, detest, be filled with horror at, or disgust by, feel strong aversion to to loathe cruelty, to loathe the sight of food, b (colloq) expressing mere dislike or mild aversion I loathe tea for breakfast. loathing, n [1 lôdhung, 2 lôudh] Prec & -ing Great disgust, detestation, repulsion to be filled with loathing. loathingly, adv loathe & -ing (II) & -ly With horror or detestation. loathliness, n [1 lôdhines, 2 lôudhines] See next word & -ness. loathfulness, n [1 lôdhf, 2 lôudh] OE lāplic, 'hateful, horrible'. See loath & -ly Abominable, disgusting, also hideous, inspiring disgust by appearance. loathsome, adj [1 lôthsum, 2 loupsum] loath & -some a Nauseating, disgusting, esp to the taste or sense of smell, b revolting, shocking to the moral sense. loathsomely, adv. Prec & -ly In a loathsome manner. loathsomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being loathsome. lob (I), n [1 loh, 2 loh] Cp O Fris lobbe, 'thick lump of flesh or fat'. 1 A loutish, clumsy person. 2 A high-pitched, slow ball howled underhand in cricket, a similar ball struck so as to fall at back of court over opponent's head at lawn tennis. lob (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec. 1 intrans To move, walk or run along with a heavy, clumsy action, also lob along. 2 trans To pitch, strike, a ball high in the air at cricket or lawn tennis. lobar, adj [1 lôbar, 2 lôub] lobe & -ar Of, pertaining to, a lobe or lobes, esp of the lung lobar pneumonia. lobate, adj [1 lôbat, 2 lôubate] See lobe & -ate (hot) Lobed, having lobes or projecting divisions, esp of leaves such as those of the oak. lobby (I), n [1 lôbi, 2 lôbi] fr Low Lat lobbia, lobia, 'portico, gallery, covered way', this is apparently borrowed fr M H G loube, 'arbour, bower, way leading to a house', Mod Germ laube, 'a shady, leafy bower', cogn w Engl leaf. See also lodge. 1 Hall, ante room, waiting-room. 2 Specif, the Lobby (of House of Commons), large hall open to the public in which members of the House interview their constituents and others, also Division lobby, corridor to which members go to vote on a division. lobby (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec. a To discuss privately (in the Lobby) with members of a legislative or deliberative body, in order to secure their support for a given object, b (gen) to bring influence to bear privately, in advance, on those who have subsequently to decide public questions. lobe, n [1 lôb, 2 lôub] Fr, fr Gk lobē, 'lobe of the ear', also 'seed pod', as of peas &c, cogn w Gk lēb-anthos, 'peas', lēbēris, 'peel or husk of fruits', & Lat legūmen, 'plant with pods'. The words are perh cogn w Scrt lag, 'hang', & in that case the fundamental idea wd seem to be 'that which hangs down, something pendulous'. Hence the application to the lobe of the ear & to a seed pod. Further extension of usage prob arises fr a fancied resemblance in shape to the lobe of the ear &c. On the other hand, the base may be unconnected w lag, 'hang', & may have a direct connexion in meaning w the ear. Lat legere means amongst other things 'to pick up by ear, hear', op legula, 'ear', that wh picks up, bears (sounds). In this case the application is first to the ear, then to the lower part of the ear, finally to the seed pods of certain plants on account of fancied resemblance in shape, and in being pendulous. 1 a The flat pendulous part which terminates the human ear at its lowest point, b any projection or division of an organ, esp of a rounded shape a lobe of the lungs, of the liver. 2 (bot) Lobe of a leaf, rounded, projecting division. lobed, adj [1 lôbd, 2 lôubd] Prec & -ed Furnished with lobes. lobelia, n [1 lôblia, 2 lôublja] fr proper name (M de P Obel, physician to James I). One of many species of herbaceous plants, with red, blue, or white flowers, cultivated in gardens. loblolly boy, man, n [1 lôblôb, 2 lôblôf] (nant) Surgeon's mate, loblolly (toplolly) was sailors' name for gruel. It is recorded by Mrs Piozza (Anecdotes of Dr Johnson, No 142) that Dr Johnson once visited a man-of-war and was informed, on inquiring the use of some part of the ship that it was 'where the toplolly man keeps his toplolly'. This reply

he considered, probably erroneously, 'disrespectful, gross, and ignorant'. lobscouse, n [1 lôbskous, 2 lôbskous] Origin unknown. Sea dish of meat, vegetables, ship's biscuit &c, usually stewed. lobster, n [1 lôbster, 2 lôbstā] OE loþstre, lopestre, form of Lat locusta, 'locust', also 'lobster, crayfish'. See locust. 1 a Large edible marine crustacean, genus Homarus, with powerful claws, greyish black when alive, bright red when boiled, b its flesh as food. 2 (obs slang, colloq) A British soldier, from old scariet uniform. lobster-pot, n Kind of basket trap in which lobsters are caught. lobular, adj [1 lôbular, 2 lôbyula] See next word & -ar Connected with, resembling, lobules, or a lobule. lobule, n [1 lôbul, 2 lôbyul] Fr lobule, L. Lat lobulus, dimin of lobus. See lobe & -ule. A small lobe. lobworm, n [1 lôhwērm, 2 lôbwām] See lob (I) & worm Earthworm or marine worm used as bait for fishing. local (I), adj [1 lôkl, 2 lôukl] Lat. localis, adj, 'belonging to a place', fr locus, 'place'. See locust. Belonging to, residing in, or confined to, a particular place, region, or neighbourhood local affairs, the local clergyman, doctor, a local habit, dialect, local examination, one held by a university in a locality for granting certificates to the pupils of secondary schools, local injury, one affecting only a specific area of the body, local train, one running bnt a short distance from its starting-point, a bird, animal, plant &c is said to be (quite) local, i.e. not widely distributed. Phr local colour, details characteristic of place or time, added to a story to give a sense of reality. Specif. uses local government, administration of local affairs by councils or other bodies elected by the inhabitants of the locality, such as county councils, boroughs &c, Local Government Board, former state department concerned with such administration, now absorbed in Ministry of Health, local option, scheme whereby the inhabitants of a place or district decide the number of public houses which shall be licensed in their area, the regulations as to sale of liquor &c, local veto, right of inhabitants of a locality to forbid sale of alcoholic liquor. local (II), n, fr prec. Something belonging to some definite place, short for local train, local news, as given in a newspaper &c. locale, n [1 lôkahl, 2 lôukahl] Fr Scene, theatre, of some specified event or action. localism, n [1 lôkalizm, 2 lôukalizm] local (I) & -ism 1 a Habit of mind which favours what is local, or characteristic of a particular place or area, b narrowness, limitation of ideas. 2 Local mode of speech, pronunciation, idiom, a provincialism. locality, n [1 lôkaliti, 2 lôukaliti] local (I) & -ity 1 Position or place in which a thing exists. 2 Place, district, neighbourhood. Phr bump, sense of locality, faculty of visualizing objects and landmarks in relation to others in any region and thus of finding one's way. localizable, adj [1 lôkalizabl, 2 lôukalaz] localize & -able Capable of being localized. localization, n [1 lôkalizāshun, 2 lôukalazeshun] See next word & -ation. Act of localizing, state of being localized. localize, vb trans [1 lôk-līz, 2 lôukalanz] local & -ize 1 To assign to a particular place or area, locate. 2 To confine within, restrict to, prevent from spreading beyond, a particular area to localize a disturbance, to localize infection. 3 To make local, give a local character to. locally, adv [1 lôkahl, 2 lôukahl] local & -ly Within a given place, neighbourhood, or area. locate, vb trans [1 lôkāt, 2 lôukēt] fr Lat locat (um), P.P. type of locare, 'to place, put arrange, dispose' &c. See locust & -ate.

1 a To place, set in, assign to, a particular place or position, b to lodge, take up residence in, esp in PP, to be located in 2 To discover with certainty the exact position of anything to locate the source of a pain location, n [1 lókhshun, 2 lóukéshun] Lat locatión-(em), 'a placing, arrangement' See prec & -ion a Act, process, of locating, b state of being located, c situation, place of residence locative, adj & n [1 lókatv, 2 blókatv] locate & -ive (gram) a adj Connected with the case which expresses place where, b n, the case itself, word having locative ending, or expressing place where loch, n [1 lógh, 2 ló] Gael lough, 'lake' A lake, esp in Scotland

Lochaber-axe, n [1 lógháber áks, 2 lógháber áks] An axe attached to a long handle with a hook at the end, as formerly used by Scottish Highlanders in fighting, fr Lochaber, Inverness shire lock (I), n [1 lók, 2 lók] OE loc, 'lock of hair, hair', O H G loc, O N loktr, all fr lugna*, cogn w Gk lugos, 'a plant twig or rod, a withy', op Gk lugizein, 'to bend, twist', also Lat lucare, lucis, 'to wrestle, struggle', referring to the twisting & intertwining, whence Fr lutter, 'struggle, wrestle', Lith luginas, 'flexible, pliant, docile' 1 a A small tress, tuft, ringlet, of hair as it grows upon the head, one that has been cut from the head, b tuft of hair or wool on an animal 2 pl (poet or liter) The hair as a whole grizzled, golden, locks lock (II), n O D loc, 'lock, bolt, bar, something enclosed, an enclosure, a prison', op also loc, 'enclosure', cogn w lucan, trans 'to close, confine, interlace', intrans 'to intermingle, join together in single mass', the base is perh ultimately the same as in lock (I) 1 Contrivance for closing doors, the lids of chests, drawers &c, consisting of a system of levers and a strong spring, which set upon a bolt or bolts, the mechanism is enclosed in a metal or wooden case, and is worked by a key Phr under lock and key, secured by being placed in locked receptacle 2 Mechanism of levers worked by a trigger, by means of which a gun is fired 3 Mode of grappling in wrestling 4 A Enclosure on a river or canal, with movable, water tight gates, through which vessels pass, and proceed from one water level to another, b similar enclosure at entrance to a tidal dock 5 A lock hospital, q v lock (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To close, make fast, prevent opening, by shooting the bolts of a lock to lock a door, a drawer Phr to lock the stable door after the horse has been stolen, take precautions too late, b (fig) to retain firmly fixed, and inviolate in the mind knowledge, secrets, safely locked in one's breast 2 To embrace closely to lock a person in one's arms, locked in a close embrace 3 A To fix firmly and rigidly jaws tightly locked, b (of machine, wheels &c) to jam, render immovable, prevent from revolving 4 To intertwine, interlace to lock fingers, arms, together B intrans To become locked the door locks automatically, to be capable of being locked the door won't lock, locks quite easily C Followed by adverb or preposition Lock away, trans, to put away in a locked receptacle Lock in, trans, to confine (person) in a room &c, the door of which is locked on the outside to prevent exit Lock into, trans, to put (person, or animal) into a room, stable &c, and lock the door on the outside Lock out, trans, to prevent from entering by locking door or gate on inside, specif, to prevent workmen from entering workshop &c to carry on their work, in an industrial dispute Lock up, a make secure, shut up, by locking doors &c to lock up one's house, to lock up for the night, to lock up one's papers, onlooker them in locked drawer, box, desk &c, Phr to lock oneself up in one's room &c, refuse to see anyone, hold oneself aloof and inaccessible, specif, to lock a person up, put him in prison, or in a lunatic asylum, to lock up one's money, put it into securities that cannot easily be converted into cash, b intrans, to secure house &c by locking doors &c lockage, n [1 lókaj, 2 lókidj] lock (II) & -age a Amount of obango in elevation effected by lock of canal, dock or river, b charge for passing vessel through a lock, c apparatus and works forming a lock locker, n [1 lóker, 2 lóke] lock (III) & -er 1 Person who locks 2 a Cupboard, drawer &c which can be locked, specif, one for private property, the owner of which keeps the key, b chest, compartment in a ship's cabin &c used to keep clothes &c in Phr to go to, be in, Davy Jones's locker, to be drowned at sea locket, n [1 lóket, 2 lókit], fr O Fr loquet, of Gmc origin See lock (II) & -et. Small metal case containing a miniature, lock of hair, or other relic, usually hung on a chain from neck, or from watch chain lock hospital, n Prob fr name of an old leper's hospital in London A hospital for the treatment of venereal diseases

Lockian, adj [1 lólian, 2 lólian] Connected with John Locke (1632-1704) or his philosophy lock-jaw, n Tetanus, spasmodic closure of the jaws, which remain locked, trismus lock-out, n Refusal by employer to allow work to continue, in an industrial dispute, until employees accept his terms, reverse of a workmen's strike locksmith, n [1 lóksmith, 2 lóksmith] Skilled workman who makes and repairs locks lock-stitch, n Stitch made by a sewing-machine, in which two threads are firmly fastened together lock-up, n & attrib adj 1 n a Time for locking up, stopping work &c, b place where arrested persons are temporarily confined 2 adj Capable of being locked up a lock up shed loco citato See locus

locomotion, n [1 lókhómóshun, 2 lókhómóshun] Lat loco abl case of locus, 'place' (see locus), & mōtiōn (em), 'a moving' See motion. Act or process of moving from one place to another, power to do this capacity for, power of locomotion, of walking, means of locomotion, of being transported from place to place locomotive, adj & n [1 lókhómōtiv, 2 lókhómōtiv] Lat loco, as in prec & motive, (II) 1 adj Endowed with power of locomotion locomotive power, locomotive engine, one which moves under its own power from place to place, as distinct from a stationary engine, esp one which draws trains along a railway 2 n A locomotive engine, specif an engine driven by steam, used for drawing trains on a railway locomotivity, n [1 lókhómōtívítá, 2 lókhómōtívítá] prec & -ity Capacity for locomotion locomotor, n & adj [1 lókhómōtor, 2 lókhómōtor] See prec & -or 1 n Person or thing having power of locomotion 2 adj Pertaining to locomotion, chiefly in locomotor ataxia (see ataxia), a progressive disease of the nervous system, takes dorsal, affecting lower part of spinal cord, and characterized by loss of control of lower limbs, and of power to co ordinate movements, which produces peculiarities of gait locomotory, adj [1 lókhómōtorí, 2 lókhómōtorí] See prec & -y Pertaining to, possessing, locomotion locular, adj [1 lókhúlar, 2 lókhúlá] Next word & -ar Pertaining to, resembling, having, lochn loculus, n, pl loculi [1 lókhúlus, -li, 2 lókhúlus, -li] Lat, 'a little place' See locus (biol) One of a number, or series of small cells locum tenens, n [1 lókhum téneus, 2 lókhum téneus] Lat, 'holding the place' See locus & tenant. One holding another's office temporarily, and acting as his deputy, esp of a doctor or clergyman locus, n [1 lókus, 2 lókus] Lat locus, 'place', older Lat alocus, the word is prob derived fr baso stel*, 'to place', op scrt sthal, 'place, locality', Gk stíllan, 'set in order, arrange, straggle', &c, stíllē, 'pillar', stílos, 'an expedition', O E stela, 'stalk, support', stellan, 'to set, place', further stille, 'at rest, quiet', O H G stilla, (see still (I)), stel* is itself an extension of baso st(h)ā*, 'to stand' See stand (I) & stato (I) Loco citato [1 lókhó sítátó, 2 lókhókou sítátó], in the passage quoted, abbrev loc cit Locus classicus [1 lókhús kláskus, 2 lókhús kláskus], etoch, standard, most authoritative passage in illustration of specified point or subject Locus poenitentiae [1 lókhús póenténshē, 2 lókhús póinténshē] 'place, opportunity, for repentance', opportunity permitted for withdrawing from a line of action before being finally committed to it. Locus sigill [1 lókhús sígill, 2 lókhús sítígill], 'place for the seal', on documents Locus standi [1 lókhús stándi, 2 lókhús stándi], 'place of standing', right to intervene in a lawsuit, recognized position locust, n [1 lókhust, 2 lókhast] Lat locusta, 'grasshopper, locust', cogn w lacertus, 'lizard' See lacertian, further w Gk lax, adv 'with the heel', & laktizein, 'to kick with the heel, to trample on', cp Lith laktis, 'to hop', also O N legg, q v under leg Locust, therefore, means orig, either 'the creature with long legs', or, 'the hopping insect' Large insect allied to grasshopper, which migrates in vast swarms in hot climates, and is especially destructive to crops of all kinds, (fig) a person of greedy, destructive tendencies locust bean, n Sweet edible pod of carob tree locust-tree, n a The false acacia, Robinia, b carob tree locution, n [1 lókhúshun, 2 lókhúshun] Lat locút o, fr loqui, 'to speak' See loquacious Style of speech, phrase, idiom locutory, n [1 lókhútorí, 2 lókhútorí] Med Lat locutórium, fr same base as prec, & -ory Room for conversation, esp in monasteries lode, n [1 lód, 2 lóud] Variant spelling of load (I), see also lead (IV) 1 Course, way Obsolete, except in English Place-Names, usually in form lade, o g Lechlade &c 2 Vein (of ore) lodestar, lodestar, n [1 lódstar, 2 lóudstár] a Star by which one steers, b (fig) object of attraction and pursuit, guiding ideal or principle lodestone, n See loadstone lodge (I), n [1 lój, 2 lódj] Fr loge, Ital loggia, fr Low Lat lauba, doublet of lobby, q v for further etymol 1 Habitation, dwelling, esp a small house at entrance to a park, or drive leading to a large house 2 The set of rooms in the chief gateway or entrance to a college or other important building, as at Oxford, e g the Porter's Lodge 3 A Local branch of certain societies and associations such as the Freemasons, b the building or actual room in which these hold their meetings, c the meeting itself 4 a The wigwam, a tent, of a N American Indian, b the lar or den built by a beaver or other lodge (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To dwell temporarily, occupy lodgings to lodge over a baker's 2 To enter and remain embedded or fixed (in) the bullet lodged in his brain B trans 1 a To afford lodging to, to house I can lodge you for a day or two, b to lodge a stag, to drive it to covert 2 To place, implant, lead to lodge a blow, to lodge a bullet 3 To deposit (money, security &c) for safe custody to lodge money in the bank 4 To lay a statement or accusation before legal authorities to lodge an accusation, complaint, charge (against a man), to lodge information lodged, adj. [1 loyd, 2 ladd], fr. PP of prec. (her, of a stag) lying on the ground with head erect

lodgement, n [1 loyment, 2 loddment] lodges & -ment 1 Place in which to lodge, lodgings, quarters 2 Accumulation of matter which has been deposited and become impacted and arrested, e.g. in a pipe or conduit 3 Act, process, of lodging, mode of coming to rest lodger, n. [1. lôjer, 2 lôdja] lodges & -er One who lodges in or inhabits a house, specif. a person who occupies premises or a portion of a house temporarily, on payment of weekly rent, the rest of the house being used by the owner or actual lessee to take in lodgers lodging(s), n [1 lôying(s), 2 lôdzing(s)] See prec. & -ing Room(s) in a house let temporarily to a lodger The Lodgings is sometimes the designation of an official residence, e.g. of certain heads of Oxford Colleges lodging-house, n One in which rooms are let by the week, common lodging house, one in which a man or woman can hire a bed for the night loess, n [1 lôes, lôa, 2 louis, lôa] Germ löss Fine siliceous and calcareous earth of brownish-yellow colour found esp. in N China, Central USA, and Central Europe loft (I), n [1 lawft, loft, 2 lôft, loft] ME, fr. ON loft, 'air, upper room', cogn. w. OHG luft, OE lyft, Goth luftus, 'air', origin unknown 1 a Chamber immediately below the roof of a building and above the ceilings of top floor, b space above stables, immediately under roof, chiefly used for storing hay and straw 2 (golf) a Slope on edge of golf-club which causes the ball to rise when struck, b a stroke which causes the ball to rise, lofting stroke loft (II), vb trans, fr. prec. 1 To place, store, in a loft 2 (golf) a To give a slope to the face of (a golf-club), b to strike (a ball) so as to cause it to rise and pass over an obstacle lofter, n [1 lawfter, 2 lôfta] prec. & -er Golf-club for lifting ball high into the air loftily, adv [1 lawftli, 2 lôftli] lofty & -ly In a lofty manner, a reaching to, situated at, a great height, b in a dignified or haughty manner loftiness, n [1 lawftines, 2 lôftines] See prec. & -ness Condition of being lofty, a great height, b nobility, elevation of aims and ideals, c pride, haughtiness, of manner lofting, n [1 lawfting, 2 lôfting] Timber used to form roof in a mine lofty, adj [1 lawfti, 2 lôfti] loft (I) & -y 1 Of great height (of objects, not of persons) a lofty mountain, spire, room, tree 2 (fig) a (of style, language, ideals, thoughts &c) Elevated, noble, dignified, sublime lofty diction, lofty principles, aims, lofty contempt &c, b (of bearing, manners) superior, dignified, with a touch of haughtiness or arrogance log (I), n [1 log, 2 log] ME logge, cp Swed logg, 'log', esp. as naut term Origia unknown 1 Rough mass of wood, strictly speaking unhewn, though it may be sawn into lengths, great or small Phrs to lie, fall, sleep like a log, unmovable or unconscious, in the log, rough, unhewn, to roll logs for a person, whence log-rolling, q.v., King Log, an inert, idle fellow in a position of command or leadership, refers to Aesop's fable of Jupiter and the Frogs 2 Apparatus used to measure and record speed of a ship through the water, originally a piece of floating wood attached to a knotted cord thrown out and reeled in at intervals Phr to heave the log, take speed of a ship by means of the log 3 (also log book) Record or journal kept on board a ship of the chief events connected with voyage, including results of reading the log, a ship's log doubtless began simply as a record of speed, longitude &c, and was extended to include other notable incidents of the trip log (II), vb trans, fr. prec. 1 a To cut (timber) into logs, b to haul (out timber). 2 a To enter in log book, as distance run by ship and other details of day's run, b (of ship) to cover (so many knots, distance) in day's run log (III), n Abbr. of logarithm loganberry, n. [1 lôganberi, 2 lôganberi], fr. name of Judge Logan, USA, who first produced the fruit in 1881 Plant bearing large dark red fruit much resembling the raspberry in appearance and taste, a hybrid between the raspberry and blackberry logan-stone, n [1 lôganstôn, 2 lôgan stôn] Provine dial log, 'to rock' Large stone so nicely balanced upon another that it can be rocked by touching logarithm, n [1 lôgsndhm, 2 lôgerdâm], fr. Gk logos, 'word, ratio' &c (see logo), & arithmos, 'number' (see arithmetic) (math) Exponent of power to which a given invariable number must be raised in order to produce another given number, logarithms are tabulated and are used to facilitate calculations logarithmic(al), adj [1 lôgarithmuk(l), 2 lôgarithmuk(l)] prec. & -ic Pertaining to, consisting of, logarithms logarithmically, adv prec. & -ly By means of logarithms log-book, n Record of ship's log, ship's diary or journal log-cabin, -house, -hut, n Small dwelling, house, made of undressed logs, as built in backwoods of America and Canada &c

-loger, suff. formed by adding er to Lat -logus & Gk logos (see -logy), now, except in astrologer, replaced by -logist logged, adj. [1 logd, 2 logd], fr. PP of log (II) Made heavy, esp. water-logged (of wood, boats) saturated with water so as to lose buoyancy, (of land) soaked, heavy, with water, marshy loggerhead, n [1 lôgerhed, 2 lôghed] 1 (obs.) Variant of obs. log-head A fool, stupid fellow, blockhead. Phr to be at loggerheads with, to fall out, have a disagreement, with a person 2 A small species of turtle loggia, n [1 lôja, 2 lôdja] Ital See lodge (I) & op lobby Kind of roofed verandah built on to front of house, and used as an out-of-doors sitting-room logging, n [1 loging, 2 lôgîng], fr. log (II) & -ing Business of felling, sawing up, and marketing timber logic, n [1 lôjik, 2 lôdzik] ME logike, fr. logique, fr. Lat logica, fr. Gk logikê (lekhnê), 'logic art', that is, the art of speaking and reasoning, fr. adj. logikê, 'belonging to speech or reasoning'. See logos & -ic 1 a Science of formal thought and of the laws according to which pure reasoning should be conducted Phr to chop logic, engage in pedantic argument, bandy words, b tristesse on logic Bradley's Logic 2 Mode of reasoning, chain of argument, good or bad his logic is unsound, shaky 3 Sound reasoning if that's not logic I don't know what is 4 Natural and necessary chain of causes and effects the logic of fate, of events logical, adj [1 lôjikl, 2 lôdzikl] prec. & -al a Belonging to, imbued with, in accordance with, the principles of logic a logical mind, logical argument, b necessary as result of what has gone before the logical result of one's acts &c, c consistent logical conduct, action

-logical, suff. to form adjs fr. ns ending in -logy, as geological &c logically, adv [1 lôjikali, 2 lôdzikali] See logical & -ly. In a logical manner logician, n [1 lôjishan, 2 lôdzishan] Fr logicien See logic & -ian One skilled in logic, a professor of, writer on, the science logie, n [1 lôgi, 2 lôugi] Prob fr. name of inventor Ornament of sham jewellery used in theatres logion, n, pl logia [1 lôgion, lôgia, 2 lôgion, lôgia] Gk, 'a saying', fr. logos Saying of Jesus Christ preserved elsewhere than in the Gospels

-logist, suff. to form ns by addition of -ist to words w. suff. -logy, as geologist &c logistic, adj & n [1 lôjistik, 2 lôdzistik] Gk logistikê, 'skilled in calculation', skilled in reasoning' See logos, -ist, & -ic a adj Skilled in logic, b n, art of calculation logistics, n pl, fr. Fr logistique, fr. loger, 'to lodge' See lodge (II) (mil) Science and practice of moving, lodging, and supplying troops logo-, pref. Form of Gk logos (see logos) used in compounds, denoting speech, discourse, thought logodaedaly, n [1 lôgôdâdali, 2 lôgôudâdali] Gk logodaidalia See prec. & daedal & -y (rare) Skill in playing with words, verbal jugglery, used by Coleridge logogram, n [1 lôgôgram, 2 lôgougram] logo- & -gram Sign or letter representing a word logograph, n [1 lôgôgrâf, 2 lôgougrâf] logo- & -graph Logogram logograph, n [1 lôgôgrâf, 2 lôgougrâf] logo- & Gk grâphos, 'drawing-net, something in treatise, a riddle' Etymol. doubtful Word puzzle logomachy, n [1 lôgomaki, 2 lôgmaki] logo- & -mâchy A dispute in, or concerning, words logometric, adj [1 lôgômetrik, 2 lôgoumetrik] logo- & -metric (chem) Serving to represent graphically chemical equivalents logos, n [1 lôgos, 2 lôgôs] Gk logos, 'word by which inward thought is expressed, a story, eloquence, the thought itself, reason, calculation, proportion', cogn. w. Gk legen, 'to pick out, to count, reckon, to tell, narrate, to speak', near cogn. of Lat legere, 'to pick out, choose, read' &c See legend, lecture, legate, legible (theol) The Divine Word, Christ logotype, n [1 lôgôtip, 2 lôgoutip] logo- & -type (typog) Several letters, or a word cast in a single body log-roll, vb trans See log (I) To pursue the art of log-rolling, q.v.

log-roller, n prec. & -er One who log rolls log-rolling, n See prec. & -ing Act or process in which a group of friends and professed admirers of each other's literary or artistic talents combine to praise and puff each other, by word of mouth and in reviews, thus establishing a fictitious reputation for all members of the coterie

-logue, suff. derived through Fr fr. Gk words ending in -logos, -logon (cp -logy), as epilogue, dialogue &c log-wood, n So called because it reaches this country in large logs Also called Campeschy wood, a tree from Central America and W Indies of order of Leguminosae, b chips of this tree used for producing a black dye, and also, it is supposed, for imparting a rich colour to inferior port wine

-logy, suff. fr. Gk -logia, fr. lôgos, 'speech' &c, used in many compounds, old and recent, to denote, a pronouncement, utterance, speech, as in eulogy, tautology, b treatise, science, doctrine, as in physiology, philology loimic, adj [1 lôimik, 2 lôimik] Gk loimikê, adj, fr. loimê, 'pestilence', cogn. w. Gk limos, 'hunger', fr. base lê*, whence also Lat lêum, 'death, destruction' See lethal Pertaining to plague or pestilence loin(s), n [1 lôin(s), 2 lôin(s)], fr. Fr loigne, Lat lumbus, 'loin', cogn. w. OE lenden(u), 'loins' See also lumber 1 a (anat) That part of an animal or human being, just above the hip, on either side of the spine, b this part of animal considered as a table joint loin of mutton, veal Phr to gird up one's loins, make ready for action 2 (fig) The loins considered as the region of procreation, a race, family, or individual is said to be springing from the loins of the founder of the stock loin-cloth, n Strip of material worn round the loins by primitive peoples loir, n [1 loir, 2 lóir] Fr, fr Lat glivem, acc of glis, 'dormouse'. Species of large dormouse with a bushy tail like that of a squirrel loiter, vb intrans & trans [1 loiter, 2 lóir] Cp Du leuteren, 'to delay, linger' a intrans To linger, lag behind, to hang about in an idle manner, to loaf, to delay, dally, over an occupation, b trans, to loiter away one's time, waste it in idleness and dilatoriness loiterer, n [1 loiterer, 2 lóirer] Prec & -er One who loiters, lingerer, dawdler loll, vb intrans & trans [1 lol, 2 lol] Cp O.N lolla, 'to act lazily' a intrans 1 To sit, or stand, propped against some support, in an attitude suggestive of idleness and inactivity, to lounge to loll in a chair, to loll against a wall, to loll about doing nothing 2 (of the tongue) To hang out, as from exhaustion B trans Allow to protrude, or to hang forward to loll the tongue (out), to loll the head forward

Lollard, n [1 lollard, 2 lolard] Du. lollaerd, 'a mumbler', esp of prayers & psalms, fr lollen, 'mumble'. See also lull Member of a sect of fanatical heretics who existed in England in 14th and 15th cents Lollards were the followers of John Wyclif (1324-84), their doctrines anticipated some of those of the advanced Protestantism of a later day Lollards' Tower, place of imprisonment formerly attached to Episcopal residences for the convenient keeping of those guilty or suspected of heresy

Lollardism, Lollardy, ns [1 lollardism, -di, 2 lollardism, -di] Prec & -ism, -y System of religious doctrine adopted by Lollards lollipop, n [1 lollipop, 2 lólipop] Childish word, now hardly in actual use among any class of speakers in England, o sweetmeat (usually in pl.)

lollop, vb intrans & n [1 lollop, 2 lólop] Cp loll 1 vb To walk or run in a clumsy, flopping manner, (not a common word), also lollop along 2 n A movement of this kind in walking &c lolloping, adj [1 lolloping, 2 lóloppin] Characterized by a lollop a lolloping wall, movement, action

Lombard, n & adj [1 lombard, lombard, 2 lambad, lumbad] Fr, fr Lat Lango bard, name of a Germanic people who invaded Italy in 568, the name was traditionally supposed to be derived from the words corresponding to long & beard. 1 n a member of this tribe, b an inhabitant of Lombardy, c formerly a banker or moneylender, from the fame of the Lombards in these capacities, Lombard Street in London is still a great banking centre 2 adj Belonging to, derived from, Lombardy or the Lombards

Lombardesque, adj [1 lombardesk, 2 lmbadesk] Prec & -esque Belonging to the Lombard school of Renaissance artists

Lombardic, adj [1 lombárdik, 2 lumbddik] See prec & -ic Pertaining to Lombardy or the Lombards, specif a of early architecture, b of Renaissance painters

Lombardy poplar, n [1 lombardi, lombardi poplar, 2 lambadi, lumbadi popl] A tall graceful kind of poplar, a variety of the black poplar, growing in a pyramidal or cypress like shape loment n [1 lóment, 2 lóment] Lat lomentum a cosmetic of bean meal & rice used by Roman ladies for cleansing & preserving the skin, perf fr typo lō, as in lō-, PP of lavare, 'to wash' (see lave & lotion), & mentum (see -ment) (bot) Seed pod like that of pea or bean, but containing each seed in the row in a well marked division separating it from those next it lomentaceous adj [1 lómentashos, 2 lómentajos] Prec & -aceous (bot) Bearing loment's, like a loment

Londoner, n [1 luduner, 2 landene] In habitant of London

Londonism, n [1 lóndunizm, 2 lóndunizm] Trick of manner, or (esp) of speech peculiar to London

London pride, n [1 lundun prid, 2 lóndun praid] A kind of saxifrage, Saxifraga umbrosa

Londres, n [1 londrez, 2 lóndrez] Span for London Trade name for a cigar of a particular cylindrical shape lone, adj [1 lón, 2 lóun] Ahbr fr alone a Solitary, by oneself a lone female, b remote, separated from others, lying apart a lone waste loneliness, n [1 lónlines, 2 lóunlinis] See next word & -ness The condition of being lonely lonely, adj [1 lónli, 2 lóunli] lone & -ly a (of persons) Solitary, conscious of solitude, Phr to feel lonely, to be conscious of, and regret, solitude, b (of things) isolated, remote from men and life a lonely house, inn, wood, a lonely life, one led apart from society lonesome, adj [1 lónsum, 2 lóunsum] lone & -some Lonely lonesomely, adv Prec & -ly In a lonesome state lonesomeness, n See prec & -ness State of being lonesome long (I), adj [1 long, 2 lón] OE lång, ME lång, common to all Gmc languages, & cogn w Lat longus, M Ir long The view that the original form was dlongos*, & that these words were cogn w Gk dolikhós, see dolichocephalic, is now questioned by Walde, because of the Ir form, which he dlong*, since dl remains in Celt, on the other hand, the Ir form may be a direct loan fr Lat & not derived fr the orig Celt 1 (of distance and length) Extended for a considerable way, having prolonged extension, occupying much space from starting-point to termination, not short a long way to go, a long distance, long legs, long hair, a long nose &c, a long journey, one in which much ground is traversed, Phrs the, a long arm, far reaching power, to make a long arm, stretch out for, make an effort to reach something, a long face, dismal, lugubrious face, (to make) a long nose, vulgar, insulting gesture made with the thumb touching the nose, and the fingers spread out, to have a long tongue, he inclined to talk too much, long views, prevision, foresightedness, at long range, from a distance, to have a long wind, capacity to run far without getting out of breath, a long purse, plenty of money, long manure, composed largely of unrotted straw, long home, the grave, long bow, (cricket) ball which pitches some way in front of the batsman, long jump, one estimated by distance covered between taking off and alighting, long leo, fielder in outfield on leg side of batsman at cricket, long pig, pork, human flesh as eaten by cannibals, long clothes, first type of frocks worn by babies, long clay pipe, one with long stem 2 (of time) a Having considerable duration, continued during an extended period, drawn, spun, out, protracted a long life, rent, writ, reign, winter, night, b occupying a considerable time, taking much time to enact or complete a long war, debate, lecture, play, also, of speech, diffuse, prolix Phrs in the long run, as a total result, to cut a long story short, abbreviate it and come to the point, a long lool, lingering, o long farewell, one before a long separation, Long Vacation, the summer vacation of Law Courts and Universities &c, c appearing to last for considerable time, passing slowly, by reason of impatience, anxiety, difficulties felt or undergone although the actual period of time may be fixed and definite, hence, tedious, vainsome, too long long years of misery, the long hair dragged slowly by, the days never seemed long, so full of interest were they 3 (of a series, list enumeration) Containing many items, a long bill, an excessive, exorbitant bill 4 Having a specific extension in time or space an hour long 5 feet long 5 (phon) Long vowel, consonant, one the actual articulation of which continues for a longer space of time than a short vowel or consonant in the same language, length applied to sounds of language is a relative term, long syllable, one containing a long vowel, a diphthong, or a long or short vowel followed by two consonants, the phrase long by position, used of a short vowel in Latin, is inaccurate, the syllable is long because it contains two consonants, though the vowel remains short 6 (prosody) Applied to genuine quantitative metres the terms long vowel, or syllable, correspond approximately to the phonetic usage, but in stress metres, such as those of English, the terms are often applied to vowels or syllables which have stress, as distinct from the unstressed, or weak Long measure, octosyllabic quatrains with alternate rhymes long (II), adv See prec 1 For a long time to live, last, long, I have long been meaning to write stay (for) as long as you like 2 A point of time remote from that specified, whether before or after long before you were born, long after his death Phrs long since, long ago, at a time in the past remote from the present 3 (in compar) After, beyond a specified point of time wait a while longer, no longer, any longer, superl Phr (a week) at longest, not more than a week at most long (III), n, fr long (I) 1 (mus) A long note, (phon and prosody) a long sound or syllable 2 The Long, Long Vacation long (IV), vb intrans OE langian, ME langen See long (I) 1 a To be filled with a strong yearning for something, to feel a strong regretful desire to sit at home and long day after day, b (followed by infin.) to desire earnestly, have continuous and powerful yearning to do something to long to go away, to long to see, forget, be told &c 2 Long for, to yearn for, desire earnestly to possess or obtain, to desire, want, hanker after, crave for to long for something to eat, for a change, for fresh air, for something new &c, also (archaic) long after

-long, suff O.N langr, adv snff wh has now displaced Engl -ling headlong, sidelong longanimity, n [1 longgonimiti, 2 longonimiti] L Lat longanimitas (em), fr longus, see under long, & anima, 'spirit', see animal, animus, & -ity Long suffering, patient endurance long-boat, n Largest boat carried on a sailing ship longbow, long bow, n [1 lónghō, 2 lónghow] Bow drawn by hand, as distinct from crossbow, formerly made the same length as the height of the archer Phr to draw the long bow, make exaggerated statements longcloth, n [1 longklawth, 2 lónkláp] A thick, tough cloth of cotton long-eared, adj Having long ears longeron, n [1 lonzheron 2 lózer] Fr Any one of the longitudinal members of the body or fuselage of an aeroplane longevity, n [1 lonjéviti, 2 lóndzéviti] See next word & -ity Prolonged duration of life, specif, prolongation of life beyond the ordinary period longevous, longeval, adj [1 lonjévus, al, 2 lóndzéus, -al] Lat longaevus, fr longus, 'long' (see long), & aevum, see age Long lived long firm, n A fraudulent business which obtains goods on long credit and sells them at once at reduced prices without paying for them longhand, n [1 long hand, 2 lónhænd] Ordinary handwriting, contrasted with shorthand long-headed, adj 1 Having a skull that is long in proportion to its breadth, dolichocephalo 2 (fig) Shrewd, sensible, wide awake long-headedness, n Prec & -ness a State of being dolichocephalic, shrewdness, common sense longi-, pref Form of Lat longus, 'long', used in compounds before consonants. See long.

longicorn, adj [1 lónjɪkɔrn; 2 lónɔjɪkɔrn] Prec & Lat cornu, 'horn'. See corn (III) (zool.) Having long antennae.

longing, vbl n [1 lónjɪŋ, 2 lónjɪŋ] long (IV) & -ing Strong desire, yearning, aspiration.

longipennis, adj [1 lónjɪpénɪt, 2 lónɔjɪpénɪt] See longi- & pen (III) & -ate. Having long wings.

longirostral, adj [1 lónjɪrɔstrəl, 2 lónɔjɪrɔstrəl] See longi- & rostrum & -al (zool.) Having a long bill, belonging to the Longirostres, group of birds with long slender bills, such as the osprey, snipe &c. longish, adj [1 lónjɪʃ, 2 lónjɪʃ] long (X) & -ish Rather long.

longitude, n [1 lónjɪtɪd, 2 lónɔjɪtɪd] Lat longitudo, 'length', fr longus. See long (X) (geog.) Distance in degrees from given meridian, esp fr that of Greenwich.

longitudinal, adj & n [1 lónjɪtɪdɪnəl, 2 lónɔjɪtɪdɪnəl] fr Lat longitudo & -al (em) See prec & -al. 1 adj Pertaining to longitude. 2 n Long girder running lengthwise in a ship.

longitudinally, adv Prec & -ly According to, in terms of, longitude.

long-lived, adj Inclined to live long, having a long life, living long, lasting a long-lived family, long-lived happiness.

long primer, n [1 lónjɪ pɪmər, 2 lónjɪ pɪmər] (typog.) A size of type which occupies 7½ lines to the inch.

longshoreman, n [1 lónjɪʃórmən, 2 lónjɪʃórmən] For along- & shore A man who works on wharves at seaport, loading and unloading vessels &c., b a shore, as opposed to a deep sea, fisherman, c (colloq.) man who hangs about the shore at seaside resorts, doing odd jobs, helping with pleasure boats &c.

long-sighted, adj A ble to see objects at a distance, b having foresight, far-seeing, sagacious.

long-sightedly, adv Prec & -ly In a long-sighted manner.

long-sightedness, n See prec & -ness. A capacity for seeing distant objects, b foresight.

longspun, adj [1 lónjɪspun, 2 lónjɪspun] Spun out, tedious.

long-suffering, adj Enduring insult, injuries &c. with patience and resignation.

long-waisted, adj a (of human beings) Long between the lower ribs and the hips, b (of garments) having the line of the waist made low down.

long-winded, adj [1 lónjɪ wɪndəd, 2 lónjɪ wɪndəd] a Able to run fast and far without getting out of breath, b (fig.) given to speaking at a tedious length, diffuse, prolix.

loo, n & vb [1 lóo, 2 lóo] Abbr of lantern, fr lantern, orig the refrain of a song. 1 n A card game for a pool composed of stakes and various forfeits, played with three or five cards dealt to each player from the pack with a 'miss', b forfeit paid for not taking a trick. 2 vb To compel to pay loo to the pool.

looby, n [1 lóobɪ, 2 lóobɪ] Cp lubber A fool, a half-witted person.

loofah, n [1 lóofə, 2 lóofə] fr Arab lufah, name of the plant Fibrous skeleton of tropical plant, Luffa, of the pumpkin tribe, used as a means of applying soap and friction to the person in a bath.

look (I), vb intrans [1 lók, 2 lók] OE locan, ME lōken, lōken, OE lōken, OHG lōgan, 'spy out'. See lynx. A 1 To use the eyesight with attention, direct the glance with intention of seeing, gaze, stare I don't look till I tell you, I did it while he wasn't looking, Phr look before you leap, don't act without full consideration, b semi-trans in to look unutterable things, express by one's manner of looking, to look daggers at, shoot an angry look at, look a gift horse in the mouth, find fault with a present. 2 To have the appearance of, give the impression of being, seem to be a (followed by adj) to look ill, worried, unhappy &c., b (followed by n) look (like), he looks (like) a perfect fool, like a gentleman, a clever fellow, an honest man, Phrs to look black, angry, to look blue, discontented, and depressed, c (impers construction) it looks like, promises, suggests coming of it looks like rain, it looks as though, seems, appears, as though, gives impression of probability that it looks as though we should have a storm. B Followed by adverb or preposition. Look about, to glance round, to take one's bearings, examine situation and surroundings, also look about one. Look after, to take care of, protect, watch over. Look at, 1 to direct glance at, fix attention upon, consider, gaze at to look at the view, Phrs a cat may look at a king, I, he, &c., wouldn't look at (an offer, proposal &c.), would despise, refuse, reject, 2 to pay special attention to, examine carefully with the object of improving, repairing, explaining, or the like the plumber has come to look at the pipes, I wish you would look at this sentence, I can't make it out. Look down on, upon, to despise, be indifferent to. Look for, 1 to seek, try to find, search for, 2 to expect, anticipate I don't look for much profit from the business, it is too soon to look for results as yet. Look forward to, to anticipate, expect, await, with pleasure. Look in (on), to visit, pay a visit to, call on. Look into, to inspect, examine, carefully. Look on, 1 intrans, to be a spectator, to watch he merely looked on and did nothing, 2 trans, (archaic) also look upon, to look at, gaze upon, consider, to look on as, regard, consider to look on a person as an authority. Look out, a to be on one's guard, be careful I've warned you, so now look out, b to direct sight, attention, outwards or out of look out of the window. Look to, 1 to be careful of, take heed to just look to it that this doesn't happen again, 2 to appeal to, rely upon, count on, resort to I look to you to put things right, to look to a person for help. Look towards (vulg colloq.) I look towards you, drink your health. Look up, 1 intrans, a to aspire, b to improve, enter upon more prosperous phase business is looking up, 2 trans, a to call upon, drop in on look me up when you are in town, b to refer to, turn up (in book of reference &c.) to look up a date, an address &c., to look a person up and down, stare at, examine his appearance with most careful scrutiny. Look up to, to respect, regard with veneration to look up to one's teachers.

look (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of looking, a a glance he shot an angry look at his wife, b an examination, scrutiny, conducted by the eye to have a look at the paper, at a passing show &c. 2 A expression of the eyes or countenance generally an ugly look in his eye, on his face, b appearance of a person or living thing, impression conveyed by this to, made on, another, mien, demeanour I don't like the look of him, he has a mean, shabby look, (also pl) good looks, beauty, handsome appearance, c impression produced by inanimate objects the house had a dismal look, d appearance of, impression produced by, oreats, circumstances, a situation &c affairs look on an ugly look.

looker-on, n [1 lóokər ɒn, 2 lóokər ɒn] A spectator, one who watches an action or an event, but takes no active part Phr lookers on see most of the game.

looking, adj [1 lóokɪŋ; 2 lóokɪŋ], fr Prec Part of look (I) Having a specified appearance, chiefly in compounds, the first element of which is an adj good-looking, cross looking, wrinkled-looking &c.

looking-glass, n A glass mirror.

look-out, n [1 lóok ɒt, 2 lóok ɒt] 1 State of watchfulness, observation, wary vigilance, esp in such Phrs as to keep a good look out, to be on the look-out (for), to be wary and cautious, to expect, watch for &c., that's my look-out, my business, something only concerning myself. 2 A Prospect, view a wonderful look-out over the sea, b (fig.) prospects for the future, situation of affairs as likely to affect one's fortunes it is a bad look-out for me.

look-see, n [1 lóok sɪ, 2 lóok sɪ] (slang) A hasty glance at, cursory examination of you'd better take, have, a look see round the place before you go.

loom (I), n [1 lóom, 2 lóom] OE (ge)lōma, 'tool, utensil', ME lōme, 'tool, instrument', op also OE andlōman, (pl) 'nteasils'. Etymol doubtful, but the word may be cogn w Gk lōma, 'ham, border of a garment', the same base 'lō' may perh be traced in Lat lōdiz, 'a blanket, counterpane', cp also OHG lōdo, 'coarse cloth'.

1 Machine for weaving thread or yarn into cloth. 2 That part of the shaft of an oar which lies when in use between the rowlock and the handle.

loom (II), vb intrans Etymol unknown. 1 a To appear gradually and indistinctly, to emerge, come into view, start up, slowly, esp as a vague and shadowy shape the ship loomed through the mist, fog, the mountain tops loomed through the clouds, b (of non material things) to appear and seem to menace dangers and anxieties looming ahead. 2 Loom large, a to appear with its size as though distorted and exaggerated by the atmosphere, to seem to menace, b (fig., of non material things) to appear of great importance, fill the mind his own private troubles loom very large just now.

loom (III), n, fr ON lōmr A guillemot, a puffin, also called 'loon'.

looming, adj [1 lóomɪŋ, 2 lóomɪŋ] loom (II) & -ing Appearing vaguely, menacing.

loon, n [1 lóon, 2 lóon] Scots, earlier lovn, op DN loen, 'stupid person' a lovn, a clumsy, uncomely fellow, a boor, b guillemot, puffin, loom.

loony, n [1 lóoni, 2 lóoni] For lunatic (colloq.) A crazy, half-witted person.

loop (I), n [1 lóop, 2 lóop] In ME, immediate origin unknown, etymologists cp Ir lúb, 'to bend', & suggest a remote connexion w slip. 1 A fold, bend, in a cord, string, wire, or other long flexible line like object, formed by bending over one end and making it fast to the line below the bend, leaving a circular opening, through which another cord, or the other end of the same one, can be passed. 2 (railways) A hae, loop line, which branches out of the main line of railway, runs in a curve, and joins the main line again at a point farther on.

loop (II), vb trans & intrans. See prec. 1 trans To form, bend, into a loop Phr (aeron) loop the loop, to fly in the direction of a curve, down, round, and upwards again, so that the line of the imaginary loop is completely closed, during the operation the machine is for a moment upside down. 2 intrans To form into, become, a loop or loops.

looper, n [1 lóoper, 2 lóoper] Prec & -er Kind of caterpillar of a geometer moth, which in moving along forms a series of arches or loops with its body.

loophole, n [1 lóophól, 2 lóophól] Cp MDu lupen, 'to peer'. 1 Slit in masonry of a wall, made to admit light and air also for looking and firing through. 2 (fig.) Means of opportunity for evasion or escape, a basis of excuse.

loose (I), adj [1 lóos, 2 lóos] ME lōs, also lous, in mod sense, fr ON lōs, 'loose, free, unmixed, not binding, vacant; absolved, dissolute', the various meanings agree pretty fully w those of the word in Mod. Engl., the ON word is cogn w OE lōs, 'devoid of, false &c (acc-less)' the same base is in Lat lōre, 'to atone for', expiate &c., Gk lōen, 'to unfasten, slacken', expiate, set free', cp lōus, 'settling free, deliverance', see -lysis. See also lose 1 Free, not under restraint or confinement, able to move about at pleasure, not tied up the pigs are loose in the garden Phrs to break loose, escape from confinement, to let loose, allow to go free, release, unchain &c., (fig) to let loose one's indignation &c.; to get loose, manage to escape, shake oneself loose, to go loose, move about without restriction, loose cash, securities &c., easily available, not locked up, to carry things loose in one's hand, separate, not packed or fastened together 2 Reverse of tight, a not fully stretched, not drawn tight, slack o loose collar, belt &c., Phr (to ride) with a loose rein, (fig) to handle, manage, a person mildly and indulgently, b giving ample room, not fitting tight or clinging close o loose coat, robe, boot &c. 3 (of the mind and its activities) Not rigidly logical, not strictly accurate, incoherent, ill defined, (of style and expression) vague, inexact, slipshod 4 a (of conduct) Not properly controlled, not in accordance with morality, lax, dissolute, lewd to lead a loose life, loose morals, Phr a loose fish, immoral person, b (of principles, character) lax, unscrupulous, dishonourable loose morality, loose ideas of the truth, c (of physical action) inaccurate, careless loose bowling, fielding &c., a loose ball, one that can be hit freely 5 a (of fabrics) Not dense, not tightly woven or compact, (fig) a loose (human) frame, joints, not closely knit, b not closely sobering, having particles separate and distinct loose soil &c., c (of the fleshy tissues) flabby, slack, not braced and tense, pendulous loose cheeks, lips 6 a Not fitting snugly into its place, liable to shake and rattle, having too much play a loose window, door, b not firmly embedded a loose tooth, nail, Phrs to have a screw loose, to be somewhat unsound in mind or morals, there's a screw loose somewhere, something wrong, underhand, insecure &c., o not properly packed, liable to shift eggs loose in a box, d not firmly tied, liable to come unfastened a loose package, knot &c., Phrs to play fast and loose, to behave unscrupulously or evasively, a loose end (of a rope), that which is not attached to anything, a loose end, (fig) not specifically occupied, perplexed, in disorder 7 (of the bowels) Relaxed, inclined to diarrhoea loose (II), adv, fr prec Loosely, chiefly in Phrs to let loose, metaphor from riding, to be only slightly affected or influenced by, to maintain attitude of detachment respecting, to come loose, come unfastened, untied, work loose (of bolt, screw &c.), become loosened by strain, play of movement &c.

loose (III), vb trans, fr loose (L) 1 To unfasten, untie, undo to loose a knot the fastening of a window &c. 2 a To let loose, release from restraint or control, Phr (fig) his tongue was loosed by drink, b to let go, free, detach (a boat from its moorings, a rope from the object to which it is attached), Phr to loose one's hold, relax, let go 3 To let fly, discharge (an arrow), to fire (a gun, shot), also loose off 4 (absol) To absolve, pardon, release from results of sin priests have power to bind and to loose.

loose (IV), n, fr prec In Phr to give a loose to (one's) passions, feelings, anger &c., remove restraint from, allow free outlet, expression loose-box, n. Stable in which a horse is left free to move about, he down &c., instead of being tied up as in a stall loosely, adv [1 lóshli, 2 lúshli] loose (L) & -ly In a loose manner (various senses) loosen, vb trans & intrans [1 lóshn, 2 lúshn] loosa & -en. 1 trans a To make loose or looser, to unfasten, untie to loosen girths, one's collar, loosen the reins &c., b (fig) to relax, render less strict and severe to loosen discipline. Phr to loosen one's grip of, one's hold on, to grasp less tightly, let go (physic ally or intellectually) 2 intrans To become loose or looser loosestrife n [1 lóshtrif, 2 lúshtrif], fr translation of Lat lysismachia, fr Gk lúsmakhion, op proper name Lysimachos, as if fr lúein, 'to loose' (see -lysis), & makhé, 'battle' (see -marchy) Popular name of a any of several species of primulaceous plants, genus Lysimachia, esp L. vulgaris, with erect stem and clusters of yellow flowers; b the purple loosestrife, Lythrum calcearia, belonging to a different order, with spikes of rosy or purple flowers loot, n & vb trans & intrans [1 lóot, 2 lút] Hind lúl, fr Sert lólam, 'booty' Cp lucra 1 n Plunder, spoils of war, booty 2 vb a To plunder, despoil, sack (a city, camp &c.), b to seize as booty in war, to appropriate by a lawless action lop (I), vb trans & n [1 lop, 2 lop] Origin unknown, apparently only in Engl 1 vb To chop, hew, cut, to shorten by chopping, to trim (trees and bushes), also lop off (a bough &c.), also to hack, slice, off (an arm, head &c.), expresses the act of chopping off with one stroke 2 n a Act of lopping, b parts of a tree that have been lopped off lop (II), vb intrans & trans Prob imitative 1 intrans a To hang down, to droop, to flop, esp of an animal's ears, b to move about, or along, with a clumsy or halting gait, resembling that of a rabbit or hare when moving slowly 2 trans (rare) To caress, allow (ears), to lop lope, vb intrans & trans & n [1 lóp, 2 loup], fr ON kloupa Sea leap 1 vb a intrans To move with a bounding, cantering pace or gait, b trans, to cause to lope 2 n An easy, bounding, cantering pace lop-eared, adj Having lop ears lop-ears, n pl Pendulous, drooping, ears lopho-, pref Form of Gk lóphos, 'crest, tuft', used in compounds, perh oogn w alp lophobranchiate, adj & n [1 lóphóbrangkhat, 2 lóufóbrangkhat] Prec & branchiate (zool) a adj Having gills in tufts on the branchial arches b n Order of small fishes (including sea horses) having gills so placed lophodont, adj & n [1 lófódont, 2 lóufódont] lopho- & odont- a adj Having transverse ridges on upper surface of molar teeth, b n, an animal having teeth of this kind, e g the ungulates and rodents loppings, n pl [1 lópingz, 2 lópingz], fr lop (I) & -ing Portions lopped off from trees &c., trummings lop-sided, adj, fr lop (II) & -side Un evenly balanced, or appearing to be unevenly balanced, larger on one side than on the other, asymmetrical, hanging lower on one side than on the other lop-sidedly, adv Prec & -ly In a lop sided manner lop-sidedness, n See prec & -ness State of being lop sided loquacious, adj [1 lókwáshus, 2 lóukwáshes] Lat loquaci, stem of loquax, talkative, & -ous Cp Lat loquor, 'I speak', fr laquor*, oogn w Gk laíen for lalé*, 'to creak, shriek, shout, speak loud', cp OS lahan, OE lān, fr lāhan*, to find fault with Talkative, inclined to chatter, garrulous loquaciously, adv Prec & -ly In a loquacious manner loquaciousness, n See prec & -ness Habit of constant talking, garrulity loquacity, n [1 lókwásh, 2 lóukwáshes] Lat loquaci, as in loquacious & -ty Talkativeness, garrulity loquat n [1 lókwat, 2 lóukwát], fr Chin. Loquat, medlar The Japanese medlar, an evergreen flowering shrub, with small reddish clustered fruit of sharp taste loquitur, vb intrans [1 lókwiter, 2 lókwíte] Lat 3rd pers pres indic sing of loqui, 'to speak' See loquacious He, or she, speaks (in stage directions) lor, interj [1 lor, 2 ló] For lord (colloq) Chiefly O Lor!, exclamation of surprise or annoyance loral, adj [1 lóral, 2. lóral], fr lore (II) &

-al. (zool) Of, pertaining to, the lore in birds or reptiles lorate, adj [1 lórat, 2 lórent], fr Lat loratus, fr lorum, 'thong, strap' Cp lore (II) (bot, of leaves) Having the shape of a strap or thong lorcha, n [1 lóroha, 2 lóts] Port, possibly corrupt of Malay word A light sailing-vessel of the Far East, with lug sails like a junk, but built on European lines lord (I), n [1 lord, 2 ló] OE hlāford, 'lord, master', fr hlāf, 'loaf, bread', & weard, 'guardian' Sea lord (I) & ward (I), see also lady 1 (gen sense) Superior, ruler, governor, master, in such Phrs as Lord of hosts, Lord of all, all things, God; Lord of miracle, master of revels 2 a The Lord, the supreme ruler, God, b form of invocation of the Deity, Lord have mercy upon us &c., Phrs O Lord!, Good Lord!, exclamations of surprise, annoyance &c., Lord knows who, someone or other, no one in particular, c Our Lord, the second Person of the Trinity, the Saviour, Phrs the year of Our Lord, counted from the birth of Christ, Anno Domini, the Lord's Supper, the Eucharist, Lord's Table, (i) altar in a church; (ii) the Service of the Altar, the Eucharist; the Lord's Day, Sunday, the Lord's Prayer, 'Our Father', Pater noster 3 In reference to the King our sovereign lord King George.

4 A feudal superior, person from whom an estate is held lord of the manor, of the soil; lord paramount, the overlord 5 a A peer, a member of the House of Lords, Phrs to make a man a lord usually means to raise him to the peerage, drunk as a lord, very drunk, lords spiritual, bishops in House of Lords, lords temporal, the other peers, b person holding the title of lord, whether a peer of Parliament or not, e g a Scottish or Irish peer, c my Lord [1 ml lórd, 2 ms lórd], form of address to bishops (always), and from inferiors to marquises, earls, viscounts, barons, whether these are peers, or elder sons bearing their fathers' second titles by courtesy, also to lord mayors, lord provosts, to judges of the High Court when on the Bench, and to younger sons of all peers above the rank of earl, my lord is now only used on formal and ceremonial occasions, except in addressing bishops, and High Court judges when in Court, and in otherwise omitted by gentlemen meeting lords socially on a basis of equality, d persons bearing any of the above titles are usually referred to, as Lord X rather than as the Marquis of, Earl of, or Viscount X &c. 6 Prefixed to the names of various officials Lord of the Bedchamber, Lord Steward, Lord High Commissioner, Lord President of the Council, Lord Privy Seal, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports &c., also of chief members of certain great departments of state, as Civil, Naval, Lords of the Admiralty, of the Treasury lord (II), vb, fr prec Chiefly lord it, to play the lord, assume airs of importance and authority, lord it over, to assert authority over, rule, behave arrogantly and dictatorially to Lord Chamberlain, n A peer and privy councillor who governs and directs business connected with Royal household, issues invitations &c.

Lord Chancellor (of England), n (in full, Lord High Chancellor) Chief officer of state president of House of Lords, and Keeper of the Great Seal, ranking, after the Archbishop of Canterbury, immediately below princes of the blood

Lord Chief Justice (of England), n Presiding judge of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice lordless, adj [1 lordles, 2 lódlis] Without a chat or lord.

Lord-Lieutenant, n. 1 The former Viceroy of Ireland, now Governor General of the Free State of N Ireland (Ulster) 2 Head of the magistracy in a county lordliness, n [1 lórdlɪnəs, 2 lórdlɪnɪs]. lordly & -ness a Splendour, magnificence, b generosity, lavishness, c haughtiness, overbearing demeanour lordling, n [1 lórdlɪŋ, 2 lórdlɪŋ] lord & -ling a young or unimportant lord lordly, adj [1 lórdli, 2 lórdli] lord & -ly a In keeping with the position, wealth & of a lord, magnificent, b lavish, generous, open-handed a lordly banquet, bequest, c haughty, lofty, arrogant, overbearing

Lord Mayor, n Chief magistrate, the Mayor, of certain cities, such as London, York, Laver-pool, and Manchester &c., addressed as my lord, and referred to as his lordship, Lord Mayor's Day, Nov 9th, on which the Lord Mayor of London is installed Lord Mayor's Show, pageant, procession, through streets of City of London to celebrate this Lord Provost, n Chief magistrate in certain important Scottish cities—Edinburgh, Glasgow &c.—corresponding to a lord mayor in England

Lord Rector, n The elected honorary head of a Scottish university, corresponding to the Chancellor of English and Welsh universities

Lord's, n, fr Thomas Lord, maker and proprietor of cricket grounds, d 1832 In full, Lord's cricket ground, in London, headquarters of the Marylebone Cricket Club (MCC) and of the Middlesex CC lords-and-ladies, n The wild arum, Arum maculatum lordship, n [1 lórdʃɪp, 2 lórdʃɪp] 1 a Authority, dominion, jurisdiction, specif, of a feudal lord, b (fig) command, control lordship over self 2 Your, his, lordship, formal mode of addressing, or referring to, persons bearing title of Lord, also in addressing, and referring to, bishops, lord mayors, lord provosts, and judges of High Court when on the Bench 3 Territory, area, over which jurisdiction of a feudal lord extended lore (I), n [1 lɔː, 2 lɔː] OE lār, 'doctrine, teaching, learning', ME loor &c., OHG lira, Mod Germ lehre, 'teaching', op OE læran, 'to teach', fr lārjan, 'exactly corresponding to Goth lausan, 'to teach', fr the base laus-*, as in Goth lais, 'I know' See also learn 1 (archaic) Teaching, instruction 2 Body of special knowledge, esp either a as possessed by a particular group of people, by a profession or class &c. the lore of the Egyptians; doctors' lore, schoolboy lore, or b knowledge of a special kind, relating to some particular group of objects, subject of study philological lore, folklore &c., often a knowledge derived from tradition herbal lore lore (II), n, fr Lat lorum, 'strap' Cogn w Gk εὐλῶρα, 'reins', fr base ulēr-, ulōr-, 'cord, band', apparently orig 'twisted cord', fr base uel-, ul-, 'to turn, twist', q v under volute Space between the eye and upper part of the beak in birds and reptiles lorgnette, n [1 lɔːnɪt, 2 lɔːnɪt] Fr, 'eyeglass', fr lorgner, 'to stare at' Eyeglass, esp one held up to the eyes by a long handle loricated, adj [1 lɔːrɪkət, 2 lɔːrɪkət] Lat lorica, 'leather breast plate', fr lorum, 'thong, strap', see lore (II), & -ate (200) Furnished with, protected by, bony plates or scales, used of such animals as armadillos, crocodiles &c.

lorikeet, loriquet, n [1 lɔːrɪkɪt, 2 lɔːrɪkɪt] Dimin of lory, on anal of parakeet A small green and blue parrot of the East Indies and Australia, allied to the lory lornier, n [1 lɔːnɪər, 2 lɔːnɪər] fr O Fr loranier, lornier, fr lorain, 'bridle', fr Lat lorum, 'thong, strap', see lore (II) (hist) A maker of bits, bridles &c., and other metal work for the harness of horses, now only surviving as name of a City Livery Company

loris, n [1 lɔːrɪs, 2 lɔːrɪs] Fr, origin doubtful Small nocturnal lemur found in Ceylon and Malaya &c.

lorn, adj [1 lɔːn, 2 lɔːn] OE -lorn, ME lor(e)n, fr obs PP of OE lōsan, ME lēsen, 'to lose' See lose & cp forlorn (archaic) A lost, ruined, b in a few Phrs, desolate, bereft a lone, lorn widow lorry, n [1 lɔːrɪ, 2 lɔːrɪ] Etymol unknown.

 Large, very strong, low-built, open wagon or truck for transporting heavy goods, formerly horse-drawn, now often used of truck of this kind driven by steam or petrol lory, n [1 lɔːrɪ, 2 lɔːrɪ] Malay liri Small, brightly coloured parrot, found in Australia, New Guinea &c. lose, vb trans & intrans [1 lɔːz, 2 lɔːz] OE for-lōsan, 'to lose, to destroy', ME lēsen, wh wd give mod lese*, cp also OE lōsian, 'to be lost, escape', wh wd become mod [lɔːz], the vowel of present day [lɔːz] has been influenced by loose A trans 1 a To be deprived of possession of, suffer loss of, through accident, mischance, carelessness to lose one's clothes in the wash, to lose one's money, Phrs to lose one's life, to be killed, suffer death, to lose one's head, be decapitated, b to get rid of, to suffer from, show signs of, no longer I've quite lost my cold, she has lost the frightened look 2 a To be unable to find, to mislay I can't open the box as I have lost the key, I am sorry to say I have lost the book you lent me Phrs to lose one's way, be unable to discover the right path, miss one's direction, go astray, to lose one's place in a book, be unable to find a word, line, passage, forming sequence to that which one has just read 3 a To bring to destruction, destroy to lose one's ship on the rocks Phr a lost soul, one that is damned, doomed to perdition 4 a To fail to retain, be deprived of, some physical or mental quality or feature by natural process, disease, age &c. to lose one's hair, sight, health, good looks, memory &c.

 Phrs to lose one's head, to become perplexed, flustered, confused, to lose one's grip, grasp, of,
 to become weak in one's intellectual comprehension of, to lose one's temper, get angry, b to forget, allow to die out, or to pass out of one's control or habitual use and practice to lose the art of pleasing, a lost art, one that has perished, to lose interest, cease to feel, or take, interest 5 a To fail to obtain, gain, win to lose a game, a prize, a reward, b to cause to lose his innocence lost him his situation 6 a To be deprived of society, companionship of, esp by death to lose a son in the war, to lose one's wife, b to allow to become alienated to lose one's friends 7 a To fail, be unable, to see, or hear to lose the end of a sentence, to lose the clear outlines of 8 a To arrive, be, too late for, miss to lose one's train, the post &c. 9 a To waste, fail to employ fruitfully, not to make the most of there's not a moment to lose, no time to sparo, you are losing your time trying to teach him Phrs I shall lose no time in be- ginning work &c., I shall begin at once, to be lost upon, fail to affect, influence, impress, attract attention of good acting is quite lost upon me, his eloquence was lost upon his audience 10 lose oneself, a to go astray, miss one's way, b to become deeply absorbed in to lose oneself in abstruse specula- tions 11 (in PP) Lost to, oblivious of, insensible to, incapable of feeling lost to all sense of decency B intrans 1 a To undergo loss, suffer deprivation when I gamble I always lose 2 lose by, to suffer financial or other loss, detriment, disadvantage on account of I don't want you to lose by me, his honesty did him no good, in fact he lost by it lovel, n [1 lɔːl, 2 lɔːl] ME lōsel, 'worthless fellow', fr base of OE lōsian, 'to lose', & -el perib, weak form of lōsan, 'to lose', & -el perib A dissipated, profligate man (archaic) A dissipated, profligate man loser, n [1 lɔːzər, 2 lɔːzər] lose & -er 1 a Person who loses, Phrs a loser by (one's own folly &c.), sufferer as a result of, a bad, good, loser, one who accepts defeat in a game churlishly, or cheerfully, b (billiards) losing hazard losing, adj [1 lɔːzɪŋ, 2 lɔːzɪŋ] Tending, bound, to cause, or result in, loss to play a losing game (lit and fig) losing hazard, n (billiards) Stroke of pocket-ing one's own ball off another ball losings, n pl [1 lɔːzɪŋz, 2 lɔːzɪŋz] Losses, specif, losses incurred in speculation or gambling loss, n [1 lɔːs, 2 lɔːs, 3 lɔːs] OE los, 'loss, disaster', fr lusa-*, fr redced grade of base seen in OE lōsan, 'lose' See lose 1 a Act or fact of losing in various senses the loss of a vessel, of one's eyesight, of money &c., b that which is lost my losses this year have been considerable, c amount lost a loss of forty pounds 2 Disadvantage, deprivation, detriment, injury, harm caused by the loss of anything his absence from the party was not a great loss, serious losses in business Phrs that is my loss, it is I who suffer, a loss (to explain &c), nonplussed, unable to come to a conclusion &c., a loss for, unable to find 3 Failure to gain or obtain the loss of a race, prize.

 4 a Waste, failure to utilize, dissipation of loss of time, of opportunities, b deprivation, diminution loss of blood, loss of water through a leak, (mechan and elect) loss of power, current &c. 5 (mil) Deprivation suffered by an army by the killing, wounding, or capture of soldiers in battle, casualties heavy losses of men and material 6 (insurance) Death of person, destruction of property, insured, and consequent liability of person undertaking the risk to pay sum insured a total, partial, loss lost, adj [1 lɔːst, 2 lɔːst] fr PP of lose lot (I), n [1 lɔːt, 2 lɔːt] OE hlōt, 'allotment, portion, share', op also OE hlēotan, 'cast lots, obtain by lot', cogn w OHG hlōz, lot, Mod Germ los, 'share', fate, destiny', Goth hlauts, 'portion, inheritance', cp further Lat clāra, 'club', orig 'a fragment of branch broken off' See also clavicle 1 Object used for determining something by chance, obsolete, except in to cast, draw, lots, to determine something by the chance fall of a die, by drawing from a receptacle, selecting one of several objects, different in length, markings &c., but so held as to look exactly alike 2 a That which comes to one, is obtained, by the casting of lots, b hence, that which happens, or is apportioned, to one by chance, fate, providence, destiny, portion in life, luck his lot has been a hard one 3 a Portion of a thing, collection of objects, grouped together, to be sold as a single whole, an item to be sold at an auction sale, b parcel, portion of land, c any group or collection of objects, portion of a substance regarded as a unity Phr my little lot, that which belongs to me 4 (col loq) a Considerable portion, number, amount of people, houses, to eat a lot of food, a whole lot of wine, (iron) a lot you care, you don't care at all, also in pl, lots and lots (cf), a very large number 5 (in bad sense) a person or thing, chiefly a bad lot, an evil person lot (II), vb trans, fr prec a To divide into lots, b (rare) to allot, apportion lot(s), n [1 lɔːt, 2 lɔːt] Hind A round water vessel, usually of brass loth, adj See loath Lothario, n [1 lɔːθəˈrɪo, 2 lɔːθəˈrɪo] fr name of character in Bowe's 'Fur Penten' The name is the same as Fr Lothaire & is of Gmc origin, op OHG lithari, the mod form of wh is Luther The first element means 'famous' See under loud Usually gay Lothario (Rowe's 'F P', v 1), a rake, woman-hunter lotion, n [1 lɔːʃən, 2 lɔːʃən] fr Lat lōt(um), PP of lavare, 'to bathe, mousten', bedew &c., & -ion See lave Medicinal liquid used externally for affections of the skin or for injuries to fleshy tissue lottery, n [1 lɔːtəri, 2 lɔːtəri] Ital lotteria, of Gmc origin See lot (I) a Organized competition for money or other prizes, the winners of which are selected by drawing lots, the funds being subscribed by the competitors, b (fig) a matter of pure chance and uncertainty in which, on the whole, the odds are against success in any given case marriage is said to be a lottery, a great lottery, affair in which the chances of success are very uncertain lotto, n [1 l6t5, 2 l6t6w] Ital, fr Gmo See lot (I) Game of chance played with cards bearing five numbers in a line, and numbered balls drawn from a bag, the object being to cover all the numbers in a line or as many as possible The right to cover a number on a card is determined by the same number being drawn from the bag lotus, n [1 l6tus, 2 l6tus] Lat, fr Gk lotos, 'a kind of clover', also an African shrub, the fruit of which was eaten by the Lithophages, prob a Semitic loan word The fruit of the shrub was supposed to produce in those who ate it a complete distaste for active life, and a state of indolent, luxurious enjoyment 1 a Egyptian water lily, b (archit) an ornament based on the form of this, much used in Egyptian capitals, c Indian water lily lotus berry, n A yellow West Indian edible fruit, b tree on which it grows lotus-eater, n a One of the Lithophages, a peaceful nation on the coast of Cyrenaica who were supposed, in Greek legend, as a result of eating the fruits of the lotus, to relapse into a state of senseless, indolent enjoyment, b (fig) one who abandons ambition and an active life and lives in a world of dreams lotus-eating, n a Practice of eating the lotus fruit in search of the pleasant, dreamy indolence which it produced, b (fig) indulgence in dreamy indolence and the pleasures of inaction loud (I), adj [1 loud, 2 loud] OE & OS lūd, ME loud, OHG lūt, Mod Germ laut, cogn w Lat in cluāt, 'famous', Gk kludō, Sort krulāt, 'heard of celebrated' The base klu*, 'to hear', occurs in Lat clūre, 'to hear oneself called, be spoken of, reputed' & 1 a Characterized by a full, powerful sound, sonorous, resonant, reverberating a loud noise, note, report & b producing much sound, causing a powerful impression upon the sense of hearing a loud voice, laugh, c (of persons) noisy, uproarious, blatant, boisterous, blustering 2 (of colour) Excessively vivid flamboyant gaudy, flaunting, garish, also of clothes, too striking, showy, flashy, florid loud (II), adv OE lūde, 'loudly' See prec In a loud manner, so as to produce a volume of sound he laughs too loud loudly, adv [1 l6udli, 2 l6udli] loud (I) & -ly In a loud manner (in various senses), so as to produce a great deal of sound, noisily, gaudily &c loudness, n [1 loudnes, 2 loudnes] See prec & -ness Quality of being loud loud speaker, n Device for amplifying sounds produced by the diaphragm of an electro magnetic apparatus of the telephone type lough, n [1 l6gh 2 l6x] Anglo Ir See loch A lake an estuary, in Ireland louis, louis d'or, n [1 l6u (d6r), 2 l6u (d6)] Fr, 'golden louis' French gold coin worth 20 francs, obsolete, though the name still survives in colloquial speech in France for 20 francs in paper or gold louis quatorze, quintze, seize, adj [1 l6u, l6t6r, l6nz, s6z, 2 l6u, l6t6z, l6z, s6z] Fr, Louis XIV, XV, XVI Applied to furniture, or works of art, made in, or in the style of, the reigns of these monarchs in 17th and 18th cents lounge (I), vb intrans [1 l6un, 2 l6undz] Found since 1600 as n, 'a vagabond', origin extremely doubtful a To loiter idly and indolently, with a relaxed position or condition of the body, to crouch propping oneself against the back and sides of a chair, or to stand propped against something, b to spend one's time idly and indolently, to abstain from exercise and occupation, also lounge about, lie, stand, stroll about in a lounging manner, lounges away (one's life, time &c) lounge (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of lounging 2 Apartment, esp in a hotel or club, fitted with comfortable sofas and chairs, used for smoking, conversation &c 3 Also lounge chair, seat, comfortable easy chair or other seat lounge-coat, suit, n (tailor's names) Coat for day wear on short, as distinct from a tail-coat, suit worn with such a coat lounge-lizard, n (slang) A despicable, effeminate, mean spirited youth, who spends his time in lounges and dancing halls, esp one who hires himself out to women as dancing partner lounger, n [1 l6unjer, 2 l6undz6] lounge (I) & -er One who lounges, a person with no special occupation who is spending his time lazily loungingly, adv [1 l6unj6gh, 2 l6undz6pli] Pres Part of lounge (I) & -ly As one who lounges or lolls lour, lower, vb intrans [1 l6ur, 2 l6aw] ME lowren, op ON l6ra, 'to slumber' See lurk a To look glare, threateningly or sullenly, to frown, also b (fig, of the sky &c) to grow dark, look threatening, (of clouds, thunder) to show signs of approaching, to menace louringly, adv [1 l6unj6gh, 2 l6aur6pli] Pres Part of prec as adj & -ly a In a frowning manner, with sullen looks, b threateningly louse, n, pl lice [1 l6us, l6is, 2 l6ave, l6ais] OE, OHG, ON l6u etymol uncertain Minute creeping parasite infesting the skin and hair of human beings and animals lousiness, n [1 l6uz6nes, 2 l6auz6nis] lousy & -ness Condition of being lousy lousy, adj [1 l66uzi, 2 l6auzi] louse & -y a Infested with lice, b (fig) mean, contemptible, vile lout (I), n [1 l6ut, 2 l6aut] Perb dialectal, & either fr lout, 'to bow' (see next word), or obs lout, 'to lurk' A clumsy, mannerless, ill bred boor, a bumpkin lout (II), vb intrans OE lutan, cp ON luta Cp Goth luta, 'hypocrite', lutan, 'to deceive' Prob cogn w ON Slav luditi, 'to deceive', ludu, 'foolish' (archaic and poet) To bow, prostrate oneself 'He humbly louted in meek loutiness', Spenser, 'F Q' I x 44 loutish, adj [1 l6ut6sh, 2 l6aut6sh] lout (I) & -ish Like a lout, awkward, clumsy, boorish loutishness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being loutish louver, n [1 l66ver, 2 l66v6] ME lover, fr O Fr lover, Mod Lat loderum, fr l6dum, orig an opening over a fireplace, prob of Gmc origin, op ON l6bb, 'hearth' This, according to Skeat, is another grade of the base seen in lade a Lantern shaped, open turret in the roof of an ancient hall &c through which the smoke escaped from the open hearth, b an unglazed opening in the wall of a loft, tower &c, closed or opened by means of a series of slats or boards, to admit air and light louver-board, n One of the movable slats fixed in a louver lovable, adj [1 l6uv6bl, 2 l66v6bl] love (II) & -able Possessing qualities which endear, which evoke love, deserving love, engaging lovableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being lovable lovage, n [1 l6uvi, 2 l6av6z] O Fr lovesche, Fr h6che, ME lovesche, as though fr love (I) & -age, or ache (at) Low Lat livisticum, fr livisticum, 'belonging to Liguria' Popular name of a herb, formerly used in medicine &c love (I), n [1 l6v, 2 l6av] OE lufu, 'love, affection, friendliness', ME lufe, love, cogn w OE l6f, 'dear' (see lief), op also Lat libet, 'it pleases', libidin, stem of libido (see libidinous), Sort lubb6ghat, 'he desires strongly', O Slav lyubit, 'to love', lyuby, 'love', n. See further under leave (I)

1 Affection, friendliness, strong liking, tenderness, attachment, devotion love for one's children, parents, friends, for one's profession, the love of a man for his brother, to bear love to, towards, a person, to have a love of learning Phrs there's no love lost between them, they dislike each other, to send one's love to, give my love to, affectionate greeting, not to be had for love or money, impossible to get, a labour of love, task undertaken without hope of reward, love of country, patriotism

2 a The infinite benevolence, goodwill, mercifulness, of the Creator towards mankind, b the sense of veneration, devotion, humble attachment, borne by human beings to God, 3 Feeling of benevolence, charity, brotherliness, borne by human beings towards others of mankind to live in love and charity with one's neighbour 4 a Sexual passion strong, passionate affection, attachment felt for person of opposite sex, amorous desire, Phrs to fall in love (with), conceive passionate attachment (for), to be in love (with), to entertain a passionate attachment (for), to be enamoured of, all's fair in love and war, love in a cottage, marriage on inadequate means, to make love to, to court, b object of passionate attachment, person who inspires this 'Come ye whose loves are dead' (Beaumont and Fletcher), her own true love, Phr my love, affectionate mode of address to object of affection, or to a child or young person 5 a Personification of the god of love, Cupid, represented as a plump, winged boy with a bow and arrow 'If hat thought no weeping loves thy ashes grace?' (Pope), 'Unfortunate Lady', 69), b an attractive, lovely person or thing a little love of a child a regular love of a kitten, cottage &c

6 (tennis) No score, nothing love forty, meaning that the server has scored nothing, and his opponent forty points, a love game, set, one in which the beaten party scores nothing, also in other games, as won by four goals to love love (II), vb trans & intrans OE lufian, ME luffen, l6v6n See prec A trans 1 a To entertain a strong affection for, be fond of to love one's mother, b to feel strong passion for, to desire 2 a To regard with veneration and humble devotion, to worship to love God, b to consider with goodwill, benevolence, merciful kindness God so loved the world &c, c to entertain feelings of obarity and kindness towards to love one's fellow men 3 To have a strong liking for, enjoy, delight in to love the country, love one's work Popular usage I simply love new laid eggs, sea bathing &c = am very fond of, to love playing bridge, I should love to come to dinner, for like B intrans To entertain the feeling or passion of love, in various senses 'I cannot understand—I love' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam' xvi 9), 'her eyes are forgiven, for she loved much' (Luke vii 47)

love-affair, n Amour love-apple, n Popular name of a tomato love-bird, n Kind of small African brightly coloured parrot love-child, n Illegitimate offspring love-feast, n Agape love-in-a-mist, n Fennel flower, Nigella love-in-idleness, n Pansy, heartsease love-knot, n Bow of ribbon interlaced in a special way

Lovelace, n [1 l6v6is, 2 l66v6is] fr name of character in Richardson's 'Clarissa Harlowe' Heartless libertine, a seducer of women loveless, adj [1 l6v6is, 2 l66v6is] love & -less a Not giving, feeling, expressing, or attracting love, b not based on love a loveless union love-letter, n One written to a sweetheart love-lies-bleeding, n [1 l6v l6is bl6d6ng, 2 l6v l6is bl6d6ng] Popular name of Amaranthus caudatus, with long drooping spikes of purple flowers loveliness, n [1 l66v6ines, 2 l66v6ines] lovely & -ness Quality of being lovely, physical or moral beauty, charm, enchantment love-lock, n [1 lúvlok, 2 lúvlok] Curl or tress of hair trained to lie flat on the forehead, or hanging down upon the cheek love-lorn, adj love & lorn Pining hopelessly for love, abandoned by one's love lovely, adj [1 lúvli, 2 lúvli] OE luflic, 'loving, amiable, pleasant' love & -ly 1 (of sonorous impressions) Beautiful, charming, delightful, highly pleasing, enchanting, alluring a lovely sight, landscape, scene &c, a lovely woman, a lovely melody, ocent, also (colloq.) a lovely taste, delicious, a perfectly lovely time, enjoyable 2 (of non material things) Appealing to, pleasing, the moral sense, morally elevated, noble, pure 'Whatever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report,' Philippians iv 8 love-making, n Courtship love-match, n Marriage made entirely from motives of love love-philtre, n Magic potion supposed to incline the affections of the person drinking it in a desired direction love-potion, n Love philtre lover, n [1 lóver, 2 lóva] love (II) & -er 1 One who is fond of, who delights in, a specified thing a lover of pictures, of horses, of the country &c 2 (obscurely used of a man, except in pl) a An admirer, sweetheart, fiancé 'a lover and his lass', two happy lovers, b paramour the guilty lovers &c 3 In obsolete formula, at end of letter &c your true lover, friend, supporter &c loverlike, adj [1 lóverlik, 2 lóvalarik] Resembling, behaving like, a lover lovely, adj [1 lóverli, 2 lóvali] Like, befitting, a lover, loving lovesick, adj [1 lúvask, 2 lúvask] Strongly affected by, languishing on account of, love love-song, n One expressing, or on the subject of, love love-story, n One with love as its chief theme love-token, n Object given as a symbol of affection loving, adj [1 lóving, 2 lóvnp], fr Pres Part of love (II) a Animated by, feeling, expressing, love, affectionate, b dutiful, loyal, in formula His Majesty's loving subjects loving-cup, n Large drinking-vessel, usually of silver, with two or more handles, passed from one person to another, each of whom drinks in turn loving-kindness, n Affectionate solicitude, clemency, favour low (I), vb intrans & trans [1 ló, 2 lóv] OE & OS lōwan, ME lōwen, OHG lūogen, oogn w the base in Lat clā-māre, 'to call, shout, cry out' (see clamour, claim), op also clārus, 'loud, distinct' (see clear), Gk klēlē skēn, 'to call on, invoke' Another form of the same base as in Lat calāre, 'to cry out', Gk lalein, 'to call, invoke, proclaim' (see calends) a intrans To make the characteristic cry of a cow, b trans, to utter with lowing low (II), n, fr prec The cry uttered by the cow low (III), adj Soand, ME lōw, lōw, fr ON lagr, fr same base as lay (III) & lie (III) 1 a Reverse of high, not elevated, not extending far upwards from the ground, not lofty a low wall, fence, range of mountains, not placed far from ground or floor a low roof, ceiling, special uses a low dress, one cut so as to expose part of shoulders, chest, and back, a low neck, part of dress near the neck or throat cut so as to expose these, low relief, (sculpture or moulding) has relief, a low brow, forehead, measuring but little between roots of hair and top of nose, b near the horizon a low moon, c of mercury in a barometer or thermometer, not marking high atmospheric pressure or temperature the glass is low, also a low temperature. 2 Of less than normal height the water (or by transference, the well) is low, less than full height, far from the shore low tide, low water. Phr in low water, short of money, hard up 3 (phon, of position of tongue in speaking) Not raised, depressed, relatively far from roof of mouth, also a low vowel, one produced by the tongue in the low position 4 (of sounds &c) a Reverse of loud, soft, not resonant a low whisper, in a low voice, b (of musical notes) not high or shrill in pitch a low note 5 a Lacking force or intensity low pressure (of steam &c), a low fever, b lacking physical energy and vitality, feeble, enfeebled a low pulse, a low state of health, c (of state of mind) depressed, despondent, melancholy low spirits 6 Lacking nourishing qualities, not rich, plain, simple a low diet 7 Inferior, undistinguished, occupying a humble, unimportant position, a in order of merit low in one's class, in the list, a low standard, b in social position, plebeian of low birth, origin, low life, the lower orders, Phr brought low, humbled, c racially inferior, not highly civilized lower tribes, races, d (viol) not high in the scale of organisms, not highly evolved, not showing complexity of structure or function low forms of life 8 Not refined, ill-bred, coarse, vulgar low manners, a low fellow 9 Morally degraded, ignoble, vile, mean, ribald, lewd, obscene low tastes, ideals, mind, low conduct, fail, jets, also (colloq) low down, degraded, dishonourable, mean low down behaviour 10 Unfavourable, tending to disparage to have, hold, form, a low opinion of, not to rate or esteem highly 11 Belonging to, characteristic of, the Low Church low (IV), adv, fr prec 1 a In a low position, near the ground, so as not to reach high to crouch low, to aim, shoot, low, Phr I hope I shall never fall as low as that, shall not stoop to, be so degraded as to, to run low, (of supplies) to fail, give out, the sands are running low (in the glass), (in various senses) (i) the time is nearly up, (ii) life is coming to an end, to be low, (i) to be prostrate, to be dead, (ii) to keep quiet, remain inconspicuous, he hidden, to be laid low, (i) to be killed to be knocked down, (ii) to be incapacitated, obliged to keep one's bed, by illness, b low down, in a very low position, Phr to play it low down, behave dishonourably, shamefully, play it low down on, treat meanly 2 a In a low voice, softly, not loudly to speak low, b in a low key, not high pitched I can't sing, get down, so low as that 3 At a small price, cheaply to buy low low-born, adj Of mean or humble birth low boy, n [1 ló boy, 2 ló boy] Chest of drawers with short legs Cp tallboy low-bred, adj [1 ló bred, rude, mannerless, characteristic of one born and bred in a mean rank of life low-brow, n & adj (colloq, ong Am) 1 n Person who does not pretend to superior intellect or culture, opposed to high brow 2 adj Pertaining to, characteristic of, a low-brow such low brow amusements low-browed, adj [1 ló browd, 2 lóu braud] Having low brows, that is, a forehead which is short from the eyebrows to the roots of the hair Low Celebration, n Celebration of the Eucharist without music, Low Mass Low Church (I), n [1 ló chorch, 2 lóu tjtst] The Low Church, opposed to High Church, the Evangelical, Protestant party in the Church of England Low-church (II), adj [1 ló chérch, 2 lóu tjtst] Belonging to, characteristic of, that party, also called Evangelical, in Church of England, which lays comparatively little emphasis upon sacramental doctrine Low Churchman, n [1 ló chérchman, 2 lóu tjtstman] Member of Low-church party low comedy, n Type of drama characterized by farce and burlesque, aiming at laughable situations and dialogue

Low Countries, n The Netherlands, Holland, Belgium and Grand Duchy of Luxembourg lower (I), vb trans & (rarely) intrans [1 lóer, 2 lówa], fr lower (III) 1 a (i) To cause, allow, to descend, esp to allow to slide down gradually by its own weight while held suspended, to let down, haul down to lower a boat, a sail, (ii) (colloq, slang) to swallow, put down, (food and drink), to lower a sandwich and a glass of beer, b to reduce height of to lower a roof, ceiling 2 (fig) a To humble, render less lofty to lower one's pride, b lower oneself, condescend, stoop to, abandon some of one's self respect to lower oneself to ask a favour 3 To reduce bodily strength and vitality of to lower the system 4 To make cheaper, reduce price (of goods &c) 5 a To reduce loudness of to lower one's voice, b to reduce pitch of lower (II), vb intrans See lower lower (III), compar of low (III) Lower animals, creation, (coll) all mammals except man, more rarely used of birds Lower case, (print, of type, letters) small, not capitals, abbreviated lo, so called from being kept in a lower case Lower Chamber, popular chamber of the legislature, House of Commons Lower House, House of Commons Lower classes, the proletariat Lower form, one below the middle of a school, lower bay, one in such a form Lower regions, (i) Hell, Hades, (ii) (facet) basement of a house, kitchen premises, servants' quarters low frequency, n (elect) An alternating current whose periods are below 1000 per second, see frequency lowing, n [1 lóing, 2 lóup] low (I) Sound made by a cow that lows lowland, n & adj [1 lóland, 2 lóuland] 1 n Country which is low, flat, level, compared with surrounding country, the Lowlands, the southern counties of Scotland contrasted with the Highlands 2 adj a Be long to low, flat country, b (cap) belong to southern counties of Scotland lowlander, n [1 lólander, 2 lóulander] Prec & -or a Inhabitant of lowland country, b (cap) inhabitant of Scottish Lowlands Low Latin, n Late, popular, spoken Latin, contrasted with Classical Latin lowliness, n [1 lólinea, 2 lóuhne] See next word & -ly Quality, state, of being lowly, humility lowly (I), adj [1 lóli, 2 lóuli] low (III) & -ly 1 Of humble rank, of mean or low degree 2 Humble of heart, meek, modest lowly (II), adv In a lowly manner Low Mass, n Low Celebration low-necked, adj [1 ló nekt, 2 lóu nekt] (of woman's dress) Cut so as to expose throat and neck low-spirited, adj Dejected, depressed, lacking proper pride and courage low tension, n (elect) Term loosely used for any amount where the potential is comparatively small, op high tension loxo-, pref Form of Gk loxos, 'slanting, crooked, bent', used in compounds, cogn w Gk lélhros, 'melted, bent', & w Lat lacratus, 'arm', lacrata, 'heard', q v under lacertian loxodromic, adj [1 lóloxódrómik, 2 lóksou-drómik] Prec & -dromic & -ic (naut) Of, pertaining to, sailing on, an oblique course by the rhumb line loyal, adj [1 lóal, 2 lóal] O Fr loial, fr Lat légalis, variant of legal & leal 1 Faithful, true, to one's allegiance, observant of one's obligation to a one's king and country a loyal subject, citizen, b to other persons a loyal husband, friend &c, c to a cause, ideal, institution a loyal supporter of the Church, of progress &c 2 Upright, honourable, staunch loyalist, n [1 lóalist, 2 lóalist] Prec & -ist a One who habitually practices loyalty to the sovereign, b one who remains loyal to the sovereign and the established government in times of rebellion and revolt loyally, adv [1 lóial, 2 lóial] loyal & -ly In a loyal manner, with fidelity loyalty, n [1 lóialt, 2 lóialt] loyal & -ty Quality of being loyal in all senses, fidelity, trustworthiness, staunchness lozenge, n [1 lozɪŋ, 2 lóizɪŋ] Fr lozange, origin quite uncertain 1 Figure having two acute, and two obtuse angles 2 A small thin cake or tablet composed of medicinal substances, often sweetened and flavoured to make it palatable 3 Any of various lozenge-shaped figures or objects, a (her) a form of the esutcheon, esp used by women, figures of this shape upon an esutcheon, b one of the lozenge shaped facets upon a cut gem, c a small lozenge shaped pane of glass lozeny, adj [1 lóizɪnɪ, 2 lóizɪnɪ] (her, of the esutcheon) Divided into, covered with, lozenge shaped figures

Ł s d, n [1 Ł s d, 2 Ł s d] For Lat libra, solidi, denarii a Pounds, shillings, and pence, b (colloq) money a question of Ł s d lubber, n [1 lúber, 2 lúba] Swed, prob related to lob & obs looby, M E lody a A clumsy, awkward, unhandy fellow, espcc b a clumsy, inexperienced seaman, also land lubber lubberliness, n [1 lúberlɪnəs, 2 lúberlɪnəs] See next word & -ness. Quality of being a lubber, clumsiness, lack of skill lubberly, adj [1 lúberli, 2 lúberli] lubber & -ly Like a lubber lúbra, n [1 lúbra, 2 lúbra] Native Austranlian & female aboriginal, black woman lubricant, adj & n [1 lúbrikant, 2 lúbrik-ant], fr Lat lubricans (em), Pres Part of lubricare, 'to make smooth' See next word a adj Having the property of making slippery, diminishing friction, esp in the movable parts of machinery, b n, greasy substance used for this purpose, (fig) something which facilitates action, speech &c lubricate, vb trans & intrans [1 lúbrikat, 2 lúbrikat], fr Lat lubricat (um), PP of lubricare, 'to make smooth or slippery', fr lubricus, 'slippery', fr lub* & cogn w Ł s p 1 trans a To treat, rub, smear, with a lubricant to diminish friction and facilitate smooth working, b (fig, colloq) to do something to render conversation easy, or action more readily performed, e g to ply with drink, to tip or bribe to lubricate a person's tongue, palms 2 intrans To perform the functions of a lubricant lubrication, n [1 lúbrikəshən, 2 lúbrikəshən] Pres & -ion a Act or process of lubricating, b state of being lubricated lubricator, n [1 lúbrikətór, 2 lúbrikətór] lubricate & -or a One who lubricates, b automatic device for lubricating machinery lubricity, n [1 lúbrikɪti, 2 lúbrikɪti] Fr lubricus, fr Lat lubricus (u), 'slippery-ness' See lubricate 1 Lubricating property 2 (fig, rare) Slipperiness, instability of character 3 Lewdness, lasciviousness, lustfulness, easiness lubricous, adj [1 lúbrikus, 2 lúbrikus] Lat lubricus See lubricate & -ous a Smooth, slippery, b elusive, c given to lubricity lúcan, Lúkan, adj [1 lúkan, lókhan, 2 lúkan, lókhan] Lat Lúcas, Luke' & -an Pertaining to St Luke lúce, n [1 lús, 2 lús] O Fr lus, Lat lúcea, 'a pike' (fish), etymol doubtful a Full grown pike, b (her) figure of a pike borne as a charge in a coat of arms lúcence, -cy, n [1 lúsen(s), 2 lúsen(s)] See next word & -ce, -cy Quality, property, of being lúcent lúcent, adj [1 lúsent, 2 lúsent] Lat lúcent (em), Pres Part of lúcere, 'to shine', fr base lúc, 'light, shine', as in lúc em, acc of lúc, 'light', for further cognates see under leuco- & light (I), also luminous, lune a Giving forth light, bright, b clear, transparent lucerne, n [1 lúsern, lósern, 2 lúsan, lúsin] Fr luzerne, fr Provenc luserno, etymol dubious Plant much used for forage, with trifoliate leaves and bluish pink flowers resembling those of clover, alfalfa lucid, adj [1 lúid, 2 lúid] Lat lucidus, 'full of light, clear, bright' See base lúc in lúcent 1 (archaic or poet) a Bright, shining, b clear, transparent 'Abba and Pharpar, lucid stream', Milton, 'P L', 1 469, c (fig) normal as to intellectual faculties Phr a lucid interval, one between paroxysms of madness, or rage 2 Thinking clearly a lucid mind, expressing meaning with clearness, and without ambiguity, clear, easy to understand a lucid explanation, argument lúcidly, n [1 lúiditi, 2 lúiditi] Pres &

-ity Quality of being lúcent lúcidly, adv [1 lúidli, 2 lúidli] See préc & -ly In a lúcent manner clearly Lucifer, n [1 lúsefer, 2 lúsa] Lat, lit 'light bearing', lúc, 'light', see lúcent, & -ferous 1 The planet Venus appearing as the morning star 2 Satan, as identified with the rebel archangel who lost heaven through pride Phr as proud as Lucifer 3 (archaic or obs, not cap) A match which ignites by friction, also Lucifer match lúciduous, adj [1 lúsidúus, 2 lúsidúus] Lat lúciduus, 'avoiding light', & -ous See lúcent & fugative Avoiding, turning away from, the light luck, n [1 luk, 2 lak] Prob fr Dn lúc, also glück, 'fate, happiness', cp Germ glück, in same sense, prob connected w O H G lúckan, 'to attract, entice', further connections are doubtful 1 Fate, chance regarded as bringer of good or ill fortune, series of events, occurring as though by chance, which affect the individual good luck, bad luck Phrs to have hard luck, to be unfortunate, to try one's luck, test one's fortune in an enterprise the upshot of which is uncertain 2 Good fortune, favourable series of events, happiness a great piece of luck, to have no luck Phrs to be off one's luck, to have ill fortune, in luck, fortunate, favoured by fate, for luck, in order to bring good fortune &c 3 (archaic) Some object embodying, and closely associated with, the fortunes of an individual or family luck of Eden Hall, goblet of the Musgrave family luckily, adv [1 lukli, 2 lakli] lucky & -ly In a lucky, fortunate manner, by good fortune, fortunately luckily I was out when he called, most luckily for you he didn't see you luckless, adj [1 lukles, 2 lakles] luck & -less Unfortunate, unhappy, ill starred, turning out disastrously lucklessly, adv See préc & -ly Unfortunately, without any good luck luck-money, -penny, n a Small coin kept as being thought lucky or likely to bring good luck, b small sum of money, returned for luck by seller to a purchaser lucky, adj [1 lúki, 2 lakli] luck & -y a (of persons) Favoured by fate, having good luck, fortunate, b (of events and actions) resulting in, associated with, good luck, bringing good fortune a lucky move, journey &c, c (of times and seasons) connected with good luck in the past, and held to be auspicious of the same in the future my birthday is one of my lucky days, d (of objects) supposed to influence events favourably, likely to bring good luck on the possessor, Phr a lucky six pence, weighted so as to turn up always the same side when spun or tossed lucky bag, n Receipts containing various objects, one of which is selected by touch, by a person who pays for the privilege of dipping lúcrative, adj [1 lúkrativ, 2 lúkrativ] Lat lúcrat (um), PP of lúcrare, to gain, acquire, fr lúcrum, 'gain, profit, advantage', see lúcre, & -ive Yielding material advantage, profitable a lúcrative employment, trade &c lúcratively, adv Préc & -ly So as to produce gain lúcrativeness, n See préc & -ness Quality of being lúcrative

lúcre, n [1 lúker, lóker, 2 lúkre, lókre] Lat lúcrum, 'gain, profit, advantage', said to be for lútlom*, & cogn w Sort lútram, 'booty, stolen property' (see loot) Variants of the base láu*, lu*, 'to gain, enjoy', are seen also in Gk apo lauein, 'to enjoy', laue, 'booty', O Slav louti, 'to pursue', seize', & porh in Goth laun, O E lean, 'reward' Material profit, gain, money, riches, always now in unfavourable sense Phr filthy lúcre lúcube, vb intrans [1 lúkúbrat, 2 lúkúbrat], fr Lat lúcube (um), PP type of lúcube, 'to work by lamplight, work at night', fr base lúc, 'light' See lúcent.

To work at night, to work laboriously lúcube, n [1 lúkúbrashun, 2 lúkúbrashun] Lat lúcube (em), 'nocturnal study, something composed at night' See préc & -ion a Hard, laborious study and meditation, b the product of such study, esp some laborious, over elaborated work, one which 'smells of the lamp' lúcent, adj [1 lúkléut, 2 lúkléut], Lat lúcentus, 'full of light, burning brightly, excellent', fr lúc, 'light' See lúcent a Clear, shining, transparent, b (fig) clear to the understanding, lúcent lúcus a non lúcendo, n [1 lúkus a nón lúsendó, 2 lúkus a nón lúsendó] Oñ lúcus a non Lat, 'a grove because it is not light', a gibe at whimsical & paradoxical etymologies, lúcus, 'grove', is fr Lat base lúc, cp lúc, 'light', & see lúcent. The word means, not 'a place with no light', but 'a place into which light has been allowed to enter a clearing in a forest' The older form was loukos*, & is exactly cogn w O E lúch, 'open, cleared country' (see lea (I)), & Lith laukas, 'field, open country' A fanciful etymology, an absurd, illogical, inconse-quent statement or explanation, a non sequitur

Luddite, n [1 lúdit, 2 lúdit], fr Ludd, name of a person who broke stocking frames in 1779 One of a band of fanatics who in 1811-16 attempted to prevent the use of machinery by smashing it and burning factories lúdicrous, adj [1 lúdikrus, lódikrus, 2 lúdikrus] Lat lúdicus, lúdicus, 'serving for sport, sportive', pertaining to stage plays or players, op lúdis, 'pastime, sport, play', stage play', & lúdere, 'to play, sport, frolic', The etymol is quite uncertain Calculated to provoke laughter, a heard, laughable, ridiculous, comical lúdicrously, adv Préc & -ly In a lúdi-crous manner, to a lúdicrous extent &c lúdicrouness, n See préc & -ness Quality, fact, of being lúdicrous lúdo, n [1 lúddó, 2 lúddó] Lat, 'I play' See lúdicrous Name of a simple game played on a checkered board with counters which are moved according to throw of dice lúes, n [1 lúéx, 2 lúéx] Lat, 'a plague, pestilence, contagious disease', op lúere,

'to wash', wh base see under lave, lather, alluvium a A pestilential disease, typhus, also lúes venerea luff, u & vb intrans [1 luf, 2 laf] Prob borrowed fr Dn loef, n, loeven, vb The highly ingenious speculations & suggestions of Sleat are not convincing, since it is uncertain what the object called in M E lof was, whether it be the same as luff, or what purpose it served. a n Act of sailing a ship close to the wind, b vb, to sail nearer the wind

lug (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lug, 2 lag] Scand, cp Swed lugga, 'to pull the hair' (colloq) 1 vb a To drag, pull, roughly, violently, or with effort, also lug about, lug along, b (fig) lug in, to introduce unnaturally and irrelevantly a subject, name, story &c, into a conversation 2 n Act, labour, of logging, pull, tug lag (II), n Prob fr Swed lugg, 'forelook', cp prec 1 (Scots) The ear 2 Something which projects like an ear, as projection on rim of a pot or pan for lifting it, one of the leather loops in harness through which the shafts of a cart or other vehicle pass luge, n [1 lüz, 2 lyž] Fr A small raised toboggan for one person luggage, n [1 lügi, 2 lägidž], fr lug (I) & -age Travellers' baggage, impedimenta, packages containing personal effects carried about with one when travelling lugger, n [1 lüger, 2 lägi] See next word

Small ship rigged with lug sails lug-sail, n [1 lüg säil, lugsäil, 2 lag säil, lägsäil] Origin of lug- in this word is uncertain One of several types of four-cornered sails, slung from a yard at a third or quarter of its length from forward end lugubrious, adj [1 lü, 2 lügübrü, 2 l(ü)gübrü] Lat lūgubris, 'connected with mourning, doleful, plaintive', op Lat lūgere, 'to mourn, lament, wear mourning', cogn w Gk lugrós, 'mournful, sad, dismal', & leug-alós, 'wretched, pitiful, dismal' Further connexions wh have been suggested are possible but somewhat obscure Mournful, dismal, woe begone, depressed, funereal lugubriously, adv Prec & -ly In a lugubrious manner, mournfully lugubriousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being lugubrious lug-worm, n Origin doubtful Worm like marine animal used as bait in sea fishing, found buried in the wet sand after the tide has gone down lukewarm, adj [1 lükwärm, 2 lükwöm] M E leuk, lula, 'tepid, warm', wh is prob fr Du leuk, 'warm' The other M E word leu, 'tepid', O E (ge)hlēow, is not connected, but prob influenced the sense For this see lee Lee warm may still be heard in dialects A Moderately warm, less than hot, tepid lukewarm water, b (fig), of sentiments, character &c) not ardent, tending to indifference, torpid, phlegmatic, half-hearted lukewarm support, agreement, a lukewarm champion of a cause &c lukewarmly, adv Prec & -ly Half-heartedly lukewarmness, n See prec & -ness Absence of ardour or enthusiasm lull (I), vb trans & intrans [1 lul, 2 läl] Prob fr Swed. lulla, 'to sing to sleep', & imitative of soothing, crooning sound A trans 1 a To soothe, compose, calm down, by crooning or rocking to lull a baby to sleep, b (fig) to persuade, cajole to lull a person into a false sense of security 2 (fig) To assuage, mitigate, render less intense to lull a person's suspicions to sleep, to lull pain B intrans (rare) To abate, grow calmer, become less violent the violence of the storm had lulled to some extent lull (II), n, fr prec Temporary cessation, pause, stoppage, interval of silence, or inactivity a lull in the wind, traffic, a lull in the conversation lullaby, n [1 luläbi, 2 läläbä] a A soothing song to lull infants to sleep, cradle song, b (fig) a gentle, soothing sound made by the wind, falling water &c lumbago, n [1 lumbägo, 2 lämbägo] L Lat, fr lumbus, 'loin' See next word Rheumatic pain in the loins or lower part of the spine in the region of the hips lumber, adj [1 lümbär, 2 lämbä] Lat lumbus, 'loin', & -ar, orig form londhuos*, cp O E lenden, 'loin', O H G lenti, fr land-*, O Slav lědnja, 'loin, kidney', ultimate meaning perh 'hollow, depression', cp O N lunder, 'grove', & O Prussian lindan, 'valley' Pertaining to, situated near, the loins lumber nerves, region lumber (I), n [1 lumber, 2 lämbä] Variant of Lombard Used orig for a pawnbroker's shop, fr the fact that these were often kept by Lombards 1 a Miscellaneous articles, odds and ends of furniture &c stored away, hence, b superfluous, useless, objects in general, rubbish 2 Timber, esp trees cut up ready for the market lumber (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To fill with useless articles, b to crowd with furniture, c to encumber, hamper, embarrass, obstruct, with odds and ends, also lumber up, encumber 2 To out down (trees) as lumber for the market B intrans 1 To overcrowd, cause embarrassment with piles of lumber or rubbish 2 To out down and prepare timber for the market lumber (III), vb intrans Cp Swed dial loma, 'to walk heavily', also lomra, 'to resound', prob connected w lame & limp (II) a To walk, move, along painfully, clumsily, heavily, b (of heavy vehicles) to move along heavily and noisily, to rumble along, also lumber along, by, past lumbering (I), n, [1 lumbering, 2 lämbäring], fr lumber (II) & -ing Act of cutting and selling timber, timber-trade lumbering (II), adj, fr lumber (III) Moving heavily and clumsily, moving heavily and noisily lumberman, n [1 lämbäman, 2 lämbäman], fr lumber (I) One who fells and dresses timber for the market lumber-mill, n Saw-mill lumber-room, n One in which lumber, rubbish, is kept lumber-yard, n Timber yard lumbo-, pref Form of Lat lumbus, 'loin', used in compounds See lumber Lumbodorsal &c indicates connexion with lumbar regions lumbrical, adj & n [1 lumbricl, 2 lämbärl], fr Lat lumbricus, 'earthworm' &c, & -al, cogn w W llyngyr, 'earthworm' a adj Connected with the small muscles which move the fingers and toes, b n, one of these muscles The name is derived from the supposed resemblance of the muscles in shape to worms

Lumiere process, n [1 lümiär pröses, 2 lümier pröses], fr name of inventors Method of colour photography, in which a special plate is used in an ordinary camera lumin-, pref Form used in compounds, fr oblique cases of Lat lumen, 'a light, a lamp', gent lūminis The word stands for fūmen* See base fü- under lucent luminary, n [1 lūminari, 2 lūminari] O Fr luminarie, fr Low Lat lūminarium, 'a light, candle, torch' See prec & -ary a Light giving body, esp a heavenly body, b (fig) an enlightened person, an eminent authority on some branch of learning luminescence, n [1 lūminēsens, 2 lūminēsens] See next word & -ence Quality of being luminescent luminescent, adj [1 lūminēsent, 2 lūminēsant] See lumin- & -escent Giving light, shining, esp of phosphorescent objects &c luminiferous, adj [1 lūminiferus, 2 lūminiferus] lumin- & -iferous Yielding, transmitting, light luminosity, n [1 lūminösiti, 2 lūminösiti] luminous & -ity Quality, property, of being luminous luminous, adj [1 lūminus, 2 lūminēs] Lat lūminosus, 'full of light' See lumin- & -ous a Radiating light, bright, glowing, clear, b (fig, of non-material things) brilliant, enlightening, intelligible a luminous discourse, exposition luminously, adv Prec & -ly In a luminous manner luminousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being luminous lump (I), n [1 lump, 2 lämp] Lompe, 'lump, mass', occurs in O D, lump in Swed & Norw dialects, origin doubtful

1 Shapeless, cohesive mass, clod, block a lump of clay, pudding, rock, ice Phrs in the lump, in the aggregate, as a whole, taken all together, a lump of sugar, small, specially shaped, piece or one used in tea and coffee; lump sum, amount of money paid at one time for several items, contrasted with separate payments 2 A swelling, excrescence, bump, on the body a lump on the forehead Phr a lump in the (one's) throat, sensation of constriction caused by strong emotion 3 A gross, unsightly, clumsy person lump (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To put all together as it were in one lump, to include under one head, consider, without distinguishing, as belonging to the same class or kind, generally lump together, lump this with that, lump several things under one name Phr if you don't like it, you can, will have to, lump it, put up with it 2 intrans a To form into lumps; b to walk, move, along in a clumsy, awkward, laborious manner, chiefly lump along lumper, n [1 lumper, 2 lämpä] Prec & -er Labourer employed in loading and unloading vessels lumpfish, n [1 lämpfisch, 2 lämpfisch] Greenish or purplish, clumsily shaped marine fish found in North Atlantic, it has a snaker enabling it to cling to stones lumping, adj [1 lämping, 2 lämpig] lump & -ing (colloq) Copious, plentiful, piled up a lumping great helping of pudding lumpish, adj [1 lämpish, 2 lämpisch] lump & -ish a Like a lump, thick and shapeless, b (of persons) thickset and heavy, of sluggish mind, unresponsive lumpy, adj [1 lämpi, 2 lämpä] See prec. & -y a Covered with, full of, lumps; b lumpy lunacy, n [1 lūnäsä, 2 lūnäsä] fr Lat lūn, 'moon' (see lune), & -acy, orig an intermittent form of insanity supposed to vary in intensity with the phases of the moon a Insanity, madness, b great foolishness; a foolish act lunar, adj [1 lūnär, 2 lūnär, 2 lūnä, 2 lūnä] Lat lūnaris, 'pertaining to the moon' See lune & -ar a Pertaining to the moon lunar rainbow, one formed by moon's rays, b determined by the moon a lunar month, one of four weeks, contrasted with calendar month lunarian, n [1 lūnarian, 2 lūnarian] Prec & -ian a Inhabitant of the moon, b person having special knowledge of the moon lunate, adj [1 lūnät, 2 lūnät] Lat lūnatus, 'crescent shaped' See lune & -ate (zool, bot) Shaped like the crescent moon lunatic, n & adj [1 lūnätik, 2 lūnätik] Lat lūnaticus, 'affected by the moon, temporarily insane' See lunacy 1 n Person suffering from lunacy, an insane person 2 adj a (obs) Moonstruck, b mad, insane lunation, n [1 lūnäsün, 2 lūnäsün] lune & -ation Period of time between new moons lunch, n & vb intrans & trans [1 lunsh, 2 läp] For luncheon 1 n Luncheon 2 vb a intrans To partake of luncheon, b trans, to give luncheon to to lunch a friend at one's club luncheon, n [1 lunshun, 2 länpä] fr dial lunch, 'lump, lump of food', a word w no definite origin, & on a par w lump, hunch, & such forms, prob influenced by obnunchion a Light meal consumed between breakfast and dinner, b (among labourers) hunch of bread and cheese or bacon, eaten at about 10 a m lune, n [1 lün, 2 lün] Fr, fr Lat lūna, 'moon', wh is fr lūna*, fr base fü-, 'to shine' &c See lucent & lucus Object or figure shaped like a half moon or crescent lunette, n [1 lünät, 2 lünät] Fr, fr lunette, 'little moon', applied to a number of objects having a round or half-round form, used esp in sense of 'eye glass' Prec & -ette Applied to various crescent-shaped objects a an opening in a vaulted roof to admit light, b (fort) a projecting work having an inner open base, and two external faces formed by two walls running parallel for some distance and then sloped towards each other and meeting to form an angle, c watch-glass with flattened centre lung, n [1 lung, 2 lan] OE lungen, 'lungs', OHG lungun Connected with light (IV), 'not heavy', cp lights 1 One of the organs of respiration in air-breathing animals, gen used in pl., the lungs in inflammation of the lungs, pneumonia, but also the right, left, lung Phr to have good lungs, a powerful voice 2 (fig) A large open space pervaded with pure fresh air, esp in or near a big city lunge (I), n & vb trans [1 lun, 2 landz] Fr longe, 'strap, hme, for leading a horse', fr Lat longus, 'long' See long (I) a n Long line attached to a horse's head piece for breaking him in, b vb, to train by means of a lunge, to cause to leap while attached to a lunge to lunge a horse (over a fence) &c lunge (II), n & vb intrans Earlier allonge, Fr, op allonger, 'to lengthen, stretch out', fr Lat longus, 'long' See long 1 n A thrust in fencing, b a sudden thrust, or thrusting blow delivered with any kind of weapon 2 vb To make a lunge, to thrust lungfish, n [1 lungfish, 2 laŋfi] A kind of fish, belonging to group known as Dipnoi, q v, which have lungs as well as gills, also called mud fish lunkah, n [1 lungkah, 2 laŋka], fr Hind lanla Kind of oboe lupin, n [1 lōpin, lupin, 2 lupin, lupin] Fr, fr Lat lupinus, same as next word, reason for the name not clear Plant much cultivated in gardens for its long spiky clusters of white, yellow, pink or purple blossom lupine, adj [1 lupin, lōpin, 2 lupin, lupin] Lat lupinus, 'of, connected with, a wolf', fr lupus, 'wolf', wh is fr ul*/os*, & cogn w Goth wulfs, OE wulf See wolf, & cp vulpine Wolf like, fierce, ravenous lupus, n [1 lōpus, 2 lūpas] Lat lupus, 'wolf' See pre Tuberculous disease which destroys the skin and soft tissues of the face lurch (I), n & vb intrans [1 lēroh, 2 līt] Origin doubtful 1 n A sudden staggering movement, a pitching forward or sideways, caused by loss of balance, as in the walk of drunken man, or one who walks on deck of a rolling ship 2 vb To pitch forward or sideways with a lurch lurch (II), n Fr lourche, obsolete game something like backgammon, apparently used formerly to denote a critical phase in a game Obs, except in Phr to leave one in the lurch, desert him at moment of danger, leave him in awkward position lurcher, n [1 lērch, 2 lītja] For lurker, see lurk & -er Dog of nondescript breed, something between collie and greyhound, esp one used by poachers lurdan, n [1 lēdan, 2 lād(a)n] O Fr lourdain, fr lourd, 'heavy', fr Lat lurdus, 'pale, wan' See lurid This etymol, in spite of doubts wh have been raised, is upheld by Meyer Lübke who takes the development of meaning to be, 'pale, fainting, perturbed in mind, foolish' The sense 'heavy' in Fr & Mod Provenç is derived fr the physical effects of fainting, in loss of control of the movements &c (archaic and poet) A dull heavy, stupid person lure (I), n [1 lūr, 2 hā hua] fr O Fr lucere &c, Mod Fr lucire, fr Frankish lōp, 'bait, carion', O HG luoder Mod Germ luder, 'decor' &c, prob connected w OE lapan, OHG lōdōr, Goth lapan, 'to invite', cp also Goth. lōþōn 'invitation, consolation' 1 n Device consisting of a bunch of feathers and a bait, attached to a long cord, used for catching birds b decoy used for attracting wild animals 2. a Anything which invites draws on, attracts by an apparent promise of gain or pleasure, b arts and graces, charms, wiles etc lure (II) vb trans & intrans, fr pre

1 trans A to recall (falcon), b to attract, entice, decoy, (often in bad sense) to lure a person to his death, to lure on, persuade, entice, cause to proceed on a disastrous course of action 2 intrans To recall a hawk to its lure lurid, adj [1 lūrid, 2 hōrid] Lat lūridus, 'pale yellow, sallow, wan, ghastly, lurid', cogn w Gk khōrōs, 'pale green, bright green, pale, pallid' (see chloro-) 1 Glowing, appearing bright like fire a lurid sky, sunset, (of pictures) highly coloured, garish 2 (in moral sense) Characterized by sensational, tragic, events, startling actions, filled with passion or crime a lurid career luridly, adv Prec & -ly In a lurid manner luridness, n See pre & -ness State, quality, of being lurid lurk, vb intrans [1 lērk, 2 lik] Origin doubtful 1 To remain hidden, be privily and furtively retired, to skulk in a corner, as though shunning observation, to be in wait 2 (fig) To be latent in, exist unsuspected, reside in unperceived a strange beauty lurks in the autumn woodland lurking-place, n [1 lērkŋ plās, 2 līkŋ plēs] Secret haunt, lair, hiding place lurry, n [1 lūr, 2 lār] Variant of lorry luscious, adj [1 lushus, 2 laʃəs] Origin doubtful, perh fr delicious, influenced by lush 1 A appealing strongly to the taste and smell, highly flavoured, having a rich fragrance, b possessing these qualities to excess, cloying to the palate, too sweet and full flavoured 2 Suggestive of sensuous delight and richness luscious colouring, style lusciously, adv Prec & -ly In a luscious degree, in a luscious manner or style lusciousness, n Quality of being luscious lush, adj [1 lush, 2 laʃ] ME luach, 'loose', Mod. dial lash, 'soft and watery', O Fr lasche, 'relaxed, loose', fr Lat laxus See lax (I) a (of herbage &c) Juicy, abundant, luxuriant in growth, b exhibiting lush growth lush pastures lust (I), n [1 lust, 2 last] OE, OS, OHG lust, 'pleasure, desire, lust', Goth lustus, op Lat lascivus, 'unrestrained, wanton, playful, lustful' (see lascivious), cp also Russ lasy, 'full of desire, covetous' a Bodily appetite the lusts of the flesh, b speed (x) sexual appetite, (u) unlawful, excessive, degrading sensual passion lust (II), vb intrans OE lystan, 'to desire strongly' See preo 1 To feel strong physical desire 2 Lust after, for, to desire passionately, to long for with excessive sexual passion lustful, adj [1 lustfool, 2 lāstfi] lust (I) & -ful Filled with, strongly moved by, powerful sexual appetite, lascivious, lewd lustfully, adv Prec & -ly In a lustful manner lustfulness, n See preo & -ness Condition, quality, of being lustful lusthood, n [1 lusthood, 2 lāstihud] lusty & -hood Condition of being lusty lustily, adv [1 lūstih, 2 lāstili] lusty & -ly With vigour, powerfully, forcefully to shout, lay about one, lustily lustiness, n [1 lustines, 2 lāstinis] See preo & -ness Strength, vigour, flourishing health lustral, adj [1 lūstral, 2 lāstral] Lat lustrālis, 'pertaining to purification from guilt, expiatory' See lustrum & -al

Connected with, used in, ceremonial purification lustral season, lustral water lustrate, vb trans [1 lūstrāt, 2 lāstrēt] Lat lustrāt um, PP of lustrare, 'to purify' See lustrum To cleanse, purge, from guilt by propitiatory offerings and ceremonies lustration, n [1 lūstrāshun, 2 lāstrēshən] Prec & -ion. Purificatory, expiatory, ceremony lustre (I), n See lustrum lustre (II), n [1 lūster, 2 lāstə] Fr lucire, as fr Lat lūstrum* for lūstrum*, 'illumination', cp Lat. lustrare, 'to illumine', fr base lūc-*, 'light' See lucent 1 a Brilliance, gloss, sheen, beauty, specif b iridescence, metallic sheen, gloss, imparted by a glaze to pottery, or by special process to the surface of fabrics 2 Moral or intellectual brilliance or splendour, distinction, renown, fame, prestige to give new lustre to an honoured name lustreless, adj [1 lusterles, 2 lāstalis] Prec & -less Lacking brightness or lustre lustre-ware, n Kind of pottery the surface of which has a metallic sheen resembling silver, pewter, copper &c lustring, also lustrating, n [1 lustring, lūstring, 2 lāstrig, lūstrig] Fr lustrine, fr lustre (II) & -ine Silk fabric with glossy, sheeny surface lustrous, adj [1 lūstrus, 2 lāstrəs] lustre (II) & -ous Luminous, brilliant, shining, resplendent lustrously, adv. Prec & -ly With lustre lustrum, lustre, n [1 lustrum, luster, 2 lāstrum, lāstə] Lat lūstrum, 'purificatory sacrifice, made every five years, after a census', hence 'period of five years', fr base of luere, 'to wash' See lave Period of five years lusty, adj [1 lusti, 2 lasti] lust & -y Vigorous, powerful, as with the strength of youth and health lusus naturae, n [1 lūsus nātūrē, 2 hūzəs neitʃuəri] Lat, 'sport, freak, of nature', fr lūs (um), stem of ludere, 'to play, sport' See ludicrous A remarkable, abnormal, natural object lutamist, n [1 lūtanist, 2 hūtanist] Low Lat lutaniata See next word Lute player lute (I), n [1 lūt, lōt, 2 hūt, lūt] O Fr leut, Ital luoto, Span laud, prob fr Arab al ūd, 'the timber, wood, harp' Stringed instrument resembling a guitar in shape, played by pinching with the fingers, conventionally associated with poets and poetry Phr rift within the lute, see rift lute (II), n & vb trans Lat lutum, 'mud, clay', cp Gk lūma, fr lut-ma*, 'filth, dirt, disgrace', Lith lutynas, 'puddle' a n Cement or other cohesive substance used for rendering air tight joints in pipes or other apparatus, for sealing vessels &c, also called lutng, b vb, to stop, make airtight, with lute luteo-, pref 1 form of Lat lūteus, 'yellow', used in compounds See next word Yellow-coloured luteous, adj [1 lūteus, 2 hūtiəs] Lat lūteus, 'dyed yellow, golden, or orange yellow', fr lutum, 'weed used by dyers in dying yellow', & -ous, prob fr lut* & cogn. w weald (II), an old name for this plant wh represents a different grade of the base. Of a deep orange yellow colour lustrating, n [1 lūstrig, 2 hūstrig] Popular form of lustring, as though fr lupo (I) & strig

Lutetian, adj [1 lūteshan, 2 hūtiʃən], fr old name Lutetia, 'Paris', & -an Parisian

Lutheran, adj & n [1 lūthəran, 2 lūpəran], fr name of Martin Luther the German reformer (1483-1546) & -an 1 adj Connected with, holding doctrines taught by, Lutheran Lutheran Church, Protestant Evangelical Church of Germany &c 2 n Adherent of Luther's doctrines, member of Lutheran Church

Lutheranism, n [1 lūthəranizəm, 2 lūpəranizəm] Prec & -ism System of religion and religious and ecclesiastical theory founded by Luther lutng, n [1 lūting, 2 hūting] See lute (II) lutist, n [1 lūtist, 2 hūtiʃt] lute (I) & -ist Lute player, lutamist luxate, vb trans [1 luksāt, 2 lāksēt] Lat luxāt (um), PP type of luxare, 'to dislocate', cp Lat luxus, 'dislocated', connected w Gk lupizein, 'to bend, lugos, with'

To displace, dislocate, to put out of joint. luxation n [1 luksāshun, 2 lāksēshən] Prec & -ion. Act or process of dislocating, state of being dislocated.

luxu, n [1 looks, 2 luks, lyks] Fr. 'luxury', fr Lat luxus, 'excess, debauchery, luxury, pomp, magnificence', perh fr base luc-, to shine, be brilliant, & See Lucent Elegance, sumptuousness, in various Phrs articles de luxe, édition de luxe, splendidly printed and produced edition of a book luxuriance, -cy, n [1 luksúrins(1), 2 laksúrins(1)] Fr See luxuriant & -ous Prolific growth, excessive abundance, exuberance, (also fig) luxuriance of imagination luxuriant, adj [1 luksúriant, 2 laksúriant] Lat luxuriante(-em), Pres Part of luxuriare See next word 1 Extremely productive, abundantly fertile luxuriant soil. 2 a Excessively prolific, growing and thriving abundantly, exuberant, growing lush luxuriant growth, pasture, foliage & ; b (also of intellectual and emotional production) copious, exuberant luxuriant imagination 3 (of expression and style) Flowery, florid, lacking in restraint and austerity luxuriate, vb intrans [1 luksúrát, 2 laksúrát] Lat luxuriat(-um), PP type of luxuriare, 'to be rank, to have in abundance, to be too fruitful, to revel, be wanton', fr luxuria, 'rankness, luxury', fr luxus, 'excess' See luxu & luxury 1 To grow luxuriantly, grow rankly and exuberantly 2 To indulge in, dwell upon, take delight in exhibiting, run riot in some writers luxuriate in horrors 3 To revel in, take delight in, enjoy to luxuriate in sunshine, in the sea air &c luxurious, adj [1 luksúrús; 2 laksúrús] Lat luxurius, 'luxuriant, voluptuous', fr luxuria See luxury & -ous 1 (of persons and habits) Delighting in, exhibiting a love of, luxury, self-indulgent, extravagant, 2 (of things) Contributing to extreme comfort, sumptuous, splendid a luxurious house, luxurious furniture, bed, food &c luxury, n [1 luksúrú, 2 laksúrú] Lat luxuria, 'luxuriance, riotous living, extravagance, redundancy', fr luxus See luxu 1 A State, mode, of life characterized by great ease and comfort, and by availability of the means to gratify one's tastes and desires to live in luxury Phr in the lap of luxury, surrounded by every comfort and gratification, b habits of indulgence in costly pleasure made effeminate by luxury 2 Something, an object or circumstance, which contributes to comfort and enjoyment, esp something which is not an essential necessity of life, often spent contrasted with necessity his means sufficed for a meagre existence, but could not procure him any luxuries, a few small luxuries and comforts, what is, economically, a luxury today is the necessity of tomorrow 3 An intellectual or emotional enjoyment, also that which produces these the luxury of a good book, of leisure, of a holiday after prolonged work

-ly, suff [1 li, 2 li] 1 Suff forming adjs, chiefly fr ns, O E -lic, M E -lich, -ly, same as the independent word meaning 'body, shape' & See first element in lichgate & like (1) The force is 'resembling in appearance, having the nature and character of' kingly, manly, motherly, daughterly, fleshly, bodily, also added to adj w slight modification of sense goodly 2 Suff forming advs fr adjs & parts used as snob, & occasionally fr ns, O E -lice, a dat of lic Examples badly, wrongly, smugly, contentedly, luxuriously &c, fr ns monthly, yearly, by the month, year &c lycanthropy, n [1 líkánthrú, 2 lákán-thrú] Gk lykos, 'wolf', oogn w lypus & wolf, & anthrôpos, 'man'. See under anthropology 1 Transformation of a human being into a wolf which, according to ancient legend, took place as the result of magic spells See were-wolf 2 Disease, form of insanity, in which the patient believes himself to be a wolf and attempts to behave like one lycée, n [1 lísá, 2 lísá] Fr See lyceum French State secondary school lyceum, n [1 lísúm, 2 láisúm] Latinized form of Gk lykeion, a gymnasium with covered walks in Athens, where Aristotle taught, named after the neighbouring temple of Apollo Lykeios, the latter word means 'wolf slaying', & was an epithet of Apollo See first element in lycanthropy Building serving as headquarters of a literary society, usually containing library, reading and lecture rooms

lychgate, n See lichgate

lychnus, n [1 líknus, 2 líknus] Gk lychnos, op lychnos, 'a lamp', fr Gk base leuk, luk, 'bright, shining' See leuco-, also lucent &c One of several related kinds of scarlet or white flowering plants, ragged robin lycopodium, n [1 líkopódium, 2 láikopódium] Latinized form, fr Gk lykos, 'wolf' (see lycanthropy), & pod-, pous, 'foot' (see pedal) Large genus of evergreen plants, ground pine, club moss lycopodium powder, n Powder composed of spores of lycopodium, highly inflammable and used in manufacture of fireworks, also used medicinally lyddite, n [1 lídit, 2 lídat] fr Lydd in Kent, where it was manufactured High explosive, of picric acid, used in shells

Lydian, adj & n [1 lídian, 2 lídian] fr Lydia, ancient country in Asia Minor 1 adj a Belonging to Lydia or its inhabitants, b soft, effeminate, voluptuous (referring to character of Lydian culture), esp of one of the modes of ancient Greek music 2 n a Inhabitant of Lydia, b language of Lydia lye, he, n [1 lí, 2 lí] O E lēah, M E lese, leye, O H G louga, O N laug, 'hot bath, hot spring', ultimately fr base lau*, lu*, 'to wash' Cp lave, lucivate, lather Strong alkaline solution made by soaking wood-ashes in water, used in washing, and soap-making lying, adj [1 líng, 2 lí-ŋ] fr Pres Part of lie (II) False, stating, expressing, an untruth a lying prophet, story, rumour &c lying-in, n [1 líng in, 2 lí-ŋ in] State attending childbirth, confinement, lying in hospital, one which receives women about to be confined lyme-grass, n [1 lím grahs, 2 láim grás] Origin unknown Grass which grows on sand dunes and binds the sand, preventing it from shifting lymph, n [1 límf, 2 límf] Lat lymph, lymph, lympa, 'pure spring water' Etymol unknown, the only suggestion seems to be that the word is borrowed, w dissimilation, fr Gk lymphē See lymph 1 (poet) Spring of water, something pure and clear like water 2 a (physiol) A colourless fluid found in the lymphatic vessels, somewhat similar to the blood in character, but containing no red corpuscles, b (med) clear substance which exudes from inflamed tissues, c substance exuding from the vesicles formed in certain diseases such as cow-pox, or produced artificially in certain media, and used for inoculations against smallpox lymphatic, adj & n [1 límfatik, 2 límfatik], fr prec 1 adj a Pertaining to, containing, secreting lymph lymphatic glands, ducts &c, b having a complexion and temperament of a kind formerly supposed to be due to excess of lymph, i.e. pale, bloodless, sluggish, inactive, heavy 2 n (usually in pl) Lymphatic vessel or gland of the body lympho-, pref Form of Lat lymph used in medical compounds, used in medical terms, e.g. lymphocel, tumour containing lymph, lymphocyte, cell found in lymph lyncean, adj [1 línsán, 2 línsáa] See lynx & -an a Connected with the lynx, b having sharp sight lynch, vb trans [1 líns, 2 líŋ] Origin obscure See Lynch law To execute judgement, esp capital punishment, upon, without the formalities of a legal trial and sentence, to hang, or put to death by any means, as a result of popular indignation and impatience, the punishment being inflicted by the mob lynchet, n [1 línschet, 2 líntst], fr O E hinc, 'slope', q v under link (IV) 1 Strip of grassland left unploughed 2 Terrace formed on slope of downs &c as result of ploughing in prehistoric times lynching, n [1 línsing, 2 línsŋ] Act of executing a suspected person according to the principles of Lynch law

Lynch law, n Formerly Lynch's law, supposed to be derived from name of a magistrate (d. 1706), in Virginia, U.S.A., who started the practice which goes by his name Rapid, summary justice, carried out by an indignant and impatient mob, who will not wait for the formalities of a trial lynx, n [1 língks, 2 lípks] Lat, fr Gk lyx, prob connected w leussein, 'to see, look at', op Sert lōlayat, 'he looks at', Lith laukti, 'to await, look out for', O H G luogen, 'to watch', O E lōcan See look (I) The name is derived fr the animal's keen sight Animal of the cat tribe, greyish, or pale brown in colour, having a short thick tail and tufted ears lynx-eyed, adj Keen-sighted

Lyon, n [1 lín, 2 láisn] Old spelling of lion, fr the Royal Arms of Scotland Lord Lyon, Lord Lyon King of Arms, title of the chief Herald of Scotland

Lyra, n [1 líra, 2 láisra] Lat, fr Gk lyra See lyre Name of a Northern constellation, supposed to represent the lyre of Orpheus lyrate(d), adj [1 lírát, líráted, 2 láisrént, láisréntid] lyre & -ate Shaped like a lyre lyre, n [1 lír, 2 láis] Lat lyra, Gk lyra, perh fr base lu*, leu*, wh occurs in an extended form in Lat laud, stem of laus, 'praise' (see laud), op O E lōp, 'song', O H G liod, Mod Germ lied, O E lōdan, Goth liupōn, 'to sing' Form of harp with seven strings, used by the ancient Greeks for accompanying song and recitation lyre bird, n Small Australian bird whose tail feathers are long and curved into the shape of a lyre lyric, n [1 lírik, 2 lírik] See next word A lyrical poem, words for a song lyric(al), adj [1 lírik(1), 2 lírik(1)] Gk lyrikos, 'singing to the lyre, a lyrio poet' See lyre & -io (& -al) a Pertaining to a lyre, adapted for singing to the lyre, hence, b (of poet) composed in the form of a song, usually in regular stanzas, lyrical poetry expresses the poet's emotion rather than a description of events, lyrical poet, composer of lyrics Phr (of persons) to become quite lyrical, give emotional expression to strong feeling lyricism, n [1 lírisizm, 2 lírisizm] lyrio & -ism a Lyrical quality or character in a poetical composition, b lyrical expression, emotional expression lyrist, n [1 lírist, lírist, 2 láisrist, lírist] lyre & -ist a A player on the lyre, b a lyrical poet

-lysis, suff Gk lysis, 'a loosening', fr lyein, 'to loose', cogn w Sert lundit, 'to cut', Lat luere, 'to pay', solvere (fr e-lu-*), 'to loose, separate' (see solvs), Goth lau, 'empty', O E lēas, 'free from' (see -less) The base is lél*, leu*, 'to cut, loosen', n suff signifying 'a loosening, dissolving, solution' &c electrolysis

lysol, n [1 lísol, 2 láisól] fr Gk lysis, 'loosening', fr lyein, 'to loose', see prec & -ol (med) A dark, oily liquid, soluble in water, obtained by mixing creosol with castor or linseed oil, and saponifying with caustic potash and alcohol, used as a powerful antiseptic and disinfectant

-lytic, suff Gk lytikos, 'loosening', fr lyein, 'to loose', adj suff corresponding to -lysis, wh forms ns analytic, paralytic

M

M, m [1 om, 2 em], the thirteenth letter of the English alphabet, as Roman numeral = 1000, mille, for abbreviations see list at end of Dictionary

-m, -ma, -me, n suff representing Gk -ma, forming ns. denoting result of vbl action poem, phantasm, diaphragm, theme, drama Adjs fr these ns have mat, as in the stem of the Gk ns dramatic &c ma, n [1 mah, 2 mā] Abbr fr mamma (vulg) Mother ma'am, n [1 mam, mahm, mm, 2 mām, mām, m(a)m] Contracted fr madam Form of address, used esp to royal ladies [mām], or by servant to mistress &c macabre, adj [1 makahr, 2 makabr] Fr, O Fr Macabre. Origin much disputed, prob for Mocabe, fr Maccabeus (see Maccabean), a character in an old French morality play Gruesome, terrible, dance macabre, dance of death macaco, n [1 makāhō, 2 makāhou]. Port monkey. Cp macaque. A species of lemur esp the black lemur macadam n [1 makadam, 2 makadēm], fr name of John Loudon MacAdam, inventor (d. 1836) Material for making surface of roads consisting of hard stone broken small and rolled in with some binding material, (also attrit) macadam road &c macadamization, n [1 makādamīzāshun, 2 makādamīzēshun] See next word & -ation. Process of treating surface of roads by MacAdam's method.

macadamize, vb trans [1 makādemiz, 2 makādemīz] macadam & -ize To cover surface (of road) with macadam macaque, n [1 makahr, 2 makāh] Fr, fr Port. macaco, 'monkey'. See macaco Etymol. unknown, prob fr a native S Am word. Any monkey belonging to the genus Macacus, with short tails, they belong to Asia and the Far East, except the Barbary ape of N Africa macaroni, n [1 makārōni; 2 makārōni] Ital. macaroni. Etymol. unknown 1 Thin, tough paste made from wheat flour, formed into long tubes and dried, these are used as food when boiled. 2 Young dandy of 18th cent, affecting continental manners and fashions macaronic, adj & n [1 makārōnik, 2 makārōnik] Prec & -ic 1 adj (of verse) Written in a burlesque style, with foreign, usually Latin words and modern words with Latin endings 2 n (usually in pl) a Macaronic verse b mixture, medley, jumble macaroon n [1 makārōn, 2 makārōn], fr Fr macaron, fr Ital. macaroni. See macaroni. Small, flat, crisp, sweet cake made of ground almonds macartney n [1 makartni, 2 makārtni] fr Lord Macartney (d 1806) Kind of pheasant macassar n [1 makasar, 2 makase], fr Mangkassar island in Celebes group Also macassar oil, kind of oil imported from the East, widely used formerly for dressing the hair macaw (I), n [1 makaw, 2 makā] Port macao prob fr native S Am name Genus of large, brightly coloured parrots, native to tropical America macaw (II), n fr Carib Kind of tropical American palm Maccabean adj [1 makabēan, 2 makabēan] fr Lat Maccabae (-ae) fr Gk Makabaios, fr Hebrew Of belonging to, the Jewish family of the Maccabees, who resisted the oppression of their nation by the Greek kings of Syria in the 2nd cent B C maccaboy, maccabaw, n [1 makaboi, baw, 2 makaboi; bō] fr Maccobas in Martinique Kind of scented snuff mace (I), n [1 mäs, 2 meis], fr O Fr mace, fr assumed Lat macea*, cp Lat dimin matcola, 'tool for digging in the ground', cogn w Sert motyam, 'implement', O Slav motyka, 'hatchet', OHG medela, 'plough', orig 'edged tool' 1 (hist) Weapon consisting of a heavy iron club with spiked head 2 Symbol of authority shaped like mace, borne before mayors, heads of universities &c, when acting in an official capacity, specif, the Mace, symbol of the Speaker's authority in the House of Commons, placed on the table when he is in the chair 3 Flat-headed stick used in bagatelle mace (II), n, fr Fr mouss Etymol. unknown Outer layer of nutmeg, dried and used as spice mace-bearer, n Person carrying official mace in procession &c macedoine, n [1 masādwañ, 2 masēdwāñ] Fr A dish consisting of fruit or vegetables embedded in jelly macerate, vb trans & intrans [1 mäsērāt, 2 mäsērēt], fr Lat macerāt (um), PP type of macerare, 'to soak in water, to weaken, reduce', orig 'to knead in, to press', op Gk massein, 'to knead', fr malj-*, Sert malatē, 'he grinds', also OE mengan, 'to mix' See mingle, cp magma 1 trans a To steep, soften by soaking, b (fig) to mortify, torment to macerate the soul 2 in trans To become emaciated through fasting maceration, n [1 mäsērāshun, 2 mäsērēshun] Prec & -ion. Act or process of macerating machete, n [1 mechatā, 2 mat[er]et] Span A large, heavy knife, used in S America &c as cutting implement and as a weapon

-machia, suff See -machy

Machiavel (h), n [1 makāvel(t), 2 makāvel(s)], fr Niccolò Machiavelli (d 1527), of Florence, author of 'Il Principe', which advocates the principle that any political means, no matter how unscrupulous, are justifiable, which strengthen the central government of a State Crafty, subtle person, who sacrifices moral scruples to the attainment of power, or furtherance of his ends

Machiavellian, adj [1 makāvelīan, 2 makāvelīan] Prec & -ian Following, based on the principles of Machiavelli, subtle and unscrupulous in attaining ends

Machiavellism, n [1 makāvelizm, 2 makāvelizm] Machiavel & -ism Principles and methods advocated by Machiavelli machicolate, vb trans [1 mechikolāt, 2 mat[er]ikolēt], fr Med Lat machicolāt (um), PP type of machicollare, the origin of first element is doubtful, for the second see coulisse & portullus To provide with machicolations machicolation, n [1 machikolāshun, 2 mat[er]ikolēshun] Prec & -ion Opening in the floor of a projecting gallery or parapet, at the top of a wall or tower, made between the corbels which support the parapet, the purpose of machicolations is to enable the garrison of a fortified place to hurl missiles, or pour boiling liquid, upon the attackers machicolis, n [1 makāshukōsh, 2 mat[er]ikūlī] Fr machicollis. See prec Machicolation machinate, vb intrans [1 makināt, 2 makinēt] fr Lat machināt (um), PP type of machināre, 'to invent, devise', fr machin (a), scheme, device' See machine To plot, scheme, intrigue, contrive machination, n [1 makināshun, 2 makinētshun] Prec & -ion Act process, of machining plot, intrigue, subtle contrivance machinator, n [1 makinātor, 2 makinētō] See prec & -or Plotter, schemer machine (I) n [1 mashēn, 2 mōshin] Fr, fr Lat machina, Gk machinē, military engine, device, trick, fr Gk mekhanē, 'means, expedient', machine, engine, fr mēkh (oe), 'contrivance', cogn w Goth magon, 'to be able', OE mæg, 'I can', see may (I), OE meht, 'power', see might, OE mægen, 'strength', see main (I) See also mechanic 1 A Apparatus consisting of several parts, some of which move in specific manner and direction, and each of which is adapted for a special function, designed to produce a desired effect, device for transmitting and modifying power so as to direct motion and perform a certain kind of work, a machine is the intermediary between the motive power and those parts which actually carry out the movements necessary to the required work sewing, mowing, reaping, machine, b (more gen) a material contrivance designed for any purpose, Phr the god from the machine (fr Lat deus ex machina), from use in ancient Greek tragedy of a god appearing suddenly to solve a plot &c, hence any sudden intervention to solve a difficulty 2 (of persons) One who acts like a machine, performing certain functions as it were automatically, without the exercise of reason or emotion to become a mere machine 3 An organized system under definite control for carrying out specific functions, together with the persons engaged in the work, and the prescribed methods according to which they act the machine of government, the social machine, the political party, machine machine (II), vb trans, fr free a To apply a machine to, so as to effect its purpose, to shape, form, by use of a machine or machinery to machine cloth, steel &c, b to print by a printing machine &c machine-gun, n Quick-firing small-arm gun with mechanism for loading and firing, operated by the recoil on discharge, or by the explosion of the gas machine-made, adj Made by machinery; contrasted with hand made machinery, n [1 mashēnri, 2 mōshinri] machines & -ery 1 Machines collectively

2 A The moving parts of a machine the various devices contained in it by means of which the work is accomplished, mechanism, b organized methods by which a political or other system is carried on 3 Series of mechanical or supernatural devices, used for development of the plot or denouement in a drama poem &c machine-tool n A cutting, shaping, turning tool worked not by hand but by machinery machinist, n [1 mashēnist, 2 mōshinist] machines & -ist 1 A Person who makes machines, b one skilled in control of machinery 2 One who works a machine, specif, sewing machine

-machy, -machia, suff meaning 'battle, war', fr Gk makhē, 'battle', the base is seen also in malhoma, 'I fight', the etymol is disputed, but the word is prob connected w Goth māleis, OE (poet) mece, OS maki, 'sword', although the -e of the Gmo words offers difficulties macintosh, macintosh, n [1 makintosh, 2 makintosh], fr name of inventor, Charles Macintosh (d 1843) 1 Cotton or other fabric made waterproof by treating with a solution of rubber, or with lining of a layer of rubber 2 Garment made of such material, a waterproof coat mackerel, n [1 makarel, 2 mak(ə)rēl], fr O Fr makarel Mod Fr magureau Etymol. unknown Edible fish, genus Scomber of the Atlantic and the coasts of Europe having a silvery belly, and a greenish grey back with dark bluish stripes mackerel-breeze -gale n Strong breeze, as favourable to mackerel fishing mackerel-sky, n One streaked like the back of a mackerel mackle, n [1 maki, 2 maki] Variant of macle, fr Lat macula, 'spot' a A printer's term for a blurred impression, b a spot of deeper colour on a lighter background mackled, adj [1 mækld, 2 mæklɔ] Preo & -ed Of the edges of books, spotted with irregular shaped blotches of deeper colour than the ground macle, n [1 mækl, 2 mækl] Fr, fr Lat macula, 'spot', origin doubtful A twinned crystal Macoonochie, n [1 makónoki, 2 mæknéki], fr maker's name A tinned stew of meat and vegetables, issued as army rations during the Great War macramé, n [1. makráhmi, 2 makrámi] Perh fr Turk magrama, 'towel' Fringe or other ornamental work of knotted thread macro-, pref representing Gk makrós (s), 'long, large', orig of things long in proportion to their thickness, cogn w Lat macer, 'thin', O N magr, O E mæger, 'thin' See maigre Long, large, macrocephalous, having a long or large head, macropod, long-footed or long-legged animal, macroscopic, visible to the naked eye macrocosm, n [1 makrókɔzm, 2 mækrɔkɔzm] See preo & cosmos The great world, the universe, contrasted with microcosm macron, n [1 makron, 2 mækrɔn] Gk makrón, neut form of makrós, 'long' See preo Short horizontal line placed over vowel (ā) to show that the sound is long macrurous, adj [1 makróurus, 2 mækrurus] Formed fr Neo Lat macrura, fr macro- & Gk ourá, 'tail', see -ure & -ous (zool) Having a long tail, specif, belonging to the division Macrura of crustaceans which includes the lobsters, crayfish, prawns, shrimps &c macula, n [1 mákula, 2 mækjula] Lat macula, 'spot, mark' Etymol doubtful Dark spot a on surface of sun or moon, b flaw, fault, in minerals, c spot, blemish, permanent mark, on surface of skin macular, adj [1 mákular, 2 mækjula] See preo & -ar Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, hearing, spot(s) or stain(s) maculation, n [1 makúlášun, 2 mækjulé-] fr Lat maculāt (um), PP type of maculare, 'to make spotted', see macula, & -ion a State of being spotted, b spot, stain, blemish mad (I), adj [1 mad, 2 mæd] O E (ge)mæded, PP of (ge)mædan, 'to drive mad', ME mad(de), cp OS gimad, OH G gamaet, 'foolish', Goth gamaþs, 'weak, crippled', maþgan, 'to change, alter, to spoil, mar' Cogn w Lat mutāre, fr mut-*, 'to change' &c See mutate, see also mis- 1 A out of one's mind, insane, disordered in intellect, Phr to go mad, become mad, to drive one mad, madden, to work rrr &c like mad, furiously, with very great energy, b beside oneself, temporarily out of one's senses, highly wrought up mad with pain, rage, drink &c 2 (of dog &c) Affected with rabies 3 Proceeding from a disordered mind mad ravings, laughter &c 4 Having an uncontrollable desire, excited by strong passion, vehemently eager, infatuated to be mad for, after, about, on, something 5 (of person or conduct) Foolish, rash, irrational, extravagant, wild a mad enterprise 6 Annoyed, angry, furious 7 Extravagantly gay, wildly hilarious mad (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo (rare) 1 trans To cause to become mad, madden 2 intrans To be mad, act madly, be distracted, esp in Pres Part as in Phr the madding crowd ('Gray's 'Elegy') madam, n [1 mædam, 2 mædam] Fr ma dame, 'my lady' See dame Polite, formal, mode of addressing women, in speaking, and in beginning letters (to strangers), formerly used before surname instead of Mrs., in speaking to, and of, women of superior birth or position madame n [1 madám, 2 mædam] Semi-French spelling and pronunciation used in speaking to, and of, and in writing to French ladies, also prefixed to surnames, and used before titles Madame Dubois, Madame la Baronne &c madcap, n [1 mádkap, 2 mædkæp] Rash, high spirited, impulsive girl madden, vb trans & intrans [1 mádn, 2 mædn] mad (I) & -en 1 trans a To drive mad, distract, make demented, b to irritate, infuriate 2 (rare) intrans To become mad.

maddening, adj [1 mædening, 2 mædn-ɪp] Preo & -ing a Tending to excite powerfully, tending to render distracted, b tending to infuriate maddeningly, adv Preo & -ly In a maddening manner madder (I), n [1 máder, 2 mæde] O E mædere, ME mader, op Swed madra, cogn w Sort madhura, 'sweet, tender', also madhūrā, plant-name See further under mead (I) 1 Yellow-flowered plant, Rubia, whose roots yield a red dye 2 a Dye obtained from madder, b artificial colouring matter as substitute for natural madder, alizarin madder (II), adj Compar of mad mad-doctor, n One skilled in treatment of the insane, alienist made, adj [1 mād, 2 meɪd] PP of make, O E macod, ME maked, made Special uses, a made dish, food prepared from several ingredients, often of meat recooked, contrasted with a plain joint, b (of person, figure &c) well, slightly made &c, formed, built, o a made man, one who has attained success

Madeira, n [1 madéra, 2 mædərə] Port Name of island in the Atlantic, fr Lat materia, 'timber', see material 1 A tawny-coloured wine from Madeira 2 Madeira cake, rich, sweet cake without fruit

Madeiran See Magdalenian

mademoiselle, n [1 mædmɛzɛl, 2 mædmɛzl] Fr See damsel Title used in speaking to or of unmarried French women, applied also, in England, to unmarried women of foreign nationalities other than French madhouse, n [1 mad-hous, 2 mædhous] Lunatic asylum madly, adv [1 mádl, 2 mædlɪ] mad (I) & -ly In a mad manner, as though one were mad, wildly, furiously madman, -woman, n [1 mádman, -wɔdman, 2 mædmən, -wumən] One who is mad, a lunatic Phr to behave, talk, like a madman, wildly, excitedly, irresponsibly madness, n [1 mædnɛs, 2 mædmɛs] mad & -ness 1 State of being mad, insanity, intense temporary excitement, perturbation of mind 2 Mad action, conduct, proceeding

Madonna, n [1 madɔna, 2 mædnɔna] Ital ma, fr ma, 'my', & domna, 'lady', fr Lat domina, 'lady', q v under dame a The Virgin Mary, b picture, statue &c of the B V M

Madonna lily, n The white lily, as often depicted in paintings of the Annunciation madrasah, medresseh, n [1 madrasa, 2 mædrasə] Arab madrasa, fr daras, 'to read' Moslem college madrepore, n [1 mædrɛpɔr, 2 mædrɛps], fr Ital madrepore, fr madre, 'mother', fr its rapid rate of production, fr Lat māter (see mater), & porus, 'pore' (see pore (I)), or Gk pōros, 'soft, friable stone' etymol doubtful a Any of several kinds of perforated coral, b animal producing this madreporic, adj [1 mædrɛporɪk, 2 mædrɛporɪk] Preo & -ic Of, composed of, of the nature of, madrepore madrepórfórm, adj [1 mædrɛpɔrɔfɔrm, 2 mædrɛpɔrɔfɔrm] See preo & -fórm. Like madrepore madrigal, n [1 mádrɪgl, 2 mædrɪgl], fr Ital madrigale, etymol doubtful a Short love lyric, b music in several parts, for such a song, sung without accompaniment madrigalian, n [1 mádrɪgəlɪən, 2 mædrɪgəlɪən] Preo & -ian Of, of the character of, a madrigal madrigalist, n [1 mædrɪgəlɪst, 2 mædrɪgəlɪst] See preo & -ist Composer, singer, of madrigals Maecenas, n [1 mæseːnas, 2 mɪsɪnas] Name of patron of Horace and Virgil Patron of art or literature.

mælstrom, n [1 málstrom, 2 méilstrom], fr Maelstrom, a whirlpool in Lofoden Islands, off west coast of Norway, cp Dan mæle, 'to grind', cogn w meal, 'flour' &c, & ström, see stream a A whirlpool, specif, the Maelstrom, the whirlpool mentioned above, b (fig) turbulent, violent condition of mind, circumstances &c mælstrom of passion, war &c maenad, n [1 ménad, 2 mínad], fr Lat maenad (em), fr Gk maenád, etem of manas, 'raving', as n, 'a mad woman, hoochante', fr mainomai, 'I rave, rage', fr man jō* See mania Nymph attendant upon Dionysus, a hoochante maestoso, adv [1 mah-estɔzɔ, 2 mæstɔzɔzɔ] Ital, fr Lat majest (as), 'majesty' See majesty & -ose (musical direction) With dignity, majestically maestro, n [1 mah-estrɔ, 2 mæstrɔzɔ] Ital maestro, 'master, maestro', fr Lat magist (ar), 'master' See master Eminent musical composer, conductor, or teacher maffick, vi intrans [1 máfik, 2 mæfik] Back formation fr Mafeking, town in S Africa, held by the British and besieged for many months by the Boers, its relief in 1900 was celebrated uproariously throughout England To indulge in uproarious and riotous rejoicing mafia, n [1 mahha, 2 mæfia] Sicilian mafia, etymol doubtful Organized hostility to law and order in Sicily, those taking part in such lawless hostility, esp the Mafia, the secret organization of this hostility magazine, n [1 magatɪn, 2 mægəzɪn], fr Fr magasin, fr Arab malhazān, 'store rooms', fr khazana, 'to store up' 1 (mil) a Building &c for storing ammunition, food, equipment &c, b storehouse or store room for explosives, c the chamber holding cartridges in a 'magazine rifle' 2 Periodical publication containing articles on various subjects by different writers magazine rifle, n Rifle automatically reloaded from cartridge chamber attached to it magdalen(e), n [1 magdalɛn, 2 mægdəlɪn], fr Mary Magdalene (Luke vii 2 identified w the sinner of Luke vii 37), Magdalen College, Oxford, & Magdalene College, Cam bridge, are pronounced [1 mævdlɪn, 2 mædln] Reformed prostitute

Magdalenian, Madalenian, adj [1 mæ(g)dəlɪn, 2 mæ(g)dəlɪnɪən], fr Fr mag(d)aleniens, fr La Madelaine, Vézère, France (see preo), where discoveries were first made Denoting a period and culture of the latest palaeolithic age, following the Solutren mage, n [1 mā, 2 meɪdʒ], fr Lat magus, 'learned man, magician' See magus (arabian) Magician.

magenta, n [1 majénta, 2 mædjénta] Named after battle of Magenta (N Italy) in 1859, in which year the dye was discovered a Deep, purplish red aniline dye, b colour derived from this maggot, n [1 magot, 2 mægət] ME magot, prob a modification of ME madol, 'flesh worm', op Early ME madel, fr O N madr, see mawkish 1 Larva, esp of a house fly or blow-fly, also of cheese mite, feeding on animal substance 2 (fig) Whim, fad, crochets maggoty, adj [1 mægət, 2 mægətɪ] Preo & -y Full of maggots Maghzen, n [1 mághzen, 2 mæghzen], fr Arab malhazān Cp Arab malhazān, see magazine The executive, administrative Council of Morocco.

Magi, n [1 máji, 2 meidžai], pl of magus Magicians, specif, the Magi, the 'wise men' who visited the infant Saviour (Matt 2), the word is used in the Vulgate

Magian, adj & n [1 májan, 2 meidžian] Preo & -an 1 adj Of the Magi. 2 n a One of the Magi, b magician, magus Magianism, n [1 májanizm, 2 meidžianizm] Preo & -ism Doctrines, philosophy, of the Persian Megi magic (I), n [1 máik, 2 medžik] ME magia, fr Lat magi or (ara) magica, fr Gk (ielhni) magiké, 'magic art'. See next word 1 Feigned superhuman mastery over natural forces and objects, and control of events, sorcery, witchcraft, enchantment, black magic, performed by the aid of wicked spirits, white magic, performed with help from beneficent spirits Phr to act hile magic, in a mysterious but effectual manner 2 Unexplained influence, or method, which produces remarkable and apparently mysterious results, applied to modern conjuring &c. 3 (fig) Mysterious charm, unanalysable witchery, produced upon the senses and emotions by certain kinds of beauty in external objects, or works of art the magic of the woodlands in spring, of Turner's pictures, of great poetry &c magic (II), adj, fr Fr magique, fr Lat magi-(us), fr Gk magik (ds), 'magical', fr mag (os), 'magician' See magus & -ic Not used predicatively 1 Of, pertaining to, produced by, used in, magic, producing the effects of magic magic arts, words, magic lantern, instrument for projecting magnified and illuminated pictures on to a white screen, magic square, a square divided into smaller squares with numbers so arranged that the totals of the horizontal, vertical, and diagonal rows are the same, magic wand, small staff supposed to have mysterious powers, used by magicians and conjurers 2 Working in a mysterious manner, a exerting an influence, producing results, which seem to resemble those produced by occult means the magic skill of the modern surgeon, b mysteriously impressive, beautiful the magic influence of the poet magical, adj [1 májikl, 2 medžikl] Preo & -al Same as preo, but can be used predicatively as well as attributively the effect of the treatment upon the patient was magical magically, adv Preo & -ly In a magical manner by or as if by magic magician, n [1 májishaa, 2 medžifan], fr Fr magicien, magie & -ian Worker of, one skilled in, magic, wizard, enchanter, sorcerer, a conjurer magisterial, adj [1 májistral, 2 medžistral] fr Med Lat magisterial (us), fr L Lat magister (us), 'pertaining to a master', fr Lat magister 'a master', see master, & -ial 1 Of, pertaining to, a master 2 Of, pertaining to, conducted by a magistrate magisterial rank &c 3 a (of persons) Imperial judicial, b (of words, opinions &c) weighty, of moment, authoritative magisterially, adv Preo & -ly In a magisterial manner magistracy, n [1 májistracj, 2 medžistracj] See magistrate & -cy 1 Office or rank of magistrate, magistrate's tenure of office. 2 Magistrates collectively magistral, adj [1 májistral, 2 medžistral] fr Lat magistral (us), 'of a master', fr magister (i) gent of magister, 'master', see master & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, a master 2 (med, of medicines) Specially devised for external use, or for use in particular cases, opposed to of civil or of civil magistrate, n [1 májistrat, 2 medžistrat] fr Lat magistratus (us) 'office of magistrate', high civil officer, magistrate, fr magister stem of magister or magister, see magister & -us 1 Person holding judicial authority, judge. 2 Specified in England preo the corpus, a pointed to try minor offences and small civil cases, one holding the Commission of the Peace, Justice of the Peace, such a person is addressed as your Worship in court, Police Magistrate, paid judicial officer sitting in a Police Court, also Spendidory Magistrate.

magistrateship, n [1 májistratšip, 2 medžistratšip] Preo & -ship Office, rank, term of office, of magistrate magistrature, n [1 májistratšur, 2 medžistratšur] magistrate & -ure Magistracy magma, n [1 mágma, 2 mágma] Lat, fr Gk magma, 'dough', cogn w massein, 'to knead dough', fr mp mp, ep O Slav mp mp, 'to soften', Lith mp mp, 'to knead', OE mp, 'to mix together' See mingle, also macerate 1 Soft doughy, pasty mass of mineral or other matter 2 Molten rock supposed to be beneath earth's crust

Magna Ch(h)arta, n [1 mágna ch(h)arta, karta, 2 mágna tš(h)arta, karta] Med Lat, 'Great Charter' See magnum & chart Great charter obtained from King John in 1215, one of the charters upon which English personal and political liberty is based maganimity, n [1 máganimítj, 2 máganimítj] fr Lat maganimus (em), 'greatness of soul', fr magnum (us), 'high minded' See next word & -ity State or quality of being magnanimous magnanimous, adj [1 máganimus, 2 máganimus] fr Lat magnum (us), 'high minded, generous', fr mag (us), 'great', see magnum, & animus & -ous (of person, conduct &c) Having, showing, greatness of soul, of generous, noble character, above all that is petty, mean, and base magnanimously, adv Preo & -ly In a magnanimous manner magnate, n [1 mágnat, 2 mágnat] fr L Lat mag (em), magnas, 'magnate', fr mag (us), 'great' See magnum Man of high position, wealth, authority, power &c, often with reference to specified class, occupation &c territorial, financial, mag notes &c magnesia, n [1 mágnésia, 2 mágnésia] Med Lat magnésia, fr Gk magnésia (thios), 'stone from Magnesia (in Thessaly), load stone' a Oxide of magnesium, b white alkaline powder obtained from magnesium carbonate and used in medicine as a mild aperient and antacid, epiphote of magnesia, Epsom salts magnesian, adj [1 mágnésian, 2 mágnésian] Preo & -an Of, containing, magnesian magnesium, n [1 mágnézium, 2 mágnézium] See magnesia & -ium Silvery-white metallic element, producing a brilliant white light when burnt magnet, n [1 mágnat, 2 mágnat] fr Lat mag (em), stem of mag (em), 'loadstone', fr Gk magnésia (thios), stone from Magnesia, loadstone 1 Piece of iron or steel which has the property of attracting steel, natural magnet, the loadstone or magneto oxide of iron, artificial magnet, one given the property by contact with another magnet or by passing electric current through coil of copper wire wrapped round it 2 (fig) Person or thing that possesses power of attraction magnetic, adj [1 mágnétik, 2 mágnétik] Preo & -ic 1 Having the properties of a magnet, capable of acting as a magnet, or of transmitting such properties to other substances magnetic field, sphere of influence of a magnet, magnetic needle, piece of magnetized steel on a pivot, as in a compass, which always points to the north, magnetic pole, direction north or south to which the magnetic needle points, the difference between the true and the magnetic pole being the magnetic declination or deviation, magnetic storm, disturbance of terrestrial magnetism 2 (fig) Exercising powerful attraction o magnetic personality, mesmeric magnetic eyes magnetically, adv [1 mágnétikali, 2 mágnétikali] magnetic & -al & -ly In a magnetic manner, by magnetism, also (fig) so as to attract magnetics, n pl [1 mágnétika, 2 mágnétika] fr magnetic Science of magnetism magnetism, n [1 mágnétizm, 2 mágnétizm] magnet & -ism 1 a Natural agency closely connected with electricity, and all the phenomena associated with it, b the science of these phenomena, terrestrial magnetism, magnetic properties of phenomena displayed by the earth, c animal magnetism, mesmerism 2 (fig) Power of intellectual or moral attraction magnetist, n [1 mágnétist, 2 mágnétist] magnet & -ist Student of magnetism magnetite, n [1 mágnétit, 2 mágnétit] magnet & -ite A black, brittle mineral, magnetic oxide of iron, loadstone magnetization, n [1 mágnétizeshun, 2 mágnétizeshun] See next word & -ation Process of magnetizing, state of being magnetized magnetize, vb trans [1 mágnétiz, 2 mágnétiz] magnet & -ize 1 To turn into a magnet, by means of a loadstone, by passing electric current through &c 2 (fig) To exercise powerful intellectual, moral, or emotional attraction upon 3 (obs) To mesmerize magneto-, pref, fr magnet Magneto, magneto electrically, produced by magneto action, magnetograph, device for recording magnetic variations, magnetophone, kind of microphone magneto, n [1 mágnétó, 2 mágnétó] A magneto electric machine, specif, magnetodynamo used to generate electric ignition spark in internal combustion engine, as of motor car &c magnific(al), adj [1 mágnifil (i), 2 mágnifil (i)] fr Fr magnifique, fr Lat magnificus, 'distinguished, lofty, splendid', fr mag (us), 'great', see magnum, & -fic & -al (archaic) Splendid, noble, sublime

Magnificat, n [1 mágnifilát, 2 mágnifilát] Lat magnificat (first word of Latin version of hymn), 3rd song preo of magnificat, 'to magnify, praise highly' See magnify Hymn of B.V.M. beginning, My soul doth magnify the Lord (St Luke 1: 46-53), used as canticle at Evensong magnification, n [1 mágnifiláshun, 2 mágnifiláshun] See magnify & -fication Act of magnifying, state of being magnified magnificence, n [1 mágnifiléns, 2 mágnifiléns] fr Lat magnificentia, 'loftiness, splendour, magnificence', fr magnific (us), 'lofty, splendid', see magnifico, & -ence State or quality of being magnificent magnificent, adj [1 mágnifilént, 2 mágnifilént] fr Lat magnificent (or), compar of magnific (us), 'lofty, splendid' See magnifico 1 Of surpassing beauty, splendour, size, quality, generosity &c a magnificent chorus, building, robe, voice, host &c 2 (colloq) Excellent, splendid magnificently, adv Preo & -ly In a magnificent manner magnifico, n [1 mágnifiló, 2 mágnifiló] Ital, fr Lat magnific (us), 'splendid' See magnifico Venetian nobleman, magnate, grandee magnifier, n [1 mágnifiser, 2 mágnifiser] See next word & -er Person who, thing, instrument, which, magnifies magnify, vb trans [1 mágnifi, 2 mágnifi] ME magnifyen, fr O Fr magnifier, fr Lat magnificare, 'to prize highly', fr mag (us), 'great', see magnum, & -ify 1 (archaic) To praise, laud, extol My soul doth magnify the Lord 2 (rare) To enlarge, increase, make greater 3 To cause to appear larger, increase apparent dimensions of, esp by means of lens &c 4 (of non material things) To exalt unduly, to attribute an excessive degree of importance to, to exaggerate to magnify loves, difficulties, one's office magniloquence, n [1 mágnifilokwens, 2 mágnifilokwens] mlékwen], fr Lat magniloquentia, 'elevated language, boastful language', fr magniloqu (us), 'pompous or boastful in talk', fr magn-(us), 'great' (see magnum), & -loquus, 'speaking', fr loqu-(or), 'I speak' (see loquacious), & -ence 1 State or quality of being magniloquent 2 Magniloquent speech or style magniloquent, adj [1 magnilokwent; 2 magnilékwen], fr Lat magniloqu (us), 'pompous or boastful in talk', see preo, & -ent Speaking in a pompous or grandiose style, bombastic, boastful magniloquently, adv Preo & -ly In a magniloquent manner magnitude, n [1 mágnitüd, 2 mágnitjüd], fr Lat magnitüd-(o), 'greatness, size, high degree, importance', fr magn (us), 'great', see magnum, & -tude 1 a State of being large, great size; b size generally, extent, dimensions 2 One of the classes to which the fixed stars are assigned according to degree of brilliancy, fig Phr of the first magnitude, of great importance magnolia, n [1 mágnolia, 2 mágnóvia] Named after Pierre Magnol, botanist (d 1715) Genus of North American and Asiatic trees and shrubs with fine foliage and large showy flowers, often highly perfumed magnum, n [1 mágnüm, 2 mágnem] Lat magnum, neut form of magnus, 'great', cogn w Gk mégas, 'large', Goth mikila, OE mycel, 'large' (see much), Sort mahánt, 'great' a Bottle, vessel, holding two quarts of liquor, esp, but not exclusively, of champagne, port, or claret, b amount of liquor contained in such a bottle magnum bonum, n [1 mágnüm bónüm, 2 mágnem bónem] Lat neut adjs, fr magnus, 'large' (see magnum), & bonus, 'good' (see bonus) a Kind of large yellow plum, b a variety of potato magpie, n [1 mággpi, 2 mággpi], fr Mag, abbr of Margaret, & pie (I), op Fr Margot, in European sense 1 European bird, Pica caudata, of the crow family, with black and white plumage, long, tapering tail, harsh, chattering cry, and predatory habits 2 Idle, noisy chatterer 3 a Outermost ring but one of target, b shot striking this magwey, n [1 mággwá, 2 mággwei] Span, fr Mexican word The agave or century plant, also called American aloes, of Mexico and Central America magus, n [1 mággus, 2 méggus] Lat magus, fr Gk magos, 'member of Persian priestly caste, magician' Iranian loan-word 1 Priest of ancient Persia, (pl) the Magi, see Magi 2 Magician, sorcerer

Magyar, n [1 mággár, 2 mággá], Hungarian [1 modyor, 2 módjör], native name. 1 Member of the ruling race of Hungary, of Mongolian origin 2 Language of the Magyars, Hungarian

Mahabharata, n [1 máhhahábháratá, 2 máhhábháratá] Sort, for first element op next word One of the ancient Hindu epics maharaja(h), n [1 máhharáhja, 2 máhhárádja] Hind maha, 'great', cogn w magnum, & rajah a title given to certain sovereign Indian princes of a higher degree than rajah, b prince having this title maharajee, n [1 máhharáhjá, 2 máhhárádja] See preo & rajee Wife of a maharajah; princess of this rank in her own right

Mahatma, n [1 má-há-tma, 2 máhetma], fr Sort mahatman, fr mítha, 'great' (op preo), & atman, 'soul' Indian adept, believed to be possessed of special occult knowledge

Mahdi, n [1 máhdí, 2 máddí], fr Arab mahdí, 'one who is guided aright' 1 Mohammedan leader and prophet expected by Islam to appear before the end of the world 2 Name assumed at different times by various leaders of insurrection in the Sudan & Mahdís(ism), n [1 máhdí(ism), 2 máddí(ism)] Preo & -ism Belief in the coming of a Mahdi mah-jongg, n [1 máh jóng, 2 má djóng]

Chinese A game for four persons played with 144 small decorated domino shaped brooks or 'tiles', introduced from China, where it has long been played mahistock, n See maulstick mahogany, n [1 ma hogam, 2 máhógam], fr West Indian native name 1 a Wood of a tropical American tree, taking a fine polish, and much used for furniture, b tree producing this wood 2 Deep reddish brown, colour of mahogany 3 (fig) Dining-table to put, stretch, one's legs under a man's mahogany, enjoy his hospitality

Mahometan See Mohammedan

Mahound, n [1 ma-hóund, 2 máhúnd], fr O Fr Mahun, abbr of Malomet (archaic) Mohammed, the founder of Islam mahout, n [1 ma-hout, 2 máhaut], fr Hind máhaut Indian elephant keeper and driver mahseer, n [1 máhsér, 2 másia] Hind A large game fish of the rivers of India, allied to the barbel maid, n [1 máid, 2 meid] Contracted form of maiden 1 Young girl 2 Unmarried woman, a virgin, a spinster; old maid, an elderly spinster, b round game of cards 3 Female indoor servant to keep fires maids, (often in compounds) parlour maid, kitchen maid, house maid &c maiden, n [1 máidán, 2 máidán] Hind, Pers, & Arab máidán An open space in an Indian town, used as a market place, promenade, for military parades &c maiden (I), n [1 máidn, 2 meidn] OE mæden, ME meiden, dimin corresponding to OE mæg(e), 'virgin', op Goth magape, O HG magad, Du maagd, op further Goth magus, OE magu, 'son, boy, servant'; perh cogn w Avesta magana-, 'unmarried'

1 Girl, young unmarried woman, spinster 2 (hist) Instrument like the guillotine, formerly used in Scotland for capital punishment maiden (II), adj, fr preo (only attrib) 1 (of woman) Unmarried 2 Various special uses a horse which has never won a race, maiden race, one for horses which have never won a prize, b maiden speech, one made in Parliament by member speaking for the first time, c maiden case, one at which no cases are brought for trial, d maiden battle, first in which particular soldier takes part, e maiden over, (cricket) one in which no runs are made, f maiden castle, one that has never been captured by an enemy maidenhair, n [1 máidenhár, 2 meidnháe] Kind of fern, genus Adiantum, with small, delicate fronds on hair-like stalks maidenhead, n [1 máidnhed, 2 meidnhed] OE mæghéad maiden & -head (a) (archaic) Virginity, maidenhood, b the hymen maidenhood, n [1 máidnhood, 2 meidnhod] maiden & -hood State of being a maiden, spinsterhood maidenish, adj [1 máidnsh, 2 meidnsh] maiden & -ish Of, like, a maiden maiden-like, adj maiden & -like Pertaining to, resembling, suitable to, becoming in, a maiden, modest, coy maidenliness, n [1 máidnlnes, 2 meidnlnes] See next word & -ness Quality of being maidenly maidenly, adj [1 máidnli, 2 meidnli] maiden & -ly Maiden-like maiden-name, n Woman's family name before marriage maidish, adj [1 máidsh, 2 meidsh] maid & -ish Of, like, a maid maid-of-all-work, n [1 máid uv awl wérk, 2 meid uv ál wík] Servant doing general household duties maid-of-honour, n [1 máid uv onór, 2 meid uv óne] 1 Unmarried lady attending on a queen or princess 2 Kind of almond oheesecake maidservant, n [1 máidsérvánt, 2 meid-sárvánt] A female domestic servant maletic, adj [1 máitík, 2 meidítík], fr Gk maistik (a), 'obstetric', fr maist omas, 'aot as midwife', fr maia, 'mother, nurse', fr má, 'mother', op redupl form mammé, 'mother', q v under mama(ma)(I) (of method of Socrates) Serving to elicit people's ideas maihem See mayhem

mail (I), n [1 mál, 2 meil], fr Fr maille, fr Lat macula, 'spot, mark, mesh' See macula 1 Armour composed of steel rings or links chain-mail, ring-mail, coat of mail 2 Defensive armour in general mail (II), vb trans, fr preo To cover, protect, with, or as with, mail, fig Phr the mailed fist, physical force mail (III), n, fr O Fr male, 'bag', Mod Fr malle, 'trunk, bag', fr OHG malha, 'wallet' 1 a Bag for conveyance of letters &c by post, b mail, mails, all letters &c conveyed at one time (esp of foreign letters) the mail is late, the mails were lost 2 System of conveying letters, means, vehicle, boat &c whereby these are conveyed, the post His Majesty's Mail, air mail, conveyed by aeroplane &c mail (IV), vb trans, fr preo (chiefly Am) To send by post mail-bag, n Bag for conveying letters, mail mail-cart, n a Cart for carrying road borne mail, b small light carriage for children, usually pushed by hand, kind of perambu lator mail-clad, adj mail (I) & clad Covered, protected, by, wearing, armour mail-coach, n Formerly, a stage coach carrying public mails and passengers, mail cart mail order, adj & n (Am usage) a adj Pertaining to system of ordering and purchasing goods by post, b n, an order for goods to be sent by post mail train, n Train conveying the mails, usually with a sorting van attached maim, vb trans [1 mám, 2 meim] ME maime, maime, fr O Fr mahaigner, 'to cripple', etymol doubtful, op mayhem To injure, cripple, lame, mutilate, render unfit for usage main (I), n [1 mán, 2 men] OE mægen, 'strength, power', ME main, op OS, O HG megin, ON magn, cogn w may (I), & might (II) 1 Physical strength, might, force, only in Phr with might and main, to the utmost of one's strength 2 Mainland, only in Spanish Main, a north coast of S America from Panama to the Orinoco, hence, b Caribbean Sea, off this coast, c (poet) the high sea 3 Principal part, only in Phr in the main, for the most part, on the whole 4 Principal pipe or conduit conveying gas, water, sewage &c water straight from the main, as contrasted with that drawn from a pipe supplied from a cistern main (II), adj, fr ON meginn, 'strong', cogn w preo 1 (of physical force) Effective, fully exerted, vigorous by main force

2 Forming the chief or largest part the main body (of troops &c) 3 a Most important, principal, leading the main points of an argument, the main features of a dialect, Phr to have an eye to the main chance, look after one's own material interests, b main drain, that into which the sewage from a whole area of a town is conveyed, main road, high road running through principal places in an area, main line, railway line passing through important towns, principal line of a system main (III), n Etymol doubtful, possibly extension of meaning fr preo a Any number from 5 to 9 called by the thrower in games of dice, such as hazard, b a match between two birds in cock fighting main-brace, n (naut) Brace of main yard. Phr to splice the main brace, (naut) to serve out spirits, to drink, to get drunk main-deck, n Principal, uppermost deck of a ship mainland, n [1 mánland, 2 meínland] Principal or larger part of a country, continent &c, as distinct from neighbouring islands &c mainly, adv [1 mánli, 2 méinli] main (II) & -ly a Chiefly, to the greatest extent, in the main you are mainly responsible for our misfortunes, you more than anyone else, b for the most part the audience consisted mainly of women, the largest portion were women mainmast, n [1 mánmahst, 2 méinmást] Principal mast of ship mainpennor, n [1 mánpernor, 2 méin pñe] A-Fr law term, first element as in next word, second element fr Fr pennor, fr prendre (see prize) One who gives 'mainprize' for another's appearance mainprize, n [1 mánpriz, 2 méinpriz] O Fr, A-Fr law term, main, 'haod' (fr Fr, fr Lat, see manual), & prize, 'a taking, seizing' (see prize) (legal) Undertaking to be responsible for the appearance of a released prisoner in court on a day appointed mainsail n [1 mánsl, 2 méinl] Principal sail of ship differing in shape according to ship's rig main spring, n [1 mánspring, 2 méinspring] a Chief spring of watch, through the gradual uncoiling of which the whole works are kept in motion, b principal source of leading motive for, action mainstay, n [1 mánstá, 2 méinstá] 1 Rops from top of mainmast to foot of foremast 2 (fig) Chief support maintain vb trans [1 mánkán, 2 méintéio] M I maintene, mentene, fr O Fr maintenir, fr Lat. manu tenere, 'to hold in the hand' See manual & tenacious 1 To keep up, continue in, retain to maintain a position, on attitude of defiance, carry on to maintain a correspondence 2 a To support, preserve, keep in certain condition or position food is necessary to maintain a life, to maintain a large establishment, b to keep up, keep in repair to maintain roads &c 3 To support, provide for to maintain a wife and family 4 To preserve, retain, keep to maintain an open mind, a smiling countenance 5 To lend support to, defend, give assistance, or countenance, to maintain a cause, an argument, point of view, opinion &c 6 To assert, defend as an opinion, affirm, state to be true to maintain that the earth is flat maintainable adj [1 mántánebl, 2 mem ténehbl] Prec & -able Capable of being maintained maintenance n [1 mántenans, 2 méinténans] In O Fr See maintain & -ance 1 Act of maintaining or preserving; state of being maintained 2 Means of support, livelihood 3 (law) A common law offence, a lesser form of champerty q v, in which a person intermeddles in a suit which does not concern him by assisting by money &c, in the prosecution or defence 4 (her) Cap of maintenance, cap of scarlet velvet lined with ermine, borne by, or before, sovereign princes, also represented instead of a torse or crest wreath in some crests main-top, n Platform at top of lower mainmast main-yard n Yard on which the mainsail is extended maize, n [1 máz, 2 méiz] fr Span maiz, fr Cuban. a Plant Zea mays grown in warm climates, producing an edible grain, b the seed of this plant, Indian corn maizena n [1 mázna, 2 méizna] fr prec Corn flour made from maize majestic adj [1 majéstik, 2 madžéstik] majesty & -ic Having, expressing majesty, stately, dignified, august majestically adv [1 majéstikali, 2 madžéstikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a majestic manner majesty, n [1 majésti, 2 madžísti], fr Fr majeste, fr Lat majestas (cm) majestas, 'dignity, grandeur, honour, excellence', fr base seen in major, 'greater' See major (II) 1 Statelyness, dignity, elevation, sublimity 2 Sovereign royal power 3 Title given in addressing and referring to a sovereign

Your, His, Her, Majesty 4 Pictorial symbolical representation of the Deity enthroned majolica, maiolica, n [1 majolike, mayólíka, 2 madžlíka, majólíka] Ital maiolica, perh fr island of Majorca a Kind of decorative, enamelled, Italian pottery, b pottery made in imitation of this major (I), n [1 mājor, 2 méidžə] Perh a major, or senior captain See next word a Military officer between captain and lieutenant colonel in rank, acting as second in command of a battalion, or commanding a company, b need-as title immediately before surname major (II), adj Lat māior, 'greater', earlier magjōs*, used as compar of & fr same base as, mag nus, 'great', also in magnus, 'more, rather' See magnum Greater or more important of two things, groups, portions &c Major Prophets, major epilepsy Various special uses Jones &c major, the elder of two brothers at same school, major part, chief, larger, perh, major premise, the first of a syllogism, containing a statement of the general rule, major term, the predicate of the conclusion of a syllogism, major interval, (in mus) semitone greater than minor interval, major scale, having a major third, major key represented by major scale major (III), n, fr prec Person of full age, contrasted with minor major-domo, n [1 mājor dómō, 2 méidžə dómou] Low Lat major domus, Ital maggior domo a Chief steward of a royal or princely household, b (facetiously) principal manservant, steward, butler, in a private household major-general, n Army officer ranking next above a brigadier or colonel, and below a lieutenant general, used as title immediately before the surname, major generals are commonly addressed as Generals majority, n [1 majórni, 2 madžórti], fr Fr majorité, fr Med Lat majordit (em), 'majority' major (II) & -ity 1 Greater number the majority of people Phr to join the majority, die 2 A Greater or greatest number of votes to gain a majority, absolute majority, in which number of votes gained exceeds half of total number of votes cast, b number of votes gained in excess of opponent or opposed party a large majority is majority of 100 &c 3 Rank of major in army 4 Full age to attain one's majority majorship, n [1 mājorship, 2 méidžəʃip] major (I) & -ship Office or rank of major majuscular, adj [1 majuskular, 2 madžás kular] See next word & -ar Of, resembling, written in, majuscules majuscule, n & adj [1 mājóskul, 2 méidžə kúl] Lat majuscula (litera), fr majuscul (us), 'somewhat greater', dimin of māior, 'greater' See major (II) (palaeography) 1 n Large letters, capital or initial, contrasted with minuscule 2 adj Of, of the nature of, written in, majuscules make (I), vb trans & intrans [1 mōk, 2 meik] O E macian, ME mālen, OS malon, 'to make, build' O HG makhōn, 'construct' &c There appear to have been two Aryan bases, mag, whence O E macian &c, & māk, both meaning 'to knead, press, work into shape, construct' &c From the former we get Gk magis, 'dough, paste', mageus, 'one who kneads', O Slav mozati, 'to smear', fr mal-* come Lat mācerare, 'to soften by steeping' (see macerate), māceria, 'garden wall', orig 'a mud bank' (cp relation in meaning between Gk teikhos, 'wall', & Goth deigan, 'to knead', daiga, 'dough' (see dough), & Lat finger, to frame, make (see figure), further Gk massō, 'I knead', fr mal jō*, Serb mačati, 'he grinds', Lith minkyti, 'to knead', & so on The word expresses gen construction action, behaviour A trans 1 a To fashion, frame, construct, put together out of constituent parts or elements so as to produce a new object or material 'to make a machine, to make hurdles, to make truck, bread, a cake, a coat &c, b to form, build up, cause to develop to make bones and sinew, c to form, cause to develop intellectually and morally to make a person's character, to make oneself, develop knowledge and character Phr to make one's own life, shape, direct, one's way of living, or the course of one's destiny 2 a To prepare, get ready for use, bring into a desired condition, treat in such a way as to render fit for its purpose to make tea, hay, Phr to make hay while the sun shines, so on a favourable opportunity to obtain some advantage, to make hay of (a room &c), put into a state of confusion to make the cards, shuffle them, b to arrange, put in order to make a bed Phr as you make your bed, so you must lie upon it 3 a To create by an intellectual effort, to compose to make a poem, play, make a joke, a speech, b to devise, think out, arrive at, by mental effort to make a scheme, a plan, an intention, to make one's will 4 To produce, bring about, be the cause of, a certain condition of affairs to make a mess, a fuss, a terrible to do 5 a To earn, gain, win, acquire to make money, a profit, to make one's, a living Phr to make a good thing of, to derive a profit or benefit from, b (in non material sense) to make friends, enemies, make an ally 6 o To carry out, perform, a specific action to make war, b to execute a specific physical movement to make a bow, carry a gesture 7 To cause to become, to produce specified effect, to put into specified condition too much wine makes men drunk, to make one sick, ill, happy, comfortable &c 8 a To constitute, be an element in, be recognized as four members make a quorum, cold tea makes an excellent drink in summer, b to amount to, result in, add up to such a sum twenty shillings make a pound, two and two make four, Phr one swallow does not make a summer, c to prove, turn out, to be, develop into, be shown to be he will make an excellent husband, to make a bad headmaster 9 a To force, compel, to do something, source into doing something (followed by vb without to) I'll make him do it whether he wants to or not, I can't make you come if you refuse to, b to induce, persuade, force conviction upon, in Phr it makes me think you are right, I can make him believe anything I choose 10 a To cause to happen, be the means of producing, to bring about to make the grass grow, the fire burn, the kettle boil, b to cause, get, procure, a certain physical or mental process to take place, cause a person to do something to make a man hear, understand, laugh, sit up &c 11 To reach, arrive at, be able to reach the ship will never make port in such a storm 12 To reckon, calculate, compute at, arrive at an opinion concerning by calculation how large do you make the congregation?, what time do you make it?, I make the score fifty for both sides 13 To represent as being or doing, appearing this portrait makes him too old, the author makes the villain cut his own throat 14 To appoint, constitute, put (a person) into a specified rank or position to make a man king, a judge, a peer, a general &c 15 Male is used with a large number of nouns in such a way that the pair are equivalent to the verb connected with the noun or implied by this to make (an) answer, reply &c, make a pause, make haste, hasten, make a denial, to deny, make a journey, to journey, travel, make progress, to progress, make a start, to start, make a mistake, blunder, to be wrong, commit an error 16 To behave in a certain way indicated by the sentence to make an ass, fool, beast, of oneself, behave like an ass &c 17 In a large number of idiomatic phrases make has such a very general meaning that it is impossible to classify and define it apart from the context, a few only can be given here, as many occur elsewhere, under other words to make a face, to grimace, distort the features; to make eyes (at), to glance at significantly, esp in a coquettish manner, to ogle, make mis- chief, cause ill-feeling, anger, quarrels, make good, a restore, make reparation for (damage), b vindicate one's character, approve oneself, make headway, progress, make love (to), to court, behave as a lover to, make of one's business, regard it as one's duty, proper occupation, as incumbent upon one, make place, way, give room, make fun of, to mock, deride, to chaff, make the best of, a use to greatest advantage, b speak as favourably of as possible, c not to complain of, make sure, a to ascertain beyond doubt, b to render secure against failure, c to feel convinced, make a good dinner, meal, eat heartily, make water, a (of a ship) to leak, b (of persons) to urinate, make ready, to prepare, make fast, to tie, fasten, make bold to, be so bold as to, take the liberty of B intrans 1 a To start, begin, to do something he made to reply when I stopped him, b to behave as though about to do something he made as though to strike me, he made as if he would escape 2 a To mature, get into condition of ripeness, esp the hay ought to make well in this drying breeze, b (of the tide) to flow, rise the tide is making fast 3 To point, tend, go to show all the evidence males in the same direction C Followed by adverb or preposition Make away with, in-trans, to destroy, remove, cause to disappear, steal, kill Make after, intrans, to pursue Make for, intrans, 1 to tend towards, contribute to to make for righteousness, 2 to direct one's course towards, approach to make for home, the open sea &c, 3 to rush violently at, attack, go for the bull made for him Make off, intrans, to go, run away, depart, escape Make out, trans, 1 a to see, discern, decipher, manage to see or read to make out a dim figure through the mist, to make out an inscription, b to understand, contrive to grasp import of to make out the meaning of, 2 to represent that, convey suggestion that to make out that one is badly treated Make over, trans, to give, hand over, entrust he made over most of his property to his son Make up, trans, 1 to invent, compose to make up a story, account, (in unfavourable sense) to invent an untruth with intent to deceive, 2 to compose a quarrel, dispute to make up one's differences, Phr to make it up (with), become reconciled, become friends again after falling out, 3 to apply cosmetics &c to (person, face, &c), for purpose of disguise, on stage &c, 4 (print) to prepare and arrange material for (page, column &c) Make up to, intrans, 1 compensate, indemnify I want to make up to you for what you have suffered, 2 to flatter, try to gain favour of to make up to important people make (II), n, fr prec a (i) Way in which something is made, style, shape, mode of structure, composition, texture a new make of motor, a coat of first class make, (ii) (fig) a man of quite another make, different character &c, b process, act, of making our own make, made by us (tradesman's phrase) Phr on the make, (of persons) bent on, striving for, gain, success &c make-believe, n Pretence, feigning makepeace, n [1 málkps, 2 meikps] Peacemaker maker, n [1 mákor, 2 meikə] make &-er 1 One who, that which, makes, a mannfacturer speak of, his &c Maker, the Creator, God 2 (obs or liter) A poet makeshift, n [1 málksift, 2 meik[sift]] Device, contrivance, used as temporary substitute or expedient make-up, n a Facial and other disguise used by actors &c, b materials used to effect this, b (fig) pose, c (print) action of making np, material so arranged makeweight, n [1 málkwät, 2 meikwreit] 1 Small quantity added to make np required weight 2 (fig) Single person or thing, unimportant argument &c to supply deficiency making, n [1 máking, 2 meikɪŋ] make &- ing 1 The act or process of forming, constructing, process or course of development mankind in the making, specif in Phr to be in the making of, cause to develop satisfactorily, ensure success of 2 (pl) Gains, profit, earnings 3 (pl) a Elements out of which a specified thing can be made the makings of a good garden, b necessary qualities, essential characteristics the mak- ings of a fine character, of a good soldier mal-, pref representing Fr mal-, fr Lat mal-, 'badly', fr adj mal(us), 'bad', perh orig 'mean, base', & cogn w O Slav malü, 'small', Goth smals, OE smæl, 'little' (see small), Gk mélon, 'small cattle' The pref forms ns, adjs, & vbs w the sense of a bad, badly malnutrition, malformed, mal- treat, b not, un- malapert, malcontent

Malacca, n [1 málákə, 2 mələkə] Name of district in Malaya Also Malacca cane, walking-stick made from stem of kind of bamboo

malachite, n [1 málakit, 2 mələkəɪt], fr Gk malakh (ē), 'mallow', perh cogn w Lat malva, 'mallow' See malvaceous Green mineral composed chiefly of carbonate of copper, which takes a high polish, used for ornaments, vases, tops of tables &c malaco-, pref representing Gk malakō (s), 'soft', cogn w Lat molere, 'to grind', molis,

 'soft' (see mollify) See also meal (I) E g malacoderm, soft-skinned animal, esp seaanemone, malacology, study of molluscs &c maladjustment, n [1 máləjustment, 2 mæl-ədʒəstment] mal-&adjustment Wrong adjustment maladministration, n [1 málədministrəʃən, 2 mələdministrəʃən] mal-&ad- ministration Faulty administration, bad management of public affairs maladroit, adj [1 málədrɔɪt, 2 mələdrɔɪt], fr Fr, fr mal- & adroit a Clumsy, unskilful, b tactless maladroitly, adv Prec &-ly In a maladroit manner, clumsily, tactlessly maladroitness, n See prec &-ness

Quality of being maladroit malady, n [1 málədi, 2 mələdi], fr Fr maladie, fr malade, 'sick', fr L Lat male habitus, 'ill' Cp mal- & habitus Sickness, disease, ailment male fide, adv & adj [1 málə fidi, 2 méls fidi] Lat mala fide, 'in bad faith' See mal-&fidelity 1 adv In bad faith 2 adj Done, acting, in bad faith Malaga, n [1 máləgə, 2 mələgə] Name of port in south of Spain White wine exported from Malaga

Malagasy, adj & n [1 máləgəzi, 2 mələ-gəzi] 1 adj Of Madagascar 2 n a Language of Madagascar, b native of Madagascar

malaise, n [1 máləz, 2 mələz] Fr, 'discomfort' See mal-&ease Slight physical discomfort malapert, adj & n [1 máləpərt, 2 mələpərt] O Fr, fr mal- & appert, variant of expert, 'experienced, skilful, dextrous' See expert 1 adj Forward, impudent, saucy 2 n Impudent person

malapropian, adj [1 máləprɔpiən, -prɔpiən, 2 mələprɔpiən, mələprɔpiən], fr Mrs Malaprop, a character in Sheridan's The Rivals, fr malapropos &-ian Of the nature of a malapropism malapropism, n [1 máləprɔpizəm, 2 mələprɔpizəm], fr Mrs Malaprop See prec Rudicrous misuse of a word, esp through confusion with one resembling it, e g derangement of epitaphs, for arrangement of epithets malapropos, adv, adj & n [1 máləprɔpɔ, 2 mələprɔpɔ], fr Fr mal à propos See mal-&apropos 1 adv Inopportunistically, unseasonably, inappropriately 2 adj (chiefly predic) Out of place, untimely, inopportunistically malar, adj & n [1 málər, 2 mələ], fr Lat mal (a), 'jaw-bone, cheek', prob fr mand- alā, cogn w mand-(re), 'to chew' See mandible &-ar 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the cheek 2 n Cheek-bone malaria, n [1 máləria, 2 mələria], fr Ital mal'aria, 'bad air' See mal- & aria & ar 1 Intermittent fever produced by bite of a germ-bearing mosquito, genus Anopheles 2 Poisonous air arising in marshy districts, noxious exhalations, miasma, formerly considered the cause of the fever malarial, adj [1 máləriaɪl, 2 mələriaɪl] Prec &-al Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, malaria malarian, adj [1 málərian, 2 mələrian] malaria &-an Theoretical malarious, adj [1 máləriaʊs, 2 mələriaʊs] malaria &-ous Malarial

Malay, adj & n [1 málə, 2 mələ], fr native malayu 1 adj Of race inhabiting Malaya and Eastern Archipelago 2 n a Member of this race, b Malay language

Malayalam, n [1 máləlám, 2 mələlám] Native A Dravidian language of Malabar, S West Coast of India

Malayan, adj [1 máləjan, 2 mələjan] Malay &-an Of, pertaining to, Malay race, language, or archipelago malcontent, adj & n [1 málkontent, 2 mæl-kontent] O Fr, fr mal- & content (II) 1 adj Discontented, dissatisfied, rebellious 2 n a Discontented person, one inclined to rebel against authority, b state of discontent

male (I), adj [1 mál, 2 meɪ], fr O Fr masle, Mod Fr mâle, fr Lat masculus, 'male', dimin of mās, 'male' See mas- culine 1 a Belonging to, connected with, that sex, or with individuals of it, in human beings, the lower animals, and plants, which procreates, begets, offspring by fructifying the female a male animal, b suitable to, characteristic of, a male, virile, masculine male vigour, voices &c, c composed, consisting of, males male choir 2 Various terms and expressions a male fern, European fern used internally as a remedy against worms b male screw, one that fits into a hollow shaped to receive it male (II), n, fr prec Male person, animal, or plant, generally used specifically in contrast to female male-, pref representing Lat male, 'evil, ill', adv See mal-

malediction, n [1 mələdikʃən, 2 mæl-dikʃən], fr Lat maledictio (em), 'reviling' See male- & dictio Curse, reviling, imprecation maledictory, adj [1 mələdikʃəri, 2 mældikʃəri], fr Lat maledict (um), PP type of maledicere, 'to abuse', fr male-, & dicere, 'to say', see dictio, &-ory Of the nature of, expressing, a malediction malefaction, n [1 mələfækʃən, 2 mæl-fakʃən], fr Lat malefact (um), PP type of malefacere, 'to injure', fr male-, & facere, 'to do', see fact, &-ion Crime, evil deed, wrongdoing malefactor, n [1 mələfaktər, 2 mæl-fak-tər], fr Lat malefactor, 'evil doer', male- & factor Criminal, evil doer malefic, adj [1 mələfik, 2 mələfik], fr Lat malefic (us), 'malevolent', male- & -fic Doing harm, mischievous, hurtful (esp of sorcery &c) maleficence, n [1 mələfisens, 2 mələfisens] Prec &-ence Quality of being maleficent, harmfulness, mischief maleficient, adj [1 mələfisiant, 2 mələfisiant] malefic &-ent a Harmful, hurtful, malicious, b criminal, evil malevolence, n [1 mələvələns, 2 mələvələns], fr Lat malevolentia, 'ill will', fr malevol (entem) See next word &-ence Malice, ill-will, hatred, quality of being malevolent malevolent, ed [1 malévolent, 2 malévol-ent], fr Lat malevolens (em), 'malevolent', fr male- & Pres Part of velle, 'to wish' See volition Wishing evil to others, ill disposed, malicious, vindictive malevolently, adv Pres & -ly In a malevolent manner malfeasance, n [1 mal'fészans, 2 mal'fészans], fr O Fr mal'faisance, fr mal'fais (ont), 'doing evil' See next word & -ance (law) Wrongdoing, illegal act, esp in connexion with official business, op misfeasance malfeasant, ndj & n [1 mal'fészant, 2 mal'fészant], fr O Fr mal'faisant, 'doing evil', fr mal- & Pres Part of faire, 'to do', fr Lat facere, 'to do' See faction 1 ndj Criminal, illegal, doing, involving, evil 2 n Wrongdoer malformation, n [1 mal'fórmásbun, 2 mæl'fórméjən] mal- & formation Wrong formation, defect, deformity malformed, ndj [1 mal'fórməd, 2 mæl'fórməd] mal- & form & -ed Badly formed, distorted, having a structural defect malice, adj [1 málik, 2 mélílik], fr Fr malice, fr Lat mal (um), 'apple', fr Gk mél (on), Doric málon, 'apple', etymol un known Malic acid, obtained from juice of apple and other fruits malice, n [1 mális, 2 mélis], fr Fr, fr Lat malitia, 'wickedness, malice', fr mal (us), 'had' See mal- & -ice 1 Desire to harm others, vindictiveness, ill will, spite, Phr to bear malice, have malicious feelings, have a spite against, be resentful 2 (law) State of mind evinced by commission of an illegal act, or by intention to commit one, (with) malice aforethought, malice prepense, implying wicked intention, and an act deliberately planned beforehand malicious, edj [1 malíshus, 2 mélíshəs] See prec & -ous a (of persons) Ill disposed towards others, spiteful, harbouring ill will, b (of thoughts and actions) inspired by, evincing, malice maliciously, edv Pres & -ly In a malicious manner, with malice malign (I), adj [1 malín, 2 məlain], fr O Fr maligne, fr Lat malign (us), 'ill disposed', fr mal- & base gno*, gno*, 'to be born, to be of a specific nature' See genus a Chiefly malign influence, baleful, injurious, sinister, b (of persons) malevolent, malicious, reverse of benign malign (II), vh trans, fr O Fr maligner, fr Lat malignare, 'to act maliciously', fr malign (us), 'malicious' See prec a To speak evil of, maliciously of, to defame, traduce, b to attribute lower degree of merit to than is deserved malignancy, n [1 malígnansi, 2 məlígnaंस] malignant & -cy State or quality of being malignant malignant (I), adj [1 malígnant, 2 məlíg-nənt], fr L Lat malign (are), 'to act maliciously' See malign & -ant 1 Evilly disposed, willing to do harm, desiring evil rather than good, filled with hatred 2 (of disease) Likely to prove fatal, virulent, contrasted with benignant malignant growth, tumour, cancer malignant (II), n, fr prec Name given by Parliamentary party to supporter of Charles I in Civil War malignantly, edv malignant (I) & -ly In a malignant manner malignity, n [1 malígniti, 2 məlígnti], fr Fr, fr Lat malígniti (em), 'malice', malign & -ity 1 Ill nature, spite, malice, intense ill will 2 (of disease) Quality of being malignant malignly, adv malign (I) & -ly In a malignant manner malinger, vb intrans [1 məlíngr, 2 məl'ígr] fr Fr malígnere, 'ailing', etymol doubtful (esp of soldier or sailor) To feign illness in order to escape duty malingerer, n [1 məlíngrer, 2 məl'ígrer] Pres & -er One who malingers, a shirker malism, n [1 málizm, 2 mélílizəm], fr Lat mal (us), 'bad' See mal- & -ism Doctrine that evil predominates over good in the world malison, n [1 málizn, mélízn, 2 mélízn, málizn], fr O Fr maléison, 'curse', fr Lat maledictio (em), 'abuse' See malediction, cp benisn & benediction (archaic) Curse mall, n [1 mal, mewl, 2 mæl, möl] Variant of maul (I), mallet used in game of pall mall 1 Level, sheltered walk, esp as public promenade, specif, the Mall (now usually [mæl]), broad eady street in St James's Park, London, originally an alley for the game of pall mall, q v 2 (hist) a Game of pall mall, b mallet used in this mallard, n [1 málarđ, 2 mælərd], fr O Fr mallard, etymol doubtful The common wild duck, Anas boschas, the drake has a bright green head and neck with white collar malleability, n [1 málekábliti, 2 málekábliti] malleable & -ity State or quality of being malleable malleable, ndj [1 málekabl, 2 málekábl], fr Lat malle (ore), 'to hammer', fr malle (us), 'a hammer' See malleus & -able 1 (of metal &c) Capable of being hammered, beaten, or pressed to a different form 2 (of character &c) Pliable, docile, amenable mallee, n [1 máls, 2 məl] Native Australian name A scrubby, dwarf species of eucalyptus, growing in the dry plains of Australia mallemuck, n [1 málemuk, 2 málmak], fr Dn mallemok, possibly corrupt of an Eskimo word meaning 'follower' Sailor's name for the fulmar or petrel malleolar, adj [1 maléolar, 2 méléolar] See next word & -ar Pertaining to, connected with, a malleolus or the malleoli of the ankle malleolus, n [1 máleolus, 2 méléolus] Lat dimin of malleus, 'hammer', see malleus (anat) One of the two round projecting bones on each side of the ankle mallet, n [1 málet, 2 məlet], fr Fr mallet, dimin of mail, 'hammer' See maul (I) & malleus a Hammer with heavy wooden head used for driving a chisel &c, b type of this with a long handle used for driving heavy wooden balls in croquet, c similar lighter stick used in polo malleus, n [1 máleus, 2 méléus] Lat malleus, 'hammer', possibly fr madler* os, fr base mad*, 'to strike, hew', cp O H G (stem) mezzo, 'mason' Small bone of middle ear, transmitting vibrations of tympanum mallw, n [1 málo, 2 məlon] O E mealu, mealue, M E mal (owce), fr Lat malva, 'mallow', perch cp cp Gk malaké, 'mallow', cp malachita & malvaceae One of several species of plant, of genus Malva or family Malvaceae, with hairy stems, broad, downy leaves, and large pinkish purple flowers, esp the common wild mallow, Malva sylvestris malin, n [1 málm, 2 mám] O E (m(e)alm, 'sand', op O N malin, Dan malin, O H G melin, 'dnst', Lat molere, 'to grind', O E melu, 'meal' See meal (I) Soft chalky loam malmaison, n [1 mal'mázon, 2 məlméizə] Name of palace of Empress Josephine a Kind of carnation, b kind of blush rose malmsay, n [1 mal'mazi, 2 məlmázi], fr Med Lat malmasia, fr Gk Monembasia, in the Morea, cp O Fr malvoise, fr Ital form of the name, Napoli di Malvasia Sweet white wine, made formerly in Greece, now also in Spain and Canary Islands malnutrition, n [1 málmútríshun, 2 mæl'jútríshən] mal- & nutrition Inadequate, defective nutrition malodorous, adj [1 málođorus, 2 málođorus] mal- & odorous Ill smelling Malpighian, adj [1 mal'pígan, 2 məlpígan], fr Malpighi, Italian anatomist, d 1694 (anat and zool) Pertaining to certain glands and other bodies discovered by Malpighi, esp the Malpighian bodies, capillaries, in the kidney,

Malpighian tubes, supposed urinary organs in insects &c malpractice, n [1 mal'praktis, 2 málp-ráktis] mal- & practice 1 Wrongdoing, irregularity 2 (law) a Improper, unskilful treatment of patient by medical attendant; b improper, dishonest use of an official position for purpose of enriching oneself malt (I), n [1 mawlt, 2 mált] O E (m(e)olt, 'malt', M E molt, op Dn mont, O H G molt, 'malt', cogn w O H G mal, 'soft', cp Lat mollis, 'soft', fr moldrus*, Sort mýdís, 'soft, tender', O Slav mladu for moldu*, 'young, tender' See further under malt, mould (II), mnulder (II) Barley or other grain steeped in water, allowed to sprout and then roasted in a kiln, used in brewing, malt liquor, made from fermented malt (e.g. beer), not by distillation, extract of malt, used as nourishing food for children &c malt (II), vh trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To make (grain) into malt 2 intrans (of grain) To come into a condition resembling malt

Malta, n [1 máwíta, 2 máíta] Island in Mediterranean Molta feter, Mediterranean relapsing fever, at one time endemic in Malta, due to germ conveyed by goats' milk

Maltese, adj & n [1 máwltíc, 2 máltíc] Pres & -ese 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Malta, Maltese cat, a blue gray, short haired variety, Maltese dog, kind of small spaniel, Maltese cross, with four equal limbs, with broad, indented ends, and narrowing towards the centre, the badge of the Knights of Malta, of the Order of St John of Jerusalem 2 n a Native of Malta, b Semitic language spoken by natives of Malta, much influenced by Italian maltha, n [1 máthta, 2 mátpa] Lat, fr. Gk moltha, 'mixture of wax and pitch'; op Gk malthokos, 'soft, tender, gentle'; cogn w Goth malda, O N milda, 'gentle', see mild Mixture of wax, pitch &c, used as cement malt-house, n Building in which malt is made

Malthusian, edj & n [1 máltúshən, 2 məlpjúshən] fr name of Thomas Malthus, d 1834; who advocated restriction of increase of population when thus threatened to exceed means of support 1 adj Connected with, pertaining to, the principles of Malthus 2 n Follower of Malthus

Malthusianism, n [1 máltúshíanzm, 2 məlpjúshənízəm] Pres & -ism Doctrine of Malthus malting, n [1 máwltíng, 2 máltíng] malt & -ing 1 Process of making malt 2 Establishment for making malt, malt house maltese, n [1 máwltíc, 2 máltíc] malt & -ese Sugar obtained by action of the ferments or enzymes in malt on starch maltreat, vh trans [1 máltret, 2 málttrít] mal- & traat To use roughly, unkindly, to ill treat maltreatment, n [1 málttrément, 2 mált-tríment] Pres & -ment Act of maltreating, state of being maltreated malister, n [1 máwí(t)ster, 2 má(t)stis] malt & -ster One who makes malt maltworm, n [1 máwítworm, 2 máltwrm] (archaic) Heavy drinker, tippler malty, adj [1 máwíta, 2 máíta] malt (I) & -y Connected with, arising from, resembling, malt a malty taste, smell &c malvaceans, adj [1 mal'váshus, 2 mal'vófəe], fr L Lat malvaceus, fr Lat malva, 'mallow' See mallow & -aceous (bot) Of, pertaining to, the family Malvaceae, which includes the mallows, the hibuscs &c malversation, n [1 mal'vérsásbun, 2 málv-áséjən] Fr, fr malverser, fr mal- & Lat versari, 'to turn round, turn about, to behave, to take part in', fr vers (um), P P type of vertere, 'to turn', see version, & -ation Corrupt conduct in official position, maladministration, misuse, of public funds, mamelon, n [1 mámelon, 2 mávelon] fr mamelon, 'nipple', fr mamille, 'breast', fr Lat mamilla, 'breast' See mamama (II) Small rounded hullool mameluke, n [1 mámelook, 2 mámel(j)uk] fr Arab mamlúk, 'slave' 1 (hist) Member of military force, originally of Caucasian slaves, who made themselves masters of Egypt in 1254 till their massacre in 1811 2 A slave mamilla, n [1 mámila, 2 mámila] Lat mamilla, 'breast', dimin of mamma, 'breast' See mamama (II) 1 Nipple, forming termination of mammary gland 2 Nipple-shaped organ mamillary, adj [1 mámilari, 2 mámilari] Proo & -ary Of, pertaining to, resembling, a mamilla mamillate(d), adj [1 mámilit(ed), 2 mámilit(d)] See proo & -ato, -od n Having a mamilla, or mamilliform projection, b (geom) formed of small rounded crystals mamilliform, adj [1 mámiliform, 2 mámiliform] See mamilla & -form Having the shape of a mamilla mam(m)a (I), n [1 mámah, 2 mámah] Cp Lat mamma; Gk mámmē, Lat māma, 'mother', also, without reduplication, Sort md, Gk mā, 'mother' Word prob derived orig fr infants' babbling, at the basis of most Aryan words for 'mother' Mother (used esp by children, now obsolete) mamma (II), n, pl. mammæ [1 máma, mamá, 2 mámá, mámá] Lat., prob fr mādinā*, fr base seen in mad (Ire), 'to flow, to be wet', op Gk modērē, 'to flow', marids, 'breast' (see mastoid); Sort mādāt, 'is drunk' a Milk-secreting organ of female mammal, mammary gland, b rudimentary mammary gland in males mammal, n [1 mámál, 2 mámál] fr neat word One of class Mammalia

Mammalia, n [1 mámáha, 2 mámáha] Lat mammalia, neut pl of L Lat mammālia, 'mammalian', fr mamma (II) & -al Class of warm-blooded vertebrates having milk-secreting organs for nourishing their young mammalian, adj & n [1 mámáhan, 2 mámáhan] mammalian & -ian 1 adj Of, pertaining to, a mammal 2 n Mammal mammaliferous, adj [1 mámálicerus, 2 mámálicerus] mammaliferous & -iferous (geom) Containing mammalian remains mammalogist, n [1 mámálojist, 2 mámálojist] mammalogist & -logist Student of mammalogy mammalogy, n [1 mámáloji, 2 mámáloji] mammalogy & -logy Study of mammals mammmary, adj [1 mámári, 2 mámári] mammmary (II) & -ary Pertaining to the breasts or mammaries mannee, n [1 mámá, 2 mámá] fr Span maney, fr Haitian A tropical American and West Indian tree, producing a sweet fruit with yellow flesh, b this fruit mammiferous, adj [1 mámíferus, 2 mámíferus] mammiferous (II) & -iferous Having mammaries mammiform, adj [1 mámiform, 2 mámiform] mammiform (II) & -form Having the shape of a mamma mammou, n [1 mámáma, 2 mámáma] fr L Lat mammōna, fr Gk māmāōs, fr Aram mamon, 'riches', as proper name thit of the talo god of cupidit, as in Milton's Paradise Lost Personification of wealth, considered of as an ignoble object of desire and pursuit mammomush, adj [1 mámámuš, 2 mámámuš] Proo & -ish Of, pertaining to, mammou, money-loving mammorism, n [1 mámámušm, 2 mámámušm] mammorism & -ism Devotion to wealth mammomist, n [1 mámámušt, 2 mámámušt] mammomist & -ist Person devoted to the acquisition of wealth mammoth, n [1 mámánuθ, 2 mámánuθ] fr Russ mamot, manamot, etymol doubtful 1 n

Gigantic extinct species of elephant, with long hairy coat and curved tusks, whose fossil and frozen remains are preserved in Middle and Northern Europe, Northern Asia, and North America 2 (attrib) Very large, enormous mammy, n [1 mámú, 2 mámú] Familiar form of mamma (I) 1 (child's word) Mother 2 a (USA) Coloured nurse, b in many parts of Africa, an old negress man (I), n [1 man, 2 man] OE manr, 'human being; male, man', ME man; cp Goth mann, O Fris man, mon, O H G man ON maðr, fr mannr, cogn n. Sort manr, 'human being', O Slav ma-ŕ, 'man', poth fr orig phmōn*, & cogn n Golt quama, 'man', & Lat homo Cp homage, human, humus 1 a Human being, as distinct from the lower animals and from angels or the Divine Being, b person, individual anyman, no man, all men, Phr to a man, every individual, o (indefinite) one you don't owe a man a chance 2 Adult male human being, as distinct from woman or boy Phr man and boy, from boyhood, man in the moon, legendary man whose features are traced on the moon's surface; man of the world, one with knowledge of life and mankind, one's man of business, (i) agent, (u) solicitor, man of letters, writer and scholar, to be one's own man, to be at liberty to do as one pleases, to be in possession of one's senses, energies &c., the man in the street, the ordinary, average man, as distinct from orators; representative of general public opinion 3 Human race, mankind Man never is, but always To be blest (Pope, 'Essay on Man', l 100) 4 One having manly qualities, valurity, courage &c. to be a man, to play the man, only half a man 5 a Male attendant, manservant, b workman, employee Phr like master, like man 6 Husband- man and wife 7 (pl) a Soldiers, b rank and file, contrasted with officers 8 (hist) Vassal 9 Piece used in playing chess, draughts &c 10 In combination, a denoting occupation postman, dustman, clerkman &c; b ship merchantman, Indianman &c man (II), vb trans, fr proo 1 To supply with men for defence, service &c to man a fort, the walls, to man a ship, to man the pumps 2 (fig) To strengthen, encourage, fortify to man oneself manacle, n & vb trans [1 mánakl; 2 máen-akl] fr O Fr manacle, 'handcuff', fr Lit manakla, dhuu of man (us), 'hand' See manual 1 n a fetter, esp for hand, handcuff, b (fig) a restriction, impediment 2 vb To confine with manacles, to fetter, handcuff manage (I), vb trans & intrans [1 mánu, 2 mánuð] fr Ital maneggiare, fr I on Lat manuāre, fr Lit manu (us), 'hand' See manual A trans 1 To wield, guide, control, by the use of the hands, to handle to manage a boat, an ear 2 a To control behaviour of, bring under one's influence to manage a spoiled child a spirited horse &c, b to bring one's way with gain one's ends with to manage a person successfully 3 To conduct, control, be at the head of, direct the working of to manage a business, a household, one's own affairs &c 4 a To deal with, cope with (a thing piece of work &c) I can't manage it alone, b (of food &c) to eat can you manage another bun? B intrans 1 To deal with affairs, to cope with a situation, piece of work &c I'll manage with the tools I have, I shall see a way somehow 2 To contrive to, succeed in he managed to get home somehow, (often nonepl) the lot of a man managed to wash the lot of a Croir He has to go manage (II), n See proo (archaic) Training, management, of a horse, now usually management, g manageability, n [1 mánuabíliti, 2 mánuð-ábiliti] See next word & -ity State or quality of being manageable manageable, adj [1 mánuabíl, 2 mánuð-ábíl] manageable & -able Capable of being managed manageableness, n Proo & -ness State or quality of being manageable manageably, adv See proo & -ly In a manageable manner management, n [1 mánujment, 2 mánuðment] management (I) & -ment 1 Act of managing, state of being managed the care and management of the income, 2 Artful, ingenious methods or treatment to treat a good deal of management to get him to leave the house 3 The management, body of persons managing a business manager, n [1 mánuj, 2 mánuð] manager (I) & -or 1 Person who manages, controls, directs a business, or other undertaking &c general manager, principal working official of a business, company &c 2 (usually qualified) Good, bad, manager, one who manages money, domestic affairs &c, successfully, unsuccessfully she is not much of a manager 3 Speed a person appointed by Court of Chancery to manage a business in the interests of the creditors, b one of committee of House of Lords or Commons, appointed to discuss and arrange business in which both Houses are concerned manageress, n [1 mánujeres, 2 mánuðeres] Proo & -ess Woman manager managerial, adj [1 mánujerial, 2 mánuðerial] managerial & -ial Of, pertaining to, a manager, or to management managership, n [1 mánujership, 2 mánuðership] managership & -ship Office of manager managing, adj [1 mánujng, 2 mánuðng] managing & -ing 1 (in gen sense of vb) Managing director, director of a company with functions of a general manager. Speed 2 a Wishing to, inclined to, domineer over, and control, others, meddling, officious, b inclined to conduct money affairs with excessive care and economy, hence, negligently manakin, n [1 mánakín, 2 mánakín] fr On manucula, 'manikin', also used of various small birds See manicula Names given to a group of brightly coloured small birds, the Pipridae, of Central and S America man-at-arms, n [1 mán at arms, 2 mán at arms] Soldier, esp the mounted, fully armed soldier of medieval times manatee, n [1 mánatē, 2 mánatē] fr Span manatí, fr Carib manatōm Genus of aquatic, herbivorous mammals of America and West Africa, the sea cow, allied to the dugong of East Indies

Manchester, adj [1 mánchester, 2 mánchester] Town in Lancashire, centre of cotton trade Of, pertaining to, Manchester Manchester goods, cotton textiles of every description, Manchester School, of economic and political theory and practice, the Free Trade, individualist, laissez faire school of Mill and Cobden and the Liberal party

Manchesterism, n [1 mánchesterism, 2 mánchesterism] Proo & -ism Principles of the Manchester School in economics and politics See above manchet, n [1 mánchet, 2 mánchet] fr manchet, fr O Fr manchette, etymol uncertain (archaic) A bread of the finest wheat flour, b a loaf of such bread man-child, n A little child, boy manchined, n [1 mánchind, 2 mánchind] fr Fr manche, fr Span mancha, dimin of manzana, fr Lat mancha, 'an apple', fr name of Roman gens Manus Tropical American tree with poisonous, yellowish-green fruit and black ring milk sap manicule, n [1 mániculi, 2 mániculi] O Fr, fr Med Lat manicula, 'office of binder', fr Lat manicula (et), 'a piece, a part', fr man (us), 'hand', see manual & cap (et) 'to take', see capable Office of binder provisions for a college &c manicule

maney, suff maney (archaic) maney fr L Lat, fr -Gk manē, 'office of binder', diminution fr manē, 'prophet, answer', cogn w Sort & manē, 'in-prod', Golt manē, 'thought', Lat. manē, 'mind' See mental.

The suff forms ns w the sense of 'divination by means of': geomancy, necromancy &c mandamus, n [1 mandāmus, 2 mandētāmus] Lat, 'we commend', 1st pers pl of pres indic of mandāre, 'to command', to entrust to, to commit to the charge of', fr man (us), 'hand', see manual, & dare, 'to give', see date (I) 1 Formerly, royal writ commanding performance of some service 2 Now, writ from High Court conveying an order to an inferior court mandarin (I), n [1 mándarin, 2 mándarin], fr Port mandarin, fr Malay, fr Hind mantri, fr Scrt mantri, 'counsellor', cp Scrt mantri, 'thought', cogn w Lat mens, 'mind', see mental (I), OE (ge)mynd, 'thought, memory', see mind. 1 A European name for Chinese civil or military official, b that form of the Chinese language spoken by officials and educated persons and used in official documents &c 2 (by transf, ironically) Any high government official, or bureaucrat, one whose opinions, edicts &c must never be questioned 3 Porcelain figure of Chinaman, with nodding head mandarin (e) (II), n Same as prec, fr yellow robes of Chinese officials 1 A Small Chinese orange, also cultivated in N Africa &c, it is the origin of the tangerine, b liqueur made from this 2 Deep orange dye, resembling the orange in colour, obtained from coal tar mandarin duck n A brightly plumaged duck of China and the Far East, the drake has a ruff of deep chestnut colour, and green, white and brown crest mandatory, n [1 mandatari, 2 mandatari] See next word & -ary & op mandatory Person, state, to whom or to which a mandate is given mandate (I), n [1 mandat, 2 mandit, 3 mandit], fr Lat mandātum, 'commission order', fr PP of mandāre, 'to entrust to, to command' See mandamus 1 A Authoritative command from a superior; b (by transf.) a general command, as by a body of electors, the members of a corporate body, as a trade union &c, ordering a representative to act in a certain way, without allowing him independence of judgement 2 a (Roman law) A form of contract by which a person undertakes to do something for another without reward, but with an indemnity against loss, b (Engl law) a bailment of personal property without consideration, c (Canon law) a papal rescript 3 Specific, a commission given by the League of Nations to one of the States composing it, to administer, as mandatory, certain of the colonies or portions of the dominions of the defeated enemy powers in the Great War for the benefit of the inhabitants mandate (II) vb trans [1 mandāt, 2 mandēt] Back formation fr mandated To entrust (state &c) to a mandatory mandated adj [1 mandatēd, 2 mandētēd] mandate (I) & -ed. Committed entrusted to under a mandate the mandated colonies of Germany mandatory, adj & n [1 mandatori, 2 mandatori]. See prec & -ory 1 adj Of pertaining to, containing expressing, a command 2 n Mandatory mandible, n [1 mandib, 2 mandib], fr L Lat mandibula 'jaw', fr mand (ere) 'to chew', cogn w Gk mandibula, 'to chew', mandibula, 'month', perh also more remotely, w Goth manþ OE manþ, 'month' See man man man, mouth, & cp man 1 (of mammal or fish) Jaw, esp lower jaw 2 (of birds) Upper or lower part of beak 3 (of insects) Either half of upper pair of jaws mandibular adj [1 mandibular, 2 mandibular] fr Lat mandibularis (a), 'jaw' See prec & -ar Of pertaining to a mandible mandibulate adj [1 mandibulat, 2 mandibulat] fr Lat mandibulatus (a), 'jaw' See mandible & -ate Having a mandible mandola, mandora n [1 mandola, mandora, 2 mandola, mandora] Ital mandola, man- dora, 'lute', variant of pandora Large type of mandolin mandolin (e), n [1 mandolin, 2 mandolin], fr Fr mandoline, fr Ital mandolino, dimin of preo Musical stringed instrument of guitar type with fretted handle, deep melon shaped body and metal strings, in four or six pairs, played with a plectrum mandragora, n [1 mandragora, 2 mandragora] L Lat fr Gk mandragōra, etymol unknown See next word Mandrake, esp with reference to Shakespeare's use in Othello &c mandrake, n [1 mandrak, 2 mandreik] ME mandragge, fr prec mod form shows association w man & drake (II) in sense of 'dragon, monster' European herbaceous plant, narcotic and emetic, with a root formerly supposed to resemble the human form, said to shriek when pulled out of the ground mandrel, -il, n [1 mándril, 2 mándril] Earlier mandril, apparently corrupted form of Fr mandrin, etymol doubtful 1 Iron bar or lathe on which articles are fixed while being turned 2 Rod for shaping metal in forging &c mandrill, n [1 méndril, 2 méndril] Proh fr man, & drill (VII), wh is of native origin Kind of large, powerful, hahoon, Papio mainon, of Western Africa, with highly coloured patches and callosities on face and hindquarters manducate, vb trans [1 mándikāt, 2 mándikāt], fr L Lat manducāre, 'to chew', fr mand (ere), 'to chew' See mandibula & manger (rare) To chew, eat, devour manducation, n [1 mándikāshun, 2 mándikāshun] Prec & -ion (rare) Act of chewing, state of being chewed manducatory, adj [1 mándikatori, 2 mándikatori] manducate & -ory (rare) Of, pertaining to, manducation mane, n [1 mān, 2 men] OE manu, ME māne, op OHG mana, ON mōn, also OE mene, ON men, OHG menni, 'neck ornament', cogn w Lat monile, 'necklace, collar, neck' See moniliform a Long bar on neck of horse &c, or lion, also b human hair when thick and long man-eater, n a Cannibal, b animal, esp tiger, which has tasted human flesh maned adj [1 mānd, 2 meind] mane & -ed. Having a mane manège, n [1 manāzh, manāzh, 2 ménēiz, ménēiz] Fr, fr Ital maneggio, fr maneggiare See manage (I) 1 Training, management, of horse 2 Exercises used in training horse, action, movements, of trained horse 3 Riding school maneless, adj [1 mānles, 2 menles] mane & -less Without a mane manes, n pl [1 mānez, 2 meniz] Lat manēs, 'ghosts, shades of the dead' Origin doubtful a Spirits of the dead, the shades of ancestors revered as gods and objects of reverence, b the gods of the underworld regarded as benevolent manful, adj [1 manfool, 2 ménful] man & -ful. Bold, courageous, resolute manfully, adv Prec & -ly In a manful manner, stoutly, boldly, vigorously manfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being manful, manly courage and resolution managery n [1 managabā, 2 managabā] Name of district in Madagascar, though the genus is not found there Genus Cercopithecus, of small, long tailed, opile W African monkeys manganese n [1 manganēz, 2 manganēz] fr Fr manganese, fr magnesia

1 Brittle greyish white metallic element 2 Oxide of manganese a black mineral used in manufacture of glass and as an alloy for steel &c manganesian adj [1 manganēzian, 2 manganēzian] Prec & -ian (rare) Manganeic manganic adj [1 manganik, 2 manganik] See manganese & -ic Pertaining to, containing, of the nature of, manganese mange, n [1 mān, 2 meindz] ME manjeure, fr O Fr manje, 'itch', fr manjurer, 'to eat', fr L Lat manducāre, 'to chew' See manducate Eruptive skin disease, due to a parasitic mite which destroys the hairy coats of animals, esp dogs mangel, mangold-, mangel-wurzel, n [1 manggl, 2 manggl] fr Germ mangold wurzel, fr mangold, 'beet', M H G mangolt (etymol doubtful), & wurzel, 'root', q v under wort The form mangel-wurzel ('root of scarcity') is due to popular etymology Large variety of beet, cultivated as food for cattle manger, n [1 mānjer, 2 meindzā], fr Fr mangeoire, cp manger, 'to eat', fr Low Lat. manducātor*, 'feeding-trough' See manducate Raised trough in stable, cow house &c, for horses or cattle to eat from Phr dog in the manger, see under dog mangily, adv [1 mānyli, 2 meindzili] mangy & -ly In a mangy manner manginess, n [1 mānyines, 2 meindzīnes] See prec & -ness State or quality of being mangy mangle (I), n & vb trans [1 mānggl, 2 mānggl] fr Dn mangel, fr Low Lat man-ganum, 'instrument for throwing stones', fr Gk maggonon, 'engine for defending fortifications' See mangonel 1 n Machine with rollers for pressing linen &c 2 vb To press by means of a mangle mangle (II), vb trans, fr A-Fr mahangler, prob fr mahaigner, 'to maim', perh connected w maim 1 To cut roughly, cut and bruise, mutilate, lacerate, hack 2 (fig) To spoil, misrepresent, garble (a version of a text, pronunciation &c) mango, n [1 mānggō, 2 mānggō], fr Port manga, fr Tamil manlay, fr man, 'mango tree', & lay, 'fruit' a Large tree of tropical Asia, b its fruit, eaten ripe, or used unripe for preserves, pickles &c, mango frick, Indian juggler's trick, in which a mango tree appears to grow from a seed, and to bear flowers and fruit almost under the eyes of the spectators mango-fish, n Kind of yellow Indian fish mangold (-wurzel), n See mangel mangonel, n [1 mānggunel, 2 mānggunel] fr O Fr dimin of L Lat mangōn (em) fr Gk maggonon, 'a means of tricking, a philtre, charm, an engine for hurling stones' See mangle (I) (hist) A medieval military engine for hurling stones &c mangosteen, n [1 mānggustēn, 2 mānggustēn] fr Malay mangustian a East Indian tree with dull red flowers and bearing a fruit with thick, reddish-brown rind, and white, juicy pulp, b fruit of this mangrove n [1 mānggrōv, 2 mānggrōv] Earlier mangle, fr Fr manglier, fr Malay manggi, manggi, second element due to influence of grove Genus of trees and shrubs which grow in swamps along river banks in the tropics, spreading by means of aerial roots mangy, adj [1 māny, 2 meindz] mange & -y 1 Affected with mange 2 (fig) Squally sordid, mean man-handle vb trans man & handle (II) 1 To move by man's strength without mechanical aid 2 To treat roughly man-hole, n Opening in the ground or floor, usually provided with a movable iron cover, giving access to drains or other pipes, or to cables &c laid below ground manhood n [1 menbood, 2 menhud] man & -hood 1 Time of life of a male human being after maturity is reached to arrive at manhood 2 Manly qualities, courage manliness to appeal to a person's manhood 3 Men collectively, the male population the manhood of the country, nation mania n [1 mānio, 2 meinio] Lat mania, fr Gk mania, 'madness', cp Gk manesthai, 'to be mad', orig to have one's mind in action aroused excited, cogn w O Slav manj, 'to think', Lat meminisse

- 'to remember', Sort mangalē, 'to think', O H G munna, 'love', O E myne, 'thought', (p)mynd, 'thought, remembrance'. See mind, mental (I), & words there referred to. 1 Violent madness, form of insanity characterized by excessive excitement or hallucination, sometimes on one subject only. 2 Extreme or excessive enthusiasm, absorbing interest in, extravagant preoccupation with, obsession for, some object or pursuit. a mania for amateur theatricals, her interest in Girl Guides had become a mania
- mania, suff, fr prec, forming ns denoting a specific type of mental disease, e.g. kleptomania, b excessive enthusiasm for specified object, occupation &c, e.g. bibliomania, c excessive admiration for, e.g. gallomania, reverse of -phobia
- maniac, adj & n [1 mānik, 2 meintek], fr L Lat maniac (us) 'maniac' mania & -ac 1 adj Of, pertaining to, caused by, mania, mad, raving. 2 n Madman, person affected with mania
- maniac, suff forming ns & adjs referring to persons, fr ns in -mania, kleptomaniac &c
- maniacal, adj [1 manfakl, 2 manafekl] maniac & -al Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, mania, violently mad, exhibiting, characterised by, un restrainable impulses of violence. maniacal fury, cruelly
- maniacally, adv Prec & -ly In a maniacal manner, as a maniac
- Manich(a)ean, adj & n [1 mānikān, 2 mānikān] See next word & -an a adj Of, pertaining to, a Manicheo or Manichaeism, b n, a Manicheo
- Manichee, n [1 mānikē, 2 mānikē], fr L Lat Manichae (us), fr Gk Manichaios, Mani, Persian founder of sect (d. A.D. 276). Follower of a system of religion, founded by Mani in the 3rd cent on the doctrine of the existence in the universe of two fundamental principles of good and evil
- Manich(a)eism, n [1 mānikēizm, 2 mānikēizm] Prec & -ism Religious system, doctrine, of the Manichees
- manicure, n & vb trans [1 mānikūr, 2 mānikūr], fr Fr, fr Lat man (us), 'hand', see manual, & cūra, 'care', see cure (I) a n The treatment, care, of the hands and nails, b vb, to pare, clean, polish, the nails
- manicurist, n [1 mānikūrist, 2 mānikūrist] Prec & -ist Person practising manicure as a profession
- manifest (I), n [1 mānifest, 2 mānifest], fr Fr manifeste, fr manifeste, 'to show' See next word Detailed list of ship's cargo for use of customs officials
- manifest (II), adj, fr Lat manifest (us), 'clear, evident', orig, 'capable of being seized by the hand, near at hand', cp manifestus, 'attacking, hostile' (see infest), first element is man (us), 'hand', see manual, -fest is perh cogn w Sort dharśayati, 'attacks, conquers', O Prussian adaršmuš, 'he dared' Clear, evident, distinct, obvious, to the mind or senses
- manifest (III), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr manifeste, fr Lat manifestāre, 'to show clearly', fr manifest (us), 'clear' See prec A trans 1 To show clearly, make plain or distinct. 2 To give expression to (feeling &c) by word or action, to exhibit, evince to manifest impatience, dissatisfaction &c. 3 To prove, put beyond doubt manifest the truth of & (reflex) To appear, show itself. 5 To enter in ship's manifest. B intrans (of spirit, ghost &c) To appear, make presence felt
- manifest (IV), vb intrans [1 mānifest, 2 mānifest] Back formation fr manifesto a To give a public manifestation of political or other opinion, b to issue a manifesto
- manifestation, n [1 mānifestāshun, 2 mānifestāshun] manifest (III) & -ation Act or process of manifesting, state of being manifested
- manifestative, adj [1 mānifestatīv, 2 mānifestatīv] manifest & -ative Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a manifestation
- manifestly, adv [1 mānifestlī, 2 mānifestlī] manifest (II) & -ly In a manifest manner, clearly, obviously
- manifesto, n [1 mānifestō, 2 mānifestō] Ital, fr Lat manifest (us), 'clear' See manifest (II) Public statement issued by a prince, leader of a party, or other person in authority, of principles and future policy
- manifold (I), adj [1 mānifōld, 2 mānifōld] O E manigfald, ME manifold many & -fold 1 Numerous. 2 Various, of several different kinds, multifarious
- manifold (II), vb trans, fr prec To multiply copies of a document by a mechanical device
- manifoldly, adv manifold (I) & -ly In manifold form, in various ways
- manifoldness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being manifold
- manikin, n [1 mānikin, 2 mānikin], fr Dn manneken, dimin of man 1 Small, undersized man, dwarf. 2 a Anatomical model of the human body, b lay figure, for artists &c, c a mannequin, q v. 3 Small bird of tropical America, more usually manakin, q v
- Manila (I), n [1 mānila, 2 mānila] Name of capital of Philippine Islands. 1 a Manilla hemp, stiff, durable fibre obtained from a tree of the Philippine Islands, used for making rope &c, b Manilla paper stout, brownish wrapping paper of Manila hemp &c. 2 Cigar, ohoroot, made from a special tobacco leaf of the Philippines
- manilla (II), n [1 mānila, 2 mānila] Span, fr Lat monila, pl of monile, 'collar, neck-ring' See monileform Ring, bracelet, worn as ornament or used as money by West African tribes
- manilla (III), also manille, n [1 mānil(a), 2 mānil(a)], fr Span manilla, dimin of mala, 'bad', Lat malus See mal- Second highest trump or honour in ombre or quadrille
- manioc, n [1 māniok, 2 māniok], fr native Brazilian mandioca 1 Tropical plant, cassava, yielding a starchy meal. 2 Farinaceous substance obtained from manioc, tapioca
- maniple, n [1 mānpl, 2 mānpl], fr O Fr, fr Lat manipulus (us), 'a handful, division of Roman army', fr man (us), 'hand', see manual, & a form of the base plē-* &c as in plēre, 'to fill', plenus, 'full' &c See plenary 1 Division of Roman army, consisting of cohort. 2 Short scarf or stole worn on left arm by celebrant at the Eucharist
- manipulate, vb trans [1 mānipulāt, 2 mānipulāt] As though fr Low Lat manipulāt* (um), PP of manipulāre*, 'to handle', fr manipulus, 'handful' See maniple A To work, mould, operate, with the hands, b (fig) to influence (a person or opinions) by devious or unscrupulous management
- manipulation, n [1 mānipulāshun, 2 mānipulāshun] Prec & -ion Act of manipulating, state of being manipulated
- manipulative, adj [1 mānipulātīv, 2 mānipulātīv] manipulate & -ive Of, pertaining to, done by, manipulation
- manipulatory, adj [1 mānipulātōrī, 2 mānipulātōrī] manipulate & -ory Manipulative
- maniton, n [1 mānitōn, 2 mānitōn] Algonquin manito Spirit dominating the forces of nature, among N American Indians
- mankind (I), n [1 mānkīnd, 2 mānkīnd] O E mannigynn See man & kind, w substitution for second element of kind (I) Human race, man, human beings
- mankind (II), n [1 mānkīnd, 2 mānkīnd] w contrasting stress when opposed to womenkind Perh formed direct fr man & kind (I) Male sex, men as opposed to women
- manless, n [1 mānles, 2 mānles] man & -less Without a man or men
- manlike, adj [1 mānlīk, 2 mānlīk] man & -like A Like, characteristic of, having the qualities of, a man, b (of a woman) masculine
- manliness, n [1 mānlīnes, 2 mānlīnes] See next word & -ness State or quality of being manly
- manly, adj [1 mānlī, 2 mānlī] man & -ly 1 a Becoming to, befitting, a man, characteristic of a man, b having the qualities of a man, bold, resolute, courageous, virile. 2 (of a woman) Like a man, manly
- manna, n [1 māna, 2 māna] L Lat, fr Gk manna, fr Heb & Arab mān 1 Food miraculously provided for the Israelites in the Wilderness. 2 a Sweet sap of manna-ash, used as mild laxative, b gummy, sweet exudation from a species of tamarisk in Arabia, which solidifies into small hard drops in the cold of early morning
- manna-ash, n Flowering ash of Southern Europe and Asia Minor, exuding a thick, sweetish juice
- manna-croup, n [1 māna krūp, 2 māna krūp] manna & Russ krupa, 'groats' Coarse meal made in Russia from wheat or other grain
- mannequin, n [1 mānekin, 2 mānekin, mānekin] Fr form of monikin 1 a A lay figure of wax &c used for exhibition in shop windows &c of ladies' clothes &c, b specifi, person employed by dressmakers to show off clothes by walking about in them before possible purchasers
- manner, n [1 māner, 2 māner], fr O Fr mānere, fr Low Lat man(u)aria*, 'method of handling', fr Lat man (us), 'hand' See manual & -ary 1 Way, mode, method, style, fashion, in which a thing is done, happens in such a manner, after this manner. Phrs to the manner born, accus tomed from birth to the practice indicated, in a manner of speaking, so to speak, (gram) adverb of manner, word or phrase indicating or asking how something is done. 2 a Personal bearing, behaviour, style of acting or speaking to have an awkward manner, specif b (i) (pl) personal behaviour in social intercourse good, bad, manners, in accordance, not in accordance, with polite social conventions. Phr to have no manners, no good manners, (ii) (sing) specif, distinguished, self-possessed bearing, affable, easy, dignified style of behaviour which be- speaks familiarity with the usages of good society to have a great deal of manner, he had fair manners, but no manner. 3 (pl) Habits, customs, mode of life, social conditions the manners of our ancestors. 4 a Style, characteristic method, in art, music, literature &c, b mannerism. 5 (archaic) Kind, sort, character what manner of man is this?, all manner of, all kinds of, by no manner of means, by no means, under no circumstances, no manner of, none at all, in a manner, to some extent
- mannered, adj [1 mānerd, 2 mānerd] Prec & -ed 1 Having manners of specified character all mannered, well mannered &c. 2 (of style) Characterized by mannerism, affected
- mannerism, n [1 mānerizm, 2 mānerizm] manner & -ism Peculiarity, distinctive, often affected method or trick of style, speech, behaviour, gesture &c
- mannerist, n [1 mānerist, 2 mānerist] manner & -ist Person addicted to mannerism
- manneristic(al), adj [1 māneristik], 2 māneristik] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, characterized by, mannerism
- mannerless, adj [1 mānerles, 2 mānerles] manner & -less Without manners, unmannerly, ill bred
- mannerliness, n [1 mānerlīnes, 2 mānerlīnes] See next word & -ness Quality of being mannerly
- mannerly, adj [1 mānerlī, 2 mānerlī] manner & -ly Showing good manners, polite, civil, urbane, well bred mannish, adj [1 mánish, 2 ménish] man & -ish. (chiefly used of women) Masculine, not like a woman mannishness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being mannish mannite, n [1 manit, 2 ménait] manna & -ite Sweet, crystalline substance obtained from manna (2 a) manœuvre (I), n [1 manöüver, 2 mánüvra], fr Fr, fr Low Lat manopera, fr manoperäre, fr Lat monü operäre, 'to work by hand' See manual & opera Cp manure, wh comes fr same source 1 a Strategio movement of troops or warships, b (pl) series of movements of troops or ships &c organized in peace time as means of training 2 (fig) a Skillful, dexterous, adroit management of affairs, b disingenuous action, intrigue manœuvre (II), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr manöüverer, fr L Lat manoperäre, 'to work by hand' See prec A intrans 1 (of troops or ships) To perform manœuvres, carry out planned strategic or tactical movements 2 To arrange affairs to suit one's purposes, to use artifice and cunning B trans 1 To move or cause (troops &c) to move according to a tactical or strategic plan 2 Manœuvre (person) into, out of, (a room &c), to inveigle him, into, persuade him to go in or out b manœuvre a person into an awkward position, oneself into a good billet, to jockey (oneself or another) into, out of, use unscrupulous means to effect this manœuvrer, n [1 manöüvrer, 2 mánüvra] Prec & -er A One who manœuvres or directs manœuvres, b a shifty trickster man-of-war, n [1 mán n v wór, 2 mén n v w] War ship manometer, n [1 manómeter 2 mánymetá], fr Fr manomètre, fr Gk mano (s), 'thin, porous, not dense', fr manuros*, & -meter, cogn w Sort mandí, 'a little', Lith meñkas, 'small, inferior', & perh w O Ir manb, fr manu*, 'small' Instrument measuring elastic force of gases, pressure gauge manometric, adj [1 manometrik, 2 mánamétrik] See prec & -metric Cf, pertaining to, a manometer manor n [1 mánor, 2 ménor] fr O Fr manoir, 'manor', n fr Lat infin manère, 'to remain' See mansion & second element in remain 1 Under feudalism a term of somewhat vague import, and connoting a certain territorial and agricultural unit, b a fiscal unit, c a jurisdictional unit 2 In recent times the term is applied to a specific estate, generally having a principal residence, the owner or lord of which still retains certain ancient manorial rights over the land manor-house, n House of a lord of the manor manorial, adj [1 manórial, 2 mánórial] Prec & -ial Connected with, pertaining to a manor manorial rights, customs &c mansard n [1 mánsard, 2 ménsárd], fr Fr mansarde, fr name of architect, François Mansarde (d 1666) A garret Also mansard roof form of roof in which each face has two slopes the lower one steeper than the upper manse n [1 mans, 2 méns], fr Med Lat mons (us), 'house', fr Lat mans (um), PP type of manère, 'to remain' Cp manor & see mansion Residence of a Scottish Presbyterian minister mansion n [1 mánsion, 2 ménjan], fr O Fr fr Lat mansion (em) 'sojourn, halting place', fr mons (um) PP type of manère, 'to remain', see remain, & -ion 1 Large dwelling house, capacious, imposing residence 2 (pl) Often used as name for large building divided into flats mansion-house, n a Mansion, esp manor-house, b (cap) official residence of Lord Mayor of London manslaughter, n [1 manšlawter, 2 ménšlái] man & slaughter Unlawful, though unprompted killing of a human being, unlawful homicide short of wilful murder, as in the heat of passion, or accidentally, in the course of another illegal act mansuetude, n [1 mánsuetúd, 2 mén switjúd], fr Lat mansuetudin (em), man suítudo, fr manuēl, stem of mansuēscere, 'to tame', fr man (us), 'hand', see manual, & suescere, 'to accustom' See ethical (rare or archaic) Gentleness, mildness, meekness of character or temperament mantel, n [1 mántl, 2 mésotl] Variant of mantle A Also mantelpiece, structure of wood, stone &c framing fireplace, b also mantelshelf, shelf projecting above fireplace mantel-board, n Wooden board covering mantelshelf mantelpiece, n [1 mántlēs, 2 méntlēs] a The whole structure framing a fireplace, also b mantelshelf put the clock on the mantelpiece mantelshelf, n [1 mántlshelf, 2 méntlshelf] Mantel, b mantel-ties, n Lintel of a fireplace whether of wood or stone mantic, adj [1 mántik, 2 mántik], fr Gk mantik (ds), 'prophetic, oracular', fr mant- (s), 'soothsayer' See mantis & cp -mancy Cf, pertaining to, divination, prophetic mantilla, n [1 maotíla, 2 mántíla] Span, dimin of manta, 'cloak', fr Lat mani (um), 'cape' See mantle 1 Kind of shawl or wrap worn by Spanish women round the neck so as to cover the head and shoulders 2 Short cape mantis, n [1 mántis, 2 méntis] Gk mantis 'prophet', the normal form wd be matis*, the n is due to anal of Gk mani, as in mainomoi, 'I rage, am furious', fr manjomai*, cogn w Lat mens, see mental (I), O E gemynd, see mind, cp also Goth muna, 'thought' Genus of orthopterous insects, praying mantis, species which holds up its fore legs as if in prayer, while lying in wait for its prey mantissa, n [1 mántisa, 2 méntisa] Lat, 'useless addition, make-weight', said to be of Etruscan origin Decimal part of logarithm mantle (I), n [1 mántl, 2 mántl], fr O Fr mantel, fr Lat mantellum, 'cloak, veil', wh is prob fr Lat mantum, 'cloak', but may be influenced by Lat mantellum, 'towel, napkin', fr manus, 'hand', see manual, & base terg, 'to wipe, cleanse', see detergent & trite 1 Loose sleeveless, flowing, outer garment, cloak 2 (fig) Something that covers, enfoldes &c spring's mantle of green 3 (zool) Thin, fleshy, membranous lining of mollusc's shell 4 Hollow cover of fine mesh made of cotton treated with fire resisting material which placed over a flame becomes incandescent, and increases the light mantle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans To cover as with a mantle, to envelop, clothe, cocoon, wrap B intrans 1 To form a covering, to overspread, gather on, a surface, a to flush blushes mantled on her cheek, also her cheeks mantled with blushes, b water weeds mantled on a pool 2 (of hawks) To cover the legs with the wings mantlet, mantelst, n [1 mantlet, 2 mántlit], fr O Fr montelst, dimin of mantle (I) 1 Small cloak, short mantle 2 (mul) Temporary shelter, screen, to protect attacking force, guns in action &c man-trap n Trap set to catch trespassers, consisting of two iron half boops hinged together at the ends, which close when a spring is released mantua, n [1 mantúa, 2 mantúe], fr Fr manteau, 'mantle', associated w the place-name Montua, by popular etymol, used in 17th & 18th cents (obs) Woman's gown, mantle mantua-maker, n See prec (obs) Dress maker manual (I), adj [1 mánúal, 2 ménjúal], fr

Lat manuál (us), 'relating to the hand', fr man (us), 'hand', prob cogn w O N. mund, O E mund, 'hand', Goth manuwa, 'ready', & w Gk mará, 'hand' It has been suggested that the word contains a form of the base am*, m-* &c, 'to seize', op Lat amplius, 'much embracing, comprehensive, spacious, largo', also amplector, 'to embrace' See ample Connected with, pertaining to, done by, formed by, the hand manual labour, manual alphabet, finger alphabet, manual exercises, drill with rifle and other arms, sign manual, person's own signature written by himself manual (II), n, fr prec 1 Keyboard of organ 2 Small textbook, handbook manually, adv manual (I) & -ly With, by means of, the hands manncode, n [1 mánúhód, 2 ménjúhód] Fr, fr Malay manul déwala, 'bird of the gods' A bird of Papua and Queensland, with bright, iridescent, steel blue plumage and clear, ringing voice, allied to the bird of paradise manufacture, n [1 mánúfákéhnra, 2 ménjúfákéjari], the usual pronunciation, due to influence of monufecture, [1 mánoofaktori, 2 ménjúfaktari] is less commonly heard, fr Fr, fr Lat monü, 'by hand', fr mon (us), 'hand', see manual, & factory Place, building, set of workshops, where articles, fabrics &c are manufactured manufacture (I), n [1 mánúfákohur, 2 ménjúfákéjari] Fr, fr Lat monü, 'by hand', see manual, & factura, 'a making' See fact & -ure 1 a Process of making articles, wares, goods, whether by hand or by machinery, esp on a large scale, with highly organized division of labour, b any specific branch of industry steel, cloth, hardware &c manufacture 2 Anything manufactured from raw products, pl manufactures, manufactured goods collectively manufacture (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To produce (goods, articles) from raw material by manual or mechanical labour, esp on large scale as commercial undertaking 2 (fig) a To produce (literary work &c) mechanically in large quantities without inspiration or originality, b to fabricate, concoct (story, account &c) manufacturer, n [1 mánúfákohurer, 2 ménjúfákéjari] Prec & -ar One occupied in manufacturing, esp owner of factory manuka, n [1 málinooka, 2 mánuka] Maori name An Australasian shrub or tree, with aromatic leaves, from which a kind of tea is made manul, n [1 mahnool, 2 mánul] Mongol name A small wild cat of Tibet, Mongolia, and Siberia, with grey fur and black stripes manumission, n [1 mánúmisshun, 2 ménjúmisshun], fr Lat manumission (em), 'manumission', fr manumiss (um), PP type of manumittere, 'to release' See next word. 1 Act of freeing state of being freed, from bondage, used esp of the freeing of slaves and serfs 2 Formal document liberating a serf or slave manumit, vb trans [1 mánúmit, 2 ménjúmit], fr Lat manumit (tere), 'to release', fr monü, 'by the hand', see manual, & mittere, 'to send, send off, dismiss' See mission (but) To release, set free (slave or serf) from bondage manure (I), n [1 manúr, 2 ménjús], fr next word Any substance spread on surface of ground, or forked into it, as a fertilizer manure (II), vb trans, fr A Fr maynoverer, fr L Lat manoperare, 'to work with the hand' See manœuvre To apply manure to (land &c) manurial, adj [1 manúrial, 2 ménjúrial] Prec & -ial Connected with, pertaining to, consisting of, manure manuscript, adj & n [1 mánúskript, 2 ménjúskript], fr Lat manúscriptus, Med Lat manuscriptum, n, 'written with the hand, manuscript' See manual & script 1 adj Written by hand manuscript notes 2 n a Book, text, document, written by hand, not printed or typed, abbreviated MS, (pl) MSS, b handwriting as opposed to printing or typing a work still in manuscript, not yet printed manward, adj [1 mánward, 2 mænward] man & -ward Directed towards man

Manx, adj & n [1. mængks, 2 mæŋks], fr ON mansk, 'of (Isle of) Man' 1 adj Of, belonging to, coming from, the Isle of Man Manx cat, tailless breed 2 n Language of Isle of Man, a branch of Gaelic

Manxman, n [1 mængksman, 2 mæŋksmæn] Native of Isle of Man many (I), adj [1 mém, 2 mén:] OE manig, ME man, op OHG manag, Goth manags, the present pronunciation is influenced by that of any a Numerous, indicating a number of persons or things many people, many times, how many, what number, as many, the same number, his virtues were many, his faults few, Phr to be one too many for, to get the better of, to have more than a match for, also b in construction, many a time, on many occasions, many a one (earlier, on one) Phr for many a long day, for a very long time many (II), n, fr preo Group comprising a number of persons or things many are called but few are chosen, the many, the multitude, majority, a good many, fair number, a great many, large number, (archaic) there's a monkey would be glad to go & so many-headed, adj Having many heads 'The many-headed monster of the pit' (Pope, 'To Augustus', 305), the common people, the mob, populace many-sided, adj a (geom) Having many sides, b having a variety of interests, qualities, accomplishments a many-sided man, many-sided question, of many aspects many-sidedness, n Preo & -ness Quality of being many-sided Maori, n [1 móuri, 2 mauri] Nativia, New Zealand a Member of aboriginal race of New Zealand, b language spoken by this race map (I), n [1 map, 2 mæp], fr Lat mapa, usually mappa mundi, 'map' (of the world), fr Lat mappa, 'napkin, cloth', prob a Punic loan-word 1 Plane representation of earth's surface or a part of this, indicating physical features, political boundaries & so 2 Similar representation of heavens, showing position of stars & so map (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To represent, show, in form of a map, make a map of 2 Map out, to plan, arrange, draw up a scheme for to map out one's time, a piece of work, & so maple, n [1 mæpl, 2 mæpl] OE mopel (trēow), 'maple tree', op OS mapulder 1 Tree of genus Acer, found in Europe, Asia, and America, cultivated for timber, maple-sugar, or ornament 2 Wood of maple maple-sugar, -syrup, n Sugar, syrup, got by evaporation from sap of a species of maple maqui, n [1 máhki, 2 máki] Native Chilean name An evergreen shrub of Chile, the bark yields a stringy fibre and from its berries a medicinal wine is made maquis, n [1 máhki, 2 máki] Fr, fr Corsican dial, Ital macchia 'thicket' A dense, scrubby forest of various dwarfed evergreen trees and shrubs in Corsica & so mar, vb trans [1 mar, 2 mæ] OE meran, ME merre, marre, 'to hinder, injure', op OHG merren, OS merian, 'to hinder', Goth marzyan, 'to offend' Origin dubious To injure, spoil, damage, ruin, detract from clouds later marred the beauty of the day Phr to make or mar, either to make a brilliant success of, or to ruin irremediably marabon, n [1 marabon, 2 marébun], fr Fr prob fr Arab a West African stick b down from wings or tail of this bird, used as trimming marabout, n [1 marahbót, 2 marébút], fr

Arab murabit a Mohammedan saint or hermit, b tomb, shrine, of a marabout maranatha, n [1 marandátha, 2 marandpa] Aramaic, maran atha, 'the Lord cometh' or 'O Lord come' Wrongly combined with anathema, q v in 1 Corinthians xvi 22, as if an intensified imprecation or curse maraschino, n [1 marashénd, 2 marashlón] Ital, fr (a) marasca, 'small sour cherry', fr omara, 'bitter', fr Lat amôr-us, 'bitter', cogn w Du amper, 'sharp, bitter', ON apr, 'sharp', Scrt am las, 'sour', op further, w a different grade of vowel, Gk ómós, 'roogh', Scrt ámós, 'rough, raw, unripe' Strong, sweet, mawkish liquor made from small black cherry grown in Dalmatia marasmus, adj [1 marázmk, 2 marézmik] Next word & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, marasmus marasmus, n [1 marázmk, 2 marézmik], fr Gk marasís, 'consumption', fr morasmein, 'to consume, to be exhausted', cogn w Scrt myrdá, 'to crush', OHG moro, 'ripa, tender' Cp marbula (pathol) Wasting away of the body, atrophy

Marathon race, n [1. marathón rás, 2 mæpón reis], fr name of place, twenty-six miles north of Athens, scene of great victory of the Athenians over the Persians, 490 B C, the news of which was brought by a runner who dropped dead on arrival A long distance race, usually of about twenty six miles maraud, vb intrans & trans [1 maráwd, 2 marówd], fr O Fr marault, 'vagabond', Fr maraud, 'rogue, thief', & marauder, 'to pilfer', etymol disputed 1 intrans To rove in search of booty, make raids for plunder marauding hordes 2 trans (rare) To plunder, rob, pillage marauder, n [1 maráwder, 2 maróde] Preo & -er Plunderer, roving thief, robber, raider maravedí, n [1. marávid, 2 marávidí] Span, fr Arab Marābīṭīn, name of a Moorish dynasty in Spain, 1086-1147 Connected w marabout (hist) a Spanish gold coin, worth about 14s, b Spanish copper coin, 1d marble, n [1 márb, 2 mábl], fr Fr marbre, fr Lat marmor, 'marble', fr Gk marmaros, 'stone, rock, hard substance', later 'marble', through association w marmarein, 'to shina', cogn w Lat merus, 'pure, unmixed', see mere (II), Gk marmaros is cogn w Scrt myrdá, 'to crush, grind' See marasmus & Mars 1 Crystalline form of limestone, occurring in various colours, and often beautifully streaked, with close, even grain, and capable of taking a high polish, used in building and sculpture Phr as hard, as cold, as marble 2 (pl marbles) Group, collection, of figures & so sculptured in marble the Elgin Marbles 3 Small ball of marble, glass & so used in childish games 4 (attrib) Denoting a hardness, insensibility, immovability, smoothness & so, (fig) marble breast (insensible), b white like marble a marble brow, c marked, streaked, like marble marble paper marbled, ndj [1 márbld, 2 máblld] Preo & -ed Stained, veined, printed, so as to look like marble marbled paper, edges of book & so marbly, adj [1 márbli, 2 máblli] marble & -y Resembling marble marc, n [1 márk, 2 mák] Fr, connected w marcher, 'to walk', in sense 'tread', fr Lat marcus, 'large hammer', ultimately 'something trodden, beaten, out' Mass left after the juice has been pressed out of fruit marcasite, n [1 markasít, 2 mákəsait], fr Med Lat marcasita, etymol unknown Kind of iron ore, white iron pyrites marcel wave, n [1 maršel wév, 2 mášel wév], fr name of inventor A kind of artificial wave in hair marcescence, n [1 maršəsens, 2 mášəsəns] See next word & -ce State of being marcescent marcescent, adj [1 maršəsənt, 2 mášəsənt], fr Lat marcescent-(em), Pres Part of marcescere, 'to droop', fr marc-(ere), 'to wither', op marcidus, 'languid, faded', marcor, 'decay', fr an Aryan base merē*, 'to wear out, fade, droop', to injure, orish'. Cp Scrt marcayati, 'injured', Goth gamaurgjan, 'to shorten', OE myrae, 'pleasant' See merry (bot, of part of plant) Withering, dying back, though still attached to plant

March (I), n [1 march, 2 mátf], fr O Fr, fr Lat Martius (mensis) 'month of Mars', fr Mors, stem of Mars Third month of year Phr mod as a March hare, see hare

March (II), n, fr Fr marche, Gmo See mark (I) (hist) 1 Boundary, limit, frontier (pl, often specul) Border of England and Wales or Scotland the Marches 2 Tract of debatable land lying between frontiers of two countries

March (III), vb intrans, fr preo (of countries, areas of land, estates & so) Often March with, to be adjacent to, border on, he alongside of March (IV), n, fr Fr marche, fr morch, 'to walk' See next word 1 (mil) Act of marching, Phr on the march, marobing, line of march, route followed by troops on the march, march past, manobing of troops past reviewing officer & so 2 a Loop, esp fatiguing, walk, steady, restless, monotonous, advance, b (fig) progress, advance, forward movement the march of time, eternal intellect & so 3 Distance covered by troops in one day, Phr forced march, day's march longer than normal distance, undertaken for strategic purposes, or in an emergency & so 4 Uniform step taken by soldiers & so, marching quick, slow, march 5 (moe) Composition fitted or intended to accompany march, Phr dead march, one played at a funeral service

March (V), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr marcher, 'to walk', fr Low Lat marciare, prob fr Lat marcus, 'hammer' The orig sense of the vb wd thus be 'to hammer, beat, the ground with the feet' Lat marcius is prob a back formation fr marcius, 'a hammer', w dissimilation fr Aryan mal hō*, whence also Russ molot O Slav mlatū, 'hammer' A intras 1 To walk in steady, rhythmic step, esp of uniform step of troops in formation to march away, off, to march into the town & so 2 To proceed, advance, walk, steadily B trans a To cause (troops & so) to march, b to compel to walk swiftly, to bustle hurry to march a man off to goal

Marchioness, n [1 maršənz, 2 mášənz], fr Med Lat marcionessa, fr marcion (em), 'ruler of march' See march (II) & -ess & cp marquis 1 a Title given to wife, or widow, of marquis, b lady having this title 2 Lady holding in her own right rank equal to that of marquis marzipan, n [1 marchpān, 2 mášpān], 2 mášpān, mášpān Cp Germ marzipan, Fr massepain, etymol doubtful Thick paste of ground almonds, sugar & so marconigram, n [1 markdōigram, 2 mákōnigram], fr name of Italian inventor, G Marconi, b 1874, & -gram Message sent by wireless telegraph mare (I), n [1 mári, 2 mæri] Lat mare, 'sea', cogo w O Slav marje, 'sea', Goth marci, 'sea', ON marr, OE mere, 'sea, lake' See mare (II) Mare clausum, sea protected by authority of specific nation, mare liberum, sea open to ships of all nations mare (II), o [1 mār, 2 mæ] OE mære, ME mare, op Mod Germ mähre, Du merre, ON mer Cp further OE meah, OHG marah, 'mare', 'horse', 'mare', OHG marah, 'mare', 'horse' See marshal Female O of horse Phrs shank's mare, one's own of horse Phrs travelling, the grey mare is legs, as means of travelling, the grey mare is beller horse, of wife who is more capable and masterful than her husband maremma, n [1 maréma, 2 maréma] Ital, fr Lat maritima, neut pl See maritime Low, unhealthy, marshy land near sea shore, esp in Western Italy mare's nest, n Supposed discovery which turns out to be illusory mare's tail, n 1 a Tall slender plant, Hippuris vulgaris, growing in marshy ground, b the horsetail, q v 2 Long straight hairs of cirrus cloud margaric, adj [1 margárik, 2 mágarik] Fr margarique, fr Gk margaron, 'pearl', also margaritis, cp Lat margarita, 'pearl', cp margarite, & name Margaret, of Oriental origin, fr Pers murwārid, 'pearl' (chem) Pertaining to, designating, a fatty acid, margaric acid, with a pearly appearance, found in various animal and vegetable fats margarine, n [1 margáren, 2 mágarin] popularly [1 margáren, 2 máddárin] Fr, formed fr preo word & -ine, owing to a mistaken notion that all oils and fats contained margarine said Artificial butter, or butter substitute, composed of various vegetable and animal oils and fats margay, n [1 margá, 2 mágei] Fr, fr native word mbaracava Small, spotted wild cat of South America marge, n [1 marj, 2 máddj] fr Fr, fr Lat margo, 'edge' See next word (poet) Edge, border, margin margent, n [1 margent, 2 máddant] Variant, with 'excrecent -t', of margin, found in Lyly's 'Euphones' (1580), and revived by Tennyson margin, n [1 márin, 2 máddin] fr Lat margin (em), margo, 'edge', cogn w Goth marla, 'border, horderland', OE meare, 'border' See mark (I) 1 Edge, border, rim, limit of surface 2 Space, usually blank, surrounding central body of printed or written matter &c, on page &c 3 Extra amount of anything (time, money &c) beyond what is strictly necessary, specif a (commere) the lowest amount of profit possible for a business to be run without loss or insolvency, b (Stock Exchange) difference between the buying and selling prices of stocks and shares, esp as deposited as cover for speculative dealings marginal, adj [1 márijnal, 2 máddin] margin & -al. Of, pertaining to, near, placed in, the margin marginal notes marginalia, n pl [1 márijnáha, 2 máddinéha] Mod Lat, neut pl, fr preo Marginal notes marginally, adv [1 márijnali, 2 máddineli] margin & -ly In the margin marginate(d), adj [1 márijnáted, 2 máddineted] margin & -ate & -ed Having a margin margosa, n [1 márgósa, 2 mágousa] fr Port amaroso, 'bitter' East Indian tree with bitter bark, used medicinally as a tonic margrave, n [1 margráv, 2 mágréiv] fr M Da markgrave, Germ markgraf, fr mark 'border', see march (II) & grave, 'count', cp OE ge rēfa See reeve (II), & shoriff (hist) Title of certain princes of Holy Roman Empire, originally title of military governor of border district margravine, n [1 margrávin, 2 mágréivin] Free & -ine Wife of margrave margarite, n [1 margerēt, 2 mágarit] fr Fr, fr L Lat margarito, 'a pearl', fr Gk margaritis, fr margar (on), 'pearl' See margaric & -ite Or eye daisy marriage de convenance n [1 márijhzh de konvenáns, 2 márijhzh de Luvsoáns] Fr Marriage arranged from prudential motives Marian adj & n [1 márijao, 2 méarjan] fr Lat Mariana, 'Mary', & -an 1 adj Pertaining to, connected with, n the B V M, b Mary, Queen of England, c Mary Queen of Scots 2 n Supporter, advocate, of Mary Queen of Scots marigold n [1 márijold, 2 márijold] fr Marj prob the B V M, & gold. 1 One of several herbs, genera Colendula and Tagetes, with bright yellow, red or orange composite flowers 2 The marsh marigold marinade, n & v trans [1 márijád, 2 márijád] fr Fr, fr Span marnada, 'to pickle in brine', fr Lat marin (us), 'of the sea' See marine & -ade 1 n A mixture of vinegar, wine, spice &c, b fish, meat, &c, pickled or steeped in this mixture 2 v To pickle (fish &c) in marinade marinate, v trans [1 máriját, 2 máriját] Free & -ate To marinate marine (I), adj [1 márijn, 2 márijn] fr Lat marin (us), 'of the sea', fr mar (e), 'sea' See mare (I) & -ine, & mare (I) 1 a Of, pertaining to, found in, connected with, the sea marine animals, marine painting &c, b of, pertaining to, shipping, sea trade & marine insurance, marine stores 2 (of soldier) Serving on man of war marine (II), n, fr preo 1 Country's fleet of ships, naval or mercantile 2 Soldier serving on war-ship, Royal Marines, corps of soldiers for service at sea Phrs tell that to the marines, expressing incredulity in an impossible story, horse marines, an imaginary body mariner, n [1 márijner, 2 márijner] fr A. Fr, fr Med Lat marinarius, 'sailor', fr Lat marin (us), 'of the sea' See marine & -ary Sailor, seaman, master mariner, captain in merchant service; mariner's compass, ordinary compass as used on ships Marinism, n [1 márijnizm, 2 márijnizm] fr name of Italian poet Marino, d 1625, & -ism Artificial, high flown style of writing, as that of Marino Marinist, n [1 márijnist, 2 márijnist] See preo & -ist Writer affecting Marinism Marionette, n [1 márijonatr, 2 márijonatr] fr Gk Mario, 'Mary', & -latry Worship of the B V M, a term used by opponents of the Roman Catholic Church marionette, n [1 márijonatr, 2 márijonatr] fr Fr marionette, fr Marion, dimin of personal name Maria, & -ette Figure of man or woman, made of wood, &c, moved by strings, puppet marischal, n [1 márijshal, 2 márij] fr Fr maréchal See marshal The old Scottish form of marshal, q v marish, n & adj [1 márijsh, 2 márijsh] fr ME mares, mares, fr O Fr mareis, 'marsh', fr Med Lat marisc (us), 'marsh' See marsh (rare or archaic) 1 n Marsh, swamp, morass 2 adj Pertaining to a marsh Marist, n [1 márijst, 2 méarist] fr Fr Mariste, Marie & -ist Member of Society of Mary, Roman Catholic teaching community marital, adj [1 márijtal, 2 méarital] fr Lat maritalis (us), 'of marriage', fr marit (us), 'married', cogn w Sort marital, 'man, youth, lover', cp Lath marit, 'bride', O Prussian marit, 'bride', Gk meirax, 'boy, girl' 1 Pertaining to a husband 2 Of, pertaining to, marriage maritally, adv Free & -ly In a marital manner, according with the duties &c of marriage maritime, adj [1 márijtim, 2 méaritim] fr Lat maritim (us), 'of or near the sea', fr mar (e), 'sea' See mare (I), w superl suff on anal of ulimus, ulimus &c, up ultimate 1 Pertaining to, connected with, the sea or navigation maritime trade 2 n Situated lying, near the sea, littoral maritime region, province, b living near the sea, c having a navy and mercantile fleet, having sea home trade having connexions with the sea maritime nation marjoram, n [1 márijorim, 2 máddjárem] fr O Fr majorane, fr Med Lat majorana etymol doubtful Genus, Origanum, of aromatic herbs of Europe and Western Asia, used in medicine and cookery mark (I) n [1 mark, 2 mák] OE meare, 'mark, limit of space or time, end, boundary, district', ME mark, cp OHG mark,

M Do, OHG mark, ON mark, merka, 'sign, boundary', ON mark, 'forest' Cogn w Lat margo, 'edge, border' See margin 1 a Anything destroying, diverging from, breaking, uniformity, normal colouring, design &c, of a surface, spot, stain, smear, scar &c to leave a mark on the new paint, the mark of a wound, b distinctive feature of colouring &c, physical trait, peculiarity a horse with a white mark on its nose, c (fig) impress, result, modification, imparted to thought, habits, external conditions of life &c. great men leave their mark on the thought and life of their age. Phr to make one's mark (as a scholar &c), to attain distinction 2 Sign, symbol, engraved, stamped, drawn or printed figure &c, having specific meaning to put a mark on a thing as a means of identification, specif a symbol, e g cross, inscribed in place of signature by person unable to write to make one's mark, b distinguishing symbol, sign, imprint, esp in compounds trade-mark, hall-mark &c, the marks on china, indicating place of manufacture &c 3 Thing aimed at, object of aim, target &c Phr beside, wide of the mark, failing to hit, (fig) not to the point, astray, at fault, to hit, miss, the mark, to attain, fail to attain, one's object, (God) save the mark!, expressing astonishment, irony, apology &c 4 a Any natural or other, distinguishing sign, feature, characteristic or quality grey hair is not always a mark of age, jealousy is one of the marks of a petty character, Phr mark of mouth, indentation in horse's tooth indicating age, b distinction, repute, celebrity a man of mark 5 Limit, boundary, line indicating measure, extent, position Phr to be below, up to, the mark, b below, up to, a standard 6 Numerical or other symbol expressing a judgement of the merits of candidates in a competition of any kind, or of value of performance in school or university examinations &c, the degree of merit actually implied by a mark high marks for Latin prose &c 7 (hist) a Common land held by all members of community, among Germanic tribes; b frontier district the Mark of Brandenburg, cp mark-grave 8 (Rugby football) Heel mark made by player who has secured a fair catch mark (II), v trans, fr preo 1 To put or leave a mark on, to stain, scar &c 2 a To stamp, write, draw, engrave &c, a mark having a specific meaning, specif b to put name, number &c on (linen &c) as means of identification, c to put label indicating price on (goods &c) 3 To show, indicate, draw attention to, by means of a sign, dot, line &c to mark a place, mark a river &c on a map to mark the accents in a line of verse 4 a To record put down, make a note of to mark the score in a game &c, b to assign marks to, record the number of marks awarded for to mark a paper, an exercise &c 5 To observe, pay attention to, take note of, notice mark my words; to mark well what is said Phr a marked man 6 To distinguish, single out, make remarkable great advances in applied science marked the course of the 19th century 7 Mark time, to move feet up and down in march rhythm, without advancing, (fig) to remain idle or unprogressive 8 Followed by adverbs and prepositions Mark off, to put, indicate, point or line as limit, put a boundary to to mark off a section of a surface, to mark off six inch lengths on a four foot pole Mark out, a to trace, draw line(s) indicating boundary &c on to mark out a lawn for tennis &c, b to plan out and indicate by visible signs to mark out a course for a race &c, c (fig) to destine, indicate as suitable to receive to be marked out for promotion mark (III), n Prob same as mark (I) 1 (obs) a Mediaeval unit of weight applied to gold and silver, equal to about 8 oz, b mediaeval coin worth about 13s 4d 2 a Monetary unit of the modern German

Reach, worth as stabilized about 1e, b oom or note representing this marked, adj [1 markət, 2 mækt] mark (II) & -ed 1 Having marking(s) 2 a Distinct, appreciable, considerable a marked difference, improvement, b deliberately intended, noticeable he paid her marked attentions, his coldness was rather marked markedly, adv [1 mɑ:kədli, 2 mɑ:kədli] Prec & -ly In a marked manner markedness, n [1 mɑ:kədnes, 2 mɑ:kədnis] See prec & -ness State of being marked marker, n [1 mɑ:kə, 2 mɑ:kə] mark (II) & -er One who, that which, marks, specif a person marking score in game, e.g. billiard-marker & o, b device for marking a score, c a book marker market (I), n [1 mɑ:kət, 2 mɑ:kət] fr A -Fr, fr Lat mercāt (us), 'trade, business, public place of business, market', fr PP type of mercāri, 'to carry on trade, to buy' See mercantile 1 A Public assembly of people for buying and selling (esp live stock and provisions), b open space or building to which people come for buying and selling, esp provisions, cattle, horses & o Phrs to put on the market, offer for sale, to come into the market, be offered for sale, to bring one's eggs, hogs, to a bad, the wrong, market, fail in an undertaking through directing one's efforts in wrong quarter, approaching unsuitable persons 2 Fixed time at which a market is held 3 Trade in specific commodity corn market, money-market & o 4 Demand, call, for, opportunity of selling, goods, in trade there is no market for that class of goods in England, to find a market, be in demand 5 Rate of purchase and sale, present value the market rose market (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To buy or sell in market to go marketing 2 trans a To take to, place on the market, b prepare (goods, produce & o) for the market marketable, adj [1 mɑ:kətabl, 2 mɑ:kətbl] market (II) & -able Fit, suitable, for the market, salable marketably, adv Prec & -ly In a marketable manner market-cross, n Cross standing in mediaeval market-place market-day, n Fixed day on which periodic markets are held market-garden, n Garden in which vegetables are grown for the market market-overt, n See overt market-place, n Open space in which market is held market-price, n Price for which a thing is sold in open market market-town, n Town legally privileged to hold a market markhor, n [1 mɑ:kə, 2 mɑ:kə] Pushtu name, lit 'snake eater' Goat with spirally horns, Capra falconeri, of the Himalayas marking, n [1 mɑ:kɪŋ, 2 mɑ:kɪŋ] mark (I) & -ing Distinguishing mark, patch or streak of colour & o on skin, feathers & o of animal or bird marking-ink, n Indelible ink, for marking linen & o marksman, n [1 mɑ:ksmən, 2 mɑ:ksmən] mark (I) & man One skilled in accurate shooting, sharpshooter marksmanship, n [1 mɑ:ksmənʃɪp, 2 mɑ:ksmənʃɪp] Prec & -ship A Accuracy in shooting, skill in hitting a mark, b state of being a marksman marl, n & vb trans [1 mɑ:l, 2 mɑ:l], fr O Fr marle, fr L Lat marġula, dimin of Lat marġa, 'marl', prob a Celtic word 1 n Soil consisting of clay and carbonate of lime, often used as fertilizer 2 vb To cover, fertilize, with marl marline, n [1 mɑ:lin, 2 mɑ:lin], fr Dn marlyn, fr marren, 'to bind', & lyn, 'line' (naut) Thin two-ply line used for binding shrouds & o marlinespike, n [1 mɑ:linespɪk, 2 mɑ:linspɪk] (naut) Spiked iron tool for separating strands in splicing a rope marlite, n [1 mɑ:lɪt, 2 mɑ:lɪt] marl & -ite Variety of marl which does not become pulverized by the action of air marly, adj [1 mɑ:li, 2 mɑ:li] marl & -y a Lake, of the nature of, marl, b containing, abounding in, marl marmalade, n [1 mɑ:mələd, 2 mɑ:mələd] Fr, fr Port marmelada, fr marmelo, 'quince', fr Lat melimelum, fr Gk meli-melon, fr meli, 'honey', q v under meliferous, & melon, 'apple' See melunio Preserve generally made of bitter oranges, less commonly of lemons, cut up and boiled with the peel and sugar marmolite, n [1 mɑ:məlɪt, 2 mɑ:məlɪt] fr Gk marm (arēin), 'to shine', cogn w Lat merus, 'pure, unmixed', see mere (II), & -lite Pale green variety of serpentine marmoreal, adj [1 mɑ:məreəl, 2 mɑ:məreəl] fr Lat marmore (us), 'of, like, marble', fr marmor, 'marble', see marble, & -al (poet) Of, like, marble marmoset, n [1 mɑ:məzət, 2 mɑ:məzət] fr Fr marmoset, 'grotesque carved figure', etymol doubtful Very small, bushy-tailed monkey of tropical America marmot, n [1 mɑ:mə, 2 mɑ:mə] fr Fr marmotte, fr Rhaeto-Romanio murmōt, fr Lat mūr-(em), stem of mūs, 'mouse', q v under mouse, & mont (us), 'of the mountain', see montane 1 Genus of burrowing, hibernating rodents of squirrel family, inhabiting Northern Asia, North America, and Europe, esp Alps and Pyrenees 2 Kind of bathing-cap marocain, n [1 mɑ:rəkən, 2 mɑ:rəkən] Fr, 'Moroccan' A heavy, crêpe dress material, made of silk or other textiles Maronite, n [1 mɑ:rənɪt, 2 mɑ:rənɪt] fr L Lat Maronita, fr Maron, founder of sect in 4th century, & -ite Member of sect of Eastern Christians living in neighbourhood of Mt Lebanon, Syria maroon (I), n & adj [1 mɑ:rən, 2 mɑ:rən], fr Fr marron, 'chestnut', fr Ital marrone 1 n & adj Brownish-crimson 2 n Kind of firework producing loud report maroon (II), n, fr Fr marron, perh fr Span cimarron, 'wild', fr cima, 'mountain top', possibly fr Gk kūma, 'wave' See cyma 1 One of class of negroes, originally fugitive slaves, living in mountains of West Indies 2 Marooned person maroon (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To put ashore, and abandon, on a desert island or other uninhabited spot 2 intrans To loaf, loiter marplot, n [1 mɑ:plət, 2 mɑ:plət] mar & plot One who hinders a scheme or enterprise by officious interference marque, n [1 mɑ:k, 2 mɑ:k] Fr, fr Provenc marca, fr marcar, 'to seize as pledge' Letter(s) of marque, licence given to private person to fit out and use armed ship for the purpose of attacking enemy's vessels marquee, n [1 mɑ:kə, 2 mɑ:kə] Supposed sing, fr marquise, taken as pl Large tent, esp one used at fêtes, flower shows & o, or constructed in private grounds for dancing, refreshments & o marquet(e)ry, marqueterie, n [1 mɑ:kɪtri, 2 mɑ:kɪtri], fr Fr marqueterie, fr marqueter, 'to vary, to inlay', fr marque, 'mark' See mark (I) A method used in cabinet-making of producing designs, of flowers and fruits or figures, on wood by inlaying with other woods of different colours, b designs produced by this method marquis, marquess, n [1 mɑ:kwi, 2 mɑ:kwi], fr O Fr marquis, Ital marquese, & -ese a Title of nobility ranking between duke and earl, or, in foreign countries, above a count, also as courtesy title of the eldest son of a duke, b man holding this title marquisate, n [1 mɑ:kwiət, 2 mɑ:kwiət] Prec & -ate Office, rank, of marquis marquise, n [1 mɑ:kɪz, 2 mɑ:kɪz] Fr, fem of marquis 1 a Foreign title corresponding to English marquess, b lady holding this rank and title 2 Ring set with cluster of stones arranged in pointed oval marquise scale, n [1 mɑ:kwi:z e:skəl, 2 mɑ:kwi:z e:skəl], fr name of enposed inventor, 18th cent Device for drawing equidistant parallel lines marram, n [1 mɑ:rəm, 2 mɑ:rəm], fr ON marraimr, 'sea straw', fr marr, 'sea', see mare (I), & halmr, 'straw', see halm A coarse, tough, binding grass growing on sand dunes by the sea shore marriage, n [1 mɑ:ri, 2 mɑ:ri:ʒ], fr Fr marriage, fr Low Lat maritāgium, fr marit (us), 'husband' See marital & -age 1 A legal and social contract involving, in Christian countries, the permanent union of two persons of opposite sex as husband and wife, wedlock, b relation between married pair, married life Phrs to give, take, in marriage, give or take, as husband or wife, marriage articles, agreement concerning property & o made by two persons before marriage, marriage lines, certificate of marriage, marriage settlement, arrangement whereby part of the property of either spouse is settled, for the benefit of the other, or for that of the children of the marriage 2 Act of marrying, ceremony by means of which a man and woman become husband and wife, civil marriage, one performed by government official, without religious ceremony, religious marriage, one solemnized with religious rites, marriage licence, official permit for two persons to marry 3 (fig) Intimate association, close union 'Let me not to the marriage of true minds Admit impediments' (Shakespeare, Sonnet cxcv) 4 (cards) Declaration of king and queen of same suit, in certain games marriageable, adj [1 mɑ:riəbəl, 2 mɑ:ri:ʒəbəl] Prec & -able 1 (of persons) Of an age suitable for marriage 2 (of age) Suitable for marriage married, adj [1 mɑ:nd, 2 mɑ:nd] fr PP of marry (I) (of person(s)) a Having a husband or a wife married man, woman, b joined in matrimony, united by marriage married couple, c arising from the state of marriage, connected with, undertaken, enjoyed, by persons joined together in marriage, and as a result of this married love, life, happiness, misery marrow, n [1 mɑ:rə, 2 mɑ:rə] OE mearg, ME merz, marou, op O Fr merg, ON mergr, OHG maerg, Germ mark 1 Fatty substance enclosed in the hollow of bones Phr to the marrow of one's bones, to one's innermost soul, frozen to the marrow, frozen through and through 2 (fig) Essential or best part of anything, substance, essence 3 Also vegetable marrow, species of edible gourd marrowbone, n [1 mɑ:rəbən, 2 mɑ:rəbən] Bone containing marrow, specif section of shin of beef served hot for the sake of the marrow, Phr to go down on one's marrowbones, to kneel down marrowfat, n [1 mɑ:rəfət, 2 mɑ:rəufət] Kind of large green pea marrowless, adj [1 mɑ:rəles, 2 mɑ:rəuls] marrow & -less Without marrow marrow spoon, n Large narrow spoon for extracting marrow from bones marrowy, adj [1 mɑ:rɪ, 2 mɑ:rɪ] marrow & -y (lit and fig) Containing marrow, rich marry (I), vb trans & intrans [1 mɑ:ri, 2 mɑ:ri], fr Fr marier, fr Lat marīare, 'to marry', fr marit (us), 'of marriage' See marital A trans 1 To take in marriage, take as husband or wife, wed 2 (of parent or guardian & o) To give in marriage, cause to be married to marry one's daughter to a stockbroker 3 (of priest) To perform the ceremony of marriage for the happy pair were married by the bishop of the diocese 4 (fig) To unite closely, join intimately to marry intellect with sensibility B intrans To take a husband or wife, enter the state of matrimony to marry late in life.

marry (II), interj = Mary (the Virgin) (archaic) Expressing surprise, indignation &c Phr marry come up, expressing surprise, incredulity &c

Mars, n. [1 marz, 2 māz] According to Walde, cogn w Gk marnamas, 'I fight', Scrt mr̥dā, 'strikes, crushes' See maras- mus, marble 1 a Roman god of war, hence, b war personified 2 Planet nearest to the earth and fourth in order from the sun Marsala, n [1 marahla, 2 māsdla] Name of town in Sicily Kind of light, sweetish, white wine, produced in Sicily

Marseillaise, n [1 mārsāz, 2 mārsēz] Fr, fr fem adj Marseillaise, 'of Marseilles' See next word & -ese French national Republican song, composed by Rouget de Lisle in 1792, and first sung by volunteers from Marseilles in French Revolution

Marseilles, n [1 maršēl, 2 māšēl] Town on south coast of France Kind of stiff cotton material marsh, n [1 marsh, 2 māš] OE marsh, ME marsh, cp MLG marsh, fr Gmc mar*, 'sea' See mere (I) & -ish, & cp marsh. Tract of low lying land, more or less permanently water logged, bog, morass marshal (I), n [1 marshal, 2 māšal] fr O Fr mareschal, Mod Fr maréchal, fr Med.

Lat mariscalcus, fr OHG marahscalh, fr marsh, 'horse', cp OE marsh, 'horse', see mare (II), & scall, 'servant', cp OE seccle, O Frs skall, O N skalkr, Goth skalls, 'servant, man' A marshal was orig a person in charge of horses, then a high officer in a royal household, a master of the horse A term used of certain officials, civil and military, of various rank and dignity 1 An official of a royal household, or court &c directing ceremonies &c., in England, the Earl Marshal, qv, the Only Marshal, official of the Corporation of London. 2 (mil.) a A general officer of the highest rank in certain foreign countries, as Jarshal of France, also as title of address, as Marshal Foch, in British army Field Marshal, b as part of the title of various officers of high rank in the British Royal Air Force Air-Marshal &c., see under air, c a chief officer of military police protost-marshal 3 (judicial and administrative) a An official with certain ceremonial and personal duties, who accompanies a High Court judge on circuit a judge's marshal, b the principal attendant of a university proctor, colloquially known as a bulldog, c (U.S.A.) the executive official of the Federal Courts in each judicial district, with the functions of a sheriff marshal (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 a To bring into order, arrange in appointed positions to marshal persons in procession, at banquet &c, b (fig) to set out in an orderly manner, arrange clearly to marshal facts &c 2 To lead, conduct, with ceremony to marshal a person into his place. 3 (her) To put in due order the quarters &c on an escutcheon 4 (law) To arrange, fix, in order according to priority of the claims of creditors, in distribution of an estate of a bankrupt or deceased person to marshal the assets

Marshalsea, n [1 marshalsē, 2 māšelsē] fr earlier marshalc marshalsē & -cy a Court formerly held in Southwark by the marshal of the royal household, b a prison in Southwark for debtors &c, under the marshal of the King's Bench, who was responsible for their safe custody, abolished 1849 marshalship n [1 marshalship 2 māšalšip] marshal & ship Office, rank, of marshal marsh-gas, n Light inflammable gas, product of decomposed vegetable matter, as in marshes methane.

marshness, n [1 mārhness, 2 māšness] marshy & ness State of being marshy marsh-mallow, n a Herb of the mallow family with pink flowers, growing in damp ground, b sweetmeat made from root of this marsh-marigold, n Genus of plants of Ranunculus family, growing in low lying marshy ground, and having bright golden flowers marshy, adj [1 mārah, 2 māš] marsh & -y Of, like, a marsh, abounding in marshes, wet, boggy, swampy marsupial, adj & n [1 maršūpial, 2 mā-šūpial] fr Lat marsūp (um), 'purse', pouch, fr Gk maršupion, dimin of marsipos, 'bag, purse', perh of Oriental origin 1 adj a Pertaining to, like, a pouch eg marsupial muscle, bone &c, b (of animal) belonging to subclass, Marsupialia, of mammals having a pouch in which to carry their young, which are born in an immature condition 2 n A marsupial animal, as the kangaroo, wombat &c mart, n [1 mart, 2 mārt] fr Du markt, fr Lat mercātus, 'market' See market 1 a (poet) Market-place, b trading centre 2 Auction room

martello tower, n [1 martelō tōur, 2 mātelou taw] Distortion of name of Cape Mortella in Corsica, where a tower of this kind was unsuccessfully attacked by a landing party Small round fort or fortified tower with a single gun, a number of which were erected on the E, S E, and S sea coast of England to guard against invasion in the Napoleonic wars

marten, n [1 mārtēn, 2 mārtēn] fr O Fr martine, adj fr martre, 'marten', of Gmc origin, cp OE mearp, Mod Germ marder, 'marten' A carnivorous mammal, genus Mustela, resembling a weasel, valued for its fur, the two best known species are the pine marten and the sable martial, adj [1 marshal, 2 māšal] fr Fr, fr Lat martialis (re), 'of Mars', fr Mars is, genit of Mars, & -ial 1 Pertaining to, suitable for, war martial music, martial law, temporary government by military officers, during which ordinary civil and criminal law ceases to act, as in time of war, rebellion &c 2 Warlike, militant, ready, eager, to fight the true martial spirit 3 (cap, rare) Of, pertaining to, planet Mars martialize, vb trans [1 mārschaliz, 2 māšeloz] Prec & -ize To make suitable for, prepare for, warfare, impart martial spirit to martially, adv [1 marshah, 2 māšah] martial & -ly In a martial manner

Martian, n [1 marshian, 2 māšian] fr Lat Mars (ius), 'of Mars', & -ian Inhabitant of the planet Mars

martin, n [1 mārtēn, 2 mārtēn] fr personal name Martin Name given to several birds of swallow family, esp the house-martin, Hirundo urbica, building its nest of mud or clay under eaves &c, and the sand martin, H. riparia, in sandy banks martinet, n. [1 martinēt, 2 mārtinēt] fr name of officer in the army of Louis XIV Strict, rigid, rather pedantic disciplinarian, esp naval or military, any stickler for regulations and discipline martinet (thsh) adj [1 martinētsh, 2 mārtēn-etsh] Prec & -ish Of, pertaining to, a martinet, strict, rigorously exacting martinetism, n [1 martinētizm, 2 mārtinētizm] martinet & -ism Strict discipline martingale, n. [1 mārtēngāl, 2 mārtēngēil] fr Fr, etymol doubtful 1 Part of horse's harness consisting of a strap having one end fastened to the girth, passing thence between the forelegs, the strap is double at the breast, and the upper ends have rings through which the reins pass, thus preventing the horse tossing its head up or rearing 2 Stay for a pub-boom 3 The doubling of amount of a preceding stake which has been lost martini cocktail, n [1 mārtēn kōktāl, 2 mārtēn kōkteil] Origin doubtful A cocktail made of vermouth, orange bitters, and gin

Martin-Henry rifle, n [1 mārtēn hēnrī rīf, 2 mārtēn hēnrī rūf] fr name of inventor.
A breech-loading rifle, superseded in 1886

Martinmas, n [1 martinmas, 2 mārtinmas], fr name of St Martin, Bishop of Tours (d 397), & mass (I) St Martin's day, Nov 11th martlet, n [1 mārtlēt, 2 mārtlēt] fr Fr marlete, perh fr martinet, dimin of martin.

1 Bird of swallow family, esp martan 2 (her) Representation of a bird of rather vague species without feet, used as a charge, and also as a difference for a fourth son martyr (I), n [1 mārtē, 2 mārtē] fr. eccles Lat, fr Late Gk martir, fr Gk martir, stem of martus, 'a witness', op Gk merimna, 'care, solicitude, thought', cogn w Scrt amarat, 'to remember', Lat memor, 'mindful', see memory, Goth maurnan, O E murnan, 'to care for, be anxious about, to lament over', see mourn 1 One who voluntarily suffers pain, punishment, or death for the sake of some cause or principle, specif, one who suffers death on account of his adherence to Christian faith, or to the doctrine of specific branch of Church a Christian martyr, a martyr in the cause of science &c 2 Sufferer, esp in Phr a martyr to, suffering from a martyr to gout &c, Phr to make a martyr of oneself, to make a show of self sacrifice martyr (II), vb trans, fr preo To put to death by martyrdom martyrdom, n [1 mārtērdum, 2 mārtēdēm] martyr (I) & -dom 1 State of being a martyr 2 A suffering or death of martyr, b (fig) pain, torment, severe suffering martyrize, vb trans [1 mārtēriz, 2 mārtē-riz] martyr (I) & -ize To make a martyr of martyr-, pref, fr martyr (I) Of martyrs; eg martyrolatry, worship of martyrs, martyrology, history, study, record, of martyrs martyry, n [1 mārtēry, 2 mārtēry] fr Late Gk marturion, fr martir, 'martyr' See martyr (I) & -y Martyr's shrine marvel (I), n [1 mārvē, 2 mārvē] fr O Fr merveille, fr Lat mirābilia, 'wonders', neut pl of mirābilis, 'wonderful', fr mirā (re), 'to wonder at' See miracle, admire, & -ble 1 Something wonderful, thing arousing astonished admiration 2 Person or thing exhibiting specific quality in very high and uncommon degree a marvel of patience, beauty &c Phr (colloq) he's a perfect marvel, an admirable person, one possessing some exceptional quality or accomplishment 3 (archaic) Astonishment, wonder marvel (II), vb intrans, fr O Fr merveiller, fr merveille, 'wonder' See preo a Marvel at, to be roused to wonder and admiration by to marvel at a person's courage, impudence &c, b to be surprised and bewildered as they listened to his words, they marvelled greatly marvellous, adj & n [1 marvelus, 2 mārvē-lūs] fr O Fr merveilleus marvel (I) & -ous 1 adj Arousing admiration and wonder, surprising, because uncommon or exceptional.

2 n The marvellous, phenomena lying outside ordinary experience, which excite surprise and awe, mysterious, uncanny, almost incredible event, or series of events marvellously, adv Prec & -ly In a marvellous manner marvellousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being marvellous marzipan, n See marzipane mascot, n [1 māskut, 2 mēskēt] fr Fr mascotte, etymol doubtful Person or thing supposed to bring good luck, talisman, charm masculine (I), adj [1 māhākūlin, māskūlin, 2 māskūlin, māskūlin] fr Fr masculin (e), fr Lat masculin (us), 'of the male sex', fr māz, 'male', perh cogn w Scrt (pu) manas, 'man', & -cul, & -ine 1 (gram) Of the gender to which nouns denoting males usually belong 2 a Of the male sex, b having the qualities of a male, virile, vigorous, c (of a woman) having qualities more suitable to a man than to a woman.

3. (prosody) a Masculine rhyme, (in French verse) between the final syllables of words, b masculine endrh., (of verse-line) one rhyming in this way masculine (II) n, fr prec a Masculine gender, b masculine noun, pronoun &c masculineness n masculine (I) & -ness (rare) Masculinity masculinity n [1 máhekúlinítá, 2 máskylínítá] masculine & -ity Quality, state, of being masculine, virility mask (I) n, [1 mash, 2 máš] OE māsc, 'mask', ep Mod Germ masch, 'pulp, crushed grapes', &c, perh cogn w OE mascan, 'to mix'. See mix 1 (brewing) Mixture of malt and hot water 2 Mixture of bran or grain steeped in boiling water, given to horses &c 3 Any soft substance, e.g. potatoes, crushed or beaten to a pulp mask (II) vb trans, fr prec 1 To make an infusion of (malt) with hot water 2 To redress to a mask mask (III) vb trans & n (obsolesc or obs slang) 1 vb. To make love to, attempt to excite admiration and affection of (one of opposite sex), Phr masked on, in love with 2 n Person being masked masker n [másher, 2 mášə] Prec. & -er a Lady-killer, a coxcomb, b a fop, a swell, a man who affects excessive smartness, esp of a second-rate style, in his dress maskie, mashy, n [1 máshi, 2 mášə] Perh. fr Fr masque, 'club'. Kind of golf-club with short, iron head mask-tub n Tub in which mask is made in breweries masjed n [1 másjid, 2 másdjíd] Arab Mohammedan mosque mask (I) n, [1 mahsk, 2 másk], fr Fr masque, prob fr. Span macara, 'mask', etymol doubtful 1 A small piece of silk, velvet &c worn so as partially, or entirely, to conceal face, Phr to throw off one's mask, (fig) to abandon pretence and concealment, to reveal one's true character or intentions; b covering of wire gauze stretched on frame-work, worn to protect face in fanning &c, c form of protective covering with respirator attachment for face and head, against poisonous gas in war &c a gas mask. 2 A representation of human head and face, esp as worn by Greek and Roman actors, b impression taken in clay or other plastic material from the human face, esp after death death-mask. 3 Person wearing mask and other disguise, as at a masked ball &c, a masker. 4 Head and face of a fox, out off and kept as a hunting trophy mask (II) vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To cover with a mask, b (fig) to disguise, conceal, dissemble to mask one's real character, intentions &c behind an assumed manner 2 (mil) To conceal from the enemy to mask the batteries, guns &c, to cover, protect from the enemy's attack B intrans To assume a mask, to disguise oneself masked adj [1 mahskt, 2 máskt], fr PP of prec 1 A Wearing a mask, disguised, b masked ball &c, one at which masks are worn 2 (mil) Hidden from enemy masked guns masker, masquer, n [1 máshker, 2 máskə] mask & -er a One who wears a mask, esp person taking part in masquerade, b performer in masque maskinonge, n [1 máshkinonj, 2 máshkin-ondž] Am Indian word Kind of large pike of N American lakes maskin, n [1 máškin, 2 máškin] ME maskin, fr O Fr maskillon, fr L maskilōn (em), fr Lat masculum, PP type of mascula, 'to mix'. See mix A mixture of different kinds of grain, such as wheat and rye, for bread-making masochism, n [1 mázokizm, 2 mázokizəm], fr L von Sacher Masoch, Austrian novelist, d 1895, who described a case in one of his works A form of sexual perversion, in which gratification is derived from physical suffering, mental humiliation &c, contrasted with sadism mason (I), n [1 másn, 2 méisn], fr O Fr maçon, fr Med Lat machio, prob fr Gmc base mal-*. See make 1 Artificer who cuts and prepares stone for building, and who builds with stones 2 Member of society of Freemasons mason (II) vb trans, fr prec To construct (building) of, or partly of, masonry masonic, adj [1 másoník, 2 másoník] mason & -ic Of, pertaining to, Free masonry masonry n [1 másonri, 2 méisnri] mason & -ry 1 Occupation or trade of a mason 2 Work done by mason, that part of a building made of stone, brick &c and mortar, stonework 3 (cap) Freemasonry Mas(s)ora(h), n [1 masóra, 2 masóra], fr Heb masoreth Body of accumulated tradition concerning Hebrew text of Old Testament, forming critical commentary Mas(s)orete, Mas(s)orite, n [1 masorét, -rit, 2 masorít, -rait], fr Heb masoreth. See prec Jewish scribe contributing to Mas-sorah Mas(s)oretic, adj [1 masorétik, 2 masorétik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, the Masorah, or to a Massorete masque, n [1 mahsk, 2 másk], fr Fr masque See mask (I) 1 Dramatic performance, largely spectacular, originally in dumb show, later having a dialogue, which, however, is somewhat subordinate to the pageantry 2 Literary composition written to be performed as a masque masquerade, n & vb intrans [1 máshkerád, 2 máshkerád], fr Span mascarada, fr macara, 'mask'. See mask & -ade 1 n Assembly in the nature of an amusing frolic, in which those taking part wear masks and other disguises 2 vb intrans a To take part in a masquerade, b (fig) to masquerade as, give oneself out to be, assume character of Mass (I), n [1 mas, 2 más] OE masse, masse, ME masse, fr Low Lat missa, fr words of dismissal at end of service te, messa est, fem PP of mittere, 'to send'. See mission 1 Celebration of the Eucharist, ancient name often confined, among strict Protestants, to the Roman Catholic service to go to, hear, Mass, High Mass, one accompanied by full ceremonial and music, Low Mass, one without elaborate ceremonial and music 2 Office, liturgy, of the Mass 3 Musical setting for part of this office mass (II), n, fr Fr masse, fr Lat massa, 'lump, mass', fr Gk máza, 'barley-oake', prob connected w Gk massein, 'to knead'. See macerate & make (I) 1 Coherent body of matter of indefinite shape a mass of cloud, of earth, iron &c 2 (phys) Quantity of matter in a body 3 Closely compacted group, large amount, of individual objects a mass of particles, flowers &c 4 Large number, great quantity masses of people Phr to be a mass of, exhibit large numbers of, be covered with to be a mass of bruises &c 5 a The mass, greater part, majority, Phr in the mass, in the main, in the aggregate, b pl, the masses, the lower classes of society mass (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To bring, put, gather, together into a mass, b (mil) to bring together at one point, concentrate to mass troops 2 intrans To come together into a mass massacre, n & vb trans [1 mášaker, 2 mášəkə], fr Fr, fr O Fr macelle, 'slaughter', fr Lat macellum, 'provision market where flesh and fish are sold', according to Walde, not related to maculare, 'to sacrifice, destroy', but fr Semitic, op Heb makhela, 'hurdle, enclosure' 1 n Indiscriminate slaughter, carnage, butchery, esp of persons 2 vb To put to death by a massacre, to slaughter indiscriminately massage, n & vb trans [1 mášahz, 2 mášál], fr Fr, fr masser, 'to massage', fr. Port amassar, 'to knead', fr masa, 'dough', fr Lat masa, 'lump, barley oake'. See mass (II) 1 n Remedial treatment consisting of rubbing and kneading a part of the body with the fingers to rectify morbid conditions, muscular injury &c 2 vb To treat with massage masse, n [1 masé, 2 masé], fr Fr, PP of masser, 'to make a massé', fr mace, 'club'. See mace (I) (billiards) Stroke made with cue held perpendicularly masseur, n [1 masér, 2 masé] Fr, fr mas (er), 'to massage', see massage, & -or Man who practises massage massense, n [1 maséz, 2 maséz] Fem of prec Woman who practises massage massif, n [1 maséf, 2 maséf] Fr See massive (physical geog) Group of mountains connected together forming a unit, either in an isolated mass or as distinctive part of a mountain range massiness, n [1 masimes, 2 mésmis] massy & -ness State or quality of being massy massive, adj [1 masív, 2 masív], fr Fr See mass (II) & -ive 1 Large, substantial, solid, heavy, bulky, ponderous 2 a (of features, figure, build) Of large proportions, of generous mould, strong and heavy, b (of the mind) powerful, solid massively, adv Prec & -ly In a massive manner massiveness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being massive mass-meeting, n mass (II) & meeting Large public meeting, esp political massor, n [1 masér, 2 masé] See massage & -or Masseur massy, adj [1 mas, 2 masé] mass (II) & -y Solid, bulky, massive mast (I), n [1 mahst, 2 mást] OE mæst, ME mast, op Du mas, OHG mas, O N mastr, cogn w Lat mālus, 'mast', fr mā-dus*, fr mādos*, op O Slav mostŭ, 'bridge'. Long poles of wood, iron &c set upright in a ship to support sails, rigging &c, b for wire less, decorations &c Phrs before the mast, as ordinary seaman, half-mast (high), (of flag) lowered by amount equal to width of flag, as sign of mourning mast (II), n OE mæst, ME mast, op OHG mast, 'mast, fodder', cogn w Gk māzōs, māstōs, 'breast', see mastoid, Sort mādaš, 'fat', médona n, 'fodder', Goth mata, 'food', OE mete, 'food'. See meat Fruit of beech, oak, chestnut &c, esp as food for swine mastaba, n [1 mástaba, 2 méstaba] Arab maṭṭabāh, 'stone bench' (archaeol) A primitive form of tomb in ancient Egypt with sloping sides and flat roof, containing mummy chamber master (I), n [1 máhster, 2 mástə], fr OE magister, O Fr maistre, fr Lat magister, 'master', the word is formed fr stem mag*, 'great', as in magnus, 'great', see magnum, w a double compar suff, op Lat magis, 'more', & see suff in inter (II) &c The word has the general senses of (male) director, controller, leader, person having authority, employer, owner, & is used in various connexions Further, the word may imply spiritual mastery or intellectual grasp 1 Master of a ship, ship's master, the captain (of merchantman), the master of the house, head of the household, Phrs to be master in one's own house, manage one's own affairs and allow no interference from others, a servant's, workman's, master, person who employs and pays him, master and man, the young master, son of employer, a dog knows his own master, his owner, master of a fortune, having it at one's disposal 2 a Title given to the Heads of certain Colleges at Oxford and Cambridge the Master of Balliol, of Peterhouse &c, b title given to eldest son and heir of some ancient Scottish barones the Master of Borthwick, of Loval &c, o Master of the

Temple, (i) (hist) title of the Chief of the Knights Templars, usually Grand Master, (ii) title of the priest in charge of the Temple Church, London, d form of address employed by inferiors to boys and youths of superior station Master Charles, young master Jones &c 3 a Teacher, instructor, esp in a school, also school master, in many compounds designating an instructor in some specific art or accomplishment riding, music, dancing-master &c, b leader, teacher, in philosophy, religion &c, specif, The Master, Christ 4 Skilled craftsman, esp one having a business of his own master builder, potter, carpenter &c 5 Great painter, esp old master, a one of the leading artists of 13th to 18th centuries, b picture painted by one of these 6 Person holding the second degree in the Faculty of Arts or Science at Oxford or Cambridge, Master of Arts (abbr MA) [ām ē], which entitles the holder to teach and examine in the university, Master in the Schools, a University examiner, in other Universities, also Master of Science (M Sc), of Engineering (M Eng) &c 7 Name of holder of various offices a Master of Ceremonies, person presiding over arrangements, forms observed &c, on state occasions or at social gathering, b Master of foxhounds (abbr MFH), person having control of a pack, c Master of the Horse, officer in English royal household, d Master of the Rolls, principal judge of Court of Appeal and head of the Record Office, e Master of the High Court, a subordinate judicial official of the Supreme Court, dealing with the preliminaries of cases in chambers &c 8 Person possessing some special aptitude, art, accomplishment, or quality of mind to a pre eminent degree a master of satire, persiflage, coyolery &c, b filson was a master of majestic harmonies in verse 9 In various Phrs implying spiritual or intellectual control and mastery master of oneself, having one's emotions and passions and actions perfectly under the control of one's reason, master of a subject, language &c, knowing it thoroughly, master of the situation, (i) dominant or victorious figure in a contest, (ii) able to deal successfully with given circumstances, master of one's fate, independent of circumstances, end able to control and determine one's destiny 10 (attrib) Equivalent to 'of a master', implying supremacy, domination a master mind, or pre eminence a master stroke master (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To be come master of, overcome, defeat, subdue to master a naughty boy, a horse 2 To acquire knowledge of, skill in, facility in using to master a subject, the art of fly fishing &c master-at-arms, n [1 māster at armz, 2 māster at armz] Police officer on man-of-war masterful, adj [1 mehsterfool, 2 mēstəful] master & -ful Inclined and able to take the lead, inclined to impose one's will on others, imperious, domineering masterfully, adv Prec & -ly In a masterful manner masterfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being masterful Master-General, n, in full, Master-General of the Ordnance Title of the head of the Ordnance department at the War Office masterhood, n [1 māsterhood, 2 mēstəhud] master & -hood State of being a master master-key, n Key made to open many different locks masterless, adj [1 māsterles, 2 mēstəlis] master & -less Without a master masterliness, n [1 māsterliness, 2 mēstəlis] See next word & -ness Quality of being masterly masterly, adj [1 māsterli, 2 mēstəli] master & -ly a (of persons) Displaying supreme executive or creative power and ability, b (of actions or works) performed with the skill of a master master-mariner, n Captain of merchant or fishing vessel master-mason, n 1 Stone-mason who has passed his apprenticeship 2 Freemason who has attained to the third degree masterpieces, n [1 mēstəpē, 2 mēstəpi] Pieces of work of supreme excellence mastership, n [1 māstership, 2 mēstəʃip] master & -ship 1 Office of master, esp schoolmaster 2 Dominion, rule, control masterstroke, n [1 māsterstrōk, 2 mēstəstrōk] Action in politics, diplomacy &c, of extreme skill, tact, and effectiveness mastery, n [1 māsteri, 2 mēstəri], fr O Fr maîtrise master & -y 1 a Authority, dominion, command, b supremacy, ascendancy, the upper hand to gain the mastery 2 a Skill, dexterity, worthy of a master, b thorough knowledge of, skill in, a subject or use of an instrument mast-head, n & vb trans 1 n Highest part of ship's mast 2 vb trans a To send (sailor) to meet head as punishment, b to raise (sail) to top of mast mastic, n [1 māstik, 2 mēstik], fr Fr, fr L Lat masticum, fr Gk mastikhē, 'chewing gum', op mastikhacini, 'to grind the teeth' See masticate 1 a Resin exuding from bark of certain trees, growing esp in the Levant, b tree producing mastic 2 Kind of cement made of mastic 3 Colour of mastic, pale fawn masticability, n [1 māstikabiliti, 2 mēstikabiliti], fr L Lat masticā (re), 'to chew', see masticate, & -bility State of being masticable masticable, adj [1 māstikehl, 2 mēstikabl], fr L Lat masticā (re), 'to chew', see next word, & -ble Capable of being masticated masticate, vb trans [1 māstikāt, 2 mēstikāt], fr L Lat masticā (um), PP type of masticare, 'to chew', prob fr Gk, op Gk mastikhacini, 'grind the teeth', mastax, 'mouth', fr stem makh* to, fr makh* to, cogn w Lat mandere, 'to chew', Goth munn, ON munnr, OHG munt, OE mūð, 'mouth' See mastic & mouth To grind up with the teeth, to chew mastication, n [1 māstikashun, 2 mēstikējan] Prec & -ion Act of masticating masticator, n [1 māstikātor, 2 mēstikētor] masticate & -or One who, that which, masticates, esp machine for grinding food masticatory, adj [1 māstikātor, 2 mēstikētor] masticate & -ory Of, pertaining to, for, mastication masticic, adj [1 māstik, 2 mēstik] Prec & -ic (ohem) Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, mastic mastiff, n [1 māstif, 2 mēstif], fr O Fr maslin, fr Low Lat mansuēlin* (us), fr Lat mansuēlin (us), 'tame, quiet', fr PP of mansuēre, 'to tame', fr man (us), 'hand', see manual, & suēre, 'to grow accustomed', qv under desuetude Breed of large, thick-set, powerful dogs with broad muzzle and pendulous lips mastitis, n [1 māstitis, 2 mēstatis], fr Gk mast (ōs), 'breast', see mastoid, & -itis Inflammation of the breast mastodon, n [1 māstodon, 2 mēstədo], fr Gk mast (ōs), 'breast', see mastoid, & Gk odon (ō), elem of odont, 'tooth', see odont - Genus of large extinct mammals allied to the elephant, having nipple shaped prominences on the molar teeth mastodontic, adj [1 māstodontik, 2 mēstodontik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, a mastodon mastoid, adj & n [1 māstoid, 2 mēstoid], fr Gk mast (ōs), 'breast', fr mad t-os*, cp Gk madain, 'to wet, to flow' Cogn w Lat madere, 'to drip', Sert madati, 'is drunk', mēdā, 'fat', Goth male, OE mele, 'food' See meat (soat &c) 1 adj a Shaped like female breast, of a process of the bone behind the ear mastoid process, b pertaining to, affecting, the mastoid process or its region mastoid abscess 2 n The mastoid process or bone masturbate, vb intrans [1 māsterhāt, 2 mēstəbāt], fr Lat masturbā (um), PP type of masturbari, 'to masturbate', etymol doubtful To practise self abuse masturbation, n [1 māsterbāshun, 2 mēstəbēshun] Prec & -ion Act of masturbating mat (I), n [1 mat, 2 māt] OE, ME mati, fr L Lat matia, 'mat, rough covering', perb a Phoenician loan word 1 a Coarse fabric made of straw, rushes &c or of coconut or other fibre, b piece of such material for wiping feet on, to cover part of floor, esp outside the door of a room, Phr to leave (person) on the mat, refuse to receive, c any piece or strip of fabric or carpet covering part of the floor, a rug, a disorderly tangle of hair 2 Small piece of material of linen, lace, plaited rushes &c, to put dishes on &c mat (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To cover, supply, with mat(e) 2 (esp in PP) To caoze to form a confused, tangled mat fibres matted together, matted hair B intrans To become matted mat (III), adj, fr Fr, fr Med Lat mathus, fr Arab mat, 'helpless' Having a dull surface, without lustre mat (IV), n, fr prec 1 Rough or frosted appearance, as on frosted glass 2 Dull, lustreless appearance (of metal &c) 3 Dull gold border round mount of framed picture mat (V), vb trans, fr prec 1 To give a dull, dead surface to (metal &c) 2 To frost (glass) matador, n [1 mātador, 2 mēstədō] Span, fr Lat matador (em), 'slayer', fr mac (āre), 'to kill, to honour by sacrifice', prob an amalgamation of two vbs, one cogn w Goth mēleis, OE mēce, ON mēkir, 'sword', the other cogn w Sert mahayati, 'honour, delights', mahat, 'least, sacrifice' 1 Man who kills the bull in Spanish bull fight 2 One of three chief cards in ombre and quadrille 3 A variety of dominoes, in which the number seven must be made when one piece is placed against another, the 6/1, 5/2, 4/3, and 0/0 are 'matadors' and can be played at any time match (I), n [1 mach, 2 māt] OE (ge)mæcca, 'one of a pair, mate', op mac van, 'to make, form' See make 1 a Person able to meet another in contest &c on equal terms one able to cope with another to meet one's match, no match for you, Phr to be more than a match for one, to have more skill, strength &c than one can cope with, b person equal to another in quality, power &c, peer, equal 2 Thing agreeing in shape, colour, or other details with another, thing exactly, or very nearly, like another, thing corresponding to another in position, so placed as to be symmetrical with another 3 Contest of skill, strength &c in which persons or groups of persons are opposed cricket match, wrestling match 4 a [Marriage] Phr to make a match of it, bring about, enter upon, a marriage, b person regarded as possessing eligibility or the reverse to be a good, poor, match match (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To bring (person) into conflict with another, to oppose (one person) to another to match one person against another 2 To be a match for, be equal to, in a contest Phr well matched (of persons), (i) suited to each other, (ii) able to cope with each other 3 To join (person) in marriage with another 4 To be identical in size, colour, quality &c to, correspond with the trimming does not match the hat 5 To find, obtain, material &c to match another to match some silk B intrans To be identical to, agree with, each other, in size, colour &c these two shoes don't match, the carpets and curtains do not match, dress trimmed with braid to match match (III), n, fr O Fr meche, Mod Fr meche, 'wick', etymol doubtful 1 Small piece of wood, or wax taper, tipped with combustible substance ignited by friction; formerly (now obs) lucifer match, safety match, kind which will only light when rubbed on specially prepared surface 2 Piece of prepared rope &c, burning uniformly, used to fire gun &c match-board, n match (I) & board Thin board with a groove cut along one edge, and a tongue along the opposite edge, to fit into boards similarly cut match-boarding, n Work, structure, of match-boards match-box, n Box for holding matches matchet, n [1 máchet, 2 mætʃt] See machete Broad, strong knife used in S America matchless, adj [1 máčles, 2 mætʃlis] match (I) & -less Having no match, incomparable, peerless, unequalled.

matchlessly, adv Free & -ly In a matchless manner matchlock, n [1 máčlok, 2 mætʃlok] match (III) & lock a Lock of gun holding match for firing it, b gun fitted with lock of this kind match-maker, n match (I) & (III), & maker 1 One who schemes to bring about marriages 2 Person employed in making wooden &c matches matchwood, n [1 máčnwood, 2 mætʃwud] match (III) & wood Wood of suitable size for making matches, small splinters Phr to reduce (article) to matchwood, smash it up, break it into small pieces mate (I), n & vb trans [1 mát, 2 mest] Shortened fr checkmate (chess) 1 n Checkmate, op also stalemate, fool's mate 2 vb To checkmate mate (II), n Perh fr MLG mate, fr OLG gemate, 'companion, mess-mate', fr Gmc pref ga-* & mat-*, 'meat' See meat 1 (among working men) a Companion, fellow-workman, b a general, friendly, form of address 2 a Husband or wife, partner, spouse, b (of animals, and esp of birds) one of a pair 3 (naut) a Officer second in command on merchant ship, b assistant to some official boatswain's mate, gunner's mate &c mate (III), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans a To join in marriage, b to pair (birds &c) B intrans a (of persons) To marry, b (of birds &c) to pair maté, n [1 matá, 2 matér], fr Span mate, fr native matí, 'vessel for making maté' 1 a Infusion of dried and powdered leaves of a species of ilex, of Paraguay and S Brazil, Paraguay tea, b shrub whose leaves are used for making this 2 Vessel in which maté is made mateless, adj [1 mátles, 2 métiles] mate (II) & -less Without a mate matelote, n [1 mátelot, 2 mætélot] Fr, fr matelot, 'sailor' Dish of fish stewed with wine, onions &c mater, n [1 máter, 2 mésté] Lat máter, 'mother', cogn w Gk méter, Sert mátar-, 'mother', Lith motė, 'wife', O Slav mati, O H G muoter, O E mōðor, 'mother' See mother. 1 (school) lang Mother 2 Either of two of the three membranes enveloping brain and spinal cord, dura mater and pia mater materfamilias, n [1 máterfamilias, 2 méstéfamilias] Lat, fr preo & old genit of familia See family Mother of household material (I), adj [1 mátəriál, 2 méstəriál], fr L Lat mátériál(-is), 'of matter', fr mátéria, 'wood, timber, stuff, matter' See matter & -al 1 Consisting of matter, contrasted with spiritual, substantial, tangible the material universe, in material form 2 a Based on, derived from, matter, sensuous, not spiritual, corporeal, pertaining to the physical nature of man material needs, comforts, delights, b (of persons) not spiritually minded, of the earth earthly, gross, loving things of the senses 3 a Of a weighty, solid character, important, essential, of consequence a point material to one's argument, b (law) of such a character as to affect a judgement, necessary to be borne in mind in giving a judicial decision, affecting, or able to affect, the validity of a legal instrument material (II), n, fr preo 1 The stuff of which something is made, the various substances from which a composite thing is built up, or constructed, a specif, a textile fabric clothes made of good, inferior, material, b (pl) a house built of good materials, raw materials, such as are not manufactured, but serve as basis for manufacture 2 (fig) a Elements of mental equipment, or of character, b human beings regarded as possessing these the great Public Schools turn out splendid material for the making of public servants 3 Subject-matter, pieces of knowledge, fact(s), emotional experiences &c, from which the mind constructs something material for thought, to collect material for an essay, a poem, a dictionary 4 Things, implements, necessary for the carrying out of some specific process or action; esp writing materials materialism, n [1 mátəriálizm, 2 mátəriárl-izm] Preo & -ism 1 Theory that all the facts and phenomena of the universe can be explained in terms of the nature and behaviour of matter 2 a Undue or exclusive insistence, in art, upon the purely material aspects of nature, b undue attachment to material aims and needs materialist, n [1 mátəriálist, 2 mátəriálist] material & -ist 1 One who accepts and supports materialism 2 Writer, artist &c who over-emphasizes the material side of nature 3 Person engrossed in material interests materialistic, adj [1 mátəriálistik, 2 mátəriálistik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, materialism or materialists materialistically, adv [1 mátəriálistikali, 2 mátəriálistikali] Preo & -al & -ly In a materialistic manner materiality, n [1 mátəriáliti, 2 mátəriálisti] material & -ity State or quality of being material materialization, n [1 mátəriálizáshun, 2 mátəriálayzshun] See next word & -ation 1 Act or process of materializing, state of being materialized 2 Materialized spirit materialize, vb trans & intrans [1 mátəriáliz, 2 mátəriálayz] material & -ize A trans 1 a To render material, represent in material form, b to cause to appear in material form to materialize a spirit 2 To make materialistic, to occupy with material aspects or interests B intrans 1 (of spirit) To appear in bodily form, to become substantial and corporeal 2 (of wish, plan, hope &c) To become fact, be realized, carried out matéria medica, n [1 mátéria médi-ka, 2 méstéria médi-ka] Med Lat, fr Lat mátéria, 'stuff', see matter, & medica, 'medical', see medical 1 Substances, drugs, used as remedies in medicine 2 Science of the properties of drugs and of their application as curative agents matériel, n [1 mátəriél, 2 méstəriél] Fr, fr Lat mátériál(-is), 'of matter' See material Complete stock of materials, implements, equipment &c used in any series of complex operations, available material resources, contrasted with personnel maternal, adj [1 mátəriál, 2 mátəriál], fr Fr, fr Lat mátériál(-is), 'of a mother', fr mátér, 'mother' See mother & -al 1 Connected with, pertaining to, characteristic of, a mother or of mothers, motherly maternal care &c 2 (of relationships) On the mother's side maternal grandfather &c maternally, adv Preo & -ly In a maternal manner maternity, n [1 mátérniti, 2 métérniti], fr Fr, fr Lat mátériál(-is), 'motherhood', fr mátér(-is), 'of a mother', see maternal,

& -ity 1 State of being a mother, motherhood, maternity hospital, one for women during confinement. maternity nurse, midwife 2 Character, qualities, of a mother, motherliness

math, n [1 math, 2 mæp] O E mæþ See meadow & now (IV) A mowing, chiefly in aftermath, q v mathematical, adj [1 máthémátikl, 2 mæp mátikl], fr Lat, fr Gk máthémátik (ds), 'disposed to learn, mathematical', fr máthémát-, stem of máthēma, 'learning, knowledge', fr the stem of manthanem, 'to learn, observe, understand', cogn w Goth mundra, 'guardian, watcher', OS men djan, 'to rejoice', O Slav mǫdri, 'wise', fr men-dh*, 'to direct the thought towards', expanded fr men-*, 'to think'. See mental (I), mind 1. Pertaining to, concerned with, of the nature of, mathematics 2 Completely accurate, rigorously exact mathematically, adv Preo & -ly In a mathematical manner, as in mathematics mathematician, n [1 máthémátishan, 2 mæ pímétishan] See mathematics & -ian Student of, one learned in, mathematics mathematico-, pref Form of next word used in compounds, implying combination of mathematical method with that of some other science mathematics, n [1 máthémátiks, 2 mæp mátiks] See mathematical & -ics The abstract science concerned with the properties of, and relations between, quantities, also pure mathematics, applied mathematics, application of this to the problems of physics matice, n [1 mátiké, 2 mátikou] Span, dimin of Maten, 'Matthew' a Peruvian shrub, b astringent and emetic prepared from its leaves matin, n [1 mátin, 2 métin], fr Fr matinee, fr ecoles Lat mátutinus, n, fr fem pl adj fr Mátula, 'goddess of morning', op máturus, 'ripe' (see mature), the orig meaning being 'at the right time', the stem mā* w a different suff appears in Lat māne, 'early', mānus, 'good' 1 (pl) Morning service of Church of England, also Morning Prayer 2 (pl) One of the seven canonical hours, sung at midnight or daybreak 3 (poet) Birds' morning song matinee, n [1 mátiné, 2 mátine] Fr, fr matin, 'morning', see preo, & fem PP ending fr Lat -ina, see -ade After noon theatrical or musical performance matress, n [1 mátres, 2 métrás], fr Fr matras, etymol doubtful Glass vessel with long tapering neck, used in chemical processes &c matrarch, n [1 mátérark, 2 métrárk], fr mater, on anal of patriarch Wife of patriarch, woman with status corresponding to that of patriarch matrarchal, adj [1 mátérárk], 2 métrárk] Preo & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, a matrarch or matrarchy matrarchy, n [1 mátérarki, 2 métráarki] matrarch & -y Social system in which the mother of the family is regarded as the principal ancestor, descent being traced through the female line matric, n [1 mátrik, 2 métrik] Shortened form of matriculation Examination for matriculation at a university.

matricidal, adj [1 mátérísid, 2 métrísisid] See next word & -al Of, of the nature of, matricide matricide, n [1 mátérísid, 2 métrísisid], fr Lat mátérícidá, 'matricide', fr mátér-, stem of mater, & -icide a The act of killing one's own mother, b one who kills his own mother matricular, adj [1 mátrikular, 2 métrikjula] See next word & -ar Contributed to a central or common fund, esp of contributions made to the federal treasury of the German Empire by the various states matriculate, vb trans & intrans [1 mátrikülát, 2 métrikjuléit], fr L Lat mátri cula, 'register', dimin of matrix, & -ate 1 trans To admit to membership of a university 2 intrans To be admitted to privileges of such membership matriculation, n [1 matrīkūlāsūn, 2 matrīkūlāsūn] Preo & -ion 1 Act, ceremony, of matriculating, state of being matriculated 2 Examination held by universities, which must be passed before admittance, also attrit matriculation examination matriculatory, adj [1 matrīkūlātōn, 2 matrīkūlātōn] matriculate & -ory Of matriculation matrimonial, adj [1 matrīmōnīal, 2 matrīmōnīal] matrimony & -al Of, pertaining to, marriage matrimonially, adv Preo & -ly In a matrimonial manner matrimony, n [1 matrīmōnī, 2 matrīmōnī] fr O Fr matrimoine, fr Lat matrīmōnīum, 'marriage', fr mater, 'mother' See mater 1 State of being married 2 Declaration of king and queen of trumps in some card games matrix, n [1 mātrīks, 2 metrīks] Lat mātrīx, 'womb', fr mātr-, stem of māter, 'mother' See mater 1 a Womb, b place in which anything is formed or developed 2 Earthy substance, rock & in which minerals, gems & c are embedded 3 Mould in which stamp, type & c is cast matron, n [1 mātrūn, 2 metrūn] fr Fr matrone, fr Lat mātrōna, 'married woman', fr mātr-, stem of māter, 'mother' See mater 1 Married woman 2 Woman who superintends nursing, or domestic staff in a hospital, or other institution, one in charge of the health, personal comfort, and well being of children at a boarding school, and of domestic matters effecting them matronage, n [1 mātrūn, 2 metrōnīdī] matron & -age 1 State of being a matron 2 Matrons collectively matronal, adj [1 mātrūnal, 2 metrūnal] matron & -al Of, pertaining to, suitable for, becoming to, a matron matronhood, n [1 mātrūnhood, 2 metrūnhood] matron & -hood State of being a matron matronly, adj [1 mātrūnlī, 2 metrūnlī] matron & -ly 1 Pertaining to, suitable for, becoming in, a matron matronly duties, virtues, b (of women) resembling a married woman in appearance and bearing, staid, mature looking, portly a matronly figure, manner matronship, n [1 mātrūnship, 2 metrūnship] matron & -ship 1 State of being a matron b office of matron, in hospital & c matamore, n [1 matāmōr, 2 matāmōr] fr Fr matamore, fr Arab mafūmrah, fr lamara, 'to store up' Subterranean dwelling matter (I), n [1 māter, 2 mētē] fr O Fr māter, fr Lat māteria, 'timber, stuff, material', prob fr same base as mater 1 That of which physical objects are composed, substance 2 Pus, morbid discharge from abscess, wound, sore & c 3 Substance, subject what is actually stated, and dealt with, in a book, lecture & c, contrasted with style, or manner, that is, the way in which it is said Phr a matter of fact, in truth & That which is the subject of discussion, negotiation, and the like, a business, affair, subject, thing, often rather vaguely used to speak of sundry matters, a matter of slight importance, one or two small matters of dispute Phr a matter of course, something that is expected, something inevitable, b cause, occasion for a matter of congratulation, of regret & c, Phr no laughing matter, nothing to laugh at, something very serious & Affair having significance, importance, consequence & c, in Phrs no matter, it is of no consequence, what matter?, of what importance is it?, what's the matter (with you)?, what do you complain of, what are you suffering from, what disaster has occurred? & c, for the matter of that so far as that goes, in reference to that & c 6 Amount, quantity, space & c a matter of a hundred pounds, of ten miles & c 7 Staff, objects, things, in various Phrs printed matter, published matter, first class & c matter (for the post) matter (II), vb intrans, fr preo 1 To signify, be of importance it doesn't matter if we are late 2 To discharge pus matter-of-fact, adj Unimaginative, adhering strictly to facts, prosaic, dry, commonplace matting, n [1 māting, 2 māting] mat (I) & -ing Maternal woven of rushes, hemp, fibre & c, as floor covering, for wrapping objects in transit & c mattock, n [1 mātnk, 2 mātnk] OE matuc, ME matlok, etymol doubtful Kind of grubbing axe for loosening soil, cutting roots & c, with one broad cutting edge and one sharp point mattress, n [1 mātrēs, 2 mātrēs] fr O Fr mātrās, fr Ital mātrasso, prob fr Arab almātrāh, 'place where something is thrown' a Case of canvas or other cotton material, stuffed with feathers, wool, straw, horsehair & c to form a bed, b chain mattress, series of thin chain like structures, tightly stretched to frame, supporting hair mattress, c spring mattress, series of wire springs stretched in framework of wood or steel which is fitted to a bedstead, d wire mattress, series of wires, sometimes cross crossed, stretched on a frame, to support a mattress of hair & c maturation, n [1 mātrāshūn, 2 mātrūrē] maturation, fr Lat mātrūrātōn (em), 'ripening', fr mātrūr (āre), 'to ripen', fr mātrūr (us), 'ripe', see maturo, & -ation 1 (lit and fig) The act of bringing or coming to maturity, ripening 2 (med) a The process of suppurating, b act of promoting suppurating maturative, adj [1 mātrūrātīv, 2 mātrūrātīv] maturate & -ative (med) Promoting suppurating mature (I), adj [1 mētūr, 2 mētūr] fr Lat mātrūr (us), 'ripe, mature, fully developed', the orig meaning was prob 'seasonable, occurring at the right time' See matin 1 a (of living organisms) Ripe, fully developed, having reached maximum growth, b (of the mind, intelligence) thoroughly formed, developed by care, training, and experience, not superficial, or pusill, c (of thought, a decision, plan, action & c) resulting from well developed mental faculties, prudent, wise, based upon careful deliberation and wide experience, well thought out, complete in every detail 2 (commerce, of bills) Due for payment mature (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr mātrūr, fr Lat mātrūrē, 'to ripen', to quicken, hasten', fr mātrūr (us), 'ripe' See preo A trans 1 To ripen, bring to maturity, physical or mental, to develop, complete 2 To perfect, work out in detail, complete to mature schemes & c B intrans 1 To come to maturity, ripen, reach full development 2 (commerce, of bills) To become due for payment maturely, adv mature (I) & -ly In a mature manner metureness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being mature meturity, n [1 mātrūrī, 2 mātrūrī] mature & -ity State or quality of being mature, ripeness, full development matutinal, adj [1 mātrūtīnal, 2 mātrūtīnal] fr Lat mātrūtīn (us), 'of, early in the morning', fr mātrūtī (a), goddess of early morning', see matin, & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, happening in, the early morning 2 Early maud, n [1 māwd, 2 māwd] Etymol unknown a Scotch shepherd's grey woollen plaid, b travelling rug made of this maudlin, adj & n [1 māwdlīn, 2 māwdlīn] fr O Fr Madeline 'Magdalen', q v 1 adj Loquaciously or tearfully sentimental, exhibiting foolish sentimentality, and ill controlled, rapid emotion 2 n Weak minded, feeble sentiment maugre, prep [1 māwger, 2 māwger] fr

O Fr maugre, 'in spite of', fr mal, 'had', see mal-, & grē, fr Lat grātus, 'pleasing', see grateful (oroheic) In spite of maul (I), mail, n [1 māwl, 2 māl] fr O Fr mail, fr Lat mailleus, 'hammer' See mailleous Heavy wooden hammer maul (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 a To injure seriously by tearing or heaving, to bruise, lacerate, maltreat badly mauled by a tiger, in a fight & c, b to handle clumsily and coarsely, to paw over, finger, roughly 2 (fig) To tear to pieces by hostile destructive criticism maulstick, n [1 māwlstīk, 2 māwlstīk] fr Do maulstok, fr malen, 'to paint', op O H G mālōn, 'to paint, draw', O N māla, 'to colour, paint', Goth mālan, 'to write', mēla, 'letter', the second element, stok, 'stick', is cogn w stock Long, thin rod used by painters as rest for the wrist, to steady the hand while putting in fine touches maund, n [1 māwnd, 2 māwnd] fr Hind mān Indian, Persian, and Turkish weight, from about 25 to over 80 lb avoirdupois maunder, vb intrans [1 māwnder, 2 māwnder] Origin unknown 1 To talk aimlessly, to ramble in speech 2 Maunder along, about, to wander about vaguely and listlessly maundy, n [1 māwndī, 2 māwndī] fr O Fr mande, fr Lat mandatum, 'command' (with reference to the 'new Commandment' of St John xii) See mandate 1 Ceremonial washing of feet of poor people, and distribution of alms, as religious act 2 Distribution of alms by royal almoner, as survival of this custom, maundy money, money distributed to the poor by royal almoner on Maundy Thursday, Thursday before Easter

Maundy Thursday, n The day before Good Friday See maundy

Mausier, n [1 māuzier, 2 māuze] Name of inventor, d 1882 Kind of magazine rifle, or pistol mausoleum, n [1 māwsolēum, 2 māwsolēum] Lat mausoleum, fr Gk Mausoleion, tomb erected by Queen Artemisia for her husband Mausolos, king of Caria, at Halicarnassus, c 350 B C A large, important, stately tomb mauve, adj [1 māvā, 2 māvā] Fr mauve, 'hed', etymol doubtful Mauvais quart-d'heure, brief space of time during which one has an unpleasant experience, mauvais sujet, worthless fellow, rogue, mauvaise honte, false modesty, bashfulness, extreme diffidence mauve, n & adj [1 māv, 2 māv] fr Fr, fr Lat malva, 'mallow' See malvaceous 1 n Clear, light, purple colour 2 adj Having, of, this colour mauve, n [1 māvis, 2 māvis] fr O Fr mauve, fr Span malviz, etymol doubtful, possibly of Celt origin (Scots or post) Song thrush maw, n [1 maw, 2 mā] OE maga, ME mawe, cp O H G mago, O N magi, Du mag, Germ magen a The stomach, specif the fourth stomach of a ruminant, b (fig) gulf, abyss, in such Phrs as death's maw, the maw of time & c mawlish, adj [1 māwlīsh, 2 māwlīsh] fr obs mawh, 'maggot', fr ME mael, fr O N maelr, op Dan maddik, cp further Goth māpa, OE maba, O H G mado, 'worm, insect, maggot', cogn w Lat mandere, 'to chew, gnaw', see mandible, cogn w Gk mastakmai, 'I chew, bite', mastak, 'month', see mastic 1 (in physical sense) Having a faint, sweet, starchy taste, insipid. 2 (of non-material things) Weekly sentimental, feebly emotional mawlishly, adv Preo & -ly In a mawlish manner mawlishness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being mawlish mawseed, n [1 māwsēd, 2 māwsēd] fr Germ mohn, 'poppy', & seed Seed of opium poppy mawworm, n [1 māwvōrm, 2 māwvōrm] maw & worm 1 Intestinal worm 2 (asp)

- Dissembler, hypocrite (from name of character in The Hypocrite, 1768, a play by Bickorstaff)
- maxilla, n [1 maksila, 2 maksila] Lat maxilla, 'jaw-bone', dimin of māla, 'jaw', see malar & mandible, prob on anal of axilla Jaw-bone, esp upper jawbone of vertebrates
- maxillary, adj [1 maksilari, 2 maksilari] Prec & -ary Of, pertaining to, the jaw or jaw bone
- maxilliform, adj [1 maksiliform, 2 maksiliform] See maxilla & -form Having the shape of a maxilla
- maxim (I), n [1 maksim, 2 maksim], fr Fr maxime, fr Lat form adj maxima, 'greatest', See maximum 1 General principle deduced from experience 2 Rule of conduct precept, principle
- Maxim (II), n, fr name of inventor, Sir Hiram Maxim (1840-1916) Automatic, quick firing machine gun, called also Maxim gun
- maximalist, n [1 maksimalist, 2 maksimalist] maximum & -al & -ist Person who insists on the whole of his demand
- maximization, n [1 maksimizatsion, 2 maksimizatsion] See next word & -ation Act of maximizing, state of being maximized
- maximize, vb trans [1 maksimiz, 2 maksimiz], fr Lat maxim-(us), 'greatest', see next word & -ize To raise to the highest possible degree, intensify, increase, magnify
- maximum, n & adj [1 maksimum, 2 maksimum] Lat, neut form of māximus (fr nagm-mo*), 'greatest', enpor of stem mag*, 'great', seen in magnus, 'great' See magnum 1 n Highest point, degree, greatest quantity, size &c, maximum thermometer, one recording highest temperature reached within certain time 2 adj Greatest, highest possible
- may (I), auxil vb [1 mā, 2 mei] O E mæg, M E may, mei, cp Goth magan, 'to be able', O H G, O S mag, O Fris mei, 'may', Goth mahls, O H G mahlt, O N mātr, 'might, power' Prob cogn w Gk mēlhos, 'means, instrument', q v under mechanic See might 1 Expressing possibility it may be true, I may be late, you may perhaps remember the name, I hope I may live to see the day 2 Expressing uncertainty who may you be? 3 Expressing request or permission may I come and see you?, you may go if you choose, b expressing wish, hope may you live long and be happy!
- may (II), n Prob fr O E mæg, 'kns-woman', cp O H G māg, O S mēch, 'relative', Goth mēga, 'son-in-law', etymol doubtful (poet) Maiden
- May (III), n, fr Fr mai, fr Lat Māius, 'the month of May', named after the goddess Māia, whose name prob means 'she who brings increase, growth', & is connected w māior, 'greater' See major 1 The fifth month of the year 2 (fig) Youth, prime of life 3 Hawthorn blossom 4 (pl, Camb Univ) a Examinations held in May, b eight oared bumping boat-races held late in May or early in June
- mayu, n [1 mah-ya, 2 mdyə] Sort māyā illusion, esp the material world as deceptive and unreal
- maybe, adv [1 mabt, 2 mo:bi] may (I) & be Perhaps, possibly
- May Day, n 'First of May, esp as spring festival, on which games, sports &c are held
- may-fly, n Species of ephemeral insect, artificial reproduction of this used in fishing
- May games, n Dances, sports &c such as are held on May Day
- mayhem, n [1 māhem, 2 méihem], fr O Fr mahing, mahaigne, 'injury' See maxim (legal hist) Loss of, injury to, a limb or part of the body, esp of such as can be used in self defence, as basis for an action for damages against person causing such loss or injury
- mayonnaise, n [1 māonáz, 2 me:neíz] Fr, perh fr mahonnaise*, celebrating capture of Mahon, in Minorca, in 1756 1 Creamy sauce made of yolk of eggs, oil, vinegar &c 2 Cold dish of fish &c dressed with this sauce salmon, lobster, chicken mayonnaise
- mayor, n [1 mār, 2 me:] fr Fr maire, 'mayor', fr. Lat. māior, 'greater'. See major (II). Chief officer of municipal corporation, principal magistrate of a town
- mayoral, adj [1 māoral, 2 méarəl] Prec. & -al Of, pertaining to, a mayor or mayoralty
- mayoralty, n [1 māoralt, 2 méarəlti], fr O Fr mayoralte, mayor & -al & -ty, a Office of mayor, b period of tenure of this office
- mayoress, n [1 māores, 2 me:ris] mayor & -ess Wife of mayor
- maypole, n [1 mǎpəl, 2 méipoul] Pole decorated with flowers, ribbons &c set up for dancing round on May Day
- May queen, n Girl elected for her beauty and charm to be queen of May Day sports
- May Week, n Week in late May or early June when Cambridge University boat-races are held
- mazard, n [1 mǎzard, 2 mǎzəd], fr. M E mazer, 'bowl of maple wood, maple-wood', fr O Fr mazere, 'maple wood', of Gmc origin Cp O N māzurr, O H G mazar, 'knot in maple-wood' 1 (archaic) Head, skull 2 Kind of wild cherry
- mazarine, n & adj [1 mǎzardin, 2 mǎzərdin] Perh fr Cardinal Mazarin 1 n Deep blue colour 2 adj Of this colour mazarine robe, as worn by old women of City of London
- Mazdaism, n [1 mǎzdairm, 2 mǎzde-izm], fr mazda, good principle of Persian mythology, & -ism Zoroastrianism
- maze (I), n [1 mǎr, 2 mo:z] See next word 1 A series of intricate winding paths with hedges on either side, artificially designed as a puzzle for those who try to find their way in them, a labyrinth 2 (fig) Confusion, perplexity, bewilderment
- maze (II), v, trans M E mazen, 'to confuse, puzzle', cp O E P P amasod, 'confused, dizzy', Cp perh O N maza, 'to chatter, prattle' (esp in P P) To confuse, bewilder
- mazer, n [1 mǎzor, 2 méize] See mazard A large shallow drinking-bowl of maple wood mounted in silver, with foot, and boss in inside
- mazily, adv [1 mǎzli, 2 méizli] mazy & -ly In a mazy manner
- maziness, n [1 mǎzness, 2 méiznis] See prec & -ness State or quality of being mazy
- mazurka, n [1 mǎzérka, mǎzórka, 2 mǎzárka, mǎzúerka], fr Pol a Lively Polish dance for four or eight couples, b music for this, in triple time
- mazy, adj [1 mǎm, 2 méizi] maze (I) & -y 1 Like a maze, having many windings, intricate, involved 2 Puzzled, confused in mind
- me, pron [1 mē, 2 mī], unstressed [1 mī, 2 mī] O E mē, dat, M E mē, cp O Fris, O S mi, dat, O E mē, O H G mih, (Goth mī, acc, Lat acc mē, dat mih, Gk dat moi, acc me, Sort mēm, acc, O Slav me, acc 1 Objective case of singular pronoun of first person 2 (colloq) Used as nominative after verb to be it's only me 3 (archaic) Reflexive I will lay me down and sleep 4 In interjections dear me!
- mead (I), n [1 mēd, 2 mīd] O E meodu, M E mēde, cp O Fris mede, O H G medo, O N meodr, 'mead', cogn w Gk methu, 'wine' (cp amethyst & methylin), Sort medhu, 'honey, sweet wine', Luth medue, O Slav medŭ, 'honey' Intoxicating drink made of fermented honey and water
- mead (II), n O E mēd, mēd, M E mēd, cp O E māwan, 'to mow', māp, 'harvest, crop' See mow (III), aftermath (poet) Meadow
- meadow, n [1 mēdō, 2 mēdou] O E mēdwe, dat of mēd, 'meadow', see prec, M E meūwe Connected w mow (III) & math Tract of grass-land, strictly speaking, a field kept for hay, low lying, rich ground, esp on river bank
- meadow-lark, n American field-lark
- meadow-sweet, n Herb, genus Spiraea, producing large heads of creamy, sweet smelling flowers, on long slender stalks, common in damp meadows, allied to the dropwort, q v
- meadowy, adj [1 mēdōi, 2 mēdou] meadow & -y Resembling, of the nature of, abounding in, meadows
- meagre, adj [1 méger, 2 mige], fr O Fr maigre, fr Lat macer, 'thin', cogn w Gk maltrōs, 'long', see macro-, O E mæger, O H G magar, 'lean' 1 (of persons &c) Thin, lean, gaunt 2 a Poor, scanty, stunted, inadequate meagre fare, a meagre allowance of time, material &c, b (also fig, of the intellect and its products) not rich or full, limited, arid
- meagrely, adv Prec & -ly In a meagre manner
- meagreness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being meagre, scantiness, poverty
- meal (I), n [1 mēl, 2 miəl] O E meol, M E mēle, Du meel, Germ mehl, O N mygl Cogn w Lat molere, 'to grind', cp Goth, O H G malan, 'to grind', Goth malma, 'sand', O H G mēim, 'dust', O Slav melye, 'to grind', Luth mīllan, 'meal' See also mill (I), molar (I), mollify Any kind of edible grain or pulse rather coarsely ground, contrasted with flour, which term implies finer grinding
- meal (II), n O E mēl, 'mark, sign, measure, fixed time, meal', cp O Fris mēl, māl, Goth mēl, 'appointed time', Germ mahl, 'meal', mal, 'time' The orig meaning was 'sign, written sign, mark' See melanism 1 Taking of food, occasion on which food is taken, esp at fixed or usual time for this to have one's meals regularly 2 Amount of food taken on one occasion to make a good solid meal, a light meal Phr square meal, large and satisfying one
- meal (III), vb intrans, fr prec To have a meal
- mealie, n [1 mēli, 2 mīli], fr Cape Du mīge, fr Port milho, fr millet See millet (S Afr) Mealie, the cob of Indian corn
- mealiness, n [1 mēliness, 2 mīliness] meal & -ness Quality of being meal
- meal-time, n Usual time for a meal
- mealily, adj [1 mēli, 2 mīli] meal (I) & -y 1 Of meal, resembling meal in texture, producing meal 2 (of horses) Covered with small spots 3 (of complexion) Pale, sallow
- mealily-bug, n Small insect found on vines &c and in greenhouses
- mealily-mouthed, adj Apt to mince one's words, inclined to avoid forcible or coarse expressions
- mean (I), n [1 mēn, 2 mīn] See next word 1 Point, quality, course, action, degree &c midway between two extremes, esp in Phr this happy or golden mean, moderate course of action 2 (math) Term interpolated between two other terms of a series, and intermediate in value arithmetical mean, number obtained by adding quantities together and dividing the result by number of quantities, average 3 (pl) a Mode, method, way, agent, instrument, by which anything is done, brought about, caused to be the means of helping others, by fair means or foul, to lift a weight by means of a lever, Phrs means of grace, sacraments &c, by means of, through, with the help, agency, instrumentality, of, by all means, certainly, by no (manner of) means, not at all, in no way by no means a pleasant man to deal with, b in above and similar Phrs often used as a singular a means of accomplishing one's object 4 (pl) a Resources, money, available funds to live within one's means, b wealth, robes a man of means mean (II), adj. ME mēne, fr. O Fr. men, mōen, fr. L. Lat. mediū (us), 'middle'. See median 1 (math. of quantity, point &c) Intermediate in value, position &c between two other quantities, points &c mean proportional, middle term of three quantities of which first is to second as second is to third 2 Average, representing the mean of the mean annual temperature. 3 (of time) Intervening, coming between in the mean time, while mean (III), adj. OE (ge) mēne, 'common', ME mēne, 'common, mean', op. O Frs. mēne, OHG gimēn, 'common', Goth. gimēns Coga n Lat. (rom.) mūnis O Lat. comūnis 'common', see common, Lath. mayniti, 'to exchange', O Slav. mēna, 'exchange', further, Lat. mūnus, 'gift, office, function, duty', mūnia, 'official duties', see municipal Aryan base mei* (n), moi* (n) &c, 'to exchange', for the same base n a different formative element see mutation 1 a Of low rank, undistinguished of mean parentage, persons of the mean sort, b undistinguished in appearance, shabby 2 (of natural powers, faculties &c) Inferior, mediocre Phr. of no mean ability &c, of great ability &c 3 a Ignooble, squalid, shabby mean streets, b stingy, parsimonious mean over money matters mean (IV), vb. trans & intrans OE mēnan, 'to mean, signify, intend', op. O Frs. mēna, OS mēnēn, OHG mēnen, coga n O Slav. mēniti, 'to think, have an opinion' A trans 1 (of persons) a To intend, contemplate, to have in view as an aim or object, in Phr. to mean business, intend to act, contemplate doing something, b to destine, design, for some specific purpose or use I mean this house for my son, he was meant to be a barrister 2 a To have in mind and intend to convey or express what exactly do you mean by that remark? b to mean what one says, Phr. what (on earth) do you mean (by behaving like that)?, how can you justify such conduct? c, how dare you behave in such a way? b to intend deliberately to do something, or to produce a particular result to mean no harm, he is such a villain, all bred fellows, that he's often rude without meaning it Phr. to mean mischief, (s) (of persons) to contemplate some malevolent act, (u) (of circumstances) to portend evil 3 (in pass) To be intended designed, to represent, reproduce the portrait is meant for me, though you wouldn't think it 4 a (of verbal or graphic expression) To have as a sense or significance, to imply, convey these words mean nothing, tell me what this Latin sentence means b to have a vital significance, to appeal strongly, be highly precious to your friendship means a great deal to me, modern music means very little to me B intrans 1 To have the intention to do something, to propose, form a plan to act in a certain way I mean to spend my holidays abroad this year, what do you mean to do? 2 To have a deliberate intention to produce a specific result I'm very sorry I hurt you, I never meant to meander (I), n [1 mīāndr, 2 mīāndr], fr. Lat. Meander, fr. Gk. Meandros, a slow, winding river of Caria, hence 'a winding pattern' a Winding course of a stream, b rambling, aimless walk c a pattern of winding lines, fret meander (II), vb. intrans, fr. prec. 1 (of streams) To wind about with a slow, gentle flow 2 (fig) a To wander, ramble, aimlessly along, also meander along, b to ramble in talk, to speak in an inconsequent, discursive way meandering, n & adj [1 mīāndring, 2 mīāndring], fr. Pres Part of prec. 1 n a Winding bending course, b rambling, discursive talk 2 adj Acting as that which, he who, meanders meanderingly, adv. Prec. & -ly In a meandering manner, with a meandering course meandrine, adj. [1 mīāndrīn, 2 mīāndrīn] meander (I) & -ine (rare) Full of windings or convolutions meaning (I), n [1 mīnīng, 2 mīnīng] mean (IV) & -ing What one means, something meant, sense, significance, sense conveyed or intended by something said or done Phr. with meaning, significantly, implying more than is actually expressed meaning (II), adj, fr. Pres Part of mean (IV) Full of meaning significant, expressive a meaning look meaningless, adj. [1 mīnīngles, 2 mīnīngles] meaning (I) & -less Having no meaning or significance, senseless, purposeless, without motive meaningly, adv. [1 mīnīngli, 2 mīnīngli] meaning (II) & -ly With meaning or pressively meanly, adv. [1 mīnli, 2 mīnli] mean (III) & -ly In a mean manner, shabbily, stingily meanness, n [1 mīnēns, 2 mīnēns] mean (III) & -ness Quality of being mean (in various senses) meantime, n & adv [1 mīntīm, 2 mīntīm] mean (II) & -time 1 n Intervening time 2 adv In the meantime meanwhile, n & adv [1 mīnwaīl, 2 mīnwaīl] Meantime measles, n [1 mīzls, 2 mīzls] ME masles, op. M Du. moel, 'spot', OHG masala, 'blister', cp. māsa, 'scar' 1 a Infectious disease, rubella, most prevalent among children, characterized by fever, catarrh, and rash, German masles, disease resembling a mild form of measles, b small red spots characteristic of measles 2 Disease of swine and cattle measly, adj. [1 mīzli, 2 mīzli] See prec. & -y 1 Connected with, resembling, affected with, measles, esp. of swine or cattle, or the flesh as unfit for food 2 (slang) Miserable, worthless, mean, meagre, skimpy measurable, adj. [1 mīzhrabl, 2 mīzhrabl] measurable & -able Capable of being measured or estimated Phr. within measurable distance of, close to measurably, adv. Prec. & -ly In a measurable degree, to a measurable extent measure (I), n [1 mīzhr, 2 mīzhr], fr. Fr. mesure, fr. Lat. mensūra, 'measure', fr. mens (um), PP type of mētrīn, 'to measure', coga n Sort matra (m) 'measure', mīsh, 'measure, weight, worth', Gk. metra, 'wisdom, prudence', OE mēp, 'measure, proportion' Cp. the related base med*, 'to measure', in meditate, metre (I), metre (II) Cp. common & mesa 1 a Size, extent, dimension(s), quantity, weight &c determined or expressed in terms of some unit, b specific amount, quantity &c to give full, short, measure Phr. clothes made to measure, to fit person's individual measurements, (fig) to take one's measure, find out one's capabilities, to take the measure of one's fool, estimate one's character and capacities 2 a Method, system, of measuring, series of related units dry, liquid, linear, measure, b unit of capacity, e.g. bushel a measure of wheat 3 Device for ascertaining measure, a marked rod, tape &c for determining length yard measure, b vessel of standard size for measuring liquid &c pint measure 4 (of non material things) Standard by which a quality of mind or feeling is or may be gauged, estimated, computed records do not always give the measure of one's feelings, this book shows the measure of the author's intelligence 5 (arith) Number contained in another an exact number of times greatest common measure, largest quantity exactly dividing each of two or more given quantities 6 Limit, fixed extent, degree quantity to set measures to, to limit Phr. beyond measure, excessively 7 a Verse rhythm, metre, b time in which piece of music is written, c (archaic) dance Now tread we a measure, said young Loch Inver' (Scott) 8 a Proceeding, step, course, mode, of action to take severe measures, to adopt measures, measures qu've inadequate for the purpose, b enactment, statute parliamentary bill the Government was defeated over the principal measure of their programme. 9 (geol., pl.) Series of beds, strata the coal measures of S Wales measure (II), vb. trans, fr. prec. 1 a To ascertain dimension(s), or quantity of, by comparison with a fixed unit or with object of specified or known size to measure a piece of cloth, Phr. to measure swords with, to see that swords are equal in length, for duel &c, hence to fight with, b specif. to ascertain proportions &c of (person) for clothes &c Phr. to measure a person with one's eye, look over, look up and down 2 To estimate, judge (person's character, quality &c), by some standard 3 To mark out, mark off, indicate limits of (given length) to measure a yard of silk Phr. to measure one's length fell silk 4 To show measurement of, be of specified length, breadth, height the room measures 20 feet across 5 To test by trial against, bring into comparison or competition with to measure one's strength, one's wits, with another's to measure oneself with, pit oneself against 6 Measure out, to deal out specific or stated quantity to measure out a quart of milk, a dose of medicine. 7 (poet.) To go, cover, traverse (distance) measured, adj. [1 mīzhrd, 2 mīzhrd], fr. PP of prec. 1 (of language) Careful, considered, well weighed 2 Steady, uniform, rhythmical, esp. in Phr. measured tread measureless, adj. [1 mīzhrles, 2 mīzhrles] measure (I) & -less Unlimited, boundless measurement, n [1 mīzhrment, 2 mīzhrment] measure (I) & -ment 1 Act of measuring, state of being measured. 2 Amount, size, extent, which anything measures, expressed in terms of fixed unit meat, n [1 mīet, 2 mīet] OE mete, 'food', ME mīte, cp. Goth. mate, O Frs. mete, OS met, ON matr, 'food', perh. cogn. w. Sort medas, 'fat', Lat. medera, 'to be wet, to drip', OHG mas, 'fodder' See meat (II) & meatoid 1 (archaic) a Food, anything edible, nourishment 'Thou givest them their meat in due season' (Ps), Phrs. green meat, vegetables, (fig) to be meat and drink to one, b a meal before, after, meat, to sit at meat 2 Specif. flesh of animals used as food, also butcher's meat, as contrasted with fish, and sometimes with poultry Phr. white meat, poultry, veal, pork &c 3 (fig) Substantial, solid intellectual quality a bowl, speech &c full of meat meatless, adj. [1 mīetles, 2 mīetles] meat & -less Without, containing no, meat meat-offering, n See meat, 1 (Bib.) rendered meat in R V meat-safe, n Cupboard with walls of perforated zinc, wire gauze &c, for storing meat &c meatus, n [1 mīātns, 2 mīātns] Lat. meātus, 'going, passing, way, passage', fr. PP type of mētrīn, 'to go, pass', coga n O Slav. meati, 'to go, cross over', the orig. meaning of the stem mei*, meja*, may have been 'to change one's place', in this case the word is connected w. Aryan base mei*, mei*, 'to change' See mutation & mean (III) (anat.) External opening of a channel, duct, passage, in the body, as of the internal ear, nose &c meaty, adj. [1 mīti, 2 mīti] meat & -y 1 a Of meat, b full of meat, fleshy 2 (fig) Pithy, substantial

Mecca, n [1 mīka, 2 mīka] Birthplace of Mohammed, in the Hedjaz (fig) 1 Goal of one's aspirations or ambitions 2 Place in which some cause, pursuit &c originates mechanic (I), n [1 mīkānik, 2 mīkānik], fr. Lat. adj, fr. Gk. mēchanik (os), inventive, ingenious (of machines), fr. mēchanē, 'means, invention, machine', whence Lat. māchina,

'invention', see machine, & op O.E. mæg, 'is able', see may (I) 1 Artisan, skilled and trained workman, esp one who specializes in machinery 2 (pl) Mechanics a science of machines, b science of motion and force, a branch of applied mathematics mechanic (II), adj (archaic) Mechanical. mechanical, adj [1 mekánikl, 2 mikánikl] Preo & -al 1 Of pertaining to, machines, produced by machinery mechanical power, mechanical products &c; the mechanical powers, such simple machines as the lever, wedge, pulley &c 2 Acting in accordance with, governed by, the laws of mechanics mechanical action, contrasted with chemical &c 3 Acting like a machine, resulting from machine like movements or automatic impulse, not due to, or requiring, deliberate exercise of will or intelligence, hence, unintelligent dictionary making is not entirely mechanical work 4 (archaic) Pertaining to, characteristic of, artisans, base, ill-bred a base, mechanical fellow mechanically, adv Preo & -ly In a mechanical manner mechanicalness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being mechanical mechanician, n [1 mekanishan, 2 mekanishan] mechanic & -ian Artisan, skilled in constructing, repairing, and working machines mechanism, n [1 mekanizm, 2 mekanizam] See mechanio & -ism 1 Machinery, combination of parts, the working parts of a machine collectively, system of working of a machine 2 Philosophic theory or doctrine that organic life consists solely in material and mechanical forms and operations, opposed to vitalism mechanist, n [1 mekanist, 2 mekanist] See preo & -ist Upholder of philosophic theory of mechanism mechanistic, adj [1 mekanistik, 2 mekanistik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to the theory of mechanism and of the mechanists mechanize, vb trans [1 mekaniz, 2 mekaniz] See mechanio & -ize To make mechanical, give mechanical character to Mechlin, n [1 méklin, 2 méklin] Town in Belgium A fine pillow lace made at Mechlin meconic, adj [1 mekónik, 2 mekónik], fr Gk mékôn, 'poppy', etymol doubtful Meconic acid, acid obtained from opium meconium, n [1 mekónium, 2 mikónium] Lat, fr Gk mékônion See preo 1 (obs) Opium 2 (med) The greenish matter first discharged from the intestines of a new-born infant medal, n [1 modl, 2 médil], fr Fr médaille, fr *Low Lat metalla, 'metal disk', fr Lat metallum, 'metal' See metal Small metal disk resembling a coin, with inscription, device &c, a struck to commemorate an historical event, or as portrait of some distinguished person &c, awarded b for services in war, c for valour in civil life, d for signal distinction in some branch of learning, discovery &c, e as prize in competitions in games, as golf &c, f medal play, (in golf) scored by strokes, not holes as in a match Phr the reverse of the medal, the other side of the question medalled, adj [1 médld, 2 medld] Preo & -ed Possessed of, decorated with, medal(s) medallist, adj [1 medalik, 2 medalik] medal & -ic Of, pertaining to, like, a medal medallion, n [1 modalun, 2 medalian], fr Fr médaillon, medal & -oon 1 Large round metal disk bearing engraved portrait or other device and inscription 2. Any round, flat ornament, of metal, stone, wood, lace &c, round panel, portrait &c medallist, n [1 médalist, 2 médalist] medal & -ist 1 Maker, designer, engraver, of medals 2 One who has been awarded a special medal for distinction meddle, vb intrans [1 medl, 2 médil], fr

O Fr. medlar, fr mester, fr *Low Lat misculäre, fr Lat miscere, 'to mix'. See mix.
 1 To touch unnecessarily, fidget, tamper, with don't meddle with the clock 2 To interfere, intervene officiously, occupy oneself with unnecessarily to meddle with other people's business, to meddle in matters that do not concern one, he is always meddling meddler, n [1 médler, 2 medle] Preo & -er One given to meddling, an officious busybody meddlesome, adj [1 médlsom, 2 médlsom] meddle & -some Given to meddling, interfering meddlesomeness, n Preo & -ness State or quality of being meddlesome media (I), n [1 média, 2 mídia] Lat media, adj, fem of medius, 'middle', cogn w Gk mesos, mésos, 'middle', fr medhyos*, Sert madhyas, Goth midys, O H G muth, O E midd, 'middle', see mid, O Slav među, 'between', međa, 'middle, boundary' See also meso- 1 (antiquated phon) Voiced stop consonant [b, d, g] 2 (anat) Middle membrane of artery &c media (II), n, pl of medium. mediaeval, adj [1 médiéval, 2 médiéval], fr Lat medi (us), 'middle', see media, & aeu-(um), 'age', q v under age, & -al Of, belonging to, in the spirit of, imitating, the Middle Ages mediaevalism, n [1 médiévalizm, 2 médiévalizm] Preo & -ism A fondness for mediaeval ideals, customs &c, b spirit of the Middle Ages mediaevalist, n [1 médiévalist, 2 médiévalist] media(a)eval & -ist Student of mediaeval history &c mediaevalize, vb trans & intrans [1 médiévaliz, 2 médiévaliz] media(a)eval & -ize 1 trans To make mediaeval, to give a mediaeval character or tendency to 2 intrans To follow, adopt, mediaeval customs, ideals &c mediaevally, adv [1 médiéval, 2 médiéval] media(a)eval & -ly In a mediaeval manner medial, adj [1 médial, 2 médial], fr Lat mediālis, 'middle', fr medi (us), 'middle', see media, & -al 1 Situated in, passing through, the middle medial line, medial consonant, in middle of word 2 a Of, pertaining to, an average, b of average size medially, adv Preo & -ly In a medial position median, adj & n [1 médian, 2 médian], fr Lat mediān (us), 'middle', fr medi (us), 'middle', see media, & -an 1 adj Of, situated in, passing through, the middle as median artery &c 2 n (anat) Median artery, vein &c mediant, n [1 médiant, 2 médiant], fr Ital mediant, fr Lat mediant-(em), Pres Part type of medi-(ere), 'to intervene' See mediate & -ant (mus) Third note of scale mediastinal, adj [1 médiastinl, 2 médiastinl] See next word & -al Of, pertaining to, the mediastinum mediastinum, n [1 médiastinum, 2 médiastinum] Med Lat, fr Lat medi (us), 'middle' See media (anat) Membranous septum between principal portions of an organ, esp that between right and left lungs mediate (I), adj [1 médiat, 2 médiat], fr Lat mediāt (um), PP type of mediāre, 'to intervene', fr Lat medi-(us), 'middle' See media Dependent on, involving the presence or agency of, some other person or thing, not independent or direct mediate (II), vb intrans & trans [1 médiāt, 2 médiāt] See preo A intrans To intervene between two parties, esp as peace-maker B trans 1 To bring about by one's intervention 2 To hold intermediate position, form connecting link, between mediately, adv [1 médiat, 2 médiat] mediate (I) & -ly In a mediate manner mediation, n [1 médiashun, 2 médiashun] mediate (II) & -ion Act or process of mediating, state of being mediated, reconciliation mediatization, n [1 médiatizashun, 2 médiatizashun] See next word & -ation Act of mediatizing, state of being mediatized mediatize, vb trans [1 médiatiz, 2 médiatiz] mediate & -ize To annex (smaller state) to larger one, absorb (principality &c) into neighbouring state, leaving former ruler his title, as in the former empires of Austria Hungary and Germany mediator, n [1 médiatur, 2 médiatur] mediate & -or One who mediates, specif, the Mediator, Christ mediatorial, adj [1 médiatōrial, 2 médiatōrial] mediator & -al Of, pertaining to, a mediator or to mediation mediatory, adj [1 médiatur, 2 médiatur] mediate & -ory Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, mediation mediatrix, n [1 médiātrix, 2 médiātrix] See mediator & -trix Woman who mediates medicable, adj [1 modikabl, 2 médikabl], fr Lat medicabil (is), 'curable', fr medic (us), 'to heal, cure', fr medic (us), 'doctor', see medical, & -able Capable of being cured, yielding to medical treatment medical (I), adj [1 médikl, 2 médikl], fr Lat medicālis, 'of a doctor', fr medic (us), 'doctor', & -al Op mederi, 'to heal', cogn w Avesta (vī)-mad-, 'physician' Other cognates uncertain 1 Pertaining to, connected with, the art of healing and the treatment of disease in general, and including all branches medical knowledge, medical school, practitioners, books &c, medical man, doctor, medical jurisprudence, legal aspects of medicine 2 Specif, pertaining to, requiring, treatment by a physician, by means of drugs &c, contrasted with surgical medical cases, a medical ward, one in a hospital for the treatment of such cases medical (II), n, fr preo (colloq) Student of medicine medically, adv [1 médikali, 2 médikali] medical (I) & -ly In a medical manner, by means of medicine, from the point of view of medical science medicament, n [1 médikament, 2 médikament] medicament, médikament, fr Lat medicament (um), 'remedy', fr medic (us), 'to heal', see medicate, & -ment Remedy, drug, substance used in medical treatment medicaster, n [1 médikaster, 2 médikaster], fr Lat medic-(us), 'doctor', see medical, & -aster (rare) A quack medicate, vb trans [1 médikāt, 2 médikāt], fr Lat medicāt (um), PP type of medicāre, 'to heal, cure', fr medic (us), 'doctor' See medical 1 To treat with medicine 2 To impregnate with medicinal substance medicated cotton wool medication, n [1 médikashun, 2 médikashun] Preo & -ion Act of medicating, state of being medicated medicative, adj [1 médikativ, 2 médikativ] medicate & -ive a Of, of the nature of, medication, b tending to heal, medicinal Medicean, adj [1 médistan, 2 médistan], fr Med Lat Medice (us), Latinized form of Medici, name of Florentine family who attained to sovereign power in Tuscany in the 15th cent Of, relating to, the Medici family medicinal, adj [1 médisial, 2 médisial] medicine & -al 1 Pertaining to medicine 2 Having healing properties, curative medicinally, adv Preo & -ly In a medicinal manner, by medicine medicine (I), n [1 médian, 2 médian], fr O Fr médecine, fr Lat medicina, 'the art of healing', fr medic-(us), 'physician' See medical & -ine 1 a The science or art of the prevention, treatment, and cure of disease Schools of Medicine, b specif, treatment by drugs, dieting &c, contrasted with surgery medicine and surgery 2 a Any substance, or compound taken internally to cure disease, b (fig) salutary experience, punishment for folly or wrong-doing 3 Charm, spell, magic, as used by savages, also an object, formula, ritual, supposed to have magico properties, medicine-man, magician, witch doctor medicine (II), vb trans, fr prec To treat medicinally, give medicine to medico, n [1 medikō, 2 medikow] Ital, fr Lat. medic (us), 'doctor' See medical (facet.) Doctor medico-, pref = 'medical, of medicine and —', fr Lat. medic-(us), 'doctor' See medical. Medico botanical, medico legal medieval, adj See medi(a)eval mediocre, adj [1 mediōker, 2 midiovske], fr Fr mediocre, fr Lat mediocris, 'middling, indifferent', orig 'half way up a height', fr medi (us), 'middle', see media, & O Lat ocris, 'peak, rugged mountain', cogn w Gk okris, 'peak, point', & w Lat acer, 'sharp' See acid. Of medium quality, neither good nor bad, indifferent, average, (chiefly in disparaging sense) second rate, inferior mediocrity, n [1 mediōkrita, 2 midiovskriti], fr Lat mediocritas-(em), 'moderation, in ferocity, insignificance' Prec & -ity 1 Quality of being mediocre 2. A person of mediocre qualities or importance meditate, vb trans & intrans [1 meditat, 2 meditet], fr Lat. meditat-(um), P.P type of meditari, 'to think over, consider, to reflect', cp Lat. moderare, 'to set limits to, moderate', see moderate, modus, 'measure, size, limit, boundary, manner, mode', see mode, modestia, 'keeping within bounds', see modest, cogn w Gk. medomai, 'I think of, devise', medea, 'plans, counsels' The Aryan base mēd*, mōd*, meant orig 'to measure', hence 'to weigh in the mind, reflect on', other cognates are Goth mitan, O E metan, 'to measure', see mete (II) See also measure 1 trans a To plan, plot, contemplate to meditate revenge, b (rare) to think, dwell, upon, attend assiduously to 'And strictly meditate the thankless Muse' (Milton, 'Lyc' 66) 2 intrans To engage in deep, concentrated thought or contemplation, to ponder meditation, n [1 meditashun, 2 meditetshun], fr Lat. meditation (em), 'meditation, contemplation', prec & -ion. a Concentrated thought, pondering, b solemn contemplation of, reflection upon, a serious subject, c (pl) treatise embodying such reflections meditative, adj [1 meditatīv, 2 meditetiv] meditate & -ive a Of the nature of, based on, meditation, b given to meditation, contemplative meditatively, adv Prec & -ly In a meditative manner meditativeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being meditative mediterranean, adj & n [1 mediterranean, 2 mediterranean], fr Lat mediterrane (us), 'inland', fr medi-(us), 'middle', see media, & terra, 'land', see terra, & -an 1 adj a (of land, region) Far from coast, b (of sea) inland, land-locked. 2 n Specif (cap) the Mediterranean (Sea), that lying between Europe and Africa, (also attrib) Mediterranean fever, Malta fever medium (I), n [1 mēdium, 2 midiam], Lat. medium, 'the middle', fr neut form of medi (us), 'middle' See media. 1 Middle, intermediate degree, quality &c 2 a Substance, e.g. air, in which objects exist, and by means of which sensory impressions are conveyed, b (fig) state, condition, circumstances, of life 3 Agency, means, instrumentality, esp in Phr by, through, the medium of, medium of circulation 4 (in spiritualism) Person through whom spirits of the departed are supposed to communicate with the material world 5 Substance with which pigments are mixed before use in painting medium (II), adj, fr prec Moderate, average, middle, not extreme in any direction medium size, height &c mediumistic, adj [1 mediumistik, 2 midiamistik] medium (I) & -ist & -ic Having qualities of, pertaining to, a spiritualistic medium mediumize, vb trans [1 mēdūmiz, 2 midiamiz] medium & -ize To bring into condition of a medium medlar, n [1 medlar, 2 mēdla], fr O Fr medlar, mesler, fr Lat, fr Gk mespilē, etymol unknown a Small brown stone fruit, eaten when half rotten, having a sour and slightly astringent taste, medlar jelly, jelly made of the fruit, b tree producing this fruit medley (I), n [1 medli, 2 medli], fr O Fr medlee, fr fem P.P of medler, mesler, 'to mix up' See meddle Confused, indiscriminate, assortment of objects, heterogeneous collection of things, persons, compositions &c, specif a crowd, assembly, of people of various nationalities &c, mixed company, b piece of music consisting of excerpts from a number of different musical compositions, c literary miscellany medley (II), adj, fr prec Mixed, varied Médoc, n [1 medok, 2 medok] Wine district of the Gironde in SW France Kind of claret produced in Médoc district medulla, n [1 medula, 2 medala] Lat medulla, 'marrow of bones', perb fr the stem seen in med (us), 'middle' See media 1 Marrow of bones 2 a Spinal marrow, b continuation of this within the cranium, forming the hindmost part of the brain, called also medulla oblongata 3 Cellular, central, inner, part, pith, a of animal hair, b of certain bodily organs such as the kidney, c pith of plant stems medullary, adj [1 medullari, 2 medallari] Prec & -ary Pertaining to, consisting of, of the nature of, medulla or pith Medusa, n [1 medūza, 2 midjūza] Lat Medusa, fr Gk Medousa, 'guardian' 1 (Gk mythol) One of the three Gorgons, with snakes for hair, whose gaze had the power of turning to stone all who encountered it 2 (zool, medusa, pl. medusae) Jelly-fish medusal, medusan, adj [1 medūzl, -zn, 2 midjūzl, -zn] Prec & -al, -an (zool) Of, pertaining to, the medusae medusoid, adj [1 medūzoid, 2 midjūzoid] Medusa & -oid. (zool) Of the nature or form of a medusa meed, n [1 mēd, 2 mid] O E mēd, ME mēde, 'reward', cp OHG mēla, meta, O Fris mēde, 'reward, hire' Cp further Gk misthos, 'wages, pay', Sert miṭha m, 'prize', O Slav miṭa, 'salary', Goth miṭō, O E meord, 'reward, pay' (poet) a Reward, what is bestowed upon one, b full portion, what one merits one's meed of praise, blame &c meek, adj [1 mēk, 2 mil] O E mēoc, ME mēle, fr O N mjūkr, 'soft, gentle', cp M Du. munk Submissive, mild, gentle, humble in spirit, reverse of self-assertive meekly, adv Prec & -ly In a meek manner meekness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being meek, lowliness, humility meerkat, n [1 mērkāt, 2 mērkāt] S Afr Du, fr Du meerkat, 'monkey', cp Germ meerkatze, O HG meerkatze, 'monkey', possibly an Eastern loan word, cp Sert markata, 'ape' The sunicate, a kind of ichneumon, of S Africa meerschau, n [1 mērscham, 2 mērscham] Germ, fr meer, 'sea', q.v. under mere (I), & schaum, 'foam' a Porous, light, whitish clay composed of silicate of magnesia, b tobacco pipe made of this meet (I), n [1 mēt, 2 mit] fr next word. Assembly of riders and foxhounds, or harners, at a fixed place previous to a hunt meet (II), vb trans & intrans O E mēlan, ME mēle, O N mōla O S mōlan See moot A. trans 1 a To come face to face with, encounter to meet a person in the street, Phr to meet a person half way, to be ready to make concessions, to respond to another's advances, b to come towards, approach, come upon, pass, from opposite directions if he comes by this road I shall meet him, the two trains coming from the North and South meet at Carlisle. 2 (of line, road, river &c) To join, open, flow into, at a given point the Cherwell meets the Thames at Oxford 3 To come into contact with, touch his hand met hers Phr to meet one's eye, ear, to become visible, audible, to become apparent 4 a To come into the company of one doesn't often meet him in society, b to make the acquaintance of come to lunch to meet my brother, c to come into personal relation with for purposes of discussion, negotiation &c the owners are ready to meet the miners 5 To await arrival of, go before hand to specific place in order to receive, greet on arrival to meet a person at the station, meet a train, boat &c 6 a To encounter in conflict, duel &c, b to face, confront, stand up against to meet calamities with a smile. 7 a To satisfy, comply with, conform to to meet a person's wishes, demands, to meet the requirements of a situation, b to satisfy by payment to meet one's liabilities, c to pay when due to meet a bill 8 To refute by argument, to answer satisfactorily to meet objections, criticisms &c B intrans 1 a (of lines, roads &c) To join, come to gether, converge, at a given point, Phr extremes meet, b (of opposite ends of a line, piece of material &c) to come into contact be long enough to join, touch this belt won't meet round my waist Phr (fig) to make both ends meet, to make one's means suffice for one's expenses 2 (of persons) a To come together into one another's company we correspond regularly but seldom meet, b to make each other's acquaintance he and I know each other by sight, but have never met 3 (of qualities) To be united, to occur, be found, combined, e.g. in the same person, character, or thing And all that's best of dark and bright meet in her aspect and her eyes (Byron) C Followed by adverbs and prepositions Meet together, to come together Meet with, a to undergo, experience to meet with adventures, ill treatment, kindness, misfortunes &c, b to come across, meet, encounter to meet with a friend in the train, c to come upon, find by chance to meet with a striking phrase in a book meet (III), adj O E (ge)mētic, 'suitable, well fitting', ME mēle, 'suitable, fit, moderate', cp O Fris mēle, O HG gimāh, 'fitting', cp also Pret pl mēlon, of O E melan, 'to measure' See mete (II) (archaic) Fitting, suitable, proper 'It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty' &c (Common Service) meeting, n [1 mētang, 2 miting] meet (II) & -ing 1 a The act of coming face to face, of flocking together, (i) an encounter, whether friendly or hostile, by accident or design, (ii) specif, a duel, b process or fact of coming together, joining, coming into contact the meeting of the waters 2 a Assembly of people for specific purpose political meeting, race meeting, specif (cap) assembly for public worship, esp of Quakers, b persons assembled at a meeting to address the meeting meeting-house, n. Building for religious meetings held by Friends meeting-place, n Place fixed on for a meeting, one in which meetings are held meetly, adv [1 mēti, 2 miti] meet (III) & -ly In a proper, fitting, seemly, suitable, manner meetness, n [1 mētnes, 2 mitnis] See prec & -ness Quality of being meet mega-, pref representing Gk mega (s), 'large', cogn w Sert may man-size', Lat magnus, 'great', see magnum, Goth miris, O E mycel, see much. Great, large, e.g. megahelic, megapode &c megacephalous megacephalic, adj [1 megasēfalus, -ēfālik, 2 megasēfalos, -ēfālik] Prec & -cephalous -ic Large headed.

megaceros, n [1 megáseros, 2 megásars] mega- & Gk -kerós, fr keras, 'horn' See cerato- Species of fossil deer, Irish elk megalthi, n [1 megáalthi, 2 megálp] mega- & Gk lithos, 'stone' See litho- A large prehistoric stone monument, menhir, dolmen &c megalthic, adj [1 megáalthik, 2 megálpik] See preo & -ic Made of, pertaining to, large stones or megaliths, esp as prehistoric monuments megalithic circles, structures megalo-, pref representing Gk megál (ē), fem of megas, 'great, large' See mega- megalomania, n [1 megálomania, 2 megálomaniá] See preo & mania Unfounded belief in one's own greatness, thus as form of insanity megalomaniac, n [1 megálomaniák, 2 megálomaniák] Preo & -ac Person suffering from megalomania megalosaurus, n [1 megálosórus, 2 megálosóras] See megalo- & saurian Genus of huge, extinct, carnivorous reptiles megaphone, n [1 megáfón, 2 megáfón] mega- & -phone Large speaking-trumpet, used for making the voice travel to a distance megapod(e), n [1 megapod, -pód, 2 megapod, -pód] mega- & Gk pod (ds), pous, 'foot', see pedal & -pod Name of a family of Australasian birds, also known as mound-bird, which leaves its eggs to hatch in a mound of grass, leaves &c megaron, n [1 mégaron, 2 mégaron] Gk, fr megas, 'great' See mega- (archaeol) The great hall of the early Greek palace, as at Mycenae &c, and described in the Homeric poems megass, n [1 megas, 2 migas] Etymol unknown Fibré left after sugar is extracted from sugar cane megatherium, n [1 megáthērion, 2 megáthērion] mega- & Lat form of Gk thērion, 'wild animal', fr thēr, 'wild animal' See theriao Extinct genus of huge herbivorous, hairy sloths, order Edentata, of South America megilp, n [1 megilp, 2 migilp] Etymol unknown Mixture of linseed oil and turpentine, used as medium for oil-paints megohm, n [1 megóm, 2 megóm] mega- & ohm (elect) Unit of resistance, one million ohms megrim, n [1 mégrim, 2 mígrim] fr Fr migraine See migraine 1 Severe headache, usually periodical and affecting one side of head only, migraine 2 Pl, the megrime a depression, low spirits, dejection, b the staggers in horses and cattle 3 Sudden fancy, whim, caprice meiosis, n [1 miósis, 2 maiósis] Gk meiōsis, 'lessening', fr meiōmēn, 'to lessen', fr meiōn, 'less', earlier meiōnōn*, op minutēin, 'to lessen', cogn w Sort minútē, 'to impar', Lat minor, 'less', see minor, & words there referred to, for the second element see -osis Litotes, q v mekometer, n [1 mekometer, 2 mikómēta] fr Gk mēkos, 'length', cogn w makros, 'long', see macro-, & -meter A special form of range finder for artillery or rifle fire melandcholia, n [1 melankolia, 2 melankolia] L Lat melancholia, fr Gk melancholia, 'choleric humour', fr melan-, stem of melas, 'black', see melanism, & cholē, 'bile', see choler Form of emotional insanity, characterized by extreme mental depression melandcholic, n [1 melankóhik, 2 melankóhik] Preo & -ac Person suffering from melancholia melandcholic, adj [1 melankóhik, 2 melankóhik] fr Lat melancholicus (-us), fr Gk melancholikós, 'atrabilius' See preo & -ic Sad, gloomy, melancholy, given to, caused by, melancholy melandcholy, n & adj [1 melankoh, 2 melankoh] fr O Fr melancholie, fr Lat melancholia See melandcholia 1 n. a Gloom, sadness, depression of spirits, dejection, b habitual tendency to this 2 adj a Given to expressing melancholy, gloomy, mournful, depressed, b causing melancholy, gloomy, depressing, saddening a melancholy landscape, a melancholy event melange, n [1 málánzh, 2 meláz] Fr, fr mélér, 'to mix', fr O Fr mesler See meddle Mixture, medley melanism, n [1 melánizm, 2 melánizm] fr Gk melan-, stem of melás, 'black', cp Sort malinaš, 'dirty, stained, black', Lett melns, 'black', O Prussian melne, 'bluish mark on the body', fr base mel-, ml-, 'to soil, stained, dirty, of dark colour', hence 'marked in any way, bearing marks', op Goth mēla, 'letters', O E mēl, 'sign, mark, fixed time', see meal (II), also 'coloured', op Lth melnye, 'blue pigment', Lth mulvas, 'reddish', Lat mulleus, 'red, purple', Gk milos, 'reddish' Abnormal development of dark pigment in skin, hair, nails &c melanite, n [1 melanit, 2 melánast] fr Gk melan-, stem of melás, 'black', see preo, & -ite Deep black variety of garnet melanochroi, n pl [1 melánokrói, 2 melánokrouai] fr Gk melánokhros (os), 'swarthy', fr melan, stem of melás, 'black', see melanism, & either khros (ds), 'skin, surface, appearance', op khroism, 'to touch the surface lightly, to tint', Lhrōma, 'skin, complexion, colour', see chrome Individuals of white race, having exceptionally dark complexion melanochroid, adj [1 melánokroid, 2 melánokroid] Preo & -oid Of, of the nature of, melanochroi melanosis, n [1 melanósis, 2 melánósis] fr Gk melan-, stem of melás, 'black', see melanism, & -osis A abnormal deposit of black pigment in the tissue, organs &c of the body, b morbid condition arising from this melanotic, adj [1 melánótik, 2 melánótik] fr Gk melan-, see preo, & -otic Of, of the nature of, affected with, melanosis melée, n [1 melá, 2 mélet] Fr, fr O Fr medlée See medley Confused fight, skirmish, confusion, affray melic, adj [1 melik, 2 melik] fr Gk melik (ds), 'of a song', fr mél (os), 'hymn, joint, part of musical phrase, song, tune', cogn w Corn mal, 'joint, vertebra', no certain cognates in other languages Of, pertaining to, intended as, a song melic poetry, a melic ode melilot(e), n [1 melilót, melilót, 2 melilót, melilót] fr Gk melilot (on), 'kind of clover', fr mél, 'honey', cogn w Lat mel, 'honey', see meliferous, & lótis, 'lotus', see lotus Genus of white or yellow-flowered plants with sweet, aromatic scent melinite, n [1 melinit, 2 melinast] fr Fr melinite, fr Gk mélis (ds), fr mél (on), 'apple', the etymol of wh is unknown See malic & -ite A high explosive containing picric acid meliorate, vb trans & intrans [1 meliorat, 2 meliorat] fr L Lat meliorat (-um), PP type of meliorare, 'to improve', fr Lat melior, 'better', prob orig 'stronger, greater', op Gk mala, 'very', mallon, 'more', maleros, 'strong', Lat multus, 'much', see multi-, Lett malus, 'very much', O Slav izmoliti, 'to rise above' To improve, amend, make or become better melioration, n [1 meliorashun, 2 meliorashun] Preo & -ion Improvement, amendment meliorative, adj [1 meliorativ, 2 meliorativ] meliorate & -ive Tending to improve, or to cause improvement, reverse of pejorative meliorism, n [1 meliorizm, 2 meliorizm] Lat melior, 'better', see meliorate, & -ism Doctrine that man and human life tend to become better, and that human effort may contribute to this improvement reverse of pessimism meliorist, n [1 meliorist, 2 meliorist] See preo & -ist Believer in meliorism melloy, n (archaic) See melée meliferous, adj [1 meliferus, 2 melifarus] fr Lat melis, stem of mel, 'honey', cogn w Gk mel, 'honey', melissa, 'bee', Goth milp, 'honey', O E mele(d)aw, mil(daw), 'nectar', see midew, blithe, & -iferous Producing honey, sweet meliffuence, n [1 melifloens, 2 melifluens] See next word & -ence Quality of being meliffuent, sweetness meliffuent, adj [1 melifloent, 2 melifluent] fr Lat melis, 'honey', see meliferous, & flu- (ere), 'to flow', see fluant Melifluous meliffuous, adj [1 melifloous, 2 melifluus] See preo & -ous (of words, music, voice &c) Sweet sounding, dulcet meliffuously, adv Preo & -ly In a meliffuous manner mellow (I), adj [1 melò, 2 melow] ME melwe, melowe, 'ripe, mature', perh fr O E melu, 'meal, flour', stem melu See meal (I) a (of fruit) Ripe, soft, sweet, b (of wine) well matured, soft and pleasant to the taste, c (of voice, sound, colour &c) rich, full and soft, not harsh or thin, d (of earth) rich and moist, e (of character &c) made sympathetic, wise, and gentle by experience, f (slang) (i) jovial, gay, (ii) intoxicated mellow (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo a To make mellow, b to become mellow mellowly, adv mellow & -ly In a mellow manner mellowness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being mellow melodeon, melodium, melodrum, n [1 melòden, -um, 2 melòden, -um] Invented word fr melody 1 Kind of reed organ, American organ 2 Kind of accordio melodic, adj [1 melodik, 2 melodik] Lat melodiceus, fr Gk melodikeus See melody & -ic Of the nature of, pertaining to, melody, melodious melodious, adj [1 melòdius, 2 melòdius] fr O Fr melodiceus melody & -ous 1 Of, producing, full of, melody 2 Sweet-sounding, tuneful, musical melodiously, adv Preo & -ly In a melodious manner melodiousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being melodious melodist, n [1 melòdist, 2 melòdist] melody & -ist Composer, singer, of melodies, specif, a composer whose work revolves in melody melodize, vb intrans & trans [1 melòdiz, 2 melòdiz] melody & -ize a trans To render melodious, b intrans, to compose melodies melodrama, n [1 melòdràma, 2 melòdràma] fr Fr melodrame, fr Gk melo (s), 'song, music', see melic, & drama 1. (obs) A play interspersed with songs 2 Play in which the sentiments and emotions displayed are violent and intense, the incidents of a highly sensational and exciting kind, and the style of the dialogue high flown and bombastic 3 Incident, action &c combining sensational and sentimental elements after the manner of melodrama melodramatic, adj [1 melòdramatik, 2 melòdramatik] See preo & dramatic Resembling melodrama, violently sentimental and sensational melodramatically, adv [1 melòdramatikali, 2 melòdramatikali] Preo & -al & -ly In a melodramatic manner melodramatist, n [1 melòdramatist, 2 melòdramatist] See preo & dramatist Writer of melodrama melodramatize, vb trans [1 melòdramatiz, 2 melòdramatiz] See preo & dramatize To put into the form of a melodrama melody, n [1 melòdi, 2 melàdi] fr O Fr melodie, fr L Lat, fr Gk melodia, 'chant, song', fr mélis (os), 'musical', fr mekelid,

'I sing', fr mél-(os), 'song', see melio, & ode, 'song', see ode A sequence of agreeable musical sounds or notes, specif. a an air, tune, in music, also tunelessness, b sweet agreeable sounds which give pleasure to the ear the melody of brooks and trees melon, n [1 melon, 2 melon], fr Fr, fr L Lat melon (em), nom melo, prob contracted fr Gk melopepon, wh is fr mēlo (n), 'apple', see melinite, & pepon, 'ripe', op Gk pepainein, 'to ripen', pepido, 'cooked', see pepsin Kind of gourd with sweet, tender, juicy flesh, containing a very large number of flat seeds melt (I), n [1 melt, 2 melt], fr next word. Molten metal melt (II), vb intrans & trans O E meltan, 'to melt' (intrans), meltan, melan (trans), ME melten, cp ON mella, 'digest', cogn w Gk mēlō, 'to melt, become liquid', fr another form of same base comes also Lat molle, 'soft', & molere, 'to grind' See further under malt, mild, mill (I), & meal (I) & mould (I) A intrans 1 (of ice, snow, wax, rock, metal &c) a To become liquid through heat, b also melt away, to dissolve and disappear through heat, Phrs (colloq) I'm simply melting (with heat), am very hot, (of food) to melt in one's mouth, to be so tender that it disintegrates quickly 2 a To dissolve sugar melts in tea, b to disappear, vanish, fade, gradually from sight the vision melted away, (also fig) his resources were gradually melting away, c (fig, of person, feelings &c) to become softened, tender through pity &c, to relent 'Look homeward, Angel, now, and melt with ruth' (Milton, 'Lyc' 163), d (of courage, determination &c) to ooze away, be weakened 3 To pass by imperceptible degrees into, become indistinguishable from, to blend ocean melts into sky on the horizon B trans 1 a To reduce to liquid, cause to melt, by heat, melt down, to reduce (metal articles, plate &c) to condition of molten metal, b to dissolve by immersion in liquid 2 (fig) To soften, make tender, mild to cause to relent her entreaties would melt the hardest heart melting, adj [1 melting, 2 melting], fr Pres Part of prec 1 a (of feelings, heart &c) Strongly affected by emotion, inclined to relent, b (of looks, glances) languishing, sentimental 2 (of sounds) Provoking gentle, tender, emotions, sweet, soothing, soft meltingly, adv Pres & -ly In a melting manner melon n & adj [1 melon, 2 melon] fr Melito Mowbray, Leicestershire, a famous hunting centre 1 n a A fine, closely woven and fulled wool cloth, with smooth surface, used for overcoats &c, b overcoat of this cloth 2 adj Made of this cloth member, n [1 membre, 2 membre], fr Fr membre, fr Lat membrum, limb, member, part, earlier mems rom*, cp Lat membrana, 'fine skin' Cogn w Gk mēros, 'thigh', Ser mēd mē, 'flesh', O Slav mēso, Goth mins, 'flesh' 1 a Part, organ, limb, of human or animal body, Phr unruly member, the tongue, b (fig) member of Christ, Christian 2 Distinct part of complex whole, single constituent part 3 Person belonging to a corporate society, specified group &c, Member of Parliament elected representative in House of Commons 4 a Clause of sentence, b group of figures forming part of arithmetical expression

-membered, adj [1 membre, 2 membre] Pres & -ed Having limbs or members memberless adj [1 membreless, 2 membreless] Pres & -less Without members membership, n [1 membership, 2 membership] Pres & -ship 1 State of being a member, status as member 2 Whole number of members of a society &c, to have a large membership membranaceous adj [1 membranaceous, 2 membranaceous] See next word & -aceous Consisting of, of the character of, membranous membrane, n [1 membrān, 2 mémhresn, mémhrin] Lat membrāna, 'fine skin, membrane, parchment', cp Lat membrum, 'limb' See member 1 (anat) Fine, supple, usually elastic, skin covering or lining the organs, canals &c of the body 2 (bot) Fine, film like skin lining canals, covering seeds &c, of plant 3 Single skin of parchment membran(e)ous, adj [1 membrāneus, mémbranne, 2 mémbrinias, membrines] membrane & -eous Of, pertaining to, consisting of, of the character of, membranous memento, n [1 mémētō, 2 mémētōu] Lat imperat of meminisse, 'to remember', fr redupl form of stem men*, 'to think', seen in mens, 'mind, thought', see mental (I) Object serving as reminder, memorial, warning Phr memento mori (Lat, 'remember you must die'), anything serving to remind us that we must die, an emblem of mortality memoir, n [1 mémwar, 2 mémwā], fr Fr mémoire, masse, specialized use of mémwaire, fem, 'memory', fr Lat memoria, 'memory' See memory 1 a Bio graphical account of a person written by another, b monograph, dissertation upon some noteworthy subject 2 (pl) Memoirs, a a narrative of events based on the personal observation and experiences of the writer, account of the writer's own life and adventures, b collection of researches published by a learned academy or society memorabilia, n [1 mémorabilia, 2 mémorabilia] Lat, neut pl of memorabilia, 'memorable' See memorable Things worth remembering, points worthy of note memorability, n [1 mémorabilita, 2 mémorabiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being memorable memorable, adj [1 mémorabl, 2 mémorabl], fr Lat memorabil (is), 'remarkable, memorable', fr memor (āre), 'to call to mind', fr memor, 'mindful', q v under memory, & -able Noteworthy, remarkable, worthy to be remembered memorableness, n Pres & -ness Quality, fact, of being memorable memorably, adv See prec & -ly In a memorable manner memorandum, n [1 mémorandum, 2 mémorandum], pl memoranda, memorandums Lat, 'something to be remembered', neut sing gerundive fr memorare, 'to call to mind' See memorable 1 a Note made to help the memory, b brief record of events &c 2 (law) Brief note of a transaction, summary of terms of contract &c, specif, memorandum of association, document to be signed at the formation of a company, whether with limited liability or not, which must state name of proposed company, place of business, the objects for which it is to be carried on &c memorial (I), adj [1 mémorial, 2 mémorial], fr Lat memorial (is), 'of memory' See memory & -al 1 Connected with, relating to, memory 2 Bringing to mind, commemorating, serving as reminder memorial festival, service, table &c Phr Memorial Day, (US & A) commemorating those who fell in the Civil War, held on different dates in the various states memorial (II) n, fr prec 1 Object, esp a monumental structure, serving to commemorate person, event &c, custom, observance &c which does this 2 (usually pl) Chronicle document containing historical narrative, record &c 3 Written statement of views in form of petition presented to legislative body &c memorialist, n [1 mémorialist, 2 mémorialist] Pres & -ist Person presenting memorial, signatory to memorial memorialize, vb trans [1 mémorializ, 2 mémorializ] memorial & -ize 1 To commemorate by a memorial 2 To present a memorial to memoria technica, n [1 mémoria téknika, 2 mémoria téknika] Lat 'artificial memory'. See memory & technic Formula, system, used to aid the memory memorize, vb trans [1 mémoriz, 2 mémoriz] See next word & -ize 1 To note down, record 2 To commit to memory, learn by heart memory, n [1 mémori, 2 mémori], fr O Fr mémoire, fem, fr Lat memoria, 'memory', fr memor, 'mindful', w reduplication fr base mer*, op O E (gemy) mor, 'known', māmrian, 'to plot, design', Du mymeren, 'to ponder', Gk mēmōnān, 'to be thoughtful', memēra, 'care', Ser emarah, 'to remember', Goth maurnan, O E murnan, 'to be anxious for' See martyr & op moratory 1 a Faculty of retaining mental and physical impressions in, and of recalling them to the mind, power of remembering, b this faculty in individual to have a good, bad, memory, Phr living memory, recollection, remembrance, of those now living 2 Something remembered, recollection memories of childhood 3 Commemoration, remembrance, esp in Phr in memory of 4 Time within which memory is exercised, period including events which are remembered before, within, the memory of man 5 Fame, reputation, remembered character, of dead person of famous, blessed, memory mem-sahib, n [1 mém sah ib, 2 mém sah ib] ma'am & sahib Mode of address used by native Indian speakers to a European woman instead of the proper feminine form sahiba men, pl of man

-men, Lat suff forming ns fr vhs specimen, regimen, clamen &c menace (I), n [1 ménas, 2 ménas] O Fr, fr Lat minācia, 'threats', fr mināci, stem of mināci, 'overhanging, threatening' See minatory Threat menace (II), vb trans, fr prec To threaten menacingly, adv [1 menasngly, 2 menasngly], fr Pres Part of prec & -ly In a menacing manner ménage, n [1 ménashz, 2 ménāz] Fr, fr O Fr manage, fr Low Lat mansuonaticum, 'domain', fr Lat mansōn (em), 'halting-place', see mansion, & -age 1 Household 2 Management of a household, domestic affairs menagerie, n [1 menejeri, ménāzhern, 2 minādzern, mināzern], fr Fr menagerie Pres & -ery Collection of wild animals kept in captivity for exhibition, esp a travelling show, contrasted with zoological gardens mend (I), vb trans & intrans [1 mend, 2 mend] For amend A trans 1 a To repair, restore to original or sound condition, remove defect in to mend a garment, a broken cup, a road, b to repair, remove defect of to mend a hole, a tear &c 2 Various specific meanings a To improve, amend, correct to mend one's ways, b to improve, rectify that won't mend matters, least said soonest mended, c to put fuel on, make up to mend a fire, d to cut into shape when worn to mend a gusset, e to increase, quicken to mend one's pace B intrans 1 To grow better, recover, improve in health 2 To be capable of repair mend (II), n, fr prec Hole, broken part &c that has been repaired Phr on the mend, recovering, improving in health or condition mendable, adj [1 méndabl, 2 méndabl] mend (I) & -able Capable of being mended mendacious, adj [1 mendāshus, 2 mendāshus], fr Lat mendāci, stem of mendāci, 'lying, untrue', prob orig 'faulty, defective', fr mend (um), fault, cogn w Ser minādi, 'physical defect', O Ir mennav, 'hlemish', Lat mentiri, 'to lie, be untruthful', wh seems to have influenced the sense of mendāci, is fr the stem men*, 'to think', seen in memento, mental (I) &c For the ending see -acious Lying, untruthful mendaciously, adv Pres & -ly In a mendacious manner, untruthfully mendacity, n [1 mendásiti, 2 mendésiti], fr Lat mendāx (us), stem of mendax, 'lying', see mendacious, & -ity Untruthfulness, tendency to lie

Mendelian, adj [1 mendélian, 2 mendilían], fr name of Gregor Mendel (d 1884), abbot of Brunn, Moravia (biol) Pertaining to those laws and principles of heredity enunciated by Mendel in 1865, rediscovered in 1900 and generally accepted

Mendelism, n [1 mendélizm, 2 mendélizim] See preco & -ism, (biol) The laws of the inheritance of parental and ancestral characters formulated by Mendel mendicancy, n [1 méndikansi, 2 méndikansi] See next word & -cy State of being mendicant, practice of habitual begging mendicant, adj & n [1 méndikant, 2 méndikant], fr Lat mendicant (em), Pres Part of mendicare, 'to beg', fr mendic (us), 'beggar', orig 'undeserving man', fr mend (-um), 'fault' See mendacious & -ant 1 adj Begging, living as beggar, mendicant orders, friars, depending on alms for their support 2 n a Beggar, b mendicant friar mendicity, n [1 mendísiti, 2 mendésiti], fr Lat mendicitas (em), 'state of being a beggar', fr mendic (us), 'beggar' See preco & -ity State of being a beggar, begging menhaden, n [1 ménhádén, 2 ménhádén], fr a N Am Indian word meaning 'fattish' Kind of large herring, found on east coast of North America, yielding oil, and used as manure menhir, n [1 ménhír, 2 ménhír], fr Bret men hir, 'long stone', op W. maen, 'rock, stone', & O Ir air, 'long, everlasting', Corn hës, 'slow, dull', cogn w Lat serius, 'late', see serotinus since A single, upright, large stone or monolith set up as monument by prehistoric races, found in Europe, Asia, and Africa menial, adj & n [1 ménial, 2 ménial], fr A Fr, fr O Fr mesnie, 'household', fr Low Lat mansoniata See mansuon 1 adj a (of work) Servile, mean, b (of person) doing servile work 2 n a Domestic servant, retainer of humble rank, b a person of base, servile, character menially, adv Preco & -ly In a menial manner, as a menial meningeal, adj [1 méninjál, 2 ménindjál], fr Gk ménigx, stem of ménigx, 'membrano' See meninx Of, pertaining to, the meninges meninges, n pl [1 mónlujz, 2 ménindjíz] Lat pl of ménigx, 'a membrano', see meninx The three membranes covering the brain and spinal cord meningitis, n [1 méninjítis, 2 ménindjítis], fr Gk ménigx, stem of ménigx, & -itis Inflammation of the membranes enveloping the brain meningococle, n [1 méninjósc], 2 ménindjós] See preco & -cele Tumour on the brain meninx, n, pl meninges [1 méninjks, méninjéz, 2 méninjks, ménindjíz], fr Gk ménigx, 'membrane', prob earlier mémn-*, cp Gk ménós, 'thigh', fr mémn-* o, cogn w Lat membrum, 'limb', see membor, membrana 'fine skin' see membrano One of the three membranes, meninges, enveloping the brain and spinal cord meniscus, n, pl menisci [1 méniskus, -ki, 2 méniskas, -kai], fr Gk méniskos, 'crescent', fr mén, 'moon' See next word 1 Lens with one surface convex and the other concave 2 (math) Crescent-shaped figure meno-, pref representing Gk mén, 'month', cogn w Sert més, 'moon, month', Lat mén (us), 'month', see mensis, O Ir mí, 'month', Goth maena, O H G māno, O E mān, 'moon' See moon Connected with months, b connected with the mensis menology, n [1 ménólój, 2 ménólódj] fr Late Gk ménologion fr mén 'month', see preco & -logy Register or calendar of saints and martyrs esp in the Greek Church menopause, n [1 ménōpawz, 2 ménōupōz] meno- & Gk pauin, 'to cause to cease', see pause Period of life, generally between forty and fifty, in women, at which menstruation ceases, change of life in woman, climacteric menorrhagia, n [1 ménorǎgia, 2 ménoréidjia] meno- & Gk -ragia See second element in haemorrhage Excessive menstruation menes, n [1 ménséz, 2 ménsiz], fr Lat mensis, pl of mensis, 'month' See meno-, month, moon Monthly discharge of blood from the uterus

Menshevik, n [1 ménshovik, 2 ménjovik] Russ, lit 'one of those in a minority', fr menshe, 'smaller, less', opposed to Bolshevik Member of the moderate Socialist party in Russia, which was in a minority and defeated at a Socialist Conference in 1903, at the Revolution of 1917, after being in power a short time, it was overthrown by Lenin and the Bolshevik, Communist, party menstrual, adj [1 ménstroal, 2 ménstruál], fr Lat menstrual (is), 'monthly', fr menstru (us), 'monthly', fr mens (is), 'month', see menes, & -al 1 Pertaining to the menses 2 (astron) Monthly menstruate, vb intrans [1 ménstrooat, 2 ménstruvert], fr Lat menstru (us), 'monthly', see preco & -ate To discharge the menses menstruation, n [1 ménstroódshun, 2 ménstruáfén] Preco & -ion Act or process of menstruating menstruous, adj [1 ménstroous, 2 ménstru-ás], fr Lat menstru (us), 'monthly' See menstrual & -ous Menstrual, also, soiled with menstrual blood menstruum, n [1 ménstrooom, 2 ménstru-ám] Neut form of Lat menstruus, 'monthly' See menstrual a Something to dissolve a solid body, originally a term of alchemy, b anything acting as a solvent mensurable, adj [1 ménshurabl, 2 ménj-ábl], fr L Lat mensurabil (is), 'measurable', fr mensurāre, 'to measure', fr Lat mensura, 'measure' See measure and -able 1 Capable of being measured 2 (mus) Having fixed time or rhythm mensural, adj [1 ménshural, 2 ménjorál], fr Lat mensura, 'measure' See measure & -al 1 Of, relating to, measure 2 (mus) Mensurable measurement, n [1 ménshurádshun, 2 ménjoráfén], fr L Lat mensuratio (-em), 'measuring', fr mensurāre (are), 'to measure', see measure, & -ation 1 The act, or art, of measuring 2 (math) The art of determining the length of lines, area of surface, and volume of solid bodies

-ment, suff representing Lat -mentum, forming as expressing vbl action or result of this, a fr vb stems in Lat, Fr, or Engl torment, testament, sentiment, acknowledgement, b rarely fr adjs odiment mental (I), adj [1 méntál, 2 méntl], fr Fr, fr L Lat mentál (is), 'of the mind', fr Lat ment, stem of mens, 'mind, understanding, reason, thought', cp Sert matís, 'thought', Lath atmínit, 'memory' Goth ga munda, O E ge-mýnd, 'mind, memory', see mind, op Lat monere, 'to remind', & see memento

1 a Of, relating to, the mind mental effort, mental process, mental weakness, excitement &c, b (colloq) specif, pertaining to a diseased mind, connected with, afflicted with, insanity a mental case, patient, mental specialist, authority on insanity 2 Carried out in the mind without aid of graphic figures mental arithmetic, calculation &c mental (II), adj, fr Lat ment (um), 'chin', prob fr the stem men-* &c, 'to project', seen in Lat eminere, 'to stand out', see minatory, & in Lat mont 'mountain', see mount, see month for other cognates Pertaining to, situated near the chin mentality, n [1 méntaliti, 2 méntalítí] mental (I) & -ity, cp Fr mentalité 1 Mental quality mode of thinking, intellectual character 2 (in loose, journalistic use) Mental attitude, mood, state of mind mentally, adv [1 méntal, 2 méntálj], mental (I) & -ly In, by means of, as regards, the mind mentation, n [1 méntáshun, 2 méntáfén], fr Lat ment, stem of mens, 'mind' See mental (I) & -ation Exercise of the mind; mental process or function menthaceous, adj [1 mónthásbus, 2 ménjás], fr Lat mentha, see mint (I), 'the plant', & -aceous (bot) Belonging to the group of Labiate herbs and shrubs, which includes the mints, sages &c menthol, n [1 ménthol, 2 ménjól], fr Lat ment(h) (a), 'mint', see mint (I), & -ol White crystalline substance derived from essential oil of peppermint cooled to a low temperature, used to relieve neuralgia &c by its freezing properties mention (I), n [1 ménshun, 2 ménjón], fr Lat mentio (em), 'n speaking of', fr ment, stem seen in mens, 'mind' &c, see mental (I), & -ion 1 The act of mentioning, or speaking of, reference to to make mention of, honourable mention, award made to candidate, competitor &c for work which is good, though not entitling him to prize 2 A short, cursory reference to, a passing allusion to, or notice of, a person or thing he made no mention of this, only a bare mention of him in the book mention (II), vb trans Fr mentionner See preco To speak of, refer to, specify, name of, in speech or writing Pür not to mention, to say nothing of he was guilty of many notorious crimes, not to mention others known only to the few mentionable, adj [1 ménshaaabl, 2 ménjónábl] Preco & -able Capable of being mentioned or referred to, fit to be referred to mentor, n [1 ménbur, 2 ménbér], fr Gk Méntor, advisor of Telemachus, cp Sert mandr, 'one who thanks', fr the stem men-*, 'to think' See mental (I) Counsellor, wise and prudent adviser menu, n [1 ménü, 2 ménjü] or Fr [mäv] Fr, 'list, detailed list', fr ad menu, 'small', fr Lat minutium, 'small' See minute (III)

a Bill of fare, list and specification of courses to be served at a meal, b by transf, the meal itself we had an admirable menu

Mephistophelean, adj [1 méfistófeán, 2 méfistáfíleán] See next word & -ean

Of, pertaining to, of, the character of, Mephistopheles

Mephistopheles, n [1 méfistóféliz, 2 méfistáfíliz] Origin of name doubtful a In German Faust legend, spirit in Goethe's Faust, an evil spirit to whom Faust sold his soul, hence, evil, malevolent, sinister person

Mephistophelean, adj See Mephistophelean mephitic, adj [1 méfistik, 2 méfistik] See next word & -ic

Of, of the nature of, mephitic, noxious, pestilential, offensive to the smell mephitic, n [1 méfitis, 2 méfistik] Lat mephitis, 'noxious exhalation from the ground' Dymol univocum Poisonous exhalation from the ground, esp from decomposing vegetable or animal matter, noxious smell mercantile, adj [1 mérkantil, 2 mákntril], fr Fr, fr Ital mercantile, fr mercator, 'merchant', fr Pres Part of Lat mercari, 'to trade', cp merc, 'merchandise', mercis, 'pay, reward' Dymol doubtful Perh cogn w Sert mítrali, 'grasp', Gk niarplén, 'to seize' See markot, mercenary, & merchant 1 Connected with, relating to, trade, commercial mercantile marine, ships and men employed in commerce, mercantile law, commercial law, mercantile system, that based on the old economic theory that money is wealth and that the object of trade is to export goods at highest price &c 2 (rare) Larger for gain; mercenary mercantilism, n [1 mērkantilizm, 2 mī-kantilizm] Pre & -ism a The mercantile system, b commercialism mercantilist, n [1 mērkantilist, 2 mīkantilist] mercantile & -ist a Believer in the mercantile system

Mercator, n [1 mērkāter, 2 mākēter] Lat translation of name of Gerard Kremer, Flemish mathematician and geographer (d. 1594), who first employed the method of map projection now known by his name, see projection mercenaryness, n [1 mērsenariness, 2 māsinariness] See next word & -ness Quality of being mercenary mercenary, adj & n [1 mērsenari, 2 māsinari], fr Lat mercē(n)āri (us), 'hired, paid', fr mercē (us), 'hire', see mercantile 1 adj a eager for gain, actuated merely by hope of reward, working only for payment, b hired, engaged to work, for fixed payment. 2 n Soldier hired by foreign country mercier, n [1 mēsier, 2 māsier], fr Fr mercier, fr L Lat mercārī* (us), 'merchant', fr merc (us), gem of merx, 'merchandise' See market, mercantile, & -er Dealer in textile, silk, or woollen fabrics mercize, vb trans [1 mēsierēz, 2 māsierēz], fr name of inventor of process, John Mercer, 1791-1866, & -ize To treat (cotton fabrics) with caustic alkali so as to impart a sheen resembling that of silk mercure, n [1 mērsen, 2 māsari] mercuer & -ery a Trade or business of a mercer, b goods dealt in by a mercer merchandise, n [1 mērchandiz, 2 mātchēndiz], fr O Fr merchandise, fr merchand, 'merchant' See merchant & -isa Goods bought and sold, objects of commercial activity, wares merchant, n [1 mērchant, 2 mātchant], fr O Fr marchand, fr mercātant (em), Pres Part type of Low Lat mercāre, fr Lat mercō (uri), P P type of mercārī, 'to trade' See mercantile & market. 1 a Wholesale trader, esp one trading with foreign countries, b (slang) person, individual, fellow (chiefly in disparagement) who's the merchant in a tail-coat and a bowler hat? (cp chap (III)) 2 attrib Of merchants or commerce merchant prince, one who has made a fortune in commerce, merchant service, mercantile marine, merchant ship, vessel employed in trade see also law merchant merchandise, adj [1 mērchantabl, 2 mātchantabl], fr obs vb merchant, 'to trade', fr prec, & -able Suitable for sale, marketable merchantman, n [1 mērchantman, 2 mātchantman] Merchant ship merciful, adj [1 mērsifol, 2 māsifol] mercy & -ful a Feeling showing mercy, compassionate, b favourable fortunate (circumstance), c of punishment, lenient, mild, not severe mercifully, adv Pre & -ly In a merciful manner mercifulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being merciful merciless, adj [1 mērsiles, 2 māsiles] mercy & -less Without mercy or compassion cruel, pitiless, relentless mercilessly, adv Pre & -ly In a merciless manner mercilessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being merciless mercurial (I), adj [1 mērkūral, 2 mākjūral] mercury & -al 1 Of, containing, consisting of, like, the drug mercury 2 Active lively, excitable, changeable, erratic from supposed influence of planet Mercury, cp jovial saturnine mercurial (II), n, fr prec Preparation of mercury for medicinal use mercurial poisoning, by overdose of a mercurial or by contact with mercury & c mercurialism, n [1 mērkūralizm, 2 mākjūralizm] Pre & -ism Mercurial poisoning mercuriality, n [1 mērkūraliti, 2 mākjūraliti] mercurial & -ity Sprightliness, alertness excitability mercurialize, vb trans [1 mērkūraliz, 2 mākjūraliz] mercurial & -ize To affect with mercury mercurially, adv [1 mērkūrali, 2 mākjūrali] mercurial & -ly In a mercurial manner mercuric, adj [1 mērkūrik, 2 mākjūrik] mercury & -ic Of, pertaining to, consisting of, mercuric, esp (chem) of compounds in which mercury has a valency of two mercuric chloride, corrosive sublimate mercurous, adj [1 mērkūrus, 2 mākjūrus] See next word & -ous Mercurio, (chem) of compounds in which mercury has a valency of one mercurous chloride, calomel mercury, n [1 mērkūri, 2 mākjūri], fr Lat Mercurius, prob fr stem merc-*, 'trade', seen in merc, 'merchandise', mercē, 'reward, pay' & c See market, mercantile 1 (cap) a Roman god of oratory, patron of merchants and thieves, and messenger of the gods, hence, b (facet) messenger 2 (cap) a Name of the planet nearest to the sun 3 a Silvery white, fluid metallic element, quicksilver, specif b column of mercury in barometer & c, c any medical preparation of mercury 4 (bot) Popular name for various plants or herbs, as Dog's mercury & c mercy, n [1 mērsi, 2 māsī], fr O Fr merci, fr Lat mercē (em), acc of mercē, Lat, 'pay, reward', L Lat, 'favour, pity' See under mercantile 1 Forbearance, compassion, leniency, shown to person wholly in one's power, clemency, lenity to have, show, mercy on one. Phrs at the mercy of, wholly in the power of, left to the tender mercies of, in the power of, usually of one from whom ill usage may be expected 2 Some thing to be thankful for, a blessing, a good thing, fortunate circumstance, esp in Phr it is a mercy that, that's a mercy!, thankful for small mercies, content with little mercy-seat, n Covering of Jewish Ark of the Covenant, the throne of God mere (I), n, [1 mēr, 2 mās] OE mere, ME mere, op OHG meri, Germ meer, OS meri, ON marr, 'lake, sea', Goth maris, 'sea', cogn u Lat mare, 'sea', sea marine (I), O Slav morje, 'sea' Lake, sheet of water mere (II), adj, fr Lat merus, 'pure, unmixed', esp of undiluted wine', op OE a merian, 'to purify, to test', Sort maries, 'ray of light', Gk marmairein, 'to gleam', orig meaning of stem, 'clear, shining', op marble 1 (obs or archaic) Undiluted, pure 2 Nothing more or less than, sheer, simple, absolute a mere blunder, a mere pretzel Phr (law) of mere motion, by one's own volition, without constraint merely, adv Pre & -ly Purely, simply, only, solely meretricious, adj [1 mētrishus, 2 mētrishus], fr Lat meretricia (us), fr meretrix, stem of meretrix, 'harlot', fr mer (ēri), 'to earn' See merit & -trix & -ous 1 (obs or archaic) Of, pertaining to, a harlot 2 (fig) Specious, tawdry, flashy, making a false show of beauty or merit meretriciously, adv Pre & -ly In a meretricious manner meretriciousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being meretricious merganser, n [1 mērganser, 2 mērganser], fr Lat merg (us), 'diver, gull', q v under merge, & anser, 'goose', see anserine (zool) A kind of large, fish eating, diving bird with long, slender, serrated beak, allied to the tring ducks, the best-known species is the goosander, Algeria merganser merge, vb trans & intrans [1 mērg, 2 mērg], fr Fr, fr Lat mergere, 'to plunge, immerse, to sink down', op mergus, 'kind of diving bird', see prec, cogn u Sert mājiati, 'dives under', Libb mayōti, 'to wash' 1 trans a To cause (thing) to be lost, swallowed up, become united with another to merge one's identity in another's, b (legal) to cause to be absorbed by merger, q v 2 intrans To become lost, swallowed up, indistinguishably united with another thing mergence, n [1 mērgens, 2 mērgens] Pre & -ence *A*ct or process of merging, state of being merged merger, n [1 mērger, 2 mērger], fr merge, formed on anal of other O Fr infinis used as us, cp user (law) The absorption of an estate, contract, interest, obligation & c in a greater union of several business concerns under a single central management, a combine mericarp, n [1 mērikarp, 2 mērikarp], fr Gk mēros, 'part', see mero- & karpōs, 'fruit', see carpel. (bot) One of the two carpels, each containing a seed, which split open when ripe, as in the sycamore & c meridian (I), n [1 meridian, 2 meridian], fr O Fr meridien, fr Lat meridiān (us), 'of midday, southern', fr meridi (ēs), 'noon, the south', w dissimilation fr earlier medidiē*, fr medi (us), 'middle', see media, & diē, 'day', see dies non 1 (geog and astron) a A great imaginary circle supposed to pass through the poles, and intersecting the equator and the equinoctial at right angles, b representation of this on a map or globe 2 (by trans) Noon, midday 3 (fig) a Highest, culminating point of success or happiness attained by an individual during his whole career, b period of greatest health and vigour, prime of life meridian (II), adj, fr prec 1 a Of, pertaining to, noon, b belonging to the highest point attained by a heavenly body in its daily course 2 (fig) Of the highest point or pitch of anything, culminating, supreme meridional, adj & n [1 meridiōnal, 2 meridiōnal], fr L Lat meridiōnal (us), 'of noon, of the south' See meridian & -al 1 adj a Of a meridian, b of, relating to, the south of Europe, or the inhabitants of this region 2 n Inhabitant of a southern country, esp of southern Europe meringue, n [1 mēring, 2 mē, mirap] Fr Origin unknown a Mixture of sugar and white of egg, baked till crisp and slightly browned, as garnish & c, b thin case of meringue filled with whipped cream merino, n & adj [1 mēriño, 2 mēriñou] Span, adj, 'moving from pasture to pasture', n, 'royal inspector of sheep walks', fr Low Lat merinus, fr māyorinus, 'steward of a household', fr māyor, 'greater' See major (II) & mayor 1 n a Also merino sheep, breed of sheep, originally Spanish, noted for long, fine, silky wool, b fine woollen fabric, originally made of wool of this kind, c fine, soft, woollen yarn 2 adj Made of merino or similar wool meristem, n [1 meristem, 2 meristem], fr Gk meristēs, 'divided', fr merizein, 'to divide', fr mēros, 'part' See mero- (bot) Cell tissue capable of dividing and forming new growth merit (I), n [1 merit, 2 merit] fr O Fr merite, fr Lat meritum, 'desert, merit, reward', fr P P type of mereri, 'to earn, obtain, to deserve', cogn u Gk meromai, 'I receive a share', mēros, 'part, lot', op moura, 'share, fate' See mero- 1 Desert, quality or fact of deserving punishment or reward, approbation or censure to reward a person according to his merits 2 (law) Intrinsic rights and wrongs of a case, strict legal rights of parties in a suit to decide a case on its merits 3 a Good, desirable, praiseworthy quality, excellence the merits of a writer, of a horse, house & c, a man of merit, b quality or fact of deserving well, praiseworthy act there is less merit in being generous when one is very rich than when one is poor, c to receive the reward of merit, Order of Merit (abbr OM), an order, limited in membership, for high and distinguished service, civil or military, founded in 1902

- merit (II), vb trans, fr preo To have earned, to deserve, be worthy of - to merit attention, reward, punishment &c
- meritorious, adj [1 meritōrius, 2 mērit-ōrius], fr Lat meritōri-us, 'that for which hire is paid', fr merit (um), 'reward', see merit, & -ory & -ous a Possessing and exhibiting merit, deserving praise, reward, honour &c, praiseworthy, b (slightly depreciatory) well-intentioned, estimable
- meritoriously, adv Preo & -ly In a meritorious manner
- meritoriousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being meritorious
- merle, n [1 mērl, 2 māl], fr Fr merle, fr Lat merula, 'blackbird', prob fr muscula*, cp OE mīse, OHG mēsa, ON mēsingr, 'titmouse' (archaic) Blackbird
- merlin, n [1 mērln, 2 mālfn], fr A-Fr merlun, fr O Fr esmerillon, fr Med Lat emerillus, of Gmo origin, cp OHG smirlin & smirl, Mod Germ schmerl The word is prob identical w Germ schmerle, the name of a fish, the loach, or groundling, wh is perh identical w Gk smaris, 'a small sea fish' Kind of small, strong falcon
- merlon, n [1 mērln, 2 mālfn], fr Fr, fr Ital merlone, fr merlo, 'battlement', possibly fr mergola, dimin representing Lat mergae, 'pitchfork', cp Lat merges, 'sheaf of corn', Gk amērgem, 'to gather' (leaves, fruit &c), omērgnūm, 'I wipe', Sort myrta, 'rubs off, wipes', the orig meaning of the base merg-* &c seems to have been 'to pluck off, rub off', hence 'to gather into bunches, reap' Solid part of battlemented wall or parapet between two openings or embrasures
- mermaid, n [1 mērmād, 2 māmēid] ME mermaid mere (I) & maid Fabulous sea monster represented as having the head and body of a beautiful woman, with a scaly tail
- merman, n [1 mērman, 2 māmēn] ME merman mere (I) & man Male counterpart of a mermaid
- mero-, pref representing Gk mēro (s), 'part', cp Gk meroma, 'I obtain a share', moira, 'part, share, lot, destiny'; mēros, 'fate, destiny', cogn w Lat meriti, 'to obtain, earn, to deserve'. See merit Partly, partially
- meroblast, n [1 mērobhlast, 2 mēroubhlast] Preo & Gk blastōs, 'bud' See first element in blastoderm (physiol and biol) Ovum in two parts, one of which is germinal and the other nutritive
- merous, suff See mero- & -ous Having specified number of parts, eg pentamerous, having five parts, usually written 5-merous
- Merovingian, adj & n [1 mērvīnjān, 2 mērouvīndjān] L Lat Merovingi, 'descendants of Merovaeus', Lat form of name of mythical early Frankish king 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the first line of Frankish kings of Gaul, founded by Clovis, and reigning in the 6th, 7th, and 8th cents 2 n King of this dynasty
- merrily, adv [1 mērln, 2 mērln] merry (II) & -ly In a merry manner, with merriment
- merriment, n [1 mērimēnt, 2 mērimēnt] merry (II) & -ment Birth, hilarity, gaiety
- merriness, n [1 mērīnes, 2 mērīnes] merry (II) & -ness State, quality, of being merry
- merry (I), n [1 mēn, 2 mērs], fr O Fr merise, 'wild cherry', etymol doubtful The Fr word was wrongly taken as a pl The wild black cherry
- merry (II), adj OE (WS) myr(s)ige, 'delightful, pleasant', ME (SE) myr, 'pleasant, gay, merry', orig meaning is perh 'brief, transitory, passing rapidly', contrasted w 'long, slow, tedious', see myrth, cp OHG murg, 'short', & Goth ga murgjan, 'to shorten, out off', further prob cogns are Lat merurus, 'mutilated', marcere, 'to shrink, shrivel' See marcescent 1 (archaic) Pleasant, esp in Phr merry England 2 Gay, cheerful, joyous, lively a merry voice, laugh, dance, a merry Christmas, the merry monarch, Charles II Phrs to make merry, to be gay, festive, to make merry over, make fun of, ridicule 3 (colloq) Slightly drunk
- merry-andrew, n [1 mēri andrō, 2 mēri andrō] Said to be fr Andrew Boorde, of Henry VIII's time, to whom jest books were attributed a Assistant to mountebank, b a buffoon, foolish, irresponsible person, without dignity of behaviour
- merry-go-round, n [1 mēri gō rōnd, 2 mēri gōu rōnd] Circular structure having wooden horses and seats at intervals, rotated by an engine, usually to the accompaniment of music, used at fairs &c, a roundabout
- merry-making, n Gay entertainment, junketing, conviviality, festivity
- merrythought, n [1 mērithawt, 2 mēritpōt] Forked bone at upper end of breast of bird, the wish-bone
- mesa, n [1 mēsa, 2 mēisa] Span, fr Lat mensa, 'table', apparently fem PP type of mētr, 'to measure', qv under measure (phys geog) A high plateau or table land, with steep sides and covered by cap of hard rock
- mesalliance, n [1 mēzālāhns, 2 mēzālās] Fr See mis- & alliance Marriage with person of lower birth or social position
- mescal, n [1 mēskāl, 2 mēskāl], fr Span mezcal, fr Mexican mezcall, 1 A spirit distilled from pulque, the national drink of Mexico, which is obtained from the sap of the maguey or agave 2 Also mescal button, a succulent kind of cactus, Mamillaria, of Mexico and Texas, the natives chew the tops, which have a narcotic effect
- mesecms, vb intrans [1 mēsēnz, 2 mēsīnz] Ale, dat of 1st pers pron, & seems See seem (archaic) It seems to me
- mesembryanthemum, n [1 mēzembrānthēmum, 2 mēzembrānthēmum], fr Gk mesēmbri (s), 'noon', & anthemon, 'flower'. The first element is fr Gk mēs (os), 'middle', see meso-, & ēmar, hēmēra, 'day', see ephemeral, for the third element see another A genus, including the ice-plant, of succulent-leaved herbs and shrubs, with bright pink or white flowers
- mesenteric, adj [1 mēsēntērik, 2 mēsēntērik] mesentery & -ic Of, relating to, the mesentery
- mesenteritis, n [1 mēsēntēritīs, 2 mēsēntēritīs] See next word & -itis Inflammation of the mesentery
- mesentery, n [1 mēsēntēri, 2 mēsēntēri], fr Gk mesentēron, fr mēs-(os), 'middle', see meso-, & ēntēr-(on), 'intestine', see enteric Part of the peritoneum supporting the intestines
- mesh (I), n [1 mēsh, 2 mēs], fr OE mesce*, mutated form corresponding to OE mas for masc*, 'met', cp OHG masca, ON mækus, 'net, mesh', Lith mezgš, 'to knit', māzgas, 'knut' 1 A one of the open spaces between the threads of a net, b (pl) threads of net, network 2 (fig, pl) Snare, toils caught in the meshes of an enchantress 3 (of wheels of machine &c) In mesh, in gear, engaged
- mesh (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans (lit and fig) To ensnare, catch, in net 2 intrans (of gear wheels &c) To engage, interlock
- mesial, adj [1 mēzial, mēzial, 2 mīzial, mēzial], fr Gk mēs (os), 'middle', see meso-, & -ial Of, pertaining to, lying in, the central line of a figure or body
- mesially, adv Preo & -ly In a mesial position
- mesmeric, adj [1 mēzmērik, 2 mēzmērik] See next word & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, produced by, mesmerism
- mesmerism, n [1 mēzmērizm, 2 mēzmērizm], fr Mesmer, an Austrian physician (d 1815), & -ism a Method of artificially inducing sleep and other peculiar bodily and mental conditions, practised by Mesmer, hypnotism, b hypnotic state induced by this method
- mesmerist, n [1 mēzmērist, 2 mēzmērist] See preo & -ist Person who practises mesmerism
- mesmerization, n [1 mēzmērizāshn, 2 mēzmērizēshn] See next word & -ation Act of mesmerizing, state of being mesmerized
- mesmerize, vb trans [1 mēzmēriz, 2 mēzmēriz] See mesmerism & -ize a To put into a mesmeric state, to hypnotize, b (fig) to fascinate, rivet attention of, to have powerful influence upon
- mesne, adj [1 mēn, 2 mīn] O Fr See mean (II) (law) Intermediate
- mesne lord, one who is himself a tenant of a superior lord, but who has tenants holding from him, mesne profits, rents and profits from an estate accruing to an occupier in unlawful possession, which are sued for by the true owner on regaining possession, such profits arise when a tenant remains in possession after expiry of a lease
- meso-, pref representing Gk meso (s), 'middle', fr mēdhyo* s, cp Sort mādhyas, Lat medius, ecc media, Goth mādys, OHG mīth, OE mīdd, see mid (I), O Slav mezda Middle, intervening, intermediate, eg mesocarp, middle layer of seed vessel, mesopetric, of the membrane supporting the stomach, mesozoic, second geological era, between palaeozoic and kamezoic
- mesquit(e), n [1 mēskēt, 2 mēskēt] Span, fr Mexican mesquit Leguminous shrub of the mimosa family, growing in Mexico and south-west of North America, the seed pods are used as fodder
- mess (I), n [1 mēs, 2 mēs], fr O Fr mes, fr L Lat missum, fr PP type of mittere, 'to send' See mission 1 a (archaic) Dish of food, esp soft or liquid food, Phr mess of pottage, material advantage for which something higher is bartered (with reference to Gen xxv 29-34), b mash prepared for hounds &c 2 Mixture, medley, varied concoction 3 State of confusion, disorder, dirt &c Phrs to make a mess of things, to be unsuccessful, fail badly, in doing something, bungle, mismanage, in a mess, (i) dirty, soiled, (ii) in confusion, (iii) (fig) in awkward position, suffering under disastrous circumstances 4 a Group of persons who habitually take their meals together, esp in army or navy officers' mess, sergeants' mess &c, b meal served to such a group
- mess (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To make a mess of, soil, mar, make dirty 2 a To put into confusion, b to mismanage, also mess up B intrans 1 Mess about, to occupy oneself in a desultory manner, without achieving any definite object, to loiter, potter, about 2 To eat at a common table, have one's meals to mess with others, to mess together
- message (I), n [1 mēn, 2 mēsīdz], fr Fr, fr Low Lat missaticum, 'message', fr Lat miss-(um), 'sent', fr PP type of mittere, 'to send', see mission, & -age 1 Oral or written communication sent from one person to another through the agency of a third Phr to go on a message, on an errand 2 Inspired utterance of prophet or sage, and the import of this for mankind
- message (II), vb trans, fr preo (rare) 1 To send, communicate, as message 2 To signal, transmit by signalling
- messenger, n [1 mēsēnzj, 2 mēsēndjā] ME, fr O Fr messager, preo & -er, w mixed -n, as in passenger, fr passager 1 a One who carries a message, b person regularly employed to deliver letters and messages by hand 2 Rope or chain connecting cable to capstan and used to haul in the former
- Messiah, n [1 mēsīa, 2 mēsīa] Lat, fr Gk Messias, fr Heb mashiah, 'anointed'. 1 Deliverer and Saviour promised to the Jews 2 Christ as fulfilling this promise 3 Deliverer of oppressed nation, liberator

Messiahship, n [1 mesiaʃɪp, 2 mesaɪəʃɪp] Prec & -ship State of being a Messiah, specif, Christ's Messianic office

Messianic, adj [1 mɛsɪˈænɪk, 2 mɛsɪˈænik] Messiah & -an & -ism Relating to a, or the, Messiah Messianic prophecies

Messidor, n [1 mɛsɪˈdɔːr, 2 mɛsɪˈdɔː] Fr, fr Lat mess (s), 'harvest', fr mess (um), P.P type of metere, 'to reap, mow', cp O W medel, 'reapers', also, w a different grade of vowel O E mayan, see also math & mow (III), -dor is fr Gl dōron, 'gift', cogn w Lat dare, 'to give', dōnum, 'gift' See donor Tenth month of French revolutionary calendar, June 19th to July 18th messieurs, n [1 mɛsɪˈɛʃ, 2 mɛsɪʃ] Fr, pl of monsieur messmate, n [1 mɛsˈmeɪt, 2 mɛsmet] mess & mate a Companion in a mess, chiefly a sailor's word, b fellow workman, associate, friend messrs, n [1 mɛsəz, 2 mɛsɪz] Abbr of messieurs a Before names of partners in a firm Messrs Jones & Co, b as pl of Mr messuage, n [1 mɛsʊɪ, 2 mɛsɪdʒ] & Fr messuage, O Fr mesuagium, 'a tenure of land', fr Low Lat mansuagium, mesuagium, fr mansum, 'dwelling house', O Fr més See also manse & mansion (law) Dwelling house with adjoining lands and outbuildings appropriated to it mezizo, n [1 mɛstɪzə, 2 mɛstɪzɔː] Span, fr Low Lat mezicius, fr Lat mezius, P.P of miscere, 'to mix' See mix Half caste Spaniard or Portuguese, esp person of Spanish and American Indian parentage met, vb [1 met, 2 met] Pret & P.P of meet meta-, pref representing Gk metá, 'between, among, with, after', often used to express change, alternation &c, op Goth miþ, cp w different formative element, Aryan me-dh₁*, 'middle', O N með, O H G mīt, O E mid, see mid metabasis, n [1 mɛtəˈbæɪsɪs, 2 mɛtəˈbæɪs] Gk 'a passing over' See meta- & basis A transition, a passage from one point, or subject, to another metabolic, adj [1 mɛtəˈbɒlɪk, 2 mɛtəˈbɒlɪk] See next word & -ism Pertaining to, of the nature of, metabolism metabolic diseases metabolism, n [1 mɛtəˈbɒlɪzəm, 2 mɛtəˈbɒlɪzəm] fr Gk metabolē, 'change', fr metaballein, 'to turn quickly, throw into a different position, to change, alter', fr meta- & ballein, 'to throw', see ballistics, & -ism (physiol) Process of building up and breaking down, continually going on in living organisms, nutritive substances being converted into protoplasm, or protoplasm broken down into simpler substances by chemical change, op anabolism and katabolism metabolize, vb trans [1 mɛtəˈbɒlaɪz, 2 mɛtəˈbɒlaɪz] See prec & -ize To change by metabolism, cause to undergo process of metabolism metacarpal, adj [1 mɛtəˈkɑːpl, 2 mɛtəˈkɑːpl] See next word & -al Of, pertaining to, the metacarpus, metacarpal bones, those at the back of the hand between the knuckles and the wrist metacarpus, n [1 mɛtəˈkɑːpəs, 2 mɛtəˈkɑːpəs] meta- & carpus Back of the hand, esp the bones of this, between the wrist and the knuckles metacentre, n [1 mɛtəˈsɛntə, 2 mɛtəˈsɛntə] meta- & centre The point in a floating body, as a ship, where the verticals through the centres of buoyancy and gravity intersect, shifting according as the equilibrium is altered, the position of the 'metacentre' indicates the relative stability metacentric, adj [1 mɛtəˈsɛntɪk, 2 mɛtəˈsɛntɪk] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to the, a, metacentre metachrosis, n [1 mɛtəˈkrəʊsɪs, 2 mɛtəˈkrəʊsɪs] fr meta- & Gl chrōsis, 'colour, colouring' See chroma (biol and zool.)

Change of colour, as exhibited in certain reptiles, fishes &c, as the chameleon &c, so as to suit the surroundings metage, n [1 mɛtɪ, 2 mɛtɪdʒ] meta (II) & -age a Official measuring of coal, b fee, price, paid for this metagenesis, n [1 mɛtəˈdʒɛnɪsɪs, 2 mɛtəˈdʒɛnɪsɪs] meta- & genesis (biol) Alternate reproduction of a new individual by an organism by means of processes alternately sexual and asexual, such as by gemmation metagenetic, adj [1 mɛtəˈdʒɛnɪtɪk, 2 mɛtəˈdʒɛnɪtɪk] meta- & genetic Pertaining to, of the nature of, metagenesis metal (I), n [1 mɛtəl, 2 mɛtəl] fr O Fr, fr Lat metallum, 'metal, mine, quarry', fr Gk metallon, 'mine, quarry', op metalleus, 'minor', metalledein, 'to get by mining, to search', metallaen, 'to search after, inquire about', etymol doubtful 1 One of a class of substances of which gold, silver, lead, tin, copper &c are examples, which are generally characterized by opacity, ductility or malleability, a lustre which pertains to their smallest part, fusibility under heat, and the property of being good conductors of electricity 2 (chem) Specif, an elementary, unmixed metal, as contrasted with an alloy, one of the metallic elements 3 (her) One of the two metals recognized in heraldry when used as tinctures, or gold, whose colour is yellow, and argent, silver, whose colour is white 4 (techn uses) a Road metal, hard stone, broken up and used for making roads; b (in pl) railway lines the train ran off the metals, c molten material used in glass-making 5 (fig) Mettle metal (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To supply, furnish, with metal, to cover &c with metal 2 To mend (roads) with hard stoffe or metal metalled roads metallic, adj [1 mɛtəlɪk, 2 mɛtəlɪk] metal & -ic 1 Pertaining to, consisting of, like, metal metallic currency, consisting of metal coinage, as distinct from paper currency, metallic salts, salts having a metal or metallic oxide as base 2 Suggestive of, characteristic of, resembling metal metallic sound, metallic lustre metalliferous, adj [1 mɛtəˈlɪfərəs, 2 mɛtəˈlɪfərəs] See prec & -ferous Bearing, producing, metals metalliferous mines &c metalline, adj [1 mɛtəlɪn, 2 mɛtəlɪn] metal & -ine Of, like, metal metallization, n [1 mɛtəˈlaɪzəʃən, 2 mɛtəˈlaɪzəʃən] See next word & -ation Act of metallizing, state of being metallized metallize, vb trans [1 mɛtəlɪz, 2 mɛtəlɪz] metal & -ize To make metallic, give metallic properties to metallography, n [1 mɛtəˈlɒɡrəfi, 2 mɛtəˈlɒɡrəfi] metal & -graphy Study, description of metals, their structure and properties, esp by means of the microscope combined with photography metalloid, adj & n [1 mɛtəˈlɔɪd, 2 mɛtəˈlɔɪd] metal (I) & -oid 1 adj Like, of the nature of, in the form of, metal 2 n An element which in some respects resembles a metal but cannot strictly be classed as such, as tellurium &c metallurgic(al), adj [1 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪk(əl), 2 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪk(əl)] metallurgy & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, metallurgy metallurgist, n [1 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪst, 2 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪst] See next word & -ist Person skilled in metallurgy metallurgy, n [1 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪ, 2 mɛtəˈlɜːrɡɪ] metal & Gl -ourg (os), 'a worker', op ergon, 'to work', ergon, 'work' See ergon & work Science and art of preparing metals for use by smelting, refining, mixing &c metamere, n [1 mɛtəˈmɛr, 2 mɛtəˈmɛr] meta- & Gl meros, 'part' See mero- (zool) One of a series of identical transverse segments of an animal body, as of a worm &c a somite metamernic, adj [1 mɛtəˈmɛnɪk, 2 mɛtəˈmɛnɪk]

Prec & -ic (zool) Of, of the nature of, formed of, metameres metamerism, n [1 mɛtəˈmɛrɪzəm, 2 mɛtəˈmɛrɪzəm] metamere & -ism (zool) Segmentation state of being composed of metameres metamorphic, adj [1 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪk, 2 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪk] meta- & Gl morphé, 'form, shape', see morphology, & -ic 1 Of, characterized by, subject to, metamorphosis 2 (geol, of rocks) Having undergone changes in form or structure through natural agencies, esp heat, pressure &c metamorphism, n [1 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪzəm, 2 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪzəm] See prec & -ism (geol) State of being metamorphic, specif, the condition in which rocks have become crystalline through heat, pressure &c metamorphose, vb trans [1 mɛtəˈmɔːfəɪz; 2 mɛtəˈmɔːfəɪz] fr Fr metamorphoser, fr metamorphose See next word To change the form or character of, to transform metamorphosis, n [1 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪsɪs, 2 mɛtəˈmɔːfɪsɪs] Gk metamorphosis, 'transformation', fr metamorphoein, 'to transform', fr meta- & morphōin, 'to give form to', fr morphé, 'form' Seemorphology A change of form, transformation, alteration in structure, constitution, appearance, by magic, or by natural development, e.g change of caterpillar to insect &c, b transformation of form or character generally metaphor, n [1 mɛtəˈfɔːr, 2 mɛtəˈfɔːr] fr Fr metaphore, fr Lat, fr Gk metaphora, 'transference, metaphor', fr meta- & phora, 'a carrying', q v under -phore, op Gk vb metapherein, 'to carry over, transfer' Figure of speech in which a word or phrase is used to denote or describe something entirely different from the object, idea, action, or quality which it primarily and usually expresses, thus suggesting a resemblance or analogy the curling of night, the ocean of life, 'My heart leaps up when I behold a rainbow in the sky' (Wordsworth), all nature smiled metaphorical, adj [1 mɛtəˈfɔːrɪkəl, 2 mɛtəˈfɔːrɪkəl] Prec. & -ic & -al Of the nature of, consisting of, a metaphor, containing metaphors metaphorically, adv Prec & -ly In a metaphorical manner, in metaphors metaphrase, n & vb trans [1 mɛtəˈfrɑːz, 2 mɛtəˈfrɛɪz] fr Gk metaphrasis, 'paraphrase', fr metaphrazen, 'to paraphrase, translate', fr meta- & phrazen, 'to show, tell' See phrase 1 n Translation, esp a literal, word for-word rendering, as distinct from paraphrase 2 vb To translate, put into another language metaphrastic, adj [1 mɛtəˈfræstɪk, 2 mɛtəˈfræstɪk] Gk metaphrastik, stem of Part of metaphrazen, 'to translate' See prec & -ic A literal in translating, b (of translation) literal metaphysical, adj [1 mɛtəˈfɪzɪkəl, 2 mɛtəˈfɪzɪkəl] See metaphysics & -al 1 Connected with, of the nature of, metaphysics 2 Not physical, unsubstantial, incorporeal 3 a (of theory &c) Based on abstract reasoning, b (of reasoning &c) making too fine distinctions, over subtle metaphysically, adv Prec & -ly In a metaphysical manner, by metaphysics metaphysician, n [1 mɛtəˈfɪzɪʃən, 2 mɛtəˈfɪzɪʃən] See metaphysics & -ian Student of metaphysics, one who reasons metaphysically metaphysicize, vb intrans [1 mɛtəˈfɪzɪsaɪz, 2 mɛtəˈfɪzɪsaɪz] See next word & -ize To study metaphysics, to indulge in metaphysical reasoning metaphysics, n [1 mɛtəˈfɪzɪks, 2 mɛtəˈfɪzɪks] fr Med. Gk. metaphusika, named for the works of Aristotle who followed his 'Physics'. ta meta ta physika, 'those after the "Physics"', See meta- & physics Branch of abstract study concerned with the nature of being, and the theory of knowledge microcephalous, adj [1 mikrɔsɛfalus, 2 mikrɔsɛfalas] See prec & -ous Having an abnormally small head, and consequently small brain capacity, microcephalic a microcephalous idiot microcephaly, n [1 mikrɔsɛfal, 2 mikrɔsɛfal] As prec & -y. State, condition of being microcephalous microcosm, n [1 mikrɔkozɪm, 2 mikrɔkozɪm] fr Fr microcosme, fr L Lat microcosmos, fr Gk mikrós kosmos, 'little world'. See micro- & cosmos & op macrocosm A Man regarded as the summary or epitome of the macrocosm, i.e. of the great world or the universe, b community, class &c, considered as representative of humanity as a whole, c a representation on a small scale or in miniature microcosmic, adj. [1 mikrɔkɔzɪk, 2 mikrɔkɔzɪk] prec & -ic 1 Pertaining to the microcosm. 2 Specif microcosmic salt, (chem) a salt of sodium and ammonium phosphates, first identified in human urine microfarad, n [1 mikrɔfərad, 2 mikrɔfərad] fr micro- & farad (elect) Working unit of capacity, equal to one-millionth part of the scientific unit, the farad, the latter being too large for practical purposes micrograph, n [1 mikrɔgrəf, 2 mikrɔgrəf] micro- & -graph A micro-photograph micrology, n. [1 mikrɔlɔgi, 2 mikrɔlɔdʒi] micro- & -logy. a Science or art dealing with microscopic objects, b exaggerated attention to small details or minutiae micrometer, n [1 mikrɔmɛtɪr, 2 mikrɔmɛtɪr] micro- & -meter Instrument used for making minute and exact measurements micrometric, adj [1 mikrɔmɛtrik, 2 mikrɔmɛtrik] See prec & -ic Of or pertaining to the micrometer and its use micrometry, n [1 mikrɔmɛtrɪ, 2 mikrɔmɛtrɪ] As prec & -y Art, skill in using, use of, the micrometer micron, n [1 mikrɔn, 2 mikrɔn] Mod Lat, fr Gk, see micro- Thousandth part of a millimetre micro-organism, n [1 mikrɔ ɔrganizɪm, 2 mikrɔ ɔrganizɪm] micro- & organism A microscopic organism, used of bacteria microphone, n [1 mikrɔfɔn, 2 mikrɔfɔn] micro- & -phone (elect) Instrument used for transforming sound waves into electric current, as in the transmitter of a telephone micro-photograph, n [1 mikrɔ fɔtɔgrəf, 2 mikrɔ fɔtɔgrəf] micro- & photograph A photograph of microscopic objects taken through a microscope, and enlarged microscope, n [1 mikrɔskɔp, 2 mikrɔskɔp] micro- & -scope An instrument with high powers of magnification, used for observing objects, and details of structure, so minute as to be either altogether invisible, or only faintly discernible, to the naked eye microscopic, adj [1 mikrɔskɔpik, 2 mikrɔskɔpik] prec & -ic a Pertaining to the microscope, b visible only by means of a microscope, microscopic, c very small, minute microscopical, adj [1 mikrɔskɔpikl, 2 mikrɔskɔpikl] prec & -al Visible only by the microscope microscopically, adv prec & -ly a By means of the microscope, b in a minute, searching way microscopist, n [1 mikrɔskɔpɪst, mikrɔskɔpɪst] 2 mikrɔskɔpɪst, mikrɔskɔpɪst] microscope & -ist One who habitually uses, one skilled in use of, the microscope microscopy, n [1 mikrɔskɔpi, 2 mikrɔskɔpi] microscope & -y Use of the microscope microsome, n [1 mikrɔsɔm, 2 mikrɔsɔm] micro- & Gk sōma, 'body' See somatic (biol) One of the minute granules in protoplasm, which constitute an essential element in its structure microspore, n [1 mikrɔspɔr, 2 mikrɔspɔs] micro- & -spore (bot) A minute sexual spore in certain plants microtome, n [1 mikrɔtɔm, 2 mikrɔtɔm] fr micro- & Gk eufrōma, 'cutting', connected w temnein, 'to cut' See tome Instrument used in cutting very thin sections of organic tissue for examination by the microscope.

microtomy, n [1 mikrɔtɔmi, 2 mikrɔtɔmi] prec & -y Art of cutting and preparing sections for the microscope microturate, vb intras [1 mikrɔtɔrɪt, 2 mikrɔtɔrɪt] Formed wrongly fr next word To pass water microturbation, n [1 mikrɔtɔrɪʃən, 2 mikrɔtɔrɪʃən] fr Lat micruri (um), P P of micrurire, 'to desire to pass water', formed fr micr (um), P P type of mingere, 'to pass water', & -ion The base occurs also in Gk omikheîn, 'to urinate', O E migan, 'to urinate', & muge &c, 'urine', Goth maihstus, 'dung' a Morbid desire to pass water, b act or process of passing water, of urinating mid (I), adj [1 mid, 2 mid] O E midd, fr medg-*, op OS middi, O H G miti, Goth midys, ON miðr, op Lat medius, Gk mésos, fr medhjo*, Sart madhya, op media (I) & meso-, & see meta- Denoting the middle part or position, chiefly used in combination, with or without hyphen in mid air, or mid-air, in mid-Atlantic mid (II), prep, for amid (poet) Amid midday, n [1 middə, 2 middi] O E midday mid (I) & day a The middle of the day, noon, also b attrib a midday meal midden, n [1 midn, 2 midn] M E midding, of Scand origin, op Dan mødding, earlier møddynge, fr møg, 'dung, muck', & dyng, 'heap (of dung)' 1 A dunghill 2 Specif (archaeol) a prehistoric refuse heap, a kitchen-midden (q v) middle (I), adj [1 midl, 2 midl] O E nuddel, midl, 'mid', & -el, op O H G mitil, ON meðal, prep, 'amid' See mid (I) 1 Occupying a central place, half-way between two other points, of space, number, time &c, equidistant from extremes, intermediate, the middle house in the row, middle hours of the day, to take a middle point of view, middle finger, second finger 2 Various special uses a (gram) of a special form of the verb, the middle voice, as in Greek, half-way between active and passive, expressing reflexive action of the verb on the subject or intransitive action, b (logic) of the term in a syllogism which is common to both premises the middle term 3 (philol, cap) Of languages, occupying a stage in development between the Old (or oldest) and the Modern forms Middle English, Middle High German &c middle (II), n See prec 1 a A middle, central point, part, in position or time the middle of the road, of the stage, night, b point between the beginning and end of an action in the middle of a meal, of a race &c, Phr in the middle of one's work &c, (while) fully occupied, engrossed, with work &c 2 The middle part of the body, the waist a belt round his middle 3 (rare) An intermediary, medium to act as a middle between two disputants 4 Specif uses a (gram) the middle voice, b (logic) a middle term, c in various trades, (usually pl) goods of a grade between so inferior and a higher quality, d (cricket) a guard, position, of the bat as covering the middle stump to take middle, to get this guard from the umpire, middle and leg, guard for the middle and the leg stump e (Association football) the kicking of the ball from either wing to the centre of the line of forwards middle (III), vb trans, fr prec To place in the middle, specif (Association football) to kick the ball from the wing to the centre middle age, n The middle period of life, between the end of youth and the beginning of old age, now usually applied to the years between forty and sixty middle-aged, adj Of middle age

Middle Ages, n pl [1 midl ʔjɜz, 2 midl ʔɛdʒɪz] (hist) The mediaeval period of European history, connecting ancient and modern times, variously calculated, but commonly applied to the period from the fall of the Roman Empire of the West (5th cent) to the beginning of the Renaissance (middle of 15th cent) middle class, n [1 midl klɑs, 2 midl klɑs] 1 That class of society regarded as lying between the class of artisans and the aristocracy, the bourgeoisie, including the professional, business, shop-keeping, classes the middle classes 2 Attrib [1 midl klɑs, 2 midl klɑs], a belonging to, typical of, the middle class in society the middle class vote, mind, b (rare) of ordinary or second rate quality middle distance, n. (paint) That part of a picture which lies between the foreground and the background

Middle East, n A term used in politics for the various States lying between the Near and the Far East, usually including Persia, Iraq (Mesopotamia), Syria, Palestine, Arabia, and parts of Turkestan

Middle Kingdom, n. The Chinese Empire, translating Chinese Chang Kuo

middleman, n [1 midlman, 2 midlman] a An agent or broker who occupies a middle position in dealing with commodities as they pass between the producer and the consumer, or more strictly, between producer and retailer, b a go-between, intermediary middlemost, adj [1 midlmɔst, 2 midlmɔst] Superlative of middle, nearest the middle, of two or more persons or things, midmost middle passage, n The part of the Atlantic lying between the West Coast of Africa and the West Indies, used esp in connexion with the slave trade middle watch, n (naut) The watch between midnight and 4 a m middle weight, n & adj (boxing) a o Boxer of a weight between a light or water-weight and a heavy weight, i.e. between 10 st and 11 st 4 lb, b adj, being of middle weight midling, adj & n. [1 midlɪŋ, 2 midlɪŋ] middle & -ing 1 adj Of middle size, quality, state &c, ordinary, second rate, fairly good the place is only of midling size, the dinner was midling, to feel only midling, to feel so-so, only pretty well, (also advb) midling tall, hungry 2 n (usually pl) Midlings, grades of commodities, such as flour, considered of a second quality midly, n [1 midlɪ, 2 midlɪ] (colloq) Abbreviated form of midshipman midge, n [1 miʒ, 2 midʒ] O E myeg(e), M E migge, O H G mucca, mugga, L G mugge, op Dn mug, 'gnat', possibly connected w Gk muia, 'fly'; muzem, 'to buzz', O Slav mucha, 'fly' a Minute buzzing, biting, flying insect, b diminutive person midget, n [1 miʒt, 2 midʒt] prec & -et. An extremely diminutive person, dwarf midnette, n [1 midnet, 2 midnet] Fr, fr mid, 'midday', & dimin -nette A shop girl in Paris, so called as being generally visible in the streets at luncheon time mid-iron, n (golf) An iron-headed club with a moderate loft midland, adj & n [1 midland, 2 midlɔnd] mid (I) & land 1 adj a In, belonging to, the central district of a country the Midland Counties of England, b surrounded by land the midland sea, Mediterranean 2 n a (pl) The Midlands, the midland counties of England, b (sing) dialect of these areas midmost, adj [1 midmɔst, 2 midmɔst] See middlemost midnight, n [1 midnɪt, 2 midnɪt] O E midnȝt mid (I) & night a Twelve o'clock in the middle of the night, the middle of the night, b (maternal or fig) deep darkness, c (attrib) during the middle of the night, a d midnight the midnight hours, midnight revels, Phrs dark, black as midnight, very dark, to burn the midnight oil, to work, study, very late at night The Midnight Sun, visible appearance of the sun at midnight within the Arctic and Antarctic Circles at and about midsummer or midwinter respectively mid-off, mid-on, n [1 mid ɔf, ɔn, 2 mid ɔf, ɔn] (cricket) Fieldman standing in the middle of the field not far from the bowler and on the off or on side of the batsman midrash, n, pl midrashim [1 midrash, mid rāshēm, 2 midrāš, midrāšim] Heb, 'examination, exposition' The ancient Jewish explanatory commentary on the Old Testament mid-rib, n A middle or central rib, specif (bot) the central nerve or vein of a leaf running from the stem to the apex midriff n [1 midrif, 2 midrif] OE midhrif, fr mid (I) & hrif, 'belly', op OHG hrif, 'body', O Frs ref, cogn w Lat corpus The diaphragm, muscular wall which separates the chest cavity from the abdomen midship, adj & n [1 midship, 2 midʃip] a adj Of or belonging to the middle of a ship, b n, the middle part of a ship midshipman, n [1 midshipman, 2 midʃip mən] Preo & man In the British navy, a junior officer ranking between a naval cadet and a sub lieutenant, the name is derived from the position amidstships of midshipmen's quarters in the old sailing days midships, adv [1 midships, 2 midʃips] The s is the survival of a genit suff used adverbially Amidships midst, n & prep [1 midst, 2 midst] For middest, inmiddest, fr earlier ME inmiddest, fr mid (I) & es, suff of genit used adverbially, the -i may be intrusive as in whist, or may be due to the apposed enperil middest* of mid 1 n The middle, central part, only now in Phrs in, into, from, the midst of, out of the midst of, also in, from &c, our, your, their midst, in the midst of us &c 2 prep In the middle of, amidst midsummer, n [1 midsummer, 2 midsəmə] Preo & -ery Art, practice, of attending or assisting at childbirth obstetrics midwife, n [1 midwife, 2 midwaif] ME midwif, fr OE, ME mid, 'with', & wif, 'wife, woman', see wife, mid is cogn w OHG mit, 'with', Goth miþ, op also Gk meta, see meta- A woman who assists another at childbirth, midwife toad, the obstetric toad midwifery, n [1 midwifery, 2 midwaifri] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21 midwinter, n [1 midwinter, 2 midwintə] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21

midwifery, n [1 midwifery, 2 midwaifri] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21

midwife, n [1 midwife, 2 midwaif] ME midwif, fr OE, ME mid, 'with', & wif, 'wife, woman', see wife, mid is cogn w OHG mit, 'with', Goth miþ, op also Gk meta, see meta- A woman who assists another at childbirth, midwife toad, the obstetric toad

midwifery, n [1 midwifery, 2 midwaifri] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21

midwife, n [1 midwife, 2 midwaif] ME midwif, fr OE, ME mid, 'with', & wif, 'wife, woman', see wife, mid is cogn w OHG mit, 'with', Goth miþ, op also Gk meta, see meta- A woman who assists another at childbirth, midwife toad, the obstetric toad

midwifery, n [1 midwifery, 2 midwaifri] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21

midwife, n [1 midwife, 2 midwaif] ME midwif, fr OE, ME mid, 'with', & wif, 'wife, woman', see wife, mid is cogn w OHG mit, 'with', Goth miþ, op also Gk meta, see meta- A woman who assists another at childbirth, midwife toad, the obstetric toad

midwifery, n [1 midwifery, 2 midwaifri] The middle of winter, the period of the winter solstices, Dec 21

midwife, n [1 midwife, 2 midwaif] ME midwif, fr OE, ME mid, 'with', & wif, 'wife, woman', see wife, mid is cogn w OHG mit, 'with', Goth miþ, op also Gk meta, see meta- A woman who assists another at childbirth, midwife toad, the obstetric toad strength, energy, capacity, of body or mind, physical force and power might is right Phrs with all one's might, with might and main, all one's strength and energy mightily, adv [1 mɪtli, 2 maɪtli] mighty & -ly a In a mighty manner, powerfully, vigorously, b (colloq) very much, extremely mightily bored, pleased him mightily mightiness, n [1 mɪtnes, 2 maɪtnɪs] See next word & -ness Quality, state of being mighty, greatness, high rank and dignity, also as title, highness, His Mightiness, so ironically, his high and mightiness, of an exceedingly arrogant person mighty, adj & adv [1 mɪti, 2 maɪti] OE mihtig might (II) & -y 1 adj a (of persons and things) Having might, strong, powerful a mighty man of valour, 'put down the mighty from their seats', a mighty wind, a mighty building, b (colloq) great, of large amount and size made a mighty bother, a mighty hit Phr high and mighty, very proud, arrogant, haughty 2 adv (colloq) Very, extremely mighty pleasant, was mighty pleased mignon, adj [1 mɪnjən, 2 mɪnjɔ] Fr, 'delicate, sweet, charming', of Gmc origin, op OHG & OS minna, 'love', see minne-singer, minion is a variant Delicately formed, dainty, small and charming, petite mignonette, n [1 mɪnjənɛt, 2 mɪnjənɛt] fr Fr mignonette, dimin of preo a (bot) A sweet scented garden plant, Reseda odorata, having grey green flowers with reddish brown anthers, b colour resembling that of these flowers, c a fine, open work, French pillow lace migraine, n [1 mɪgræn, 2 mɪgreɪn] Fr, through Lat hemicranium, fr Gk hēmikrānía, 'pain on one side of the head', fr hēmi, 'half', see hemi-, & kranion, 'head, skull', see cranium, op variant migrum A periodical, nervous headache, usually on one side only, formerly often called a sick head ache migrant, adj & n [1 mɪgrənt, 2 mɪgrənt] fr Lat migrans (em), Pres Part type of migrare See migrate 1 adj Having the habit of migrating, esp of birds 2 n One that migrates, esp a migrating bird migrate, vb intrans [1 mɪgrət, 2 mɪgreɪt] fr Lat migrat (um), PP type of migrare, 'to change place, move from one place to another, to change', fr migr*, op also Gk (ajmēbein, 'to change, to quit one place for another, fr meig*', op also Gk amōbē, 'change', see amoebea The hase moig, meig &c, is prob an extension fr moi*, 'to change', q v under mutate a To leave one habitation, place or country and go to another, esp to leave one's own country and settle abroad, b specif (of birds) to go periodically from one region to another, in search of a different climate, or food, or for breeding migration, n [1 mɪgrəʃən, 2 mɪgreɪʃən] fr Lat migratio (em), 'removal, change' See preo & -ion a Act of migrating, or changing one's place of residence or abode, used esp b of the periodical movement of birds, fishes &c, c the body of individuals so migrating migratory, adj [1 mɪgrətəri, 2 mɪgreɪtəri] migrate & -ory Migrating having the habit of migration, wandering, moving constantly from place to place mikado n [1 mɪkádɔ, 2 mɪkádɔ] Jap name of the gate of the Imperial palace, fr mi, 'honourable, exalted', & kado 'gate', op Sublime Porte & Pharaoh the title, as used by Europeans, of the Emperor of Japan, is not a Japanese usage milage See milage milch, adj [1 mɪlʃ, 2 mɪlʃ] Late ME milche, milk giving The precise formal connexion w milch is not clear Yielding, giving milk, now only in milch cow, cow kept for milking, (colloq) a source of profit to treat a person as a milch cow mild, adj [1 mɪld, 2 maɪld] OE milde, OS midt, OHG mlt, ON mldr, cogn w Gk malhalkos, 'soft, mild', also w O Slav mladu, 'tender, young', ultimately connected w Lat molle, 'soft', fr moldeus*, see molify, also w maalt & melt 1 (of persons) Gentle, kind, temperate, amiable, not harsh, rude, violent, or severe mild of manner, in disposition &c, a mild ruler 2 (of things) Soft, moderate, not harsh, hard, strong, or violent mild punishment, mild weather, warm, a mild medicine, one that acts gently, mild ale, not bitter, Phr (fig, colloq) draw it mild a don't exaggerate, b behave with moderation and decorum, mild steel, malleable and tough, having a low proportion of carbon mild-cured, adj [1 mɪld kɜrd, 2 maɪld kɜrd] (of bacon and ham) Not strongly pickled, not salt mildew, n & vb trans & intrans [1 mɪldɪ, 2 mɪldɪ] OE meledæw, mildæw, 'honey-dew', the engary exudation on leaves of certain plants, ME mildew, 'mildew, blight', cogn w OHG mlstow, 'mildew', the first element is cogn w Goth mlstip, 'honey', Lat mel, 'honey', & prob also w blithe See melliferous & dew 1 n a Any of various parasitic fungi, destructive to plants, such as cereals, hops &c, b the whitish, spotty discolouration on plants &c affected by mildew, c the white, furry mould forming on leather, paper, food &c, when exposed to damp 2 vb To affect, be affected by mildew, esp in PP mildewed mildewy, adj [1 mɪldɪ, 2 mɪldɪ] Preo & -y Mildewed, affected by mildew, resembling mildew mildly, adv [1 mɪldli, 2 maɪldli] mild & -ly In a mild gentle manner, gently, softly, moderately Phr to put it mildly, to say the least of it, not to exaggerate mildness, n [1 mɪldnes, 2 maɪldnis] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being mild, gentleness, softness, kindness mile, n [1 mil, 2 maɪl] OE mil, pl mila, mīle, ME mile, early loan-word fr Lat millia, milha, a thousand (things), a mile', fr mille, 'thousand', the Roman mile being 1000 paces, mille passus or passuum, Lat mille is prob fr emi*, 'one', op Gk mia, 'one', for emsa*, same base as em*- in simplex, see example, & g'hesi*, whence also Gk khilioi, 'thousand', op also Scrt sa hasram, 'one thousand' A measure of linear distance, the English statutory mile, 1760 yds the geographical or nautical mile, one minute of a great circle of the earth, in British Admiralty usage 6080 ft, the Roman mile of one thousand military paces, about 1620 yds mileage, milage, n [1 mɪli, 2 maɪldʒ] mile & -age a Total distance in an aggregate of miles, miles travelled in a certain time, b rate of travelling in miles, c allowances for expenses &c reckoned by the miles travelled miler, n [1 mɪlɪ, 2 maɪli] (colloq) A runner man or horse, whose favourite or best distance in a race is a mile

Milesian, adj & n [1 mɪlɪzən, 2 maɪlɪzən] fr Milesius, a legendary Spanish king who conquered Ireland in 14th cent BC a adj Irish b n, an Irishman milestone n [1 mɪlstɔn, 2 maɪlstəʊn] fr mila & stone 1 A stone indicating the miles on a highway to or from a given place 2 (fig) Important event which marks the end of a stage, or the beginning of a new era, in history or in a human life milfoil n [1 mɪlfɔɪl, 2 mɪlfɔɪl] O Fr, fr. Lat mil'folium, name of the plant, fr mille, 'thousand', see mila, & folium, 'leaf' see folio (bot) The yarrow, the leaf of which is divided into a large number of small segments miliaria, n [1 mɪliəriə, 2 mɪliəriə] Mod Lat, fr Lat mil'iaris See next word (pathol) A disease of the sweat-glands, in inflammatory and marked by an eruption of small red pustules, resembling millet seeds.

military, adj [1 mīlīari, 2 mīlīari], fr Lat militāris (us), of or resembling militum, millet Resembling the seeds of millet, specif (med) military fever, malaria, on account of characteristic rash militancy, n [1 mīlītansi, 2 mīlītansi] See next word & -cy State, character, of being militant or warlike, aggressiveness, combativeness, fighting spirit or instinct militant, adj & n [1 mīlītant, 2 mīlītant], fr Lat militānti (em), PP of militāre, 'to serve as a soldier', fr milit (em), acc of miles, 'soldier' See militia 1 adj Serving as a soldier, fighting, warlike, combative militant suffragettes, (also fig) the Church militant, considered as at war on earth with the powers of evil, contrasted with the heavenly Church triumphant 2 n A fighting, combatant person militantly, adv Prec & -ly In a militant, combative manner militarily, adv [1 mīlītari, 2 mīlītari] military & -ly In a military way, like a soldier, in army fashion militariness, n [1 mīlītariēs; 2 mīlītariēs] See prec & -ness Custom, fashion, of a soldier militarism, n [1 mīlītarizm, 2 mīlītarizm] Cp Fr militarisme military & -ism 1 Theory that the safety of a nation is only secured by the maintenance of trained fighting forces, and by a state of preparedness for war 2 Combatant spirit, esp in a nation, disposition to exalt unduly soldierly virtues and military methods, converse of pacifism militarist, n [1 mīlītarišt, 2 mīlītarišt] See prec & -ist A supporter of militarism, b an expert or student of war and military matters militarization, n. [1 mīlītarižashun, 2 mīlītarižashun] Next word & -ation A condition of being militarized, b act of militarizing militarize, vb trans [1 mīlītariž, 2 mīlītariž], fr ooxt word & -ize To make military or warlike, to instil the principles of militarism or a warlike spirit into military, adj & n [1 mīlītari, 2 mīlītari], fr Fr militaire, fr Lat militāris, of or belonging to a soldier, fr milit (em), stem of miles, 'soldier' See militia & -ary 1 adj Belonging to, suitable to, performed by, consisting of, soldiers, or the army, contrasted with civil military authority, discipline, band, forces, hospital &c Military age, the age at which, under compulsory service, a citizen is liable for service in the army, or, under a voluntary system, may enlist, Military Cross, a British decoration for bravery in face of the enemy, instituted in 1915, military fever (obs), typhoid or typhus fever, Military Knights of St Andrew, a body of retired officers attached to the Order of the Garter, military law, the body of regulations which governs the soldier in peace and war, military police, body of soldiers performing police duties for the army, military service, service in the army, (hist) service as a soldier rendered to a feudal superior by a tenant who holds lands on such (military) tenure, military testament or will, a nuncupative will made by a soldier on active service 2 n The army, soldiers collectively, soldiery militate, vi intrans [1 mīlītāt, 2 mīlītāt], fr militāt (um), PP type of militāre, 'to serve as a soldier, to fight', fr milit (em), miles, 'soldier' See militia 1 (obs or rare) To serve as a soldier, to fight, contend, chiefly followed by against 2 (followed by against) To work against, hinder, be detrimental to ill health militated against his chances of success militia, n [1 mīlīsha, 2 mīlīja] Lat militia, 'military service, warfare, soldiery', fr milit, stem of miles, 'a soldier', prob connected w the base mīt*-, seen in Scrt mēlāt, 'an assembly', mīlāt, 'he unites, comes together with others', mīlēs therefore meant orig one who advances, or marches in a horde or troop' 1 A national levy of citizens under arms, undergoing periodical training and embodied as an army in national emergencies 2 (in England) An auxiliary infantry force, enlisted by counties, undergoing periodical training, paid, and liable to be called out on emergency, it was merged in the Special Reserve in 1908, but restored with its old name after the Great War militiaman, n [1 mīlīshaman, 2 mīlīshaman] A soldier of the militia milk (I), n [1 mīlk, 2 mīlk] OE meolc, O Mercian mlc, ME milk, OS & O Fris miluk, OHG miluh, Goth miluka, ON mjólk, cogn w Lat mulgēre, 'to milk', Gk amēlgēin, 'to press, squeeze out, to milk', Scrt mṛśāt, 'he strokes, rubs' &c, the orig meaning wd appear to be 'something pressed, squeezed out' 1 a The white or yellowish fluid secreted by the mammary glands of the female of all mammals as the food of their young, b specif the milk of the domestic cow, universally used as an article of human food, Phr land of milk and honey, of great fertility and abundance, milk for babes, (of books, sermons, opinions &c) of an elementary kind suitable for childish minds, milk of human kindness, natural goodness and affection, it's no good crying over spilt milk, what is past cannot be helped 2 The milk-like fluid of certain plants, as the juice of the coco-nut, the latex of tropical trees such as caoutchouc &c 3 Preparation of drugs, herbs &c, resembling milk in appearance milk of sulphur, of almonds 4 (obs) Milt (of fish) milk (II), vb trans & intrans OE milcan See prec A trans 1 To draw milk, cause milk to flow from the breast or udder (of cows &c) by pressure of the fingers 2 (vulg) To extract all possible profit from, by illicit or extortionate means 3 To tap, or steal a message from, a telegraph wire B intrans To yield milk cows are milking well this season milk-and-water, adj [1 mīlk and wāter, 2 mīlk ən(d) wāte] Lacking strength and spirit, emasculated, wishy-washy, reverse of outspoken or pungent milkier, n [1 mīlker, 2 mīlke] 1 One who milks cows &c 2 Cow in milk, or used for milking milk fever, n A fever to which women are liable after child birth during lactation milkiness, n [1 mīlkīnes, 2 mīlkīnes] milky & -ness (of liquids) Quality of being milky, a opaqueness, cloudiness as of milk or of water and milk, b quality of being white and slightly thick, resembling milk in appearance and consistency milk-leg, n An inflammatory condition of the leg, in women after child-birth, accompanied by white swellings milkmaid, n [1 mīlkmāid, 2 mīlkmēid] A woman employed to milk cows and to work in a dairy milkman, n [1 mīlkmān, 2 mīlkmān] A man who sells and distributes milk by retail, a dairyman, b a man who milks and attends to cows milk pudding, n A baked pudding made of rice, sago &c, and sweetened milk milk-punch, n A punch made of spirits and sweetened milk milk-sickness, n A cattle disease prevalent in the Western States of the USA, also transmitted to persons feeding on the meat, milk &c of the affected cattle milk-sop, n [1 mīlksop, 2 mīlksop] milk (I) & -sop A feeble, effeminate, timid man or boy, who shrinks from danger or hardship milk-sugar, n Sugar of milk, lactose milk-tooth, n One of the first, temporary set of teeth in mammals milkweed, n [1 mīlkwēd, 2 mīlkwīd] Popular name of many common plants having a milky juice or sap, esp the cow-parsley milk-white, adj Of the colour of milk, white as milk.

milkwood, n [1 mīlkwood, 2 mīlkwūd] Popular name of many tropical trees which yield a milk or latex milkwort, n [1 mīlkwōrt, 2 mīlkwīt] Popular name of a perennial plant, Polygala, growing in meadows, formerly said to increase milk in cows eating it milky, adj [1 mīlki, 2 mīlki] milk (I) & -y 1 Like milk, in colour or consistency 2 a Mixed with milk, b yielding milk, as a plant The Milky Way, the Galaxy, the luminous belt, consisting of countless stars and nebulae, stretching across the night sky mill (I), n [1 mīl, 2 mīl] OE mylen, myln, ME mulne, mulle, mille &c, fr L Lat molina, Lat molina, 'mill', fr mola, 'millstone', whence molere, 'to grind', see molar (I), cogn w Gk mūlē, 'mill', see also meal (I) 1 a Apparatus driven by wind, water, steam &c, for grinding grain into flour, b whole building and structure containing and attached to the actual mill 2 Small machine, worked by hand, for grinding coffee, or pepper 3 a Machinery for manufacturing various materials, and the works or factory in which the work of manufacturing is carried out paper-mill, cotton-mill &c, also b saw mill, large apparatus, and the buildings and yards adjacent to it, for sawing timber 3 (slang) A boxing match, prize-fight, fight with the fists mill (II), vi trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To treat in, put through, a mill or other machinery (in various specif senses), a to grind and reduce to flour, powder, or pulp to mill grain, paper, to mill ore, by crushing &c, b to mill steel, make it into bars, to mill cloth, to full it, c to mill a coin, to raise its edge and cut it into ridges, to prevent clipping 2 a To whip, churn, (chocolate) into a froth, b (slang) to strike with the fists B intrans 1 To make use of a mill 2 (slang) To fight with the fists 3 (of cattle &c) To move round and round in a circle mill (III), n Formed on anal of cent, fr Lat millēnus, 'thousandth', fr mille, 'thousand' See mile (Am) A one thousandth part of the dollar, as a money of account millboard, n [1 mīlbōrd, 2 mīlbōd] mill (II) & board Strong stout paste board used in book-binding mill-dam, n mill (I) & dam (II) The dam of a mill-pond millenarian, adj & n [1 mīlēōriən, 2 mīlēōriən] millenary & -an 1 adj Of, concerning, the millennium millenarian prophecies 2 n A believer in the speedy coming of the millennium, millennialist millenarianism, n [1 mīlēōriənizm, 2 mīlēōriənizm] Prec & -ism Doctrine of, belief in, the millennium millenary, adj & n [1 mīlēnəri, 2 mīlēnəri], fr Lat millēnarius, 'containing a thousand', fr mille, 'a thousand each', fr mille, 'thousand' See mile 1 adj a Consisting of a thousand, esp of a thousand years, b of, concerning, the millennium, millennial 2 n a Period of a thousand years, b a thousandth anniversary, celebration of this millennial, adj [1 mīlēnəl, 2 mīlēnəl] See millennium & -al Of the millennium millennialism, n [1 mīlēnālizm, 2 mīlēnālizm] Prec & -ism Millenarianism millennialist, n [1 mīlēnəlīšt, 2 mīlēnəlīšt] See prec & -ist Millenarian millennium, n [1 mīlēnium, 2 mīlēnium] popular pl millenniums, learned (Lat) pl millēnia Formed, on anal. of Lat biennium, 'period of two years', fr Lat mille, 'thousand', see mile, & annum, 'year', see annual 1 a A period of a thousand years, b specif, that during which Christ at His second Advent will reign on earth, as in Revelation xx. 2 A period of peace and great prosperity, a golden age, esp such an age regarded as visionary millepede, n. See millipede.

millepore, n [1 milpör, 2 milpör], fr Lat mille, 'thousand', see mile, & pore (I) A genus of coral with numerous minute pores in a smooth surface mill, n [1 miler, 2 miler] mill (II) & -er A One who works or owns a flour- or corn mill, b (ontom) the popular name for some varieties of moths whose wings are powdered with a fine white dust millarite (I), n [1 millerit, 2 millerit], fr W H Miller, d 1880, British mineralogist, & -ite (mineral) Nickel sulphide

Millerite (II), n, fr W Miller, d 1849, American millenarian, & -ite A follower of Miller, who predicted the coming of the millennium in 1843 millers' thumb, n [1 millerz thüm, 2 milerz þəm] The popular name of a small freshwater fish, Cottus gobio, allied to the gudgeon, also called the bull head.

millesimal, adj & n [1 milésimal, 2 milésiməl] fr Lat millisimus, 'thousandth', fr mille, 'thousand', see mile, & -al adj Thousandth, having a thousand parts, b n, a thousandth part millet, n [1 millet, 2 millet], fr Fr millet, dimin of mil, fr Lat milium, 'millet', cogn w Gk melinē, etymol doubtful. A N East Indian cereal grass, Panicum miliaceum, cultivated in S Europe Asia, and N Africa for the food value of its seeds, b the name of various other cereal grasses, cultivated for the same reason or as fodder, c a tall North American woodland grass mill-hand, n A worker, operative, in a mill or factory, esp a cotton mill.

milli-, pref Form of Lat mille, 'thousand', see mile used in compounds to express a thousandth part of a weight or measure in the metric system.

milliard, n [1 mihiard, 2 mihiárd] Fr, fr Lat mille 'thousand', see mile A thousand millions, the billion of French and American usage.

millibar n [1 milibar, 2 milibar] milli- & barometer (meteor) A thousandth part of a bar (pressure of mercury column 29.53 inches high) as unit of atmospheric pressure milligramme, n [1 miligram, 2 miligram] milli- & gramme One thousandth part of a gramme, 0.001 of a gram millilitre, n [1 mililitre, 2 mililitre] milli- & litre One thousandth part of a litre, 0.001 of a litre millimetre, n [1 milimètre, 2 milimètre] See prec & metre One thousandth part of a metre, 0.001 m. milliner, n [1 millner, 2 millner] Earlier form also millaner, fr Milan, town in Italy a Originally a dealer, usually a man, in small wares, such as needles, gloves, ribbons, lace &c imported from Milan, a haberdasher, b a woman who makes up and trims women's hats, and who also sells ribbons and other articles of millinery millinery, n [1 millneri, 2 millneri] Prec & -y Articles such as hats, lace, ribbons, and other trimmings &c sold by a milliner, b a milliner's business and premises millling vb n [1 millng, 2 millng] mill (II) & -ing 1 Act, process, occupation, of grinding or working material in a mill, esp a flour mill 2 a The raising of the edge of a coin in a mill or press and serrating it with raised ridges, b milled edge of a coin million n & adj [1 milyun, 2 milyun] Fr, fr Ital milione, fr Lat millio (cm), fr Lat mille, 'thousand' See mile 1 n A thousand thousand two hundred thousand, b a mil on more any units pounds dollars, francs &c worth two millions esp of millions, c an extremely large or indefinite number millions of years &c, d (with the) the majority of people, the masses to the mill on 2 adj Numbering amounting to a million.

millionsaire, n [1 milior, 2 milyonis] fr milionnaire. Prec & -aire A person whose wealth amounts to a million pounds, dollars, francs &c, b loosely, an extremely wealthy person millionaire, n [1 milyunaires, 2 milyanaires] Prec & -ess A woman millionaire millionfold, adj & adv [1 milyunföld, 2 milyanföld] million & -fold. a adj A million times as much, b adv, a million times millionth, adj & n [1 milyunth, 2 milyenp] As prec & -th a adj Forming one part of that which is divided into a million parts, b n, one of a million parts millepede, millepede, n [1 milpéd, 2 milpid], fr Lat millepeda, 'a wood-louse', fr mille, 'thousand', see mile, & ped (em), pis, 'foot' See pedal Insect with a very large number of legs, having a segmented body, and a pair of legs on either side at each segment, e.g. a wood louse mill-pond, n mill (I) & pond. The pool or pond formed by a mill dam, whence the water flows to drive a water wheel Phr calm as, like, a mill-pond, said of a very, exceptionally, calm sea mill-race, n See prec & race (I) The stream or current of water which turns a mill-wheel

Mills bomb, n [1 milz hom, 2 milerz bəm] fr name of inventor An oval shaped hand grenade millstone, n [1 milstōn, 2 milstoun] mill (I) & stone a One of the pair of circular stones used for grinding corn &c into flour, the upper one of which moves upon the immovable nether, lower, bed b stone used for mill stones Phrs between the upper and the nether millstone, in an inextricably difficult position, between two merciless forces, hard as the nether millstone, merciless, heartless, unfeeling, the lower or bed millstone being of harder stone than the upper, or of iron, see (look) through a millstone, have very acute, sharp, senses, esp of sight Millstone grit, (geol.) a very hard sandstone mill-stream, n A mill race mill-tail, n. The water of a mill after it has turned and passed the mill wheel mill-wheel, n. The wheel which turns the machinery of a water mill millwright, n [1 milrit, 2 milrit] One who constructs and fits the machinery of a mill.

milreis, n [1 milrís, 2 milrís] Port mil, 'thousand', & reis, pl of real See reis A former Portuguese gold coin (value about 4s 6d), b a Portuguese and Brazilian money of account, one thousand reis mult (I), n [1 mult, 2 mult] OE milte, OHG milz, ON milz, fr meltya-* See meit The spleen mult (II), n & vb trans Possibly the same word as prec, cp M Dn milte, 'mult of a fish', but usually explained as an adaptation of mil, 'the mult of fish', to mult, 'spleen', cp similar use in Germ & Dan. a n The male roe of fish, (also attrib) of male fish in the breeding season a milk herring, b vb, to impregnate the female roe milster, n [1 milster, 2 milste] A male fish in the breeding season mimic, n & vb intrans [1 mim, 2 mim], fr Lat mimus, fr Gk mimos, 'an imitator, actor', etymol unknown. 1 n. a (Gk. and Rom. antiqu) A form of farce, depicting scenes from real life, in which mimicry and dancing played a great part, b an actor taking part in a mimic, c a mimic, buffoon, jester 2 vb To act in a mimic, to play the mimic, to act with gestures, as in panto mime mimicograph, n & vb trans [1 mimograhf, 2 mimograhf] Word coined fr prec & -graph 1 n A device for making a stencil copy of writing from which other copies can be taken 2 vb To make copies of MSS with a mimicograph mimicry, n [1 mimíris, 2 mimíris] Gk., 'imitation' See mimic (biol) Imitation, mimicry, the protective resemblance in colour, markings &c of an animal to its environment, or to another animal mimetic, adj [1 mimetik, 2 mimetik], fr Gk mimētikós, 'imitative' See mimic Imitative, pertaining to, characterized by, mimicry or mimesis mimic (I), adj & n [1 mimik, 2 mimik], fr Lat mimicus, 'of or belonging to mimes or farces, farcical, feigned, mimic' See mimic & -to 1 adj A Act, inclined, to imitate or copy, imitative, mimetic the mimic habit (of animals), 'mimic Fancy wakes to imitate her' (Milton), the mimic stage, b imitative, not real, feigned, sham mimic eloquence, mimic tears, mimic colouration, c imitated, copied, mock, (often with dimin sense) mimic fleet, battle 2 n One who imitates, burlesques, caricatures, the characteristic mode of speech, appearance, gestures &c of another mimio (II), vb trans, fr prec A To copy, imitate, burlesque, reproduce in a grotesque manner, cp to mimic another's voice, manner &c, b to resemble closely, have the exact appearance of in a mirage the desert will mimic a lake or the sea, c (biol) to take on the colour, markings, shape &c of environment, or of another animal or object mimicry, n [1 mimikri, 2 mimikri] mimic (I) & -ry A Act, skill, practice, of imitating, copying, or mimicking, imitation, burlesque, b (biol) resemblance assumed by animals to their environment, in colour &c mimosa, n [1 mimóza, 2 mimouza] Invented word, fr Lat mimus, 'mime, mimic', see mimic (bot) A genus of low trees and shrubs, allied to the Acacias, prickly, bearing seeds in a pod, and having clusters of small yellow flowers, some species, as the Sensitive Plant, curl the leaves when touched, whence the name minimus, n [1 mínulus, 2 mínulus] Lat, 'little mime', dimin of mimic (bot) A genus of flowering plants, including the monkey-flower and musk mina (I), n [1 mína, 2 mínas] Lat, fr Gk. mná, of Semitic origin, cp the Heb weight maneh (Gk antiqu) A weight and a sum of money, equivalent to about 16 oz troy and 54 respectively mins (II) See mayna.

minacious, adj [1 mináshus, 2 minéísh], fr Lat mināc (em), minax, 'threatening', fr minārī, 'to threaten' See minatory & -ous Threatening, minatory, menacing minaret, n [1 minaret, 2 minaret] fr Span minarete, for Arab manārah, 'tower of a mosque, lighthouse', also 'candlestick' (archit) A tall slender tower, or spire like erection, attached to a mosque, with balcony top from which the faithful are summoned to prayer minatory, adj [1 minator, minator, 2 minator, minator], fr L Lat minātorius, fr minārī, 'to threaten', fr minax, 'projecting points, pinnacles, of walls', fig 'threats', fr base men-*, 'to project, stand out' q v under mount (I) See also menace mincing, vb trans & intrans [1 mins, 2 mins], fr O Fr mincer, mincer, fr Low Lat minūtare*, 'to make small', fr L Lat minūta, 'a small piece', fr minūtus, 'small' See minutiae & minutely (I) A trans 1 To cut, chop (meat &c), into very fine, small, pieces 2 (fig) To express in a mild, feeble way, to weal on, tone down, palliate Phr not to mince matters, one's words, to state the plain, blunt truth B intrans To move or speak in an affected, finicky manner, with an air of prim delicacy 'the daughters of Zion mincing as they go' (Isaiah vi 16) mince (II), n, fr prec A Meat minced or chopped up fine, b dish or course consisting of this mincemeat, n [1 minsmēt, 2 minsmīt] Rich mixture of raisins, currants, candied peel, apples, suet, brandy &c, served, usually hot, in covering of pastry Phr to make mincemeat of, (i.e.) to defeat utterly, put out of action (an opponent in a fight), (u) to refute, tear to shreds (an argument, claim &c) mince-pie, n Covered pie, usually small, filled with mincemeat mincing, adj [1 minsing, 2 minsn] Pres Part of mince (I) Affectedly delicate or prim, in speech or hearing mincingly, adv Prec & -ly In an affected, delicate manner, primly mincing machine, n Device consisting of revolving blades for mincing meat &c mind (I), n [1 mind, 2 maɪnd] OE (ge)mynd, 'memory', ME mind, 'memory, mind', OHG gmuot, cp also OE (ge)munan, 'to remember, think', cogn w Lat ment-(em), 'mind', see mental (I), Lith (af)mnas, O Slav (pa)měti, 'memory', Sert mat-, 'thought, sense, meaning'. 1 Memory, recollection, remembrance to bear, keep, in mind, to call to mind, put in mind of, to remind Phr time out of mind, period outside, beyond, anyone's memory, time immemorial 2 a (philos) Consciousness or intelligence, as contrasted with matter, b (psychol) consciousness, subject, source of consciousness, (1) that part of man which thinks, feels, and wills, as contrasted with body, (u) that part of consciousness which thinks but does not feel or will, as contrasted with soul 3 Individual mental faculties, intellect, intellectual capacity or power a strong, weak, profound, shallow, mind Phrs out of one's mind, mad, insane, the mind's eye, mental range, grasp, vision, to turn one's mind to, direct one's attention, thoughts, to, frame of mind, passing mood, to keep one's mind on, concentrate attention on, continue to think of, to take one's mind off, distract, distract attention from, to have something on one's mind, be anxious, worried, about something, absence of mind, absent-mindedness, presence of mind, readiness of decision in emergency 4 A human being thought of primarily as an intellectual force the great minds of the world, no two minds work alike 5 Characteristic mode of thought, cast of intellect, mental constitution the Greek mind, the popular mind &c 6 Opinion, thought, intention, decision, wish, inclination Phrs to read another's mind, discern what he is thinking of, to speak one's mind, declare one's thoughts, make up one's mind, come to a decision, to be of one mind (with), agree (with), to one's mind, a in one's opinion to my mind the action was premature, b to one's liking, he found life in India very much to his mind, to change, alter, one's mind, change one's intentions, to open one's mind to, tell one's views, feelings, thoughts, freely and candidly, to be in two minds, to hesitate, to give (person) a piece of one's mind, (1) tell him bluntly one's opinion of him and his acts, (u) to rate him soundly, to have half a mind to, to be rather inclined to do something, have a good mind to, feel much disposed, have almost decided, to do something mind (II), v trans & intrans, fr prec. A trans 1 a (obs or provinc) To remember, keep in mind I mind the time when . . . b (as command) mind what was told you, mind our appointment next week. 2 a To attend to, take heed of, pay attention to, to regard, obey mind one's own business, not interfere with other people's affairs, to mind rules, regulations &c, mind what I tell you, do not mind what other people say, b to watch, be careful of, look out for mind the dog, the step, that motor car Phrs mind your eye, (sleng) look out!, to mind one's p's and q's, to be very careful of what one says and does 3 a (in interrog or neg constructions) To care, be troubled about, to object to, to dislike do you mind my cigar? I don't mind it a bit, he doesn't mind what he spends on hunters, I don't mind walking, Phrs I should not mind a holiday now, I should like a holiday, do you mind holding your tongue?, you are to hold your tongue, I don't mind telling you that the man is a murderer, emphatic assertion, b (in deplorative sentences in reply to questions) do you mind going without dinner? yes, I mind it very much, (in contrasting) I don't mind hard work, but I do mind insufficient pay 4 To take care of, look after, attend to mind the house, the children, a shepherd minds his sheep, the wife minds the household accounts B intrans 1 To attend, take heed, be careful, if you don't mind, you'll get run over, mind! you'll slip, now mind and do what you're told, he was often warned of his danger but he never minded 2 a To feel dislike, object do you mind if I smoke? I don't mind a bit, b to care, be affected he appears not to feel leaving home, but he really minds a great deal Phrs never mind!, don't distress yourself, it is of no consequence, I don't mind if I do, casual mode of accepting an offer will you have some?, some more? &c mindful, adj [1 minded, 2 maɪndɪd] mind (I) & -ed 1 Having a mind to, disposed to, inclined he was not so minded, had no such intention 2 (usually qualified) Having such or a special kind of mind, character, or disposition strong-, weak-minded; evil-minded &c mindful, n [1 minder, 2 maɪnda] One who minds, attends to, looks after the minder of the house, a machine-minder mindful, adj [1 mindfool, 2 maɪndfəl] mind (I) & -ful Keeping, bearing in mind, attentive, observant of, careful, taking thought for mindful of one's duties mindfully, adv Prec & -ly In a mindful manner, attentively, carefully mindless, adj [1 mindles, 2 maɪndlɪs] mind (I) & -less a Without mind, thought, or consciousness, unintelligent, stupid pass mindless hours in idleness, a mindless act, person &c, b not paying attention to, regardless of, careless, heedless mindless of what is to happen mine (I), possess adj [1 min, 2 maɪn] OE min, OS, OHG mīn, Goth meina, declined as adj in OE &c, orig genit sing. of sc, 'I', OE mīn, cp Goth meina, 'of me' Cp me 1 (obs or archaic and poet) a Before words beginning with a vowel or h-mine eyes, mine heart &c, b in inverted constructions lady mine &c 2 (when absol) a (pred) That umbrella is mine, belonging to me, not yours &c, the game is mine, won by me, b a friend of mine, one of my friends, no business of mine, not my business mine (II), n [1 mɪn, 2 maɪn] In ME as vb, fr Fr mine, n, also miner, vb, etymol doubtful, perh Celt, cp Ir & Gael mein, 'ore, vein (of metal)' 1 A shaft or passage, or shaft and passages dug or sunk in the earth for the extraction of metal, coal, salt, or any mineral other than stone, coal-mine, gold-mine, copper-mine, diamond-mine &c Phr (fig) a mine of wealth, of information &c, copious source of 2 a The shafts, passages, machinery, plant, and buildings &c of a mine, b the mining industry (in pl) the mines 3 (mil) a An underground passage or sap leading to the foot of a wall or earthwork for making a breach in or destroying these, b a charge of explosive used in such a passage for destroying walls or earthworks, similar charge for destroying railways, bridges &c, or for general destructive purpose in war, also land mine, Phr to spring a mine on one, to surprise unpleasantly, c (fig) a secret plot, scheme &c to lay a mine for, to overthrow, surprise, or defeat, d a large high-explosive shell, discharged at short distances, as in trench-warfare &c, from a mortar 4 (nav) A charge of high explosive contained in a watertight metal case, exploded on contact or electrically, and either floating on the surface of the water, surface-mine, or submerged, submarine mine, used in war to protect harbours, rivers, or to block a channel or large area of sea against the enemy fleet mine (III), vb trans & intrans See prec A trans 1 A To dig or excavate a passage or shaft in to mine the earth for coal, gold, b to extract (ore &c) from the earth by a mine to mine coal 2 To dig, drive, a passage to, and explode a land mine under, to sap, to explode a floating or submerged mine under to mine the wall of a fortress &c, the ship was mined 3 To lay explosive mines in or under the navy mined the Channel 4 (fig) To undermine, destroy, or cause to collapse by secret means, plots &c his political career was mined B intrans

1 To carry out the operation a of sinking a mine, b of extracting coal &c from a mine, c to burrow into, scotch, the earth, (said of animals) 2 To lay explosive mines on land or sea minefield, n [1 mɪnfɪld, 2 maɪnfɪld] a Area in which coal, gold, or other mines exist, b (mil and nav) area of land or sea in which mines have been laid minelayer, n [1 mɪnlæɪə, 2 maɪnlæɪə] A vessel specially equipped for laying mines at sea miner, n [1 mɪnə, 2 maɪnə] Fr mineur mine (II) & -or a One who works in a mine, properly one who works underground, but also loosely used of one who is employed in or about a mine, either underground or on the surface, miner's disease, a form of anaemia, due to an intestinal parasitic worm, the hookworm, to which miners are liable, ankylostomiasis, b (mil) soldier trained to dig tunnels, or sap, in siege work, usually sapper and miner, member of Corps of Royal Engineers mineral (I), n [1 mɪnərəl, 2 mɪn(ə)rəl], fr Fr minéral, Mod Lat mineralis, fr mīnēria, mīnara, O Fr minere, 'a mine' See mine (II) 1 (in popular usage) Any substance which is neither animal nor vegetable 2 (chem) Any inorganic element or compound which has a constant chemical composition 3 Any substance which is extracted from the earth by mining or from mines, including the metals, stone, and also coal, which is not chemically a mineral 4 (popular, usually pl) Mineral water mineral (II), adj, fr prec a Of, belonging to, minerals, consisting of, containing, mineral, b (chem) inorganic mineralization, n [1 mɪnərəlaɪzəʃən, 2 mɪnərəlaɪzəʃən] See next word & -ation Act, process, of mineralizing, state of being mineralized mineralize, vb trans & intrans [1 mɪnərəlaɪz, 2 mɪnərəlaɪz] mineral & -ize 1 trans a To convert into a mineral or into mineral form coal is mineralized vegetation, b (chem) to combine with a metal to form an ore, c to impregnate water with mineral salts 2 intrans To search, look, for minerals mineralizer, n [1 mɪnərəlaɪzə, 2 mɪnərəlaɪzə] Prec & -er a (chem) A substance which combines with a metal to form an ore, b one who mineralizes or searches for minerals mineralogical, adj [1 mɪnərələdʒɪkəl, 2 mɪnərələdʒɪkəl] mineral & -logic & -al Of or pertaining to mineralogy a mineralogical collection, examination &c mineralogically, adv Prec & -ly In a mineralogical way, from a mineralogical aspect mineralogically considered mineralogist, n [1 mɪnərələdʒɪst, 2 mɪnərələdʒɪst] See next word & -ist Student of mineralogy mineralogy, n [1 mɪnərələdʒi, 2 mɪnərələdʒi], fr mineral & -logy The science of minerals, their classification, structure, and properties mineral water, n 1 Water naturally impregnated with a mineral, or mineral salts, esp those of a medicinal character 2 (popular) An aerated drink, such as soda water, lemonade, ginger-beer &c mine-sweeper, n Trawler or other vessel fitted with nets for sweeping up and destroying mines in a minefield at sea mine-thrower, n Transl of Germ mine-werfer Mortar for throwing charges of high explosive in trench-warfare miniver, miniver, n [1 miniver, 2 miniva] ME meuver, O Fr menu ver, menu var, fr menu, 'small, little', & var, 'a spotted fur', fr Lat varius, 'variegated, spotted' See menu, var, various A white fur used in ceremonial costume, with symmetrically arranged black patches or tabs, b the fur of the ermine in its winter coat showing the black tips of the tail mingle, vb trans & intrans [1 minggl, 2 mygl] ME mengel, frequent form of mengen, OE mengan, fr same base as among & mongrel 1 trans To combine with, mix, blend together to mingle wine and water, the ashes of saint and king are mingled in the Abbey Phr mingled feelings, partly pleasurable, partly the reverse 2 intrans A To mix, blend the colours don't mingle well, b to join, mix with to mingle in the crowd mingle-mangle, n Reduplication of prec A medley, confusion, hodge podge, olla-podrida a mingle mangle of ideas miniate, vb trans [1 miniat, 2 miniet] See next word & minium 1 To paint with vermillion 2 To decorate, illuminate, as a manuscript, with ornamental letters miniature, n, adj, & vb trans [1 *mini(a)*ebur, 2 *min(a)*fo] fr Ital miniatura, fr Lat miniat (um), P.P type of miniare 'to paint in red lead or vermillion', esp used of initial or other letters in MSS &c coloured red as mark of distinction See minium & -ure 1 n a A coloured initial letter or small coloured picture in an illuminated manuscript, b a small highly finished portrait, usually painted on ivory Phr in miniature, on a small scale 2 adj a Re-presented, depicted, in the form of a miniature portrait, b made, planned, formed, on a small scale, having less than usual size of things of the same kind a miniature park, quadrangle &c 3 vb To depict, represent in miniature or on a small scale miniaturist n [1 minichurist, 2 miniforist] Prec & -ist One who paints miniatures minie bullet, rifle, n [1 minia, mini, 2 minies, minis] fr Minie, name of French inventor A conical, expanding bullet, rifle for firing this minify, vb trans [1 minifi, 2 minifai] Formed w -fy, fr Lat mini, as in minium To make small or smaller, to lessen, diminish, minimize, contrasted with magnify minikin, n [1 minikan, 2 minikan] fr O Da minneken, 'darling, fondling', fr minne, 'love', see minnesinger, & dimin ken, see -ken A diminutive, undersized, delicate, person or object minim, n [1 minim, 2 minim] fr Lat minimus, 'smallest, least', superl of minor, 'smaller, less' See minimum 1 (mus) A note, originally that of shortest duration, now of the value or time of half a semibreve or two crotchets 2 (of liquid measure) One-sixtieth of a fluid drachm, a drop 3 An object of the smallest size, a particle, jot, titlle 4 (R.C. Ch., cap) An order of mendicant friars minimal, adj [1 minuiml, 2 minimil] Prec & -al Smallest, least, minimum minimalist, n [1 minimilist, 2 minimilist] Prec & -ist Person willing to accept a minimum of his demands as a compromise minimize, vb trans [1 minimilize, 2 minimilize] Prec & -ize To minimize minimization, n [1 minimilization, 2 minimilization] See next word & -ation Act, process, of minimizing, state of being minimized minimize, vb trans [1 minimilize, 2 minimilize] fr minim & -ize 1 To reduce to a minimum to minimize friction, to minimize danger 2 To conceive of, or represent as being smaller, less important, less severe, less excellent &c, than reality, to understate, understate I don't want to minimize your services the rule you have run &c minimizer, n [1 minimilizer, 2 minimilizer] Prec & -er One who tends to minimize, esp one who understates, and tries to explain away, religious or philosophical doctrines and difficulties minimum, n, pl minima [1 minimum, -ma, 2 minimam, -ma] Lat neut sing of minimus, 'least, smallest', superl of minor, 'less, smaller', fr base mei*, mi*, 'small' &c, 'to diminish, to change, to injure, impair' &c, op Lat minuere, 'to reduce, lessen' &c, Sert mindit, 'injures', Gk minuthen, 'to diminish, weaken' &c, meion, 'smaller' (see meiosis), Gk min, OE, OHG min(n), 'small' &c 1 The smallest, least, quantity, amount, or point possible, usual, necessary, or registered, contrasted with maximum to reduce demands, wages &c to a minimum, thermometer reached the minimum for the year, shares stand now at a minimum 2 (attrib) A minimum supply, minimum price, wage &c, a minimum thermometer, one graduated for registering the lowest degrees of temperature minimus, adj [1 minimus, 2 minimes] Lat As prec Third or youngest of three boys at a school of same family, or heving the same name, also termed tertius, 'third' Brown minimus, the eldest and second being major and minor mining, n [1 mining, 2 mining] fr mine (II) & -ing 1 n Act, process, business, of working a mine or mines, as coal, gold, diamond -mining &c 2 (attrib) Mining engineer, engineer skilled in developing, sinking, or designing machinery for mines minion, n [1 minyon, 2 minyon] fr Fr minyon, edj, 'small, delicate', also as n See minyon 1 A darling, favourite, specif, a king or queen's favourite, male or female, at a court James the First's minion Robert Carr 2 A servile, obsequious agent or partisan his minions of the press 3 (print) A form of type between brevier and emerald minish, vb trans [1 minish, 2 minis] fr ME menusen, fr O Fr menuser, 'to lessen', fr Low Lat minishare*, 'to make less', fr Lat minui (um), minuere, 'to make small' See minimize (I) (archaic) To cause to lessen, to lower, make small, depreciate, diminish minister (I), n [1 minister, 2 ministe] ME minestre, ministre, fr O Fr ministre, Mod. Fr ministre, fr Lat minister, 'a servant, subordinate', contrasted w magister, 'master', a double compar fr minus, 'less' See minimum 1 A servant, agent, subordinate, one who carries out the orders or purpose of a superior to act as minister of, to, another's desires, pleasures, will &c 2 Specif, a member of the executive government or ministry of a State, in charge of and responsible for a department, acting as the servant of the king or head of the State, whether a member of the Cabinet (Cabinet minister) or not, and holding office only as long as the particular ministry lasts 3 A diplomatic representative or agent to a foreign state, specif, one next in rank below an ambassador 4 (eccles) Also minister of religion, one who performs spiritual functions or services, one who conducts the worship or service in a church or chapel, specif a (in England) a nonconformist clergyman, b (in Scotland) clergyman of the Church of Scotland or other Protestant body Not generally used now of a clergyman of the English Church, though so used in Prayer Book minister (II), vb intrans & trans ME ministren, O Fr ministre, fr Lat ministrare, 'to serve' See prec 1 intrans n To act as a servant or minister, to serve, b to render help to, supply wants of to minister to a person's needs c to be conducive to minister to one's comfort 2 trans (archaic) To administer, perform (a rite &c) ministerial, adj [1 ministrual, 2 ministe tial] fr Fr ministériel, Lat ministrialis, 'of a minister or servant' See prec & -ial 1 a Of or pertaining to a minister or a ministry, performing the functions of a minister, executive, administrative ministerial office, duties, prestige &c, the ministerial benches, those on the Government side, in House of Commons, as contrasted with Opposition benches, the ministerial arm of the law, as contrasted with judicial, b pertaining to a minister of religion 2 Serving as an agent or instrument, instrumental, subordinate, contributing ministerial services, as contrasted with directing or principal ministerialist, n [1 ministrualist, 2 ministe tialist] Prec & -ist A member of the Ministry or Government, member of the party in power or office ministerially, adv [1 ministruali, 2 ministe tially] ministerial & -ly a As in character or position of a minister, or member of the executive of a Government, b in the capacity of a minister of religion ministerant, adj & n [1 ministrant, 2 ministe rant] fr Lat ministrant (em), Pres Part of ministrare, 'to serve' See minister (II) a rdj Serving, acting, as a minister, ministering, b n, one who ministers, helper, sup- porter ministration, n [1 ministrashun, 2 ministe tashun] fr Lat ministratio (em), ministratio, 'service, serving', fr ministrari (um), P.P type of ministrare See minister (II) Services, aid, help, ministry, esp of a minister of religion ministrative, adj [1 ministrativ, 2 minis trativ] Lat ministrat, as in prec, & -ive Ministering, helping, aiding ministry, n [1 ministr, 2 ministri] fr Lat ministerium minister (I) & -y 1 Office of a minister a of religion, b of head of a department of State 2 A body of ministers, or heads of branches of a legislature, hispetit, the Cabinet 3 A body of ministers of religion, b the profession of a minister of religion minium, n [1 minium, 2 minium] Lat, 'cinnabar, vermillion', etymol doubtful, possibly a Span (Iberian) word. Cp minia -ture a Bright red colour, vermillion, b (chem) red oxide of lead miniver, n See miniver mink, n [1 mingk, 2 mygl] Etymol doubtful, sp Swed ment A semi aquatic animal, genus Mustela, related to the stoat and weasel, valued for its thick brown fur, b the fur of the various species of mink minnesinger, n [1 minnsinger, 2 minniste ng] Mod Germ, also minnesinger, revived fr OHG minne, 'love', op OS minna, 'love', fr men*, 'to think of, remember' &c See mental (I), memory One of a circle of German lyric poets of 12th, 13th, and 14th cents who sang their songs of love and beauty to their own music and accompaniment minnow, n [1 minō, 2 minow] ME menow, 'small fish', etymol doubtful, perh same as Fr menu, 'small', Lat minutus See minute (III) a A small freshwater fish of the carp family, loosely, the stockbeak &c, Phrs to throw out a minnow to catch a whale, a Triton among minnows, b an artificial metallic bait for fishing

Minocan, adj [1 minōan, 2 minowōan] fr Gk Minos, the legendary king of Crete Of or relating to the prehistoric art and culture which, centred in Crete, spread over the Aegean and eastern part of the Mediterranean Seas and their coastlands minor (I), adj [1 minor, 2 mana] Lat, 'less' See under minimum 1 a Less, smaller, not important, holding an inferior or subordinate position a minor injury, a minor planet, poet, the Minor Prophets, minor canon, a clergyman attached to a cathedral, but not a member of the chapter, who conducts and assists at the services, esp those parts that require singing, minor orders, (in R.C. Ch) the lesser orders or grades, ranking below that of subdeacon, b (log) of the term which forms the subject of the conclusion in a syllogism minor misconstruction, n [1 miskonstruktshun, 2 miskonstruktshun] mis- & construction a Mistaken, wrong construction, b wrong interpretation of meaning misconstrue, vb trans [1 miskonstrú, 2 miskonstrú] mis- & construe a To construe, translate (a passage) wrongly, b form a wrong notion of meaning of, to put a wrong interpretation on, to misunderstand miscount (I), vb trans & intrans [1 miskount, 2 miskount] mis- & count (I) To count, calculate, wrongly, make an error in counting miscount (II), n An error in counting or reckoning miscreant, adj & n [1 mískriant, 2 mískriant], fr O Fr mescreant, 'unbelieving, unbeliever', mes-, see mis-, & creant, Pres Part, fr Lat credent (em), Pres Part of credere, 'to believe' See creed 1 adj a (obs or archaic) Unbelieving, infidel, b villainous, vile 2 n a (obs) Infidel, heretic, b one guilty of an atrocious crime, a scoundrel, ruffian, a desperate villain miscreated, adj [1 mískrétéd, 2 mískrétéd] mis-, create, & -ed Ill-formed, misshapen mis-cue, vb intrans & n [1 mískú, 2 mískú] mis- & cue (II) 1 vb (billiards) To make a faulty stroke so that the tip of one slips off the ball without striking fairly 2 n A faulty stroke of the cue misdate, vb trans [1 mískdát, 2 mískdét] mis- & date (II) a To put a wrong date on (a letter &c), b to assign to a wrong date misdeal, vb trans & intrans & n [1 mískdél, 2 mískdél] mis- & deal (I) 1 vb a (obs) To deal wrongly with, b to deal playing cards wrongly 2 n A wrong deal at cards misdealing, n [1 mískdélíng, 2 mískdélíng] Preo & -ing Dishonest, unscrupulous, wicked conduct or action misdeed, n [1 mískdéd, 2 mískdéd] O E misdead See mis- & deed. A wicked act, evil deed, a crime misdeem, vb trans & intrans [1 mískdém, 2 mískdém] mis- & deem (poet) To judge wrongly, to form mistaken opinions misdeemeanant, n [1 mískdéméant, 2 mískdéméant], fr obs vb misdeemean & -ant A person convicted of a misdeemeanor, person guilty of misconduct misdeemeanour, n [1 mískdéméanúr, 2 mískdéméanúr] mis- & deemeanour a (law) An indictable offence or crime other than treason or felony by common law or by statute, b (popularly) any offence, misdeed misdescription, n [1 mískdéskrípshun, 2 mískdéskrípshun] mis- & description A wrong, defective, or misleading description, esp one made in a legal contract misdirect, vb trans [1 mískdírèkt, 2 mískdírèkt] mis- & direct 1 To direct wrongly, put a wrong name, title, or address on (a letter) 2 To give wrong instructions or indications to, as how to find, or go to, a place, building &c 3 Specif (of a judge) to give wrong instructions, a misdirection, to (a jury) 4 a To aim badly, strike feebly, or without precision a misdirected blow, b (of non material action) to direct mistakenly, or into wrong channels misdirected energies, talents &c misdirection, n [1 mískdírèkshun, 2 mískdírèkshun] mis- & direction 1 Wrong address (on a letter &c) 2 Wrong, misleading, indication of the way to a place &c 3 Wrong direction given by a judge in charging a jury misdoing, n [1 mískdúing, 2 mískdúing] mis- & doing Wrongdoing, misdeed misdoubt, vb trans & n [1 mískdút, 2 mískdút] mis- & doubt 1 vb (archaic) To have doubts, suspicious, misgivings of or about; to suspect 2 n (obs) Doubt, suspicion, misgiving mise n [1 míz, 2 míz, 3 míz, 4 míz] O Fr, P P fem of mettre, 'to put, lay', fr Lat.

mittere, 'to send' See missile 1 (hist) a An agreement, pact Mise of Lewes, 1264, between Henry III and the Barons, b an agreed grant or levy paid by the Welsh on entry of a new Prince of Wales 2 (gambling) a A stake, b the lay-out of the cards mise-en-scene, n [1 míz on sán, 2 míz á sán] Fr, 'setting on the stage' See preo & scene a A stage-setting, including the costumes, scenery, properties &c of a play as represented on the stage, b (fig) the general external surroundings and setting of an event or action miser (I), n [1 mízér, 2 mízér] Lat miser, 'wretched' See miserable 1 (obs) A miserable, wretched person, a poor wretch 2 An avaricious, grasping, covetous person, one who, having wealth or means, lives wretchedly and hoards money for the sake of hoarding miser (II), n Etymol unknown A boring instrument used in mining and well sinking miserable, adj [1 mízérabl, 2 míz(é)rabl], fr Fr miserable, 'wretched' &c, fr Lat miserabilis, fr miserari, 'to pity', fr miser, 'wretched, miserable', connected w Lat maerere for maerere, 'to mourn', maeror, 'sadness, grief', & maestus, 'sad, sorrowful', further relations doubtful 1 A unhappy, suffering mental pain, wretched, sad, dejected to feel, be made, miserable by unkindness, characterized by, filled with, wretchedness a miserable life, b causing unhappiness miserable news 2 a Suffering extreme bodily pain or discomfort miserable with hunger and cold, b (of external surroundings) exhibiting great discomfort and wretchedness, squalid, poverty-stricken a miserable hovel 3 a Of poor quality a miserable dinner, b insufficient in amount, scanty you're made a miserable meal, I fear, c contemptible, inadequate, pitiable miserable effort, performance, d a miserable failure, e morally reprehensible, shameful, disreputable, abandoned a miserable scoundrel miserably, adv Preo & -ly 1 In a miserable manner to live miserably 2 (as pejorative) Very miserably inadequate, weak, poor, ill &c, to feel miserably misere, n [1 mízér, 2 mízér] Fr, 'misery' See preo A call in solo-vibist by which the player undertakes not to take a single trick miserere, n [1 mízérér, 2 mízérér] Lat, imperat, 'have mercy', fr misereri, 'to have pity, mercy on', fr miser, 'wretched' See miserable 1 a The 61st Psalm, one of the most commonly used of the Penitential Psalms, of which the first words are Miserere mei, Deus, 'Have mercy on me, O God', b a musical setting for this Psalm 2 A lamentation, call for mercy 3 (a loose use) Also miserere seat, misericord (in sense 2) misericord, n [1 mízérírkord, 2 mízérírkord] O Fr misericorde, fr Lat miserordia, 'mercy, compassion', fr misereri, 'to have pity for', see miserable & cor, cordis, 'heart', see cordate 1 A room set apart in a monastery, where monks might take special food as an indulgence 2 A small projecting bracket or shelf on the under side of a hinged seat in the choir of a monastic church, to allow a slight rest when standing, also loosely called miserere (seat) 3 A thin, pointed dagger, used in mediaeval warfare, for piercing the joints of armour, and giving the coup de grâce, or mercy stroke, to a fallen knight miserliness, n [1 mízérílnes, 2 mízérílnes] See next word & -ness Quality of being miserly, avarice miserly, adj [1 mízérí, 2 mízérí] miser (I) & -ly Like a miser, avaricious, niggardly misery, n [1 mízér, 2 mízér], fr O Fr miserie, Lat misera, 'wretchedness, misery' See miserable & -y 1 Mental suffering, extreme unhappiness the miseries of human life 2 A extreme bodily suffering or discomfort to suffer great misery from

toothache, b (of external conditions) squalor, wretchedness, poverty the misery of the slums

3 (solo whist) Misère

misfeasance, n [1 mízféans, 2 mízféans], fr O Fr mesfeasance, fr mesfaire, ant, Pres Part of mesfaire, 'to do wrong', fr mes, see mis-, & faire, 'to do', fr Lat facere, see faction (law) A wrong or trespass by the doing in a wrongful way what is otherwise lawful, as the wrongful use of legal authority, contrasted with malfeasance misfire, vb intrans & n [1 mízfir, 2 mízfir] mis- & fire 1 vb a (of a gun &c) To fail to go off, b (of internal combustion engine of motor car &c) to fail to ignite 2 n A failure to explode, or to ignite misfit, n [1 mízfit, 2 mízfit] mis- & fit (V) a A bad fit (of clothes &c), b article of wearing apparel which does not fit misfortune, n [1 mízforshun, 2 mízfitshun] mis- & fortune 1 Bad fortune, adversity, unhappiness, ill luck 'As though misfortune made the throne her seat, And none could be unhappy but the great' (Rowe), his face is his misfortune, not his fault 2 A disastrous event, an unhappy accident the early loss of one's parents is a grave misfortune misgive, unpers vb [1 mízgiv, 2 mízgiv] mis- & give To cause, give rise to, fear, doubt, mistrust, suspicion 'Yet oft his heart, divine of something ill, Misgave him' (Milton, 'P L') misgiving, n [1 mízgivíng, 2 mízgivíng] Preo & -ing Doubt, suspicion, mistrust, scruple misgovern, vb trans [1 mízguvèrn, 2 mízguvèrn] mis- & govern To govern ill misgovernment, n [1 mízguvèrnment, 2 mízguvèrnment] Preo & -ment Bad, evil, incompetent government or rule misguidance, n [1 mízgáidans, 2 mízgáidans] mis- & guidance Wrong guidance misguide, vb trans [1 mízgáid, 2 mízgáid] mis- & guide To mislead, advise wrongly, lead into error (chiefly as adv in P P) misguided enthusiasts, opinions &c misguidedly, adv [1 mízgáidédli, 2 mízgáidédli] mis- & guidedly PP of preo & -ly In a misguided manner, under misleading, wrong advice mishandle, vb trans [1 míz hándl, 2 míz hándl] mis- & handle 1 a To handle wrongly or clumsily, b to handle roughly or rudely, to ill-treat, maltreat 2 To manage badly, mismanage to mishandle negotiations mis hap, n [1 míz háp, 2 míz háp] mis- & hap Mischance, accident, piece of bad luck misheva, misheva, n [1 mízshéva, 2 mízshéva] Heb misheva, 'oral teaching, instruction', fr shánah, 'to repeat' A collection of rabbinical interpretations, traditions, and precepts on the Mosai law misinform, vb trans [1 mízínfòm, 2 mízínfòm] mis- & inform To give wrong or misleading information to misinformation, n [1 mízínfòmáshun, 2 mízínfòmáshun] Preo & -ation Wrong, misleading information misinterpret, vb trans [1 mízíntrépret, 2 mízíntrépret] mis- & interpret To interpret wrongly, to explain, construe wrongly, to misunderstand misinterpretation, n [1 mízíntrépretáshun, 2 mízíntrépretáshun] Preo & -ation Wrong interpretation, misconstruction misjudge, vb trans [1 mízjudj, 2 mízjudj] mis- & judge 1 a To form a wrong judgement or opinion concerning, speak b to estimate (esp a person or his character) wrongly, (gen) to underrate, not do justice to 2 To form a wrong estimate of, as regards size, length, amount &c to misjudge a distance misjudgement, n [1 mízjudjment, 2 mízjudjment] Preo & -ment A mistaken, erroneous, judgement or opinion mislay, vb trans [1 míz láy, 2 míz láy] mis- & lay (III) To put something where it can not readily be found, to lose temporarily.

mislead, vb trans [1 misléd, 2 misld] mis- & lead (IV) a To lead astray, cause to err in action or conduct, b to cause to form wrong judgement, to deceive, delude. misleading, adj [1 misléding, 2 mislding] Preo & -ing Tending to mislead, deceptive, giving wrong impression, delusive. mislike, vb trans [1 mislik, 2 mislaik] mis- & like To dislike, disapprove of.
mismanage, vb trans [1 mismanj, 2 mismanidz] mis- & manage To manage wrongly, or badly, make a muddle of.
mismanagement, n [1 mismanjment, 2 mismanidzment] Preo & -ment Bad management. misname, vb trans [1 misnám, 2 misnéim] mis- & name To call by a wrong name. misnomer, n [1 misnómer, 2 misnóme] fr O Fr mesnommer, 'to misname', mes, see mis-, & nommer, 'to name', see name. A wrong name, term which is an incorrect description or designation. mis-, pref Form of Gk. misos, 'hatred', used in combination, cp also misin, 'to hate'. misogamist, n [1 misogamist, 2 misogamist] Preo & Gk gam (os), see gamo-, 'marriage', & -ist A hater of marriage. misogamy, n [1 misogami, 2 misogami] As preo & -y Hatred of marriage. misogynist, n [1 misogynist, 2 misogynist] fr Gk. misogynés, as preo, & gyné, 'woman', see gyno- A hater of women. misogyny, n [1 misogini, 2 misogini] fr Gk. misogynia, as preo, & -y Hatred of women.
misplace, vb trans [1 misplás, 2 mispláse] mis- & place a To put in wrong, or unsuitable, place or position, b (chiefly in P P) to bestow (confidence affection &c) mis takenly, upon an unworthy object. misplacement, n [1 misplásement, 2 misplásement] Preo & -ment Act or process of misplacing or placing wrongly, fact of being misplaced. misprint, vb trans & n [1 misprint, 2 misprint] mis- & print. a vb To make a mistake in printing, b n, letter, or word, wrongly printed.
misprize See misprize. misprision (I), n [1 misprizhun, 2 misprizhun] O Fr mesprison, mesprison, 'mis take, error', fr mesprendre, 'to take amiss', mes, see mis-, & prendre, 'to take', op Fr meprise, a mistake, & see prison (law) Mistake neglect of duty, misdeemeanour, now only used in misprision of treason, or of felony, knowledge and concealment of treason, or of felony, without such assent, however, as would make the person charged an accessory. misprision (II), n, fr misprize, confined w preo Contempt, depreciation. misprize, misprize, vb trans [1 mispriz, 2 mispriz] O Fr mespriser, 'to despise', mes, see mis-, & priser, 'to prize', cp Fr mepris, 'contempt' see prize To despise scorn, undervalue. mispronounce, vb trans & intrans [1 mispronouns, 2 mispronouns] mis- & pronounce a To pronounce with faulty articulation b to utter with wrong sounds. mispronunciation, n [1 mispronounsashun, 2 mispronounsashun] mis- & pronunciation. A wrong, bad, pronunciation. misquotation, n [1 misquótashun, 2 misquótashun] mis- & quotation A wrong, incorrect quotation. misquote, vb trans & intrans [1 misquót, 2 misquót] mis- & quote To quote wrongly or inaccurately. misread, vb trans [1 misréd, 2 misréd] mis- & read a To read wrongly, b to put a wrong construction upon, to misinterpret. misrepresent, vb trans [1 misreprézent, 2 misreprézent] mis- & represent. To represent wrongly or inaccurately, to give a false inaccurate account of what is said, to describe (an occurrence) inaccurately. misrepresentation, n [1 misreprézentashun,

2 misreprézentashun] Preo & -ation a A wrong, false, inaccurate, representation, account, or description, b (law) a false statement of fact (not of opinion), which may render a contract voidable. misrule, vb trans & n [1 misrúol, 2 misrúol] mis- & rule a vb To rule, govern, badly, to misgovern, b n, misgovernment, disorder, tumult. Phr Lord of Misrule, the king, master, of revels at Christmas.
miss (I), n [1 mis, 2 mis] Contraction of mistress, only fr the second half of 17th cent. 1 a (cap P) Mode of address of an unmarried woman, unless she is entitled to be addressed as Lady or Dame, prefixed to surname, as Miss Robinson, of the elder of two or more unmarried sisters, or to the Christian and surname of the younger sisters, Miss Joan Robinson, (in pl) either the Miss Robinsons or (archaic and formal) the Misses Robinson, b a young girl, an unmarried woman. a saucy miss 2 (obs) A mistress, kept woman.
miss (II), vb trans & intrans O E missen, 'to fail to hit (a mark)', to escape (notice)', M E missen, cp O N missen, O H missen, the pref mis- is fr same base. The form miss comes fr pre Gmc mit* to, cp Lat miss-(um), P P of mittere, 'to let go, send off' &c, cp mittimus & mission. It is further prob that the following are also derived fr another grade of same base. O E missan, 'to conceal, be hidden, avoid', O S missan, O H missan, 'to hide, to avoid', Mod Germ missen A trans 1 a To fail to hit (what is aimed at) to miss one's aim, to miss a bird (in shooting), Phr to miss the mark (fig), not to achieve what is attempted, to fall short of one's endeavours, to be in adequate, b to fail to hold, catch, hold on to to miss a catch (at cricket), to miss one's footing, slip (in climbing &c), to miss one's hold, loosen, let go one's grip &c, c to fail to reach a given object or position he missed the bank and landed in the water 2 a To fail to achieve, obtain, secure, some non material object, aim, or desire he just missed the highest success, to miss a prize, promotion &c, b to fail to attain or reach, to fall short of it has just missed being a great picture, c to avoid escape to miss having a nasty accident 3 a To fail to meet arrive too late to see or catch not to find at home &c to miss a train, boat &c, I was sorry to miss you when I called, b to fail to see overlook to miss a person in a crowd, I must have missed the notice in the paper yesterday, c to be aware of, notice, absence of, to fail to see what one is expecting 'One morn I miss'd him on the custom I hill (Gray's Elegy)' & Also miss out, to omit, leave out, you've missed out some of the best verses in the poem, don't miss my name out of your list 5 a To feel the want of, and hanker after, something to which one is accustomed I shall miss our pleasant talks when you leave, b to regret, suffer from, the absence or loss of something or someone I miss my old friends more each day B intrans - a To fail to hit one's mark, to go wide of aim very carefully or you'll miss, b (fig) to fail to attain one's object, be unable to do, or obtain what one is striving for you've worked so hard for your exam that I'm sure you won't miss again. Phr it's hit or miss, success or failure with nothing between.
miss (III), n, fr preo a Failure to hit gam, obtain, reach &c, Phr a miss is as good as a mile, a failure is a failure however near to success it may be, specif b (billiards) in intentional or unintentional failure to hit the object ball to give a miss in bill, c deliberate avoidance to give a person a miss, d escape a lucky miss. missal, n [1 misal, 2 misal] fr L Ecclies Lat missale, missalis liber fr missa, 'Mass'. See Mass (I) (R C Ch) a Book containing the service of the Mass for the whole year, b (loosely) a book of hours, prayers, or devotions esp one that is illuminated.

missel thrush, n [1 misal thrush, 2 misal pra] for missle, as feeding on mistletoe berries, and propagating the plant. See mistletoe. A large species of thrush, Turdus viscivorus, of grey colour with distinct spots on the under parts. misshapen, adj [1 misshápen, 2 misshápen] mis- & shapen, old P P of shape. Deformed, distorted, ill shaped. missile, adj & n [1 mis(s)il, 2 mis(s)il] fr Lat missilis, 'capable of being thrown', fr mittere-(um), P P type of mittere, 'to throw, hurl', etymol doubtful, but see miss (II), Lat has missile, neut eng, as n, 'a missile', see miss (II) 1 adj Capable of, suitable for, being thrown or hurled a missile weapon 2 n A weapon or object which is thrown, or intended for throwing, e.g. a stone, spear &c. missing, adj [1 misig, 2 misig] fr Preo Part of miss (II) Wanting, not to be found, lost, absent a missing chapter, the money was missing, killed, wounded, or missing. Phr the missing link, popular name of a supposed type of animal between the anthropoid apes and man. mission, n [1 misshun, 2 misshun] fr Lat missio (em), fr mittere, 'a sending, mission, delegation', fr miss-(um), P P type of mittere, 'to send'. See miss (II) & missile. 1 Specif a (theol) The sending out of the Son by the Father, or of the Holy Ghost by the Son, b (eccles) authority given by the Church to a priest to administer the Sacraments, to preach and teach, or to a Bishop to do these things, and further to consecrate other bishops and ordain priests 2 The sending out of persons as representatives to a foreign country to conduct political or other negotiations or business, the body of persons so sent a delegation a financial mission to the U.S. 3 Specif a the sending out by religious organizations of persons as missionaries, to preach and teach, either abroad, a Foreign Mission (esp to convert the heathen or unbelievers), or at home, Home Missions, the Missions to Seamen &c, b a sphere, field of missionary work or effort, a post or settlement of missionaries, esp in a foreign country, c a course, period, of preaching, religious services &c, specially held for a revival of spiritual life in a district 4 A settlement for charitable, medical, or social work generally among the poor in a town or district 5 a Commission, duty, errand on which a person is sent, b calling, vocation, that for which one is specially fitted or destined one's mission in life.
missionary, adj & n [1 misshunari, 2 misshunari] Preo & -ary 1 adj Of, belonging to, missions or missionaries, esp to religious missions missionary meeting, settlement, collection, work &c 2 n a One sent on a mission, specif, one who preaches the Gospel to, and tries to make converts to Christianity, one engaged in missionary work b one who advocates some cause and proclaims a gospel.
missioner, n [1 misshuner, 2 misshuner] mission & -er Person in charge of, and conducting, a parochial mission. missionize, vb trans & intrans [1 misshuniz, 2 misshuniz] mission & -ize 1 trans To act as a missionary towards, specif a to preach the Gospel to, to attempt to convert to Christianity, b to attempt to convert to any cause or ideal 2 intrans To play the part of a missionary.
missus, *missus, n [1 misiz, 2 misiz] Shortened form of mistress 1 Sometimes so written to express pronunciation of title prefixed to surname of married woman, usual spelling Mrs 2 (colloq, and familiar) a Mistress, used by servants of the lady they serve, b wife my, his missus.
missive, adj & n [1 misiv, 2 misiv] Fr, 'letter', as if fr Lat missiva*, 'sent', fr miss-(um), P P type of mittere, 'to send', see missile, & -ive 1 adj (archaic) Sent, in Phr letter(s) missive, letters sent from the* sovereign to a special body or to special persons, specif, letter sent to dean and chapter nominating person to be elected bishop 2 n a A letter, esp a formal, official epistle, b (Scots law) formal document setting forth the terms, and the offer or acceptance, of a contract mis-spell, vb trans [1 mis spól, 2 mis spél] mis- & spell (II) To spell wrongly or badly a mis-spelt letter mis-spend, vb trans [1 mis spénd, 2 mis spénd] mis- & spend To spend wrongly or wastefully a mis spent fortune, a mis-spent youth mis-state, vb trans [1 mis stáit, 2 mis stéit] mis- & state (III) To state wrongly or inaccurately mis-statement, n [1 mis stáitment, 2 mis stéitment] Preco & -ment A Act of stating wrongly and inaccurately, b a wrong, inaccurate, misleading statement, an untruth missy, n [1 mis, 2 mis:] miss (I) & -y (familiar) Miss, used in addressing, or referring to, a young girl mist (I), n [1 mist, 2 mist] OE mist, 'darkness'; ON mist, op Du & Swed mist, 'fog', prob fr primitive base migh*, op Lith migla, 'mist', Gk omihlê, 'fog, mist', Sort mēgh a, 'cloud'. 1. a Visible watery vapour in the air, of less density than a fog, a haze, thin cloud, b Scotch mist, heavy, wetting drizzle 2 A cloudy appearance or film over the eye 3 Any thing or circumstance which obscures meaning, makes understanding difficult &c Phr in a mist, mentally perplexed mist (II), vb intrans & impers, & trans 1 impers To fall as a mist, to produce mist it's hardly raining, only misting 2 trans To suffuse, cover, obscure, with, or as with, a mist eyes misted with tears mistakable, adj [1 mistákabl, 2 mistéik-ébl] mistake (I) & -able Liable to be mistaken, capable of being misunderstood mistake (I), vb trans [1 misták, 2 mistéik] ME mistaken, fr ON mistala, 'to take in error or by mistake'. See mis- & take 1 To take or understand wrongly or inaccurately, to make an error in interpreting to mistake another's meaning, object, purpose Phr there is no mistaking, no possibility of error 2 To identify wrongly to mistake one (person or thing) for another, mistake the road, direction mistake (II), n, fr preco An error, fault, misunderstanding, misconception to make a mistake, there is no mistake Phrs (colloq) a good thing and no mistake, they have come to grief and no mistake, without any doubt mistaken, adj [1 mistáken, 2 mistéikén], fr PP of mistake (I) 1 Wrong, in error, holding an erroneous opinion to be mistaken, to be wrong, b ill-judged, ill conceived, due to, exhibiting, an error of judgement mistaken act of clemency, mistaken kindness mistakenly, adv Preco & -ly In a mistaken manner, wrongly, in error mistaught, adj [1 mistawt, 2 mistót] PP of misteach, wh is hardly now used except in this form, fr OE mistecan See mis- & teach Ill instructed, taught inaccurately or mistakenly mister, n [1 mister, 2 mistə] Variant of master, as the mode of speaking the written contraction Mr, it does not appear before the 16th cent 1 (usually written Mr) a Form of address prefixed to a man's name in writing, speaking, and referring to him, when he is not entitled to any other, such as Lord, The Honourable, Sir, Colonel &c, also b used as formal prefix to certain titles of office, as Mr Justice X, Mr Speaker, Mr Vice-Chancellor &c, c (vulg) as form of address without any name following Look here, mister! (used by inferiors) 2 Person not entitled to any title other than Mr a plain mister he remained mystery See mystery (II) mistily, adv [1 mistih, 2 mistih] misty &

-ly (lit and fig) With, m, a mist, foggy, through a mist, obscurely mistime, vb trans [1 mistim, 2 mistaim] mis- & time 1 To do out of time, in bad time or rhythm to mistime one's stroke 2 To do or say on an unsuitable, improper occasion to mistime one's remarks mistimed, adj [1 mistimd, 2 mistaimd], fr PP of preco a Done in wrong time, b done, said, (x) at the wrong time, or (n) on an inappropriate occasion mistiness, n [1 mistines, 2 mistinis] misty & -ness Condition of being misty mistletoe, n [1 mistlō, mistlō, 2 mistlou, mistlou] OE mistleān, the first element is mistel, name of the plant, OEG, ON mistil, porh allied to OE meor, Goth maihstos, 'dung', the plant being propagated by seeds carried in the excrement of birds that feed on the berries, see also micturition, mixen, the second element is OE lān, 'twig', op MHG zarn, ON teinn, Goth tarna, 'twig', etymol uncertain A parasitic plant, Viscum album, with yellowish-white berries filled with a sticky, viscous substance used for making birdlime, it grows chiefly on apple trees mistold, adj [1 mistōld, 2 mistōuld], fr PP of mistell, wh is scarcely used in other forms Wrongly, inaccurately, told, reported mistral, n [1 mistral, 2 mistral] Provenç & Fr, fr Lat magistrālis, 'magistral, masterful' See magistrate A very cold, dry NW wind on the Mediterranean coast of France, esp at the mouth of the Rhone and along its valley mistranslate, vb trans [1 mistrānzlāt, 2 mistrānzliēt] mis- & translate To translate wrongly or inaccurately mistranslation, n [1 mistrānzlāshun, 2 mistrānzliēshun] Preco & -ion An incorrect translation mistress, n [1 mistres, 2 mistris], fr O Fr maistresse, also spelt in ME, fem of O Fr maistre, 'master'. See master & -ess 1 A woman who is the head of a household and its servants the mistress of the house, is the mistress at home?, b (cap) used as form of address, written Mrs and pronounced misses, of a married woman other than one having the title of Lady or Dame Mrs Brown, the Honourable Mrs Y 2 (as fem equiv of master) A woman having some special skill or mastery mistress of all the feminine arts 3 A woman teacher in a school, the French mistress, a dancing mistress 4 A woman considered as having rule, control, or authority mistress of society at the period, 'And mistress of herself, though China fall' (Pope, 'To a Lady', 268), having her emotions under proper control, remaining unruffled 5 (fig) Something personified as a female ruler the moon, the mistress of the night, specif, Mistress of the World, Rome, Mistress of the Seas, Great Britain, Mistress of the Adriatic, Venice 6 (poet) A lady-love, sweetheart O, mistress mine! 7 A man's paramour, kept woman, female favourite

Mistress of the Robes, n Title of the chief lady of the Royal Household mistrial, n [1 mistrial, 2 mistrial] mis- & trial (law) A trial which is void through an error in proceedings mistrust (I), vb trans [1 mistrúst, 2 mistrást] mis- & trust To have no trust or confidence in, to suspect, doubt mistrust (II), n, fr preco Suspicion, distrust, want of confidence mistrustful, adj [1 mistrústful, 2 mistrástful] Preco & -ful Suspicious, distrustful mistrustfully, adv Preco & -ly Suspiciously, distrustfully mistrustfulness, n See preco & -ness Mistrust, suspicion, distrust misty, adj [1 misti, 2 misti] OE mistig mist (I) & -y 1 a Covered, hidden, by mist, accompanied by mist a misty morning, misty weather, b (of the eyes) suffused with tears 2 Intellectually obscure, vague, indistinct a misty notion, idea, conception; misty recollections of the past misunderstand, vb trans [1 misunderstānd; 2 misandastānd] mis- & understand To mistake the meaning of, to put a wrong meaning to, or wrong interpretation on misunderstanding, n [1 misunderstāding, 2 misandastāding] Preco & -ing a Mistake, misconception, misinterpretation, b a dispute, disagreement, quarrel misusage, n [1 misúz, 2 misyúz] See next word & -age a Wrong usage, misuse (of words &c), b ill-treatment misuse (I), vb trans [1 misúz, 2 misyúz], fr O Fr mesurer, 'to misuse', fr mes, see mis-, & user, 'to use' See use a To put to a wrong use, to misapply (esp words), b to treat improperly, to ill treat misuse (II), n [1 misús, 2 misyús], fr preco Wrong, improper use, misusage mite (I), n [1 mīt, 2 mait] ME myte, mite, not in OE, fr M Du myt, also in O Fr mite, prob not the same word as mite (II), though fr same ultimate source 1 A very small coin, orig a Flemish copper coin, in popular usage a half-farthing 2 A small contribution, effort &c, the most or best one can afford or do to contribute one's mite, the widow's mite, small but willing gift of poor person 3 Any very small thing a tiny mite (of a child) mite (II), n OE mite, 'small insect', OEG miza, 'midge, fly', LG mite, cogn w Goth mautan, 'to eat', prob cogn w Lat mutuus, 'manned' See mutulate A small arachnid, of many kinds, found as parasites or in food, esp cheesemite

Mithraism, n [1 mithralizm, 2 mípreuzm], fr O Pers Mithra, in Gk Mithras, 'god of light' & -ism The worship or cult of Mithras, an Old Persian deity or demigod, regarded as the God of Light and helper of mankind mithridate, n [1 mithrdāt, 2 mípridōt], fr Mithridates VI, King of Pontus, d 63 BC, who made himself poison-proof Ancient name for an antidote against poison 'The solan drugs or Mithridate' (Marlowe) mitigate, vb trans [1 mitigāt, 2 mitigēt], fr Lat mitigāt (um), PP type of mitigāre, 'to make soft, tender, to tame, pacify, calm, soothe', fr mitis, 'mild, gentle, calm', etymol unknown a To reduce intensity of, alleviate to mitigate pain, suffering, grief, anger &c, b to make milder, reduce severity of to mitigate a punishment mitigation, n [1 mitigāshun, 2 mitigēshun] Preco & -ion 1 Act of mitigating, state of being mitigated 2 Abatement, alleviation, extenuation, specif (law) mitigation of damages, a lowering of damages to be assessed by a jury mitigatory, adj [1 mitigāturi, 2 mitigēt-] See mitigate & -ory Tending to mitigate mitosis, n [1 mitōsis, 2 mitōusis] Modern scientific concocted word, fr Gk mitos, 'thread', etymol doubtful, & -osis (biol) The more usual method of division of animal and plant cells mitotic, adj [1 mitōtik, 2 mitōtīk] Preco & -ic Pertaining to mitosis mitrailleuse, n [1 mētriyúz, 2 mítrayúž], fr Fr mitraille, 'small missiles, grape shot', in O Fr 'small coins', fr myte, 'small coin' See mite (I) A form of machine gun, consisting of a collection of breech loading rifle barrels, arranged to fire bullets in succession or simultaneously mitral, adj [1 mitral, 2 mitral] See next word & -al (anat) Mitral valve, one of the valves of the heart, so called from its shape mitre (I), n [1 mīter, 2 maitə] Fr, fr Lat mitra, 'cap, turban', as worn by Asiatics, & by women & effeminate men in Rome, fr Gk mitra, 'belt, head band, fillet, chaplet', also applied to an Asiatic turban, origin doubtful 2 a (Jewish antiq) The turban or official head dress of the High

MITRE (II)

Priest, b (eccles.) official head dress of a bishop, sometimes also of certain abbots, consisting of a high conical cap of linen, divided by a cleft between back and front, with two fillets hanging from the bottom edge at the back, c (fig.) office, dignity, of a bishop to confer a mitre upon, make a bishop of. 2 (carpentry) Joint formed by bevelling the ends of two pieces of wood so that they fit exactly to form an angle mitre (II), vb trans See prec 1 (rare) To confer, bestow the mitre of a bishop upon, to make (a person) a bishop 2 To join two pieces of wood, at an angle, by a mitre mitred, adj [1 mitred, 2 mitred] mitre (I) & -ed. a Wearing a mitre, b entitled to wear a mitre mitred abbot

mitt, n [1 mit, 2 mit], abbr of next word. 1. Vitten 2. (slang) a (pl) Boxing gloves, b (sing) fist, hand.

mittens, n [1 mitn; 2 mitn], fr O Fr mitaine etymol unknown a Kind of glove with thumb but no separate fingers, worn as protection for the hand against cold or injury; b (1) a knitted woollen glove covering the palm and back of hand and the wrist, but not the thumb or fingers, worn as protection against cold, often over an ordinary glove. (11) similar glove of silk or lace formerly worn by ladies in the evening & mittimus n [1 mitmus, 2 mitmas] Lat., 'we send', 1st pers pl pres indic of mittere, 'to send' See missile a (law) A warrant committing a person to prison, b (colloq) notice of dismissal, discharge from employment.

mix, vb trans & intrans [1 miks, 2 miks] Formed fr mixed, earlier mixt, the vh does not appear before late 16th cent. A. trans 1 To mingle (things, substances) together, to combine so that the ingredients form a compound to mix wine and water, to mix acid in or with the sugar Phrs to mix a salad, to prepare and make it, to mix a poison, to prepare, compound, a poison, to mix up, (1) to mix thoroughly, to confuse, combine, mixtrically to mix up one's ideas, (11) confuse one thing with, mistake it for, another mix up one line with another 2. a To cause (persons) to come together and intermingle it does not always do to mix people of different social worlds, b (of non-material things) to combine, mingle to mix business with pleasure to mix feelings of love and envy B intrans 1 To be capable of being mixed or mingled together, to join, combine blend, with, to go well with oil and water will not mix, the colours mix well 2. (of persons) a To frequent each other's society he is good for people with different interests to mix Phr to mix in society, to frequent it b to get on well together, associate amicably pure scholars do not mix easily with those who care for nothing but sport mixed, adj [1 mikst, 2 mikst]. Earlier mixt fr O Fr mixt, fr Lat. mixt (um), P.P. type of mixere to mix, cogn w Gk. mixerai, mixisnai 'to mix, mingle', Scrt mīṣa, 'mixed' the form mixt is late & formed as if P.P. of mix. 1 Composed, compounded, blooded, of several ingredients, constituents parts, elements, kinds &c, not simple no all of one kind mixed biscuits, mixed pills &c. Phr mixed motives not completely disinterested to have mixed feelings, be partly glad, partly sorry mixed up in associated with involvement. 2 Composed of persons of different classes, ranks &c, esp. of those of unceremonious or suspicious antecedents his father's a very mixed company, assembly &c. 3 Slandered engaged in or persons of opposite sexes mixed walking, mixed double (a) lawn tennis &c. & Cor. found in mixed, muddled, incoherent you are being mixed.

mixen, n [1 mikən, 2 mikən] O.E. micen fr mican d.t., cogn w Goth mican d.t. desig. Germ. mic, 1 same base as O.E.

migan, 'to make water' See micturition, mistletoe (arabian or dial) Dung hill, manure heap mixer, n [1 mikser, 2 miksa] mix & -er a Contrivance for mixing, b person who mixes, c (colloq, U.S.A.) a person who mixes easily, and sociably with others, a sociable genial person a good, a bad, a mixer mixture, n [1 mikschur, 2 mikstʃə], fr Lat. mixtura, 'mixing' See mixed & -ure 1 Act of mixing, state of being mixed, 2 (of material things) That which is mixed, a a compound, combination, blend a mixture of real and artificial silk, of Indian and China tea &c, specif b combination of various kinds of tobacco, also called smoking mixture, c combination of several drugs in liquid, taken medicinally, a medicine, d (chem and phys) a combination of two or more substances which, however thoroughly mixed, retain unaltered their properties, as contrasted with compound 3 Combination of various feelings, emotions &c a mixture of grief and anger &c mix-up, n [1 miks up, 2 miksap] (colloq) a Confusion, muddle, b a confused fight mizzen, mizen, n [1 mizn, 2 mizn] fr Fr mizaine, 'a foresail', prob fr Ital. mezzana, 'a sail on the poop of a ship', fr L Lat mediānus, 'of or in the middle', fr Lat medius, 'middle' See mezzanine a The fore and aft sail set on the mizzen mast of a ship, b the mizzen mast.

mizzen-mast, n The aftermost mast of a three masted ship, or of a two masted vessel, as a yawl, where the foremast is the greater of the two muzzle (L), vb impers & n [1 mizl, 2 mizl] Cogn w L.G. museln, M Du muselen, 'to drizzle', cp Frs misg, 'damp' a vb To drizzle, rain in fine drops, b n, a drizzle, fine rain muzzle (II), vb intrans. Etymol unknown. (slang) To run away, sneak off, do a bolt or bunk.

mnemonic, adj & n [1 nemónik 2 nemónik], fr Gk. mnēmōnikē, 'of memory, having a good memory', fr mnēmōn, 'mindful, remembering', cp Gk. mnēsthai, 'to remember', cogn w Scrt mān, 'to remember', fr base men-*, 'to think' See mental (I) & mind. 1 adj Helping, strengthening, the memory mnemonic system, mnemonic rhymes &c 2 n pl. Mnemonics, an art of aiding the memory, b a system of rules, methods, precepts &c for helping or improving the memory moa, n [1 moa, 2 moa] Native Maori name An extinct New Zealand, flightless bird, Dimorphus &c, somewhat resembling the ostrich.

moan (I), n [1 mōn, 2 moun] M.E. mōne, fr O.E. mān*, cogn w O.E. mēnan, 'to lament, moan', fr mānyan*, M.E. mēnen, cp mean (IV) a A low, long drawn sound expressing pain or sorrow, a groan, b (poet) lament, complaint 'She made sweet moan' (Keats, Belle Dame Sans Merci) moan (II), vb trans & intrans See prec 1 trans (poet) a To lament, grieve, for they moaned their lost ones, b to utter a moan for, usually because moan one's grief, loss 2 intrans To utter a moan or sound like a moan the wounded moaned ceaselessly, the wind moans through the trees

moat n & vb trans [1 mōt, 2 mout] M.E. mōte, O Fr moite, 'embankment, dike, hill', Mod Fr moite, 'moat', cp L Lat moita, 'mound mound and ditch', the word orig meant an earth rampart including the ditch fr wh the earth was thrown up cp dike & ditch prob of Gmc origin & possibly cogn w mud 1 n A ditch or trench generally filled with water, outside the rampart or wall of a fortification 2 vb To surround with a moat dig a moat round the Moated Grange mob (I), n [1 mɒb, 2 mɒb] Shortened form of Lat mobilitas, 'the movable, excitable, crowd or rabble', in 17th & early 18th cent the full form mobile [1 móbil, móhli, 2 moubil, móhili] was used, & Swift regards mob as a rather vulgar modernism a A disorderly crowd or rabble, a mixed, promiscuous gathering or assemblage 'the mob of other Charles's days, The mob of gentlemen who wrote with ease' (Pope, 'To Augustus', 108), b the lower orders, the rabble, the masses mob law, rule dictated by the mob or masses; lynch law, c (slang) gang of pickpockets or thieves the excellent mob, gang of flashily dressed pickpockets mob (II), vb trans, fr prec To jostle, attack, in a mob or crowd, to crowd round either for attack or to applaud &c the crowd mobbed the unpopular minister, the returning soldiers were mobbed in the streets mobbish, adj [1 móhish, 2 móhif] mob (I) & -ish. Like a mob, disorderly, rowdy mob-cap, n Also mob, op Du mopmuts, 'mob cap', mop, 'a coil', muls, 'cap' A woman's head dress, consisting of a high frilled cap covering the entire head and tied under the chin mobile (I), adj [1 móbil, 2 móhail] Fr, fr Lat móbilis, 'movable', for mómbilis*, fr móvère, 'to move' See move 1 Movable, easily moved, moving easily or rapidly mobile artillery, troops &c 2 Changing easily, rapidly, constantly mobile features, active, versatile a mobile mind, changeable, fickle mobile fancies mobile (II), n [1 móhili, 2 móhili] Lat., neut sing of móbilis, as prec 1 Primum mobile, q v 2 (obs) Mob (I), q v mobility, n [1 móhiliti, 2 móhiliti] Fr. móbilité, fr Lat móbilis (em), móbilitas, 'mobility' See mobile (I) & -ity Quality, state, of being mobile, ability, capacity, for rapid and easy movement mobilization, n [1 móbilizashun, 2 móhili-azeishun] mobilize & -ation 1 Spend (mil) act of raising a fleet or army from a peace to a war footing and putting it in a state to move, fully equipped, to the seat of war 2 The making liquid or available, of money, assets, property of any kind, the bringing of money &c into circulation the mobilization of the financial resources of a country mobilize, vb trans & intrans [1 móbiliz, 2 móbiliz] Fr mobiliser, 'to make mobile' See mobile (I) & -ize A trans To make mobile or movable Specif 1 to place a navy or army or portions thereof on a war footing, furnished with full equipment, stores &c, and able to move to the seat of war 2 To render money, property &c liquid, available, to put money &c into circulation B intrans Specif, to mobilize armed forces mobocracy, n [1 móhokrasi, 2 móhokrasi], fr mob (I) & -cracy, on anal. of democracy Rule by the mob moccasin, n [1 mokasin, 2 mókasin] N Am Indian, mashin, mokashin 1 The soft leather, usually deerskin, shoe of the N American Indians 2 (zool) The popular name of two N American snakes, of similar appearance, the harmless Natrix, and esp the very venomous water-moccasin, Ancistrodon Mocha, n [1 móka, 2 móuka] Name of Arab port on the Red Sea 1 A fine variety of coffee, originally shipped from Mocha 2 A fine leather for gloves, made from the skin of the Arabian goat mocha stone, n Chalcedony, moss agate mock (I), vb trans & intrans [1 mok, 2 mok] M.E. mōken, fr O Fr mocquer, Mod Fr moguer, etymol doubtful A trans 1 To ridicule, hold up to contempt, to deride, treat with scorn and contempt 2 To render futile, defeat, defy the river mocked all our efforts to cross 3 To mimic, so as to bring into contempt, to burlesque (a person), b (fig) to delude, lure on, attract and disappoint mocked with false hopes B intrans To jeer, scoff, to express, exhibit, feelings of contempt, to deride, also mock at mock (II), n, fr preo (arohao) a (1) An act of ridicule or contempt, flout, jeer, (u) person or thing ridiculed or mocked, Phr to make a mock of, to ridicule, mock, b an imitation, mockery, travesty mock (III), adj, fr preo (only in certain combinations) Sham, false, counterfeit mock-heroic, hurling the heroic style or manner mock-majesty, mock-moderesty, mock auction, an auction where confederates of the sellers of worthless goods make fictitious bids to encourage the unwary to believe the goods are valuable, mock-moon, parascene, mock orange, the syringa, from the scent of its flowers, mock-vin, pariahon, mock-turtle (soup), soup made of calf's head to imitate real turtle soup mock, n [1 mōka, 2 mōka] mock (I) & -er One who mocks mockery, n [1 mōka, 2 mōka], fr Fr moquerie mock (I) & -ery 1 Derision, ridicule, contemptuous, scornful laughter to hold a person, thing, up to mockery 2 Object, butt, of derision, ridicule & to make a mockery of (person or thing) 3 Delusion, delusive appearance, had imitation, travesty the performance was a mockery of the great original 4 Disappointment, vain, futile, fruitless attempt all our hopes, efforts, struggles, were mockeries mocking-bird, n [1 mōking bērd, 2 mōking bād] A bird, Mimus polyglottus, resembling, and allied to, the thrush, common in the south of North America and in the West Indies, which imitates exactly the notes of other birds mockingly, adv [1 mōkingh, 2 mōkingh] mock (I) & -ing & -ly In a mocking, jeering manner, derisively, with mockery modal, adj [1 mōdal, 2 mōudel], fr Med Lat modalis, 'of or belonging to a mode', fr Lat modus, see mode, & -al 1 Of or belonging to a mode or mood, of form as opposed to essence or substance 2 (gram) Expressing mood or manner, as of verbs or particles 3 (law) Containing direction as to the mode or manner in which the terms of a document are to be carried out a modal will, bequest, legacy 4 (log) Expressing, marked by, modality modal proposition, a proposition, which affirms or denies with a qualification or modality 5 (mus) Of or belonging to any one of the modes modality, n [1 mōdalti, 2 mōdeliti] Preo & -ity State condition, quality of being modal, specif (log) the qualification of the assertion or denial of the terms of a proposition, according as they are possible, impossible, necessary, or contingent mode, n [1 mōd, 2 mōud], fr or influenced by Fr mode, 'manner, fashion, style', fr Lat modus, 'measure, manner, form', fr base *med-, 'to measure' Cp mete (II) & see meditate 1 A Manner, method, form, style, fashion, onstom, way of acting speaking, behaving &c a mode of life, b the mode, the prevailing fashion in dress, speech &c, c modes, specif, the passing, prevailing fashions in wearing apparel 2 (log) a The form in which a proposition qualifies an assertion or denial, as possibility, impossibility, necessity, or contingency, b mood 3 (mus) a Any one of the forms in the method or system of arranging the scale or octave in the Ancient Greek and mediæval ecclesiastical music, as the Lydian, Dorian, modes, authentic plagal, modes, b (mod mus) either of the two classes of keys, the major and the minor mode model (I), n [1 mōdl, 2 mōdl] fr O Fr modèle, fr Ital modello, 'pattern, mould', dimin of moa, fr Lat modus, 'measure, pattern, mode' See mode & cp mould (III) 1 A reproduction or copy in three dimensions in miniature but to scale of some object already in existence model of a ship, engine, cathedral &c, a model yacht, b a preliminary three dimensional reproduction embodying the plan from, and according to which, something is to be constructed, either in miniature or on full scale a model for a war memorial, factory &c, of a mechanical invention, a working model, one of a machine, showing the parts at work clay, wax, model, of piece of sculpture to be reproduced later in marble, bronze &c, c (colloq) a person or thing exactly resembling another the boy is a perfect model of his father 2 a (of persons or things) A standard, pattern, of excellence, an example, copy, to be followed and imitated a model of industry, discretion, beauty &c, a model of delicate construction b system, method, plan advance can be on an evolutionary or a revolutionary model, the New Model, (1) Cromwell's system of reorganizing the Parliamentary army, 1644-45, (u) his army as so reorganized 3 a A person who poses to a painter or sculptor an artist's model, b (1) a woman who wears and exhibits to customers new costumes, hats &c in a draper's or milliner's shop, a mannequin, also (u) a costume so exhibited 4 (attrib) Serving as a model or pattern to be imitated, or as a standard of excellence model behaviour, model farm, model wife model (II), v, trans, fr preo 1 To make a model of, to mould, form (something), specif a to mould (clay or other plastic material into given shape), or (something) out of clay &c, (also fig) delicately modelled features, limbs &c, b generally, to put into shape, plan out, design to model a city, park &c, to organize to model a household &c 2 a To make, plan (something) in a particular way or according to a particular design to model a garden after the manner of Kew, b to conform in behaviour, action &c to, direct one's course of action &c according to some particular principle or exemplar to model one's life according to the ideals of Christianity, to model one's manners on those of the old school Phr to model oneself (up) on a person, imitate him, take him as an example modeller, n [1 mōdeler, 2 mōdela] Preo & -or One who practises modelling, esp in clay, wax, or other plastic material modelling, n [1 mōdeling, 2 mōd(e)ling] model (II) & -ing 1 Art of the modeller 2 The act or process of working in plastic materials such as clay, wax, &c 3 Mode of representation in sculpture or painting of the three dimensions of the forms, contours, outlines, of a solid figure, the way in which this is done, shaping, moulding the exquisite modelling of Greek sculpture, (also fig) the modelling of a person's features &c moderate (I), adj [1 mōderat, 2 mōdrit], fr Lat moderatus (um), P type of moderari, 'to set bounds or a measure to, to mitigate, lessen, temper, moderate', fr modus, 'measure' See mode 1 a (of persons) Not going to extremes, keeping within reasonable bounds not violent, temperate, restrained a moderate man, moderate in temper, language, in views, policy &c, b (of actions, ideas, opinions &c) showing moderation, well-considered, measured sober moderate demands, a moderate sentence, not a severe one 2 (of quantity, amount, degree, extent &c) Not large limited, on the small side moderate means, income, height, distance, weight &c, a moderate appetite, not a large one, at moderate speed, not too fast 3 (of quality) Indifferent, fair, medium, only mediocre moderate abilities, skill, good looks, success, health moderate (II), n, fr preo A moderate person, esp in political and religious views moderate (III), v, trans & intrans [1 mōderāt, 2 mōderit], fr moderate (I) 1 trans a To restrain, keep within bounds, to render moderate, make less violent or extreme to moderate one's language, appetite, temper &c, b to temper, qualify, reduce mitigate to moderate the heat, drought, to moderate one's policy, views &c, to moderate one's demands to exercise a moderating influence on 2 intrans a To grow, become moderate, to become less violent or extreme the gale, the sea, his temper, has moderated, b to act as moderator moderately, adv [1 mōderath, 2 mōderiti] See preo & -ly In a moderate manner, not excessively, to a moderate extent or degree moderateness, n [1 mōderatnes, 2 mōderitnis] As preo & -ness State, quality, of being moderate, moderation moderation, n [1 mōderāshun, 2 mōderitshun] Fr modération, fr Lat moderatio (er) acc of moderatio, fr moderatus (um), PP type of moderare See moderate (I) & -ion 1 a State or quality of being moderate, b act of moderating 2 a Avoidance of excess in conduct, abstemiousness, temperance, Phr in moderation, moderately, b absence of extremes of temper, or violence of disposition, restraint, equability, mildness of character 3 (cap, pl) Moderations, the first public examination at Oxford University for the Bachelor of Arts degree, popularly known as Modes 4 (Presbyterian Churches) The calling of a minister by a congregation and presbytery under the presidency of the Moderator moderator, n [1 mōderātor, 2 mōderitātor] Lat, 'managor, director' See moderate (III) & -or 1 One who or that which moderates, an arbitrator, mediator, regulator, moderator lamp, lamp with a mechanism for regulating the flow of oil to the wick 2 (eccles) The presiding ecclesiastical officer at the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland 3 a An examiner for Moderations at Oxford University, b one of the two superintending officials at the examination for the mathematical tripos at Cambridge University moderators, n [1 mōderātorshup, 2 mōderitātorshup] Preo & -shup Office of a Moderator, in Church of Scotland modern (I), adj [1 mōdern, 2 mōden] 1 Lat modernus, 'modern', formed fr modus, 'just now, lately', fr modus, 'measure, mode' See mode 1 a Belonging to, characteristic of, the present time, recent modern times, modern discovery, poetry &c, b new-fashioned, not old-fashioned or antiquated, up to date modern ideas, fashions &c 2 a Contrasted with classical modern languages, modern school, side, that division of a school in which science, higher mathematics, modern languages &c are taught, b (specif, philol) designating the later period of linguistic development, extending from a given approximate date to the present time Modern English (from early 18th century onwards), contrasted with Ancient, or Mediæval Modern History, history of Europe from the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks (1453) modern (II), n, fr preo A person living in modern times, b a person who holds modern ideas, one who is in sympathy with the beliefs, feelings and ideals of recent times, or of the present day modernism, n [1 mōdernizm, 2 mōdenizm] modern (I) & -ism 1 Modern, present day, usage thought, customs, practice &c, a particular example of this 2 (usually cap) The system and methods adopted by a certain advanced school of theologians and historians who attempt to state or restate the dogmas of Christianity in the light of modern criticism and thought, and to test the credibility of the historical facts recorded in the Old and New Testaments by applying to them the results of modern textual and historical research modernist, n [1 mōdern-ist, 2 mōden-ist] modern & -ist a A follower, admirer, or believer in, modern ways, thought, views &c, specif b (cap) one who applies the methods of Modernism in religion modernity, n [1 mōdermiti, 2 mōdenititi] modern & -ity State, quality, of being modern modernness modernization, n [1 mōdernizāshun, 2 mōdenaizāshun] See next word & -ation a Act of modernizing or making modern, act of bringing up to date, b state of being modernized.

modernize vb trans [1 moderniz, 2 mōdēn aɪz], fr modern (I) & -ize To make, render, modern, to adapt to modern usage or for present-day use modernly, adv [1 mōdēnlɪ, 2 mōdēnlɪ] modern & -ly In a modern manner modernness, n [1 mōdērnnes, 2 mōdērnnes] modern & -ness State, quality, of being 'modern', modernity modest, adj [1 mōdest, 2 mōdɪst] fr Fr modeste, fr Lat modestus, 'measured, moderate', fr modus, 'measure, mode' See mode & moderate 1 Moderate, not excessive modest expenditure, demands, hopes, requirements, pretensions &c 2 Having and expressing a moderate opinion of one's own abilities and qualities, not boastful, arrogant or self assertive, diffident, humble, unpretentious really great men are essentially modest, modest behaviour 3 (chiefly of women) Chaste in behaviour, speech, bearing, dress &c; decent, seemly modestly, adv Prec & -ly In a modest manner modesty, n [1 mōdestɪ, 2 mōdɪstɪ] Fr modestie, Lat modestia As prec & -y Quality of being modest 1 Unpretentiousness, humility, unwillingness to put oneself forward, lowly opinion of one's own talents, virtues &c, reverse of boastfulness, conceit, self-assertiveness 2 Female virtue of chastity, purity of sentiment, decency, seemliness, decorum, in speech, behaviour, dress &c 3 Proper sense of shame, delicacy of feeling modicum, n [1 mōdɪkəm, 2 mōdɪkəm] Lat neut sing of modicus, 'moderate', fr modus, 'measure' See mode A small amount or quantity satisfied with a modicum of sleep, one gets but a modicum of pleasure from such a book modifiability, n [1 mōdɪfɪəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 mōdɪfɪəbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity Capacity of being modified.

modifiable, adj [1 mōdɪfɪəbəl, 2 mōdɪfɪəbəl] modifi & -able Capable of being, liable to be, modified modification, n [1 mōdɪfɪkəʃən, 2 mōdɪfɪkəʃən] Lat modificatio (em), modificatio, 'the making modified or moderate', fr modificare See modify 1 Act or process of modifying, state of being modified. 2 A Result of such process, change, alteration, b specif (i) change wrought in a vowel sound by mutation, (ii) graphic expression of this e.g. d modificatory, adj [1 mōdɪfɪkətərɪ, 2 mōdɪfɪkətərɪ] As prec & -ory Modifying, qualifying modify, vb trans [1 mōdɪfɪ, 2 mōdɪfaɪ], fr Fr modifier, fr Lat modificare, 'to make moderate, modify', fr modus, 'measure' See mode & -ly 1 To moderate, make less severe, to limit, lessen to modify demands, one's tone &c 2 To change, qualify, alter to modify the terms in a document, to modify one's ideas, opinions &c 3 (popular gram.) To change a vowel sound, through the influence of one which follows, to cause to undergo vowel mutation, such a Phr as the modified & in Bühne may refer either to the sound change, or to the graphic representation of it by () placed over the letter modillion, n [1 mōdɪljən, 2 mōdɪljən] Fr, fr Ital modiglione fr Lat. See modulus (archit) A decorated projection or bracket beneath the cornice of an entablature of the Corinthian Order modish, adj [1 mōdɪʃ, 2 mōdɪʃ] mode & -ish According to the mode or fashion, fashionable modishly, adv Prec & -ly Fashionably modishness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being fashionable modiste, n [1 mōdɪstɪ, 2 mōdɪstɪ] Fr, 'dress maker' fr mode, 'fashion' see mode, & -ist A dressmaker, milliner modular, adj [1 mōdʊlər, 2 mōdʊlə] module & -ar Of or pertaining to a module or modulus modulate, vb trans & intrans [1 mōdʊlət, 2 mōdʊlətɪ], fr Lat modulāt (um), PP type of modulār, 'to measure off, regulate, measure rhythmically', fr modulus, dimin of modus, 'measure' See mode & modulus 1 trans a To regulate, adapt, adjust, b to vary, change, inflect (voice, tone, pitch &c) 2 intrans (mus) To pass from one key to another modulation, n [1 mōdʊləʃən, 2 mōdʊləʃən] Lat modulation (em), rhythmic measure' See prec & -ion a Variation, inflexion of voice, tone, movements, in intensity, or rhythm, specif b (elect) the varying of a continuous oscillating current in accordance with the varying frequency and amplitudes of sound waves, as in wireless telephony modulator, n [1 mōdʊlətər, 2 mōdʊlətərɪ] Lat, 'one who measures rhythmically, a musical director' See modulate & -ar 1 One who, that which, modulates 2 (mus) A chart or map showing relations between tones and scales in the tonic sol fa system module, n [1 mōdʊl, 2 mōdʊl] Fr, fr Lat See next word 1 A unit or standard of measurement, as for the flow of water 2 (archit) A unit of measurement for determining the proportions of a building, as half the diameter of a column at the base of the shaft modulus, n, pl moduli [1 mōdʊləs, li, 2 mōdʊləs, laɪ] Lat, 'small measure', dimin of modus, 'measure' See mode (math and phys) A constant multiplier or coefficient modus, n, pl modi [1 mōdʊs, mōdɪ, 2 mōdʊs, mōdɪ] Lat, 'standard by which anything is measured, a measure' See mode Method, manner, mode modus operandi, method, system, of working or operating, plan of operations, modus vivendi, mode, method, of living, esp of a scheme or arrangement under which two parties can temporarily carry on while a dispute is being settled molette, n [1 mōlet, 2 mōlet] Fr, fr Ital moleta Cp mephitic a A fissure in the earth allowing noxious gases to escape, b discharge of noxious gas from the earth moḡḡḡḡ, n [1 mōḡḡḡ, 2 mōḡḡḡ] Hind moḡḡḡḡ, fr Arab moḡḡḡḡ, fr faḡḡḡḡ, 'to divide, separate' The rural, country, districts in India, as distinguished from the towns, residences, or seats of government

Mogul, n [1 mōḡl, 2 mōḡl] Pers mogul, 'Mongol' One of the Mongolian invaders of India, follower of Baber or Jenghiz Khan the Great Mogul, the Emperor of Delhi, of the Mogul dynasty which governed all or part of Hindustan from 16th cent till the Indian Mutiny monair, n [1 mōbār, 2 mōbeɪ] Earlier moelave, form influenced by hair, fr Arah mulhayyah 'a choice hair cloth', fr lhayyara, to choose, select' See also moire 1 a The fine, silky hair of the Angora goat, b the fine camel cloth made from this 2 Imitation of this made of a mixture of wool and cotton

Mohammedan, adj & n [1 mōhəmedən, 2 mōhəmedən] Mohammed, fr name of the Prophet d 632, in Arab, Muhammad, lit 'praiseworthy', & -an. 1 adj Pertaining to the religion, law, customs founded by Mohammed 2 n A follower of Mohammed, a Moslem Mohammedanism, n [1 mōhəmedənɪzəm, 2 mōhəmedənɪzəm] Prec & -ism. System of religion and law founded by Mohammed, Islam

Mohammedanize vb trans [1 mōhəmedənɪz, 2 mōhəmedənɪz] See prec & -ize To bring under the influence of Mohammedanism

Moharram, Muharram, n [1 mōhəram, 2 mōbərəm] Arah muharram, 'sacred forbidden' a The first month of the Moham medan year, b a festival held by the Shiite sect in the early part of this month, in remembrance of the deaths of Hosein and Ali

Mohawk, n [1 mōhəwk, 2 mōhəwk] Native name 1 a Member of a tribe of North American Indians, b their language 2 (skating) A stroke from an edge on one foot to the same edge on the other foot in the opposite direction

Mohock, n [1 mōhək, 2 mōhək] Variant of preo A member of a gang of ruffianly young men of fashion, who infested the streets of London in the early part of 18th cent and molested citizens mohur, n [1 mōhər, 2 mōhə] Hind, fr Pers muhur, 'seal, coin' A gold coin current in India until 1899, worth 15 rupees moidore, n [1 mōɪdər, 2 mōɪdər] fr Port moeda d'ouro, 'money, coin of gold', fr Lat monēla, 'money' (see monēt (II)), aurum, 'gold' (see aurum) A former Portuguese gold coin, worth 15 rupees, or about 27s moisty, n [1 mōɪst, 2 mōɪst] fr A-Fr moylé, Fr moité, fr Lat medietati (em), medietas, 'the middle, a half', fr medius, 'middle' See medium a The half, a half share, usually legal, of property &c, b either of two parts into which something is divided moil, vb intrans [1 mōɪl, 2 mōɪl] ME moillen, 'to wet, trudge through mud and wet', O Fr moiller, Mod Fr moiller, 'to moisten', fr stem moil, of Lat mollis, 'soft' See mollify To toil, drudge, usually in Phr to toil and moil moire, n [1 mwar, mōɪr, 2 mwa, mōɪ] Fr, variant of mohair a Mohair, b a watered silk or other textile, moire antique, a heavy rich watered silk, c metal surfaces with cloudy, watery appearance moiré, adj [1 mwaɪrə, 2 mwaɪrə] Fr, PP of moirer, 'to water silk', fr preo Watered, of silk or other textile material moist, adj [1 mōɪst, 2 mōɪst] ME moiste, 'fresh, new', of fruit, ale &c, O Fr moiste, moile, 'wet, moist', etymol doubtful, cp perh Lat mustum, 'new wine, must', or moedus, 'mouldy, musty' See must (II) & mucus Damp, humid, not dry, rather wet, moist colours, water colours put up in the form of a paste, moist sugar, sugar of pale brown colour, semi crystallized and sticky moisten, vb trans & intrans [1 mōɪzn, 2 mōɪzn] Prec & -en a trans To render moist, wet slightly, cover, impregnate, with moisture, b intrans, (rare) to become moist moisture, n [1 mōɪschər, 2 mōɪstʃə], fr O Fr moisteur, Mod Fr moisteur See moist & -ure Dampness, humidity, watery vapour condensed on a surface moistureless, adj [1 mōɪschərləs, 2 mōɪstʃərləs] Prec & -less Without moisture, dry moke, n [1 mōk, 2 mōk] Etymol un known (slang) A donkey molar (I), adj & n [1 mōlər, 2 mōlə], fr Lat molaris, 'of or belonging to a mill, grinding, of mill stones and teeth', fr mola mill, millstone' See mill (I) 1 adj a Grinding, able to grind, specif, of the back teeth, the molar teeth, b nf, relating, near to the molar teeth molar glands 2 n A molar tooth, grinder molar (II), adj, fr Lat mōlēs, 'mass', etymol doubtful possibly cogn w Gk mōlēs, 'effort', O HG moat, Goth (af) maia, 'weary' (mech) Of or pertaining to, acting on or by, mass or masses, contrasted with molecular molasses, n, pl as sing [1 mōləsɪz, 2 mōləsɪz], fr Port melaço, op Fr melasse, Span melazo, fr L Lat mellaceus, 'like honey, honey sweet', fr mel, mellis, 'honey' See melliferous The thick non-crystallizable dark syrup which drains from raw sugar during manufacture, thickest kind of treacle mold Alternative spelling for mould mole (I), n [1 mōɪ, 2 mōɪ] OE māl, O HG meil, Goth mail, 'spot, blemish', A dark coloured spot or blemish on the skin a small pigmented naevus.

sovereign, and is regarded as synonymous with king & 2 (fig) Person, or other living thing, regarded as the chief or master, or as being pre eminent, of commanding size & in a given place or area 'I am monarch of all I survey' (Cowper 'Alex Selkirk'), the monarch of the forest, oak tree, monarch of the glen, the stag 3 Large orange-brown butterfly whose wings are veined and bordered with black monarchal, adj [1 monárkɪl, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪl] Prec & -al (poet) Of, hefiting a monarch or sovereign, royal, regal 'Salan with monarchal pride' (Milton, 'P L' II 427 8) monarchian, n [1 monárkɪən, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪən] L Lat monarchianus, monarch & -ian A supporter of monarchianism monarchianism, n [1 monárkɪənɪzəm, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪənɪzəm] See prec & -ism A Christian heresy of the 2nd and 3rd cent A D, which 'confounded the persons', and opposed the doctrine of the Trinity as infringing strict monotheism or the supremacy of a single God monarchic, adj [1 monárkɪk, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪk] monarch & -ic Of, belonging to, having the characteristics or attributes of, a monarch or monarchy, monarchic, royal, regal monarchical, adj [1 monárkɪkɪl, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪkɪl] Prec & -al Monarchic monarchically, adv Prec & -ly Like a monarch, regally, royally monarchism, n [1 monárkɪzəm, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪzəm] monarch & -ism System, principle, of monarchy monarchist, n [1 monárkɪst, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪst] Prec & -ist One who supports a monarchy, or the principles of monarchy, a royalist monarchy, n [1 monárki, 2 mɒnɜːrkɪ] Fr monarchie, fr Lat monarchia, fr Gk monarkhía, 'monarchy' See monarch & -y 1 The supreme rule or sovereignty of a single person or monarch 2 A state ruled by a single sovereign or monarch 3 System of rule by a single sovereign or monarch monastery, n [1 monastɪ, 2 mɒnastɪ] fr L Eccles Lat monasterium, fr L Eccles Gk monastērion, fr monastēs, 'living alone', hence later 'a monk', fr monastēs, 'to live alone', fr mónos, 'alone', see mono- See also monaster & monk. House used as the regular abode of a community of monks, rarely used of house for religious women, which is usually called a nunnery or convent monastic, adj [1 mɒnastɪk, 2 mənastɪk] fr L Gk monastikos, 'living alone' See prec & -ic 1 Connected with, belonging to, a monastery or monasteries, or to monks and a secluded religious life under vows monastic rule, institutions & monastic vows, those taken by monks 2 (by extension) Secluded, austere to lead a monastic life monastically, adv [1 mɒnastɪkəli, 2 mənastɪkəli] Prec & -al & -ly In a monastic way or fashion, like a monk monasticism, n [1 mɒnastɪkɪzəm, 2 mənastɪkɪzəm] monastic & -ism The monastic life and system

Monday, n [1 mʌndɪ, 2 mɒndɪ] OE Mōnandæg moon & day The second day of the week, the day following Sunday Black Monday, the first day when real work begins at school, Mad Monday, (Stook Exchange) the day after the weekly closing on Saturday, characterized, during a boom, by an enormous rush of business

Mondayish, adj [1 mʌndɪʃ, 2 mɒndɪʃ] Prec & -ish (colloq) As one is supposed to feel on Monday morning, when work begins again, disinclined to work monde, n [mɒnd] or Anglized to [1 mɒnd, 2 mɒnd] Fr, fr Lat mundus, 'the world' See mundane The world of society or fashion, also beau monde, contrasted with demi monde monetary, adj [1 mʌnetəri, 2 mɒnɜːtəri] Lat monētarius, 'of or belonging to a mint', fr monēta, 'mint, money' See mint (II) & cp money 1 Of, relating to the coinage or currency a monetary unit, conversion, union & 2 Of or relating to money, pecuniary, financial in monetary difficulties monetization, n [1 mʌnetɪzəʃən, 2 mənɜːtaɪzəʃən] See next word & -ation. Act of monetizing monetize, vb trans [1 mʌnetɪz, 2 mənɜːtaɪz], fr Lat monēta, 'money', see mint (II), & -ize To coin into money, specif, to give a standard value to a metal, e.g. silver, in the currency of a country money, n [1 mʌni, 2 mɒni] O Fr monete, Mod Fr monnaie, fr Lat monēta, 'mint, money' See mint (II) 1 Gold, silver, or other metal coined under State authority to serve as currency, coin or coins in general 2 A promissory or other note issued by the State or by an authorized bank, and available as currency paper money 3 (pl, legal or archaic) Sums of money monies belonging to the estate 4 (econ) Any recognized medium of exchange and measure of value, as the cowrie shells of West Africa, the wroo bars of ancient Sparta & Money of account, a term of value or price, not currency passing from hand to hand, as the English guinea 5 Wealth, property, one's fortune generally to have plenty of money, to lose all one's money Phrs to make money, acquire wealth, to marry money, marry a rich person, time is money, every moment well spent is valuable, one's money's worth, full value for expenditure money-bag, n 1 A bag for holding money, b a rich, stingy person 2 (pl, fig, colloq) Riches, wealth money bill, n A bill, originating in the House of Commons, which involves the expenditure or the raising of money for public purposes money-box, n A box with a narrow slit in it for holding coins saved and put aside money-changer, n [1 mʌni tʃeɪŋə, 2 mənɜːtʃeɪŋə] One who changes money from one currency into another at a fixed rate of exchange moneyed, adj [1 mʌnid, 2 mənɪd] money & -ed (only attrib) Endowed with, possessed of, a considerable amount of money, wealthy a moneyed man moneyer, n [1 mʌniə, 2 mɒniə] O Fr monnoier See money & -er One who coins or mints money money-grubber, n One who is solely bent on accumulating money, an avaricious, miserly person money-grubbing, n [1 mʌni grʌbɪŋ, 2 mənɜː grʌbɪŋ] Sordid devotion to the accumulation of wealth money-lender, n A person who makes a business of lending money at interest, generally at a usurious rate money-market, n The market or field of operations where financial business on a large scale is conducted, the body of financial interests which determines the rate of interest on capital lent money-order, n An order for the payment of money, issued by a post-office, enabling a person who purchases one to send money to another to whom it is payable at a specified post-office money-spinner, n Popular name of a small red garden spider, which is supposed to bring good luck moneywort, n [1 mʌniwɜːt, 2 mənɜːwɜːt] money & wort (I) A creeping herb, with round, opposed leaves and single yellow flower, the Creeping Jenny monger, n [1 mʌŋgə, 2 mæŋgə] OE mangere, 'merchant', cp mangan, 'to deal, trade in', fr Lat mango, 'a dealer who polishes up and sets off his wares, a 'lave dealer', borrowed fr Gk magganon, 'any means of tricking, bewitching, a juggler's apparatus', also magganeuēin, 'to cheat by sleight of hand, cogn w M Ir meng, 'deceit', O Prussian manga, 'courtesan', Scrt manjū, 'charming' A dealer, trafficker, trader, now usually preceded by qualifying noun ironmonger, cosmetomonger, cheese-monger, b (in derogatory sense, also an unscrupulous trafficker) newsmonger, scandal-monger & 0

Mongol, n & adj [1 mɒŋɡɒl, 2 mɒŋɡɒl] Native name, usually taken to be fr mong, 'brave' 1 n One of a yellow skinned, black haired race inhabiting a wide area, Mongolia, of Central Asia 2 adj Of, pertaining to, this race

Mongolian, adj & n [1 mɒŋɡəliən, 2 mɒŋɡəliən] Mongolia & -an. 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Mongolia or the Mongols 2 n a A Mongol, b Mongolian language mongoloid, adj [1 mɒŋɡəloɪd, 2 mɒŋɡəloɪd] Mongol & -oid Resembling, of the same type as, a Mongol or the Mongols mongoose, n, pl mongooses [1 mɒŋɡʊs, 2 mɒŋɡʊs], fr Tamil mangus 1 A small carnivorous, ferret like animal, the ichneumon of India, allied to the civets, famous for its power of killing snakes and other vermin. 2 A lemur of Madagascar mongrel, n & adj [1 mʌŋɡrəl, 2 mæŋɡrəl]. Also spelt mongrel, etymol doubtful, prob fr monger*, fr OE mengan, 'to mix' See mingle 1 n a A dog of mixed, uncertain breed, b (as term of contempt) any other animal, or a human being, of mixed race or origin, a cross-breed between varieties of the same species 2 adj Of mixed breeding or origin mongrel dog, race & 0 mongrelism, n [1 mʌŋɡrəlɪzəm, 2 mæŋɡrəlɪzəm] Prec & -ism Condition, state, of being a mongrel mongrelize, vb trans [1 mʌŋɡrəlɪz, 2 mæŋɡrəlɪz] See prec & -ize To make a mongrel of, to give a mongrel character to mongrelly, adj [1 mʌŋɡrəlɪ, 2 mæŋɡrəlɪ] mongrel & -ly Mongrel monial, n [1 mɒniəl, 2 mɒniəl] O Fr See monillon (archit) A monillon moniform, adj [1 mɒniɪfɔːm, 2 mɒniɪfɔːm] Lat monile, 'necklace', cp Gk mannos, 'necklace worn by Celtic people', Scrt man, 'gem, pearl', & cp mane (hot and zool) Jointed and beaded as stems or roots of certain plants, antennae of insects & 0 monism, n [1 mɒnɪzəm, 2 mɒnɪzəm], fr Gk mónos, 'single, alone', see mono-, & -ism (philos) The doctrine which attributes all the phenomena of the universe, both of mind and matter, to a single principle, contrasted with dualism and pluralism monist, n [1 mɒnɪst, 2 mɒnɪst] See prec & -ist A believer in monism monistic, adj [1 mɒnɪstɪk, 2 mɒnɪstɪk] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, monism monition, n [1 mɒnɪʃən, 2 mɒnɪʃən], fr Lat monitiō (em), monitio, 'a reminding, advice, warning', fr monēre, 'to call to mind, advise, warn', fr base seen in Lat ment-(em), 'mind' See mental (I) & mind 1 A cautionary intimation or notice, warning, caution 2 (eccles law) Summons, notice, to appear, an episcopal order to do or refrain from doing something monitor, n [1 mɒnɪtə, 2 mɒnɪtə] Lat, 'one who reminds or admonishes, counsellor, instructor, teacher' See prec & -or 1 a One who reminds, advises, instructs, or warns, b specif, a senior pupil in a school who has special disciplinary powers, a prefect 2 (naut) A shallow-draught, heavily armoured slow moving vessel, carrying heavy guns for use in coast defence, so called from the name of the first vessel of this type, designed by Captain Ericsson, in the American Civil War, 1862 3 (zool) A member of a genus, Varanus, of large lizards of Africa, Australia, and S Asia monitorial, adj [1 mɒnɪtɪəriəl, 2 mɒnɪtɪəriəl] Prec & -ial 1 Admonitory, warning, admonishing 2 Connected with, pertaining to, school monitor or monitors the monitorial system, monitorial duties monitorship, n [1 mɒnɪtəʃɪp, 2 mɒnɪtəʃɪp] monitor & -ship Office, position, of a school monitor monitory, adj & n [1 mónitori, 2 mónistéri], fr Lat monitōrius, 'warning' monitor & -y 1 adj Warning, admonitory a letter monitory 2 n A letter giving an admonition or warning from an ecclesiastical superior monitress, n [1 mónitres, 2 móitris], fr monitress & -ess A female school monitor monk, n [1 mungk, 2 mapk] OE munuc, fr Lat monachus, 'monk', fr Gk monakhos, 'living alone, solitary', also ns n, 'monk', fr mónos, 'alone', see mono- 1 (hist) One who left the world and lived alone and apart, as in the desert, in religious exercises, a hermit, anchorite 2 a Member of a Christian religious Order, living according to the Rule of the Order and under vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, in a community or monastery, contrasted with a frier, b a member of a similar religious community among the Buddhists of Tibet, the Senussi Moslems of the Eastern Sahara &c monkery, n [1 múngkri, 2 mápkri] Preo & -ery Term of disparagement, used esp by aggressive Protestants, a the monastic life and system, b monks in general, c a monastery monkey (I), n [1 múngki, 2 mápkí] Etymol doubtful, LG has monke(n), apparently a dimin, op M Ital monacchio Ital monna for madonna, used as form of address to a woman, hence, 'an old woman, monkey', a connexion w monk has also been suggested as origin 1 A term applied to any member of the Primates, or highest order of mammals, other than man or the lemurs, but usually and popularly restricted to the small, long-tailed members, as distinguished from the large, tailless apes Phr (slang) to get, put, one's monkey up, to get, or be made, angry or annoyed 2 A mischievous, mimicking, playful young person, an imp, a rogue 3 Of various parts of machinery &c, e g the head of a pile driver, a melting-pot in glass making &c 4 (slang) £500 monkey (II), v, intrans & trans, fr preo a intrans To play tricks, to meddle, interfere, also monkey with, monkey about with, to fiddle about, play tricks, fool, with, disturb, injure, b trans, to upset, injure, by unskillful, mischievous handling monkey-bread, n The fruit of the baobab monkey-engine, n The engine which lifts the monkey or head of a pile driver monkey-flower, n A plant of the genus Mimulus, so called from the flower, which has the appearance of a monkey's face monkeyish, adj [1 múngkush, 2 mápkish] Preo & -ish Like a monkey, mischievous monkey-jacket, n A short, tight-fitting jacket, worn by sailors monkey-puzzle, n The Chile pine, Araucaria imbricata, used as a formal ornamental tree, it has broad, prickly spines growing at intervals down the branches, which would make it impossible for a monkey to climb it monkey-wrench, n A wrench or spanner with sliding, adjustable grip or jaw monkfish, n [1 múngkfish, 2 mápkfish] Popular name of the eel-fish or shark-ray, so named from its appearance monkhound, n [1 mungkhound, 2 mápkhound] monk & -hood A Condition, character, of a monk, b monks, considered as a body monkish, adj [1 mungkish, 2 mápkish] monk & -ish Of or pertaining to, characteristic of, a monk or monks, or the monastic life monk's-hood, n [1 mungks hood, 2 mápkhs hud] A plant, Aconitum napellus, with dark-purple, hood shaped flowers mono- (mon- before vowels), pref, fr Gk mónos, 'alone, single', used in this sense geographically, b (chem) as signifying the presence of a single atom or combining equivalent Op w mónos, Gk mónos, 'isolated' (fr manués), Sort mandl, 'a little', Lith. meilias, 'mediocre' monobasio, adj [1 mónobásik, 2 móna- bésik] mono- & basio, (chem) Of an acid having one hydrogen atom replaceable by a basio atoom monocarpic, adj [1 mónokarpik, 2 móna-lápkik] mono- & Gk lárp (ós), 'fruit', see carpel, & -ic (bot) Bearing fruit once and then dying, as an annual plant monocarpous, adj [1 mónokárpus, 2 móna-kárpas] See preo & -ous (bot) Bearing its seed in a single ovary monochord, n [1 mónokord, 2 mónékód], fr Lat monochordon, Gk monókhordon monno- & chord An instrument, having a single string or chord stretched across a scale or rule, used for measuring musical sounds monochromatic, adj [1 mónókrómáti, 2 mónókrómáti] mono- & chromatic See also next word a 'Having only one colour, showing light rays of only one colour, b drawn, painted, in monochrome monochrome, n [1 mónokróma, 2 móna-kroum] Fr, fr Gk monókhromos, 'of one colour', fr mono-, & khroma, 'colour', see chroma A drawing or painting in a single colour or tint or in different shades or tints of the same colour monocle, n [1 mónokl, 2 mónékl] Fr, 'single eyeglass' See monocular A single glass worn fixed into eye socket monoclinial, adj [1 mónoklínal, 2 móna-klinal] mono-, Gk klin (ein), 'to bend', see clinal, & -al (geol) Of strata, having a single dip or fold monocotyledon, n [1 mónokotilédon, 2 móna-kotilédon] mono- & cotyledon (bot) A plant having a single cotyledon or seed-leaf, as grasses, lilies, palms &c monocotyledonous, adj [1 mónokotilédonus, 2 mónokotilédonas] Preo & -ous (bot) Having a single cotyledon monocular, adj [1 mónokúlar, 2 mónikjula], fr L Lat monoculus, 'one eyed, a one eyed man', hybrid word See mono- & ocular Having one eye, fitted or adapted for vision by one eye.

monocyclic, adj [1 mónosiklik, 2 móna-sáiklik] mono- & cyclic Having a single cycle monodic, adj [1 mónodik, 2 mónodik], fr Gk monódikos See monody & -ic a Of or pertaining to, resembling, a monody, b (mus) of, pertaining to monody, for one voice, homophonic monodist, n [1 monodist, 2 móedist] monody & -ist Writer, composer, of monodies monodrama, n [1 monodráma, 2 móna-dráma] mono- & drama A dramatic piece for performance by a single person monody, n [1 monodi, 2 mónedi], fr Lat, monódia, fr Gk monódia, fr monódiós, 'singing alone', mónos, 'alone', see mono-, & diós, 'song', see nde 1 An ode or song sung by a single actor in a Greek tragedy, o dirge, lament, funeral ode 2 A poem in which the writer mourns for a dead friend, e g Milton's Lycidas 3 (mus) Method of composition in which the melody is sustained by a single voice monoeconomic, adj [1 mónésikus, 2 mónisikus] monno- & Gk oik(ós), 'house, dwelling', see first element of economy, & -ous (bot and zool) Having both female and male sex organs in the same individual monogamist, n [1 monógamist, 2 món-gamist] monogamy & -ist One who practises monogamy monogamous, adj [1 monogamus, 2 món-gamés] See preo & -ous 1 Having one wife or husband at a time 2 (zool) Mating with a single female or male at a time monogamy, n [1 monógami, 2 mónógami] Lat monogamia, Gk monogamia, fr monogamos, 'marrying once or a single time', fr mono-, & gamos, 'marriage', see gamo- a The principle and practice of having a single husband or wife at a time, contrasted with only one person at one time, contrasted with polygamy and polyandry, b (hist) practice of marrying only once during life monogenesis, n [1 mónogénesis, 2 mónou-dzenisis] mono- & genesis 1 Single-ness of origin 2 (biol) a Doctrine that all living organisms have sprung from a single cell, b reproduction by a single parent, asexual reproduction monogenetic, adj [1 mónogénetik, 2 mónou-dzénetik] monno- & genetic Reproduced by a single parent, asexually reproduced monogenism, n [1 monogénism, 2 móni-dzénizem] Next word & -ism Doctrine that all the peoples of the world have descended from a single pair of individuals monogeny, n [1 mónogéni, 2 móodizéni] mono- & -gony 1 Descent of man from a single pair of parents 2 (biol) Monogenesis monoglot, adj [1 mónoglot, 2 mónaglot] mono- & Gk glóti, glóssa, 'tongue', see gloss (III), formed on anal of polyglot Speaking one language only monogram, n [1 monogram, 2 mónogram] L Lat. monogramma, L Gk monogramma, of the Christian monogram See mono- & gram A combination of two or more letters intertwined so as to form a device or cipher, the Christian monogram, &, the first two letters in Greek of the name of Christ monogrammatic, adj [1 mónogrammáti, 2 mónogrammáti] See preo & -ic In the form of a monogram monograph, n & v, trans [1 mónograhí, 2 mónagráfi] mono- & -graph 1 n A book, pamphlet, or treatise embodying results of investigation on a single subject, or on a single aspect of a subject 2 v, trans (rare) To treat of, deal with, a subject in a monograph monographer, n [1 mónográfer, 2 móna-gráfi] Preo & -or A writer of a monograph monographio(al), adj [1 mónográfi(i), 2 mónagráfi(i)] monograph & -ic & -al Of the nature of a monograph, treated in a monograph monographically, adv Preo & -ly In the form of a monograph monographist, n [1 monograhíst, 2 mónagráfiíst] monograph & -ist Monographer monogynous, adj [1 mónogynus, -inus, 2 mónogynas, -dínas] See next word & -ous 1 (bot) Having a single pistil 2 (zool) Mating with one single female monogyny, n [1 mónogini, -ini, 2 mónógym, -gyni] mono- & -gyny Habit, custom, of mating with one female monolatry, n [1 monolátri, 2 mónolátri] mono- & Gk latreia, 'service, worship' See -latry The worship of one only out of several gods whose existence is recognized, distinguished from monolatrism monolith, n [1 móoolith, 2 móoolip], fr Lat monolithus, Gk monolithos, 'made of a single stone'. See mono- & litho- A pillar, column, monument, consisting of a single block of stone monolithic, adj [1 mónolithik, 2 mónelipik] Preo & -ic Consisting of, having the character of, a monolith a monolithic monument monologist, n [1 mónolójist, 2 mónoládist] See monologue & -ist a One who monologues, one who monopolizes all the conversation, b a monologist monologize, v, intrans [1 mónolójiz, 2 mónoládistiz] See preo & -ize To soliloquize, to speak in monologues, to speak at great length in company, so as to monopolize the conversation monologizer, n [1 mónolójizer, 2 mónoládistiz] Preo & -er One who monologues monologue, n [1 mónolog, 2 mónalóg] Fr, fr Gk monólogos, 'speaking alone' See mono- & -logos 1 a A form of dramatic composition for one performer only, b a long speech in a play by a single actor 2 A long speech by a single person esp one that interferes with general conversation monologist, n [1 mɒnɒlədʒɪst, 2 mɒnəloʊdʒɪst] Prec & -ist a speaker, writer, of dramatic monologues, b person given to holding forth in society, and monopolizing the conversation monomania, n [1 mɒnəmənɪə, 2 mɒnə-mɛniə] mono- & mania a An obsession of the mind by a single idea or interest, a craze b such an obsession developed to the point of mental derangement monomaniac, n [1 mɒnəmənɪæk, 2 mɒnə-mɛniæk] mono- & maniac One suffering from a monomania monomaniacal, adj [1 mɒnəmənɪəkl, 2 mɒnə-mɛniəkl] Prec & -al a Of the nature of a monomania, b suffering from monomania monomorph, adj [1 mɒnɒmɔːf, 2 mɒnɒmɔːf] mono- & nom, 'name', q v under nominal, formed on anal. of binomial (alg) Consisting of a single term or expression.

monomorphous, monomorphous, adj [1 mɒnɒmɔːfɪk, mɔːfɪs 2 mɒnəmɔːfɪk, mɔːfɪs] mono- & Gk. morph (f), 'shape, form', see morphology, & -ic & -ous (hol) Keeping the same form or shape through the stages of development from the embryo monopetalous, adj [1 mɒnɒpɛtəlus, 2 mɒnə-pɛtəlus] mono- & petal & -ous (bot) Having the petals of corolla united monophobia, n [1 mɒnɒfəbiə, 2 mɒnə-fə-biə] mono- & -phobia A morbid dislike or dread of being left alone monophthong, n [1 mɒnɒfθɒŋ, 2 mɒnə-fθɒŋ] Gk. monophthongos, 'having one sound' mono- & phthongos, 'voice of men, cry of animals, sound', cp phtheggonai, 'to utter a sound, to speak' see second element of diphthong A single vowel sound, contrasted with diphthong monophthongal, adj [1 mɒnɒfθɒŋɡəl, 2 mɒnə-fθɒŋɡəl] Prec & -al Of the nature of a monophthong, consisting of a single vowel sound, contrasted with diphthongal monophthongize, v trans [1 mɒnɒfθɒŋɡaɪz, 2 mɒnə-fθɒŋɡaɪz] See prec & -ize To reduce (a diphthong) to a monophthong

Monophysite, n [1 mɒnɒfɪsaɪt, 2 mɒnə-fɪsaɪt] Gk. monophysitēs, mono- & physis, 'nature' See physis One who maintains the heresy (Monophysitism) that the human and divine natures in Christ are united in one single nature, part human part divine, in opposition to the dogma laid down at the Council of Chalcedon, A.D. 451, (also attrib) Monophysite Churches, i.e. the Armenian, Coptic, and Jacobite Churches

Monophysitic, adj [1 mɒnɒfɪsɪtɪk, 2 mɒnə-fɪsɪtɪk] Prec & -ic Relating to, maintaining, the doctrine of the Monophysites monoplane, n [1 mɒnɒpleɪn, 2 mɒnəpleɪn] mono- & plane (V) An aeroplane with one plane or set of supporting surfaces monopolism, n [1 mɒnɒpəlɪzəm, 2 mɒnə-pəlɪzəm] monopoly & -ism The system or practice of monopolies or monopolists monopolist, n [1 mɒnɒpəlɪst, 2 mɒnə-pəlɪst] See prec & -ist One who has a monopoly, a supporter of monopolies monopolization, n [1 mɒnɒpəlɪzəʃən, 2 mɒnə-pəlɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation Act of monopolizing, state, condition, of being monopolized monopolize v trans [1 mɒnɒpəlaɪz, 2 mɒnə-pəlaɪz] monopoly & -ize a To acquire, maintain, a monopoly of, b to engross, enjoy, to the exclusion of others c to monopolize the conversation, allow no one else to speak monopolizer, n [1 mɒnɒpəlaɪzə, 2 mɒnə-pəlaɪzə] Prec & -er One who has a monopoly, monopolist monopoly n [1 mɒnɒpəlɪ, 2 mɒnə-pəlɪ] fr Lat. monopolium, fr Gk. monopolon, fr monos & polos, to sell, cogn. w. Lith. paulyti to give O.H.G. fuli, 'for sale, rental' & O.H.G. fulr in same sense 1 An exclusive right of trading in a specified commodity, a group of commodities, enjoyed by the State or granted by it to individuals as a privilege 2 a Licence, privilege, of a monopoly, b company or group of persons having a monopoly, c the subject controlled under a monopoly 3 A control of commodities, land, public services &c of such a kind that free competition is excluded 4 Exclusive control, domination enjoyment of anything monopoly of the conversation, one's attention monorail, n [1 mɒnərəl, 2 mɒnəreɪl] mono- & rail (IV) A railway in which the track consists of a single rail on which the carriages or trucks are carried monorhyme, n [1 mɒnərɪm, 2 mɒnəraɪm] mono- & rhyme A form of verse in which every line has the same rhyme monospermous, adj [1 mɒnɒspɜːrmus, 2 mɒnəspɜːrmus] mono- & Gk. sperma, 'seed', seasperm (I), & -ous (bot) Having a single seed monostichous, adj [1 mɒnɒstɪkəs, 2 mɒnə-stɪkəs] mono- & Gk. stichē (os), 'line, row', see stichic, & -ous (bot) Arranged in a single row, as leaflets on one side of a stem monostrophe, n [1 mɒnɒstɹɒf, 2 mɒnə-strɒfɪ] Gk. See mono- & strophe Poem in which all the strophes have the same metrical form monosyllabic, adj [1 mɒnɒsɪləbɪk, 2 mɒnə-sɪləbɪk] See monosyllable & -ic a Consisting of one syllable, b (of persons) speaking in, using monosyllables monosyllabically, adv [1 mɒnɒsɪləbɪkəlɪ, 2 mɒnə-sɪləbɪkəlɪ] Prec & -al & -ly In monosyllables monosyllable, n [1 mɒnɒsɪləbl, 2 mɒnə-sɪləbl] mono- & syllable a Unit of utterance consisting of a single syllable, b a word of this nature monotheism, n [1 mɒnəθeɪzəm, 2 mɒnə-plɪzəm] mono- & theism Belief or doctrine that there is only one God, contrasted with polytheism or monolatry monotheist, n [1 mɒnəθeɪst, 2 mɒnə-plɪst] mono- & theist Believer in monotheism, or in a single God monotheistic, adj [1 mɒnəθeɪstɪk, 2 mɒnə-plɪstɪk] Prec & -ic Of or pertaining to monotheism, believing in one God monotint, n [1 mɒnətaɪnt, 2 mɒnə-taɪnt] mono- & tint A drawing or painting in a single colour, monochrome monotone (I), n [1 mɒnətɒn, 2 mɒnə-təʊn] mono- & tone 1 (mus) a A single unvarying pitch or tone, b utterance of succession of notes, or of syllables, words &c on a single tone 2 Sameness of colour, style, monotony of any kind monotone (II), v trans, fr prec To recite speak, sing, in a monotone monotonic, adj [1 mɒnətɒnɪk, 2 mɒnə-tɒnɪk] Prec & -ic In a monotone, without change of pitch monotonous, adj [1 mɒnətənəs, 2 mɒnə-tənəs] fr L. Gk. monotonos, 'of the same or single tone' monotone & -ous 1 (of voice or sound) Continuing in a monotone without variation of pitch 2 (fig, variously applied) Without variety or change, dull, tedious, wearisome by reason of monotony monotonous occupations, a monotonous life monotonously, adv Prec & -ly In a monotonous wearisome manner monotonousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being monotonous, monotony monotony, n [1 mɒnətəm, 2 mɒnə-tɛni] Gk. monotonia, 'sameness, singleness of tone' monotone & -y 1 (of sound) Absence of variation of pitch, sameness in tone, monotone 2 (in general sense) Want of variation or change, wearisome sameness, monotonous state or condition monotype n [1 mɒnətaɪp, 2 mɒnə-taɪp] mono- & type 1 (hol) A single representative or type as a single species of a genus 2 (print) Machine operated by a keyboard which sets up and casts type in single letters monotypic, adj [1 mɒnətaɪpɪk, 2 mɒnə-taɪpɪk] Prec & -ic (hol) Having a single representative or type monoxide, n [1 mɒnɒksaɪd, 2 mɒnəksaɪd] mono- & oxide (chem) An oxide with one oxygen atom in the molecule

Monroeism, n [1 mɒnrɒɪzəm, 2 mɒnrɒɪzəm], fr James Monroe, President of U.S.A., 1816-1824 The principle that no extension of European influence on the American continent should be tolerated by the United States, as laid down by Monroe in 1823, also known as the Monroe Doctrine monseigneur, n [1 mɒnsɛnyɛr, 2 mɒ-sɛnyɛr], abbr Mgr Fr mon, 'my', seigneur, 'lord' See seigneur, 1 A French title, equivalent to 'his grace', prefixed to the title of princes, cardinals, and prelates Monsieur le duc de Richelieu, also used alone as mode of address 2 Specif (hist) the title of the daphin of France monsieur, n, pl messieurs [1 mɛsyɛr, 2 mɛs-je, mɛsɜːr], abbr M Fr mon, 'my', seigneur, 'lord, sir', shortened fr seigneur 1 The French equivalent of 'Mr' (mister), as used before names M. Briand, also used alone as polite form of address, equivalent to 'sir' 2 (hist, cap) Title of the second son, or of the younger brother, of the kings of France monsignor, n [1 mɒnsɛnyɔːr, mɒnsɛnjɔːr], abbr Mgr Ital monsignore, equiv of fr monseigneur See prec a The honorary title granted by the Pope to chamberlains and other high officials of the Papal household, b a monsignor, person hearing this title monsoon, n [1 mɒnsuːn, 2 mɒnsʊn], fr M Du monsone, ad fr Port manção, cp Ital monsone, prob fr Arab mausim, whence Malay mūsīm, 'time of the year, season' a The name of a periodical wind blowing from the Indian Ocean at two seasons of the year, the wet monsoon from the SW, May Sept, and the dry monsoon from the NE, Oct Dec, b specif, the rainy season in India monster, n [1 mɒnstə, 2 mɒnstɔː] ME monstre, fr O Fr monstre, Lat monstrum, 'that which teaches, something out of usual course, portent, omen, misshapen man or animal &c monster', cp monstrare, 'to show', ultimately fr same base as monere, 'to warn' See monition 1 Any legendary, fabulous creature, often represented as partly human, partly animal in form, or as a compound of two or more animals, such as a centaur, chimera, dragon, mermaid, sphinx &c 2 Any huge, extraordinary animal, esp an extinct, prehistoric animal, such as the mammoth, Mylodon &c 3 Anything of abnormally large size my apples this year were regular monsters 4 a A remarkably misshapen man, animal, or plant, a monstrosity, a freak of nature, one abnormal in form, e.g. one having abnormal number, or considerable misplacement, of limbs or organs; or being abnormal in size, e.g. a giant or a dwarf, b an abnormally wicked, cruel, malicious person a monster of iniquity 5 (attrib) Huge, very large a monster potato monster &c monstrance, n [1 mɒnstɹəns, 2 mɒnstɹəns] O Fr, fr L Lat monstrantia, fr monstrare (em), Pres Part type of monstrare, 'to show, point out' See monster & demonstrate Receptacle in which the consecrated Host is exposed for adoration, consisting of a glass or crystal case set in an ornamented standing frame, often surrounded with golden rays monstrosity, n [1 mɒnstɹɒsɪti, 2 mɒnstɹɒ-sɪti] Earlier monstrousity, cp Fr monstruosité, fr L Lat monstruositas, monstrōsus See monstrous & -ity 1 State, quality, of being monstrous, a in size, b in shape, c in a moral sense 2 a Man, animal, or plant that is markedly abnormal in shape or size, a freak, b a badly made, hideous object, c excessive and abnormally wicked conduct monstrous (I), adj [1 mónstrus, 2 mónstræ] Earlier monstruous, fr O Fr monstrueux, monstreux, L Lat monstruosus, monstrōsus, fr monstrum See monster & -ous 1 (in physical sense) Abnormal, unnatural, a (of size) huge, gigantic, b (of form) misshapen, having the appearance of a monster 2 (in moral sense) a intensely and abnormally bad, arousing horror and reprobation, atrocious, outrageous monstrous cruelty, crime &c, b (colloq) preposterous it is perfectly monstrous to keep me waiting like this monstrous (II), adv, fr preo (obs or liter) Exceedingly, marvellously, wonderfully a monstrous fine woman, monstrous good dinner monstrously, adv monstrous (I) & -ly In a monstrous way, unnaturally, enormously, extravagantly monstrousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being monstrous, monstrosity montage, n [1 montaʒh, 2 mónʒh] Fr, fr monter, 'to mount', see mount (II), & -age Technical term for the final selection and arrangement of series of photographs in the making of a cinema film montane, adj [1 montān, 2 móntein] Lat montānus, 'pertaining to a mountain, mountainous; inhabiting a mountain' See mount (I) & -ane a (of country) Mountainous, b (of persons &c) inhabiting such country montbretia, n [1 monbrēshia, 2 mónbríʃia] fr A J C de Montbret A bulbous plant, of the iris family, genus Triloma, with showy orange-red flowers, a native of S Africa mont-de-piété, n English pronunciation, [1 mon de pētā, 2 mā da pletē] Fr, lit 'mount of piety, charitable bank' A pawnbroker's shop, in France, managed by the State, part of profits going to the poor monte, n [1 monti, 2 mónti] Span, 'mountain, pile of cards remaining after first deal', fr Lat mont(-em), 'mountain' See mount A Spanish-American gambling game of cards, three card monte, a Mexican version of the three card trick monteith, n [1 muntēth, 2 móntip] History doubtful 1 An 18th cent bowl, usually of silver, with scalloped rim, from which punch ladles and glasses could be hung, ready to dip and enol in the water with which it was filled 2 Kind of spotted cotton bandkerchief made in Glasgow montem, n [1 móntem, 2 móntem] For Lat Ad Montem, 'to the hill' (see mount) An old ceremony at Eton College, abolished in 1847, held on Whit Tuesday every three years, when the boys assembled at a hill near Slough and collected money from travellers month, n [1 mónth, 2 mánp] OE mōnath, ME mōneth, OHG manōt, Goth mēnōps, ON mānadr See moon & -th 1 A period of time reckoned by the moon's revolutions, any one of the twelve parts into which the year is divided, of 30, 31, and 28 (29) days calendar month 2 Period occupied by a complete revolution of the moon, reckoned from new moon to new moon, about 29 days 13 hours lunar month 3 A period of four weeks or 28 days, b period reckoned from any day in one month to the corresponding day in the next, Phr (not once in) a month of Sundays, never, month's mind, (hist) the requiem Mass celebrated one month after a person's death monthly (I), adj & adv Free & -ly 1 adj Occurring, performed, appearing &c, once every month a monthly visit, monthly payments 2 adv Once a month, every month to pay monthly monthly (II), n 1 A magazine or periodical which is published once every month, b plant, e.g. a monthly rose, which blossoms month after month 2 (pl) Manthies, menes monthly nurse, n One who attends a woman in childbirth, and the newly born child, and who stays as a rule for a month monthly rose, n Semi-single pink China rose which flowers month after month throughout summer and autumn monticule, n [1 móntikūl, 2 móntikjūl] Fr fr L Lat monticulus, 'little hill', dimin fr mont-, stem of mons, 'mountain, hill' See mount (I) & -cule A small hill, a hillock, specif, a subsidiary cone thrown up by a volcano on the slope of the main cone monument, n [1 mónúment, 2 mónjument] fr Lat monumentum, 'that which reminds, recalls, a monument', fr monēre, 'to call to mind, remind, warn' See monition 1 An object, such as a tablet, tombstone, column, building &c, constructed, or erected to perpetuate the memory of a person or event, a memorial, The Monument, tall column erected to commemorate the Great Fire of London 2 a Any structure of historic or artistic interest that is worth preserving as a survival or memorial of the past, such as prehistoric and other fortifications, stone circles, bistorio, ancient, or beautiful houses, bridges, churches &c, styled Ancient Monuments, b a beautiful or striking natural feature, a waterfall, lake, ancient timber &c, styled Natural Monuments 3 (obs) An ancient record or document, now usually muniment 4 a A work of literature, scholarship, learning, or labour, which has a lasting, permanent value a monument of learning, research, monument of industry, b (ironic) something which serves as a lasting reminder of the folly or mistaken effort which produced it a monument of stupidity and ignorance monumental, adj [1 mónúmentl, 2 mónjumentl] Free & -al 1 Serving as a monument, memorial, or record of the past, or of belonging to monuments, esp of the dead monumental brasses, inscriptions &c, monumental mason, one who carves and erects tombstones 2 a Of permanent value, serving as a record of industry, learning &c, b massive in conception and execution a monumental work of history &c, b (of bad qualities) strongly emphasized, extravagant, enormous monumental conceit, ignorance, impudence, obstinacy monumentalize, vb trans [1 mónúmentáliz, 2 mónjumentáliz] monumentalize & ize To commemorate by a monument monumentally, adv [1 mónúmentálh, 2 mónjumentálh] monumental & -ly a By means of a monument or memorial, b greatly, excessively

-mony, suff Always unstressed, through O Fr -monie, or direct fr Lat -monia, -monium, a suff to form ns, signifying action, result of action, state, condition &c, as testimony, matrimony, acrimony &c moor, vb intrans & n [1 mōv, 2 mū] Imitative of cry of the cow 1 vb To low, of cattle 2 u The lowing of a cow moorh, moorh, vb intrans [1 mōvoh, mōvoh, 2 mūth, mautʃ] O Fr muchier, 'to slink, eek', cp mouching & Mod Fr moucheur, slang for a plain-clothes detective (slang) To slink, slink, about, to hang, loiter, idly about the street, often to mouch round, around moor-cow, n Child's name for cow mood (I), n [1 mōd, 2 mūd] OE mōd, 'mind, heart, courage, pride', ME mood, 'mind, anger', OS mōd, OHG muot, 'courage', Goth mōps ON mōdr, 'wrath' Temporary state, disposition, of mind or feeling, temper pleasant, jocular, sulky mood, a dreamy, lazy mood Phr in the mood for, to do, disposed, inclined to, a man of moods, of variable and uncertain temper mood (II), n A doublet of mood, influenced by association w preo 1 (gram) Designation, by the change of form in the conjugation of a verb, of how an act, event &c is conceived, as a fact as possible, desirable &c indicative, subjunctive moods &c 2 (logic) Any one of the various classes into which the figures of the syllogism are divided 3 (mus) Mode moody, adv [1 mōdūl, 2 mūdūl] moody & -ly In a moody manner, sullenly, morosely moodyness n [1 mōdūnes, 2 mūdūnes] Next word & -ness State, condition of being moody, sulkiness, depression moody, adj [1 mōdi, 2 mūdi] OE mōdy, 'high spirited, brave, impetuous' See mood (I) & -y Exhibiting varying moods, (always in unfavourable sense) depressed, sulky, sullen, enry moovie, n [1 moolvi, 2 mulvi] Hind, fr Arab maulavi, cp muallah. One learned in Moslem law in India, a learned person, teacher moon (I), n [1 mōon, 2 mūn] OE mōna, ME mōne, OHG mānō, Goth mēna, ON mān, cogn w Lat mensis, 'month', GK mēnē, 'moon', mēn, 'month', also Sort mās, 'month', perh fr base mē*, 'to measure' See also mete (II) & month 1 a The earth's satellite, shining by light reflected from the sun and revolving round the earth in the period of a lunar month a new moon, full moon &c Plrs the man in the moon, the figure or face of a man that can be traced in the markings on the full moon, know no more about it than the man in the moon, to know nothing at all, old moon in new moon's arms, the faintly visible disk of the moon within the crescent of a new moon, reflection being gained from the earth, to shoot the moon, (slang) to do a moonlight flit, to cry for the moon, to crave for the unattainable, b satellite of another planet, as of Jupiter 2 The time taken by moon to make one revolution in its orbit, a lunar month 'this roaring moon of daffodil And crocus' (-March) (Tennyson, 'Prefatory Sonnet to the Nineteenth Century') Phr once in a blue moon, very seldom, rarely if ever 3 Light shed by the moon the moon is full on my face moon (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo Cp moonstruck a trans Generally moon away (one's time) &c, to pass it in a dreamy, listless fashion, b intrans, to moon about, to loiter, lounge about in an idle, aimless way, with a preoccupied air moonbeam, n [1 mōonbēm, 2 mūnbīm] A ray or beam of light from the moon moonblind, adj [1 mōonblīnd, 2 mūnblīnd] Suffering from moonblindness moonblindness, n Free & -ness 1 A disease of the eye in horses, also called moon-eye 2 Night-blindness, formerly attributed to sleeping in the moonlight mooncalf, n [1 mōonkāl, 2 mūnkāl] fr supposed influence of the moon on a cow a misshapen monster, b a stupid, foolish person moon-eye, n A periodical inflammation of the eye in horses, moonblindness moonflower, n [1 mōonflōur, 2 mūnflāw] The ox eye daisy moonless, adj [1 mōonles, 2 mūnles] moon & -less Without a moon, not lighted by the moon a moonless night moonlight, n & adj [1 mōonlīt, 2 mūnlīt] a n The light of the moon, b (attrib) of or pertaining to moonlight, performed, occurring, in the moonlight, lit by the moon a moonlight ramble, moonlight night, Phr a moonlight flit, a secret removal by night of furniture &c from a house to avoid its being distrained for rent moonlighter, n [1 mōonlītter, 2 mūnlītter] Free & -er An Irish Land Leaver who committed agrarian outrages by night moonlit, adj [1 mōonlīt, 2 mūnlīt] Lit by the moon moonshine, munshu, n [1 mōonshē, 2 mūnʃi] Hind munshi Native interpreter or teacher of Indian languages, native secretary moonshine, n [1 mōonshīn, 2 mūnʃiŋ] 1 The light of the moon; moonlight 2 (fig) Idea, belief, statement, lacking substance and reality, nonsense 3 Illicitly distilled or smuggled spirits, esp whisky moonshiner, n [1 mōnshiner, 2 mūn-[jənə] Prec & -er Illicit distiller, smuggler, of spirits.

moonsif, munisif, n [1 mōnsif, 2 mūnsif], fr Arab muhṣif, 'just' Indian native judge of lowest rank

moonstone, n [1 mōnstōn, 2 mūnstōn] A bluish-green opalescent gem stone, a variety of feldspar moonstruck, adj [1 mōnstruk, 2 mūnstrak] Deranged in mind, crazy, wild, and wandering in the wits, a condition supposed formerly to be due to the moon's influence moony, adj [1 mōm, 2 mūn] moon & -y 1 Resembling the moon in shape or appearance 2 Dreamy, listless, mooning, as though affected by the moon

Moor (I), n [1 mōr, mūr, 2 mō, mū] Fr Moor, Mauve, cp Ital & Span Moro, fr Lat Maurus, 'inhabitant of Mauretania, N W Africa', Gk Mauros 1 An inhabitant of Morocco, in N W Africa, part of the ancient country of Mauretania originally of Berber race, now mixed Berber and Arab 2 (hist.) One of the cooquering Moslem invaders of Spain in the 8th cent. n moor (II), n OE mōr, ME more, OHG muor, M Du. moer, 'marshy, hoggy land', prob allied to Goth mares, 'lake' See mere (I) a A stretch or area of waste ground, covered with heather, and marshy or peaty in parts, a heath, specif b each ground used as a preserve for game, esp grouse

moor (III), vb trans & intrans Not in OE or ME, prob connected w OE mārele, 'mooring rope', cp Du. maaren, meeren, 'to moor a ship' 1 trans a To fasten, secure (a vessel) to the shore, or to buoys, by a cable, to secure (a vessel) head up stream by an anchor on either side of the bows, b to secure (an arslup) to a mooring mast 2 intrans a (archaic, of vessel) To be secured by mooring, b to perform the action of mooring a vessel moor-cock, n moor (II) & cock (I) The male bird of the red grouse moor-game, n Grouse, usually the red grouse moor-hen, n a The female bird of the red grouse, b the water hen mooring-mast, n A lattice work mast to which an arslup is moored or anchored moorings, n pl [1 mōrings, 2 mōrɪŋz] moor (III) & -ing 1 The cables, ropes, hmoys & hy which a vessel is moored or secured. 2 Place where a vessel is moored Moorish, adj [1 mōrɪʃ, 2 mōrɪʃ] Moor (I) & -ish a Pertaining to the Moors, b specif pertaining to the style and design of building introduced by the Moors Moorish architecture

moorland, n [1 mōrlənd, 2 mōrlənd] moor (II) & land Land consisting of open moor moose, n [1 mōs, 2 mūs] N Am Indian name The North American elk, Alces moosilis americanus, inhabiting the forests of Canada and of N E areas of USA moot (I), n [1 mōt, 2 mūt] OE (ge)mōt, ME mote, 'a meeting, discussion', MHG muoz, ON mol etymol uncertain fr n are derived OE motian, 'to talk, to discuss' also mēlan, fr mōljan*, 'to come upon, discover, meet with'. See meet (II) & weisengemot 1 (Engl hist.) A meeting or assembly of freemen of a ward hundred shire &c, for deliberation and debate on matters of the community's interest 2 (law) A meeting of members of an Inn of Court, students and barristers to debate and argue a stated legal case or point, as an exercise or practice moot (II), adj, fr prec Subject to debate or argument, debatable, arguable only in Phr a moot point, question moot (III), vb trans, fr moot (I) To raise in debate bring forward for discussion mop (I), n [1 mop, 2 mɒp] Earlier mop, etymol doubtful prob through O Fr mappe, fr Lat rappa, 'napkin, cloth'. See napkin & map 1 A household implement used for cleaning and washing floors &c, consisting of a loose bundle of coarse yarn fastened to a long handle 2 A mass of un-tidy, loose hair resembling a mop mop (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To use the mop on (a floor &c) in washing it 2 To wipe, clean, up (spilled liquid &c) with a mop or cloth 3 To wipe to mop one's face, eyes, head, to wipe away tears, moisture, per-piration Phr to mop up, (colloq) (i) to soak, clean, up, sweep up with a mop, (fig) (ii) to pick up, gain (profits &c), (iii) to finish off, complete (some piece of work) mop (III), vb intrans & n Etymol doubtful, possibly imitative, cp Du moppen, 'to pout' See mow (III) Only in Phras, a to mop and mow, to chatter and grimace, eg like an idiot or a monkey, b mops and mows, grimaces &c mope (I), vb intrans & trans [1 mōp, 2 moup] Etymol uncertain, cp Do moppen, 'to pout' See mop (III) 1 in-trans To be low spirited and depressed, to be dull and apathetic, esp to mope by oneself, also mope about, to go about in gloomy, listless manner 2 trans In pass or reflex I was moped to death, moping oneself in the house &c mope (II), n, fr prec a Person who mopes, b gloomy, listless state of mind, chiefly pl to have (a fit of) the mopes mopish, adj [1 mōpɪʃ, 2 mōpɪʃ] See prec & -ish Depressed, inclined to mope mopishly, adv Prec & -ly In a mopish, depressed way mopishness, n See prec & -ness State of being mopish mopoke, morepork, n [1 mōpōk, mōrpork, 2 mōpouk, mōpōk] Imitative Popular name of a small owl in New Zealand, and of the nightjar or goatsucker in Australia, so called from its cry moppet, n [1 mōpet, 2 mōpɪt] mop (I) & dimin -et a Child's name for a rag doll, b pet name for a little girl, c small lap dog moquette, n [1 mōkɛt, 2 mōkɛt] Fr, etymol uncertain Coarse fabric with a velvety pile, made of wool on a basis of cotton or jute moraine, n [1 mōrən, 2 mōrɛn] Fr, etymol uncertain (geol) The debris of earth, stones &c piled up and left in the track of a glacier moral (I), adj [1 mōrəl, 2 mōrəl] Fr, fr Lat mōrālis, 'relating to manners, customs, or morals', fr mōr, stem of mōs, 'manner, way, custom, habit', pl, 'morals', etymol doubtful possibly connected w Goth mōps, 'wrath' &c See mood (I) 1 Relating to, concerned with the difference between right and wrong in matters of conduct, concerned with morality or morals (high or low) moral character, standards &c, moral considera- tions, judgement &c, contrasted with non- moral Phrs moral law, the rules of right conduct, moral duties, obligations, rights, such as are based on the moral law, moral sense, capacity of differentiating right from wrong, moral philosophy, ethics 2 A marked by a high standard in matters of duty and right conduct, obedient to the laws of morality, virtuous, b (popularly) virtuous in sexual matters, chaste contrasted with immoral 3 Teaching inculcating principles of good conduct, proper, seemly a moral play, book &c 4 Acting not by physical force or practical means but by appeal to reason, sense of right &c moral support, influence, pressure &c Phr moral victory, a defeat so narrow or so stimulating to the defeated that it amounts to a victory 5 Concerned with the spiritual nature, with the mind and feelings to use a word in its moral sense, contrasted with material, physical, or literal, moral courage, strength of mind, readiness to face ridicule or blame rather than do what is wrong contrasted with physical courage 6 Not strictly proved or demonstrable to the reason, hnt appealing to the moral sense as so probable as to admit of no practical doubt a moral certainty, moral evidence moral (II), n, fr prec 1 The real meaning of, practical moral teaching, instruction, guidance, contained in or to be derived from, a story, fable, or from an experience, circumstance &c, maxim 'To point a moral, or adorn a tale' (Johnson 'Vanity of Human Wishes'), the moral of all this is, look before you leap 2 (colloq) Close resemblance the boy is the very moral of his father 3 (pl, morals) a The principles of right and wrong conduct, science, philosophy, dealing with these principles, ethics, b (i) conduct, habits &c considered by a standard of right and wrong, morality, (ii) (popularly) more esp. conduct in regard to sexual matters a person of doubtful morals 4 (rare) Morale morale, n [1 mōrəl, 2 mōrəl] Fr fem. sing of moral, 'moral', in this sense Fr.

uses the masc moral, the necessity of distinguishing the word in the Fr sense fr the Engl word in appearance, as in pronunciation, has led to spelling w -e The mental state or condition of a body of men, esp of an army, as evidenced by their discipline, degree of cheerfulness, readiness to endure heavy losses, fatigue &c moralism, n [1 mōrəlizm, 2 mōrəlizəm] moral (I) & -ism 1 Teaching of morals and morality 2 A moral maxim or saying 3 Principles of conduct and life based solely on morals, or the distinction between right and wrong, and not on religion moralist, n [1 mōrəlist, 2 mōrəlist] See prec & -ist 1 A teacher of, writer on, morals, one who moralizes 2 One who practises morality or leads a moral life a stern moralist in his own life moralistic, adj [1 mōrəlistɪk, 2 mōrəlistɪk] Prec & -ic Concerned with morals or moralizing, teaching morality morality, n [1 mōrəlɪti, 2 mōrəlɪti], fr Fr moralité, Lat mōrālītāt (em), mōrālitas, 'manner, character', L Lat, 'morality' See moral (I) & -ity 1 Doctrines, principles of conduct, based on distinction between right and wrong, moral conduct or character, morals the morality of their action is not above question, high (low) standard of morality, financial, commercial, morality 2 a Conformity with right rules of conduct, moral excellence, virtue, b (popularly) virtue in sexual matters chastity 3 (hist) a form of drama, following the miracle plays or mysteries, in the 16th cent, the principal characters being personifications of the virtues and vices moralization, n [1 mōrəlaɪzəʃən, 2 mōrəlaɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation a Act of moralizing, b moral reflections moralize, vb trans & intrans [1 mōrəlaɪz, 2 mōrəlaɪz], fr Fr moraliser moral (I) & -ize a trans 1 To deduce, draw a moral or moral lesson from, to make moral reflections on, to give a moral significance to he stooped to truth, and moralized his song (Pope, 'Epistle to Arbuthnot', 341) 2 To render moral, teach morality to, improve the morals of to moralize the heathen b in trans To make moral reflections, write, speak, on the moral aspects of a question the author moralizes excessively in this work morally, adv [1 mōrəlɪ, 2 mōrəlɪ] moral

(I) & -ly 1 a In a moral sense to interpret a statement morally, b according to the principles of sound morality, to what is right, virtuously, uprightly to act, live morally 2 According to probability or moral certainty, virtually, to all intents and purposes morally bound to fail, succeed &c morass, n [1 mōrəs, 2 mārəs], fr Du. moeras, 'marsh, fen', earlier maerasch, marasch, fr O Fr maresche, 'marshy', cp.

Mod Fr marais, 'marsh', fr Low Lat mariscus See marsh a A bog, marsh, fen, swamp, b (fig) situation, circumstance, of difficulty, embarrassment, perplexity &c., state of moral degradation moratorium, n [1 moratōrium, 2 mōratōrium] A modern conage. See next word. Delay, specif. an act, decree, or ordinance of the legislature giving authority to delay or defer the payment of a debt or obligation, b period of delay so authorized moratory, adj [1 moratori, 2 mōratori], fr Lat morātorius, 'delaying, deferring', fr morāt(-um), P P type of morār, 'to delay', fr mora, 'hesitation, delay'. The etymol of the latter is doubtful, Walde suggests derivation fr a hase smer-*, 'to think, to pause and consider', wb occurs in Lat memor, 'mindful of', memoria, 'remembrance', see memory, op Sort amarat, 'he remembers', Gk mērmeros, 'fall of care, causing anxiety', cp also OE gemmor, 'known, familiar'. This & the other words cited above reduplication, the chain of meaning is 'thought, hesitation, pause, delay'. Delaying, deferring, esp of ordinance authorizing a moratorium

Moravian, n [1 morāvian, 2 morēvian], fr Moravia, former province of the Austrian Empire. A member of a Protestant sect claiming descent from a branch of the Hussites morbid, adj [1 morbid, 2 mōbid], fr Lat morbidus, 'sickly', fr morbus, 'disease', fr morōdha*, 'causing death', op mori, 'to die', mori (em), 'death'. See mortal 1 (of the body) a Diseased, sickly, not normally healthy, due to disease a morbid growth, b concerned or dealing with disease, pathological morbid anatomy 2 (of the mind) Abnormally sensitive, unhealthy, inclining to gloominess and depression, tending to dwell on and gloat over unpleasant, horrible subjects morbidness, n [1 mōrbidēssa, 2 mōrbidēssa] Ital. See preo a (paint) Delicacy, fineness, in the representation of flesh tints, b (liter) sensitiveness, delicacy of expression and feeling morbidly, adv [1 mōrbidli, 2 mōrbidli] See morbid & -ly. State, quality, of being morbid, sickness, unhealthiness, as in a particular district morbidly, adv [1 mōrbidli, 2 mōrbidli] See preo & -ness. Morbid state of mind morbific, adj [1 morbifik, 2 mōbifik], fr Lat morbus, 'disease', see morbid, & -fic. Causing disease or sickness morceau, n [1 mōrsō, 2 mōsō] Fr. See morsel. Literally, piece, bit, specif. a short musical composition or short passage from a longer composition, also a short literary composition or extract mordacity, n [1 mōrdāsiti, 2 mōrdāsiti], fr Fr mordacité, fr Lat mordāx, 'biting', fr mordax, 'biting', op mordere, 'to bite'. See next word. Biting sarcasm, sharpness, acridity of temper &c mordant (I), adj [1 mōrdant, 2 mōrdant] Fr, 'biting', Pres Part of mordere, 'to bite', fr Lat mordent(-em), Pres Part type of mordere, 'to bite', for mord-*, op Gk merōdēs, 'terrible', & Sort mardak, 'rubs away, crumbles', prob cogn w smart 1 (in moral sense) Biting, outwitting, sarcastic, caustic a mordant wit, tongue &c 2 a (of acid) Acting as a mordant, corrosive, b (of disease) causing destruction of tissue, tending to eat away flesh &c a mordant ulcer mordant (II), n, fr preo 1 (dyeing) A substance used for fixing colours, which in composition with a dye renders this insoluble 2 (etching) An acid used for biting into the copperplate mordantly, adv mordant (I) & -ly. In a mordant way or manner, biting, sarcastically mordent, n [1 mōrdent, 2 mōrdant] Through

Mod Germ fr Ital mordente, fr Lat. See preo. A grace or trill of one note in rapid alternation with the note immediately below it more (I), adj [1 mōr, 2 mō] OE māra, 'greater in size and number', used as compar of much, 'big, much', ME mōra, OS mēr, OHG mēro, mēr, Goth maiza, adj, maiz, adv, cp ON meiri. Cogn w O Ir mār, mōr, OW maur, 'great', OHG mār, famous. See most & much. A compar, of wh there is no positive, the positives used being much, many, superl most 1 Greater, in number, size, amount, degree, quality more people than before, more money than he needs, more knavery than ever, more ability than his predecessor, male more progress &c 2 Additional, further, other there are more books to be written on the subject, no more new continents to explore more (II), adv. In OE mā, & in ME mō, were used as comparatives of the adv much, 'much'. Mo may be found in 16th cent, but is now obs, being replaced by more, wh does duty for the adv as well as the adj 1 In a greater quantity, to a greater degree or extent, he is growing more now, you ought to walk more 2 (forming compar of adjs and advs) More beautiful, more rapidly 3 In addition, further, again once more, no, never, more, any more &c Phrs more or less, approximately, nearly, almost, about more or less crazy, about an hour's walk, more or less, more and more, to an ever increasing degree or extent the crowd is growing more and more, more and more delighted, to be no more, to die, the more the more the more he asserted his innocence the more they disbelieved him more (III), n, fr more (I). A greater or additional quantity, amount, portion, number &c the more they have, the more they want, there is more in his character than sympathy, I should like a little more of that excellent mutton.

moreen, n [1 mōrēn, 2 mōrēn] Etymol doubtful, possibly connected w mouré a woollen or woollen and cotton fabric, with a rib or twill in it, sometimes watered or embossed with a figured pattern morel (I), n [1 morél, 2 morél], fr Fr morelle, prob cogn w or ad fr Germ morehel. An edible fungus, Morella eculenta morel (II), n. O Fr morele, L Lat morellus, 'dark-coloured', etymol doubtful, possibly fr Lat mōrum, 'mulberry', wh is borrowed fr Gk moron, mōron. The black nightshade morello, n [1 mōrēlō, 2 morélou] Ital, possibly dimin of Lat morum, see preo a dark, bitter variety of cherry, used in making cherry-brandy moreover, adv [1 mōrōver, 2 mōrōve] more & over. Besides, further(more), also, often used in introducing a new statement Moresque, Mauresque, adj [1 mōrēsk, 2 mōrēsk] Fr, fr Ital Moresco, fr Moro, see Moor (I). Moorish, of style or pattern in architecture, art &c morganatic, adj [1 mōrganatik, 2 mōrgenatik], fr Med Lat phr matrimonium ad tik, fr Med Lat phr matrimonium ad tik, the latter word being an adaptation of Germ morgengabe, 'morning gift', made by a husband to his wife on marriage. Relating to a form of legal marriage, morganatic marriage, between a male member of a royal or princely house, in Germany and elsewhere in Europe (not in Great Britain), and a woman not of royal or princely birth, the wife being a legal wife and the children legitimate, hnt having no rights of succession to the titles of the father or to property other than his private property, also styled a left-handed marriage morganatically, adv [1 mōrganatikah, 2 mōrganetikali] Preo & -al & -ly. By a morganatic marriage morgen n [1 mōrgen, 2 mōgan] Mod Germ & Du (see moro) lit. 'morning', as being amount a man can plough in a morning. An old land measure of area, about two acres, still used in S Africa morgue (I), n [1 morg, 2 mōg] Fr, perh same as next word. Place, building, where the bodies of people found dead are kept for identification, a dead-house, mortuary morgue (II), n. Fr, 'disdain, surliness, disdainful look', also vb morguer, 'to grumble, growl, to behave disdainfully, treat with disdain', fr Lat mōrigerār, 'to comply with, gratify, humour, to accommodate oneself to', fr base mōr, fr mōs, 'manner, custom, fashion', see under moral, & gerere, 'to arrange, govern, to conduct, behave, oneself', see gerent. There has been a change of meaning in Fr compared w Lat fr the accommodation of oneself to another to demanding such compliance fr another. Pride, hantour, a chilling, haughty manner or demeanour morbund, adj [1 mōribund, 2 mōribund] Lat morbundus, 'dying', fr mori, 'to die'. See mortal a Near to, at the point of, death, in a dying condition, b (fig) about to cease, come to an end, flunkering out morion, n [1 mōrion, 2 mōrion] Fr, etymol doubtful, op Ital morione, Span morron, possibly connected w Span morro, 'head'. A late 16th cent form of the helmet, shaped like a bat, without visor or neck guard Morisco, n [1 mōrisko, 2 mōriskou] Span, a dimin fr Moro, see Moor (I). The name given to the descendants of the Moors who remained in Spain after their expulsion and accepted Christianity

Mormon, n [1 mōrmun, 2 mōrman] Invented name, supposed author of the 'Book of Mormon', which contained the revelations on which the sect was founded. A member of a religious sect, founded, 1830, in America by Joseph Smith, a prominent feature of the creed being polygamy, the sect is properly styled Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, b (fig) a polygamist

Mormonism, n [1 mōrmunizm, 2 mōrmanizm] Preo & -izm. Religious principles and organization of the Mormons morn, n [1 mōrn, 2 mōn] OE morgen, 'morn, morning', ME morwe(n), O Fris morn, OS morgan, Goth maurgius, cp ON morginn, prob fr hase merph-*, 'to blink, twinkle', of the light at dawn. Cp morrow & morning n (poet or archaic). The morning, early part of the day, dawn, superseded in Modern English by morning b (Scots) Tomorrow, the morrow the morn' morn, tomorrow morning morning, n [1 mōrnig, 2 mōnig] ME morwening, 'coming or morn of day', morwen 'morn', & -ing. See preo 1 a The early part of the day, usually counted from dawn to midday or to the midday meal, Phr good morning, greeting in the morning, b (fig) the early period or beginning of anything the morning of life, c (poet) dawn, esp as personified, Aurora 2 (attrib) Morning coat, a tail coat, with skirt out away and fuller tails than a dress coat, morning-dress, dress other than evening-dress, morning glory, the name of a flowering twining plant, Ipomoea, of the convolvulus family, Morning Prayer, the morning service of the English Church, matins, morning-room, a sitting room, other than the dining or drawing room, for use in the morning, morning star, a the planet Venus as seen before sunrise, b (hist) a mediaeval weapon consisting of a spiked iron ball attached by a chain to a staff or handle, morning watch, the watch at sea from 4 A.M. to 8 A.M. morocco, n [1 morokō, 2 mōrkou], fr Morocco, where the leather was originally made. A fine flexible leather, originally made of goat-skin, now of calf- or sheep skin, specially grained to imitate the true morocco, Levami morocco, a large grained morocco, used for fine bookbinding moron, n [1 móron, 2 mórón], fr Gk mōros, 'foolish, stupid', cogn w Scrt mūrad, 'idiot'. A term used by American psychologists and criminologists of children, and of adult persons of feeble, undeveloped, or degenerate mind and character morose adj [1 morós, 2 marous], fr Lat mōrosus, 'peevish, capricious, full of whims', fr mōs, mōris, 'custom, habit' Seemoral(I) & -ose Surly, sullen, gloomy morosely, adv Prec & -ly In a morose manner, surly, sullenly moroseness, n See prec & -ness State, condition, of being morose, surliness, sullenness Morpheus, n [1 morfýōs, 2 mōfýūs] Lat, fr Gk Morpheus, 'the god of sleep', lit 'the maker of shapes or visions', fr morphē, 'shape' See morphology The God of dreams or sleep, hence, sleep itself morphia, n [1 morfía, 2 mōfía] Invented word, fr prec An alkaloid of opium, used as a narcotic to relieve pain & o, morphine

-morphie, suff Form fr Gk morphē, 'shape', used in compounds as anthropomorphic & c, see first element in morphology, & -ic morphine, n [1 morfēn, 2 mōfín] Fr See morphia & -ine (obem.) Morphia morphism, n [1 morfizm, 2 mōfínizm] Prec & -ism a The habitual taking of morphia, b diseased condition produced by this habit morphomaniac, n [1 mōrfinōmānia, 2 mōfinōmēnia] See prec & mania Irresistible, morbid craving for morphia morphomaniac, n [1 mōrfinōmāniak, 2 mōfínōmēniak] morphine & maniac One addicted to morphism, victim of the habit of taking morphia morphological, adj [1 mōrfolōgikl, 2 mōfálkzikl] morphology & -ic & -al Pertaining to morphology morphologically, adv Prec & -ly From the point of view of morphology, structurally morphologist, n [1 mōrfolōgist, 2 mōfálkdist] See next word & -ist Student of morphology morphology, n [1 morfologi, 2 mōfálledzi] fr Gk morphē, 'shape', the connexion of wh w Lat forma is possible, but not altogether clear, see form & -logy 1 The science and study of external form and structure, applied a (biol) to that of animals and plants, b (philol) to that of languages. 2 Mode of form or structure itself, a (biol) b (philol)

-morphous, suff Gk morphē, 'form', see prec, & -ous, in sense of 'having a specified form or structure' morris (I), n [1 mōris, 2 mōris] Earlier morys, a form of Mooreak, the dance was also called morisco, the reason for the name is uncertain An old form of dramatic dance, morris-dance, performed in fancy costume, with characters such as Maid Marian & c morris (II), n. Etymol uncertain also called merls An old game, played with stones or pegs, on a space marked on the ground, resembling draughts, it was called fire, nine men's morris & c according to the number of stones or pegs used morris tube n, fr inventor's name A metal tube inserted into the barrel of a rifle to lessen the bore and allow a miniature cartridge to be fired on short ranges or under shelter for practice, now superseded by the miniature rifle morrow, n [1 mōrō, 2 mōrou] ME morwe, form of morewen 'morn', q v 1 (archaic) Morn'ing a radiant morrow good morrow, good morning, good day 2 (liter or poet) The next following day we will come on the morrow 3 Time immediately following after a specified event the morrow of the victory brought down our men morse (I) n [1 mōs, 2 mō] O Fr mors, fr Lat mors, 'biting the catch of a buckle' fr mordere to b See mordant, morsel A large, round, ornamental brooch, used to fasten a cap or an euch morse (II), n Fr, fr Lapp morsha A walrus

Morse (III), adj Of or pertaining to a system of signalling by telegraph & o invented by S F B Morse (d 1872) Morse alphabet, code & o, built up of dots, dashes, and spaces morsel, n [1 mōrsl, 2 mōsl] O Fr morsel, Mod Fr moreau, dimin of mors, 'bite', Lat mors (um), PP type of mordere, 'to bite'. See mordant A small piece, fragment, of food & o mort, n [1 mort, 2 mōt] Fr, 'dead, death', fr Lat mori (em), mors, 'death' See next word Call on bunting horn announcing death of stag or other beast of chase mortal (I), adj [1 mortl, 2 mōtl] O Fr mortal, Mod Fr mortel, fr Lat mortalis, 'subject to death, mortal', fr mort (em), 'death', op also Lat mori, 'to die', the base occurs also in Sort mortal, 'mortal, man', mriak, 'dead', Gk brōtēs for mrods*, 'mortal', O Slav mrti, 'to die', mori 'pestilence', Lath mrtia, 'death', Goth maurpr, 'murder' See also murder & morbid 1 Liable to die, subject to death, liable to be ended by death, contrasted with immortal all men are mortal, this mortal life Phr the mortal remains of, all that is mortal of, the dead body 2 A causing death, deadly, fatal (in physical and spiritual sense) mortal wound, illness, mortal sine, those incurring perdition unless repented of and forgiven, b relating to, concerned with, accompanying, death mortal agony, mortal fear, arising from danger or dread of death, (colloq) in a mortal funk 3 A lasting till death, implacable mortal enemy, b (colloq) excessive, lasting a long time, wearisome, very great three mortal hours mortal (II), adv, fr prec (colloq or dial) Extremely, very he was mortal ill, mortal sorry & o mortal (III), n One subject to death, specif, a human being mortality, n [1 mortāliti, 2 mōtēliti] fr Fr mortalité, fr Lat mortalitas (em), 'mortality' mortal (L) & -ity 1 Quality, condition, of being mortal, liability to die none can escape mortality 2 Human nature as subject to death, the human race, humanity poor suffering mortality 3 Number of deaths occurring within given time, in a given place or area, death rate the mortality from small-pox is now negligible. Mortality tables, tables giving the expectation of life, or probability of death, over a specified period among specified persons of various ages mortally, adv [1 mortāl, 2 mōtēl] mortal (I) & -ly 1 So as to cause death, fatally mortally wounded 2 Gravely, irrevocably mortally offended mortar (I), n [1 mōrtar, 2 mōtā] OE mortere, ME mortur, op OHG morsart, 'mortar', fr Lat mortarium, 'a mortar', also 'cement', possibly connected w Lat mortum, 'a salad (mixture rubbed together)', the base being mer* & c, 'to rub', as in marcescent A mixture of lime, sand, and water used to bind bricks or stones together in building mortar (II), n Same as prec 1 A metal, stone, or hard porcelain vessel, bowl or bell shaped, in which substances, esp drugs, are pounded and ground to powder by means of a pestle 2 A short cannon, resembling a mortar in shape, used for throwing heavy shells at a high angle for short distances, b similar piece of ordnance for throwing fire hoses & c. to shipwrecks or for firing heavy fireworks mortar (III), vb trans, fr mortar (I) To bind, join, bricks or stones together with mortar mortar-board, n 1 A small flat board used by masons or bricklayers for holding mortar 2 A college cap, with a stiff, flat, square, projecting top, resembling a mason's mortar board.

mortgage (I), n [1 mōrgj, 2 mōgdjz] O Fr, lit. a dead pledge, mort, 'dead', see mortal, & gaga (I), a translation of Med Lat mortuum iudicium, 'dead pledge' (law) 1 A conveyance of property by the owner, mortgagor, as security for a debt or money lent by the mortgagee, the property remaining in possession of the borrower and being reconveyed on payment of principal and interest by him according to terms stated in the mortgage deed 2 The deed conveying property in this way mortgage (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To convey property by way of mortgage to another as security for a debt, or for money lent 2 (by trans) To pledge, put under an obligation or claim to mortgage one's future career mortgagee, n [1 mōrgajē, 2 mōgdaj:] mortgage & -ee The person to whom property is conveyed by way of mortgage as security for a debt mortgagor, n [1 mōrgajōr, 2 mōgdajō] See prec & -or The person who conveys property by way of mortgage mortician, n [1 mortišun, 2 mōtājan] Invented American term, fr Lat mort, as in mortal, mortify, & -ician Vulgar American euphemism for undertaker mortification, n [1 mōrtifikāšun, 2 mōtifikējan] Fr, fr L Eccles Lat mortificatio (em), mortificatio, 'a slaying, putting to death' See mortify & -ation Act of mortifying, state of being mortified 1 The subjection, submission, of the body and passions to fasting, penance & o as a spiritual exercise the mortification of the flesh 2 Vexation of spirit, humiliation, chagrin, shame, disappointment to have the mortification of acknowledging oneself defeated 3 (pathol) The death, decay, of a part of the tissues of the body during life, necrosis, gangrene mortify, vb trans & intrans [1 mōrtifi, 2 mōtifi] fr O Fr mortifier, fr L Eccles Lat mortificare, 'to kill, put to death', fr mort (em), mors, 'death'. See mortal (I) & -ly A trans 1 To submit the body to penance, fasting and other austerities, so as to reduce, or destroy, the earthly passions and appetites to mortify the flesh 2 To humiliate, cause chagrin or mortification to, to hurt, wound to be mortified at (by) a former friend's neglect 3 (pathol) To cause tissues of the body to become gangrenous B intrans (of tissues) To become gangrenous mortise, mortice, o & vb trans [1 mortis, 2 mōtis] ME mortise, fr Fr mortaise, etymol unknown, Span has mortaja, a possible Arab origin has been suggested 1 n A hole cut in a piece of timber, stone & o shaped to fit and hold the tenon of another piece which is to be joined to it Mortise chisel, a carpenter's heavy chisel for cutting mortises, mortise gauge, carpenter's implement for measuring and laying out mortises mortise lock, door lock fitted in a mortise 2 vb To join, fasten, by tenon and mortise mortmain, n [1 mōrtmān, 2 mōtmēm] O Fr morte main or main morte, Med Lat mortua manus, 'dead hand', applied to the Church as owner of property held in perpetuity, and incapable of alienation or transfer See mortal (I) & manual The tenure or possession of land & o by an ecclesiastical or other corporation not having power of alienation in mortmain, unalienable mortuary, adj & n [1 mōrtuəri, 2 mōtjuəri], fr Lat mortuarius, 'of, belonging to, the dead', fr mortuus, 'dead', see mortal (I), & -ary 1 adj Of, pertaining to, death, burial, or mourning mortuary emblems, monuments & c, mortuary chapel, one in which the dead are placed prior to Christian burial, chapel attached to public cemeteries, mortuary urn, one in which the ashes of a cremated body are placed 2 n a A public building in which dead bodies are kept, awaiting burial, or in which bodies of those found dead are kept prior to an laquest &c , a morgue, dead house, b (lust) fee formerly paid to the parson of a parish by a dead man's representative for masses &c

Mosaic (I), adj [1 mōzák, 2 mōuzéik] Pertaining to Moses, the leader of the Israelites, esp Mosaic law, the Pentateuch mosaic (II), n, fr Fr mosaïque, fr L Lat mōsaicus, mūsaius, adj, as if fr a Gk mōsaikos*, fr Late (Byzant) Gk mōsaion, 'mosaic work', as decorating a temple or shrine of the Mōsaia, the Muses See Muse (I) & museum 1 n a A form of surface decoration obtained by fitting together, so as to form a pattern or picture, a number of small pieces of different coloured marble, glass &c , b a picture, design, pattern, made in mosaic 2 (fig) A literary or other work made up of fragments, extracts &c of other works, a pastiche 3 (attrib) Formed, consisting, of mosaic mosaic work, a mosaic pavement &c , mosaic gold, an imitation gold pigment mosaic (III), v, trans, fr preo To form by or in mosaic, to decorate with mosaics mosaicist, n [1 mōzákist, 2 mōuzéistik] Prec & -ist A worker in mosaic mosasaurus, n [1 mōsasórus, 2 mōusasóras], fr Lat Mosa, 'the river Meuse', near wh the first fossil specimen was discovered, & Gk sáuros, 'lizard' See saurian A large extinct lizard moschatel, n [1 mōskatéil, 2 mōskatéil], fr Fr moscatelle See musc & muscatel A small plant, with greenish-white flowers having a musky smell moselle, n [1 mōzél, 2 mōuzél] A dry white wine from the vineyards in the valley of the Moselle

Moslem, also Muslim, n & adj [1 mōzlem, 2 mōzlem], fr Arab muslim, 'a believer in Islam', Pres Part of salama, 'to be safe' See Islam & salaam, also Mussulman 1 n A Mohammedan, Mussulman 2 adj Of, pertaining to, Mohammedans and their faith Moslem lands mosque, n [1 mōsk, 2 mōsk], fr Fr mosquée, op Ital moschea, Span mezquita, fr Arab masjid, 'temple' A Mohammedan place of prayer and worship mosquito, n, pl mosquito(es) [1 mōskétó, 2 mōs-, mōskítou] Span, dimin of mosca, 'gnat, fly', fr Lat musca, 'fly', cogn w Gk mūa, 'fly', cp also OE mycg, see midge, perh orig fr an imitation of the humming of the insect Any one of various kinds of dipterous insects or gnats, family Culicidae, of which the females have a piercing and bloodsucking proboscis; certain species act as disseminators of the germs of malaria, yellow fever, and other diseases Mosquito curtain, net, a fine-meshed net for keeping mosquitoes from a room, bed &c , mosquito fleet, craft, collective name for the smaller vessels, such as torpedo-boats &c , of a navy moss, n [1 mōs, 2 mōs] OE & ME mos, ON mos, cogn w OE mōs, 'mossy tract of country, swamp', OHG mos, see mare & musculology OE mōs has now disappeared except in Placo Names moss, the descendant of OE mos, doing double duty 1 (with sense of OE mōs) Bog, swamp, morass, still found in names of peaty moorland as Solway Moss, Chat Moss &c 2 (bot) The name of various cryptogamous plants, growing in small tufty masses in damp places, on rocks, trees &c , properly a plant belonging to the class Musci, of the Bryophyta, but often applied to other plants, eg lichens Iceland moss lycopodia club moss &c Phr a rolling stone gathers no moss, a restless, changeable sort of person will not prosper or gain wealth moss-agate, n A variety of agate with moss-like markings moss-bunker, n Popular form fr Du marbanker The menhaden, a large kind of Atlantic herring mossgrown, adj [1 mōsgrōn; 2 mōsgroun] a Covered, over-grown with moss, as old trees, houses &c , b (fig) antiquated, old-fashioned moss hag, n moss & hag (II) Boggy ground from which peat has been dug mossiness, n [1 mōsinēs, 2 mōsinēs] mossy & -ness State of being mossy or covered with moss moss-rose, n A variety of rose, having the calyx and stem covered with a dark-green mosslike growth moss-trooper, n, fr moss, 'bog, moor'; & trooper A freebooter, cattle-lifter, marauder of the Scottish Border, during the 17th cent mossy, adj [1 mōs, 2 mōs] moss & -y Covered with moss, resembling moss most, adj, n, & adv [1 mōst, 2 moust] OE mōst, 'most, greatest', used as superl of mūel, 'great', ME mōst, mōst, as though fr OE mōst*, the ā perh due to anal of māra, 'more', OS mōst, Goth maists, superl of maiz, 'more' See more 1 adj (as superl of many, much) Greatest, in number, quantity, or degree, to have (the) most soldiers, money &c , to have the most skill, talent &c , most men, people, the majority of men &c Phr for the most part, mostly, generally, usually 2 n The greatest number, quantity, amount, degree &c to ask the most for st, highest price, most of the loss, profit &c Phrs to make the most of, (1) to make the best use of, (n) to represent as of highest possible value, intensity &c , to exaggerate value &c of, at the most, at most, not more than, at the outside 3 adv a To the highest, greatest, degree what most pleased me, or what pleased me most, b (forming superl of adjs and advs) most glorious, most famous, most truly, most certainly, also as part of titles Most Reverend, title of archbishops, Most Gracious King, Queen, The Most High, God, Most Noble, for Dukes

-most, suff OE mōst, a double superl, (1) -ma, as OE meduma, 'midmost', forma, 'first', cp Lat superl in -mus, & (2) -est Identified w most, & even in OE w mōst, 'most' A superl suff to form adjs & advs foremost, topmost, utmost, also used w compar loicermost, undermost mostly, adv [1 mōstli, 2 mōstli] most & -ly For the most part, generally, usually, chiefly mot, n [1 mō, 2 mō] Fr, 'word' See motto A witty saying or remark, a bon mot mote (I), n [1 mōt, 2 mout] OE mot, ME mōte, 'atom, mote', prob cogn w Du mot, 'dust, sandst', & E Fris mut, 'rubbish' 1 A speck, tiny particle, esp of dust, chiefly used of minute particles of dust in the air motes in a sunbeam &c 2 (fig, archaic) Small, trifling blemish or fault 'The mote that is in thy brother's eye' (Matt vi 3) mote (II), v OE mōt, 'can, may', Pres tense of wh mōste was Prot See must (IV) (archaic) May, only in Phr so mo'e it be, so be it, so may it be mote (III) Variant of moot (I) motel, n [1 mōtél, 2 moutél] Fr, dimin of mot, 'word', op Ital motello & esp motto A vocal, usually unaccompanied, musical setting to a passage from the Bible, as sung in churches moth, n [1 mōth, 2 mōp] OE mōðe, mōðe, ME mōthe, cogn w ON mōti, Mod Germ motte, etymol uncertain, connexion w OE mōdu, 'maggot', Goth mapa, 'worm', offers difficulties on account of the vowels Cp mawlash A The popular name for those insects belonging to the Order Lepidoptera which are not called butterflies, being mostly nocturnal in habit and not having club-ended antennae, b the clothes-moth, Tinea, or any other insect whose larvae feed on woollen fabrics, furs &c moth-eaten, adj [1 mōth étn, 2 mōp iten] Eaten, destroyed, by clothes moths or other insects, (fig) worn-out, decayed mother (I), n [1 mōðher, 2 mōðe] OE mōðor, ME mōder, OS mōðar, OHG mōtar, ON mōðr, op Gael & Ir maithair, O Slav mati, Gk mētēr, Lat māter, Sert matr, fr base mā*, the meaning of wh is uncertain 1 a A female parent, Phrs necessity is the mother of invention, every mother's son, (colloq) everyone, everybody, b a motherly person, form of address to an elderly woman 2 An incubator, artificial rearing place for chickens, prematurely born animals &c 3 The head of a convent or nunnery Mother Superior 4 The source, origin of anything the House of Commons, Mother of Parliaments, our country, mother of heroes &c 5 (attrib) Mother Church, a the Church considered as the last resort of all, specif b a cathedral, as principal church of a diocese, also o the oldest parish church in a town, district, mother country, one's native land, also the original country from which colonies have been founded, mother tongue, one's native language, mother wit, natural wit, common sense Phr Mother Carey's chicken, the stormy petrel, Mother Carey's goose, the great fulmar, Mother Carey is supposed to be a sailor's corruption of Latin mater cara, 'the dear Mother', 10 the Blessed Virgin Mary mother (II), v, trans, fr preo 1 To look after, tend, cherish, as a mother 2 To adopt (a child) as one's own, acknowledge oneself to be the mother of mother (III), n Origin doubtful, op Germ mutter, 'mother, sediment', M Du has modder, 'dregs', whence Germ moder, 'mould', cogn w maud A thick soum or film produced by fermentation in alcoholic liquors, which is used to turn wine &c into vinegar, hence called also mother of vinegar, also a shmy sticky sediment in vinegar during fermentation motherhood, n [1 mōðerhood, 2 mōðəhəd] mother (I) & -hood A State, condition, of a mother, b quality, character, of a mother

Mothering Sunday, n [1 mōðerɪng sʌndi, 2 mōðərɪng sʌndi] Mid Lent Sunday, fourth Sunday in Lent, it was formerly the custom to visit the Mother Church of a town or district on this day and present offerings mother-in-law, n [1 mōðer in lɔw, 2 mōðər in lɔ] Wife's or husband's mother motherless, adj [1 mōðerles, 2 mōðəls] mother (I) & -less Having no mother motherlike, adj [1 mōðerlik, 2 mōðəlik] See prec & -like Having the qualities of mother, motherly.

motherliness, n [1 mōðerhnes, 2 mōðəlnis] Next word & -ness Quality of being motherly motherly, adj [1 mōðerli, 2 mōðəli] mother (I) & -ly Having the tender kindly qualities of a mother mother-of-pearl, n The pearly iridescent lining of certain shells, as of oysters, mussels &c , used in making buttons &c motherly, adj [1 mōðerli, 2 mōðərli] mother (III) & -y Full of mother or sediment, affected by mother motif, n [1 mōtíf, 2 mōtíf] Fr See motive A theme, idea, feature, running through and predominating in an artistic or literary composition, esp in music, a recurrent melodic phrase or passage motile, adj [1 mōtíl, 2 mōútəil] See motion & -ile (physiol) Capable of movement or motion, moving motility, n [1 mōtíliti, 2 mōútiliti] Prec & -ity (physiol) Capacity of movement motion (I), n [1 mōshun; 2 mōúʃən] Fr, fr Lat mōtiō (em), mōtiō, 'a moving motion', fr mōt (um), PP type of mōtū 'to move' See move 1 a Act or process of changing position or place, movement, b change in relative position of the parts of anything, mechanical action, Phr in motion, moving, changing position, to set in motion, start, set going or moving 2 a Bodily movement, way, style, of motion

ing the limbs, carriage all her motions were graceful, b gesture a motion of the hand, o: (1) an action of the bowels, (u) matter evoked 3 Mental act, purpose, intention, will, inclination Phr of one's own motion, without suggestion or influence from another 4 A proposal in a legislative or other assembly or meeting motion to adjourn, to refer to a committee &c 5 (law) Application to the court for an order or ruling on a specific matter motion (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To make a significant motion or gesture towards, expressive of wish or intention, to indicate direction by a gesture he motioned me away, to motion a person to a seat 2 intrans To make a significant motion or gesture he motioned with his head that I should leave him motional, adj [1 mōshunəl, 2 mōʃənəl] motion (I) & -al Connected with, of the nature of, causing, motion motionless, adj [1 mōshunles, 2 mōʃənles] See prec & -less Without motion or movement, at rest, perfectly still motion picture, n (Am usage) Cinematograph, moving picture motivare, vb trans [1 mōtivar, 2 mōtivar] Coined word fr motivare & -ate (psychol) To give a motive for, to impel, induce motivation, n [1 mōtivarshun, 2 mōtivarshən] Prec & -ion Provision of a motive, inducement motive (I), n [1 mōtiv, 2 mōtivar] ME, fr Fr motif, fr L Lat mōtivum, n, 'cause of movement', fr mōti (um), PP type of mōvere See move 1 That which influences the desires, incites the will in a particular direction, and induces a specific action, inner force which causes one to act in a particular way the motive of a crime &c 2 Predominant feature, idea, or theme underlying or running through an artistic or other composition which determines its form and general development, motif motive (II), adj Lat mōtivus, 'moving' See prec 1 Causing, imparting, motion or movement, concerned with, relating to, movement motive power, force, power, force, such as electricity, steam &c, which moves machinery 2 Relating to a motive or motives motive (III), vb trans, fr prec To move to action, to impel, incite to action as by a motive, (rare, except in PP) motivated by avarice &c motiveless, adj [1 mōtivarles, 2 mōtivarles] Prec & -less Without a motive, purpose, or object motivity, n [1 mōtivarsh, 2 mōtivarsh] motive (II) & -ity Capacity of producing or imparting motion motley, adj & n [1 mōtlē, 2 mōtlē] ME mōtelle, etymol doubtful, apparently Fr, perh fr O Fr motel, mōtelle, 'clod, clod of earth' Cp also mottle 1 adj Of various colours, parti coloured, of mixed ingredients, parts, or character a motley coat, motley scene, a motley crowd, assembly &c 2 n A parti coloured garment, esp one worn by a jester or fool to wear the motley, to act the jester motmot, n [1 motmot, 2 motmot] Native name, imitative A tropical S American bird, resembling the jay motor (I), n [1 mōtor, 2 mōtor] Lat, 'a mover', fr mōti (um), PP type of mōvere, to move, w agent suff -or See move 1 That which imparts motion or gives move meat to, a prime mover, such as a steam engine, turbine, water wheel &c, as source of motive power, b (elect) machine for converting electrical into mechanical power 2 A specific, a compact, powerful engine, now usually an oil (petrol) driven internal combustion engine, used to drive a vehicle, boat, aeroplane, airship &c, b vehicle driven by such an engine, motor car, motor boat &c 3 (anat) A muscle moving a part of the body, nerve exerting muscular action 4 (attrib)

Driven by a motor motor bicycle, cycle, motor boat, motor-bus, omnibus, motor-car, the usual term for automobile, motorman, one who is in charge of the motor on an electric train, tram &c, motor ship &c, motor-spirit, petrol motor (II), adj See prec Causing, imparting, motion or movement, specif (physiol) motor nerve, muscle motor (III), vb intrans & trans, fr motor (I) a intrans To travel by or in a motor-car to motor to Brighton, b trans, to convey in a motor car let me motor you to town motorist, n [1 mōtorist, 2 mōtorist] Prec. & -ist One who drives, travels by, a motor car mottle, n & vb trans [1 mōtl, 2 mōtl] Earliest form is mōtled, 'blotched', prob fr motley 1 n A blotch, spot, a collection, arrangement, of blotches of different colours or shades, as in certain stones, soap, on the face &c 2 vb To stain, mark, with blotches or patches of different colour, or varying degrees of brightness mottled surface, variegated motto, n [1 mōtō, 2 mōtō] Ital, 'saying, device', fr Low Lat mutum, Lat mutum, 'a mutter, grunt', fr mut (ire), 'to grunt, mutter', prob imitative, cp mutter & mut a A short, pregnant saying, phrase, or word, attached to or inscribed on anything as appropriate to it, specif, one attached to a coat of arms, crest &c, b a maxim, rule of conduct expressed in a short pithy sentence, a sentiment every man for himself was his motto, c a short quotation prefixed, as indicative or suggestive of the contents, to an essay, chapter in a book &c moucharaby, n [1 mōsharabī, 2 mōsharabī] Fr, fr Arab mashrabiyyah, 'bay window' (archit) A projecting latticed oriel window, in Moorish architecture, supported on corbels or brackets moufflon, moufflon, n [1 mōfflon, 2 mōfflon] Fr, moufflon, L Lat muftron, cp Ital muffione, etymol doubtful A wild mountain sheep, Ovis musimon, of Sardinia and Corsica, the rams having large recurring horns moupik, n [1 mōzhik, 2 mōzhik] Russ muzhik A Russian peasant mould (I), n [1 mōld, 2 mōld] Etymol doubtful, either a variant of mole (I), 'spot, blemish', or derived as mouldy, fr obs moul, 'to grow mouldy', PP moulded a A woolly or furry fungoid growth produced on clothes, leather, cheese, bread &c, when kept in the damp blue, green, mould, b the fungus which causes mould, iron mould, earlier iron-mole, a stain or mark left on linen &c by rust or ink mould (II), n & vb trans OE & ME mōlde, 'earth, dust, ground', OHG mōla, Gotb mūla, 'dust', ON mōld, 'earth', fr same base as that seen in mill (I), meal (I), 'flour', original sense, 'powdery earth, dust' 1 n a fine, loose crumbling earth or soil, humus, b earth, soil generally 2 vb To cover over with mould, also mould up, to heap the earth into a mound or ridge over something which has been planted to mould up potatoes mould (III), n ME mōlde, fr O Fr mōlle, earlier mōlle, Mod. Fr moule, fr Lat modulus, 'a small measure' See model 1 a Cavity, hollow receptacle, or matrix, within which plastic material such as clay, plaster, molten metal, jelly &c, is cast and shaped into desired form, a plasterer's template, Phrs (fig) cast in the same mould, exactly alike in character, disposition &c, (cast) in a heroic mould, lofty minded, heroic in character, b (in fig sense) pattern, model 'The glass of fashion and the mould of form' (Shakespeare) 2 Something shaped in a mould, a cast, moulded into an ornamental shape, b (fig) character, disposition, thought of as directed and modelled in a particular way the two were men of quite different mould mould (IV), vb trans, fr prec 1 To cause to assume desired shape, a by pouring into a mould to mould iron, b by kneading, working, pressing, squeezing &c to mould clay into busts 2 a To produce a given object in desired shape by moulding to mould a face in, out of, clay, b (fig and poet, of action of nature) Nature has moulded her form and features with masterly touch 3 (fig) To direct, determine, the development of, modify by precept, influence, discipline to mould a person's character Mould on, upon, to shape according to example or model of to mould one's conduct (up) on that of good men, to mould one's style upon the best writers mould-board, n Curved iron plate at back of plough share which turns the earth over moulded, adj [1 mōlded, 2 mōlded] fr PP of mould (IV) Shaped by, or as by, moulding, cast or modelled moulded iron, wax &c moulder (I), n [1 mōlder, 2 mōlder] mould (IV) & -er One who moulds or shapes, one who makes moulds for shaping, casting &c iron-moulder, in foundry work, the man who makes the moulds moulder (II), vb intrans Frq of mould (II) a To crumble to dust, to decay a moulderer, b (fig) to decline, degenerate, morally and intellectually, to pass one's life in inactivity and idleness to remain moulderer in the country Moulder away, to fall to dust, disintegrate, fall into ruin and decay mouldiness, n [1 mōldines, 2 mōldines] mouldy & -ness State of being mouldy, stale, or fusty moulding, n [1 mōlding, 2 mōlding] fr mould (IV) & -ing 1 a Act of shaping, casting, in a mould, b manner in which anything is shaped or moulded, modelling 2 a Object cast or shaped in a mould or cut or carved according to a pattern, specif b (often pl, mouldings) a narrow strip of decorated wood or stone or plaster, used for cornices &c on buildings, panelling &c mouldy, adj [1 mōldi, 2 mōldi] As fr mould (I) & -y, but prob orig fr moulded, PP of obs moul(en), 'to grow musty or mouldy' (of bread &c), cogn w ON mygla, of same meaning & allied to muggy a Covered with mould or fungoid growth, musty, fusty mouldy bread, cheese &c, b (fig) stale, old fashioned, out of date moulin, n [1 mōlan, 2 mōlan] Fr, 'mill', fr Lat mōlinum See mill (I) (mountaineering) A vertical shaft in a glacier, formed by a stream of surface water pouring into a crevasse, also the stream which does this moult (I), vb intrans & trans [1 mōlt, 2 mōlt] OE bi mūtan, 'to exchange', ME mouten (the t is due to some anal w fault), fr Lat mutare, 'to change' See mutable 1 intrans a (of birds) To go through periodical process of shedding the old plumage, b (more rarely, of other animals) to shed the old hair from their coats 2 trans To shed, lose to moult feathers &c moult (II), n, fr prec a Process of shedding old plumage, b period during which this takes place mound (I), n & vb trans [1 mound, 2 mound] Origin uncertain 1 n a An artificially raised heap of earth, stones &c, specif, one raised for defensive purposes near a castle, b isolated natural hillock, knoll 2 vb To pile, heap up, earth &c into a mound mound (II), n, fr Fr monde, Lat mundus, 'the world' See mundane A globe or ball of gold, surmounted by a cross, forming part of the regalia of a sovereign, orb mound-builder, n mound (I) (ethnol) Race of N American aborigines who raised large mounds for burial and defence mount (I), n [1 mount, 2 mount] OE munt, 'hill, mountain', ME mont, mount, borrowed fr Lat monti (em), mons, 'mountain', connected w Lat mnāri, 'to jut out, project, tower up', also to threaten' cp further Lat menium, clun 'see mental (II), W mynydd, 'mountain', all fr. base mru* &c., 'to project'. See mountainous, menace, also eminent 1 a A hill, mountain, b the regular form in names of mountains, as Mount Everest (abbr Alt) 2 (palms) A fleshy protuberance at the base of the fingers mount (II.), vb trans & intrans ME monter, mounten, fr Fr. monter, lit 'to go up hill', hence 'to climb, ascend', fr Lat. mont (em), mons, 'mountain'. See prec. A trans 1 a To climb, ascend, go up, get to, or on to, the top of to mount a hill, stairs &c., Phr to mount the throne, succeed as king; b specif., to get on to the back of to mount a horse 2 To set (an object) up in a fixed position or on or in something which will serve to hold it in position or securely Various specific senses a to mount a gun, on a gun-carriage, b to mount a picture, fix to a stretcher, or to a card out to serve as a margin, c to mount a specimen, on a slide for microscope work, d to mount jewels, put them in a setting, e to prepare, stuff, and set up the skin of an animal, f to mount a play, to furnish (a play and actors) with scenery, costumes, properties &c., to set on the stage Phrs to mount guard, to go on duty as sentinal or guard, to mount guard over, to guard, protect B intrans 1 a To rise, ascend, go up, b specif., got up on, seat oneself on, a horse he mounted and rode away 2 To increase in amount, rise prices continue to mount, also mount up, increase by accumulation losses, debts, bills, mount up rapidly.

mount (III.), n, fr prec. That on which anything is mounted, specif. a horse, mule &c. for riding, b a card serving as a margin for a picture, c setting for a jewel, d a slide for microscopic object, e carriage for a gun &c.

mount (IV.), vb trans In specific sense, fr prec. 1 To provide with a mount, load one a horse to ride my friend was good enough to mount me for the day 2 To provide (soldiers) with horses, turn into cavalry to mount a regiment mountain, n [1. móntain; 2. mduntin] ME montaine, fr O Fr. montagne, Mod Fr. montagne, fr Low Lat. montanea, Lat. montānus, 'of, belonging to, mountains, hilly', fr mont (em), mons, 'mountain, hill'. See mount (I). 1 A lofty, natural elevation of the earth's surface, generally used to imply something much larger than a hill Phrs to make mountains out of molehills, magnify petty troubles and difficulties, Old Man of the Mountains, the founder of the Assassins, Hassan ben Sabbah, living in N Persia, the mountain in labour, a great effort with only a small result or effect. 2 The Mountain, name of the violent extreme party during the French Revolution, les Montagnards, from the high seats they occupied in the National Assembly 3 (by transf.) a Anything of great bulk a mountain of flesh, a very tall, stout person, b (fig.) a very large amount or quantity a mountain of difficulties, habits &c., mountain(s) high, (of waves &c.) very high 4 (attrib.) Mountain artillery, battery, guns which can take to pieces easily and be packed on mules &c. for quick transport in mountain or hilly country, mountain ash, the rowan tree, mountain dew, Scotch whisky, properly, whisky illicitly distilled in the mountains, mountain sickness, a disease, marked by difficulty of breathing, debility, nausea, headache &c., caused by rarefaction of the air at very high altitudes mountaineer, n & vb intrans [1. móntainér, 2. mduntinér] Proc. & -er Cp Fr. montanier 1 n a An inhabitant of mountains or of hilly country, b a trained climber of mountains 2 vb To climb mountains mountaineering, n [1. móntainéring, 2. mduntinéring] Proc. & -ing Practice, sport, of climbing mountains mountain finch, n The brambling mountainous, adj. [1. móntainus, 2. mduntinés] fr O Fr. montagneux, fr L. Lat. montāneus, Lat. montānus See mountain & -ous 1 Characterized by mountains a mountainous district, country &c. 2 Resembling a mountain in bulk, very great, huge, enormous a mountainous load of debt mountainy, adj [1. móntaini, 2. mduntini] See prec. & -y. 1 Mountainous, very hilly 2 (an Irishman) Living in, coming from, the mountains or wild hilly districts of Ireland esp mountainy men mountainbank, n [1. móntainbengh, 2. mduntinbengh] Ital montambanco, fr montare, 'to mount', in, 'on', banco, 'bench', fr the platform or bench fr wh quacks &c. addressed their audience Cheap jargon, quack, charlatan, buffoon.

mounted infantry, n [1. mónted infantri, 2. mduntid infantri] Soldiers who are mounted for moving from place to place, but who fight on foot mounting, n [1. mónting, 2. mauntin] mount (II) & -ing. 1 A Setting up of a gun on its carriage, of a stuffed animal, microscopical specimen &c., b way in which a thing is mounted 2 That which serves as a mount, mount (in various senses) Mounting block, a stone or wooden step, used for mounting on horseback mourn, vb intrans & trans [1. morn, 2. mōn] OE murnan, ME mornen, Common Gmc, O H G. mornēn, Goth mairnan, ON morna, perh fr orig base mer-*, 'to ponder, hesitate' &c., op Lat. mora, 'delay'. See moratory & memory 1 intrans To feel and express grief or sorrow, to lament, regret, esp to lament for loss (of friends &c.) by death to mourn for, over, the dead, misfortunes &c. 2 trans To grieve, sorrow, for, to lament, regret to mourn the loss of friends mourner, n [1. mórner, 2. mōné] Proc. & -or One who mourns, a one mourning loss of relative or friend, specif. b one who attends the funeral of a dead person, as relative or friend, c an undertaker's assistant who attends a funeral in a professional capacity, a mute mournful, adj [1. mórnfool, 2. mōnful] mourn & -ful a Full of mourning, grief, or sorrow, b expressing grief mournful songs, c inspiring sorrow, gloomy, dismal a mournful scene mournfully, adv Proc. & -ly Sadly, sorrowfully mournfulness, n See prec. & -ness State or quality of being mournful mourning, n [1. mórnning, 2. mōnning] mourn & -ing 1 Lamentation, grief, sorrow sounds of mourning 2 Wearing apparel of black or dark material worn as sign of sorrow and respect for the dead Phr to go into mourning, to assume clothes of black or other suitable colour as sign of respect for the dead, in mourning, wearing such clothes for one recently dead 3 Period during which black is worn mourning-band, n Band of black crape or other material worn round the arm as a sign of mourning mourning-card, n Black edged card giving name, date of birth, and death of a deceased person mourning-coach, n A black carriage drawn by black horses, used at funerals mourning-paper, n Black edged note paper mourning-ring, n Ring worn in memory of one dead mouse (I), n, pl mice [1. mons, mīs, 2. maus, maīs] OE mūs, pl mūs, ME mous, Common Gmc & Aryan, cogn w O H G. & ON mūs, op Germ. mous, Du. muus, Russ. mūsh, O Slav. myš, Lat. mūs, Gk. mūs, Sert. mūsh, fr root meus-*, 'to steal'. 1 Any one of various species of small rodents belonging to the genus Mus, smaller than rats common house mouse, field mouse, also shrew mouse 2 A timid, quiet, retiring person. 3 A small wooden weight used in snare-windows 4 (slang) A black eye 5 (attrib.) Mouse colour, a dark grey colour shaded with buff or yellowish brown mouse (II), vb intrans [1. mouz, 2. mauz] To hunt for and catch mice (of cats, owls &c.).

mouse deer, n The chevrotain mouse-ear, n Hawk-wood mousey, n [1. mónzor, 2. mduza] mouse (II) & -er An animal, esp a cat, good at catching mice mouse-tail, n The stone crop mouse-trap, n Trap for catching mice.

mousquetaire, n See musketeeer mousee, n [1. mōds, 2. mūs] Fr. 'foam' A dish of whipped cream and eggs, with various flavourings &c. mousseline, n [1. mōsēlin, 2. mūsēlin] Fr. 'muslin', q v A fine, soft fabric of wool and cotton, mousseline de laine, or of silk, mouseline de soie.

moustache, mustache, n [1. mūstāsh, moos tāsh, 2. mūstāf, mūstāf] fr Fr., earlier mustachio, fr Ital. mostaccio, fr Gk. mustax, mūstax, 'that with which one chews, the mouth and jaws, the upper lip, moustache' Cp masticate The hair on the upper lip of a man, also used of bristles or hair round the lips and mouths of animals, as cats &c. Moustache cup, a drinking cup with a guard to prevent the moustache from becoming wet

Mousterian, adj [1. mōstērian, 2. mūstērian] fr Le Moustier, in S France, where remains of this type were first found (palaeont.) Belonging to the last type of culture of the early palaeolithic age mouth (I), n [1. month; 2. maup] OE mūð, ME mouth(e), OS mūð, Goth mūnths, ON munnr, munnr, fr base mūnθ*, mūth*, 'to chew'. See mandible 1 The orifice, protected by the lips, in the head or face of man and other animals through which food is taken, also the cavity into which the orifice leads, containing the tongue, teeth &c., and serving as the means both of transmitting vocal sounds, and of mastication of food. Phrs down in the mouth, dejected, depressed, make one's mouth water, (i) make one long to eat, from the action that appetizing, savoury food produces upon the salivary glands, (ii) make one envious to laugh on the wrong side of one's mouth, to be vexed or disappointed, to open one's mouth too wide, to ask, expect, too much, or too high a price, to put words into one's mouth, to suggest that one has said what one has not, to take words out of one's mouth, to anticipate what one is going to say 2 A horse's mouth, considered as susceptible to the pressure and guidance of the bit and reins hard, tender, bad, good, mouth 3 (usually pl.) A human being regarded as a consumer of food so many mouths to feed, useless, hungry mouths 4 Any outlet, opening, or aperture, as of a river, harbour, bottle, cave, bog &c., b the mouthpiece of a musical wind instrument mouth (II), vb trans & intrans [1. month, 2. maup] fr prec. A trans 1 To utter, speak, with a strained, affectedly sonorous or pompous voice, esp with excessive movement of lips and jaws to mouth one's words 2 To take (food) into the mouth and chew it, esp to make facial contortions while chewing 3 To train a horse to answer to the bit and reins B intrans a To make excessive movements and contortions of lips and jaws while eating or speaking, b to speak pompously, with over emphasis, to declaim, rant mouthed, adj [1. monthd, 2. maupd] mouth (I) & -ed Having a mouth, having a particular kind of mouth wide mouthed &c. mouthier, n [1. mūthier, 2. maupier] mouth (II) & -er One who mouths, a ranter mouthful, n [1. mūthfool, 2. maupful] mouth (I) & -ful 1 a As much food as the mouth will hold, b amount of food put into the mouth at one time. 2 A small portion or quantity, esp a small portion of food have a mouthful of luncheon before you start.

mouth-organ, n A small popular wind instrument, flat in shape, having openings for the various notes, and producing sounds of considerable sonority in proportion to its size, also called the pan pipes.

mouthpiece, n [1 móntpēs, 2 móuppis] 1 That part of a pipe, tube &c, which is placed in the mouth or between the lips, as of a tobacco-pipe, musical wind instrument &c 2 (by trans) Spokesman; organ, e.g. of the press, which voices current opinion 3 An appendage to the orifice of a water pipe to regulate the flow of water.

mouthy, adj [1 móudu, 2 móubi] mouth (II), &-y Ranting, declamatory, bombastic, garrulous, prolix.

movability, n [1 móvábiliti, 2 móvábiliti] See next word & -ity. Quality, condition, of being movable in space.

movable, adj [1 móvóvabli, 2 móvábli] O Fr movable, see move & -able, & up mobile (I) 1 Capable of being moved or of being changed from place to place, not stationary or fixed, movable property, chattels, personal property, as contrasted with real property 2 Changing in time, shifting movable feast, such as Easter, the date of which is different each year.

movableness, n See prec. & -ness. Movability.

movables, n. pl [1 móvóvabli, 2 móvábli] See prec. Movable property, chattels.

move (I), vb trans & intrans. [1 móv, 2 múv] ME moēen, mōven, mōcen, fr O Fr moover, Mod Fr mouvoir, fr Lat movere, P.P. mōvus, 'to move, set in motion', cogn w Skt mācāti, 'he shifts, presses, moves', Gk ameuomai, 'I get ahead of, surpass, conquer', also Cornish dual, amovec, 'interchange'; op also perb MHG moove, 'sleeve', apparently 'something drawn on'. A trans 1 To change the position of, to shift from one place to another, to move the furniture, to move troops, goods, traffic &c, to move a piece, in chess, draughts &c 2 To move house, to change one's residence for another, not well enough to be moved, to be transferred to another house, or place 3 To set in motion, start going, stir, shake, to move one's legs, the wind moved the trees, the engine moves the train, specif, to move the bowels, cause them to function 4 To affect, stir, arouse, the feelings and emotions, touch the heart, of the story moved me profoundly, much moved by sights and sounds of misery, b to provoke (persons) to the exhibition of some particular form of emotion to move one to tears, laughter, anger &c, c to urge, provoke, incite, persuade, to act in a particular way 'the Scripture moves us to acknowledge and confess' (General Confession), I felt moved to go for a ride, to pay a round of visits &c 4 To propose make a formal proposal for to move the adjournment of the House (of Commons), to move the previous question, to move a resolution, at a committee &c B intrans 1 (of living organisms) a To have the faculty or power of voluntary bodily movement, to be able to alter position of the body or its members by exerting the voluntary muscles, to live, have being 'God created great whales, and every living creature that move' (Gen 1 21), Phr to move in good society, to frequent it, b to exercise the function of movement, to set the body or part of it in motion, alter its position by volitional action keep quite still and don't move, I'm so stiff I can hardly move he moved uneasily in his sleep, there's not a soul moving c (of bodily members and organs) a To be set in motion, to undergo change of position, be brought into state or activity by the action of the will his lips moved, but no sound escaped them, his fingers moved rapidly over the keyboard, d to move oneself, carry, bear, oneself in a particular way to more gracefully 2 (of inanimate objects) a To be shifted from one position to another, be agitated, shaken, put into a state of motion, by some external natural force so still was the air that not a leaf was moving; b to be set in motion by a mechanical agency, perform a series of continuous movements as result of mechanical action a piston moves by steam pressure, a pendulum moves slowly backwards and forwards 3 To undergo a change of place, a (of persons) (i) to go from one place to another, shift one's position relatively to surrounding objects move nearer this way, out of the light &c, (u) to change one's habitat or place of residence, go from one place or region to another, and take up one's abode there; to migrate nomad peoples constantly move to new areas in search of pasture, to move into the country, (w) specif, to go from one house into another to live my house is too small for me, so I've made up my mind to move, b (of inanimate things) to be shifted from one place to another, to proceed, pass, be propelled, along, by the action of external forces a ship moves before the wind, the train moved slowly into the station. 4 a (of events, circumstances, external conditions) To progress, advance, change by natural process of development, to exhibit a certain trend or tendency of change events are moving rapidly, things are not moving quite as I could wish, 'And one far off divine event, To which the whole creation moves' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam'), b (of natural world) to exhibit signs of growth and development, to sprout, grow the weather is so cold that nothing is moving in the garden. 5 Specif, to make move in chess or draughts it is your turn to move 6 To make a formal motion in an assembly, court of law to move for an adjournment, papers &c C Followed by adverbs. Move about, intrans, to move from place to place Move away, intrans, to move from Move in, intrans, to enter, take up residence in, a new house Move on, a trans, (of policeman) to keep people, a person, on the move, prevent from loitering, b intrans, to go on to another place or position, to keep moving Move out, intrans, to leave, quit, one's house or place of residence.

move (II), n, fr prec. 1 A Act or process of moving, movement, a change of position, Phrs. to make a move, (i) to prepare to depart, to leave place where one is it is getting late, it's time to make a move, (u) to take action, begin to act, on the move, (i) continually moving from place to place, (u) (of things, events) progressing, advancing, stirring, b specif, removal of household effects to a different dwelling, change of residence 2 One of recognized movements, alteration in relative position of a piece at chess, draughts &c a knight's move 3 (fig) An act to effect a given purpose, device, step a clever move.

movement, n [1 móvymēt, 2 múvymēt] O Fr movement, Mod Fr mouvement, L Lat movimentum See move (I) & -ment 1 Act, process, fact, of moving or being moved, motion in the abstract, activity, agitation, contrasted with quiescence, passivity, repose, inactivity we find movement of one kind and another everywhere in nature 2 A Act of moving the body or members, carried out by man or lower animals, bodily motion whether voluntary or involuntary, gesture a faint movement of the lips, eyes, a graceful, hesitating, violent, movement of the hand, a movement of impatience, of disdain, gesture expressing these, b (pl) mode of moving the body, deportment, bearing, carriage her movements were easy and dignified c natural extension and expansion of branches, buds, leaves &c, of plants in process of growth. 3 Sum of a person's activities during a given period, including wanderings from place to place, and general doings and you let me know all your movements while you are away 4 A motion imparted by mechanical means to parts of a machine, b mode of action, way in which a machine works 5 Motion, disturbance, agitation, imparted to inanimate objects by natural forces the movement of the waves, of boughs in the wind 6 Passage, process of going, from one place to another a by draught or propulsion the movement of trains, traffic &c, b change of habitat, shifting of place of abode by men or animals, migration the movement of races, peoples, population 7 Liveliness, activity, increase of business considerable movement on the Stock Exchange, in the oil market 8 A Body of opinion, feeling shared by a number of persons, in favour of, or in opposition to, something, esp such opinion and feeling expressed in words and actions a movement to abolish the death penalty, the temperance movement, Phr in the movement, abreast of the times, b spiritual or intellectual stirring; tendency, trend of opinion, impetus towards new development the great religious movement started by Luther 9 That quality in a play or novel which gives a sense of life and reality, variety of action and sentiment, fire, spirit a play that lacks movement 10 A division of a long musical composition, e.g. of a sonata, having a characteristic tempo, slow movement or andante, quick movement or allegro.

mover, n [1. móvēr, 2 múvēr] move (I) & -er One who or that which moves, specif. an agency for the production of motion, a motive power or motor, b person who is active, who takes the initiative in an enterprise he is the chief mover in the scheme of reform, also prima mover, c a proposer, one who moves a resolution &c in an assembly.

movies, n. pl [1 móvīz, 2 múvīz] (vulg and colloq) Cinematograph, moving pictures. moving, adj [1 móvīng, 2 múvīng] fr Pres Part of move (I) 1 A Changing position, in process of movement, b causing motion. 2 Tending to excite the feelings, and stir the emotions, affecting, pathetic a moving appeal, a moving account of human suffering movingly, adv Prec & -ly In a moving, touching, affecting manner.

moving pictures, n. pl Cinematograph moving staircase, n A staircase or flight of steps moving on a continuous belt which carries passengers up and down an incline, escalator.

mow (I), n, [1 mō, 2 mou] OE māga, ME mowe, cogn w ON mūgi, A heap, stack of hay or straw, stack of sheaves of corn, esp barley mow, the term is usually applied to a stack of hay &c before being thatched or stored in a barn.

mow (II), n & vb intrans [1 mō, mon, 2 mow, mau] fr O Fr moer, Mod Fr moue, 'mouth, pout', etymol doubtful a A grimace, only in Phr mops and mows, gestures and grimaces, b vb, to make a grimace.

mow (III), vb trans [1 mō, 2 mou] OE māwan, ME mōuen, OHG māan, op Dn maayan, Germ māhen, cogn w Gk amān, Lat metere, 'to reap', op also mead (II), meadow, math 1 a To cut down (grass or other fodder crops) in swathes with a scythe, or with mechanical mower to mow the grass, clover &c, b to cut grass growing on (field, &c) with a mowing machine to mow a field, the lawn 2 (fig) To cut, sweep down, like grass the attacking troops were mown down by machine gun fire.

mower, n [1 mōēr, 2 mōwēr] OE māwēre See prec. & -er A person who mows or cuts grass, b a mowing machine.

mowing machine, n [1 mōūng mashēn, 2 mōūng mēshēn] A machine used for cutting grass, containing a revolving cylinder furnished with a set of sharp blades, cutting against a flat, fixed blade, drawn by a horse, driven by steam or petrol, or pushed by hand.

moxa, n, [1 mōksa, 2 mōksa] fr Jap mogusa A soft downy material made from

'to fold', cogn. w Gk plikem, 'to plait, twist'. See complex (I) & plioate 1 trans a To increase, add to the number of, to produce in large numbers, make more numerous, b (spool, arith.) to add, by the process of multiplication, a number to itself a specified number of times. c multiply 5 by 3, to add 5 to itself 3 times, $5 \times 3 = 15$ 2 intrans To increase in number carers multiply as one gets older Multiplying gear, gear for increasing speed in a machine; multiplying glass, (1) a magnifying glass, (u) a lens with a number of facets on one side multitude, n [1 mltitud, 2 mltitud] Fr. fr Lat multitudo, 'a great number, a crowd', fr. multus, 'much, many'. See multi- 1 Numerousness, greatness of number as the stars in multitude 2 A large number a multitude of flowers, bespoke, a large number of persons, a crowd, the multitude, the masses multitudinous, adj [1 mltitudin, 2 mltitudin] fr Lat multitudin-(em), stem of multitudo See pro & -ous Vary numerous, consisting of, pertaining to, a multitude or crowd multitudinously, adv Pro & -ly. In a crowded fashion, in very large numbers.

multitudinousness, n See pro & -ness State of being multitudinous multum in parvo, n [1 mltūm in parvō, 2 mltūm in parvō] Lat. 'much in little' Much contained in a small space multure, n [1 mltūr, 2 mltūr] fr O Fr moulture, fr L Lat moltura, 'grinding of corn', fr Lat. molere, 'to grind (corn)'. See mill (I) & meal (I) (Scots law) A toll or fee paid in grain or flour to a miller mum (I), adj [1 mum, 2 mum] Imitative of the smallest sound made by the lips Silent, dumb, also as noun mum's the word, silence is the essential thing mum (II), vb intrans Cp Du mommen, 'to mask', op also O Fr moner, 'to act in dumb show', & Span moner, 'buffoonery', both connected w Momus To act in dumb show, usually masked or disguised, esp to take part in popular acting and merry-making at Christmas, esp in Pres Part, to go mummaging See mummer mum (III), n, fr L G mumme, op Du mon A kind of strong ale or beer, originally brewed in Brunswick mumble, vb intrans & trans & n [1 māmb, 2 māmb] ME monelen, moniele, fr maum (I), op L G mummen, 'to mumble food', Dn monnelen, 'to mutter'. 1 vb intrans a To speak, utter indistinctly, to mutter, b to show, hint, esp. of an old toothless person 2 vb trans a To utter (words &c) in an indistinct manner, b to show or nuzzle (a crust &c) with excessive workings of the jaws 3 n. A mumbled indistinct sound or utterance mumblematians, mumbletext, n (archaic) A careless priest whose sense of his duties is satisfied when he has gabbled through his office or his sermon

Mumbo Jumbo, n [1 māmbō jūmbō, 2 māmbō džāmbō] a The supposed names of a negro or African deity or idol, b any object of popular superstition mumchance, adj & n [1. mūmchāns, 2. mūmchāns] fr mum (I) (obs) a adj Silent, b n, silence mummer, n [1 mūmer, 2. māma] fr O Fr moumer, moumeur, as maum (II), 'to act in dumb show', op M Dn munnen, 'to act as a mummer' a An actor in an old popular drama played mostly in dumb show, b (colloq) an actor (usually in derogatory sense) mummers, n [1 mūmer, 2. māma] fr O Fr moumer maum (II) & -ory a A performance by mummers, a dumb show, b any display of exaggerated and meaningless ceremonial, a mockery, pretentious show mummification, n [1 mūmifikāshun, 2. mūmifikāshun] mummy & -fication a 3ot, process, of mummifying or embalming, b state of being mummified.

mummyform, adj [1 mūmiform, 2. māmifōm] mummy & -form Shaped like, in the form of, a mummy mummify, vb trans & intrans [1. mūmifi, 2. māmifi] fr Fr mumifier See mummy & -fy a trans To make a mummy of, to embalm, b intrans, to shrivel, dry up, become like a mummy, ven in P P, mummified mummifying See mummy (II)

mummy, n [1 mūm, 2. māmi] fr Fr mumie, fr Ital mumma, in Med Lat mumia, fr Pers (Arab) mūmiyā, 'bitumen, a mummy', fr Pers mīm, 'wax'. 1 The body of a human being, or lower animal such as a cat, preserved from decay by embalming, specif, a body so preserved by the ancient Egyptians 2 A portion of an ancient mummy, or of materials used in mummification, reduced to powder, formerly used as a medicine, esp as remedy for wounds 3 A dark brown colour obtained from bitumen.

mummy case, n The case modelled to the shape of the body, with painted or moulded representation of the head and face, in which an Egyptian mummy was placed for burial mummy cloth, n The linen cloth in which a mummy was wrapped for burial mummy wheat, n A variety of Egyptian wheat, Triticum compositum, supposed to have come originally from seeds found with mummies.

mump, vb intrans [1 mump, 2. mamp] Imitative, op mum (I) & mumble, M Dn has mompelen, 'to whine, beg', mompem, 'to cheat' a To be sulky, to mope, b (old slang) to beg whinnily or cantingly, to play the imposter mumper, n [1 mūmper, 2. māmp] Pro & -or An old slang name for a fraudulent beggar mumps, n, pl treated as sing [1. mumps, 2. mamp] fr mump, fr sullen appearance of a patient a An infectious disease, accompanied by painful swelling of the glands of the throat and other parts of the body, infectious parotitis, b a fit of the sulks munch, vb intrans & trans [1 munch, 2. mau(b)] Pro imit, op mumble, not connected w Fr manger, 'to eat'. To chew, masticate food in a coarse manner, with much moving of the jaws and lips Munchausen, n [1. munchōuzən, munchāwən; 2. mančdžən, mančžən] fr Baron Munchausen, the name of the hero & supposed author of a book of impossible adventures & travels, written in Engl by a German, Rudolph Raspe, 1785. A wildly impossible story, an incredible yarn mundane, adj [1 mūndān, 2. māndən] Lat mundānus, 'of or belonging to the world', fr mundus, 'order of the world, the universe', fr mundus, 'orderly, neat', & -ano, for meaning op cosmos Belonging to this world, worldly, earthly, contrasted with spiritual or heavenly mundangus, n [1 mūndāngus; 2. māndāngus] fr Span murdango (obs) A coarse, offensively smelling plug tobacco mungo, n [1 mūngō, 2. māngō] Etymol unknown A variety of shoddy, but made from hard spun or felted woollen cloth mungoose, n See mongoose municipal, adj [1 mūnisipl, 2. mānisipl] fr Lat municipalis, 'of or belonging to a municipium, a free town with Roman rights of citizenship', fr municip, 'citizen of a free town', fr mūma, 'civic duties, functions', & -cep, form of cap (cre), 'to take, undertake', see capture, & -al, Lat mūnia is fr moenia, earlier moima*, op mūnus (fr moir*), 'a service, office, function, duty', & mūna, 'ready to be of service, obliging', the base, according to Walde, is mo-, mo-, 'to change, interchange', w nasal extension, the base is seen also in Goth maipma, 'gift, treasure', O.E. māþim in same sense, orig 'that which is changed, which passes from hand to hand' See also mutable 1 (Roman hist.) Having the rights of a municipium or free town 2 a Pertaining to the government of a borough, city, or town, b carried on, exercised by, the corporation of a city or town, or by the local authority of a district municipal trading, trammings &c 3 Of or pertaining to a free state or nation, specif, municipal law, the internal, domestic law of a state or nation, as contrasted with international law municipalism, n [1. mūnisiplizm, 2. mūnisiplizəm] Pro & -ism. System of municipal or local self government municipalist, n [1 mūnisiplist; 2. mūnisiplist] See pro & -ist A supporter of local self-government municipality, n [1. mūnisipliti, 2. mūnisipliti] fr Fr municipalité. See municipal & -ity 1 A town, borough, city, district &c enjoying local self-government 2 The corporate body exercising these functions; a local authority municipalization, n [1 mūnisiplizāshun, 2. mūnisiplizāzeshun] See next word & -ation Act, process, of municipalizing, state of being municipalized municipalize, vb trans [1 mūnisipliz, 2. mūnisipliz] municipal & -ize. To take over and administer under municipal government, to transfer the ownership and management of private industries &c to municipal or local ownership to municipalize the tramways municipally, adv [1 mūnisipl, 2. mūnisipl] municipal & -ly By municipal authority or administration, by means of local government, locally. municipally managed munificent, n [1 mūnifisens, 2. mūnifisens] Fr. fr. Lat mūnificētia, 'bounty, fullness, bounty, generosity', fr mūnificus, 'bountiful, liberal', the first element is mūnis, 'obliging' &c, q v under municipal See further -fio, -ent, -co Magnificent, lavish generosity, bounty, or liberality munificent, adj [1 mūnifisens, 2. mūnifisens] Apparently a back-formation fr pro, on the pattern of intelligent, intelligence. Lavishly generous, open handed munificently, adv Pro & -ly In a munificent manner munition, n [1 mūniment, 2. mūniment] Fr. 'defence', fr Lat mūnimentum, 'fortification, protection', fr mūnīre, (moenire), 'to defend, protect', fr moenia, 'walls, ramparts', cogn w Lat mūrus (fr moir*), 'wall', fr base mei*, moi*, 'a stake, pile', whence also Sort mayvālat, 'beam, post', mitif, 'makes firm'. See further mote (I) (usually in pl) Documentary records, archives, specif (law) the title deeds to property munition room, n A specially protected chamber belonging to a cathedral, college, large house &c in which title-deeds and other valuable documentary records are kept munition, n & vb trans [1 mūnishun, 2. mūnifshun] Fr. fr Lat mūnition (fr mūnīre, 'fortification, defence', fr mūnīre (um), mūnīre, 'to fortify, defend'. See munition & op ammunition 1 n (usually pl) a Military stores of all kind, esp shells, and ammunition for guns and rifles munitions of war, b material stored ready for any operation or emergency, esp munitions for a political campaign 2 vb To provide, furnish, with munitions to munition an army munjeet, n [1 mūnjēt, 2. māndžit] Hind. maijih Indian variety of madder, yielding a red dye munition, n See mullion munshu n See moonshes munshif n See moonshif munyak n [1 mūnyak, 2. mūntāžek] fr native Malay name. A small horned deer, the barking deer, of the East Indies and S E Asia.

murage, n [1 mūrij, 2. mūjrid] O. Fr.

fr Med Lat mūrāgum, fr Lat mūrus, 'wall'. See mural & -age. An ancient tax levied on citizens for the building and upkeep of city walls and fortifications.

mural, adj [1 mūral, 2 mjōral] Fr, fr Lat mūrālis, 'of or belonging to a wall', fr mūrus, earlier moerūs, for moerūs*, 'wall', cogn w OE (ge)mære, 'boundary', fr maira*, fr same base as moenia, 'town walls, ramparts'. See muniment, munition. Of or pertaining to a wall or walls.

mural painting, wall painting, fresco, mural decoration, mural tower, one built on ramparts. Mural crown, a (Roman hist) one with indentations to represent masonry, and shaped like a battlemented wall, given to the first who scaled the walls of a besieged town, b (her) a charge or badge of this form.

murder (I), n [1 mērdēr, 2 māda] OE morþor, morþur, 'murder, crime, sin', ME morþer, & also morder, through influence of O Fr murdre, wh is a Gmo loan word, OE had also morþ, 'murder, death, destruction, crime', Goth murþr, OE, OS, & ON morð, 'murder, death', fr same base as Lat mori (em), mors, 'death', mors, 'to die' &c, q v under mortal 1 (law). The felonious killing of a human being by another with malice aforethought, unlawful and intentional homicide, distinguished from (accidental or justifiable) homicide and manslaughter. Phr murder will out, every murder, or piece of wickedness, is sure to be discovered sooner or later, to cry 'murder', to raise a cry of alarm. 2 a Unwarranted and unjustifiable sacrifice of the lives of troops to send troops on such an errand was sheer murder, b irresponsible and excessive slaughter of wild animals.

murder (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 (law). To commit murder upon the person of. 2 To kill, slaughter, to destroy. 3 (fig) To spoil, ruin, through defective skill in execution to murder a song, to murder the English language &c.

murderer, n [1 mērdēr, 2 māder] Prec & -er. One guilty of murder.

murderess, n [1 mērdēres, 2 mād(ə)res] See prec & -ess. A female murderer.

murderous, adj [1 mērdērus, 2 mād(ə)res] murder (I) & -ous. 1 a Pertaining to, of the nature of, murder, likely to cause murder murderous assault, b apt to inflict murder a murderous weapon, c capable of, intending to inflict, murder, bloodthirsty a murderous ruffian. 2 a Deadly, perilous, likely to prove fatal a murderous fire from the enemy, a murderous climate, b (fig) extremely severe, intolerable murderous heat.

murderously, adv Prec & -ly. In a murderous manner, with intent to murder.

mure, vb trans [1 mūr, 2 mjō] fr Fr murer, fr Lat mūrāre, 'to enclose within walls', fr mūrus, 'wall'. See mural. To immure, enclose within walls, shut up, imprison.

murice, n [1 mūreks, 2 mjōreks] Lat, 'the purple fish, purple dye', for mūseks*, cp Gk muax, fr musax*, sea mussel', cp also Lat musculus, 'a little mouse, muscle of the body, sea mussel'. See muscle. The name of a marine Gastropod mollusc from which a purple dye was obtained.

muric acid, n [1 mūriāt, 2 mjōriēt] See next word. A salt of hydrochloric acid, chloride.

muric, adj [1 mūriātik, 2 mjōriētik] fr Lat mūrāticus, 'pickled in brine', fr mūria, 'brine for pickling', cogn w Lat mare, 'sea'. See marine. Of or pertaining to hydrochloric (muric) acid.

murine, adj [1 mūrin, 2 mjōrin] Lat mūrinus, 'of mice', for mūsinus*, cp mūs, genit mūris, 'a mouse', Gk mūs, OE, OHG &c mūs. See mouse. Of or pertaining to the family of rats and mice, or Muridae.

murk adj & n [1 mēr, 2 mā] Prob fr ON myrk, 'dark', cp the cogn OE ryre, myre, ME mirle. OS mirki. 1 adj (archaic and poet) Dark, gloomy, obscure, murky 2 n Darkness, gloom, murkiness the murk of night murkily, adv [1 mērkh, 2 māki] murky & -ly. Gloomily, darkly, obscurely.

murkiness, n [1 mērkhnes, 2 mākinis] See prec & -ness. Darkness, gloom.

murky, adj [1 mērki, 2 māki] murk, n, & -y. A dark, gloomy, obscure, misty, cloudy a murky night, day &c, b morally dingy, dubious.

murmur (I), n [1 mērmer, 2 māma] Fr murmure, Lat murmur, 'a murmur, roaring, grumbling sound', cogn w Gk mormurēin, 'to roar', of water. Sort marmara, 'rustle', of wind, reduplication of the imitative base mur. 1 a A low continuous sound, as of wind, water, of subdued talk &c, b beating of the heart &c, specif (med) any typical low sound from the heart, indicative of some disease of the organ. 2 A half suppressed grumble or complaint.

murmur (II), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr murmurer, Lat murmurare. See prec. A intrans. 1 a To make a subdued, continuous sound, as trees in the wind, water &c, b to speak in a low voice. 2 To complain, grumble, often followed by at, against. B trans. To utter, speak (words &c) in a low, subdued voice to murmur a prayer.

murmurous, adj [1 mērmerus, 2 māmares] murmur (I) & -ous. 1 Murmuring, full of murmurs or low, subdued sounds 'the murmurous haunt of flies on summer eves' (Keats). 2 Complaining, grumbling.

murmurously, adv Prec & -ly. Murmuringly, in, with, a low, subdued voice or sound.

murphy, n [1 mēfi, 2 māfi] Irish name (colloq) A potato.

murrain, n [1 mūrin, 2 mārin] ME moreine, fr O Fr morine, cp Span morriña, Port morriña, prob fr Lat mori, 'to die'. Cp mortal. An infectious disease of cattle, cattle plague. Phr a murrain on you!, (archaic) plague on you!

murrey, adj & n [1 muri, 2 mar] fr O Fr moree, Lat mūrāi (ue), 'mulberry coloured', mūrum, 'mulberry', cp morel (II) a adj (archaic) Of a mulberry or dark purple red, b n, a dark red purple colour.

murrhine, adj [1 mūrin, 2 marin] fr Lat murr(h)inus, 'made of murr(h)a', a stone of which precious vases &c were made, possibly fluor spar, a (Roman antiqu) Made of murrhine, as murrhine cups, goblets &c, b resembling or supposed to resemble the Roman murrhine, murrhine glass, a coloured glass ware with small particles of gold or other coloured metal embedded in it.

Musca, n, pl Muscae [1 muska, kē, 2 māska, kī] Lat, 'fly', cogn w Gk musa, 'fly, gnat'. Cp mosquito (zool). The genus of dipterous insects which includes the common house fly Musca volitans, Lat, 'flying flies', the medical term for floating specks or dots in the eye.

muscadell, n See muscatel.

muscadine, n [1 muskadin, 2 māskedin] Fr, dimin form fr Port moscado, or Ital moscato, 'flavoured with musk'. See muscatel. A Muscatel grape, b muscatel wine.

muscardine, n [1 muskardin, 2 maskedam] Fr, fr Ital moscardino, 'a lozenge flavoured with musk'. See muscatel. 1 The dor mouse, so called from its musky smell. 2 A parasitic disease of silkworms.

muscat, n [1 musket, 2 māsket] Fr See muscatel. Light-coloured, musky, grape.

muscatel, n [1 muskatel, muskatel, 2 māsketel, maskatel] Fr, fr Ital moscatello, moscadello, 'muscatel grape and wine', fr moscato, moscado, 'flavoured with musk'. See muska. A white grape, of several varieties, having a strong musky scent and flavour, also a raisin of this variety of grape, b a strong sweet white wine made from muscatel grapes.

muscle, n [1 mūsl, 2 māsl] Fr, fr Lat musculus, 'a little mouse, a sea mussel, muscle, force', fr mūs, 'mouse', a muscolo in movement being supposed to resemble a creeping mouse. See mouse & mussel.

1 A band or mass of elastic fibrous tissue in an animal body, possessing power of contraction by means of which movement is effected. Phr not move a muscle, remain perfectly still, be motionless. 2 (fig) Bodily force, strength, or vigour a man of muscle.

muscle-bound, adj. Having the muscles enlarged and overstrained and rendered inelastic by over exercise.

muscle, adj [1 mūsl, 2 māsl] Furnished with strong muscles, muscular.

muscleless, adj [1 mūslis, 2 māslis] muscle & -less. Without muscles, feeble, flabby, flaccid.

musoid, adj [1 mūekoid, 2 māskoid] See next word & -oid. Moss like.

musculology, n [1 muskoloji, 2 māsklōdji] fr Lat musculus, 'moss', cogn w O Slav mūchū, 'moss', OE mas, see moss. Science, study, of mosses, hryology.

muscovado, muscovato, n [1 māskovádō, -tō, 2 māskavdōu, -tōu] fr Spen mascabado, 'of inferior quality, unrefined'. Dark-coloured moist sugar obtained by evaporating the juice of sugar cane and draining off the molasses.

Muscovite, n & adj [1 muskovit, 2 maskavāt] fr Fr, fr Moscowite, 'Muscovy, Russian', fr Russ Moskva, 'Moscow' a n A Russian, b adj, Russian Muscovite glass, common mica, usually colourless.

Muscovy duck, n [1 muskovi duk, 2 māskavī dāk] Corrupt of 'musk-duck'. A South American duck, Cairina moschata, now domesticated, the musk duck, so called from its slightly musky smell.

muscular, adj [1 muskilar, 2 māskjula] Earlier musculous, now obs, fr Lat mūsculosus, fr mūsculus. See muscle & -ar. 1 Of, relating to, effected by, affecting, the muscles muscular system, energy, strength, muscular rheumatism. 2 Having well developed muscles, strong, brawny, powerful. Phr muscular Christian, a term applied, originally somewhat disparagingly, to the active, physically vigorous and healthy religious man, as portrayed in the writings of Charles Kingsley, so muscular Christianity, a Christian life of cheerful, physical activity.

muscularity, n [1 māskilāriti, 2 māskjulariti] Prec & -ity. Quality, state, condition, of being muscular.

musculature, n [1 muskilashur, 2 maskjulešur] fr muscle & -ate & -ure (anat). System, arrangement, of muscles in the animal body.

musculo-, pref. Form of Lat musculus, 'muscle' (see muscle), used as pref in anatomical terminology musculo cutaneous, of muscle and skin, applied to a nerve in the arm and leg.

Muse (I), n [1 mūz, 2 mjōz] Fr, fr Lat Mūsā, fr Gk Mōisa, 'a Muse, musio', fr month ja*, cogn w OHG mendī, 'exultation, joy', fr manþī*, cp also OS mendian, 'to rejoice', possibly connected w base men*, 'to think'. See mental (I) & mind. See also museum & music. 1 (cap, class mythol) One of the nine nymphs or goddesses, the Muses, daughters of Zeus, protectors and inspirers of the arts, such as music, poetry, history, dancing &c. 2 (without cap) Poetical inspiration or genius, the musae, poetry.

muse (II), vb intrans & n, fr O Fr muser, 'to loiter, dream, reflect', op amuser, 'to gaze, stare at', & see amuse, etymol doubtful, prob fr O Fr muse, etymol of an animal, muzzle', Mod Fr museau, Ital has musare, 'to sniff the air to catch a scent', as a dog, fr muso, 'muzzle'. See muzzle. 1 vb. a To ponder deeply, reflect, to be in a state of reverie, ho lost in meditation to muse a while, b muse (upon), over, to consider silently and rapidly, dwell upon meditatively to muse upon a distant view, on what one has heard, over past memories &c. 2 n. (obs. or archaic) Pro,

- revenons à nos moutons, a phrase in an old French farce, 'Maitre Pathelin', used by the judge in bringing a wandering witness back to the subject, some sheep, of a case he is trying
- 2 The flesh of sheep, as used for food Phr Dead as mutton, quite dead
- mutton bird, n Sailor's name for a large petrel of the S Atlantic and Pacific oceans
- mutton-chop, n A piece of the rib or loin of mutton served fried or grilled, mutton-chop whiskers, short bushy whiskers extending to the corners of the mouth, shaped like a mutton-chop
- mutton-head, n (colloq) A stupid, slow-witted person
- mutton-headed, adj Stupid, slow in the intellect
- muttony, adj [1 mütum, 2 mätant] mutton & -y Like mutton, having the taste, smell, or consistency of mutton
- mutual, adj [1 müchooal, 2 müts[ua]l], fr Fr mutuel, fr Lat mutuus, 'borrowed, lent, exchanged', fr base seen in Lat mutare, 'to change' See mutable 1 Interchanged, reciprocal, reciprocated, given and received by two or more persons to or from each other, felt by each of two or more persons for each other mutual gifts, affection, hostility &c 2 Performed by a joint action, done in common mutual efforts; the expression mutual friend, one who is a friend of several people, a common friend, is, strictly, against the best usage, but is fairly common since being used by Dickens 3 (insurance) Mutual plan, mutual benefits &c, referring to a system by which the insured persons are shareholders and members of the company, and share in the profits
- mutualism, n [1 müchooalizm, 2 müts[ua]l-izm] Prec & -izm 1 (biol) Close association, or symbiosis, between two dissimilar organisms, the term is generally used to imply the mutual advantage of both 2 (ethics) Theory that mutual dependence is essential to social well-being
- mutuality, n [1 müchooaliti, 2 müts[ua]liti] mutual & -ity Quality, state, of being mutual or reciprocal, reciprocity, interdependence
- mutually, adv [1 müchooal, 2 müts[ua]l] mutual & -ly In a mutual manner, reciprocally
- mutule, n [1 mütl, 2 mütyül] Fr, fr Lat mutulus, dimin, either, fr mūt-, fr mūt-*, cogn w Lat mūta, 'comical stone', cp ON mētr, 'a beam, balk' &c (see mete (I) & muniment), or, fr mūt-, = mutulata trabs, 'truncated beam' See mutulate (archit) A flat projecting block under the corona of the cornice of the Doric Order, equivalent to the modillion in the Corinthian Order, the mutule represents the projecting ends of rafters of an earlier wooden structure
- muzhik, n See mozuyik
- muzzily, adv [1 muzhik, 2 mázil] See muzzy & -ly In a muzzy, dazed manner
- muzziness, n [1 muznes, 2 mázina] See muzzy & -ness State, condition, of being muzzy or dazed
- muzzle (I), n [1 muzl, 2 mázl] ME mosel, fr O Fr musel, muze, now museau, fr Med Lat musellus, dimin of L Lat mūsus, 'snout', etymol unknown, the vb is fr the n 1 The projecting nose and mouth of an animal, as of a dog, fox, cat, ape &c, snout 2 Cage-like device made of wire and leather, fastened over the head and muzzle of an animal, esp of a dog, to prevent it biting or eating 3 The mouth or opening of anything, esp of a fire arm, as a gun, rifle &c Muzzle energy, energy of a projectile at its discharge from the muzzle of a gun, muzzle-loader, a fire-arm loaded at the muzzle, contrasted with breech-loader, muzzle-loading, adj, loaded at the muzzle, muzzle velocity, velocity of a projectile at its discharge from the muzzle of a gun
- muzzlo (IX), vb trans, fr prec 1 To put a muzzle over the jaws and month of an animal 2 To impose silence upon, restrict freedom of speech of
- muzzy, adj [1 müzi, 2 mazi] Etymol unknown. Confused in mind, dazed, stupid, as from drink
- my, possessive adj of 1st person singular [1 mi, 2 mai] OE min, see mine (I), ME min & mi, the latter being used before consonants, the former before vowels a Belonging to me, mine my clothes, house, relatives &c, b as form of address my dear, my lord &c, (colloq) in friendly way or patronizingly my dear fellow, my good man &c, c as interjection my goodness!, oh my!
- myalgia, n [1 miälja, 2 mäveldžia] Invented word, fr Gk mäs, 'muscle', & algos, 'pain', on anal of neuralgia See myo- & -algia Muscular pain
- myalism, n [1 miahizm, 2 mävahizam] Prob fr a negro word & -ism A West Indian negro magico or witchcraft
- myall, n [1 miawl, 2 mäül], fr native Australian masal, 'wild' Any of various Australian acacias with hard, sweet-scented wood
- mycelial, adj [1 mäsiäl, 2 mäsiäl] See next word & -al Of or belonging to mycelium or fungus spawn mycelial spores, threads &c
- mycelium, n [1 mäsilium, 2 mäsiüliam] Scientific concoction fr Gk mükös, 'fungus' See myco- Mushroom or fungus spawn
- mycetoma, n [1 mäsetöma, 2 mäsiötöma], fr Gk mükös, stem of mükös, 'fungus', see myco-, & -oma A fungoid disease of the bones of the foot and leg, sometimes also of the hand, also known as madura foot
- myco-, pref Form of Gk mükös, 'fungus', wh is perh cogn w Gk müza, 'mucus', & w mucus Chiefly used of parasitic, or fermentative, fungoid bacteria mycodermis, the fungus which produces 'mother of vinegar' during the fermentation of wine
- mycological, adj [1 mikolöjiki, 2 mäikälidžiki] myco- & -logical Of, pertaining to, mycology
- mycologist, n [1 mikolöjist, 2 mäikälidžist] Next word & -ist A student of mycology
- mycology, n [1 mikölöji, 2 mäikälidžä] myco- & -logy Scientific study of fungi
- mycosis, n [1 mikösiz, 2 mäikösiz] myco- & -osis Condition in which the body is affected by fungoid growth
- myelitis, n [1 mielitis, 2 mäielitiz], fr Gk myelös, 'marrow', etymol doubtful, & -itis Inflammation of the spinal cord, or bone-marrow
- mylodon, n [1 milödon, 2 mäilödon], fr Gk mülä, 'mill', in pl, 'molar teeth', cogn w mill (I), & odont-, 'tooth' See odonto- An extinct genus of giant sloths, found as fossils in S America
- myna, muna, n [1 mīna, 2 mäina] Hind mainā A South Indian passerine bird, the grackle, of glossy black plumage, marked with purple and green, and an orange bill
- mynheer, n [1 minhär, 2 mäinhä] Du mijnheer, 'sir', mijn, 'mine', & heer, 'master', cp mine (I) & younger A Dutchman
- myo-, pref, fr Gk müds, müs, 'muscle', see muscle, used in anatomical terminology, myocardium, the muscular structure of the heart &c, myology, anatomical study of the muscular system &c
- myope, n [1 müp, 2 mäioup] See next word A short-sighted person
- myopia, n [1 müpia, 2 mäioupiä], fr Gk müöp-(os), müops, 'short-sighted', fr mucin, 'to close', see mystery (I), & base ö of öps, 'the eye' See optic Short-sightedness, near sightedness
- myopic, adj [1 müpik, 2 mäioupiki] See prec & -ic Short or near-sighted.
- myosis, n [1 müsis, 2 mäivüsis], fr Gk myein, 'to close' See myopia & -osis
- (pathol) An unnatural, extreme smallness, or contraction, of the pupil of the eye
- myosotis, n [1 müsötis, 2 mäisötis] Lat, fr Gk myosötis, the name of the plant, lit 'mouse's ear', fr müds, müs, 'mouse', & ötis, genit of ötis, 'ear' See oto- a The plant forget-me-not, b (bot, cap) a genus of herbs, belonging to the borage family, of which the forget-me-not, Myosotis palustris, is a species
- myriad, n. & adj [1 minäd, 2 märiäd], fr Gk müriäd-(os), müriäs, 'the number 10,000', fr mürios, 'infinitely numerous, countless', etymol doubtful 1 n a The number 10,000, b an indefinitely large number, an immense number 2 adj Extremely numerous, countless, numberless
- myriapod, n [1 minäpod, 2 märiäpod] Prec & Gk pod-(ös), 'foot' See -pod (zool) Any animal belonging to the subclass Myriapoda, which is composed of the mille pedes and centipedes
- myriorama, n [1 müriöräma, 2 mänu räma], fr Gk mürios, 'countless', see myriad, & öräma, 'a sight, spectacle', see second element in panorama An obsolete form of entertainment, consisting of a large number of pictures and views variously combined
- myrmeco-, pref [1 märmekö, 2 mäimikö] Combining form, fr Gk mürmäl-(os), mürmäl, 'ant', possibly cogn w Lat formica, 'ant', see formic, used in zoological terminology
- myrmecology, scientific study of ants, myrmecophaga, the great ant eater
- myrmidon, n [1 märmidon, 2 mäimidon], fr Gk Mürmidónes a (cap, Gk antäq) One of a warlike, savage Thessalian race, the subjects and followers of Achilles, hence, b an unscrupulous inferior who carries out orders without compunction, partisan, (the myrmidons of the law, policemen, bailiffs, sheriff's officers)
- myrobalan, n [1 mürobälan, 2 mäuröbälan] Lat myrobalanum, Gk mürobälan, 'a sweet balsam made from a palm nut', fr müron, 'sweet plant juice', see smear, & bälanos, 'acorn, nut', see balaniferous The dried astringent fruit of certain East Indian trees, Phyllanthus emblica, containing tannin, used in dyeing and tanning
- myrrh, n [1 mēr, 2 mä] OE myrra, fr Lat myrrha, fr Gk mürrha, 'myrrh, the juice of the Arabian myrtle', fr Arab murr, 'bitter, the myrtle', ME myrr is fr O Fr myrr, Mod myrrhe, Mod Engl spelling is taken fr Lat A resinous gum, bitter in taste and strongly aromatic, obtained from various species of balsams, formerly used for incense and in embalming, also prized for medicinal qualities, now chiefly used as an astringent and antiseptic mouth wash, & in perfumery
- myrtle, n [1 märtl, 2 mäül], fr O Fr myrtille, 'myrtle-berry', dimin of myrte, 'myrtle', fr Lat myrtus, fr Gk mürtos, cogn w Pers mürd, 'the myrtle tree', of Semitic origin, cp myrrrh (bot) Any shrub belonging to the genus Myrtus, esp M. communis, the European myrtle with dark, glossy, evergreen leaves and fragrant white flowers
- myself, pron [1 mäself, 2 mäiself] my & self 1 Emphatic pron of 1st pers, 'subject, after I I did it myself, (archais) myself I did it, alone, with my own hands, I saw it myself, actually with my own eyes, I myself was present, in person Phr I am not myself, am not in my ordinary, normal state, mentally or physically 2 As reflex pron I have hurt myself, I have hit myself on the hip'
- mystagogic, adj [1 mistägöjik, 2 mistägödik] Next word & -ic Of, pertaining to, a mystagogue
- mystagogue, n [1 mistägog, -gög, 2 mistägög, -gög], fr Lat mystagögos, fr Gk müstagögos, 'initiator into the mysteries', fr mütrös, 'an initiate', lit 'one whose lips are closed', fr müem, 'to close, shut', & agögos, 'leading, leader', fr again, 'to lead' (q v under agö-)

See mystery (I) a (Gk antiq) The teacher or initiator of candidates in the religious mysteries, such as those of Eleusis, b a teacher of esoteric or mystical religious doctrines, hierophant mysterious, adj [1 místēnus, 2 místērēus] See mystery (I) & -ous Cp Fr mystérieux Full of mystery, secret, difficult to understand, obscure, unexplained, inexplicable a mysterious disease, person, murder, mysterious hints &c mysteriously, adv Prec & -ly In a mysterious manner mysteriousness, n. See prec & -ness Condition or quality of being mysterious mystery (I), n [1 místērī, 2 místērī], fr Lat mysterium, fr Gk mysterion, wh is usually pl tá mysteria, 'secret, religious rites, a secret, mystery', fr mústēs, 'one who is initiated into the mysteries', fr múein, 'to initiate, teach', fr muein, 'to elose, shut the lips', fr the imitative stem *mu, seen in muum (I), muuble, muuter &c 1 A Any strange, secret, obscure fact, principle, force, motive &c something mysterious, unexplained, inexplicable, or puzzling the mysteries of nature, mystery of a murder, of conduct &c, Phr to make a mystery of, to hide, conceal, what is plain, obvious, simple, b secrecy, concealment wrapped in mystery 2 a (class antiq, in pl.) Secret lore, rites, and ceremonies only revealed to the initiated, eg the Greek Eleusian mysteries, b similar secret rites and ceremonies as practised by primitive races 3 (ecclcs) A doctrine, aspect, ceremony &c of the Christian religion beyond human understanding, applied to the doctrines of the Trinity, Incarnation, and esp to the Eucharist 'these holy mysteries' (Prayer Book) 4 A mystery play, q v mystery (II), n. ME mistere, later mystery, fr confusion w prec, fr O Fr myster, Mod myster, 'trade, occupation', fr Lat ministerium, 'service', fr minister, 'servant' See minister (obs) A trade or craft, a handicraft, also the body of persons practising a special trade or craft, a guild mystery play, n A form of mediaeval drama, representing scenes from the Old or New Testament, as the Creation, the Nativity &c, and so called as treating of the mysteries of religion, they were frequently staged and managed by a particular craft or trade guild or mystery (mystery), and the origin of the term has been referred to the latter word without justification The French term is mystère, not myster, for this form of early drama, see also miracle and morality mystic, adj & n [1 místik, 2 místik], fr Fr mystique, fr Lat mysticus, fr Gk muthikós, 'of, pertaining to, a mústēs, an initiate to the mysteries' See mystery (I) 1 adj a Relating to mysteries or secret ceremonies, having an inner, secret meaning, esoteric, occult, emblematical mystic oris, rites, doctrines &c, b (poet) ward, uncanny, strange, mysterious 'an arm clothed in white samite, mystic, wonderful' (Tennyson, 'Morte d'Arthur'), o of, relating to, mysticism or mystics mystic relations with the spiritual world 2 n A believer in mysticism mystical, adj [1 místikl, 2 místikl] Prec & -al Mystic mystically, adv Prec & -ly In a mystical manner mysticism, n [1 místisizm, 2 místisizm] mystic & -ism Cp Fr mysticisme Doctrine that a knowledge of ultimate reality, and the divine, can be gained only by immediate intuition, esp by concentration of the mind on, and absorption in, the divine essence, which leads through ecstasy to the revealing vision mystification, n [1 místifikashun, 2 místifikashun] Fr See mystify & -fication 1 Act of mystifying, state of being mystified, bewilderment 2 That which mystifies, a mystery, puzzle mystify, vb trans [1 místifi, 2 místifi], fr Fr mystifier, as mystic & -fy a To instil a sense of mystery into the mind of, to puzzle, bowerder, b to render mysterious myth n [1 múth, múth, 2 múth, múth], fr Gk múthos, 'word, speech, tale, legend', etymol doubtful 1 Sometimes pronounced [1 múth, 2 múth] A fictitious, traditional story or legend, embodying ancient or primitive beliefs in, and an interpretation of, religious or supernatural phenomena such as the gods and lesser deities, the forces of nature Hercules myths, the myth of Cupid and Psyche, solar, deluge, myth &c 2 Generally [1 múth, 2 múth] a An imaginary, fictitious, person, event, or thing Mrs Horro was a myth invented by Mrs Gamp, the unicorn is a myth, b a fictitious story mythic, adj [1 múthik, 2 múthik] fr Lat mythic (us), Gk muthikós, 'of, relating to, a myth', see prec (poet) Mythical mythical, adj [1 múthikl, 2 múthikl] See prec & -al 1 Of or relating to myths, legends, or fables 2 Having no existence except in myth, imaginary, fabulous, legendary mythically, adv Prec & -ly In a mythical manner, by means of a myth or myths mythicize, vb trans [1 múthisiz, 2 múthisiz] mythic & -ize To form a myth of, to turn into, treat as, a myth, to explain as a myth mytho-, pref Combining form fr Gk múthos (s), 'myth', q v mythography, n [1 múth-, muthógrafi, 2 múth-, muthógrafi] Prec & -graphy The delineation, representation, of myths in painting or sculpture mythological, adj [1 mútho, muthológikl, 2 mútho, muthológikl] mytho- & -logical Of, relating to, mythology or myths, fabulous, imaginary, mythical mythologically, adv Prec & -ly In a mythological manner, mythically mythologist, n [1 múth, mithológist, 2 múth-, muthológist] mythology & -ist Student of mythology and of myths, an inventor of myths or fables mythologize, vb intrans [1 múth, mithológiz, 2 múth, muthológiz] See prec & -ize To treat of myths and mythology, to invent myths or fables mythology, n [1 'múth, mithológí, 2 múth, muthológí], fr Fr mythologie, fr Gk muthologia mytho- & -logy A Study, science, of myths, b collection, body, of myths concerning particular deities &c, or current among a particular race mythology of Apollo, Scandinavian mythology &c mythopoeic, adj [1 'mútho, mithópéik, 2 mútho, muthópéik], fr Gk muthopoi (de), 'myth making', múthos, see myth, & poiein, 'to make' See poet Creating, tending to produce, myths mythopoeic faculty mythopoeitic, adj [1 mútho, mithópéitík, 2 mútho, muthópéitík] mytho- & -poetic Mythopoeic myxoedema, n [1 míksoédéma, 2 míksoédéma], fr Gk myxa, 'slime', see myucus, & oídēma, 'swelling', fr oída, 'to swell', see oedema (pathol) A metabolic disease, resembling cretinism in its symptoms, due to deficiency in the thyroid gland

N

N, n [1 en, 2 en] The fourteenth letter of the English alphabet, as mathematical symbol, n stands for an indefinite quantity or power, as to the nth power, for use in abbreviations, see list at end of Dictionary nab, vb trans [1 náb, 2 náb] Etymol doubtful, cp Swed nappa, 'to catch' (slang) To catch, seize suddenly, while in the act of doing something, esp something criminal the police nabbed the thief yesterday nabob, n [1 nábob, 2 nábob] Ad fr Hind & Arab nawāb, pl, w sing meaning, of nāib, 'deputy, lieutenant-governor during Mogul Indian Empire', cp Fr nabob & cp nawab a Name given in 16th and early 18th cents to Anglo Indians who came home with great wealth after official service or trade in India, b (gen.) person of great wealth nacarat n [1 nákarat, 2 nákarat] Fr, fr Spn racarado, fr nacar, 'mother of pearl' See nacre a A bright orange red colour, b fine crepe or linen material of this colour nacelle n [1 náhse, 2 náhse] Fr, fr Lat navicella, later navicella, 'little ship', dimin of navis, 'ship' See naval (aeronautics) a The basket attached to a balloon, b the framework containing the engines, crew &c of an airship nacre, n. [1 náker, 2 néika], or as Fr [1 náker,

2 náker] Fr, op Span nacar, Ital nacchero, L Lat has nacrum, all prob fr Arab nagrah, 'hollow, cavity', fr nagaro, 'to hollow out' Cp naker Indescent, pearly lining of shell of various molluscs, mother of pearl.

nacred, adj [1 nákerd, 2 néikad] Prec & -ed. Covered, lined, with nacre nacreous, adj [1 nákreus, 2 néikreus] nacre & -ous a Of, pertaining to, resembling, nacre or mother of pearl, b in descent, shining nadir, n. [1 nádir, náder, 2 nédir, néide], fr Arab nadr (nadr), 'opposite to', in phr nadr ex-semi, 'opposite to the azimuth or zenith' 1 (astron) Imaginary point in heavens, directly opposite to the zenith, the lowest of the two poles of the horizon, the point directly under one's feet, as the zenith is directly above one's head. 2 (fig, and by transf) The lowest point, stage, of depression or decline at the nadir of one's career, hopes, ambitions &c nacvus, n [1 névus, 2 níveus] Learned (Lat) pl. naevi, [1 névi, 2 nívi] popularly naevus Lat, 'wart, mole', for gnacvus*, fr root gen*, as in nátus for gnátus, 'born', hence 'that which is born with one, birth-mark' See genus, kin, kand (L) (med.)

Namo given to various stains, marks, or tumours on or under the surface of the skin, caused by enlargement and spreading of the blood vessels, usually congenital, hence often styled 'birth mark' nag (I), n [1 nag, 2 næg] ME nagge, 'horse', Etymol doubtful, cp M Du negge, Mod Du. nag, in same sense a Small riding horse, pony, this as sign of an inn the Nag's Head, b (usually in derogatory sense) a poor, inferior, kind of horse a wretched nag, the old nag nag (II), vb trans & intrans Scand, op ON gnaga, 'to gnaw' See gnaw 1 nag TRANS To worry, pester, by persistent and continuous scolding, complaints, fault-finding &c, esp used of a woman to nag a man to death, also nag at 2 intrans To scold, complain, find fault persistently and perpetually to nag from morning to night nag (III), n, fr prec (colloq) Persistent, continuous scolding, carping, fault-finding as nag, nag all day long nagana, n. [1 nagahna, 2 négahna], fr Bantu n'gana, native name for disease Cattle disease of S and E Africa, caused by the tsetse fly nagger, n [1 nager, 2 næg] nag (II) & -er A scold, persistently complaining woman.

same base *g'no-, as in know, the word in Engl is later than narration. To relate, give a connected account, by word of mouth or in writing, of a series of facts or events as they occurred, to recount, tell the story of & to narrate one's adventures.

narration, n [1 nárshun, 2 nárshən] Fr, fr Lat narrātiōn-(em), 'a relating, narrating of events &c, narrative', fr narrāre See narrate a Process, act, of narrating, relating, recounting the bare narration of the facts in the case took two hours, manner, style, form of narration, b that which is narrated, narrative, esp a rather diffuse story travellers' narrations narrative, n [1 nárativ, 2 nárativ] fr Fr narratif, adj, fr Lat narrātīvus, 'suitable for narration', fr narrāre See narrate & -ive 1 n a Tale, story, account of events in order of time, specif b (Scotts Law) recital, that part of a deed which sets out the facts, such as names, reasons for the deed &c 2 attrib a In form of a narrative, tale, story, setting out events or facts in order of time narrative literature, b connected with narrative a writer of great narrative power narratively, adv Preo & -ly. In form of a narrative or recital of events in order narrator, n [1 náratur, 2 náratur] Lat Ses narrate & -or One who narrates, the teller of a story narrow (I), adj [1 nárō, 2 nárōu] O E nearu, M E narowe, narowe, O.S. naro, etymol doubtful, connexion w base seen in nerve, has been suggested, but the etymol of this is also dubious 1 a (of material things) Of small width or breadth in proportion to length, the opposite of broad or wide a narrow road, pass, passage, river &c, narrow plank, margin, ribbon &c, narrow cloth, of less than 52 in wide, narrow gauge, of railway lines, less than 4 ft 8½ in wide, narrow goods, ribbons, tapes, braids &c Phrs one's narrow bed, the grave, narrow escape, one accomplished with difficulty, risk, and danger, (colloq) a narrow squeak, something with difficulty, and only just, escaped or avoided, narrow majority, one only slightly larger than minority, the Narrow Seas, English Channel and Irish Sea, narrow victory, one only just gained, nearly a reverse, the narrow way, (fig) the difficult path of virtue, op Matt vi 14, b limited in area, restricted in extent our space here is rather narrow, also fig (of life, opportunities) confined to limited orole a narrow scope for one's energies, Phr narrow means, circumstances, poverty 2 a (of the mind and its processes) Limited in outlook, working only in restricted sphere, confined to one point of view, prejudiced, bigoted a narrow mind, interests, to take narrow views, b (of persons) possessing such a mind, taking such views 3 Mean, parsimonious, hard in bargaining -very narrow in his dealings, narrow with his money 4 Of limited meaning or intent, restricted to literal meaning of the words in a narrow, the narrowest, sense 5 (phon) a Ambiguous term implying tenseness of the tongue in utterance, applied also to vowels uttered with a tense tongue, better called tense, b (of air passage in given utterance) constricted, exiguous narrow (II), n, fr prec A narrow channel or strait between two seas or two lakes, narrow pass in mountains; (usually in pl) the Narrows narrow (III), vb trans & intrans narrow (I) 1 trans To reduce the width of, cause to become narrow (in all senses, lit and fig) Phr to narrow an argument down, reduce to single point or to a few essential points 2 intrans a To become narrow the river narrows at this point; b (of the eyes) to be almost closed, leaving only a narrow slit between the eyelids narrowly, adv [1 nárōh, 2 nárōuh] narrow (I) & -ly 1 In a narrow manner or form (in all senses), specif, by a narrow margin, with difficulty, scarcely, hardly. he narrowly escaped drowning, was nearly drowned 2. In a close, searching manner to cross examine a witness narrowly, to look at a thing narrowly, to watch a person or process narrowly narrow-minded, adj Having a narrow mind, prejudiced, bigoted.

narrow-mindedly, adv Preo & -ly In a narrow-minded way narrow-mindedness, n See preo & -ness State or condition of being narrow minded narrowness, n [1 nárōnos, 2 nárōunis] narrow (I) & -ness State or condition of being narrow (in all senses) the narrowness of the road, narrowness of his views, mind &c narthex, n [1 nártheks, 2 nártheks] Gk nárthēx, 'the giant funnel, small casket for unguents', in L Gk applied to the architectural feature, fr resemblance to the hollow, reed-like stem of the plant, op Scrt naḡaś, 'reed' (arohit) A long arched porch at the west end of early Christian churches, forming a place for those, such as penitents or catechumens, not admitted to the body of the church narwhal, narwal, n [1 nárwal, 2 nárwal] Scand, op Swed. & Dan narhval, O N nārhuāl, the last element is 'whale', q v, O N hval, Swed & hval, the first element is doubtful, prob O N nār, 'corpse', the animal being of a pale, whitish colour on the under side A kind of Arctic whale, the male having the left of two tusks developed into a long twisted horn, also called sea-unicorn nasal (I), adj [1 nāzl, 2 nēzl] fr L Lat nāsālis, 'belonging to the nose', fr nāsus, 'nose' & -al, coga. w nares See also ness & nose a Of, belonging to, connected with, the nose, b (phon) applied to speech-sounds in the formation and articulation of which the air stream passes through the nose, c to a mode of utterance in which all speech-sounds are to some extent nasalized nasal (II), n, fr preo 1. A straight piece of metal projecting from the early mediæval helmet to protect the nose 2 (phon) A nasal sound nasalism, n [1 nāzalizm, 2 nēzalizm] Preo & -izm Nasal pronunciation nasality, n [1 nēzāliti, 2 nēzaliti] nasal & -ity Quality of being nasal, resonance in nose passage nasalization, n [1 nēzalizāshun, 2 nēzalizāshun] See next word & -ation Process, result, of nasalizing speech-sounds nasalize, vb trans [1 nāzaliz, 2 nēzaliz] nasal (I) & -ize (phon) To utter (a vowel or consonant) while the air-stream, or part of it, is allowed to pass through the nose.

nasally, adv [1 nāzāl, 2 nēzāl] nasal (I) & -ly With a nasal sound or accent, through the nose nascent, adj [1 nāsēnt, 2 nēssēnt] Lat nāscent-(em), Pres Part type of nāsci, 'to be born', fr base *g'nat- & ucsptive suff -sk. See this base under natal, native, & nature Coming to, approaching, birth, beginning to grow or be formed, just appearing, coming into existence naseberry, n [1 nāzberi, 2 nēzberi] Corrupt of Span nasepa, fr Lat mespilus, Gk mespilē, 'medlar', etymol unknown A West Indian and Central American tree and its fruit, also called Sapodilla naso-, pref Form of Lat nāsus, 'nose', see nasal (I), used in compounds, indicating connexion with the nose, chiefly anatomical naso labial, of nose and lips, naso palatal, nose and palate &c nastily, adv [1 nāshlī, 2 nāshlī] nasty & -ly In a nasty, dirty, offensive manner nastiness, n [1 nāshlīnes, 2 nāshlīnes] nasty & -ness a State, condition, quality, of being nasty, b nasty object, dirtiness, foulness, c nasty thought or expression, obscenity nasturtium, n [1 nāstūshum, 2 nāstūshum] Lat, 'cress', for nās tortum, 'nose-twister', fr the hot, pungent smell and taste of leaves and seeds of the plant, fr nāsus, 'nose', see nasal (I), & tort-(um), PP of torquere, 'to twist, twinge', see torture a (bot) Genus of plants belonging to the order Cruciferae, including the watercress, b a garden plant, Tropaeolum, of many varieties, climbing or dwarf, with red and yellow flowers nasty, adj [1 nāshlī, 2 nāshlī] Etymol doubtful, op possibly Du nesht, 'dirty', M E has nasty, wh may be an earlier form, op Swed dial naskig, 'dirty, foul' Unpleasant, offensive, revolting, disgusting 1 Offensive to the senses, esp those of taste and smell, nauseous, sickening, repellent a nasty smell, taste, nasty medicine, a nasty sight, one exciting feelings of physical disgust, a nasty job, one which it is physically revolting to perform, Phr to leave a nasty taste in the mouth, (fig) leave a lasting impression of moral disgust 2 Morally offensive and shocking, specif, unpleasantly suggestive, indecent, obscene, morally filthy and unclean a thoroughly nasty book, play, he has a nasty mind, a nasty story, Phr (colloq) a nasty piece of work, a person with a nasty mind, and guilty of dishonourable or disgusting conduct 3 Exhibiting, imbued with, ill-will and malevolence, angry, spiteful, malicious a nasty temper, a nasty remark, Phr to turn nasty, become angry or spiteful, to play one a nasty trick, behave to in a treacherous or mean manner, a nasty piece of work, a malevolent action or intrigue 4 a Threatening, menacing, dangerous a nasty look in his eye, things look nasty for me, a nasty storm is coming on, b painful, severe, dangerous a nasty fall, a nasty bout of influenza, c difficult to deal with, awkward, precarious a nasty rock to climb, rather a nasty situation, position (fig); he got himself into a nasty mess, (fig) an awkward predicament natal, adj [1 nātāl, 2 nēstāl] fr Lat nātālis, 'of or belonging to one's birth', fr nāt (um), PP type of nāci, 'to be born' See also nation, nature The orig base is *g'nā-1, 'to produce' &c, whence also Goth knōþr, 'race, stock', O H G clmūt, also O E cniht, 'progeny, kindred' &c, fr *knōss-la, fr Aryan *g'nāt-lō, *g'nāt-lō, op O H G clmūsal, cogn w Gk gnōis, 'relative', *g'nōt-, *g'nāt- &c are variants of Aryan base *g'en-, q v under genesis, genus, generate &c See also kin, kind (I) Of or belonging to one's birth natal day, birth day, natal place, birthplace.

natality, n [1 nētāliti, 2 nēstāliti] Fr nātālité See preo & -ity Birth rate natant, adj [1 nātānt, 2 nēntānt] fr Lat nātānt-(em), Pres Part type of nātare, 'to swim, float', freq form of nāre, 'to swim' See next word Floating, swimming, as of water-plants whose leaves float on the water natation, n [1 nātāshun, 2 nēntāshun] fr Lat nātātiōn (em), 'swimming', fr nātāli, PP type of nātare, extended form of nāre, 'to float, swim'. The orig base was *snā, *snr-, also *sno-, as in Gk nothos [for *enot], 'damp' Cp also Scrt snāti, 'he bathes', & M Ir snaim, 'I swim', & further O E snōwan & (w different suff) O N snýðr, 'to baste'. See also nard & necto-Swimming, art of, skill in, swimming natatorial, natatory, adjs [1 nētātōrial, 2 nēntātōrial, nēntātōrial] Lat nātātor, 'swimmer' See preo & -ial, -y Swimming, pertaining to swimming nates, n pl [1 nātēz, 2 nēntēz] fr Lat nātes, pl of nātis, 'rump', prob cogn w Gk nōion, 'back', other cognates unrecorded (anat) Buttocks, rump natheless, natheless, adv [1 nāth(o)lēz, 2 nāp(a)lēz] M E natheles, combination of O E nā, 'no, not', & ā, 'ever', see aye, & O E pý, instr of def art, & less See nevertheless (obs or poet) Nevertheless nation, n. [1 náshun, 2 né[ən], fr Fr nation, Lat nātiō (em), 'hreed, race, people' & , fr base *g'rāt, q v under natal. 1 A large group of human beings who form an independent political unity, and are subject to a single supreme central government, usually occupying a clearly defined geographical area, and further united by an ancient community of race, customs, traditions, and general spirit, and feeling themselves to be a unity: the British, French, Dutch, nation &c, the voice of the nation, opinion of the majority of the inhabitants of a country, law of nations, international law, Battle of the Nations, Leipzig, 1813. Phr most favoured nation, one whose exports are subject to the lowest rate of tariff charges when they enter given country, the latter having the same terms for its own exports. 2 A group of people who form, or ones formed, an ancient national unity, though at present either geographically scattered (Jewish nation), or forming part of a larger national unit (Scottish, Welsh nation), but still presenting distinguishing racial and other characters, such as separate religion or language. 3 (Bib) In pl. the nations, the Gentiles, the non-Jewish peoples. 4 (in mediaeval universities) Group of students belonging to the same race or nationality.

national (I), adj. [1 náshunal, 2 ná[ənəl]] Prec & -al. 1 Pertaining to, characteristic of, disseminated throughout, springing from, a nation: national spirit, genius, customs, literature, language &c, specif usages: national anthem, State hymn or song, as 'God save the King', the 'Marseillaise' &c, National Assembly, convention of representatives of a nation, national debt, the public debt of a State, national church, an established church, national flag, national forces, army, navy and air force, b owned, controlled, guaranteed by the State, nationalized national railway, bank &c, national theatre, one subsidized by the State. c (gen) public, popular, (as part of a name or title) National and Provincial Bank, the Grand National (steeple chase) &c.

national (II), n., fr prec (usually pl) One who has the full rights, by birth or naturalization, of a citizen of a nation or State, used esp of those living in a foreign country: the State's duty is to protect its nationals.

nationalism, n. [1 náshunalizm, 2 ná[ənəlizm]] national (I) & -ism. 1 Consciousness of, and pride in, the individual character and spirit of a people as felt by themselves, sense of national unity. 2 Specif, a political movement to foster and assert the right of national independence when this is conceived to be imperilled or suppressed by the pre dominance of another nation.

nationalist, n. & adj. [1 náshunalist, 2 ná[ənəlíst]] national (I) & -ist. 1 n. a One imbued with a spirit of nationalism, b specif, member of a political party or society aiming at the assertion of the national spirit and the rights of nationality. 2 adj. Supporting, upholding, nationalism: nationalist ideals, party &c.

nationality, n. [1 náshunaliti, 2 ná[ənəliti]] national (I) & -ity. 1 Status of a member, by birth or naturalization, of a particular State or nation. 2 State, quality, of belonging by birth to a particular nation. 3 Nation: How many nationalities are represented at Geneva?

nationalization, n. [1 náshunalizáshun, 2 ná[ənəlízə[ən]] nationalize & -ation. 1 Act, process, of nationalizing or making national: state of being nationalized. 2 Specif, the process of transferring fact of transference from private, to national or State ownership and control of such things as land, mines, railways &c: the nationalization of the railways, of land &c. 3 (rare) Naturalization.

nationalize, vb trans [1 náshunaliz, 2 ná[ənəlíz]] national (I) & -ize. Cp Fr nationaliser in same sense. 1 A To make into a nation the Poles are now nationalized, have become an independent nation, b to make current among a nation, render national: to nationalize the Gaelic language in Scotland. 2 To remove (land, mines, railways &c) from private ownership and control, and bring under that of the State. 3 (rare) To naturalize.

nationalizer, n. [1 náshunalízer, 2 ná[ənəlízə]] nationalize & -er. One who supports a policy of nationalization, esp in economic sense.

nationally, adv. [1 náshunali, 2 ná[ənəli]] national & -ly. In a national manner, by the nation as a whole, from a national point of view, publicly: to consider a question nationally, not from a personal, local, class, or party point of view.

native (I), adj. [1 nátv, 2 né[ətí]] fr Fr naif, mass, native, fam, fr Lat nātivus, 'born, innate, natural, primitive', fr nāt (um), 'horn', fr base of natal, & ivus, acc -ive. 1 Belonging, pertaining, to a person by birth: one's native land, language, a native word, one belonging to the ancient vocabulary of a language, and not borrowed from another tongue, contrasted with loan word, one's native place, that where one was born. 2 Of or belonging to the people of a particular country, race &c, usually of non-European people, aboriginal: native customs, dress &c, native troops. Phr to go native, (of a European) to adopt the mode of life &c of a less civilized race among whom he lives. 3 Born with one, innate, not acquired from others, or by training, education &c, native genius, talent, wit. 4 (of plants and animals) Growing or living naturally in, indigenous to, a specified region, not introduced from outside, reverse of exotic: oak, ash, and thorn are native English trees, the native British black rat is nearly extinct, specif, native oysters, those bred artificially in British waters, b (of minerals &c) in a natural, original state: native rock, metal.

native (II), n., fr prec. 1 One born in a particular place, town, country &c, inhabitant, denizen: a native of Somerset, a native of Hungary. 2 A person belonging to a non-European race, as applied to the aborigines of a newly discovered country and so generally by European settlers &c to the inhabitants of a country with a civilization lower than or different from their own: South African natives, the Bantus or Hottentots, many natives and Europeans lost their lives during Indian riots. 3 A An indigenous plant or animal: the eucalyptus and kangaroo are natives of Australia, specif b a native oyster bred artificially in British waters.

nativity, n. [1 náktiviti, 2 ná[ətívi]] fr Fr naivité, fr L Lat nātivitas (em), 'birth'. See native (I) & -ity. 1 (esp) a Birth, esp that of Jesus Christ, festival of His Nativity, Dec 25th, Christmas Day. b pictorial or sculptured representation of the same. 2 Birth, festival, or representation of that of the B.V.M., on Sept 8th, or of St John the Baptist, on June 24th. 3 (astrology) Horoscope: to cast a man's nativity.

natron, n. [1 nátrun, 2 né[ətɹən]] Fr, through Span, fr Arab nātrūn, fr Gk nitron. See nitre (chem and mineral). Native carbonate of sodium, found in salt lakes, and used in ancient Egypt for embalming.

nattejack, n. [1 nátejak, 2 né[ətédzæk]] Province Engl, first element perh. fr O.E. nit (or, 'venom, poison', w initial n- fr indef art, op newt, cp OHG etlar, 'poison', & province Engl altercop, 'epider', O.E. nit (or is cogn w Gk oidos, 'a swelling, tumour', see oedema). Kind of toad with a yellow stripe on the back.

naty, adj. [1 náta 2 né[ətí]] Etymol. doubtful, possibly connected w Fr net, 'neat'. 1 Trim, neat, dapper, spruce, esp of clothes or general appearance: naty suit, turn out &c. 2 Neat, quick, skilful.

natural (I) adj. [1 náshural, 2 ná[ətjə]] fr Lat nāturālis, 'by birth, in accordance with nature'. See nature & -al. 1 a Of, connected with, arising from, nature or the external physical world: natural forces, phenomena, specific usages: natural order (see natural system), natural religion, one founded on, and approved by, human reason without the help of divine revelation, hence natural theology, based on such religion, natural selection phrase applied by Darwin to the process whereby those individuals and their descendants which fail to adapt themselves to the environment are eliminated, such as can adapt themselves to the conditions of life survive, and are regarded as 'the fittest', natural system, of botanical classification by resemblance of structure, instead of by sexual characteristics, hence natural order, a class of plants under this system, b concerned with, dealing with, treating of, nature or the physical world: natural history, originally, history or science of nature as a whole, dealing with all branches, now, specif of zoology and botany, natural historian, one who studies, writes on, natural history, natural philosophy, formerly, moral philosophy, now, science of physics, natural philosopher, physicist, natural science, formerly, physics, now, including all branches of knowledge of the physical world, c in the state, under the condition, produced or provided by nature without man's intervention, wild, uncultivated, unconfined, free, undomesticated: land in its natural state, the buffalo can live its natural life in Yellowstone Park, natural growth of timber, a natural spring, of medicinal water, natural gas, inflammable gas issuing from oil bearing beds. 2 a In accordance with the ordinary, observed processes of nature, contrasted with supernatural or miraculous: a natural explanation of miracles, a natural process, Phrs a natural death, one due to old age or disease, not to violence, the term of one's natural life, as long as one lives, b in accordance with logical notions of cause and effect, happening according to reasonable anticipation or expectation, ordinary, normal: the natural consequences of an action, it is only natural for economic distress to follow war. 3 True to nature, having a close resemblance to an object in nature, real, life like: most natural representation of past time, a natural pose in statuary or painting. 4 II. legitimate, born out of wedlock: a natural child. 5 a (of mental endowments and qualities) Coming as by nature, born with one, innate, inborn, native, contrasted with acquired: natural abilities, parts, charm, skill, capacity, wit, talent, gifts, b (of persons in relation to these) possessing them innately: a natural poet, linguist, comedian &c. 6 In accordance with one's usual habits, not put on, genuine, simple, easy, unstudied, contrasted with artificial, affected: to speak in a natural voice, a natural way of speaking, a natural manner, natural expression of face. 7 a In accordance with the nature of the individual temperament, characteristic of: he behaved with the bravery that was natural to him, b in accordance with one's ordinary experience, practice, habits &c, normal, usual, habitual, familiar: it seems quite natural to see you once more in your old place, it is hardly natural for a lively young man to remain silent in a social gathering. 8 In accordance with human nature, springing from impulses implanted in man by nature, arising from circumstances and conditions determined by processes of nature: natural affection, feeling, it is natural for children to love their parents, Phr natural laws, rights, duties, obligations &c, as binding apart from legislation, customs, or institutions, e.g. the right to life and freedom, duty of parent to child, natural guardian, the parent or nearest relative. 9 In accordance with a person's usual, normal, healthy state of mind or body: her flushed face didn't look natural to me, his pulse was quick, but that is natural to him, a complexion of the natural colour of health, not in a natural state of mind 10 (mus) Without flats or sharps in the signature natural key, that of C major natural (II), n, fr preo 1 Person born without normal intelligence or sense, an idiot 2 (mus) a A white note on the keyboard of a pianoforte or organ, b musical note which is not a sharp or flat, c graphio expression of this 3 (card games) Two cards which on being dealt amount to a winning number without further drawing, ss in vingt et un, where an ace, counting eleven, plus a ten or court card amount to twenty-one naturalism, n [1 náčuralizm, 2 náč[er]el-izm] natural & -ism 1 a Imaginary condition of life and society shaped, as it is supposed, by the free play of the purely natural instincts of man, b system of conduct, thought, law &c, based on the natural instincts 2 (theol and philos) Doctrine that natural or physical laws are sufficient to explain religion and the universe without divine revelation or purpose, denial of the supernatural 3 (art and liter) Attempt to realize absolute fidelity to nature, by a literal and undistorted representation of life, or of natural objects, realism naturalist, n [1 náčuralist, 2 náč[er]el-ist] natural & -ist 1 Student of external nature, esp of living organisms, field naturalist, one who studies the life and habits of animals and plants in the place where they live or grow 2 Adherent of the doctrine of naturalism, a in philosophy and religion, b in art naturalistic, adj [1 náčuralistik, 2 náč[er]el-istik] Preo & -ic a Closely resembling nature or a natural object, realistic naturalistic principles in art, b of or belonging to naturalism in theology and philosophy naturalistically, adv [1 náčuralistikali, 2 náč[er]elistikali] Preo & -al & -ly In a naturalistic, realistic, way or manner naturalization, n [1 náčuralizátsiun, 2 náč[er]elazeizjén] naturalize & -ation Act or process of conferring on or acquiring by an alien the rights, privileges, and duties of a citizen or subject of another State naturalize, vb trans & intrans [1 náčuraliz, 2 náč[er]elize] natural (I) & -ize Cp Fr naturaliser A trans 1 To confer rights &c of citizenship on (an alien), to grant naturalization to 2 a (of animals or plants) To make natural or native, to acclimatize the grey squirrel is now naturalized in and near London, the pine has long been naturalized in southern England, b (of foreign words) to adopt and make part of the native language many English sporting terms have been naturalized in French B intrans To become naturalized naturally, adv [1 náčuralah, 2 náč[er]el] natural (I) & -ly 1 According to one's nature, innately naturally clever, morose, indolent 2 a Without artificial aid, treatment, or special cultivation, by virtue of the unassisted processes of nature plants, animals, thrive naturally in such climates, b as by natural instinct, without difficulty he took to swimming quite naturally 3 Without affectation or mannerisms, in accordance with natural instincts drop your airs and graces and behave naturally 4 In the ordinary course of events, as might be expected, as a matter of course he was too sanguine, and naturally was disappointed, you are going to refuse naturally 5 In accordance with normal, healthy conditions, after the manner of normal health I left him sleeping naturally nature, n [1 náčur, 2 néč[er]e] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat natura, 'blood-relationship, natural character of a thing, bent, natural disposition, natural propensity, course, order of things, nature, the universe', fr base g-nāt* &c, 'to produce', see under natal, & cognates there referred to, & -ure 1 a The sum of forces and agencies at work in the physical, external world, sum of physical processes, of causes and effects which underlie and produce all existing phenomena the laws, processes, of nature, miracles are often said to be contrary to nature, b (often with osp) personification of these forces and processes 'Nature red in tooth and claw with ravine' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam', lvi 4), Nature, that kindly mother of humanity Phrs to pay one's debt to nature, to die, in the course of nature, according to the natural course of things, one of Nature's gentlemen, person of humble origin with noble instincts, and consideration for others, one of Nature's noblemen, (ironical) an uncultivated person with outrageously bad manners 2 a The external, material world and its phenomena, considered primarily as these manifest themselves to the senses, without reference to the underlying forces, causes, and processes a poet, lover, of nature, 'Looks through Nature up to Nature's God' (Pope, 'Ess on Man', iv 332), b representation, expression, treatment of phenomena of the material universe in art 3 Primitive state, mode, of life, or condition of existence conceived of as resulting purely from natural processes, and unmodified by intervention from without, a condition unchanged, whether for good or ill, from the pristine state savages were formerly considered as simple children of nature, eighteenth-century sentimental writers advocated a return to nature Phr in a state of nature, completely naked 4 Sum of spiritual and intellectual qualities and propensities which make up the character, essential features and elements of character, disposition, specif a (of man) a generous, gentle, fierce, revengeful, nature, it is not in his nature to be treacherous, an artistic nature Phrs human nature, sum of qualities, instincts, and propensities, mental and physical, peculiar to mankind, good nature, amiability, kindness of heart, indulgence of character, (a crime) against nature, opposed to innate instincts, b (of other sentient beings) innate, essential instincts and qualities of behaviour it is in the nature of a dog to be faithful to his master, cats and dogs have entirely different natures 5 Sum of essential properties and qualities, characteristic a (of material things) the nature of iron differs greatly from that of wood, the nature of gases, of soil &c, b (of non-material things) the nature of evidence, the nature of mind Phr from the nature of the case, given the facts and circumstances 6 (variant meaning from 5, and often hardly distinguishable from it) Kind, sort, variety theft is a different nature of crime altogether from murder, ie a crime of a different nature (5, b) Phr in the nature of, resembling, of same kind as nature deities, gods, n pl The forces and phenomena of external nature, such as sun, moon, winds, ocean &c, personified and worshipped nature myth, n Myth or legend based on natural phenomena, such as rising and setting of the sun &c nature study, n Branch of educational training for children, based on the practical study and observation of plant and animal life in the neighbourhood of the school nature worship, n Worship of the personified forces of nature, of nature gods naufraigeous, adj [1 náwfrájus, 2 náčfrédz-es] Cp Fr naufrage, 'shipwreck', fr Lat naufragum, cp adj naufragus, 'shipwrecked, causing shipwreck', fr nāvis, 'ship', see naval, & base frag*, 'to break', see fragment, & -ous (poet and archaic) Causing shipwreck the naufrageous sea naught, n & adj [1 náwt, 2 náč] OE nāwht, náht, 'nothing', ME naught &c, fr nā, see no (I), & wh, 'thing', see wight Spelling variant of nought. a n (archaic and poet) Nothing, usually only in Phr all for naught, for nothing, for no purpose, idly, cared naught for him, set of naught, to defy; thing of naught, worthless, useless, bring to naught, to ruin, defeat, as schemes &c; b adj, worthless, useless find one's position, wealth &c naught naughtily, adv [1 náwtih, 2 náčilis] naughtily & -ly In a naughty manner naughtiness, n [1 náwtines, 2 náčinis] Next word & -ness a (archaic, Bib) Wickedness 'in the naughtiness of thine heart' (1 Sam xvii 28), b (of children) misbehaviour, disobedience naughty, adj [1 náwti, 2 náčis] naught & -y 1 (orig) a Worthless, wicked, bad 'A naughty person' (Prov vi 12), 'very naughty figs' (Jer xxiv 2), b specif, guilty of, exhibiting, indecorum, of speech or conduct, improper, indecate a naughty story 2 a (chiefly of children) Mischievous, unruly, disobedient, badly behaved, reverse of good a naughty little boy, put in the corner for being naughty, b (playfully, of adults) that's very naughty of you naumachy, naumachia, n [1 náwmaki, náwmáka, 2 nómaki, nómekis] Lat, fr Gk naumachia, 'naval battle', fr naūs, 'ship', see nautical, & makhé, 'battle' See -macy (Rom anag) Spectacle of a mock sea-fight in a flooded arena nausea, n [1 náwsea, náwshea, 2 násia, náčia] Lat, 'sea-sickness, vomiting', fr Gk nausia, fr nausia*, 'sea sickness', fr naūs, 'ship' See nautical a Sensation of sickness from any cause, disposition or inclination to vomit, vomiting, qualm, b (fig) mental disgust, feeling of extreme distaste nauseate, vb trans [1 náwseāt, 2 náčseāt], fr Lat nauseāt (um), P P type of nauseare, 'to be or feel sick' See preo 1 a To make sick, cause to vomit, cause feeling of disgust or loathing, b (obs) to detest, dis like extremely, feel nausea at 'I nauseate walling' (Congreve, 'Way of the World') 2 (fig) To disgust his cant and hypocrisy nauseate one nauseating, adj [1 náwseāting, 2 náčsēitjng], fr Preo Part of preo Causing nausea, disgusting, sickening nauseatingly, adv Preo & -ly To a nauseating degree, in a manner to nauseate nauseous, adj [1 náwseus, náwsjus, 2 násius, náčsus] nausea & -ous Causing nausea, nauseating; disgusting, nasty to taste or smell, sickening, morally revolting nauseously, adv Preo & -ly In a disgusting, nauseous way nauseousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being nauseous nautch, n [1 náwtch, 2 náčt] Hind náčh, 'dance', fr Sert nūya, 'dancing', fr nī, 'to dance' Entertainment of dancing performed by professional dancers, nautch girl, Indian dancing girl nautical, adj [1 náwtiki, 2 náčik(ə)] fr. Lat nautic(-us), 'of ships or sailors', & -al, fr Gk nauōlōs, w same meaning, fr nautēs, 'sailor', naūs, 'ship' The latter is fr nāvis*, fr nāwos*, cp Sert nāus, Lat nāvis, 'ship' See further under naval Gk nāutēs stands for nāwt*. Connected with, pertaining to, ships, sailors, and to art and science of navigation a nautical yarn, nautical almanac, astronomical tables for use at sea &c, nautical mile, sea mile, geographical mile, 1/6 of a degree, equivalent to 6080 ft nautically, adv Preo & -ly In a nautical way or manner nautilus, n [1 náwtilus, 2 náčilas] Lat, fr Gk nauōilos, 'sailor', also as name of the animal, fr base nāw*, 'ship', as in nautical (zool) One of two kinds of small marine cephalopods, inhabiting a shell, a paper nautilus of Mediterranean, formerly supposed to use tentacles as sails, b pearly nautilus of Far East naval, adj [1 návi, 2 névi] Fr naval, fr Lat nāvālis, 'of or belonging to ships', & -al, fr nāvis, 'ship', cogn w Gk naūs, 'ship', see nautical; also w Sert nāus, in Gmc, we have OE nāwena, 'sailor', ON rōr, 'ship', but further connexions are dubious.

a Of, belonging to, connected with, a navy, its ships, officers, or men naval barracks, hospital, for members of the navy on shore, naval brigade, unit of troops composed of sailors and marines for service on land, naval officer, one holding commissioned rank in the navy, naval reserve, reserve of officers and men for the navy for service in war, recruited from mercantile marines or by voluntary enlistment, b exercised, performed, by the navy naval battle, engagement &c, naval power, sea power navalism, n [1 návalizm, 2 névalizm] Prec & -ism a Policy of advocating and building a powerful navy, sea power, b aggressive policy in international affairs based on sea power, equivalent of 'militarism' on land navel (I), n [1 náv, 2 neiv], fr Lat náv (em), náv, 'ship', see naval, in L (eccles) Lat in symbolical sense of 'the Church of Christ', as exposed to winds & waves, op Fr nef, whence the architectural meaning was borrowed, origin fr external resemblance of a church to upturned keel of ship has been suggested (arbit) Central part or body of cathedral or church, extending from main, western, door to the choir or chancel, usually separated by pillars and arches from the aisles nave (II), n OE nafu, OHG naba, Mod Germ. nabe, Dn noof See further under navel, omphalos, umbilical The central portion of a wheel, from which the spokes branch out, and to which the axle is fixed navel, n [1 náv, 2 neiv(ə)] OE nofela, fr nafu, see prec, op Germ nabel, Du noel, ON nafi &c, Sert nābhila, Gk omphalos, Lat umbilicus, all w same meaning The orig sense was 'boss, knob', op Lat umbo, 'knob, boss on a shield' All the above words have the twofold meaning of 'navel' & 'boss' a External depression in centre of abdomen of mammals, left by severance of the umbilical cord at birth navel cord, string, umbilical cord, b (fig, rare) central point or middle of anything navel orange, n Kind of seedless orange with another small, undeveloped fruit at junction with the stem navicular, adj [1 navikular, 2 navikule] L Lat navicularis, fr navicula, 'small boat, skiff', dimin of navis, 'ship' See naval (anat) Boat-shaped, of bones in fore or hind feet of animals, specif, navicular bone, in horse's fore foot, navicular disease, inflammation condition of this navigability, n [1 navigabiliti, 2 navigabiliti] navigable & -ity State, condition, of being navigable navigable, adj [1 navigabl, 2 navigabl] Lat navigabilis, fr stem navigā See navigate & -able 1 (of waterway) Capable of being sailed, travelled over, or passed by watercraft &c navigable sea, channel, river, canal &c 2 (of vessels) Capable of being sailed, steered, guided, directed, on water, or through the air navigable balloon, ship &c navigate vb trans & intrans [1 navigāt, 2 navigēit] Lat navigāre (um), P.P type of navigāre, 'to sail', lit to drive a ship, fr nāv-, 'ship', see naval, & base ag*, 'to drive' &c See agent & trans 1 (of persons) a To cause to sail, or travel, in a desired course and direction, any kind of water or air-craft, on the water, or in the air, to sail pilot to navigate a ship &c, b (fig) to direct a measure, negotiation &c through its various stages to navigate a bill through Parliament 2 a (of persons) To pass over the water, through a channel, or in the air, in a vessel to navigate the seas &c, b (of vessels) to be steered, directed, sailed, across the sea, up a river, through a channel &c B intrans To engage in navigation, to be navigated navigating officer, n [1 navigāting ofiser, 2 navigēitip ofiser] The officer, esp on a ship of war, whose business is to direct the course of the ship, and who gives all the orders concerned with her manœuvres and handling while at sea navigation, n [1 návigāshun, 2 návigēiʃən] Through Fr, fr Lat navigātiō (em), 'sailing, directing, a ship' See navigate & -ion 1 The act of navigating water- or air-craft 2 Art, science, of navigating, of directing the course of ships, or of air-craft, by charts, nautical almanacs, observation of sun and stars &c 3 Passage of ships &c over particular area of sea, air, or through river, canal, or other waterway, process of being navigated, voyage, voyaging ice has stopped all navigation, inland navigation, by river or canal, navigation of the globe 4 That which is navigated, shipping, ships collectively navigation through Suez Canal has increased 5 (obs) Navigable passage

Navigation acts, laws, n pl (hist) Name of various British measures adopted for protection of national mercantile marine and expansion of trade navigator, n [1 návigātur, 2 návigēitə] Lat, 'sailor' See navigate & -or 1 One who navigates a ship &c, the navigating officer of a vessel 2 A skilled, experienced sailor, one who has taken part in many voyages, esp of early explorers Henry the Navigator, Portuguese prince, 1394-1460, Arctic navigators &c 3 Treatise on practical navigation navvy, n [1 náv, 2 náv] Abbr of prec Navigator was the name formerly given to workmen engaged on making canals or 'navigation', ie of passages that could be navigated A labourer engaged in heavy manual, unskilled work of all kinds, as on making of roads, sewers &c, steam navvy, one of various mechanical devices for heavy excavation work Phrs to work like a navvy, to toil laboriously at some task, esp at one that is un congenial, mere navvy's work, mechanical, laborious drudgery, which does not demand originality or subtlety of mind navy, n [1 náv, 2 náv] fr O Fr navie, 'fleet of ships, ship', Lat navis, late variant of navis, 'ship' See naval 1 A collective name for the warships of a nation or state, b the establishment, including ships, officers, men, dockyards, administrative staff &c, of a nation's power at sea (in both senses a and b, usually with capital initial letter) the Royal (British) Navy 2 A fleet of ships, either of war or (now usually historical) of the mercantile marine the navies of Venice, of Solomon &c 3 The department of State which administers a nation's power at sea, the Admiralty the navy must cut down its cost navy blue, adj & n Very dark blue, of shade of naval uniforms

Navy League, n Private association formed to advocate, and secure, the maintenance of a powerful British navy navy list, n Official publication containing list of naval officers nawab, n [1 nahwāb, nahwābb, 2 nāwāb, -db] Hind, fr Arab nawāb, pl of nā'ib, 'lieutenant, deputy governor', nabob is a variant of this Differentiated in meaning from nobob, and used as a hereditary title conferred upon Indian princes and gentlemen *nay, particle & n [1 nā, 2 neɪ] Early ME nay, a Scand variant of Engl no (III), op ON nei, 'no', used in Engl as an emphatic neg 1 particle a (archaic or provincial) No, b (archaic or liter) vaguely argumentative, or reflective, in introducing a statement or argument as nay, shall we not rather say &c Phr to say a person nay, to refuse his request 2 n In Phr *let your yea be yea and your nay be nay &c

Nazarene, n & adj [1 nazārēn, 2 nazērēn] Lat Nazarēnus, Gk Nazarēnos, 'inhabitant of Nazareth', in Palestine a Name given to Jesus Christ, because His early life was spent in Nazareth, b a Christian, as used by Jews and later by Moslems, as follower of Jesus of Nazareth

Nazarite, n [1 nāzarit, 2 nazērēit] Lat. Nazaritus, Gk Nazaraitos, fr Heb nāzar, 'to separate oneself from, vow to abstain from', & -ite A Hebrew ascetic or devotee, vowed to celibacy, to abstain from wine, and from cutting the hair and beard naze, n [1 nāz, 2 noiz] OE næss, 'promontory', connected w nosu, 'nose' See also ness & nose Promontory, cliff projecting into the sea, headland nazim, n [1 nāzim, 2 nēzim] Hind & Arab, 'governor', fr Arab nozm, 'order' The title of a high police official in India and Moslem countries nazir, n [1 nāzir, 2 nēzia] Hind & Arab nāzir, 'overseer', fr Arab nazar, 'to observe, see' Title of various Indian, chiefly Moslem, officials in Indian courts

-nd, suff forming adj & ns, a fr Lat gerundives ending in -nd (us), meaning 'to be (done)', dividend, 'that which is to be divided', reternd, 'to be reversed', b fr Lat words in gerundial form jocund, morbund, c in Engl ns, fr old Pres Port termination -and friend, fend

-nda, pl suff for ns, Lat gerundive neut pl, in words taken direct fr Lat propaganda, 'things to be propagated, published', agenda, 'things to be done'

neaf, n [1 nēf, 2 nēf] Scand, op ON knefi, 'fiat' (obs or dial) Hand, fiat 'Give me your neaf' (Shakespeare, Midsummer Night's Dream, IV, 1, 20)

Neanderthal, adj [1 nāāndertahl, 2 neāāndertāl] (anthrop) Of or belonging to the Neanderthal, a valley near Düsseldorf, Germany, specif, of very primitive human skull found there hence, Neanderthal man, type of very early palaeolithic man, as represented by this skull neap (I), adj & n [1 nēp, 2 nēp] OE nēp, in nēpflōd, 'neap flood', etymol doubtful, possibly connected w nsp (I), 'pinch', hence 'scanty, low' 1 adj Of tide, neap tide, neap tide, that at end of first or third quarter of the lunar month, when the distance between high and low water marks is shortest, a very low tide, contrasted with spring tide 2 n A neap tide tides are at the neap

neap (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans (usually in pass) To be caught by a neap tide ships are neaped, ie cannot sail till next spring tide, b intrans, (of tides) to begin to move towards the neap

Neapolitan, adj & n [1 neāpōlitān, 2 neāpōlitān] fr Lat Neāpōlitānus, 'of or belonging to Naples', fr Gk Neāpolis, 'the new town' 1 adj Of, belonging to, Naples esp Neapolitan ice, an ice cream, made in layers of various flavours and colours, Neapolitan violet, a very fragrant double variety of the violet 2 n Inhabitant of Naples near (I), adv & prep [1 nēr, 2 nēr] OE nēr, adv, compar of nēah, 'nigh', ME nēr, neer, later near become a positive adv w new compar nearer, this change was helped by ON nēr, 'near', also orig compar of nā, 'nigh' See further under nigh 1 adv a Close to, at, within, a short distance from, of, in proximity to, not far from (of place) to come near, the new houses are built too near to us, (of time) spring draws near, the day of reckoning is getting near, b within a very little of, almost (now obs or provincial, more usually nearly) near frightened out of their wits, (with neg) not anything like not near so popular as before Phrs for ord near, in every direction, everywhere, near of hand (of place), close to, within reach, (of time) approximately, not far off near upon (six o'clock &c), almost six o'clock, that will go near to (killing him), will nearly (kill him) 2 prep Close to, expressing a proximity in space near the river, the edge of the pavement, the town &c, Phr to sail near the wind, to sail close hauled, close to the wind, (fig) of just avoiding a breach of the law or dishonourable action &c, b nearness in time near sixty years of age, near dinner-time; c manner of achievement near success, victory &c, d nearness in condition I was very near dead, e nearness in likeness, resemblance or similarity the portrait does not come near the original near (II), adj, fr prec 1 a Situated in the neighbourhood, close to in space, adjacent, neighbouring the station is quite near, how near is the sea from here? Phrs the Near East, Turkey and the Balkan States, the nearest way, most direct and shortest, a near thing, a narrow escape 2 Specif, near side &c, a (of horse) left, the side from which one mounts, b left side of a road, c side of carriage &c next to this 3 Not far removed in time, approaching, at hand, about to come or happen spring is near, the end of the struggle is near 4 (of conditions, circumstances) About to be experienced, just coming upon one death is near to each of us every day, success is nearer than you think 5 a Closely related in blood a near relation, connexion, b closely concerned in one's feelings and affections, intimate, familiar a near friend, Phr near and dear, closely connected by ties of relationship and affection, c involving one's interests, touching one closely that is a very near concern of mine 6 (of persons) Niggardly, mean, parsimonious, close fisted you won't get much out of him, he's very near near (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec To approach, come, draw near to to near the land (of ships), he must be nearing home by now, to near one's end, to be dying near by, adv, near-by, adj Close at hand, adjacent Nearctic, adj [1 nɛərktɪk, 2 nɪdktɪk], fr neo- & arctic Term applied to a region including arctic and temperate North America, esp as applied to botanical and zoological distribution nearly, adv [1 nɛəli, 2 nɛəli] near (II) & -ly 1 Almost, all but, within a short distance, or time &c, of, in large number of usages nearly home, nearly there, nearly a mile long, nearly five o'clock, nearly time to go, nearly killed, nearly done now, nearly enough to eat, Phr not nearly, by no means, far from, nowhere near 2 Closely, intimately nearly related, nearly concerned &c nearness, n [1 nɛəns, 2 nɛəns] near (II) & -ness 1 State, quality, of being near, closeness, proximity, propinquity, a (in space) the nearness of the house to the sea, b (in time) the nearness of these events to our own time, c in affinity or consanguinity nearness of relationship, d in feelings, affections &c his very nearness to her blinded her to his faults 2 Parsimony, stinginess, meanness near-sighted, near-sighted, adj [1 nɛərsɪtɪd, 2 nɛərsɪtɪd] Short-sighted, myopic near-sightedness, n Prec & -ness State of being near-sighted, myopia neat (I), n & adj [1 nɛt, 2 nɛt] OE nēat, ME nē, ON naut, 'cattle', prob connected w OE nēatan, 'to use, enjoy', OHG niozan, Mod Germ (ge)niessen, 'to enjoy, have the use of', cogn w Lith naudā, 'use, profit' 1 n a An animal of the ox kind, as distinguished from sheep, horses &c, b (coll as pl) cattle, kine 2 adj Pertaining to the ox kind neat cattle, neat's foot, neat's tongue, as articles of food, neat's foot oil, an oil from a neat's foot, used for dressing leather, and as lubricant neat (II), adj Earlier nettle, fr Fr net, maso, nette, fem, 'neat, clean', fr Lat nitid (us), 'shining, clear, well favoured, elegant, smart, trim', cp nitere, 'to shine', cp O Slav gněti, 'to kindle', prob also OE gnāst, 'spark', fr *gnast, fr *gnaitlo, op OHG gneisto 1 a (of outward appearance) (i) Elegant, without unnecessary adornment, having every detail carefully arranged, simple, in good taste neat costume, dress, (ii) well proportioned, trim a neat figure, b clean, well kept, orderly her house was always very neat, neat in one's person 2 Well formed, well proportioned and arranged, carefully finished neat handwriting 3 a (of actions) Skilful, dexterous, cleverly done, a neat stroke, a neat piece of work, to make a neat job of it, do something skilfully and satisfactorily, b (of utterances) apt, to the point, polished a neat speech, retort &c, c (of persons) doing, speaking, skilfully and aptly, or capable of so doing and speaking a neat workman, speaker &c 4 (of alcoholic liquor) Pure, unmixed, not diluted with water 5 (obs) Without deduction, now usually net

'neath, prep [1 nɛθ, 2 nɪp] Poet for beneath neat-handed, adj Clover, quick, with the hands, deft, dexterous neat herd, neat-herd, n, fr neat (I) & herd (II) Cow herd, tender of cattle neatly, adv [1 nɛθli, 2 nɪθli] neat (II) & -ly In a neat manner dressed neatly, neatly turned verses neatness, n [1 nɛtnəs, 2 nɪtnəs] See prec & -ness Condition or quality of being neat, a tidiness, b spruceness, smartness of appearance, c skill, dexterity, aptness neb, n [1 neb, 2 neb] OE nebb, 'beak, snout, face', cogn w ON nef, cp Dan næb, 'beak, nose', cp also nib (I) (Scots) Beak, bill, of a bird, nose, point, tip nebula, n [1 nɛbʊlə, 2 nɛbʊlə] Lat, 'mist, fog, cloud', fr base *nebh-, 'mist, ram', cogn w Gk nephele, 'cloud', dimin of nephe, 'cloud' (op nephology), cp Scrt nabhuś, 'sky, air, cloud', ON nif-, 'mist', OE nifol, 'dark' See also numbus, imbricate 1 (astron) A luminous, fixed, cloud-like patch in the sky, consisting of incandescent, gaseous matter, also applied to a cluster of stars having the appearance of a true nebula 2 A whitish speck on the cornea of the eye nebular, adj [1 nɛbʊlər, 2 nɛbʊlər] Prec & -ar (astron) Of or pertaining to nebulae, resembling, like, a nebula specif, nebular hypothesis, theory that the planetary and stellar systems originated from nebulae or masses of incandescent, gaseous matter nebule, adj See nebula nebulum, n [1 nɛbʊlʊm, 2 nɛbʊlʊm] fr nebula The name given to an unidentified element indicated by two green lines in the spectra of nebulae nebulosity, n [1 nɛbʊləsɪti, 2 nɛbʊləsɪti] fr nebulosité, fr nebulosus & -ity 1 a Condition of being nebulous, something which is nebulous, a nebula 2 Cloudiness, vagueness, indefiniteness, in thought and expression nebulous, adj [1 nɛbʊləs, 2 nɛbʊləs] Lat nebulosus, 'cloudy' See nebula & -ous 1 (astron) Having the qualities of, resembling, a nebula nebulous cluster (of stars), nebulous star, one with a nebula about it or in close proximity 2 a Cloudy, clouded, musty, not clear or pellucid, b (fig, of state of mind, ideas &c) hazy, vague, indefinite nebul, nebulé, adj [1 nɛbʊl, 2 nɛbʊli] fr nebulé See nebula a (har) Of a oharge on a coat of arms consisting of a line of rounded curves, supposed to represent clouds, b (archit) undulating, wavy (of a moulding) necessarian, adj See necessitarian necessarily, adv [1 nɛsəsarɪ, 2 nɛsəsarɪli] necessary & -ly Of necessity, as a necessary consequence or result, inevitably, of course necessary (I), adj [1 nɛsəsarɪ, 2 nɛsəsarɪ] ME necessarie, fr Fr necessaire, fr Lat necessarius, 'inevitable, necessary, indispensable, needful', fr necesse, indeol adj, 'unavoidable, inevitable, necessary' &c, fr *ne-cēd-ns, ne, neg particle, & cēd-, as in Lat cēdere, 'to yield', see cede, ultimately the word means 'not to be turned aside' 1 a Following as the natural effect of a cause; inevitable, certain to happen heat is a necessary result of friction, the necessary consequence of an action, Phr a necessary evil, something unpleasant which has to be borne or tolerated, b following as logical consequence a necessary conclusion, inference 2 a Not to be done without, indispensable, requisite food is necessary for life, your help is absolutely necessary, my friends are necessary to my happiness, Phr (archaic) necessary house, a privy, b obligatory, compulsory, enjoined by law passports are necessary for all who visit foreign countries, it is necessary that the wicked should be punished necessary (II), n, fr prec 1 That which is necessary or essential for a specific purpose a motor-car is a necessary of life nowadays, necessities of existence &c 2 (law) A thing or things which are necessary for the support of a minor, married woman, lunatic, or other dependent in the condition suitable to his or her social position necessitarian, n & adj [1 nɛsəstɪtərɪən, 2 nɛsɪstɪtərɪən] necessity & -arian 1 n One who believes in the doctrine of necessity, one who holds the ethical doctrine that actions and volitions are determined by preceding causes and motives and not by free-will, determinist 2 adj Of or belonging to the doctrine of necessity necessitarianism, n [1 nɛsəstɪtərɪənɪzəm, 2 nɛsɪstɪtərɪənɪzəm] Prec & -ism Doctrine held by necessitarians, determinism necessitate, vb trans [1 nɛsɪstɪt, 2 nɛsɪstɪtɪt], fr L Lat necessitat-(um), PP type of necessitare, 'to make necessary' See necessity 1 To render necessary or unavoidable, to compel the prisoner's violence necessitated his being handcuffed 2 To involve as a logical consequence your assumptions necessitate your conclusions necessitous, adj [1 nɛsɪstɪs, 2 nɛsɪstɪs] necessity & -ous Poor, indigent, needy, destitute necessitous persons, in necessitous circumstances, necessitous areas, poverty-stricken districts necessity, n [1 nɛsɪsɪti, 2 nɛsɪsɪti], fr Fr nécessité, fr Lat necessitat-(em), necessitas, 'inevitableness, destiny, poverty', fr necesse, see necessary, & -ity State, quality, of being necessary 1 Set of circumstances compelling something to be, or to be done, especially thus regarded as a law of the universe, inseparable from, and directing, human life and action, often, physical necessity, compulsion, constraint, fate, destiny to bow to necessity, there is no necessity (to do so and so), no compulsion to do Phrs necessity knows no law, conditions of emergency override law, under the necessity of (doing), compelled to do, to make a virtue of necessity, to submit with good grace to that which is inevitable, necessity is the mother of invention, if something absolutely must be done a way of doing it will be found, of necessity, necessarily, as a matter of course 2 a Something which takes place in accordance with the laws of thought, which cannot be conceived as not being or happening logical necessity, such a conclusion follows as a necessity from the premises, b that which inevitably occurs, as result of natural causation, principle governing thus heat follows friction as a necessity 3 Doctrine of necessity, that which denies the freedom of the will and asserts that all actions are conditioned by the laws of cause and effect 4 a Something which is absolutely necessary for human life and cannot be dispensed with food and warmth are necessities, b something which has become necessary by custom or habit we regard as necessities many things which our fathers had never heard of, harmful drugs once indulged in soon become necessities 5 Poverty, want, indigence to be in dire necessity neck (I), n [1 nek, 2 nek] OE hnecca, ON hnakk, 'nape of the neck' cp Dan nel, Germ naelen, 'neck' 1 a That part of the body in man and other animals which joins the head to the trunk; b often used to include the upper part of a woman's chest and shoulders when these are exposed. Phr to break the neck of (a piece of work, job &c), to get the worst part over, to save one's neck, i.e., to escape hanging or execution, to escape the consequences of a mistake, error, or misdeed, get it in the neck (slang), (i) to undergo a severely painful or unfortunate experience of any kind, (ii) to be severely attacked, injured, punished, censured, neck and crop, altogether, bag and baggage throw him out neck and crop, neck and neck (orig. of horse-racing), side by side, so close together that there is little to choose between two competitors, neck or nothing (orig. of riding to hounds), taking great risks in an emergency, such as involve either complete success or failure, a stiff neck, obstinacy, persistency in sin or error, so stiff-necked, obstinate, c proud or arrogant, encircling or covering the neck d neck of an animal considered as article of food neck of mutton 2 Applied to various objects supposed to resemble a neck in shape, narrow connecting part a neck of a bottle, neck of a road, the narrow portion below the orifice, b neck of a capital, a narrow moulding at the lower part, c neck of a golf club the part of the head into which the shaft is fitted, d neck of a violin &c, narrow part between the scroll and the body, the part held by the left hand in playing, e a neck of land, a narrow connecting strip between two larger areas of land, f a narrow channel of water a strait neck (II) n. Etymol. doubtful, prob. not the same as prec. The last sheaf reaped at harvest, formerly carried home with ceremony neckband, n. [1 nēkband; 2 nēkbrēnd] That part of a shirt which goes round the neck, to which the collar is attached.

neckcloth, n. [1 nēkklawth; 2 nēkklāp] (archaic) Scarf for the neck; neckerchief neckerchief, n. [1 nēkēchif; 2 nēkētfif] neck (I) & kerchief. (archaic) Scarf for the neck.

necking, n. [1 nēking; 2 nēkij] neck (I) & -ing (archit) The moulding or mouldings round the top of the shaft of a column below the capital.

necklace, n. [1 nēklas, las; 2 nēklā, -lās] neck (I) & lace A string of jewels, or beads or a chain of gold &c, worn as an ornament round the neck.

necklet, n. [1 nēklet; 2 nēkilet] neck (I) & -let a Ornament worn round the neck, necklace; b covering for the neck, collar of fur or the like necktie, n. [1 nēkti; 2 nēktā] neck (I) & tie (L) A narrow scarf of silk or other material, worn round the neck, over, or within the fold of, shirt-collar, and tied in a bow or knot in front neck-verse, n. The verse usually the first verse of Ps. l., beginning Miserere mei, which those who claimed Benefit of Clergy had to read as a test of their learning neckwear, n. [1 nēkwā; 2 nēkwēs] neck (I) & wear (vulg. or shop term) Collective name for neckties, scarves, and collars necro-, pref. Used to form compounds, fr. Gk. nekros 'dead body corpse' also nekus, cogn. w. Sert. nekus &c., 'is ruined, vanishes', Lat. nek, 'murder, slaughter', nekare, 'to kill', cp also Lat. noxius, 'hurtful', see noxious necrobiosis, n. [1 nēkrōbīōsis; 2 nēkrōbīōsiss] Pref. & Gk. bios, 'manner of life, living', bios, 'life', see biology Decay, atrophy of tissue in a living body necrolatry, n. [1 nēkrolatē; 2 nēkrolatē] necro- & latry Worship of the dead necrology, n. [1 nēkrolōj; 2 nēkrolādij] necro- & -logy a Register of deaths esp. of the members of monastery or other society, b obituary notices collected together necromancer, n. [1 nēkrōmāns; 2 nēkra- māns] See next word & -er One who practises necromancy, a wizard, sorcerer necromancy, n. [1 nēkrōmāns; 2 nēkra- māns] Gk. nekromanteion, -eion, 'oracle of the dead', fr. nekros, 'a corpse', see necro-, & manieion, 'oracular response', fr. manis, 'soothsayer', see -mancy, ME & O Fr. nigromantie, 'magic, black art', show confusion between Gk. nekro-, & Lat. niger, 'black' a Divination by communication with the spirits of the dead, witchcraft, sorcery, b magic, esp. 'black magic', 'the black art', so called from the early false etymology necromantic, adj. [1 nēkrōmāntik; 2 nēkrōmāntik] See prec. & -ic Practising necromancy or witchcraft necrophagous, adj. [1 nēkrōfagūs; 2 nēkrōfagūs] See necro- & -phagous Feeding on dead bodies or carrion, especially used of various insects and bacteria necrophobia, n. [1 nēkrōfōbia; 2 nēkrōfōbia] necro- & -phobin a Exaggerated dread of death, b horror of dead bodies necropolis, n. [1 nēkrōpōlis; 2 nēkrōpōlis] Gk. nekropolis, 'city of the dead' See necro- & -polis, a A cemetery, esp. one belonging to an ancient city or site of prehistoric habitation, b a large modern cemetery necropsy, n. [1 nēkrōpsī; 2 nēkrōpsī] Gk. nekropsis, 'corpse', see necro-, & opsis 'sight', see optic Examination of a dead body, a post-mortem examination, autopsy necroscopy, n. [1 nēkroskōpi; 2 nēkroskōpi] fr. necro- & -scopy Necropsy necrosis, n. [1 nēkrōsis; 2 nēkrōsis] fr. Gk. nekrosis, 'state of death' See necro- & -osis Death and decay of a portion of bodily tissue, esp. of bone, mortification, gangrene necrotic, adj. [1 nēkrotik; 2 nēkrotik] See prec. & -ic Mortifying, gangrenous nectar, n. [1 nēktār; 2 nēktār] fr. Gk. nectar, 'drink of the gods', prob. fr. base nek, 'death', see necro-, as the drink which conferred immortality 1 (Gk. mythol) The drink of the immortal gods 2 Any sweet, delicious drink, a wine of very high quality 3 Specif. (bot) the sweet, sugary liquid secreted by the nectaries of plants, from which bees get honey nectarean, adj. [1 nēktārean; 2 nēktārean] Pref. & -ean Nectareous nectared, adj. [1 nēktārd; 2 nēktārd] nectar & -ed. Sweet as nectar; filled with nectar nectareous, adj. [1 nēktāreus; 2 nēktāreus] Lat. nectareus, Gk. nektaeos, fr. nectar, 'nectar', q.v. Of the nature or quality of nectar; delicious, sweet nectariferous, adj. [1 nēktariferus; 2 nēktariferus] nectar & -iferous (bot) Yielding, secreting, nectar nectariferous glands, of plants, the nectaries nectarine (I), adj. [1 nēktarin; 2 nēktarin] See nectar & -ine (archaic or poet) Nectareous nectarine (II), n., fr. prec., so called from its delicious taste A fruit closely resembling a peach, but with a thinner smoother skin, and without the down of the former nectary, n. [1 nēktari; 2 nēktari] fr. nectar & -y a (bot) The organ in flowers which secretes honey, or nectar, b (zool) tube in the aphid or green-fly, formerly thought to collect and secrete the juices from plants necto-, pref. Used to form compounds, fr. Gk. nekto, 'swimming', fr. nekhein, 'to swim', formed w. suff. -lē, or -gē, fr. base nek, 'to flow', seen also in Gk. naein, Lat. nare, 'to swim' see naïad, natation, nectocalyx, the swimming disc or bell of a jelly fish nectogale, fr. Gk. gale, 'weasel', the Tibetan swimming shrew necton See nekton.

Neddy, n. [1 nēdi; 2 nēdi] Familiar form of Edward. A donkey nee, adj. [1 nē; 2 nē] Fr. 'born', P.P. fem. of naître, 'to be born', fr. Lat. nasci, nasc, see natal. Born, by birth, used to indicate a married woman's maiden name: 'Mrs Brown, née Robinson' need (I), n. [1 nēd; 2 nīd] OE nēd, nēd, nēd &c., 'inevitableness, compulsion, requirement, hardship', ME nēde, OS nād, OHG nāt, Goth naups 1 Conditions, state of affairs, circumstances, in which there is a deficiency, or insufficiency of something, a urgent necessity, imperative requirement there is a great need of money, ships, and men, to be in need of help, there is need for more patience and goodwill on both sides, the hour of need, to foil a man in his need, Phr a friend in need is a friend indeed, b a requirement, want, something desired or felt to be necessary I'm in need of a watch, the house is in need of a coat of paint, bodily and spiritual needs 2 Felt want of, and desire for something to have need of a rest, to feel the need of stimulants, your need is greater than mine 3 Compelling circumstance, compulsion, obligation, necessity is there any need to hurry? there is no need for him to work 4 Lack, insufficiency, of financial means, poverty, indigence, destitution need (II), vb trans & intrans, fr. prec., OE nōdian See prec. 1 trans To want, require, be in need of he needs a wash, washing, I shall need a new suit for the wedding, we shall need every penny we can get, the boat needs correction also ironic what he needs is a good thrashing, that is, what he deserves 2 As auxiliary, a (uninflected and followed by uninflected infin in interrog and neg sentences) to be necessary, be obliged, must *need he come? need I obey? you needn't do it if you don't want to, we need not go into that row, b (inflected and followed by to and infin, in affirmative sentences or neg and interrog sentences in periphrastic construction) one needs to be careful, he didn't need to be told twice, does he need to know? c intrans a To be in want or distress *give to them that need; b (obs or archaic) to be necessary it needs not, what needs it?

needful, adj. [1 nēdfūl; 2 nēdfūl] need (I) & -ful 1 Necessary, requisite, indispensable do what is needful, the needful equipment Phr to do the needful, to do what is necessary in specified case, (slang) the needful money 2 (obs or archaic) Characterized by need the needful time of trouble needfully, adv. Pref. & -ly Necessarily needfulness, n. See prec. & -ness State or quality of being needful neediness, n. [1 nēdīnes; 2 nēdīnes] needy & -ness State of being needy, want, destitution needle (I), n. [1 nēdl; 2 nīdl] OE nēdl, ME nēdel, OHG nādala, Goth nēpla; ON nāl, cogn. w. OHG nāyan, 'to sow', Mod. Germ. nähen, the base is that seen in Lat. nēre, 'to spin, weave', Gk. nekēin, 'to spin', also nēma, 'that which is spun, thread', cp Lat. nēmen, perh. fr. nēmi*, 'to weave, intertwine', cp Sert. nēnāyān, 'wraps up', & nēnāyān, 'tendon, sinew, string'; perh. cogn. w. Gk. nekron, 'nerve', for nēuro* (see neur(o)-) 1 a An implement for sewing, consisting of a thin, usually rounded, piece of steel with one end sharpened to a point and the other pierced with a hole or eye, through which the thread is passed, Phr as sharp as a needle, intellectually penetrating, to get, have, the needle, (slang, rare) to have the hump, be depressed, pass through the eye of a needle, pass through the narrowest of entrances, from Matt. xix. 24, look for a needle in bundle of hay, try to find small thing in a mass of other things, or a person among a crowd, b (i) thin rod or wire of metal, bone, or wood without an eye, or with rounded end, for knitting, (ii) or with hooked end, for crocheting, c the sharp, hollow point of a hypodermic syringe 2 a The balanced magnetized bar of steel in a compass, pointing to the pole, b similar magnetized bar in a telegraphic instrument 3 Any of various objects which resemble a needle in being thin and pointed, as a the thin, pointed leaf of the pine or fir, b a tapering pinnacle of rock, c an obelisk Gleopatra's Needle, d a pointed crystal or piece of ice, e a small bar of wood or metal used to support a beam in shoring or underpinning needle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec (obs or rare) 1 To sew, ply the needle (on), to thread one's way (through) 2 Speed, to treat (cataract) with an instrument resembling a needle needle-bar, n The bar in a sewing or knitting machine to which the needles are attached needle-bath, n Shower-bath in which the water is forced under pressure in fine jets needle-book, -case, n Book or case for holding needles needle-fish, n A fish, such as the garfish, with thin body and long, pointed head and jaw needleful, n [1 nēdlfūl, 2 nēdlfūl] Amount of thread carried by a needle at one time needle-gun, n Early form of breech-loading rifle, in which the detonator was a needle or pin acting on the fulminate in the cart ridge needle-lace, n Lace made with a needle and not with bobbins needle point, n 1 The sharp point of a needle, or of instrument sharpened to a similar fine point 2 Point lace made with a needle needless, adj [1 nēdləs, 2 nēdləs] need (I) & -less Unnecessary, superfluous needless work, needless to say, he never came, unprovoked needless enmity, abuse &c needlessly, adv Prec & -ly Unnecessarily, superfluously needlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being needless the needlessness of their alarm needlewoman, n [1 nēdlwōmən, 2 nēdlwōmən] A woman who sews or does needlework, a seamstress needlework, n [1 nēdlwērk, 2 nēdlwērk] Work done with the needle, sewing, embroidery needments, n, pl [1 nēdmənts, 2 nēdmənts] On anal of requirements What is needed, things wanted for specific purpose, as luggage &c for a journey needs, adv [1 nēdz, 2 nēdz] OE nȳdes, nēdes, adverbial genit See need (I) Of, by, necessity, necessarily, only used before or after must he needs must (do &c), he is compelled to, (sarcastic) he must needs (go away just when he was wanted &c), Phr needs must when the devil drives needy, adj [1 nēdi, 2 nēdi] need (I) & -y Poor, indigent, necessitous, in want or need, impious the poor and needy neem, n [1 nēm, 2 nīm] Hind nīm The margosa ne'er, adv [1 nār, 2 nse] See never (poet) Never ne'er-do-well, -weel, n [1 nār dō wōl, -wōl, 2 nēd dū wēl, -wēl] An imprevident, dissipated, worthless, good-for nothing fellow ne exeat (regno), n [1 nē ēksiat (rēgnō), 2 nē ēksiat (rēgnō)] Lat, 'let him not go out of (the kingdom)' (law) Name of a High Court writ forbidding a person against whom an action is pending to leave the country nef, n [1 nef, 2 nef] Fr, 'ship', fr Lat navis See nave (I) A table ornament of silver or silver gilt, in the form of a ship, used in mediæval and later times for holding salt, napkins, spoons &c nefarious, adj [1 nefāriəs, 2 nifēriəs] Lat nefārius, 'wicked, impious', fr nefas, 'crime, wrong', fr ne-, negative pref, & fās, 'divine law', cogn v fārī, 'to speak, say' See this base under false Unlawful, unjustifiable, wicked, iniquitous nefarious ends, purpose &c nefariously, adv Prec & -ly Wickedly, iniquitously nefariousness, n See prec & -ness Wickedness, iniquity negate vb trans [1 nēgāt, 2 nēgāt], fr Lat negat (um), PP type of negare, 'to deny', formed fr Lat, neg*, 'no, not', op Lath negā, negi, 'not' Cp Germ verneinen, fr nein, 'no' To deny the existence of, involve or imply that something is not, to nullify, be equivalent to a negative of what has been affirmed negation, n [1 nēgāshun, 2 nēgāshun], fr Fr négation, fr Lat See prec & -ion 1 Act of denying, denial, assertion that a thing is not, has not been, will not be, opposite of affirmation 2 Absence of any positive quality or meaning, destruction, annihilation arbitrary action is the negation of order and justice 3 (log) Definition of a term by stating what it is not, by excluding it from a class, o g no negroes are Europeans negationist, n [1 nēgāshunist, 2 nēgāshunist] Prec & -ist One who is content merely to deny beliefs commonly held without putting anything positive in their place negative (I), adj [1 nēgativ, 2 nēgativ], fr Fr negatif, fr L Lat negātivus See negato & -ive 1 Expressing denial, prohibiting, refusing, saying 'no' to, opposite of 'affirmative' a negative answer, reply, vote, negative order, command, they assumed a negative attitude, the right of veto only gives negative powers, negative evidence, such as does not affirm anything or supply a new fact 2 Not possessing qualities of which anything can be affirmed, not affirming or proving anything, having the effect of removing, diminishing, denying, privative, opposed to positive negative value, criticism &c, a negative character, negative qualities, to say 'no news is good news' is a negative sort of comfort, (colloq) a negative quantity, nothing 3 Spoof (elect) of or belonging to that kind of electricity produced by rubbing resin, wax, or vulcanite, resinous or negative electricity, anciently supposed to be due to a want of the electric fluid, contrasted with vitreous or positive electricity, now of electricity where the current flows to a higher potential, negative pole, that from which the negative, and to which the positive, current flows, cathode 4 (log) Denying the identity of one term with another negative proposition, one that contains such denial 5 (math) Of or belonging to quantity subtracted from another, minus negative sign, minus sign 6 (photog) Reversing the lights and shades negative plate, film, a negative (q v) negative (II), n See prec 1 Word or phrase expressing denial, contradiction, refusal, prohibition, as no, not, neither &c 2 Statement, answer, proposition, decision, which denies, refuses, forbids &c I reply with a resolute negative Phr the answer is in the negative, that is, 'no' 3 Spoof a (elect) the plate in an electric battery opposite to the positive plate, b (photog) prepared plate or film which on exposure to light shows a print in which the dark and light shades of the object are reversed, c (math) a minus quantity negative (III), vb trans, fr negative (I) 1 To reject, refuse, a proposal, motion &c, to veto, to reply in the negative to 2 To prove untrue, disprove experience negatives the theory 3 To make of no effect, render useless, offer opposition to, neutralize the deep mud negated all efforts to advance negatively, adv negative (I) & -ly 1 In a negative manner, so as to deny or refuse, b in a manner involving the absence of something, not positively negatively friendly, i o not actively hostile negativeness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being negative neglect (I), vb trans [1 nēglēkt, 2 nēglēkt], fr Lat neglect (um), PP type of negligere, (neglegere), 'to be indifferent to, disregard, neglect', fr neg-, neg-, 'not', see negate, & prob a word leg*, cogn v that in Gk alēgein, 'to trouble oneself, have a care, heed', op diōs, 'pain' (see -nlgan), op, also Lat diligere, 'to esteem highly', see diligent 1 To pay no heed or attention to, take no care of, to treat as of no importance; to leave uncares for or unattended, to disregard, slight, pass over neglect one's business, duties, appointments, the law, rules, orders, one's family, children, one's friends, supporters; neglect criticism, annoyance, worries, neglect an author's works 2 To omit, fail to do he neglected to wind up the clock, to verify his quotations neglect (II), n, Lat neglectus, n See prec 1 Act of neglecting, want of care or attention, negligence, disregard, carelessness, in difference neglect of one's duties, law &c; neglect of home, children &c, neglect of consequences, to treat with neglect 2 State of being neglected, condition showing neglect; her children were in a terrible state of neglect neglectful, adj [1 nēglēktfūl, 2 nēglēktfūl] Prec & -ful Negligent, careless, heedless lazy and neglectful, neglectful of one's family, duties &c neglectfully, adv Prec & -ly In a negligent way, negligently neglectfulness, n See prec & -ness State of being neglectful, negligence negligé, negligee, n & adj [1 nēglizhā, 2 nēglizhā] Fr négligé, PP of négliger See neglect (I) 1 n A loose robe, such as a dressing-gown, easy, informal style of dress 2 adj Careless, informal, off hand. he treated me in a very negligé manner negligible, adj See negligible negligence, n [1 nēglizhəns, 2 nēglizhəns] Fr négligence, fr Lat negligentia, 'negligence' See next word & -ce 1 A Conduct springing from a careless, neglectful state of mind; heedlessness, carelessness, lack of attention, indifference to duties and obligations &c, b spoof (law) lack of reasonable care culpable negligence 2 Results of such neglectful conduct, state showing inattention and heedlessness, hence, disorder, neglected condition and appearance &c the negligence of one's attire &c negligent, adj [1 nēgligənt, 2 nēglizhənt] Fr négligent, fr Lat negligent (em), Pres Part of negligere See neglect (I) Neglectful, careless, not attending to duties, appearance &c, remiss negligent in work, in dress; negligent of his duties negligently, adv Prec & -ly In a negligent manner negligibility, n [1 nēglizhəbiliti, 2 nēglizhəbiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being negligible negligible, negligible, adj [1 nēglizhəbiliti, 2 nēglizhəbiliti] Fr négligeable &c, see negligent & -able, -able That may be neglected, not worth considering, of no importance a negligible person, a negligible amount, a very slight amount negotability, n [1 nēgōshəbiliti, 2 nēgōshəbiliti] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being negotiable negotable, adj [1 nēgōshəbiliti, 2 nēgōshəbiliti] See next word & -able 1 Able to be negotiated, spoof (law) negotiable instruments, such as bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes &c which are transferable by delivery and give to a bona fide holder for value without notice complete title to their value 2 Capable of being traversed, of affording a passage (of roads, means of approach &c) negotiate, vb trans & intrans [1 nēgōshiat, 2 nēgōshiat], fr Lat negōtiāt (um), PP type of negōtiārī, 'to trade, traffic', fr negōtium, 'look of leisure, business, employment, trade' &c, fr neg*, 'not', & otium, 'leisure', see otiose A trans 1 a To arrange, as a matter of business, by discussion, bargaining, and the like to negotiate a loan, terms of peace &c, b to change, get cash for a security to negotiate a bill of exchange &c 2 To contrive to surmount an obstacle, or to gain a passage over, or along to negotiate a mountain, a bad bit of road &c B intrans 1 a To engage neolith, n [1 nēolith; 2 nēlith], fr neo- & Gk lithos, 'stone', see litho-. A neolithic implement neolithic, adj [1 nēolithik; 2 nēlithik] Preo & -ic Of or belonging to a primitive period or age of civilization following the palaeolithic, of the later Stone Age, characterized by the use of polished, highly finished tools and weapons neologian, n [1 nēolōjan; 2 nēlōdžian] See neology & -an (theol) Adherent of neologism in theology, neologist neologism, n [1 nēolōjizm; 2 nēlōdžizm] neology & -ism, or direct fr Fr néologisme 1 a Use, invention, introduction, of a new word or idiom, or the use of a common word with a new meaning, b (1) now word or idiom, (u) word or idiom used in new sense 2 (theol) Adoption or support of rationalistic new views in theology neologist, n [1 nēolōjist; 2 nēlōdžist] neology & -ist One who practises neologism or neology neologize, vb intrans [1 nēolōjiz; 2 nēlōdžiz] neology & -ize To practise neologism or neology in either sense neology, n [1 nēolōji; 2 nēlōdži] neo- & -logy 1 a Practice of coining or using new words or idioms, b use with new meaning of words already existing 2 (theol) Novelty in theological doctrine, esp a rationalistic interpretation of a doctrine neon, n [1 nēon; 2 nēu] Gk néon, neut sing of néos, 'new' See neo- (chem) An inert gas in the atmosphere, discovered in 1898. Neon light, a glowing, red light, penetrating fog, obtained by ionizing the gas by passing an electric current through a tube or bulb containing this neophyte, n [1 nēōfit; 2 nēuifant] fr Eccles Lat neophytus, fr Gk neophytos, lit 'newly planted', hence 'newly initiated into the mysteries', fr neof, 'new', see neo-, & phutia, 'plant', cp phuein, 'to grow, bring forth, produce', see -phyte 1 (Church hist) One newly baptized and received into the primitive Christian Church, a new convert, a proselyte 2 a Newly ordained priest in Roman Catholic Church, b a novice in a monastic or other religious order 3 A beginner in an art, profession, trade &c, novice, two neoplasm, n [1 nēōplāzm; 2 nēuoplāzm] neo- & plasma (med) A new formation of tissue, specif, a tumour, or other morbid growth neoplastic, adj [1 nēōplastik; 2 nēuoplāstik] neo- & plastic. Pertaining to, of the nature of, a neoplasm

Neo-Platonism, n [1 nēō plātōnizm; 2 nēu plātōnizm] neo- & Platonism A school and system of philosophy, arising in Alexandria in 3rd cent A D, combining some of the doctrines of Greek philosophy, including those of Plato, with the mystical religious ideas of the East

Neo-Platonist, n [1 nēō plātōnist; 2 nēu plātōnist] Adherent of Neo-Platonism neoteric, adj [1 nēōtērik; 2 nēuotērik] fr Gk neotēros, 'youthful, fresh', fr neō-, & -ios Newly invented, modern, new-fangled neozoic, adj [1 nēōzōik; 2 nēuozōik] Gk See neo-, 'new', & zōo-, fr Gk zōē, 'life', & -ic (geol) Belonging to, designating, the whole period of time from the Mesozoic to the present geological age nepenthe, n [1 nēpēnthē; 2 nēpēnhi] fr Lat nepenthes, n, Gk nepenthes, adj, dispelling pain or grief', applied in Homer to a narcotic drug, possibly opium, fr nē-, neg pref, & penthos, 'pain, grief', variant of base in Gk pathos, 'pain, suffering' See pathos 1 Drug which gives relief from pain, (also fig) that which relieves grief or sorrow or induces forgetfulness 2 (bot) The Pitcher-plant, Nepenthes distillatoria nepheline, n [1 nēfēlin; 2 nēfēlm] fr Gk nephelē, 'cloud', cogn w Lat nebulā, &

-ine A mineral found in form of crystals in volcanic rocks, showing a cloudy appearance when treated with acids nephew, n [1 nēvī; 2 nēvyu] M E, fr Ō. Fr neveu, fr Lat nepotē(-em), 'grandson, descendant', also later 'nephew' See nepotism nepotism 1 Son of one's brother or sister 2 (obs) a Grandchild, as 1 Tim. v 4 (A V), b cousin (Shakespeare, 1 Henry VI ii v) 3 Formerly used, euphemistically, of a natural son, esp of a Pope, cp nepotism nephology, n [1 nēfōlōji; 2 nēfōlōdži] Gk nephos, 'cloud', see nephelina & nebulā, & -logy Branch of meteorology concerned with the study of clouds nephrite, n [1 nēfrīt; 2 nēfrait] fr Germ nephrit, fr Lat (lapide) nephriticus, fr Gk See next word Scientific name of one of the two varieties of jade, so called from its earlier use as an amulet against disease of the kidneys, it is a calcium magnesium silicate nephritic, adj [1 nēfrītik; 2 nēfrītik] fr Gk nephritikós, 'of or belonging to the kidneys', fr nephros, 'kidney', cogn w Lat nefrōnes, 'kidney', Ō H G niuro, Mod Germ niere, 'kidney', all fr nēw* hr- cp also Aryan base nēw*-, whence Lat inguen, 'groin', see inguinal. Belonging to, affecting, the kidneys, renal nephritic stone, renal calculus nephritis, n [1 nēfrītis; 2 nēfrītis] Gk nephros, see prec, & -itis Inflammation of the kidneys, Bright's disease nephro-, pref Form of Gk nephros, 'kidney', used in compounds See nephritic ne plus ultra, n [1 nē plus ūltra; 2 nī plas āltra] Lat, 'not further (more) beyond' Point which one cannot surpass or go beyond, limit of excellence, acme nepotism, n [1 nēpōtizm; 2 nēpātizm] Fr nepotisme, Ital nepotismo, fr Lat nepotē, stem of nepos, 'nephew', & -ism; cp Sort napāt, 'grandson, descendant', Lith neputis, 'grandson', Ō E nefa, 'grandson, nephew' cp also Lat neptis, 'niece', q v under niece, & see nephew Favouritism shown to relatives, esp in the matter of appointment to highly paid offices or sinecures, specif. (hist) the lavish favours showered by some of the Mediaeval and Renaissance Popes upon their natural children, who were known euphemistically as their 'nephews' nepotist, n [1 nēpōtat; 2 nēpōtat] Preo & -ist One who practises nepotism

Neptune, n [1 nēpōtōn, -tūn; 2 nēptjēn, -tjūn] Lat Neptūnus, 'the sea god, the sea', perh cogn w Ō Pers napta-, 'damp', Scrt (a) napta-, 'not damp' (astron) Name of the most distant planet of the solar system, except Pluto, q v

Neptunian, adj [1 nēptjūman; 2 nēptjūnan] Preo & -ian 1 Pertaining to Neptune 2 (geol) a Formed by the agency of water, b pertaining to the views of the Neptunists

Neptunist, n [1 nēpōtōnist; 2 nēptjūnist] Neptune & -ist (geol) Adherent of the view that the action of water has played a principal part in the formation of rocks

Nereid, n [1 nērid; 2 nērīd] fr Gk Nēreid, stem of Nēreus, name of a sea-nymph, 'daughter of Nereus', a sea god, fr nēros, 'nāros', 'wet', fr same base nea*, as in naïad (zool) A member of a genus of marine worms nero-antico, n [1 nārō antēkō; 2 nēro antiko] Ital, fr nero, 'black', & antico, 'antique, ancient' Name of a fine black marble found in ancient Roman buildings neroli, n [1 nārōli; 2 nērōli] Ital, fr name of discoverer Oil obtained by distillation of orange flowers nervation, n [1 nērvāhūn; 2 nārvēshūn] See nerve (I) & -ation (bot and zool) nerve (I), n [1 nērv; 2 nārv] Lat nervus, 'sinew, tendon, cord, string of bow', cp Gk neurōn for neuro-*, 'sinew, string &c', nerve, possibly extended fr base nē- See needle Alternatively, connexion w Ō E

neuru (see narrow) has been suggested, but is very doubtful 1 (only fig) Sinew, tendon, in Phr to strain every nerve, to make tremendous efforts 2 (anat or physiol) One of the cord-like fibres, or a bundle of fibres, composed of nerve cells, which transmit sensations to the brain and volitional impulses from it to various parts of the body, forming, as a whole, the nervous system 3 State of the nervous system as exhibited in mental and physical condition, a healthy condition, hence self-command, firmness, energy, vigour, courage, assurance, self-confidence a man of nerve, nerves of iron, steel &c, to have the nerve (to do), (1) be courageous enough (to do), (u) (colloq) have assurance, impudence, (b) (usually pl) unsound nervous condition, timidity, apprehension, excitability, jumpiness, irritability, depression to suffer from nerves, a fit of nerves, to get on one's nerves, make one irritable or jumpy, to have no nerves, to be imperturbable in face of danger, he doesn't know what nerves are, is not troubled by timidity or fear 4 (bot and zool) Rib or vein in a leaf, vein in the wing of an insect nerve (II), vb trans, fr prec a To give, in part, physical or moral strength and vigour, to make strong, to embolden, despairnerd his arm, b to nerve oneself, to brace oneself, collect one's energies, summon up courage &c for an effort nerve-cell, n Cell of tissue of which a nerve is composed nerve centre, n Collection of nerve cells, ganglion nerveless, adj [1 nērvēs; 2 nārvēs] nerve (I) & -less 1 a Without energy, vigour, or courage, feeble, weak, slack his arm fell nerveless to his side, b (fig) a nerveless style 2 Without nerves, a (anat) having no nervous system, b (bot) having no veins on the leaf nervelessly, adv Preo & -ly In a nerveless, weak manner nervelessness, n See prec & -ness Condition or quality of being nerveless nerve strain, n Excessive tension or stress laid upon the nervous system or a particular nerve nerveze, adj & n [1 nērvēn; 2 nārvīn] fr nerve (I) & -ize (med) a adj Having an effect on the nerves, b n, drug affecting the nerves, esp as a calming agent nervous, adj [1 nērvūs; 2 nārvēs] fr Lat nervosus, 'sinewy, vigorous, strong' See nerve (I) & -ous 1 (anat and physiol) Concerned with, pertaining to, the nerves, affecting the nerves nervous system, system, arrangement, of the nerves collectively, nervous diseases, those affecting the nerves, a nervous breakdown, nervous excitement, irritability 2 Having nerves in an unsound condition, a suffering from affection of the nervous system, b (in non-physical sense) (1) apprehensive, timid, (u) excitable, highly strung, irritable 3 a Having strong sinews, vigorous, strong, well knit strong nervous arms, frame, b (fig) strongly, tensely, composed, vigorous a nervous style nervously, adv Preo & -ly In a nervous manner (in various senses) nervousness, n See prec & -ness State, condition, of being nervous, esp apprehensiveness, timidity nerveure, n [1 nērvūr; 2 nārvjū] nerve (I) & -ure (bot and zool) A rib, line in a leaf, or in wing of an insect nervy, adj [1 nērvī; 2 nārvī] nerve (I) & -y (colloq) Nervous, full of nerves, easily excited, jumpy nescience, n [1 nēsions; 2 nēsians] Next word & -ce A Want of knowledge, ignorance, b specif, want of certainty of the existence or non-existence of God or a Divine creator, agnosticism nescient, adj [1 nēsiant; 2 nēsiant] fr Lat nescient (em), Proa Part of nescire, 'not to know'; ne, 'not', scire, 'to know' See science science Not knowing, ignorant ness, n [1 nes, 2 nes] OE nas, 'head-land, promontory', prob cogn w OE nasu, 'nose'. See nasal & noose Head-land, promontory, now chiefly surviving in Place Names, as Dungeness, Stegress, Holder ness

-ness, suff [1 nis, 2 nis] OE nes(s), -nis, nye, OS -ness, OHG -nessa, -nassi, the suff was orig -ness &c, the n being part of the stem of preceding word, cp Goth prudinassus, 'kingdom', fr prudan s, 'king'. Suff commonly used to form abstract ns, expressing a condition or quality, from adj bitterness, coldness, goodness &c, also b something exhibiting a particular quality a brightness in the eye &c. In witness the suff forms a concrete n. The suff is used with the utmost freedom, almost any adj being capable of producing a n by its use. It is constantly used to form ns fr adjs of Fr or Lat origin horribleness, gentleness, dulceness &c nest (I), n [1 nest, 2 nest] OE & ME nest, OHG nest, cogn w Lat nidus, 'nest', fr earlier nido*, the ultimate origin is fr ni*, 'down', cp nether, & ed, ramshing grade of base sed*, 'to sit', see sedate & sit 1 A structure built by a bird in which it lays its eggs, and hatches out and rears its young, Phrs a stolen nest, clutch of eggs laid by domestic hen elsewhere than in proper nesting box, to feather one's nest, to get rich in some way or other, usually with an implication of rather dishonest means, to foul one's own nest, to behave discredibly in one's own house, to disparage, belittle, criticize adversely one's own family, or an institution with which one is connected, b a breeding-place constructed by egg laying animals, such as certain insects, as wasps, ants &c, by spiders and by certain fish, as stockfish, and reptiles, as turtles, c shelter made by female rat or mouse for rearing its young 2 The contents of nest, the eggs and young, swarm, brood to take a nest, rob it of its eggs, or young birds, (also fig) a nest of rapiers, nest of singing birds, of the lyrics poets of the Elizabethan period 3 A warm, snug shelter or retreat a comfortable nest for one's old age 4 (gen in unfavourable sense) Place frequented by people of a certain class or character, haunt, den, breeding place a nest of spies, nest of crime and vice 5 A series of boxes &c which fit into one another, b set of small drawers or shelves contained within a single frame nest (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans a (of birds) To build a nest, to lay eggs and begin hatching them, settle in, occupy, a nest the birds are beginning to nest, b to hunt for birds' nests boys have gone nesting 2 trans (rare) To place, put, in a nest nest-egg, n 1 An egg, either real or a dummy, left in the nest of a fowl to encourage laying 2 Money saved and put by for emergencies, or to form basis of a fund nestle, vb intrans & trans [1 nesl, 2 nesl] OE nestlan, 'to build a nest' See nest (I) & -le 1 intrans To lie close in or against anything, as a bird does in its nest, to settle down snugly, cooly, in or among, to move, press, closely against nestle down in bed nestle in the grass, child nestles against its mother's breast 2 trans To place, press, move against baby nestles its head against its mother nestling, n [1 nés(t)ling, 2 nes(t)ling] nest (I) & -ling A young bird not fully fledged, and still unable to leave the nest

Nestor, n [1 nestor 2 nesto] Name of an old king in Homer's Iliad renowned for his wise counsel. 1 One who is able to give wise advice by reason of his age and experience 2 (zool) Genus of New Zealand parrots, including the kaka and kea

Nestorian, adj & n [1 nestorian, 2 nestorian] Lat Nestorianus, of Nestorius 1 adj a Of or pertaining to Nestorian, Syrian patriarch of Constantinople in 5th cent AD, who gave his name to the heresy Nestorianism, that the divine and human natures were not merged in one person in Jesus Christ, b of or belonging to a religious community, the Nestorian Church, in Kurdistan and Persia, which preserves the name, but not the heresy 2 n Member of the Nestorian Church net (I), n [1 net, 2 net] OE & ME net, net, OS net, netti, OHG netzi, Goth. neti, possibly cogn w Gk néte, 'membrane containing the entrails, the pannos, the entrails' 1 An open work fabric of knotted or woven twine, cotton, silk, or other thread, wire &c with mesh of various sizes 2 A length of any material having a meshed structure, of whatever size, and for whatever purpose used, eg fishing net, or one for snaring birds &c, for enclosing or protecting anything, as garden, hair, mosquito net, one used in certain games, as tennis net &c 3 Fine, meshed, lace like fabric 4 Network net (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a To catch by means of a net to net fish, birds &c, (fig, colloq) b to catch, entrap to net a husband, c to obtain as a result of efforts and devices to net a hard some profit (see, however, net (III)). 2 To place, plant, nets in for purpose of catching something to net a river 3 To cover, protect, surround, with a net or netting to net fruit trees, strawberries &c, to net a tennis lawn B intrans To make a net or nets net (III), adj & vb trans Fr net, 'net, clean' See net (II) 1 adj Clear, free, of all deductions, remaining over after all deductions have been made, opposite of 'gross' net price, real, not nominal, price, without discounts, net profit, profit after all costs, charges &c have been deducted, net tonnage (of ship), registered tonnage giving cargo capacity 2 vb To gain, produce, as a net profit to net a thousand a year (This sense may belong here originally, but is now usually felt as belonging to preo, A 1) ne temere, n [1 nē temere, 2 nētemari] Lat, 'not blindly, or rashly', as first words of the Bull. See temerarious Title of a Papal Bull, 1907, declaring invalid all marriages of Roman Catholics unless celebrated by Roman Catholic priests, thus barring marriages between Protestants and Roman Catholics unless so celebrated nether, adj [1 nedher, 2 nēthe] OE neopra, nipera, 'lower', adj formed fr adv nedor, nider, 'lower, downward', OS nithar, OHG nidar, fr ni* &c, 'down', see also beneath, cp Sort ni, 'downwards', Gk neothēn, 'from below', the suff -per corresponds to the Gk. compar -leros, cp inter (II) Lower, placed, situated, below, under, reverse of upper, (now either poet or in specific combinations) nether lip, nether millstone, nether garments, trousers, the nether mon, legs, nether regions, nether world, the world of the dead, hell, also used in Place-Names, eg Netherby, Netherfield &c nethermost, adj [1 nedhermost, 2 nēthmost] Preo & -most. Lowest the nethermost hell netlike, n [1 netsuk, 2 nētsuk] Jap Small carved object consisting of a knob of ivory, bone, or wood, with holes pierced through it, through which a cord is passed for attaching a purse, pouch, medicine-box, or other small article to the girdle netting, n [1 nēting, 2 nēting] Vbl n, fr net (II) 1 Piece, length, of net or network wire netting 2 Act, process, of making nets, of fishing with nets &c nettle (I), n [1 nēti, 2 nēti] OE netele, OHG netzila, apparently a dimin fr nat* it, cp OHG nazza, 'nettle' net (I) is fr the same base Plant, also called stinging nettle, belonging to the genus Urtica, with stinging hairs on the leaves and stalks, it grows rampantly in waste or neglected patches of ground, also applied to a non-stinging but similar looking plant, the 'dead-nettle', of a different botanical order Phr to grasp the nettle, to take hold and deal firmly and at once with a difficulty &c nettle (II), vb trans, fr preo To sting, irritate, vex, cause annoyance to, pique the criticism nettled him nettle-creeper, n Popular name of a small bird, which nests in nettle beds, usually applied to the white throat nettle-rash, n A skin eruption or rash, urticaria, the symptoms of which are red, inflamed patches, as if from the sting of a nettle network, n [1 nētwērk, 2 nētwārk] 1 Reticulated, meshed, structure or fabric of cord, wire &c 2 System of interlaced lines resembling a network, eg of canals, railway lines, wrinkles &c neum, neume, n [1 nūm, 2 nūm] L Lat neuma, fr Gk pneuma, 'breath' See pneumatic (Med ms) A symbol or system of notation indicating the notes to be sung to a single syllable in plain song neural, adj [1 nūral, 2 nūral] Gk neuron, 'nerve' &c See neur(o)- & -al Of or pertaining to the nerves neuralgia, n [1 nūralja, 2 nūraldži] neur(o)- & algia, stem of Gk algos, 'pain', & -ia See -algia & neglect Acute, intermittent pain, usually following the course of a nerve, esp in the head or face neuralgic, adj [1 nūraljik, 2 nūraldžik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, neuralgia neurasthenia, n [1 nūrasthēnia, 2 nūrasthēnia] fr neur(o)- & Gk asthēnia, 'weakness', fr asthēnēs, 'weak', a, priv pref, & asthenos, 'strength' See asthenic Nervous debility or prostration, exhausted condition of the nerves neurasthenic, adj & n [1 nūrasthēnik, 2 nūrasthēnik] Preo & -ic 1 adj Of, characterized by, suffering from, neurasthenia 2 n A sufferer from neurasthenia neuration, n [1 nūrasthun, 2 nūrasthun] Hybrid formation fr Gk neur(o)- & Lat -ation Arrangement, distribution, of nerves or veins in a leaf or insect's wing, neuration. neurectomy, n [1 nūrektumi, 2 nūrektumi] fr neur(o)- & Gk ektomē, 'cutting out, excision', fr ek, 'out', & tomē, 'cutting', op tem(nem), 'to cut', see tomē Excision of a nerve neuritis, n [1 nūritis, 2 nūrastitis] neur(o)- & -itis Inflammation of a nerve or group of nerves neur(o)-, pref, fr Gk neuron, fr neuro*, fr base neu*, 'to weave, bind', parallel w nē*, q v under needle See also nerve Used in compounds, indicating connexion with the nerves or nervous system.

neuroglia, n [1 nūroglia, 2 nūroglia] fr neur(o)- & Gk glia, 'glue' Cp Gk gliosis, 'gum', & see gluten Interstitial tissue which acts as support to the essential nervous tissue, esp of the brain and spinal cord neurologist, n [1 nūrologist, 2 nūrologist] neurology & -ist One skilled in the science of neurology, a nerve specialist neurology, n [1 nūroloji, 2 nūrologi] neuro- & -logy Scientific study of the nerves and nervous system neuroma, n [1 nūroma, 2 nūrologi] neur(o)- & -oma A tumour on, or connected with, a nerve neuropath, n [1 nūropath, 2 nūropath] Abbr of next word (med.) One who suffers from nervous disease or disorders, a neurasthenic neuropathic, adj & n [1 nūropathik, 2 nūropathik] neuro- & -pathic 1 adj a Of or pertaining to disease of the nerves, b having, suffering from, nervous disease 2 n A sufferer from disease of the nerves neuropathist, n [1 nūropathist, 2 nūropathist] Next word & -ist Specialist in nervous diseases neuro-pathologist, n [1 nūrō patholōjist, 2 nū(ə)rōu pəθlādʒɪst] neuro- & pathologist Student of neuro-pathology neuro-pathology, n [1 nūrō patholōji, 2 nū(ə)rōu pəθlādʒi] neuro- & pathology Study of diseases of the nervous system neuropathy, n [1 nūrōpəθi, 2 nū(ə)rōpəθi] neuro- & -pathy Nervous disease, morbid affection or disease of a nerve or the nervous system neuro-physiology, n [1 nūrō fiziolōji, 2 nū(ə)rōu fiziolādʒi] neuro- & physiology Physiology of the nervous system neuro-psychology, n [1 nūrō sikolōji, 2 nū(ə)rōu saikolādʒi] neuro- & psychology The special study of the connexion between the nervous system and the mental processes neurosis, n, pl neuroses [1 nūrōsis, sēz, 2 nū(ə)rōsis, -sɪz] neuro- & -osis 1 (med) A functional disorder of the nerves or nervous system without organic disease 2 (psychol) Physical activity in the nerve-cell which either causes, or accompanies, mental activity neurotic, adj & n [1 nūrohtk, 2 nū(ə)rōtɪk] neuro- & -otic 1 adj. a Of, belonging to, the nerves, affecting, acting on, the nerves, b suffering from, subject to, nerve disorder or disease, highly nervous neurotic person 2 n a A neurotic person, b drug which acts on the nervous system, esp as a poison neuter (I), adj [1 nūter, 2 nūta] Lat, 'neither of two, neither the one nor the other', also gram 'of neither gender, neuter', fr ne, neg pref, & uter, 'either of two' Cp neither & whether 1 (gram) a Neither masculine nor feminine neuter gender, noun, pronoun, adjective, b (of vbs) neither active nor passive, intransitive 2 a (bot) Having neither pistils nor stamens, b (entom) sexually undeveloped, as the worker bee or ant 3 (rare) Taking neither side, part &c in dispute, neutral neuter (II), n, fr preo 1 (gram) a A noun, pronoun, adjective, of the neuter gender, b an intransitive verb 2 a A sexually undeveloped insect, such as a worker bee or ant, b castrated animal, esp a cat so treated 3 A neutral, one who takes no side in a dispute &c, one who takes a middle course and is neither one thing nor another neutral (I), adj [1 nūtral, 2 nūtrəl] Lat neutrālis neuter & -al 1 a Not taking either side in a dispute, argument, esp in a war, indifferent, impartial, non-belligerent neutral attitude, opinion, a neutral state, to remain neutral, b belonging to a state which remains neutral in a war, not exposed to or involved in hostilities neutral commerce, territory 2 Belonging to neither of two classes, things &c, having no marked characteristics neutral colour, tint, tone 3 (bot and zool) Not differentiated in sex, neither male nor female, undeveloped in sex, asexual 4 a (chem) Neither acid nor alkaline, b (elect) neither positive nor negative neutral (II), n, fr preo A state or subject of a state which takes neither side in a war rights and liabilities of neutrals neutrality, n [1 nūtrāliti, 2 nūtrāliti], fr. Fr neutralité See neutral (I) & -ity State of being neutral, esp in a war, impartiality Phr armed neutrality, state of being ready, when necessary, to take part actively on one side or the other in a dispute, though not for the moment engaged neutralization, n [1 nūtrālɪzəʃən, 2 nūtrālɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation 1 Act of neutralizing or making neutral, state of being neutralized 2 Specif, agreement of states to treat a port, canal, stretch of territory &c as neutral in time of war neutralization of the Suez Canal 3 Act or process of rendering ineffectual and useless neutralization of efforts, hopes &c neutralize, vb trans [1 nūtrālɪz, 2 nūtrālɪz] az, fr L Lat neutralizāre, 'to make neutral' See neutral (I) & -ize 1 To make neutral, treat as neutral, exempt from hostile acts in time of war 2 To render ineffectual, remove or destroy special or distinguishing characteristics, to counteract by opposing something different neutralize efforts, work &c, one colour neutralizes another 3 (chem) To render inert an acid is neutralized by a base neutralizer, n [1 nūtrālɪzər, 2 nūtrālɪzər] Preo & -er One who, substance or object which, neutralizes neutrally, adv [1 nūtrālɪ, 2 nūtrālɪ] neutral (I) & -ly In a neutral manner neutrodyne, n [1 nūtrōdɪn, 2 nūtrōdɪn] See neuter (I) & dyne (wireless) An arrangement of a receiver where high frequency amplification is adapted for neutralizing the effects of capacity of the valve electrodes and the valve holder névé, n [1 návā, 2 névet] Fr, fr Lat nivem, acc of nix, 'snow', fr snig*-, op Gk niphda, 'snow-flake', see further under snow, -é is fr Lat -ālum, see -ate Mass of hardened snow in process of becoming ice at the upper end of a glacier never, adv [1 névər, 2 névə] OE næfre, fr ne, 'not', & æfre, 'ever'. See ever 1 a Not ever, at no time, present, past, or future it is never used now, never has been used before or since, never will be used again, b under no condition, not at all never refuse a good offer, never submit Phrs better late than never, welcome, acceptable, however much delayed, never too late to mend, there's always time for repentance and reform, now or never, now is the last opportunity of acting 2 a As emphatic negative, as never fear I'll do it, never fear!, of course I will do it, never mind, b followed by indefinite or definite article he answered never a word, not a single word, c followed by so never so much as spoke, didn't even speak, charm he never so wisely, however wisely he may charm, d expressing surprise, incredulity &c you were never such a fool as to lose your money!, it is impossible that well I never!, I never did! (hear or see the like) 3 In free combination with participles &c never-ending (watch), never-failing (kindness &c) nevermore, adv [1 névərmɔr, 2 névərmɔ] never & more Never any more, never again Never-Never Land, n Northern Queensland, Australia, as being very remote and difficult of access nevertheless, adv & conj [1 névərðihels, 2 névəðəls] never & the (fr OE þif = by that) & -less None, not, the less, notwithstanding; all the same, yet he did it nevertheless, nevertheless, he did it

new (I), adj [1 nū, 2 nju] OE nūwe, nēwe, ME nūwe, OS nūw, OHG nūw, Goth nūwis, cogn w Lat novus, 'new', Gk neos, fr newos*, see neo-, Sert navas, O Slav novi 1 Not previously existing; appearing, produced, for the first time new book, play, building &c, new discovery, idea Phr there's nothing new under the sun, nothing is really original, everything has a predecessor 2 Previously existing but only recently discovered or known new planet, element, plant &c, new worlds, the New World, the American continent, this information is new to me 3 Reverse of old, a different from, taking place of, what has previously existed, recently acquired a new suit of clothes, to buy a new horse, Phr new brooms sweep clean, one entering on new employment is enthusiastic and vigorous, b marking fresh start or departure, characterized by conduct different from, and better than, that hitherto followed to lead a new life, Phrs to turn over a new leaf, behave better than in the past, the new man, regenerate man, to make a new man of, (i) to improve his character and conduct, (ii) to restore to good health, c recently appointed, just starting on activities the new Cabinet, the new bishop, curate &c, d (contemptuous) modern, freshly introduced, new-fangled the new diplomacy, the new styles of dancing, the new woman 4 Fresh, unspoiled, not worn out, recently repaired or restored the carpet looks nice and new, the fence must be made new, as good as new, the works of the watch are quite new, though the case is worn out 5 Fresh, newly grown or produced new milk, potatoes, wine &c 6 Beginning a fresh stage in a series, following that which has gone before, succeeding new moon, new chapter, begin a new game, a new year 7 A inexperienced in, untried, unaccustomed to, not broken in to new to harness, new to the job, work, b unfamiliar, strange, novel the work is new to me, Phr an old dog can't learn new tricks 8 (in Place Names) As replacing or named after or as replacing a former place New Zealand, New York new (II), adv, fr preo Newly, recently, afresh, anew, again, combined freely and usually hyphenated with the qualified word following, also used to form verbs new born, new paved, new build, to rebuild, new fashion, new form &c

New Art, n Translating Fr l'art nouveau, a new kind or style of decorative art, prevalent in Europe at end of 19th and beginning of 20th cent new-comer, n One newly arrived, a recent arrival, stranger newel, n [1 nūel, 2 nūel] Earlier nuell, fr O Fr nuel, novel, Mod Fr noyau, 'kernel of a nut, stone of a fruit, also newel', fr Lat nucula, 'of, belonging to, a nut', fr nuc- (em), 'nut' See nucleus & nux vomica (arch) a The central shaft or pillar round which a winding stair turns, b the post supporting the rail of a straight staircase, at the foot or head, hollow newel, the open well of a staircase new-fangled, adj [1 nū fanggləd, 2 nū fanggl] Earlier newfangel, fr new & fangel, obs word meaning, 'eager to take, fond of taking', fr stem fang, 'to seize, take' See fang (I) 1 (obs) Fond of what is new 2 (contemptuous) Ultra-modern, strange, having no merit but novelty new-fangled ideas

Newfoundland dog, n [1 nūfəundlənd dɒg, 2 nūfəundlənd dɒg] fr name of island off east coast of Canada Large black or black and white dog, of spaniel breed, with great swimming and retrieving powers

Newgate, n [1 nūɡɪt, 2 nūɡɪt] Famous old London prison, built where the West Gate of the City of London stood, Newgate Calendar, an old publication giving reports &c of criminal trials at the Old Bailey, the criminal court next to this prison, Newgate frill or fringe, beard and whiskers framing or fringing the face, the cheeks, upper lip, and chin being shaved newish, adj [1 nūʃɪʃ, 2 nūʃɪʃ] new & -ish Rather new, nearly new new-laid, adj (of eggs) Newly laid, just laid, quite fresh

New Learning, n The study of the Bible and of the Greek classics in their original languages at the time of the Renaissance and Reformation in England newly, adv [1 nūli, 2 nūli] new & -ly 1 Recently newly used &c, newly come from the sea 2 Anew, afresh the gate has been newly painted

Newmarket, adj & n [1 nūmɑrkɪt, 2 nū mɑrkɪt] Name of town in Cambridgeshire, famed for its racecourse 1 A tightly fitting coat with long skirts, also Newmarket coat 2 A card game newness, n [1 nūnəs, 2 nūnəs] new & -ness State or quality of being new (in various senses of this word) news, n pl [1 nūz, 2 nūz], now treated as sing, formerly taking pl vb & pron, fr new, as Fr nouvelles, & L Lat novus, 'new', things, news', neut pl of novus, 'new' 1 a Intelligence, information, report of what has most recently happened foreign, home, news, the latest news, what's the news?, there is no news today, Phrs no news is good news, one is sure to hear the worst quickly, so bad news travels quickly, b that part of a news paper containing recent intelligence, contrasted with leaders, special articles, reviews &c 2 Name of several newspapers Daily News &c 3 Something of which one did not previously know, something which one has just learnt, tidings, fresh information what you say is news to me, I want to hear all your news, I've recent doings of which I have not yet heard Phr to break the news to, to impart all tidings news-agent, n One who sells newspapers and other periodicals news editor, n Person on staff of a daily newspaper in charge of reports of events coming in day by day news-letter, n 1 A circular weekly manuscript letter, containing the news of the day, sent to subscribers in the country by writers in London, in the 17th cent., an early predecessor of the newspaper 2 A title of some old newspapers, b title of special section of some newspapers, giving special, local, or other news news-monger, n [1 nüz-mungger, 2 nüz-mangge] *n*ows & -monger One who deals in news, one who spends his time gathering and retelling news, (usually in deprecatory sense) a gossip, chatterer newspaper, n [1 nüz-päper, 2 nüz-päpə] *n*ews & paper A publication, printed and issued daily or weekly, containing all news of the day, comments thereon &c, and now usually advertisements, public notices &c the newspaper world, world of journalism news-print, n *n*ews & print Paper, esp that made from wood pulp, used for the printing of newspapers news-room, n Reading room in an institution &c where newspapers and other periodicals are placed for perusal news-sheet, n An early form of the printed newspaper, also a news letter

New Style, n The rearrangement of the Calendar introduced by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582, and adopted by England in 1752, by which time there was a difference of eleven days between the Old and New Styles, the latter being the later news-vendor, n [1 nüz-vendur, 2 nüz-vendə] A seller of newspapers and other periodicals newsy, adj [1 nüz-i, 2 nüz-i] *n*ews & -y (colloq) Full of news or gossip, gossipy newt, n [1 nüt, 2 nüt] OE efeld, ME eule, an eel later became a newt See also ett Ett is still used in Engl dialects A small lizard like amphibious batrachian, allied to the salamanders

New Testament, n Translation of the Greek hē Kainē Diathēkē, the new, i.e. Christian, Covenant or Dispensation, Testament, that portion of the Bible which contains the books of the new Christian Covenant

Newtonian, adj & n [1 nütōnian, 2 nütōnjan], *n*ame of Sir Isaac Newton (1642-1727), & -ian 1 adj Of or pertaining to Newton and his philosophy, theories, doctrines &c Newtonian system, telescope &c 2 n Follower of Newton and his system

New World, n The North and South American Continent, the Western Hemisphere

New Year, n The first days after the end of an old year, beginning on New Year's Day, Jan 1st next (I), adj & adv [1 nekst, 2 nekst] OE next, nēxt, fr nēah* ist, eoperl of nēah, 'nigh' ME next, next See nigh & op near Nearest, adjoining without anything intervening coming, standing, immediately before or after 1 (of position in space) the next house, the house next to ours, the next chapter, take the next turning, in the next place Phrs next door a adj, next door neighbour, living in adjoining or nearest house b adv, in the next door, in next house, next door to, (fig) nearly, almost amounting to next door to blasphemy &c 2 (of occurrence in time) Next day, on Tuesday next, next month, the Sunday next before Advent (Sunday), the next person I meet, next time I go out 3 (of nearness in quality, value &c) The next kind, price, the next prize, to be next best Phr next best thing, second best, that which is chosen if first choice fails 4 (spool law) Next friend, person, not a guardian, who acts for a minor or one not legally able to act for himself in a suit at law, next of kin, nearest relatives by blood who take on an intestacy in order as laid down by statute next (II), adv See pro In the next place, on the next occasion, in the next order of quality &c the band came next, when I see him next, I like this best and that next Phr what next!, expressing wonder at what extravagance, eccentricity, marvel, may follow dresses up to their knees! what next!, talking to New York! what next!

next (III), prep See pro In closest proximity to, nearest to, in immediate contact with &c a seat next the window, the house next mine, sit next me, whom did you sit next at dinner?

next (IV), as n, fr next (I), adj, a noun being omitted The next (person) to arrive, he will be the next (to go), look forward to his next (book), in my next (letter), to be concluded in our next (issue)

nexus, n [1 nēksus, 2 nekss] Lat, 'that which binds together, bond, tie', fr nex, stem of nectere, 'to bind' Relationships doubtful a Link, bond, tie, connexion, b series, group, of objects or ideas connected by links nh (I), n & vb trans [1 nh, 2 nh] Variant of nēh, 'heak, nose, point' 1 n a (obs) Beak of a bird, b sharpened and split point of a quill pen, the similar point of steel, gold &c inserted in a penholder, o (pl) crushed soot or beans 2 vb (rare) a To sharpen a quill so as to form a nh, b to mend the nh of a quill pen, to insert nh into a penholder nh (II), n Etymol uncertain, but perh same word as preo, w the sense developed fr the meaning 'face' (slang, rare) Smart, grandly dressed person he's quite a nh, (also in pl) his nh, of a self important person nibble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 nibl, 2 nibl] Etymol doubtful, LG has nibbeln, also knibbeln, in same sense 1 intrans a To bite at, gently or tentatively, as a fish at a bait, to bite at with small, close bites, as a rabbit at grass, b to show signs of being attracted by an offer, proposal &c, also nibble at, to play, toy, with a suggestion, proposal, offer, without deciding to accept or reject it 2 trans To bite (food &c), as fish or rabbits &c nibble (II), n, fr preo A act of nibbling, tentative bite of a fish at a bait, b half-hearted, tentative motion of acceptance of suggestion &c niblick, n [1 nihlk, 2 nihlik] Etymol unknown (gol) A club, with small, well lofted and heavy head used for playing a ball out of sandy bunkers, hazards &c nice, adj [1 nis, 2 nais] O Fr nice, 'etopid, dull', now obs, fr Lat nescius, 'not knowing, ignorant', fr ne, neg pref, & sci*, stem of scire, 'to know' See science The original meanings (15th cent) in English, 'foolish, not wise, senseless', and the later (16th and 17th cents) 'wanton, luxurious, extravagant, strange', are now quite obs., the meaning 'fastidious' (17th cent) marks transition to present usages 1 a Fastidious, dainty, hard to please, refined, fanciful, in matters of choice, taste &c nice in one's dress, appearance, nice in one's food, b over refined, finicky, too exacting, fussy fastidious 'not exact, but nice' (Pope) 2 (in non-material things) Having an exquisite sense of honour and rectitude, having high standard of manners and conduct, precise, punctilious, scrupulous a nice sense of honour, not over nice in one's dealings, the nicest courtesy, 'a nice morality, split my windpipe!' (Lord Foppington in Vanbrugh's Relapse) 3 Requiring, involving, exhibiting precision, exactness, delicacy, minuteness, discrimination of touch, treatment, judgement &c, delicate, sensitive, discriminating a nice point (of law), a nice argument, negotiations needing nice handling, nice ear for sounds, eye for distances, nice taste in art, literature, nice shades of meaning, distinctions 4 (gen, and of the widest application, often used as exact converse of nasty) a Pleasant, pleasing, agreeable, attractive, engaging, good, kind nice face, looks, smile, nice dress, nice day, weather, nice cooling, a nice cigar, nice manners, nice people &c, nice people has also sense of well bred people, b not offensive, unpleasant, or in bad taste a nice book, play &c, c (ironical, colloq) bad, awkward, nasty, cp 'pretty' a nice muddle, a nice state of affairs, business &c Phr nice and, emphasizing another adjective the place is nice and healthy, quite healthy nicely, adv Preo & -ly In a nice manner (in all senses), (colloq) exactly that will suit me nicely, will just suit me, eh's doing nicely, is going on well, getting better

Nicaene, adj [1 nīcān, 2 naisn] Lat. Nicaenus, later Nīcēnus, 'of or pertaining to Nicaea', Gk. Nīlāra, Nīco, ancient city of Asia Minor Nicaene Councils, those held at Nicaea A.D. 325 and 787, Nicaene Creed, the confession of faith drawn up at the first Council of Nicaea, said at the Communion Service niceness, n [1 nīsnēs, 2 naisnis], fr nīcs & -ness State or quality of being nice, a delicacy of taste, judgement, b point of minute detail, nicety, o agreeableness, pleasantness nicety, n [1 nīskt, 2 naisnt] See preo & -ty a Exactness, precision, accuracy nicety of his powers of observation, b accuracy, careful, minute discrimination a matter, question, point, of extreme nicety, o (usually pl) minute, small points of difference, small details niceties of style, gauge &c, niceties of argument, evidence &c, Phr to a nicety, exactly niche, n & vb trans [1 nich, 2 nitch] Fr, fr Ital nicchia, 'nook, niche', etymol doubtful, Ital has also nicchio, 'shell', wh may be an allied word, if so, origin may be found in Lat nītilum*, for mītilum, mītilum, 'a mussel' 1 n a Small arched recess in a wall, to contain a statue, bust &c, b (fig) place, scope, suitable for person's capacity, work, occupation &c to find a niche for oneself 2 vb (usually in PP) To place in a niche, furnish a niche for, settle (oneself) in a niche nick (I), n & vb trans & intrans [1 nik, 2 nīk] Etymol doubtful, possibly allied to noek 1 n a Small cut, or slit, in wood &c, a notch, used as mark in a tally for reckoning accounts, marking time or as a sign, Phr in the nick of time, at exactly the right moment, only just in time, b a throw, cast, in games of dice 2 vb trans a To cut a nick or notch in, specif, to make a cut across and under (a horse's tail) to make it carry it higher, b (colloq, slang) to catch, steal, pinch to nick a handkerchief, watch &c 3 vb intrans Nick in, same as sn in, qv

Nick (II), n Only in Phr Old Nick, as appellation of the devil, short for 'Nicholas' nickel, n [1 nīk, 2 nīk], fr termination of Germ kupfernickel, name given to the ore, wh looked like copper, fr wh nickel was first extracted, leaving no copper behind, fr kupfer, 'copper', qv & nickel, 'mischievous sprite, demon', cogn w nix (I), the word meaning 'vanishing, worthless copper' a A metallic element, a very hard, malleable, and ductile metal, of whitish colour, taking a brilliant polish, used chiefly as an alloy in making nickel-steel, or nickel-steel, German silver, b (USA and Canada) a 5 cent piece nicker, vb intrans [1 nīker, 2 nīke] Imitative To neigh, whinny, as does a horse nick-nack, n See knock-knack nickname, n & vb trans [1 nīknām, 2 nīk-nēm] Earlier nāle name, for an ēkenāme, 'an additional name', cp ON auknafn. See eke (II) & name 1 n. An additional name, a soubriquet, given in affection, or derision, or as a descriptive or familiar appellation to a person, place &c 2 vb To give a nickname to Nicol prism, n [1 nīkl prizm, 2 nīkl prīzəm] Named after William Nicol, d 1861, Scottish physicist A prism made of Iceland spar, used for experiments in the polarization of light nicotian, adj [1 nīkōshuan, 2 nīkōufjən] See next word & -ian Of, connected with, tobacco nicotine, n [1 nīkōtēn, 2 nīkōtīn], fr name of Jean Nicot, who introduced tobacco to France in 1560, & -ine (ohem) An oily, colourless, highly poisonous alkaloid, found in tobacco nicotinism, n [1 nīkōtīnīzəm, 2 nīkōtīnīzəm] Prec & -ism State of suffering from poisoning by nicotine or from excessive use of tobacco nictate See next word nictitate, vb trans [1 nīktītāt, 2 nīktītēt], fr L Lat nictitāt(-um), PP type of nictitāre, freq. of Lat nictāre, 'to wink, blink', fr nicere, 'to beckon', cp Lat co nītere, 'to blink, to wink at', see connive, the base is nīeyw-*, wh is found also in Goth hneigean, 'to bend towards, incline'; O HG (h) neigen, O E hnigan, 'to bend, bow, sink down' &c To wink, open and close the eyes quickly, esp of birds and animals possessing a third eyelid, at the side of the eye, the nictitating membrane, which can be drawn rapidly across the eyeball nidamental, adj [1 nīdāmēntl, 2 nīdāmēntl], fr Lat nīdamentum, 'that which forms a nest', Lat nīdus, 'nest', & -al. See nīdus (zool) Of or belonging to a covering for the eggs of certain molluscs, such as the octopus nidamental capsule, gland, sac &c niddering, adj [1 nīdērīng, 2 nīdērīng] A spurious revival, used by Scott, based upon O E nīdīng, 'infamous person, coward, dastard', fr Scand, cp ON nīdīngr, fr nīð, 'malice, hatred', cp Goth nēþ, O HG nīð Base, infamous, cowardly, faithless nide, n [1 nīd, 2 nīd], fr Lat nīdus, 'nest', cp Fr nīd, & see nīdus A nest and its contents, specif, a brood of young pheasants nidificate, vb intrans [1 nīdīfīkāt, 2 nīdīfīkēt], fr Lat nīdīfīcāt(-um), PP type of nīdīfīcāre, 'to build a nest', fr nīdus, 'nest', see nīdus, & fic-, see -fy, & -ate To build, make a nest, to nidify.

nidification, n [1 nīdīfīkāshun, 2 nīdīfīkāshən] Prec & -ion Act or process of forming nests, nesting nidify, vb intrans [1 nīdīfī, 2 nīdīfīs] See prec & -fy To make a nest, to nidificate nīd-nōd, vb intrans [1 nīd nōd, 2 nīd nōd] Redupl form of nōd To keep nodding nīdus, n [1 nīdus, 2 nīdīs] Lat nīdus*, 'nest', fr nīdōs* See under nest A nest, breeding place, a (zool) place, resembling a nest, in which certain insects and some spiders deposit their eggs, b a place where germs of disease &c, are harboured and developed, a site or source of infection nīce, n [1 nēs, 2 nīs] ME nēce, neyce, fr O Fr niece, fr Lat neptis, 'granddaughter', L Lat neptia, 'granddaughter, niece', cp nepti-, 'nephew'. See nepotism & nephew The daughter of one's brother or sister niello, n [1 nīelō, 2 nīelōw] Ital, fr L Lat niellum, 'a kind of black or very dark enamel', fr Lat niellus, 'blackish, somewhat black', dimin of niger, 'black' See negro 1 A deep black, metallic amalgam of sulphur added to silver, copper, lead &c, used as an inlay for incised lines on silver or gold, as a form of decoration 2 Piece of silver &c., decorated with this black inlay; also used attrib, niello-work nielloed, adj [1 nīelōd, 2 nīelōwd] Prec & -ed Decorated with niello

Niersteiner, n [1 nīrštīner, 2 nīrštīnēr] Germ adj, Niersteiner(wein), fr Nierstein, a village near Mainz, on the Rhine A white, still Rhine wine or Hook

Nietzschean, adj [1 nīchéan, 2 nītjēn], fr F W Nietzsche, German philosopher, d 1900 Connected with, based on, the philosophy of Nietzsche and his followers, of which the chief feature is a revulsion from Christian ethics as servile, the glorification of strength, the so-called 'will to power' of the 'superman'

Nietzscheanism, n [1 nīchéanīzīm, 2 nītjēnīzīm] Prec & -ism Nietzsche's philosophical doctrines nifty, adj [1 nīftī, 2 nīftī] Etymol unknown (Am slang) Smart, stylish niggard, n & adj [1 nīgārd, 2 nīgārd] ME nīgārd, etymol doubtful, the termination seems the same as in laggard, drunkard &c, nig is prob Scand, cp ON knōggr, 'niggardly' 1 n A miser, a stingy, covetous, avaricious person 2 adj Covetous, avaricious, miserly, stingy niggardliness, n [1 nīgārdlīnēs, 2 nīgārdlīnīs], fr niggardly & -ness Avarice, meanness, stinginess niggardly, adj & adv [1 nīgārdh, 2 nīgārdhī] niggard & -ly 1 adj Avaricious, covetous, stingy, mean, close-fisted, grudging 2 adv Avariciously, stingily, grudgingly nigger, n [1 nīger, 2 nīge] Earlier neger, fr Fr negre, fr Span negro See negro 1 (colloq) A negro, also used loosely in contemptuous sense of dark-skinned natives of East Indies &c, and by Australians of the black aborigines Phrs (USA) nigger in the woodpile, some hidden fact, drawback, motive &c, to work like a nigger, very hard, persistently, industriously 2 Also nigger-minstrel, person with blackened face and hands, often fantastically dressed, who sings and accompanies himself on a banjo or with the bones, esp in the open air 3 A very dark chocolate brown coloured dye for dresses, stockings &c 4 (USA) Name of certain machines for doing very hard work, as for hauling logs &c 5 (attrib) Nigger-fish, West Indian edible sea fish, marked with black spots, nigger melodies, negro songs niggle, vb intrans [1 nīgl, 2 nīgl] Etymol doubtful, cp Norw. dial nigla, 'to save, scrape, to hussy over trifles' To fret, bother over petty details, to spend time working at trivial details or in a fussy, finicky way niggling, adj [1 nīglīng, 2 nīglīng] Pres Part of prec (of persons) Fussy, finicky, worrying over trifles or petty details, b (of a task) demanding very careful, minute work at small details, c performed in an over-elaborated, minute way, not broad or free, cramped nigh, adv, prep & adj [1 nī, 2 nā] OE nēah, 'near', adv & adj, ME nēh, nēh, nīh, O HG & OS nāh, ON nā, Goth nēhwa, not identified outside Gmc See near (old comp) & next (old superl) (archaic and poet) Near 1 adv A Near to to come, draw, nigh, b close to, in adjacent position - to stand nigh, c almost, nearly nigh worn out with fatigue 2 prep Close upon, near to stand nigh me, he is nigh death 3 adj Near, close the Lord is nigh unto them that fear Him, nigh unto death night, n [1 nīt, 2 nāt] OE & ME nīht, fr nāht-*, OS & O HG nāht, Goth nahis, O Ir nocht, Sort nakta, Lat noct(-em) &c See noct(-), Gk nykt(-ds), nyx, O Slav nočī, Lith nalīs &c 1 a That period of the day when the sun has ceased to give light, period between sunset and sunrise, or, without reference to light, between 6 o'clock P.M. and 6 o'clock A.M., b (popular usage) period of complete darkness, after twilight and before the dawn; c (law) from an hour after sunset until an hour before sunrise, in distinguishing burglary from house breaking Phrs all night, all night long, throughout the whole night, at night, during the night, when night comes, by night, during the night, to spend the night with, to sleep at a person's house, (to work &c) night and day, without ceasing, continually, right after night, night by night, every night, o' (-on) nights, (colloq or dial) hy, at night, during the night, as a continual habit I can't sleep o' nights To have, pass a good (bad) night, to sleep well (badly), to hate a (the) night out, off, to spend the evening (and night) in enjoyment away from the house or away from work or duty, to make a night of it, spend the night in gaiety, enjoyment &c, sometimes with suggestion of disorder or in indulgence in alcoholic refreshment, to turn night into day, to do at night what is usually done in the day 2 Darkness, a (lit) the darkness of night under cover of night, b the darkness of death the night of death &c, c of blindness 'He saw, but blasted with excess of light, Closed his eyes in endless night' (Gray, on Milton) 3 (fig) Darkness of ignorance, apprehension, adversity &c during the night of paganism, the night of their affliction 4 In combination, in sense of belonging to, used in, suitable for, the night night bell, bell only for use at night, as for ringing up a doctor &c, night breeze, breeze blowing off the land as the sun goes down, night clothes, night attire, dress worn in bed, night fishing, night flower, flower, such as that of the tobacco plant, evening primrose &c, which closes during the day and opens at nightfall, night flying, flying by night, nightshift, spell, shift, of work done at night, the gang of workmen employed on a nightshift night-bird, n 1 A bird that is about by night and sleeps during the day, nocturnal bird, as the owl, or sings by night, as the nightingale 2 Person, usually of doubtful character, who is much about at night and is not seen by day night-blindness, n Inability to see at night, nyctalopia night-cap, n 1 Cap worn in bed at night 2 Drink, usually alcoholic, taken before going to bed night-commode, n A movable covered in pan for use at night in the bedroom by invalids, a night-stool nightdress, n [1 nītdres, 2 nātdres] Woman's nightgown nightfall, n [1 nītfawl, 2 nītfāl] The coming on of night and darkness, the end of daylight or the day, evening night glass, n A binocular glass or telescope with special lenses and large field for concentrating rays of light for use at night nightgown, n [1 nītgoun, 2 nītgawn] Long robe of linen, cambric, or other material, worn by women in bed, nightdress night-hag, n A witch supposed to fly by night, b a nightmare night-hawk, n a North American bird, allied to the European nightjar or goat-sucker, b person whose habit it is to be about at night, usually for illicit purposes, a night-hurd nightingale, n [1 nītinggāl, 2 nārtīngēil] OE nihtgale, lit, 'the night-singer', fr nīht(e), 'night', & gale, 'singer', fr galan, 'to sing', cp O HG & OS nahigala See night & yell 1 A small migratory bird of Europe, Asia, & N Africa, Daulias luscima, of dark, reddish-brown colour with greyish underparts, the cock-bird is famous for its singularly powerful, sweet, and varied notes, the singing usually begins at dusk and continues far into the night 2 Name given to certain other singing birds, as the Indian, Japanese nightingales &c. nightjar, n [1 nītjār, 2 nātdžā], fr night & jar (I), 'vibrating, discordant sound' Popular name for the goat-sucker, from its harsh, jarring cry when hunting moths and other insects at dusk night-light, n A light kept burning in a bed room at night, consisting of a kind of short, stumpy candle, in cardboard case, or of a wick floating on oil night-line, n Butted line, moored and buoyed, set to catch fish by night night-long, adj Lasting the whole night nightly, adj & adv [1 nītlī, 2 naitlī] night & -ly 1 adj A happening, performed, every night nightly watches, visits &c., 2 (poet) occurring at, belonging to night, nocturnal 2 adv Every night barking of dogs disturbs one nightly nightmare, n [1 nītmār, 2 nortmes], fr night & mare, 'demon, incubus', OE mara, op OHG & ON mora, 'agress, nightmare', ultimate derivation doubtful 1 (archaic) A demon, incubus, supposed to haunt sleepers with a sense of oppression and suffocation 2 A very bad, frightening dream, sometimes accompanied by a sense of weight on the chest and stomach, inability to move &c.; supposed to be due to indigestion 3 A horrible experience, something, or somebody, that one dreads, dislikes, or is obsessed by, a sense of approaching disaster, forebodings of evil, general feeling of horror and disgust Life in prison must be a long nightmare to many; the memory of my first lecture is a regular nightmare nightmarish, adj [1 nītmārīsh, 2 naitmārīsh] Proo & -ish Like a nightmare night-piece, n A painting representing a scene at night, b a literary composition dealing with the subject of night night-school, n School held at night for workmen or others who are unable to attend during the day nightshade, n [1 nītsād, 2 nait[s]ēd] OE nichtscada, fr nīht, 'night', q v, & scada, 'shade', similar names for the plant are found in Mod Germ nachtschale, Du nachtscade, the meaning of the termination is not clear, & the identification of it w shade, may be due to popular etymol Name of various poisonous plants belonging to the family Solanaceae, the belladonna plant, the deadly nightshade, the hithersweet, or woody nightshade &c nightshirt, n [1 nītsārt, 2 nait[s]āt] Long shirt worn by men and boys in bed night-soil, n Sewage from cesspools, earth closets &c removed at night night-stool, n A night-commode night-time, n Time of darkness from sunset to sunrise and from twilight to dawn; the period of night, as contrasted with day time night-walker, n 1 One who walks in his sleep, somnambulist 2 A prostitute, night bird, night-bawk night-walking, n Somnambulism, walking in one's sleep night-watch, n 1 A guard or watch kept through the night, b man or men performing this duty 2 A period of time during the night in which watch is kept, (pl) successive periods, usually three or four, at each of which the guard is changed, hence, b of wakeful, restless periods of night in the night watches night-watcher, n One who keeps watch or guard at night night-watchman, n One employed to keep watch at night in a factory, business premises &c nigrescence, n [1 nīgrēsens, 2 nai-grēsens] See next word & -ce A process of growing or becoming black, b blackness, esp of complexion, black pigmentation of skin, eyes &c nigrescent, adj [1 nīgrēsant, 2 nai-grēsant] Lat nigrescent (em), Pres. Part of nigrescere, 'to become black', inceptive vh, fr niger, 'to be black', fr niger, 'black' See negro A growing, becoming, black, b rather black, tending to blackness nigritude, n [1 nīgritūd, 2 nai-gritūd], fr Lat nigritudo, 'blackness', fr niger, 'black' See negro (poet or rhet) Blackness (of complexion &c), (also fig) the nigritude of their crimes nihil, n [1 nīhl, 2 naihlī] Lat, 'nothing', fr nehlum, ne, 'not', & hlum, 'a little thing, a trifle'; op hlum, parh, fr phlūm* & a variant of filum, 'a thread' See file (V), 'row, rank' &c In Phrs (chiefly legal) nihil ed rem, nothing to the point, nothing to do with the matter, irrelevant, nihil dict, he says nothing, of prisoner or defendant who refuses to plead, nihil habet, he has nothing, as a return by a sheriff's officer when defendant has no goods on which to distrain, ex nihilo nihil fit, out of nothing, nothing can come, or be made

Nihilism, n [1 nīhlizm, 2 naihlizm], fr Lat nihil, 'nothing' See proo & -ism 1 (philes) Doctrine of negation, the denial of all reality in phenomena, complete scepticism as to the real ground of truth or belief in religion, morals &c 2 Specif a the doctrines and system of a revolutionary party in Russia during latter half of the 19th cent and later, which aimed at the destruction of the existing social system and adopted terrorist methods of assassination &c, b (in gen) violent revolutionary beliefs, doctrines, propaganda &c, totalitarian, anarchism nihilist, n [1 nīhlīst, 2 naihlīst] See proo & -ist. Supporter of Nihilism, member of the Russian revolutionary party professing such doctrines and methods, terrorist, anarchist nihilistic, adj [1 nī(h)līstīk, 2 nai(h)līstīk] Proo & -ic Of or pertaining to Nihilism and its propaganda nihility, n [1 nīhlītī; 2 naihlītī] L Lat nihilitas nihil & -ity (rare) Nothingness, nullity nil, n [1 nīl, 2 nīl] Lat, contraction of nihil, 'nothing' See nihil Nothing, in amount or number. the profits are nil, (also fig) his influence is now nil Phrs nil ad mirum, to be moved to wonder or interest at nothing, attitude of indifference, nil desperandum, nothing to be despaired of, never despair nilgai, nyighau, n [1 nīlga, 2 nīlga], nilgau Pers & Hind nīlga, lit 'black cow', fr Pers. nīl, 'black', & gāu, 'cow' See cow A large Indian antelope, the male of which is horned and of a bluish grey colour nil, vh [1 nīl, 2 nīl] OE nyllan, 'to refuse, be unwilling', for ne, 'not', & willan, 'to will', q v Obsolete, except in Phr will he, will he, whether he will or not, usually willily nilly

Nilometer, n [1 nīlōmeter, 2 naihlōmeter], fr Gk Nēlōmetron, fr Nēlos, 'the Nile', & metron, 'measure' See meter A instrument in the form of a pillar and water chamber used for measuring the rise of the Nile, b an automatic gauge for measuring rise and fall of water in rivers

Nilotic, adj [1 nīlōtik, 2 naihlōtik], fr Gk Nēlōtikos, 'of or belonging to the Nile', & -ic Belonging to the Nile and the regions which it waters Nilotic peoples, tribes &c nimble, adj [1 nīmbl, 2 nīmbl] ME nimel, 'quick, nimble', OE numol, numel, 'capacious', (of the mind) 'able to grasp', fr base seen in OE numan, 'to take, seize', q v under numb, the meaning being 'quick to take or grasp' Quick, active, lively, agile a (of physical activity) very nimble on his feet, 'O friends, I hear the tread of nimble feet' (Milton, 'P L') Phrs the nimble response, as circulating rapidly, nimble fingered, of a pick pocket, b (of mental activity) quick to grasp, alert, spry, clever, versatile, mentally agile nimble wits, a nimble mind nimbly, adv Proo & -ly In a nimble manner, actively, with agility nimbus, n [1 nīmbus, 2 nīmbes] Lat, 'cloud, rain storm, thunder-cloud', also, the bright vapour enveloping a god when appearing to mortals, fr base nēmbh*, fr a blending of emh* (op imbricate) & neb*, both fr nēbh*, 'mist, rain' See nebula 1 (ari) A bright ring, disk, triangle, of gold or rays of light depicted round or behind the head of a divinity, saint &c in pictures or on statues, a glory, aureole, halo 2. (meteor) A storm cloud, rain-cloud nimety, n [1 nīmēti, 2 nīmarēti] L Lat nīmēdēt (em) 'excessiveness', fr nīmus, adj, nīmus, adv, 'too much', prob fr nē mīe*, 'not a little', mīe, fr mī* is, being an old compar of mejo*, 'small' See this base in minus Excess, too muchness, redundancy niminy-piminy, adj [1 nīmūm pīmīm, 2 nīmīm pīmīm] Proh imitative of affected, miming speech Fimicking, miming, affected, old maidish, paltry, lacking downrightness and vitality

Nimrod, n [1 nīmrod, 2 nīmrōd], fr the name of the son of Cush, Gen x 8-10, 'a mighty hunter before the Lord' Person much addicted to hunting and shooting uncompoop, n [1 nīngkumpōop, 2 nīp-kampōp] Etymol unknown, not a corrupt of Lat non compos (mentis), 'not sound in mind' Sumptuous, heehy, silly folk, a brainless, weak-minded person nine, adj & n [1 nīn, 2 noin] OE nigon, nigen, ME nyne, nīne, OS nigon, OHG & Goth. nūn, ON nīu, op Lat novem, Gk ennea for enineum*, Scrt ndra, op also Ir & Gael naoi, W naw, O Prussian neivins 1 adj One more than eight and less than ten, often used with omission of noun, as nine, for nine o'clock, only nine (persons) appeared Para nine days' wonder, piece of news, scandal &c that causes a sensation for a short time only and is quickly forgotten, a cat has nine lives, is very difficult to kill, nine men's morris, an old English game resembling draughts played with counters, stones &c on a board or on a marked space on the ground, also the board or space of ground on which it was played 2 n A The figure or symbol representing the number nine, b a playing card having nine pips the nine of hearts, c person, object, who holds the ninth place in a series, usually number nine Phrs the Nine, the nine Muses, dressed up to the nines, dressed elaborately, carefully, and amantly ninefold, adj & adv [1 nīnfold, 2 nainfold] nine & -fold Nine times repeated, nine times as many ninepins, n [1 nīnpīnz, 2 nainpīnz] Game played with nine wooden pins arranged in a diamond pattern, at which a ball is bowled, skittles to fall, be knocked, over like a lot of ninepins, of a number of persons or objects, falling right and left, in all directions nineteen, adj & n [1 nīntēn, 2 nāintēn] OE nigonlīne nūne & ten Nine plus ten, one less than twenty Phr to talk nineteen to the dozen, to talk continually, persistently, to keep on chattering nineteenth, adj [1 nīntēnth, 2 nāintēnth] Proo & -th Following eighteen others in a series Phr nineteenth hole, (golf) facetious name for place in club house where a drink is taken after playing a round of eighteen holes ninetieth, adj [1 nīntieth, 2 nāintieth] ninety & -th Following eighty-nine in a series ninety, adj & n [1 nīnti, 2 nāinti] OE nigonlīne nūne & -ty adj Ten times nine, b n, number equal to ten times nine, symbol of this Phrs the nineties, the years ninety to ninety-nine, of a particular century, esp of the 19th cent, ninety nine times out of a hundred, nearly always niiny, n [1 nīni, 2 nīni] Etymol unknown, a corrupt of an innocent has been suggested, also relation to or adaptation of Ital ninno, ninna, 'baby, child' Fool, simpleton ninth, adj & n [1 nīnth, 2 nāin] nine & -th. 1 adj Following eight others in a series 2 n a One of nine equal parts, a ninth part, b (mus) an interval, a semitone or tone greater than an octave ninthly, adv Proo & -ly In the ninth place in a series

Niobe, n [1 nīōbi, 2 naiōubi] Gk. Nēbbē 1 a (class mythol.) A daughter of Tantalus all of whose children were slain because of her pride in them, she was turned into stone, and her tears formed a stream, b a disconsolate woman for ever weeping 2 (bot.) A genus of Japanese lilies, the Funkia or day-lily niobic, adj [1 nióbik, 2 náiuhik] See next word & -ic Of or pertaining to niobium niobium, n [1 nióbium, 2 náiuhám] Comed fr name of Niobe, daughter of Tantalus (chem) Metallic element, also called columbium, it resembles tantalum, whence the name nip (I), v trans & intrans [1 nip, 2 nip] ME nippen, etymol doubtful, LG has nipen, 'to pinch', cp Du nypen, 'to pinch', also knypen, 'to clip', possibly allied to nubbe, the word does not appear in OE A trans 1 a To pinch sharply with the fingers, or with claws, as a crab, to bite suddenly with the teeth, as a horse, dog, b to pinch, cut, clip, with an implement 2 (of wind, frost) a To out off, out down, burn, cheek growth of, blight east wind nips the early blossom, Phr to nip in the bud, to put a stop to, at the start, from the beginning, b (fig) to damp, depress a chilly reception nipped the first enthusiasm 3 (colloq and slang) a To steal, pinch, b to catch, seize, arrest 4 Nip off, to cut, pinch, off (the buds of flowers, dead leaves &c) B intrans 1 To perform the action of pinching, biting &c a crab can nip quite severely 2 To strike cold or keen the wind nips pretty hard today C Followed by prepositions or adverbs, in general sense of to run, make a rapid movement Nip along, to hurry Nip in, out in, move quickly in or before another, to interrupt, break in he nipped in just in front of me, to intervene suddenly in conversation nip in with a smart question, retort &c Nip off, depart hurriedly, run away Nip on ahead, run so as to get in front nip (II), n, fr prec a A pinch, bite, of fingers or teeth, b a sharp, keen bite of cold, wind, tang a nasty nip in the air nip (III), n & v trans & intrans Etymol doubtful LG & Du have nypen, 'to sip'. 1 n A sip, a small quantity of drink to take a nip of whiskey 2 v To sip, take drink, in small quantities, esp repeatedly to be always nipping (whiskey)

nipa, n [1 népa, nipa, 2 nipa, naspá] Malay nipah a A species of East Indian palm, Nypa, b wine made from the fermented sap of the tree nipper, n [1 nípér, 2 nípá] fr nip (I) & -er 1 One who or that which nips, pinches, or bites 2 (slang or colloq) Young boy, lad, originally a boy who helps a hawk or costermonger 3 (pl) A pair of nippers, a small pincers for twisting, cutting, or breaking off wire, b small dentist's forceps, c horse's molar teeth, d crab's or lobster's large pinching claws 4 (pl) Eye glasses, pince-nez nipping, adj [1 nípung, 2 nípung] fr Pres Part of nip (I) (chiefly of wind, air &c) Keen, sharp, biting cold nippingly, adv Prec & -ly Sharply, keenly, so as to nip nipple, n [1 nípí, 2 nípí] Etymol unknown, an earlier form, neble, suggests dimin of neb, 'projection, beak' 1 a Teat of female breast, b an artificial teat on a feeding-bottle 2 The projection on look of a percussion mallet on which the cap was placed 3 A small nipple-like projection on glass, sheet of metal &c nipple-wort, n Prec & wort (I), 'plant, herb' A weed or herb with small yellow flowers nippy, adj [1 nípí, 2 nípí] nip (I) & -y (colloq) Quick, active, nimble you'll have to be pretty nippy if you want to catch the train nirvana, n [1 nírýhána, 2 nírýhána] Sort nirvána, lit 'a blowing out', fr nirva, 'to blow' (Buddhism) State of complete blessedness attained when the individual soul is absorbed into, and united with, the divine infinity, and all personality is extinguished nisi, conj [1 nísi, 2 náiási] Lat, 'unless, if not'. In legal Phrs decree nisi, decree of divorce, which, after a specified time, will be made 'absolute', unless reason against it is brought forward by the King's Proctor, also order, rule, nisi, of an order &c of the Court, which will be valid unless before a certain date reasons are given for rescinding it Nisi prius [1 nísi prius, 2 náiási prius], Lat, 'unless before'. Originally, a writ for summoning jurors to Westminster unless, before the date fixed, the case has been tried in the country by a Judge of Assize, now, the Court presided over by a Judge of Assize for trying civil cases in the country nit, n [1 nit, 2 nit] OE nit, ME nite, OHG hinz, cogn w Gk lonid (os), stem of lonis, 'egg of louse', cp also knizen, fr knid* jo-, 'to scrape, scratch, irritate, itch', & knén, 'to scratch'. The egg of a louse or other verminous parasitic insect nitrate, n & v trans [1 nítrát, 2 nítrát] fr nitre & -ate 1 n (chem) A salt or compound of nitric acid with a base, potassium nitrate or saltpetre in its natural state, also sodium nitrate or Chile saltpetre, also these as obtained by the fixation of nitrogen in the air or by the action of bacteria in the soil &c Nitrate of silver, lunar caustic 2 v To combine, treat, with nitric acid or a nitrate, convert, make, into a nitrate nitration, n [1 nítráshun, 2 nítráshen] Prec & -ion Process of nitrating, esp of action of nitric acid on hydrocarbons nitre, n [1 níter, 2 náta] Fr, fr Lat nitrum, fr Gk nitron, 'native carbonate of soda, natron', prob Somah in origin, cp Heb neher, 'nitre', Arab nitron (chem) a Potassium nitrate, saltpetre, b sodium nitrate, Chile saltpetre, also called cubic nitre nitro, adj [1 nítrik, 2 nátrik] fr nitrique Prec & -o 1 (obs) Of or belonging to nitre 2 (chem) Of, pertaining to, containing, nitrogen, esp of compounds in which nitrogen has a higher valency than in nitrous compounds nitric acid, a powerfully corrosive, oxidizing acid compound of hydrogen, nitrogen, and oxygen, aqua fortis; nitric oxide, colourless gas obtained by treating copper with nitric acid nitride, n [1 nítrid, 2 nátrid] nitro- & -ide (chem) Compound of nitrogen with a metallic element nitritification, n [1 nítrifikáshun, 2 nítrifikáshen] fr Fr See nitryfy Aot, process, of nitryfying, specif, the formation of nitrates in soil or manures by the action of bacteria which form ammonia and change this into nitrates and nitrates nitryfy, v trans [1 nítrifi, 2 nátrifi] fr Fr nitryfier nitre & -fy To change into nitrous or nitric acid or into nitrates or nitrates by oxidation, to carry through the process of nitritification, as bacteria nitrite, n [1 nítrít, 2 nátrít] nitre & -ite (chem) A salt or compound of nitrous acid nitro, adj [1 nítró, 2 nátrou] fr, next word Containing nitrogen, or nitric or nitrous acid nitro compound, compound made by the action of nitric acid on hydrocarbons nitro-, pref, fr Gk nitron, 'soda, natron' See nitre (chem) A combining form indicating presence of, use of, nitrogen or nitric or nitrous acid, also to make names for compounds of nitrogen and of its acids nitro-bacteria, bacteria found in the soil which have the power of combining the nitrogen of the atmosphere and forming fertilizing compounds, nitro benzene, nitro compound made from benzene, used in perfumery and in manufacture of aniline dyes, nitro cellulose, an explosive, made by action of nitric acid on cellulose, nitro-toluene, high explosive, obtained by treating toluene with nitric acid nitrogen, n [1 nítrójen, 2 nátrédžen] fr

Fr nitrogène nitro- & -gen (chem) A gaseous element, colourless and without taste or smell, forming about 78% of the atmosphere, formerly called 'azote', as in capable of supporting life by itself, but an essential to the life of animals and plants Nitrogen fixation, the changing of the nitrogen in the air into forms useful for fertilizers, explosives &c, nitrogen fixing, adj, of certain bacteria, nitro bacteria, see nitro- nitrogenous, adj [1 nítrójenus, 2 nátrédženus] nitrogen & -ous Of, belonging to, containing, nitrogen nitro-glycerine, n [1 nítró gliserín, 2 nátrou gliserín] nitro- & glycerine A colourless oily liquid, obtained by treatment of glycerine with nitric and sulphuric acids, extremely explosive and used in the manufacture of dynamite, goliath, and other blasting explosives nitrous, adj [1 nítrus, 2 nátrás] Lat nitrosus, 'full of nitre or natron' nitre & -ous 1 (obs) Of, belonging to, impregnated with, nitre 2 (chem) Of, pertaining to, containing, nitrogen, esp of compounds in which nitrogen has a lower valency than in nitric compounds nitrous acid, acid which forms nitric salts, nitrous oxide, gaseous oxide of nitrogen, nitrogen monoxide, used as an anaesthetic, the laughing-gas of dentists nitroxyl, n [1 nítróksíl, 2 nátróksíl] fr nitro- & oxygen & -yl (chem) A radical compound of one atom of nitrogen with two of oxygen

Nivôse, n. [1 névóz, 2 nívouz] fr Lat nivēns, 'snowy', fr nix, nive, 'snow' See snow for cogn words Fourth month of the French Revolutionary calendar, Dec 21st to Jan 19th nix (I), n maso, nixe, fem [1 níks, níksi, 2 níks, níksi] Mod Germ. nix, maso, nixe, fem, OHG nichus, cogn w OE nicoor, 'water sprite', cp ON nykr, Du nikker, of same meaning, possibly to be connected w stem seen in Gk nekein, 'to wash' A water-sprite nix (II), n Dial form of Mod Germ nichte, 'nothing' (slang) Nothing nixie See nix (I)

Nizam, n [1 nízhám, 2 názhám] Hind & Pers, 'governor', fr Arab nizām, 'order, government' 1 Title of the ruler of Hyderabad, India, originally, Nizām al-Mulk, 'Governor of the Empire' 2 A soldier of the Turkish army no (I), adv [1 nō, 2 nou] OE nā, adv, fr ne, 'not', & á, 'ever', see aye, ME na, ne, adv, only before ons, see none, Common Gmo & Aryan 1 (after or, as alternative) Not cold or no, you must go out today Phr whether or no, in either case 2 (with compar) In no respect, not any, not at all he's no better, it no longer exists &c, no less than seven foot high, go no further Phrs no more, a not any more no more war, no more of that!, I have no more to do, b no longer I have no more, has ceased to exist, to be no more, be dead, c never again he will speak no more, d (followed by than) in no greater degree than he's no more blind than you, can no more do it than fly, e neither if you won't do it, no more will I, no sooner said than done, done at once, immediately no (II), adj OE nān, ME nēn, fr ne ān, 'not one', see none, -n was lost before ons Not one, none, not any a followed by nom there's no food in the house, he had no luck, b implying the opposite of that expressed by the word that follows he's no fool, is a clever fellow, it is no distance from here, quite close, hardly any distance, c followed by another adjective or verbal noun he showed no small skill, great skill, there's no getting over that, one must acknowledge that, d as prohibition no Popery!, no surrender!, no compromise! Phrs (see also under separate headings as nobody, nothing &c) no doubt, of course, no end of money, friends &c, (colloq) a great deal of, very many, no end of a swell, a very great one, no go, (colloq) useless, hopeless, a failure it is no go, we're done for, nohow, no how, (colloq & illt) not anyhow I can't do it nohow, I feel nohow, not up to the mark, rather unwell, no man, no one, nobody, no man's land (O E nānes mannes land) (1) (just) a debatable land, borderland, which belongs to no one, (u) specif, ground between the most advanced trenches of two opposing forces in war, by no means, (1) in no way, under no circumstance, (u) of course not, no one, nobody, no person, none, no side, (Rugby football) the end of the game, as called by the referee, no thoroughfare, (1) (as notice), this road is closed, (u) (as n) a closed road, a cul de sac, of no time, never, (it was done &c) in no time, (colloq) quickly, at once, no wonder, it is not surprising no wonder he ran away from her, implying that he had every reason to do so no (III), neg particle See no (I) 1 a A negative word, refusal, denial in word he answered No, will you do this? No, b as a strong or emphasized negative with nor or not he could not persuade them, no, nor could an angel from heaven, no, not on inch farther 2 n pl The noes, negative votes in House of Commons, in Phr the noes have it

Noachian, adj [1 nōákian, 2 nōuékian] Heb Noach, 'Noah' Of or pertaining to the patriarch Noah or to the period in which he lived Noachian deluge, the Flood

Noah's Ark, n [1 nāvz ár, 2 nōz ár] Child's toy, consisting of a wooden receptacle shaped like the Ark according to the traditional conception, containing figures representing Noah and his family and the animals nob (I), n [1 nōb, 2 nōb] Etymol doubtful, prob spelling variant of knob 1 (slang or colloq) The head 2 (cribbage) The knave of the suit of the card turned up, counting one point to the holder one for his nob nob (II), vb trans, fr prec (boxing) To hit on the head nob (III), n Prob abbr of noble(man) has been suggested (vulg or obs) Person of rank or of high position, a personage no-ball, n & vb trans 1 n (cricket) A ball improperly delivered by the bowler, counting one to the oppositeside when so declared by the umpire 2 vb (of the umpire) To attribute a no ball, to declare (howler) to have bowled such no-bble, vb trans [1 nōbl, 2 nōbl] Etymol unknown (slang) 1 To injure, or tamper with, a horse in training by drugging, laming &c, so as to prevent, or lessen, its chances of winning a race 2 To win over, by bribery or other inducement, for one's own purposes, esp to induce a jockey to pull the horse he is riding, or otherwise prevent it from winning a race 3 To cheat, defraud, swindle 4 To obtain (money, prize &c) by dishonest means nobbler, n [1 nōblér, 2 nōblér] Prec & -er (slang) One who nobbles a horse, jockey &c, swindler, cheat

obby, adj [1 nōbi, 2 nōbi], fr nob (III) & -y (slang) Superior, smart, showy, stylish obliary, adj [1 nōbliari, 2 nōubliari] Fr nobilis See nobis & -ary Of or pertaining to nobility or to nobles nobiliary prefix, prefix or particle preceding the surname, indicating rank, as the Germ von, Fr de, 'of'

nobility, n [1 nōbiliti, 2 nōubiliti], fr O Fr nobilitas, Mod Fr nobilité, fr Lat nobilitas (em), nobilitas, 'nobleness, nobility', fr nobilis See noble & -ity 1 State, quality, of being noble, nobleness, a (of character, mind &c) high mindedness, magnanimity nobility of soul, b (of outward appearance) grandeur, impressiveness, sublimity austere nobility of a Norman cathedral 2 Condition of being noble by birth or rank 3 Body of noble persons collectively, specif

(in England) the members of the Upper House and their families, often contrasted with gentry

noble (I), adj [1 nōbl, 2 nōubl] Fr noble, fr Lat nobilis, 'well known, famous, of high birth or rank, noble', for gnobilis*, fr bris gnō*, as in (g)nosce, 'to know' See notion, gnomon, know 1 Famous, illustrious, renowned the noble names of chivalry 2 a (of character and conduct) lofty, magnanimous, directed by high ideals noble sentiments, noble life, actions &c, b (of persons) animated by noble ideals, possessing noble qualities of character a noble soul, c (of forms of expression) exhibiting noble qualities of mind a noble poem, Milton's noble lines 3 Exciting admiration, grand, imposing, stately, impressive a noble countenance, planned on a noble scale, a noble horse, tree, mountain &c, Phrs the noble metals, (as contrasted with the base metals) gold, silver, platinum, and other rare metals which do not quickly deteriorate or waste by oxidation, the noblest, boxing 5 Belonging to, sprung from, connected with, a family possessing hereditary nobility of noble birth, a noble line of ancestry, the noble Lord, form of address or reference to another member in the House of Lords, or to one having the courtesy title of Lord in the House of Commons, my noble friend, referring to a peer, or person with courtesy title of Lord, in a public speech, also, now, the noble lady, to a peeress noble (II), n, fr prec 1 Person of noble birth, one who belongs to the ranks of the nobility, a peer, nobleman 2 (hist) A gold coin and money of account, dating from the reign of Edward III, value about 8d noble fir, n A giant fir, Abies nobilis, of Western United States nobleman, n [1 nōblman, 2 nōubلمان] A member of the nobility, a peer noble-minded, adj Having a noble mind, magnanimous noble-mindedness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being noble minded nobleness, n [1 nōblnes, 2 nōublnes] noble (I) & -ness Quality of being noble, in various senses noblesse, n [1 nōbles, 2 nōuhlé] Fr, 'nobility, the nobility or peerage' See noble (I) & -ess(e) Thenobility, nobles as a class, esp of a foreign country, high rank or position, in Phr noblesse oblige, 'nobility obliges', high rank or position entails obligations of courage, generosity, magnanimity &c noblewoman, n [1 nōblwoman, 2 nōuhl woman] (rare) A woman of noble rank or birth, peeress nobly, adv [1 nōbli, 2 nōuhli] noble (I) & -ly In a noble manner, in a manner befitting a noble character, splendidly, magnificently, bravely sufferings nobly borne nobody, n [1 nōbodi, 2 nōubodi] no (II) & body 1 No person, no one, not any one, not any body there was nobody present Phr everybody's business is nobody's business, responsibility cannot be shared 2 A person of no account or importance, an insignificant, obscure individual she has married a nobody, a mere nobody nock (I), n [1 nok, 2 nok] Etymol doubtful, Du has noel, 'tip of a nail', & Swed dial noke, 'notch' 1 A notch for holding the string at either end of a bow or at one end of an arrow 2 The upper fore corner of a sail nock (II), vb trans, fr prec To make a notch on a bow or arrow for holding the string noct(i)-, pref Lat, stem of nox, fr noct, 'of, by, at, night', as noctambulant, walking by night, noctivagant, noctivagous, wandering by night, as animals in search of prey &c noctule, n [1 nōktul, 2 nōktul] Fr See prec & -ule A large brown bat of British Isles and Europe nocturnal, adj & n [1 nōktérnal, 2 nōktán] L Lat nocturnus, fr Lat nocturnus, 'of or by night' See noct(i)- & -al & op diurnal 1 adj Of, belonging to, the night, done or occurring in the night, nocturnal sounds, habits, wanderings, nocturnal animals, such as move about and become generally active at night 2 n (astron) Instrument for fixing the hour by relative position of the stars by night nocturnally, adv Prec & -ly By night, during the night nocturne, nocturn, n [1 nōktérn, 2 nōktán] Fr, fr Lat nocturnus See nocturnal 1 n (mus) A composition of a pensive, melancholy character, b (paint) a night scene or night-piece 2 Evening service in church noctuous, adj [1 nōktius, 2 nōktjus] Lat noctuus, 'harmful', fr nocere, 'to harm, injure', & -ous, the base noc is in gradational relation to ne- in nocere, 'to kill, destroy', cp also Gk nekros, 'corpse', q v under ne- Harmful, poisonous, noxious nod (I), vb intrans & trans [1 nod, 2 nod] M E nodden, vb, not in O E nor, apparently, in other Gmc languages, etymol unknown

A intrans 1 To make a short, sharp downward movement with the head, as a sign of assent, comprehension, approval, acknowledgment, b as a greeting to nod to a person in the street Phr a nodding acquaintance with, a casual, superficial knowledge of person, subject &c 2 To allow the head to drop forward from time to time from drowsiness, to be overcome by drowsiness, to fall asleep to sit nodding in one's pew, b (fig) to be inattentive, careless, to make a slip or error, not to be always alert and wide awake to catch one nodding Phr Homer sometimes nods, even the greatest make mistakes, are not always supreme 3 (of inanimate things) To bend, incline, sway, waver, as trees in the wind &c, to dance, bob up and down, to toss as flowers on their stalks, and plumes in the breeze &c B trans To nod the head, to jerk it forward with a nod, in sign of agreement, approbation &c, 'Eisen mired Rochester would nod the head' (Pope, 'To Arbutnot', 868) nod (II), n, fr prec A deliberate, sharp, short inclination of the head in token of assent or greeting, b involuntary movement forward of the head, from drowsiness, when seated The land of Nod, sleep, dreams nodal, adj [1 nōdal, 2 nōudel], fr node & -al Of or belonging to a node, esp of the node or point of rest of a vibrating body noddle, n [1 nōdl, 2 nōdl] Etymol dubious, possibly connected w nod (I) (colloq) Head, esp in Phr cannot get, drive, it (focle &c) into his (one's) noddle, to wag one's noddle, as in animated conversation &c noddy, n [1 nodi, 2 nōdi] Etymol unknown Cp noodle 1 Simpleton, fool, booby 2 Popular sailor's name for a sea bird, Anous, of the South Atlantic, so called from the easiness of its capture node, n [1 nōd, 2 nōud] Fr, fr Lat nodus, 'knot, knob', perh connected w Lat nectere, 'to bind' See nexus 1 A protuberance, knot, joint on a stem of a plant, from which the leaves spring, b hard swelling on a joint or muscle 2 a (astron) Point where the orbit of a planet intersects the ecliptic or where two great circles cross each other, b (math) point where a curve turns and crosses itself, c (phys) point of rest of a vibrating body nodical, adj [1 nōdiki, 2 nōudiki] Prec & -ic & -al (astron) Pertaining to a node nodose, adj [1 nōdōe, 2 nōudōe], fr Lat nōdōsus, 'full of knots' See node & -ous (bot, of plant stems) Full of knots or nodes

nodosity, n [1 nōdōsiti, 2 nōudōsiti] Lat nōdōsitas (em) Prec & -ity (bot) State of being full of knots or nodes, knottiness

nodular, adj [1 nōdular, 2 nōdula] nodula & -ar Having nodules nodulated, adj [1 nōdulāted, 2 nōdula'ted] nodule & -ate & -ed Having nodules nodule, n [1 nōduli, 2 nōduli] Prec & -ic & -al (astron) Pertaining to a node

nodose, adj [1 nōdōe, 2 nōudōe], fr Lat nōdōsus, 'full of knots' See node & -ous (bot, of plant stems) Full of knots or nodes

nodosity, n [1 nōdōsiti, 2 nōudōsiti] Lat nōdōsitas (em) Prec & -ity (bot) State of being full of knots or nodes, knottiness

nodular, adj [1 nōdular, 2 nōdula] nodula & -ar Having nodules

nodulated, adj [1 nōdulāted, 2 nōdula'ted] nodule & -ate & -ed Having nodules

nodule, n [1 nód-, nódul; 2 nód-, nódjúl] Fr., fr. Lat. nódulus, 'little knot', dimin of nódus, 'knot' See node a A small, rounded lump, as of a mineral, b knot on stem or root of plants &c nodulose, adj [1 nódulós, 2 nódjulos] Fr. & -ose Having nodules nodulous, adj [1 nódulus, 2 nódjulos] See prec & -ous Having nodules nodus, n [1 nódus, 2 nódus] Lat. nódus, 'knot' See node Knot, node, (chiefly fig) knotty point, difficulty, complication in plot of a story Noel, n [1 nól; 2 nóel] Earlier noel, fr. Fr. noel, 'Christmas', fr. Lat. nāthlis, n, 'birthday', adj, 'of birth' See natal 1 Christmas 2 Cry of 'Noel', in joyous welcome of Christ's Nativity, and so as first word of well-known carol noesis, n [1 nóesis, 2 nóisis] Gk. nóesis, 'perception of the mind, intelligence, thought', see next word (psychol) The working of the pure intellect or reason noetic, adj [1 nóetik, -istik, 2 nóutistik, -istik] fr. Gk. nóetikós, 'of or belonging to perception or intelligence', fr. nóetis, 'perceptible by the mind or intellect', fr. nóia, 'to perceive by the mind, to think', fr. nóia, fr. nóes, 'mind', the etymol is quite uncertain Cp. nous (philos) 1 Of or pertaining to the intellect or reason, of the mind considered apart from sensation 2 (as n pl) Noetics, science of the mind or pure intellect nog (I), n & vb trans [1 nog, 2 nog] Etymol unknown 1 n A wooden peg or pin, esp a wooden brook-shaped block used as framing for brickwork 2 vb To frame or fit brickwork with noges or a wooden scantling, usually as vb 1 n, nogging, brickwork framed in scantling nog (II), n Etymol unknown (obs) a A drink, made of strong ale, b egg-nog noggin, n [1 nógin, 2 nógin] Etymol unknown (obs or dial) a Small cup or mug, b a measure of spirits equal to a gill nohow, adv [1 nóhon, 2 nóhau] See no (II) & how (vulg) In no wise, by no means noil, n [1 noil, 2 noil] Etymol unknown Waste compounds of wool, hair, or silk, cp. top noise (I), n [1 noiz, 2 noiz] fr. Fr. noise, 'quarrel, brawl', O. Fr. has nose & Provenc. nauza, nausea, noise, 'noise', according to Meyer-Lubke, fr. Lat. nausea, 'sickness' See nausea 1 Clamour, uproar, disturbance, shouting, very loud, discordant, or unpleasant sound, din Plur a big noise (colloq, U.S.A.), a person of great importance, esp in his own estimation 2 (obs or archaic) Rumour, gossip the noise goes that noise (II), vb trans, fr. prec To proclaim, put about, spread rumour that, esp to noise abroad noiseless, adj [1 nóizles, 2 nóizlis] noise (I) & -less Without noise, silent, quiet noiselessly, adv Prec & -ly Silently, quietly noiselessness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being without noise, silence, quietness noisette (I), n [1 noizét, nwabhét, 2 noizét, nwabhét] Fr. dimin of noiz, 'nut', fr. Lat. nux, núcis, 'nut' See nux vomica Small piece of veal, mutton &c cooked with special sauce noisette (II), n, fr. name of grower, L. Noisette A hybrid rose of the China and musk varieties noisily, adv [1 nóizih, 2 nóizih] fr. noisy & -ly In a noisy manner noisiness, n [1 nóizines, 2 nóizinis] See prec & -ness Clamour, noise, disturbance noisome, adj [1 nóisum, 2 nóisum] First element as in annoy & nuisance, & -some (in both physical and moral sense) Harmful, unhealthy, hurtful, offensive, disgusting noisomeness, n Prec & -ness Unwholesomeness, offensiveness noisy, adj [1 nóiz, 2 nóiz] noiso (I) & -y a Making a noise, loud, clamorous, rowdy, discordant: a noisy engine, laugh, person, animal &c; b pervaded by noise noisy streets, a noisy house nolesz volens, adv, [1. nólesz volens; 2. nólesz volentz] Lat. Pres Part. of nolo, 'I will not', & voló, 'I will', lit 'unwilling, willing'. See voluntary, Without or with consent, under compulsion, willy-nilly noli-me-tangere, n [1. nóli mé tángere, 2. nóli mé tándžeri] Lat., 'touch me not'. See prec & tangent 1 Posture or other representation of Christ and Mary Magdalene at the sepulchre, John xx 17 2 (bot) a plant, genus Impatiens, whose seed-capsules burst at a touch when ripe 3 (med) a ulcerous skin disease, such as lupus 4 Person of a repellent, forbidding manner or appearance, (also attrib) a noli-me-tangere look. nolle prosequi, n [1. nóle prósekwi, 2. nóli prósekwi] Lat., 'to be unwilling to prosecute'. See nolesz volens & prosecute (law) a formal notice that a plaintiff will not continue a suit or that a prosecutor will not proceed with the charge nolo episcopari, n [1. nólo episkopári, 2. nólo episkopari] Lat., 'I do not wish to be come a bishop'. See prec & episcopal Form of words used in refusing an offer of a bishopric, (fig) refusal to accept a position of responsibility nomad, n & adj [1 nómad, 2 nómad] Lat. nomad (em), acc of nomas, 'wanderer, member of pastoral tribe', fr. Gk. nomás, nomados, in same sense, fr. nomás, 'pasture, land allotted to tribe' &c, fr. nómei, 'to distribute, allot', also 'to pasture flocks &c on', fr. base seen in Nemesius & number 1 n Member of a wandering, pastoral tribe or people, a wanderer 2 adj Wandering, pastoral, nomadic nomad tribes nomadic, adj [1 nómadik, 2 nómadik] Prec & -ic Wandering, pastoral, nomad nomadically, adv [1 nómadikali, 2 nómadikali] As prec & -nl & -ly As a nomad, as nomads nomadism, n [1 nómedizm, 2 nómedizim] nomad & -ism State of being nomadic nomarch, n [1 nómarch, 2 uómák] fr. Gk. nomarchés, nómarchos, 'ruler of an (Egyptian) nome, or province', see nome, & -arch Ruler, governor, of a nome, a in ancient Egypt, b in modern Greece nomarchy, n [1 nómarchi, 2 nómáki] Gk. nomarchia, as prec & -y Province, nome, in modern Greece, or in ancient Egypt, ruled by a nomarch nom de guerre, n (partly Angloized) [1. nóm de gár, 2. nó de gár] Fr., lit. 'war-name' Assumed name, pseudonym, sobriquet, originally as assumed name of a soldier existing for service not under his own name nom de plume, n [1 nóm de plúm, 2. nó de plúm, plým] Fr., 'pen name', an English expression, not French Assumed name, pseudonym, pen-name, of writer. nome, n [1 nóm, 2 nóm] Fr., fr. Gk. nómos, 'district, province', fr. nómei, 'to distribute, allot' See nomad, Nemesius &c a district or province in ancient Egypt and modern Greece nomenclator, n [1 nómenklátör, 2 nómenklétör] Lat., 'caller of a name', fr. Lat. nómen, 'name', & calátor, 'caller, erier', fr. caläre, 'to call' See nominal, & the base of clamanant, clann &c 1 a slave, or attendant, who supplied his master, when canvassing for office, with the names of clients, or of other people he met 2 a inventor, giver of names, esp of new scientific names, with reference to classification nomenclature, n [1 nómenklätör, 2 nómenklätör] Lat., 'system of naming', as fr. Lat. nómenklätör, 'calling of names', as prec, but w suff -üre System of naming or of names, terminology, esp in the classification of the sciences and arts nomie, adj [1 nómik, 2 nómik] fr. Gk. nomikós, 'legal, customary', fr. nómos, 'law, custom'. See nomad, nome, & suff of agronomy Customary, ordinary nomie spelling, contrasted with phonetic spelling nominal, adj [1 nóminál, 2 nóminál] fr. Lat. nóminális, 'belonging to a name', fr. nómen nóminis, 'name', see name, & -al The word was orig distinct fr., but early associated w, the base of gnó, 'to know', cp. oognomen, see guomon & know 1 a Concerned with names a nominal error, b (gram) concerned with nouns nominal declension, o containing names only a nominal index, register 2 Existing in name only, a not actual or real, titular, merely so called the nominal head of the State, only nominal power, b inconsiderable, slight, light &c a nominal price, damages, very low, duties that were only nominal, very light nominalism, n [1 nóminálizm, 2 nóminálizm] fr. nominalisme Prec & -ism (philos) Doctrine of the scholastics (11th cent) that universals or general abstract terms are names or words only, and have no realities or objective existences corresponding to them, contrasted with realism nominalist, n [1 nóminálist, 2 nóminálist] See prec & -ist One who holds the doctrine of nominalism, (also attrib) the nominalist school of philosophy nominalistic, adj [1 nóminálistik, 2 nóminálistik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, nominalism or the nominalists nominate, vb trans [1 nóminát, 2 nóminát] fr. Lat. nóminát(-um), PP of nóminare, 'to name, make famous, nominate', fr. nómen, 'name', see nominal, & -ate To put down, and bring forward, the name of a person for appointment to an office, or as candidate for a post to be filled by election nomination, n [1 nómináshim, 2 nómináshim] fr. Lat. nómináshim(-em), acc of nóminatio, 'naming' See prec & -ation 1 a Act of nominating person for appointment to office, or as candidate for election &c, b entry of name of a horse for a race 2 Right of nomination to office &c to have the nomination of a candidate in one's hands 3 Attributively, as nomination day, day fixed for nominating candidates for a parliamentary or other election nominalival, adj [1 nóminatív, 2 nóminatív] Next word & -al Nominative nominate (I), adj, fr. Lat. nóminatív, 'of or belonging to a name' See prec & -ivo 1 (gram) [1 nóminatív; 2 nóminatív] Of or belonging to that case of the noun, pronoun, or adjective which is that of the subject of a verb the nominative case 2 [1. nóminatív, 2 nóminatív] Nominated, named the nominative officials, as contrasted with elective nominate (II), n, fr. prec a The nominative case, b a word in that case nominator, n [1 nóminátor, 2 nóminátor] nominate & -or One who nominates nominee, n [1 nóminád, 2 nóminád] fr. Lat. nómen, 'name', see nominal, & -ee Person nominated for office, appointment &c non, adv [1 non, 2 non] Lat. nōn, fr. nō, 'not', & num, 'one' See union, cp. none Not The word is only used as negative prefix or combining form with nouns, verbal nouns, and adjectives, it has often a more neutral meaning than the parallel negative prefixes in- & un-, implying mere absence of qualities &c, rather than a positive or direct opposite Only those compound words, which have some special or technical meaning and are usually hyphenated, are given under this heading Others which are usually spelt as one word will be found in their proper place in alphabetical order, as will Latin phrases &c Non-acces, n, (law) im possibility of access of a husband to his wife, for the purpose of sexual intercourse Non-appearance, n, (law) failure to appear in court as plaintiff or defendant in an action Non-attendance, n, failure to attend at school, under the Compulsory Education Acts Non-committal, adj, not committing oneself, not saying 'yes' or 'no', neutral gave a non-committal answer Non condensing, adj, (of steam engines) allowing the steam to escape and be wasted in the air Non conductor, n, substance which does not conduct, transmit electricity, heat or sound, insulator Non-content, n, vote or person voting in the negative in the House of Lords Non co-operation, n, state, act, of not co-operating or working with, specially of the policy pursued in India of not working with the Government, by boycotting British goods, refusing to pay taxes &c, or to take part in Government Non effective, adj & n, (mil and nav) a adj, not liable for active service but still drawing pay, b n, one not liable for active service Non essential, adj & n, a adj, not essential, not absolutely necessary, b n, that which is not necessary, trifle do not trouble about non essentials Non Euclidean, adj (of geometry) not based on the axioms and postulates of Euclid's geometry Non-ferrous, n, (law) omission to do what is legally obligatory Non ferrous, adj, (of metals) containing no iron, as copper, lead, nickel &c Non intervention, n, state, practice, of not intervening or interfering, esp of one nation or state, in the policy &c, affairs or disputes of another Non jury, adj, (law) without a jury, of actions, see also Nonjuror Non metallic, adj (chem), not metallic, of those elements which are not metals Non moral, adj, not concerned with morals or ethics, neither moral nor immoral, having no standard of morality, wanting a moral sense Non natural, adj, not natural, not occurring according to ordinary natural law or in a natural sense or way Non participating, adj, (insurance) of policy which does not entitle holder to share in profits Non-party, adj, without political party feeling or prejudices Non-professional, adj, not done in the exercise or performance of a profession non professional visit, of a doctor's visit, of a friendly character, not entailing a fee (contrasted with unprofessional) Non resident, adj & n, a adj, not residing or living in or at the place where duties are performed, esp of clergyman who does not live in his parish, b n, one who does not reside &c Non resistance, n, passive obedience to authority, law &c, without resisting by force Non union, adj, not belonging to a trades union, so non unionist, n, one who is not a member of a union nonage, n [1 nɒnɪ, 2 nɒnɪdʒ], fr O Fr non & age State, condition, of not being of age, minority, immaturity still in his nonage nonagenarian, n [1 nɒnəˈdʒɛəriən, 2 nɒnəˈdʒɛəriən], fr Lat nōnāgēnarius, adj, 'consisting of ninety', n, 'commander of ninety men', L Lat 'person ninety years old', fr nōnāgēni, 'ninety each', nōnāginta, 'ninety', fr nōnus, 'ninth' See nine Person who has reached, or passed, the age of ninety, but has not yet reached a hundred years nonary, adj [1 nɒnəri, 2 nɒnəri], fr Lat nōnarius, 'of the ninth', fr nōnus, 'ninth' See nine (math) Having the number nine as the basis in a system of notation nonce, n [1 nɒns, 2 nɒns] In ME for then, 'for the once, for this occasion', then represents OE dat case of def art after for, according to ME syll division, the -n began the stressed syll forpe nonce See once a In Phr for the nonce, lit for the once, for a special occasion, for the time being, for the present, temporarily, b (attrib) a nonce word, a word invented for a special occasion and only used once nonchalant, n [1 nɒnʃələns, 2 nɒnʃəlɪs], or as Fr Fr See next word & -ce State of being nonchalant, indifference, want of enthusiasm or feeling, coolness, absence of excitability nonchalant, adj [1 nɒnʃələnt, 2 nɒnʃələnt]

[ald] Fr, Pres Part of O Fr non-chaloir, 'to neglect, be careless of', fr non, 'not', & chaloir, 'to glow, be hot', fr Lat calere, 'to be warm' See calcescences In different, not enthusiastic, cool, not excited, careless nonchalantly, adv Preo & -ly In an indifferent, careless way or manner non-collegiate, adj [1 nɒn kɒlɪʃɪət, 2 nɒn kɒlɪʃɪt] non & collegiate Not belonging to or attached to a college, specif, of students who are members of Oxford or Cambridge, but do not belong to any particular college, unattached non-combatant, n & adj [1 nɒn kɒmbətənt, 2 nɒn kɒmbətənt] non & combatant 1 n a A member of the naval and military forces who does not belong to the fighting branches of the service, b a civilian 2 adj Pertaining to, consisting of, non-combatants the non-combatant branches of the service non-commissioned, adj [1 nɒn kɒmɪʃənd, 2 nɒn kɒmɪʃənd] non & commission & -ed Not having a commission non-commissioned officer, abbr NCO, a soldier holding the rank of sergeant or corporal, but not having a commission from the Crown non compos mentis, phr [1 nɒn kɒmpɒs mɛntɪs, 2 nɒn kɒmpɒs mɛntɪs] Lat, 'not having mastery of the mind' See non & mental (I) Lat compos is fr com- & pos seen in potens, 'able', potens, 'powerful', see potent (I) Not sound of mind, not having full mental powers nonconforming, adj [1 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪŋ, 2 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪŋ] See next word & -ing Refusing to conform, specif, belonging to a nonconformist body nonconformist, n [1 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪst, 2 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪst] non & conform & -ist 1 One who does not conform, in specific sense one not conforming to the doctrines, system of worship &c of an Established Church, esp of the Church of England, a dissenter, free churchman 2 (attrib) Nonconformist Churches, the Free Churches nonconformity, n [1 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪti, 2 nɒnkɒnfɔrmɪti] See preo & -ity 1 Act, state, practice of not conforming to doctrines &c of an Established Church 2 Principles of nonconformists 3 Body of persons not conforming to an Established Church non-descript, adj & n [1 nɒndɪskrɪpt, 2 nɒndɪskrɪpt] fr non & Lat descript-(um), P.P. of describere, see describe 1 adj Not easily described or classified, not belonging to any particular kind or class, lacking strongly-marked character, indefinite, vague 2 n Person not readily assignable to any specific class none, pron & n, adj & adv [1 nʌn, 2 nʌn] OE nān for ne, 'not', & ān, see one, ME nōn, noon, as adj formerly always used before vowels See no (II) 1 a pron No one, not any one, not one there were none present, there is none (of st) left Phrs none but, no one except 'None but the brave deserves the fair' (Dryden), none so, no one so, no persons so, none so blind, deaf, as those who won't see, hear, b n, not any (of), nothing none of it is worth having, I saw none of the people I wanted to see, Phr he would have none of st, refused absolutely to accept or consider it 2 adj (archaic) Not any thou shalt have none other gods but I, none other than the general himself, gold and silver have I none, to make of none effect (archaic), to invalidate 3 adv (with comparatives) None at all, to no account, not any, in no way none the better for seeing you, none the worse for a ducking, none the less, nevertheless non-ego, n [1 nɒn ɛɡo, 2 nɒn ɛɡoʊ] Lat, 'not I' See non & ego (philos) That which is external to the ego or personality nonentity, n [1 nɒnɛntɪti, 2 nɒnɛntɪti] non & entity 1 State of being non-existent, a non-existent thing or object

2 Person of no importance, a nobody; person of feeble personality nones, n pl [1 nɒnz, 2 nɒnz], fr I at nōnæ (diēs), 'ninth days', fem pl of nōnus, 'ninth', fr nōvenus See nine & cp noon

1 (Rom antiq) The ninth day of the month before the Ides, counted inclusively, the 7th of March, May, July, and October, the 5th of other months 2 (eccles) An Office to be said daily at the ninth hour, originally according to Roman time, 3 P.M., but now at midday or noon.

non est, phr [1 nɒn ɛst, 2 nɒn ɛst] Lat, 'he (it) is not', so inventus, 'found' See non & is Phr he (it) is non est, he (it) is not to be found, has gone, disappeared nonesuch See nonsuch

non expedit, phr [1 nɒn ɛkspeɪdɪt, 2 nɒn ɛkspeɪdɪt] Lat, 'it is not expedient' See non & expediant First words of a Papal Bull forbidding Roman Catholics to take part in political elections in Italy nonillion, n [1 nɒnɪljən, 2 nɒnɪljən] Formed fr Lat nōnus, 'ninth', on anal of billion a (Engl) A million raised to the ninth power, 1 and 54 ciphers, b (Fr and U.S.A.) the tenth power of a thousand, 1 with 30 ciphers nonjuring, adj [1 nɒnjʊərɪŋ, 2 nɒnjʊərɪŋ] See next word (Engl hist) Not taking the oath of allegiance &c of the Nonjurors

Nonjuror, n [1 nɒnjʊərə, 2 nɒnjʊərə], fr non & juror (Engl hist) One of those beneficed clergy of the English Established Church, who, after the Revolution of 1688, refused to take the oath of allegiance to William III and Mary non obstante, phr [1 nɒn ɒbstənt, 2 nɒn ɒbstənt] Lat See non & obstacle Notwithstanding, in spite of what has previously been enacted nonpareil (I), adj [1 nɒnpəreɪl, 2 nɒnpəreɪl] Fr, 'unequaled', fr non, 'not', & pareil, 'equal, similar', fr L Lat parvus, dimin of par, 'equal' See parity Unequaled, without an equal, matchless, nonsuch nonpareil (II), n, fr preo 1 As name of various superior kinds of fruit &c 2 (typog) 6 point size of type, twelve lines to the inch nonplus, n & vb trans [1 nɒnplʌs, 2 nɒnplʌs] Lat, 'not more, not further' See non & plus 1 n State where nothing more can be done, state of difficulty or perplexity, baffling situation, quandary to reduce to, stand at, a nonplus 2 vb To reduce, bring to a nonplus, to place in a state of perplexity, baffle, disconcert, take back to be completely nonplussed non possumus, n [1 nɒn pɒsʊmʊs, 2 nɒn pɒsʊmʊs] Lat, 'we cannot (do)' See non & potent (I) Statement, assertion, of the impossibility of doing some specified thing or of taking any action at all they met the request with a blank non possumus nonsense, n [1 nɒnsɛns, 2 nɒnsɛns] non & sense 1 No sense, a absurd, unintelligible, meaningless group of words the sentence seems to me sheer nonsense, b a statement which expresses some foolish idea, an illogical, badly thought out proposal &c to talk nonsense, the plan was all nonsense, Phr a pack of nonsense, a foolish conduct, senseless behaviour, unreasoning act, a stupid, affected manner none of your nonsense now, behave properly, and let's have no more nonsense 2 (as interj) What you say, propose, is absurd Oh, nonsense! nonsense, nonsense! 3 (attrib) nonsense verses, rhymes, absurd, comic verses, with apparently no sense in them nonsensical, adj [1 nɒnsɛnsɪkəl, 2 nɒnsɛnsɪkəl] Preo & -ical Full of nonsense, absurd, ridiculous nonsensically, adv See preo & -ly In a nonsensical way or manner non sequitur, n [1 nɒn sɛkwɪtʊr, 2 nɒn sɛkwɪtʊr] Lat, 'it does not follow' See non & sequence A fallacy in reasoning, in which the conclusion or inference drawn does not logically follow from the premises.

nonsuch, nonesuch, adj & n [1 nɒnsʊk; 2 nɒnsʌt] nones & such 1 adj (obs) Unequalled, unrivalled 2 n Person, thing, without an equal or parallel, nonpareil nonsuit, n & vb trans [1 nɒnsɪt, 2 nɒnsɪt] non & suit 1 n (law) A decision of a judge stopping a plaintiff's suit at law for failure to show a prima facie case or for want of evidence 2 vb To stop a plaintiff's suit to be nonsuited non-user, n [1 nɒn ʒɪzə, 2 nɒn ʒɪzə] non & user (II) (law) Failure to exercise a right or privilege, whereby it is liable to lapse nooodle, n [1 nɒdɪl, 2 nɒdɪl] Etymol nn-known A stupid person, fool, blockhead nook, n [1 nook, 2 nuk] Etymol doubtful M E, nōl, prob not connected w Scots neul, 'corner', & Gael nioe Corner, recess, a retreat, place of hiding noon, n [1 nʊn, 2 nʊn] O E nōn, fr Lat nōna (hōra), 'the ninth hour'. See nones 2 1 a Midday, twelve o'clock of the day, b (poet) midnight the noon of night 2 (fig, rare) Period of greatest splendour, power & so, prime, heyday at the noon of his career noonday, n [1 nʊndɪ, 2 nʊndɪ] Preo & day Noon, midday, (also fig) noon tide, n [1 nʊntɪd, 2 nʊntɪd] As preo & tide (I) Noon, noonday (esp fig) noose, n & vb trans [1 nʊz, 2 nʊz, 2 nʊz, nɪs] Prob fr O Provenc nois, 'ship knot', fr Lat nōdus, 'knot', see nodo 1 n A running knot, ship-knot, as in a halter, or lasso the hangman's noose, (fig) the marriage noose Phr to put one's neck into the noose, to allow oneself to be entrapped, to commit oneself to some line of action 2 vb a To catch in a noose, to put a noose round, to form a noose or ship knot in, b (fig) to entrap, snare nopal, n [1 nɒpl, 2 nɒpl] Span, fr Mexican nopal A Mexican cactus, used for the breeding of cochineal insects nor (I), conj [1 nɔr, 2 nɔ] In M E, contraction of obs neither, 'neither', see neither, influenced by the affirmative or (II) 1 Used to deny the second of two alternatives, the first of which is preceded by neither neither hot nor cold, (archaic or poet) without preceding neither 'eye hath not seen nor ear heard' (I Cor ii 9), (also poet) following another nor 'Then star nor sun shall waken, Nor any change of light' (Swains, 'Garden of Proserpine') 2 At beginning of a sentence, where no alternative is suggested, and not nor will I deny that & so nor (II), adj Abbreviation of north, in compounds with other points of the compass nor'-east, nor'-west & so noraghe See nuraghe Nordic, adj [1 nɔrdɪk, 2 nɔrdɪk], fr Fr or Germ nord, 'north', see north, & -ic Of or belonging to the Northern, Germanic races of Europe, to a type now most often represented among the Scandinavians, tall, fair-haired, blue eyed, and long headed Norfolk jacket, n [1 nɔrfək ʃækɪt, 2 nɔfək ʃækɪt] Name of English county Loose, pleated jacket, with a belt norm, n [1 nɔrm, 2 nɔm], fr Lat norma, 'carpenter's square, rule, pattern', for gnorma*, op Gk gnōmos, 'well-known', fr base g-nō-* See know & op onormous A pattern, type, model, a recognized standard normal, adj & n [1 nɔrməl, 2 nɔm], fr Lat normālis, preo & -al 1 adj a Agreeing with an accepted standard, pattern, or form, not greater or less than what is usual or customary, regular, natural, usual, of mean or average value or quantity normal temperature, 98.4° F, of human body, Normal school, school for the training of primary teachers, b (geom) perpendicular, at right angles 2 n a Average, ordinary usual standard, degree has temperature is not above the normal, b (geom) a perpendicular line normalcy, n [1 nɔrməlɪ, 2 nɔm-ɪsɪ] Preo & -cy, an unnecessary, hybrid word, apparently an Americanism Normality.

normality, n [1 nɔrməlɪtɪ, 2 nɔm-ɪsɪtɪ] normal & -ity Normal state, condition, or quality normalization, n [1 nɔrməlaɪzəʃən, 2 nɔm-ɪleɪzəʃən] normalizes & -ation Act of normalizing, state, condition, of being normalized normalize, vb trans [1 nɔrməlaɪz, 2 nɔm-ɪleɪz], fr normal & -ize To make normal, to reduce to normality, cause to conform to a fixed standard, pattern, or rule normally, adv [1 nɔrməlɪ, 2 nɔm-ɪsɪ] normal & -ly In a normal way, usually, ordinarily Norman, n & adj [1 nɔrmən, 2 nɔmən] O Fr Normant, Mod Fr. Normand, 'Norman' north & man 1 n a Inhabitant of Normandy, one of the Scandinavian race, Northmen, which conquered and settled in Normandy (Normandy) in 10th cent., b one of the Norman-French race which conquered England in 1066, c language of the Normans, Norman-French 2 adj Of or belonging to the Normans Norman architecture, name of an 11th cent style of English architecture, adapted from the French Romanesque, Norman English, English as modified by Norman-French after the Conquest, Norman-French, French as spoken by the Normans and used as the official language of England after the Conquest Norm, n [1 nɔrm, 2 nɔm] O N Etymol doubtful (Scand mythol) One of the three fates, represented as goddesses, giving good and ill to gods and men Norroy, n [1 nɔrɔɪ, 2 nɔrɔɪ], fr north & O Fr roy, Mod roi, 'king', see royal The third English King of Arms, having jurisdiction north of the Trent Norse, n & adj [1 nɔrs, 2 nɔs] Dan & Norw. Norsk, Icel Norskr, fr nord, 'north', see north 1 n The Norwegian language, Old Norse, the early, primitive Scandinavian language which modern Icelandic most closely resembles 2 adj Scandinavian Norseman, n [1 nɔrsman, 2 nɔsmən], fr preo & man Ancient inhabitant of Scandinavia north (I), n [1 nɔrθ, 2 nɔp] O E nord, O N nordr, op Du noord, Germ, Dan, & Swed nord, not found outside Gmc, whence Fr nord is borrowed, origin unknown 1 One of the four cardinal points of the compass, the point which is on one's right hand when facing due west, opposite to the south 2 The northern hemisphere, the Arctic regions, northern parts of the earth generally the frozen north, also the people living in northern regions 'And dark and true and tender is the North' (Tennyson) 3 That part of a country, region, district & so, which is towards the north, or which lies north of a specified line or point the North of England, north of the Humber, North and South America (USA), as divided by Mason and Dixon's line north (II), adj See preo 1 n Situated at, lying in or towards, the north, northern the North Country, northern part of England, so North countryman, north latitude, North Pole, see pole (III), North Star, see pole-star, b directed towards the north, facing north the North Road, from London towards the North of England, north light, window facing north, north side, (of church) that side which is on the left hand of one looking towards the Altar, the Gospel side, c coming from the north a north wind 2 (in combination, esp) As part of the name of the northern parts of a sea, region, country, district & so, or of peoples living in the north North Atlantic, North America, North Africans, North London, the North Sea, the sea between Europe and the British Isles from the Channel to the Orkneys, formerly also called the German Ocean north (III), adv See preo Towards the north, in a northerly direction to sail, go, north north-east, northeast, also nor'-east, n, adj, & adv [1 nɔrθ(θ) ɛst, 2 nɔp ɪst, nɔr ɪst] north & east 1 n Point of the compass half-way between due north and east, region, district, towards this point north east by-east or by north, one point east or north of due north east 2 adj a Situated in or towards the north east, facing the north east north east passage, a navigable passage from the North Atlantic to the Pacific, lying north of Europe and Asia, b coming from the north east north east wind 3 adv Towards the north east north-easter, n [1 nɔr(θ) ɛstə, 2 nɔp ɪstə, nɔr ɪstə] Preo & -er A strong wind blowing from the north east north-easterly, adj & adv Preo & -ly 1 adj a Situated in or toward, pertaining to, the north east, b coming from the north east north easterly wind 2 adv In a north easterly direction, towards the north east north-eastern, adj [1 nɔr(θ) ɛstən, 2 nɔp ɪstən] north & eastern Situated n, pertaining to, the north east north-eastward, adv, adj, & n [1 nɔr(θ) ɛstwəd, 2 nɔp ɪstwəd, nɔr ɪstwəd] See preo & eastward a adv In a north east direction, b adj, situated in or towards the north east, c n, the north east north-eastwardly, adv & adj Preo & -ly North eastward norther, n [1 nɔrðə, 2 nɔpə] north (I) & -er A very cold and strong north wind following a cyclone in Texas and the Gulf of Mexico northerly, adj & adv [1 nɔrðərli, 2 nɔpəli] Preo & -ly 1 adj n Toward the north a northerly sea rise, b coming from the north northerly wind 2 adv a Towards the north to progress northerly, b from the north the wind blows northerly northern, adj [1 nɔrðən, 2 nɔbən] O E nordern, M E northern north & -ern Situated in, pertaining or belonging to, the north, characteristic of the north Northern States (of USA), northern habits, customs & so, northern hemisphere, (the) northern lights, see aurora borealis, Northern Territory, (of Australia) semi tropical district administered by the Commonwealth government northerner, n [1 nɔrðənər, 2 nɔbənər] Preo & -er Person belonging to the north; speak (in USA) inhabitant of the Northern States of the US northernmost, adj [1 nɔrðənmɔst, 2 nɔbənəmɔst] northern & -most Most northern, farthest north northing, n [1 nɔrðɪŋ, 2 nɔbɪŋ], fr north & -ing (of ships) Difference in latitude north from the last point of reckoning Northman, n [1 nɔrðmən, 2 nɔbmən] O E nordman, op Norman One of the ancient Scandinavian race, esp one of that sea-roving race invading Northern France and England, a viking north-north-east, n, adj, & adv [1 nɔrθ nɔrθ ɛst, 2 nɔp nɔp ɪst nɔ nɔr ɪst] (In or towards) direction or point midway between north and north east north-north-west, n, adj, & adv [1 nɔrθ nɔrθ wɛst, 2 nɔp nɔp wɛst, nɔ nɔr wɛst] (In or towards) direction or point midway between north and north west north-polar, adj north & polar Arctic north polar regions, expedition & so northward, northwards, adv, adj, & n [1 nɔrθwəd(ɪ), 2 nɔpɔwəd(ɪ)] O E nord + ward, fr north & -ward, -s is adverbial Toward the north sailing northward, take a northward direction, to the northward northwardly, adv Preo & -ly Northward, northwards, northerly northwards Variant of northward north-west, northwest, also nor'-west, n, adj, & adv [1 nɔrθ(θ) wɛst, 2 nɔp(θ) wɛst] 1 n Point of the compass half-way between due north and west, region, district, toward this point north west by west or by-north, one point west or north of due north west 2 adj Situated in or towards the north-west, facing or coming from the northwest the North-west Frontier (of India), North-West Mounted Police (of Canada), north-west passage, a navigable passage to the Pacific from the North Atlantic lying in the north of America 3 adv Towards the north-west north-wester, northwester, nor'wester, n [1 nɔ:(th) wɛs'tər, 2 nɔ:(p) wɛstɪs] Prec & -er A strong north-west wind north-westerly, adv & adj Prec & -ly Towards or from the north-west north-western, adj [1 nɔ:(th) wɛst'ən, 2 nɔ:(p) wɛst'ən] Situated in, pertaining to, the north-west north-westward, adv, adj, & n [1 nɔ:(th) wɛst'wəd, 2 nɔ:(p) wɛst'wəd] n adv In a north-west direction, b adj, situated in or toward the north-west, c n, the north-west north-westwardly, adv Prec & -ly North-westward nose (I), n. [1 nɔ:z, 2 nɔ:z] OE nosu, ME nose, OHG nasa, ON nós, cp also Scrt. nasa, O Slav nosŭ, 'nose', Lith nasas, 'smell', Lat nāsus, rarer for nās See also nasal & nostril. 1 The external organ of smell in man and animals Phrs cannot see beyond (the length of) one's nose, (fig) said of a person with no imagination or insight, to count noses, count number of persons, esp as representing votes &c, to cut off one's nose to spite one's face, to cure one's own cause or interests in a fit of temper or pique, to follow one's nose, to keep straight on, to keep one's nose to the grindstone, keep hard at work, to lead by the nose, to cause (person) to obey one's every wish, to pay through the nose, to pay an exorbitant price, to pole one's nose into (another's business), to meddle, interfere with, what does not concern one, to put one's nose out of joint, (i) to take one's place in another's affections or favour, (ii) to upset, spoil, one's schemes, to snap, bite, a person's nose off, to speak sharply or enigmatically in, to turn up the nose at, to look down on, despise, sneer at, as plain as the nose on one's face, as plain and clear as can be, under one's very nose, directly in front of one, in one's presence 2 A keen sense of smell this hound has the best nose of the pack a flair, instinct for detecting and recognizing a good nose for a mystery discovering first ed'voms &c 3 A Nozzle, spout, of a pipe, tube, or gun, b the cod of the head of a golf club c foremost projecting part of a boat, aeroplane &c, d the detachable part containing the primer of a torpedo 4 (slang) A police spy or informer nose (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A-trans 1 Generally nose out, to smell, sniff, scent, to detect, find out, by smelling, esp fig, to track down, run to earth, discover by instinct or by further inquiry he'll nose out a scandal anywhere 2 To press the nose against, touch with the nose, to nuzzle the fool nosed its mother's fan! 3 To move cautiously forward the ship nosed her way through the winding channel B intrans 1 To sniff, smell, at or about an object the dog kept nosing about the room 2 To pry, interfere, meddle with he's always nosing into what doesn't concern him nose-bag, n A bag for holding a horse's feed hung over its head nose-band, n The lower band of a horse's bridle or headstall passing over the nose nose-bleeding, n Effusion of blood from the nose, epistaxis nosed, adj [1 nɔ:zɪd, 2 nɔ:zɪd] fr nose (II) & -ed Having a nose of specified kind, shape &c bottle nosed, long nosed, red nosed nose-dive n & vb intrans a n A vertical, head-on descent of an aeroplane b vb, to make such a descent nose-flute, n A primitive kind of flute blown by the nostrils used by certain Malay tribes rosegay, n [1 nɔ:zɡə, 2 nɔ:zɡeɪ] fr nose (I) & gay, obs n, gay, bright object, pretty flower. A bunch of bright, sweet smelling flowers nose-leaf, n Leaf like projection of membrane on the nose of certain bats noseless, adj [1 nɔ:zles, 2 nɔ:zli:] nose (I) & -less Without a nose nose-piece, n n A nose band, nozzle, b specif, the lower end of a microscope tube to which the object glass is attached nose-ring, n n A Ring passed through the nose of a bull for leading, or of a pig to prevent rooting, b ornamented ring worn through the nostrils in the East by women, a id also by various savage tribes nosey, nosy, adj [1 nɔ:zi, 2 nɔ:zi] nose (I) & -y (colloq) 1 Having a large nose 2 Given to prying, inquisitive, interfering, meddling Phr (colloq) nosey Parker, a meddling, inquisitive person 3 hinting a bad smell nosy, n. [1 nɔ:zɪŋ, 2 nɔ:zɪŋ] nose (I) & -ing The projecting edge or rim of a step nosu-, pref Combining form fr Gk nōsos, 'diseased'; etymol uncertain, possibly fr base (o)nōdō-*, whence OS ando, 'rage, anger', OE arde, 'envy, malice, indignation hostility' nosography, n [1 nɔ:sɔɡrəfi, 2 nɔ:sɔɡrəfi] Prec & -graphy Classification of diseases nosology, n [1 nɔ:sɔləʒi, 2 nɔ:sɔləʒi] See prec & -logy Science of diseases, the classification and nomenclature of diseases nostalgia, n. [1 nɔ:stəlʒiə, 2 nɔ:stəlʒiə] Coined Lat, fr Gk nostos, 'return journey, return home', & -algia, fr Gk algos, 'pain' Gk nōstos is cogn w Gk neomas (fr nos* nosai), 'to go, come, return', fr base nos*, 'nos', 'to return unto', whence also Scrt nasati, 'to reunite', Goth ga nisan, 'to heal, nayan', 'to save', OE ge nayan, 'to recover', nerian (fr nayan*), 'in save' Home sickness, intense morbid longing for one's own home or country nostalgic, adj [1 nɔ:stəlʒɪk, 2 nɔ:stəlʒɪk] Prec. & -ic Connected with, exhibiting symptoms of, nostalgia nostok, n [1 nɔ:stɔk, 2 nɔ:stɔk] Word coined by Paracelsus A genus of jelly like freshwater and land algae

Nostradamus, n [1 nɔ:stɾədæməs, 2 nɔ:stɾədæməs] Latinized form of Nostredame, name of French astrologer and soothsayer (d. 1566) A professional prophet, seer, soothsayer, esp one who makes vague or ambiguous prophecies nostril, n [1 nɔ:stɾɪl, 2 nɔ:stɾɪl, -əl] OE nos(u) pyrel, ME nosethiri, nostril, fr OE nos(u), 'nose', & pyrel, 'hole', fr pyr, 'through', & dimin suff -il See nose & thrill One of the two external orifices of the nose, serving as passages for air to and from the lungs, also to convey odours to the olfactory nerves Phrs to stink in the nostrils of, (fig) to be extremely offensive to, the breath of one's nostrils, something which one regards with great satisfaction, delight, and enthusiasm nostrum, n [1 nɔ:stɾəm, 2 nɔ:stɾəm] Lat, neut sing of noster, 'ours', fr nōs, 'we', cogn w Scrt. nas, O Ir ni, 'we' O Slav ny, 'we', nasŭ, 'our', Goth uns, OE us (both fr base ns*), see us, cp Gk nō, 'we two' 1 An alleged remedy or cure for diseases, the secret of which is held by the manufacturer or seller, a quack medicine, patent medicine 2 A special, favourite plan, scheme, or device put forward as a remedy for political or social evils, term applied by critics or opponents of a policy, with implication that it savours of charlatanism nosy See nose

not, adv [1 nɔ:t, 2 nɔ:t], unstressed [nt] ME not, not, contraction of naught, nought Negative adverbial particle 1 Following auxiliary verbs a 'Thou shalt not kill', 'All is not gold that glitters', colloq abbr to n't, as isn't, aren't, can't, don't, won't &c, b not cannot now be placed immediately after a verb (other than an auxiliary or can) except in poetry or in rhetorical style f come not go not, want not &c are archaic, and the sentences would become, normally, I do not come, go, want &c, with periphrastic construction 2 Preceding verbal nouns and infinitives not caring one way or another, tell them not to do that 3 Following verbs other than auxiliaries a (archaic) They toil not, neither do they spin, b (in elliptical Phr) I believe, think, suppose, not, that it is not so, that such a thing will not happen, be done &c, also perh ps not In such cases not is nl avs strongly stressed nota bene (abbr NB), phr [1 nɔ:tə beːn; 2 nɔ:tə bɪn] Lat, 'note well' See notabile & bono Taken notice, mark this, used in drawing particular attention to corrections, special clauses, important statements &c notabilia, n pl [1 nɔ:təbɪliə, 2 nɔ:təbɪliə] Lat, neut pl of notabilis, 'notable' Things worth noting or worthy of notice notabiliter, n [1 nɔ:təbɪlɪtɪ, 2 nɔ:təbɪlɪtɪ] fr next word & -ity, cp fr notabilis. 1 Quality of being notable 2 A notable, remarkable, thing or person, a thing nr person of note notable, adj & n [1 nɔ:təbəl, 2 nɔ:təbəl] Fr, fr Lat notabilis, 'worthy of note', fr notare, 'to note' See note & -able 1 adj a Worthy of notice, b worth noticing; remarkable, distinguished, c easily noted or seen, conspicuous 2 n A notable person, specif (Fr hist) member of the Assembly of Nobles, an assembly of prominent personages summoned for special purposes, as in 1787 notably, adv Prec & -ly In a notable manner, remarkably, plainly notarial, adj [1 nɔ:tɪəriəl, 2 nɔ:tɪəriəl] fr notary & -al Of, pertaining to, performed, executed by, a notary notarial acts, attestations, seal &c notarially, adv See prec & -ly In due notarial form or manner notary, n [1 nɔ:təri, 2 nɔ:təri] A -Fr notaire, O Fr notaire, fr Lat notarius, 'short-hand writer, secretary', fr notare, 'to note, make a note of', fr notā, 'note' See note (I) A public official to full Notary Public, whose duty it is to attest and certify certain documents, such as protested bills of exchange, deeds, depositions &c notation, n [1 nɔ:təʃən, 2 nɔ:təʃən] Lat notātiō (em), acc of notātiō, 'a marking, designation, etymology, kind of shorthand', fr notare, 'to note' See note (I) & -ation A system of symbols, characters, or marks used in science or art for representing numbers, quantities, as in arithmetic or algebra, musical notes, as in music musical notation, speech sounds phonetic notation, the elements and their proportions chemical notation notational, adj [1 nɔ:təʃənəl, 2 nɔ:təʃənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to notation notch (I), n [1 nɔ:tʃ, 2 nɔ:tʃ] For an otch, op newt, fr O Fr och, Mod Fr hoch, 'notch, nick in a tally', fr O Fr ocher, 'sawyer, to cut', perh of Gmo origin & connected w back (I), 'to cut' &c 1 a V shaped cut or slit in wood &c, a notch in an arrow or bow, a nick, specif b the cut on a tally stick for counting, as formerly in cricket, o (oh) number, run, as in cricket 2 (US A) A narrow pass or defile notch (II), vb trans, fr prec To make a notch or cut on a stick &c Notch board, board in a staircase, into notches in which the stairs are fitted, notch wing, name of various species of moths

note (I), n [1 nɔ:t, 2 nɔ:t] Fr, fr Lat nota, 'mark, sign, character, letter', etymol doubtful, not fr base gnō* &c, whence comes know &c 1 (mus) A symbol, figure, or character used to show, by its place on the staff, the pitch of a note, and, by its form or shape, the length and duration 2 One of the flat white plates, or black raised pieces of ebony, on keyboard of a piano or organ, a key to strike the notes Phrs to strike the right note, (fig) to express oneself in speaking or writing suitably and in harmony with one's audience, or in a way which commends itself as suitable to the prevailing sentiments, to strike, sound, a false note (of acts, speech &c.), not to ring true, to be out of tune with, or not suitable to, the context, conditions &c. accompanying the act &c. 3. A musical sound or tone, characteristic acoustic quality of a bird's song, human voice, musical instrument &c. the blackbird's merry note, the crow's harsh note, the funeral note (of a bell), a note of passion in his voice 4. A distinctive graphic mark or sign note of exclamation (!), note of interrogation (?) 5. Characteristic, distinguishing quality (often with a reference to or suggestion of 3 in a fig or transf. sense) frankness is the chief note in his character, the note of pessimism in his writings, a wide tolerance is the note of modern religion, to speak with a note of censure 6. Distinction, prominence, reputation a family of note, person, names, of great note 7. Notice, attention worthy, deserving, of note Phr to take note of, notice, pay attention to 8. A short record or abstract in writing, memorandum, a as for a speech, sermon, or b of this as heard; c of details of events, impressions &c. make a note of, to take notes of 9. A short comment, annotation, explanation, added at the side or foot of a page (footnote), or at the end of a book 10. A short, informal letter, b a formel, written, diplomatic communication from one state to another negotiations were conducted by an exchange of notes 11. A written promise to pay a sum of money a promissory note, note of hand, a bank-note, circular note, currency, Treasury note note (II), vb trans O Fr noter, fr Lat notāre, 'to make a note or note' See prec 1 To set down record of in writing, to make a note or notes of note down every word he says 2 To notice, attend to, observe, mark note my warning, note his gestures note-book, n A book for taking notes, memorandum book noted, adj [1 noted, 2 notid], fr PP of note (II) Renowned, distinguished, famous, celebrated a noted writer, try our noted ales and elouls notedly, adv Prec & -ly In, to, a marked degree, conspicuously noteless, adj [1 notles, 2 notlis] note (I) & -less 1 Devoid of notes or sound 2 Unnoticed, inappreciable note-paper, n Writing paper for correspondence noteworthy, adj [1 notwērthi, 2 notwārdi] note (I) & worthy Worthy of note, deserving attention, remarkable nothing, n [1 nūthing, 2 nāpīg] no (II) & thing 1 Not anything, nought, contrasted with anything or something *there is nothing in the house, I can give you nothing Next to nothing, almost nothing, very little. Nothing venture, nothing have, one must risk something to gain any advantage To come to nothing, to fail utterly To make nothing of, (1) to find no meaning in, be unable to understand I could make nothing of such an involved statement, (2) to treat as negligible, treat lightly *make nothing of one's illness, (3) to fail to do, perform, use made nothing of the job, made nothing of his talents Nothing doing (colloq), (4) expression of failure, disappointment, (5) as refusal of request &c For nothing, (6) in vain, uselessly *he has not travelled the world for nothing, to have one's trouble for nothing, (7) without payment or reward, gratis *attended him for nothing, I got it for nothing, (8) without any reason they quarrelled for nothing Nothing but, nothing else than, only nothing but peace can save the world Nothing much, very little, not a great deal, not much *Nothing to, (9) of no interest to, does not concern my trouble is nothing to them, (10) she is nothing to me, my affections are not set upon her, I have no intimate relations with her To be for nothing 12, to have no influence on, not to affect**

2 a Something unimportant, negligible fact, circumstance that may be disregarded mere nothings, b fact, circumstance, not equal to, not to be compared with, another my trouble is nothing to theirs 3 (as adv) In no wise or degree, not at all to differ nothing from nothingness, n [1 nūthingnes, 2 nāpīgnes] Prec & -ness a State, quality, of being nothing, non existence, extinction to pass into nothingness, b insignificance, nonentity, uselessness notice (I), n [1 notis, 2 notus] Fr, fr Lat notitia, 'information, knowledge', fr not (um), PP of nocere, 'to know' See gnostic, ignoro, & know 1 Observation, cognizance, attention to bring to one's notice, not worth, beneath, one's notice Phrs. to take notice, to observe, attend to, acknowledge, the baby is beginning to take notice, to show signs of intelligence, sitting up and taking notice, (facet of an invalid) convalescent, to take notice of (person), treat with particular consideration, show interest in, to take no notice of, to ignore 2 Information, intelligence, warning, announcement, of something to be done or to occur subse- quently specif a notice to terminate employment, lease, or other agreement &c, to give a servant notice, to dismiss him, a month's, week's, notice, warning of termination of engagement &c at end of specified time, b to have notice of a question, be informed beforehand that it will be asked, c I give you notice that—, inform you (of something about to be done) 3 A brief announcement, paragraph giving specific information, e.g. in a newspaper obituary notice, one announcing a death, or giving an account of career of deceased; notice of an engagement; b short reference to, review of, a new book, c written statement, announcement, warning to put up a notice on the door of the church notice (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To observe, pay attention to, take notice of *baby notices everything now, police noticed a man leaving the house; I didn't notice how he was dressed, b to give a sign of recognizing he didn't deign to notice me 2 To refer to, make mention of to notice a person's services (in a speech &c.), to notice a book (in a newspaper) noticeable, adj [1 notissab, 2 notissabl] Prec & -able Attracting notice, remarkable, conspicuous* noticeably, adv Prec & -ly a In a noticeable manner, conspicuously *noticeably dressed; b to a noticeable degree *not noticeably different notifiable, adj [1 notifiabl, 2 notifiab], fr notify & -able Required, needing, to be notified, specif (of certain infectious diseases) to be notified to an authorized official, under various Public Health Acts notification, n [1 notifikashun, 2 notifikāshun], fr Lat notificat(um), PP type of notificāre, 'to make known', & -ion See notify 1 A act of making known or notifying, act of giving notice of, b notice so given 2 Specif, formal notice given to a registrar of a birth or death, or to a public health authority of any disease which is notifiable under various Acts of Parliament notify, vb trans [1 notifi, 2 notifoi], fr Fr notifier, fr Lat notificāre, 'to make known, notify', fr not (um), 'known', see notice, & -fy a To inform, give notice to to notify a person of one's address, b to indicate, announce to notify one's intentions to the party concerned notion, n [1 nōshun, 2 nōshen], fr Lat notiōn (em), acc of notiō, 'recognition, notice, idea, conception', fr not (um), PP of nocere, 'to know' See gnostic & know 1 Apprehension by the mind, idea, conception, view, opinion everyone has a notion of what thirst means, have not the least notion of going there, no idea of, no intention of 2 (Winchester College slang) a A special word, or phrase, current in the school and commonly used by all members of it, b a piece of information about the school, its life and traditions, which all members are supposed to possess, c a custom, mode of behaviour &c commonly observed by all members of the school, and considered as de rigueur notional, adj [1 nōshunal, 2 nōshenal] L Lat nōtiōnālis See prec & -al a Of or pertaining to a notion or idea, expressing an abstract concept, b speculative, imaginary, fanciful notionalist, n [1 nōshunalist, 2 nōshenalist] Prec & -ist One who indulges in intellectual speculation, theorist notionally, adv notional & -ly Speculatively, abstractly noto-, pref, fr Gk notōn, 'the back', cogn w Lat notis, pl, 'the rump' See notes notochord, n [1 notokord, 2 nototakōrd] Prec & chord Cartilaginous structure which, in certain types of animals, corresponds to, and takes the place of, the spinal column in vertebrates

Notogaea, n [1 nōtōjēa, 2 nōtōudjēa] Coinage fr Gk notos, 'south wind, the south', op Gk notia, 'dampness', cogn w Lat notāre, 'to swim', see notation, & gaio, 'earth', see geo- (zoogeography) A primary division of the earth, including Australia and New Zealand, and, in some classifications, Polynesia and Hawaii notoriety, n [1 notōrieti, 2 notōrarēti], fr Fr notoriété, fr Med Lat notōrietas See next word & -ity 1 Quality, state, of being notorious, well known, chiefly in an favourable sense 2 A well known person notorious, adj [1 notōrius, 2 notōrias], fr Med Lat notōrius, 'well known', Class Lat notōria, n, 'information, advice', fr notōr, 'one who knows, witness', fr not (um), PP type of nocere, 'to know' See notice & know Well known, publicly or commonly known or recognized, usually in unfavourable sense as notorious that, is common knowledge that, a place notorious for its luxury notoriously, adv Prec & -ly In a notorious manner, as everyone knows, in accordance with common knowledge notoriously unjust notoriousness, n See prec & -ness

Notority

notwithstanding, prep, adv, & conj [1 not-wistānding, 2 notwistānding] not & withstand & -ing 1 prep In spite of, despite he went notwithstanding your orders, my wishes notwithstanding, she accepted the invitation 2 adv Nevertheless, although, however, all the same *whatever you say, I will go, notwithstanding 3 conj *Notwithstanding that, also with omission of that *he went notwithstanding (that) he was ordered not to nongat, n [1 nōgah, 2 nūgā] Fr, fr uninflected type, nucem & c, of Lat nux, 'nut' See nux vomica A sweetmeat of nuts and sugar-paste nought, n [1 nawt, 2 nōt] OE nūht, variant of nūht, naught 1 Nothing, naught to bring to, set at, nought 2 The symbol 0, as a number, or in sense of zero, nothing &c noughts and crosses, child's game nominal, adj [1 nōnumenal, 2 nōnuminal] See next word & -al (philos) Of or pertaining to nouns or the nounenon, contrasted with phenomenal nommenon, n, pl nommena [1 nōmmenon, 2 nōmmenon, -ne], fr Gk nommenon, neut sing, Pres Part Pass of noein, 'to perceive' See nous & noetic (philos) The object of pure reason, that which is apprehended by the intuition or understanding alone, without the aid of the senses, contrasted with phenomenon nomn, [1 nomn, 2 nomn] L M E nomme, fr O Fr nom, Mod Fr nom, 'name', fr Lat nōmen, 'a name' See nominal & name (gram) A word used as the name of a person or thing, a substantive nourish, vb trans [1 nūrish, 2 nāriš] M E nourischen &c, O Fr nourir, nourir, fr Lat nurture, 'to suckle, feed' See nutriment & nurse 1 A To feed, supply nutriment to, sustain by providing necessary food, b to smother (land) by adding manure, c (aroha) to foster, rear, bring up, train up to nourish animals and plants 2 To have, bear, in the mind, to cherish, entertain to nourish feelings of hatred, to nourish illusions nourishing, adj [1 núrshing, 2 náris(h)] fr Pres Part of prec Tending, serving, to nourish, providing nutriment, having the property of building up the body milk and eggs are very nourishing food nourishment, n [1 núrshment, 2 náris(h)-ment] nourish & -ment That which nourishes, nourishing food, nutriment, sustenance nous, n [1 nous, 2 nous] Gk nóds, 'mind, intellect' Etymol obscure, see noetic (colloq) Intelligence, mother-wit, common sense, gumption nouveau riche, n [1 nóvō résh, 2 nóvō rísh] pl nouveaux riches Fr, 'new rich', see novel (I) & rich A newly enriched person, a parvenu nova, n, pl novae [1 nóva, nóvō, 2 nóva, novi] Lat, for nova stella, 'new star' See novel (I) & new (astron) A new star, appearing in or near a constellation nova Aurigae, the new star in Auriga novation, n, [1 nóvashun, 2 nóvshén] Lat novatión (em), 'renewal, making new', fr novit (um), PP type of novare, 'to make new', fr novus, 'new' See novel (I) & new (civil law) The replacement of an old obligation or contract by a new one novel (I), adj [1 nóv(ə)l, 2 nóv(ə)l] O Fr noel, novel, Mod Fr nouveau, fem nouvelle, fr Lat novellus, dimin of novus, 'new' See new & neo- New, strange, of kind not known before, unfamiliar, unusual novel (II), n, fr Ital novella, 'new things', applied to such tales as those of Boccaccio &c, fr neut pl of Lat novellus, see prec, & op Fr nouvelle, 'short story' 1 A fictitious narrative (usually in prose) of some considerable length, representing human beings and their actions, adventures, and passions, and displaying varieties of human character in relation to life, distinguished in the last feature from the older Romance 2 (Roman law) One of the additional decrees added by Justinian to the Corpus of Civil Law novelle, n [1 nóvélét, 2 nóvalét] Prec & -ette A short novel or story novelist, n [1 nóvəlist, 2 nóvəlist] novel (II) & -ist A writer of novels novelty, n [1 nóvəlti, 2 nóvəlti] fr O Fr novelté, Mod Fr nouveauté See novel (I) & -ty 1 Quality of being novel, original, hitherto unknown, newness 2 A new or novel thing, something strange or unfamiliar, specif (tradesmen's term) some attractive, ingeniously contrived object put on sale for the first time

November, n [1 nóvəmbə, 2 nóvəmbə] Lat Nóvembri (mensis), the ninth month of the Roman year which began in March, fr novem see nine, origin of termination unknown Cp December The eleventh month of the year novercal, adj [1 nóvərkəl, 2 nóvərkəl] fr Lat novercalis, fr noverca, 'stepmother', fr novus, 'new' (see novel (I)), w suff on anal of māterca, wh may be assumed as the base of mātercula, 'little mother', cp māter Like a stepmother novice, n [1 nóvis, 2 nóvis] O Fr, fr Lat novicius novitius, adj 'new', esp of one newly made a slave fr novus, 'new' See novel (I) 1 One who has been received on probation into a religious order and is waiting to take the full vows 2 A new convert, neophyte 3 A person who is new and inexperienced in a particular occupation, or business, or in some particular form of mental or bodily activity, an apprentice, new hand, tiro noviciate, novitiate, n [1 nóvishiat, 2 nóvishiat] Fr noviciat, fr Med Lat novitiatus Prec & -ate 1 State of being a novice in a religious order, period during which this lasts 2 Apprenticeship, duration of this now, adv, conj, & n [1 nou, 2 nau] OE nū, ME now, nu, Common Gmc & Aryan, cp OHG, OS, Goth nu, ON nū, Gk nūn, Lat nunc, Sort nū 1 adv a At the present time, at this moment the bell is now ringing, b under the circumstances I cannot go on now after what has happened, c immediately, forthwith, at once do it now, d a moment ago (usually) just now, (archaic) he is but now left, has just left, e (in narrative) at time specified Hannibal was now crossing the Alps, f from the moment that, seeing that now that I see your game, now that the weather is warmer, Phis now and again, now and then, occasionally, from time to time, now or never, if over, at the present moment, now now, at one time, at another now hot, now cold, now now, now then, in friendly protest or warning, e.g. now now, a little less noise, please, now then, none of your nonsense! 2 conj At beginning of a sentence, indicating a change or transition of thought or subject with no suggestion of particular time now while he was speaking I had my hand on the revolver in my pocket, 'now Barabbas was a robber', now that is pretty good, but there is more to come 3 (following a prep, almost as n.) The present time by now, by this time; up to now, up to the present nowadays, adv [1 nówadáz, 2 nówadéz] for now on-days, the last word being an advl genit At the present time, in these days noway, nowadays, adv [1 nówā(z), 2 nówā(z)] In no way or manner, not at all, in no wise

Nowel See Noel

nowhere, adv [1 nówā, 2 nówā] OE náhwær See no & where In no place, not anywhere Phr nowhere near, far from, not nearly, to be nowhere, not to get a place in a race &c, to be completely beaten Eclipses first and the rest nowhere nowhither, adv [1 nów(h)thēr, 2 nów(h)thēr] OE náhwider no & whither (archaic, expressing motion towards) To, toward, no place, not in any direction, nowhere 'Thy servant went nowhither' (2 Kings v 26) nowise, adv [1 nówiz, 2 nówūwiz] no & -wise, suff, 'way, manner' In no way, by no means nozal, adj [1 nóksal, 2 nóksal] Lat noxialis, 'harmful, injurious', fr nox, 'injury' See next word (Roman law) Injurious, causing injury or damage noxious, adj [1 nóksas, 2 nóksas] fr Lat noxus, 'harmful, injurious', fr nox, 'injury, harm', cogn w noctare, 'to hurt, injure', fr base nek*, nok*, 'to destroy, be destroyed', cp Lat neclre, 'to kill', Gk nekus, 'corpse' see necro-, & -ous See also nuisance, obnoxious, pernoxious Physically or spiritually harmful, injurious, corrupting, offensive noxious weeds, doctrines, ideas &c noctuously, adv Prec & -ly In a noxious, harmful, injurious way or manner noxiousness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being noxious noyade, n [1 nówahyād, 2 nówáyád] Fr, 'a drowning', fr noyer, 'to kill by drowning, to drown', fr Lat neclre, 'to kill' See noxiatus Execution by drowning, specif (hist) the noyades, the drowning of persons at Nantes during the Reign of Terror, 1794 noyau, n [1 nóahyō, 2 nówájō] Fr, fr Lat nucula, neut of nucula, 'of, like a nut' See nux vomica A liqueur distilled from, or flavoured with, peach kernels nozzle, n [1 nózl, 2 nózl] Dimm of nose the nozzle of a hose, of a pair of bellows &c nuance, n [1 núshns, 2 núshns] Fr, fr nuer, 'to shade', fr nue, 'cloud', Lat nubēs, 'cloud' See nubiform A slight difference, delicate distinction, gradation, a in colour or tone, b in meaning of words &c, c in feeling, emotion &c, and in modes of expressing these, as in manner nub, n [1 nub, 2 nab] Variant of knob (very rare) A small round lump, esp of coal nubble, n [1 núbl, 2 nábl] Prec & -le Nub nubbly, adj [1 núhli, 2 náhli] Prec & -ly Full of nubs or knobs, knobby, lumpy nubiform, adj [1 núbiform, 2 núbiform] fr Lat nubēs, 'cloud', & -form Lat nub is fr base nubh*, whence also W nudd, 'mist', Avest snaga, 'cloud' See also nyctagmus Resembling a cloud in form nubile, adj [1 núbil, núbil, 2 núbil, núbil] fr Lat núbilis, fr nubere, (of woman) to be married' See nuptial (of woman) Marriageable, old enough to marry nubility, n [1 núbiliti, 2 núbiliti] Prec & -ity State of being of marriageable age nuchal, adj [1 núhli, 2 njúhli] fr L Lat núcha, 'spinal marrow', op Fr nugue, 'nape of the neck', fr Arab núkhā, 'spinal marrow' (zool) Of or pertaining to the back of the neck or pro thorax in insects nuci-, pref, fr Lat, etem of nux, 'nut' See nux nuciferous, adj [1 núsiferus, 2 núsiferus] Prec & -ferous Bearing nuts nucivorous, adj [1 núsivorus, 2 núsivorus] nuci- & -vorous Nut-eating nuclear, adj [1 núklēar, 2 njúklēar] nucleus & -ar (biol) Of or pertaining to a nucleus, forming a nucleus nucleate, v trans & intrans & adj [1 núklēat, 2 njúklēat] nucleus & -ate a vb To form or cause to form into or round a nucleus, b adj, having a nucleus nucleo-, pref, fr nucleus Connected with a nucleus nucleolar, adj [1 núklēolar, 2 njúklēolar] fr next word & -ar Of or pertaining to a nucleolus or nucleoli nucleole, n [1 núklēol, 2 njúklēol] See next word A nucleolus nucleolus, n, pl nucleoli [1 núklēolus, -li, 2 njúklēolus, -li] Lat, little nut', dimin of nucleus (biol) A small nucleus within another nucleus of a cell nucleus, n [1 núklēus, 2 njúklēus] learned (Lat) pl nuclei [1 núklēi, 2 njúklēi], popular pl nucleuses Lat, 'kernel', dimin fr nūc, 'nut' See nux vomica 1 A central core or kernel which gathers matter and increases by accretion, (fig) starting-point, centre the nucleus of a library, of a collection, the nucleus of a plan 2 (astron) The bright dense part forming the head of a comet, the dark central part of a sunspot 3 (biol) The central part of a living animal or plant cell, and an essential factor in its growth, nutrition, and reproduction nude (I), adj [1 núd, 2 njúd] fr Lat nūds, 'naked, bare', for noveas*, fr Aryan nog edhos, whence Goth nagape, 'naked', ON noekuedr, OE nacod, OHG nakht See naked 1 A Naked, unclothed, bare a nude figure, b (fig) not concealed or disguised, fully revealed a nude fact a nude statement, plain, unvarnished 2 (law) Bare, without consideration and therefore void a nude contract nude (II), n, fr prec A nude, undraped, figure in painting or sculpture Phr the nude, representation in painting or sculpture of the undraped human figure, in the nude, naked, undraped, manifest, with nothing concealed nudely, adv nude (I) & -ly In a nude, naked, manner nudeness, n See prec & -ness State of being nude, nudity nudge, v trans & n [1 nnj, 2 nadž] Etymol doubtful, possibly Scand, op Norw nugga, nyggja, 'to push, jostle' 1 vb To push gently and furtively with the elbow, esp deliberately in order to attract attention. 2 n A slight push with the elbow &c collection of books &c 2 (arohaic or poet) Written in poeboo nnnabers, rhythmical, melodione 'numerous verse' (Milton) nummerously, adv Preo & -ly In great numbers numismatic, adj [1 nûmizmatîk, 2 nûmiz-matîk], fr Fr numismatique, fr Lat numisma, 'coin', form prob influenced by Lat nummus,

'a coin', fr Gk stem nomisma-, 'current coin', cp nomos, 'custom', cogn w nemere, 'to assign, distribute' See NOMESIS, nomed, & number Of or pertaining to coins and coinage a numismatic collection numismatics, n pl Science, art, of coins and medals numismatist, n [1 nûmizmatist, 2 nûmizmatist] See prec & -ist Person skilled in the history, various styles &c of coins and medals
nummary, adj [1 nûman, 2 nâman], fr Lat nummarîus, fr nummus, 'coin', cogn w Gk nommos, 'customary', fr nomos, 'custom' See numismatic Pertaining to coins or money, in form of currency nummular, adj [1 numlâr, 2 nâmjûlâr], fr Lat nummularîus, fr nummulus, dimin of nummus, 'coin' See prec Shaped like, resembling, a coin nummulite, n [1 numûlit, 2 nâmjûlit], fr Lat nummul (us), as prec, & -ite A fossil shell of one of the foraminifera, shaped rather like a coin nummulitic, adj [1 nûmûhtîk, 2 nâmjûhtîk] Preo & -ic Formed of nummulites nummulitic limestone numskull, n [1 numskul, 2 nâmskal], fr numb & skull A dolt, blockhead nun, n [1 nun, 2 nan] OE nunne, also ME nunne, nonne, fr Fr, fr L Lat nonna, nunna, 'old lady', used as title of respect, as was nonnus, 'old men, father, monk', Gk hes nénna, nané, 'eunt', nenno, 'unole', cp also Sort nand,
'mother', Russ nanya, 'nurse', & W nain, 'grandmother' 1 A member of a woman's religious order, living in a nunnery or convent under vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience 2 (zoöl) Name of certain varieties of birds, such as pigeons, or of moths nun-buoy, n First element fr obs nun, 'spinning top', of wh etymol is doubtful, & buoy A type of buoy consisting of two cones placed base to base nunc dimittis, n [1 nungk dîmittis, 2 nâjt dîmittit] Let, 'now thou lettest depart', Cp now & dimission 1 Name of Canticle beginning 'Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace', taken from the Song of Simeon, Luke ii 29, sq, so called from the beginning in Latin version 2 A farewell, esp one at the end of a life well lived, or a long task faithfully completed to sing one's nunc dimittis nuncheson, n [1 nûnohun, 2 nânt[ən]] In ME noneschenche, lit 'a noon drink', fr nôme, see noon, & schenke(e), 'draught', drink poured out, fr OE sceccan, 'to pour', cp Germ schenken, 'to give, sell drink', to give as a present', the word has no connexion w nuncheson An old, now obsolete word for a mudday or afternoon meal or draught nunciature, n [1 nunshatûr, 2 nân[ətjə]] fr Lat nunciatura, fr Lat nunciatûr (us), Fut Part of nunciare, nunciât (um), 'to report, tell', fr nunci (us), 'messenger' See next word A The office of a Papal Nuncio & period, tenure, of such office nuncio, n [1 nûnshû, 2 nan[ʃu]] Ital, fr Lat nuntius, n, 'messenger, envoy', most prob derived fr nuntium (fr novenhom*), wh may have meant orig 'an augur's message, or statement', in wh case cp Sart navit,
'he sounds, rejoices, praises', & Lith nauti, 'I call, cry out' Another suggestion is non ventus*, 'new comer' (cp novel [1] & venue), cp announce, denounce, annunciate &c A diplomat or representative of the Pope at a foreign court, a Papal ambassador.

nuncle, n [1 núnkl, 2 nápkl], fr 'an, or mm(e), uncle, op newt See uncle (obs and familiar) Uncle nuncupative, adj [1 núnkupatív, 2 náj-kupatív], fr Lat nuncupat (um), P P type of nuncupare, 'to call by name, to name publicly as one's heir', fr nomen, 'name', see nominal, & capere, 'to take', see captive, & -ive (chiefly of wills) Declared by word of mouth, instead of in writing, used of a will made when at the point of death, or by soldiers and sailors in battle nundinal, adj [1 núnđinal, 2 nándinál] Lat nundinál (is), 'of or belonging to a market day', op nundinae, 'ninth day, market day', & nundinum, 'market time', fr nōvem, 'nine', & an old word dino*, 'day' (markets being held every ninth (inclusive) day), op Sort dinam, 'day', O Slav dini, 'day', seen also in Goth ein tēns, 'daily, everlasting', possibly also in OE lent ten, 'spring, Lent', see Lent (I) (Rom antiq) 1 A Of, pertaining to, a fair or market, & pertaining to the nundinae, see above 2 Nundinal letter, any one of the first eight letters of the alphabet, used for each day of the week in succession nunhood, n [1 núnhood, 2 nánhud] nun & -hood State of being a nun nunlike, adj [1 núnlik, 2 nánlek] nun & -like Like a nun, meek, chaste, demure nunnetion, n [1 núnashun, 2 nanéjan], fr Arab nūn, name of the letter n, & -ation Addition of a final n in the declension of Arabic nouns nunnery, n [1 núnəri, 2 nánəri], fr Fr nonnere, 'convent' See nun & -ery a The building in which a religious community of nuns reside, convent, b a community of nuns nun's veiling, n [1 núnz véilng, 2 nánz véilng] A soft, fine, woollen cloth for dresses & nuphar See nenuphar nuptial, adj & n [1 nupshel, 2 nápshl], fr Lat nuptiál (is), 'of marriage or a wedding', fr nuptiae, 'wedding', fr nupti (um), P P of nūbere, 'to marry', cogn w O Slav snubiti, 'to love', Czech snoubiti, 'to seek in marriage', also Gk nuphtē, 'bride', see nymph 1 adj Of or belonging to a wedding the nuptial bed, feast &c 2 n (usually pl) Nuptials, wedding ceremonies, a wedding nuraghe, noraghe, n, pl [1 núrághe, -gē, 2 núrúghe, -gē] Sardinian dual word, possibly a corrupt of Ital muraglia, 'wall' See mural A prehistoric circular building or tower of a peculiar type found in Sardinia, believed to belong to the Bronze Age nurse (I), n [1 nērs, 2 nās] M E norice, nurice, fr O Fr norice, nurice, nurice, nouriche, sometimes norrah in 16th cent, by confusion w nourish, Mod Fr nourrice, fr L Lat nūtricia, 'nurse', fem of nūtricius, adj, 'nursing', fr nūtrix (em), 'a nurse', op nātrix, 'to suckle, nurse, nourish', prob fr base neue*, enue* &c, 'to suckle, allow to flow', cp also Sort snauht, 'she gives milk', & Gk nēn, 'to flow', for neue*, ultimately fr base enā*, seen in Lat nare, 'to swim', see natation Cp nourish, nurture, nutritious 1 A A woman who suckles an infant from birth, also wet nurse, Phr to put out to nurse, to send an infant from home to a foster mother or one who professes to take charge of infants, b woman who attends another at a birth and looks after the child and mother for a period, also monthly nurse, a woman attendant of a child, a worker bee, or ant, that attends to the young 2 Person of either sex, but generally a woman, specially trained to watch and attend upon the sick, wounded, or infirm, under the direction of a physician or surgeon hospital nurse, mole nurse, Red Cross nurse 3 (fig) System or institution which fosters, protects, nourishes, encourages, moral and intellectual growth the college has been the nurse of many famous men & (bot) A tree, shrub &c, which acts as a shelter or protection for seedling plants nurse (II), vb (trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To suckle (an infant), to give the breast to mothers should always nurse their own babies 2 To take charge of and attend to (a child) 3 To fondle, embrace, support, in the arms, or on the lap to nurse a cat Phr to nurse the fire, to stir very close, as though one would embrace it 4 To attend on, give skilled care to, a patient in illness to nurse a person through typhoid &c 5 A To foster, cherish, encourage the growth of, to rear, bring up to maturity to nurse a plant, young tree &c b to cherish in the mind, entertain to nurse hopes, ambitions, feelings of revenge, hatred &c 6 To bestow particular care and solatude upon, to manage carefully, husband, avoid waste of, in energy or expenditure to nurse an estate, one's resources, finances, in various special Phrs implying bestowal of care &c to nurse a horse, not ride or drive him too fast at first, to nurse a constituency, to give time and attention to the electorate before an election, to nurse balls, (billiards) to keep them close to gether for making 'nursery' cannons B intrans To be, act as, a nurse to the sick nurse (III), n Etymol doubtful, possibly fr an huss, an obs name of a dog fish, of unknown origin, wh might easily be assimilated to nurse (I), an old pronunciation of wh, now obs or vulg, was nuss* [nas] The name of various species of dog fish, also called nurse hound and nurse shark nurse child, n A foster-child, child put out to nurse nurse-frog, n The obstetric toad, also nurse toad nurseling, nursing, n [1 nērsing, 2 nāshg], fr nurse (I) & -ing A An infant still being nursed at the breast, b a young tender plant nurse-maid, n Young girl who helps a head nurse in a nursery, a nursery maid nursery, n [1 nērsəri, 2 nāsəri], fr nurse (I) & -ry 1 Room or rooms in a household, specially set apart, in which children live and play and take their meals during the daytime day nursery, room in which they sleep night nursery 2 Place where young plants, trees &c, are cultivated and reared for transplanting &c 3 (fig) Place, sphere, of intellectual and moral training and influence universities are the nurseries of rising talent nursery cannon, n (billiards) Any of a series of cannons made by nursing or keeping the balls close together nursery garden, n A garden where young plants are reared for sale nursery governess, n A governess for quite young children still in the nursery, and needing nursing as well as teaching nursery maid, n Girl whose business it is to clean and keep nurseries tidy, and to help the nurse in attending to the children nurseryman, n [1 nērsəman, 2 nāsəri man] Keeper of a nursery garden nursery rhyme, n Verses, often embodying traditional songs and tales &c, sung to, and by, young children nursing (I), adj [1 nērsing, 2 nāsip], fr Pres Part of nurse (II) a Giving food to, supplying with food, as from the breast nursing mother, b taking food from the breast nursing child nursing (II), n nurse (II) & -ing 1 A Occupation, profession, of a nurse, esp of a skilled nurse for the sick, b care of young children 2 (attrib) Connected with attendance upon the sick nursing profession, service &c nurture, n & vb trans [1 nērchur, 2 nāt[ə] M E nortare, fr O Fr norriture, nurriture, Mod Fr nouriture, fr L Lat nūtritura, 'nursing', fr nūtrix, 'to nurse' See nurse (I) & nourish 1 n A Nourishment, b fostering care, education, training 2 vb To nourish, foster, breed up, rear, educate, train np a delicately nurtured girl nut (I), n [1 nut, 2 nat] O E hnutu, M E note, nute, O H G nuz, O N hnut, op W cnueu, for relation w Lat nux, nūcis, see nux vomica 1 A The hard shelled fruit of certain plants, containing an edible kernel, Phrs (colloq and slang) for nuts, at all or in any sort of fashion can't play golf for nuts, to be (dead) nuts on, to be very keen on or fond of, to be nuts to or for, to be very attractive or fascinating to, to be a great treat or experience to or for, a tough nut, (i) a strong, hardy, resolute person, (ii) a violent person difficult to manage, a hard nut to crack, difficult problem to solve, b the kernel itself, usually distinguished by name of plant or piece of origin &c Brazil nut, hazel nut &c, op also chestnut 2 (fig, slang) The head 3 A small block of metal perforated with a female screw for securing or tightening a belt &c, b small knob forming projecting end of screw for tightening or loosening the hairs of a violin bow 4 (pl) Small lumps or knobs of coal 5 (vulg or facet) A youngswell, a dandy, a fop nut (II), vb intrans, fr prec To look for and gather nuts, chiefly in Phr to go nutting nutate, vb intrans [1 nūtāt, 2 nūtēt], fr Lat nūtā (um), nūtāre, 'to nod', freq form of nūere, 'to nod', cogn w Lat nūem, 'nod, command, authority, hence, divinity', fr base nueu*, nūē* &c, 'to make a rapid movement', op Sort navate, 'turn', Gk neuein, 'to nod', neuma, 'a nod', Lith musi, 'to fall asleep', perh also Gk nussein, 'to nudge', Du nucken, 'to shal e the head' Cp innuendo (hot) To nod, droop the head, specif, of stem, to move in a circular direction during growth nutation, n [1 nūtāshun, 2 nūtējan] Prec & -ion A nodding, drooping of the head, specif a (astron) small vibratory or oscillating movement of the earth's axis, b (bot) a slight circular movement of the growing stem of a plant nut-brown, adj Of a dark or reddish brown colour, as of ripe hazel nut or chestnut nut-brown ale, (of the complexion) the Nut brown Moid nut-butter, n A substitute for butter made from the kernels of various edible nuts nutcracker(s), n nut & cracker 1 A Instrument, consisting of two narrow pieces of metal hinged together at one end, and squeezed together by the hand at the other, used for cracking nuts, b a type of face in which the nose and chin tend to meet, (usually attrib) a nutcracker face, jaws &c 2 (zool) A European bird, Nucifraga, of the crow family, feeding on nuts &c nut-gall, n An oak gall, used for dyeing, making ink &c nut-hatch, n [1 nut hatch, 2 nūthāt], fr nut & hatch (IV), 'to heck, engrave', see hack (I) A small British bird, feeding largely on nuts, which it pierces and opens with its bill nutmeg, n [1 nūtmeg, 2 nātmeg] M E nutmaga, first element nut, second element fr O Fr mugue, 'musk', fr mugue*, fr Lat muscus, 'musk', q v, O Fr had nous mugette, 'nutmeg', of wh the Engl word is a hybrid translation The pungent seed of a Malay tree, used as a spice in cooking, and as a flavouring in medicine nut-pine, n Name of various pine trees, such as the stone pine, which have edible seeds nutria, n [1 nūtria, 2 nūtria] Span, 'otter' The fur of the S American coypu, a water rodent nutrient, adj [1 nūtriant, 2 nūttriant], fr Lat nūtrient (em), Pres Part of nūtrire, 'to nourish' See nurse, nurture Nourishing, nutritious, nutritive nutriment, n [1 nūtriment, 2 nūttriment], fr Lat nūtriment (um) See prec & -ment Nourishing food, nourishment, that which gives strength or power of growth nutrimental, adj [1 nūtrimentl, 2 nūttrimentl] Prec & -al Providing nutriment, nutritious, nourishing nutrition, n [1 nūtrishun, 2 nūtrishən], fr Lat nūtrī (um), fr nūtrire, 'to nourish', see nutrient, & -ion 1 Process, or sum of processes, by which an organism is nourished by absorbing substances different from itself and assimilating them to substance identical with itself 2 That which nourishes, food nutritious, adj [1. nūtrishus, 2 nūtrishəs], fr Lat nūtrītus, fr nūtrīre (us) See nurse & -ious Nourishing, feeding, maintaining and increasing growth in an organism, nutritive nutritionally, adv Prec & -ly In a nourishing way nutritiousness, n See prec & -ness 'Property of being nutritious or nourishing' nutritive, adj & n [1 nūtritiv, 2 nūtritiv] Fr nūtrī, -ve, fr Med Lat nūtrītivus See nutrient & -ive 1 adj Nourishing, nutritious, of or relating to nutrition 2 n A nourishing substance nutritively, adv Prec & -ly. In a nutritive way, so as to nourish nutshell, n [1 nutshel, 2 nātʃel] nut & shell The hard shell of a nut enclosing the kernel. Phr in a nutshell, in the smallest space, in as few words as possible nutty, adj [1 nūti, 2 nāti] nut & -y 1 (rare) Full of, abounding in, nuts 2 Having the flavour of nuts (of ale, sherry &c) 3 (vulg slang) A Very keen on, fond of, b like a nut (f 5), smart, showy, c crack-brained, crazy, dotty nux vomica, n [1 nuka vómuka, 2 nāka vómuka], fr Lat nux, 'nut', according to Walde fr earlier dnuk*, itself, by transposition of consonants, fr orig knud-, fr thus the Gmc hnut-, as in OE hnutu, 'nut', is a regular development, see nut The form vomica* is fr vomere, see vomit The seed of an East Indian tree, Strychnos, containing strychnine, medicinal substance extracted from this nuzzle, vb nutrans & trans [1 nūzl, 2 nāzl] Also earlier noryll, fr nose & -le To push, press the nose against or in, to fondle in this way as a dog or a horse does nyctalopia, n [1. niktalópia, 2 niktalópiə] L Lat, fr Gk nyktalóps, 'person who is blind at night', fr nykt-(os), nux, 'night', see noct-, alops, 'blind', ops, 'eye', see optic The etymol of alops is doubtful, it may be fr mlawos*, & thus fr base mél*, mil*, mél* &c, 'to be mistaken, uncertain, to deceive', seen in Gk meleos, 'useless', mélus, 'exhausted', Lath mélus, 'deceit, lying' A condition of the eyesight in which a person who can see quite well by day is nearly blind at night or on a very dark day, night-blindness nyctalopic, adj [1 niktalópik, 2 niktalópiik] Prec & -ic Suffering from, affected by, nyctalopia or night blindness nyctotropic, adj [1 niktatrópik, 2 niktatrípiik], fr Gk nykt-(os), nux, 'night', see prec, & tróp-(en), 'to turn', see tropes & tropic, & -ic (bot, of leaves &c) Turning or changing position at night or in the dark nyctotropism, n [1 niktatrópizm, 2 niktatrípiizm] See prec & -ism (bot) Habit, tendency, of parts of certain plants to turn or change position at night nyctophobia, n [1 niktófóbia, 2 niktáfóbiə], fr Gk nykt-(os), nux, 'night', see prec words, & -phobia Unreasoning, morbid fear, discomfort &c experienced at night or in darkness nylgau, n See nilgai

nymph, n [1 nimpf, 2 nimpf], fr Lat nympha, fr Gk númphe, 'bride, maiden, nymph', a nasalized form of the base seen in Lat nubere, 'to wed', op also O Slav anubiti, 'to seek in marriage', Aryan base enu*-(hi), other forms of the base enu* appear in Lat nurus, Sort nuila, O Slav enúcha, OE enoru, 'daughter-in-law' See nubile & nuptial 1 (class antiq) One of the many maiden deities supposed to haunt, and considered as the spirits of, woods, hills, springs, rivers, the sea &c 2 (poet) A young woman.

3 (entom) An insect in a transitional or not fully developed stage, pupa, chrysalis nymphaeum, n [1 nimpfium, 2 nimpfium] Lat, fr Gk númpheion See prec A shrine, temple, of a nymph or the nymphs nymphal, adj [1 nimpfal, 2 nimpfal] nymph & -al 1 Of or belonging to a nymph or the nymphs, nymphaean 2 (entom) Of or belonging to an undeveloped stage of an insect, pupal nymphaean, adj [1 nimpfian, 2 nimpfian] See prec & -an Nymphal, of or belonging to a nymph, nymph like nympholepsy, n [1 nimpfólepsi, 2 nimpfólepsi] Formed on anal of epilepsy, fr Gk númpheleptos, 'caught by the nymphs, in a state of rapture', fr númphe, 'nymph', & lept, stem of lambanein, 'to catch' See catalepsy (post) State of rapture or ecstatic emotion, frenzy caused by contemplation of, or furious desire for, an unrealizable ideal nympholept, n [1 nimpfólept, 2 nimpfólept] See prec (post) Person in a state of nympholepsy nympholeptic, adj [1 nimpfóleptik, 2 nimpfóleptik] See prec & -ic In a state of nympholepsy nymphomania, n [1 nimpfómánia, 2 nimpfóménia], fr nymph & mania Extreme morbid sexual desire and excitement in women nymphomaniac, n [1 nimpfómának, 2 nimpfóménak] Prec & -ac Woman suffering from nymphomania nympa, n See nipa nystagmic, adj [1 nistágmik, 2 nistágmik] See next word & -ic Of or pertaining to nystagmus nystagmus, n [1 nistágmus, 2 nistágmos], fr Gk nustagmos, 'drowsiness', fr nustazein, 'to be sleepy, drowsy', cogn w Lith snudti, 'sleep', snaudzi, 'I sleep', fr base sneudh-* &c, 'dullness, darkness', whence also Lat nubēs, 'cloud', q v under nubiform (med) An involuntary quivering or twitching of the eyelid

O

O, o, [1 ó, 2 ou] The fifteenth letter of the English alphabet, a sign, mark, shaped like an O, b a cipher, nought &c For use of letter in abbreviations and as symbol see list at end of Dictionary

O, oh (I), interj [1 ó, 2 ou] Common to many languages, cp Germ, Du o, Fr o, Gk ó, & c, imitative, distinctions between O/ & Oh! are arbitrary, but O/ is now usually poet or rhet 1 An exclamation expressing surprise, fear, admiration, wish &c oh dear!, oh my!, oh, what a surprise!, O, for a real leader! 2 Used before name in addressing a person oh! Mrs Jones 3 (poet or rhet) As an invocation or appeal O all ye powers of the earth

O' (II), pref to certain Ir surnames, as O'Brien, fr Ir ó, ua, 'descendant, grandson' o' (III), prep Abbr of of, chiefly colloq, but still usual in o'clock, as four o'clock, and man o'-war &c -o, suff used as termination to the first element in compound words, properly for words of Gk origin having this as stem vowel, but also extended to others, also now freely used in modern compounds fr various sources Russo-Turkish (War), Franco-British &c oaf, n [1 óf, 2 ouf] Earlier auf, auf, fr ON aifr, variant of elf 1 A changeling, misshapen, deformed child 2 A idiot, simpleton, b clumsy, awkward fellow, lout oafish, adj [1 ófish, 2 oufish] Prec & -ish Clumsy, stupid, awkward oak, n [1 ók, 2 ouk] OE ác, ME ōke, oek, OHG eah, Mod Germ eiche, ON ask,

Du ek, anct Aryan tree-name, op the cogn Lat aesculus, fr aigekulos*, 'the Italian oak', Gk agilops, a kind of oak with sweet fruit, also kral-agios, tree of undetermined species, see aegris 1 (bot) A Any tree of the genus Quercus, specif, Q robur, the British oak, a forest tree yielding a fine grained, hard, and lasting timber, with deeply indented leaves and wide spreading branches, the fruit of which is the acorn, other species have usually an attributive prefixed, as holm oak, the ilex, cork oak &c Phr Hearts of Oak, the ships and seamen of the British navy The Oaks, the name of a race for three-year-old fillies, held at Epsom on the Friday following the Derby, named after an estate of the founder, Lord Derby, 1779, b a tree or shrub resembling the true oak in leaf or other characteristics, as the poison oak, ground-oak &c 2 A heavy, stout, oaken outer door to a set of rooms in college at a university, or to chambers at an inn of court Phr to sport one's oak, to close the outer door, as a sign that callers will not be welcome 3 (attrib) The more usual form instead of adj oaken oak chest, door, oak tree &c Oak-apple, a large fleshy everescence produced by gall flies on oaks, an oak-gall, also called oak-frog, potato &c, Oak apple Day, May 29th, the date of Charles II's birthday and restoration, oak-apples and leaves used to be worn in memory of the king's hiding in an oak tree after the battle of Worcester, oak bark, the bark of the oak tree, used in tanning, oak-fern, a species of polypody fern, with delicate, triangular fronds, oak-moth, popular name of various moths whose caterpillars feed on the oak, such as the oak beauty, oak egger &c oaken, adj [1 óken, 2 ouken] OE dean oak & -en Made of oak (oow chiefly poet) oakum, n [1 ókum, 2 óukem], fr OE ácumba, 'tow', fr ác, 'off, away', & the base of cemban, 'to comb', see comb, cp OHG áchamba, 'tow', assimilated in spelling to oak The loose fibre or tow obtained from unspinning and teasing old hemp ropes, used for caulking the seams of ships &c Oakum picking, the task formerly allotted to prisoners and casuals in a workhouse oar (I), n [1 ór, 2 ó] OE ār, ME ore; ON (fr OE) ār, op Dao aare, Swed ara, the OE form can only come fr air-*, & may be connected w Lith ar is, 'to row', but by no means w Gk eritēin, 'to row', eritēnōn, 'oar' &c See these under row (II) 1 Imple ment used in rowing a boat, consisting of a long wooden shaft with a flat blade, which works in a rowlock that serves as a fulcrum fixed to gunwale of the boat, distinguished by this last from a paddle, also, strictly, by its greater weight, needing two hands, is pulled by more than one person pair oar, four oar, eight oar, a boat with two, four, or eight oars Phrs chained to the oar, bound to a task like a galley slave, to pull a good oar, to row well, to put one's oar in, to interfere, meddle, in other people's business, to rest on one's oars, to break off work, to suspend one's efforts as though content with what has been done 4 ship, workshop, oars, to place them in, take them out of, the rowlocks, to toss oars, to raise oars straight up in salute 2 A rower, oarsman a good, poor, indifferent, oar 3 Something resembling an oar in shape or function, paddle, as fin of a fish, a bird's wing &c oar (II), vb fr prec (poet) To row, propel as with oars oaring, n [1 ōrj, 2 ōridj] oar & -age (poet) 1 Motion of oars or rowing 2 Set of oars oared, adj [1 ord, 2 ōd] oar (I) & -ed Equipped with oars eight oared boat oar-fish, n (zool) A genus of ribbon fishes, Regalecus, of large size and living at great depths of the sea, the ventral fins are long filaments with broad flattened tips like an oar blade oarsman, n [1 ōrzman, 2 ōzmen] One who rows, a rower, esp one who rows in a racing boat quite an oarsman, a good rower oarsmanship, n [1 ōrzmanship, 2 ōzmenšip] Prec & -ship Skill in rowing or the use of oars, esp in boat-racing oarswoman, n [1 ōrzwōman, 2 ōzwūman] A woman rower oary, adj [1 ōrj, 2 ōrj] oar (I) & -y (poet) Resembling an oar in shape or use (of a bird's wing, foot of a swan &c) oasis, n, pl oases [1 ōsis, ēs, 2 ōsisis, -sis] Lat oasis, Gk oasis, of Egypt origin, cp Coptic ouat, 'to dwell', ouache, 'dwelling-place' 1 A fertile, usually inhabited, place in a desert, where cultivation is possible owing to the presence of water 2 (fig) Anything pleasing which comes as a refreshing contrast and relief after tedium or dreariness, a beautiful sight, or place, amid ugly surroundings oast, n [1 ōst, 2 ōust] OE ast, 'lawn', ME ast, cp MDa ast, Mod Da east, fr Gmc ast*, fr adto-*, cogn w Lat aestus, 'heat', aestas, 'summer', Gk aithos, 'burning heat' See aestivate & aedile Kuhn for drying hops, oast house, the building containing an oast or linn oat, n [1 ōt, 2 out] OE āt(e), ME ōte, pl It is strange that no certain cognates of this common & familiar word are found in other languages A connexion has been suggested w OHG etar, 'poison', orig perh 'poisoned matter, pus, from a boil' &c, cp OE ātor, 'poison', wh is prob cogn w Gk oidos, 'swelling', cp oidad, 'I swell' (see oedema) This is not convincing, because oats are among the last of the cereals to suggest the idea of swelling 1 (bot, usually in pl) A cereal grass, Avena sativa, or its grain, used as food for horses or as oatmeal for man, wild oat, the uncultivated species, Avena fatua, with small, useless grain and stiff, twisted awn Phr to sow one's wild oats, (of a young man) to indulge in a certain amount of dissipation before settling down 2 (poet) a A pipe or flute made out of an oat stalk, b a pastoral poem 'But now my oat proceeds' (Milton, 'Lycidas', 88) 3 (attrib) Made of oats or oat straw, replacing obs oaten oatcake, n [1 ōtkāk, 2 ōutkek] A thin flat cake or biscuit of oatmeal, a kind of girdle cake oaten, adj [1 ōtn, 2 ōuin] oat & -en (obs or poet) Made of oats or of oat straw, now replaced by (attrib) oat 'Tempered to the oaten flute' (Milton, 'Lycidas', 33) oath, n [1 ōth, 2 oup] OE ād, ME oath, ōth, OS eb, OHG et, Goth aiþs, ON eiðr See enigma 1 A solemn asseveration with an appeal to God, or some specially sacred person or object, as a sanction and witness to the truth of the statement made or to be made, e g the oath of a witness in a court of law Phr put (person) on oath, cause him to take an oath, b a binding promise made in most solemn manner, with an appeal to God, or to sacred things, to perform faithfully some act or duty, e g the oath of a juror, or of a person entering on an office, c sacred promise of fidelity and loyalty to a person or cause to take the oath, to make oath Phr on oath, on my oath, having been sworn 2 The form of words and the ceremony to be used and observed when taking an oath 3 The name of God or of sacred things profanely used or invoked, a curse, profanity, blasphemy oatmeal, n [1 ōtmēl, 2 outmēl] oat & meal (I) Meal made from oats ob-, pref Occurs only in words of Lat origin, fr Lat prep ob, expressing a motion towards, b position before, against, c an object or cause, 'on account of, with regard to' &c, d the consideration for wh something is done, 'for' In Lat compounds, as pref, ob has various meanings, not all of wh can be traced in its force as an independent word

(1) against, towards oppetere, 'to go towards', (2) 'in the way of', expressing hindrance opponere, 'to be in the way of, oppose', obesse, 'to be in the way of, injurious to', (3) expressing hostility offendere, 'to strike against', (4) 'down', opprimere, 'to press down', (5) expressing covering oblendere, 'to stretch over', (6) 'across', expressing motion obire, 'to travel over' In Lat, when used as a pref, ob remains unchanged before vowels, & most consonants, but when the second element of the compound begins w p, f, c, g, it becomes respectively op, of, oc, og The earlier form of ob was op, & op, up occur in Oscan, Lath has api, 'about', Sort api, 'also, in addition', adv, orig form opi*, wh is in gradational relation to Gk epi, see epi-, cogn w Goth if (uma), 'this following' obligato, adj & n [1 ōbligātō, 2 ōbligat (um)] Ital, 'obliged, bound', fr Lat obligat (um), PP type of obligare See oblige 1 adj (mus) Required, necessary, of an additional but indispensable accompaniment by a single instrument to a musical composition for the voice or another instrument or both, to be performed as written and not left to the performer's discretion or improvisation, and so contrasted with ad libitum 2 n An instrumental accompaniment to the voice and another instrument a violin obligato, to a song for the voice and piano forte obduracy, n [1 ōbdūras, 2 ōbdurās] See next word & -cy Quality, condition, of being obdurate, stubbornness, inflexibility, hardness, (of heart or character) obdurate, adj [1 ōbdūrt, 2 ōbdurāt], fr Lat obdūrtū (um), PP type of obdūrare, 'to harden', ob-, intens, & dūrare, 'to make hard', dūrus, 'hard' See durable Hardened in feelings, hard hearted, unyielding, stubborn, obstinate obdurately, adv Prec & -ly Inanobdurately manner, stubbornly obeah, obi, n [1 ōbea, ōbi, 2 ōubia, ōubi] W African negro word 1 A species of witchcraft or sorcery as practised by negroes in the West Indies 2 A fetich or magic object used in witchcraft obeah (obs) man, woman, witch, sorcerer, sorceress obedience, n [1 ōbēdiens, 2 ōubidiens] O Fr, fr Lat obediencia See next word & -ce 1 A act of obeying or submitting to authority, compliance with orders, law, rules &c, submission to authority, b state, condition, of being obedient, passive obedience, non resistance, unquestioning submission to authority 2 (eccl) a The duty of obedience exacted from its members by a given church, jurisdiction, dominion, exercised by a church over its members, b the body of persons rendering obedience to the authority of a given church, esp the Roman Church obedient, adj [1 ōbēdiēt, 2 ōubidiēt] O Fr, fr Lat obediēt (em), Pres Part of obēdire, 'to obey' See obey Willing, ready, to obey, submissive to commands, to rule, or authority, yielding to [another's] will, or expressed desire Phr your obedient servant, the close of a formal or official letter obedientary, n [1 ōbēdienshary, 2 ōubidienshary] fr Med. Lat obediensarius See prec & -ary A member of a monastic community subject to the authority of the Superior obediently, adv [1 ōbēdiēntli, 2 ōubidiēntli] obedient & -ly In an obedient manner, with obedience, (formula) yours obediently, as close to a formal letter obesance, n [1 ōbēsans, 2 ōubēsans], fr O Fr obesance, fr obesant, Pres Part of obere See obey a A bow, inclination of the head, or other formal gesture of respect, reverence, or submission, b deference, homage to do obesance to, to do homage to, to obey, submit, respectfully obelisk, n [1 obelisk, 2 ōbēlisk], fr Fr obelisque, fr Lat obeliscus, fr Gk obeliskos, 'small spit, pointed implement, obelisk', dimin of obelos, 'spit, obelisk', apparently variant form of obelos, 'obel', see obel 1 An upright monolith or stone pillar, with four sides, tapering at the top into a pyramid or pointed cone 2 (also obelus) a (MSS) A mark (- or -), to denote a spurious or doubtful passage, b (print) a dagger (†), to mark a reference to a footnote obelize, vb trans [1 obeliz, 2 ōbelainz] Gk obelizein Prec & -ize To mark, in MSS or in printing, with an obelisk or obelus obelus, n [1 ōbelus, 2 ōbelas] Gk obelos See obelisk An obelisk, 2 obese, adj [1 ōbēs, 2 ōubis], fr Lat obesus, 'stout, plump', fr ob- & PP type of edere, 'to eat' See edible Very fat, corpulent obesity, n [1 ōbēiti, 2 ōubisti], fr Fr obesité See prec & -ity Corpulence obey, vb trans & intrans [1 ōbē, 2 ōubē] ME obeyen, fr Fr obéir, fr Lat obēdire, 'to listen to, obey', earlier obedire, fr ob-oidz*, fr ob audire*, fr ob- & stem of audire, 'to hear, listen to' See audible 1 trans a To carry out, perform, execute, the commands, or expressed desire of, to submit, be obedient, to, to act in accordance with obey orders, one's superiors, b to submit to, act in accordance with to obey the laws of nature, the dictates of one's heart &c 2 intrans To do what one is ordered, to be obedient obfuscate, vb trans [1 ōbfuskāt, ōbfuskāt, 2 ōbfuskēt, ōbfuskēt], fr Lat obfuscāt (um), PP type of obfuscare, obfuscare, 'to make dark, darken, whif, degrade', fr ob- & fuscare, 'to darken', fr fuscus, 'dark, indistinct' See fusuous To obscure, darken, bewilder, confuse obfuscation, n [1 ōbfuskāshum, 2 ōbfuskāshon] Prec & -ion Act of obfuscating, state of being obfuscated, bewilderment

obi (I), n See obeah

obi (II), n [1 ōbi, 2 ōubi] Jap The broad sash worn by Japanese women and children obit, vb [1 ōbit, 2 ōbit] Lat, 'he died', 3rd aug Pret of obire, see next word Term used on tombstones, in documents &c written in Lat obit sine prole, died without issue obit, n [1 ōbit, 2 ōubit] O Fr, fr Lat obitus, 'death', fr obitus, PP of obire (mortem), 'to go towards, meet (death)', to die', ob- & ire, 'to go' See itinerant (obs) Death, funeral, service, mass, requiem in memory of a dead person, cp also post-obit obiter, adv [1 ōbiter, obiter, 2 ōubiter, ōubiter] Lat, 'by the way, in passing', fr ob, 'on' &c, see ob-, & iter, 'road, way', see iteration, itinerant In passing, by the way, incidentally, special (law) obiter dictum, pl dicta, a passing remark or opinion expressed by a judge during the hearing of a case, which is incidental and does not form part of his decision or judgement and is not binding as a precedent or ruling obituary, adj & n [1 ōbībōoari, 2 ōubībōari] fr Med Eccles Lat obituaris, fr Lat obitus, 'death' See obit 1 adj Of, concerning, relating to, death, or to a particular death, or dead person obituary ceremony, notice &c 2 n a A notice in a newspaper &c of a person's death, with a short biography, b (eccl) a list of names of dead members of a religious community object (I), n [1 objekt, 2 obdzikt], fr Lat objectum, PP of objicere, 'to throw against, put before, present', ob- & jacere, 'to throw' See facilitation & jet 1 That which is presented to, or observed by, the senses, a material thing, anything visible or tangible a distant object, a minute object, common objects of the country-side 2 A That which is presented to, and grasped by, the mind, that which can be apprehended or known an object of thought, for consideration & o, b that which arouses and attracts feelings and emotions an object of pity, contempt, admiration & o 3 That on which the wishes and intentions are set, that to which the will is directed with desire of attainment, purpose, aim the object of one's life, efforts, to fail, succeed, in one's object, an object for a walk 4 (gram) A noun or clause which is governed by a transitive verb, or by a preposition 5 (colloq) A person or thing of extraordinary or striking appearance, generally one which excites pity or disgust, a deplorable spectacle a pitiable object, a disquieting object, a nice object he looked with two black eyes 6 (attrib) Object ball (hurlers), the ball at which the player aims Object finder, device for marking or registering the position of an object on a microscopic slide Object glass, lens, the glass or lens in a microscope or telescope which is nearest the object Object lesson, a lesson, piece of instruction, in which the material object to be studied is exhibited by the teacher in concrete illustration of his remarks, b a practical and concrete illustration of a principle, often with the sense of a warning for the future Object staff, surveyor's levelling staff object (II), v intrans & trans [1 objekt, 2 obdzekt], fr Lat objectare, 'to oppose, object', freq fr objectum, PP type of objicere See prec, op fr objecter A intrans 1 To feel dislike to, disapprove of, be definitely hostile and opposed to I object very much to a wet summer, do you object to smoking? (facet) I don't object to a good glass of wine, I like it very much 2 To protest against, express disapproval of, and objection to I object to that question being asked, if you disliked the proposal you should have objected at the time, I object, I protest, have and express an objection B trans To say, state, as, or by way of, objection it was objected that the proposed clause might inflict hardship on deserving persons objectification, n [1 objektifikashun, 2 obdzektifikashun] objectify & -fication 1 Act or process of objectifying, state of being objectified 2 That which is objectified objectify, vb trans [1 objektifi, 2 obdzektifi] object (I) & -fy To make, render, objective, to form objectively, to represent as an object, materialize objection, n [1 objektshun, 2 obdzektshun] Fr, fr Lat objectio-(em) object (II) & -ion 1 A feeling of dislike, disapproval, reluctance, opposition to feel an objection to doing, b statement, expression, of this, protest to take objection to, to make an objection to, to utter, lodge, a strong objection against 2 A circumstance or action which is, or might be, objected to, a drawback, defect the chief objection to the book is its great length, b obstacle, hindrance, prohibition there is no objection to your leaving at once objectionable, adj [1 objektshunabl, 2 obdzektshunabl] Free & -able 1 Liable, open, to objection 2 Offensive, disagreeable, unpleasant objectionably, adv Free & -ly In an objectionable manner, offensively objective (I), adj [1 objektiv, 2 obdzektiv] object (I) & -ive Cp Fr objectif 1 Of, relating to, concerned with, external, material objects 2 (philos) Having an independent existence in itself, and not existing merely in an individual mind, contrasted with subjective 3 Of, relating to, the object or purpose of action objective point, the point to which military operations are directed 4 (gram) Of, connected with, any case, other than the nominative, that is governed by a transitive verb or by a preposition objective (II), n, fr prec 1 A An objective point, the object or purpose aimed at in an action, b (mil) position which it is desired to reach, to attainment or capture of which an operation is directed 2 (gram) The objective case objectively, adv objective (I) & -ly In an objective manner or way, contrasted with subjectively to consider something objectively, as external to and apart from oneself objectiveness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being objective, objectivity objectivism, n [1 objektivizm, 2 obdzektivizm] objective (I) & -ism (philos) Doctrine that human knowledge is based on objective reality, and that our conception of the external world, derived from sensuous perceptions, has objective validity objectivity, n [1 objektiviti, 2 obdzektiviti] objective (I) & -ity Quality, state, of being objective, objectiveness, objective character, as contrasted with subjectivity objectless, adj [1 objektles, 2 obdzektles] object (I) & -less Without an object, aim, or purpose, aimless objector, n [1 objektör, 2 obdzektör] object (II) & -or One who objects to, opposes, protests against, something objurgate, vb trans [1 objurgat, 2 obdzagat], fr Lat objurgat (um), PP type of objurgare, 'to blame, reprove', fr ob- & jurgare, 'to quarrel, scold', for jurgore*, fr jür-, stem of jür, 'law, a suit', see jury & justice, & hase ag-* in agere, 'to drive', see agent To blame, rebuke, reprove objurgation, n [1 objurgashun, 2 obdzagashun] Fr, fr Lat objurgatio-(em) See prec & -ion Reproof, blame, rebuke objurgatory, adj [1 objurgatori, 2 obdzagatori], fr Lat objurgatorius See prec & -ory Reproachful, rebuking oblade (I), adj [1 oblat, 2 oblent], fr Lat oblatus (um), PP type of offerre, 'to bring before, to offer' (see offer), fr ob- & latum for latum*, op tolere, 'to lift, carry' See tolerate 1 (eccles) Offered, dedicated, to a monastic life, specif, Oblate Fathers 2 (geom) of spheroid bodies Flattened at the poles oblade (II), n, fr prec a One dedicated to a monastic life, b specif, a member of a Roman Catholic religious congregation of secular priests, Oblates or Oblate Fathers oblation, n [1 oblatshun, 2 oblentshun] Fr, fr Lat oblatus (em), oblatus, 'offering' See prec & -ion 1 An offering, dedication, presentation, to God, esp of Christ in the consecrated elements in the Eucharist 2 A gift or donation for pious uses oblational, adj [1 oblatshunal, 2 oblentshunal] Pre & -al Of the nature of an oblation oblatory, adj [1 oblatum, 2 oblatör] oblade (I) & -ory Of, relating to, an oblation obligate, vb trans [1 obligat, 2 obligest], fr Lat obligatus (um), PP type of obligare See obligation (chiefly in PP obligatus) To bind legally or morally, place under an obligation to do, or refrain from doing, something, to constrain, compel obligation, n [1 obligashun, 2 obligeshun] obligate (I) & -ion 1 That which binds or constrains a person to do or not to do the binding power of a duty, law, moral feelings, promise, contract & c obligations of conscience, humanity 2 That which one is morally bound to do or not to do, a duty society lays obligations on everyone 3 The state or position of being bound or indebted to another, by reason of benefits or favours received from him under an obligation to another 4 (law) A written document or bond by which the obligor binds himself under a penalty to pay a certain sum to, or perform some act for, the benefit of another person, the obligee obligatory, adj [1 obligatör, 2 obligatör] obligate (I) & -ory Lat obligatorius, 'binding' See obligate & -ory Compulsory, imposed by law, rule, specific instructions, or by moral feeling, as necessary to be done, contrasted with permissive, or discretionary oblige, vb trans & intrans [1 obli, 2 oblaidd], fr Fr obliger, fr Lat obligare, 'to bind, to put under an obligation, oblige', fr ob- & ligare, 'to bind, tie' See ligament A trans 1 To compel, constrain, by legal, moral, or physical force to do or not to do something 2 To put under an obligation, to meet the wishes of, do a favour to, accommodate, render grateful oblige me by closing the door, I am much obliged, I thank you, Phr could you oblige me with half a crown?, I gave or lend me one B intrans (colloq) To be so obliging, to do something as a favour to oblige with a song, (be so amiable as to) sing one obliged, adj [1 oblijd, 2 oblaidd] PP of prec (archaic) Chiefly in formula ending letters, grateful your obliged humble servant obliges, n [1 oblijd, 2 oblaidd] Pre & -ee (law) The person in whose favour a legal obligation or bond is made (by the obligor) obliging, adj [1 oblijd, 2 oblaidd] Pre Part of oblige A Ready and willing to oblige, disposed to do a kindness, and to be helpful, ungrudgingly serviceable I always found this servant good-tempered and obliging, b (archaic) polite, gallant I decide you are very obliging obligingly, adv Pre & -ly In an obliging way or manner, courteously, politely obligingness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being obliging, politeness, kindness obligor, n [1 obligör, 2 oblijd] oblige & -or (law) The person who binds himself by a bond to pay a sum to, or do something for, the benefit of another (the obligee) oblique (I), adj [1 obliq, 2 obliq] Lat obliquus, 'slanting, sidelong, indirect', ob- & liquus*, 'bent', cogn w licinus, 'curved, bent', fr stem lek*, lek*-, the simplest form of the base is lek*, lek*-, 'to bend' Cp umb, lithe 1 A Slanting, sideways, inclining away from a straight line or direction oblique glance, 'and winds with ease, Through the pure marble air, his oblique way' (Milton, 'P L' in 563-4), b (fig, in moral sense) not straight-forward, indirect, allusive, tortuous as oblique reference, oblique methods 2 Having a direction not perpendicular nor parallel to another line or axis oblique angle, acute or obtuse angle, not a right angle, oblique cone, cone with axis not perpendicular to the base, oblique muscle, one that is placed diagonally to the main axis of the body 3 Indirect oblique narration, speech (Lat oratio obliqua), speech reported in the third person, as he said that he was willing 4 (gram) Of cases of the noun other than nominative or vocative oblique (II), vb intrans, fr prec To move away, deviate, from the straight line, (of soldiers) to move forward half right or left obliquely, adv oblique (I) & -ly In an oblique direction, not horizontally nor perpendicularly, indirectly, in a sidelong way obliqueness, n See prec & -ness State of being oblique, obliquity obliquity, n [1 obliqutä, 2 obliqutä] Fr obliquitas, fr Lat obliquitas (em), obliquitas of oblique (I) & -ity 1 State, quality, of being oblique, deviation from a straight line or direction 2 Deviation from a straight course, departure from moral rectitude obliquity of conduct, b from sound judgment obliquity of mind, judgement & o obliterate, vb trans [1 obliterat, 2 oblitert], fr Lat obliteratus (um), PP type of obliterare, 'to blot out, conceal, something written', also fig 'to erase from remembrance', also fig 'to erase from oblivion', fr ob- & litare, 'cause to be forgotten', fr litare, 'Jetter', see literate, & letter, but prob influenced in meaning by oblatus, PP prob influenced in meaning by oblatus, PP of oblatus, 'to smear over, blot' (see ob- & litare)

I have one or two observations to make on your conduct, d (colloq) remark, conversational utterance he didn't make a single observation during the whole dinner. 5 (attrib) Observation-balloon, (mil) an anchored balloon used for observing an enemy's position and movements, directing gun-fire &c., observation car, special carriage on a railway with wide windows for viewing scenery &c., observation post, (mil) an advanced post from which observations of the enemy can be made and reported.

observational, adj [1 ɒbzərvəʃənəl; 2 ɒbzərvəʃənəl] Preco & -al Relating to observation; obtained by, based on, observation, contrasted with experimental observationally, adv Preco & -ly By observation observatory, n [1 ɒbzərvətəri; 2 ɒbzərvətəri] See observation & -ory A building with its instruments and apparatus for observing natural, esp astronomical, phenomena observe, vb trans & intrans [1 ɒbzərv, 2 ɒbzərv] fr Fr observer, fr Lat observare, 'to watch, heed, notice, observe, to pay attention to, respect', fr ob-, 'to', or as intens, & servare, 'to save, to keep, protect, to maintain in a certain condition, to heed, pay attention to, watch' See serve A trans 1 To keep, pay attention or respect to, be observant of to observe laws, rules, ceremonies, rites, customs, to observe the saints' days Phrs to observe the time, to be punctual, to observe silence, not to speak, to observe good manners, the nicest decorum, to be scrupulously polite &c. 2 A To consider carefully, and with concentrated attention, whether of eye or ear to observe the behaviour of birds, to observe a person's pronunciation, b to notice, mark, to receive an impression of, become aware of, by observation did you observe his excellent manners?, I didn't observe the colour of her eyes, o to notice, become conscious that he observed that it had suddenly grown much colder 3 To nter by way of remark, observation, or comment, say that allow me to observe that you're been taken in, I have very little to observe on what has been said, but few comments to make B intrans To practise observation, be attentive, take notice he is a man who observes keenly but says very little observer, n [1 ɒbzərvər, 2 ɒbzərvə] Preco & -er 1 One who observes, regards attentively, or watches an observer of the stars, patient observer of nature, also as title of news papers or periodicals The Observer 2 One who keeps, adheres to, maintains an observer of his promises, of Sunday &c observing, adj [1 ɒbzərvɪŋ, 2 ɒbzərvɪŋ] fr Pres Part of observe Observant, watchful, attentive, given to noticing observingly, adv Preco & -ly Attentively, carefully obsess, vb trans [1 ɒbseɪs, 2 ɒbseɪs] fr Lat obsessa(-um), PP type of obsidere, 'to haunt, frequent, beseege, to take possession of', fr ob- & sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary & sit a To possess, beset, haunt obsessed by a demon, by a delusion, b to occupy the mind to the exclusion of other things, to pre-occupy obsessed by the idea of one's own importance, by a fixed idea &c obsession, n [1 ɒbseʃən, 2 ɒbseʃən] fr Lat obsessio(-em), 'siege, blockade' Preco & -ion 1 a Persistent possession and pre-occupation of the mind, by an evil spirit, b exclusive preoccupation of the mind by a fixed idea, thought, desire &c. 2 That which takes possession of the mind to the exclusion of all else, a fixed idea, crotchets, monomaniacs obsidian, n [1 ɒbsɪdɪən, 2 ɒbsɪdɪən] fr Lat Obsidianus lapis, 'the stone of Obsidius', a false reading in Pliny for Obsianus, 'stone of Obsianus', who discovered it in Ethiopia A glassy, dark, extremely hard volcanic rock obsolescence, n [1 ɒbsəlesəns, 2 ɒbsəlesəns]

See next word & -oo State, process, of growing or becoming obsolete or obsolescent obsolescent, adj [1 ɒbsəlesnt, 2 ɒbsəlesnt] fr Lat obsolescent(-em), Pres Part of obsolescere, 'to wear out, grow old', freq vb of wh the etymol is doubtful, perh fr obs-, fr ob- & variant of alere, 'to grow', prob w later influence of alere, 'to be accustomed, be used to', op also exolescere, 'to grow up, to grow out of use' &c., & adolescere, 'grow up' See adolescent Going, passing, gradually out of use, becoming obsolete or extinct obsolete, adj [1 ɒbsəlet, 2 ɒbsəlet] fr Lat obsolet(-um), PP of obsolescere See preco a No longer in use, discarded, disused, b out-of-date, old fashioned obsoletely, adv Preco & -ly In an obsolete manner obsoleteness, n See preco & -ness State, quality, of being obsolete obstacle, n [1 ɒbstəkl, 2 ɒbstəkl, ɒbstəkl] fr, fr Lat obstaculum, 'hindrance, obstacle', for obstaculum, pp dimin suff, fr base of obstare, 'to hinder, thwart, stand in the way of' See ob-, state, & stand A hindrance, obstruction, impediment (material or non-material), that which prevents advance a formidable obstacle to progress, obstacle race, a foot race in which various barriers, artificial or natural, have to be crossed obstetric, adj [1 ɒbstetrɪk, 2 ɒbstetrɪk] fr Lat obstetricus, 'of, pertaining to, a midwife or midwifery', fr obstetrica(-em), stem of obstetrice, 'midwife', bt a woman who stands by or near one, fr ob- & stare, 'to stand' See state & stand Of, pertaining to, midwifery or obstetrics, obstetric load, a load, the male of which carries the eggs on its hind legs until they are hatched, the nurse load obstetrical, adj [1 ɒbstetrɪkl, 2 ɒbstetrɪkl] Preco & -al Obstetric obstetrician, n [1 ɒbstetrɪʃən, 2 ɒbstetrɪʃən] See obstetric & -ian One skilled in midwifery or obstetrics; a specialist accoucheur obstetrics, n pl [1 ɒbstetrɪks, 2 ɒbstetrɪks] Art and science of midwifery obstinacy, n [1 ɒbstɪnəsi, 2 ɒbstɪnəsi] See obstinate & -cy 1 Obstinate quality or habit, state of mind, unreasoning adherence to one's opinions, purpose, or programme, stubbornness, pigheadedness 2 (of disease) Resistance to remedy or cure obstinate, adj [1 ɒbstɪnət, 2 ɒbstɪnət] fr Lat obstinatus(-um), 'fixed, resolute, obstinate', PP of obstinare, 'to set one's mind on, persist in', fr ob- & stāre*, fr base of stare, 'to stand', cp destiny See station, stand 1 A Unreasonably tenacious of one's opinions, adhering persistently to one's own purpose, line of action &c., not to be moved by argument or persuasion, stubborn, pig-headed, mulish, pertinacious, b persistent, resolute obstinate resistance to attack. 2 (of disease &c.) Not yielding readily to remedy or cure, refractory, intractable obstinately, adv Preco & -ly In an obstinate way or manner, stubbornly obstreperous, adj [1 ɒbstreperəs, 2 ɒbstreperəs] fr, L Lat obstreperus, 'clamorous, noisy', fr obstrepere, 'to cry out, clamour against, to annoy, be troublesome to', fr ob- & strepere, 'to make a noise, roar', prob a remote connexion of stridere, 'to hiss, buzz, rattle' See strident Noisy, clamorous, turbulent, unruly, ungovernable obstreperously, adv Preco & -ly In an obstreperous, turbulent way or manner obstreperousness, n See preco & -ness Obstreperous, turbulent conduct obstruct, vb trans & intrans [1 ɒbstrʌkt, 2 ɒbstrʌkt] fr Lat obstruct(-um), PP of obstruere, 'to build, block, wall, up, to bar, render impassable', fr ob- & struere, 'to build' See structure A trans 1 a To block, bar, render impassable to obstruct a road, path, passage, b to prevent, hinder (moving things) from passing to obstruct the traffic. 2 To hinder, prevent, interrupt, passage of light or sound, or of visual and auditive impressions obstruct the view, to obstruct a sound 3 To oppose, hinder, impede the progress of to obstruct reform, a bill in Parliament &c 4 To hinder, thwart, impede, embarrass, hamper (persons in or from doing something) to obstruct the police in the discharge of their duties B intrans To practise obstruction, to oppose progress he never lifts a finger to help us, he merely obstructs obstruction, n [1 ɒbstrʌkʃən, 2 ɒbstrʌkʃən] fr Lat obstructio(-em), 'a building up, barrier, impediment' Preco & -ion 1 Act of obstructing, the placing of a physical barrier which blocks, hinders, stops passage and movement 2 Act or conduct which prevents something being done, which impedes, hinders, retards progress o policy of obstruction, speof, Parliamentary obstruction, process of deliberately delaying a measure 3 Something which obstructs; a material object which blocks a road, passage, or channel of any kind an obstruction on the railway, in a pipe, in the throat, intestines &c, b something which hinders the passage of light, air, sound &c, which prevents from seeing or hearing obstructionism, n [1 ɒbstrʌkʃənɪzəm, 2 ɒbstrʌkʃənɪzəm] Preco & -ism System of obstructing or impeding Parliamentary or other business obstructionist, n [1 ɒbstrʌkʃənɪst, 2 ɒbstrʌkʃənɪst] See preco & -ist One who practises obstruction, esp to hinder or impede Parliamentary or other business obstructive, adj & n [1 ɒbstrʌktɪv, 2 ɒbstrʌktɪv] obstruct & -ive 1 adj Causing obstruction, tending to obstruct 2 n An obstructive person or thing obstructively, adv Preco & -ly So as to cause obstruction obstructiveness, n Preco & -ness Obstructive action or conduct obtain, vb trans & intrans [1 ɒbtáin, 2 ɒbtáin] fr Fr obtenir, fr Lat obtinere, 'to hold, obtain', fr ob- & tenere, 'to hold' See tenable A trans To gain, get possession of, to acquire, win, to have conferred upon one, to obtain a share of the plunder, a prize, a reward, salvation &c B intrans To be received in ordinary use, to prevail, be current or prevalent the custom has long obtained, to hold good, to be accepted or recognized these means no longer obtain obtainable, adj [1 ɒbtáinəbl, 2 ɒbtáinəbl] Preco & -able Capable of being obtained, to be gained, procurable obtainment, n [1 ɒbtáinmənt, 2 ɒbtáinmənt] See preco & -ment (archaic) Act of obtaining, attainment obtectad, adj [1 ɒbtektəd, 2 ɒbtektəd] fr Lat oblect(-um), PP of oblegere, 'to cover up, or over', ob- & legere, 'to cover', qv under tegument, & -ed (zool) Covered with a hard outer case or shell, as the pupae of certain insects obtest, vb trans & intrans [1 ɒbtést, 2 ɒbtést] fr Lat obtestari, 'to beseech', ob- & testari, 'to bear witness', fr testis, 'witness' See testimony 1 trans (archaic) A To invoke as a witness, call to witness, b to beseech, supplicate, to beg for 2 intrans To protest obtestation, n [1 ɒbtéstəʃən, 2 ɒbtéstəʃən] fr Lat obtestatio(-em) See preco & -ation Supplication, protestation obtrude, vb trans & intrans [1 ɒbtrʌd, 2 ɒbtrʌd] fr Lat obtrudere, 'to push, thrust against, push forward', ob- & trudere, 'to thrust, push', ogn w O Slav trudit, 'to afflict', op Goth us prutan, 'to treat ill, threaten', OE prētan, 'to threaten' See thrust & threat 1 trans (not used of material action) To thrust, push, forward, force upon to obtrude one's opinions, emeri upon 2 intrans To intrude obtruncate, vb trans [1 ɒbtrʌnkət, 2 ɒbtrʌnkət] fr Lat obtruncat(-um), PP type of obtruncate, 'to lop off' See ob- & truncate To lop off the head or top end of obtrusion, n [1 obtrūshun, 2 obtrūzan], fr L Lat obtrūsio (em), fr obtrūs (um), P.P. of obtrūdere, see obtrude, & -ion Act of obtruding or thrusting upon obtrusion of opinions on others obtrusive, adj [1 obtrūsiv, 2 obtrūsiv] See preo & -ive Disposed to obtrude, thrust, or push oneself forward, intrusive, pushing obtrusively, adv Preo & -ly In an obtrusive manner obtrusiveness, n See preo & -ness Obtrusive behaviour obtund, v trans [1 obtund, 2 obtānd], fr Lat obtundere, 'to beat against', fr ob- & tundere, 'to beat' See obtuse (obs) To blunt, take the edge off obturate, v trans [1 obtūrāt, 2 obtūrest], fr Lat obtūrāt (um), P.P. of obtūrāre, 'to stop, close up', ob- & base tū, 'lump, knob &c, as in tumēre, 'to swell', see tumid To stop, close, an opening, esp to close the breech of a gun as prevention of the escape of gas on firing obturation, n [1 obtūrāshun, 2 obtūre[an] Lat obtūrāshō (em) Preo & -ion The closing, stopping, of an opening, esp of a gun breech obturator, n [1 obtūrātōr, 2 obtūrātōr] obtrude, v trans [1 obtūd, 2 obtūd], fr Lat obtrūdere, 'to beat against, blunt' fr P.P. of obtrūdere, 'to beat against, blunt' See obtund The base has forms tund* & tūd*, op Lat tudes 'a hammer', Burt tundāz, tudāz, 'strikes, blows' 1 Blunt, blunted, not having a sharp edge or point obtuse corner 2 (of the senses, mental perceptions, also of persons) Dull slow, stupid, dense obtuse mind, an obtuse person 3 (geom) Obtuse angle, one greater than a right angle, obtuse angled triangle, a triangle with an obtuse angle obtusely, adv Preo & -ly In an obtuse manner, bluntly, stupidly obtuseness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being obtuse, bluntness, stupidity obverse (I), adj [1 obvērs, 2 obvērs], fr Lat obversus (um), P.P. of obvertere, 'to turn towards', ob- & vertere, 'to turn' See version 1 Turned towards, facing, fronting, the observer, contrasted with reverse 2 (hot) Inverted, (of leaves &c) having the attachment end narrow, as compared with the tip or apex 3 Forming a complement or counterpart obverse (II), n, fr preo 1 A That which faces or fronts the observer, contrasted with reverse, b specif (numis) that side of a coin or medal which bears the head of the sovereign or the principal device 2 A fact which answers to, serves as complement to, another fact, belief &c obversely, adv [1 obvērsli, 2 obvērsli] obverse (I) & -ly In an obverse form or manner obversion, n [1 obvērsbun, 2 obvērs[an] Lat obversio (em), 'a turning towards, offering' obverse & -ion (log) A process of conversion by immediate inference, in which the direct opposite of a proposition is at once inferred all men are mortal, by obversion, no men are immortal obvert, v trans [1 obvērt, 2 obvērt] fr Lat obvertere, 'to turn towards', fr ob- & vertere, 'to turn' See version (log) To infer by the process of obversion obviate v trans [1 obviāt, 2 obviēt] fr Lat obviāt (um), P.P. of obviare, 'to meet in the way go towards', fr ob- & via, 'way, path' See viable & voyage To remove from the way, get rid of, clear away, make unnecessary to obviate a difficulty, a necessity obvious, adj [1 obviūs, 2 obviūs], fr Lat obviūs, 'lying in the way, meeting', hence, 'at hand, ready, obvious' See preo &

 -ous 1 A Readily, easily, perceived, plainly visible and apparent, not to be missed, unmistakable his embarrassment was obvious, b (L) too apparent, obtrusive, forcing itself upon the attention his correctness of speech, politeness, was perhaps a little obvious, (u) (of colours) flaunting, garish dress that appeared too obvious amid the sombre surroundings 2 A Clear, easily apparent to the mind and understanding, plainly manifest an obvious meaning, intention &c, b too simple, un-disguised, lacking subtlety the sentiment, goal, was coarse and obvious 3 (archaic) Open, exposed, to attack &c 'to the evil turn My obvious breast' (Milton, 'P L' xi 373-4) obviously, adv Preo & -ly Plainly, clearly, evidently, manifestly obviousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being obvious, plain or evident, a obviousness, b lack of subtlety oc-, pref, form of ob-, used in compounds in which the second element begins with a c ocarina, n [1 okārēna, 2 okārēna] Ital, fr oca, 'a goose', w dunum soft, fr Lat occa, 'goose', fr auca*, fr base of avis, 'bird', see aviary A small musical instrument made of haled clay, with finger holes and mouth piece, which gives out a low and flute like note occasion (I), n [1 okāzhun, 2 okēizen], fr Lat occatō (em), 'a falling out, happening, opportunity, occasion', fr oc- & cas (um), P.P. type of cadere, 'to fall' See cadancy & case (I) 1 Point or moment of time at which some particular event occurs, or some action is performed on the occasion of one's marriage, this auspicious occasion 2 A suitable, favourable moment, opportunity, for doing something to profit by the occasion, not the occasion for rejoicing, to choose one's occasion, the right moment Phrs to rise to the occasion, to be equal to an emergency, on occasion, as opportunity arises, to take occasión to do, say, choose that moment 3 An event or incident which is the subsidiary cause of another the King's death was the occasion for risings on all sides 4 A ground, reason, cause, for doing something no occasion to laugh, for anger, occasions of dispute 5 (pl, archaic) Necessary business affairs, occupations going about their lawful occasions occasion (II), v trans, fr preo Cp Fr occasionner To give occasion for, give rise to, to cause, bring about his conduct occasions me great anxiety occasional, adj [1 okāzhunāl, 2 okēizenāl] occasion (I) & -al 1 A Occurring at irregular intervals, happening from time to time, not continuous occasional bouts of pain, occasional thunderstorms, b coming, appearing, at rare intervals, seen on certain occasions only infrequent an occasional visitor, an occasional reader in the library 2 A Composed for, performed upon, some special occasion occasional verses, ode, &c, occasional music, b designed for, adapted to, some special purpose or requirement an occasional table, bookcase, &c 3 Occasional cause a secondary, incidental cause, that which immediately precedes, but is not the efficient cause of anything, b in later Cartesian philosophy, the doctrine that, while mind and matter only act on each other as occasional causes, they are brought into mutual relation by God occasionalism, n [1 okāzhunālizm, 2 okēizenālizm] Preo & -ism The Cartesian doctrine of occasional causes occasionality, n [1 okāzhunālita, 2 okēizen-ālitā] occasional & -ity State, quality, of being occasional occasionally, adv [1 okāzhunāl, 2 okē-izenāl] See preo & -ly On occasions, at times, from time to time, now and then Occident, n [1 okcident, 2 okcident] Fr, fr Lat occident (em), 'quarter of the setting sun, the west', n, fr Pres Part of occidere, 'to fall down, set' See occasion (poet, cap) 1 The west, the western horizon or western part of the earth, as contrasted with Orient 2 The Western hemisphere, formerly Europe, as contrasted with Asia Occidental, adj [1 okcidentāl, 2 okcidentāl] Preo & -al Of or pertaining to the Occident, to the West Occidental civilization, habits, climate &c, as contrasted with Oriental occidentalism, n [1 okcidentālizm, 2 okcident-ālizm] Preo & -ism Culture, customs, character, ideas &c, of Western or European peoples, as contrasted with those of Orientals occidentalist, n [1 okcidentālīst, 2 okcidentālīst] occidental & -ist One who prefers Occidental or Western to Oriental culture &c occidentalize, v trans [1 okcidentālīz, 2 okcidentālīz] occidental & -ize To impart Western, European, culture and notions to occidentally, adv [1 okcidentālī, 2 okcident-ālī] See preo & -ly In an Occidental or Western manner occipital, adj [1 okšipital, 2 okšipital], fr Lat occipit (em) See occiput & -al (anat) Of or belonging to the occiput or back of the head occipital bone, fracture &c occiput, n, learned pl. occipita [1 okšiput, okšipita, 2 okšiput, okšipita] Lat, fr oc- & caput, 'head'. See capital The back of the head occlude, v trans [1 okklūd, 2 okklūd], fr Lat occludere, 'to shut up', fr oc- & claudere

 'to close, shut' See clause, close, cloister 1 To close, shut in or shut out to occlude rays of light 2 (chem) To take up, and absorb, esp of gases by certain substances occlusion, n [1 okklūshun, 2 okklūzan], fr Lat occlūshō (em), fr occlūs (um), P.P. of occludere See preo & -ion 1 Act or process of occluding, state of being occluded, espec of a closure of the eyes by drawing the eyelids over them, b momentary closure of vocal passage in speech, as in formation of stop consonants 2 (chem) Absorption of gases by certain substances occlusive, adj [1 okklūziv, 2 okklūziv] As in preo & -ive Tending to occlude, close, or shut up, tending to absorb, causing occlusion occult (I), adj [1 okkult, 2 okkult], fr Lat occult (um), P.P. of occultare, 'to cover up, conceal', oc- & base kel-* &c, 'to hide', & seen in celāre, 'to hide', see conceal, also clandestine & hell 1 Hidden, secret, esoteric 2 Spent, supernatural, mystic, magical occult sciences, also as noun, the Occult
occult (II), v trans & intrans, fr Fr occultar, fr Lat occultare, freq form of occultare, 'to cover' See preo A trans (astron) To conceal from sight, to shut off light from by passing before, as the moon before a planet or star, to eclipse B intrans To become concealed, as the intermittent light of a light-house an occulting light occultation, n [1 okkultāshun, 2 okkultā[an] fr Lat occultātiō (em), 'concealment', as preo & -ation (astron) The hiding, concealment, or eclipse of one heavenly body by another, usually a larger body, by passing between it and the earth, as occultation of Venus, by the moon occultism, n [1 okkultizm, 2 okkultizm] occult (I) & -ism Theory of, and belief in supernatural, occult forces and powers, study or practice of occult sciences and arts occultist, n [1 okkultist, 2 okkultist] occult
 (I) & -ist One who believes in or studies occultism occultly, adv [1 okkultli, 2 okkultli] occult (I) & -ly By occult means occultness, n [1 okkultnes, 2 okkultnes] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being occult occupancy, n [1 okkūpani, 2 okkūpani] See occupant & -ry 1 A The act or fact of occupying, of taking and holding possession, esp of a house, land &c, b term during which a house &c is occupied 2 (law) Acquisition of a title or right to something which does not belong to anybody, or which has been abandoned occupant, n [1 ókupant, 2 ókupant], fr Lat occupant(-em), Pres Part of occupare, 'to take possession of' See occupy a An occupier, one occupying some particular place, dwelling, shelter &c at a given moment, inhabitant, denizen, resident who is the occupant of the ruined cottage? At present its sole occupants are rats, b one who holds a title to anything by occupancy occupation, n [1 ókupášun, 2 ókupésan] Fr, fr Lat occupatión(-em), 'a taking possession, seizing', fr occupat(um), PP type of occupare, 'to take possession' See occupy & -ion 1 Act of occupying or taking and keeping possession of occupation of a house, occupation of a town or country by the enemy &c occupation troops, army of occupation, military forces in occupation of a defeated enemy's country during an armistice or till final terms of peace have been executed 2 Period during which a house &c is occupied, occupancy, residence, tenure during the occupation of the farm 3 State of being occupied, employment men out of occupation 4 a That which engages or occupies one's time for the moment, specif b that set of duties, tasks, operations, upon which one is regularly engaged or employed, business, trade, profession occupier, n [1 ókupier, 2 ókupava] occupy & -er One who is in occupation of house, or land, esp temporarily as a tenant, not as owner occupy, vb trans [1 ókupi, 2 ókupava] ME occupien, fr Fr occuper, fr Lat occupare, 'to seize hold of, take possession of', fr oc- & modified form of capere, 'to take', see captive 1 To take and keep possession of, to hold, as by military forces in war to occupy a country, a town &c 2 To be in occupation or possession of, to reside in, to have for one's use to occupy a house, rooms, office &c 3 a To fill, take up, a particular space to occupy a chair, a place, shelf &c, b to take up, use, spend (time) the dinner and speeches occupied three hours. c to fill the mind, thoughts &c, engross attention many cares and anxieties occupied his mind 4 a (pass) To be occupied in, be employed on, be busied with, be engaged in workmen were occupied in pulling down the house, b (reflex) occupy oneself (with), to spend one's time on, busy oneself with occur, vb intrans [1 okér, 2 oká], fr Lat occurrere, 'to run towards, to meet, to present itself, to happen', fr oc- & currere, 'to run, go' See current (I) & course 1 (of objects, types &c) To be met with, to be found to exist fossils do not occur in igneous rocks, black sheep occur in all families 2 (of events, natural processes) To happen, take place several fires, storms &c have occurred, this must not occur again 3 (of thoughts and ideas &c) To come into the mind, strike one, to suggest itself a fresh idea occurs to me, it occurs to me that &c occurrence, n [1 okurens, 2 okárens] Cp Fr occurrence See occur & -ance 1 Fact or process of occurring the occurrence of thunder in winter is comparatively rare 2 Something which occurs, an incident, event, a happening an occurrence of no importance, an everyday occurrence, strange occurrences ocean, n [1 óshan, 2 óufen] O Fr, fr Lat Ocean(um), Oceanus, 'the great outward sea', as contrasted w the middle sea or Mediterranean, fr Gk Ókeanos, in same sense, etymol doubtful 1 The sea, as the whole body or expanse of salt water, esp the deep or open sea, as contrasted with inland seas, channels, estuaries 2 (geog) One of the great expanses of salt water into which the seas have been divided, as Atlantic, Pacific, Indian, Arctic, and Antarctic Oceans, German Ocean, the North Sea 3 A vast, unlimited number or quantity an ocean of difficulties, also pl (colloq), plenty, sufficiency oceans of time, of money

Oceania, n [1 óshánia, 2 óufénia] Preo & -ia, op Fr Océanie The Pacific Islands oceanic, adj [1 ós(h)éanik, 2 óuf-, óusenik] ocean & -ic a Of, pertaining to, the ocean or deep seas, pelagic, b (cap) of Oceania or the Pacific Islands

Oceanid, n [1 óséamid, 2 óusenid], fr Gk Ókeanid(ēs), Ókeanís, daughter of Ókeanos, 'the sea' A nymph of the great sea or ocean, op Nereid oceanographer, n [1 óshanografer, 2 óufen-ógrafa] See oceanography & -er A student of, specialist in, oceanography oceanographic(al), adj [1 óshanógráfik(l), 2 óufenógráfik(l)] oceanography & -ic (& -al) Connected with, relating to, the science of oceanography oceanographical expedition, museum &c oceanography, n [1 óshanógrafi, 2 óufen-ógráf] ocean & -graphy Branch of science concerned with the study of the ocean, its tides and temperatures &c, and with the forms of animal and plant life occurring in it ocellate(d), adj [1 óselát(ed), 2 óselsit(id)] Lat ocellatus, fr ocellus, 'little eye'. See next word (zool) Provided, marked, with ocelli ocellus, n, pl ocelli [1 ósélus, -li, 2 óusel-, -la] Lat dimin of oculus, 'eye' See ocular (zool) 1 A simple, eye-like structure found in certain invertebrate animals, as contrasted with compound eyes of insects 2 An eye-like spot of colour, ringed with bands of another colour, as in the peacock, the ocellated turkey &c ocelot, n [1 óselot, 2 óusilot] Fr, abbr of Mexican tlalocelotl, 'field jaguar', fr tlalli, 'field', ocelotl, 'jaguar' A large wild cat, Felis pardalis, of Central and South America, the tiger-cat ochlocracy, n [1 oklokrasi, 2 oklókrasi], fr Fr ochlocratie, fr Gk okhlokraítia, fr ókhlōs, 'populace, the mob', the origin of wh is doubtful, & kratos, 'strength, rule', op -cracy Government by the mob, mobocracy, mob rule ochlocrat, n [1 óklokrat, 2 óklokrast] See preo Leader, supporter, of mob rule ochlocratic, adj [1 óklokrátik, 2 óklokrátik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, mob rule ochre, n, [1 óker, 2 óuka] O Fr ocre, fr Lat ochra, Gk ókhra, 'yellow ochre', fr ókhros, 'yellow, pale', fr ō*, cogn w Sert ā, marking approximation, comparable to Engl. suff -ish, & hase *ghro-, 'greyish yellow', see grey Op Sert (gy-)ghra-, 'tiger' 1 An earthy metallic oxide of iron, used for making yellow-brown pigments 2 The colours made from these pigments ochreous, adj [1 ókr(e)us, 2 óukr(e)us] Preo & -ous Containing, resembling, ochre, of a yellow brown colour

-ock, suff OE -oc, -uc, dimin suff, as in hillock, bullock o'clock [1 oklók, 2 eklók] For of the clock See clock oct-, octa-, octo-, pref Forms used in compounds of Lat octo or Gk oktō, 'eight', a name for the numeral common to most Aryan languages, see eight, O Slav has osmi, & Lith astum, w a different suff on anal of the ordinals, O Slav semā, Lith asmas, 'eighth' octachord, n [1 óktakord, 2 óktakód], fr Gk oktakhordos, 'having eight strings'. octa- & chord. 1 A musical instrument with eight strings 2 The diatonic octave octachordal, adj [1 óktakórdal, 2 óktakód(a)] Preo & -al Eight-stringed, in a series of eight tones or notes octad, n [1 óktad, 2 ókted], fr Gk oktad(-ēs), oktās, 'the number eight', fr oktō, 'eight', see octa- 1 (chem) A radical atom which has a valency or combining power of eight 2 (math) A group or series of eight numbers octagon, n [1 óktagun, 2 óktagan], fr Gk oktágōnos, 'eight-angled', octa- & gōna, 'angle', see -gon 1 (geom) A plane polygonal figure with eight angles and eight sides 2 A building with eight sides octagonal, adj [1 óktagunal, 2 óktaganal] Preo & -al. Having eight angles and eight sides octagonally, adv Preo & -ly With eight angles and sides octahedral, adj [1 óktahédral, 2 óktahídral] See next word & -al Having eight plane faces, formed of octahedrons octahedron, n [1 óktahédron, 2 óktahídron, -on], pl octahedrons, learned octahedra [1 ókta hédra, 2 óktahídra] Gk okta(h)edron, octa- & hédra, 'seat, base' See -hedron (geom) A solid figure with eight plane faces, and, if regular, contained by eight equal equilateral triangles octant, n [1 óktant, 2 óktent], fr L Octant(-em), fr oct- & suff on anal of Lat quadrant(-em), 'fourth part' See quadrant. 1 An eighth part of circle, an arc of 45 degrees 2 (astron) The position of the moon or other heavenly body, distant 45 degrees from another position, especially that of conjunction or opposition. 3 (opt) An instrument for measuring angles, with a graduated arc of 45 degrees octarchy, n [1 óktarki, 2 óktaki], fr oct-, on anal of heptarchy (Engl hist) A government by eight rulers or kings, some times used for the so called Heptarchy octaroon, n See octoroon octastyle, adj & n [1 ókástil, 2 ókástail], fr Gk oktástulos, oct- & stūlos, 'pillar, column', see style (III) 1 adj. Having eight columns 2 n A building, such as a temple, with eight columns at either end Octateuch, n [1 óktatúk, 2 óktatjúk] Gk oktateukhōs octa- & teukhōs, 'narrative, a book' See second element in Pentateuch The first eight books of the Old Testament octavalent, adj [1 óktaválent, 2 óktavéilent] Lat octa- & valent(-em), Pres Part of valēre, 'to be worth' See valency (chem) Having a combining power or valency of eight octave, n [1 óktāv, óktiv, 2 óktivy, óktiv] Fr, fr Lat octáva (diēs), 'eighth day', octāvus, 'eighth', octo, 'eight' See octa- 1 (eccles) The eighth day after a festival, including the day of the festival itself, the eight days after a festival, in the octave, during these eight days 2 (prosody) a A stanza containing eight lines, b the first eight lines of a sonnet. 3 (mus) a The eighth full tone above or below any note, b the interval between a note and its octave, c an open stop in an organ, d the piccolo, which is an octave higher in pitch than the flute octavo, n, written avo [1 óktávō, 2 óktávov], fr Lat in octavo See preo 1 A book in which each of the sheets on which it is printed is folded into eight leaves or sixteen pages 2 The size of a book or page made up of sheets folded into eight, varying according to the size of the sheet used octennial, adj [1 óktenial, 2 ókténial], fr Lat octenni(um), 'period of eight years', oct- & annus, 'year' See annual & -al a Coming, happening, every eight years, b lasting eight years octet, octette, n [1 óktet, óktét, 2 óktet, óktét] Formed w oct- & on anal of duet, quartet &c 1 A composition for eight instruments or eight voices 2 A group, set, of eight verses, esp the first eight lines of a sonnet octillion, n [1 óktílun, 2 óktílan] oct- & trillion, on anal of million 1 (Engl notation) One million raised to the 8th power, one followed by 48 ciphers 2 (Fr and Am notation) One thousand raised to the 8th power, one followed by 27 ciphers octo-, pref See oct- October, n [1 október, 2 októuba] Lat, 'the eighth month of the year', the old Roman year beginning w March See oct-, the origin of the suff is obscure See December 1 The tenth month of the year 2 Bear or ale brewed in October

Octobrist, n [1 októbríst, 2 októubríst] Fr, fr Russ See prec & -íst The name of a moderate reforming party in pre Soviet Russia whose measures for constitutional government were proclaimed in the Czar's manifesto of October 1905 octocentenary, n [1 októsenténari, 2 októusenténari] octo- & centenary An 800th anniversary octodecimo, n, written 18mo [1 októdesimó, 2 októdesimou] Lat októdesimou, 'eighteenth', octo, 'eight', decimus, 'tenth' See oct- & decimal 1 A book whose sheets are folded into 18 leaves 2 The size of book or page when sheets are so folded octogenarian, n & adj [1 októjenárián, 2 októjdženárián] fr Lat októjenári(us), & -an, fr októjēns, 'eighty each', októjēns, 'eighty' See oct- 1 n A person eighty years old. 2 adj Eighty years old, in the eightieth year of life octonal, adj & n [1 októnal, 2 októnal] fr Lat októni, 'eight each' See oct- 1 (of numbers, coins) Counted in groups of eight or by eight units 2 (of verse) Having eight feet octonarian, n [1 októnárián, 2 októnárián] fr Lat októnárius (versus) See prec & -arius In which each line has eight feet octopod, n [1 októpód, 2 oktápíd] fr Gk októpód (os), fr okto-, 'eight', & pod, 'foot' See -pod (zool) Any animal belonging to the suborder, Octopoda, which includes the argonaut and octopus octopus, n, pl octopuses [1 októpús, 2 oktápús] L Lat októpús, fr Gk októpous, adj, 'eight feet long', also oktápous, 'having eight feet' octo- & -pod. 1 (zool) A cephalopod mollusc with eight arms furnished with suckers, related to the cuttlefish 2 (fig) Any powerful organization, influence &c with wide reaching branches or ramifications octroon, octaroon, n [1 októróon, 2 októrón] Formed fr oct-, on anal of quadroon A person of either sex with one eighth negro blood, offspring of a white and a quadroon octosyllabic, adj [1 októsílabík, 2 októsílabík] octo- & syllabic (of verse) Having eight syllables in each line octosyllable, n [1 októsílabi, 2 októsílabi] octo- & syllable 1 A verse line of eight syllables 2 Word of eight syllables octroi, n [1 októrwa, 2 októrwa] Fr, orig 'privilege, concession', fr octroyer, 'to grant', fr L Lat audorizāre, formed fr audor, 'originator, founder, master, one having authority' See author & authorize A tax or duty levied in some countries on all commodities entering a town or district, b the boundary or office where such duties are collected, c the officials in charge of such office octuple, adj & rb trans [1 oktúpl, 2 oktúpł] fr Lat oktúplus, 'eightfold', fr octo, 'eight', see octo-, on anal of duplex, 'twofold', see double 1 adj Eightfold. 2 rb To make eightfold, multiply by eight ocular, adj & n [1 ókular, 2 ókula] fr Lat ocularis, fr oculus, 'the eye', fr bas okl-, whence also Gk dox, dual, 'the two eyes', opsema, 'I shall see' Homeric ops, fr ol-*, face' O Slav oko, Goth. augō, OE faht, ero See also optic & eye 1 adj Pertaining to by means of the eye or sight, visual ocular demonstration, proof &c 2 n The eye piece of an optical instrument ocularly, adv Preo & -ly By means of the eye oculate, adj [1 ókulát, 2 ókulot] Lat oculatus, 'having eyes, seeing' See ocular (zool) Having ocelli or eye-like spots, ocellate oculist, n [1 ókulíst, 2 ókulíst] fr Fr oculiste, fr Lat oculus, 'eye' See ocular & -íst A medical practitioner who specializes in diseases of the eye oculo-motor, adj [1 ókuló mótor, 2 ókulou mótor] Oculo, fr Lat oculus, 'eye', see ocular, & motor (II) (anat) Moving the ball of the eye oculo motor nerve od (I), n [1 od, 2 od] Word coined by von Reichenbach (1788-1869) Hypothetical natural force or power, supposed by von Reichenbach to produce such phenomena as magnetism, chemical action, mesmerism &c, also called odyl and odylic force od (II), 'od, also odds, interj' [1 od(z), 2 od(z)] Euphemism for God, as in 17th cent oaths and expletives as odds fish &c odel, n See udal odalisque, n [1 ódalisk, 2 ódalisk] Fr, fr Turk odaly, 'maid servant' A female slave or concubine in an Oriental harem odd (I), adj [1 od, 2 od] ME odde, 'odd, unique, special, uneven (of numbers)', fr ON oddi, fr ord*, 'triangle', whence the meaning 'odd number' is derived, fr the uneven number of points, op also ON odda-tala, 'odd number', & odda maðr, 'odd man', the one who gives the casting vote The orig sense of the corresponding n odd is 'point, tip, of a spear, sword' &c, it is also used for 'a point, epit, of land, a place, spot' The n is found in OE oðgn ord, 'point of a weapon, beginning, front, chief' &c, & in OHG & Mod. Germ ort, 'place, spot' Orig form uzdo*, for wh there seem to be no cognates outside Gmc 1 (of numbers) a Not even, not divisible by two an odd number, as 3, 5 &c Phr luck in odd numbers, b (of persons or objects counted) called, identified, known by an odd number the odd houses, in a street, odd files, in a rank of numbered soldiers, odd months, in the year, those having 31 days 2 Applied to one of a pair of objects, normally occurring or used together, when the other of the pair is missing an odd boot, glove, also to one or more members of a set, series, or related group isolated from the remainder a few odd volumes of Gibbon, odd player, couple, in a game, extra players, over and above the number actually required, odd trick, at what &c, the seventh, the first that the winners count towards their score Phr odd man out, one left out when two or more have been paired off 3 Surplus, extra, not counted (of sums, numbers &c of smaller denomination than the main sum or number) three pounds odd, not counting shillings and pence, twenty odd years, pounds, any number between 20 and 30, the odd money, three hundred odd, between 300 and 400 4 Outside what is habitual, regular, fixed, occasional, casual odd jobs, odd moments, those not filled by regular occupations, spare time 5 Not ordinary, peculiar, strange, eccentric, queer surprising odd people, manners, he looks very odd in uniform, odd way of speaking &c, that's very odd odd (II), n Always odds, except in Phr the odd, the odd trick, as in whist, end in golf, a handicap given by taking a stroke off from the score at a hole, b a stroke by which one player is above his opponent at a particular hole

Odd Fellow, Oddfellow, n [1 ód feló, 2 ód felou] A member of a friendly society, Order of Oddfellows, which has certain secret rites and ceremonies resembling those of Freemasonry oddish, adj [1 ódish, 2 ódish] odd (I) & -ish. Rather odd, queerish oddity, n [1 óditi, 2 óditi] odd (I) & -ity 1 Quality of being odd, in appearance or character, queerness, strangeness, oddness the oddity of his dress and manners 2 An odd, queer person or thing to look a regular oddity oddly, adv [1 ódlí, 2 ódlí] odd (I) & -ly In an odd, queer, manner to behave oddly Phr oddly enough, strange to say oddment, n [1 ódmént, 2 ódmént] odd (I) & -ment A remnant, odd piece, oddments, odds and ends oddness, n [1 ódnes, 2 ódnes] odd (I) & -ness Strangeness, queerness, oddity odds, n pl [1 ódz, 2 ódz] See odd (II) 1 Things which are not even or equal, inequality to make odds even 2 Difference, balance, chance in favour or one as against another the odds are against us, against fearful odds, it is odds that he will do these Phrs by long odds, by a great difference, to give, receive, odds, to allow, receive, an equalizing amount, as of strokes in a game &c, to be handicapped, it makes no odds, makes no difference, it doesn't matter, what's the odds?, what difference does it make? 3 Strife, quarrel, dispute, difference, usually in Phr to be at odds with 4 (betting) The difference in amount between the money staked on a chance and that which will be paid if the chance comes off the odds are 10 to 1 Phr to lay the odds, of bookmaker &c who bets that the other will not win odds and ends, n pl Remnants, oddments, miscellaneous articles ode, n [1 ód, 2 ód] Fr, fr Gk ódē, 'song', for ódē, connected w áedēn, 'to sing', Lat óda, ódē, is borrowed fr Gk ódē, ódē, 1 A song, esp one accompanied by music and dancing sung by the choros in the ancient Greek drama a choral ode 2 A poem, not of great length, whether in rhymed or unrhymed verse, of irregular or complicated lyrical form, usually composed for some special occasion, on a special theme, in honour of some special person &c, and often modelled on Greek or Latin poems of this kind Pindaric, heroic, ode, Sapphic, Horatian, ode &c -ode (I), suff as in geode, fr Gk ódēs, 'like', fr -o- & éde, 'having same shape or form' See -oid

-ode (II), suff, fr Gk hódōs, 'way, path', as in cathode See first element in hodometer

Odeum, n [1 ódium, 2 ódium] Lat, fr Gk ódēion, a public building at Athens designed for musical performances, but often used as a law court See ode, cp Fr odéon A hall or theatre for musical performances in ancient Greece and Rome, a concert hall odious, adj [1 ódus, 2 ódus] fr O Fr odieux, Mod Fr odieux, fr Lat odiosus, 'hateful' See odium Arousing, inspiring, hatred or disgust, a hateful, detestable, b hideous, ugly odiously, adv Preo & -ly In an odious manner odiousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being odious odium, n [1 ódium, 2 ódium] Lat odium, 'hated', cogn. w ódī, 'I hate', & also w Lat di rox, 'furious, fierce', see atrocious, also cp Gk ódusomai, 'I am grieved, angry, at', prob also OE adol, diré, horrid, loathsome' State, quality, of being odious or hated, property of arousing hatred or disgust, dislike, reprobation, disgust, aroused or incurred, opprobrium to bear the odium of, bring odium upon &c, odium theologicum, the animosity and bitterness caused by religious differences, or existing between different schools of theology odograph, odometer, ns See holograph, hodometer odont-, odonto-, pref, fr Gk odónt (os), genit of odous, 'tooth', for odont*, see the cognates given under dent- odontalgia, n [1 ódontálja, 2 ódontáldzia] Gk. See prec & -algia (med) Toothache odontalgic, adj [1 ódontálik, 2 ódontáldik] Preo & -ic Connected with, relating to, toothache odontic, adj [1 ódontik, 2 ódontik] odont- & -ic Of, pertaining to, the teeth, dental; odontic nerve defence · weapons of offence, offence should be the rule in war 4 (Bib) That which causes another to offend, an occasion of transgression, stumbling block rock of offence.

offenceless, adj [1 ofensales, 2 ofensals]

Free & -less Without offence, not offending or giving offence, inoffensive, innocent.

offend, vb intrans & trans [1 ofend; 2 ofend]

ME offenden, fr Lat offendere, 'to strike against', to stumble, to hurt, injure', of, against', & fendere*, 'to strike', only in composition. See defend & intrins.

1 To commit an offence by doing wrong in what has been offered? 2 Offend against, a to transgress, infringe to offend against custom, law, good manners &c, b to transgress the laws of to offend against God B trans 1 a (of physical effect) To be offensive to, annoy, displease, disgust these hideous houses offend the eyes, some music offends, rather than pleases, the ear, b (of moral effect) to outrage, do violence to to offend one's sense of justice, of propriety &c 2 To wound the feelings of, give offence, cause resentment to I am deeply offended by his conduct 3 (Bib) To cause to offend, lead astray, be a stumbling-block to 'if thy right eye offend thee' (Matt 7 29), 'whosoever shall offend one of these little ones' (Mk ix 42) offendedly, adv [1 ofendedly, 2 ofendidi]

Offended, P.P. of offend, & -ly As though offended offender, n [1 ofender, 2 ofenda] offend & -er One who offends, specif, one who commits an offence against the law, a criminal, a delinquent first offender, juvenile offender offending, adj & vb n [1 ofending, 2 ofend] offend & -ing 1 adj a Causing offence, b guilty of, committing, an offence 2 n An offence offensive (I), adj [1 ofensiv, 2 ofensiv]

See offences & -ive 1 a Causing offence, repulsion, disgust, to the senses, repellent, disgusting, loathsome an offensive sight, smell, sound &c, b provoking moral indignation, exciting resentment, insolent, insulting an offensive person, offensive manners, language &c 2 Belonging to, used in, suitable for, attack, contrasted with defensive an offensive war, offensive weapons, offensive strategy, tactics offensive (II), n, fr prec Aggression, act of attacking, offensive action to act on, to take, the offensive, the offensive is the safest defence in war offensively, adv offensive (I) & -ly In an offensive manner offensiveness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being offensive offer (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ofer, awfer, 2 ofe, ofe]

O E offran, 'to offer to God', ME offren, fr Lat offerre, 'to bring before, present, offer', fr of- & ferre, 'to bring', see -forous & bear (I), the development of meaning has been influenced by Fr offrir & trans 1 To present as an offering or sacrifice, in worship, honour, or supplication to God, to pay duty, to a revered person, or superior to offer prayers, homage, also offer up, present (prayers, sacrifices) to God, to offer up as a sacrifice 2 To present for acceptance or refusal, to proffer, tender to offer assistance, help, a bribe, to offer an apology, to offer battle, to offer advice, on opinion, to offer to help, Phr to offer one's hand, (i) to hold it out, as though to shake hands with a person, (ii) to make a proposal of marriage to a lady 3 a To present for sale at a price to offer a house for £1000 b to bid as a price for to offer £1000 for a house 4 To make a show of exhibit signs of intending to use to offer resistance, violence B intrans To present itself to occur as occasion offers offer (II), n See prec 1 Statement on bidding a proposal, or expression of willing n to do something, esp as expression of willingness to afford help of some kind, to give something, or to confer a favour a kind offer, an offer of support, of food, of money, also an offer to help, to pay for &c, also an offer of marriage, proposal

2 Indication of willingness to pay a certain price for something, of readiness to purchase something for a specified sum, a bid an offer of £500 for a cottage; I am open to an offer; no reasonable offer refused, also the actual sum offered you must make me a better, larger, offer 3 Physical act of tendering, proffering, presenting, something for acceptance I ignored the offer of his hand offering, n [1 ofering, &-w, 2 of(e)ring, of]

O E offring, 'sacrifice, oblation to God' offer (I) & -ing 1 Act of offering or presenting 2 Thing offered, a specif, something offered to God, dedicated to a cause &c, a sacrifice, oblation a free will, peace, thank offering; Easter offering, sum of money collected and presented to the incumbent of a parish at Easter; b something tendered for acceptance; a gift, a present I bring you a small offering for your birthday offertory, n [1 ofertun, 2 of(e)rtun, fr L

Eccles Lat offeritorium, 'place at which offerings were made', fr Low Lat offer(um), P.P. of offerre See offer (I) 1 Specif. (cap) a that part of the Eucharistic service, during which a collection of alms is made, including sentences spoken by the priest, antiphon which is sung, and the prayer in which the alms and the unconsecrated elements are offered to God, B the alms taken on this occasion 2 Popularly, any collection of alms made during, or at the end of, a religious service in a church offhand, adj [1 ofhand, 2 ofhand], off-hand, adv [1 ofhand, 2 ofhand] off & -hand 1 adj a Without preparation or previous study or thought, extempore, impromptu make a few offhand observations, b rude, curt, casual, unceremonious an offhand manner 2 adv In an offhand way or manner to translate, speak, act &c offhand offhanded, adj [1 ofhanded, 2 ofhanded]

Prec & -ed Offhand

offhandedly, adv Prec & -ly In an offhand manner offhandedness, n See prec & -ness Offhand manner, behaviour office, n [1 ofis, 2 ofis] O Fr, fr Lat officium, 'that which is done for another, performance of a service, ceremony, duty, function, business', for the second element see -fio, origin of first element is doubtful, prob = opus, 'work, labour, effort'. See opus 1 That which is performed or done, that which it is necessary to do, a duty, service, task, function, purpose, assistance, services the eye ceases its office, the office of host &c, good offices 2 A position or appointment involving special duties or offices, position of authority or trust ministerial, judicial, office, office of Inspector of Nuisances &c, to take, hold, resign, office Phr offices of profit, technical term for certain paid ministerial appointments, acceptance of which by a member of Parliament entails resignation of his seat and re-election 3 a A public or state department, a ministry, including its collective powers and functions and all the members of its staff War Office, Foreign, Colonial, and Home Office, Office of Works &c, but, in ordinary usage, Admiralty, Board of Trade, Ministry of Health, the Holy Office, the Inquisition, b house, set of apartments, building, in which the business of a state department is conducted 4 (often in pl) The place, rooms &c where the clerical, financial, and administrative work, as distinct from the productive side or the actual handling of goods, in a commercial business, is carried on a lawyer's, architect's, office, cashier's office, registered offices of a company, a post, telegraph, office, booking, lost property, office &c, Phr (my son is) in an office, in business, esp as a clerk, the, one's, office, place of business, the business itself 5 (pl) offices, collection of rooms, buildings &c, where the domestic work of a house is carried on, together with lavatories &c the usual domestic offices &c 6 A business institution, company, now only regularly used of Insurance Companies: Fire, Life, Office &c 7 a A ceremony, rite, religious service to perform the last offices (for a dead person), b a specific, prescribed religious service Divine Office, as the Roman Breviary, or Matins, and Evensong &c in Anglovan Church to say one's Office, to recite the Divine Office, Office for the Dead, the special funeral service, the Office of the Mass 8 (slang) Information, hint, tip to give one, the, the office office-bearer, n A holder, occupant, of an office or post office-boy, n Boy or youth employed to do odd jobs in an office, esp that of a commercial firm, to clean the rooms, take messages &c office-copy, n An official, certified, copy of a document office-holder, n An office bearer officer (I), n [1 ofiser, 2 ofisa] ME officere, fr Fr officier, fr L Lat officiarius, 'one who holds an officium or office' See offices 1 One who holds an office of position of authority, trust, or service the great officers of state, a police officer, constable, medical officer of health &c, officer of the court, a bailiff 2 Specif a one who holds His Majesty's commission in the army or navy, as distinguished from a private (soldier) or from a non commissioned, petty, or warrant officer, officer of the day, the commissioned officer in a battalion &c, who is on duty on a particular day and is responsible for supervision of the barracks, guard duties, prisoners &c, officer in waiting, the officer of the day in a Guards' regiment, b the master or captain or any of the mates of a merchant vessel first, second &c officer, first, second, mate officer (II), vb trans, fr prec (usually in pass.) 1 To provide with officers 2 To act as officer to, to command the regiment was well officered official (I), adj [1 ofishal, 2 ofishal] O Fr, Mod. officiel, fr Lat officialis, 'official'

See offices & -al 1 a Relating to, connected with, an office or position of trust or authority official duties, responsibilities &c, official position, b employed in a public office, holding official position official receiver, referee &c 2 Issued by one holding an office, emanating from an official authority, authorized official statements, coming from an official source, that report is not official 3 Suited to, befitting, a position of authority &c, characteristic of, usual to, holders of office, formal an official manner, official reply, official circumlocution 4 (pharm) Official, according to, accepted by, the medical profession, contained in the pharmacopoeia official drugs, prescriptions official (II), n, fr prec 1 A person who holds a public office, person in authority or in a position of trust public officials 2 (eccles) Officer appointed to act as judge in an Ecclesiastical Court, usually styled official principal officialdom, n [1 ofishaldum, 2 ofishaldam] Prec & -dom 1 The body of public or state officials 2 (in unfavourable sense) Characteristic point of view and behaviour of officials, officialism officialism, n [1 ofishalizm, 2 ofishalizam] official (I) & -ism Official system, formality, excessive attention to official routine and regulations, bumbledom, red-tape officialize, vb trans [1 ofishaliz, 2 ofishaliz] official (I) & -ize To make, render, official to subject to official routine and control, to manage by officials officially, adv [1 ofishali, 2 ofishali] official (I) & -ly In an official manner, formally, with official authority officiant, n [1 offishant, 2 offishant], fr. Med Lat officiant (em), Pres Part of officiare See officiate officiate, v trans [1 offishat, 2 offishat] Med Lat officiat (um), PP type of officiare, 'to perform the Divine office' See office officer, adj [1 offishari, 2 offishari], fr L Lat officiarius See officer Derived from an office or the tenure of an office officer titles, as Your Worship for a mayor &c officiate, v trans [1 offishat, 2 offishat] Med Lat officiat (um), PP type of officiare, 'to perform the Divine office' See office office, n [1 offishat, 2 offishat] Med Lat officiarius, 'of or belonging to a workshop', fr Lat officina, 'workshop', for officina*, fr officem, 'workman' See office & -ness & -al (pharm) 1 Kept in stock and sold by a chemist or druggist (of drugs, medicines &c) 2 Used in medicine 3 Authorized by the pharmacopoeia, now replaced by official official, adj [1 offishat, 2 offishat], fr Lat officiarius, 'complaisant, obliging', fr officium, 'service, favour' See office & -ous 1 (archaic or obs) Obliging, friendly 2 Interfering, meddling, offering services, advice &c where they are neither invited nor required 3 (diplomacy) Unofficial, informal, not necessarily binding, as contrasted with official an official statement, in an official capacity officially, adv Preo & -ly In an official, meddling manner officialness, n See office & -ness State, quality, of being official, meddlingness, interference offing, n [1 awf, ofing, 2 af, ofing] off & -ing (naut) The sea as far out as can be seen from land, chiefly in Phr in the offing, (1) not far from shore, (2) (fig) noor, in the neighbourhood, ready or likely to appear, or take part &c offish, adj [1 awfish, 2 afish] off & -ish (colloq) Inclined to be distant or aloof in manner, stand-off offishness, n Preo & -ness Distance, aloofness, frigidity, of manner off-licence, n [1 awf lissens, 2 af lissens] off & licence A licence a to a publican to sell intoxicating liquor for consumption off, or away from, his premises, b to a shopkeeper to sell such liquor only for consumption off the premises offprint, n [1 awfprint, 2 afprint] off & print, translation of Mod Germ abdruck in same sense A separately issued copy of an article published in a journal &c, a pull offreckoning, n [1 awfreckoning, 2 afreckoning] off & reckon & -ing (pl) A deduction from the pay of soldiers or sailors formerly made to meet certain expenses offscourings, n pl [1 awfiskourings, 2 afiskourings] off & scour & -ing a Dirt, filth, refuse, which is scoured or cleaned off anything, b (fig) dregs, rabble, scum offset (I), n [1 awfset, 2 afset] off & set, op sot-off 1 That which springs from, or sets, starts off from something else, branch, offshoot, spur 2 That which sets off, balances, compensates for, something else, a set-off 3 (building) a A ledge in a wall formed by the wall above it being made thinner than the wall beneath, b a bend in a lead pipe or gutter to carry it round a corner or past a projection 4 (print) An impression from newly printed sheet on to the back of one placed above it 5 (surr) The measurement of a short distance at right angles from the main line taken in measuring an irregularly shaped area offset (II), v trans 1 To set off, balance, compensate for 2 To make an offset, as in a wall, pipe, or in printing offshoot, n [1 awfshoot, 2 afshoot] off & shoot 1 A small shoot or branch from the main stem of a plant, an offset 2 A lateral branch or spur of a mountain 3 A collateral descendant, branch of a family off-shore, adj [1 awf shor, 2 af shor] 1 Moving, coming, from or off the shore an off-shore breeze 2 At a distance from the shore off-shore fishery offside, adj [1 awfisd, 2 afisd] (football or hockey) Of a player in a position on the field where, under penalty, he may not kick, handle, or hit the ball, because he is in front of the last player who touched it (Rugby), or, being in front, has only a certain number of opponents, two usually, between him and their goal (Association and hockey) offspring, n [1 awfpring, 2 afspring] OE ofspring, fr off, 'off', & springan, 'to spring', See off & spring (I) 1 A child or children, progeny, issue, descendants 2 (fig) Product, result oft, adv [1 awft, oft, 2 oft, oft] OE oft, Common Gmc, O HG oft, Goth ufta, O N. oft, ultimate origin unknown 1 (archaic or poet) Often many a time and oft 2 (in composition) Oft told, oft recurring, oft repeated &c often, adv [1 awf(e)n, af(e)n, 2 af(e)n, af(e)n], sham-refined, vulg [1 awften, often, 2 af(e)n, af(e)n] ME ofte, often before vowels See preo (N B—Queen Elizabeth spells often) 1 Frequently, many times, repeatedly 2 (as adj, archaic) Frequent often times, frequently, often ogam, n See ogham ogee, n [1 ojs, 2 oudj] Variant of ogive 1 A moulding having scotches in form of S, that is, with a double curvature, one part convex, the other concave 2 Ogee arch, pointed arch formed of two ogee curves meeting at the top ogham, ogam, n [1 ogam, 2 ogam] O Ir ogum, Mod Ir ogham, supposed to have been invented by a legendary Oghma 1 Ancient British and Irish form of writing, having 20 letters, which are formed of strokes in groups of 1 to 5, drawn in relation to a transverse line, and made above, below, or passing right through it, these characters are also found cut on rectangular stones, the edges of which serves as the line 2 (attrib) Written in, characteristic of, ogham og(h)amic, adj [1 ogamik, 2 ogamik] Preo & -io Written in ogham characters ogival, adj [1 ojlvi, 2 oudzavil] ogive & -al Of, pertaining to, an ogive, characterized by having ogives ogive, n [1 ojiv, 2 oudzavil] Fr, O Fr ogive, 'pointed arch, double curved arch', etymol doubtful (archit) a The diagonal rib of a vault, b a pointed or Gothic arch (a French architectural term) ogle, v trans & trans & n [1 ogil, 2 ogil] Prob fr LG ogeln, ogelen, 'to ogle', freq of oegen, 'to look at', fr oeg, 'eye', cogn w eye 1 v a trans To keep looking about with intense, meaning glances, as though with longing, or coquettishness, to make eyes, b trans, to look at meaningly, and as though with amorous or coquettish intent, to make eyes at 2 n A covert, amorous, coquettish glance ogler, n [1 ogler, 2 ogler] Preo & -er One who ogles ogpu, n [1 ogpōs, 2 ogpōs] Russ, fr the initial letters of the phrase Obedinnoe Gosudarstvennoe Politicheskoe Upravlenie (Unified State Political Directorate) The secret bureau with its police agents which deals with political offences in Soviet Russia, formerly known as the Cheka, q v ogre, n [1 oger, 2 ogre] Fr, etymol doubtful, first used by Perrault in his fairy stories, 1697, & in Engl in 1713, spelt hogre, in a translation of a Fr version of the 'Arabian Nights', possibly through Span hucro, fr Ital oro, Lat Orcus, the God of the dead, or of the underworld a A monster, giant, in a fairy-tale who devours human flesh, b a hideous, coarse, or cruel man ogreish, adj [1 ogersh, 2 ogersh] Preo & -ish Like an ogre ogress, n [1 ogres, 2 ogres] ogre & -ess A female ogre Ogygian, adj [1 ogyan, 2 ogdyan], fr Gk. Ogygios, 'of Ogyges' a Of or belonging to Ogyges, an ancient, mythical king of Attica, b primeval, very ancient, prehistoric oh See O

ohm, n [1 om, 2 oum], fr G S Ohm, German physicist (d 1854) (elect) The unit of electrical resistance ohmic, adj [1 omik, 2 oumik] Preo & -io Of, relating to, an ohm, measured in ohms ohmic resistance ohmmeter, n [1 ometer, 2 oumeter] See preo & -meter An instrument for measuring electrical resistance oho, interj [1 ohō, 2 ouhōu] O & ho! An exclamation of surprise oh yes See oyez
-oid, suff [1 oid, 2 oid], fr Gk suff oidēs, & -oidēs, 'like', fr eidos, 'shape, form', fr base eidos*, as in idein, 'to see' See idea, idol, & op -ode (I) A suff used to form ns & ads indicating resemblance, like, in the form or shape of rhomboid, asteroid, anthropoid &c, b ns in -oid, ads are formed with -al, as rhomboidal oil (I), n [1 oil, 2 oil], fr O Fr oile, fr Lat oleum, fr Gk elaion, 'olive oil', fr elaia, 'the olive tree' See olive 1 A A general term applied to a large group of greasy, fatty, inflammable substances which are in soluble in water but soluble in ether or alcohol, and remain fluid at certain temperatures, classified according to their source of origin into animal, vegetable, or mineral oils, and, according to behaviour under heat, as fixed, or volatile, oils, of the former those that are solid at a temperature of 68° F are fats or waxes, of the latter, the mineral oils are used as illuminants &c, and the vegetable (essential) oils in medicine, perfumery &c, b any one of these substances, generally identified by the name of its source olive oil, palm oil, whale oil, oil of almonds &c Holy oil, the oil used in extreme unction for anointing the dying, oil of coronation, the oil used in the coronation service for anointing the sovereign Phrs to burn the midnight oil, to work late at night, to pour oil on troubled waters, to soothe, pacify, angry feelings, to arrange differences by tactful words &c, to strike oil, (lit) to discover a source of mineral oil, (fig) to make a valuable discovery, to get rich suddenly or quickly, to throw oil on the flames, to make quarrels, anger, worse by mistatement 2 a One of various substances having consistency of oil oil of vitrol, b (usually pl) oil colours painted in oil(s), c (pl) oilskins oil (II), v trans, fr preo To cover, smear, impregnate, with oil, to lubricate with oil or other lubricants Phrs to oil one's tongue, speak flatteringly, to oil a palm, bribe, to oil the wheels, to make things work smoothly and easily by tactful handling oil-beetle, n One of several beetles with a swollen body which emit an oily substance when alarmed oil-bird, n A South American bird, allied to the nightjars, the guano, from which an only fat is extracted, which the natives use as butter oil-box, n A small receptacle attached to a wheel for holding lubricating oil oilcake, n [1 oilkāk, 2 oilkāk] Food for cattle made from crushed linseed, cotton, rape, and other oil containing seeds oil-can, n A can for holding oil, esp lubricating oil oilcloth, n [1 oilclawth, 2 oilclawth] For oiled cloth A floor or table covering made of specially prepared tough, coarse canvas, thickly coated, usually on both sides, with oil-paint, and printed with a pattern, a special form is called linoleum oil-colour, n, usually pl Paint in which oil is used as a medium for mixing the pigment oligocarpons, adj [1 óligokárpne, 2 óligoukárpas] See oligo-, carpal, & -ous (bot) Having few carapals or fruits oligocene, adj [1 óligosēn, 2 óligosain] See oligo- & second element of eocene (geol) Of, relating to, a Tertiary period between the Eocene and Miocene Oligocene period, system &c olio, n [1 ólio, 2 óliou] For olla, Engl spelling of native pronunciation of Span olla, 'earthen pot', fr Lat olla, 'pot', as in olla podrida 1 An olla podrida 2 A medley, miscellany, bodge podge, as of verses, literary pieces &c oliphant, n [1 olfant, 2 ólfent] O Fr olifant, 'ivory' See elephant (archaic) 1 An elephant 2 A mediaeval hunting or battle horn, made of ivory olivaceous, adj [1 olivásus, 2 ólives[as]] See olive & -aceous a Resembling the olive, b of the colour of the olive; olive-green olivary, adj [1 olivari; 2 óliveri] Lat olivarius See next word & -ary (anat) Shaped like an olive, oval, connected with, relating to, the olivary body, an oval protuberance on the medulla oblongata or lowest part of the brain olive (I), n [1 óliv; 2 óliv] Fr, fr Lat oliva, 'olive tree, olive', also olea, fr Gk elaia, 'the olive tree', the tree was introduced to Italy by the Greeks, connected w oleum See oil 1 a (bot) An evergreen tree, belonging to the genus Olea, usually applied to Olea europaea, wild or cultivated, a native of the Mediterranean coast, the leaves are oblong, greyish green with silvery underside, the fruit is an oval drupe, and the flowers grow in small white panicles a crown, wreath, of wild olive, given as a prize to the victors in the games in ancient Greece, b the fruit of the cultivated olive, yellowish green in colour when unripe and so pickled in brine as a relish, usually purplish black when ripe, and yielding by pressure olive oil, c the wood of the olive tree 2 Thin slice of meat rolled and stuffed with chopped olives and other seasoning (usually in pl) beef, veal, olives. 3 An oval button or fastening 4 Olive colour olive (II), adj, fr prec Of the colour of the unripe fruit of the olive, varying from a pale yellowish green to a brownish yellow olive brown, greenish brown, olive green, brownish green olive branch, n 1 A branch of the olive with its leaves, the symbol of peace in ancient Greece Phr to hold out the olive branch, to make overtures for peace 2 (usually pl, fig, often facet) Children, offspring, often in pl, fr Ps cxxxvii 4 (Prayer Book) olive oil, n A clear, pale yellow, non-drying oil obtained by pressure from the ripe fruit of the cultivated olive tree, used in cookery, salads, as a medicine, as a lubricant, and in the manufacture of toilet soap &c

Oliver (I), n [1 óliver, 2 ólvæ] fr Fr Oliver (cap.) One of Charlemagne's peers, a friend of Roland oliver (II), n Etymol unknown A small tilt-hammer used by blacksmiths or other metal workers, worked by a treadle olive shell, n A gastropod mollusc of the tropics, with a highly polished oval shell olivet, n [1 ólvet, 2 ólvet] Fr olive olive & -et A small oval shaped imitation pearl olive wood, n A hard, close grained, yellowish-green wood, from the olive tree, delicately variegated and taking a high polish, used in ornamental carpentry olivine, n [1 ólvēn, 2 ólvīn] Fr olive & -ino (mineral) Chrysolite of an olive-green colour a semi precious stone, used in jewellery, also called peridot olla podrida, n [1 ólya podrida, 2 ólyapodrida] Span, lit 'rotten pot', cp olio, second element cogn w putrid 1 A favourite Spanish dish consisting of various meats, cut up, mixed with vegetables, and stewed in an earthen pot 2 A miscellany, medley, hotchpotch, an olio, q v ology, n [1 óloj, 2 óladzj] Abstracted fr geology, biology &c (humorous or colloq, usually pl) The arts and sciences, branches of learning a smalling of all the ologies

Olympiad, n [1 ólmpiad, 2 ólmpiad] fr Lat Olympiad (em), Olympias, fr Gk Olympiada-(os), Olympiás See Olympic (Gk anat) A period of four years, reckoned inclusively from one celebration of the Olympic games to another, and so used by Greek chronologists and historians in dating events, beginning from 776 B.C., the first year of the first Olympiad

Olympian (I), adj [1 ólímpian, 2 ólímpien] L Lat Olympiōn-(us), 'belonging to Olympus or Olympia' 1 Of pertaining to, Olympus, the fabled dwelling-place of the greater ancient gods of Greece Olympian gods, Olympian Zeus &c. 2. a Befitting the Olympian gods, lofty, magnificent, stately an Olympian nod, b (ironical) affecting magnificent aloofness of bearing, condescending as from an infinite height of superiority 3. Of, pertaining to, Olympia, Olympic, q v

Olympian (II), n, fr prec 1 A dweller on Olympus, one of the great gods of ancient Greece 2 A stately, awe-inspiring person, one himself famous and belonging to an august assembly

Olympic, adj [1 ólímpik; 2 ólímpik] Lat Olympicus, fr Gk Olympiós, 'of, pertaining to, Olympia' Of, pertaining to, Olympia, a plain in Elis, ancient Greece, so called from the festival held there every four years in honour of Olympian Zeus, at which prizes in games, poetry, and music were awarded to competitors from the whole of Greece, a general peace being proclaimed Olympic Games, a contests in various athletic exercises, chariot, horse-racing &c held at the Olympic festival, b a modern revival of these for international competitors begun in 1900 at Athens

Olympus, n [1 ólímpus, 2 ólímpas] Lat, fr Gk Olympos (cap) 1 The name of many mountains in ancient European and Asiatic Greece, esp of a lofty mountain in Thessaly, which was fabled to be the dwelling-place of the greater gods 2 A celestial abode, heaven om, interj [1 om, 2 om] Sort A myetho monosyllable equivalent to Amen, used in Hindu and Buddhist worship

-oma, suff [1 óma, 2 ómæ] fr Gk -ōma, -ōmatos, as termination of noun is, used in pathol to indicate a diseased condition glaucoma &c omadhsun, n [1 omadhawn, 2 omadhōn] Ir amadán A fool, idiot, simpleton, a stupid, awkward lout, an oaf omasum, n [1 ómasum, 2 ómæssum] Lat omāsum, 'bullock's tripe', origin obscure (anat, zool) The third stomach of a ruminant animal ombre, n [1 ómber, 2 ómbæ] Span, fr juego del hombre, lit 'the man's game', hombre, 'man', fr Lat homin-, dat of homo, 'man' See homage & human An old game of cards, played by three persons, fashionable in 17th and 18th cents ombro-, pref, fr Gk ōmbros, 'ram', cogn w Gk apros, 'foam', Lat imber, 'shower of rain', Sort abdrām, 'cloud, mist', see imbricate, the full form of the base was enebh*, whence Lat nebula, see nebula ombrograph, n [1 ombrogrāf, 2 ombrogrāf] Prec & -graph A rain-gauge, which automatically records the amount of rain fallen ombrology, n [1 ombroloj, 2 ombrolōdzj] ombro- & -logy That branch of meteorology which deals with rain and rain ll ombrometer, n [1 ombrometer, 2 ombromētr] See prec & -meter A rain-gauge omega, n [1 ómega, ómega, 2 ómega, ómega] Gk ō mega, 'the great, long o' The last letter of the Greek alphabet=δ, the end or conclusion alpha and omega, the beginning and the end omelette, omelet, n [1 ómlet, 2 ómæt] Fr omelette, earlier amelette, amelette, for earlier alemette, fr alemette, 'thin knife blade, thin plate', prob for lamelle, by wrong division of the article, fr Lat lamella, 'thin plate of metal', dimin of lāmīna, 'plate' See laminated Eggs beaten up and fried, and served with various flavourings every omelette, with chopped herbs, sweet omelet, with jam &c Phr you cannot make omelette without breaking eggs (translation of a French phrase), you cannot do anything without taking trouble or making some sacrifice omen (I), n [1 ómén, 2 ómēn] Lat ōmen, earlier venēth, etymol doubtful; of the various suggestions Walde prefers that it assumes early ōmēn*, & connects the word w Gk oiomai, fr ōmēn*, 'believe' An occurrence which indicates that something is about to happen; a portent, warning, of things to come, augury of good, bad, omen, foretelling good or bad news omen (II), vb trans, fr prec (poet or rhet) To foreshow, portend, to give warning of the clouds omen rain, ill-omened, having bad omens, inauspicious omental, adj [1 ómēntal, 2 ómēntāl] See next word & -al. Of, relating to, the omentum omentum, n, pl omenta [1 ómēntum, 2 ómēntum, -ta] Lat, 'membrane which encloses the bowels'; origin obscure (anat) The fatty fold of the peritoneum enclosing the intestines &c, and connecting them with other viscera ominous, adj [1 óminus, óminus, 2 óminas, óminas] Lat ominosus See omen (I) & -ous Full of omens, or forebodings, portentous, significant, usually of evil tidings or events ominously, adv Prec & -ly With evil omens, in a way which portends ill ominousness, n See prec & -ness Quality, fact, of being ominous omissible, adj [1 ómisibl; 2 ómisibill] fr Lat omiss (um), PP type of omit, 'to omit' See omit & -ible Capable of being omitted, to be left out if necessary or required omission, n [1 ómishun, 2 ómishā] fr Lat omission (em), omiss-, as prec See omit & -ion The act of omitting, of leaving out, or undone, that which is omitted, neglect, failure to do something required, non-performance, non-inclusion or insertion omissive, adj [1 ómisiv, 2 ómisiv] See prec & -ive Omitting, failing to perform or include omit, vb trans [1 ómīt, 2 ómīt] fr Lat omittere for ob mittere, ob- & mittere, 'to let go, send', see mission 1 To neglect, fail to do or perform, to leave undone to omit doing or to do 2 To leave out, fail to include this part of the book may be omitted omni-, pref Combining form fr Lat omnis, 'all, every', etymol doubtful A few unsatisfactory suggestions have been made, eg that omni is for earlier obnis*, fr ob-, w development of meaning unexplained, or that the word is cogn w Lat ops, 'wealth' (see opulent), involving difficulties both in form & in meaning As first element of a compound, indicates that the action, or existence expressed by the second, affects all things, everything, is present in all places, is performed for all omnibus, n & adj [1 ómnibus, 2 ómnibēs] pl omnibuses, abbr bus, q v Lat, 'for all people, for everyone', dat pl of Lat omnis (see prec), name first used in France for a public vehicle, c 1828, & adopted by Shillbeer for the first London omnibus, 1829 1 n a Large, wheeled, closed vehicle, with seats inside and often outside, licensed to ply for hire on specified routes for the conveyance of passengers, formerly drawn by horses, now usually driven by a motor engine, b somewhat similar, but smaller, vehicle belonging to a hotel, or to a private person, for the conveyance of passengers and luggage to and from a railway, hotel &c 2 adj Used for, embracing, a variety of purposes, persons, items &c, inclusive, omnibus bar, one of the principal bars or conductors carrying an electric current, omnibus bill, clause, proposal, one which includes various measures &c, omnibus box, a box at an opera house or theatre which has room for a large number of persons omniscient, adj [1] omniskopentent, 2 omniskopentent omni- & scient (law) Having competence or jurisdiction in every matter omniscientious, adj [1] omniskientious, 2 omniskientious Lat omniskientious, 'of all sorts and kinds', omni- & scientious, cp fās, 'nterance, law', fr base fā, 'to speak' See fable, fame Treating of, concerned with, all sorts of subjects omniscientious knowledge, reading &c omniparity, n [1] omniparity, 2 omniparity omni- & parity Parity in everything, equality in all things or for all omnipotence, n [1] omnipotens, 2 omnipotens Fr, fr L Lat omnipotentia See next word & -ce a State, quality, of being omnipotent, universal, infinite power, b the Almighty God omnipotent, adj [1] omnipotent, 2 omnipotent, fr Lat omnipotent(em) See omni- & potent (I) 1 Able to do, having power and authority over, all things, all powerful, almighty 2 (as n) The Omnipotent, Almighty God omnipotently, adv Prec & -ly In an omnipotent manner, all powerfully omnipresence, adj [1] omnipresens, 2 omnipresens omni- & presens State, quality, of being omnipresent, ubiquity omnipresent, adj [1] omnipresent, 2 omnipresent omni- & present Present everywhere, present in all places at the same time, as God, ubiquitous omniscience, n [1] omniscientia, 2 omniscientia omni- & science Quality of being omniscient, infinite knowledge, as of God, universal knowledge omniscient, adj [1] omniscient, omniscient, 2 omniscient, omniscient See prec & -ent 1 Possessing infinite knowledge, all knowing, as God, possessing or claiming to possess, universal or vast knowledge or learning 2 (as n) The Omniscient, God omnisciently, adv Prec & -ly In an omniscient manner, all knowingly, with universal or very vast learning omnium, n [1] omnium, 2 omnium Lat, 'of all', gent pl of omnis, 'all', see omni- Sum total, esp the aggregate value of different stocks in which a loan is funded omnium gatherum, n [1] omnium gatherum, 2 omnium gatherum Humorously coined fr prec & gather A miscellaneous, haphazard collection, assembly, of things or persons omnivorous, adj [1] omnivorus, 2 omnivorus, fr Lat omnivorus, 'all devouring', fr omni- & vorus See voracious 1 Eating everything of animals which eat both animal and vegetable food, both carnivorous and herbivorous 2 (fig) Assimilating everything omnivorous reader omnivorously, adv Prec & -ly (chiefly fig) In an omnivorous manner, voraciously omo- (I), pref fr Gk omos, 'the shoulder', cogn w Scrt dmā, 'shoulder', Lat umerus (see humerus), Goth ams, 'shoulder' omo- (II), pref, fr Gk omos, 'raw', Scrt amā, 'uncooked, unripe', cp Lat amarus, 'bitter' omophagin, n [1] omofagia, 2 omofagidz Gk omo- (II) & base of phagēin, 'to eat' See -phagous Habit of eating raw flesh omophagic, omophagous adj [1] omofagik, omofagus, 2 omofagidz omofagias Prec & -ic & -ous Eating raw flesh omoplate, n [1] omoplat, 2 omoplat Gk omoplat fr omo- (I) & plāt 'blade', cp plate The shoulder blade, scapula omphal(o)-, pref fr Gk omphalos, 'the navel', cogn w Lat umbilicus, 'navel', see umbilicus, OE nafela, see navel, Scrt nābhā, O Prussian nabū, 'navel', the Aryan base would be onbh-, nōbh- &c Omphal-, of, relating to, the umbilicus or navel, cord, omphalitis, inflammation of the umbilicus, omphalocoele, navel hernia omphalus, n [1] omfalus, 2 omfalus Gk omphalos, same word as prec, secondary meaning, 'boss on a shield', from its shape 1 (Gk antq) A round, circular object, as the boss on a shield, specif, the circular or comical altar at Delphi which marked the supposed centre or hub of the earth 2 (by transf) A centre, hub on (I), prep [1] on, 2 on OE an, on, expressing a position in, among, b motion into, onto, c time during, in, d instrumentality by means of, by, e composition of, f hostility against, g change into, ME on, OS an, OHG ana, Goth ana, ON a(n), cogn w Gk and, see ana-, see also a- 1 (expressing position) Supported by, placed, lying upon, covering, another object, upon a carpet on the floor, his hat on his head, on the roof of the house, on the surface of the water, to fall on one's feet, knees &c, turn on a pivot, hang a picture on the wall 2 (after vbs) Expressing motion, towards, and resting at, upon, a particular position or object hit him on the head, to lay one's hands on his head, to put one's boots on one's feet, to jump on the top of, throw it on the table 3 Connected with, employed in on the town council, on duty, go on an errand, to be on the Stock Exchange 4 Near to, close to, in the direction of, towards a house on the river, on the near side of the road, on your right hand 5 As expressing the ground or reason for on no account, on his authority, guarantee &c, on purpose 6 Expressing or specifying time, or occasion, when, or at which, something takes place on Tuesday week, on reaching home, on thinking the matter over 7 Cooccurring, relating to, about talk on many subjects, have doubts on the subject, write a book on Chaucer, congratulate you on a success 8 Expressing manner, state, or condition on sale, on fire, on the cheap, on the quiet on (II), adv See prec Defining action of verbs, in such a position as to be in contact with, covering, supported by, or in any state expressed by the preposition on 1 As contrasted with off to keep one's hat on, put your coat on 2 (after vbs of motion) Forward to more, go, press on 3 Expressing continuance of action go on talking, play on, sleep on, and so on, as before, et cetera 4 In course of performance, in being, functioning the new play, the battle, is now on, breakfast is on from 8 to 10, the light is full on, burning, illuminating, at full power Phrs on and off, now and then, not continuously, on and on, without stopping, continuously on (III), adj, fr prec 1 (onset, contrasted with off) Towards, from or on that side of the field behind the batsman as he stands to play, leg the on side. 2 (slang) Slightly intoxicated a bit on on (IV), n, fr prec (onset) The oo or leg side of the field onager, n [1] ouager, 2 ouager learned Lat pl. onagri, Lat, fr Gk onagros, fr onos, 'as' (an eastern loan word, cp asinine), & agros, 'wild' (fr agros, 'field', q v under acre) The Asiatic wild ass of Persia, Baluchistan &c, with a broad brown white edged stripe along the back.

onanism, n [1] onanizm, 2 onanizm fr Onan, in Gen xxxviii 9, & -ism. Sin of Onan, self abuse once (I), adv [1] unus, 2 unus OE ānes, ME ones, advl gent, fr ān, 'one' See one 1 On a single occasion, on one occasion only he did, he read &c it once, but once a year once every day &c Phrs more than once, several times, once and again, once or twice, once in a way, now and again, occasionally, rarely, once for all, once and once only, finally, once bitten twice shy, one learns wisdom by experience, not once (has he kept his promises, &c), never 2 a At one time, formerly, on a certain occasion in the past I once went round the world, there once lived a man, I was very fond of him once, Phr once upon a time, on a certain occasion in the past, formerly, b at some time or other in the future I should like to see him once before I go, Phrs once again, once more, again, on another occasion, at once, immediately, without delay do it at once, at the same time at once cold and hot, all at once, (i) suddenly, (u) all together, all at the same time once (II), conj, fr prec (with ellipsis of if, when) As soon as, whenever once you give him a chance, he'll bolt, once you hesitate you are lost once (III), n, fr once (I) One occasion, one time do it this once, for once oncer, n [1] wunser, 2 wānsa once & -er (colloq, facet) One who does a thing, esp something obligatory, once, specif, a Scottish Presbyterian who goes to church only once a year on-coming, adj & n [1] on kumng, 2 on kamng 1 adj Coming on, approaching 2 n An approach on dit, n [1] on dē, 2 5 dī Fr, 'it is said, they say' A report, rumour, piece of news or gossip merely an on dit ondograph, n [1] ondograhf, 2 ondograhf, fr Fr onde, Lat unda, 'wave', see undulate, & -graph (elect) Instrument for recording variations in waves in alternating currents ondometer, n [1] ondōmeter, 2 ondōmētr See prec & -meter (elect) Wave meter ondoyant, adj [1] ondwāyahān, 2 ōdwāyā Fr, Pres Part of ondoyer, 'to wave', fr onde, Lat unda, 'wave', see undulate Wavy, of surface of materials such as glass, milk one (I), adj [1] unus, 2 wan OE ān, 'one', ME oon, ōn, OHG en, OS ēn, Goth ans, ON enn, cogn w Lat unus for earlier oinos, cp Gk ōnē, 'the ace', on dice See also a, an Soch a spelling as won(e) &c appears as early as the 15th cent, & implies a type similar to our own The other type [ōn] survived into 17th cent, & still exists in only, alone, atone 1 a (of numerals) Of, pertaining to, the cardinal number denoting unity, counted by the first integer, of the number less than two, single worth one pound, one pair of boots, one idea in his head, b (after other numerals) forty one, one and forty &c, c as equivalent to the ordinal number first book one, chapter one 2 a Forming a single whole or unity, undivided though of different races they formed one people, with one accord, 'my Father and I are one' Phrs to be made one, be married, it is all one (to me what you do &c), is indifferent, b denoting a single, but not clearly defined, person or thing, some, a certain one day I will pay you, c expressing contrast, difference, or opposition from one end of the street to the other, if I said one thing, B was sure to say another, d single, only the one thing needful, there is but one way to do it, no one man could do it one (II), n See prec 1 (of numerals) a The first whole number or integer, a single unit the number one, scored twenty all in ones, b the symbol denoting this, 1, c house, room, so numbered live at No 1 in Black Street, Phrs number one, oneself he always thought first of number one 2 A particular, single, individual person or thing he is the one I mean, the great ones of the earth, one of the best appointments which could have been made, will meet you at one, one o'clock, one and six, one shilling and sixpence Phrs one Brown, one another, mutually, reciprocally, one with another, on the whole, generally one (III), indef pron See prec 1 A certain person or thing one came running, also in combination anyone, everyone someone, no one 2 Impersonal use, equivalent to it or, Germ, man, any body, any person indefinitely, including the speaker one must observe the rules, if one wants a thing done, one had best do it oneself, one must admit, it must be admitted 3 (affected and precious) Referring to the speaker, I one is rather busy just now, one is glad to have seen you, one was only too pleased to help one-, pref representing one (I), in combination w adjs

-one, suff [1 ɔn, 2 ɔwn], fr Gk adj suff -ōnē, used in chemistry to indicate that the substance belongs to the isotone group, e.g. acetone one-eyed, adj Having a single eye one-horse(d), adj [1 wun hɔrs(t), 2 wán hɔs(t)] Drawn by, adapted for, a single horse, of a single horse-power, (colloq) of poor, inferior quality a one horse kind of show one-idea'd, adj Having a single idea, obsessed by one object or purpose oneirumancy, n [1 ɔnɪrómánsi, 2 ɔundɪrɔumánsi], fr Gk ónēro(s), 'a dream', cognates of wh appear to exist only in Armenian & Albanian & throw no light on origin, & -mancy, op Gk oneirumantis, 'interpreter of dreams' Divination, prophecy, by interpretation of dreams oneirumantio, adj [1 ɔnɪrómántik, 2 ɔundɪrɔumántik] See preo & -io Of, pertaining to, oneirumancy oneness, n [1 wúnnes, 2 wúnnis] one (I) & -ness State, quality, of being one, unity, union, singleness, singularity oner, n [1 wúnɔr, 2 wáne] one & -er (slang) Some person or thing that is out of the way, or is to be singled out for size or other special quality he's a oner at pitching a yarn, caught him a oner on the head, told a oner, thumping him onerous, adj [1 ɔnɔrus, 2 ɔnɔres], fr O Fr onerus, Mod Fr onéreux, fr Lat onerōsus, fr oner, stem of onus, 'burden, load', etymol doubtful, possibly cogn w Sort onós, 'waggon' See onus 1 Burdensome, troublesome 2 a Specif (law) entailing legal obligations, b (Scots law) given for valuable consideration, as contrasted with gratuitous onerously, adv Preo & -ly In an onerous manner onerousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being onerous oneself, pron [1 wúnself, 2 wánsself] one (III) & self 1 Reflexive form of indefinite pronoun one to see oneself as others see one, to hurt oneself 2 Emphatic form of indefinite one there are some things one can't do for oneself, implying that others should do them one-sided, adj 1 Having only one side 2 Learning, inclining, to one side, unequally balanced, lop-sided 3 (fig) a Scolding, understanding, admitting, only one side in an argument, dispute, proposition &c, prejudiced, b having a narrow range of knowledge, intellectual interests, accomplishments &c 4 a Taking into account, derived from, only one group of facts, to the exclusion of others, biased a one-sided judgement, b based on insufficient data, ignoring certain factors and considerations a one-sided argument oneyer, n [1 wúnɔr, 2 wánɔ] one & -yer Archaic variant of oner onfall, n [1 ɔnfawl, 2 ɔnfɔl] An attack, assault ongoing(s), n, usually pl [1 ɔngɔɪŋ(z), 2 ɔngɔɪŋ(z)] n Proceedings, events, b strange or uncalled for behaviour onion, n [1 ɔnɪən, 2 ɔnɪən], fr Fr oignon, fr Lat ūnīōn (em), 'oneness, unity, a large pearl, country name for an onion', fr ūnus, 'one', q v under one, & -ion a Hardy bulbous plant, Allium, having in all its parts a characteristic and pungent taste and smell, cultivated for its edible bulb, b bulb of the onion plant, used as a vegetable, for pickling and, above all, as a flavouring in cookery Onion couch, grass, or twitch, a variety of wild oat, onion fly, an insect whose larvae feed on and destroy onion bulbs on-licence, n [1 ɔn lɪsɛns, 2 ɔn lɪsɛns] A licence to a publican to sell intoxicating liquor to be consumed only on the premises onlooker, n [1 ɔnlɔkɔr, 2 ɔnlɔks] A looker on, spectator only, adj, adv, & conj. [1 ɔnlɪ, 2 ɔvnlɪ] O E ānlic, 'unique, single', fr ān, see one, & lic, see -like & -ly 1 adj a Single, sola, alone in its class an only child, the only book on the subject, (also pl) all the persons or things in particular category they were the only people present, the only things that matter, Phr one and only, unique, b the best of its class, pre eminent our only statesman, 'molley's the only wear' 2 adv In one manner, in no other way, at no other time, solely, merely, exclusively I only did it for his benefit, I can only speak of what I know, it is only right that you should know, Phrs only just (as intons) only just in time, barely, with a narrow margin, only just got out of bed, but now, just this moment &c, am only too pleased to, very pleased, if only (expressing a fervent wish), if only he would stop talking! 3 conj Except (that), were it not (that) I would do it with pleasure, only I am too busy!

onomatopoeia, n [1 ɔnomatɔpɔi, 2 ɔnomatɔpɪ] Lat, fr Gk onomatoposia, fr ónoma (os), ónoma, 'name' (cogn w Lat nōmen, see name), & poiein, 'to make', see poesy & poet a (philol) The formation of words by imitation of natural sounds associated with the object named, as bow-wow, a dog, cuckoo &c, buzz, of bees, b a word so formed onomatopoeic(al), adj [1 ɔnomatɔpɔik(l), 2 ɔnomatɔpɪk(l)] Preo & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, onomatopoeia, imitative, echoic onomatopoeically, adv. Preo & -ly In an imitative way or manner onrush, n [1 ɔnrʌʃ, 2 ɔnrʌʃ] A strong, forward rush (of troops &c), onward flow (of water &c) onset, n [1 ɔnsɛt, 2 ɔnsɛt], fr Phr 'to set on' 1 Attack, assault 2 Beginning, start onslaught, n [1 ɔnslɔwt, 2 ɔnslɔt] Etymol doubtful, prob ad fr Du aanslag, 'an attempt', op Germ anschlag, 'stroke', fr an, 'on', schlag, 'blow, stroke'. See this base under slay, the termination has been influenced by slaughter An assault, onset, a vehement, furious attack, whether by physical action or in words onto-, pref Combining form, fr Gk ónōs, ón, 'being', part of einai, 'to be', op esse, signifying relation either w a being or individual, or w being or existence ontogenesis, n [1 ɔntɔjɛnɪs, 2 ɔntɔudjɛnɪs] Preo & genesis (biol) Origin, evolution, development, of an individual organism, ontogeny, as contrasted with phylogenesis, which is concerned with a class or group ontogenetic, adj [1 ɔntɔjɛnɛtɪk, 2 ɔntɔudjɛnɛtɪk] onto- & -genetic Of, pertaining to, ontogenesis ontogenetically, adv [1 ɔntɔjɛnɛtɪkəl, 2 ɔntɔudjɛnɛtɪkəl] Preo & -al & -ly According to ontogenesis ontogeny, n [1 ɔntɔjɛni, 2 ɔntɔdʒɛni] See ontogenesis & -y Ontogenesis ontological, adj [1 ɔntɔlɔjɪkəl, 2 ɔntɔulɔdʒɪkəl] onto- & -logical (philos) Of, pertaining to, ontology or the metaphysical nature of being, or existence, as snch ontological speculations, theories &c ontologically, adv Preo & -ly (philos) By way, means, of ontology, in reference to the nature of being ontologism, n [1 ɔntɔlɔjɪzəm, 2 ɔntɔlɔdʒɪzəm] See ontology & -ism (philos) A system of metaphysics based on the nature of being, or existence, regarded abstractly or as such ontology, n. [1 ɔntɔlɔj, 2 ɔntɔlɔdʒɪ] onto- & -logy (philos) That branch of metaphysics which treats of the nature of being, or existence, regarded abstractly or as snch onus, n, only in sing [1 ɔnəs, 2 ɔvnəs] Lat, 'burden, weight', Sort anás, 'cart for carrying heavy weights', Gk anós, 'burdensome', perh also Goth ans, 'beam' Cp. onerous A burden, obligation, responsibility, charge, esp (law) onus probandi, the burden of proof, the responsibility of proving a statement, charge &c, which lies on the person who made it onward, adj [1 ɔnward, 2 ɔnward] on & -ward Moving towards the front, or in direction of specified object or aim, going forward, advancing onward movement, onward progress onward(s), adv [1 ɔnward(z), 2 ɔnward(s)] on & -ward, -s, advbl govt a Forward, forwards, to the front, in an advanced position to move onward, to lie farther onward, b (as command) go forward, advance!

onwardly, adv. Preo & -ly (rare) With an onward or forward movement onyx, n [1 ɔnɪks, ɔnɪks, 2 ɔvnɪks, ɔnɪks] Lat, fr Gk ónux, ónukhos, 'nail, claw, the onyx', the latter meaning coming fr the resemblance in appearance to the fingernail, cogn w Lat unguis See ungual & op nail. A variety of chalcedony or agate, with black and white streaks, used as a gem stone, for cameos &c oo-, pref Form used in compounds fr Gk oión, 'egg', cogn w Lat ovum, op ovi- & ovo- & ae ovum & egg, used in bot & zool terms ooecium, n [1 ɔiʃiəm, 2 ɔiʃiəm] oo- & Gk oikos, 'house'. See first element in oecology (zool) A pouch or sac in certain polyzoa which contains the ova oof, n [1 ɔf, 2 ɔf] Abbr of Yiddish (Germ -Jew) oofsch, for Germ auf dem tische, 'on the table' = money down (vulg slang) Money, the oof-bird, a wealthy person oofy, adj [1 ɔfɪ, 2 ɔfɪ] Preo & -y (slang) Having lots of money, rich oogamous, adj [1 ɔɔgəmus, 2 ɔvɔgəmus] oo- & -gamous (biol) Having reproductive cells differentiated by sex, heterogamous oogenesis, n [1 ɔɔjɛnɪs, 2 ɔvɔdʒɛnɪs] oo- & genesis (biol) Formation of the ovum, preparatory to fertilization and development oolite, n [1 ɔlɪt, 2 ɔvɔlɪt], fr Fr oolithe, fr oo- & Gk lithos, 'stone', see -lite 1 A granular form of limestone, consisting of small grains of carbonate of lime, closely cemented together and resembling in appearance the roe of fish 2 (geol, cap) A series of fossil-bearing oolitic rocks, lying above the Lias in the Jurassic system oolitic, adj [1 ɔlɪtɪk, 2 ɔvɔlɪtɪk] Preo & -ic Formed of oolite, belonging to the Oolite oological, adj [1 ɔɔlɔjɪkəl, 2 ɔvɔlɔdʒɪkəl] oo- & -logical Of, pertaining to, oology or birds' eggs an oological collection oologist, n [1 ɔɔlɔjɪst, 2 ɔvɔlɔdʒɪst] See next word & -ist A student of oology, a collector of birds' eggs oology, n [1 ɔɔlɔj, 2 ɔvɔlɔdʒɪ] oo- & -logy Study of birds' eggs oolong, oolong, n [1 ɔlɔlɔŋ, 2 ɔlɔlɔŋ] Chia wu lung, 'black dragon' A variety of China tea

-oon, suff (strongly stressed), used in Engl for Fr suff -oon, or Ital one, as balloon, dragon, soloon &c, thus being orig fr Lat acc -ōn (em), of ns in -o oont, n [1 ɔont, 2 ɔnt] (Anglo-Indian along) Camel oosperm, n [1 ɔɔspɛrm, 2 ɔvɔspɛrm] oo- & sperm (I) (zool) A fertilized ovum oospore, n [1 ɔɔspɔr, 2 ɔvɔspɔ] oo- & spore (bot) A fertilized spore ooze (I), n [1 ɔz, 2 ɔz] O E wē, 'sap, juice', first meaning influenced by the unrelated uise, 'mire, mud, dirt' 1 Liquid mud, slum, esp in sea- or river-bottom 2 The liquor used in tanning leather ooze (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A in trans 1 To flow slowly out, to drip, percolate, to issue from or through a substance the water is oozing through my shoes, blood oozes from a wound 2 Ooze with, to exude books ooze with water, wound oozes with blood 3 (fig) a To leak out secrets began to ooze out, b to ebb away his courage was rapidly oozing away B trans To give out by oozing books ooze water, wound oozes blood oozily, adv [1 ózali, 2 úzili] oozy & -ly In an oozy manner ooziness, n [1 ózines, 2 úzines] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being oozy, sliminess, muddiness oozy, adj [1 ózi, 2 úzi] ooze (I) & -y Slimy, muddy, dripping with, exuding, moisture op-, pref Variant of ob-, used before -p opacity, n [1 ópáiti, 2 ópáisti], fr Fr opacité, fr Lat opacitas (em), 'darkness' See opaque & -ity State, quality, of being opaque, reverse of transparency or translucency, a obscurity, darkness, b (fig) obscurity, dullness, of mind, obscurity of meaning opal, n [1 ópah, 2 ópá] Native W Afr name A large marine fish of brilliant colours, Lampris, of the Atlantic Ocean, also called king fish, moon- or sun fish opal, n [1 ópl, 2 ópúl], fr Fr opale, fr Lat opulus, Gk opallios, cogn w Scrt upala, 'stone, gem stone' 1 A gem stone, consisting of silica containing a percentage of water, characterized by iridescent colours, the common opal having a pearly or milk-white appearance, the fire opal being darker and having flame-coloured iridescence 2 Opaline or opal glass opalescence, n [1 ópalesens, 2 ópalesáns] Prec & -escence State, quality, of being opalescent, iridescence opalescent, adj [1 ópalesent, 2 ópalesént] See prec & -escent Having the appearance of the opal, iridescent, reflecting a pearly light shot with different colours opaline, n & adj [1 ópalin, 2 ópálin] opal & -ine 1 n A kind of semi translucent, opalescent glass, opal glass 2 adj Opalescent opalize, vb trans [1 ópaliz, 2 ópáliz] opal & -ize To make opalescent opaque, adj [1 ópák, 2 ópák] Earlier opake, also opacous, fr Lat opacus, 'shady, dark', etymol unknown, present form fr Fr 1 Not allowing light to pass through, not transparent or translucent, impervious to rays of light 2 Dark, obscure, stupid, dense opaquely, adv Prec & -ly In opaque fashion, obscurely, darkly opaqueness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being opaque, opacity, darkness, obscurity ope, adj, vb trans & intrans [1 óp, 2 óup] Shortened form of open (poet) a adj Open 'a casement ope of night' (Keats, 'Ode to Psyche'), b vb, to open open (I), adj [1 ópen, 2 óupen] OE & ME open, Common Gmc, OS opan, OHG offon, ON opinn, op Du aaben, Germ offen, cogn w up, the orig sense is 'lifted, raised up', as the lid of a box or latch of a door 1 a Not shut or closed, in state which permits entrance or exit an open door, window, open box, drawer &c, with open eyes, mouth, to throw, leave, a door d.c. open, Phrs to keep one's eyes or ears open, to be watchful and alert, to keep one's mouth open, to be greedy, b specif (phon) on open consonant, ooe produced without complete closure of air passage, e.g. [s, z, f, v, p b] &c, contrasted with stop(ped) consonant, c not enclosed or fenced in the open country an open road, open fields open-field system (see below), d not barred or blocked the open sea, not closed in by land, contrasted with a bay or harbour, an open river, not barred by ice, the enemy had left this line of advance open, e not covered in or over on open boat, carriage, motor car, open drain, sewer, in the open air, out of doors, open string, one of the strings of violin &c when played without pressure by the finger, f unfolded, spread out, expanded, extended an open flower, with open wings, an open book, (also fig) his mind was an open book, to be read by all, open order, (of troops) extended order Phrs with open hand, generously, liberally, (to welcome) with open arms, cordially, affectionately, enthusiastically, g not healed over an open wound, Phr an open sore, (fig) a standing abuse, disgrace &c 2 Not shut against, a accessible to all or to the public generally by right in open court, open spaces, enjoyed by the public and not built on or enclosed, b not barred by tolls, taxes, or customs, free an open port, harbour, Phr the open door, policy of free trade or freedom from restrictive tariffs, c free to all, without qualifications or restrictions o career open to talent, open scholarship, at a university, one not confined to boys from a particular school, open competition, championship, not confined to special clubs, either for amateurs or professionals Phr open shop, (U.S.A.) a trade or business in which both union and non union workmen are employed 3 Free, a liberal, generous open hands, to keep open house, offer hospitality freely to all comers, b not prejudiced or bigoted, not closed to argument, accessible to new ideas an open mind, open to persuasion, c free to be argued and debated, not decided an open question, to leave the matter open, Phr an open verdict, that of a coroner's jury recording the fact and cause of a death, but not attributing it specifically to accident, suicide, or murder, d not settled, closed, or finished to keep one's account open at a bank, open chances, the match seems to be a very open one, e (1) free to be accepted or rejected to keep an offer open, to be open to an offer, (u) not already occupied or engaged situation, post, is still open, to keep a day open for a meeting, f not protected from attack, liable to be attacked, not defended an open town, open to injuries, abuse, temptation, Phr to lay oneself open to (attack, insinuations &c), render oneself liable, g free from the restrictions implied by close or closed open season, for shooting, fishing &c, open cheque, one that is not crossed and can be cashed at the bank on which it is drawn & Not hidden or disguised, a frank, not secretive an open character, to be frank and open about the matter, to be open with a person, on open countenance, one expressing a frank, open character, b not secret, known to all, undisguised open quarrel, enmity, an open secret, one known to everybody, open scandal, one that is flagrant and notorious 5 Ready for business, admission of the public, opened shop, theatre, exhibition, is now open open (II), n, fr prec Only in Phr the open, the open air to come into the open, not to keep secret or be secretive, to be quite frank, to disclose one's intentions &c open (III), vb trans & intrans OE openian See open (I) A trans 1 To make, cause to be, open, to unclose, unfasten to open a door, gate, window &c Phrs to open one's eyes, to express surprise, to open the eyes of (another) to, to undeceive, to inform him (of) 2 To make, cut, an opening in, make a passage for egress or ingress to open an access, to open a mine, shaft, well &c 3 To spread out, unfold, expand to open one's hand, open a book, letter &c Phr to open one's heart, mind, &c, to disclose one's feelings or thoughts to, to take into one's confidence 4 To render accessible for the public, to make ready, to throw, declare, open to open a park, Parliament, theatre &c, (special sense) to open a shop &c, set up, start, one 5 To begin, initiate to open an account at a bank, to open a debate, case in court, to open fire, begin to shoot 6 (naut) To obtain sight of by clearing an intervening object ship opens the harbour, as by clearing a headland &c 7 To free from restrictions to open a cheque, to leave it uncrossed 8 (followed by adv) Open out, to expand, unfold to open out the wings, open out one's arms to, to welcome heartily Open up, to lay, throw, open, as a wound, mine &c B intrans 1 a To be opened, become open, allow of being opened the book opens at p 20, the door opened at once, the door will only open inwards, b (1) to expand, unfold the buds are opening in the sun, (u) (fig) the mind of youth opens with each new experience 2 a To begin, start the story opens with a murder, b to begin business, start, or renew, activities Parliament opens today 3 To come into view, to be disclosed, unfold itself a wide prospect opened before us, (fig) a great career is opening for him 4 (followed by adv or prep) To open into, onto, out, to have an opening, passage, into &c the door opened into a smaller room, two rooms opening into each other, communicating by a door openable, adj [1 ópenabl, 2 óupenabl] open (I) & -able Able to be, capable of being, opened open-air, adj a Taking place, carried on, in the open air or out of doors, outdoor an open air life, open air treatment, for diseases such as consumption &c, b accustomed to, fond of, the open air an open-air person open-armed, adj With open arms, hearty, cordial an open-armed welcome, reception open-eared, adj Having the ears open, eager to listen, very attentive opener, n [1 ópener, 2 óupen] open (II) & -er One who, thing which, opens pen-opener, tin opener &c open-eyed, adj With open eyes, keeping the eyes wide open, watchful, vigilant, surprised open eyed attention, astonishment open-field, adj (hist) Of or characterized by a system (open field system) of agriculture in which the arable land is not enclosed, but is cultivated by the several tenants or commoners in strips and then pastured in common after harvest open-handed, adj With open hands, generous, liberal, lavish open-handedly, adv Prec & -ly Generously, liberally open-handedness, n See prec & -ness Generosity, liberality open-hearted, adj With open heart, frank, candid, kindly, generous open-heartedly, adv Prec & -ly Frankly, candidly open-heartedness, n See prec & -ness Frankness, candour open hearth, adj Of a system or process of steel making in an open or unenclosed hearth or reverberatory furnace opening, n [1 ópning, 2 óupnig] open & -ing 1 An aperture, gap, passage, for egress or ingress opening in a wall, fence &c 2 Beginning, commencement the opening of a speech, book, theatrical performance &c, the opening of a career 3 A chance, favourable opportunity an opening for trade, b chance of making a start in a career do you happen to know of a good opening for a reliable man?

openly, adv [1 ópnli, 2 óupnli] open (I) & -ly In an open manner, a without secrecy or concealment, frankly to speak quite openly to a person, b publicly, so as to be known to the world at large openly known for a scoundrel open-minded, adj Having an open mind, accessible to ideas, unprejudiced, liberal open-mindedly, adv Prec & -ly In an open minded way or manner open-mindedness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being open minded openness, n [1 ópness, 2 óupn(n)s] open (I) & -ness State, quality, of being open, a spaciousness, freedom from enclosure, b frankness, candour, c liberality of mind, lack of prejudice open-work(ed), adj [1 öpen wörk(t), 2 öpun wäkt(t)] Characterized by interstices or openings open-work lace, stockings opera (I), n [1 öpera, 2 öpara] Ital, fr Lat opera, n fem, 'service, labour, work, that which is done or produced, a work, composition' See opus A drama set to music, sung or recited to orchestral accompaniment, comic opera, one having a comic plot and characters, and spoken dialogue, grand opera, wholly sung, and usually having a tragic plot, light opera, of a lighter character than grand opera, but wholly sung or recited to music opera (II), n pl See opus opera-bouffe, n [1 öpera böf, 2 öpara böf] Fr opera-bouffe, fr Ital buffo, 'faricaal' Cp buffoon Faricaal, comic opera opera-cloak, n A lady's long, loose cloak for wearing with evening-dress at the theatre &c opera-glass(es), n Light binocular glasses, for use at the theatre opera-hat, n A tall hat of plain black silk, worn by men with evening-dress, made to fold flat, so as to take up very little space, a gibus opera-house, n Theatre built for opera operate, vb intrans & trans [1 öperät, 2 öperet] fr Lat operari (um), PP of operari, 'to work, labour, toil', fr oper-, stem of opus, 'work, labour' See opus & words there referred to A intrans 1 To carry out specific series of movements or processes, designed to achieve particular purpose, to work, to function machine operates by steam, his heart operates during sleep, his mind always operated slowly 2 To operate on, upon, a to act, produce physical effect upon different drugs operate on different bodily organs, b to exert an effect on the mind, to influence, persuade religious teaching operates powerfully on the young at an impressionable age 3 (surg) To perform a surgical operation we must operate at once, to operate on a limb &c 4 To carry on military operations or movements the army operated over a wide area B trans 1 To cause to work, set, keep, in operation to operate a machine 2 (in non-material sense, rare or obs) To direct, determine destiny operates our condition of life operative, adj [1 öperätäk, 2 öperätäk] Formed fr opera, on anal of dramatic. Connected with, of the nature of, taking part in, opera an operative performance, singer operatically, adv [1 öperätäkäl, 2 öperätäkäl] Prec & -al & -ly In an operative fashion, after the manner of an opera operating, adj [1 öperätäk, 2 öperätäk] fr Pres Part of operate (in various senses) operating surgeon, one who performs operations operating table, one specially adapted for performance of surgical operations, operating theatre, room in a hospital, with tiers of seats for students, where surgical operations are performed operation, n [1 öperäshun, 2 öperäshun] ME operacion, fr O Fr operacion, fr Lat operatio (em), 'a working, work, operation'. operate & -ion 1 A action, process of operating or working, activity the operations of nature, in operation, working, in action, effective, operative, to come into operation, to begin to be effective, to begin working, (also of mental processes), b effect, result, of a process "But that false fruit Far other operation first displayed" (Milton, "P L") 2 Act performed, transaction, in the way of business operations on the stock exchange, engaged in some mysterious operations 3 (mil and nav, often pl) Series of movements of troops or ships in execution of tactical or strategic plans 4 (spoon) Act performed by a surgeon upon any part of the body, whether consisting merely of manipulation, or involving cutting or removing diseased or injured tissue 5 (math) A change to be effected on quantities, such as multiplication, addition &c indicated by symbols operative (I), adj [1 öperätiv, 2 öperätiv] fr

Fr opératif, fr L Lat operativus, 'formative, creative' See operate & -ive 1 Operating, working, having force, acting, effective to become operative (of a law), operative words (in a legal document), operative dose of medicine 2 Consisting of a surgical operation operative treatment operative (II), n, fr prec 1 One who operates or works a machine 2 A worker in a factory where machinery is used, artisan, mill-hand collon operatives operatively, adv Prec & -ly So as to be operative, effectively operatize, vb trans [1 öperätiz, 2 öparatiz] opera & -ize, w -i, on anal of dramatize To make into an opera, to turn into operative form operator, n [1 öperäter, 2 öperäter] operate & -or 1 One who operates or works a machine a telephone operator 2 One who performs a surgical operation. 3 One who engages in financial or commercial operations opercular, adj [1 öperkülär, 2 öpäkjula] See operculum & -ar (zool) Pertaining to the operculum, or gill-cover of a fish opercular bones, the bony plates of the operculum operculate(d), adj [1 öperkülät(ed), 2 öpäkjulät(id)] See next word & -ate & -ed (zool) Furnished with an operculum, as fishes and certain molluscs operculum, n [1 öperkülum, 2 öpäkjulum] Lat, 'cover, lid', for opert-lom*, dimin fr opert-, PP type of opere, 'to cover, hide, conceal', fr ob- & par-, as in parere, 'to bear', & parare, 'to get ready' &c See pare 1 (zool) A the long gill cover of most fishes, b the lid-like process which closes the shell of certain gastropod molluscs when the animal withdraws inside the shell 2 (bot) The lid of the seed capsules in certain plants operetta, n [1 öperéta, 2 öparéta] Ital, dimin of opera A short light or comic opera opereuse, adj [1 öperüs, 2 öparous] fr Lat operosus, 'laborious', fr oper-, stem of opus, 'work' &c See opus & -ose (obs) Laborious, attained by toil or labour, busy, hard-working ophicleide, n [1 öfiklid, 2 öfiklaid] Fr ophicleide, fr Gk ophis, 'serpent' (see next word), & kleid (ós), kleis, 'key', cogn w Lat clavis, 'key', clavus, 'nail', see claviform A brass musical wind instrument, consisting of a long tube doubled back on itself, with a cup mouthpiece and finger keys ophidian, adj [1 öfidian, 2 öfidian] Comed fr Gk öphis, 'snake', & -ian, the d is due to anal of Gk dimin öphidion, 'a little snake' Gk öphis is fr base oghis*, cp the parallel base eghis* &c, whence Scrt ahis, 'serpent' (zool) Belonging to the division of reptiles, ophidia, which includes the snakes or serpents ophiolatry, n [1 öfiölatr, 2 öfiölatr] fr Gk öphis (s), 'snake', see prec, & -olatry, on anal of idolatry See -latry Serpent worship ophiomancy, n [1 öfiömansi, 2 öfiömansi] See prec & -mancy Divination by observation of movements &c of serpents ophite (I), n [1 öfit, 2 öfiat] Gk öphites, 'of, like, a snake', fr öphis, 'snake' (see ophidian), esp öphites lithos, 'a spotted kind of marble' (mineral) A rock resembling serpentine

Ophite (II), n Gk öphis, 'snake' (see prec), & -ite A sect of early Gnostic serpent worshippers ophthalmia, n [1 of-thal-mia, 2 of-thal-mia] L Lat, fr Gk ophthalmia, 'an inflammation of the eye', ophthalmos, 'the eye' See optic Inflammation of the eyes ophthalmic, adj [1 of-thal-mik, 2 of-thal-mik] fr Gk ophthalmikos Prec & -ic Pertaining to the eye ophthalmic arteries, disease, surgery &c ophthalmus, n [1 of-thal-mitus, 2 of-thal-mitus] See prec & -itus Ophthalmus ophthalmologist, n [1 of-thal-mölogist, 2 of-thal-mölogist] See prec & -logy & -ist One who studies ophthalmology ophthalmology, n [1 of-thal-mölogi, 2 of-thal-mölogi] See prec & -logy The science which deals with the eye, its anatomy, functions, and diseases ophthalmoscope, n [1 of-thal-mösköp, 2 of-thal-mösköp] See prec & -scope An instrument, consisting of a reflecting mirror, pierced centrally, used by oculists for examining the interior structure of the eye ophthalmoscopist, n [1 of-thal-mösköpi, 2 of-thal-mösköpi] Prec & -ist An oculist skilled in use of the ophthalmoscope ophthalmoscopy, n [1 of-thal-möskopi, 2 of-thal-möskopi] ophthalmoscope & -y The art of using the ophthalmoscope, examination of the interior structure of the eye by this instrument

-opia, suff, fr Gk öpis, öps, 'eye', wh is for ök-*, cogn w Lat oculus See ocular This suff indicates a state, condition, of the sight as myopia, nyctalopia &c opiate (I), adj [1 öpiät, 2 öpiät] Fr, fr Med Lat opiatum See opium (archaic or poet) Containing opium or an opiate, narcotic, sleep producing opiate (II), n, fr prec 1 A drug which contains opium or any of its derivatives, a narcotic 2 (fig) Anything which soothes or induces calmness or lethargy, anodyne opiate (III), vb trans [1 öpiät, 2 öpiät] fr prec (rare) To mix with, put under the influence of, opium, to narcotize opine, vb intrans & trans [1 öpin, 2 ou pin] fr Fr opiner, fr Lat opinari, 'to suppose', etymol doubtful, but Walde compares O Slav (ne-viz opinü, 'unsuspected' &c Cp opinion To hold and express an opinion, to take, hold, the view (that) I opine that it will rain before night opinion, n [1 öpinun, 2 öpinun] Fr, fr Lat opinion (em), 'opinion, conjecture', fr base opin-, as in opinari, 'to think, suppose' See prec & -ion 1 A belief or judgement which falls short of absolute conviction or certainty or positive knowledge, persuasion or view that certain facts, ideas &c are probably true or likely to prove so political, religious, artistic, opinions, in my opinion &c, as I judge, public opinion, the views of the general mass of people on any subject, to have no settled opinions Phrs to be of opinion that, to think, believe, suppose, a matter of opinion, a question on which more than one opinion is possible, to have the courage of one's opinions, to express one's beliefs and adhere to them, to act up to one's opinions, to act consistently with one's beliefs &c 2 Judgement, feeling, or sentiment concerning the character or qualities of persons or things, estimate, estimation to have a high, low, opinion of, to have no opinion of, to think badly of, to have a good opinion of oneself, to be self-confident, to be conceited or vain 3 The expressed, professional, expert judgement on a particular subject or problem counsel's opinion, that of a barrister on the law of a case, to have, get, another opinion, consult, call in, another expert opinionated, adj [1 öpinünät, 2 öpinünät] Prec & -ate & -od Adhering firmly or obstinately to one's opinions, obstinate, stubborn, in beliefs or judgements, self-willed, dogmatic opinionatedly, adv Prec & -ly In an opinionated, self-willed manner opinionatedness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being opinionated opinionative, adj [1 öpinünativ, 2 öpinünativ] opinion & -ate & -ive Opinionated, self-willed opismeter, n [1 öpisömeter, 2 öpisömia] fr Gk öpis, 'backwards', cogn w Lat ob- & lith api, 'around', & -meter An instrument for measuring curved lines on a map opisthognathous, adj [1 öpis-thögnäthous, öpis-thögnathous, 2 öpis-thögnäthous, öpis-thögnäthous] See prec & -gna napas, fr Gk ónēthen, 'behind', see pro & -gnathous Having retreating or receding jaws, contrasted with orthognathous and prognathous opium, n [1 ópium, 2 ópium] Lat, fr Gk ópion, 'the juice of the poppy, opium', fr opos, 'juice', prob cogn w Sert dp, 'water', O Prussian ope, 'river', & w -n suff, Lat amnis (fr abnis*), O Ir aboun, W afon, 'river' Drug obtained from the juice of the unripe seed-capsules of the white poppy Papaver somniferum, which contains the narcotic alkaloid morphine, and smoked or observed as a narcotic intoxicant, also used medicinally as a sedative opium den, n Low haunt where opium is provided for smoking opium-eater, n One who habitually consumes opium in any form opiumism, n [1 ópiomizm, 2 ópiomizom] opium & -ism The habitual use of opium, opium habit, morphinism opodeldoc, n [1 ópodéldok, 2 ópodéldok] Coined by Paracelsus for a kind of medical plaster (mod) A camphorated or other soap liniment opopanax, n [1 ópópaxas, 2 ópópaxas] Lat, fr Gk opopanax, the juice of the plant panax, fr opos, 'juice', see opium, & panax, 'a herb which heals all diseases' See panacea

Opopanax a gum resin obtained from the S. European plant Opopanax, formerly used in medicine, now chiefly in perfumery, b scent made from this opossum, n [1 óposum, 2 ópásom] N Am Indian 1 A small marsupial animal of the American continent, nocturnal and arboreal in habit, with long prehensile tail and dark grey fur Phr to play possum, (US slang) to sham being dead 2 The phalanger of Australia oppidan, n [1 ópidan, 2 ópiden] fr Lat oppidānus, living in, belonging to, a town, fr oppidum, 'town', the orig & essential meaning of vb was 'enclosure', w wh Walde connects the adv oppida, 'exceedingly, very', orig 'inclusively', & M Ir idam, for 'pid', 'I close, encompass', & perh Lat pātrāre, 'to accomplish, complete, compass' 1 (obs) A townsman, dweller in a town 2 Specif, at Eton College, a member of the school who is not on the foundation and lives in a boarding house outside the college proper, contrasted with Colleger oppliate, vb trans [1 ópilāt, 2 ópileit] fr Lat opplāt (um), PP type of opplare, (opplāre), 'to block up', fr ob- & plare, 'to thrust, ram', fr plum, 'pestle', for plē* (l) lom See pustil & pestle (mod) To obstruct, block, esp the bowels opplation, o [1 ópilāshun, 2 ópilāshon] fr Lat opplātō (em) Prec & -ion Oh struction of the bowels opponency, n [1 ópónensi, 2 ópónensi] Next word & -cy State, quality, of being an opponent, antagonism opponent (I), adj [1 ópóent, 2 ópónent] fr Lat opponēt (em), Pres Part of opponere, 'to oppose', fr ob- & ponere, 'to place' See deponent, opposite 1 a (rare or poet) Situated opposite to, over against, b opposed to, antagonistic on the opponent bank, opponent to our thoughts 2 Bringing into opposition an opponent muscle, as of the fingers and thumb opponent (II), n, fr prec a One who opposes so antagonist, enemy, b adversary, rival, competitor, in a game or other competition opportune, adj [1 oportūn, 2 ópatūno] fr fr opportun, fr Lat opportūnus (opportūnus), 'suitable, convenient, seasonable', lit 'be fore, at, the port or harbour', ob- & portus, 'harbour' See port (I) Happening, done, at a suitable, convenient, time, seasonable, timely, well-timed an opportune remark, act &c, an opportune event, an opportune moment, one suitable for something to be done or to happen opportunist, n [1 óportūnist, 2 ópatūnist] See prec & -ist One who practises opportunism, a time server opportunity, n [1 óportūnti, 2 ópatūnti] fr fr opportunitas, fr Lat opportunitas (em), 'fitness, convenience, suitable time' opportune & -ity 1 Favourable conjunction of events and circumstances for doing some thing I am only waiting for an opportunity to take drastic action, to seize, take, the opportunity to do this or that 2 Lucky, favourable, chance, occasion, time, propitious for realization of one's wishes &c his life has been deficient in opportunities opposability, n [1 ópózabíli, 2 ópózabíli] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being opposable or able to be resisted or opposed opposable, adj [1 ópózabl, 2 ópózabl] oppose & -able Capable of being opposed or resisted oppose, vb trans [1 ópóz, 2 ópóz] ME opposen, op fr opposer See op & pos (I), & op next word 1 a To set, place, opposite to or against, in position or by way of contrast or balance, pit against to oppose courage with courage, force with reason, one's will against another's, black with white &c, b (of physical movement, force) 2 To offer opposition to, to set oneself against as an adversary or opponent, to withstand, resist, contend against, to attempt to hinder or defeat to oppose the enemy with determination, one's rival with counter measures, to oppose a bill in Parliament &c, Phr to be opposed to, be hostile or adverse to 2 (absol) To offer opposition 'it is the duty of an Opposition to oppose' opposite (I), adj [1 ópóit, 2 ópázit] Fr, fr Lat opposit (um), PP of opponere, fr op & ponere, 'to place' See pos (I) & position 1 Situated, placed, lying, over against, facing or fronting, situated on the other side of a dividing line his house is opposite to mine, the opposite sides of a street, also adverbially the houses opposite, or with omission of to (as prep) the house opposite (to) ours 2 a Corresponding to, in relative position opposite number, opposite leaves on stem of a plant, as contrasted with alternate, b contrary in character or nature the opposite sex 3 a (of direction) Contrary, entirely different the opposite way, direction, b (of ideas) in direct opposition or contrast, hence, antagonistic hold opposite opinions, opinions opposite to mine opposite (II), n, fr prec Persoo, or thing, which is the contrary of another black and white are opposites, my brother was thin and dark, I am just the opposite Phr opposite prompter (abbr OP) that side of the stage in a theatre which is opposite the prompter, that is, on the left hand of the actor oppositely, adv opposite (I) & -ly In an opposite position, esp of leaves of a plant on a stem, as contrasted with alternately oppositeness, o See prec & -ness State, quality, of being opposite, opposition opposition, n [1 ópozishun, 2 ópázishon] Lat oppositiō (em) See opposite (I) & -ion 1 a Situation or position opposite person in opposition, opposite or contrasted, b specif (astro) the position of posite to each other when the moon is full, it is in opposition to the sun 2 (log) The relation between two propositions, which have the same subject and predicate but differ in quality, quantity, or both 3 a That which offers resistance, obstacle to meet with opposition, b contrary, opposing, hostile action, antagonism, resistance the enemy offered opposition at every point 4 Body of persons holding opinions adverse to a policy or proposal, appeal (cap) the body of members of Parliament who are opposed to the party in office, the officially recognized party which is next in number to the party in office, called facet His Majesty's Opposition, (also attrib) the Opposition benches, whips &c oppositive, adj [1 ópózitiv, 2 ópázitiv] See prec & -ive Tending to oppose, capable of being put in opposition, adversative oppress, vb trans [1 óprés, 2 óprés] ME, oppressen, fr O Fr oppresser, fr L Lat oppressare, freq vb fr oppress (um), PP type of opprimere, 'to press against or down, to suppress, overwhelm', fr op & primere, 'to press' See press (I) 1 (of human action) To crush, keep down, treat unjustly, use with cruelty and severity, behave as a tyrant to: to oppress the poor and weak 2 (of physical causes) To affect prejudicially the health and strength of, to prostrate to feel oppressed with the heat 3 (of moral causes) To weigh heavily upon the mind and spirits of, to dishearten, depress oppressed with grief and anxiety oppression, n [1 ópréshun, 2 óprésion] Fr, fr Lat oppression (em), 'weighing down, oppression', Lat oppress, as prec & -ion 1 Act or process of oppressing, harshness, tyranny 2 Condition of being oppressed, a (physical) heaviness, languor, b (moral) sense of depression, heaviness of spirit oppressive, adj [1 óprésiv, 2 óprésiv] oppress & -ive 1 Exerting, causing, oppression, tyrannical, severe, burdensome oppressive rule, oppressive system of taxation 2 Causing a feeling of physical oppression oppressive weather, heat &c oppressively, adv Prec & -ly In an oppressive manner oppressiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being oppressive oppressor, n [1 óprésor, 2 óprésor] oppress & -or One who oppresses, one who behaves oppressively opprobrious, adj [1 ópróbríus, 2 ópróbríus] fr O Fr opprobrius, fr L Lat opprobrius, see opprobrium & -ous 1 Casting opprobrium or reproach on, abusive, scornful, disgraceful opprobrious language 2 Deserving, involving, opprobrium or reproach, disgraceful, infamous opprobrious conduct opprobriously, adv Prec & -ly In an opprobrious manner, abusively opprobriousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being opprobrious, opprobrium opprobrium, n [1 ópróbríum, 2 ópróbríum] Lat, 'reproach, taunt, disgrace', fr op & probrum, 'disgraceful act, infamy, abuse', etymol doubtful. Reproach, abuse, infamy, disgrace oppugn, vb trans [1 ópún, 2 ópún] fr Fr oppugnare, fr Lat oppugnare, 'to attack, assault', fr op & pugnare, 'to fight' Cp pugnacious (archaic or rare) To fight against, to oppose, to oppose in argument, to controvert, reason against opsimath, o [1 ópsimath, 2 ópsimath] fr Gk opsimathēs, fr opst, 'late', fr same base as Gk opisthō, 'behind' (see opismeter), & mathēn, 'to learn', see mathematical (rare) One who acquires learning late in life opsomic, adj [1 ópsónik, 2 ópsónik] See next word & -ic (bacter) Of, pertaining to, opsonin specif opsomic index, a ratio or standard between blood serum before and after treatment with opsonin, or between the blood serum of one person and that of another, in reference to the increase of white corpuscles in the blood opsonin, n [1 ópsonin, 2 ópsonin] Coined fr Gk opōneîn, 'to buy food', fr ópōn, 'meat, fish, food other than bread', fr pref o-, 'with, together with', & pson*, 'food, bread', connected w psōmós, 'mouthful', cogn w Gk psēn, 'to grate, reduce to powder, chew' See psoriasis (baoter) A substance, obtained from dead bacteria, introduced into the blood serum, the presence of which increases the power of the white corpuscles or phagocytes to destroy the bacteria of disease opt, vb intrans [1 opt, 2 opt] fr Fr opter, fr Lat optāre, 'to choose, wish', fr same base as that in opine & opinion. See further option & op adopt To make a choice, to choose to opt for a particular candidate optative, adj & n [1 optativ, 2 optativ] fr Fr optatif, fr L Lat optātivus, fr optā-um, PP type of optāre, 'choose, wish', see prec (gram) 1 adj Designating a mood of the verb expressive of wish or desire, as in Greek and Sanscrit the optative mood, distinct form of the verb so used 2 n The optative mood optic, adj & n [1 óptik, 2 óptik] fr Fr optique, through Med Lat, fr Gk optikós, 'of, pertaining to, the eyes or sight', fr stem op-, fr el-, seen in ópōpa, 'I have seen', opsōmai, 'I shall see', opsis, 'sight' See ocular & eye, & op ophthalmia 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the eye or sight, chiefly used in anatomical terminology, as contrasted with optical the optic nerve, the nerve connecting the eye with the special sight centres of the brain 2 n (colloq and facet) An eye See also optics optical, adj [1 óptikl, 2 óptikl] Preo & -al Connected with sight, ocular, optical instrument, one for assisting sight, increasing power of vision, such as the telescope &c, optical glass, special kind from which lenses of optical instruments are made, optical illusion, a deceptive appearance, illusion due to misinterpretation of visual impressions.

optically, adv Preo & -ly By sight or vision, as appearing to the eye optician, n [1 óptishan, 2 óptishan] fr Fr opticien, see optic & -ian One who makes and sells optical instruments, esp a maker of spectacles optics, n pl [1 óptiks, 2 óptiks] See optic The branch of physical science which deals with the processes of vision, esp in relation to light optimates, n pl [1 óptimáts, 2 óptiménts] Lat, fr optimus, 'best' See optimism & -ate (Roman hist) The 'best men', the nobles or aristocracy optime, n [1 óptim, 2 óptim] Lat, 'excellently, very well', adv fr optimus, 'best', fr plr optime meruit, 'has deserved excellently' See next word In the mathematical tripos at Cambridge University, one who is placed in the second class (senior optime) or third class (junior optime), contrasted with wrangler optimism, n [1 óptimizm, 2 óptimízm] fr Fr optimisme, fr Lat optim-ius, optimus, 'best', fr optimus*, used as superl of bonus, 'good', prob fr base opi-*, seen in ops, 'power, might, wealth', see opulent, & -ism 1 (philos) a The doctrine of Leibnitz that this world, as the work of God, is the best of all possible worlds, b The doctrine that the good ultimately predominates or prevails over the evil, contrasted with pessimism 2 Tendency, inclination, disposition, to look on the bright or hopeful side of things, sanguine temperament optimist, n [1 óptimist, 2 óptimist] See prec & -ist a Believer in optimism, b one who looks on the bright or more favourable side of things, reverse of pessimist optimistic(al), adj [1 óptimistik(l), 2 óptimistik(l)] Preo & -ic & -al 1 a Adhering to, believing in, the doctrine of optimism, b sanguine, hopeful 2 Based on, relating to, optimism optimistically, adv Preo & -ly In an optimistic manner, hopefully optimum, n [1 óptimam, 2 óptimam] Lat, neut sing of optimus, 'best' See optimism The best or most favourable state, condition &c, (chiefly attrib) optimum temperature, for growth of plants &c, optimum capacity, in electricity, of an induction coil option, n [1 ópsun, 2 ópsun] Fr, fr Lat optāre (-em), optio, 'choice', fr stem of optāre, 'to wish', etymol doubtful, possibly cogn w stem op-*, as in Gk opsōmai, 'I shall see', cp optic, the sense being, 'to look out, pick out' 1 The right, liberty, or power of choosing, exercise of the power of choosing, choice if I had the option, to have no option, imprisonment without the option of a fine, local option, the right of electors in a municipality or district of deciding by their votes whether, to what extent, and under what conditions alcoholic beverages are to be sold in the particular district 2 (commerce) A time bargain, a contract, on payment of a proportion of the price, to buy or sell something at a fixed price before a fixed date in the future to exercise, waive, an option, to have an option on a house &c optional, adj [1 ópsunál, 2 ópsunál] Preo & -al At one's choice to accept or refuse, to do or not to do, allowing either for consent or refusal to act, not obligatory, not compulsory, voluntary purchase of tickets is, contributions are, purely optional optionally, adv Preo & -ly Of one's own option or choice, voluntarily optometer, n [1 óptómeter, 2 óptómeter] fr base of optio & -meter An instrument for measuring the power and range of vision, esp the power of accommodation or focussing optometry, n [1 óptométri, 2 óptométri] See prec & -metry Measurement of the range of vision by mechanical methods optophone, n [1 óptofón, 2 óptofón] See optic & -phone Instrument converting visual effects or symbols into sounds opulence, n [1 ópluens, 2 ópluens] Next word & -ce Wealth, riches, abundance, luxuriance opulent, adj [1 óplulent, 2 óplulent] Fr, fr Lat opulent-ius, opulent-um, fr base of ope, 'power, might, wealth', cp also Ops, 'goddess of plenty', the origin of the suff is doubtful With ope op Sort apnás, 'profit, property', Gk ópnē, 'food, crop, harvest', Lith apnūmas, 'plenty, richness' The base is ultimately that in opus, 'work', see opus, the idea expressed being 'plenty, property &c', considered as the product of labour a Possessed of riches, wealthy an opulent banker, b abundant, luxuriant, plentiful opulent vegetation, an opulent feast, c (of style &c) copious, profuse, florid opulently, adv Preo & -ly In an opulent manner, profusely, abundantly opus, n [1 ópus, ópus, 2 ópas, ópus] Lat, 'work, labour', cogn w Scrt apás, 'work', ápás, 'work, religious act', OS obian, 'to celebrate', OHG uoben, 'to start work, to practise, to honour' See opulent, cp also opera, operate A work or composition, esp musical composition, usually abbreviated op, followed by a number indicating its place in order of composition, magnum opus (Lat, 'a great work'), the principal work, book, picture &c of an author or artist, the work of one's life opuscule, n [1 ópuskúl, 2 ópuskúl] Fr, fr Lat opusculum, dimin Preo & -cule a A lesser or minor work or composition, b a small book or treatise or (I), n [1 ór, 2 ó] Fr, fr Lat aurum, 'gold' See aureiferous (her) a The metal gold, b the colour yellow in armoinal bearings, represented in black and white by small dots or (II), conj The OE word is oppe, & epþa (cogn w OHG eddo, odo, OS efho, Goth aipþau), in ME oppr, oþer, ouþer are used for 'or', prob on the anal of other, æther, eiger &c (see either), & such words expressing alternatives, op Mod Germ oder, 'or', for OHG odo (odar is found, but is rare), the intervocalic [ð] in other has been lost (a process not unknown in Engl of open oons between vowels, cp c'er for eter, & here perh encouraged by the common occurrence of the word in unstressed positions), & occurs in 14th cent A disjunctive or co ordinating particle, 1 a introducing an alternative swim or swim, red or white, stop in or go out, b offering a choice of a series will you take sherry (or) hock or claret?, c introducing an equivalent, synonymous or explanatory word or phrase a stallion or entire horse, the culinary art or art of cookery, d indicating some uncertainty or vagueness there or thereabouts, about four or five miles off 2 a Following either or whether, as emphasizing a strict limitation of choice or result it must be either black or white, you can either fight or run away, whether he speaks or not, the result will be the same, b (poet) instead of either or whether 'Or in the heart or in the head' 3 (archaic) Introducing a sentence, marking a change of thought &c 'Or what man is there of you' &c (Matt vii 9) or (III), prep & conj OE ær, variant of ær, 'ore', ME er, er See ere (poet and archaic) Before, ere, esp in Plr or er, or e'er 'Or er the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken' (Eccles xii 6)

-or, n suffix (1) fr O Fr -ur, -our, -or, Mod Fr -eur, fr Lat ns ending in -or, -oris, as terror, horror &c, some words keep the O Fr form in -eur, as labour, honour &c, except in America, where -or is used, (2) for ns expressing an agent or an instrument, derived through Fr fr Lat, or fr Lat direct donor, auditor, elevator, tractor &c The Engl equiv -er, wh has now exactly the same pronunciation as -or, has ousted this in the spelling of some words fr Fr or Lat, op barber, O Fr & ME barbour, in sailor, -er has been replaced by the Lat suff, prob on anal of sailor orach, n [1 óroch, 2 órtch] fr O Fr orache, Mod Fr arache, fr Lat atryphē (em), atriplex, fr Gk atraphaxus, etymol unknown The mountain spinach, red or green, cultivated as a vegetable oracle, n [1 órakl, 2 órakl] fr Lat oraculum, fr orā* lom, w suff, fr PP type of orāre, 'to speak, say' See oration 1 a The answer given by an ancient Greek priest or priestess, inspired by a god, to inquiries as to the future or as to the best way to set about an undertaking &c, b the place or shrine where such an answer was given, also the inspired answer The ancient oracles were often vague and equivocal, to consult the oracle of Apollo at Delphi, to go to the oracle at Cumae &c Plr to work the oracle, to pull the strings, to arrange matters beforehand so that a plan or stratagem is successful 2 (Bib) The sanctuary containing the Ark in the Temple at Jerusalem, the Urim and Thummim of the High Priest, (pl) the Scriptures 3 a A person who is considered as of great experience or knowledge, and whose opinion is taken as infallible, often used ironically, b the opinion, advice, of such a person, an oracular statement oracular, adj [1 óraklár, 2 óraklár] Lat oraculārus See prec & -ar Pertaining to an oracle, prophetic 1 (of statements) Resembling the answers of an oracle, in being equivocal or ambiguous 2 (of persons) Claiming to speak with the inspired authority of an oracle, claiming to be infallible and authoritative oracularly, adv [1 óraklárly, 2 óraklárly] See prec & -ly In an oracular manner oral, adj [1 óral, 2 óral] fr Lat ór, stem of os, 'the mouth, face', fr ōus*, ous*, op Sort ād, ōyam, 'mouth', OE ōr, 'front, begunning', ON ösa, 'mouth of a river', cp further Lat osculum, 'little mouth, kiss'. See osculate 1 Spoken, uttered in words, verbal, as contrasted with written oral evidence, oral traditions, oral examination, one conducted by spoken question and answer 2 (anat) Pertaining to the mouth the oral cavity orally, adv Prec & -ly By word of mouth, verbally orange (I), n [1 örnj, 2 örndz], fr O Fr orange, later orange, for narange*, w loss of initial n & change to o, through association w or, 'gold', fr the colour, fr M Ital naranja, Mod Ital arancia, cp Span naranya, fr Pers (Arab) nāranj, cogn w Sort nārangas, 'the orange tree' 1 a One of several varieties of evergreen tree, Citrus Aurantium, with fragrant white flowers and deep golden yellow, juicy, many-celled fruit, b fruit of this tree oranges and lemons, an old fashioned children's game, Blenheim orange, a large, finely flavoured dessert apple, mocha orange, the syringe, c (attrib) orange blossom, the flower of the orange tree, worn by a bride, orange squash, drink made from the juice of crushed orange pulp, usually sweetened 2 Colour resembling that of the orange fruit, orange lily, a variety of lily with deep red or orange-coloured flowers, orange tip, a small butterfly with deep orange tip on edge of the wings of the male orange (II), adj, fr prec Having the colour of the rind of an orange, reddish, golden yellow Orange (III), n The name of a town and ancient principality in SE France (Lat Araucio), from which the princes of the House of Orange Nassau took their title, and hence used by the adherents of William III, Prince of Orange, and of the Protestant Succession in Ulster, hence transmitted to the later ultra-Protestant, anti Catholic, and Unionist party in Northern Ireland, who wear orange coloured favours, orange blues &c, on the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, whence Orange Lodges, Orangemen, Orangism, the Orange Drum &c orangeade, n [1 örnjəd, 2 örndzəd] orange (I) & -ade, on anal of lemonade A sweet drink, effervescent or still, made with orange juice orangery, n [1 örnjəri, 2 örndzəri], fr Fr orangerie, orange & -ry A hot-house in which orange trees are cultivated orang-outang, orang-utan, n [1 örang outang, 2 örang utang] Malay orang, 'man', utan 'forest, wood, savage, wild' A large, reddish brown, anthropoid ape found in Borneo and Sumatra orate, vb intrans [1 örät, 2 örät] Second ary formation fr örät, as in oration (colloq or humorous) To make long orations or speeches, to hold forth, harangue oration, n [1 öräshun, 2 öräshən], fr Lat örätio (em), örätio, 'discourse, language, a speech, eloquence', fr örät (um), P P type of öräre, 'to speak, to beseech, to pray', & -ion Connexion w Lat ör-, 'mouth', see oral, is now disputed, Walde prefers to relate to Sort. öräyati, 'he praises', Gk. ara (Homer crä), 'prayer', cp aroma, 'I pray, supplicate' The base was orig imitative 1 A set or formal speech or discourse delivered on a ceremonial occasion a funeral oration 2 (gram) Manner of reporting speech, either in actual words of speaker, as he said, 'I come to bury Caesar' (direct oration) or he said that he came to bury Caesar (indirect oration) orator, n [1 öräter, 2 öräter], fr O Fr orateur Mod Fr öräter, fr Lat öräter, 'one who speaks', fr örät, see prec, & -or n An eloquent, public speaker he is no orator, b one who delivers an oration, specif, Public Orator, the official speaker at Oxford or Cambridge University who delivers ceremonial Latin orations, presents candidates for honorary degrees &c Oratorian, adj & n [1 öräterian, 2 öräterian] See oratory (II) & -an. 1 adj a Pertaining to an oratory, b belonging to the Society of the Oratory 2 n A member of the Society of the Oratory, an Oratorian father oratorical, adj [1 öräterikl, 2 öräterikl] orator & -ic & -al a Characteristic of, pertaining to, oratory or an orator, b rhetorical oratorically, adv Prec & -ly After the manner of an orator, rhetorically oratorio, n [1 öräteriö, 2 öräteriöu] Ital, said to be taken from the oratory of St Philip Neri at Rome, where such musical compositions were first performed, c 1574 A musical semi dramatic setting to a religious theme, usually adapted from Scriptural words or paraphrase, arranged for chorus, solo voices, and orchestra, and performed without costume, scenery, or dramatic gesture oratory (I), n [1 öräterum, 2 öräterum], fr Lat (are) öräteria, 'oratorical art' orator & -y

A The art of the orator, b eloquence, c rhetoric oratory (II), n fr Fr oratoire, fr Lat öräterium, 'place of prayer' See prec 1 a A small chapel for prayer, esp for private prayer or devotion, one attached to a larger church, or to a private house, b church of the Oratorians 2 (RC Ch) A religious society of secular priests, the Fathers of the Oratory, founded in the 16th cent for the purpose of providing preachers orb (I), n [1 örb, 2 örb], fr Lat örb (em), örbis, 'ring, circle, orb', so örbis terrarum, 'the circuit of lands, the world', cp also orbita, 'track' &c, q v under orbit, cogn w Umbr urfula, 'a wheel shaped object held in the hand as a symbol' The orig meaning of the base örb-, örbh, was 'to curve, arch over', cp Gk erephra, 'to cover, roof over', also OHG rippa, OE ribb, fr earlier rebyo*- See rib 1 a A sphere, globe, b specif, one of the heavenly bodies 2 A golden globe, surmounted by a cross, symbolizing sovereignty, forming, with the sceptre, part of the regalia of a monarch 3 (poet) The eye, eyeball orb (II), vb trans, fr prec (poet) To encircle, enclose, gather into, a globe or orb orbicular, adj [1 örbikülär, 2 örbikjule] Lat orbicularis, adj, fr orbiculus, dimin of örbis, 'circle' See orb Having the shape of an orb or sphere, spherical (chiefly in anat) orbicular ligament, muscle, process &c orbiculate(d), adj [1 örbikjulat(ed), 2 örbikjulat(ed)] See prec & -ated & -e Orbicular (chiefly bot) orbiculate leaf orbit, n [1 örbit, 2 örbit], fr Lat örbita, 'rut in the ground made by a wheel, track, course, path', fr örbis, 'circle, ring, hoop' See orb 1 The eye socket 2 a Track, course, path, followed by a celestial body in its revolution round another body, also b (fig) range, sphere, of action and experience, ordinary course of life and behaviour orbital, adj [1 örbital, 2 örbital] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, an orbit, (chiefly anat) pertaining to the eye socket orbital nerve &c orbis, pref Form of orbit used in compounds orbis-sphenoid, of a bone or process in the skull orca, orc, n [1 örb(a), 2 örb(a)] Lat orca, 'grampus large belled vessel, a butt or tun', cp also Lat urceus, 'water pot, pitcher' See urceolate (200) a Orca, the genus of killer whales, b orca, grampus, cp Fr orque

Orcaidian, adj & n [1 örkäidian, 2 örkäidian], fr Lat Orcaides, the Orkney Islands 1 adj Of, belonging to, the Orkney Islands 2 n An Orkney Islander orchard, n [1 örchard, 2 örchard] OE aurigard, oreard, 'orchard, garden', Goth aurigards, 'garden' Borrowing fr Lat hortus, 'garden', is unlikely The first element is possibly connected w Goth wurts, 'root, plant', OE wyrt, 'vegetable, plant, herb, root' See under wort (I) & root & radix The Gmc stem is seen also in OHG örzān, 'to cultivate' A plantation of fruit trees, esp of apples, pears, cherries &c orchardman, n [1 örchardman, 2 örchardman] One who keeps on orchard and sells the fruit orchestic, adj [1 örkéstik, 2 örkéstik], fr Gk. örkhestikos, 'to dance', cp Sort örphayati, 'tremble, be agitated', the base örgh-* is an extension of or*, er*, seen in Gk örnūmis, & örndem, 'rouse, stir up, start' &c, cp Sort arnad, 'undulating, flowing', fr same base comes Lat öräre, to rise, see orient, origin, for further derivatives fr this base see earl & run (I) 1 (class antiq) a The circular space in front of and below the proscenium or stage in a Greek theatre, where the chorus danced and sang, b semicircular space reserved for senatorial or official spectators in the Roman theatre 2 Space in the modern theatre between the stage and the auditorium in which the band plays

3 Group of musical performers, or band, in a theatre, concert room &c, who play concerted music such as symphonies &c, usually divided into four groups, strings, wood wind, brass wind, and percussion instruments orchestral, adj [1 örkéstäl, 2 örkéstäl] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, an orchestra, composed for, performed by, an orchestra, orchestral music, on orchestral accompaniment orchestrate, vb trans [1 örkéstärät, 2 örkéstärät] orchestra & -ate To write, arrange, (music) for performance by an orchestra orchestration, n [1 örkéstäräshun, 2 örkéstäräshun] Prec & -ion A The art of composing or arranging music suitably for performance by an orchestra, b mode, style, in which this is done orchestron, n [1 örkéstän, 2 örkéstän] orchestra & -ion A large, elaborate musical box or barrel organ, giving effects of various musical instruments orchid, n [1 örkid, 2 örkid], fr Lat, fr Gk örkhis, 'testicle, tuber, orchis' (fr shape of bulb), cogn w Lath efrhias, 'stallion', an irreg formation as if fr a Lat örchid* (se) (bot) The name given to a large family, Orchidaceae, of monocotyledonous plants, some of which grow wild in Europe The varieties of temperate regions are tuberous, with fleshy stems, the tropical kinds, much cultivated in hot houses, are of various habit, many growing on trees, and have brilliant colours and fantastic shapes orchidaceous, adj [1 örkidäshus, 2 örkidäshus] Prec & -aceous Of or belonging to the Orchidaceae or orchid family orchidist, n [1 örkidist, 2 örkidist] See prec & -ist A collector, cultivator, of orchids orchil See archil orchis, n [1 örkis, 2 örkis] See orchid (bot) Any plant of the family Orchidaceae, esp of the varieties growing wild in temperate regions as bee orchis, fly orchis &c orchutis, n [1 örkhitis, 2 örkhitis], fr Gk. örkhis, see orchid, & -itis (med) Indian mation of the testicles orcun, n [1 örün, 2 örün], fr örchil, variant of archil (chem) A substance obtained from lichens, aloes &c and yielding a dark red dye stuff ordain, vb trans [1 ördän, 2 ördän] ME ordenen, fr O Fr ordener, Mod Fr ordonner, fr Lat ordinäre, 'to order', fr ördin (em), fr ordo, 'order' See ordinal & order 1 To decree, enact, appoint, esp of the decrees of God, or of fate 2 (eccles) To admit to holy orders, by the formal laying on of hands by a bishop, and the utterance of a prescribed form of words, giving authority to perform the functions of a minister: to be ordained priest or deacon

ORDAINER
ordainer, n [1. ordainer, 2 ōdānə] Pro-&-er One who ordains or orders, speak-(Eng) hist) one of a commission of nobles and bishops, Lords Ordainers, appointed in the reign of Edward II to issue ordinances for the kingdom, manage the royal house-and the reign of Edward the first for the kingdom, manage the royal hold &c ardeal, n [1 ordal, 2 edial] OE ordal, more rarely ordel, for WS -dæl, ME ordal, OS ordeli, OHG urteil, Mod Germ urteil, the old Du oordeel, 'judgement, decision', the old prof or-, OHG ur-, Goth uz-, meant 'out, through', & hence came to imply 'thoroughness', the second element is OE dæl, 'division, share, portion', see dale (I), or dæl, 'see dole'. The orig. sense of the compound is 'something dealt out, adjudged'.

 1 (lust) A primitive method of trial, where by the guilt or innocence of accused was tested by the fall of lots, by his capacity to pass unharmed over fire or through water, or to defeat his accuser in battle ordal by fire, ordal of bottle &c 2 Any ordeal, searching, experience, something which is a test of courage, resolution, tenacity, and the like 3 (etrial) Ordeal bark, bean, tree, W African poisons used in trial by ordeal order (I), n [1 order, 2 oide] ME ordre, fr Lat O Fr ordre, earlier ordine, fr Ordine ordin (em), fr ordo, 'a straight row, regular series, methodical arrangement, order, a class or rank', of doubtful etymology, 'to rise connected by base *or-, seen in orin, 'to rise up', & ordire, 'to begin a web, to begin', See orient & origin 1 a (of objects, names &c) Mode of arrangement or placing, relative position in a series numerical, alphabetical order, in order of merit, not in the right order, b (of events) mode of occurrence, relative place in time, succession the phases of the battle developed in the order anticipated, c specific (mil) mode of disposition of troops battle order, order of battle, open order, of ranks placed two paces behind each other, close order, one pace uniform 2 (of Parade Order, full dress uniform 3 (of thoughts &c) Logical sequence his thoughts occurred haphazard, and in no regular order 3 a (of processes, phenomena the order of Natural sequence or succession (conditions) the seasons, b (of spiritual conditions) system, group of tendencies, ideals the old, new, order 4 Careful, regular, systematic arrangement, disposal in the right place, a (of material objects) neatness, tidiness, orderliness cleanliness and order in a house, one's person &c, b (of non-material things) logical arrangement, coherence, system, right classification, plan to put one's views into order, in some learned books we find confusion instead of order, obscurity instead of clarity, c (of business, affairs) to leave one's affairs in perfect order 5 a (of political and social conditions) Prevalence of law and discipline, law abiding conduct, reasonable submissiveness to law and government, absence of turbulence public order, perfect order reigned throughout the entire country, b to restore peace and order, to keep order, Phr guile in order, regular, accordance with rules, b speoil, customary behaviour during Parliamentary debate, or public meeting, generally, established method and procedure in conduct of these out of order, to rise to a point of order, indicate that a breach of order has been committed, thus specific use tends to merge in that in No 6, esp in such a phrase as breach of order, which strictly is merely a departure from regular procedure, but may often mean, at the same time, noisy disorder, Phr Order! Order! called out in drawing attention to a formal departure from established rules of debate 6 Normal, healthy, sound condition, state in which the usual functions are carried on, a (of bodily condition) sound health, vigour, absence of disease to have one's eyes put in order, liver out of order, b (of state of machinery or mechanical devices) working well, in good repair good working order, in thorough order, to get out of order 7 Class, group, kind a (zool., bot) mode of classification, group of related animals or plants, below class, divided into families or genera, b (archit) a specific mode or style of building and design, usually one of the classical styles Doric, Ionic, Corinthian, order, o (math) degree, d, kind, sort, degree a different order of ideas, talents of a high order 8 a Class, rank in society the lower orders, the common people, folks in the traditions of his order, b a group of persons belonging to a specific rank or class the Order of Knights Bachelor, Order of the Bath, Order of Merit, a badge, magna, worn by members of an order 9 (eccles) a Specific spiritual grace, or office, conferred by the bishop by the imposition of his hands in ordination or consecration, giving the power to perform certain spiritual functions to confer orders, holy orders, Phr to take (holy) orders, to become a clergyman, b group of persons who have received any or all of the holy orders the order of Deacons, of Priests, of Bishops 10 (eccles) Group of persons bound by vows to a religious life the monastic orders, the order of Benedictines 11 (eccles) Prescribed form for performance of a ceremony, or administration of a rite the order of Holy Baptism 12 A command, authoritative direction or instruction to do something to give, receive, orders, orders must be obeyed, under the orders of, commanded by, the Order in Council, one issued by the Sovereign on the advice of a statute, but comes into effect without requiring to be sanctioned by Parliament, standing orders, permanent rules of procedure adopted by Parliament or by any administrative or legislative body 13 Request or instruction to supply goods firm, or to a tradesman, Phr made to order, large orders for iron, coal Phr made to order, according to special requirements, contrasted with ready-made, on order, having been ordered, but not yet received (by dealer) 14 Written authorization to a post office, or a banker, to pay money 15 A written order to go some-where, or to do something an order to view (a house), to enter a building &c. order (II) vb trans, fr proc 1 a To arrange, dispose, direct, regulate the course of God order all things in heaven and earth, to order one's affairs, household &c, b specif (mil) to order arms, to bring the hnt end on the ground, and hold it close to the right side 2 To give an authoritative order to, a to direct, command (a person) to do something or go somewhere, b to command that something shall be done my doctor orders me a holiday 3 a To direct (goods) to be supplied, give an order or commission for, esp to a tradesman to order a leg of mutton, a new suit, b to give orders for something to be brought to order luncheon for 130, Phr to order dinner, choose the courses of which it shall consist orderliness, n [1 orderliness, 2 tidiness] Next word & -ness State, quality, of being orderly, a tidiness, neatness, b orderly behaviour, law abiding conduct, good order orderly (I), adj [1 Arranged, disposed, orderly (I) & -ly 2 Observing, in order, systematically or methodically arranged, tidy, neat 2 a Observing, acting in accordance with, law, law-abiding, quiet, well-behaved an orderly crowd, b exhibiting, inspired by, orderliness, and recognition of law, free from disorder or turbulence orderly behaviour, conduct 3 (mil) On duty, concerned with carrying out orders orderly officer, the officer on duty for the day, orderly book, a book kept in the orderly room of a company for entering ceremonial and other orders &c.; orderly ordaine, n [1 ordain, 2 bdain] ordain & -so Newly ordained deacon.

ordnance, n [1 ordnans, 2 bdnans] Spelling variant of ordnance, op Fr ordonnance, in phr engin de telle ordonnance, 'of such size or hore' (Skeat) 1 Artillery, cannon, or big guns of all sizes as distinguished by small arms 2 Military stores, equipment, and material the Ordnance Department, of the War Office Army Ordnance Corps &c Ordnance Survey, the official geographical survey of the British Isles, formerly carried out by the Ordnance Department as ordnance map

Ordovician, adj [1 ordovician, 2 bdovikian], fr the Ordovices, Lat name of a Celtic-Welsh people or race (geol) Of a geological period or system following the Cambrian and preceding the Silurian ordure, n [1 ordur, 2 bdja] Fr, fr O Fr ord, 'filthy, foul', fr Lat horridus, 'horrid, wild, frightful', see horrid. Dung, manure, filth, also used in moral sense obscenity ore, n [1 or, 2 6] Formally representing O.E. ær, 'brass', but having the transferred meaning of O.E. œr, 'ore, unwrought metal'. The latter is cogn. w Du oer, the former w O.N ær, O.H.G ær, Goth aur, 'brass', cp Lat aer (is), aes, 'bronze', Sart aynd See aeruginous Native metal, metal in its unrefined state, any mineral compound from which valuable metal can be extracted, ore-dressing, the processes by which the waste is separated from the metal Oread, n [1 ored, 2 brsed] Lat Oread (-is), stem of Oreos, fr Gk. Oread (-as), stem of Oreios, fr oros, 'mountain'. The latter is fr Gk. orhos, 'rump, hnttock', for ors* as cogn. w O.E ears, see arse (class mythol.) A mountain nymph orectic, adj [1 orektak, 2 orektik], fr Gk. orektikos, fr orektos, 'stretched out', op also drezo, 'yearning desire for', connected w oreigin, 'to reach, stretch out for', wh is cogn. w Lat regere, 'to stretch, to guide, conduct'. See regal, regulate (philos) Of, relating to, the desires or appetites, appetitive oride, oroide, n [1 orid, 2 brid] Fr, fr or, 'gold', fr Lat aureum, see aureate, & -ide, fr Gk. oidos, 'shape, form'. See idol & -oid. An alloy of copper and tin or zinc, used in making cheap imitation gold jewellery organ, n [1 organ, 2 sgan] M.E. organe, 'the musical instrument', fr Lat organum, 'implement, instrument, means', later specif 'musical instrument', borrowed fr Gk. organon, 'an instrument, tool, engine', cogn. w Gk. ergon, 'work'. See ergon, anergy, & work. 1 A part of the bodily structure of an animal or plant which performs some particular function seres organ, organs of respiration, reproduction &c, vocal organs, nasal organ &c, 2 b specif, an individual human voice, thought of in relation to its range, power, quality he has a splendid organ, but is quite untrained in emgng 2 A means, instrument, or agency Parliament is the chief and final organ of government 3 A medium, means, for influencing, or exchanging, opinion &c, a newspaper the daily organs of the press, control of the party organs & (mus) the earliest meaning of the word in Engl) a The largest of musical wind instruments consisting of metal or wooden pipes of varying length and thickness which produce the different notes, a bellows mechanically worked which supplies the air, manuals with keys like those of a pianoforte, by means of which the air is released from the pipes, and various pedals and stops which alter the quality or the volume of the sound, 2 the name of various other musical instruments, some resembling the organ in being operated by wind as the American organ or harmonium, also the barrel-organ, resembling a large musical box, worked by a handle, or the piess-organ, similarly worked.

organ-builder, n The designer and maker of a musical organ organ-case, n The wooden casing of an organ organdie, n [1 organdi, 2 sgandi] Fr organdi, etymol doubtful A fine, transparent muslin, plain or figured organ-grinder, n One who plays a barrel or piano-organ in the street by turning a handle organic, adj [1 organik, 2 sganik], fr Lat organicus, fr Gk organikos Sea organ & -ic 1 (of living things) Connected with, pertaining to, the bodily and vital organs of animals or plants organic structures, organic diseases, one which affects a bodily organ in its structure and not merely in its function, contrasted with functional 2 Possessing bodily organs variously specialized and differentiated to perform the several functions of a living animal or plant organic life, contrasted with inorganic, organic chemistry, that dealing with the products of animal and vegetable organisms, now largely restricted to the study of carbon and hydrogen compounds 3 Having a definite, systematic, structural arrangement, organized an organic whole, a complete unity organically, adv [1 organikal, 2 sganikal] Fr & -al & -ly In an organic manner, a structurally, b by means of bodily organs, c as an organic whole organism, n [1 organizm, 2 sganzizm] organ & -ism 1 (biol) An individual possessing some degree of structural and functional differentiation and specialization, and capable of growth and reproduction 2 Something forming an independent unity, resembling a living organism in structure, possessing an orderly arrangement and specific differentiation of parts which have each their allotted function in the existence of the whole, applied to political and social entities organist, n [1 organist, 2 sganist] organ & -ist One who plays on the organ organizable, adj [1 organizabl, 2 sganzabl] organize & -able Capable of being organized organization, n [1 organizashun, 2 sganzashun] organize & -ation 1 Act of organizing, state of being organized, mode in which something is organized, orderly, systematic arrangement, grouping of parts and assignment of functions 2 Something which is organized, specific, a system exhibiting organization, a body, association, of persons united by a common purpose, having various functions or lines of action allotted for carrying out the business and securing the objects of the whole organize, vb trans & intrans. [1 organiz, 2 sganziz] Med. Lat. organizare, fr organum, 'organ', op Fr organiser See organ & -ize A trans 1 (only in P.P.) To make organic, provide with structural and functional differentiation necessary to a living organism organized matter 2 To give structural, systematic shape or form to, to arrange, group, the separate parts of, and allot to each a special function, so that all work together as a whole or unity to organize an army, government, party &c 3 To arrange, make preparations for, and carry out (some undertaking) to organize an entertainment B intrans 1 To become organic 2 To carry on the process of organization organizer, n [1 organizer, 2 sganoizer] Fr & -ar One who organizes organ-loft, n The gallery in which an organ is built and where the player sits organo- pref Form of organon, see organ, used in compounds, signifying relation, a with bodily organs b with organisms organon, organum, n [1 organon, -um, 2 sganon, -um] Gk, Lat, 'implement, tool, engine, means'. See organ A sys and philosophic investigation may be carried on Aradofe's 'Organon', Bacon's 'Novum Organum' organotherapy, n [1 organothérapi, 2 sgan-ouptéri] See organo- & -therapy Treatment of diseases by means of extracts from animal organs, such as the thyroid gland.

organ-pipe, n Any one of the set of pipes of which the wind organ is constructed organzine, n [1 organzén, 2 sganzin], fr Fr organzin, fr Ital organzino A fine kind of strong, silk thread with a double twist orgasm, n [1 orgozm, 2 sganzam] Fr orgasme, fr Gk orgasmos, 'swelling', also 'softening, kneading', fr orgán, 'to swell', cp Gk orgé, 'excitement, anger', cogn. w Sert úrýd, 'violence', O Ir ferg, 'anger'. Violent excitement, paroxysm, specif, the height, culminating point, of excitement in the sexual act orgest, n [1 oryat, 2 bdzist] Fr, fr orge, 'harley', fr Lat hordeum, 'harley', cogn. w groats A drink composed of barley-water flavoured with sweet almonds orgiastic, adj [1 orgiastik, 2 bdzastik], fr Gk orgiastikos, 'performing orgies', fr orgizein, 'to celebrate by orgies'. See orgy Of, pertaining to, orgies, revelling orgiastic rites orgy, n [1 orpi, 2 bdzi] Earlier only in pl. Fr orgies, fr Lat orgia, Gk orgia, pl, prob connected w ergon, pl erga, 'works, things done or performed, rites'. See organ & energy 1 (Gk. and Rom antiq) The secret rites and ceremonies of the ancient mysteries, esp those connected with the worship of Bacchus, Bacchio revelry 2 A Drunken carousals, lewd revelry, unrestrained practice of debauchery, also b in innocent sense, a continuous round of gaieties or entertainments a regular orgy of parties and concerts ornel, n [1 onel, 2 brul], fr O Fr ornel, also in Med Lat ornolum, 'recess, gallery', etymol doubtful A projecting bay or recessed window, usually on an upper storey, supported by corbels orient (I), adj & n [1 orient, 2 brant] Fr, fr Lat orient (em), oriens, 'the East', fr Pres Part of oriri, 'to rise', op Lat. ortus, 'a rising', cogn. w Gk. orthros, 'early morning', op also Gk ermos, 'shoot, twig, sprout'. See order (I) & cp orchestra 1 adj a (poet) Rising in the East, oriental the orient sun, b (of pearls) of the finest kind, lustrous 2 n a (cap) The East, Oriental countries, Asia, b superior quality or lustre of pearl, esp of those coming from the Orient pearl of finest orient orient (II), vb trans [1 orient, 2 brsent] See pres To orientate oriental, adj & n [1 oriental, 2 brsent] Fr, fr Lat orientalis See orient (I) & -al 1 adj Of or pertaining to the Orient or East, esp to Asia or the Far East, Asiatic oriental civilization, art, china &c 2 n (cap) A native of the East or Asia, member of an Asiatic race, esp of the Chinese & Japanese orientalism, n [1 orientalizm, 2 brsentizm] Fr & -ism Custom, habit, method of thought &c peculiar to the East or to Orientals orientalist, n [1 orientalist, 2 brsentalist] oriental & -ist One who makes a special study of oriental languages, art, civilization &c orientalize, vb trans [1 orientaliz, 2 brsenteliz] oriental & -ize To make oriental, to habituate to oriental ideas, customs, manners orientally, adv [1 oriental, 2 brsentali] oriental & -ly In an oriental manner, like an Oriental orientate, vb trans & intrans [1 orientat, 2 brsentat] orient & -ate A trans 1 (arbit) To plan, lay out, a building, esp a church, so that the altar and of the main axis points to the east 2 To place a building, monument &c so that the front, back, and sides shall correspond to the points of the compass 3 (fig) a To place an object or one self in definite relation to another object, situation &c, to take one's bearings, b (usually reflex, fig) to take one's intellectual bearings, ascertain moral relation, and significance of events and circumstances in relation to others, familiarize oneself with a subject or situation B intrans 1 To move, turn, towards the East 2 To take up a position in definite relation to another object or position orientation, n [1 ɔriéntaʃən, 2 ɔriéntéʃən] Preo & -ation 1 Position of a body in relation with the points of the compass 2 (archit) Placing of a church so that the altar is at the east end 3 Adjustment in relative position to another object, principle &c orifice, n [1 ɔrɪs, 2 ɔrɪsɪs] Fr, fr L Lat orificum, 'an opening', lit 'mouth-making', fr or (as), 'the mouth', see oral, & fic, stem of facere, 'to make', see fact Mouth, outer opening, or aperture, of a tube or pipe &c orifice of a wound, chimney &c oriflamme, n [1 ɔriflɑm, 2 ɔriflɑm] O Fr oriflambe, fr Med Lat auriflamma, Lat aurum, 'gold', see aureate & aurore, & flamma, see flame 1 The ancient battle standard of the kings of France, the banner of St Denis, of red with streamers borne on a gilded lance 2 Anything which serves, actually or figuratively, as a focus for devotion and loyalty organ, organum, n [1 ɔrgan, 2 ɔrganum, 3 ɔrgan, 4 ɔrganum] Lat organum, fr Gk organon, 'marjoram', fr droe, 'mountain', see Oread, & ganos, 'brightness, glory', fr ganumai, 'to rejoice' Sweet marjoram, also used of other plants of this genus or type origin, n [1 ɔrɪn, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪn] fr Fr origine, fr Lat origin (em), stem of origo, 'a beginning', fr oriri, 'to arise, begin', fr base or, 'to move' See orient & order 1 That whence anything takes its rise, a source, starting-point, the earliest stages, beginnings of anything the origin(s) of civilization, insignificant origins, b initial cause the origin of a quarrel 2 Birth, parentage, ancestry a man of humble, lofty, origin original (I), adj [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnəl, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnəl, 3 ɔrɪdʒɪnəl] Fr, fr Lat originālis, see preo & -al, much earlier in Engl usage than the n 1 A Pertaining to the origin or to beginning, existing from the first, earliest, most primitive the original inhabitants, language, of a country, translated from the original Latin, Stephenson's original locomotive, the original edition of a book, specif b original sm, the state of an in which man is born into the world, as a result of the fall of Adam 2 (of persons and the human mind) Able to originate, initiate, create, new ideas, thoughts, or processes, constructive, inventive, creative an original writer, composer, genius 3 (of products of the human mind) Created, made, invented, constructed, for the first time, not derived or copied from, not suggested by, something or someone else, first-hand, new few plots of plays are entirely original, an original plan, invention, idea original (II), n, fr preo 1 (archaic) First cause, source, originator, author 'The spacious firmament on high, With all the blue ethereal sky, And spangled heavens, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim' (Addison's Hymn) 2 That from which other things are copied, the first pattern which serves as a model for subsequent reproductions, a not the original, only a copy, said of pictures and other works of art &c, b the original or earliest edition of a book, c original language in which a work was composed to read Homer in the original, not in translation 3 An eccentric person originality, n [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnəlɪti, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnəlɪti] Preo & -ity Cp fr originalité 1 (rare) Condition of being original, authenticity, genuineness, (of objects which are often copied) the originality of a portrait 2 State, quality, of being original, a (in human beings and the human mind) process of inventiveness, creative faculty, capacity to originate new ideas a man, a mind, of great originality, b (of products of the human mind) quality of being spontaneous and newly-created, freshness, novelty a work of no great originality, plenty of originality in the idea originally, adv [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnəlɪ, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnəlɪ] original (I) & -ly. In origin, from, in, the beginning, at first, primarily, formerly originate, vb trans & intrans [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnət, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnət] origin & -ate A trans 1 To be the prime cause of, to bring about, to cause to start what originated the Great War?, the use of steam originated many other changes 2 To be the author or inventor of, to initiate, to create, produce for the first time to originate new ideas, methods &c B intrans a To start, have origin in the fire originated in a barn, b to have as a cause, or source the quarrel originated in a misunderstanding Originating summons, a summons taken out, without a writ, for decision, order &c before a judge or a master origination, n [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnəʃən, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnəʃən] Preo & -ion a Act, fact, mode of originating, or being produced, b power of originating originative, adj [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnətɪv, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnətɪv] originate & -ive Having the faculty of originating, original originatively, adv Preo & -ly In such a manner as to originate originator, n [1 ɔrɪdʒɪnətər, 2 ɔrɪdʒɪnətər] originate & -or One who originates or initiates ori-nasal, adj [1 ɔrɪnəzəl, 2 ɔrɪnəzəl] fr Lat or (as), 'mouth' See oral & nasal (phon, a fancy term, best avoided) Of speech sounds, esp vowels, formed or produced both in the mouth and nose, such as those in Fr bon, sang &c, best called simply nasal vowels, since all vowels, and most consonants, are formed in the mouth oriole, n [1 ɔrɪəl, 2 ɔrɪəl] fr O Fr oriole, fr Med Lat orioleus, Lat aureolus, dimin of aureus, 'golden', fr aurum, 'gold' See aureate & aurore Bird of which there are several species in all continents, mostly bright yellow in colour with black wings and tail

Orion, n [1 ɔrɪən, 2 ɔrɪən] Lat, fr Gk Orion, a giant hunter of Greek mythology, slain by Artemis and made into a constellation (astron) A brilliant constellation, one of the signs of the zodiac, Orion's belt, three very bright stars across the centre of the constellation orison, n [1 ɔrɪzən, 2 ɔrɪzən] O Fr, later oraison, oraison, fr Lat oratio (em), 'speech, prayer' See oration (archaic or post) A prayer (often used in pl) orle, n [1 ɔrɪl, 2 ɔrɪl] Fr, fr Med Lat orla, fr orula, dimin of Lat ora, 'margin, border', cogn w Lat os, 'mouth', see oral, cp O E ör, 'rim, edge' (her) A narrow fillet or border, half the width of the bordure, going round the shield at some distance from the edge

Orleans, n [1 ɔrɪlɔnz, 2 ɔrɪlɔnz] Name of town in France a A purple plum, b fabric of worsted and cotton orlop, n [1 ɔrɒp, 2 ɔrɒp] fr Du overloop, 'deck of a ship, orlop', fr overloopen, 'to run over' See over & leap The deck of a ship next above the hold, usually of ships with three decks or more ormer, n [1 ɔmər, 2 ɔmər] Channel Islands Fr, fr Fr ormer, corrupt of oreille de mer, 'ear of the sea' A univalve, edible mollusc, Haliotis tuberculata, the sea ear, the shell is shaped like an ear with a row of holes ormolu, n [1 ɔrmɒləʊ, 2 ɔrmɒləʊ] fr Fr or moulu, 'gold ground or milled' 1 Preparation of gold used in gilding, bronze &c gilded 2 Brass lacquered to resemble gold, furniture ornamented with this ornament (I), n [1 ɔnəmənt, 2 ɔnəmənt] fr O Fr ornement, fr Lat ornamentum, 'equipment, trappings, decoration, ornament', fr ornare, 'to fit out, equip, decorate, adorn', etymol doubtful, possibly a contracted form of ordinare, 'to set in order' See ordain 1 Decoration, embellishment, that which adorns or embellishes 2 A Decorative object, small figure, vase &c used as part of the adornment of a room ornaments on the mantelpiece, specif b any kind of embellishment, such as lace &c, also jewels and trinkets, worn on the person, c an embellishment of style, figure 3 (fig) A person or quality which brings credit or adds lustre to others &c an ornament to his profession 4 (usually pl) Articles used in church for the purpose of the service, as vestments, communion plate &c, ss enjoined, at least by implication, by the Ornaments Rubric in the Prayer Book 'of the ornaments of the church and of the ministers thereof' ornament (II), vb trans, fr preo [1 ɔnəment, 2 ɔnəment] To decorate, embellish ornamental, adj [1 ɔnəmentəl, 2 ɔnəmentəl] See ornament (I) & -al Decorative, of the nature of ornament ornamentalist, n [1 ɔnəmentəlɪst, 2 ɔnəmentəlɪst] Preo & -ist A decorator, a decorative artist ornamentatize, vb trans [1 ɔnəmentəlaɪz, 2 ɔnəmentəlaɪz] See preo & -ize To make ornamental, to supply with ornaments or decorations ornamentally, adv [1 ɔnəmentəlɪ, 2 ɔnəmentəlɪ] ornamental & -ly In an ornamental manner, as ornament ornamentation, n [1 ɔnəmentəʃən, 2 ɔnəmentəʃən] ornament (II) & -ation 1 Act of ornamenting or decorating, state of being ornamented 2 That which ornaments, decoration, embellishment ornate, adj [1 ɔnət, 2 ɔnət] fr Lat ornāt (um), 'adorned', PP of ornare, 'to adorn' See ornament 1 (of art) Excessively or extravagantly adorned, nobly embellished 2 (of liter, or oratorical style) Highly elaborate in diction, characterized by a careful choice of rare and striking words, by the avoidance of simple and ordinary modes of expression, and often by rather fanciful figures of speech ornately, adv Preo & -ly In an ornate manner ornateness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being ornate ornitho-, pref, fr Gk ornith (os), ornis, 'bird', cogn w O E earn, O H G arn, 'eagle', Lith erlis, O Slav orlŭ, 'eagle', used in comp pounds ornithological, adj [1 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪkəl, 2 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪkəl] Preo & -logical Of, pertaining to, ornithology ornithologist, n [1 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪst, 2 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪst] ornitho- & -logy & -ist Student of birds and bird life ornithology, n [1 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪ, 2 ɔrɪnθɒlədʒɪ] ornitho- & -logy Scientific study of birds, their varieties, structure, habits &c ornithomancy, n [1 ɔrɪnθɒmənsɪ, 2 ɔrɪnθɒmənsɪ] ornitho- & -mancy Divination by observation of the flight of birds ornithorhynchus, n [1 ɔrɪnθɒrɪŋkəs, 2 ɔrɪnθɒrɪŋkəs] ornitho- & Gk (h) rhynchus, 'snout, bill', etymol doubtful Australian pouched mammal with webbed feet and a duck's bill, which hatches out its young from eggs, also called duck billed platypus ornithoscopy, n [1 ɔrɪnθɒskəpi, 2 ɔrɪnθɒskəpi] ornitho- & -scopy Ornithomancy, angury oroceide See oroide

orographic(al), adj [1 ɔrɒgrəfɪkəl, 2 ɔrɒgrəfɪkəl] Next word & -ic (& -al) Pertaining to orography orography, n [1 ɔrɒgrəfi, 2 ɔrɒgrəfi] fr Gk oros, 'mountain', q v under Oread, & -graphy The branch of physical geography which treats of mountains and mountain systems, orology orology, n [1 ɔrɒlədʒɪ, 2 ɔrɒlədʒɪ] fr Gk oros, 'mountain', see Oread, & -logy Orography.

orometer, n [1 órómeter, 2 órómista] See prec & -meter An instrument for measuring the height of mountains or ascertaining the height above sea level of the place where the measurement is made orotund, adj [1 órótund, 2 órótund] fr Lat ór (us), fr ós, 'mouth', see oral, & rotundus, 'round, rounded, smooth', as in Phr ore rotundo See rotund & round (1) 1 (of the voice) Full, round, resonant, ringing 2 (of style in speaking or writing) Pompous, turgid, bombastic orotundity, n [1 órótunditá, 2 órótunditá] Prec & -ity Quality of being orotund orphan (I), n [1 órfan, 2 órfan] fr L Lat orphanus, fr Gk orphanos, 'destitute, fatherless, orphaned', the earlier form in Engl was orphem, 'bereaved, parentless, childless, an orphan', O Fr orphelin, earlier orphenin, the class Lat word was orbus, wh, together w Gk orphanos, goes back to a base orh-*. From this base come also Goth arbi, 'inheritance', & arþya, 'heir', cp O E arfe, 'inheritance, property' A child who has lost one or both of its parents by death orphan (II), adj, fr prec Bereft of both parents or of either parent an orphan child orphan (III), vb trans, fr orphan (I) To deprive bereave, (a child) of its parents orphanage, n [1 órfaun, 2 órfaun] orphan (I) & -age 1 State of being an orphan, orphanhood. 2 An institution for the care and education of orphans orphanhood, n [1 órfaunhood, 2 órfaunhood] See prec & -hood. State of being an orphan

Orphean, adj [1 órfean, 2 órfean] fr Lat Orpheus (us), 'of, pertaining to, Orpheus', & -an (poet) Of, pertaining to, Orpheus or the music with which he charmed the beasts, melodious Orphean lyre, strains &c

Orphic, adj [1 órfik, 2 órfik] fr Gk Orphikos, 'of, pertaining to, Orpheus' Of, connected with, pertaining to, the mysteries, rites, and ceremonies associated with Orpheus, mysterious, esoteric Orphic mysteries

Orphism, n [1 órfizem, 2 órfizem] See prec & -ism The rites, ceremonies, and religious doctrine of the Orphic mysteries orphyrey, n [1 órfin, 2 órfin] Earlier orfray, fr O Fr orfray, 'embroidery', fr Lat auriphrigium, 'gold Phrygian embroidery', fr aurum, 'gold', see aureate, & Phrygian, 'Phrygian' A gold embroidered band or border on an ecclesiastical vestment orpiant, n [1 órpiant, 2 órpiant] O Fr, fr Lat auripigmentum, fr aurum, 'gold', see aureate & pigmentum, see pigment Yellow sulphide of arsenic, used as a pigment orpin, n [1 órpin, 2 órpin] Fr orpin, 'a plant with yellow flowers', variant of prec A stonecrop, Sedum, with fleshy leaves and purple coloured flowers

Orpington, n [1 órpingtun, 2 órpingtun] Name of a village in Kent A breed of domestic fowl buff, white, Orpington orrery, n [1 óreri, 2 óreri] fr title of Charles Boyle 4th Earl of Orrery, who directed and paid for the making of the first apparatus, c 1713 An apparatus, moved by clock work, showing the movements of the planets orris (I), n [1 órri, 2 órri] Prob corrupt of O Fr orpreus See orphyrey Gold or silver lace or braid orris (II), n. Prob form of Med Ital oreos, 'orris root', fr Lat iris, Gk iris The Flowering iris or flower-de-luce specifi, orris root the fragrant dried root of this or other species of iris powdered, and used as a perfume and in perfume orot n [1 órót, 2 órót] Vt. orot, & orot, pl. orots, cp Da orot, remnants, as orot, 'rot', & orot, 'food' See eat (provide or ob, usually in pl.) Remnants of food left &c ortho-, pref Combining form fr Gk orthos, 'straight, correct', also in moral sense, 'right, true, exact, real, genuine, righteous, just', cogn w Lat arduus, 'steep, lofty, difficult', see arduous, Sort orthos, 'high' Used in Engl, in old & new compounds fr Gk w force of a straight, rectangular orthognathous, orthogonal, b genuine, regular orthochromatic, o true, right, correct orthodox &c orthocephalic, orthocephalous, adj [1 órthoséfálik, -séfálik, 2 órthoséfálik, -séfálik] ortho- & cephalic, (-ous) (of the skull) Having breadth of from $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ of length, half way between dolicho and brachycephalic orthochromatic, adj [1 órthókhrómálik, 2 órthókhrómálik] ortho- & chromatic (photog) Giving or producing true relative tones of light and shade orthoclase, n [1 órthoklás, 2 órthoklás] ortho- & Gk klasis, 'to break, cleave' Sesquioxide of aluminum (mineral) Common potash feldspar, a constituent of granite, gneiss &c orthoclastic, adj [1 órthoklásistik, 2 órthoklásistik] See prec & -ic (crystal) Having a cleavage at right angles, as the common feldspars orthodox, adj [1 órthodoks, 2 órthodoks] fr Gk orthodoxos, 'having right opinions', ortho- & doxa, 'opinion' See dogma & doxology 1 Correct, right in opinion or doctrine, esp in theological or religious opinion, contrasted with heterodox 2 Specif (cap) belonging to the Orthodox Eastern, or Greek Church, of Greece, Bulgaria, Serbia, Roumania, and Russia, one of the ancient divisions of the Catholic Church, as contrasted with the Roman or Western Church 3 (gen. sense) Holding opinions which are conventionally regarded as true and correct or as being established by authority orthodoxy, n [1 órthodoksia, 2 órthodoksia] fr Gk orthodoxia, 'correct, right opinion' Prec & -y State, quality, or being orthodox, correctness of religious or theological belief, also of scientific doctrine orthoeptic, adj [1 órthóptik, 2 órthóptik] See orthoepey & -ic Of, relating to, orthoepey or correct pronunciation orthoepeist, n [1 órthóptist, 2 órthóptist] See prec & -ist Teacher, student, of orthoepey orthoepey, n [1 órthóptia, 2 órthóptia] fr Gk orthopeia, fr ortho- & epos, 'word', see epic, & -y Correct pronunciation, study of, theory and teaching concerning, this orthogenesis, n [1 órthogénesis, 2 órthogénesis] ortho- & genesis (biol) A consistent variation in successive generations resulting in a fresh type, independent of natural selection or other external factors orthognathous, adj [1 órthognáthous, 2 órthognáthous] ortho- & Gk gnathos, 'jaw', see gnathic, & -ous Having a skull in which the forehead in profile is approximately in a straight line with the lower jaw, and not one in which one projects and the other recedes, contrasted with oporthognathous and prognathous orthogonal, adj [1 órthogónal, 2 órthogónal] ortho- & Gk gonia, 'angle', see -gon Right-angled, rectangular orthographer, n [1 órthográfer, 2 órthográfer] See orthography & -er A correct speller, person skilled in orthography orthographic(al), adj [1 órthográfik (l), 2 órthográfik (l)] See ortho- & graphic & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, orthography or correct spelling 2 (drawing) Pertaining to the orthography of a plan orthographic projection, one in which the lines are perpendicular to the plane of projection, perspective drawn as if seen from an infinite distance 3 (geom) Pertaining to right lines or angles orthographically, adv Prec & -ly According to the rules of orthography orthography, n [1 órthográfia, 2 órthográfia] fr O Fr orthographie, & so spelt in A.L., fr Lat., fr Gk orthographia, 'correct writing', ortho- & -graphy 1 Correct writing, that is in accordance with the accepted standard of a given age 2 That part of grammar which treats of spelling and gives the accepted rules 3 (drawing) Art of drawing an elevation in correct projection orthopaedia See orthopaedy orthopaedic, adj [1 órthopéidik, 2 órthopéidik] ortho- & paed, 'child' Connected with, based on, orthopaedics orthopaedic surgery, orthopaedic hospital, one where this branch of surgery is practised orthopaedics, n pl That branch of operative or manipulative surgery which deals with deformities of the bony structure of the body, esp in young children orthopaedist, n [1 órthopédist, 2 órthopédist] See next word & -ist One skilled in orthopaedics orthopaedy, n [1 órthopédi, 2 órthopédi] fr Fr orthopédie, fr ortho- & Gk paed (os), paies, 'child' See paedo- Orthopaedics orthopaedic &c See orthopaedic &c orthopterous, adj [1 órthopteros, 2 órthopteros] ortho- & Gk pteron, 'wing', see ptero-, & -ous (entom) Belonging to the order of insects, Orthoptera, including the locusts, grasshoppers, cockroaches &c which have wings folding down the back orthoptic, adj & n [1 órthoptik, 2 órthoptik] ortho- & optic 1 adj Having normal, correct vision in both eyes 2 n A perforated back sight on a rifle ortolan, n [1 órtoalan, 2 órtoalan] Fr, fr Ital ortolano, 'gardener, garden bird', fr Lat hortulanus, 'belonging to a garden, gardener', fr hortulus, dimin of hortus, 'garden' See hortus siccus 1 The garden bunting, Emberiza hortulana, netted and fattened as a table delicacy 2 The wheatear

-ory, suff [1 órri, 2 órri] fr A. Fr -ori, maso, -orie, fem, Mod Fr or, -ore, fr Lat suff -orius, a, um, adj ending in -us added to agent suff -or, a for adjs declamatory, preparatory &c, b for ns, fr Lat nouns in orium, or coined on anal dormitory, laboratory, so factory oryx, n [1 órriks, 2 órriks] Lat, fr Gk oryx, 'a horned Egyptian antelope' (zool) A genus of African antelopes with long straight horns os, n, pl ossa [1 os, osa, 2 os, osa] Lat os, osa, 'a bone', cp Gk osteon, 'bone', Lat osseum, Sort ostis, cogn w Goth aste, 'bough of a tree', all fr orig type of base od this*, wh appears also in Gk oste, 'bough' Cp also O E ost, 'knot in a tree' Used in anatomical terminology in denominating bones os calcis &c

Oscen, adj & n [1 óskan, 2 óskan] Lat Osci, earlier Opici, perh fr base seen in ops, 'power, wealth', see opulent 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Osci, an ancient people of Campania, or to their language 2 n The Italian dialect spoken by the Osci oscillate, vb intrans & trans [1 ósilát, 2 ósilát] fr Lat oscillat (um), PP type of oscillare, 'to swing, sway' Etymol doubtful, Walde suggests derivation fr obs*, fr ob-, & clinare, 'to bend, bow' See decline A in trans 1 To swing backwards and forwards like a pendulum, to move, vibrate, between two fixed points 2 (fig) To waver, vacillate, between two courses of action, opinions &c, to act in a changeable, vacillating manner 3 (phys) To exhibit the phenomenon of oscillation B trans 1 To cause to swing backwards and forwards 2 To cause oscillations in or to oscillation, n [1 ósiláshun, 2 ósiláshun] Lat. oscillation (em), 'a swinging' Prec & -ion 1 A act of oscillating, state of being in movement, b fluctuation, variation, vacillation in action, opinions &c 2 (elect) An irregular or intermittent discharge, electrical surging or disturbed movement of waves, as in wireless telegraphy and telephony oscillator, n [1 ósiláshur, 2 ósiláshur] oscillate & -or Person who, thing which, oscillates, specif, electric system or apparatus which generates electro magnetic waves, as in wireless telegraphy and telephony oscillatory, adj. [1 ósáilúirí, 2 ósáilteirí]. oscillate & -ory. Vibrated by oscillations, tending to oscillate, vibratory oscillatory current, current &c. oscillograph, n [1 ósáilgráf, 2 ósáilgráf].

 Cameo fr oscillate & -graph. An instrument for registering oscillations or variations of electrical current.

oscine, adj. [1 ósín, 2 ósáin], fr Lat oscinus, oscin, 'singing bird', esp a bird whose cry or song was used in augury, for 'obscure, fr ob(s)', see ob-, & canere, 'to sing', see chant (ornith). Belonging to the Oscines, a group or suborder of Passerine birds, including the true singing birds.

oscitation, n [1 ósáitáshun, 2 ósáitáshun].
 Lat oscitatio-(em), oscitatio, 'yawning', fr oscitare, 'to gape, yawn', fr os, 'mouth', see oral, & currere, 'to move', q v under cite (rare) a Yawning, gaping, extreme drowsiness, b negligence, inattention.

osculant, adj. [1 óskilánt, 2 óskilánt], fr Lat osculant-(em), osculant, Part of osculant, 'to kiss'. See osculate. Kissing, hence, meeting, touching, specif (biol) forming a link between two groups or species.

oscular, adj. [1 óskúlar, 2 óskúlar], fr Lat osculum-(um), 'mouth, kiss', dimin of os, 'mouth', see oral, & -ar. 1 Pertaining to the mouth, pertaining to a kiss. 2 (biol) Of, pertaining to, an osculum, opening or orifice as in sponges &c.

osculate, vb trans & intrans [1 óskilát, 2 óskilát], fr Lat osculat-(um), PP type of osculare, 'to kiss', fr osculum, 'kiss'. See prec & osculum & -ate. 1 trans To kiss. 2 intrans (biol, of different groups) To be nearly related, to have characteristics in common. 3 (math) To touch closely, as of curves at more than one point.

osculation, n [1 óskúiláshun, 2 óskúiláshun], fr Lat osculatio-(em), osculatio, 'a kiss'. See prec & -ion. 1 A kiss. 2 Specif (math) contact of a curve with another curve.

osculatory, adj. [1 óskúiláirí, 2 óskúiláirí]. osculate & -ory. 1 Kissing. 2 (math) Osculating.

osculum, n [1 óskúilum, 2 óskúilum]. Lat, 'little mouth, a kiss', fr os, 'mouth', see oral, & dimin suff, q v under -cule (zool). 1 One of the openings or holes in a sponge. 2 A sucker whereby some lowly forms of life are able to attach themselves.

-ose, suff. [1] fr Lat suff -osus, meaning 'full of, abounding in, having qualities of' verbal, bellicose, jocose &c., (2) (chem) by anal, fr glucose, taken fr Gk of carbohydrates cellulose, fructose &c.

osier, n [1 óshier, 2 óshier]. Fr, 'willow', etymol doubtful, L Lat has osaria, osaria, 'bundle of willow twigs or shoots'. Any of several species of willow whose flexible twigs are used in basket-work.

osier-hed, n Damp place abounding in osiers, clump of osiers.

-osis, suff. fr Gk -osis, suff expressing state, condition, process metamorphosis &c., in modern medical usage it expresses a state of disease, as necrosis &c.

-osity, suff. See -ose & -ity.

Osmanli, n [1 ózmanli, 2 ózmanli]. Turk Osmanlı. A Turk of European or Ottoman branch of empire founded by Osman I, 1301.

osmium, adj. [1 ós, ósmik, 2 ós, ósmik], fr osmium & -ic (chem) Pertaining to osmium.

osmium, n [1 ós-, ósmium, 2 ós-, ósmium].
 Cameo fr Gk osmé, 'a small, odour', for 'odour', cogn w oscin, 'to smell', & Lat odor, see odour (chem). A very hard white metallic element, associated with platinum, chiefly used for making filaments for electric lamps, its oxide gives off a powerfully smelling and poisonous vapour.

osmosis, n [1 ós, ósmosis, 2 ós, ósmosis].
 Modern coinage, formed fr Gk ósmos, 'a pushing, impulse', fr ósmos, 'to strike, push', & -osis. Cogn. w Sert vadh, 'to strike', vádya, 'to repulse', fr base 'vadh', 'to strike' (phys). The interchange of place of two fluids separated by a permeable partition, each tending to pass through the latter at a rate determined by their respective densities.

osmotic, adj. [1 ós, ósmótik, 2 ós-, ósmótik].
 Prec & -ic. Of, pertaining to, osmosis.

osmund, osmunda, n [1 ósmund, ósmunda, 2 ósmund, ósmunda], fr Fr osmonde, etymol doubtful. The royal or king fern, or flowering fern, Osmunda regalis.

osprey, n [1 ósprí, -á, 2 ósprí, -or]. Fr orfrase, fr Lat ossifraga. See ossifraga. 1 A large fishing-hawk or sea eagle, Pandion haliaetus. 2 A milliner's term for an egret's plume, the osprey has no such plumes.

osseous, adj. [1 óseus, 2 óseus], fr Lat osseus, 'bony', fr oss-(us), os, 'bone'. See os. Bony, composed, consisting, of bone, having a bony, not cartilaginous, skeleton.

ossicle, n [1 ósikl, 2 ósikl], fr Lat ossiculum, dimin fr os, 'bone'. See prec (anat). A small bone or bony structure, as in the ear.

ossification, n [1 ósifikáshun, 2 ósifikáshun], fr Lat ossif, 'bone', see os, & -ification, op ossify. A process of changing into bone or becoming bony, b etate of being ossified, c bony structure.

ossifrage, n [1 ósifrá, 2 ósifrá], fr Lat ossifraga, 'bearded vulture', as if ossifraga avis, 'bone-breaking bird', ossif, 'bone', see os, & frag, a form of base in frangere, 'to break'. See fracture, fragile, & break (I).

Cp osprey. A lammergeier, b osprey.

ossify, vb trans & intrans [1 ósif, 2 ósif], fr Lat ossif, 'bone', see os, & -ify. 1 trans To cause to become bony, or to assume the nature of bone. 2 intrans To change into bone or bony tissue, esp of joints, to become filled with bony tissue and cease to be movable.

ossuary, n [1 ósfári, 2 ósfári], fr L Lat ossuarium, 'charnel house'. See os & -ary. a A bone-vault or charnel house, b an urn for holding the burnt bones of the dead.

osteal, adj. [1 ósteal, 2 ósteal], fr Gk osteon, 'bone'. See osteal & -al. Osseous, bony.

osteitis, n [1 óstéit, 2 óstéit], fr prec & -itis. Inflammation of a bone or of bony tissue.

ostensibility, n [1 ósténsihlita, 2 ósténsihlita]. ostensible & -ity. State, quality, of being ostensible.

ostensible, adj. [1 ósténsibl, 2 ósténsibl].
 Fr, fr Lat ostensibilis, PP type of ostendere, fr ostendere, 'to exhibit, show', ob-, 'before', & tendere, 'to stretch', see tend (II), & -ible. Shown, exhibited, apparent, pretended, professed, usually in contrast with real or actual. ostensible motive, purpose &c.

ostensibly, adv. Prec & -ly. Apparently, so far as appearances go.

ostensive, adj. [1 ósténsiv, 2 ósténsiv].
 Lat ostensivus, see ostensible, & -ive. Ostensible.

ostensory, n [1 ósténsur, 2 ósténsur], fr Med Lat ostensivum, cp Fr ostensiv, fr Lat ostensivus, see ostensible, & -ory. A monstration.

ostentation, n [1 ósténtáshun, 2 ósténtáshun].
 Fr, fr Lat ostentatio-(em), fr ostentat-(um), PP type of ostentare, intens form of ostendere, 'to show'. See ostensible & -ion. Act of making a deliberate display, or parade, of wealth, learning, or other possession or quality, pretentious, vulgar show, parade, or pomp, anything done merely to impress others, to draw public attention or applause.

ostentatious, adj. [1 ósténtáshus, 2 ósténtáshus].
 See prec & -ous. Given to, marked by exhibiting, ostentation, pretensions.

ostentatiously, adv. Prec & -ly. In an ostentatious manner, so as to attract attention.

osteo-, pref, fr Gk osteon, 'bone', cogn w Lat os, chiefly used in forming medical and anatomical terms.

osteoblast, n [1 ósteóblast, 2 ósteóblast], fr osteo- & Gk blastis, 'bud, shoot'. See first element in blastoderm. Bone-forming cell.

osteogenesis, n [1 ósteóyénesis, 2 ósteóyénesis]. osteo- & genesis (physiol). Formation of bone.

osteoid, adj. [1 ósteóid, 2 ósteóid]. osteo- & -oid. Resembling bone.

osteology, n [1 ósteóloi, 2 ósteóloji]. osteo- & -logy. Branch of anatomy dealing with bones, their development, structure, form, and arrangement.

osteoma, n [1 ósteóma, 2 ósteóma]. osteo- & -oma (pathol). A bony tumour, tumour on a bone.

osteomalacia, n [1 ósteómalásia, 2 ósteómalásia]. osteo- & Gk malakia, 'softness', fr malakos, 'soft'. See malaco- (pathol). A disease marked by gradual softening of bones.

osteomyelitis, n [1 ósteómielitis, 2 ósteómielitis]. osteo- & myelitis (pathol). Inflammation of the marrow of a bone, esp in young children.

osteopath, n [1 ósteópath, 2 ósteópath]. osteo- & -path. One who practises osteopathy, bone setter.

osteopathist, n [1 ósteópathist, 2 ósteópathist].
Prec & -ist. An osteopath.

osteopathy, n [1 ósteópathi, 2 ósteópathi]. osteo- & -pathy. Treatment of diseases by manipulation of the bones, esp of the spine, manipulative surgery, in English usage, esp. as performed by unqualified practitioners. Cp orthopaedics.

osteoplastic, adj. [1 ósteóplástik, 2 ósteóplástik]. osteo- & plastic. Of, pertaining to, the replacement of bone.

osteoplastic, n [1 ósteóplástá, 2 ósteóplástá].
 See prec & -y. Treatment of loss of bone or bony tissue by the transplanting of living bony tissue from another part of the body, or from some other animal.

ostiar, n [1 óstíar, 2 óstíar], fr Lat ostiarus, 'door-keeper', fr ostium, 'entrance, door', formed fr os, 'mouth'. See oral & pusher. A door keeper of a church, the lowest of the minor orders in the Roman Catholic Church.

ostiole, n [1 óstéol, 2 óstéol].
 Lat osticulum, dimin of ostium, 'door'. See prec (bot). A small orifice or pore in various plants, such as sea-weeds or lichens.

ostitis, n [1 óstítis, 2 óstítis].
 Osteitis.

ostler, n [1 ósler, 2 ósler].
 Earlier hostler, M E hostler, fr O Fr hosteler, 'inn keeper', as hostel & -er. A groom or stableman at an inn.

ostracism, n [1 óstráksizm, 2 óstráksizm], fr Gk ostrakismos, fr ostrakizein, 'to ostracize', fr ostrakon, 'oyster shell, tile, potsherd, voting tablet', ostrakon, 'oyster', cogn w ostion, 'honey'. See osteo- & oyster. 1 (Gk hist) A method of banishment for ten years of a person likely to disturb the peace of the State, practised at Athens, the citizens wrote on a scrap of broken pottery the name of the person they wished to be ostracized. 2 (gen) Exclusion, by popular feeling, from society, favour, or privileges to suffer political, social, ostracism.

ostracize, vb trans [1 óstráksiz, 2 óstráksiz], fr Gk ostrakizein, 'to banish by voting with fr Gk ostrakon, 'potsherds'. See prec 1 (Gk hist) To banish by the method of ostracism. 2 (gen) To refuse to associate with, exclude, by popular feeling, from society, send to Coventry.

ostrea-, ostreo-, pref, fr Gk ostreum, 'oyster', see oyster.

ostreiculture, ostreoculture, n [1 óstrei, 2 óstrei]. ostreókhur, 2 óstrei, ostreókhur]. See prec & culture. The breeding or cultivation of oysters.

ostreophagous, adj. [1 óstreiófagos, 2 óstreiófagos]. ostreo- & -phagous. Feeding on oysters.

ostrich, n [1 óstri, 2 óstri].
 M E ostrice, ostriche, fr O Fr ostrice, ostriche, Mod Fr autruche, cp Port abaturu, Span avestruz, fr Low Lat avis struthio, avis,

'bird', & strúthio, 'ostrich', fr Gk struthiōn, 'ostrich', fr struthos, 'a bird, sparrow', ho mégas strouthós, 'the great bird, ostrich', cp bustard for another corrupt of Lat avis, & see thrush (I) A large flightless bird, found in Africa, Arabia, and Syria, with short wings, long powerful legs which enable it to run very quickly, and a long straight neck, now domesticated on ostrich-farms, and bred for the beautiful black or white tail and wing feathers Phr a digestion like an ostrich, from its habit of swallowing very hard objects to aid the working of the gizzard, to bury one's head ostrich like in the sand (from the legend that when ostriches are hunted they hide their heads only, thinking they cannot be seen), to believe that one's manifest actions are not known, to be self-deluded otalgia, n [1 ótajus, 2 otaldzja] fr Gk ótalgia, fr ót, stem of ótis, 'ear', fr owos*, cogn w Lat auris, fr awos*, see aural (II) & audible, & w Goth ausō, O.E. lære, see ear (I), & algos, 'pain, grief', see -algia (med) Ear ache other (I), adj [1 úðar, 2 úðs] O.E. óðer, 'the second, following, other', fr anþar*, M.E. áðer, O.S. áðar, O.H.G. andar; Goth. anþar, O.N. annarr, cogn w. Sert. ánar-as, compar of ér, 'that one', in the sense of 'second, beyond the one pointed out', Lith. dárus, 'another', the ending -ther identical w the compar suff, e.g. Gk. Jerós, cp other Engl. words either, neither, whether &c 1 Different, distinct from, alternative to, that stated or pointed out give me the other coat, not this one, take it in your other hand, on the other side of the road, that opposite, needs other powers than mine, change into other clothes Phr the other day, some date, not specified, in the recent past, recently, the other world, the life to come 2 Additional, besides, over and above that or those in question to have other friends, as there no other use to be made of it, I have my ordinary business and many other things to do besides, the truth is quite other than what you think, 'Mary! I want a lyre with other strings' (Cowper) 3 Second, only in every other day, on alternate days, every second day other (II), n or pron. This might be considered an elliptical use of the adj 1 (always preceded by the) Other, different specified person or thing, the remainder this hand, not the other, I must consult the others 2 Some person or thing unspecified or unknown some idiot or other was shouting all night, he must have eaten something or other which upset him Phr some day or other, at some period in the future not defined other (III), adv See other (I) Otherwise, differently if you think other than logically, I can't do other than accept otherness, n [1 úðarnes, 2 áðanis] other & -ness (philos) State, quality, of being other than, or separate and distinct from, that existing, experienced &c conscious of a state of otherness otherwise, adv [1 úðerwár, 2 áðwær] other & where (poet) Elsewhere, in or to some other place otherwise, adv [1 úðerwíl, 2 áðwávil] other & while (archaic) At some other time otherwise, adv [1 úðerwíz, 2 áðwáwíz] See other & wise (II) 1 In another, different manner this must be done quite otherwise, quite otherwise engaged 2 Under circumstances other than those specified if not so what you are told otherwise you will be flogged I was detained, otherwise I should have kept my appointment 3 Apart from that in other respects he has a squint, but is otherwise a handsome fellow otherworldliness, n [1 úðerwérldlínnes, 2 áðwérldlínnes] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being otherworldly otherworldly, adj [1 úðerwérldlil, 2 áðwérldlil] other & worldly Concerned with the future life, the other world, the world to come, to the exclusion of present worldly concerns or interests, spiritual, unworldly otic, adj [1 ótik, 2 ótikil] fr Gk ótikos, fr ótis, ótis, 'ear' See under otalgia (anat.) Of, pertaining to, the ear or the organs of hearing otic ganglion

-otic, suff, fr Gk suff -ótikos, for forming adjs fr words ending in -ótis, as neurotic fr neuros &c, also in formations in Gk, fr words ending in -ótis, as erotic fr érōs The force of the suff is 'suffering from, resembling, conducing to'

otiose, adj [1 ótios, ótios, -z, -2 ótious, otious, -z] fr Lat ótiosus, 'at leisure, disengaged, at ease, idle', fr ótium, 'leisure, idleness', prob fr auhom*, cp Sert. ava, 'free from', perh also Goth auþer, 'desert, waste' 1 Superfluous, futile, without use or function his remarks were perfectly otiose 2 (archaic or rare) At leisure, unemployed, idle otitis, n [1 ótitis, 2 otutitis] fr ótis (see), ótis, 'ear', see otalgia, & -itis (med) Inflammation of the ear otium cum dignitate [1 ótium kam dignitátes, 2 otium kam dignitátes] See otiose & dignity Lat Phr, leisure with dignity, dignified retirement from office or business oto-, pref Combining form, fr Gk ótis, ótis, 'ear', in anatomical or medical terminology See otalgia otolith, n [1 ótolith, 2 otolith] See preco & -lith Formation of chalky matter in the internal ear of some vertebrates, esp fishes otology, n [1 ótologi, 2 otólodil] oto- & -logy Special study of the ear and its diseases otoscopes, n [1 ótólóp, 2 otutólóp] oto- & -scope Instrument for examining the internal ear ottava rima, n. Anglized to [1 ótava rima, 2 ótava rima] Ital. See octave & rhyme (prosody) A verse form or stanza of eight lines, the first six lines rhyming alternately, the last two forming a separate couplet, the Italian form has eleven, the English ten syllables, in each line otter, n [1 ótter, 2 ótter] O.E. oter, otter, M.E. oter, O.H.G. otter, O.N. otr, fr uttra*, cogn w Lith & Sert. uttra, 'otter', all fr base ut-* &c, 'water', as in Gk húdrō, 'water', see hydra, hydro- See further under water & wet The otter is 'the water animal' 1 a An aquatic mammal with thick dark brown fur, webbed feet, and long, flattened tail, genus Lutra, found in England and other parts of Europe, also the sea otter, Lutra lutra, of the N Pacific, b the fur of the otter 2 (attrib) Other hound, a breed of hound used for hunting otters, otter trawl, a fishing trawl in which the mouth is kept widely spread by boards on each side 3 Kind of fishing tackle, consisting of a plank weighted and moored some way from shore, with bait attached

otto n Variant of attar

Ottoman (I), adj & n [1 ótoman, 2 ótaman] Fr, fr Arab Uthmán, in Turk. Osman, name of the founder of the Turkish Ottoman dynasty, d 1328 a adj Turkish, b n, a Turk ottoman (II), n, fr preo Kind of settee, of various shapes, usually low, thickly padded and upholstered, and sometimes consisting of three or more seats united at a central point, and so placed that the occupants all face different ways, another type consists of a circular continuous seat with a padded truncated pillar in the centre, which forms a back, a third is in the form of a low square sofa, the padded seat of which lifts up and discloses a box oubliette, n [1 óbliet, 2 óbliet] Fr, fr oublier, 'to forget', Lat oblivisci, q.v. under oblivion & -ette a A dungeon in a castle or prison, reached from a room above by a trap-door, also used of passage from the dungeon itself to the moat, b (loosely) a shaft leading from the upper chambers to the moat for disposal of drainage, and occasionally of unwanted or troublesome persons ouch, n [1 ouch, 2 auts] fr 'a nouch', op adder, apron &c, O Fr ouches, fr L Lat nusca, 'brooch', prob of Celt origin, cp Irish nasc, 'ring', nascain, 'to fasten'. A jewelled brooch or clasp, morse ought (I), n [1 áwt, 2 ót] 1 Obs spelling of ought 2 Exists only in the vulgar ought for nought, a cipher oughts and crosses ought (II), auxil vb O.E. áhte, Pret of agan, 'to own, possess', used early in M.E. w present-day sense of obligation áhtet he áhte to haven, 'ought to have' (Laud Chron, 1140) See owe & own (II) Always followed by infin, the past tense being expressed by auxil to have w P.P. 1. Expressing obligation, duty a (pres) we ought all to love God, you ought to tell your mother at once, b (past) you ought to have done it long ago 2 Expressing desirability you ought to come with us, you ought to have been there, meaning it is a pity you were not there 3 Expressing probability. I ought to be free by it, with luck, we ought to win if all goes well our-ja, n. [1 wéyah, 2 wjá] fr Fr our & Germ ja, 'yes' A board with an alpha bet and figures on it, used in spiritualistic seances &c ounce (I), n, abbr oz [1 ouns, 2 ouns] M.E. unce, fr O Fr, fr Lat uncia, 'twelfth part of a pound or a foot', lit 'a unit', fr unus, 'one' See unit, also inch (I) 1 A unit of weight, $\frac{1}{16}$ of a pound avoirdupois, $\frac{1}{8}$ troy or apothecaries' weight fluid ounce, eight (fluid) drachms, $\frac{1}{16}$ of imperial pint of water 2 A small quantity he hasn't got an ounce of sense Phr an ounce of practice is worth a pound of theory ounce (II), n, fr Fr once, op Span onza, Ital onza & lonza, etymol. doubtful, prob Fr once, for lonce, fr a supposed L Lat lyncea* for lyncea, fem of adj fr lynx See lynx a The snow leopard of Tibet and Central Asia, b (loosely or poet) a lynx or other medium sized feline wild animal of the leopard or panther kind our, pronominal adj [1 our, 2 awe] O.E. áre, 'of us', possess of us, pron of 1st pers pl., used & declined as adj, O.H.G. unsar, O.S. úser, Goth unsara See us & we 1 Of or belonging to us, concerned with, relating to us our country, language &c, our sovereign Lord, the King, this is our house, Our Father, God as the Creator of the common humankind, Our Lady, the Virgin Mary, in our midst, in the middle of us, amongst us, that is, the people of this country 2 a (i) Used by sovereigns speaking ceremonially, for my, as we for I our loyal subjects, our trusty and well beloved X, (ii) by bishops 'by the imposition of our hands', b as preserving anonymity, in expressing views of a paper, magazine &c in our opinion &c

-our, suff Variant of -or, the former being the O Fr & M.E. type, the latter fr Lat direct ours, pron [1 ourz, 2 awez] See our, an emphasized double possessive a That or those that belong to us ours is a nice house, this country of ours, our country, don't go to their dance, come to ours, b (absolutely) as pred adjective those seats are ours ourselves, pron, pl. ourselves [1 ourálf, -selvz, 2 awárf, aselvz] our & -self a Impersonal we, or us for ourselves we want little, let us go ourselves, ourselves only when a sovereign speaks ceremonially we ourselves, b as reflexive pron we must not deceive ourselves

-ous, suff [1 us, 2 es] fr O Fr -ous, -eus, fr Lat -osus, cp -ose, used to form adjs meaning (1) 'abounding in, full of' &c joyous, O Fr joyeus, Mod joyeux, Lat joecus, also as regular adj suff for Lat words in -us &c stupendous, capacious &c; (2) (enem) as contrasted w -ic, having a lower valency than the equiv in -ic astrous, metric, acid

ousel, n See ouzel

oust, vb trans [1 oust, 2 oust], fr O Fr oster, 'to remove', cp Mod Fr ôter, etymol doubtful, the meaning seems against derivation fr Lat obstare, 'to stand in the way of, hinder', another possibility is L Lat haustare, see exhaust, 'to draw off, drain away, carry away, remove', wh is, however, objected to by Meyer-Lubke on phonological grounds a To turn out, expel, drive out, esp by underhand means, in material and non-material senses to oust a man from office, from the good graces of another, b specif (law) to dispossess, eject from a house or from other property, esp by illegal process ouster, n [1 ouster, 2 ouster], fr prec, prob a use of O Fr infin oster, as vbl n (law) Dispossession, ejection from property, esp by illegal process out (I), adv [1 out, 2 out] OE ūt, ūte, 'out, outside', expressing position & motion, ME out(e), OS & Gotb ūt, OHG ūz &c Special uses of out after verbs are exhibited under the latter 1 (of relations in space) General sense, away from interior, from an enclosed space, towards, on, at, the exterior, a implying motion away from the inside, from interior, away from confinement, from a limited area, or specific place to go, run, pass, out, out of the bag, a box, out of the frying-pan, out of the house, the room, out of the village, the place, garden &c, also in fig Phrs (the idea, hope &c) comes out of one's own brain, heart &c, b expressing position, situation, rest, away from interior, beyond un-oursured limits, boundaries &c to sit out of doors, remain out of the house, to stay out, to live out of town, specif, of the ball in various games, not where it ought to be, in a spot beyond some prescribed limit, c expressing motion away from home and towards a given goal the journey out, contrasted with back, gone out to America, to start out, d expressing distance from specified place five miles out of town 2 Away from land, towards, on, the open sea out at sea, to row out 3 Expressing various non-spatial relations indicating absence of concealment, openness, publicity the secret is, has got, out, the new book is, has come, out, my daughter is not out yet, not introduced to society as grown up 4 Expressing exclusion, a out of office, lacked out, the Whigs are out, Phrs out of it, not concerned with, not involved in, what is going on, out of touch with, isolated from (surrounding events, interests &c), out of the question, not within sphere of discussion, impossible, impracticable, b (cricket) no longer batting, having been bowled, caught &c 5 Expressing a want, lack, insufficiency out of money, out of breath, out of work, the wine has run out 6 Expressing exhaustion, extinction, disappearance, termination, completion the fire, the gas, is out, the fire has burnt out, my strength is out, the lease is out, hear me out 7 Expressing deviation from some standard of good order, departure from what is correct, accurate, true, sound, harmonious out of tune, time, out in one's reckoning, out of (all) proportion, my eye is a bit out today, out of step, my watch is five minutes out, to be out with a person, quarrel with him, out of temper, out of one's mind, reason out of repair 8 Expressing liberation from confinement, freedom from restraint the floods are out, out of all bounds, to break out 9 Expressing condition of being beyond power to control, influence, affect, attain &c out of hand, control, out of one's reach, out of one's power to grant, the business is now quite out of my hands 10 Expressing departure from what once was customary, deviation from formerly prevailing general usage frock-coats have gone out, out of fashion 11 Expressing cause, reason, motive, consequence &c he acted out of necessity, out of desire for improvement, out of fear, out of kindness, out of mischief, out of folly &c 12 Expressing source, origin that's out of Shakespeare, a scene out of a play, an advertisement out of a newspaper, he came out of a wretched home, a slum &c 13 Expressing thoroughness, completeness, in Phrs out and out, a scoundrel out and out, as adj in an out-and-out fool, out and away, by far, beyond comparison out and away the handsomest woman there out (II), adj, fr prec Situated, being, on the exterior, specif (games) reverse of in; cricket, not batting the out side out (III), n, fr prec That which is out, in games &c, the outs, the out side out (IV) interj, fr out (I) (arobao or obs) 1 Expressing indignation, impatience, get out, be off, away with you &c 2 Expressing horror, protest &c out upon you!

out (V), vb trans, fr out (I) (colloq or slang) To put or knock out out that man, put him out of doors, he was outed in the first round, knocked out out-, pref, fr out (I) 1 With nouns and adjectives, with chief stress, a situated outside, far-lying, remote, outhouse, outbuilding, outpost, outwork, outlying, b coming from without, living outside out patient 2 As prefix to verbs, with chief stress on verb, a (chiefly poet), expressing same idea as the verb followed by out out thrust, to thrust out, outflow, to flow out, outwear, to wear out, b as intensive prefix to adjective, or P used as adj outspread, outworn 3 (unstressed) Before verbs expressing a protracted, continued existence outlast, outlive, to last, live, longer than, or beyond life or existence of, b enhanced action, greater intensity of action outsing, outshout, to out-Herod Herod, often in facetious conages, to out Jones Jones, to beat J at his own game, c superiority outshine, outfight, outnumber, outrun, outreach, d expressing passing of a limit outgrow, e excess outstay 4 (with chief stress) As prefix to nouns, having the general sense of from within outwards outcrop, outcry, outfit, outgrowth, output &c, idea of excess out-size, but often with specialized sense in the compound See individual words outbalance, vb trans [1 outbalance, 2 outbalance] To outweigh, to be of greater weight or balance than outbargain, vb trans [1 outbargain, 2 outbargain] To defeat in a bargain or deal outbid, vb trans [1 outbid, 2 outbid] To bid higher than outboard, adj & adv [1 outboard, 2 outboard] (naut) On, towards, the outer side of a ship, away from the centre, contrasted with inboard outbound, adj [1 outbound, 2 outbound] Outward bound, on a voyage out or away from land outbrave, vb trans [1 outbrave, 2 outbrave] 1 a To excel in daring or bravery, b to overcome by superior bravery 2 To defy outbreak, n [1 outbreak, 2 outbreak] A breaking out, as of war, tumult, anger, disease outbuilding, n [1 outbuilding, 2 outbuilding] Subsidiary building, such as stables, sheds &c, separate from the main building outburst, n [1 outburst, 2 outburst] A bursting out, outbreak, sudden forcible expression of emotion or passion an outburst of rage, tears &c, an outburst of loyalty outcast, adj, n [1 outcast, 2 outcast] 1 n Homeless, friendless person, one exiled from society, vagabond. 2 adj (rare) Cast out, driven away, exiled, homeless outcaste, adj, n, & vb trans See caste Often confused w prec 1 adj Not having caste rights, not belonging to a caste, expelled from caste rights 2 n Person who has no caste or has been expelled from his caste, pariah 3 vb To expel from caste rights outclass, vb trans [1 outclass, 2 outclass] To surpass, excel in merit, to belong to superior class out-college, adj [1 out college, 2 out college].

Reading out of college, not having rooms in college, not belonging to one's own college outcome, n [1 outcome, 2 outcome] Result of an action, process, set of circumstances, issue, upshot outcrop, n [1 outcrop, 2 outcrop] Portion of rock or stratum which projects above, comes through, the surface of the ground outcry, n [1 outcry, 2 outcry] a A shout, noisy cry of alarm, indignation &c, b (fig) forcible, widespread protest, public expression of indignation, disapproval, or the like outdistance, vb trans [1 outdistance, 2 outdistance] To cover a greater distance in a given time than, travel faster than, to pass ahead of outdo, vb trans [1 outdo, 2 outdo] To do something better than another, to surpass, excel in performance, to exhibit greater proficiency, zeal &c, than outdoor, adj [1 outdoor, 2 outdoor] 1 Used, performed, existing, living, out of doors, in the open air or away from a house &c outdoor dress, games &c, an outdoor life 2 Outdoor relief, that given by the Reliefing Officer outside the workhouse &c, to people in their own homes outdoors, adv [1 outdoors, 2 outdoors] Out of doors, in the open air, out of the house outdwell, n [1 outdwell, 2 outdwell] One who dwells outside the boundaries of a parish but holds land inside or has parochial rights &c outer, adj & n [1 outer, 2 outer] New formation direct fr out (I) & -er, compar suff, the old form is seen in utter, w specialized meaning 1 adj a Farther out from, farther from the centre or inside, nearer to, on the outside, external, opposed to inner outer rooms, outer coverings, outer wall, Phrs the outer man, a man's external appearance, costume &c, the outer world, (i) the external, material world, (ii) society in general with which one is not intimate or familiar, Outer Bar, also formerly Utter Bar, collective term for junior barristers not called within the bar as King's Counsel, Outer House, the hall in the Scottish Parliament House in which the Lords Ordinary of the Court of Session sit singly to hear cases, b (philos) Objective, external, as opposed to subjective or inner 2 n a That part of a target which is on the outside margin, next beyond the inner, b a shot on this part of a target outermost, adj [1 outermost, 2 outermost] New formation fr prec & -most See also uttermost & utmost Superl of out Farthest outward, on the furthest or most extreme side, farthest from the inside outface, vb trans [1 outface, 2 outface] To face boldly, stare down or out of countenance, to defy, browbeat outfall, n [1 outfall, 2 outfall] The place, point, where water falls out into a larger body of water &c, as the mouth of river, canal, drain &c, outlet, point of discharge outfang(en)thief, n [1 outfang(en)thief, 2 outfang(en)thief] OE ūtfangenþeof, ūth, 'out', fangen, P P of fān, 'to take, seize', see fang (I), & þeof, thief (Anglo-Saxon law) The right of the lord of a manor to try in his own court a dweller in his own manor who has been taken for felony committed outside, contrasted with infangen thief outfield, n [1 outfield, 2 outfield] 1 Farmland lying away from the home farm 2 (fig) An unexplored, unknown field of speculation or thought 3 (cricket) That portion of the field, or the fieldsmen placed there, which is farthest from the batsman, so outfielding, n, the fielding of the players in the outfield outfit, n & vb trans [1 outfit, 2 outfit] 1 n a That which fits out or equips a person completely for a specific purpose, equipment, kit military or naval outfit, outfit for a voyage, a carpenter's outfit, his tools &c, also (fig) mental outfit, b (slang) organized group of persons 2 vb (rare) Usually fit out, (chiefly in P P) outfitted.

outfitter, n [1 outfitter, 2 outfite] Proc & -or One who supplies outfits or equipment gentleman's outfitter, a bossier, shirtmaker &c outflank, vb trans [1 outflank, 2 outflank] a (mil) To move to the outside of (an enemy's flank or wing), b (fig) to outwit, circumvent (an opponent) outflow, n [1 outflow, 2 outflow] A flowing or pouring out, outfall of a river &c, outburst an outflow of water, of language &c outfront, vb trans [1 outfront, 2 outfront] To outface, confront, to stare out of countenance outgeneral, vb trans [1 outgeneral, 2 outgeneral] To beat or excel in generalship, to outmanoeuvre outgo, vb trans & n a vb [1 outgo, 2 outgo] To go beyond or faster than, to surpass, excel, outdo, (usually in Pret) outwent, b n [1 outgo, 2 outgo], that which goes out, esp that which is expended, outlay, expenditure, outgoings, contrasted with in come outgoing, edj & n [1 outgoing, 2 outgoing] a edj Going out, departing an outgoing ship, outgoing tenant, one who is giving up a tenancy, b n. (usually pl), expenditure, outlay outgrow, vb trans [1 outgrow, 2 outgrow] 1 a To become too large for to outgrow one's clothes, my family has outgrown our house, Phr to outgrow one's strength, grow too rapidly, and become abnormally tall for one's age, so that health suffers, b to surpass in growth, grow taller than the younger has outgrown the elder brother 2 To get rid of in course of time, to lose, cease to suffer from to outgrow a bad habit, shyness &c, to outgrow the diseases of one's youth outgrowth, n [1 outgrowth, 2 outgrowth] a That which grows out of or proceeds from something an outgrowth from a tree, b result, consequence, development from revolution is a frequent outgrowth of tyranny out-herod, vb trans [1 out herod, 2 aut herod] a To surpass Herod in cruelty &c, from Hamlet, in 2, 'as out Herods Herod', referring to the overrated part of Herod in the old mystery plays, b (fig) to surpass, outdo, another in the very qualities by which he is characterized out-house, n [1 out house, 2 autbous] Building, shed &c detached from the main house or building, such as a shed of any kind, cow house &c outing, n [1 outing, 2 autu] A pleasure trip, expedition, excursion, holiday spent out of doors or away from home outlander, n [1 outlander, 2 autlände] S Afr Du uitlander, person from an out or foreign land' Foreigner, alien, esp as applied to those not of Boer birth in the Transvaal outlandish, ad [1 outlandish, 2 autlände] Op O E utlandisc, 'foreign, exiled' outland, & -ish a Foreign, strange, esp of appearance or habits, b barbarous, queer, bizarre outlast, vb trans [1 outlast, 2 autlást] To last out longer than, to endure the longer, to outlive, survive outlaw, n & vb trans [1 outlaw, 2 autlós] O E utlaga, utlah, out- & law, prob Scand in origin, & borrowed fr O.N utlaga, 'outlaw' 1 n. a (hist) A person placed outside, and deprived of the protection of the law, by sentence of outlawry, b (n.) a lawless vagabond, (n.) one banished or ostracized by society, a social outcast 2 vb a To pronounce sentence of outlawry upon, b to banish exile ostracize, from society outlawry, n [1 outlawry, 2 autlós] Proc & -(ol)ry a (hist) A legal process whereby a person evading justice or refusing to come before a court of law was declared outside the law and considered civilly dead, b social ostracism outlay, n [1 outlay, 2 autlós] That which is laid out or expended, expenditure, expenses outleap, vb trans [1 outleap, 2 autlós] To leap farther than, surpass in leaping outlet, n [1 outlet, 2 autlós] 1 A passage through which anything is let out, orifice, opening, safety-valve 2 (fig) A means of, opportunity for, expression an outlet for one's energy, emotion &c outlier, n [1 outlier, 2 autlós] a That which lies out or away from a main body or mass, as a detached portion of rock &c, b person or animal found living away from usual place of abode, or habitat outline (I), n [1 outline, 2 autlós] 1 a A line or lines indicating the boundary only of a figure, a contour line, b specif (drawing) the representation of the imaginary line which bounds or contains the plane surface of a visible object, without direct indication of the modelling by shading 2 (fig) a A general statement of main points in a scheme, plan, argument, &c without indication of details, b a narrative of the main general features, and trend of events and actions, avoiding details, c (usually pl) statement of general principles and main facts without minute detail Plur in outline, in summary form, without details outline (II), vb trans fr proc 1 a To draw the outline of, to draw in outline, b to indicate, reveal, outline of outlined against the light 2 To sketch, summarize, give the main features of (place, narrative &c) outlive, vb trans [1 outlive, 2 autlós] 1 To live beyond, or longer than, to survive, outlast to outlive one's contemporaries, to outlive the century 2 To outgrow, to live through or down to outlive disgrace, scandal &c outlook, n [1 outlook, 2 autlós] 1 a A act or fact of looking out, observing, watching, b place or position from which watch is kept, or observation is made 2 a That which is seen by looking out, or from a look out, prospect, view a dreary outlook over waste ground and slums, b vision presented to the mind by circumstances or events a bad outlook for trade, the political state of Europe presents a gloomy outlook 3 Mode of considering events, ideas &c, point of view, mental attitude a narrow, prejudiced, wide, humane, outlook outlying, ad [1 outlying, 2 autlós] Lyng, situated, far away, at some distance, detached from a given point, or centre, remote outmanoeuvre, vb trans [1 outmanoeuvre, 2 autmanévra] (lit and fig) To surpass in skill of manoeuvre, to defeat by or in manoeuvres, to outgeneral outmarch, vb trans [1 outmarch, 2 autmárf] To march faster, or farther than, to surpass in marching power outmatch, vb trans [1 outmatch, 2 autmárf] To be more than a match for, to surpass, excel (in cunning wit, audacity &c) outmost, ad [1 outmost, 2 autmárf] (obj or post) Outermost outness, n [1 outness, 2 autmárf] (philos) State, quality, of being external to the mind or consciousness, objectivity outnumber, vb trans [1 outnumber, 2 autnámbe] To exceed in numbers, be more numerous than outpace, vb trans [1 outpace, 2 autpás] To take longer paces than, to walk faster than, to outstrip in pace out-patient, n [1 out-patient, 2 aut-patient] A patient at a hospital or institution who receives treatment, but is not a resident or inmate out-pension, n [1 out-pension, 2 aut-pension] A pension granted by an institution without the obligation of being an inmate out-pensioner, n [1 out-pensioner, 2 aut-pensioner] A person granted an out-pension outplay, vb trans [1 outplay, 2 autplé] To play better than, to defeat in a game by superior skill outport, n [1 outport, 2 autpóst] A sea- or river port outside or away from the chief port or seat of customs outpost, n [1 outpost, 2 autpóst] a (mil.) One of a series of posts or stations set out at a distance in front of a main body of troops to observe the enemy and prevent surprise, (also attrib) outpost duty, outpost line of defence &c, b any distant settlement the outposts of the Empire outpouring, n [1 outpouring, 2 autpóring] A pouring out, overflow, (chiefly in non-material sense and pl) forcible expression of feelings, in words or writing the outpourings of a sentimental mind output, n [1 output, 2 autput] a That which is put out or produced as a result of physical labour or work the output of a mine, factory &c, also b (of non material things) any product of mental work the literary output of the year outrage (I), n [1 outrage, 2 outrida], fr O fr outrage, ultrae, outrage, fr oultre, oltre, oultre, fr Lat ultra, 'beyond', see ultra-, & -ago, op Ital oltraggio & see ulterior, the meaning has been influenced by confusion w rage 1 a A violent act of physical injury to another's property or person the mob committed many acts of outrage, b specif, violation, rape 2 Gross, violent, transgression of law or decency; excessive violence done to sense of right, justice, propriety, judgement &c outrage (II), vb trans [1 outrage, 2 autrendi], fr proc 1 To commit a physical outrage upon; to treat with violence, spoil, to violate, rape 2 To set at naught, do violence to, offend against, flout (moral sense, reason, law, principles) outrageousness, ad [1 outrageousness, 2 autréidjés], fr O fr outrageous, outrageux outrage (I) & -ous Of the nature of, inflicting, constituting, an outrage, violent, excessive, flagrant, atrocious, monstrous outrageously, adv Proc & -ly In an outrageous manner outrageousness, n See proc & -ness State, quality, of being outrageous outrance, n [1 outrance, 2 útrás] Fr, 'extremity, the end, limit' See outré & outrage Only in Phr d outrance, q v outrange, vb trans [1 outrange, 2 autréndi] To have a wider, longer, range than, a (of vision) to see farther than, b (of guns &c) to carry farther than outré, ad [1 outré, 2 útrés] Fr, 'exaggerated', PP of outrer, 'to carry things, conduct &c beyond reasonable limits'. See outrage Exaggerated, overstepping the bounds of custom, decency, modesty, good sense: outré conduct, dress that is outré outréach, vb trans [1 outréach, 2 autriti] To reach out, extend, farther than, to surpass, to overreach outréign, vb trans [1 outréign, 2 autréign] To reign longer than out-relief, n [1 out-relief, 2 aut rilf] Relief, in money or kind, given by a Relieving Officer to poor persons not inmates of a workhouse or other poor law institution, outdoor relief outride, vb trans [1 outride, 2 autraid] To ride faster, farther, or better, than, to get ahead of, arrive before, by riding outrider, n [1 outrider, 2 autraide] A mounted attendant or servant, accompanying a carriage outrigger, n [1 outrigger, 2 autrige] 1 a A projecting spar or beam rigged out temporarily from a ship's side, mast with tackle for hoisting specially heavy weights &c, b a similar structure from roof or side of a building 2 a A metal stay having a rowlock at the end projecting from the side of a light rowing or sailing boat to give extra leverage, b a boat with outriggers 3 A projecting beam fastened to native boats in the Pacific to prevent upsetting 4 A projection from the shafts or from the splinter bar of a carriage for holding the trace of an extra horse outright, adv. & adj. 1. adv. [1. ontrít; 2. austráit] a Right ont, openly told him outright what he thought of him, b immediately, at once; once for all, entirely was killed outright, bought the house and contents outright 2 adj. [1. óntáit, 2. dútráit] Direct, downright, positive, ont and ont, thorough gave an outright denial, an outright rogue and swindler outrival, vb trans [1. outrív, 2. austrívl] To surpass, excel, a rival, competitor, or object compared outrivalled the stars in brilliance outroot, vb trans [1. outróit; 2. austrút] (chiefly fig.) To root ont, eradicate, destroy to outroot a passion from one's heart outrun, vb trans, [1. outrún, 2. austrún] To run faster than; to outstrip, exceed, go beyond 'the other disciple did outrun Peter' (Gospel of St John xx 4), let one's zeal outrun discretion Phr to outrun the constable, spend more than one's means, to run into debt outrunner, n [1. outraner, 2. dútrane] 1 A running footman or attendant for a carriage 2 The leading dog of the team drawing a sleigh 3 An extra horse outside the shafts of a single-horsed, or outside the traces of a pair-horsed, vehicle outset, n [1. óntset, 2. dútsét] A setting out, beginning, start, commencement, of a series of events at the outset of his career, from the outset the prospects were poor outshine, vb trans [1. outshín, 2. austráim] To shine more brightly than; to excel in splendour, brilliance &c outside (I), adv [1. outsid, 2. austráid] a Externally, over, on, the surface to paint a house outside, b on outward part, in the open air to ride outside (on a coach &c); put these flowers outside (of a room &c) outside (II), prep [1. óutsid, 2. dútsáid] a At, on, the exterior of; on outer side of outside the door, b apart from, with the exception of no one knows outside one or two persons, outside one's own circle outside (III), adj [1. óutsáid, 2. dútsáid] 1 External, a on, connected with, outer surface, or outer parts outside seats of a carriage, b carried on out of doors, contrasted with indoor outside work, repairs &c, c coming from the outside outside labour 2 Extreme, reaching to farthest limit an outside price 3 Not connected with, not belonging to, or included in, a society, organization, or specific body outside broker, one who is not a member of the Stock Exchange, outside help, influence &c outside (IV), n [1. óutsáid, 2. dútsáid] 1 A External part, surface, side of anything the outside of a house, of a head, of an omnibus, spout, outside, top and bottom corners of a ream of paper, b (of persons) personal appearance, exterior, a rough outside but a good heart 2 (in non-material sense) a That which is on the surface, the purely superficial appearance one should not judge too much by the outside, b the external world of impressions, contrasted with the inner consciousness dreams come rather from within than from the outside 3 Condition of being external to, not a member of, a body, a society, class, or of not sharing a set of ideas, beliefs &c it is difficult for those on the outside to understand the inner life of a college 4 The extremity or boundary, the utmost; chiefly in at (the very) outside, at the utmost outsider, n [1. outsidar, 2. dútsáid] 1 One who is not a member of a social or other body, community, group &c, specified or previously referred to regiments are sometimes commanded by outsiders when suitable officers from within are lacking for the moment 2 (racing) A horse which is not among those considered to have a chance of winning 3 (colloq) One who is regarded as outside the pale of decent society, an ill bred, impossible person, a vulgarian, a bounder outsit, vb trans [1. ontsít, 2. austréit] To sit longer than, to remain longer than others, to outstay outskirts, n pl [1. óntskáirts; 2. dútskáirts] The borders, margins, fringes, esp of a town; suburbs, outlying areas outsoar, vb trans [1. outsóar, 2. austrás] To soar, fly, pass, beyond 'He has outsoared the shadow of our night' (Shelley, 'Adonais', 40)

outspan, vb trans & intrans [1. óntspan, 2. austráim] S Afr, fr Dn uitspannen, fr uit, 'out', cogn w out, & spannen, 'to span, to fasten', see span (I.) 1 trans To unharness (oxen &c) from waggon &c 2 intrans To perform action of outspanning outspoken, adj [1. óntspóken, 2. austráim] a (of persons) Given to frank, candid utterance, reverse of reticent, b (of utterances) candid, frank outspoken criticism, comments &c outspokenly, adv Proc & -ly In an out-spoken manner, frankly, candidly outspokenness, n See proc & -ness Quality of being outspoken, candour, frankness outspread, adj [1. óntspréid, 2. austráim] Spread out, expanded, extended with hands outspread outstanding, adj [1. óntstánding; 2. austráim] 1 Standing out, prominent, conspicuous an outstanding figure 2 a Standing over, left unsettled or unpaid outstanding liabilities, b due to be done, but not completed, still to be done to leave a good deal of work outstanding outstay, vb trans [1. outstá, 2. austráit] To stay longer than, Phr to outstay one's welcome, stay so long that one ceases to be welcome outstretched, adj [1. óntstréit, 2. austráit] Stretched out, expanded, extended to lie outstretched on the ground, the outstretched hand outstrip, vb trans [1. óntstriip; 2. austráit] fr out- & strip in now obs sense of 'to run' To pass in running, exceed in pace, to leave behind, to surpass in excellence, be more successful than out-talk, vb trans [1. ónttáik, 2. austráit] To talk quicker, longer, or louder than; to talk down out-top, vb trans [1. ónttóp, 2. austráit] To exceed in height, (fig) to be superior to, surpass, excel outvote, vb trans [1. óntvót, 2. austráit] To vote in greater numbers than, to defeat by a majority of votes outvoter, n [1. óntvóter, 2. austráit] One who has a vote in a constituency by property qualification, not by residence, a non-resident voter outward, adj & n [1. óutwárd, 2. dútwárd] out- & -ward. 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, the outside or exterior, external outward appearance, the outward man, a man's outward appearance, b of or pertaining to the bodily, material side. outward, visible, sign 2 n (often pl) The outside, exterior, outward parts or things, externals outward(s), adv [1. óutwárd(s), 2. dútwárd(s)] From within towards the outside, outwardly to thrust outward(s), outward bound, of vessel on voyage out outwardly, adv Proc & -ly a On, towards, the outside, outward, b externally, in respect of the outside outwardness, n See proc & -ness State, condition, of being outward, externality, objectivity.

outwear, vb trans [1. óntwáir, 2. austráit] 1 To wear or last longer than, to outlast old hand made work will outwear new machine-made stuff 2 To wear out, destroy, by constant use, (usually in P P) outworn habits, no longer practised, obsolete, 'A Pagan suckled in a creed outworn' (Wordsworth), outworn quotations &c, no longer applicable, having lost force by constant reiteration, hackneyed, trite outweigh, vb trans [1. óutwá, 2. austráit] (only in non-material sense) To weigh, count for, more than, to surpass in moral weight, value, importance, or quality the advantages outweigh the drawbacks outwit, vb trans [1. óutwít; 2. austráit] To get the better of by stratagem, defeat by superior astuteness outwork (I), n [1. óutwérk, 2. dútwáik] (fort) An outlying, detached fort or defensive work some distance in advance of a main work outwork (II), n. Work done away from a shop or workroom.

outworker, n [1. óutwérker, 2. dútwáik] One who does outwork or work away from a shop or factory ousel, ousel, n [1. óúzl; 2. dúzl] O E ósele, M E ósel, fr amsal*, op OHG amsala, 'a blackbird or thrush'. One of various kinds of thrush, as ring-ousel, water-ousel &c, originally name of a blackbird or thrush ova, n Pl of ovum.

oval, adj & n [1. óvl, 2. óuvl] fr Lat óv-(um), 'egg', & -al, op Fr ovale See ovum & egg 1 adj Egg-shaped, circular with lengthened sides and narrowed ends, elliptical 2 n A figure having an oval or elliptical shape The Oval, the Surrey County Cricket Ground at Kennington, London ovally, adv Proc & -ly In an oval shape or figure, elliptically.

ovalness, n See proc & -ness State, quality, of being oval or elliptical ovarian, adj [1. óvária, 2. dúvária] ovary & -ian Pertaining to, situated in, the ovaries ovari(o)-, pref, fr proc Used in compounds, to denote an ovary, q v ovariotomy, n [1. óváritómi, 2. dúvária] See proc & -tomy Excision of one or both of the ovaries ovaritis, n [1. óváritas, 2. dúvária] See proc & -itis Inflammation of an ovary ovary, n [1. óvári, 2. dúvári] fr Neo-Lat. óvárium See ovum & -ary. 1 (anat) One of the pair of organs of reproduction in female animals producing eggs or ova 2 (bot) The lower part of a pistil which contains the ovules and develops into the fruit ovate, adj [1. óvát, 2. dúvát] fr Lat óvátus See ovum & -ate Shaped like an egg, oval, elliptical, esp (bot) of surfaces, oval with a broader base or lower end ovation, n [1. óváshun, 2. dúvátshun] fr Lat óvatio (em), óvatio, fr óvare, 'to rejoice, exult, triumph', cogn w Gk. éúazein, 'to utter cries of joy' 1. (Rom antiq) A lesser kind of triumph, granted to a general for a minor victory 2 An enthusiastic, popular reception, spontaneous expression of popular admiration, enthusiastic welcome or applause oven, n [1. óvon, 2. évan] O E ofn, ofen, op OHG ovan, ofan, ON ofn, & perh Goth auhsn; possibly cogn w Gk. ipnós, 'oven' 1 An enclosed brick or metal receptacle in contact with fire, in which food is baked, or where things are dried 2 A small kiln or furnace for chemical or metallurgical processes oven-bird, n The popular name of various S American birds which build dome shaped, oven like nests over (I), prep [1. óver, 2. óuva] O E ofer, compar form of ufan, adv, be-ufan, see above, O Fms, M Du, & LG over, OS over, OHG ubar, prep, ubiri, adv, Germ über, ober, ON yfer, Goth yfar, Common Aryan, Sort upar, Gk hyper (see hyper-), Lat super (see super-) 1 Expressing relations in space a fixed position, above, resting upon, touching upper surface, closing, covering water standing over the road, a rug lying over a sofa, a piece of parchment tied over the top of a jam pot, b fixed across, arching, spanning from one side to the other a bridge over a river, a telegraph wire over a street, the clouds over one's head; Phr over one's signature, signed by, c expressing position on other side of something from speaker, or from that side first referred to the house over the way; the tree over the river 2 Expressing movement, chiefly with or after verbs of movement; a across, so as to pass or traverse to go over the mountains, to fly over the river, to travel overland; to pass over the frontier, to flow over the edge, the various idiomatic uses in combination with verbs are noted under these severally, b expressing movement towards, and subsequent rest in, a given position pull a blanket over me, to put one's hands over one's face. 3 Expressing physical superiority, excess a more than, in extent over five miles long, b in amount, number, weight, bulk over a quart of wine, over a hundred people there, over three pounds in weight, over forty inches round the waist, over and above what is wanted. 4 Expressing superiority in rank, status, office, authority &c a general is over a colonel, these people want a strong man over them. 5 (of time) a Expressing duration to stay, last, over the weekend, over the night, b expressing excess beyond specified limit of time, more than to remain over a month in the same place over (II), adv 1 Expressing relations in space a (stationary) above, b expressing distance, remoteness, from speaker over in France for a week, c expressing movement from one place, direction, or side, to another, above and across something come over and see us, our friends were over yesterday, to run over to America, d a flock of starlings have just flown over 2 Expressing movement (N B the precise shade of meaning is determined by the verb of movement which precedes; the various senses appear under these verbs) a away from perpendicular, upright position to fall, be knocked, over, b from one side to another, in opposite direction to turn, roll, over, c expressing motion upwards, outwards, and beyond some limit to bold over, foam, flow, over &c. 3 a (of events, circumstances, processes) Completed, finished, done with thank God, the War is over; our life, troubles, sufferings will soon be over, Phr all over with (him) &c, (b) (he) is ruined, finished, (n) bound to die soon &c, b (of periods of time) past, passed away the good old times are over 4 Expressing excess a in addition to, more than, specified or required amount I paid my bill and have several pounds over, I have five pounds and over, b used before adj and adv in sense of too (much), excessively to be over polite, over silent, such combinations are often hyphenated, (to grieve &c) over much, too much, to an excessive degree. 5 a In every part, covering, scattered at intervals over surface, throughout whole extent the earth in spring is sprinkled over with flowers, covered over with paint, also (covered) all over with, b (after certain vbs) go over, visit, examine, thoroughly, look over (a house &c), inspect, think over, ponder carefully in all its aspects &c 6 Expressing repetition, esp in over again, once more over (III), n, fr prec. (cricket) Number of balls, originally four, now six, which a bowler delivers in succession from one end of the pitch, after which, at call 'over' by umpire, the bowling begins at the other end and the field 'change over' and alter their positions accordingly a maiden over, an over from which no runs are scored over-, pref, fr over (II) 1 (as adj) Higher, upper, outer, superior, extra, as overcoat, overlord, overtime. 2 (as prep) a To form xs, adjs, & advs (in all senses) overall, overboard, overlaid, overweight, b prefixed to vbs, esp those often followed by over (in various senses), & governing an object otherwise governed by prep overcome, overflow, as flow over the banks, overflow the bank &c, overlook, overrun &c. 3 (as adv) a (with vb or n) Above, from above, down from, up to, beyond, in addition overbalance, overhaul, overtake, overthrow, overwhelm &c, b (with vb trans) altogether, completely over persuade. 4 (the main or most common sense, when prefixed to n vb, adj, or adv) In general sense of excess, exceeding, more than, normal, beyond what is good. This is so freely used and the sense so obvious in most cases that many words compounded thus are omitted overcharge, n and vb, overpressure, overwork &c overabundance, n [1 överabundans, 2 överabändans] An excess of abundance, superfluity, superabundance overabundant, adj [1 överabundant, 2 överabändant] Exceeding in abundance, superabundant, superfluous overabundantly, adv Free & -ly Superabundantly overact, vb trans & intrans [1 överakt, 2 överrakt] (lit and fig) To act in an exaggerated manner, to overdo, overplay to overact a part, to overact in a part overall (I), adv [1 överall, 2 överall] Over the whole superficies measures 12 sq ft overall overall (II), n [1 överall, 2 överall] a A loose outer garment slipped on over other clothes to keep them clean and tidy, esp for children, or women doing housework or in factories &c; b (pl) loose trousers or leggings to be pulled over ordinary trousers for rough or dirty work &c, c (mil, pl) officer's full-dress trousers over-anxious, adj [1 överångs, 2 överängs] Too anxious, anxious to an excessive or unnecessary extent overarch, vb trans [1 överärch, 2 överärch] To arch over, to hang, spread, over like an arch overarm, adj [1 över ärm, 2 över ärm] Delivered, struck, with the arm raised above the elbow, overhand overarm bowling (at cricket), overarm service (at lawn tennis &c) overawe, vb trans [1 överär, 2 överär] To keep in awe; to daunt, to strike fear into, inspire with respect so as to reduce to subjection overbalance, vb trans & intrans [1 överbalans, 2 överbalans] 1 trans a To cause to lose balance or equilibrium, cause to fall over, b to more than balance exceed in weight or value, to outweigh preponderate over 2 intrans To lose one's balance overbear, vb trans [1 överbär, 2 överbär] (only in moral sense) a To break down the will of, to dominate, trample upon the wishes of, coerce into acquiescence, b to bear down, persuade, by forcible argument and persuasion overbearing, adj [1 överbärande, 2 överbärande] Domineering, dictatorial, masterful overbearingly, adv In an overbearing manner overblown, adj [1 överblåst, 2 överblåst] (chiefly of flowers) Past full bloom overboard, adv [1 överbord, 2 överbord] Over the board or side of a ship or boat, from the ship into the water to fall, throw, overboard, man overboard! Phr to throw overboard, (fig) to discard, desert, abandon overbold, adj [1 överbold, 2 överbold] Foolhardy, rash, impudent, insolent overflow, vb trans & intrans [1 överflöda, 2 överflöda] 1 trans To overflow, to cause to flow over the brim. 2 intrans To be too full overflowing cup, filled to overflowing overhaul, vb trans [1 överhåll, 2 överhåll] To build too much, to crowd with buildings, to build in excess of demand. Phr to overhaul oneself, to build a house too large for one's means, to build more houses than one can sell or let overburden, vb trans [1 överbörd, 2 överbörd] To lay too heavy burdens upon (lit and fig) over-capitalize, vb trans [1 överkapitalisera, 2 överkapitalisera] To raise and supply more capital for an undertaking than is required overcast (I), vb trans [1 överkast, 2 överkast] To stretch over the edge of a seam to prevent unravelling overcast (II), adj a (of sky) Cloudy, b (fig) sad, gloomy overcharge (I), vb trans & intrans [1 överladda, 2 överladda] a trans 1 a To put too heavy a load upon, b (fig) to fill to excess with to overcharge a lecture with facts. 2 a To put too much loading in a gun; b to charge too heavily with electricity 3 To demand too high a price from to be overcharged for a meal B intrans To be guilty of overcharging overcharge (II), n [1 överladdning, 2 överladdning] 1 Excessive charge, a of powder &c in a gun, b of electricity 2 Demand for payment which is excessive or inequitable overcloud, vb trans [1 överklöda, 2 överklöda] a To cover with cloud(s) or shadow(s); b (fig) to cast an air, or feeling, of gloom overcoat, n [1 överköt, 2 överköt] A coat worn over another, a greatcoat, topcoat overcolour, vb trans [1 överkulur, 2 överkulur] a To colour too highly, b (fig) to exaggerate the details of, to overheighten, as in a descriptive narrative &c overcome, vb trans & intrans [1 överkoma, 2 överkoma] In OE ofercuman A trans. 1 To get the better of, to prevail over, snub, surmount to overcome difficulties, bad habits, temptations, one's opponents &c

2 a To be too much for, to master, deprive of self control; overcome by emotion, drink &c; b his feelings overcame him, b to render weak, deprive of vigour, power of resistance &c: overcome by hunger, lack of sleep &c B intrans To conquer, win to him that overcometh overcrop, vb trans [1 överkröp, 2 överkröp] To reduce or exhaust the fertility of land by excessive cultivation and cropping overcrowd, vb trans [1 överkröda, 2 överkröda] To crowd more people into a space than there is proper accommodation for to overcrowd a district, a house, an omnibus, theatre, train &c overcrowding, n [1 överkrödnad, 2 överkrödnad] Act, process, of overcrowding, state of being overcrowded overdo, vb trans [1 överdö, 2 överdö] 1 To do to excess, to exaggerate, overact he overdid his part Phr to overdo st, (s) be guilty of extravagance or excess in conduct; (u) go too far in attempt to secure one's object, (w) to tax one's strength too severely 2 To cook to excess overdose, n [1 överdos, 2 överdos] An excessive and harmful dose overdraft, n [1 överdraft, 2 överdraft] An amount drawn on an account at a bank in excess of funds available to meet it overdraw, vb trans & intrans [1 överdrå, 2 överdrå] a trans To draw out money in excess of to overdraw one's account, b intrans, to draw a cheque on an account at a bank in excess of the amount in credit overdrive, vb trans [1 överdriv, 2 överdriv] To drive too hard, too fast, or too far, to exhaust, wear out, by driving too hard &c, to overtax overdrive a horse, workmen &c, an overdriven horse &c overdue, adj [1 överdö, 2 överdö] Be hind time fixed for performance, arrival &c, specif (of payments, accounts) not paid when due overeat, vb intrans & reflex [1 överät, 2 överät] To eat more than is good for one, eat to excess, (also reflex.) overeat oneself over-estimate, vb trans & n 1 vb [1 över estimat, 2 över estimat] a To put too high an estimate or value on, to overvalue, b to draw up estimates for proposed expenditure which prove to be excessive in amount and leave a balance unspent

2 n [1 över estimat, 2 över estimat] An excessive estimate or valuation overflow, n [1 överflö, 2 överflö] 1 A disturbed stretch of water, as in a river or sea, due to the meeting of cross currents, shoals &c 2 An outlet to allow water to overflow at a lock gate &c to keep water level over-fatigue, vb trans & n [1 över fatig, 2 över fatig] a vb To fatigue to excess, b n, excessive fatigue overflow (I), vb trans & intrans [1. óverfóid, 2. óuafóid] OE oferflōwan A trans a (of water, liquids) To flow over the brim, banks &c, to run over, to flood, inundate: the river overflowed (its banks, the neighbouring land &c), b to flow, run, pass, beyond limits of boundaries of, owing to excess of number or amount, to run over or out the crowd overflowed the barriers, the goods overflowed the warehouses B intrans Overflow with, to possess to an extreme degree, be filled superabundantly with. to overflow with wealth, kindness, a land overflowing with resources of every kind overflow (II), n [1. óverfóid, 2. óuafóid] 1 A flowing over, of water &c, an inundation, flood 2 A That which overflows, amount in excess of space available or allotted an overflow of population &c, (attrib) an overflow meeting, audience &c, a secondary meeting for the surplus people who have not found room at the principal meeting 3 Outlet, pipe, carrying off excess of water from a cistern &c overflowing, adj [1. óverfóidng, 2. óuafóidng] So full as to overflow, brimming over, superabundant overflow, n [1. óverfóid, 2. óuafóid] (geol) A fold of strata so complete that the lower part is inverted, and lies on the surface overground, adj [1. óvergróund, 2. óuagróund] Situated, raised, above ground, as contrasted with underground still overground, still alive overgrow, vb trans & reflex [1. óvergró, 2. óuagró] 1 To grow over, cover with growth 2 To outgrow, grow larger than is normal or healthy for to overgrow one's strength overgrown, adj [1. óvergróin, 2. óuagróin] 1 (of human beings) Too much grown, too tall for age or strength, hence, gawky, ungainly, delicate an overgrown lad 2 (of plants) Having grown too luxuriantly and wildly, hence, uncared for, untrimmed 3 Covered over with vegetable growth paths and alleys overgrown with weeds overgrowth, n [1. óvergróth, 2. óuagróth] 1 An excessive, over-luxuriant growth, abnormal, unhealthy growth 2 [1. óvergróth, 2. óuagróth] That which overgrows overhand, adj & adv [1. óverhand, 2. óuavhand] 1 adj Delivered, struck, propelled with the hand and arm above the shoulder, overarm overhand bowling (cricket), overhand service (lawn tennis &c), overhand stroke, (swimming) with propelling arm out of the water and above the head 2 adv With the hand or arm raised above the shoulder to bowl, serve, overhand overhang (I), vb trans & intrans [1. óverháng, 2. óuavháng] PP & adj overhung A trans 1 To hang, project, jut out, over the cliff overhangs the stream, overhung with creepers 2 (fig) To hang over threateningly, to impend over a danger overhangs us B intrans To hang, project, over, to impend over overhanging cliff, danger overhang (II), n [1. óverháng, 2. óuavháng] A projecting part, projection the overhang of a roof or window, overhang at the bows or stern of a ship &c overhaul (I), vb trans [1. óverháwl, 2. óuavháwl] 1 To examine thoroughly, originally of ships, for the purpose of repair, cleaning &c, to take to pieces for examination, to make a thorough investigation of to overhaul a boat, motor-car &c, to overhaul state of a business, accounts &c, to be overhauled by a doctor 2 To overtake and pass, originally of ships, to catch up with to overhaul a vessel, another runner or competitor overhaul (II), n An overhauling, a thorough examination or investigation to undergo a thorough overhaul overhead (I), adv [1. óverhéd, 2. óuavhéd] Above one's head, above the stars overhead, the people in the flat overhead, b (rare) with one's head covered by or below something fall overhead into the water.

overhead (II), adj 1 Situated, placed, above one's head, raised above the ground overhead wires, an overhead railway 2 (of a business) Permanent, standing, not subject to fluctuations of price, wages &c overhead charges, such as taxes, rent, insurance, directors' fees, managerial salaries &c, also as noun the overhead, overhead charges overhear, vb trans [1. óverhét, 2. óuavhét] To hear (people speaking, or what they say) without the speakers knowing, whether by listening deliberately or by accident overheat, vb trans & intrans [1. óverhét, 2. óuavhét] a trans To make too hot, b intrans, to become too hot overhung, adj [1. óverhúung, 2. óuavhúung], fr. PP of overhang 1 Suspended from above overhung door, one sliding on overhead rollers 2 Having the upper jaw and teeth projecting beyond, and closing over, the lower, reverse of underhung over-indulge, vb trans & intrans [1. óverindulj, 2. óuavindulj] 1 trans a To indulge (another) to excess, b (reflex) to indulge oneself, pamper one's own tastes and appetites to excess 2 intrans (with reflex force) To practise self-indulgence, to indulge oneself excessively and habitually I fear he over-indulged in all sorts of ways, and has to pay for it over-indulgence, n [1. óverinduljens, 2. óuavinduljdzens] a Excessive self-indulgence, b excess in indulging others over-indulgent, adj [1. óverinduljent, 2. óuavinduljdjent] Indulging (oneself or others) too much over-influence, vb trans [1. óverinflooens, 2. óuavinflooens] a To exert undue influence over, b to persuade (a person) against (his) better judgement overjoyed, adj [1. óverjóid, 2. óuavéjdóid] Extremely pleased, delighted, exultant overjump, vb reflex & trans [1. óverjúmp, 2. óuavéjdjúmp] a reflex To jump too far, so as to strain oneself, b trans, to clear by jumping with such superfluous effort as to jump too high, or too far overladen, adj [1. óverládn, 2. óuavéléidn] Overloaded, a having too heavy a cargo on board, b too profusely covered overladen with ornament &c overland, adv & adj [1. óverland, 2. óuavland] 1 adv By land, not by sea to travel overland 2 adj Passing by land, made across or by land overland mail, journey &c, the overland route, specif, the route to India and the East via Marseilles, thence to Egypt and from Suez by sea, as contrasted with the route round the Cape of Good Hope overlap (I), vb, chiefly intrans [1. óverláp, 2. óuavéláp] 1 To lap or fold over, to project over, or beyond, edge of, so as partly to cover 2 (fig) a To coincide with, e.g. in time your visit and mine will just overlap, b to correspond, be partly identical in scope, subject &c the treatment in these two books largely overlaps overlap (II), n [1. óverláp, 2. óuavéláp] a Process or fact of overlapping, b that part of an object &c which overlaps overlay, vb trans & n 1 vb [1. óverlái, 2. óuavélái] a To cover with a layer or coating, to spread over, b incorrectly, to overlap 2 n [1. óverlái, 2. óuavélái] That which is overlaid, a covering, coating overlaying, n [1. óverláing, 2. óuavélái: ng] a An overlay, covering, b (incorrectly) the act of overlaying (babies) overleaf, adv [1. óverléf, 2. óuavléf] On the other side of a leaf or page of a book &c overleap, vb trans [1. óverlép, 2. óuavlép] To leap over, to jump over, to leap too far, to omit, pass over, skip to overleap oneself, to go beyond one's capacity and miss what one aims at overlie, vb trans [1. óverlái, 2. óuavélái] To lie over or upon, to stifle, suffocate, by lying upon to overlie a baby, overlie infants overload, vb trans & n [1. óverlóid, 2. óuavlóid] load 1 vb To load too much, to put too great a weight upon; to overcharge as with electric current 2 n An excessive load or charge, as of electric current overload release or switch, automatic device for breaking the circuit and so preventing this overlook, vb trans [1. óverlóok, 2. óuavlóok] 1 To look at, view from a higher position; to look out over and upon our neighbour's windows overlook the garden, a view overlooking the town 2 To superintend, supervise, inspect to overlook men at work, the work in an office &c 3 a To look at and fail to notice, to take no notice of to overlook a passage in a letter, b to neglect, slight, fail to recognize merits of his services and claims to promotion have been overlooked for years, c to take no cognizance of, fail to reckon with, or to take into account you seem to overlook the strong arguments brought against your views 4 To omit to punish, to excuse, to bear with, make allowances for to overlook an offence, bad conduct &c 5 To look at or over with the evil eye, to bewitch overlord, n [1. óverlord, 2. óuavlóid] A feudal superior, a lord paramount, overlord overlordship, n [1. óverlóirdship, 2. óuavlóirdsp] Dignity, position, of an overlord overman, n [1. óverman, 2. óuavmán] Translation of Germ übermensch The superman of Nietzschean philosophy, one born or formed to dominate others by his physical and intellectual superiority overmantel, n [1. óvermántl, 2. óuavmántl] An ornamental structure of carved wood, stone &c over a mantelpiece overmaster, vb trans [1. óvermáshter, 2. óuavmáshter] To overcome, overpower, subdue, overwhelm, esp an overmastering passion, love, hate &c overmeasure, n [1. óvermészur, 2. óuavmészur] An amount or measure in excess of what is required or due, surplus overmuch, adv [1. óvermuch, 2. óuavmát] Too much, in too great a degree overnight, adv & adj 1 adv [1. óvernít, 2. óuavanít] a On, during, the previous evening or night, b through the night until next morning to stay overnight 2 adj [1. óvernít, 2. óuavanít] Done, occurring, on or during the preceding evening or night an overnight conversation overpass, vb trans [1. óverpáhs, 2. óuavpáhs] To pass beyond, to exceed, to surpass overpast, adj [1. óverpahst, 2. óuavpahst] Past and gone, done away with overpay, vb trans [1. óverpái, 2. óuavpái] To pay in excess of what is due or deserved overpayment, n [1. óverpáimént, 2. óuavpáimént] Excess payment over-persuade, vb trans [1. óverperswád, 2. óuavperswád] To persuade against will or judgement of overpitch, vb trans [1. óverpích, 2. óuavpích] (cricket) To bowl so that the ball pitches so near the batsman that it is easy to hit, to pitch beyond a good length overplus, n [1. óverplús, 2. óuavplús] A surplus, excess, that which is above a necessary amount or supply overpower, vb trans [1. óverpóur, 2. óuavpóur] 1 To overcome, get the better of, by superior strength, numbers &c to overpower the enemy 2 To be too intense for, to master, overwhelm the heat, my feelings, overpower me overpowering, adj [1. óverpóuring, 2. óuavpóuring] Extremely powerful, irresistible, overwhelming overpoweringly, adv Free & -ly To an overpowering degree, so as to overpower, with superior, overwhelming force overpraise, vb trans [1. óverpráiz, 2. óuavpráiz] To praise too much or too highly, to give more praise than is deserved to overpressure, n [1. óverpréshur, 2. óuavpréshur] a Excessive, undue, physical or mechanical pressure, b excessive intellectual or emotional strain overprint, vb trans [1 överprint, 2 överprint] a To print something on the top of a sheet already printed, b to print a photograph for too long a time over-produce, vb trans & intrans [1 överprodus, 2 överprodus] To produce too much of an article, to produce in excess of a possible demand over-production, n [1 överprodukt, 2 överprodukt] Production in excess of demand, oversupply over-proof adj [1 överpröf, 2 överpröf] Containing a larger proportion of alcohol than proof spirit overrate, vb trans [1 överräta, 2 överräta] 1 To rate too highly; to put too high a value on, to have too great an opinion of to overrate one's capacities, on overrated person 2 To assess too highly for rates overreach (I), vb trans & intrans [1 överräch, 2 överräch] A trans 1 To reach or extend beyond 2 a To outwit, circumvent, get the better of, b overreach oneself, (u.) to fail through trying for something beyond one's powers of attainment, (u.) defeat one's purpose by being too subtle in attempting to gain one's ends. B intrans 1 To stretch oneself forward so as to strain oneself 2 Specif (of a horse) to strike and cut a pastern of a hind leg against a front foot in jumping or galloping overreach (II), n [1 överräch, 2 överräch] Act of overreaching in a horse, injury inflicted by this override, vb trans [1 överrid, 2 överrid] 1 To ride over or across, to ride upon, trample down, to ride over with hostile forces 2 (fig) a To disregard, set aside, to overrule to override claims, another's authority or ruling, b to domineer over (a person) 3 To ride too much or to excess, to fatigue, wear out to override a horse, an overriden horse 4 (med) To slide, pass, over, overlap, esp of fractured bones overripe, adj [1 överrip, 2 överrip] Past full ripeness, too ripe overrule, vb trans [1 överrula, 2 överrula] 1 To set aside a ruling, decision &c of another by superior authority, to decide or rule against the House of Lords has overruled the judgements of the lower courts, the claims and proposals &c were overruled 2 To prevail over, to get the mastery of his greed overruled his caution, conscience may be overruled by passion overturn, vb trans [1 överturn, 2 överturn] 1 To turn, spread, over, a to flood, over flow, b to swarm in, infest overturn with rabbits, mice &c, c to grow luxuriantly and rankly over weeds soon overrun a garden 2 To spread over with hostile or destructive intent, to ravage spoils enemy troops overrun the country 3 To exceed specified limits his speech overrun the time allotted 4 (print) To adjust arrangement of (type) by shifting words, lines &c overseas, adv & adj a adv [1 översä, 2 översä] 1 Over, beyond, across the sea, abroad in a foreign country to go overseas, b adj [1 översä, 2 översä] foreign, to or from abroad, abroad oversea trade overseas, adv & adj [1 översä, 2 översä] Overseas oversee, vb trans [1 översä, 2 översä] To overlook, supervise, superintend overseer, n [1 översär, 2 översär] One who oversees or superintends superintendent, forman specif, Overseer of the Poor, formerly a parish officer or official of a Board of Guardians, with duties concerning the relief of the poor oversell, vb trans & intrans [1 översäl, 2 översäl] 1 To sell more shares, stock or commodities than one can deliver or supply on oversold market overset, vb trans & intrans [1 översät, 2 översät] 1 To turn over, upset, to overthrow, subvert to overset a boat, the boat overset, to overset the government, overset one's plans oversaw, vb trans [1 översä, 2 översä] To sew two edges of cloth together by passing needle through from one side only overshadow, vb trans [1 övershåda, 2 övershåda] 1 To throw a shadow or shade over 2 (fig) a To put into the shade, to lessen the importance of by contrast, to outshine, b to cast a gloom over, render sad, detract from gaiety or enjoyment of our festivities were overshadowed by the recent calamities overshoe, n [1 översko, 2 översko] A rubber shoe worn over another for protection from wet &c, a goshie overshoot, vb trans [1 översköt, 2 översköt] 1 To shoot over or beyond a mark, (also fig) to go beyond, exceed, overstep, what is proper or right overshoot the mark or oneself, to exaggerate, overdo something, to overreach oneself 2 To shoot over an area too frequently, so that the game diminishes 3 To shoot or flew over or from above overshot, adj [1 övershot, 2 övershot] (of a water wheel) Turned by water flowing on to it from above overside, adv [1 översid, 2 översid] Over the side the ship was discharging cargo over-side oversight, n [1 översikt, 2 översikt] 1 Supervision, care to have the oversight of children 2 Unintentional failure to notice, omission to do something, unperceived slip or mistake overslaugh (I), n [1 överslag, 2 överslag] Ir Dn. overslag, vb överslaan, 'to omit', over & slaen, 'to strike' 1 (mil) The omission of, passing over, a turn of duty, because detailed for a superior or more pressing duty 2 (USA) A bar or obstruction in a channel or river overslaugh (II), vb trans See prec 1 (mil) a To excuse, remit, from a particular duty as being detailed for another, to pass over or skip a turn of duty, b (USA) to pass over for an appointment or promotion 2 (USA) To obstruct, block, hinder, as a proposal, bill &c oversleep, vb intrans & reflex [1 översläp, 2 översläp] a intrans To sleep on beyond the normal time for waking, b (reflex) over sleep oneself (in same sense) overspend, vb trans, intrans & reflex [1 överspänd, 2 överspänd] a trans To spend more than to overspend one's allowance, b intrans, to spend more than one's means, to spend extravagantly, to waste money, also overspend oneself overspread, vb trans [1 överspréd, 2 överspréd] To spread over, cover the surface of, to be scattered or diffused over overstate, vb trans [1 översstä, 2 översstä] To state too strongly, to exaggerate to overstate one's case overstatement, n [1 översstäment, 2 översstäment] An exaggerated statement overstay, vb trans [1 översstä, 2 översstä] To stay longer than, beyond, what is expected or desired to overstay one's welcome overstep, vb trans [1 översstap, 2 översstap] To exceed, transgress, bounds and limits, to go beyond what is right or proper in conduct to overstep the modesty of nature overstock, vb trans [1 överstok, 2 överstok] To stock too much, to supply with goods too great for demand, to furnish with too large a stock to overstock a shop, market &c, to overstock a farm (with cattle) overstrain, vb trans & n [1 överssträn, 2 överssträn] 1 vb To put too great a strain upon (bodily or mental powers), over-exert, also overstrain oneself 2 n Excessive strain or exertion overstride, vb trans [1 översstrid, 2 översstrid] To stride over or across, to stretch across or beyond overstrung, adj [1 översstrung, 2 översstrung] 1 Overstrained, with nerves too highly strung, in a highly nervous condition 2 (of pianoforte) Having strings crossing diagonally over-subscribe, vb trans [1 översubskrib, 2 översubskrib]

2 översubskrib] (usually in pass) To subscribe for more shares in a company, public loan &c than have been offered on an issue the new loan has been over subscribed overt, adj [1 övert, 2 övert] O Fr, fr O Fr overt, 'to open', ultimately fr Lat aperire, 'to open', see aperient, the Fr form wd normally be avert*, PP avert*, but has been influenced by anal w the converse couvrir, cover, 'to cover', see cover Openly, publicly done, open to view, plain, apparent in market overt, in an open, public market, goods sold therein pass with a good title to the buyer against a rightful owner under certain conditions, overt act, an act committed openly in pursuance of some design overtake, vb trans [1 övertäk, 2 övertäk] 1 To come up with, catch up with to overtake another on the road 2 To come suddenly upon, to surprise overtaken by a storm, disaster overtook them 3 To overcome, overwhelm to be overtaken with drink, with terror, surprise &c overtax, vb trans [1 övertäks, 2 övertäks] 1 To tax to excess, to lay too many or too heavy taxes on country is overtaxed 2 To make too great demands on, overstrain to overtax one's patience, strength, capacities &c overthrow, vb trans & n 1 vb [1 övertär, 2 övertär] a To throw over, upset, overturn, b (fig) to subvert, defeat 2 n [1 övertär, 2 övertär] a Defeat, ruin, destruction, b (cricket) (i) a ball returned from the field and not gathered at the wicket, thus allowing extra runs to be made, (ii) a run so made overthrust, n [1 övertärst, 2 övertärst] (geol) A thrust of strata over other strata at the side of a fault overtime, adv & n 1 adv [1 övertim, 2 övertim] Beyond the ordinary or regular time, esp of working hours to work overtime 2 n [1 övertim, 2 övertim] Time worked after regular working hours, work done after hours paid for overtime overtly, adv [1 övertli, 2 övertli] overt & -ly In an overt manner, publicly overtone, n [1 övertön, 2 övertön] An harmonic overtop, vb trans [1 övertöp, 2 övertöp] To rise above or over the top of, to exceed in height, to be higher than overtrump, vb trans & intrans [1 övertrum, 2 övertrum] (cards) a trans To play a higher trump upon, b intrans, to take a trick by playing a higher trump overture, n [1 överture, 2 överture] O. Fr, op Med. Fr ouverture, 'opening' See overt & -ure 1 (usually pl) A friendly approach to a person with a view to amicable relations b formal approach by one party in a dispute, or in war, with view to arrange terms of peace &c 2 (mus) An orchestral introduction or prelude to a considerable musical work, also applied to a separate composition, a concert overture, as Brahms's 'Tragic Overture' overturn, vb trans & intrans [1 övertärn, 2 övertärn] To upset, to cause to fall down or be upset overweening, adj [1 överväning, 2 överväning] Oferwende, 'presumptuous', occurs in ME, for second element see ween Arrogant, contemptuously proud or haughty, pretentious, presumptuous overweening pride conceit &c, overweening ambition overweight, n [1 överwät, 2 överwät] Weight over and above what is demanded or allowed overweighted, adj [1 överwätad, 2 överwätad] Carrying too much weight, overburdened overwhelm, vb trans [1 överwelm, 2 överwelm] 1 a To flow over, pour down upon descend upon, cover over (of waves, torrents &c), b to render powerless or helpless by superior force or numbers (of troops &c) 2 a To produce powerful moral effect upon to overpower, master overwhelmed by grief, h to stagger, astound, abash. your kindness quite overwhelms me overwhelming, adj [1 överwältig, 2 överwältig] Overpowering, irresistible overwhelming sorrows, disaster &c overwind, vb trans [1 överwind, 2 överwind] To wind up (a watch) too hard, so that the mainspring is unduly tightened and compressed overwork, vb trans & intrans & n [1 överwörk, 2 överwörk] 1 vb a trans To cause, compel, to work too hard or too much to overwork a horse, oneself &c, b intrans, to work too hard 2 n Excessive work overwrought, adj [1 överwärt, 2 överwärt] 1 Overworked, exhausted by too much work 2 Having an overstrained nervous system, over excited ovi- (I), pref, fr Lat ovum, 'egg' ovi- (II), pref, fr Lat ovis, 'sheep' See ovine ovibovine, adj [1 öviðövin, 2 öviðövin] ovi- (II) & bovine (zool) Belonging to family of the musk-ox or Ovibovidae oviduct, n [1 övidukt, 2 övidukt] ovi- (I) & duct (zool) Duct through which the eggs pass from the ovary, in mammals the Fallopian tube oviform (I), adj [1 öviorm, 2 öviorm] ovi- (I) & form Egg shaped oviform (II), adj [1 övi-, öviorm, 2 övi-, öviorm] ovi- (II) & form Resembling a sheep ovine, adj [1 övin, 2 övin] fr L Lat ovinus, fr ovis, 'sheep', cogn w Gk ois for 'ovis', Sort övis, Goth avis fr 'sheep fold', O H G oum, 'sheep', O E owu, 'ewe', see ewe Connected with, belonging to, resembling, sheep oviparous, adj [1 öviparus, 2 öviparus] ovi- (I) & -parous, fr Lat parere, 'to beget', & -ous Cp parent (zool) Producing eggs which hatch outside the body of the female, as birds, fish, insects &c, contrasted with viviparous oviposit, vb trans [1 övipözt, 2 övipözt] ovi- (I) & posit, fr Lat posit (um), P P typo of ponere, 'to place' See position. (of insects) To lay, deposit (eggs) with the ovipositor ovipositor, n [1 övipöztur, 2 övipöztur] Prec & -or Apparatus or organ in insects and fish for depositing eggs in suitable position ovo-, pref, fr Lat ovum, 'egg' See ovum ovoid, adj & n [1 övoid, 2 övoid] Prec & -oid a adj Egg shaped, b n, an ovoid body or figure ovolo, n [1 övolö, 2 övoloulou] Ital, also ovolo, fr ovo, fr Lat ovum, 'egg' See ovum (archit) A convex moulding, varying in section, the Roman ovolo being $\frac{1}{2}$ of a circle ovo-viviparous, adj [1 öövö viviparus, 2 öövö viviparus] ovo- & viviparous (zool) Partly oviparous, partly viviparous, said of animals producing fully developed eggs but hatching them out within the body, as many reptiles, some fishes &c ovular, adj [1 övilär, 2 övilär] See next word & -ar Of, pertaining to, an ovule or ovules ovular growths ovule, n [1 övil, 2 övil] Fr, fr Lat ovum (um), 'egg', see ovum, & -ule (bot) A body in the ovary of a plant which on fertilization develops into the seed, (loosely) an unfertilized, rudimentary seed ovum, n, pl ova [1 övm, öva, 2 övm, öve] Lat, cogn w Gk övinor 'övinon', connected w Lat ovis, 'herd', it is doubtful whether 'egg' or 'bird' is the primary meaning of the base See aviary & cp egg (biol) The female germ cell or egg, produced in the ovary, which on fertilization by the male sperm cell develops into a new individual owe, vb trans & intrans [1 ö, 2 öu] O E agan, 'to possess, own', A E öwen, 'to own, have to do, be in debt to, owe', ought (II) is fr old Pret of this Cogn w Goth agan, O H G eigen, O N sign, 'to possess, own'. See own A trans 1 To be indebted to

(a person) for a certain sum, be under an obligation to pay (a person) so much I owe £50 to my tailor, I owe my tailor £50 2 a To be, or feel that one is, under a moral obligation, to be indebted to, feel bound to express gratitude to, for services, kindness &c I owe you my best thanks &c, I owe it to you that I am still alive, Phrs to owe a person a grudge, to have a grievance against, to owe no thanks to, to have nothing to thank a person for, b to be in duty bound to render we all owe reverence and obedience to God, I owe no allegiance to a foreign king 3 To be indebted to as the source, origin, cause of she owed her beauty to artificial assistance, owed his success to luck more than to capacity B intrans To be in debt to owe for one's board and lodging owing, adj [1 öng, 2 öng] fr Pres Part of prec 1 (of debts) Due to be paid, unpaid, still owed how much is owing to you?, still £10 owing 2 (with to as prep) a Due to, resulting from, caused by, ascribable to there is scarcity of fruit owing to the rain, his death was owing to an accident, b on account of, as a result of I could not come owing to another engagement, everything in the garden is late owing to the cold spring (In vulgar style due to is often incorrectly used in above (2 b) and similar constructions) owl, n [1 öul, 2 öul] O E üle, M E oule, O H G üwla, Mod. Germ eule, O N ugla, prob imitative, cp Lat ulula, 'owl', & ululare, 'to shriek' &c See ululation 1 Any one of a large family, Strigidae, or group of birds of prey, mostly nocturnal, and notable for their characteristic cries, having large head and eyes, hooked beak, strong talons, and soft, mottled feathers Phr as blind, as stupid, as an owl 2 A fool, stupid person, ee mild term of contempt or reproach don't be such a silly owl owler, n [1 öuler, 2 dula] Prec & -er (hist) One who practices owling, smuggler owlet, n [1 öulet, 2 öulet] Dimin of owl, also earlier howlet. A young owl, the small European owl owling, n [1 öuling, 2 öuling] See owl & -ing, fr the owl's nocturnal habits (hist) Smuggling, esp of wool or sheep, out of the country owlish, adj [1 öulish, 2 dulish] owl & -ish Owl like, foolish, stupid owlishly, adv Prec & -ly In an owlish, stupid manner own (I), adj [1 ön, 2 ön] O E agan, 'own, possessed by', also as n, 'property', orig P P of agan, 'to possess' See owe & own (II) 1 Possessed by anyone, proper, peculiar, to oneself, with possessive pronoun or case, as a more emphatic indication of personal possession &c a possessed by no one else, exclusively individual or peculiar to specified person or thing my own house, his own idea, did it with their own hands, cricket is peculiarly the Englishman's own game, name your own price, the orange has a scent all its own, b implying love and affection our own dear children, my own love 2 Related directly to own brother, cousin, to the king, having both parents in common, as contrasted with step- or in-law own brother or sister, my own father, not my step father &c 3 Expressing idea of personal activity rather than possession, done, produced &c by oneself to build one's own house, make one's own clothes, be one's own doctor, architect &c 4 (absol as n) a That which belongs to, or is produced by, oneself 'a poor thing, but mine own', 'and his own (hundred, people) received him not', the work, book &c is entirely his own, quite original, one of my own, to do what one likes with one's own Phrs to come into one's own, to come into what rightfully belongs to one, also, to obtain credit, fame &c which one deserves, to hold one's own, (a) to preserve one's dignity, self-possession, credit, in company, conversation, debate &c, (n) to maintain one's ground against attack, (m) the patient is holding his own, is not losing strength, on one's own, (colloq) independent to be on one's own, to do it on one's own, on one's own initiative or responsibility, by oneself, b intensely and tenderly loved person, object of one's deepest affections 'She is coming, my own, my sweet' (Tennyson, 'Maud'); farewell, my own own (II), vb trans & intrans O E agnian, fr base of agan See owe A trans 1 To possess, hold in one's possession, to have a legal title to to own lands, property, to own stocks and shares &c 2 a To acknowledge, recognize, as one's own to own a child, admit paternity, nobody will own the authorship of the book, b to admit, recognize to own the force of an argument, c to confess own one's faults, transgressions &c B intrans a To confess, admit own that one is wrong, b own to, to admit to own to being wrong, own to the theft, o own up, (colloq) to confess frankly, make a clean breast of it you had better own up owner, n [1 öner, 2 öner] Prec & -er One who owns or possesses, proprietor, one who has a legal title to the owner of a house, owner of lost property At owner's risk, of goods carried by land or sea, where all loss falls on owner, not on the carrier ownerless, adj [1 önerles, 2 önerles] Prec & -less Without an owner, unowned, unacknowledged or unknown as belonging to anyone an ownerless horse, child &c ownership, n [1 önership, 2 önership] See prec & -ship State, quality, fact, of being an owner, possessor, or proprietor, legal title to possession, proprietorship, possession ox, n, pl oxen [1 öks(en), 2 öks(en)] O E oxa, pl oxan, cp O H G ohsa, Mod. Germ ochse, Goth auhsa, O N oze cogn w W ych & Sort ulšan, pl, 'oxen, bulls' 1 A fully-grown castrated male of the domesticated genus Bos taurus, used for food or as a draught animal, as contrasted with bull, the uncastrated male, cow, the female, and steer, a young castrated ox Phr as strong as an ox, very strong 2 Any member of the bovine family, a ruminant cloven-footed quadruped, usually horned 3 (pl) Bovine cattle in general oxal- (a), pref, fr oxalic oxalate, n [1 öksalät, 2 öksalät] Prec & -ate (chem) A salt of oxalic acid oxalic, adj [1 öksähk, 2 öksähk] fr Fr oxalique, fr next word & -ic Of, derived from, the oxalis, q v, specif (chem) oxalic acid, an organic poisonous acid, originally prepared from the plant oxalis, or wood sorrel, but now from cellulose, and used in dyeing, bleaching, making of metal polish &c oxalis, n [1 öksalis, 2 öksalis] Lat, fr Gk oxalis, 'sour wine, the plant sorrel', fr oxus, 'sharp, sour, acid', cogn w Lat deor, 'sharp, biting' See acid & acidity (bot) A genus of plants, wood sorrel, with bright green clover shaped acid tasting leaves and delicately veined white or pink flowers, the leaves contain potassium oxalate, whence oxalic acid received its name oxbird, n [1 öksbörd, 2 öksbörd] The popular name of several small birds, esp the dunlin, allied to the sandpipers, found flying in flocks about pasture land oxbow, n [1 öksbö, 2 öksbou] ox & bow (I), loop 1 A U shaped yoke or collar for a draught ox 2 A horse shoe head or loop in a river, leaving only a narrow strip of land at the neck, if this neck is cut through an oxbow lake is formed oxer, n [1 öksör, 2 öksä] A fence for oxen, usually a thick set hedge with ditch and a single rail ox-eye, n 1 Popular name for several plants resembling the daisy, as the ox-eye daisy or moon-daisy, Chrysanthemum leucanthemum, the yellow ox eye, oam margold 2 A round window or bull's eye window, œil-de-bœuf ox-eyed, adj Having large, round eyes like those of the ox.

Oxford, n [1 óksfəd, 2 óksfəd] University town of England, east of the University of Oxford, specif (attrib) of, belonging to, the university town or district of Oxford. Oxford accent, a precise, pedantic, affected way of speaking, usually attributed, without any foundation, to members of Oxford University. Oxford blue, a dark blue colour. Oxford clay, (geol) a thick bed of blue clay underlying the Middle Oolite in Oxfordshire and the midland counties. Oxford frame, a picture frame in which the ends of the sides project at the corners. Oxford grey or Oxford mixture, a dark grey cloth, speckled with white, a pepper-and-salt mixture. Oxford movement, the Tractarian, High Church, or Anglo Catholic Movement of 1833-41, started by Keble, Pusey, J H Newman &c, Oxford shoe, a low laced walking shoe.

oxgang, n [1 óksɡəŋ, 2 óksɡəŋ], fr ox & gang. Old measure of land, as much as an ox can plough in one day, also styled bovate.

oxidate, n [1 óksɪdət, 2 óksɪdət] The hide of an ox, leather made from this.

oxidation, n [1 óksɪdəʃən, 2 óksɪdəʃən] Next word & -ation (chem) Process of oxidizing, etate, condition, of being oxidized, oxidation.

oxide, n [1 óksɪd, 2 óksɪd] Fr, also oxyde, fr oxy-, combining form fr oxygen & (ce) ide, 'acid' (chem) A compound of oxygen with another element or with a radical. iron oxide, oxide of tin &c. oxidizability, n [1 óksɪdɪzəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 óksɪdɪzəbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity. State, quality, of being oxidizable.

oxidizable, adj [1 óksɪdɪzəbəl, 2 óksɪdɪzəbəl] oxidize & -able. Capable of being oxidized.

oxidization, n [1 óksɪdɪzəʃən, 2 óksɪdɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation (chem) The process or change which occurs when oxygen combines with another element or with a radical, process of oxidizing, state of being oxidized.

oxidize, vb trans & intrans [1 óksɪdɪz, 2 óksɪdɪz] oxidate & -ize. A trans (chem) To combine or cause to combine with oxygen, to convert into an oxide, to cover with a coating of oxide so as to make rusty, oxidized silver, silver coated with sulphide of silver so as to give a dull, dark sheen. B in trans To become oxidized, to combine with oxygen so as to become rusty.

oxidizer, n [1 óksɪdɪzər, 2 óksɪdɪzər] Prec & -er (chem) A substance acting as agent in oxidation.

oxlip, n [1 ókslɪp, 2 ókslɪp] OE oxan slyppe. ox & slyp, as in cowslip. A Primula with large clustered flowers, b (loosely) hybrid of the primrose and cowslip.

Oxonian, adj & n [1 óksəʊniən, 2 óksəʊniən], fr Oxonio, the Latinized form of Oxford, & -an. 1 adj Of or belonging to Oxford University. 2 n A member of the University of Oxford, past or present.

oxtail, n [1 óksɪtəl, 2 óksɪtəl] The tail of the ox, esp as a dish, oxtail soup, made from this.

oxter, n [1 óksɪtər, 2 óksɪtər] OE ǣsta, cogn. w Lat axilla. See axilla & axile (Scots) The arm pit.

ox-tongue, n. 1 The tongue of an ox used as food. 2 Popular name of plants with tongue-shaped leaves with rough surface, as the anemone or helleborus, q v.

oxy-, pref. 1 From Gk oxus, 'sharp', see oxalis, as oxycarpous, oxylone &c. 2 Signifying a the presence of oxygen or an oxide, b the substitution of an atom of hydroxyl for one of hydrogen. oxy-aldehyde &c.

oxy-acetylene, n [1 óksɪəsɪtɪlɪn, 2 óksɪəsɪtɪlɪn] Prec & acetylene. Of, pertaining to, consisting of, a mixture of oxygen and acetylene, esp oxy acetylene blowpipe, for producing a more intensely hot flame than the oxy-hydrogen blowpipe, q v.

oxycarpous, adj [1 óksɪkɑːpəs, 2 óksɪkɑːpəs] See oxy- & carpel (bot) Having sharp-pointed fruits.

oxygen, n [1 óksɪjən, 2 óksɪdʒɪn], fr Fr oxygene, formed fr Gk oxus, 'sharp, acid', see oxy-, oxalis, & base in genesis. Name given by Lavoisier, who regarded the gas as essential constituent of acids. A colourless, odourless, tasteless gas, essential to life, most widely distributed of the chemical, non-metallic elements, having symbol O, existing free in the atmosphere, forming nine tenths of water, and, with other elements, found in most minerals and organic substances.

oxygenate, vb trans [1 óksɪjənət, 2 óksɪdʒɪnət] oxygen & -ate. a To combine, treat, with oxygen, b to impregnate with oxygen, as by respiration. to oxygenate the blood, oxygenated water, hydrogen dioxide.

oxygenation, n [1 óksɪjənəʃən, 2 óksɪdʒɪnəʃən] Next word & -ion. Process or state of being oxygenated.

oxygenize, vb trans [1 óksɪjənɪz, 2 óksɪdʒɪnɪz] oxygen & -ize. To oxygenate, to oxidize.

oxy-hydrogen, adj [1 óksɪhɪdʒən, 2 óksɪhɪdʒɪn] oxy- & hydrogen. Of, pertaining to, consisting of, a mixture of oxygen and hydrogen. oxy hydrogen gas, oxy hydrogen blowpipe, instrument for producing a flame, oxy hydrogen flame, of intense heat, by mixing hydrogen and oxygen under pressure at the moment of combustion, oxy hydrogen light, a brilliant light obtained by the incandescence of a substance such as lime in an oxy hydrogen flame.

oxymoron, n [1 óksɪmɒrən, 2 óksɪmɒrən], fr Gk oxumbrón, oxumbrós, 'pointedly foolish', fr oxus, 'sharp', see oxalis, & mórós, 'foolish', see moron. Rhetorical figure, epigrammatic in form, in which what appear to be incongruous, contradictory, contrasted, ideas are associated, eg 'His honour rooted in dishonour stood' (Tennyson, 'Lancelot and Elaine'), 'our final hope is flat despair' (Milton, 'P L' n 1423), 'loveliness is when unadorn'd, adorn'd the most' (Thomson, 'Autumn', 204-206).

oxylone, adj & n [1 óksɪlən, 2 óksɪlən], fr Gk oxutónos, fr oxus, 'sharp', see oxy-, & tónos, 'tone', q v. 1 adj (of syllables) In languages with musical accent, uttered on a high tone, this was denoted in Greek by the mark of so called acute accent placed over the vowel. 2 n. Syllable pronounced in A-Fr law term oyer et terminer, 'to hear and determine', fr oyer, Mod. Fr ouïr, 'to hear', fr Lat audire, 'to hear', see audible, & terminer, fr Lat. terminare, 'to finish, determine', see term. A trial under the writ of oyer et terminer, a commission issued under royal seal to judges to try treasons, felonies, and misdemeanours, a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, the formal name of an Assize Court or Assizes.

oyez!, also oyes! & O yes!, interj. [1 óyɛs, 2 óuɛs] O Fr, imperat of oir, Mod. Fr ouïr, 'to hear'. See preo. A call, repeated three times by court usher, or town orrier, to demand attention and silence.

oyster, n [1 óstər, 2 óstə] ME, fr O Fr ostre, Mod. Fr huître, fr Lat ostrea, fr Gk ostréon, 'oyster', so called fr its bony, hard shell, fr ostéon, 'bone'. See osteo- & opos, see also ossify & ostracize. OE ostre, 'oyster', was borrowed direct fr Lat. 1 A marine bivalve edible mollusc, belonging to the genus Ostrea, of which the European oyster, O edulis, and American oyster, O virginica, are distinct species and are cultivated. Phr as dumb as an oyster, very silent. 2 Any bivalve mollusc resembling the true oyster, as the pearl oyster, Meleagrina margaritifera. 3 A small, delicate piece of meat on each side of the back of a fowl.

oyster bar, n. A counter or bar in an inn or restaurant where oysters are sold.

oyster bed, n. A bed on the sea bottom in an estuary or shallow bay where oysters breed and are cultivated.

oyster-catcher, n. A wading sea-bird with a wedge shaped bill and black and white plumage of many species, belonging to the genus Haematopus.

oyster-knife, n. A broad bladed knife for opening oysters.

oyster-patty, n. Small pie of light pastry containing oysters.

oyster-plant, n. Salsify, as having slight fishy flavour as of oysters when cooked.

oyster-sauce, n. A white sauce with oysters cooked in it.

ozocerat(e), n [1 ózókərɪt, 2 óuzókərɪt, ɪt], fr Gk base oz, 'to smell', fr ody*, see under odour, & kérat, 'wax', see cere. Kind of wax like mineral, yellowish, greenish, or brown in colour, and having, before being purified, a strong, unpleasant smell, used for making candles.

ozone, n [1 ózən, 2 óuzən] Fr, fr Gk ōz (ena), 'to smell'. See under odour. 1 A gaseous, concentrated form of oxygen, of a bluish colour and pungent smell, obtained by electric discharge in oxygen, highly explosive and a powerful oxidizing agent. 2 (popularly) Invigorating, bracing air, esp that of the sea side.

ozonic, adj [1 ózənɪk, 2 óuzənɪk] Prec & -ic. Pertaining to, containing, ozone.

ozoniferous, adj [1 ózənɪfərəs, 2 óuzənɪfərəs] See preo & -iferous. Ozone bearing, as of sea-breezes.

ozone, vb trans [1 ózənɪz, 2 óuzənɪz] ozone & -ize. To convert (oxygen) into ozone, to impregnate with ozone.

P

P, p [1 pɛ, 2 pɪ] The sixteenth letter of the English alphabet, for its use as symbol or in abbreviations see end of Dictionary. Phr to mind one's p's and q's, to behave properly, be careful what one does or says.

pa, n [1 pah, 2 pə] Abbr fr papa (colloq) Father.

pabulum, n [1 pábulum, 2 pábulum] Lat pábulum, 'food', sp Lat pávis, 'bread', see panification, pa-scere, 'to feed, pasture', see pastor & pasture, cogn w Goth fōdon, 'to feed', OE fōda, 'food', see food, OE fōster, 'feeding, food', see foster, Gk palēma, 'I eat', apastos, 'fasting'. Feed, nourishment, sustenance, (often fig) mental pabulum.

paca, n [1 páka, 2 páka] Brazil. pac. Large spotted rodent of Central America.

pace (I), n [1 pás, 2 pás] ME pāce, fr O Fr pas, fr Lat passus, 'step, stride, pace', fr PP type of passus, 'to spread out', perh connected w patere, 'to be open'

See patent (I). 1 Single step in walking, running &c, stride. 2 A Space covered in single step, b distance between two successive points at which the same foot touches the ground in walking. 3 Rate of, speed in, walking, running &c, rate of progress, to go at a good pace (often fig). Phr to keep pace with, (lit and fig) to keep up with, advance at same rate as, to go the pace, (fig) to live extravagantly or dissolutely. 4 A Specific mode of walking, running &c, esp of horse,

Phr to put a person through his paces, test his abilities, b (specif, of horse) that manner of stepping in which both feet on same side are lifted together pace (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To walk with measured tread 2 (of horse) To amble B trans 1 To cross, traverse, esp repeatedly, with measured, rhythmical tread to pace a room 2 Also pace out, to measure by pacing 3 To set paces for (runner in race &c) pace (III), prep [1 pás, 2 pásis] Lat pás, abl of pax, 'peace', see pax (in expressing disagreement, opposed opinion) With all deference to opinion of (another) pace Mr Jones

-paced, adj [1 pást, 2 paist] pnos (I) & -ed Having pace of specified character ep thorough-paced, out-and-out pace-maker, n One who sets the pace for another in race &c pacier, n [1 páser, 2 pásas] pace (II) & -er One who, that which, paces, esp horse whose usual gait is a pace pacha, n See pasha pachisi, n [1 pashí, 2 pat[is]] Hind, 'twenty-five', the highest number thrown Indian game, played on a board with pieces moved according to throw of cowrie shells which are used as dice pachyderm, n [1 pákidérn, 2 pákidám], fr Fr pachyderme, fr Gk pákhí (s), 'thick, strong, nob', fr *bhngghu, cogn w. Sort bahá, 'thick, abundant', O H G bungo, 'onion', O N bingr, 'heap, mass', Lith bitums, 'thickness'; & derma, dermatos, 'skin', see -derm 1 Thick-skinned animal, esp one of ao obs order of hoofed, non-ruminant mammals including the elephant, hippopotamus, and rhinoceros 2 Thick-skinned, stolid person pachydermatous, adj [1 pákidérmatús, 2 pákidámatas] See prec & -ous 1 Thick-skinned, of, of the nature of, a pachyderm 2 Stolid, insensible to impressions pacific, adj & n [1 pásifik, 2 pásifik], fr Lat páciús (us), 'peace making', fr pax, stem of pax, 'peace' See pax & -fic 1 adj a tending towards, promoting, peace, b of peaceful disposition or character, mild, tranquil, Pacific Ocean, between Asia and America 2 n (cap) The Pacific, Pacific Ocean pacifically, adv [1 pásifikali, 2 pásifikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a pacific manner pacification, n [1 pásifikáshun, 2 pásifikéishun], fr Lat páciфикаción (em), 'establishing of peace' See pacify & -fication Act of pacifying, state of being pacified pacifical, adj [1 pásifikáshun, pásifikáshun], fr Lat páciфикаción (us), 'establishing peace', fr páciфикаción (um), P P type of páciфикаción, 'to pacify'. See prec & -ory Tending to pacify pacifism, pacifism, n [1 pásifikizem, pásifikizem], 2 pásifikizem, pásifikizem] pacifio & -ism, the shortened form is now the commoner though, strictly, the less correct Doctrines, theory, teaching, of the necessity for universal or international peace, and the abolition of war as means of settling disputes, systematic opposition to war and militarism pacifistic, pacifist, n [1 pásifikist, pásifikist, 2 pásifikist, pásifikist] See prec & -ist Adherent of, believer in, pacifism pacifier, n [1 pásifier, 2 pásifera] See oest word & -er One who pacifies, peacemaker pacify, vb trans [1 pásifi, 2 pásifiar], fr Fr pacifier, fr Lat páciфикаre, 'to pacify', fr pax (e), govt. of pax, 'peace', see pax, & -fy 1 To make peaceful, quiet, calm, restore serenity to, appease to pacify a person, anger &c 2 To establish peace in (a country, nation &c) pack (I), n [1 pák, 2 pák] ME pálle, orig apparently a Flemish word which passed into High Germ & into Engl, as well as into Fr See packet. 1 Bundle of things put or fastened together, usually wrapped up or in bag, case &c, to be carried by person or beast of burden, specif a pedlar's bundle of goods, b load for pack animal 2 a Bale, bundle, of specific size or weight, as measure for certain goods, e.g. wool, b amount of fish &c packed in a season 3 Number of animals or birds naturally herding together, or kept together for specific purpose, esp n of hounds for hunting, b of wolves, c of grouse 4 (Rugby football) The forwards of a team 5 (implying contempt, anger &c) Number, group, collection a pack of lies, nonsense, scoundrels &c 6 Complete set of playing-cards 7 Extensive mass of broken, floating ice usually pack-ice. 8 (archaic or obs) An impudent woman of light character a scatty pack pack (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To put or fit together closely in box, case, bag &c, esp for transport or storing to pack clothes, furniture, goods &c, b to fit tightly together, cram, crowd to pack people into a room, railway-carriage &c 2 To prepare and put into tins for preserving to pack meat, fruit &c 3 a To put things into, fill with goods for transport &c to pack a box, bag &c, b to fill tightly, cram, crowd the room was packed 4 a To surround with tightly pressed substance for protection &c to pack a joint (of water-pipe &c), b (med) to wrap (patient) in wet sheet to reduce inflammation &c 5 To load (animal) with pack(s) 6 To select members of jury, committee &c, to ensure desired verdict or decision B intrans 1 a To crowd together, press, throng, into small space the people packed into the carriages, b (of animals) to form into a pack 2 To depart, go off, take oneself off, Phr to send a person packing, dismiss summarily. 3 (specif) To bestow one's clothes and other belongings in trunks, travelling bags &c, ready for a journey as we start early to-morrow, we'd better pack today C Followed by adverbs or prepositions Pack off, a trans, to send off, cause to depart to pack a person off, b intrans, to hurry off, depart hastily Pack up, trans and absol, to pack (goods, a parcel, a box &c), specif, to put one's clothes and other effects into travelling trunks &c, preparatory to departure package, n [1 páki, 2 pákidí] pack & -age Bundle of things packed, bale, parcel pack-animal, n Horse, mule, donkey &c used for carrying packs packer, n [1 páker, 2 pákas] pack (II) & -er One who, that which, packs, esp a (i) a skilled workman who packs goods for transporting, (ii) one who packs and preserves meat, fruit &c, b machine for packing packet, n [1 páket, 2 pákét], fr A Fr paquet, M Fr paquet & paquet See pack (I) & -et 1 Small package, parcel, bundle 2 Mail-box packet-boat, n Mail boat pack-horse, n Horse used for carrying packs packing, n [1 páking, 2 páking] pack (II) & -ing 1 (specif) Act of putting clothes and other personal belongings into trunks or bags, ready for a journey I must go and do my packing 2 a Material used in packing, as protection for goods &c, b tow, cotton-waste, or similar material, pressed between or round parts of machinery, exposed water-pipes, cisterns &c, to protect against jarring or cold packing-case, n Box of rough boards in which goods are packed for transport packing-needle, n Large needle for sewing up packages in canvas &c packing-sheet, n 1 Coarse canvas &c, for packing goods 2 Wet sheet applied to reduce inflammation &c packman, n [1 pákman, 2 pákman] Pedlar pack-saddle, n Saddle with straps for carrying packs pack-staff, n Staff or stout stick on which a packman carried his pack; in the old saying plain as a pack-staff, the word has been changed to pick-staff, q v.

pack-thread, n Strong thread for stitching up packages in canvas pack, n [1 pák, 2 pákét], fr O. Fr, fr. Lat. pact-um, 'contract, covenant, treaty', fr. P P type of pacta, 'to make an agreement', op Lat pax, 'peace' See pax, & words there referred to Agreement, covenant, compact, made between two or more persons, parties, or states pad (I), n [1 pad, 2 pát], fr Du pad, 'path', op O.E. pād, see path, O Fr. path, O H G pfad 1 (slang) Road, esp in Phr might &c of the pad, highwayman 2 Also pad horse, pad-nag, easy-paced horse 'An abbot on an ambling pad' (Tennyson, 'Lady of Shalott') pad (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To trudge along, go on foot along (road &c), Phr (slang) to pad it, pad the hoof, to walk, tramp 2 intrans To go on foot pad (III), n Etymol doubtful, possibly a variant of pod 1 Anything composed of or stuffed with soft material and used to prevent friction, pressure, or other injury, or to fill hollow, protect wound &c, specif a soft, stuffed saddle, b guard for leg, in cricket, for shin, in hockey or football 2 Number of sheets of paper fastened together one above the other for writing, drawing, printing &c, (often in compounds) writing-, blotting pad 3 a Thick-skinned, fleshy under-surface of foot of some quadrupeds, b paw of fox or hare 4 Large floating leaf of water-lily &c pad (IV), vb trans, fr prec To stuff or cover with soft material to prevent friction, jarring &c, padded cell, room with padded walls in lunatic asylum Phr to pad out a sentence, article, book, to add out poverty of ideas and matter with irrelevant material and prolix verbiage pad (V), n Etymol uncertain Small basket used as measure for fruit &c paddling, n [1 páding, 2 páding] pad (III) & -ing 1 Soft material used for stuffing as protection &c 2 (fig) Unnecessary verbiage in a speech or written composition, which adds nothing to the point or meaning, and is introduced in the absence of solid matter, in order to fill up the time, or cover more space paddle (I), n [1 pádl, 2 pádl] Origin unknown 1 a Short oar with rounded, spoon-shaped blade, used without rowlock, as in canoe &c, double paddle, one with a blade at each end, b any tool or instrument shaped like a paddle 2 One of the boards fitted round circumference of paddle wheel 3 A paddle shaped limb, as of a turtle &c, flipper, fin paddle (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To move along the water, propel boat, esp canoe, by means of paddle 2 trans To propel (boat &c) by means of paddle(s) Phr to paddle one's own canoe, be independent of others paddle (III), n, fr prec Act, spell, of paddling paddle (IV), vb intrans & n Perh fr pad (I) 1 vb a To walk, dabble the feet, in shallow water, b to touch, toy, fidget with the fingers 2 n Slush, liquid mud or filth paddle-box, n Wooden case covering upper part of paddle-wheel paddle-wheel, n Wheel propelling ship by means of a series of boards, placed round and at right angles to circumference, which press backwards against the water paddock (I), n [1 páduk, 2 pádv] Prob variant of ME paddok, fr O.E. pāddec, q v under park 1 Small field, esp one or two stables, in which horses are kept or exercised 2 Enclosure near racecourse, where horses assemble before race paddock (II), n ME paddol, dimin of padda, 'to d', ep O.N. padda (archaic or provincial) Toad Paddy (I), o [1 pádi, 2 pádi] Pet name fr Padraig, Irish form of Patrick (colloq.) An Irishman paddy (II), n, fr Malay. padi Rice in the husk, also growing rice, paddy field, field of growing rice paddy (II), paddywhack, n [1 pádi(wak), 2 pádi(wak)] Prob fr Paddy(I) (colloq) A fit of temper pad(n)shah, n [1 páhd(t)sha, 2 pád(t)je], fr Pers shah, 'master', & shah, 'shah', see shah Great king or ruler, specif a (in Persia) the shah, b (in India) sovereign of Great Britain, c (in Europe) sultan of Turkey padlock, n & v trans [1 pádlók, 2 pádlók] Pad, etymol doubtful, & look (II) 1 n Detachable lock, with hinged or pivoted loop at the top to be hooked through staple &c 2 v trans To fasten by means of a padlock padre, n [1 pádrá, 2 pádré] Span & Port padre, 'father, priest', fr Lat pater, 'father' See pater (nav and mil slang) Chaplain, any clergyman padrone, n [1 padróna, 2 padróne] Ital, same word as patron 1 Master of Mediterranean trading ship 2 Italian who employs street musicians, begging children &c for his own profit 3 Italian inn keeper paduasoy, n [1 páduaso, páduaso, 2 páduaso, páduaso] fr Fr pau de soie, etymol doubtful, apparent association w Padua Kind of corded silk, esp as worn in 18th cent paean, n [1 páan, 2 páan] fr Lat Paean, 'a name of Apollo, hymn to Apollo', fr Gk Paian, orig 'one who touches', hence, 'one who heals by a touch, the Healer, Deliverer, an epithet of Apollo', hence, 'hymn of praise to Apollo', cp Gk paion, 'I touch, strike' Lat pavire, 'to strike, beat', see pava, Lith pausti, 'to cut down, mow' 1 Song of thanksgiving for victory, originally addressed to Apollo 2 Song of praise, triumph, and joy paederasty, pederasty, n [1 pēd, pēderasta, 2 pēd, pēderasti], fr Gk paíd, stem of país, 'boy', see paedo-, & erast (st), 'lover', fr erastai, 'I love', q v under erotic, & -y Unnatural sexual offence between male persons, sodomy paedo-, pedo-, pref representing Gk paídō, stem of país, 'child, boy, girl', cp Sort paídōs, 'young animal', putrā, 'child', Lat puer, 'child', see puerile & words there referred to Pertaining to a child or children, e g paedobaptism, baptism of infants, paedobaptist adherent of infant baptism paean, n [1 pēon, 2 pēan] Lat paean, 'paean', fr Gk paian, Attic form of paian, 'hymn to Apollo' See paean Metrical foot consisting of three short syllables and one long, the latter occurring in any position in the group paemonic, adj [1 plōnik, 2 plōnik] Prec & -ic Of, composed in, consisting of, paean paeny, n See paeny pagan, n & adj [1 págan, 2 págan] fr Lat pagan (us), 'villager, countryman', fr pág (us), 'district, village', fr base pāg-, pāg, 'to join together', seen in (com)pāges, 'a joining, fastening, structure', see compact (I), pax, 'peace', see pax see also fair (II) & fang (I) 1 n a Heathen, a Gentile, specif a worshipper of false gods, one who is neither Christian, Jew, nor Moslem, b a barbarian, person, who from any point of view is unenlightened 2 adj Having character or beliefs of a pagan pagandom, n [1 págaodm, 2 págaodm] Prec & -dom a Heathen countries b pagans collectively paganish, adj [1 páganish, 2 págeon] pagan & -ish Resembling a pagan paganism, n [1 páganizm, 2 págeonizm] pagan & -ism State of being a pagan, beliefs and practices of pagans paganize, v trans [1 páganiz, 2 págeoniz] pagan & -ize To convert, reduce, to paganize, to heathenize page (I), n [1 páj, 2 péidz] In M E, fr O Fr page, Ital paggio fr Gk paidōr, 'a young boy, or slave' See paedo- 1 Boy in livery employed in household &c to attend to door &c 2 Title of various officials of royal household page of the presence &c 3 a Boy attending on person of high rank, b (hist) young noble in training for knighthood, in service of knight page (II), n, fr Fr page, fr Lat página, 'strip of papyrus, leaf, page', fr base pāg-, pāg, 'to join together, fasten', seen in (com)pāges, 'fastening', pāx, 'peace' & See pax 1 One side of leaf of book, sheet of writing-paper &c 2 (poet or rhet) Writings, records, annals 'But Knowledge to their eyes her ample page, Rich with the spoils of time, did ne'er unroll' (Gray's 'Elegy'), the glowing pages of Scott page (III), v trans, fr prec To mark successive numbers on pages of to page a book &c pageant, n [1 pájent, 2 pádjant] M E pagin, pagin(t) was used of a movable stage or scaffold upon which mystery plays were performed, & also of the performance itself The connexion in meaning between this & Lat página, 'page of a book' (see page (II)), is hard to see, unless the primitive sense of 'putting together' survived, or the sense 'scaffold' developed fr that of 'leaf, slab', a secondary meaning of página, whence perh 'platform' 1 A splendid, imposing, stately display, such as a procession of magnificently equipped persons, heres &c 2 Specif a spectacular form of drama, illustrating various episodes in the history of a town or district, performed on or near the scene of such episodes, with costumed players, dialogue, music &c 3 (fig) Empty pomp or display, a vain, opesious show pageantry, n [1 pájentr, 2 pádjentr] Prec & -ry 1 Splendid display, grand and gorgeous spectacle 2 Vain show, empty pomp pagehood, n [1 páfhood, 2 pándihud] page (I) & -hood Rank, status of a page pageship, n [1 pájshp, 2 pádjshp] page (I) & -ship Pagehood paginal, adj [1 pájnl, 2 pádjnl], fr L Lat paginālis (us), 'of a page', fr pagina, 'page', see page (II), & -al a Connected with, relating to, a page, b page for page, with pages corresponding a paginal transcription paginary, adj [1 pájinar, 2 pádjinar], fr Lat página, 'page', see page (II), & -ary (rare) Paginal paginate, v trans [1 pájnat, 2 pádjinet], fr Lat pagin (a), 'page', see puge (II), & -ate To mark pages off with consecutive numbers, to page pagination, n [1 pájinašun, 2 pádjine], [an] Prec & -inn 1 Act of paging 2 State of being paginated, arrangement and numbering of the pages of a book pagoda, n [1 págoda, 2 págouda], fr Port pagode, prob of Hind & Pers origin, cp Pers but kadah, 'house of idols' 1 a Eastern temple esp in India and China, circular in shape, built in several storeys, surmounted at the top by a slender, tapering pinnacle, each storey is slightly narrower than that below, so that the whole structure forms a tapering tower each storey has a projecting ornamental roof, b model of this as ornament &c 2 Light, ornamented shed or booth where newspapers, tobacco &c are sold in a public place 3 Gold coin formerly current in India pagoda tree, n One of several kinds of Chinese and Japanese trees, whose habit of growth produces a pagoda like form Phr to shake the pagoda tree, to go to India or Far East and amass wealth, used of the Nabobs of the 18th and early 19th cents, with reference to the gold coin called 'pagoda' pagurian, adj & n [1 páguran, 2 págüran], fr Lat pagür (us), fr Gk pagour (as), 'a kind of crab', fr pag*, 'hard, firmly fixed', stem of pagos, 'mountain peak, rocky hill', cp pagēdis, 'frost', pagē, 'enare, trap', pagos, 'solid', pēgnēmi, 'I fix, construct, harden, freeze', pēlōs, 'fixed, constructed, congealed', see pectin, & words there referred to, for the second element, Gk ourd, 'tail', see uro- (II) 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the family Paguridae, which includes the hermit crabs and purse crabs 2 n The hermit crab pah (I), interj [1 pah, 2 pā] Expressing disgust or contempt pah (II), n, fr Maori pa Native Maori palisaded fort or village in New Zealand paid, Pret & P P of pay (I) pail, n [1 pāl, 2 pēil] OE paegel, 'wine vessel, gill', M E paile, payle, 'milk pail', op LG paegel, 'staff, post' The original type of pail, which still survives, is made like a cask, of flat staves of wood shaped so as to fit round the wooden bottom and held together with hoops, this enables us to equate the word w Lat baculum, 'us', 'a staff, walking stick', see bacillus, also w Lat imbacillus, 'weak', lit 'unsupported', see imbecile Both the OE & the Lat words have the dimin suff See further under peg 1 Round open vessel or bucket for carrying liquid, usually somewhat conical in shape, standing upon its smaller end, and usually provided with a curved handle formed like the section of a hoop passing across the mouth from side to side, pails may be made from staves of wood hooped together milk pail, from metal, such as galvanized iron, or from coarse porcelain bed room pail, slop pail &c 2 As much liquid as a pail will hold, a pailful a pail of water pailful, n [1 páifool, 2 pēifool] Prec & -ful Amount of liquid contained in a pail paillasse, n See paillasse paillette, n [1 páyet, 2 pájēt] Fr, dimin of paile, 'straw' See paillasse a Piece of metal used in enamel painting, b small disc of bright metal as ornament, spangle pain (I), n [1 pān, 2 pēin], fr O Fr peine, fr Lat poena, 'penalty' See penal 1 a Bodily or mental suffering, distress, anguish to feel, be in, pain, he suffers no pain now, the pain of parting, b an acute bodily smart, ache, soreness, a twinge, a shoot, a qualm, generally localized in some particular organ or part to have a pain, a pain in the stomach, head, knee &c 2 Penalty, punishment, only in Phrs pains and penalties under pain of death &c, at the risk of incurring death &c 3 (pl) Effort, care, trouble to take pains, to get little reward for one's pains, no pains were spared to ensure success pain (II), v trans & intrans, fr O Fr peiner, fr Med Lat poenāre, 'to penalize', fr Lat poena, 'penalty' See prec 1 trans a (chiefly in moral sense) To cause distress or suffering to, inflict mental or moral pain upon your disapproval pains me more than I can say, also b (of physical suffering) m, tooth doesn't pain me now 2 intrans (colloq) To give rise to, be a source of, pain, to ache, smart, he sore my wound is paining just for the moment pained, adj [1 pánd, 2 pēnd], fr P P of prec Feeling, evincing pain, or distress of mind, having the feelings hurt, offended, wounded, showing this he looked pained his face wore a pained expression painful, adj [1 páifool, 2 pēifool] pain & -ful 1 Causing, involving, pain of body or mind a painful cut in the finger, a painful experience, task, piece of news &c 2 (obs or deliberately archaic) a (of persons) Pains taking, careful, taking trouble, industrious a painful preacher of the Gospel, b (of actions) exacting, and showing results of, care and painstaking the painful labours of leprographers painfully, adv Prec & -ly In a painful manner painfulness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being painful pain-killer, n. Medicine relieving pain painless, adj [1 páinles, 2 pēinles] pain (I) & -less a Without pain, b not causing or involving pain painless death, dentistry painlessly, adv Proo & -ly In a painless manner, as not to cause pain. teeth painlessly extracted, b without suffering pain he died painlessly painlessness, n See proo & -ness State or quality of being painless painstaking, adj & n [1 páintákíng, 2 péintákíng] 1 adj Taking pains or trouble, careful, diligent, industrious 2 n Care, diligence, act of taking pains paint (I), n [1 páint, 2 péint] See next word 1 Solid colouring matter, pigment, mixed with oil or liquid and used to give colour to a surface 2 Cosmetic used to colour face &c, rouge, powder and paint paint (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr peindre, PP of peindre, 'to paint', fr Low Lat pinctum* for pictum, PP of pingere, 'to paint', to embroider, fr base pei* (g)-, pi*-(g)-, 'to adorn, deck', op Sort píngráid, 'reddish', píidh, 'adorns, paints', Gk poíktos, 'gay', Goth (filu) fahs, 'variegated', OE fah, 'coloured' See picture A trans 1 A to cover surface of with paint, to spread paint on, cover with paint to paint a gate, house, wall &c, b to cover with paint of specified colour to paint a gate green Phr (slang) to paint the town red, to create disturbance by a riotous jollification, to indulge in a rowdy spree, esp one inspired by drink 2 To trace designs, patterns &c on with paint, to adorn surface of with paint painted glass, china &c 3 To represent in coloured picture, to portray in colours to paint a landscape, a design, to paint a person's portrait 4 To add colour to by means of cosmetics to paint one's face 5 (fig) To describe vividly in words to paint a person's character, a scene, incident &c, to paint one's experiences in glowing colours Phr not so black as he is painted, of greater merit than would appear from his reputation. B intrans 1 To practise painting as an art 2 To make use of cosmetics, rouge &c to improve one's complexion she would look better if she didn't paint so much C Followed by advrb Paint in, to introduce, represent, in suitable place in a picture by means of paint to paint in the foreground Paint out, to conceal, efface, blot out, by means of paint paint-box, n Box with compartments for cakes of paint paint-brush, n Brush for applying paint to surface painter-lady, n [1 páinted ládi, 2 péinted-láidí] Orange red butterfly with black and white spots painter (I), n [1 páintér, 2 péinté] paint (II) & -er 1 One who paints pictures, one skilled in the art of painting 2 Person whose trade is to cover surfaces with paint, as a means of preservation, or decoration a house painter, painter and decorator, one who undertakes the painting and decoration of houses, painter's colic, a form of lead poisoning, common among painters and plumbers who use white lead painter (II), n [1 páintér, 2 péinté] ME pantere, 'noose, snare', op Fr pantere, fr Lat panther, 'hunting-net', fr Gk panthéra, fr pón, 'all', see pan-, & thér, 'beast', see theriao & op ferocious Rope fastened to bow of boat to moor it &c Phr to cut the painter, to set adrift, (fig) to separate one self finally from something painting, n [1 páintíng, 2 péintíng] paint (II) & -ing 1 A act of colouring a surface by means of paint, b act of portraying objects &c in colours 2 Occupation of painter to take up painting as a hobby 3 Picture in colours, painted picture a collection of old but probably worthless paintings paintress, n [1 páintres, 2 péintres] painter & -ess (rare) Female painter painty, adj [1 páintí, 2 péintí] paint & -y 1 Of, covered with, smeared with, paint 2 (of picture) Overloaded with paint pair (I), n [1 páir, 2 péir] fr Fr paire, fr Lat paria, neut pl of pár, 'equal'. See par 1 Set of two similar or corresponding things, naturally existing, or normally used, together a pair of ears, shoes, gloves &c 2 Object consisting of two equal or corresponding parts a pair of tongs, scissors, spectacles, scales &c Phr a pair of stars, a flight of stars 3 Group of two persons or animals, specif a married or engaged couple, the happy pair, esp of couple just married, (b of animals) mated couple, c two horses harnessed together, d (Parliament) two members voting on opposite sides, who both agree to be absent from division pair (II), vb trans & intrans, fr proo A trans To put together, arrange, group, in pairs, join in couples B intrans 1 To be arranged in, form into, couples 2 A To join, unite, in marriage, b (of animals) to mate 3 Of two persons belonging to opposite parties, in Parliament or any legislative or deliberative body, to agree that both shall abstain from voting on a particular occasion C Followed by advrb Pair off, 1 trans, to arrange in couples, 2 intrans, a to form into pairs, be grouped in couples, b (colloq) to marry pair-horse, adj (of carriage &c) For a pair of horses pair-oar, n Boat to be rowed by pair of oars pajamas, n See pyjamas pal, n & vb intrans [1 pal, 2 pwl] Gipsy, 'brother', for prál, op Sort bhrálar, cogn w brother 1 n (colloq, slang) Intimate friend, mate, companion 2 vb intrans (followed by with, usually pal up) To become friendly, intimate, to associate palace, n [1 pálas, 2 pálas] fr O Fr palais, fr Lat Palatium, 'Palatine Hill in Rome, house of Augustus on this hill' 1 Residence of sovereign or bishop 2 Large, splendid house 3 Large hall for entertainment &c palace-car, n Luxurious railway-carriage paladin, n [1 páladín, 2 péladín] fr O Fr, fr Lat palatinus (us), of the Imperial Palace' See Palatine (I) 1 Any one of the twelve peers of Charlemagne's household 2 a A knight errant, a noble adventurer, b an heroic, chivalrous person palae(o)-, pale(o)-, pref, meaning 'ancient, old, primitive', representing Gk palaios (s), 'ancient', op Gk pálas, 'formerly', fr kel-*, cogn w Gk télē, 'far off', fr kel-* See tele- palaeobotany, n [1 pál, páleobótán, 2 pál, péiloubótán] Proo & botany That branch of botanical science which deals with fossil or extinct plants palaeographer, n [1 pál, páleógráfer, 2 pál, péilógráfer] palaeo- & -graph & -er Student of, one learned in, palaeography palaeographic, adj [1 pál, páleógráfik, 2 pál, péilógráfik] palaeo- & -graphic Of, relating to, palaeography palaeography, n [1 pál, páleógráfi, 2 pál, péilógráfi] palaeo- & -graphy Study of ancient handwriting, inscriptions, and manuscripts palaeolithic, adj [1 pál, páleolithik, 2 pál, péilolithik] palaeo- & -lith & -ic Belonging to the age of, characterized by the use of, rough stone implements, of the earlier stone age, as contrasted with neolithic palaeontology, n [1 pál, páleontólón, 2 pál, péilontólón] palaeo- & ontology Study of extinct forms of life, study of fossil remains palaeotheria, n [1 pál, páleothér, 2 pál, péilothér] palaeo- & Gk thér, 'wild beast' See theriao & ferocious Genus of extinct, primitive, hoofed mammals, somewhat resembling the tapir palaeotype, n [1 páléotíp, 2 péiloutíp, péiloutáip] palaeo- & -type System of alphabetical phonetic notation invented by A J Ellis palaeozoic, adj [1 pál, páleozóik, 2 pál, péilouzóik] palaeo- & zoió (geol) a (of rocks) Containing the earliest forms of life, b (of fossils) belonging to the first geological era palaestra, palestra, n [1 pálestra, pálestra, 2 pálestre, pálestre] Lat palaestra, fr Gk palástra, 'gymnasium, wrestling-school', op Gk paláist, 'I wrestle', páist, 'wrestling match' Etymol doubtful Wrestling-school, gymnasium palafitte, n [1 pálafit, 2 pálefít] Fr, fr Ital palafitta, 'fence', fr palo, 'stake', fr Lat pálus, 'stake', see pale (I), & fita, 'fixed', see fix Prehistoric Swiss or N Italian lake dwelling built on piles palanquin, n, also palankeen [1 pálanquí, 2 pálanquí] fr Port palanquim, op Malay palanghi, Hind poli, 'litter' Light, covered litter for one person, used in China and India, carried by four or six men palatable, adj [1 pálatabl, 2 páletabl] palate & -able 1 Pleasant to the taste; agreeable, savoury 2 (fig) Pleasing, agreeable, to the mind palatably, adv Proo & -ly In a palatable manner palatal, adj & n [1 pálatl, 2 páletl] fr Fr palatal, fr palate & -al 1 adj a Pertaining to the palate, b specif (phon, of speech sound) produced by approximation or contact of the tongue with the hard palate; better called front (consonant or vowel) 2 n Palatal or front consonant palatalize, vb trans [1 pálatáliz, 2 páletáliz] Proo & -ize To form (sound) with, or near, the front part, or middle, of the tongue, term applied to process of shifting area of articulation forward from the back to the front of the tongue, as when [k] gradually becomes [t] and finally [tʃ], to front palate, n [1 pálat, 2 pálet] fr Lat palatum, 'palate, organ of taste, mental taste, critical judgement', etymol obscure 1 Roof of the mouth, hard, soft, palate, respectively the front and back portion of this, cleft palate, malformation of the mouth, consisting of a longitudinal fissure of the palate 2 A Sense of taste to suit one's palate, to have a delicate palate, b (fig) aesthetic taste palatial, adj [1 pálatshl, 2 páletshl] fr Lat palātium (um), 'Palatine Hill, palace on this hill', see palace, & -al a Connected with, resembling, a palace, b splendid, sumptuous, spacious

Palatinate, n [1 pálatínat, 2 páletínat] See next word & -ate Province of a Count Palatine, specif, The (Rhine) Palatinate, electoral state in former German Empire ruled by the Count Palatine of the Rhine

Palatine (I), adj & n [1 pálatín, 2 pálatáun] fr Lat Palātīn (us), 'of the Palatine Hill, of the imperial palace', fr Palāt (um), 'Palatine Hill, palace built on this', see palace, & -ine 1 adj a Count (in Engl Earl) Palatine, count (earl) having royal privileges and judicial rights within his territory, subject only to the emperor or king, b County Palatine, territory within his jurisdiction 2 n (without cap) Kind of fur tippet formerly worn by women palatine (II), adj & n palate & -ine 1 adj Pertaining to the palate, palatal 2 n (pl) Palatines, also palatine bones, two bones forming the hard palate palato-, pref Form fr palate, used in compounds, as palato dental, of the palate and teeth &c palaver (I), n [1 pálahver, 2 páldve] fr Port palavra, 'word, talk', fr Lat parabola, 'discourse, parable' See parable 1 Conference, talk, dissonant, esp between African natives and Europeans 2 Idle talk, chatter 3 Flattery, cajolery, blarney palaver (II), vb intrans & trans, fr proo 1 intrans To talk idly and at length 2 trans (rare) To flatter, wheedle pale (I), n [1 pál, 2 péil] fr Fr pal, fr Lat pálus, 'stake', earlier palalos*, fr stem pdk-*, to fix, make firm, seen in palouse,

- 'to make an agreement', pāz, 'peace'. See pax & words there referred to 1 Long narrow pointed piece of wood, or stake, fixed upright in the ground for fence & 2 Boundary, limit, fence, obs except in fig Phr within, beyond, outside, the pale, within, outside, the limits of what is recognized as decent behaviour, the (English) Pale, district in eastern Ireland under English rule after 12th cent 3 (her) Vertical stripe on the shield, occupying one third of the width of the shield
- pale (II), adj, fr O Fr pallidus, fr Lat pallidus, 'pale', cp Lat pallere, 'to grow pale', pallor, 'paleness'. See pallid & pallor 1 (of complexion) Whitish, wan, having little colour 2 (of colour) Faint, dimly coloured 3 (of light &c) Dim, of faint lustre, not bright
- pale (III), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To grow pale, b (fig) to become pale, appear less beautiful or important by comparison with something else lesser beauties paled beside the queen 2 trans To make pale
- palea, n, pl paleae (1 palea, -es, 2 paleae, -i) Lat, 'chaff'. See pallasse (bot) A chaffy bract or scale at the base of the florets of composite flowers, an inner scale of the flower of certain grasses &c
- paleaceous, adj [1 paleatus, 2 paleatus] Prec & -aceous (bot) Consisting of, resembling, paleae
- pale-face n Name applied, in romances, by North American Indians to a white man
- palely, adv [1 pālū, 2 pēlīlū] pale (II) & -ly In a pale manner, dimly, faintly
- paleness, n [1 pālness, 2 pēlīnness] See prec & -ness State or quality of being pale
- paleo- See paleo-
- paleot n [1 pālōt, 2 paleot] Fr, etymol. doubtful. (obsolesc) An overcoat, esp a child's coat
- palette, n [1 pālēt, 2 pālēt] Fr, orig in gen sense of 'a thin, flat piece of wood', formed w dunn suff fr Lat pāla, 'spade', cp also Lat pālus, 'stake'. See pale (I) 1 Small oval board on which an artist mixes his colours 2 Colours used by specific artist or for specific picture
- palette-knife, n Thin bladed knife with round point and wooden handle for mixing colours on or cleaning palette
- palfrey, n [1 pālfre, 2 pālfre] fr O Fr palfrey, fr Low Lat palfredus, parafredus, fr Gk gār, 'beside extra', & Lat ierēdus, 'light horse', fr Gaulish torēdus*, fr redā, 'four wheeled carriage', cogn w OHG rian, O E ridan, 'to ride', see ride (archaic and poet) Saddle horse, esp for a lady
- Pali, n [1 pālī, 2 pālī] fr Scrt pālī-bhāṣa, 'language of canonical books', fr pālī, 'canon', & bhāṣa, 'language'. Language of the sacred books of the Buddhists
- pallikar, n [1 pālīkar, 2 pālīkār] fr Mod Gk pālīkari, 'boy', fr Gk pallax, genit pallakos, 'youth', cp Pallas, epithet of Athens See palladium (I) Follower of Greek or Albanian military chief, esp in War of Independence 1821-28
- palmpest, n & adj [1 pālmpest, 2 pālmpest] fr Lat fr Gk pālmpestion, fr pālm, 'again', backwards, in reverse direction', cp Gk pēlōm, 'I turn', pēlōs, 'pivot', see pole (II) The second element is fr Gk peōd, 'I rub crumble away' cp Scrt bhbar, 'to crush, crumble', & Gk pēgma, 'shavings chips', pēlēma, 'to rub out', O H G bar, O E bar, 'bare', see bare 1 n Parchment or other material upon which two or more writings are found, one superimposed upon the other, the earlier writing was supposed to be erased, but is often visible as well as the more recent 2 adj (of parchment, manuscript &c) Treated in this way
- palm-drom adj & n [1 pālm-drom, 2 pālm-drom] fr Gk pālm-dromos, 'running back again', fr pālm, 'backwards, again', see prec & drom, 'running', stem seen in dromos, 'course, race', see dromedary, cp Gk dēdroma, Perf of dromain, 'to run', Scrt dramai, 'to run' 1 adj (of word, verse &c) Reading the same backwards and forwards 2 n Word, line &c reading the same backwards and forwards
- palm-dromic, adj [1 pālm-dromik, 2 pālm-dromik] Prec & -ic Of, of the nature of, forming, a palm-drome
- paling, n [1 pāling, 2 pēling] pale (I) & -ing Fence of pales or stakes
- palingenesis, n [1 pālingenesis, 2 pālingenesis] fr Gk pālin, 'again', see first element of palm-pest, & genesis 1 Rebirth, resurrection 2 Doctrine of successive births by reencarnation 3 (biol) The exact reproduction in offspring of ancestral characters
- palingenetic, adj [1 pālingenetik, 2 pālingenetik] See prec & -genetic Pertaining to palingenesis
- palmode, n [1 pālmōd, 2 pālmōd] fr Gk pālmōdia, 'palmode', fr pālm, 'again, backwards', see palm-pest, & ōdē, 'song', see ode a Poem retracting what is said in a former one, b recantation
- palsade, n & vb trans [1 pālsād, 2 pālsād] fr Fr palsade, fr pālsaz, 'to fence with pales', fr O Fr pāl, 'stake'. See pale (I) & -ade 1 n a Fence of iron or wooden stakes for defensive purposes, b (mul) strong, pointed stake 2 vb trans To surround, protect, with a palsade
- pālsh, adj [1 pālsh, 2 pēlsh] pale (II) & -ish Somewhat pale
- pall (I), n [1 pāl, 2 pāl] O E pall, M E pall, fr Lat pallium, 'cloak', cp Lat palla, 'outer garment of Roman women', prob fr par(u)la*, fr Gk pālō (as), 'large piece of cloth, cloak', cogn w Lith burva, 'garment', Lett burvcs, 'small sails' 1 Large cloth, usually of black or purple velvet, spread over a coffin 2 (fig) Anything which serves as, or forms, a covering a pall of darkness, gloom, snow 3 Pallium & (her) Y-shaped bearing, representing a pallium, borne on the escutcheons of the Archbishops of Canterbury, Dublin, and Armagh
- pall (II), vb intrans Perh an aphetic form of appal, but cp M E pallen, 'to be come rapid, to lose spirit', the basis is Lat pālescere, 'to grow pale', but what is the intermediate O Fr form fr wh the M E vb derives? Fr pālē & pālō offer difficulties in view of Lat pallidus, Meyer Lubke indicates, but does not clear up the difficulty See pale (II) & pallor To satiate, become unsped, appear wearisome sensual pleasure soon palls, also pall (upon), to weary, disgust by custom, become tedious modern music is apt to pall upon one in time
- Palladian, adj [1 pālādian, 2 pālādian] fr Andrea Palladio, Ital architect, 1518-80 Of, in the style of, Italian Renaissance architecture, based on a revival of the classical Roman architecture of Vitruvius, as exhibited in the works of Palladio, the term is esp applied to the style as introduced to England by Inigo Jones in the early 17th cent
- palladium (I), n [1 pālādium, 2 pālādium] fr Lat, fr Gk palladion, 'statue of Pallas', fr Pallā, stem of Pallās, 'Greek goddess of wisdom', etymol doubtful, possibly simply 'maiden', cp Gk pallax, 'youth', pallakia, 'concubine' 1 Wooden statue of Pallas Athens, on the preservation of which the safety of ancient Troy was believed to depend 2 Anything which affords protection and security, a safeguard
- palladium (II), n, fr Gk Pallād, stem of Pallās, name of one of the asteroids, see prec & Lat suff -ium Hard, silvery white metal, belonging to the platinum group of metals
- pall-bearer, n One of the persons appointed to hold edges of pall at a funeral, in token of respect to the dead
- pallet (I), n [1 pālēt, 2 pālēt] fr O Fr pālēt, dimin. of pālīc, 'straw'. See palli-
- asse Small hard mattress, esp one made of straw
- pallet (II), n, fr palette 1 Artist's palette 2 Flat tool used by potters &c 3 Valve regulating admission of air to organ pipe
- pallet (III), n pale (I) & -et (her) Diminutive of the pale, q v, one-half its width
- pallial, adj [1 pālīal, 2 pālīal] fr Lat pālīal (um), 'cloak', see pall (I), & -al Of, relating to, like, a pallium
- pallasse, pallasse, n [1 pālīas, pālīas, 2 pālīas, pālīas] fr Fr pallasse, fr paille, 'straw', fr Lat palea, 'chaff', cogn w Scrt pālāva, 'chaff', O Prussian pelwo, Lith pelai, Lett pelus, 'chaff' Prob connected w Lat pellis, Gk pēlas, O E fell, 'skin'. See fell (I), pellicle Straw mattress
- palliate, vb trans [1 pālīāt, 2 pālīāt] fr Lat pālīāt (um), P P type of palliare, 'to cloak', fr pālī (um), 'cloak'. See pall (I) 1 To mitigate, alleviate, soften to palliate pain, disease &c 2 To extenuate, excuse to palliate an offence &c
- palliation, n [1 pālīāshun, 2 pālīāshun] Prec & -ion 1 Act of palliating, state of being palliated 2 Something serving to palliate, excuse, extenuation
- palliative, adj & n [1 pālīātiv, 2 pālīātiv] palliate & -ive 1 adj a Relieving, alleviating, b serving to palliate, extenuating 2 n Remedy, fact, which serves to palliate
- pallid, adj [1 pālīd, 2 pālīd] fr Lat pālīd (us), 'pale', cp Lat pallere, 'to grow pale', pallor, 'paleness'. See pallor Excessively pale (of complexion, sky &c)
- pallidly, adv Prec & -ly In a pallid manner
- pallidness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being pallid
- pallium, n [1 pālīum, 2 pālīum] Lat pallium, 'bed coverlet, mantle, esp long Greek mantle, coverlet'. See pall (I) 1 Large square mantle, esp as worn by ancient Greeks 2 A white woollen band, with four purple crosses, worn by the Pope, and sent by him to RC archbishops and primates as a symbol that they share with him in the fullness of the episcopal office The pallium is double, and Y shaped, and is worn on the shoulders, falling in front and behind 3 (zool) The mantle or fold of skin covering the gills of a mollusc
- pall-mall, n [1 pāl māl, 2 pāl māl] fr obs Fr pallmall, fr Ital pallamaglio, fr palla, 'ball', & maglio, 'mallet', fr Lat malleus, 'hammer'. See malleus 1 An old game in which a ball was driven with a mallet through an iron ring hung at the end of an alley, b place, alley, where the game was played Hence, 2 (caps) a street in London, formerly a pall mall alley, b the War Office (formerly situated in this street)
- pallone, n [1 pālōn, 2 pālōn] Ital, 'large hall', fr palla, 'ball'. An Italian game played between two sides of three players each, in a large court, with an inflated leather ball which is struck backwards and forwards over a white line, the player's arm being protected by a wooden guard over hand and wrist
- pallor, n [1 pālōr, 2 pālōr] Lat pallor, 'paleness', cp Lat pallere, 'to be pale'; pālū, greyish, pālumbes, 'wood pigeon', cogn w Gk pēlōs, 'livid', pēlōs, 'blackish', pōlōs, 'grey', pēlōs, 'wood-pigeon', Scrt pālīś, 'grey', O Slav pēlōr, 'grey', Lith pēl, 'mouse', O E fealo, 'yellowish'. See fallow (IV) State of being pale, extreme paleness, esp of complexion
- palm (I), n [1 pālm, 2 pālm] M E palme, fr O Fr palme, paume, fr Lat palma, 'palm of the hand, blade of an ear', also 'palm branch, palm tree', cogn w Gk pālōmē, 'open hand, palm', O Slav pālīs, 'thumb', & Russ pale, 'finger'; cp also

- eg pan-African, of, for, including, all Africans, pan American, of, for, representing, all parts of America, pan Anglican, pertaining to, including, all branches of the Anglican Church, pan communism, theory that the material universe is all that exists, pan-Hellenism, union of all the Greeks in one political body, pan Islam, union of all Mohammedan races
- panacea, n [1 panasēa, 2 panasēis] Lat panacea, fr Gk. panakeia, 'plant healing all diseases', fr pan- & al (as), 'remedy', cogn. w Sert yačad, 'health, glory', O Ir icc, 'healing', W icah, 'healthy' Universal remedy, cure for all bodily, mental, and social ills
- panache, n [1 panāsh, 2 panāsh] Fr, fr Ital panacchio, fr penna, 'feather', fr Lat penna, 'feather' See pen (III) 1 Plume of feathers, as head dress, military plume 2 (fig) Display, pretension
- panada, n [1 panāda, 2 panāda] Span, fr pan, 'bread', fr Lat pānis, 'bread' See panification & -ade Dish made of bread boiled and beaten to a pulp and flavoured
- Panama, n [1 panamāh, 2 panamāh] State of Central America Also Panama hat, bat of fine, tough, flexible fibre, originally made in Panama, or elsewhere in Central and South America &c, from the leaves of the sorow pine
- pancake, n [1 pānkāk, 2 pānkāk] 1 Thin, soft cake of batter fried in a pan Phr flat as a pancake, quite flat, Pancake Day, Shrove Tuesday, when, according to old custom, pancakes are eaten 2 A flattened out, abrupt landing of an aeroplane, also as verb, to pancake, make such a landing 3 Thin flat piece of floating ice in Polar seas
- panchayat, n [1 pānchāyat, 2 pānchāyat] Tamil panchāyattu, fr Sert pañca, 'five', see penta- (India) Native village council of five or more members
- pancratiast, n [1 pānkrāshuast, 2 pānkrāshuast] fr Gk. pankratistes Competitor in the pancratium, q v
- pancratio, adj [1 pānkrātik, 2 pānkrātik] See pancratium & -io Of, pertaining to, the pancratium
- pancratist, n [1 pānkrāst, 2 pānkrāst] See pancratio & -ist Pancratist
- pancratium, n [1 pānkrāshum, 2 pānkrāshum] fr Lat, fr Gk pankratēon, 'pancratium', fr pan- & krat (as), 'strength', q v under -cracy (not Greece) Athletic contest which combined boxing and wrestling
- pancreas, n [1 pān, 2 pān] fr Gk pankreas, fr pan- & kras, 'flesh' See creatin (e) & crudo Gland lying behind the stomach which discharges into the duodenum a juice possessing important digestive properties, the pancreas of the sheep is known as the sweetbread
- pancreatic, adj [1 pān, 2 pān] fr Gk pankreatik, fr Gk pankreat (as), gent of pankreas See pancratio & -ic Of, pertaining to, the pancreas pancreatic juice
- pancreatine, n [1 pān, 2 pān] fr Gk pankreatin, fr Gk pankreatin See pancratio & -in The active principle of pancreatic juice
- panda, n [1 pānda, 2 pānda] Native Small, carnivorous, bear- or cat-like mammal, Ailuropus fulgens, of the Himalayas and Tibet, also called cat bear, with reddish brown stiff hair and ringed tail
- Pandean, Pandean, adj [1 pāndēan, 2 pāndēan] Irregularly formed fr Gk Pan, Arcadian god of woods, pastures &c See Pan (III) & -ean Of Pan, Pandean pipe, pan pipe
- pandect, n [1 pāndekt, 2 pāndekt] fr Fr pandecte fr Lat, fr Gk. pandektēs, 'receiver of all', fr pan- & dektēs, 'receiver', fr dektōmas, 'I receive' op O Slav desiti, 'to find, obtain', O E tyðian, 'to grant' See decent & words there referred to 1 Chiefly pandects, digest of Roman civil law made by order of Justinian in 6th cent 2 Code of laws
- pandemic, adj & n [1 pāndēmik, 2 pāndēmik] fr Gk pandēmī (as), 'of the whole people', fr pan- & dēmōs & -ic 1 adj (of disease) a Prevalent among a whole nation or over a whole country, b prevalent all over the world, contrasted with endemic and epidemic 2 n Pandemic disease
- pandemonium, n [1 pāndēmōnum, 2 pāndēmōnum] Mod Lat See pan- & dēmōn 1 A hodge or assembly of demons, b place or scene of wild disorder and uproar 2 Complete confusion
- pander (I), n [1 pānder, 2 pānder] fr Pandare, character in Chaucer's 'Trollop and Cressida' & in Boccaccio, fr Lat Pandarus, fr Gk Pandarus 1 One who obtains for another the means of gratifying his sexual passions, a procurer, pimp 2 Tool, assistant, in evil designs
- pander (II), vb intrans, fr pan- & dē- to act as pander, to encourage, minister to to pander to a person's passions, folly, ambition &c
- pandit, n See pundit
- pandora, pandore, n [1 pāndōra, 2 pāndōra, 2 pāndōra, 2 pāndōra] Ital, fr Lat pandura, 'three stringed musical instrument', fr Gk. pandōra, etymol unknown, op mandola & mandolino Stringed instrument resembling a lute
- pandour, pandoor, n [1 pāndoor, 2 pāndoor] fr Fr, fr Germ, fr Croatian pandur, prob fr Med Lat banderius, 'follower of a banner' See banner One of a force of Croatian infantry soldiers raised by Austria against the Turks in 18th cent, celebrated for their brutality and want of discipline
- pane, n [1 pān, 2 pān] ME pan(n), 'pane of glass, patch, piece', fr O Fr pan(n), fr Lat pannus, 'piece of cloth', cogn. w Goth fana, 'piece of cloth', O E fana, O HG fano, 'cloth, banner', O Slav panjawa, 'garment' 1 Single sheet of glass in division of window 2 Rectangular division in a design
- paned, adj, fr pan- & -ed Composed of strips of different materials
- panegyric, n & adj [1 pānegyrik, 2 pānegyrik] fr Fr panegyrique, fr Lat, fr Gk. panēgyris (as), adj, 'for a public festival', n 'panegyrio', fr panēgyris (as), 'general assembly, national festival', fr pan- & agorā, 'assembly, public place', op agorē, 'to assemble', gargara, 'swarm', cogn. w Lat grex, 'flock', see under gregarious Formal oration in praise of person or event, eulogy, laudation
- panegyric, adj [1 pānegyrik, 2 pānegyrik] fr Lat, fr Gk. panēgyris (as), adj, 'for a public festival', n 'panegyrio', fr panēgyris (as), 'general assembly, national festival', fr pan- & agorā, 'assembly, public place', op agorē, 'to assemble', gargara, 'swarm', cogn. w Lat grex, 'flock', see under gregarious Formal oration in praise of person or event, eulogy, laudation
- panegyric, n [1 pānegyrist, 2 pānegyrist] See next word & -ist Speaker, writer, of a panegyrio
- panegyric, vb trans & intrans [1 pānegyris, 2 pānegyris] See panegyric & -ize a trans To pronounce, write, a panegyrio upon, to eulogize, b intrans, to make a panegyrio
- panel (I), n [1 pānl, 2 pānl] ME & O Fr panel, fr Med Lat pannellus, dimin of Lat pannus, 'piece of cloth' See pane (I) 1 Rectangular piece or slab of wood &c, forming part of surface of wall, door &c, but distinguished from rest of surface by being raised above or sunk below general level, by being surrounded by frame, moulding &c, or by being of different material 2 Sheet or strip of parchment, hence, a register, a list, specif a list of persons summoned to serve on a jury, a jury, b (Scotts law) person indicted for an offence, the accused in a criminal trial, c register of doctors in Health Insurance Act, also attrib panel doctor &c 3 Picture or photograph of a long, narrow shape 4 Strip of material, usually of different colour or fabric, inserted in woman's dress
- panel (II), vb trans, fr pan- & -el To fit, provide with, divide into, panel(s) to panel a room &c 2 To furnish, ornament, with panel(s) to panel a dress &c
- paneless, adj [1 pānles, 2 pānles] pane (I) & -less Without panes
- panelling, n [1 pāneling, 2 pāneling] panel (II) & -ing Series of panels, in a wall &c
- panel-saw, n A thin hand saw with fine teeth, used to cut thin boards &c
- panful, n [1 pānfool, 2 pānful] pan (I) & -ful Amount contained in a pan
- pan, n [1 pang, 2 pang] Etymol uncertain Sudden, sharp, mental or physical pain, twinge, spasm of anguish in body or mind
- pangolin, n [1 panggōlin, 2 panggōlin] fr Malay pang gūling, 'the roller', fr gūling, 'to roll' A scaly toothless mammal of S Asia and Africa, resembling a lizard in shape, and having a long tongue like an ant-eater, it rolls itself into a ball when attacked or frightened
- panhandle, n [1 pānhandl, 2 pānhandl] fr pan (I) & handle A narrow, projecting tongue of land
- panic (I), n [1 pānik, 2 pānik] fr Lat panīc (um), 'Italian millet', fr pān (us), 'a swelling, an ear of millet', etymol doubtful Genus of grasses, including millet
- panic (II), n & adj, fr Fr panique, fr Gk. pānik (as), 'of Pan, (of fear) wild, unreasoning, believed to be due to the influence of Pan', fr Pan, Greek god of woods and fields, see Pan (II), & -ic 1 n Sudden, excessive, unreasoning, uncontrollable and infectious terror a panic in a large crowd may lead to terrible disaster, specif, a sudden, general alarm in commercial or financial circles caused by collapse of credit &c 2 adj (much rarer than n) Inspired by panic, enden, wild, uncontrollable, unreasoning panic fear, haste
- panicky, adj [1 pānik, 2 pānik] Preo & -y (colloq) In a state of, liable to, affected by, panic
- panicle, n [1 pānikl, 2 pānikl] fr Lat panīcula, 'tuft, panicle', fr panīc (us), 'swelling, ear of millet' See panic (I) & -ule (bot) Irregularly branched flower-cluster
- panic-monger, n panic (II) & monger One who creates, fosters, a panic
- panification, n [1 pānikāshun, 2 pānikāshun] fr Fr, fr Lat pān (s), 'bread', fr stem *pā, 'to feed', seen in Lat pāsci, 'to graze', see pastor, pābulum, 'food', see pabulum, cogn. w Gk patōma, 'to eat', O E fōda, 'food', see food Conversion into bread, the making of bread
- panjandrum, n [1 pānjāndrum, 2 pānjāndrum] Invented word Name, the Great Panjandrum himself, invented by Samuel Foote in piece of nonsense prose, used facetiously to designate a pompous, self-important, highly-placed official personage
- panmixia, n [1 pānmiksia, 2 pānmiksia] Neo Lat, fr pan- & Gk mixis, 'a mingling', see mix (biol) Promiscuous interbreeding of animals or plants, without selection, resulting in degeneracy
- pannage, n [1 pāny, 2 pāny] fr O Fr pannage, fr Med Lat pastionātum, fr Lat pāstion (em), 'pasture', fr pāst (um), PP type of pāsci, 'to graze', see pasture & -age 1 a Pasturage of swine in woods &c, b food picked up by swine in woods &c, esp fruit of forest trees, as beech mast, acorns &c 2 a Right of pasturing swine in woods &c, b payment for this
- panne, n [1 pan, 2 pan] Fr, etymol doubtful A soft cloth dress material with long nap
- pannier (I), n [1 pānier, 2 pānier] fr Fr panier, fr Lat pannarium, 'bread basket', fr pān (us), 'bread', see panification & -ary 1 Basket, esp a wicker basket for carrying loads on the back, b one of a pair of baskets carried by beast of burden 2 Covered basket for drugs and surgical instruments carried by an ambulance.

- 3 a Framework of whalebone &c, for extending a woman's dress at the hips, b drapery designed to produce the same effect
- pannier (II), n [Lat pānārus, see preo (colloq)] Waiter in dining-hall of Inner Temple
- pannikin, n [1 pānikin, 2 pānskin] pan (I) & -kin a small metal cup, b amount of liquid contained in such a vessel
- panoplied, adj [1 pānoplid, 2 pānēplid] See next word & -ed Completely armed
- panoply, n [1 pānopl, 2 pānēpl], fr Gk. panoplia, 'full armour of a hoplite', fr pan- & hopla, 'arms', q v under hoplite (lit and fig) Complete equipment of armour
- panopticon, n [1 pānōptikon, 2 pānōptikon], fr pan- & Gk. optikōn, neut form of optikos, 'of sight', see optic Circular prison, as proposed by Jeremy Bentham, constructed so as to allow all the prisoners to be watched from a central point
- panorama, n [1 pānorāma, 2 pānērāma], fr pan- & Gk. hōrāma, 'eight, spectacle', fr horaō, 'I see', fr word-*, 'attention', op O E waru, O H G wara, 'attention, care, precaution', ON warr, O E wær, 'watchful, cautious', see ware (II), op further Lat vereri, 'to observe anxiously; to revere', see revere 1 Continuous series of pictures representing a landscape, or an historical action or episode in its natural surroundings, painted on inside of cylindrical or other unbroken surface, or unrolled before spectator, so designed and arranged as to convey the impression of reality 2 Constantly changing scene 3 Wide, unbroken view (also fig)
- panoramic, adj [1 pānorāmik, 2 pānērāmik], Preo & -ic Of, of the nature of, a panorama
- panoramically, adv [1 pānorāmikali, 2 pānērāmikali] Preo & -al & -ly As a panorama
- pan-pipe, n, fr Pan (III), Gk god of woods and fields Wind instrument consisting of a series of graduated reeds, bound together in a single row, a mouth-organ, also styled Pandean pipe
- pansey, n [1 pānz; 2 pānz], fr Fr pensée, 'thought, pensive', fr PP of pensive, 'to think', fr Lat pensare, 'to weigh carefully; to ponder, consider', see pensive European wild and garden plant, Viola tricolor, of the violet family, having broad, flattish, variegated flowers, usually blue, purple, or yellow, heart-shaped
- pant (I), vb intrans & trans [1 pant, 2 panti] O Fr. pantier, 'to be breathless', through *Low Lat phantastire, 'to have nightmare', fr phantasia, fr Gk phantasia, 'a making visible, display, paradox', see fantasy A intrans 1 To breathe quickly and convulsively, to labour in breathing as though out of breath, to gasp for breath 2 To speak in gasps, with short, laboured breaths 3 (fig) To yearn, long intensely, to pant for, after, something B trans To utter in a series of gasps, also pant out
- pant (II), n, fr preo Short, laboured breath, gasp
- pant-, pref. representing panto- before vowels
- Pantagruelian, adj [1 pāntagrōelian, 2 pāntagrōelian], fr Pantagruel, character in Rabelais, & -ian Of the nature of Pantagruelism
- Pantagruelism, n [1 pāntagrōelism, 2 pāntagrōelism] See preo & -ism Rough, coarse satiric humour and buffoonery, resembling that of Pantagruel
- Pantagruelist, n [1 pāntagrōelist, 2 pāntagrōelist] See Pantagruelian & -ist Writer making use of Pantagruelism
- pantalet(te)s, n [1 pāntalēt, 2 pāntalēt] See next word & -ette Woman's drawers, esp Early Victorian drawers reaching to the ankle, worn by women and children
- pantaloon, n [1 pāntalōn; 2 pāntalōn], fr Fr pantalon, fr Ital pantalone, Venetian character in Italian comedy, prob fr the Venetian saint, St Pantalone 1 (cap
- a Character in Italian comedy, now esp b an elderly buffoon in pantomime, on whom the clown plays tricks 2 pl (obsolete or facet) Trousers
- pantechnicon, n [1 pāntēknikon, 2 pāntēknikon] Invented word, fr pan-, 'all', & Gk tēknikōn, neut adj, 'pertaining to art', fr tēknē, 'art', see technic 1 Originally, a bazaar in London where specimens of every kind of art were sold 2 Warehouse where furniture is stored 3 Van for removing furniture, also pantechnicon van
- pantheism, n [1 pānthēizm, 2 pānpūizm] pan-, 'all', & theos, 'God', & -ism, see theism (II) 1 Doctrine that the whole universe is God, or that every part of the universe is a manifestation of God 2 a Worship of all the pagan gods of whatever cult or race, as under the Roman Empire, b nature worship, animism
- pantheist, n [1 pānthēist, 2 pānpūist] See preo & -ist Believer in pantheism
- pantheistic(al), adj [1 pānthēistik(l), 2 pānpūistik(l)] Preo & -ic & -al Of, of the nature of, pantheism
- pantheon, n [1 pānthion, pānthēon, 2 pānpūon, pānpūon] Lat Pantheon, fr Gk pānthēon, 'for all the gods', fr pan- & theos (see theos) 1 Temple for the worship of all the gods, esp circular temple in Rome, built by Agrippa, now the church of Santa Maria Rotunda 2 Deities of a nation or country considered collectively the Egyptian, Scandinavian, pantheon 3 Building, mausoleum, for commemorating the illustrious dead the Pantheon (Church of Ste Geneviève), Paris, Westminster Abbey is the British Pantheon 4 Building in London erected originally as a place of public amusement
- panther, n [1 pānthēr, 2 pānpē], fr O Fr pantere, fr Lat panthēra, fr Gk. panthēr, 'panther; leopard', possibly of Indian origin, a Carnivorous, spotted quadruped of cat tribe, found in Asia and Africa; leopard, esp one of dark colour, b American panther, puma
- pantheress, n [1 pānthērēs, 2 pānpērēs] Preo & -ess Female panther
- pantile, n [1 pāntil, 2 pāntail] pan (I) & tile Roofing-tile showing a cross section with one deep and one shallow curve
- antisocracy, n [1 pāntisokrasi, 2 pāntisokrasi] pan- & iso- & -cracy Ideal community or Utopia, planned by S T Coleridge, in which all were to have an equal voice in the government and equal rights
- panto-, pref. representing Gk. pantos (see genit of pōs, 'all', see pan- All, universal, e.g. pantology, universal knowledge, book giving information on all subjects, pantomorphic, assuming any shape, panto-pragmatic, interfering with everything, panto-topos, giving a wide field of vision
- pantograph, n [1 pāntogrāf, 2 pāntagrāf] panto- & graph Instrument for reproducing a drawing, plan &c on a larger or smaller scale
- pantographic, adj [1 pāntogrāfik; 2 pāntagrāfik] Preo & -ic Of, produced by, a pantograph
- pantomime (I), n [1 pāntōmim; 2 pāntōmim] fr Lat pantomīm(-us), fr Gk pantomimos, 'pantomime actor', fr panto- & mimē 1 (class drama) Actor performing in dumb-show 2 English dramatic performance of a burlesque character, embodying some well-known legend or fairy tale, usually given at Christmas, often concluding with a transformation scene and harlequinade 3 Dumb show, language of gestures to express oneself, present a scene, in pantomime
- pantomime (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1. intrans To act in dumb show. 2 trans To express in pantomime
- pantomimic, adj [1 pāntōmimik, 2 pāntōmimik] Preo & -ic Of, like, pantomime, representing, expressing, in action and gesture
- pantomimist, n [1 pāntōmimist, 2 pāntōmimist] pantomime & -ist Actor in pantomime
- pantoun, n [1 pāntōm, 2 pāntūm], fr, fr Malay pantun A Malayan verse form of four-lined rhyming stanzas, also adopted by French poets
- pantry, n [1 pāntri, 2 pāntri], fr O Fr panetere, fr Med Lat pāndaria, 'bread-shop', fr pān(-is), 'bread' See panification 1 Formerly, a room in a house where bread and other provisions were kept 2 In present day, room in which glass, china, plate &c, are kept, cleaned &c, also butler's pantry
- pantryman, n [1 pāntri-man, 2 pāntri-man] Man in charge of, or working in, pantry, butler or assistant
- pants, n [1 pānts, 2 pānts] Abbr fr pantaloon(s) a (archaic, or obs colloquialism) Trousers, b (shop word) men's drawers
- pap (I), n [1 pāp, 2 pāp] Imitative of infant feeding 1 Nipple of breast 2 (pl) Rounded conical hills side by side
- pap (II), n Imitative, as preo 1 Soft, sloppy food given to infants and invalids 2 Mash, pulpy substance
- papa, n [1 pāpā, 2 pāpā], fr Fr, fr Lat pāpa, 'father', perh orig imitative of child's cry See pope (I) (obsolete or old-fashioned) Father, esp as mode of address
- Papacy, n [1 pāpasi, 2 pāpasi], fr Mod Lat pāpācia, 'papacy', fr pāpa, 'pope', fr Lat pāpa, 'father' See preo & -acy, & op pope (I) 1 a Office of Pope, b Pope's tenure of office 2 Papal system
- Papal, adj [1 pāpl, 2 pāpl], fr Fr, fr Eccles Lat pāpāl (see of the pope) fr pāpa, 'pope' See preo & -al Of, pertaining to, the Papacy, or to the Pope
- Papalism, n [1 pāpālism, 2 pāpālism] Preo & -ism Belief in, adherence to, the Papal system
- Papalist, n [1 pāpālist, 2 pāpālist] Papal & -ist Adherent of the Papacy
- papalike, vb trans & intrans [1 pāpāliz, 2 pāpāliz] Papal & -ize 1 trans To convert to Papalism 2 intrans To adopt the principles of Papalism
- papally, adv [1 pāpāl, 2 pāpāl] Papal & -ly In a Papal manner, by the Pope
- papaveraceous, adj [1 pāpāverākus, 2 pāpāverākus] fr Lat papāver, 'poppy' See next word & -aceous Papaverous.
- papaverous, adj [1 pāpāverus, 2 pāpāverus] fr Lat papāver, 'poppy', prob fr stem pāp-*, 'to puff out, swell out', seen in Lat pampinus, 'vine shoot', papula, 'small swelling, pimple', see papula, & -ous Of, like, having the properties of, the poppy.
- papaw, n [1 pāpaw, pāpaw, 2 pōpō, pōpō], fr Span papaya, fr a Carib word 1 a A tree, Carica papaya, growing in S America, and in Africa, with large, dingy orange-coloured fruit, which is boiled and eaten, greenish flowers, and seven-lobed leaves, b the fruit of this tree 2 North American tree, Asimina triloba, with oblong pulpy fruit and dull, purple leaves
- paper (I), n [1 pāper, 2 pāpē], fr O Fr papier, fr Lat pāpīrus, 'papyrus'. See papyrus 1 Substance composed of pulp obtained from vegetable fibre or linen rags formed into thin sheets, and used for writing, printing, drawing on &c, for wrapping, lining walls &c Phrs to commit to paper, write down; to put pen to paper, begin to write, paper war(fare), controversy carried on in newspapers, pamphlets, books &c, paper profits, hypothetical profits, depending on transactions not yet completed, on paper, judging by statistics, documents &c 2 Written or printed document, deed, formal statement &c; (in pl) a group or collection of documents. state papers Phr paper blockade, one declared formally against a state but not enforced 3 (pl) Documents establishing person's identity, standing, authority &c; credentials Phr to send in one's papers, resign 4 a Written or printed pledges of payment which are negotiable, bills of exchange &c. b also paper money, 'especially printed pieces of paper used as currency as substitute for coins' 5 Journal, newspaper one's favorite paper, what do the papers say? 6 Set of printed questions for examination a difficult paper for such young candidates 7 Essay, excursus, monograph, dissertation, esp one read to a learned society 8 (slang) Free passes of admission to theatre &c., member(s) of audience with such the house was filled, but largely with paper paper (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To line, cover, decorate, with paper to paper a wall, room &c 2 To enclose, fold, wrap, in paper, also paper up, cover (window door &c) by pasting paper over 3 (slang) To fill (theatre &c) with 'paper' paper-chase, n. Sport, resembling hare and hounds, in which the 'pack', or majority of runners, pursue two others, 'hares', who are given a start and scatter a trail of paper paper-hanger, n. One whose occupation it is to hang or cover walls &c. with paper paper-hangings, n. pl. Paper, usually ornamental, for covering interior walls of rooms &c paper-knife, n. Flat, blunt blade of ivory, bone, wood &c., used for cutting folded paper, leaves of book &c.

paper-mill, n. Factory in which paper is made paper-stainer, n. One who prepares, prints, paints, wall paper paper-weight n. Small, heavy object laid upon loose papers to keep them from being scattered.

paper-y, adj [1 pápen, 2 papir-]. papor (I) & -y Like paper, having the appearance or consistency of paper papier mâché, n [1 pápiá máshá; 2 pápiés má'ei] Fr., lit 'chewed paper', fr Lat masticare, 'to cher' See masticate

Paper pulp, moulded while soft into various objects, such as trays, boxes &c., and coated with variously coloured lacquer papilionaceous, adj [1 pápilíonáshus, 2 pápilíoná'ses], fr Lat pápilíon(-em), 'butterfly'; cogn w OE fifolde, OHG fifoltra, 'butterfly' The base is prob a redupl form of *pal-, 'to move rapidly, throbb, vibrate', as in pálpitate, 'to throb' See pálpitate (bot.) Having the corolla shaped like a butterfly, as in the pea papilla n., pl papillae [1 pápila, -i, 2 pápila, -i] Lat pápila, 'nipple', dimin of pap(ula), 'a swelling' See papula & cp pampier 1 (anat) Small rounded protuberance in any part of the body, e.g. those on the surface of the tongue, in which the nerves terminate 2 (bot) Small, feshy, nipple like protuberance papillary, adj [1 pápilan, 2 pápilar-] Prec. & -ary Of, pertaining to, like, papillae papillate, adj [1 pápilit, 2 pápilit-] papilla & -ate Resembling, covered with, furnished with, papillae papillose, adj [1 pápilos, 2 pápilosus] papilla & -ose Abounding in, covered with, papillae papist, n. [1 pápist, 2 papist-] fr 16th cent Lat pápas, fr Lat pápas(-a) 'Pope', see Papa & pope (I), & -ist 1 Adherent of the Papacy, supporter of Papal supremacy 2 Roman Catholic, sometimes used, ignorantly, as term of disparagement papistical(al), adj [1 pápistik(-l), 2 papistik(-l)] Prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to the Roman Catholic Church and its doctrines, usually in hostile, disparaging sense papistically, adv Prec & -ly In a papist, cal manner papistry, n. [1 páp-ster, 2 páp-ter] papist & -ry (usually expressing hostility) The principles and practices of the Roman Catholic Church papoose, n [1 páp-w, 2 papw-] Native word. North-American Indian baby or young child.

papocah papouche, n [1 pápósh, 2 papósh-], fr Pers. papash, 'shoe', Babouche, q v papoose, adj [1 pápós, 2 papous-] See next word & -ose Provided with, covered with, pappus pappus, n [1 pápus, 2 pápas] Mod Lat fr Gk. páppos, 'old man, grandfather', childish formation, cp Gk páppa, 'father', Lat pápa, 'father' See papa Downy tuft of hairs, supposed to resemble an old man's beard, forming an appendage to the seeds of some plants, such as thistle pappy, adj [1 pápi, 2 pápi] pap (II) & -y Like pap, soft, semi liquid paprika, n [1 páprika, 2 páprike] Hun garian Red pepper, made from capsicum papula, papule, n [1 pápula, papul-, 2 pápula, papul-] pl papulae, papules Lat papula, 'a swelling, pimple', cp, w infixed nasal, Lat pámpinus, 'vine shoot', cp pampier, papier, 'poppy', see papaverous, cogn w Scrt pápalas, 'berry', Lett pámp, 'tossell', Lith pápule, 'bud', A pimple papular, adj [1 pápular, 2 pápula] Prec & -ar Like, of the nature of, a papula papulose, adj [1 pápulos, 2 pápulosus] papula & -ose Of, like, covered with, papulae papulous, adj [1 pápulus, 2 pápulus-] papula & -ous Papulose papyraceous, adj [1 pápiráshus, 2 pápir-] [c] Next word & -aceous Like paper in appearance, texture, consistency &c papyro-, pref representing Gk. pápyros (s), papyrus see papyrus papyrograph, n [1 pápírográf, 2 pápírográf] Instrument for multiplying copies of a document, esp by the use of a paper stencil papyrologist, n [1 pápírologíst, 2 pápírologíst] papyro- & -logy & -ist Student of papyrology papyrology, n [1 pápírologi, 2 pápírologí] papyro- & -logy Science, study, of papyri, i.e. of ancient MSS written on papyrus papyrus, n. [1 pápirus, 2 pápirus-] Lat. pápirus, fr Gk. pápyros, 'papyrus' Ety mol unknown See paper 1 Sedge like plant with smooth triangular stems, growing in marshy places, and formerly common in Egypt &c. 2 Ancient writing material made by Egyptians, and later by Greeks and Romans, from strips of the pith of the papyrus 3 (pl pápyri) Manuscript written on papyrus par (I), n. [1 par, 2 pá] Lat pár, 'equal, equality', cp Lat paráre, 'to make, esteem, equal', comparare, 'to compare', Aescl paragente, 'they are compared', par orig w reference to equal values in trade, & thus cogn. w Lat prídium, 'worth price', see price, Gk. pernéin, 'sell' 1 Equality, equal value or footing, esp in Phr on a par with 2 (of stocks, shares &c) At par, at face value, above par, at a premium, above face value, below par, at a discount 3 Par of exchange, recognized value of currency of one country, expressed in terms of that of another 4 Normal state, average condition of physical or mental health and vigour, below par, slightly out of health par (II), n. Abbr fr paragraph (colloq) Paragraph para- (I), pref representing Gk. pára, 'from, beside, against, beyond, contrary to', cogn w Scrt para, 'beyond', Goth far, 'along', OE for, 'off, away', see for-, Lat. pró, 'in front of', see pro-, see also per- (in senses) a Beside, e.g. parallel, para-prase, b beyond, e.g. paralytic, c wrong, contrary to, e.g. paralogism para- (II), pref representing Ital. pára, imperat of parare, 'to ward off', fr Lat parare, 'to prepare, furnish, get ready' See prepare Implying defence, shelter &c, e.g. parasol, parap parabasis, n. [1 párabasis, 2 párebasis] Gk. parábasis, a going aside, parabasis, fr parabainein, 'to step aside', fr para- (I) & basis, 'to step, to stand' See basis (un Gk. comedy) Principal choral part, addressed to the audience in the name of the poet parable, n [1 párah, 2 parahl-], fr Fr parabole, fr Lat parabola, 'comparison, parable, speech' See next word. 1 Brief narrative or story, conveying a spiritual or moral lesson, or illustrating some spiritual condition or relation, an allegory 2 (archaic) Enigmatical speech, phrase with hidden meaning, proverb 3 (archaic) Speech, discourse, now chiefly in Phr to take up one's parable, begun to speak parabola, n [1 párabola, 2 párabole] Lat. parabola, fr Gk. parabolé, 'juxtaposition, comparison, illustration, parable', fr paraballein, 'to throw or set beside', fr para- (I) & ballein, 'to throw', see ballistics (math) Plane curve such as is formed by the intersection of a cone by a plane parallel to its slope parabolic(al), adj [1 párabóhik(-l), 2 párabóhik(-l)] fr L Lat parabolice(-us), 'parabolic', fr parabol(-a), 'comparison', see prec, & -ic, -al 1 Of, of the nature of, under the form of, expressed by, a parabola 2 Of, relating to like, a parabola parabolically, adv Prec & -ly In a parabolic manner; as a parabola paraboloid, n [1 páraboloid, 2 páraboloid] parabola & -oid. (math) Solid generated by rotation of a parabola about its axis parachronism, n. [1 párákronizm, 2 párákronizm] para- (I) & Gk. kronos, 'time', see chronic, & -ism Chronological error in which a date is put too late parachute, n [1 párashút, 2 párasút] Fr, fr para- (II) & chute, 'fall' 1 Umbrella-like apparatus held by or fastened to one leaping from a height, which gradually opens as it passes through the air, and retards the speed of fall, used in case of accidents from balloons and aeroplanes 2 Natural provision or mechanical device enabling a body to float through the air, e.g. membrane of flying fox, pappus of dandelion seed &c parachutist, n [1 párashútíst, 2 párasútíst] Prec & -ist Person making a descent from a balloon &c by means of a parachute

Paraclete, n. [1 paraklet, 2 paraklét], fr Fr. paraclet, fr Lat. paracletus, fr Gk. paraklitos, 'advocate, defender', fr parakaleō, 'I call to aid', fr para- (I) & kaleō, 'I call', cogn w. Lat. calare, 'to call', clamor, 'cry', see clamour & words there referred to. Advocate, intercessor, comforter, title given to the Holy Ghost (John xiv 16 xvi 7 &c) parade (I), n. [1 párad, 2 párad-] fr Fr parade, 'show, display', fr Span parada, fr Lat parata, fem, PP of parare, 'to prepare' See prepare & -ade 1 Ostentatious display, show esp to make a parade (of one's knowledge, virtues, accomplishments &c) 2 Muster and manoeuvring of troops &c for inspection, review 3 Ground on which military parade takes place 4 Public walk or street, promenade, specif, raised promenade and roadway skirting a sea coast parade (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To show off, display ostentatiously to parade one's wealth, knowledge &c 2 To muster, assemble, march, for inspection to parade troops &c 3 To march along, patrol, traverse ostentatiously, with display to parade the streets &c B intrans 1 (of troops &c) To assemble for inspection, review &c 2 To march in procession to parade before the General Officer commanding parade-ground, n. Place in which parades are held paradigm, n. [1 páradim, 2 paradaim] Fr paradigme, fr Lat, fr Gk. paradeigma, 'pattern, model', fr paradeiknumi, 'I exhibit, represent', fr para- (I) & deiknumi, 'I show', cogn w. Lat dicere, 'to say, tell' See diction & words there referred to Example, pattern, model, esp (gram) example serving as model for the inflexion of a group of words; declension of nouns, conjugation &c paradigmatic, adj [1 páradigmátik, 2 páradigmévik], fr paradigmat(-os), genit of paradigma, 'pattern', see preo, & -io Of the nature of, consisting of, a paradigm paradisac(al), adj [1 páradisák(l)], 2 páradisénk(l)], fr next word, on anal of Hebrew, Mosaic & Paradisac paradise, n [1 páradis, 2 páradais], fr Fr paradis, fr Lat paradisus, fr Gk paradeisos, 'a park, the Garden of Eden, paradise', a Persian loan-word, op Avest pari-daēza, 'enclosure', cogn w Gk peri, 'around', see peri-, & ioikos, 'wall', telikos, 'wall, fortification', Lat ingere, 'to model', see fiction, O E dæg, 'paste, dough', see dough 1 Garden of Eden, abode of Adam and Eve before the Fall 2 Abode of the blessed after death, heaven 3 Place of great beauty, estate of bliss and perfection, anything suggesting thus the woods are a paradise in spring, life would be a paradise but for evil, poverty, and disease 4 An oriental pleasure garden, or park 5 Kind of apple largely used as a base upon which the finer sorts are grafted paradise stock paradisacian, adj [1 paradisacian; 2 páradisacian] Preo & -an Paradisac paradise, bird of, n See bird of paradise paradisac, adj [1 paradisac, 2 páradisac] Preo & -ac Of, pertaining to, like, paradise or a paradise paradisacal, adj [1 paradisacal, 2 páradisacal] Preo & -al Paradisac paradisacian, adj [1 paradisacian, 2 páradisacian] Preo & -ian Paradisac paradisac(al), adj [1 paradisac(l)], 2 páradisák(l)] Preo & -io & -al Paradisac

parados, n [1 parados, 2 páradós], fr Fr parados, fr para- (II) & dos, 'back', fr Lat dorsum, 'back' See dorso- Earth-work parapet thrown up behind a trench or other part of a fortified point to guard against attack or fire from the rear paradox, n [1 páradoks, 2 páradóks], fr Lat paradoxum, fr Gk paradoxon, 'paradox', neut form of paradoxos, 'contrary to opinion or expectation', fr para- (I) & doxa, 'notion, opinion, expectation, reputation, credit, glory', see doxology & dogma 1 Statement at first sight appearing absurd or self-contradictory but in reality containing a substratum of truth 2 Statement conflicting with received opinion or belief 3 Palpably incorrect, self-contradictory or absurd statement 4 Anything which appears inconsistent with known experience, or which seems to have certain qualities which are at variance with others possessed by it paradoxical, adj [1 paradókikal, 2 páradókikal] Preo & -io & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, expressing, a paradox paradoxicality, n [1 paradókikalítu, 2 páradókikalítu] Preo & -ity Quality of being paradoxical paradoxically, adv [1 paradókikál, 2 páradókikál] See preo & -ly In a paradoxical manner, as a paradox paradoxist, n [1 páradókisist, 2 páradókisist] Preo & -ist One who utters paradoxes paradoxaure, n [1 paradókúrs, 2 páradókúrs], 2 páradókúrs, -dókúrs], fr Gk paradoxos (oe), 'contrary to expectation, incredible', see preo, & Gk ourá, 'tail', see uro- Civet-like, carnivorous mammal of Southern Asia, having a very long curving tail, palm-ovet paradoxy, n [1 páradóks, 2 páradókis] Preo & -y Paradox, paradoxicality paraffin, n & vb trans [1 párafin, párafin, 2 párafin, párafin] Named by German chemist, K von Reichenbach, fr Lat par (um), 'little', op parvus, 'small', prob cogn w Gk pauros, 'small', Lat paucus, 'little', see paucity, the second element is fr Lat affin (-is), 'related', see affinity, fr its lack of affinity w other substances

1 n a Tasteless, odourless, colourless, transparent, fatty, solid substance, obtained from petroleum, coal-tar, shale &c, and used in making candles &c, b oil containing paraffin, used for lighting &c 2 vb trans To treat, coat, impregnate, with paraffin paraffin-oil, n Oil containing paraffin paragoge, n [1 paragógi, 2 páragoudzi] Lat paragoge, fr Gk paragoge, 'a leading past, a variation, addition', (gram) 'paragoge', fr para- (I) & agoge, 'the act of leading, bringing, carrying', n formed w reduplication fr the stem ag-, eg-, 'to lead, to carry, to perform', seen in Gk agem, 'to lead', Lat agere, 'to perform', see agent, Lat (amb)agere, 'a going round, winding, digression', see ambages Addition of sound at the end of a word, e.g. (vulg) ground for goun paragogic, adj [1 paragógi, 2 páragódzik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, forming, a paragoge paragon (I), n [1 páragon, 2 páragon], fr O Fr, fr Ital paragone, fr Gk para, 'against', see para- (I), & alónē, 'whetstone', cogn w Gall acurum, 'rock', Sort clan, 'stone for a sling', fr same base as Gk alis, 'point', alaina, 'pointed end', see acme 1 Model of excellence, person or thing exhibiting some extreme quality or excellence a paragon of beauty, virtue &c 2 Perfect diamond of 100 carats or more paragon (II), vb trans, fr preo (poet) To compare, place in comparison paragraph (I), n [1 páragrahf, 2 páragráf], fr Fr paragraphe, fr L Lat, fr Gk paragraphe, 'line in margin indicating a break in the sense', fr para- (I) & -graph 1 Distinct part or section of a document, book, chapter &c, begun on a new line, and having the first line more deeply indented than the remaining lines 2 Single brief item, article &c in newspaper &c, printed without headline 3 Symbol (§) formerly used to indicate beginning of new paragraph, now used to call attention to note &c paragraph (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To divide into paragraphs 2 To write a paragraph, news item &c about paragrapher, n [1 páragrahfer, 2 páragráf] Preo & -er Writer of newspaper paragraphs paragraphic, adj [1 páragráfik, 2 páragráfik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, forming, a paragraph paragraphically, adv [1 páragráfikál, 2 páragráfikál] Preo & -al & -ly In a paragraphic manner, in paragraphs paragraphist, n [1 páragráhist, 2 páragráhist] Preo & -ist Paragrapher paraphrase, n [1 páragráhfi, 2 páragráfi] Preo & -y The writing of paraphrases Paraguay, n [1 paragwi, -gwá, 2 páragwa, -gwei] Name of S American republic paraheliotropic, adj [1 parahéliotrópik, 2 parahéliotrópik] See next word & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, paraheliotropism paraheliotropism, n [1 parahéliotrópizim, 2 parahéliotrópizim] para- (I) & heliotropism Tendency of leaves in sunlight to take up a position parallel to the rays of light parakeet, parakeet, n [1 páralát, -ket, 2 páralát, -ket], fr O Fr parakeet, etymol doubtful, prob fr Ital parrucchetto, dimin variety of tropical and subtropical parrot, usually long-tailed parakite (I), n [1 páralát, 2 páralát] Formed fr parachute & kite Kite used as parachute parakite (II), n para- (I) & kite Special variety of tailless kite used in meteorological observations &c paraldehyde, n [1 páraldehid, 2 páraldi-hid] para- (I) & aldehyde A powerful hypnotic and sedative drug, with nauseous taste and smell paralipsis, paraleipsis, n [1 paralipsis, -ipsis, 2 páralipsis, -dipsis], fr Gk paraleipsis, fr paraleipem, 'to leave out, omit', fr para- (I) & leipem, 'to leave', q v under lipo- & leave (II) Rhetorical device to fix the hearer's or reader's attention upon some point by the express statement that it is to be omitted, e.g. I will not speak of Pope's filial piety, nor mention his noble tribute to his father and his loving care of his aged mother parallactic, adj [1 paralaktik, 2 páraléktik], fr Gk parallakti, fr parallaxis, 'change', see next word, & -ic Of, relating to, a parallax parallax, n [1 paralaks, 2 páraleks], fr Fr parallaxe, fr Gk parallaxis, 'change', fr parallassein, 'to change, transpose', fr para- (I) & allassein, 'to change', fr allos, 'other' See allo- 1 Apparent change in position of an object, due to change in position of observer, b amount of such apparent change 2 (astron) Difference in the direction of a heavenly body viewed from a point on the earth's surface, and its direction calculated from the earth's centre parallel (I), adj [1 páralel, 2 páralel], fr Fr parallèle, fr Lat parallelus, fr Gk parallelōs, 'parallel', fr para- (I) & allōs, 'one another', fr allos, 'other', see allo- 1 (of lines &c) Equidistant in all parts, lying in the same plane and never meeting, however far they may be produced, parallel bars, two horizontal bars supported on posts and used for gymnastic exercises, parallel ruler, two rulers joined by pivoted strips of metal, used for drawing parallel lines 2 (fig) Similar, corresponding, having a close resemblance a parallel instance, case &c parallel (II), n, fr preo 1 A Line equidistant from another in all parts, parallel line, specif b also parallel of latitude, each of the parallel lines drawn round a globe or across a map, parallel to the equator, and showing degrees of latitude 2 (mil) Trench running parallel to line of fortification 3 Person, thing, event, circumstance, analogous to, having close resemblance to, corresponding to, another the incident is without parallel 4 Comparison to draw a parallel between two things 5 (print) Reference mark, consisting of two upright, parallel lines (||), drawing attention to a note &c parallel (III), vb trans, fr preo 1 To produce an instance of something closely resembling, having same character as, being as remarkable as, something seen or referred to you won't easily parallel that 2 (rare) To draw a comparison between (two things &c) paralelepiped, n [1 páralelepipéd, 2 páralelepipéd], fr parallel (I) & Gk epipedon, 'plane surface', neut form of epipedos, 'level', fr epi- & pidon, 'ground', op Sort podam, 'step, track, place', O N fel, 'step', Lat péd, 'track', cogn w Lat pēs, 'foot' See pedal (I) (geom) Regular solid contained by parallelograms parallelism, n [1 páralelizim, 2 páralelizim] Preo & -ism 1 State or quality of being parallel (in sense 1) 2 Resemblance, correspondence, in form or ideas parallelogram, n [1 páralelógram, 2 páralelógram], fr Fr paralélogramme, fr Gk parallēlos (s), 'parallel', see parallel (I), & -gram Four-sided plane figure whose opposite sides are equal and parallel paralogism, n [1 paralojizim, 2 páraleđizim], fr Fr paralogisme, fr L Lat, fr Gk paralogismos, 'false reasoning', fr paralogizomai, 'I reason falsely' See next word. False reasoning, bad logic paralogize, vb trans [1 paralojiz, 2 páraleđiziz], fr Gk paralogizomai, 'I mislead by false reasoning', fr paralog (oe), 'beyond reason, calculation, or expectation', fr. para-

(L) & logos, 'word, speech, thought, reason', see logos & -ia To reason falsely paralysation, n [1 paralízashun, 2 paraláizéishun] fr next word & -ation a dot or process of paralyzing, b state of being paralysed paralyse, vb trans [1 paráliz, 2 parálariz] Cp Fr paralyser See next word 1 To affect with paralysis 2 (fig) a To inhibit physical or intellectual capacity of paralyse with fear, b to check, render useless or inoperative to paralyse one's efforts paralysis, n [1 parálisis, 2 parálisis] Lat paralysis, fr Gk parálisis, 'paralysis', fr parolúein, 'to loosen, to be paralysed', fr para- (I) & lúein, 'to loosen, release', cogn. w Lat ludere, 'to loose, pay', Goth (frol)wisan, OE (for)lōsan, 'to lose' See loose & lose 1 Loss of sensation and motive power in any part of the body 2 (fig) a Loss or absence of intellectual vigour and enterprise, b loss of will power, c blunting of sense of right and wrong moral paralysis paralytic, adj & n. [1 paralítik, 2 paralítik] fr Fr paralytique, fr Lat, fr Gk paralutikos, 'paralytic' See prec & -ic 1 adj Of, pertaining to, affected with, paralysis (lit and fig) 2 n Person suffering from paralysis paralytically, adv [1 paralítikali, 2 paralítikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a paralytic manner paramagnetic, adj [1 paramagnetik, 2 paramagnetik] para- (I) & magnetic Having the property of being attracted by the poles of a magnet paramagnetism, n. [1 paramagnetizm, 2 paramagnetizm] See prec & -ism Property of paramagnetic substance paramatta, n [1 paramáta, 2 paramáta] fr name of town in New South Wales Light fabric like merino, made of wool and cotton parameter, n [1 parámeter, 2 parámetris] para- (I) & Gk metron, 'measure', see -meter (math) A variable constant, e.g. in a series of circles, one within the other, having a common centre, a radius drawn from this, and passing through each circle in succession, is of constant length if confined to any given circle, but varies in length from circle to circle if conceived of as belonging to the whole system, this radius is a parameter paramo, n [1 paramó, 2 paramou] Span. paramo, prob of native origin. High, bleak, treeless plain in tropical S America paramount, adj [1 paramount, 2 paramount] fr O Fr paramont, fr O Fr par, 'by', & amont, 'above, over', see amount 1 Having supreme authority or jurisdiction lord, lady, paramount, a paramount chief 2 Predominant, superior to all others, pre-eminent a point of paramount interest paramountcy, n [1 paramounts, 2 paramounts] Prec & -cy Quality of being paramount paramountly, adv [1 paramountli, 2 paramountli] See prec & -ly So as to be paramount paramour, n. [1 paramoor, 2 paramura] fr O Fr par amour, 'by love', in M.E. with innocent meaning of 'wooer, lover' See amour Either of two persons between whom illicit sexual relations exist parang n [1 parang, 2 páray] Malay Heavy, straight-edged, Malay knife used as weapon and tool paranoia, paranoia, n [1 paranóia, 2 paranóia] Gk paranoia, 'madness', fr parano (os) distracted, fr para- (I) & noos, 'mind', see nouns & -ia Chronic disease of the mind, accompanied esp by delusions of greatness, and by persecutory mania parapet, n [1 parápet, 2 párapet, -pet] fr Ital. parapeto, fr para- (II) & petto, 'breast', fr Lat pectus, 'breast', see pectoral 1 Low wall at the edge of a roof, terrace, bridge &c 2 (mil) Wall or bank of stone, earth &c to protect troops from hostile fire from in front, contrasted with parados parapeted, adj [1 párapited, 2 párapited] Prec & -ed Furnished with a parapet paraph, n [1 paráf, 2 paráf] fr Fr paraphe, fr Med Lat paraphus, contracted fr paragruphus, 'paragraph' See paragraph Mark or flourish after a signature paraphernalia, n [1 parafernália, 2 parafernália] Lat, neut pl adj fr parapherno, 'separate possessions of a married woman', fr para- (I) & phern (s), 'dower', fr base pher-*, 'to carry, bear', seen in Gk phérein, Lat ferre, 'to carry', see -ferous, OE beran, 'to carry', see bear (I) 1 (law) Formerly, articles of personal adornment &c given to a wife by her husband for her use, but not becoming her absolute property 2 Miscelaneous articles of various kinds, trappings, appointments, accoutrements, mechanical accessories &c paraphrase, n & vb trans [1 párafráz, 2 párafréz] fr Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk paraphrasis, 'paraphrase', fr para- & phrasis, 'speech', see phrase 1 n A Rendering of the sense of a passage in other words, a free rendering of any work in prose or verse, b specul. one of several metrical versions of scriptural passages, used in the Church of Scotland 2 vb To express in other words, give free rendering of paraphrastic, adj [1 párafrastik, 2 párafrastik] See prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, forming, a paraphrase paraphrastically, adv [1 párafrastikali, 2 párafrastikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a paraphrastic manner, as a paraphrase paraplegia, n. [1 párapléia, 2 párapléia] fr para- (I) & Gk plégē (s), 'a blow', fr plésein, 'to strike', q.v. under plectrum Paralysis affecting both sides of the body paraplegic, adj [1 párapléik, 2 párapléik] Prec & -ic Of, of the nature of, affected by, paraplegia parasang, n. [1 párasang, 2 párasang] fr Lat parasang, fr Gk parasaggēs, 'parasang', fr Pers Ancient Persian measure of length, about 3½ miles paraselene, n [1 páraselēne, 2 páraselēne] para- (I) & Gk selēnē, 'moon', see seleno- Luminous spot on lunar halo, mock moon, cp parhelion parasite, n [1 parásit, 2 parásit] fr Lat parasitus, fr Gk parasitos, 'guest, parasite', fr para- (I) & eios, 'food, corn, grain', etymol doubtful 1 (Gk antiq) A syco-phant, toady, who paid for his entertainment at another's table by providing amusement for, and flattering, his host 2 A useless hanger on who lives upon others, and contributes nothing by independent effort to the society which supports him 3 (biol) An organism, plant or animal, which lives upon, or within, another organism, and derives its nourishment from its host, cp commensal parasitic(al), adj [1 parásitik (I), 2 parásitik (II)] Prec & -ic & -al Of the nature of, caused by, a parasite, living as a parasite parasiticide, n [1 párasitíd, 2 párasitíd] parasite & -icide Agent for destroying parasites parasitism, n. [1 parásitizm, 2 parásitizm] parasite & -ism State of being a parasite parasitize, vb trans [1 parásitiz, 2 parásitiz] parasite & -ize To infest as, or with, a parasite parasitology, n [1 párasitología, 2 párasitología] parasite & -logy The study of organic parasites parasol, n. [1 parásol, 2 parásol] para- (II) & sol, 'sun', fr Lat sol, 'son', see sol Sunshade, parasol ant, the umbrella ant parasyntesis, n [1 parásyntesis, 2 parásyntesis] parasyntesis (gram) Derivation of a word from a compound; formation of a word by derivation and composition parasyntetic, adj [1 parásyntetik, 2 parásyntetik] para- (I) & syntetik Of, formed by, parasyntesis paratactic, adj [1 páratáktik, 2 páratáktik] fr Gk parataktik, stem of parataxis, 'arrangement' See parataxis & -ic Of, of the nature of, parataxis paratactically, adv [1 páratáktikali, 2 páratáktikali] Prec & -ly In a paratactic manner parataxis, n [1 páratáktis, 2 páratáktis] fr Gk parataxis, 'arrangement, marshalling', fr parataxein, 'to arrange, draw up in order', fr para- (I) & tassein, 'to draw up, array', see taxis (gram) Use or arrangement of successive clauses &c without connecting words parathyroid, adj [1 páratíroid, 2 páratíroid] para- (I) & thyroid (med) Of, pertaining to, four small, ductless bodies, parathyroid glands, lying close to the thyroid gland, the function of which is obscure, but the removal of which results in coma &c and death paratyphoid, n [1 paratífoid, 2 paratífoid] para- (I) & typhoid (pathol) An infectious disease closely resembling in symptoms true typhoid fever, but caused by different infective bacilli paravane, n [1 páravān, 2 páravān] Invented word fr para- (I) & vane An apparatus towed by a ship, in pairs, one on each side of the bows of a ship, with saw edged jaws for cutting the moorings of submerged mines and bringing them to the surface, also similar device with charge of explosive for use against submarines parboil, vb trans [1 párbóil, 2 párbóil] fr O Fr parboullir, fr L Lat perbullire, 'to boil thoroughly', fr per- & boil (II), mod usage due to confusion of first element w part 1 To boil partially 2 (fig) To make unpleasantly hot, overheat parbuckle, n & vb trans [1 párbukl, 2 párbukl] Origin unknown 1 n Device for raising or lowering a heavy object, esp a cask or log of wood, consisting of a long rope, one end of which is made fast at desired height, while the other is passed under and back over the object to be moved, this end is then hauled or paid out, and the object rolls up or down as required 2 vb To raise by means of a parbuckle parcel (I), n & adv [1 parsl, 2 pásl] fr Fr parcelle, fr Lat particella, dimin of part (s), 'part' See part (I) & cp particle 1 n (archaeo) a Part, portion, now only in Phr part and parcel, essential part, or b parcel of land, piece, section, of land, esp as forming part of a larger estate 2 n Object or objects wrapped up to form single bundle or package to wrap up a parcel, to make things into a parcel 3 adv (archaeo) Partly, now esp in Phr parcel gilt, partly gilded parcel (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 (usually parcel out) To divide into portions, distribute 2 (naut) To cover with canvas strips, wrap strips of canvas round to parcel a rope, a seam &c parcelling, n [1 párseling, 2 párseling] Prec & -ing (naut) Strips of canvas, usually tarred, for wrapping round rope &c parcel post, n Post office department dealing with transport of parcels parcenary, n [1 párcenari, 2 párcenari] fr A-Fr parcenarie, fr O Fr parcenarie, fr parcenier, 'co heir' See next word & -ery Co heirship parcener, n [1 párcener, 2 párcener] A-Fr parcener, fr O Fr parcenier, fr Med Lat partitio See partition & -er Co heir parch, vb trans & intrans [1 parch, 2 páir] Origin doubtful 1 trans a (of heat, sun, thirst &c) To make, cause to become, excessively dry, to scorch, burn up parched land, to be parched with thirst, b to roast lightly, roast surface of parched peas 2 intrans To become very dry parchment, n [1 párchmont, 2 pártjment] ME parchemin, fr O Fr parchemin, fr Lat pergamēna (charia), 'papa of Pergamum', city in Asia Minor 1 Skin of sheep, goat &c prepared and smoothed for writing, painting &c 2 Manuscript, document, written on parchment, hence, a legal deed, charter &c 3 Parchment-like substance, esp skin of coffee bean parchmenty, adj [1 párchmonti, 2 pártjmenti] Proc & -y Having the appearance or texture of parchment parchmonious, parchmony See parsimonious &c parclose, n [1 párkłöz, 2 páklour], fr O Fr. parcloie, properly PP of parcloire, 'to close, shut in', fr per- & clore, 'to close', see close (I) (archit) A screen, railing, in a church, enclosing a shrine, tomb &c, or shutting off a side chapel from the body of the building pard (I), n [1 pard, 2 pád] O Fr, fr Lat pardus, fr Gk párdos, 'panther', prob an eastern lion-word, op Sorth pydákud, 'panther, tiger' (archaic) Leopard pard (II), n (slang) Abbr fr partior pardon (I), n [1 párdan, 2 páda] O Fr perdon, fr perdoner, perdoner, 'to pardon' See next word 1 Forgiveness, act of pardoning, state of being pardoned to have no hope of pardon, to ask for pardon, to ask pardon for one's sins 2 (scalos) a Papal indulgence, b festival at which indulgences are granted 3 (in making polite apology) forbearance, forgiveness, indulgence (for slight offences, breaches of manners &c), esp in Phr I beg your pardon, to ask one's pardon 4 (law) Esp free pardon, legal action freeing a criminal or other offender from punishment for his crimes, general pardon, issued to number of persons concerned without specifying names &c pardon (II), vb trans, fr O Fr pardoner, 'to forgive', fr L, Lat perdonāre, 'to remit', fr per- & dōnāre, 'to give' See donation. 1 (as affecting persons) a Specif (law) to free a criminal, or other person, from the punishment to which he has been sentenced, grant a free pardon to, b to excuse, forgive, to remit punishment of, fail to punish, for crimes or sins committed 'He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent', it is difficult to enforce the law when criminals are freely pardoned, c to excuse, grant indulgence to (for committing breach of manners, or other trivial offences) pardon me for interrupting you 2 (as affecting the offences &c) a To pardon sins, b pardon my intrusion pardonable, adj [1 párdunabl, 2 páddenebl] Proc & -able Capable of being pardoned, excusable, forgivable pardonableness, n See proc & -ness Quality of being pardonable pardonably, adv See proc & -ly In a pardonable manner pardoner, n [1 párduner, 2 páddens] pardon (II) & -or (hist) One licensed to grant or sell papal indulgences pare, vb trans [1 pār, 2 pae], fr Fr parer, 'to adorn, prepare', fr Lat parāre, 'to prepare, make ready, to occupy oneself with', fr stem per-, por-, 'to bring, bring forward, give out, share', in Lat parāre, 'to appear', see appear, porio, 'share', pars, 'part', see part (I) 1 To cut, trim, shave, remove, slight irregularities from to pare one's nails 2 To remove outer skin or rind from, peel to pare fruit, also para eff, away, down, to remove, trim off, by outgating to pare skin, rind, edges &c, to pare (down) one's expenses, to reduce them little by little paregoric, n [1 paregorik, 2 párigorik], fr L Lat paregoric (-us), fr Gk parēgorik (-os), 'soothing, consoling', fr parēgor (-os), 'consoling', fr para- (I) & agor (-d), 'public speaking, public assembly', op Gk agērein,

'to assemble' See gregarious & op paregoryc Medicine which soothes pain, also paregoryc elixir, campharated aromatic tincture of opium pareira, n [1 porāra, 2 porēara], fr Port parreira, 'vine' Drug obtained from the roots of various tropical American shrubs, and used in disorders of the urinary organs parenchyma, n [1 parēngluma, 2 porēngluma], fr Gk parēngluma, fr para- (I) & eghluma, 'something poured in', fr eghlē, 'I pour in', fr en- & hlēō, 'I pour', op Gk hlēōs, 'juice' See chyme & chyle 1 (anat) Soft cellular tissue forming chief substance of glands &c, ne distinct from connective tissue &c 2 (bot) Soft cellular tissue found in leaves, pulp of fruit &c, contrasted w prosenchyma parenchymal, adj [1 parēnglimal, 2 porēnglimal] Proc & -al Of, like, composed of, parenchyma parenchymatous, adj [1 párengklmatas, 2 parēngklmatas] See parenchyma & -ous Parenchymal parent, n [1 párent, 2 párent] O Fr, fr Lat parent (em), 'parent', fr parere, 'to beget, to bring forth', ep Lat perit, 'lured'; Gk pōros, 'young animal, calf', O H G far, O N farre, O E fearr, 'bullock', ep hoifor, the base per-, por-, 'to bring forth', is prob identical w the base per-, por-, 'to bring, carry, to distribute, give out', op Gk porain, 'to furnish, offer, present', Lat para, 'part', portio, 'share, portion' See part (I), portion 1 A Father or mother, b ancestor, forefather, esp in Phr our first parents, Adam and Eve 2 Organism, animal, plant, predomins another, one from which others are derived, (often attrib) parent cell, parent bird, parent stem 3 a Origin, source Latin is the parent of the modern Romance languages, b cause, occasion ignorance is the parent of crime parentage, n [1 párentaj, 2 párentidž] Proc & -age A Condition of being a parent, b descent, derivation, from parents or ancestors, extraction, birth, origin parental, adj [1 párentl, 2 párentl], fr Lat parental (is), 'of parents', fr parent (em), 'parent' See parent & -al Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, a parent parentally, adv Proc & -ly In a parental manner parenthesis, n [1 parēntesis, 2 parēntisis] Med Lat, fr Gk, fr para- (I) & en- & thesis (I), lit 'something placed within' 1 Word, phrases, clauses, inserted into a sentence which is grammatically complete without it, usually distinguished in writing or printing by brackets, commas, or dashes 2 (usually pl) Parentheses, round brackets () used to mark off a parenthesis 3 Interval, interlude, independent episode, or incident parenthesize, vb trans [1 parēntesiz, 2 parēntisaz] Proc & -ize 1 To insert, introduce, as parentheses 2 To put between brackets, mark as parenthesis parenthetic(al), adj [1 parēntetik(l), 2 parēntetik(l)], fr Mod Lat parenthetic (-us) See parenthesis & -ic & -al Of the nature of, pertaining to, forming, introduced as, indicating, a parenthesis parenthetically, adv Proc & -ly In a parenthetical manner, as a parenthesis parensis, n [1 párens, 2 párens] Gk parens, 'remission, relaxation', fr parēmi, 'I let go', fr para- (I) & hēmi, 'I go, send', earlier j-je mi*, engn w Lat ja cere, 'to throw' See jet (III) Form of paralysis, effecting power of movement but not of sensation paretic, adj [1 parētik, 2 parētik], fr prea Pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by paresis par excellence, adv [1 par ēkselahn, 2 par ēkselān] Fr Pre eminently, in the highest degree pariana, n See pergunnah pariet, vb trans & n [1 páriet, 2 pádižt]

ME parieten, fr O Fr. parieten, fr Lat prociāre, 'to throw out, drive forth' See project 1 vb To plaster, cover (walls &c, esp those of half timbered houses) with smooth layer of plaster, usually decorated with impressed patterns 2 n Plaster surface on wall parieting, n [1 párietng, 2 pádižtng] Proc & -ing n The layer of plaster covering o wall, often stamped with patterns, b surface of plaster thus applied parietal, adj [1 páriētl, 2 páhiētl] See parihelon & -al Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a parihelon parihelo, adj [1 páriētl, 2 páhiētl] See next word & -so Parihelical parihelon, n [1 parēhēlon, 2 páhiēlon], fr Lat, fr Gk parihēlon, 'mock sun', fr para- (I) & hēlos, 'sun' See helio- Spot of brilliant light appearing on solar halo, mock sun, op paraselene pariah, n [1 pária, pária, páhria, 2 pária, pária, pária], fr Tamil paraiyar, pl of paraiyan, 'drummer', hereditary beater of the parai, a large drum beaten at certain festivals 1 Member of a very low caste among the Hindus, which includes a large proportion of the population in Southern India, from this caste most domestic servants in Madras are drawn The word has come to be applied by Europeans in India to the lowest castes generally, and to parian without any caste Hence, 2, (in England) a social outcast, person ostracized by society pariah-dog, n Vagabond, ownerless dog common in the East Parian, adj & n [1 párian, 2 párian], fr Lat Parus (us), 'of the island of Paros', & -an 1 adj Of, from, the island of Paros, one of the Cyclades, famous for its white marble 2 n Kind of fine white porcelain used for statuettes &c parietal, adj [1 páriētl, 2 pádiētl], fr Lat parietal (is), 'of walls', fr pariet, stem of pariēs, 'wall', prob for turiētl*, & cogn w Lat tuēre, 'to fence in, hedge', tiaras, 'hedge, hurdle', O Slav tuoriti, 'to make, fashion', op ON prādr, 'strong, firm' 1 Pertaining to, forming, the walls of any cavity in the body, specul, parietal bones, two bones forming part of the top and sides of this skull 2 (bot) Developing from this side or wall of an organ pari mutual, n [1 pári mūtūal, 2 pári mūtūal] Fr, 'mutual wager' System of betting, carried on by a mechanical apparatus, in which the winners divide the money staked by the losers, a tax on all takings being levied, ep totalizator paring, n [1 páring, 2 páring] pare & -ing Port of anything removed by paring potato parings &c pari passu, adv [1 pári pásu, 2 pári pásu] Lat pari passu, 'with equal pace', fr pār, 'equal', see par (I), & passus, 'pace', see pace (I) With equal pace, together, at a corresponding rate or speed, degree

Paris, n [1 páns, 2 páris] Name of capital of France Paris doll, lay-figure used by dressmakers &c, Paris white, fine whitening used in polishing, see also plaster of Paris parish, n [1 páriš, 2 páriš] ME parische, fr O Fr parochie, fr L Lat parochia, fr Lat parocia, 'parish', fr Gk paroikia, 'ecclesiastical district, land round a church', fr paroik (os), 'near by', fr para- (I) & oikēin, 'to dwell', fr eikos, 'dwelling' See first element in economy 1 Ecclesiastical unit forming the smallest division within o diocese, area over which a single incumbent, whether rector or vicar, has jurisdiction parish clerk, official performing certain duties connected with the church, and formerly leading the congregation in the responses. 2 Civil parish, one of the districts into which a county is divided for the administration of the Poor Law &c, parish council, local body administering Poor Law &c Phr to go on the parish, receive parochial relief parishioner, n. [1 parəʃənər, 2 pəʃənə], fr O Fr paroisien, fr paroisie, 'parish', fr L Lat parochia, fr Lat parochia, 'ecclesiastical district'. See prec & -an & -er. Inhabitant of a specified parish.

parish-register, n. Book in which the christenings, marriages, and burials taking place within a parish are recorded.

Parisian, adj & n [1 parɪʒən, 2 pərɪʒən], fr Fr parisien, fr Lat Paris(i), 'Paris', & -an. 1 adj. Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, originating in, Paris. 2 n. Native, inhabitant, of Paris.

parisyllabic, adj [1 pərɪsɪləbɪk, 2 pərɪsɪləbɪk] fr Lat pār, 'equal', see par (I), & syllabic. Having the same number of syllables, specif (of Lat and Gk. ns) having this in all cases of the singular.

parity, n [1 pərɪtɪ, 2 pərɪtɪ], fr Lat paritāt(em), 'equality', fr pār, 'equal'. See par (I) & -ity. 1 Equality of rank, condition, degree &c. parity of exchange, to stand at parity. 2 Analogy, resemblance, similarity. parity of reasoning.

park (I), n [1 pɑːk, 2 pɑːk] ME park (mid 13th cent.), fr O Fr parc, fr W Gmc parol*, cp M H G pferrich, O E pearu, 'enclosure', the specific sense of M.E. & present-day Engl. comes fr Fr, the earlier O & M.E. word being frp. Skeat suggests that parc is a variant of base par*, 'to enclose', cp O E (ge)pearman, 'to bar, shut', the base orig. means 'a stake, piece of wood'. See par (I) & perhaps spear. 1 a (law and hist.) Tract of land enclosed, stocked, and preserved for hunting, with the king's authority, but not subject to special laws, b tract of land containing pasture, lakes &c. planted with trees, surrounding a country house, often of recent origin, and formed by throwing a number of fields together and enclosing the whole, differing from a in not being made by royal authority. 2 a Large tract of land preserved in its natural state for public benefit &c., b enclosed, ornamental grounds in, or near, a town &c., reserved for public recreation, specif., The Park, Hyde Park. 3 a (mil.) Space in encampment reserved for artillery, stores &c. b space reserved for parking motor-cars.

park (II), vb trans fr prec 1 To enclose in or as a park. 2 a (mil.) To arrange, bring together, in a park. to park guns, hence, b to place and arrange (vehicles) in a space or enclosure reserved for this purpose. to park motor-cars.

parkin, n [1 pɑːkɪn, 2 pɑːkɪn] Origin unknown, a Northern word. Kind of cake or biscuit made of oatmeal, ginger, and treacle.

parkish adj [1 pɑːkɪʃ, 2 pɑːkɪʃ] park (I) & -ish. Like a park.

parky, adj [1 pɑːki, 2 pɑːki] See prec & -y (slang, colloq.) Sharply cold, nipping (of wind or weather).

parlance, n [1 pɑːləns, 2 pɑːləns] fr Fr parl(er), 'to speak', fr L Lat parabolāre, 'to talk', fr parabola, 'comparison, parable, speech, discourse', see parable & -ance. Manner of speaking characteristic style, words idiom. in nautical, military, vulgar, legal &c. parlance.

parliament n [1 pɑːləmənt, 2 pɑːləmənt] fr See Parliament (Fr hist.) A judicial court of the old regime with power to hear appeals register decrees and other legislative enactments.

parley (I), n [1 pɑːli, 2 pɑːli] fr Fr parler, 'to speak'. See parlance. Conference, discussion on disputed point, esp (mil.) discussion of terms by opponents. Phr to enter a parley, to invite to a conference by truce-call.

parley (II) vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans. To hold a conference discuss terms. to parley with an enemy. 2 trans (colloq.) To speak esp a 'one on one' parley.

parleyvoo n & vb intrans [1 pɑːlɪvoo, 2 pɑːlɪvoo] fr Fr parler voo (francs), 'do you speak (French)?', fr parler, 'to speak'. See parlance (colloq.) 1 n. a The French language, b a Frenchman. 2 vb To speak French.

Parliament, n [1 pɑːləmənt, 2 pɑːləmənt], fr O Fr parlement, 'speaking', fr parler, 'to speak', see parlance, & -ment. Deliberative and legislative assembly of a state or country, variously formed and constituted, either by popular election or by hereditary right in England, consisting of two houses, the Lords (Spiritual and Temporal, the latter mostly hereditary) and the Commons (elected). Phr to enter, go into, Parliament, become a member of the House of Commons.

parliamentarian, adj & n [1 pɑːləməntəriən, 2 pɑːləməntəriən] See next word & -an. 1 adj. Pertaining to, connected with, Parliament. 2 n a Person experienced in the rules and methods of the English Parliament, or of other parliamentary bodies, specif b adherent of parliamentary party as opposed to the king's party under Charles I, a Roundhead.

parliamentary, adj [1 pɑːləməntəri, 2 pɑːləməntəri] Parliament & -ary. 1 Of, pertaining to, enacted by, Parliament. an old parliamentary hand, specific uses parliamentary agent, person, usually a solicitor, who manages the drafting and passing of private bills in Parliament, parliamentary bar, barristers specializing in private bills before Committees of Parliament, parliamentary train, one which, according to Act of Parliament, carries third class passengers at rate not exceeding one penny a mile. 2 Parliamentary language, such as is permitted in Parliament, hence polite, avoiding terms of abuse and other improprieties of speech.

parlour, n [1 pɑːlə, 2 pɑːlə] In M.E., fr O Fr parloir, fr Med Lat parlatorium, fr parl(āre), 'to talk'. See parlance. 1 Sitting room in private house, now old-fashioned or provincial. 2 Room for reception of guests, as in a mayor's mansion house, a bank &c., also in convent or monastery. 3 Private room in inn &c., also (in U.S.A.) room for customers in a shop &c. a hair-dresser's parlour, dental parlour &c.

parlour-car, n (in U.S.A.) Luxuriously furnished railway coach.

parlour-maid, n Maid who waits at table &c. parlous, adj & adv [1 pɑːləs, 2 pɑːləs] Variant of perilous (archaic or facet). 1 adj. Perilous, dangerous, precarious, critical, perplexing, chiefly in Phr a parlous condition. 2 adv. Extremely, wonderfully. parlous strange.

Parmesan, adj & n [1 pɑːmeziən, 2 pɑːmeziən] Fr, fr Ital Parmegiano, 'of Parma'. Also Parmesan cheese, a dry, hard cheese, with delicate flavour, made originally at Parma, used chiefly grated as flavouring for other dishes.

Parnassian, adj & n [1 pɑːnəsiən, 2 pɑːnəsiən] See next word & -ian. 1 adj. a Of Parnassus, b of, pertaining to, sacred to the Muses, c pertaining to a school of French poetry (1865-90), so called from title, Parnasse contemporain of its first volume. 2 n A member of the Parnassian school of poetry.

Parnassus, n [1 pɑːnəsəs, 2 pɑːnəsəs] Lat, fr Gk. Πάρναξ. Mountain in Greece, north of Gulf of Corinth, once sacred to Apollo and the Muses, (fig.) poetry, profession of poet, body of poets &c.

Parnellism n [1 pɑːnəlɪzəm, 2 pɑːnəlɪzəm], fr name of C S Parnell (d 1891) & -ism. Policy of Irish Home Rule, and the methods to attain it initiated by Parnell.

Parnellite, n [1 pɑːnəlɪt, 2 pɑːnəlɪt] See prec & -ite. Adherent of Parnellism.

parochial adj [1 pəˈrɔːkiəl, 2 pəˈrɔːkiəl] fr L Lat parochiā (fr) 'of a parish', fr parochia, 'parish'. See parish & -al. 1 Of, pertaining to, a parish. 2 (fig. or interest, feeling, affair &c.) Having but a small range or scope, limited, confined, to a small area, hence, narrow, provincial.

parochialism, n [1 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪzəm, 2 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪzəm] Prec & -ism. 1 State or quality of being parochial. 2 System of local government with parish as administrative unit.

parochiality, n [1 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪtɪ, 2 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪtɪ] parochial & -ity. Parochialism.

parochialize, vb trans [1 pəˈrɔːkiəlaɪz, 2 pəˈrɔːkiəlaɪz] parochial & -ize. a To form into a parish, to divide into parishes; b to make parochial.

parochially, adv [1 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪ, 2 pəˈrɔːkiəlɪ] See prec & -ly. In a parochial manner, as a parish.

parodist, n [1 pəˈrɔːdɪst, 2 pəˈrɔːdɪst] parody & -ist. Writer, maker, of parodies.

parodos, n [1 pəˈrɔːdos, 2 pəˈrɔːdos] Gk parodos, 'way past, passage, side-entry' &c., fr para- (I) & hodos, 'way, path'. See hodometer (Gk antiqu) a The gangway along the deck of a galley or ship, by the side of the rowers, b the side entrance to the orchestra in a theatre, by which the chorus entered, hence, the first entrance of the chorus in a Greek play.

parody (I), n [1 pəˈrɔːdi, 2 pəˈrɔːdi], fr Gk parōidia, 'parody, burlesque', fr para- (I) & ōid (ē), 'song'. See ode. 1 Deliberately ludicrous burlesque of an author's style and mannerisms. 2 Incompetent attempt to imitate or reproduce another's work or style, a travesty.

parody (II), vb trans, fr prec To make a parody of, to imitate in such a manner as to secure a ludicrous effect. to parody a poem, author, manner &c.

parole (I), n [1 pɑːrəl, 2 pɑːrəl] Fr parole, 'word', fr Lat parabola. See parable. 1 Word of honour, solemn pledge or promise to fulfil certain conditions specif that of a prisoner not to attempt escape. Phrs on parole, to break one's parole, attempt escape after promising not to do so. 2 Password used by officers of guard, as distinct from countersign.

parole (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To put (person) on parole.

paronomasia, n [1 pəˈrɒnəˈmɑːziə, 2 pəˈrɒnəˈmɑːziə] Lat paronomasia, fr Gk paronomasia, 'a figure of speech', fr para- (I) & onomasia, 'naming'. See onomatopoeia. Play on words, pun. 'You catch the paronomasia, play 'po' words' (Colverley, 'Cock and the Bull').

paronym, n [1 pəˈrɒnɪm, 2 pəˈrɒnɪm] See next word. A paronymous word.

paronymous, adj [1 pəˈrɒnɪməs, 2 pəˈrɒnɪməs], fr Gk parónymos, fr para- & ónyma, 'name'. See onomatopoeia (of words) a Having the same derivation, b having the same sound but differing in origin, spelling, and meaning, as have, hair &c. parquet, n See parakeet.

parotid, adj & n [1 pəˈrɔːtɪd, 2 pəˈrɔːtɪd], fr Fr parotide, fr Lat parotid(em), fr Gk parotis, 'tumour near the ear', fr para- (I) & ōt, stem of ōis, 'ear'. See oto-. 1 adj. Situated near the ear, esp parotid gland, the largest of the salivary glands situated between the lower jaw and the ear, parotid duct, leading from parotid gland to mouth. 2 n Parotid gland.

parotitis n [1 pəˈrɔːtɪs, 2 pəˈrɔːtɪs] See prec & -itis (med) Inflammation of the parotid gland, mumps.

paroxysm, n [1 pəˈrɒksɪzəm, 2 pəˈrɒksɪzəm], fr Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk paroxysmós, 'irritation, exasperation', fr paroxysmós, 'to provoke, exasperate', fr para- (I) & oxysmós, 'to sharpen', fr ox (us), 'sharp'. See oxy-. 1 Periodic attack of disease &c., sudden intensification of symptoms of disease &c. occurring at intervals. 2 A sudden spasm, attack, access, fit, of emotion, sensation &c. a paroxysm of pain, laughter, emotion, rage &c., b sudden activity, effort.

paroxysmal, adj [1 pəˈrɒksɪzmal, 2 pəˈrɒksɪzmal] Prec & -al. Of, relating to, of nature of, characterized by, paroxysms.

cause, interests, policy &c. , b political system based on organized parties to put public interest before party 2 Group of persons assembled for some common purpose, specif a social gathering, the guests who form this to give a party, a tea, dinner, party &c. , b group of persons associated for the purpose of engaging in some common occupation or amusement a reading, sketching, fishing, party &c. 3 Small company, body, of soldiers &c. detailed for special service a firing-party, foraging party &c. 4 One of the persons or groups of persons engaging in a contract, transaction, legal action &c. 5 Person taking part in, having full knowledge of, consenting to, supporting, an action, accessory to be a party to a conspiracy 6 (vulg or facet) Person a cheery, drowsy, old party party (II), adj, fr Fr parti, P.P. of partir, 'to divide' See part (II) (hor, of shield) Divided into parts with different tinctures, party per pale, divided vertically through the centre party-coloured, adj See parti-coloured party-spirit, n Devotion to a party, partisanship party-spirited, adj Showing, feeling, party-spirit party-wall, n Common wall separating two houses parvenu, n [1 párvénú, 2 párvanjú, párvanjú] Fr, P.P. of parvenir, 'to arrive', fr Lat pervenire, 'to come', fr per- & venire, 'to come' See venue Person who has rapidly or suddenly passed from obscurity to an important position in society, esp one who has recently gained wealth or power, an upstart Also attrib a parvenu peer parvis, n [1 párvís, 2 pávis], fr O Fr parvius, fr Med. Lat. parvianus, fr Lat paradiseus, 'paradise', later, 'court in front of St Peter's in Rome' See paradise Enclosed space in front of church pas, n [1 pah, 2 pá] Fr pas, 'step'. See pace (I) 1 A step, esp in dancing, b dance, pas seul, pas de deux, dance for one person, for two persons 2 Right of precedence, precedence to have, give, take, the pas

Paschal, adj [1 páskál, 2 páskál], fr Fr pascal, fr L Lat pascuālis, 'of the Passover', of Easter', fr pascha, 'Passover, Easter', fr Gk pascha, fr Heb pesach, 'Passover', & -al 1 Connected with the Jewish Passover 2 Of, pertaining to, connected with, Easter pasha, pacha, n [1 pasháh, pásha, páshah, 2 pašá, pašá, pašá] Turkish pasha Title of Turkish military officers or civil officials of high rank, pasha of three tails, two tails, one tail, of first, second, third grade, from horse-tail ensigns formerly carried before them in war pashalic, pachalic, n [1 pashálik, páshalik, 2 pašálik, pašálik] Turkish pashalik Jurisdiction, province, of a pasha pashm, n [1 páshám, 2 pašám] Pers pašm, 'wool', cp Scrt paśman, 'hair, eye-brows', Lith pezu, 'to pull the hair of, to pluck, tear out', Gk pelos, 'fleece, wool', pellem, 'to comb, shear'; Lat pecten, 'comb', see pecten, pezu, 'woolly', O H G fahs, O E feaz, 'hair', O N faz, 'mane' Fine wool obtained from goats in Tibet and North India, used for Cashmere shawls pasque-flower, n [1 páshk flúr, 2 pásk-flúr] Earlier pasce-flower, fr Fr pasceflor, fr passer, 'to surpass', see pass (I), assimilated to obs Pasque, 'Easter', fr Fr, fr L Lat pascha, 'Easter' See Paschal One of several varieties of anemone, esp one with purplish, bell-shaped flowers pasqunade, n [1 paškwínád, 2 paškwínéd], fr Ital pasquinate, fr Pasquino, name given to a broken statue, found at Rome in 1601, on which lampoons &c. were posted Lampoon, esp one exhibited in public place pass (I), vb intrans & trans [1 pás, 2 pás], fr Fr passer, fr Lat pass (us), 'pace' See pace (I) 1 intrans To proceed, move, go forward, advance. will you kindly allow me to pass?; pass along, by, on, out &c. 2 A To go by, to reach point of observation, or other specific point, and move beyond it to see a person pass, to notice a thing in passing, b (of time, &c.) to elapse, be spent how quick time passes, c (of speech &c.) be uttered the statement was allowed to pass unchallenged

3 To become altered in character, circumstance &c. , a to change, be converted, transformed to pass from one state into another, b to be transferred, fall naturally the estate passed to his heirs, c (football, hockey, of player) to hand, kick, hit, ball to another player 4 A To be handed on, be transferred, given and received the goblet passed from hand to hand, b to circulate, be current a Bank of England note used to pass anywhere

5 A To be removed from sphere of one's observation, sensation &c. , to come to an end, cease, be exhausted the pain has now passed, his anger passed, all things must pass, b specif, to die (usually) pass away 6 (of events) To happen, take place, occur to observe what passes, did nothing pass between you? 7 A To be accepted, tolerated, as adequate, suitable, permissible it will pass, b to be approved, accepted, agreed to, by legislative body &c. the bill, resolution, proposal &c. passed, c (of candidate for examination) to reach required standard, satisfy examiner

8 To be known, generally recognized to pass by the name of 9 (of judgement) To be pronounced judgement passed for the plaintiff &c. 10 (cards) To decline playing or declaring in a given round B trans 1 A To go by, go beyond, or away from to pass a person in the street, to pass a building &c. , b (of mental action) to reach and get beyond, advance farther than we have passed that page, to have passed the early stages 2 A To go through, across, over &c. , to traverse to pass an ocean, a desert, frontier, range of hills &c. , b to go between, enter by way of to pass the gates; no food has passed my lips 3 A To cause to go, move, direct motion of to pass one's hand over one's eyes, b to place, put, guide, into position to pass a rope round an object, c to cause to penetrate to pass a needle through a piece of material, a sword through a person's body &c. 4 To cause to go by, proceed past to pass troops in review, also (fig) to pass (events &c.) in review, contemplate, consider, successively 5 A To hand on, transfer, convey to another please pass the butter, b to cause to circulate, give currency to to pass forged notes; Phrs to pass the time of day, exchange greetings, to pass a remark, speak, make an observation, c (football, hockey) to hand, kick, or hit (ball) to another player

6 A To surpass, excel the splendour of King Solomon passed anything before or since, b to exceed, be greater than, go beyond to pass one's comprehension, 'the peace of God that passeth all understanding' 7 A To approve, sanction, give consent to the Commons passed the Bill, to pass a resolution, b to be approved, sanctioned, accepted by the Bill passed the Committee, c to reach standard required by to pass an examination, examiner Phr to pass muster (see muster (I)) 8 Specif (law) to pass sentence, judgement (upon), to pronounce as judge the sentence of the Court, declare result of trial, and award penalty 9 To spend, consume to pass time, the winter &c. C Followed by adverbs and prepositions Pass away, to come to an end, specif, to die Pass by, 1 intrans & trans, to go past, pass, 2 trans, to omit, ignore, disregard Pass for, to be commonly regarded as, be accepted as, he taken for to pass for a rich man Pass off, 1 intrans, a to decrease in activity or intensity the pain is passing off, b (of events, proceedings &c.) to be carried through, take place, 2 trans, to impose, palm off, represent falsely to pass oneself off as Pass over, to overlook, disregard Pass through, a to traverse, b (fig) to experience, go through.

pass (II), n, fr. prec Act, fact, process, of passing (in various senses) 1 Standard which satisfies examiners without securing honours to miss a class and take, or get, a pass 2 Juncture, critical condition or stage of events, or circumstances, crisis things have come to a strange pass Phr a pretty pass, a deplorable, very exceptional, almost incredible, state of affairs 3 A stroking gesture of the hands, said esp. of those made by mesmerists 4 Authorization to go somewhere, occupy a seat &c. , small object, tally, or document &c. indicating possession of such permission, usually free pass pass (III), n, fr Fr pas, 'step, passage' See pace (I) 1 A Gap, defile, passage, leading through mountains, b (mil) fortified place guarding pass forming entrance to country Phrs to hold the pass, to defend and maintain a cause or interest, to sell the pass, give away a position, betray a cause &c. 2 Channel giving entrance to partially enclosed body of water at mouth of river &c. 3 Narrow passage for fish over or at side of weir &c. passable, adj [1 pásabél, 2 pásabél] pass (I) & -able 1 Capable of being passed, traversed, crossed 2 Of a kind or quality that can be passed as adequate, fairly good, tolerable passably, adv Prec & -ly In a passable manner, fairly well passage (I), n [1 pásj, 2 pásidj], fr Fr passage pass (I) & -age 1 Act of passing, proceeding, crossing, traversing, transit, movement from one place to another Phr bird of passage, migratory bird, (fig) person who stays in a place only for a time, temporary sojourner Various special uses 2 Conveyance, transportation, by sea or air, voyage from point to point, crossing to have a rough passage 3 A Right to be conveyed, place, accommodation, on ship to book one's passage, b sum paid for this to pay one's passage 4 Change, transition, from one physical or mental state to another 5 Means of access, a path, way, road, clearing a passage through a thicket, between boulders, b an opening, a channel. a passage into a bay, through rocks &c. , c an opening, way, clear of obstacles to force a passage through a crowd 6 Possibility, right, of passing No passage this way! 7 Relatively narrow corridor in a building, running along the outside of a series of rooms and giving access to these, also such an internal corridor leading from one part of a building to another 8 Occurrence, episode, series of incidents, specif a (pl) what passes between two persons in conversation &c. to have stormy passages with, b passage of arms, (lit and fig) fight, combat, dispute 9 Detached portion of book, speech &c. read, printed, quoted, or referred to separately to read a passage from Scripture passage (II), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr passager, fr Ital passaggiare, fr passaggio, 'a walk', fr Lat pass (us), 'pace' See pace (I) 1 intrans a (of rider) To cause horse to move sideways by pressure of the knee on its side, b (of horse) to move sideways, draw aside 2 trans To cause to move aside or sideways passage-way, n Corridor, gallery, passage passant, adj [1 pásant, 2 pásant], fr Fr passant, Pres Part of passer, 'to pass' See pass (I) (her, of animal) Represented as walking, having the dexter fore-paw raised, passant guardant, same, but with head turned so as to look out from the field, i.e. full face, passant regardant, same, but with head turned to sinister side of shield, i.e. looking backwards pass-book, n Book supplied by bank, showing (sums deposited and withdrawn by customer passé, adj [1 pásá, 2 pásá] Fr, P.P. of passer, 'to pass' See pass (I) 1 Having lost the freshness and beauty of the prime, (esp. of a woman) passée, withered.

passementerie, n [1 pašamántéri; 2 pašmántéri] Fr, fr Fr passemens, 'trimming, gold lace' &c See pass (I) & -ment & -ery Dress trimming of braid, beaded lace &c passenger, n [1 pásenjer, 2 pásindža] ME & O Fr passager passage (I) & -er, for infixed n up messenger 1 Person traveling in public conveyance by rail, road, or esp sea, foot passenger, one traversing the roads or streets on foot 2 (by transf, colloq) Oarsman in boat who doesn't pull his weight, also (fig) the cabinet carries a few passengers passenger-pigeon, n Gregarious N Amer can pigeon, Columba migratorius, with long, pointed wings, capable of long flight passé-partout, n [1 pás partú, 2 pás pátú] Fr, 'pass everywhere' 1 Master-key 2 Kind of light picture frame, usually of pasteboard and glass, with the picture held in position between these by means of strips of paper &c pasted over the edges passer-by, n [1 pásber bí, 2 pás báj] Person who passes, walks past, a casually encountered stranger passerine, adj & n [1 pásérin, 2 pásérin] Lat passer, 'sparrow', etymol doubtful, & -ine 1 adj a Belonging to the order of passeres, b of, pertaining to, like, a sparrow 2 n Passerine bird, percher passibility, n [1 pás, pásibíltá, 2 pás, pásibíltá] fr L Lat passibilis (-em), 'passible', fr passibilis (-is), 'passible', see next word, & -ity Quality of being passible passible, adj [1 pásibl, 2 pásibl] fr L Lat passibilis (-is), 'capable of suffering', fr pass (um), P.P type of pati, 'to suffer', see patient & -ible (esp theol) Capable of feeling or suffering passim, adv [1 pásim, 2 pásim] Lat passim, 'hither and thither, here and there, indiscriminately', fr pass (um), P.P type of pandere, 'to spread out, scatter about', this is prob fr base pat, seen in patere, 'to lie open, to spread out', w nasal infixed, & the medial consonant t voiced after the nasal See patient (in referring to word, phrase &c in specified author, book, passage &c) Here and there, throughout, in all parts passing (I), adj & adv [1 pásing, 2 pásing] fr Pres Part of pass (I) 1 adj a Not lasting, transient the passing moment, passing joys, b incidental, casual a passing reference 2 adv (excl) Surprisingly, very, exceedingly passing strange, rich &c passing (II), vb n See pass (I) & -ing Act of one who, process exhibited by that which, passes In various senses 1 a Departure, disappearance the passing of the old regime, b departure from life, death the passing of Arthur 2 Process of moving past, passage onward to watch the passing of a procession 3 Lapse, flight the passing of time 4 Occurrence, enactment the passing of great events passing-bell, n, fr prec Bell tolled immediately after a death.

passing-note, n (mus) Note introduced to secure smooth passage between two notes or chords, but not essential to the harmony passion (I), n [1 pásim, 2 pásim] fr O Fr, fr Lat passion (-em), suffering, affection, emotion', fr pass (um), P.P type of pati, 'to suffer', see patient, & -ion 1 Strong feeling, intense emotion, specif a violent rage, fury to fly into a passion, b powerful enthusiasm a passion for gardening, c sexual love or desire Specif 2 (cap) a sufferings of Christ, esp on the Cross, b Gospel narrative of this, c musical setting of this narrative passion (II), vb intrans, fr prec (post) To feel and express passion.

passional (I), n [1 pásional, 2 pásional] fr Med Lat passionalis, 'passional', fr neut form of Lat adj passionalis, 'passionate' passion (I) & -al Book containing an account of the sufferings of saints and martyrs passional (II), adj, fr Lat passionalis (-is), 'passionate', passion & -al (rare, post) Pertaining to, characterized by, arising from, passion passionate, adj [1 pásionat, 2 pásionat] fr Med Lat passionalis (-is), 'passionate' See passion (I) & -ate 1 Capable, susceptible, of passion, swayed, inspired, by passion 2 Readily inclined to anger, violent, quick-tempered 3 Expressing, exhibiting, passion. 4 (of emotion &c) Springing from, rooted in, passion, intense, ardent, fervid passionate love, hated, desire, passionate loyalty passionately, adv Prec & -ly In a passionate manner passionateness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being passionate passion-flower, n Genus, Passiflora, of climbing plants with large flowers, named from the fancied resemblance of the flower to the instruments of Christ's Passion, the 'corona' representing the crown of thorns &c

Passionist, n [1 pásionist, 2 pásionist] passion & -ist Member of a Roman Catholic order especially devoted to keeping in memory the Passion of Christ passionless, adj [1 pásionless, 2 pásionless] passion & -less Not feeling, or expressing not moved by, passion, free from passion, cold, unemotional passionlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a passionless manner passionlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being passionless

Passion-music, n Musical setting of Gospel narrative of the Passion Passion-play, n Dramatic representation of the Passion of Christ

Passion Sunday, n Fifth Sunday in Lent

Passion Week, n Week before Easter, Holy Week passive (I), adj [1 pásiv, 2 pásiv] fr Lat passiv (-is), 'capable of suffering', (gram) 'passive', fr pass (um), P.P type of pati, 'to suffer', see patient, & -ive 1 (of persons, mental states &c) Acted upon by external agency, receiving external impressions, but not acting to remain passive, to take a passive interest in events 2 In a state of quiescence, inactive, inert, offering no active opposition Phrs passive debt, one on which no interest is paid, passive resistance, one unaccompanied by overt or active measures 4 (gram, of vbs & vbl forms) Designating that voice in which the grammatical subject is acted upon by the verb, and undergoes the action expressed by this, instead of performing it passive (II), n, fr prec (gram) Passive voice passively, adv passive (I) & -ly In a passive manner passiveness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being passive, passivity passivity, n [1 pásiviti, 2 pásiviti] passive (I) & -ity Passiveness pass-key, n a Key which opens several locks, a master key, b latch key passman, n [1 pásman, 2 pásman] One taking pass degrees at University

Passover, n [1 pásóver, 2 pásóver] pass (I) & over, translating Heb pesach, op Paschal 1 a Jewish feast commemorating the night on which the destroying angel passed over the houses of the Israelites and smote the Egyptians (Exod. xii. 27), b lamb sacrificed at the Feast of the Passover (Exod. xii. 21) to eat the Passover 2 (fig) Christ 'Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us' (1 Cor. v. 7) passport, n [1 pásport, 2 pásport] fr Fr passport, pass (I) & port (I), 'harbour' 1 (rare) Official document granted by a State to ship, giving permission to leave port and requesting privilege of entry into a foreign port, usually styled 'sea letter', it is earned by neutral vessel as certificate of neutrality 2 Official document granted to a native of country by his government, to enable him to travel abroad, certifying his identity, stating purpose of his visit to a specified country, and constituting the official sanction of his journey 3 Personal quality, endowment of mind or body, which serves to recommend its possessor to the favour and esteem of others, and to secure him wide acceptance good looks and good manners are a ready passport to society, a passport to one's affections, good graces &c password, n [1 pásawórd, 2 pásawórd] (mil) Secret word identifying person using it as entitled to enter, pass sentries, through camp &c, watchword past (I), adj [1 pásht, 2 pásht] P.P of pass (I) 1 a (of time) Gone, by, elapsed, ended the years that are past, one's past life; b recently gone by during the past week, c that has occurred in the past past danger, sins &c 2 (gram) Expressing action accomplished, or occurrence taking place in the past past participle, past tense past (II), n, fr prec 1 Time that has gone by, time before the present, usually the past 2 a That which has happened, been done, in the past let us think of the future, we cannot undo the past, b person's past life, actions, experiences &c, specif, doubtful antecedents, questionable career a lady with a past past (III), prep, fr past (I) 1 a Beyond in time, after past ten o'clock, half past one, past middle age, b beyond in space, up to and further than to walk past the gate 2 Beyond the limits, action, power of past cure, past endurance, past work, past comprehension, Phrs past praying for, in a desperate condition or situation, beyond hope of amendment past (IV), adv See prec So as to reach a point and go beyond it (in time or space), by to walk past, the years flew past paste (I), n [1 pásht, 2 pásht] O Fr, fr L Lat pastis, fr Gk psidē, 'barley mash', fr passin, 'to sprinkle', etymol doubtful 1 Soft, slightly moist, plastic compound, esp mixture of flour with butter &c, formed into a dough and baked or boiled for meat pies or pudding or fruit tarts &c 2 Soft, thick, moist compound made by crushing and beating various ingredients together almond paste, anchovy paste &c 3 Adhesive compound of flour or starch and water &c, used by paper hangers, book binders, bill posters &c, or for pasting cuttings into a book &c Phrs scissors and paste, of book or other publication, not an original composition but consisting of a patchwork of extracts from other books pieced and vamped together 4 a The vitreous compound used in making artificial gems, b the moistened, prepared clay used in making pottery and porcelain paste (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To fasten, stick, with paste, also paste up, (i) to affix to wall &c with paste to paste up a notice, (ii) close by pasting paste up a window, paste in, fasten into a book with paste 2 To paste paper on to pasteboard, n [1 páshtbord, 2 páshtbórd] 1 Stiff sheet made of pieces of paper pasted together 2 Anything made of or remotely resembling pasteboard, small card, e.g. visiting card &c pastel (I), n [1 pásht, páshtel, 2 páshtel, páshtel] Fr, fr Ital pastello, dimin of Ital & Lat pastis See paste (I) a Compound of dry pigment and gum, used for making coloured crayons, b method of drawing with pastel on special paper, c drawing made in pastel pastel (II), n See prec a Wood, b dye obtained from the plant pastel (just), n [1 páshtelst, páshtelst, 2 páshtelst, páshtelst] pastel (I) & -ist Artist working in pastel pastern, n [1 páshtern, páshtern; 2 páshtern, páshtern] fr O Fr pasturon, fr O Fr pasture, tether for horse at pasture' See pasture & pastor Part of horse's foot between fetlock and hoof patent (I), ady [1 păt(ə)nt, 2 păt(ə)nt], fr Lat patent (em), Pres Part of patere, 'to be open', op Lat patulus, 'open, extended', Gk petánnium, 'I spread ant', petalon,

'leaf, thin plate', see petal, OE fathmos
'extended arms, fathom', OE faþm, 'embrace, fathom', see fathom (I), Lith peþys, 'shoulder' 1 Open, plain to see, obvious his annoyance was perfectly patent, a patent injury 2 (legal pronunciation, [1 pătənt, 2 pătənt]) a In Phr letters patent (formerly patents), an open letter, one issued by a sovereign granting a privilege, conferring a title &c. b Specif, protected by letters patent and secured for the exclusive profit of a particular person patent medicines &c., e (colloq) new, ingenious and practical, generally applied to a contrivance devised by oneself or some specified person I've got a patent dodge for cleaning pipes, a patent way of cording a box patent (II), n, fr prec 1 a Royal or government grant of privileges, letters patent a patent of nobility, b exclusive right, granted by official authority, to make or sell some mechanical device or apparatus, to use some process &c. to take out a patent for an invention &c. 2 a Article or process protected by a patent, b an ingenious device or method patent (III), vb trans, fr prec To secure by a patent, take out a patent for (invention &c.) patente, n [1 pátntē, 2 pestntē] patent (III) & -ee One to whom a patent is granted patently, adv [1 pátntli, 2 pestntli] patent (I) & -ly In a patent manner, obviously, manifestly pater, n, [1 páter, 2 péte] Lat pater, 'father', op Gk páter, Goth fadar, OHG fater, OE fæder, see father, prob fr a child's word pá*, pə*, op papa (schoolboy slang) Father paterfamilias, n [1 páterfamilias, 2 pétefamilias] Lat, 'head of a household', See prec & family (Roman law, or facet) Father of family, master of house paternal, adj [1 pátérnl, 2 pátánl] fr Lat patern(us), 'of a father', fr pater, 'father' See pater & -al 1 Pertaining to, characteristic of, resembling, a father, fatherly 2 Related through one's father paternal grandfather paternalism, n [1 pátérnalizm, 2 pátánalizm] Prec & -ism System, habit, of being paternal, esp of a government or employer in relation to citizens or employees, usually in derogatory sense of fussy interference in matters relating to social habits, morals, health &c. paternally, adv [1 pátérnsh, 2 pátánlsh] paternal & -ly In a paternal manner, as a father paternity, n [1 pátérniti, 2 pátánliti] fr Lat paternitatem (em), 'paternity', fr pater (us), 'paternal', see prec & -ity 1 a State of being a father, fatherhood, b descent from father, paternal origin 2 (fig) Authorship, origination paternoster, n [1 pátérnoster, 2 páténoster] Lat pater noster, 'Our Father', see pater & nostrum, fr opening words of Lord's Prayer 1 a The Lord's Prayer, b formula of words, used as a charm or incantation, black, white, paternoster, specific kinds of this 2 Bead of rosary indicating that the Lord's Prayer is to be repeated 3 Usually paternoster line, a fishing line with hooks and sinkers at regular intervals, like the beads on a rosary path, n, [1 páth, 2 páp] OE peþ, ME path, op Du pad, Germ pfad No cognates known outside Gmc 1 a Way, track, beaten by the feet, not specially constructed a path through a wood, across fields &c., b made track along the side of a road for foot-passengers only, footpath 2 Track specially constructed for cycle-riding &c. 3 a Line along which anything moves, direction of progress, track, course the path of a comet, of a bird in the air, b (fig) (1) line, direction, of development the path of progress, of civilization, (u) way in which life or action proceeds, line of conduct the path of duty, The paths of glory lead but to the grave (Gray's 'Elegy')

Pathan, n [1 pátáhn, 2 pátádn] Hind Pathán Afghan tribesman on NW frontier of India pathetic, adj & n, [1 páthétik, 2 pépétik] fr L Lat, fr Gk páthetik (ós), 'capable of feeling' See pathos 1 adj a Evoking pity, sympathy, sorrow, pitiable, b affecting, relating to, the emotions, the pathetic fallacy, phrase used by Ruskin in 'Modern Painters', to denote the habit in poets of attributing human feelings, emotions &c. to inanimate nature 2 n (pl) Pathetics, study of human emotions, indulgence in emotional expression pathetically, adv [1 páthétikali, 2 pépétikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a pathetic manner pathless, adj [1 páthles, 2 páplis] path & -less Without a path, trackless pathless wastes, woods &c.

patho-, pref representing Gk pátho (s), 'experience, suffering, emotion', See pathos a Emotion, passion, e.g. pathognomy, study of expression of emotions, b suffering, disease, e.g. pathogenic, causing disease, as certain bacteria, pathogenesis, mode of production and development of a disease pathological, adj [1 páthológikl, 2 pápáldžikl] pathology & -ic & -al Caused by, of the nature of, disease, connected with pathology pathologist, n [1 páthológist, 2 pápáldžist] pathology & -ist Student of pathology pathology, n [1 páthológj, 2 pápáldžj] patho- & -logy Systematic study of bodily diseases, their causes, symptoms, and treatment pathos, n [1 páthos, 2 péþs] fr Gk páthos, 'experience, enfeebling, emotion', op Gk pénthos, 'sorrow, affliction', psákhēn, 'to suffer', cogn w Lath lenczu, 'to suffer', pa Lania, 'patience' Thet quality in human life and experience, or in external events and circumstances, which evokes sympathy and a sense of sorrow and pity pathway, n [1 páthwá, 2 páþwé] path & way Path, track, beaten by the feet, a way made for foot passengers

-pathy, suff [1 páthj, 2 pápj] representing Gk pathēia, in homoeopathēia, 'similar feeling, equal suffering', see homoeopathy, fr Gk path (os), 'suffering', see pathos Used to form ns, indicating methods of curative treatment, e.g. allopathy, hydropathy patience, n [1 pášens, 2 péþsens] fr O Fr patience, fr Lat patientia, 'patience, endurance, forbearance', fr patient (em), see patient & -ce 1 a Endurance of suffering, provocation &c. with fortitude, resignation, calmness and courage, b capacity to endure in this manner Phrs to be out of patience with, provoked by, unable to tolerate calmly, to have no patience with, be exasperated by 2 Constant diligence in performance of a task, perseverance, pertinacity 3 Capacity for waiting without complaint, and bearing with calmness and without restlessness and over eagerness, delay in the accomplishment of what one expects and desires to happen, or to be done if you will only have patience, everything you want will be done at last 4 Game of cards, of many varieties, usually for one player patient (I), adj [1 pášent, 2 peþant] fr O Fr, fr Lat patient (em), Pres Part type of pati, 'to suffer, endure, experience', op Lat paenitet, 'it grieves', pénuria, 'want', paene, péne, 'nearly, almost', the basal meaning appears to be 'want, lack', op also Gk peina, 'hunger', & perh also epainē, 'lack, scarceness, rarity' 1 Having, exercising, showing, patience, specif a enduring pain without murmuring, b enduring provocation, slow to anger, c tolerating delay without complaint, d laborious, diligent, in accomplishment of long, tedious task 2 Capable of bearing a specified meaning, in Phr patient of such and such a meaning, interpretation &c. patient (II), n See prec 1 Person undergoing medical treatment 2 Specif, sick person who is a client of a particular doctor patiently, adv patient (I) & -ly In a patient manner, with patience patina, n [1 pátina, 2 pátinu] fr Fr patine, 'patina', possibly w an earlier sense 'cover', fr Lat patina, 'dish' See paten a Kind of greenish film formed on the surface of old copper or bronze through exposure to the atmosphere, b similar deposit upon the surface of ancient stone implements, c fine gloss acquired by age on the surface of old woodwork, furniture, panelling &c. patinated, adj [1 pátinátēd, 2 pátinestēd] Prec & -ate & -ed Having a patina patination, n [1 pátináshun, 2 pátinésjēn] patina & -ation Condition of having a patina patinous, adj [1 pátínus, 2 pátínus] patina & -ous Pertaining to, resembling, patina patio, n [1 páhtwō, 2 pátíou] Span Inner courtyard of Spanish or Spanish American house patois, n [1 pátwá, 2 pátwá] Fr, etymol doubtful Local, provincial, form of speech, esp one confined to a small area, a enb dialect, contrasted with one having a currency over a wider area patriarch, n [1 pátríark, 2 pétriárl] fr O Fr, fr Lat patriarcha, fr Gk patriarchēs, 'father or chief of a race', fr patria, 'family, lineage', fr pater, stem of pater, 'father', q.v. under pater & father, & arikhōs, 'leader, ruler', see arch- 1 Father or head of family, clan, tribe, which he rules by paternal right 2 (specif) One of the early founders of Hebrew families, esp Abraham, Isaac, or Jacob, and their sons 3 (eccles) a Org a bishop in the ancient Church, esp the holder of one of the great sees, Antioch, Rome, Jerusalem &c., b in Eastern Church, a bishop of one of the four sees, Constantinople, Alexandria, Antioch, Jerusalem, and by extension applied to bishops of some other sees 4 Venerable old man, esp one regarded as the founder, or head, of a family, the senior member of a society or community &c. a village patriarch patriarchal, adj [1 pátríárl, 2 pétriárl] Prec & -al 1 Connected with, ruled by, a patriarch, having the jurisdiction of a patriarch 2 Characteristic of a patriarch, venerable patriarchate, n [1 pátríarkāt, 2 pétriárlkāt] patriarch & -ate 1 Office, rank, of tribal patriarch, system of patriarchal government, patriarchy 2 Office, rank, jurisdiction, see, of an ecclesiastical patriarch patriarchism, n [1 pátríarkizm, 2 pétriárlkizm] See prec & -ism System of government by patriarchs patriarchy, n [1 pátríarkj, 2 pétriárlj] patriarch & -y 1 Primitive system of government in which the chief authority resides in the male head or chief of a family or clan, contrasted with matrarchy 2 Authority, jurisdiction, of a patriarch patrician, n & adj [1 pátríshán, 2 pétriáshán] fr Lat patricius (us), 'of noble rank', fr pater, stem of pater, 'father', patres, 'fathers of the city ruling class', see pater, & -an 1 n a Member of Ancient Roman nobility, contrasted with plebeian, hence, b an honorary title in later Roman Empire, c chief magistrate of Roman Empire in Italian and African provinces, d nobleman, esp of mediaeval Italian republics and German Free Cities 2 adj a Noble, aristocratic, specif b belonging to the Ancient Roman nobility patricianship, n [1 pátríshánsj, 2 pétriáshánsj] Patrician & -ship State of being patrician, noble rank patriciate, n [1 pátríshíát, 2 pétriáshíát] fr Med Lat patriciatus (us), 'patriciate', fr Lat patricius (us), 'patrician', see patrician, & -ate 1 Rank, position, of a patrician 2 Patrician class, nobility patrimonial, adj [1 pátrímóníál, 2 pétriámóníál] See next word & -al. Of, pertaining to, patrimony, hereditary patrimony, n, [1 pátrímónj, 2 pétriámónj] ME patrimonye, fr A -Fr, fr Lat patria, 'paternal estate', fr pater, stem of pater, 'father', see pater, & -mony

1 a Property inherited from father or ancestors, b (fig) heritage, inherited characteristic 2 (eccl) Church property patriot, n [1 pátríot, 2 pátríot] pátríot, fr Fr, fr L Lat patrióta, 'countryman', fr Gk patriótēs, 'fellow-countryman', fr pater (os), 'of one's fathers', see pater A loyal citizen of a state, one who has and shows love for his native land, and who devotes himself, even at sacrifice to himself, to promoting the welfare and glory of his country and its inhabitants patriotic, adj [1 pátríotík, 2 pátríotík] pátríot & -íot Having the sentiments and qualities of a patriot, exhibiting, inspired by, patriotism patriotically, adv [1 pátríotíkai, 2 pátríotíkai] pátríot & -íot In a patriotic manner, with patriotism patriotism, n [1 pátríotizm, 2 pátríotizm] pátríot & -íizm Patriotic sentiments and qualities, love for, loyalty to, one's own country patristic, adj [1 pátrístik, 2 pátrístik] fr Lat pater, stem of pater, 'father', see pater, & -íst & -íc 1 Connected with, derived from, the Fathers of the Church 2 Of, relating to, the study of the writings and thought of the Early Fathers patrol (I), n [1 pátról, 2 pátról] fr Fr patrouille, 'patrol', fr patrouiller, 'to patrol' See next word 1 Perambulation by detachment of troops or police 2 Detachment of troops, police &c appointed to perambulate town, district &c, and maintain order patrol (II), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr patrouiller, 'to patrol', earlier patouiller, 'to dabble, paddle, with the feet, to trample, tramp about', fr O Fr patre, 'paw, foot of animal', the origin of vb is doubtful 1 Intrans To go the rounds in camp &c 2 trans A to go round, traverse (camp, town &c), for the purpose of guarding or inspecting police patrolling the streets, b to march about, through bands of unemployed patrolled the town patron, n [1 pátron, 2 pátron] M E pátron, 'patron, pattern', fr O Fr patron, fr Lat patrōnus, 'protector', fr pater, stem of pater, 'father', see pater 1 (Rom antic) a Relation in which a citizen who had freed a slave stood to the latter, b patrisian protector of plebeian client, correlative of client, q v 2 One who encourages, gives moral or financial support and countenance to, a cause, enterprise, or person a patron of the arts 3 (shopkeeper's word) Regular customer or employer 4 Also patron saint, saint regarded as special protector of place, person, occupation &c 5 Person having right of bestowing a benefice in the Church of England patronage, n [1 pátrunij, 2 pátrunídz] pátrun & -age 1 Support, protection, encouragement, given by patron 2 a Right of presentation to church benefice, b power of appointment to offices and positions in the state or elsewhere 3 Patronizing manner, assumption of superiority in dealing with another 4 (shop word) Regular custom patronage secretary, n Official title of the principal 'whip' of the Government in power patronal, adj [1 pátrónal, 2 pátrónal] pátron & -al Belonging to, in celebration of, patron saint patronal festival (at, of, a Church), one held on the day of that saint to whom the church is dedicated patroness, n [1 pátrunēs, 2 pátruníe] pátron & -ess Female patron patronize, vb trans [1 pátruníz, 2 pátruníz] pátron & -ize 1 To act as patron towards, to give encouragement and countenance to, to support by being a customer 2 To assume air of a patron towards, to treat with lofty condescension, as of a superior to an inferior patronizing, adj [1 pátrunízíng, 2 pátrunízíng] fr Pres Part of patronize Exhibiting an assumption of patronage, condescending patronizingly, adv pátrun & -ízíng In a patronizing manner.

patronymic, adj & n [1 pátrónímik, 2 pátrónímik] fr Lat, fr Gk patrōnum (ios), 'named after one's father', fr pater, stem of pater, 'father', q v under pater, & ónoma, 'name' See first element in onomatopoeia, & -ic 1 adj (of name) Derived from father or ancestor 2 n Patronymic name patroon, n [1 pátrōn, 2 pátrōn] Du form of patron (US hist) Person holding grant of land, with manorial rights (abolished c 1850), from old Dutch government of New York and New Jersey pattee, patée, paty, adj [1 páttē, 2 páttē] Fr, fr patte, 'paw, foot', see patrol (ber) Of crosses, with arms expanding to a broad flattened end, also sometimes terminating in a trefol or four dobs, the first type is sometimes wrongly named 'Maltese cross', the flowered is styled 'cross fleury' patten, n [1 pátn, 2 pátn] M E páten, fr O Fr patine, 'shoe', op Mod Fr patin, 'skate for the ice', prob fr patte, 'foot' &c, q v under patrol Kind of wooden over shoe supported on an iron ring, formerly worn for walking short distances, to keep the feet out of the mud and wet, a clog patter (I), n [1 páter, 2 páte] See next word 1 Dialect or jargon confined to a particular class thieves' patter 2 A Patter song, one with easy rhymes, set to a simple, catchy tune, occurring in a comic opera, and sung with the utmost rapidity, a good example is Gilbert's 'My name is John Wellington Wells', in 'The Sorcerer', b conjuror's patter, running remarks kept up in order to distract attention from acts which the audience is not meant to see patter (II), vb trans & intrans, fr first element of patron, &c called fr the habit of gabbling prayers 1 trans To utter, repeat, hurriedly and mechanically to patter prayers 2 intrans To talk glibly, chatter patter (III), vb intrans, fr pat & -er A to make a succession of light, quick sounds rain-drops pattering on the glass, b to run with short, light, quick steps patter (IV), n, fr pater Succession of light taps pattern (I), n [1 pátern, 2 pátern] fr M E pátron, 'patron, person to be followed, pattern', see patron 1 Person whose merits and qualities entitle him to be taken as example of conduct, one to be imitated, a model a pattern of propriety, virtue, industry &c 2 A model or shape serving as a guide in constructing anything paper pattern for a dress, b (in founding) full sized model used for making the sand mould into which the metal is poured for castings 3 Design embroidered, woven, carved, painted, or stamped as an ornament on any kind of material &c pattern on carpet, wall-paper, china &c 4 Specif, figure formed by the marks on target as result of the shots successively fired at it by one person 5 Small samples of cloth, wall paper &c from which choice can be made, supplied by tradesman pattern (II), vb trans, fr pater (rare) 1 To make, form, fashion, in accordance with a model to pattern a thing after, upon, a model, design &c 2 To put a pattern upon pattern-maker, n One who makes patterns, specif, one who makes patterns for castings in a foundry pattern-shop, n Place in factory, foundry, &c where patterns are prepared patty, n [1 páti, 2 páti] fr Fr pâté, 'pasty', see pâte Little pie patty-pan, n Small pan for baking a pie or cake patulous, adj [1 pátilus, 2 pátilus] fr Lat patul-(us), 'spread out, extended', q v under patent, & -ous Spread out, spreading, extended patty, adj See pattee paucity, n [1 páwsh, 2 páwsh], fr Lat paucitatis-(em), 'fewness, scarcity', fr pauc (us), 'few, little', op Lat pauper, 'poor', oogn w Gk paúr-(os), 'little', oogn w Goth fewar, O E fewe, 'few', see few Smallness of number or amount, scarcity

Pauline, adj & n [1 páwlin, 2 páwlin] fr Saint Paul & -ine 1 adj Pertaining to, written by, St Paul, esp Pauline epistles 2 n Member of St Paul's School, London paulo-post-future, n [1 páwls póst fúchur, 2 páwls póst íftíjē], fr Lat paula, 'a little', fr paul-(us), 'little', prob fr paur*-(o)-ce, dimin of paur* (os), 'little', later pau us, see paucity, for other elements see post-, future 1 (Gk gram) Future perfect tense 2 (facet) Immediate future.

Paulownia, n [1 páwlónia, 2 páwlónia] fr Princess Anna Paulowna, of Russia (bot) Genus of shrubs and trees with showy, purple bell shaped flowers, the flower is one of the national emblems of Japan

Paul Pry, n [1 páwprí, 2 pólprí] Chs acter in comedy (1826) by John Poole, d 1872 Inquisitive, meddling person paunch, n [1 páwnob, 2 pántf] fr A-Fr panche, fr Lat pantex, 'paunch', etymol doubtful 1 Abdomen, belly, specif a the first or largest stomach of ruminant, b (facet or vulg) human abdomen, esp when large and prominent 2 (naut) Thick mat on mast or yards of a ship to prevent obfading paunchy, adj [1 páwnoh, 2 pántf] páwnob & -y Having a large, prominent abdomen.

pauper, n [1 páwper, 2 pápē], fr Lat pauper, 'poor', fr pau-, stem of pau us, 'little' &c, see paucity, & par-, stem of parere, 'to bring forth, produce, to gain, acquire', see parent 1 A destitute person supported by charity or public funds, b (law) person who, on account of poverty, is allowed to plead or defend a case without costs, i e in forma pauperis 2 (colloq) A person in straitened circumstances, one of small means, one who is regarded, or who regards himself, as poor pauperdom, n [1 páwperdum, 2 pápēdam] páwper & -dom 1 State of being a pauper 2 Whole body of paupers pauperism, n [1 páwperizm, 2 pápērizm] páwper & -izm 1 State of being a pauper, destitution, dependence on charity or poor relief 2 Paupers collectively, pauperdom pauperization, n [1 páwperízashun, 2 pápērizashun] See next word & -ation Act or process of pauperizing, state of being pauperized pauperize, vb trans [1 páwperíz, 2 pápēriz] páwper & -ize To reduce to pauperism, to tend to make a technical pauper of, by encouraging dependence upon public aid for support, rather than upon personal exertion pause (I), n [1 páwz, 2 páz], fr Fr, fr Lat pausa, 'stop, cessation', fr Gk pausis, 'stopping', fr pausim, 'to cause to cease', etymol doubtful 1 Period of inaction, temporary cessation, brief intermission of activity, Phr to give pause to, to cause to hesitate 2 A Momentary deliberate interruption in speaking, reading, singing &c, for the sake of expression, emphasis &c, b cessation, check, in the flow of conversation during a brief, but appreciable period, a silence caused by embarrassment, lack of ideas &c the unfortunate remark caused an awkward pause 3 (mus) Graphic symbol in form of a curve, placed above note, indicating prolongation pause (II), vb intrans, fr pau 1 To make a pause, to intermit motion, or cease action, temporarily, from hesitation &c 2 To linger, dwell upon to pause upon a note, word &c pavage, n [1 pávij, 2 pávídz], fr Fr See pave & -age A Process of laying pave ments, or paving-stones, b tax paid towards paving of streets &c pavan, n [1 páván, 2 pávān], fr Fr pavane, cp Ital & Span pavana, etymol doubtful a slow, stately dance, in duplo time, of 16th and 17th cents. b music for such a dance pave, vb trans [1 pāv, 2 pav], fr Fr paver, fr Lat pavire 'to beat, ram, tread down', op Lath pavir, 'to mow, down', op further Lat puiāre, 'to out', see amputate To cover surface of, with flat stones, or other material, so as to form a pavement Phr to pave the way for, prepare the way for, facilitate the advance or introduction of pave, n [1 pāvā, 2 pāvā] Fr, fr PP of paver, 'to pave', see preo 1 a Pavement, b roadway, street, paved with stone setts or cobbles 2 Close setting of jewels pavement, n [1 pāvment, 2 pavment], fr O Fr, fr Lat pavimentum, 'beaten floor' pave & -ment 1 a Series of flat slabs, or blocks, of stone, wood &c, set close together on surface of ground, floor &c, b specif, paved walk for pedestrians at side of street, contrasted with road 2 (cool) Pavement-like arrangement of teeth, as in sharks &c pavement-artist, n Man who draws pictures in coloured chalk, on the public pavement, and asks for money from passers by, for doing so pavilion (I), n [1 pavilyun, 2 pavilyan], fr Fr pavillon, fr Lat pavilion (em), 'hunter fly, tent' See pavilionaceous 1 Large tent 2 a Originally temporary shelter for spectators at a tournament, b a wooden building with verandah, on or on foot-ball ground &c, for players and spectators 3 Ornamental projection, with tent formed roof, from a large building pavilion (II), vb trans, fr preo To cover, shelter, surround, with, or as with, a pavilion pavour, n [1 pāvur, 2 pāvur] pave & -our Person whose trade is to lay pavements pavonazzo, adj & n [1 pavonāto, 2 pāv matev] Ital, fr Lat pavōn (em), 'peacock' See next word 1 adj Having brightly coloured markings like colouring of peacock 2 n Marble coloured in this way pavonine, adj [1 pāvōnīn, 2 pavounam], fr Lat pavōnīn (-us), 'of, like, a peacock', fr pavōn, stem of pāvō, 'peacock', prob of Eastern origin Connected with, resembling, having the colouring of, a peacock paw (I), n [1 paw, 2 pā] ME pawe, poue, fr O Fr poue, poue, etymol doubtful 1 Animal's foot, including nails or claws 2 (colloq) Human hand paw (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a (of animals) To touch, feel, with the paw, b (of horse) to strike, scrape, with a front hoof to paw the ground, c (of human hands) to touch, handle, coarsely, to maul, to stroke, touch unnecessarily with the hand, also paw over 2 intrans (of horse) To strike and scrape the ground repeatedly and impatiently with one of the fore hoofs pawky, adv [1 pāvkl, 2 pāvkl] pawky & -ly In a pawky manner pawkins, n [1 pāvklīn, 2 pāvklīn] See next word & -ness Quality of being pawky pawky, adj [1 pāvkl, 2 pāvkl] Scots cp pawol, 'trick', etymol unknown Aroha and shrewd, having exhibiting, a dry humour pawl, n & vb trans [1 pawl, 2 pā] W, prob same word as pale (I) 1 n a Short, pivoted catch engaging with toothed wheel to prevent recoil, specif b (naut) bar used to prevent windlass &c from recoiling 2 vb trans To secure (wheel, capstan &c) with pawl pawn (I), n [1 pawn, 2 pā] ME poun, fr A Fr poun, op Span peón, Ital pedone, 'foot soldier, pawn', fr Lat pedōn (em), 'foot soldier', fr ped, stem of pēs, 'foot', see pedal (I) 1 Pieces of lowest rank in chess 2 (fig) a Unimportant person used by another as a cat's paw or humble agent in accomplishing his designs, b a cause, principle, subject, disputed between political parties, and advocated or opposed without real conviction, in order to make party capital pawn (II), n, fr O Fr pān, piece of cloth, flap &c, fr Lat pannus, 'piece, flap &c of cloth', cogn w O E fana, 'banner', see vane, the sense of 'pledge' prob comes fr Dn pand, op Germ pand 1 (archaic) Something entrusted to another as a pledge, guarantee, or security, for a loan 2 State of being pledged, esp in Phr in pawn pawn (III), vb trans, fr preo 1 To deposit with, surrender into the keeping of (a pawnbroker), as security for money advanced to pawn one's watch 2 (fig, rare) To risk, stake, hazard to pawn one's good name pawnbroker, n [1 pāvnbroker, 2 pāvnbrouk] Person who makes a business of lending money on interest, under licence, on the security of personal property, deposited with him as a pawn or pledge pawnbroking, n [1 pāvnbrouking, 2 pāvnbrouking] Pawnbroker's business pawnee (I), n [1 pāvna, 2 pān] pawn (III) & -ee Person who accepts a pawn pawnee (II), n [1 pāvna, 2 pān] Hind pāni, 'water', fr base seen in bibulous Chiefly in brandy pawnee, brandy and water pawnshop, n [1 pāvnaʃop, 2 pāvnaʃop] Place where pawnbroking is carried on pax, n [1 paks, 2 paks] Lat pax, 'peace', op Lat paciari, 'to make a treaty or agree ment', pangere, 'to join, make firm', (com)pages, 'fastening', pālis, 'post, stake', pagus, 'community, district, province', pagina, 'strips of papyrus fastened together, page' Cogn w Gk pēgnum, 'strengthening', pēgma, 'firm, strong', pāgos, 'something solid, hill, peak, frost', Goth fahan, O E fēn, 'to seize, receive', O HG fuoga, 'joint', O E feftan, 'to join', Goth fāhan, 'to satisfy', fagra, 'fitting, suitable', O E fager, 'beautiful' Aryan base *pāg-, *pāf-, 'to fix, join, unite' See further pacity, pago (II), pale (I), fair (II) 1 Small tablet of gold &c, bearing representation of Crucifixion, to which the priest gave the 'kiss of peace' at the Mass, and which was subsequently kissed by the congregation 2 (seebol slang, as interj) Used to call for a truce 3 In Phr pax Romana, peace maintained within the Roman Empire, pax vobis (cum) peace be with you paxwax, n [1 pākswaks, 2 pākswaks] Earlier fax wax, fr O E fæx, 'hair', & O E wear, stem of weazan, 'to grow', see wax (III), for the first element op O N fax, O S, O HG fahs, 'hair', O N fær (fr *fāheza), 'sheep' Cp further Lat perus, 'woolly', peden, 'comb', see peoten, pēlos, 'fleece' See also pecuniary (provin) Strong tendon supporting neck in mammals pay (I), vb trans & intrans [1 pā, 2 pē] ME pāyen, 'to satisfy, please, pay', fr O Fr payer, fr Lat pāre, 'to satisfy, appease, satisfy', fr pāc, stem of paz, 'peace', see pax A trans 1 a To give, hand over, to (a person) wages, salary, fee, due for services rendered or work done, to remunerate to pay one's servants, a teacher, the doctor, b to give a satisfactory, or agreed, equivalent in money to, for goods supplied to pay the corn merchant, one's tailor &c, Phr to pay (a person) in kind, hand over goods or material to, instead of money, to pay the piper, bear the expense of an undertaking &c 2 To discharge, extinguish, settle, by paying or handing over what is owing to pay one's debts, a bill, Phrs to pay the penalty, undergo punishment, pay the debt of nature, to die, also to pay wages, a salary &c, equiv to pay for, in Phr pay one's way, keep out of debt by paying regularly, pay (one's) expenses, make payment for such as are incurred, pay one's footing, make such payments, perform such services, as are required of a new member of a society or the like, poorly paid work, ill remunerated 3 To hand over, transfer, make payment of to pay money into the Exchequer, into one's account, to pay a hundred guineas for a horse 4 a To yield satisfactory returns to, produce profit for the enterprise will not pay you, b to be to one's advantage 1 submission will pay you better 5 To bestow, render, offer, voluntarily, a (without implying obligation) to pay attention to, court to, to pay a compliment to, to pay a call, visit, b to render as a duty to pay homage, pay one's respects B intrans 1 To make payment, discharge a debt &c it's no good bargaining, we shall have to pay Phr to pay through the nose, pay exorbitant price 2 a To yield adequate monetary returns, compensate for expense, effort it will never pay to work this mine, how to make farming pay, b to be profitable, as to one's advantage or interest it always pays to buy really good clothes, it doesn't pay to make oneself unpopular C Followed by adverbs or prepositions Pay away, a to expend, b (naut) to slacken and let out gradually to pay away a rope Pay back, a to return (money &c) which has been borrowed, b to return money &c to (a person), Phr to pay a man back in his own coin, treat him as he has treated oneself, give him tit for tat Pay off, a to pay wages of and discharge, b to settle (debt) by payment Pay out, a to punish, take revenge on, b to give out, disburse (money), c (naut) to pay away Pay up, to pay amount owing in full pay (II), n, fr O Fr pais, fr paiser, 'to pay' See preo Remuneration, salary, sum paid in return for services, specif a (in army and navy) remuneration paid to officers and men, b workman's wages Phr in the pay of, paid, employed by, often with derogatory meaning pay (III), vb trans, Pret & PP payed, fr A Fr payer, fr Lat pāre, 'to coat with pitch', fr pāc, stem of paz, 'pitch', op Gk pāra (fr *pāra), O Slav pāli, Lath pāis, 'pitch', op further Lat opimus, 'fat, rich', pinguis, 'fat', see pinguid, Gk pān, 'fat', O E fēth, 'fat', see fat, O N fēth, 'fat' (naut) To coat, smear, with pitch, tar &c to render waterproof payable, adj [1 pābl, 2 pēbl] pay (I) & -able 1 That must or may be paid, due 2 (of mine &c) Likely to be profitable pay-day, n Day on which payment is regularly made, esp of debts and wages payee, n [1 pā, 2 pē] pay (I) & -ee Person to whom payment is made payer, n [1 pā, 2 pē] See preo & -er Person who pays paymaster, n [1 pāmāster, 2 pāmāste] Officer, official, in army or navy, representative of employer & whose duty it is to pay troops, employees &c Paymaster-General, n An unpaid member of the Ministry, through whom all payments, civil and military, are made payment, n [1 pāmēt, 2 pāmēt] pay (I) & -ment 1 Act of paying, state of being paid 2 Amount paid 3 (fig) Reward, recompense, compensation paynim, n [1 pānm, 2 pēnm] ME pānm, fr O Fr pānime, fr L Lat paganismus, 'heathenism' See pagan & -ism (archaic) Heathen, pagan, esp applied to Moslems or Saracens during the Crusades payno, vb trans [1 pānz, 2 pēnz], fr Payne, inventor of process, & -ize To harden and preserve (wood) by Payno's process of injections of various chemicals pay office n The office of the Paymaster-General pay-roll, n (Am usage) Pay sheet paysage, n [1 pāzahz, 2 pēzahz] Fr, fr pays, 'country, country side' See peasant & -age a Country scene, landscape, b landscape painting pay-sheet, n Last of names of employees, workmen &c to be paid, with amount of wages &c due to each pea, n [1 pē, 2 pī] Back formation, fr poase, vb was regarded as pl 1 Leguminous, mostly annual, plant with climbing stems furnished with tendrils, bearing white or coloured flowers followed by seeds enclosed in peas; some varieties are cultivated for the seeds, which are edible, others for the sake of the bright, sweet scented bloom 2 Seed of this plant, usually cooked for food while green, split peas, dried peas with outer skin removed, used for soup &c Phr as like as two peas, exactly alike peace, n [1 pēs, 2 pi:] ME pes, pais, fr A Fr pēs, O Fr pais, fr Lat pācem, nom pāx, 'peace' see pax 1 Cessation of, freedom from, strife, warfare to decide between war and peace, to make peace, bring about peace, to cease from war, the piping times of peace, peace at any price 2 (usually asp) Treaty of peace between hostile nations 3 (of external conditions) a Freedom from civil disorder, disturbance, agitation, tranquillity the peace, the king's peace, maintenance of order by laws of land to keep the peace, a breach of the peace, b quiet, tranquillity, concord, freedom from strife, controversy or agitation an air of peace lay over the scene, to disturb the peace of the household, Phrs at peace, in a state of quiet, to hold one's peace, keep silent, to make one's peace with, be reconciled with, c freedom from interruption, disturbance, annoyance do let me have a little peace at last 4 Mental calm, serenity of mind peaceable, adj [1 pēsabl, 2 pi:] Prec & -able 1 Quiet, tranquil, disposed for peace, not quarrelsome 2 At peace, not in a state of war or disorder peaceableness, n See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being peaceable peaceably, adv See prec & -ly In a peaceable manner peaceful, adj [1 pēsfool, 2 pi:] peace & -ful a Characterized by, obarsotensio of, in a state of, peace, calm, free from agitation or disorder a peaceful land, people, a peaceful death, b exhibiting, suggesting, calm and quietness, serene, smiling a peaceful scene, landscape peacefully, adv See prec & -ly In a peaceful manner peacefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being peaceful peacemaker, n [1 pēsmaiker, 2 pi:] 1 One who makes, brings about, peace, or effects reconciliation 2 (facet) Instrument for keeping the peace, e.g. revolver, warship peace-offering, n a Something offered as an overture to peace, or as a means of bringing about reconciliation, b (Bib) thank offering to God peace-pipe, n More commonly pipe of peace, pipe smoked as sign of peace among N American Indians, calumet peach (I), n [1 pēch, 2 pi:] ME pēche, fr O Fr pesche, fr L Lat persica, 'peach', fr Lat Persicum (mālum), 'Persian (apple)', fr Pers (ia), 'Persia' See Persian & -ic 1 a Large roundish fruit, with velvety creamy or yellowish skin, tinged with red, with sweet, luscious, very juicy flesh, and a large rough stone, b tree bearing this fruit, also peach tree 2 (elang) A fresh, beautiful young girl peach (II), vb intrans Earlier appeach, fr O Fr empecher, 'to appeal against' See unpeach (elang) To inform against an accomplice (followed by against, upon) peach-bloom, peach-blow, n Kind of pale pinkish glaze on pottery and porcelain peach-brandy, n Spirit distilled from peaches, including the stones and kernels peach-colour, n Soft, clear, pale red peachuck, n [1 pēchik, 2 pi:] Young peacock or peahen peachiness, n [1 pēchmes, 2 pi:] See next word & -ness Quality of being peachy peachy, adj [1 pēch, 2 pi:] peach (I) & -y Of the colour or texture of a peach peacock (I), n [1 pēkok, 2 pi:] fr O E pāwa, pāa, fr Lat pāo, 'peacock', see pavonine, & cock Large, gallinaceous, crested bird, Pavo cristatus, the male of which has bright-coloured iridescent plumage, and a long tail the feathers of which are yellowish brown with large dark blue spots (eyes), and capable of being raised and spread out like a fan, the bird is often taken as a type of vanity and display Phr proud as a peacock peacock (II), vb intrans, fr prec To strut about, give oneself airs, show off, to make a display in personal adornment, assume airs of intellectual superiority peacock-blue, n Bright, lustrous blue colour, similar to that in plumage of peacock's neck peacock-butterfly, n Butterfly, Fanessa lo, with eye-like spots on its wings, resembling those on a peacock's tail peacock-coal, n Iridescent variety of coal peacockery, n [1 pēkokeri, 2 pi:] peacock & -ery Ostentatious behaviour peacockish, adj [1 pēkokish, 2 pi:] peacock & -ish Like, obarsotensio of, a peacock, vain, ostentatious peacocklike, adj [1 pēkoklik, 2 pi:] See prec & -like Like a peacock, esp in vanity peacocky, adj [1 pēkokn, 2 pi:] peacock & -y a Like a peacock in colour, b inclined to strut and swagger pea-flour, n pea & flour Meal made of dried peas peafowl, n [1 pēfool, 2 pi:] fr O E pāa, 'peacock', see peacock, & fowl Peacock or peahen pea-green, adj See pea & green Light, bright, green, of the colour of young pea-pods peahen, n [1 pēhen, 2 pi:] See peacock & hen Female of peacock pea-jacket, n, fr earlier pee, fr M Dn pie, Mod Dn py, 'pea jacket' Sailor's short square cut, double breasted overcoat of thick, rough cloth peak (I), n [1 pēk, 2 pi:] Variant of pike (I) 1 a Pointed top or end, esp sharply tapering summit of mountain &c, b highest point, degree, volume (of traffic &c) 2 Projecting point or edge, tapering projection the peak of a cap 3 (naut) a Narrowed part of hull or hold, at bow, b outer, upper corner of sail extended by gaff peak (II), vb intrans Orig doubtful To waste away, grow thin and weak, esp in Phr to peak and pine peak (III), vb trans & intrans, fr apeak (nant) 1 trans a To raise in vertical direction, tilt upwards, b to raise vertically, place apeak to peak cars, c (of whale) to raise (tail) in the air 2 intrans (of whale) To raise tail when diving perpendicularly peaked (I), adj [1 pēkt, 2 pi:] peak (I) & -ed Having, ending in, a peak peaked (II), adj, fr PP of peak (II). Thin, pinched, emaciated peaky, adj [1 pēk, 2 pi:] 1 peak (I) & -y Having, ending in, forming, a peak 2 peak (II) & -y Having a drawn, emaciated appearance peal (I), n [1 pēl, 2 pi:] Prob fr appeal 1 a Loud, prolonged ringing of bell(s), esp b changes rung on a set of bells, Phr muffled peal, with bells muffled 2 Set of bells tuned to each other, chime, carillon 3 Loud, prolonged, reverberant sound a peal of thunder, laughter &c peal (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To ring, resound, loudly, of bells, also peal out 2 trans a To cause to ring loudly and clearly to peal a bell, b also peal out, to utter sonorously, cause to resound peanut, n [1 pēnut, 2 pi:] pea & nut 1 Trailing plant with yellow flowers, producing edible seeds ripened underground in very brittle pods 2 Oily, nut-like, edible seed of this plant pear, n [1 pēr, 2 pi:] O E perre, ME pēre, fr L Lat pīra, fr Lat pīrum, 'pear', pīrus, 'pear tree' Etymol doubtful a fruit, oval in shape, and tapering towards the stem, having a sweet and very juicy flesh, b tree of Pyrus communis producing this fruit pearl (I), n [1 pēr, 2 pi:] fr Fr perle, fr Med. Lat perla, etymol unknown. 1 Lustrous calcareous concretion, usually white or pale bluish grey, formed in shell of various molluscs, esp of the pearl-oyster, often possessing great value, seed pearl, small specimen Phr to cast (one's) pearls before swine; offer valuable thing to one who cannot appreciate it 2 a Anything resembling a pearl in size, shape, and lustre, e.g. tear, dew-drop, b small fragment, granule, globule, of various substances 3 (fig) a Anything precious, highly valued, b person who possesses to a high degree the most admired qualities of a class &c a pearl among women 4 (typog) Pearl type, smallest size of type but one, of those commonly made, about 16 lines of it go to the inch pearl (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To cause to resemble pearls in shape, colour &c, b to bespangle with pearl like drops pearled with dew 2 intrans a To fish for pearls, b to form small, round drops pearl (III), n Prob a variant of puri (I) One of a series of loops forming edging for lace &c pearl-ash, n Carbonate of potassium, crude potash of white, pearly appearance pearl-barley, n Barley with outer coat removed, and reduced by rubbing to small round pearly grains pearl-button, n Button made of mother-of-pearl pearl-diver, n One who dives for pearl oysters pearled, adj [1 pērd, 2 pi:] pearl & -ed Adorned, set, with pearls pearl-fisher, n One who fishes for pearls pearl-fishery, n a Occupation of pearl fisher, b place where this is carried on pearliness, n [1 pērlnes, 2 pi:] pearly & -ness Quality of being pearly pearl-mussel, n A fresh-water mussel, Uniona margaritiferus, which produces small pearls pearl-oyster, n Large marine oyster of tropical seas, genus Ancula or Melograna, yielding pearls pearl-powder, n Cosmetic used to whiten the skin pearl-shell, n Mother-of-pearl pearly, adj [1 pērli, 2 pi:] pearl (I) & -y 1 a Like a pearl in colour or lustre, b made of, lined with pearl 2 As n pi pearls, (colloq) large pearl-buttons, as formerly worn by costermongers pearman, n [1 pērmān, pērmān, 2 pi:] pearmen, pāmen, fr O Fr perman, prob fr Lat Pārmānus*, 'of Parma' Class of apple, the best known of which is the Forester Pear man, a medium sized red apple ripening in September pear-shaped, adj Shaped like a pear, i.e. of an elongated, rapidly tapering oval pear tree, n Tree producing pears, esp Pyrus communis peasant, n [1 pēzant, 2 pi:] (ant) fr A Fr peasant, fr O Fr pais, Mod Fr pays, 'country', fr Lat pāgensis, 'of a province or canton', fr pāgus, 'district, canton, village', see pagan & cp paysage a Countryman, villager, rustic, specif b one who cultivates a small piece of ground which he owns, peasant proprietorship, system of agriculture based on ownership and cultivation of small plots by peasants peasantry, n [1 pēzantri, 2 pi:] Prec & -ry a Body or group of peasants, b peasants as a class pease, n [1 pēz, 2 pi:] O E pease, 'pea', ME peas, fr L Lat pīsa, fr Lat pīsum, 'pea', fr Gk pīsos, 'pea', prob a loan-word, of unknown origin Peas, esp in pease-pudding, mashed peas boiled peasecod, n [1 pēzkod, 2 pi:] ME pēscodde, prec & O E codd, 'husk, shell', see cod (II), cp Du lodde, ON lodd, 'bag' (arbaio) Pea pod pea-shooter, n Tube through which dried peas are blown as missiles pea-soup, n Thick soup made from peas, esp from dried peas, otherwise green pea soup pea-souper, n. [1 pē sōpər, 2 pl ēdpə]. (colloq.) Thick yellow fog (esp. in London).

pea-soupy, adj. [1 pē sōpī, 2 pl ēdipi] (of fog) Thick and yellow.

peat, n. [1 pēt, 2 pīt] ME pēte, etymol. doubtful. 1 Spongy substance, from 20 to 40 feet in depth, chiefly formed by a partial carbonization of various kinds of mosses, found in certain moist areas in Great Britain, Ireland, and other temperate climates, peat is cut in turves or divots, and used as fuel, and as a fertilizer. 2 Single rectangular block of this, a turf.

peat-bog, n. Bog in which peat is formed.

peatery, n. [1 pēteri, 2 pītəri] peat & -ery. Place where peat is dug.

peat-moss, n. 1 Peat bog. 2 Kind of moss which composes peat.

peat-reek, n. 1 Smoke from peat fire. 2 Flavour characteristic of whisky distilled over a peat fire.

peaty, adj. [1 pēti, 2 pītī] peat & -y. Composed of, resembling, smelling of, peat.

pebble, n. [1 pēbl, 2 pēbl] OE has papōl (stān), the formal connexion between wh & ME pōdel & pēbl is not clear, origin unknown. 1 Small stone rounded by action of water, ice &c. 2 A rock crystal used for lenses of spectacles &c. 3 b lens made from this. 3 Kind of agate.

pebbly, adj. [1 pēbli, 2 pēbli] Preo & -ly. Abounding in pebbles. pebbly beach.

pébrine, n. [1 pēbrē, 2 pēbrī] Fr, fr Provenç pēbrino, fr pēbre, 'pepper', fr Lat piper, 'pepper'. See pepper. Bacterial disease affecting silkworms.

pecan, n. [1 pēkən, 2 pēkən] fr Fr pacane, fr native N Am Indian word. A kind of hickory of the South and Central United States, b its olive shaped edible fruit, pecan-nut.

peccability, n. [1 pēkəbiliti, 2 pēkəbiliti] See next word & -ity. State of being peccable.

peccable, adj. [1 pēkəbl, 2 pēkəbl] fr Med Lat peccābilis (us), 'peccable', fr Lat peccāre, 'to sin', see peccavi, & -able. Liable to sin.

peccadillo, n. [1 pēkədīlō, 2 pēkədīlōw] fr Span peccadillo, dimin. of peccado, 'sin', fr Lat peccāre um, PP of peccāre, 'to sin'. See peccavi. Trivial irregularity of conduct, slight, unimportant offence, an indiscretion.

peccancy, n. [1 pēkənsi, 2 pēkənsi] fr Lat peccantia, 'sin'. See peccant & -cy. 1 Sinfulness. 2 A sin, transgression. 3 (med. of disease) Morbid condition.

peccant, adj. [1 pēkənt, 2 pēkənt] fr Lat peccant (em), Preo Part of Lat peccāre (are), 'to sin', see peccavi, & -ant. 1 A sinful, erring, criminal, b wrong, erroneous. 2 (med.) Morbid, indicating or causing disease.

peccary, n. [1 pēkəri, 2 pēkəri] Native gacra, prob. fr Port bacora, 'young pig'. Gregarious, pig-like quadruped of America, ranging from Texas to northern parts of S America.

peccavi, vb intrans & n. [1 pēkāvī, 2 pēkāvī] Lat peccāvi, 'I have sinned', Preo of peccāre, 'to sin', etymol. doubtful. 1 vb I have sinned, esp. in Phr to cry 'peccavi', to admit guilt. 2 n A confession of guilt.

peck (I), n. [1 pek, 2 pek] ME pekke, fr O Fr pel, etymol. doubtful. 1 Measure of capacity for dry goods, two gallons quarter of bushel. 2 Vessel holding one peck. 3 Large amount, quantity. a peck of dirt, of troubles.

peck (II), vb trans & intrans, prob. variant of pick. A trans. 1 a (of bird) To strike, prick, with beak, b (of persons) to kiss hurriedly and perfunctorily. 2 To make by pecking. to peck a hole. 3 To obtain, pluck out, by pecking. to peck something out of a hole. 4 (slang) To eat rapidly and in small quantities. B intrans. 1 Peck at, to am at, strike at, thing with beak. 2 To strike, break, (esp. the ground) with a pointed instrument. 3 Peck at (one's food), to make a perfunctory meal.

peck (III), n. fr preo. 1 A stroke made with beak or pointed object, b a hurried kiss. 2 Mark or wound made by pecking.

pecker, n. [1 pēker, 2 pēka] peck (II) & -er. 1 Bird that pecks holes in trees, usually in combination, as woodpecker. 2 Pointed instrument, pick. 3 (slang) The beak, the human nose. Phr to keep one's pecker up, not to lose heart, keep up one's spirits.

peckish, adj. [1 pēkish, 2 pēkī] peck (II) & -ish (colloq.) Hungry.

Pecksniff, n. [1 pēksnīf, 2 pēksnīf] Character in Dickens's Martin Chuzzlewit. A stingy, pompous humbug, an unctuous, unprincipled hypocrite who affects airs of piety, and preaches morality and benevolence while practising the reverse.

Pecora, n. pl [1 pēkōra, 2 pēkōra] Lat, 'cattle', pl of pecus. See pecten & pecuniary (zool). Term used for the large group of ruminant, ungulate mammals, which includes oxen, sheep, goats, antelopes, deer &c.

pecten, n. [1 pēkten, 2 pēkten] Lat pecten, 'comb', op pectere, 'to comb', pecus, 'cattle, flock', lit 'fleecey, hairy thing', pecus, 'woolly', oogn w Gk pektēn, pektēn, 'to comb, to shear', pōlos, 'uncombed wool, a fleece', OHG fahs, OE feaz, 'har', ON faz, 'mane', Lat pectis, 'to pull out one's hair', Sort pālmān, 'eyebrows', Pers palm, 'wool', op pashm. See further pecuniary (zool). 1 Any organ or process which suggests the teeth of a comb in appearance, specif. one in the eye of birds and reptiles. 2 Genus of marine bivalve molluscs, including the scallop.

pectic, adj. [1 pēktik, 2 pēktik] See next word & -ic. Ol, pertaining to, composed of, pectin.

pectin, n. [1 pēktin, 2 pēktin] fr Gk pektis (de), 'fixed, constructed, put together, coagulated, curdled', fr pektēn, 'I make fast, make solid', op Sort payrd, 'solid', oogn w Lat (com) pāgēre, 'fastening', pāz, 'peace', see pax & words there referred to, for the suff. see -in (chem) A gelatinous substance found in some fruits, which causes jelly to form in jam.

pectinate, adj. [1 pēktinat, 2 pēktinat] fr Lat pectin, see pecten, & -ate. Shaped like, having teeth like, a comb.

pectinated, adj. [1 pēktinētid, 2 pēktinētid] Preo & -ed. Pectinate.

pectination, n. [1 pēktināshun, 2 pēktinēshun] See preo & -ion. 1 State of being pectinated. 2 Comb-like process.

pectoral, adj. & n. [1 pēktoral, 2 pēktoral] fr Lat pectoralis (us), 'pectoral', fr pector, stem of pectus, 'breast', oogn w Sort pāldat, 'side, half, shoulder, wing'. 1 adj A Connected with, pertaining to, the breast. pectoral muscles, arch &c, pectoral fins, the pair of fins of a fish just behind the gills, corresponding to the forelimbs of animals, b good for, designed to cure, diseases of the chest. pectoral balsam, o worn on the breast. pectoral cross, small gold cross, worn by bishops. 2 n A Ornament worn on the breast, specif. breast plate of Jewish high priest, b (pl) pectoral fins.

pectose, n. [1 pēktōs, 2 pēktōs] fr Gk pektis (de), 'coagulated', see pectin, & -ose (chem) Substance related to cellulose, easily changing into pectin.

pecculate, vb intrans [1 pēkylāt, 2 pēkylēt] fr Lat pecculāt (um), PP type of peculiar, 'to embezzle public money', fr peccil (um), 'private property'. See peculiar. To appropriate to one's own use money held in trust for others.

peculation, n. [1 pēkylāshun, 2 pēkylētshun] Preo & -ion. Act of peculating or embezzling, embezzlement.

peculiar (I), adj. [1 pēkūlar, 2 pēkūlār] fr Lat peculiaris (us), 'of, relating to, private property, one's own, special, peculiar', fr pecū (um), 'private property', fr pecu (e), 'cattle, property'. See pecuniary & pecten. 1 Belonging to no other, forming an exclusive possession, individual. ideas peculiar to oneself, one's own peculiar temperament, to have peculiar privileges, peculiar people, (1) the Jews, (2) the elect of God, (3) (esp.) Protestant sect, founded 1838, relying in illness on prayer and anointing. 2 Special, particular, of distinct character, marked. to receive peculiar attention. 3 Unusual, odd, uncommon, singular. a peculiar sort of man, peculiar behaviour, to look peculiar.

peculiar (II), n. fr preo. 1 Peculiar possession, property, privilege &c. 2 (eccles.) Church or parish exempt from jurisdiction of the bishop in whose diocese it is situated.

peculiarity, n. [1 pēkūliāriti, 2 pēkūliāriti] See preo & -ity. 1 Quality of being peculiar, distinctiveness. 2 Something which is peculiar or distinctive, a characteristic property or quality, distinguishing feature of mind, body, character &c. 3 Characteristic oddity, strangeness of appearance, habit &c., eccentricity. to affect peculiarity in dress, he has certain little peculiarities of manner which many resent.

peculiarly, adv. [1 pēkūliārli, 2 pēkūliārli] peculiar (I) & -ly. 1 Individually, personally, as far as one is oneself concerned. to be peculiarly interested in an affair. 2 Specially, to a marked degree. peculiarly sensitive to ridicule. 3 In a strange manner, oddly, queerly. to behave peculiarly.

pecuniarily, adv. [1 pēkūniārli, 2 pēkūniārli] See next word & -ly. In a pecuniary manner, as regards, from point of view of, money.

pecuniary, adj. [1 pēkūniārī, 2 pēkūniārī] fr Lat pecuniāri (us), 'of money', fr pecūnia, 'property, riches, money', fr pecu (e), 'cattle', hence 'property, possessions', op OHG fihu, OE fiah, 'cattle, property', Goth faihu, 'property, money', see fee, Sort pāsh, 'cattle'. See further under peculiar & pecten. Connected with, pertaining to, consisting of, money. pecuniary affairs, pecuniary assistance, losses, considerations &c, pecuniary offence, one involving a pecuniary penalty, entailing a fine.

pedagogue (a), adj. [1 pēdagōgik(i), 2 pēdagōgik(i)] 2 pēdagōgik(i), pēdagōgik(i) pēdagōgus & -ic & -al. Ol, pertaining to, pedagogy.

pedagogically, adv. Preo & -ly. In a pedagogic manner, as a pedagogue.

pedagogics, n. [1 pēdagōgiks, 2 pēdagōgiks, -gōdiks] See preo. Science of teaching, pedagogy.

pedagog(u)ism, n. [1 pēdagōgizum, 2 pēdagōgizum, -gōdizum] See next word & -ism. State of being a pedagogue, pedagogic character, usually with implication of pedantry.

pedagogue, n. [1 pēdagōg, 2 pēdagōg] fr O Fr, fr Lat paedagog (us), 'slave in charge of children, governor, preceptor, pedant', fr Gk paedagogōs, 'slave who escorted children to school &c', preceptor, tutor, fr paid, stem of pais, 'boy, child', see paid & agōgōs, 'guide, leader', fr agōn, 'to lead, convey, bring, to carry out', oogn w Lat agere, 'to do, perform', see agent & Teacher, schoolmaster, b a pedantic fellow who carries the manner of a schoolmaster into ordinary life and perpetually endeavours to instruct. pedagogy, n. [1 pēdagōgi, 2 pēdagōgi, -gōdiz] fr Lat, fr Gk paedagogia, 'attendance on children, education', fr paedagog (us), 'children's attendant'. See preo & -y. Science of teaching.

pedal (I), adj. [1 pēdl, 2 pēdl] fr Lat pedāl (is), 'of a foot', fr ped, stem of pēs, 'foot', op, w different grade, Gk pod (us), gent. of pous, 'foot', see -pod, Sort pā, see pādam, 'foot', pādam, 'footmark'.

Goth. fōtus; O E fēt, 'foot', see foot. From ped-* grade are Gk pedā, 'after, 1st on the track of', pēdon, 'ground', Lith pedā, 'track', O Slav pěši, 'ground', O N fet, 'step'; O E fetan, 'to fetch', see fetch (I). Pertaining to a foot or foot, (chiefly root) pedal extremities, the foot, pedal ganglia, of molluscs &c pedal (II), n [1 pédāl, 2 pédāl], fr Fr, fr Ital pedale, fr Lat Scio pro A lever of various kinds worked by the foot, esp the projecting part of such on which the foot rests. Specif 1 Lever or projecting part of such worked by the foot and used to transmit power or movement to a machine, treadle, as of bicycle, lathe, sewing-machine. 2 (of organ &c) a One of the wooden keys of the keyboard worked by the foot, contrasted with manual, b lever worked by the foot acting as a combination of stops and for other purposes; c foot lever for working the wind for harmonium &c. 3 (of pianoforte) Either of two levers, one of which raises the dampers and increases and sustains the tone, loud pedal, the other muffling the hammers and strings, soft pedal. 4 (mus) Sustained note, usually in the bass, through several harmonies pedal (III), vb intrans & trans, fr pro 1 intrans a To use the pedals, of organ, pianoforte &c, b to progress by working pedals of bicycle, to ride a bicycle to pedal up a hill, along a road 2 trans To work, drive, by pedals to pedal a bicycle &c pedant, n [1 pédant, 2 pédant] Fr, fr Ital pedante, the first element of which is seen in pedagogue 1 One who makes an inappropriate display of learning, one who, through defect in sense of proportion, attaches exaggerated importance to trifling or irrelevant details of scholarship and method, one who is inclined so to interpret formulae that the letter kills the spirit, and to sacrifice principles to verbal niceties and to interpretation of rules &c. 2 Person obsessed by particular theory, a doctrinaire, a crank pedantic, adj [1 pédantik, 2 pédantik] Pro & -to Pertaining to, like, characteristic of, a pedant, or of pedantry pedantically, adv [1 pédantikal; 2 pédantikal] Pro & -al & -ly In a pedantic manner pedantry, n [1 pédantri, 2 pédantri] pedant & -ry 1 Quality of being pedantic. 2 Pedantic mode of thought and expression pedate, adj [1 pédāt, 2 pédōit], fr Lat pédāt-(us), fr ped, stem of pēs, 'foot', see pedal, & -ato 1 (zool) a Having feet, b resembling, used as, foot 2 (bot, of leaf) Divided like foot peddle, vb intrans & trans [1 pédāl, 2 pédāl] Prob back-formation fr pedlar 1 intrans a To carry on the business of a pedlar, b (fig) to busy oneself about trifles, engage in petty, useless pursuits. 2 trans (lit & fig) To retail (goods or gossip) in a small way peddling, adj [1 pédāling, 2 pédāling], fr Pro Part of pro Small-minded, preoccupied by trifles, trumpery, unimportant, pettyfoggish peddling details pederasty, n See paederasty pedestal, n & vb trans [1 pédestal, 2 pédestal], fr Fr pédestal, fr Ital piedestallo for piede di stallo, 'foot of a seat', fr Lat basis ped-, 'foot', see pedal, & stallo, see stall (I) 1 n a Base of a large column, statue &c. b small column, or other support, e.g. for a bust, statue &c. Phr to set (a person) upon a pedestal, regard him as a superior being, c either of the two supports, often fitted with drawers, of a lace hole desk or table, d support, foundation (bt and fig) 2 vb To set on a pedestal pedestrian (I), adj [1 pédēstran, 2 pédēstran], fr Lat pēdēstri-(s), nom pēdēster, 'on foot', n, 'person on foot, foot soldier', fr ped, 'foot', see pedal, & -ian 1 Connected with walking, performed on foot:

pedestrian exercise. 2 (of style and literary composition) Hasty, unpolished, not bearing evidence of special care, having appearance of being composed during the ordinary round of business, house, mechanical, unimpaired pedestrian (II), n, fr pro Person on foot, a walker, foot-passenger pedestrianism, n [1 pédēstriānizm, 2 pédēstriānizm] Pro & -ism Art or practice of walking pedestrianize, vb intrans [1 pédēstriāniz, 2 pédēstriāniz] See pro & -ize To go on foot pedicel, n [1 pédicel, 2 pédicel], as fr Lat pedicell*-(us), dimin, usual form is pedicel-(us), 'a little foot' See pedicle 1 (bot) Small, secondary stalk supporting single flower in inflorescence. 2 (zool) Small stalk-like structure in animal pedicellate, adj [1 pédicēlāt, 2 pédicēlāt] Pro & -ate Having, supported by, like, a pedicel pedicle, n [1 pédikl, 2 pédikl], fr Lat pedicell-(us), 'little foot, foot-stalk of flower or leaf', dimin of ped, 'foot' See pedal & -cule Pedicel pedicular, adj [1 pédikular, 2 pédikular], fr Lat pedicular-(is), 'pedicular', fr pédiculus, 'louse', dimin of pēda, 'louse', perh 'the runner', fr base pēda*, 'foot', see pedal Pertaining to, infested with, louse pediculate, adj [1 pédikulat, 2 pédikulat], fr Lat pedicell-(us), 'a little foot' See pedicle & -ate Pedicellate pediculosis, n [1 pédikūlōsis, 2 pédikūlōsis], fr Lat pedicell-(us), 'louse' See pedicular & -osis (med) Affection of the skin characterized by itching, caused by louse pediculous, adj [1 pédikūlus, 2 pédikūlus], fr Lat pedicell-(us), 'louse', fr pedicell-(us), 'louse' See pedicular & -ous Pediculous pedigree, n [1 pédigrē; 2 pédigrē] Earlier pedigree, prob fr Fr pieu de grue, 'crane's foot', fr shape of mark (A) indicating descent from ancestor, as used in genealogical tables, fr Lat ped, 'foot', see pedal, & de, 'of', & grue, 'crane', fr Lat grūs, 'crane', q.v. under crane (I) 1 Genealogical table. 2 (of person or animal) a Genealogy, ancestry, descent, specif b ancient lineage a family of pedigree. 3 (of word) Derivation, etymology. 4 (attrib) Having a known pedigree pedigree herd, cattle &c pedigreed, adj [1 pédigrēd, 2 pédigrēd] Pro & -ed Having a pedigree, having a known line of descent pediment, n [1 pédiment, 2 pédiment] Supposed by Skeat to be for periment, a re-fashioning of pyramid, perh influenced by (im) pedimentum, the Lat term fastigium (class archit) Triangular structure often richly sculptured, forming the gable or end of a two-pitched roof, any structure resembling this in form, in later architecture pedimental, adj [1 pédimentāl, 2 pédimentāl] Pro & -al Of, forming, shaped like, a pediment pedimented, adj [1 pédimentēd, 2 pédimentēd] pediment & -ed Having, crowned by, a pediment pedlar, n [1 pédlar, 2 pédlar] Pedlere in 14th cent., evidently connected w ME pedder &c, 'pedlar, a fish-hawker', fr pid, an old word for basket, esp one for fish, the origin of which is unknown 1 Licensed itinerant vendor of miscellaneous small wares, which he carries about in a pack. 2 (fig) Retailer of gossip &c pedlary, n [1 pédlari, 2 pédlari] Pro & -ry 1 Occupation of a pedlar. 2 Pedlar's wares pedo- See paedo-

pedometer, n [1 pédōmētēr; 2 pédōmētēr], fr Lat ped, stem of pēs, 'foot' See pedal & -meter Instrument worn on the person which records the distance walked by the wearer peduncle, n [1 pédūngkl; 2 pédūngkl] fr Lat ped, stem of pēs, 'foot', see pedal, & -uncle 1 (bot) Stem of a plant which supports the flower. 2 (zool) Stalk-like connection or process peduncular, adj [1 pédūngkular, 2 pédūngkular] Pro & -ar Of, pertaining to, like, a peduncle pedunculate, adj [1 pédūngkulāt, 2 pédūngkulāt] peduncle & -ate Having, supported by, a peduncle peek, vb, intrans [1 pēk; 2 pēk] Etymol doubtful, ME has pika, op peop (III) To peep, peer, esp peek in, out peek-a-boo, n [1 pēk a bū, 2 pēk a bū] Children's game, bo-peep peel (I), n [1 pēl, 2 pēl] ME, fr O Fr pēl, 'palisade, fort', fr Lat pālīs, 'a stake' See pale (I) Small, ancient, square tower, used as fortress and dwelling house, built on Scottish borders peel (II), n, fr O Fr pēla, fr Lat pēla, 'spade', see palette Baker's thin, long-handled shovel for removing bread &c from oven peel (III), vb trans & intrans O E pihan, ME pēlen, 'strip off', fr Lat piliare, 'to take the hair off', see pill (III) A trans 1 To strip off skin or rind of to peel an apple, stick &c. 2 To strip off, remove to peel the bark off a tree &c. B intrans 1 Often peel off, to come off in strips, become detached from, said of any thin outer covering the bark, plaster, paper &c. is peeling (off), also b of that which sheds its surface covering in strips the walls are peeling, are losing their plaster or paper. 2 (slang) To undress, strip peel (IV), n, fr pro Outer skin, rind, of fruit, candied peel, of citron, orange, or lemon peeler, n [1 pēler, 2 pēler], fr Sir Robert Peel, d 1850. 1 (obs, colloq) Policeman. 2 (hist) Member of Irish Constabulary founded by Peel, 1812-18

Peelite, n [1 pēlit, 2 pēlit], fr Sir Robert Peel & -ite Adherent of Peel at time of repeal of Corn laws in 1846 peen, n & vb trans [1 pēn, 2 pēn] Cp Norw pen, Mod Germ pinne, in same sense, origin doubtful. 1 n That end of the head of a hammer which has a blunt wedge shaped edge, opposite to the face, used in working stone &c. 2 vb To work on, bend, straighten, with the peen of a hammer peep (I), vb intrans [1 pēp, 2 pēp] Imitative of sound, perh associated w pipe (II) To chirp, cheep, squeak, esp of young birds or mice peep (II), n, fr pro Thus, high pitched sound as of young bird, mouse &c., squeak, chirp peep (III), vb intrans, etymol doubtful, prob variant of peek 1 To look hastily, to obtain a hurried glimpse, to peer secretly, furtively, cautiously to peep out of a window, to peep through a hedge, to peep over a wall 2 a To come gradually into view, begin to appear 'The little window where the sun came peeping in at morn' (Hood); the stars were beginning to peep, b (of character, qualities) become manifest, be revealed, emerge involuntarily the inherent meanness of the man was always peeping out peep (IV), n, fr pro 1 Restricted view, glimpse, esp something seen between, or over the top of intervening obstacles to get a peep of open country between the mountains, a peep of the sea over the house roofs 2 Furtive, cautious glance, hurried look of inspection let me have just one peep at the letter 3 First appearance, esp in Phr peep of day, dawn Phr Peep-of-Day Boys, Irish Protestant society (1784) which visited houses of Roman Catholics at daybreak in search of arms peeper (I), n [1 pēper, 2 pēper] peep (I) & -er Bird, animal &c that peeps, esp a young bird peeper (II), n peep (III) & -er 1 One who peeps. 2 (slang) The eye peep-hole n. Small opening, crevice, in a wall, door &c. through which one may peep at what is on the other side peep-show, n. Miniature exhibition of pictures &c. seen through small hole fitted with lens peepul, n. See pipal.

peer (I.), n. [1 pēr, 2 pīa]. M.E. fr O Fr pēr(e), fr Lat pār, 'equal', see par (I.) 1 Person or thing of equal merit, quality, rank &c with another 'Lyndas is dead Young Lyndas, and hath not left his peer' (Milton, Lyc 89), without a peer, unequalled, one's peers, persons of same rank and standing as oneself 2 One entitled to sit in the House of Lords a by hereditary right, peer of the realm, b as a peer of Parliament, i fr peer, e g certain of the bishops, and the Lords of Appeal; c member of the Scottish peerage, who cannot sit in House of Lords unless elected as a representative peer, member of Irish peerage, who cannot now sit at all in House of Lords unless he is also in one of the other categories Temporal Peers, all peers other than bishops, contrasted with Spiritual Peer, a bishop sitting in House of Lords peer (II.) vb trans & intrans, fr M.E. peren, fr O Fr perer, fr Lat. parāre, 'to make equal', fr pār, 'equal', see par (I.) (rarely or never used) 1 trans a To equal, rank with, come up to; b to make a peer 2 intrans. To be equal in rank, quality &c (followed by with) peer (III.), vb intrans. Origin unknown To look closely, narrowly, stare, gaze fixedly and with attention to peer into a person's face, peering down a well, (also fig) the sun peered through the clouds peerage, n. [1 pēr, 2 pīadž] peer (I.) & -age. 1 Body of peers considered collectively 2 Rank of peer 3 Book containing list of peers and their lineage peeress, n. [1 pēas, 2 pīas] peer (I.) & -ess. A Wife of peer, b woman holding a hereditary peerage peerless, adj [1 pēas, 2 pīas] peer (I.) & -less. Without peer, unequalled, matchless, unique peerlessly, adv Peer & -ly In a peerless manner peerlessness n. See peer & -ness Quality of being peerless peer, vb trans [1 pēr, 2 pīv] Back-formation fr next word (slang) To annoy, make peevish, esp in P.P. peered.

peevish, adj [1 pēvish, 2 pīv] M.E. perveche &c, perh variant of perverse (Weekley) 1 (obs or archaic) Malignant, perverse, churlish 2 Fretful, irritable, querulous, cantankerous peevishly, adv Peer & -ly In a peevish manner peevishness, n. See peer & -ness State, quality, of being peevish peewit, n. See peewit.

peg (I.), n. [1 pēg, 2 pēg] M.E. pegge, cp LG pygge, 'spike', Du dual peg, 'nail' 1 Small, usually rounded, pin or bolt of wood or metal used to fasten pieces of framework together Phr square peg in round hole, person unfitted to his position 2 Wooden or metal pin driven into and projecting from a surface and used as a hold, or support, a one fastened into a wall hat peg &c, b one driven into the ground to hold something in position tent peg; c clothes-peg, cleft stick clipped over a line, to support linen hung up to dry, d (fig) subject, theme; pretext, upon which a discourse argument &c is based a good peg to hang a sermon on 3 Wooden screw with flattened end, passing through holes in head of violin, or other instrument of this class, by means of which the strings are tightened. 4 Small pointed piece of wood, ivory &c for marking score at cribbage 5 A drink, esp whisky or brandy, and soda, king's peg, brandy and champagne, probably from the small pegs formerly projecting from the internal sides of tankards to indicate the amount of liquor, from this fact also the Phr to take a person down a peg, to drink more than he does, hence, to destroy his self-conceit, lower his pride peg (II.), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To fasten with a peg 2 a (Stock Exchange) To keep price of stock steady by buying or selling freely at fixed price, b (financial) to fix prices, values (of currency) &c by regulations &c 3 To indicate by means of pegs on cribbage board B intrans & trans, followed by adverbs and prepositions Peg at, to aim at, strike, with peg away, to keep working constantly, unremittingly Peg down, a to fasten to the ground &c by pegs, b (fig) to restrict, bind down, pin down (to rule, statement, course of action &c) Peg out, 1 trans, a to mark with pegs, stake out (boundary &c), b (croquet) to finish game by striking last peg, 2 intrans, (colloq) a to become exhausted, come to an end, b to die pegamoid, n. [1 pēgamoid, 2 pēgamoid] Invented word An artificial leather.

Pegasus, n. [1 pēgasus, 2 pēgass] Lat Pegasus, fr Gk. Pégaso, fr pēgā, 'fount, spring', etymol unknown, but see beach (I) 1 (Gk. mythol) Winged horse of Bellerophon, sprung from the blood of Medusa, a blow from whose hoofs caused the fountain Hippocrene, sacred to the Muses, to flow on Mt. Helicon. 2 Poetic genius or inspiration pegmatite, n. [1 pēgmait, 2 pēgmait] fr Gk. pēgmata, pēgma, 'something fastened together, bond' See pax. (geol) A coarse crystalline rock, of quartz, feldspar &c, found in veins in granite peg-top, n. peg (I) & top Pear shaped, wooden, spinning-top, with a spike at thin end, peg top trousers, such as were cut broad at the thigh, and tapered rapidly to the ankles peignoir, n. [1 pānwā, 2 pānwā], fr Fr, fr peigner, 'to comb the hair', fr peigne, 'comb', fr Lat pedin(-em), 'comb', see peoten. Woman's loose robe, a dressing-gown perne forte et dure, n. [1 pān fōrt & dūr, 2 pān fōt & dūa] Fr, 'severe and hard punishment' (law) Punishment inflicted upon prisoners who refused to plead, which consisted of pressing them to death under heavy weights pejoration, n. [1 pējōrāshun, 2 pīdžarējēn], fr Lat. pējōr (are), 'to make or grow worse', fr pējor, 'worse', earlier pējōs*, fr pējōs*, cp Lat persumus, 'worse', fr persum, 'downwards, to the ground', wh is for pot* to, fr base pel*, 'to go, fall, fly'. See this under pen (III) & teather Depreciation in meaning of word pejorative, adj & n. [1 pējōrativ, pējōrativ, 2 pīdžerativ, pīdžerativ], fr Lat pējōr (are), 'to make or grow worse' See prec & -ative 1 adj Disparaging, giving a depreciatory sense a pejorative suffix 2 n. Depreciatory word or suffix pelican, n. [1 pēkan, 2 pēkan] Fr pelican, fr N Am Indian name, pēkan A large kind of marten, with valuable blackish brown fur, of N America pekan, n. fr Fr pēkan, fr Chinese Pe k'ang, 'northern capital' 1 [1 pēkin 2 pīan] Kind of silk. 2 (Fr slang) [1 pēkan, 2 pīkē] Civilian, used first by Napoleon's soldiers as term of contempt pekinese, pekinese, n. [1 pēkinēz, 2 pīkinēz] See prec & -ese Small Chinese dog, allied to the pug, with long silky hair, large pendant ears, and bulging eyes

Peking man, n. See Sinanthropus pelote, n. [1 pēkō, pēkō, 2 pēkōv, pīkōv], fr Chinese pēk-ho, fr pēl, 'white', & ho, 'down' Superior kind of black tea, made from young, downy buds of leaves of tea-plant pelage, n. [1 pēl, 2 pīdž] Fr, fr O Fr pel, 'hair', fr Lat pilus, 'hair' See pill (III) & -age Outer coat of quadruped.

Pelagian (I.), adj & n. [1 pēlājan, 2 pēlādžēn], fr Pelagius (us), British monk of 4th cent., who denied doctrine of original sin, & -an.

1 adj Pertaining to Pelagius and his heresy 2 n Follower of Pelagius pelagian (II.), adj & n. fr Lat pelagius (us), 'of the sea', fr pelagius (us), 'the open sea', fr Gk. pelagos, 'open sea, unbroken surface or expanse of sea', fr base p(e)lag*, p(e)lag*, 'to spread out flat', cp Lat plaga, 'hunting net, curtain, region', Gk. pelagos, 'side', see plagal, this base is an extension of p(e)la-, p(e)la-, 'extended', see plain (I), palin (I), & words there referred to 1 adj Of, pertaining to, inhabiting, the open sea, oceanic 2 n Deep-sea animal

Pelagianism, n. [1 pēlājanizm, 2 pēlādžēnizm] Pelagian (I) & -ism The heresy of Pelagius pelagic, adj [1 pēlajik, 2 pēlādžik], fr Lat pelagicus (us), 'of the open sea', fr pelagius (us), 'the open sea' See pelagian (II) & -ic Connected with, inhabiting, the deep sea pelargonium, n. [1 pēlārgōnizm, 2 pēlārgōnizm] Mod. Lat, fr Gk pelargos (us), 'stork', fr pela-*, 'blackish', cp Lath palvas, O Slav plavŭ, O HG falo, 'pale', O E fealo, 'dull-coloured', see fallow (IV), & argos, 'white, clear, brilliant' See argil Genus of plants, with brightly coloured flowers, and strongly scented leaves, often cultivated under name of geranium

Pelasgic, adj [1 pēlāzjik, 2 pēlādžjik], fr Lat Pelasgicus (us) fr Pelagius, Gk Pelagios, prehistoric race of the coasts of Greece and Asia Minor and the Aegean islands Of, relating to, the Pelasgi, Pelasgic architecture, earliest existing form of Greek masonry, consisting of unhewn stones laid without cement pelerine, n. [1 pēlērīn, -ēn, 2 pēlārīn, -īn], fr Fr pelerine, 'tippet', fr fem of pelerin, 'pilgrim', fr O Fr pēligrin, see pilgrum Woman's long, narrow cape or tippet pelf, n. [1 pēlf, 2 pīlf] M.E. pelfer, fr O Fr pelfre, etymol doubtful See pulfer Money, material wealth, usually in disparagement or contempt, and contrasted with more enduring spiritual riches, esp of gains of avarice, supposed to bring no satisfaction to the possessor pelican, n. [1 pēlikan, 2 pēlikan], fr L. Lat pelicanus (us), fr Gk pelikan, 'pelican'; cp Gk pelikāas, 'woodpecker', fr pēlek(-us), 'axe', cp Sert parakās, 'axe', an eastern loan word, cp Babylonian Assyrian pīlakk, 'axe' Large, fish-eating water bird, genus Pelecanus, of many species, found in warm climates, having a long peak below which is a distensible pouch for storing food, formerly fabled to feed its young with blood from its own breast, whence, when represented in heraldry 'wounding' (wounding) itself, it is styled 'a pelican in her piety' pelisse, n. [1 pēlēs, 2 pēlēs] Fr, fr Lat pellis (restis), 'garment of skins, furs', fr pell(-us), 'skin' See pellicle A long cloak, esp one lined with fur, b child's outer coat or cloak, c cape or cloak worn as part of some military uniforms pell, n. [1 pēl, 2 pēl] M.E. fr O Fr pel, 'skin', fr Lat pellis See pellicle A skin or hide, specif a vellum or parchment roll, now obs or hist as Clerk of the Pells, an official of the old Court of Exchequer pellagra, n. [1 pēlāgra, -āgra, 2 pēlāgra, -ēgra] Prob fr Ital pellē, 'skin', & agra, 'rough' A chromo disease, often endemic in certain parts of Italy and elsewhere, caused by a micro organism communicated by the bite of sand flies, the chief symptoms are severe eruptions leading to a drying or mummifying of the skin and severe disturbances of the digestive and nervous systems pellagrous, adj [1 pēlāgrus, āgrus, 2 pēlāgrus, -āgrus] Peer & -ous Connected with, affected with, pellagra pellet (I.), n. [1 pēlet, 2 pēlit], fr Fr pelote, fr Med. Lat pelota, fr Lat pila, 'ball', perh orig 'ball of hair', fr pil(-us), 'hair' See pelliole 1 Small ball rolled up from some soft substance, e.g. bread, wax, paper pennon, n [1 pénnon; 2 pénnon], fr O Fr pennon, prob fr Lat penn-(a), 'feather'. See pen (III). A long, narrow, pointed or swallow-tailed flag, esp military flag of mediaeval knight or of modern regiment of lanciers, heneo, b (in general) flag, ensign pennoned, adj [1 pénunnd, 2 pénunnd]. Proc. & -od Having, displaying, a pennon penn'orth, n [1 pénurth, 2 pénurth] Abbr of pennyworth penny, n [1 péni; 2 péni] OE pening, penig. ME peni, op ON peningr, O Fris penning, OHG. phenning, phenning, Mod Germ pfennig 1 British bronze coin worth $\frac{1}{4}$ of shilling, after numerals abbreviated d (see denarius) Phrs not to have a penny (to bless oneself with), to be very poor, penniless, a pretty penny, a largo sum of money, to turn an honest penny, earn money, in for a penny, in for a pound, thing once undertaken or begun must be completed at whatever cost, (pl) a pennies, number of single coins, b pence, collective pl, always used for sum of money, sixpence &c, Peter's pence, see Peter penny-a-liner, n [1 peni a linor, 2 peni a linor] One paid so much a line for literary work, a writer of cheap, illiterate stuff, esp an inferior journalist who is supposed to pad out his paragraphs with redundancies in order to increase his emoluments penny-a-lining, n [1 péni a linang, 2 péni a linang] Cheap, turgid style of writing, padded out with unnecessary verbiage penny post, n Conveyance of letters at charge of id pennyroyal, n [1 pénuróial, 2 pénuróial] Prob fr earlier pulyol ryal, fr, O, fr pulyol, 'thyme', fr Lat puleiol (um), dimin. of pulegium, 'flea bane, pennyroyal', prob fr Gk bidákhon, 'pennyroyal', etymol unknown, & royal. Aromatic herb of the mint family, with small clustered purple flowers, yielding an essential oil, formerly much used in medicine pennyweight, n [1 péniwät, 2 péniwät] Twentieth part of an ounce troy, 24 grains troy, originally the weight of an old silver penny, abbr dwt penny-wise, adj Saving in small matters, esp in Phr penny wise and pound foolish, economical in little things, lavish in large matters pennywort, n [1 péniwört, 2 péniwört] penny & wort (I) a Wall pennywort, small round-leaved herb of the sedum family, growing on walls &c, b water pennywort, kind of round-leaved herb growing in damp places pennyworth, n [1 péniwarth, 2 péniwäp] Amount that may be bought for a penny Phr a good, bad, pennyworth, a good, bad, bargain penological, adj [1 pénolójikl, 2 pénolójikl] penology & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, penology penologist, n [1 pénolójist, 2 pénolójist] See next word & -ist Student of, one learned in, penology penology, n [1 pénolój, 2 pénolój], fr Lat poena, 'punishment'. See penal & -logy Study of methods of punishment and their bearing on the prevention of crime, study of the management of prisons &c pensile, adj [1 péniel, -sil, 2 pén(a)il], fr Lat pénsil (is), 'hanging down', fr pens (um), P.P. type of pendere, 'to hang', see pendant, & -al (e) 1 Hanging down, suspended, pendulous, 2 (of hard) Building a hanging nest pension (I), n [1 pénshun, 2 pénshun], fr Fr, fr Lat pension (em), 'payment', fr pens (um), P.P. type of pendere, 'to pay', orig 'to hang on the scales, to weigh', hence 'to value, estimate, to give value of', op pensare, 'to hang', & see pendant a Periodic payment made to public servants, officers in army or navy, or to members of any branch of the civil service &c, who have completed their service, or who have resigned office and have relinquished their rights to receive the full payment of their ranks or appointments; b similar payment paid to soldiers and sailors on completion of service, or disablement through wounds &c, a similar payment made by a company, or by private individuals, to persons who have been in their employ for a certain number of years and have retired, a old age pension, weekly payment made to the aged poor by the State pension (II), vb trans, fr proc To grant, pay, pension to Phr pension off, permit to retire from service with a pension pension (III), n [1 pénshun, 2 pénshun] Fr, fr Lat pension (em), 'payment'. See pension (I) Boarding-house, especially one abroad Phr en pension, as boarder paying fixed rate for lodging and meals pensionable, adj [1 pénshunabl, 2 pénshunabl] pension (I) & -able Entitled to, entitling one to, a pension pensionary (I), n [1 pénshunari, 2 pénshunari], fr Mod Lat pensionarius (us) See pension (I) & -ary 1 Recipient of pension, pensioner, 2 Hiring, tool, mercenary 3 (hist) Chief magistrate of a Dutch city &c, Grand Pensionary, title of the president of the council of the Dutch Republic in 17th and 18th cents pensionary (II), adj. pension (I) & -ary Of, relating to, a pension pensioner, n [1 pénshuner, 2 pénshuner] fr O Fr pensionnier, fr Mod Lat pensionarius, 'pensionary'. See pensionary 1 One who receives a pension 2 (obsolete) Hiring, paid tool 3 (Cambridge Univ) Undergraduate paying for his own commons &c, as distinct from a scholar, sizar &c pensionless, adj [1 pénshunles, 2 pénshunles] pension (I) & -less Receiving no pension, not entitling one to a pension pensive, adj. [1 pénshiv, 2 pénshiv], fr Fr, pensiv, -ive, fr penser, 'to think', fr Lat pensare, 'to weigh out, to ponder', fr pens (um), P.P. type of pendere, 'to weigh, pay'. See pension (I) & -ive 1 Immersed in thought, occupied with sad thoughts, wistful 2 Expressing thoughtful sadness a pensive lay pensively, adv Proc & -ly In a pensive manner pensiveness, n See proc & -ness State, quality, of being pensive pentemon, n Erroneous variant of pentstemon pentstock, n [1 pénstok, 2 pénstok] pen (I) & stook 1 sluice, flood-gate 2 Trough conveying water to water-wheel pent, adj [1 pent, 2 pent] Variant of penned, P.P. of pen (II) Shut up, shut in, confined, occupied up. 'Here in the body pent', 'To one who has been long in city pent' (Keats), (gon) pent up pent up in an office all day penta-, prof representing Gk pénte, 'five', op Sort pánte, Lat quinque, see quinque-, Lith. penki; Goth fimf, OE fif, see five Five, e.g. pentachord, a five stringed musical instrument, b scale of five tones, pentadactyl, having five digits on each limb, pentahedron, solid figure bounded by five plane faces, pentameter, composed of five similar parts, esp (bot) having the corolla divided into five parts, pentapody, verse measure of five feet, pentastich, five lined stanza, pentatonic, consisting of five notes &c pentacle, n [1 péntakl, 2 péntakl], fr Mod Lat pentaculum, prob. for penta- & -oule Symbolic figure used in magic, esp a pentagram pentad, n [1 péntad, 2 péntad], fr Gk péntad, atom of penis, 'group of five', fr pénit, 'five', see penta- 1 a The number five, b group or series of five things 2 Period of five years pentagon, n [1 péntagun, 2 péntagun] penta- & -gon Plane figure with five sides and angles pentagonal, adj [1 péntagunl, 2 péntagunl] Proc & -al Of, having the form of, a pentagon pentagram, n [1 péntagun, 2 péntagun] penta- & -gram Five-pointed star formed by producing the sides of a pentagon until they meet, used as magic symbol pentameter, n [1 péntameter, 2 péntameter] Lat pentameter, fr Gk pentamētros penta- & -meter (Lat and Gk prosody) Line of five feet, divided into two halves, of which the first may be dactylic or spondaic, while the second must contain two dactyls, used alternatively with the hexameter in elegiac verse pentane, n [1 péntān, 2 péntān], penta- & -ano Hydrocarbon, as gas or volatile liquid, of paraffin series, found in petroleum Pentateuch, n [1 péntatūkh, 2 péntatūkh], fr Lat, fr Gk pentateukh (os), 'consisting of five books', fr penta- & teukh, 'tool, vessel, book', op teukheia, 'to fashion, make, construct', cogn w Goth Prei Pres dāg, OE dæg, 'it is suitable, it avails'. First five books of Old Testament pentateuchal, adj. [1 péntatūkh, 2 péntatūkh] Proc & -al Of, pertaining to, forming, the Pentateuch pentathlon, n [1 péntatēlon, 2 péntatēlon] Gk, fr penta- & athlon, 'contest', see athletic a (Gk antiq) An athletic contest, at the Olympic and other games, in which each competitor took part in five events, leaping, foot-race, wrestling, and throwing the discus and javelin, b similar contest in the modern Olympic games

Pentecost, n [1 péntekost, 2 péntekost], fr Rookes Lat, fr Gk Pentekostē, Pentecost, fr pentekostē, 'fiftieth', fr pentēkonta, 'fifty', fr penta- & konta, 'ten', in numerals, op Lat (viginti), 'twenty', fr ei knt-, Aryan base kmt-, kmt-*, 'ten', q v under hundred, cent 1 Jewish harvest festival, fifty days after the Passover 2 Whitsunday pentecostal, adj [1 péntekostl, 2 péntekostl] Proc & -al Of, relating to, occurring at, Pentecost penthouse, n [1 pént hōus, 2 pént hōus] Popularly formed variant of next word 1 Sloping roof attached to wall of building &c and forming a shelter 2 Any projecting shelter, canopy &c penitence, n [1 pénitas, 2 pénitas] ME penitis, fr O Fr apénit, fr L Lat apēndicium, 'appendage', fr appendicium, stem of appendix, appendage, addition, see appendix (arabae) Penthouse penistemon, n [1 pénistēmon, 2 pénistēmon] penta- & Gk stēmon, 'warp in upright loom, thread', q v under stemon (bot) Genus of hardy herbaceous plants with pendulous, red, blue, or pink flowers penult, adj & n [1 pénult, 2 pénult] Abbr fr next word Penultimate penultimate, adj & n [1 pénultimat, 2 pénultimat], fr Lat paene, 'almost', see peninsular, & ultimate a adj Last but one, b n, last syllable but one in a word penumbra, n [1 pénumbra, 2 pénumbra], fr Lat paene, 'almost', see peninsula, & umbra 1 Partially shaded region bordering on completely shadowed area, esp round region of total eclipse of sun or moon 2 Border round dark central part of sunspot 3 (in paint) Border line between light and shade penumbral, adj [1 pénumbrel, 2 pénumbrel] Proc & -al Of, pertaining to, a penumbra penurious, adj [1 pénurius, 2 pénurius] penury & -ous 1 Poor, yielding little, scanty 2 Parsimonious, mean, stingy penuriously, adv. Proc & -ly In a penurious manner penuriousness, n See proc & -ness State or quality of being penurious penury, n [1 pénuri, 2 pénuri], fr Lat pénuria, 'want, scarcity', op Gk penia, 'poverty, want', peina, 'hunger'. See penitent & patient a State of extreme poverty, want, destitution; b scarcity, wantiness, lack pen-wiper, n [1 pén wíper, 2 pén waipa] Small object for wiping ink from pens, usually consisting of a bundle of small pieces of cloth and wash leather peon, n [1 péon, 2 plón] Span, 'labourer', a variant of pawu (1) 1 (Span 8 Am and Mexico) a Agricultural labourer, specif b debtor working for creditor, criminal hired out and employed as labourer 2 (India, obs) a Foot soldier, b native policeman, c native orderly, footman &c.

peonage, n [1. péonj, 2 plónj] Prec & -age 1 Service, occupation, of peons 2 Employment of peons, as labourers, system under which this form of forced labour is carried on peony, n [1 péum, 2 pláni] fr O Fr peonie, fr Lat paedonia, fr Gk paedonia, 'peony', fr Paedon, physician of the gods See paedan Genus of shrubby plants with large, single or double, crimson, pink, or white flowers

